ST. JAMES SUNDAY SCHOOL PRESENT WHITE GIFTS

Last Friday evening, commencing at 7.45 o'clock sharp, the scholars of St. James' Sunday School held a White Gift entertainment in St. James Hall. The children of the Sunday School instead of having a Christmas Tree this year, from which they would receive a gift, decided on their own initiative to forego this treat and in lieu of it to hold a white gift entertainment and present it on the tree for the benefit of the starving millions in China. The children by so doing have clearly demonstrated that they realize and appreciate the fact that if it is more generous to give than to receive, and they are to be highly congratulated on the beautiful spirit, which prompted them to assist in this most worthy object of helping the poor and needy in China.

The training of the children was under the guidance of several of the lady Sunday School teachers, who are also to be congratulated on the efficient and pleasing manner in which the programme was conducted. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance, with Rev. L. H. MacLean, the pastor, of St. James' Church as chairman. The stage was beautifully decorated and the two Christmas trees, which were placed on the stage to receive the gifts were tastefully arranged. The interesting programme was carried through in a delightful manner and each number was loudly applauded. To Edwin Russell, the speech of the evening must be attributed, who in a neat little speech told the children's parents that what the Sunday School children needed was the cooperation of all the parents.

Miss Margaret McCurdy very acceptably accompanied the musical numbers of the programme, while Miss Ann Cassidy accompanied the Drill given by eight girls of the School Department. The entertainment opened by the singing of the hymn, "O come all ye faithful," after which the following programme was rendered.

SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

Ask for a catalogue of phonograph records and you will find that there is one song that stands out far above all of the rest for the greatest number of records. And what is this? Some song about 'a girl and a boy' or 'jazzig round' or a 'tune to the moon'? None of these, but the good old favorite, SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD.

That famous old ballad has the all distanced as far as popularity with the older, and the present generation of music lovers. And now Silver Threads has been made into a play, and has proved equally as popular as its famous namesake. Silver Threads is a rural comedy drama, and among its featured players are the famous Lee Children, those artistic juveniles of the screen. Silver Threads will take you back to the times when you went in the straw rides, to the barn dances and the husking bees. When your mother was your sweetheart—than whom you'll never find a truer. It is a picture that will bring out the best that is in you, but will not preach to you. You'll have a great deal of comedy, and you'll shed a tear or two. You'll be thrilled and interested every moment that the picture is being shown. During the action of the photoplay, John Morrison, sweet singer, will sing Silver Threads and I Wore You and I wore Young Maggie, and you'll say when he is finished that there never were finer songs latter sung. And after Mr. Morrison finishes singing with the picture, he will present his original comedy with songs, for which he carries a special production, and in which he is supported by Miss Elsie Clifton. The attraction will be seen here Tuesday Jan. 25th at the Happy Hour.

by Margaret Thompson, and chorus of 30 scholars.

Jack Pine Suitable For Paper Making

The prodigal waste of taking out one kind of wood from a mixed forest and leaving the remainder to be destroyed by fire, wind or decay has brought about a shortage of supplies which compels the use of substitutes for the woods once considered essential. The search for substitutes has in many instances, revealed the fact that the substitutes are sometimes, not only equally as good, but are better than the original kind. A case in point is found in the manufacture of newsprint. Not many years ago, spruce was considered the only wood that could be used for this purpose. Gradually, and with much opposition, balsam was admitted in mixture with spruce, until now it is accepted in practically unlimited quantities.

We now find the despised jack pine suggested as a substitute for spruce, and the research departments of several of the progressive pulp and paper organizations have established the fact that it is quite feasible to use jack pine in either the sulphite or groundwood processes of paper manufacture.

At the instance of the Wayamack Pulp & Paper Co., Ltd., of Three Rivers, Arthur D. Little, Inc., carried on some investigations in their laboratories. They report that the fibres of jack pine are longer than the fibres of spruce, and that the amount of fats, resins and waxes, hitherto assumed to be prejudicial is not sufficient to preclude its use as sulphite pulp. It appears to require, however, a stronger acid and a longer cooking than other species, and must, therefore, be manufactured separately. In the mechanical or groundwood process, it is claimed that it will make just as good, if not better, pulp than any on the market.

The use of Jack pine for this purpose will materially prolong the productive life of the pulp and paper industry in Canada. Though there is as yet very little reliable information on which to base an estimate of the amount of jack pine in eastern Canada, it is thought that it would probably furnish not less than 60,000,000 cords of pulpwood, in the Prairie Provinces, there is perhaps twice the amount, and in British Columbia there is over 20,000,000 cords of lodgepole pine, which will reach merchantable size in a comparative short time. Much of this wood, no doubt, will be used for ties and lumber, but there will still remain a very considerable amount for pulp. The utilization of the jack pine as pulpwood will facilitate the exploitation of the spruce and other species in places where there is not sufficient of the latter alone to warrant logging

NERVES ALL GONE TO PIECES

"Fruit-a-tives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, GILBERT PLAINS, MAN. "In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; dropping from 170 to 115 pounds. The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives". I began to mend almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without "Fruit-a-tives" in the house". JAS. S. operations, and it should greatly reduce the waste at present incident to the production of heavy ties. Jack pine possesses many qualities which recommend it as a continuous forest crop. It is extremely hard and will grow on the poorest soils, if not too wet, and is usually sound. It produces more profitably than any other conifer in eastern Canada, as is evidenced by the way it has replaced the original stands of white pine or spruce in many places, following cutting over. It grows rapidly and under natural conditions will attain pulpwood size in a shorter time than spruce or balsam.

Many other kinds of wood, including poplar, birch and hemlock, can be used in the pulp and paper industry, and it is hoped that further research will result in a more general utilization for this purpose.

Lumbermen Object To High Freight

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The thirteenth annual convention of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association opened today for a two-day session with an attendance of 150 to the 175 members of the association. An address was given by President Dan McLachlan, of Arapahoe, who expressed doubt as to whether the price of lumber would materially decrease for a considerable time, chiefly on account of high freight rates and because present production for various reasons is away below the pre-war record.

The board of railway commissioners came in for a great deal of criticism.

Various speakers charged that it was unfair to the lumbermen that the personnel of the board did not include the right type of men, that rate increases were allowed almost automatically without the lumbermen being properly notified and that the usefulness of the railway board was past because of the fact that Canada now owned half of the railroads.

A joint international commission for railway problems affecting both countries was suggested.

J. B. Stewart said that the increased freight rates had brought to an end the shipping of lumber in Canada.

Great Saving In Coal Consumption

The mild weather enjoyed so far this season has provided a blessing in more ways than one. Its benefits have been well defined in each and every home where coal is consumed. Coal dealers report there has been a decided falling off in coal orders as compared with last year and the price is lower. Just to what extent the mild weather has affected a saving in coal cannot be determined now, as those who usually stock up in the fall are not, as a rule, called upon to replenish their supply until February. The consensus of opinion among dealers, however, is that the mild weather this season has caused at least a saving of one third in coal consumption. This opinion is based on the orders received from those who buy from month to month, or a ton at a time. They are of the opinion that many who filled their bins in the early fall have made equally as good a saving as it has not been necessary to purchase their furnaces to capacity.

Fortunate For Public

One dealer says: "It has been a fortunate thing for the public that mild weather has prevailed. There has been a shortage in the supply. Because of the high cost of coal many dealers did not stock up to capacity, as they expected a drop at anytime. If the weather had been cold and severe like last year, the demand would probably have been greater than the supply would have taken care of. The general trade depression, which has caused a high unemployment, has probably caused some consumers of coal to exercise greater care in its use."

Expect Prices to Drop

There is a very slow movement on coal and lower prices are imminent, according to one dealer, but not much change can be expected before five weeks.

There is every reason to expect lower prices on soft coal. Many of the manufacturers having closed down their plants it is throwing an extra supply of soft coal on the market and the general householder will reap the benefit. The miners are now easing up a little on their prices. Most of the mines were tied up by arrangements made last fall and did not expect the slump in the industrial world. The mines are easing down on their output on account of the high wages they are paying. Many of them, it is said, will make a new start reducing wages and the price reduction must necessarily follow.

A Quick Relief for Headache

A headache is frequently caused by badly digested food; the gases and acids resulting therefrom are absorbed by the blood which in turn irritates the nerves and causes painful symptoms called headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup will correct faulty digestion and afford relief.

Chatham Curlers Have Defaulted

Fredericton, Jan. 12.—Notification reached the Fredericton Curling Club today that Chatham, N. B., have defaulted and will not play their scheduled game at Halifax today for the McLellan Cup, indicative of the curling championship of the Maritime Provinces. Under the rules Fredericton's date to play for the McLellan Cup was thus set forward a week to January 19th. Official of the Fredericton club declared this morning that it would be impossible to get satisfactory rink together to play for the cup on the date now allotted.

BANFF'S FAMOUS CARNIVAL

Preparations are already being made for the annual carnival to be held at Banff amidst the glories of the Canadian Pacific Rockies. Banff is ideally situated for winter sports and this season the dates have been fixed from January 29th to February 8th inclusive. The Secretary writes that the programme is to be considerably extended. He says: "Our Ski Hill has now been completed in accordance with the suggestions made by the world's champion, Anders Haugen of Brocton, Minn., and we are confident that a new world's record will be established on our Hill this Carnival. We have decided to offer a substantial cash prize to the man who can beat the present world's record and to supplement this cash prize with a further prize of $10.00 for every foot or portion of a foot by which the record is broken on our hill. We will also follow the same principle in connection with the amateur championship only in that case the inducement or reward will be in the shape of an especially attractive prize. We have at the present time four different jumps so that we will be in a position to stage competitions in all classes of this very spectacular and hair-raising sport.

"We expect that ladies hockey will be a very important factor in our sports this season. We have already been advised that the ladies of Vancouver under the leadership of Mr. Frank Patrick, of professional hockey fame, expect to compete. The Regents, the Champions of Western Canada, of Calgary, the Pacifica also of Calgary, a team from Edmonton, a team from Vulcan, Alberta, and perhaps teams from Winnipeg and Ottawa are all expected to be on hand and compete with Vancouver and Ottawa for the Championship of Canada. A very elaborate trophy together with ten very attractive and costly prizes will in all probability be announced a little later in connection with this event.

"An ice palace will be constructed on a basis far more extensive than anything heretofore attempted and the resident engineer of the Dominion Government is now at work preparing the plans for same. We expect this palace when illuminated will be a view that will long live in the memories of those who will be fortunate enough to witness and see it. The palace will be stormed at different times during the Carnival by representatives of all the different sports indulged in, and it is expected that the fire works display on these occasions will be most interesting.

"Special attention will again be given to art and fancy skating and competition in these items on our programme promise to be very interesting. The Connaught Skating Club of Vancouver with a membership of almost three hundred, has written saying that the Club will be well represented and if we could be assured of some entries from Eastern Canada and the States together with the assured entries we will have from Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton and Saskatoon this feature of our programme would be one of the biggest events ever attempted in Canada. Application will be made to the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada to have all these contests representative of the Canadian Championship.

during the War

YOU wondered—everybody wondered, and practically nobody knew how Edison "did his bit." At last the official announcement is out! Come in and get your copy of the bulletin: "What Did Edison Do During the War?"—or write, if you can't call. It tells what Edison did while Chairman of the Naval Consulting Board—how he spent months at sea, experimenting and inventing devices for foiling the German submarines. The bulletin also tells how Edison stood the gaff and kept the price of the New Edison down to bed-rock during the era of high costs and soaring prices. The New Edison has increased in price (in the United States) less than 15% since 1914—part of this increase is war tax. The bulletin also tells Mr. Edison's views on our Budget Plan which makes the New Edison easy to buy.

The United States And The League Of Nations

In an article in The World's Work from the pen of Henry M. Morgenthau, the able former American Ambassador to Turkey, entitled "Our New Relation to the League of Nations," after a most interesting allegorical introduction, there follows a question: "What is the sound basis of the League in reason; and what is the practical way to make it work?"

This is his interesting answer: "First, I should say, there is a reason in history and evolution and humanity for America to enter the League of Nations. Those who would have us maintain a 'splendid isolation' overlook one of the noblest attributes of man, which is also one of the outstanding traits of American character. I mean gratitude. The world, indeed, needs many things which America alone can give it. But does not America owe that same world a debt of gratitude for most of its own inheritance? Whence came our boasted liberties, but from our British ancestors who were for us the Magna Carta and the writ of Habeas Corpus? Whence did we get the glorious ideal of the equality of man which was the inspiration of our revolution, but from the French philosopher Rousseau first dreamed it? History tells us, too, of that great struggle, not only to the fleeing Lafayette but also to the Polish patriot Kosciuszko, and to the German drillmaster Steuben, who set their swords to us.

Think of our debt to the Old World in the arts. The architecture of the Washington Monument is borrowed from Egypt; the beautiful Lincoln Memorial, by which we express our reverence for the Great Emancipator, came from Greece, the Capitol at Washington, the symbol of our free institutions, reveals our debt to Rome. Our operas come from Italy and Germany and France; the songs we sing our children to sleep with come from the British Isles. Shakespeare moulded the very tongue in which we speak; and our most profitable inner processes of thought and reason follow rules laid down by Plato, Aristotle, Kant, Hegel, Bacon. Gutenberg gave us the printing press, a Scotchman gave us steam, a Swede dynamite, a Chinaman the compass, a Jew the prevailing religion. Certainly, as Tennyson sang, America is "the heir of all the ages, in the foremost files of time."

Surely we cannot be indifferent to the distress of our kinsmen overseas. I have seen them in their sorrow born of the late war. Children hungry, women borne down with anxiety and grief, men gaunt and desperate for remunerative work. All look to us for aid—not merely the aid of money, food, and the materials of labor, but more for the spiritual energy to renew the processes of life.

What of the practical means? Now that the Republicans have won and the entire responsibility of a nation is upon them, they are taking stock of their own future, and in this process, I am sure, they will find ways to express in legislation the deep aspiration of the country—nowhere more sincere or more profound than in the ranks of the Republican Party itself—for a working arrangement for our entrance into the League of Nations. Mr. Root's recent work for a permanent Court of International Justice is a step upon this path. Mr. Taft's association with the League forces in Europe is a point of departure for further efforts. Among the Republican Senators are able men who, however determined they were that we should not enter a League on Mr. Wilson's terms, are nevertheless, I am sure, equally determined that we shall not be kept out of the League on other terms; and they can help to find the means to accomplish that purpose.

In any event, by some means, we must accomplish it. Our own salvation, no less than that of Europe, is at stake in the League of Nations. In determining our course of action—our gratitude to our brethren in Europe, Asia, and Africa, the descendants of the peoples who gave us all we have—should be supplemented by our own deep sense of duty as one of the present Trustees of Civilization, and by our deep consideration and love for our own future generations. We must bequeath to them a broadened horizon, a spirit of tolerance, a reputation for Samaritanism—and the Crusaders—a reputation that, when our test came, we not only were not found wanting but also did our full duty—voluntarily and not under compulsion.

So looking both backwards and forward it is our task to assist as effectively as we can in a sane, evolutionary reconstruction of the war-stricken peoples.

Your Grocer Is Not A Profiteer

Have a heart! Your grocer is not a profiteer! He is passing along to you reduced prices, as fast or faster than they come to him. Just because prices on many good things are still high, don't blame him. It is usually the poorest quality of everything that shows the greatest decline. If he is as good a man as the average, your grocer is still doing his utmost to give you the best value for your money. But don't push him too hard. He is only human. You don't know, but we do, that he is recommending goods that pay him less profit than other well known brands which he might easily persuade his customers to take if he cared to do so. We know this because he pays us more for Red Rose Tea and sells it at less profit than other teas, so when he recommends you to buy Red Rose Tea, you will know it is because he believes it the best and is willing to take a little less profit for the sake of giving you the best value he can. We are publishing this because we believe the more our people know of the true facts concerning the profits made by those they deal with, the more generous they will be in their judgments.—T. H. Estabrooks Co., Ltd., St. John, N. B.

N. B. Federation Of Labor Concludes Sessions

St. John, N. B., Jan 12—The New Brunswick Federation of Labor finished its labors here this afternoon and the delegates were tendered a banquet this evening by the Local Trades and Labor Council. The question of unemployment was discussed today. A communication was read from the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress re unemployment advising the taking advantage of temporary relief by municipal authorities of which Dominion provides one third and provinces are urged to do likewise but also to press upon all public bodies to undertake public works of all kinds, such as building, sewerage, road works, clearing of land etc., paying proper wages and eliminating overtime as much as possible and that measurers should be taken to cope effectively with future unemployment.

It was the unanimous opinion of the convention that labor should take an active part in municipal, provincial and federal politics. It was deemed expedient to have its candidates in the field or give its solid support to those candidates who best represent its aims and ambitions.

The following officers were elected or re-elected for the ensuing year:
Pres.—J. E. Tige, St. John, by acclamation.
First Vice-Pres.—E. C. Barry, Fredericton.
Second Vice Pres.—Jos. J. Anderson, Newcastle.
Third Vice Pres.—H. M. Landry, Moncton.
Sec'y.—G. J. Melvin, St. John, N. B.

Chatham Doctor Dies Following Brief Sickness

Chatham, N. B., Jan 12—One of Chatham's oldest and most highly respected citizens and one of the best known physicians on the North Shore passed away at the Hotel Dieu Hospital this morning in the person of Dr. J. McGregor Baxter, after a short illness. He was 76 years of age, and was the last member of his family in this country, one sister, Mrs. Simpson, of Chicago, surviving.

Dr. Baxter had been a resident here for many years, and for the past twelve years had been quarantine officer for the port of Miramichi, having been appointed to this office on the death of the late John McDonald.

Public Spirited Citizen

He was a public spirited citizen and always manifested a deep interest in all things that tended for the betterment of his fellows or the public in general. Talented, high principled, charitable, scholarly and of a most genial disposition he will be greatly missed by a wide circle of friends. The Miramichi Natural History Society will also miss his never ceasing activities, and it has been largely due to his efforts that this society has been so successful in assembling such an interesting and comprehensive museum. He took a lifelong interest in military affairs and was for many years medical officer attached to the 73rd Northumberland Regiment. His remains were removed to the residence of Hugh McDonald, Church street, and the funeral was held Friday afternoon.

Fine New Hotel At Blackville

The new Blackville hotel was formally opened to the public Thursday Jan. 6th, and to mark the occasion a splendid turkey supper was served to a large number of invited guests. An orchestra added much to the event and after supper were concluded speeches were made by Rev. George A. Grant of Blackville and Rev. Fr. Murdock of Renous, appreciative of the occasion and the new enterprise.

As it is well known, Mr. Archie Alcorn is the builder of the hotel and erected it for the convenience of the travelling public so that they might have a first class comfortable home while in Blackville. Mr. James Stewart of the Curtis Hotel Grand Falls, is manager, and with him at the head the service will be of the best.

Was Just About All In When They Urged Him to Try Tanlac—Now Feels Like Old Self

"I'm only too glad to tell you what I think about Tanlac. This is the (cure) bottle I have bought and if it wasn't doing good I wouldn't be using my time on it, said Charles Neel, of 31 Meadow St., St. John, N. B.

"When I returned from overseas my digestion was so upset I couldn't eat a thing scarcely without suffering the worst kind of distress and pain afterwards. After every meal I had a heavy feeling like I had swallowed a lump of lead, and my food would sour and blot me up till I was in perfect misery. I also had such pains in the back I could hardly get around and could sleep so little on this account I often heard the clock strike every hour of the night I was tired and weary all the time and in fact became so run down I was just about all in when I started on Tanlac.

"When my friends saw that a terrible shape I was in they urged me to try Tanlac, and it has made a new man of me. By the time I had taken two bottles my stomach was in fine condition and I could eat anything I wanted and never suffer the least ill effects. I have gained ten pounds in weight and am so much stronger I can do as much work in one day as I used to be able to do in two. I am no longer bothered with pains in the back, I sleep like a log all night and get up in the mornings feeling ready for a good day's work."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J. Morris, in Redbank by Wm M. Sullivan and in Doaktown by O. Hildebrand.

Says Canadians Must Curb Their Spending Habits

Toronto Jan. 11—A call for sanity of action to meet the exceptional and not encouraging outlook for the coming year was sounded by Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at the annual meeting of that institution today. Sir Edmund, after a detailed review of trade and industrial conditions summed up his address with the following:

"Among the lights and shadows of the world there are at the moment too many shadows to warrant anything but anxious care. You have heard from the general manager the results of the best year the bank has ever had and thus far we have not had much evidence of a decline in the hard times that are ahead of us. We know, however, that here, as elsewhere, all prices whether of commodities or of labor must be reduced to a more reasonable basis, and the effect of the world's lower price for farm products is already plain to all. When this readjustment has reached the retail shop and a new basis of values has been generally accepted, a genuine prosperity will arise throughout the world in which we shall have a large share. We shall merit and we shall secure that prosperity in proportion to our good sense in realizing how that our particular sin is extravagant expenditure and willingness to incur debt."

Sir Edmund Walter, spared none in his address. He pointed out the immediate necessity of correcting our trade and flayed certain existing taxation.

This afternoon immediate relief was given to the hundreds of men out of work by the association. Several of the larger produce firms sent generous contributions of food.

Ford Plant Still Idle

Windsor, Ont., Jan 11—Wallace R. Campbell, acting general manager, of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, said today that there would be no change in the operating status of the plant during the present month. Mr. Campbell declared that rumors regarding a reopening at full time were untrue.

Moncton, Jan. 11—The superintendent of the local office of the Dominion employment service tonight reported to the city council that he had had 250 applications for work the past week which he could not fill. The city council will memorialize the Dominion government for a new post office for Moncton to relieve the unemployment situation.

The Progress of Manitoba

(1) On the left the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg, and on the right a portion of the C. P. R. Station Building (2) Fort Garry, Winnipeg—A plate on the wall, presented by Winnipeg Canadian Club, tells its story.

There is an Indian legend of a race of people who dwelt upon the Canadian Prairies before the Red Men came, but why they vanished or who they were no man knows. Vanish they did and their place was taken by wandering tribes of Indians who hunted and fished, built their wigwams and their camp-fires, told their wild legends and smoked their peace-pipes for many a generation before the foot of the white men ever yielded the plains that were their heritage.

The first discoverer of Manitoba was the ill-fated Henry Hudson, exactly 310 years ago. Others followed in his steps. Presently came the adventurer, de Grosseillier, who after spying out the land, went back to England, where, with Radisson, his companion, and under the auspices of Prince Rupert, he obtained large grants of land from Charles II, and formed that Hudson's Bay Company which was destined to play so great a part in the future history of Canada. During the one hundred odd years that intervened between that time and 1912, the story of the Hudson's Bay Company is the story of Manitoba. The years are filled with its treaties with the Indians, its feuds with rival companies and its usurpation of all the trade of the vast country over which it ruled, for the most part beneficently. Of its rivals the most important was the North-West Fur Company. Bitter was the contest between these two companies and many a skirmish was fought between bands of their adherents, until about 1817 the two companies were united and peace followed.

Early in 1812, however, Lord Selkirk, after buying a controlling interest in the stock of the Hudson's Bay Company, obtained from it a grant in fee simple of 118,000 square miles of Red River territory, between the present international boundaries and Lakes Winnipeg and Winnipegosis. This land he proceeded to colonize with settlers from the Scottish Highlands. The Colony grew and flourished. About 1830 the population of Red River was 1,500. In 1835 the Council of Assiniboia was organized to govern the colony and Fort Garry (now Winnipeg) was built.

From this time on the history of Manitoba is one of growing prosperity, broken only by the Riel rebellions of 1869 and 1885. To Sir Edmund Head, Governor-General of Canada in 1861, is due the fact that Manitoba was confederated into the Dominion. In 1869 the Hudson's Bay Company, of which he was a director, transferred back to England, in consideration of a sum of £300,000, the lands which it had received from her some two hundred years before. England transferred the territories and the debt of $15,000,000 to the young Dominion of Canada and on June 17th, 1870, Manitoba became a Province of that Dominion, taking her place among her sisters under the Lieutenant-Governorship of Adams G. Archibald. In 1871 she elected her first Premier, Hon. H. J. Clark.

Manitoba has always been a great cattle raising province. But besides this she possesses many other sources of wealth. In the valuable area now known as Northern Manitoba she has mineral deposits of great value, water powers to develop immense power, fisheries capable of yielding large returns, fur bearing animals innumerable and much good land available for the hardier crops. The climate in this northern part of Manitoba is extreme but healthy. Up to 1870 the history of education in Manitoba is largely written in the heroic efforts of the Church, both Catholic and Protestant. In the beginning of the Provincial era there were 33 parish schools in operation, but in 1876 the number of schools had grown to 53. Last year there were 3,200 teachers and 115,000 pupils in the public and high schools of the Province.

It is a far cry from the old trading post of Fort Garry to the big, modern city of Winnipeg. Fifty years ago this city was a mere village of only a couple of hundred people. Main Street was only a prairie trail. There was no school, no railway or telegraph connection with the outer world; no banks, except that the Hudson's Bay Company accepted deposits and issued paper money of its own; and property owners paid no taxes. But after 1870 the place began to grow. Three years afterwards, it had a population of over 2,000, and in 1874 it became an incorporated city, with F. R. Cornish, a lawyer, as first Mayor.

In 1880 the building of the C.P.R. east and west from Winnipeg was begun and in 1885 the first through train from Montreal arrived in the city. Now the C.P.R. freight yards at Winnipeg are the largest in the world. Winnipeg's growth became steady and solid. In the period just before the war Winnipeg's population had increased to 183,378 and her aggregate industrial production for the year 1918 was $62,000,000. She is now the third city in Canada and the little colony, begun by Radisson and his fellow adventurers, is now a great and flourishing part of the wide Dominion, whose confines stretch from sea to sea and whose name is known in all lands.—From the Manitoba Free Press.

The Business Stabilizer

A year or two ago the manufacturer was swamped with business.

Today his orders are being cancelled, his prices are dropping, his mills—in many cases—shutting down.

What is the trouble? Uncertainty. Unsteady markets. Lack of confidence on the part of buyers. Lack of courage in the man who sells.

Business is shaky. But business can be made good. Business can always be good when it is gone after in the right way.

It needs courage. And confidence. And vision. It needs, above all else, the great business stabilizer—

ADVERTISING.

Advertising that restores public confidence. Advertising that creates demand, increases production, and keeps the wheels humming. Advertising that steadies markets. Advertising that Stabilizes.

For the past few years advertising has often been used as a spectacular plaything. Today it is a grim necessity. The time to splurge has passed. The time to use it sanely, steadily, consistently has come.

Advertise. But advertise wisely—where expense is minimized; where business can be developed to the highest point of activity.

In Quebec two aeroplanes are in operation for the forest patrol system are defrayed by that government. The use of the aeroplane for forest fire detection and topographical work has proved entirely satisfactory throughout the province of Quebec, and in view of the vast pulpwood limits situated in New Brunswick, it is believed an aerial forest patrol service would be to advantage. Bad Music Worse Than Measles

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Sir Hugh Allen, principal of the Royal College of Music, is ready to play a barrel organ in Whitechapel in order to educate the children up to good music.

"Bad music is far worse than the measles and a much more serious disease," was the dictum of an address he delivered to a London conference of the incorporated society of musicians. Infinite time and patience he said were spent in teaching children music and then they were allowed to go about and run the risk of hearing "beastly tunes" to vitiate their taste and to wipe out what they had learned.

To educate the children without educating the parents, he said, was like trying to carry water in a bucket with a hole in it. He would have a school which parents should attend compulsorily until they could detect one good tune out of a lot of bad ones and give a reason for liking jazz music in preference to folk songs or cance tunes. Sir Hugh said that he would be quite ready to take a barrel organ down to Whitechapel, where he was sure that the children would read by dance tunes, good tunes rather than the "filth" supplied to them. Intervened afterward, he said:

"I only wish that somebody would start a society to send barrel organs about the streets, for if we are to have a musical millennium we must be surrounded with good music. Many of the comic songs one hears to-day make a musician feel hot and cold all over. It is not that the pantomimes and the cinemas are alone to blame; for even the churches are rife with free form criticism, with their spangly, vapid hymn tunes."

NEW YORK COMMENT
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The New York Evening Globe says editorially today under the caption "Lydian Aids": "There should be sympathy for Sir Hugh Allen, principal of the Royal College of Music, who is willing to carry a barrel organ down to Whitechapel and supply good music for the youngsters' dances in place of the jazz now furnished. He phrases the indictment aptly when he says, 'Bad music is more catching than measles and a much more serious disease.' Of all disintegrating social influences there is none to compare with the barbaric suggestion of the rhythms that flood the modern dance floor. The more re-

How to be Healthy During The Winter
Many Troubles May be Avoided if the Blood is Kept Pure

Do not let your blood get thin this winter. For people who have a tendency towards anemia, or bloodlessness, winter is a trying season. Lack of exercise, lack of fresh air, and a more restricted diet are among the things that combine to lower the tone of the body and weaken the blood.

As soon as you notice the tired feeling, lack of appetite and shortness of breath that are warning symptoms of thin blood, take a short course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Do not wait until the color has entirely left your cheeks, until your lips are white and your eyes are dull. It is so much easier to correct thinning of the blood in the earlier stages than later. This is well illustrated in the case of Mr. B. M. Day, Newcastle Bridge, N. B., who says: "From my own experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I can most heartily recommend them. Some time ago I was badly run down and my blood seemed thin and watery, accompanied by the usual symptoms of this condition. A friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking several boxes I felt like a new man."

On Snowshoes, Skis and Skates in Old Quebec

With the object of making Quebec the leading winter sport city on this continent, a very attractive and varied programme of matches, races and competitions, some of international character, has been arranged for the season of 1921, and visitors to this beautiful city will have a wonderful opportunity of witnessing or participating in a giddy round of ski-races, hockey games, snowshoe tramps, curling matches, skating events, indoor and outdoor festivities and entertainments all in a historic setting without parallel in North America.

The Chateau Frontenac which is the traditional social centre of the city has co-operated heartily by the contribution not only of a triple toboggan slide—a sheltered skating rink within the spacious corridors of the hotel, and a curling rink in the Palm Court, but also of a cup for competition between local amateur hockey clubs of the city and of prizes for competition between the ski-clubs and snowshoe clubs.

The whole city with its hilly streets, its fine public rinks, its beautiful park on the Plains of Abraham, its proximity to quaint old French Canadian villages and natural scenery of spectacular beauty such as Montmorency Falls, its atmosphere of hospitality and gaiety and charm, offers to those who love to tramp on snowshoes or glide on skis, or hurtle down on toboggans or drive, wrapped in furs, to the jungle of sleigh-bells a choice of outdoor winter recreation such as would be difficult to rival.

The population of Quebec revels in its glorious winter, from the cradle to the grave. Hardly can the Quebec child toddle than it takes to snowshoes and very soon after that you find it on skates or on a toboggan or on skis. As the years pass he or she joins a club and plays hockey, and many with the approach of maturity learn to wield the broom and the curling stone and "sober her up." A dog sleigh is a step on the ladder to a sleigh driven by a fast trotter.

Winter Sport is thus native to Quebec, and the guest at the Chateau will quickly find himself infected by the spirit of the place. The snowshoe clubs extend their invitations to their outings and plan to hold many of their outings on Dufferin Terrace, just at the Chateau doors. A big curling bonspiel is scheduled for this season, in which teams from many points in both Canada and the United States will participate. Within the hotel there will be indoor golf, billiards, music and an excellent floor for dancing. The convenience of having both a skating rink and a curling rink actually within the Chateau walls need only be mentioned to be appreciated, while the toboggan slide on Dufferin Terrace and a ski-jump are within less than two hundred yards of the door of the hotel.

China to Make Cement.
The cement requirements of North China will probably soon be supplied by domestic production. One large concern is said to control this industry in North China, and its plant is located at Tangshan, a small town about 100 miles northeast of Tientsin, on the Peking-Mukden railway. It is equipped with modern machinery, and secures its supply of limestone on the site of the works.

LOOK TO SARDINIA FOR CORK

World Turning to That Island for Production of Material So Much in Demand.

Cork has probably passed olive oil as the leading export of Sardinia, and Commercial Attache A. P. Dennis states that recent production has been so stimulated that a large factory at Tempio is quadrupling its capacity. The bark is stripped from the tree once in nine years. At the Tempio factory the dried bark is first thoroughly steamed and flattened out by hydraulic pressure; it then remains in piles about 30 days, when it is taken out covered with blue mold, and is carefully scraped on both sides and cut into widths varying according to the lengths of the cork stoppers desired. The strips are cut by hand into cubes, a process requiring highly skilled labor, with much care in picking out defective pieces. The corks have been rounded and tapered by high-speed cutting machines, but a new abrasive process is claimed to reduce the waste of this finishing from 20 to 30 per cent. Before the war the fine dust sold in Germany for unknown use for about $90 a ton. At Terranova the cork is differently utilized, the best being baled in sheets for shipment, while the inferior is coarsely ground and used with a magnesium surface for walls and floor coverings. The war demand was for cork trench mattresses, which were both light and afforded protection from cold and moisture.

MOTOR CARS ON STAGE LINE

Old Four-in-Hand Vehicles on Nevada Roadways Succumb to March of Improvement.

Stage lines in Nevada have abandoned the time-honored four-in-hands of horses in favor of high-powered motor busses.

Daily, with clocklike precision, these big cars pound along the 100 miles of sun-bitten alkali roadway carrying passengers and mail. In much less time and far greater comfort the ranchers and business men of today speed over the same roads where once rattled the four-in-hand stage, slow, jolty and not at all certain of reaching its destination.

The cost of transportation by motor bus compares favorably with operating expenses of the horse stage. The proprietors of the lines are thorough business men and can tell to the penny the gasoline mileage of every car, the oil consumption and just how much service is obtained from tires.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Land Reclamation Scheme.

The British board of agriculture has inaugurated a scheme for the reclamation of land on the Lincolnshire shore of the Wash. A bank is being constructed from Wainfleet, a little below Skegness, to Freiston, near Boston (Lincolnshire), commencing at the Wainfleet end, and by this means it is hoped to recover about 12,000 acres. The work is in charge of a resident engineer in Wainfleet and will employ a large number of men, who will be selected from demobilized soldiers and sailors, and thus obviate the taking away of labor from agriculture. It is said that in the middle of the last century a reclamation scheme was started, and it was then estimated that a sufficiently large area would be redeemed from the Wash to form a new English county. The enterprise was abandoned, but experts have always maintained its practicability, which is now in the course of being tested.

Saw George Elliot's Ghost.

The death of Mrs. Katherine Macquoid, the veteran novelist, at the great age of ninety-three, severs another of the few remaining links with the Victorian past. A contemporary of George Elliot, Mrs. Macquoid used to tell how she once saw the famous writer in a vision.

When George Elliot went to live at Chelsea Mrs. Macquoid proposed to go and call on her. But before she could do so a remarkable and tragic thing happened.

One night Mrs. Macquoid awoke suddenly, and saw the figure of George Elliot standing between the bed and the wall. The apparition was distinct and unmistakable. On the following evening Mrs. Macquoid learned of George Elliot's death.

Things Looking Up in Serbia.

There are many evidences of bettering conditions in Belgrade, Serbia. Belgrade university opened a short time ago. The American Red Cross is now erecting barracks to house the students during the summer.

In the spirit of the people there is a marked change for the better in the last few months. Social gatherings are more frequent, and a few moving picture theaters are in operation.

Shops in the city are gradually refilling with stocks. Prices are high. Reports from the interior indicate a large grain harvest with a possible surplus for export in South Serbia. These reports have had encouraging effect on life in the capital.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. ## Advertising A Public Necessity.

WHEN goods are scarce and prices high, people are more appreciative than ever of the right kind of advertising.

They are seeking information. They want to know how to buy to the best advantage.

They want to know how to fill their needs and avoid waste. They welcome news of desirable substitutes for the things the country needs to conserve.

They read the newspapers carefully.

The dry goods merchant, grocer, jeweller, or manufacturer who does not advertise is necessarily missing the purely selfish opportunity, but he is failing in the service he owes to his customers.

Red Letter Day For Sackville

SACKVILLE, N. B. Jan. 13th—Mount Allison is planning a red-letter day for Wednesday, January 19th, in the shape of a general get-together of many prominent men of the Maritime Provinces who have allied themselves with the Half Million Dollar Endowment and Building Fund Campaign for the old college.

This gathering, in addition to furnishing the final send-off for those more prominently identified with the endowment campaign for Mount Allison will bring together for the first time in many years a great number of former Mount Allison classmates. Those who are expected to be present include the six Zone Chairmen and their assistants, practically all Group leaders, about forty in all, church chairmen, numbering nearly two hundred and fifty, and every Methodist minister in the three Provinces.

A Committee has been appointed for the entertainment of the visitors, and many old acquaintances will be renewed after years of separation.

TRY A NEW PLAN
It has been suggested that if persons, who do a large amount of driving on the town streets during the winter months, would drive always on their own side, much of the difficulty now experienced on our roads would be eliminated. At present every one drives in the middle of the street, and much trouble is met with on some occasions in teams passing one another. If both sides of the street were used by the driving teams the snow would be beaten down level, instead of having the unsightly large drifts of snow which are at present to be seen, and the continual turning out process now in vogue would be done away with, provided of course, that each one kept to their own side. All that is necessary to accomplish this new departure, would be for some of our citizens, who do a large amount of driving, to start it, and in a very short time, all would contrast the habit and the result would be attained. Why not try it?

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

WHERE IS THE INSPECTOR?
Quite an unusual number of intoxicated persons were in evidence on Saturday evening and Sunday throughout the town, and the Police authorities were kept on the alert as a consequence. A Provisional Inspector for the Town of Newcastle was appointed some time ago, but apparently the town is not bothered very much by that official. Chatham seems to be provided with three inspectors while Newcastle has none. It is up to Inspector Hawthorne to get busy at once and provide Newcastle with an inspector, otherwise the citizens will ascertain what the trouble is.

NORTH SHORE CLUBS DISCUSS BONSPIEL

A meeting of representatives of the North Shore Curling clubs which annually participate in the North Shore Bonspiel, took place in the Bathurst Club rooms on Monday evening, and many matters in connection with the big yearly event were talked over. One of the questions considered was the procuring of the trophy to be awarded to the winners, as Bathurst secured ownership of the cup competed for in previous bonspiels by winning each of the past three years. Other matters considered were suggestions concerning new methods of scoring, number of ends to be played and future dates of the holding of the bonspiel.

All of the towns whose clubs take part in the North Shore Bonspiel had representatives at the meeting, except that of Campbellton, a delegation from which found it impossible to attend. Chatham was represented by Messrs. S. D. Hecker, R. A. Snowball, Howard McKendry and Harry Strang; Newcastle by Messrs. R. W. Crocker, As H. Cole, J. E. T. Lindon and John Russell; Dalhousie by Messrs. Cragg, Clifford, Dalaney and Gould; and Bathurst by Messrs. Fay, Thibideau, Rogers and Stout. A large gathering of the club members. At the close of the discussions concerning the bonspiel, the visitors indulged in interesting friendly matches with local rinks skipped by Messrs. Thibideau, D. Connelly and President Rogers, and afterwards were entertained at an informal supper, which was served in the club room.
