ONE CENT

FIFTY TWO SHOCKS SINCE SAJORA

Texas and New Mexico are Shaken by Earthquakes --- Refugees Flock to Albuquerque---Much Distress and Real Suffering in Socorro.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 19.—Fifty-two in large numbers are arriving here from Socorro, N. M., where great damage has been wrought by a succession of daily earthquakes since July 2. In that time not an hour has passed without one or more quakes. The centre of the disturbance is a zone 30 miles long by about ten miles wide, running from the Ladron mountains southeast through Socorro, San Antonio and San Marcial. This side of the belt the shocks have been fairly felt. Each one is preceded by a loud rumbling like heavy thunder, which can be heard approaching from the northwest before it reaches Socorro.

Senior Ross, of Socorro, until recently district attorney, is here with his family. He says that people are leaving on every train and those who cannot ride on the railroad are leaving by wagons. About 2,000 persons are camping out in tents and no one dares to go indoors. Practically every residence and business block in the town has been damaged. There has been much distress among the people who are camping in the open, as heavy rains have fallen in the last two days, one being the heaviest for 39 years.

Most of the people are going to El Paso, although many are coming to Albuquerque and Santa Fe. The shocks generally come at short sharp jerks, the ground seeming to slip violently. It is believed that the adjustment of rock strata in the rugged Ladron and Magdalena mountains is the cause of the continued shocks. Provisions are growing scarce and real distress is felt for the refugees. "The noise and the quakes are frightful," said Mrs. J. J. Leeson, a refugee from Socorro. "I have experienced earthquakes at Los Angeles and San Francisco, but never anything so sickening as these prolonged rockings and jerks of the earth at Socorro. Water stands in a bowl will show continuous vibrations between the greater shocks, showing that the earth is never still. Not a house in town is safe to enter and chimneys and walls toppled with each recent tremor."

A SCHEME OF PLUNDER

Property is theft, is one of the pleasing contentions of the Socialists. "But Socialism," retorts the Boston Herald, "is a scheme of plunder."

Some recent Socialistish disclaim appeals to force, and even deny that Socialism makes these appeals and threats.

Socialism is a scheme of plunder. It is dishonest, dishonest in its intent and dishonest in its means.

THE BIG CIRCUS HERE TOMORROW

The Big Barnum and Bailey Show Will Arrive Early in the Morning.

The Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will arrive in St. John early tomorrow morning, and it goes without saying that a large contingent of local enthusiasts will be on hand to welcome it.

One of the Busy Scenes at the Circus Grounds.

CORRUPT LITERATURE Rev. Father Holland of Montreal Denounces it in no Uncertain Terms.

At St. Ann's church, Montreal, the Rev. Father Holland preached on the evils of bad literature.

Taking as his text, Acts xix., 18, 20, Father Holland said in part: "There are certain idle, useless books, which, though not bad in themselves, are pernicious because they cause the reader to lose the time which he might and ought to spend in occupations more beneficial to his soul."

As to novels, they are, in general, pictures of human passions. These books, as a class, present false views of life; and as it is the error of the young to mistake these for realities, they become the staples of their own imaginations.

"What is the first step, often, of a young reprobate who wishes to corrupt some poor innocent girl? He first finds her a bad book. He believes that if he reads the book she is 'set.' A bad book does not blush, feels no shame, no hesitation. A bad book is a corrupter to whom the reader listens without shame because it can be read alone and taken up when one pleases."

"There can be no doubt how the most pernicious influences at work in the world at this moment come from bad books and bad newspapers. The yell-up-covered literature, as it is called, is a pestilence compared with which the yellow fever, cholera, and smallpox are as nothing."

"It has been on the market for 60 years. Surely this is reputation enough as to its efficacy. Mr. Henry Voss, Carthage, Ont., writes: 'I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with the best of results. Last summer, I had the diarrhoea so bad that I had to give up work. A friend of mine persuaded me to give Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a trial, which I did, and can say that it cured me entirely. I can recommend it to all who are troubled with Diarrhoea.'" had visited the show incognito, and personally confirmed the reports which his officers had given him.

It requires a considerable outlay of money to feed the circus army, and this money is distributed among the business men where the show exhibits. Very little is carried from any day to day, except possibly canned goods. The big refrigerator on wheels, which is a necessary part of the commissary paraphernalia, rarely contains at night more than sufficient meat for the next day's breakfast.

Following the erection of the dining tent, the big pavilion used for housing the horses will go up. There are 30 draught horses, 140 ring horses, and 60 horses in the equine department; and during their stay in this city they will eat several tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats, 40 bushels of corn and 1000 pounds of bran.

The next tent to go up will be the menagerie pavilion. It is necessary to erect this tent early in order to protect the animals from possible inclement weather, as well as to prevent the curious crowd from getting too close an acquaintance with the lions, the hippopotamuses, the baby elephants, the giraffes, and the other rare and interesting wild animals in the zoological display.

The board of management and subscribers yesterday afternoon. The board of management and subscribers of the Home for Incurables held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon.

At the close of the fiscal year 1905 this fund amounted to $86,431.15. At the present time it is $97,481, invested in bonds and mortgages as per statement annexed, and cash in the Bank of New Brunswick of $8,217 to the credit of that fund.

THE HOME FOR INCURABLES

Annual Meeting of the Board of Management and Subscribers Yesterday Afternoon.

The board of management and subscribers of the Home for Incurables held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. This is one more than last year, but was rendered necessary by the death of Mrs. W. W. Turnbull last year.

A special meeting was held first, and at it one female patient was admitted, and the reports, which were all eminently satisfactory, were read.

The board of management's report spoke of the death of Mrs. W. W. Turnbull, wife of the founder of the home, and the death of Dr. Charles Holden of the visiting staff.

During the year six male and two female patients were admitted; one male and three female patients died, and on July 1, 1906, there were in the home fifteen male and thirteen female patients.

There has been $10,000 additional insurance placed. The increased expense and the condition of finances were referred to and consideration of how best to increase the permanent fund was suggested.

The medical staff who passed and the women's aid work commended.

Hon. J. V. Ellis, treasurer, reported: First, as to "The W. W. Turnbull Fund," the capital fund of the home:

At the close of the fiscal year 1905 this fund amounted to $86,431.15. At the present time it is $97,481, invested in bonds and mortgages as per statement annexed, and cash in the Bank of New Brunswick of $8,217 to the credit of that fund.

amount of lettuce. The lions each get 20 pounds and the tigers 10 pounds of meat daily, except Sundays. On that day, as a preventative of distemper, the "cast" animals are compelled to fast.

The main hippodrome pavilion will be the last tent erected, and after the canvas has been hoisted around the lofty centre poles, the quarter poles inserted, and the wide walls put up, the work of preparing the seats, rings and performers' rigging will be inaugurated.

The opening performance will be given at two o'clock and the final one at 8 p. m. The doors will be open an hour prior to the show to enable the public to visit the menagerie and see the giant and giant-ess, the Galliver Liliuputians, the Scandinavian Gypsy dancers and musicians and other special features.

Those who wish to avoid the crowds at the regular ticket wagons at the opening hours, may reserve grand stand chairs and book seats all day tomorrow, without any advance in price, at J. E. A. McMillan's book store, 96-100 Prince William street.

Those who wish to go up will be the menagerie pavilion. It is necessary to erect this tent early in order to protect the animals from possible inclement weather, as well as to prevent the curious crowd from getting too close an acquaintance with the lions, the hippopotamuses, the baby elephants, the giraffes, and the other rare and interesting wild animals in the zoological display.

At the general meeting which followed, the following were elected members of the board of management: Mrs. S. Alward, Mrs. T. Walker, Mrs. D. C. Lellan, Mrs. J. H. Bridges, Mrs. D. C. Gillin, Mrs. J. H. Thomson, Mrs. R. J. Ritchie, Mrs. W. D. Forster, Mrs. H. C. Rankin, Mrs. D. F. Tapley, Miss J. A. McAvity, Dr. J. H. Scammell and R. B. Emerson.

MEDALS AND GOLD FOR HEROES OF THE SEA

(Boston Journal, July 18.) Not to be behind the British societies in recognition of the bravery of the crew of the steamer Bostonian of the Leyland Line in rescuing part of the crew of the steamer British King, the Life Saving Benefit Association of New York has awarded medals to the officers and some of money to the life-boat crews.

The British King foundered at sea on March 11 while bound from New York to Antwerp. The Bostonian succeeded in rescuing seventeen of the crew with great difficulty and landed them in Boston. Capt. John Perry, First Officer William Brown and Second Officer Sidney W. Cornwall will receive large medals of heavy gold suitably inscribed. To Chief Steward Alexander McClure the association has awarded a smaller gold medal and $25 in gold, and to Boatwain John Nelson a gold medal and $35 in gold.

The presentation will take place either on board the steamer or at the Boston Chamber of Commerce by Capt. William Wyndham, British consul.

LATE LOCALS

The Hibernal Knights will meet tonight for drill.

The steamship Londberg arrived this morning from Lunenburg, C. B. with a cargo of 2180 tons coal.

Don't wait too long, but go quick to the big midsummer sale now going on at the Union Clothing Co. Pay special attention to their sale on page 3—their prices are most sensational.

Gold Bond Shoes are leaders. Glad to know of a rival shoe coming to the city in the near future. Our lady and gentlemen citizens will have an opportunity to compare the merits of the Gold Bond Shoe.

Two pleasure yachts arrived in port this morning from Boston. The naphtha yacht Rosalie owned by E. E. Grey, of Boston with a party of four on board and the sailing sloop yacht Vagabond in command of Captain H. H. Mathews. The Rosalie will probably go up the river today. Both pleasure boats are fitted out in up to date style with all the modern improvements.

Lively merchandising was exemplified at M. R. A. Ltd., this morning, when the great sale of bedwear and other end-week features drew hundreds of buyers. The success of the department was literally alive with the throng. This afternoon it is expected the crowd will be even larger. Tomorrow when the circus crowd of visitors reaches town the crush will doubtless be enormous. Shop early. Stores open until ten at night Friday.

The Worcester, Mass., correspondent of the New York Sunday Herald, says:—For some time the church committee of St. Matthew's parish has been discussing the advisability and necessity of having a curate, as the church has grown considerably in the last few years. A call was extended to the Rev. G. William Foster, of Fredericton, N. B., who has been accepted. He will take up his duties as assistant to the rector, the Rev. Henry Hague, September 1. The church is situated in South Worcester, directly opposite the handsome residence of Matthew J. Whittall, who some years ago gave the money for the building of the church.

ELECTRICIANS IN ANNUAL SESSION

SYDNEY, N. S. July 19.—(Special)—The annual meeting of the Maritime Electrician's Association opened in the county court chamber of the court house at midnight yesterday afternoon. After a meeting of the executive to arrange a few details the members of the association were welcomed to the city Mayor Fullerton. The president of the association, Mr. Col. Pitt, very suitably replied. A short business meeting was held later but nothing was done beyond the announcing of the programme of the next two days. In the afternoon the members of the association were given an excursion on the harbor and a trip through the electrical works. There are about twenty-five members of the association at present in the city and more arrived last evening.

THE HARVARD GIRL

"The Harvard Girl," replete with tuneful lyrics, beautiful dances, pretty glee club comedians and singers, will be given for the first time at the Opera House Monday next. The piece has been applied for a musical authority, but has a well defined plot and an abundance of clean comedy, the cast is a well selected one, plus a pit-pit-pit of comedy and music. The piece is filled with music and has been well received everywhere. "The Harvard Girl" was constructed with the idea of making it a high-class entertainment, as well as a first class musical comedy. The musical features and vaudeville interruptions do not interfere with the action of the story, which is of the rapid-fire sort.

ALL READY FOR THE SHOW

Everything is in readiness for the arrival of the big Barnum and Bailey circus at the Grand grounds, Lunenburg, tomorrow morning. During the past few days David Connel had a crew of men at work cutting hay on the property and clearing it up to have it in readiness when the five special trains arrive. The circus people will occupy both the upper and lower fields, on both sides of the railway tracks, and where today is a level green sward will tomorrow be a village of canvas tents.

HERRMANN THE GREAT

At the Opera House last night, Herrmann the Great, master magician of the world, assisted by St. Heron, the prophetic, drew a good house. Nothing like this man has ever visited the city and his dramatic acts are simply wonderful. Madame St-Hera was again given much applause. Her adding of figures on the blackboard and other acts were excellent. The performance will be repeated this afternoon and evening.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO CIRCUS

They will leave St. John station at 12:15 p. m., 1:10 p. m., 1:45 p. m., 5:45 p. m., 8:45 p. m., 10:10 p. m. Friday July 20. Returning will leave circus grounds after each performance.

RIVAL PORTS FOR ST. JOHN

Bangor and Aroostook Railway Ports at Cape Jellison and Stockton Nearing Completion—General News From Moncton.

MONCTON, July 18.—J. F. Forbes, who has been associated with Contractor A. E. Tribes in railroad construction in Maine, the past year and a half, gives your correspondent some interesting information in reference to the new seaport recently opened at Cape Jellison, the ocean terminus of the Bangor and Aroostook Railway. The seventy miles of Northern and Seaport Railway, constructed by Contractor Tribes last summer was the connecting link through which the B. & A. people will become competitors for the ocean traffic that is now finding an outlet principally at the ports of Portland and St. John, N. B. and through Bangor. By reason of the alleged shorter railway haul to the new port, it is claimed that a large percentage of the export trade, passing through that section, will eventually be diverted to Stockton Springs, or Cape Jellison ports.

Already, Mr. Forbes says, Bangor has suffered a loss of about fifty per cent. of her export trade, which has been captured by the B. & A. port, while St. John has not yet been affected and may be the last to feel the competition offered by the Cape Jellison port, yet, he thinks, in time, unless the people of St. John stir themselves, they will awake to the fact that a large percentage of their ocean going trade has been turned into a new channel.

The Cape Jellison port is yet in its infancy, and the new docks are hardly yet completed. Four docks combined have a total length of nearly four thousand feet, and a large potato wharfer in Maine has in course of construction the largest shipping warehouse in Maine at this port.

Contractor Tribes, who is at work re-balancing the connecting link with the main line of the B. & A., expects to finish his contract in four or five weeks' time. His work of filling in the bulk heads at the docks at the terminus will occupy two or three months longer.

James Stevens, livery stable keeper, near the I. C. R. Main street railway crossing, received serious injury to his side yesterday, as the result of being kicked by a horse. He will be laid up some time.

The hitch over Scott Act prosecutions has been patched up for the time being. Inspector McLennan has apparently reconsidered his expressed intention to lay no further information before Police Magistrate Kay. Yesterday Dr. James S. Boer's Tombs was brought before the court on McLean's information and placed upon his defence. The case comes up again next Monday.

LONG LAKE PURCHASE

Canadian Northern People Did Good Business Stroke in Buying This Road From Hon. Wm. Pugsley.

WINNIPEG, July 16.—Local officials of the Canadian Northern declined to make any statement this morning regarding the purchase of the Old Appleton, Long Lake & Saskatchewan Railway by the C. N. E. Company. That the road has passed into the hands of the C. N. E. is no doubt, and that company will be operating the line just as soon as they can get possession of it, which will be after the customary formalities of giving notice have been complied with, and certainly before the year's crop begins to move.

The Long Lake road, it appears, was owned by English capitalists, who own large blocks of Canadian Northern bonds, and this accounts for the C. N. E. getting control of the property. As a piece of commercial strategy the purchase of the road is of great importance to the C. N. E. With their line now under construction between Brandon and Regina, they will have a belt of rail around Manitoba and Saskatchewan, which, with feeders, will enable them to bid for a share of the traffic throughout an immense productive area. It will also form a valuable link in connection with the company's Hudson's Bay line, which is now being built. Four or five years ago the R. & L. I. was not regarded of any account as a money-maker, but it is estimated that this year there will be 6,000,000 bushels of wheat shipped from points along it between Regina and Prince Albert. It will thus be seen that the property is now very valuable for local traffic alone.
