Now the Prices you've been waiting for are here

The old year took away, for ever, we hope, the old burden of war prices. For months conditions have been working toward the great climax that brought the remarkable merchandise that is here assembled for this our greatest January Carnival of Economy.

The results came in two ways: 1st. The drastic lowering of prices on our own stocks, down to the new low basis, and often far below it—to double your interest in January buying in our store.

2nd. We have combated the markets—taking utmost advantage of the opportunities created by far-sighted manufacturers who were ready to co-operate with us in presenting to you now the lowest prices that will be possible, for the next six months, at least.

We can just see the delight of our Customers when they see the splendid assortment of goods, in every department of our store, and then realize that prices are away down to the bottom, where it is a pleasure to buy things.

Many Manufacturers have ACCEPTED LARGE LOSSES.

We shall forgo a large part of our profits on the new goods and accept large losses on our own mark downs—to inaugurate this first New Year under the New Management and

THE MOST STIRRING PRICE-UPSET THAT THIS COMMUNITY HAS EVER KNOWN.

No matter what you need or desire, now is the best time for months to come to buy it. Some of the reasons are told on this page, but scores of others are here that can get no mention today, even in this broad space.

Sermons On Catholic Worship

Prayers and Ceremonies of the Offertory "is the theme of this sermon, the seventeenth of the series. The Sermon was prepared by the Rev. John Scherf, pastor of S.S. Cyril and Method Church, East Helena.

AN EXALTED CEREMONIAL

Exalted poetic conception and symbolism envelop the ceremonial of the offertory. The priest, having first placed his hands on the altar, turns and greets the faithful with the words: "The Lord be With You." They respond: "And with thy spirit." Conscious of the stupendousness of the mysteries, in which he is to be so soon a participant, and sensing his utter weakness, the priest lays his hands on the altar, which, in the words of St. Thomas, signifies Christ. Mindful that the assembled faithful, too, need supernatural help to assist profitably at the sacred function, he prays that the Lord may be operative in their hearts by His grace.

THE ALL-EMBRACING PRAYER

Taking the paten, on which rests the host, the priest holds it up in the attitude of presentation. His eyes are momentarily raised to the Crucifix, then fixed on the offering before him, whilst he prays: "Accept, O Holy Father, almighty and eternal God, this unspiced host, which I Thy unworthy servant offer unto Thee, my living and true God, for my innumerable sins, offences and negligences, and for all here present; as also for all faithful Christians, both living and dead, that it may avail both me and them for salvation unto life everlasting. Amen." This prayer comprehends the subject, purpose and terminus of the offering.

MAN'S UNWORTHINESS

And what an oblation! "This unspiced Host," manifestly these words are to be applied to Christ's body, His most pure body, into which the substance of the host is about to be changed. To offer a Victim so holy, mortal man may well own his unworthiness. In this attitude of humility he prays to be freed from the defilement of guilt which weighs on his soul. Also for the faithful who offer the sacrifice in union with him does he implore pardon. Yes, for all Christians, even for the faithful departed, he begs remission of guilt, strength, salvation.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE CHALICE

Then follows the preparation of the chalice. The priest pours wine into the chalice, and blessing the crust of water he adds therefrom a few drops, saying: "O God, who in creating human nature has wonderfully dignified it, and still more wonderfully reformed it; grant that by the mystery of this water and wine we may be made partakers of the divine nature of Him who vouchsafed of our human nature, Jesus Christ, our Lord; thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen." Wonderfully indeed was human nature created. Endowed with marvelous gifts, clothed in sanctifying grace, man's faith, made a little less than the angels, crowned with honor and glory. Yet man lost his inheritance, vitiated his nature by sin. To purchase back his birthright, to reform his nature, God resorted to a means the wonder of which stupefied the angels. The Son of God lifted that nature to the incomprehensible height of union with the divinity. This union is the 'mystery of water and wine' designated in the prayer. In virtue of this union and its sequel—the redemption—the church prays that we may be made partakers of the divine nature through grace.

WINE SYMBOLIZES CHRIST

The wine not blessed symbolizes Christ, the source and perfection of all holiness and sanctity, who cannot stand in need of any blessing, while the water which, according to St. John, represents the faithful, will derive a great gain from the sacramental blessing. Moreover, only a very small amount of water is added to the wine, to express how our finite humanity in its union with the Godhead is made participator in the infinite divinity of Christ, and is in a sense deified. In Requiem Masses the church omits this blessing of the water to signify that she has no jurisdiction over the souls of the faithful departed.

ture has wonderfully dignified it, and still more wonderfully reformed it; grant that by the mystery of this water and wine we may be made partakers of the divine nature of Him who vouchsafed of our human nature, Jesus Christ, our Lord; thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. Wonderfully indeed was human nature created. Endowed with marvelous gifts, clothed in sanctifying grace, man's faith, made a little less than the angels, crowned with honor and glory. Yet man lost his inheritance, vitiated his nature by sin. To purchase back his birthright, to reform his nature, God resorted to a means the wonder of which stupefied the angels. The Son of God lifted that nature to the incomprehensible height of union with the divinity. This union is the 'mystery of water and wine' designated in the prayer. In virtue of this union and its sequel—the redemption—the church prays that we may be made partakers of the divine nature through grace.

LIVER TROUBLE BAD BILIOUS ATTACKS

If your tongue is coated, your breath foul, your eyes yellow, your complexion sallow; if you have sick or bilious headaches, variable appetite, pain under the right shoulder, floating specks before the eyes, then your liver is not in order. All the troubles which come in the train of a disordered liver may be quickly relieved by using blessings and graces of God. The Apostle of the Gentiles explains this so graphically when he says: "The chalice of benediction which we bless, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ?" (1 Cor. x. 16.)

Mrs. Flo. J. C. Ecker, Hanover, N.H., writes: "Last fall I was troubled severely with my liver, and occasionally I had bad bilious attacks. I tried several medicines, but until I began to use your LAXA LIVER PILLS I found no relief."
Price, 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

This chalice of salvation is, according to St. John, the propitiation for our sins, and not for our sins only, but for those also of the whole world." (1 II, 10.)

PRAYER OF HUMILITY

Before setting the chalice down on the altar the priest makes with it the sign of the cross, reminding us thereby of the identity of the two sacrifices, the bloody and unbloody one.

Bowing in fervent entreaty, the priest recites the following prayer in the name of all assembled: "O Lord, accept us, animated with a spirit of humility and contrition of heart; and grant that this sacrifice we offer in Thy sight this day may be pleasing to Thee, O Lord God! Mindful of the psalmist's assurance, 'a contrite and humble heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise,' the members of Christ's mystic body pray that they may be made an acceptable spiritual sacrifice."

PRAYER TO THE HOLY GHOST

Now follows the invocation: "Come, O Sanctifier, almighty, eternal God, and bless this sacrifice prepared to Thy name." "Come," implores the priest. His eyes and hands are raised heavenward, expressing the earnest desire that the fire of the Holy Ghost may come down, consume the bread and wine, and convert them into the body and blood of Christ. "The Sanctifier" is properly the title of the Holy Ghost, since to Him is attributed the work of dispensing the graces merited by Christ's sacrifice on the cross. The Sanctifier, full participant in the power and infiniteness of the Godhead, is invoked to effect the miracle of the transubstantiation, as He effected that of the incarnation, because of their close analogy. Both mysteries are works of special love. It is but proper that both be inscribed to the Spirit whose particular note is personal love.

THE LESSON LEARNED

This, then, explains in a summary way the prayers and ceremonies of the offertory of Holy Mass. From it we can learn very much. The whole oblation ceremony should spur us on to purge our hearts of sin; to adorn them with virtues whose radiance will please Jesus in His Eucharistic Coming to our Altars.

NOT ONE WOMAN IN TWENTY HAS A STRONG BACK

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well. The reason is that the kidneys are to blame, nine out of ten, for that weak, lame feeling that is felt, from which they suffer so much.

When you find your kidneys out of order, when your back aches and pains, when you get tired, and your eyes are sore, you need a few boxes of DeWitt's Backache Kidney Pills, and you will find that all the aches and pains will vanish, and make you healthy and happy, and able to enjoy life to the utmost.

Mrs. John McLeish, Newcastle Bridge, N.S., writes: "Last spring I was so debilitated with my kidneys and pains in my back, I could not rest or sleep at night. A friend calling told me about the Linnell's Backache Kidney Pills and gave me a box, and advised me to try them. I only took two boxes, and I can truthfully say my troubles disappeared and I have had no trace of it since."

Disreputable Tactics

Since the election campaign began, the Patriot newspaper has been exceedingly dirty in its references to the Government Candidate for King's County. Mr. McIsaac did expect the Patriot would oppose him and his political principles; but we would have reason to expect that this opposition would be of a manly and honorable character. This is the least we should look for as a brother Journalist. But it is evident that no one who does not agree with the worthies in charge of the Patriot need expect any degree of fair play in that quarter. Who are they that consider they have carte blanche to say what they wish, personally, or otherwise, about their neighbors? Had they not the Patriot as a shield between them and the public, scarcely any one would bother acknowledging them on the street. But forsooth, they shielded behind this delectable sheet, undertake to manifest by stages the sordid, jealous characteristics of their nature. Of course neither he of the added paper, nor he of the sinister visage has much courage. They act like the monkey, when he does a little harm. He sneaks back, grins and looks to see if anybody is in sight. He then ventures another slight deprecation, and so on. To shield themselves, these worthies have confined their covert tactics to innuendo and insinuation; they did not dare to venture out boldly.

The Farmers' Platform.

All the efforts of the Hon. Mr. Crerar to side-step on the Tariff will avail him nothing. The platform of his Party is the standard by which he and his Party will be judged in the coming election. That platform clearly, definitely and unmistakably aims at the destruction of the fiscal system, which has been in operation in Canada for forty-three years. Moderate protection is to be uprooted and free trade is to be substituted. Read the planks; here they are: "Our tariff laws should be amended as follows: (a) By an immediate and substantial all-round reduction of the customs tariff. (b) By reducing the customs duty on goods imported from Great Britain to one-half the rates charged under the general tariff, and that further gradual, uniform reductions be made in the remaining tariff on British imports that will ensure complete Free Trade between Great Britain and Canada in five years. (c) That the Reciprocity Agreement of 1911, which still remains on the United States statute books, be accepted by the Parliament of Canada. (d) That all foodstuffs not included in the Reciprocity Agreement be placed on the free list. (e) That agricultural implements, farm machinery, vehicles, fertilizers, coal, lumber, cement, illuminating fuel and lubricating oils be placed on the free list, and that all raw materials and machinery used in their manufacture also be placed on the free list. (f) That all tariff concessions granted to other countries be immediately extended to Great Britain. Let us analyze and interpret the platform: First—There is to be an immediate, substantial all-round reduction of the Customs Tariff. The present rates of duty on dutiable goods imported into the

"Now, the national current revenue of the United States last year—revenue other than borrowed money, the amount in short raised from the people for the current year—was, roughly speaking, five thousand million dollars. Taking the population of the United States at 110,000,000, we find an average national revenue burden last year in the United States of a little over $45 per head, or say $225 per family of five. The corresponding figures last year in Canada, namely, a consolidated fund revenue of $350,000,000 on a population of 9,000,000, show an average burden per head of something less than $40, or for a family of five $200.

"According to demonstrate figures" in the Citizen's assertion: a Canadian worker's family of five pays $147.75 a year in taxes as against a total of $157.75 for a worker's family in the United States. Nothing could be false. The "demonstrated figures" exist nowhere save in the imagination of the editorial artist of the Ottawa Citizen and others of the same type of muddled headpiece. The statement is simply a falsehood, equally brainless and vicious—vicious, because of the effect that sort of falsehood has in promoting class-rancor in this country in ignorant minds.

Referencing to the Citizen's conclusion, the Journal says: "A forum for the exposition of bunkum, indeed. A forum of that kind does exist in Ottawa, but it is not on Parliament Hill." Further expressions directed personally at Mr. McIsaac have since appeared from the masked hypocritical nondescript. Regarding these statements it is sufficient to say that if it is to be a matter of personalities, there is ample scope to detail in relation to some people, very much in the public eye, a number of facts that may not be edifying, but absolutely true. If the Patriot and its sneaking, crawling masked nondescript desire the case to proceed, very well.

All the efforts of the Hon. Mr. Crerar to side-step on the Tariff will avail him nothing. The platform of his Party is the standard by which he and his Party will be judged in the coming election. That platform clearly, definitely and unmistakably aims at the destruction of the fiscal system, which has been in operation in Canada for forty-three years. Let us analyze and interpret the platform: First—There is to be an immediate, substantial all-round reduction of the Customs Tariff. The present rates of duty on dutiable goods imported into the country average 22 per cent. What would be a substantial reduction, which would satisfy the Organized farmer? It is not unreasonable, we think, to suppose that they would not be content with a less reduction than one-third, which would bring the average rate of dutiable goods down to less than 15 per cent. Second—The duties on British goods are according to the Organized Farmers' platform to be one-half those charged under the General Tariff, which would mean that these duties would be between 7 1/2 and 10 per cent, which, in practice, would be still further reduced by the operation of exchange, the effect of which is to reduce the rate of duty on British goods from 5 to 5 per cent. Third—The Farmers' platform also calls for uniform gradual reductions to be made in the Tariff on British goods, so as to ensure complete free trade between Great Britain and Canada in five years. The farmers, therefore, notify the people of the Country that in the short space of five years, the Canadian manufacturers are to have no protection, whatever, on the numerous lines of goods which England can supply us with. It would be idle to argue that our manufacturers would be benefited by duties against United States imports so long as competitive imports are admitted free from England. In these circumstances a Tariff against the United States would only be of assistance to the Canadian manufacturers in those lines which are not produced in England, and which we obtain in the United States. But right there, the Farmers' platform again steps in and says that the most important lines which are not procurable in England and which we purchase in the United States, are to be free of Customs duty, namely:— Agriculture Implements Lumber Vehicles Coal Fertilizers Cement Foodstuffs Illuminating Fuel and Lubricating Oils.

The net result is that we are to have free trade with England in the goods procurable both from England and the United States, and we are to have free trade with the United States in the goods which we can get from that Country and not from England. The Farmers' policy is, therefore, straight free trade to be brought about in five years, with immediate substantial reductions in duties and important additions to the Free List, which would absolutely nullify the protective features of the Tariff.

Digest of Newspaper Editorials

The following excerpts are taken from editorials appearing in the Canadian press:— Sydney Post.— "The choice therefore lies between the National Liberal and Conservative Government, frankly Protectionist, representing Canadians of all classes and sections of the Dominion—and the free trade Agrarian party, whose breath of life comes to it from the western prairies, and whose political aims are shaped by western sectionalism and the aspirations of a single occupational group. There is no doubt how Canadians whose judgment is dictated by reason will choose, in the face of such an alternative. The one danger lies in the unreasoning unrest which is world-wide just now, and which has wrought havoc in so many countries. It is to this blind and hopeless discontent that the opponents of the National Government of Canada are addressing their appeals. It should be the task of intelligent patriotic Canadians, to ensure something like national unity in the face of such a menace; to vote and see that others vote with reference solely to the issues before the electorates; and to procure a verdict—strong, clear and decisive—for safe policies, staple government, and ordered progress."

Charlotte Guardian.— "The chief issue before Canada today is the tariff question. The policy of the Liberal Conservative party on this question is definitely known; that of the Progressives is free trade and open markets; and of the Liberals is not known any further than that it is a sort of unclassified cross between free trade and a vaguely reduced tariff. Who will the tariff policy of the new groups be under such conditions? Tariff tinkering and attendant uncertainties will be the least of the products to be looked for."

Montreal Gazette.— "If the Laurier tariff promoted prosperity and that tariff remains practically unchanged, why all this hubbub about the need of change and all this stage-thunder about tariff taxation grinding the face of the poor? Does the tariff permit of combines, does it make smooth the day of monopoly, does it instigate mergers? If these dire results come from the free policy embodied in the tariff of 1907, then the responsibility rests upon the Liberal party, which framed that tariff and which remains undisturbed in its lair, principals to this very day."

"This being so, it may be asked why should protectionists seek the advent to office of the Liberal Party? The answer is a very simple one, namely, that as between lukewarm friends and ardent friends, one wisely chooses the latter. Hon. Mackenzie King is a doctrinaire, the definition of which is given as one who would apply to political or other practical concerns the abstract doctrines of the theories of his own philosophical system without enough regard for actual conditions. That is an apt description of the Liberal leader. Mr. King seeks alliance with the Farmers. He invites them to coalesce with him, telling them that there is substantial agreement between his fiscal policy and theirs. We believe this to be so; and for the reason advocates of protection in Canadian industries jeopardize the existence of those industries when they give support to the followers of Mackenzie King."

Some Reasons For Supporting Government's Tariff Policy

Every civilized country should aim as far as possible and practical to be self-sustaining, which means all round development in all spheres of human activity. The highest aim of real statesmanship should be to frame policies which will furnish the maximum amount of profitable and diversified employment to all the people. The interests of every laboring community requires diversity of occupations, pursuits and objects of industry. The more that diversity is multiplied or extended, the better. To diversify employment is to increase employment and enhance wages. Work of all kinds for the hands and minds of all men is an indispensable in promotion of general prosperity and the building up of a great nation. Where there is work for the hands and minds of all men, there will be work for the teeth of all men; where there is employment, there will be bread. We should do our own work, supply our own needs as far as possible, without depending upon foreign nations to do what we ourselves should do.

To the Electors of Kings, P. E. Island: Ladies and Gentlemen:

As you are aware, the Federal Parliament has been dissolved and writs have been issued for the election of a new Parliament. The Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, has issued a manifesto to the people of Canada, setting forth the platform and policy on which he asks for the support of the Electorate. Moderate protection to Canadian Industries he emphasizes as the key-note of his appeal to the Canadian Electorate. This is the same fiscal policy under which Canada has grown and prospered for the last forty-two years. I to this policy as the chosen Government Candidate for King's County I give my unwavering adhesion. I am a supporter and follower of Prime Minister Meighen and I hesitatingly support his protective policy. As it will be impossible for me in the limited time at my disposal to make any extended personal canvas, I avail myself of this opportunity to solicit your votes and influence in the pending Election. Yours Faithfully, JAMES McISAAC.

A Respectable Surplus

Toronto, Oct. 10.—President D. B. Hanna, of the Canadian National Railways, issued this statement today:

"It is a matter of extreme gratification to me to be able to announce to the Canadian people that during the month of August, this year, the gross revenues secured from the operation of the Intercolonial, Prince Edward Island, National Transcontinental, Grand Trunk Pacific, and Canadian Northern Railways exceeded the expenses by a substantial amount. This is the first monthly period since these railways have been operated by the Board that it has been possible to present such a favorable statement. While I do not wish to appear as unduly optimistic, I do believe that the economies effected as one result of consolidation are beginning to be reflected in operation, and that the day is not far distant when the National Railways will be an asset in which all Canadians may take pride.

"The month of August is one not specially busy, in that it marks the end of the crop year in the Canadian west, and as the grain does not begin to move until September, in large quantities, to the lake carriers and to the sea.

The figures for the month of August were:

Gross earnings—$10,536,461.74.

Working expenses—$10,489,230.30.

Net earnings—$47,231.44.

"No one would venture to forecast the future with trade conditions as unsettled as they are today. It would, however, appear that the end of serious operating losses on the National Railways is appreciably near—nearer, in fact, than the most sanguine of us had hoped for. We are beginning to reap the fruits of the great and complicated work of consolidation, which was begun when the merging of the Canadian Northern and Canadian Government Lines was accomplished in 1918, and continued when the lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway were turned over to the National for operation.

Steals $750,000 Then Suicides

Miami, Fla., Oct. 23.—The man of mystery "who committed suicide last Thursday night in a local hotel was identified tonight as Warren G. Spurgin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust Company of Chicago, by W. F. Bennett, of Miami, former Chicago broker and intimate friend of Spurgin.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Warren G. Spurgin, president of the now defunct Michigan Avenue Trust Company, disappeared from Chicago on July 20 and a day later the bank was closed by state examiners. An audit of the books disclosed that the institution was insolvent, and it was charged by bank officials that Spurgin had taken more than $500,000 in cash, with him when he disappeared. Bank examiners later estimated the total loss to the institution at $750,000. Warrants charging embezzlement immediately came when more than $10,000 worth of liquor was found in Spurgin's private office. Mrs. Spurgin tonight expressed doubt that the body at Miami was really that of her husband. She said she would not go to Miami at present.

Montreal Man Killed Auto Overturns

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 24.—C. P. Lyman, of Montreal, was instantly killed and George McNaughton, of Quebec was seriously injured today when an automobile which they were riding overturned on the state road, near Woodstock, about 12 miles south here. Mr. Lyman was manager of the Lyman Tube and Supply Company, of Montreal. Mr. McNaughton is connected with the same company.

Look. Read. Realize.

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!! We study the business. We know what suits a young man we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Now the Prices you've been waiting for are here

The old year took away, for ever, we hope, the old burden of war prices. For months conditions have been working toward the great climax that brought the remarkable merchandise that is here assembled for this our great January Carnival of Economy.

The results came in two ways: 1st. The drastic lowering of prices on our own stocks, down to the new basis, and often far below it—to double your interest in January buying in our store.

2nd. We have combed the markets—taking utmost advantage of the opportunities created by far sighted manufacturers who were ready to co-operate with us in presenting to you now the lowest prices that will be possible, for the next six months, at least.

We can just see the delight of our Customers when they see the splendid assortment of goods, in every department of our store, and then realize that prices are way down to the bottom, where it is a pleasure to buy things.

Many Manufacturers have ACCEPTED LARGE LOSSES. We shall forgo a large part of our profits on the new goods and accept large losses on our own mark-downs—to inaugurate this first New Year under the New Management and

THE MOST STIRRING PRICE-UPSET THAT THIS COMMUNITY HAS EVER KNOWN.

No matter what you need or desire, now is the best time for months to come to buy it. Some of the reasons are told on this page; but scores of others are here that can get no mention today, even in this broad space.
