British and French Wrest Ground From Enemy

Official War Report Tells of More Sharp Fighting With Allies Having Advantage — General Hughes Leaving Hospital

Paris, Jan. 11.—The French War Office this afternoon gave out the following:— From the sea to the Lys, there was, yesterday, an intermittent and not very intense cannonading.

"From the Lys to the Oise, in the region of Boiselle, our troops took possession of a trench of the enemy after a violent fight. To the northwest of Soissons on 'Spur 132' they yesterday repulsed a German attack.

"On the Aisne and in Champagne, as far as Rheims, there have been artillery exchanges. From Rheims to the Argonne, our artillery bombarded the first line of trenches of the enemy and the shelters of the reserves.

"To the north of Beausjour the enemy made a desperate effort to recapture the little fort which he had previously lost. His counter attacks were delivered with energy. In each of them two battalions were engaged, the second advancing in close formation.

"In the Argonne there were some few small engagements and our front was maintained. Between the Meuse and the Moselle the day passed calmly. In the Vosges there was a heavy fall of snow."

GENERAL HUGHES TO GO WEST TOMORROW Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—General Sam Hughes, who has been in St. Luke's Hospital, suffering from water on the knee, expects to be out tomorrow and to leave on Wednesday night for the west and the Pacific on inspection.

GREAT NEED IN BELGIUM London, Jan. 9 (7.05 p. m.)—The Hasselt representative of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium, in a letter describing the first distribution of supplies forwarded there by the commission, discloses the extent to which even those who can afford to buy for food are dependent upon assistance.

"At the communal warehouse," he writes, "more than 100 persons were packed about the doors, each with a ticket and with bags in which to carry away food." They crowded each other furiously to get in before the supply was exhausted.

"Old men, young men and children were in the crowd. All alike had to wait their turn in the distribution."

FIVE KILLED BY GERMAN BOMB. Paris, Jan. 11.—A German aeroplane dropped a bomb upon Malo-les-Bains, a year Dunkirk today, killing five civilians.

IMPORTANT IF BRITISH HAVE LILLE London, Jan. 11.—An important advance has been made by the British army if, as is reported in London, it has virtual possession of Lille. This city lies just south of the Belgian border and its occupation by the British would mean that a sharp bend had been made in the German front.

LEGISLATURE MAY MEET ON FEB. 18 Fredericton, Jan. 11.—Premier Clarke remained in the city on Sunday and will attend a meeting of the provincial government this evening. It is expected that the date of legislature opening will be fixed and a start made with the sessional programme.

It is reported that an additional section of the ammunition column is to be sent here from Montreal and that Major Harrison's section will be recruited up to the strength of 150.

NO INCREASE IN SUBSIDIES LIKELY Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—Checks for $5,000,000 have just been sent out from the department of finance to the various provinces. It represents the half yearly instalment of subsidies.

At the inter-provincial conference in Ottawa strong resolutions in favor of an increase in the subsidies were passed, but in view of the effect of the war there is no likelihood of it being granted at present.

Twenty-five To Be Added To Police Force; Raise of Pay All Round

New Chief Is To Be Paid $2,000 a Year COMMISSIONER'S EST.MATES

At Open Door Committee Session Today Mr. McLellan Submitted Plans For Organization — A Matter of Surplus — Mayor Favors $25,000 Grant to Patriotic Fund

At an informal meeting of the city commissioners at noon today the police organization of the department on a metropolitan basis at an additional cost of about $22,000 a year was provided for by Commissioner McLellan in his estimates, involving the addition of twenty-five men to the force and increases in pay to all ranks, including the salary of the new chief at $2,000.

Some general statistics were also submitted by the mayor, showing the condition in which the city departments finished the year. The market showed a very satisfactory balance of more than $4,000 on the right side, there remained $4 unexpended in the police department, and about $2,000 in the fire department, making Commissioner McLellan's surplus more than $10,000.

The harbor showed a big falling off in revenue, particularly the old C. P. R. wharf which was more than $5,000 short. The overdraft of $6,000 on the very necessary side of the account, but outside of this the deficit had almost paid its way, with a surplus of only $88.

Some general statistics were also submitted by the mayor, showing the condition in which the city departments finished the year. The market showed a very satisfactory balance of more than $4,000 on the right side, there remained $4 unexpended in the police department, and about $2,000 in the fire department, making Commissioner McLellan's surplus more than $10,000.

"We must look after our soldiers, no matter what happens," said the mayor. Some general statistics were also submitted by the mayor, showing the condition in which the city departments finished the year.

"The harbor showed a big falling off in revenue, particularly the old C. P. R. wharf which was more than $5,000 short. The overdraft of $6,000 on the very necessary side of the account, but outside of this the deficit had almost paid its way, with a surplus of only $88."

Commissioner Wignora, as previously reported, had a surplus of $20,000 from water account, and planned to place this in reserve for extension and improvement. This was opposed, however, by Commissioner Potts, who advocated taking this $20,000 to wipe out the over-expenditure on general account.

The public works department reported an over-expenditure of $10,000. Commissioner Potts pointed out that the non-revenue producing departments required large expenditures for maintenance and the benefit of the balances in other departments.

Commissioner Wignora contended that the people who paid the water rates should have the benefit of any surplus. Until the department was in a satisfactory condition the water rates should be cut down to make the department self-sustaining and no more. If bonds were issued for all extensions, it meant adding a higher load to the water-rates every year.

Already his department paid about $100,000 in bond interest, and the $150,000 spent in his department really meant only $80,000. His revenue was $211,000, an increase of $10,000 over the year.

The question was left open and, in fact, the meeting was called only for discussion, forming what was practically the first open door committee meeting of the year.

Commissioner McLellan read over his items, and his list was completed, and although he expressed opinion came from the other commissioners as to whether they would support his recommendations as a whole, no objection was made to the increase as proposed them one by one.

Features of the new plan will include the introduction of the signal system already provided for by bond issue, and therefore not included in the estimates; the increase of the chief's salary to $12,000, for which legislation must be secured; increase of twenty-five cents a day practically to all patrolmen, starting about $2.75 as at present, increasing to $2.25 the second year and $2.50 the third. The deputy chief is to be raised to $12,000, a senior detective to be appointed at about $1,900, and a junior about $1,100.

All sergeants are to receive $2.75 a day, and in the southern division there will be two night sergeants who will divide the work. Three mounted men are to be engaged instead of one at present, all at $2, and altogether there will be five traffic policemen, first-class men at $2.50, three in the southern division and two in the North End. There will be two sergeants on the West Side, but the night men must now do patrol duty.

Two desk men will be employed at central station to attend and record the calls of the signal patrol system, both young men at $2 a day. There will be one court sergeant.

The New Force. Roughly, the make-up of the force under Commissioner McLellan's plan, which is to be submitted to the council, probably be adopted in its entirety, will be: Southern Division, Chief, deputy and two detectives. Three sergeants for streets, at $2.75. Two desk men for patrol system at $2. Four mounted at $1.75. Three reserves at $2. Three patrolmen at $2.50. Nine patrolmen at $2.25. One court sergeant. Seven patrolmen at $2.50. Nine patrolmen at $2.25. Ten patrolmen at $2. Total 46.

TURKS STRENGTHEN AND TRY TO RETRIEVE DISASTER

To Send Masses of Troops Into Action—German Attacks Against Warsaw Weaken; May Mean Important Movement

London, Jan. 11.—The Daily News' correspondent telegraphs from Petrograd:— "The Turks apparently have determined to make an immediate effort to retrieve their disaster in the Caucasus. They are trying to resume the advance from Karazung, west of Sar Kamysh on the Turkish frontier, where the remnants of the fugitive troops are gathered. They have been reinforced by the remaining troops from the Erzerum garrison and there are indications that the Turks are bringing very great masses of troops into the theatre of the present operations."

"The urgency for averting a further catastrophe is immediately due to the extremity of the position of Constantinople, where it has been announced that capital punishment will be inflicted upon anybody circulating foreign reports of the operations."

ATTACK ON WARSAW WEAKENS The Daily Telegraph's correspondent wires from Guzow via Petrograd:— "The German attacks against Warsaw are weakening. Night assaults are no longer pushed home with vigor and the daylight attack has degenerated into long distance cannonading. During the darkness the enemy will open fire at different points at different times, keeping up an intermittent artillery practice, apparently without specific motive. I would say that these demonstrations are simply made to engage the attention of the Russian army and mask movements of more importance in the rear."

LONDON CHRONICLE HAS DESPATCH FROM THE FRONT, BUT OTTAWA SAYS IT MAY BE OFFICER OF ANOTHER FORCE

London, Jan. 11.—A special despatch to the Daily Chronicle from northern France says that Captain Denis O'Connell Cochrane Newton, of the Princess Patricia's Own Light Infantry of Canada, has been killed in the fighting in France.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 11.—The foregoing would indicate that the Princess Patricia's Own Light Infantry of Canada, which was reported a few days ago in the reserve trenches in France, Captain Newton's name does not appear in a new list of the officers received from England, but he may have been added since the list was received, as the Patricia's have lately been strengthened, or he may be with his former regiment. The name of Captain Newton appears on a British casualty list published.

Captain Newton, M. V. O., was a son of George Onslow Newton and Lady Alice Newton. He was educated at Eton and the Royal Military College and served with the Middlesex Regiment in the South African war. He was A. D. C. to the Earl of Donaldson in 1902-04, when the latter was then commanding the Canadian militia, and later to Earl Grey during the latter's term as governor general. In 1910 he entered business in Montreal as representative of the Canadian agency with several companies.

Captain Newton was a member of the Mount Royal Club, Montreal, and the Rideau Club, Ottawa.

IS IT ANOTHER CAPTAIN NEWTON? Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Neither the department of militia, nor Rideau Hall, to which he was temporarily attached last summer, had any advice of Captain Newton being killed in action. It is believed here that another Captain Newton, who appears today in the list of killed, is the Captain Newton of the Honourable Artillery Company who appears today in the list of killed. It is said that no word of casualties in the Princess Patricia's has been received.

STEWART TUPPER, NOT SIR CHARLES, IS ILL Veteran Statesman in Better Health Than Last Winter

London, Jan. 11.—A Winnipeg despatch appearing in the Canadian papers recently, reporting that Sir Charles Tupper was ill in a nursing home at Oxford, was incorrect, and the despatch should have stated that it was Sir Charles's elder son, Stewart Tupper, K. C., who has been suffering for some months. He is now receiving treatment from Sir William Osler.

Sir Charles, who is at Bealey Hall, is in better health this year than he was last winter.

FATHER HOWLAND BEREAVED Mother of St. John Priest Passes Away in Lynn

News reached the city yesterday telling of the death of Mrs. Margaret Howland, which occurred on Friday in Lynn, Mass. She was an esteemed resident of St. Andrew's, and the body has been taken there today for burial. She had been ill for some time, and her son, Rev. Miles P. Howland of the Cathedral, was called to her bedside about two weeks ago. He has been in Lynn since that time.

Besides Father Howland, there are five sons surviving, Charles, Leo and Harry in Lynn; Dr. James, a surgeon in the United States Army, and William in Chicago. Many friends will sympathize deeply with the family in their great loss.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR SEEKS EARLY PEACE

Rome, Jan. 11.—Despatches from Vienna telling of an audience given on Saturday, to the members of the Galician nobility by the Emperor Francis Joseph, state that the Emperor's reply to questions asked on that occasion regarding peace, are considered to be most significant.

In speaking of an honorable and long lasting peace, compensating for present sacrifices, he said his efforts were being directed to ending the war at the earliest moment possible.

Recruiting For Maritime Regiment, Mounted Rifles

NEW EQUIPMENT ISSUED

Now Provided For Active Service — Rifle Club March Out to Caside — Beads Presented to Catholic Soldiers

Recruiting for the Maritime Regiment, Mounted Rifles is now in full swing. Many applications have been received by the officers both of the 8th Hussars and the 28th Dragoons, and these are being filed for consideration until the definite announcement is given as to how many can be taken from New Brunswick and how many from Nova Scotia. The expectation is that each of the mounted regiments from this province, the 28th Dragoons and the 8th Hussars, will be increased to 148 men and six officers but this is not yet certain.

Many friends were today congratulating Major C. Herbert McLean upon his appointment as officer commanding one of the squadrons in the projected regiment of mounted rifles, which was made known today. While young in years, he is old in military experience having been connected actively with soldiering from his youngest days. Of late years he has been with the 28th Dragoons, having been in command for quite a time while his brother, Col. H. H. McLean, was in command of the 8th Hussars.

He has been in command of the 28th Dragoons since his brother's death. He is now in command of the 28th Dragoons, having been in command for quite a time while his brother, Col. H. H. McLean, was in command of the 8th Hussars.

While gratified that Great Britain admits the justice of practically all the principles of international law cited in the American note, officials related today that the chief difficulty had been England's neglect to make her usual practice square with the previously accepted rules of international law. It is realized by officials here that a long diplomatic correspondence concerning the principles of the American case, but not actual carrying them into practice, will not meet the complaints of American exporters and shippers, and although Englishmen supplementarily are expected to give a more detailed statement of her position, officials plan to take up vigorously all individual cases which may meanwhile arise.

Officials are keenly appreciative of the friendly tone of the British note and of the promises it makes for redress in case of unwarranted injury to American commerce. They say, however, that the note, in its citation of statistics, had not taken up one of the chief points of the American argument. The British statistics reported that American commerce with neutral countries had not suffered so seriously as had been represented, but officials here contend that one of the chief purposes of the American protest was to prevent depletion of American commerce by continuation of British practices.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Renewed confidence was expressed in official circles here today that diplomatic exchanges between Great Britain and the United States, regarding interruption of neutral commerce, soon would lead to diminution of many of the uncertainties to which American cargoes have been subjected.

The British reply to the American protest, made public last night, was regarded as conciliatory in tone and as forecasting a final arrangement satisfactory to American shippers.

While high officials who have had the British reply before them since Friday continued to discuss it only in guarded terms, it became known that they were gratified at the friendly spirit that characterized the communication and considered that the situation had been greatly simplified by Great Britain's frank concurrence in the basic principle set forth in the American protest. They felt that an understanding had been reached upon which details could be worked out in a satisfactory manner.

Some officials who read the text of the British reply today for the first time expressed surprise at the position taken by the British foreign office that England could not be expected to confine procedure in the matter of contraband shipments because her enemies had not done so.

It generally is expected that the British statistics showing increase in American exports to neutral countries contiguous to Germany and Austria would be called in question by the American reply, and other phases of the situation cited to show that this increase was due to the fact that the British had not done so.

Inspections Tomorrow Brigadier General Rutherford, O. C. of the 6th Division, will be in the city today.

Britain's Reply To The Protest About Shipping Matter FRIENDLY TONE APPRECIATED

Some Comment, However, as To Matter of Practice — Views of Some Prominent London Papers on the Subject

New York, Jan. 11.—An Associated Press despatch from Washington says: "The United States government, it became known today, is not altogether satisfied with the note of Sir Edward Grey giving Great Britain's preliminary reply to President Wilson's protest concerning the treatment of American commerce by the British fleet."

"While gratified that Great Britain admits the justice of practically all the principles of international law cited in the American note, officials related today that the chief difficulty had been England's neglect to make her usual practice square with the previously accepted rules of international law. It is realized by officials here that a long diplomatic correspondence concerning the principles of the American case, but not actual carrying them into practice, will not meet the complaints of American exporters and shippers, and although Englishmen supplementarily are expected to give a more detailed statement of her position, officials plan to take up vigorously all individual cases which may meanwhile arise."

CANADIAN SOLDIER OF FIRST CONTINGENT WINS $100 IN GOLD

When James Cook of Morris street, Halifax, walked into Doctor Maher's dental office in Halifax early last May and spent $1 for dental work he did not dream that two things would happen; first, that a world war would take place and that the month of January would find him enlisted and now stationed at Salisbury Plain, nor, secondly, did he imagine that he would become the winner of the $100 in gold on a trip to California offered by the Boston Dental Parlor, yet both these things have come true.

Through the prompt action of a North End sailing master, Captain Gooderich Gayton, in Pawtucket, R. Captain Gayton was aboard his schooner, the "Hosanna," which hauls from St. John, when his attention was directed to a body floating down stream. He quickly set about his recovery, according to an account published in "The Tribune" of Pawtucket, and in a few minutes was able to pull it aboard his ship. It was then seen that there was a chance for life and the woman, who was sent to a hospital, where she soon recovered. The newspaper says that the woman's clothing kept her afloat.

IMPERIALS NEW FEATURES

A very sprightly vaudeville offering marks the Imperial's bill this week, the Marino Sisters, a high-class contoured singing duo, featuring standard popular songs. The young ladies not only sing well, but dress their numbers appropriately and very richly. The pictorial bill for the opening of the week shows Alice Joyce wearing $1,000,000 worth of real jewels added to a "Lucille" gown, the third chapter of the "Hazards of Helen"; war articles in the Hearst-Selig Weekly and some more of George Ade's fables in slang. Miss Adair will sing also. These improvements include the sapphire point instead of the needle, the multi-tone sound-box, special construction in cabinet work, perfected sounding diaphragm and unequalled motor equipment. Lovers of talking-machine entertainment will realize the truth of the claims made for the French instrument upon hearing it demonstrated at Hoyt Bros' store, 47-49 German street, next to the Royal Hotel.

The Best Quality at a Reasonable Price See Sharpe's Optometrist And You'll See Better

Most defects in vision can be corrected by properly fitted glasses. Many people do not attend to it, when it's not 40, and don't see well, your trouble probably is a matter of your eyes in childhood. If you are about 40 or older, nature has simply taken her toll from your eyes, just as she has from your legs and arms.

You can't see as well as you used to, because it's a physical impossibility to accommodate the eyes as you could when you were younger.

No matter what your age is, Sharpe's optometrist can help your sight if there's anything wrong with it. The examination will not take long, and will cause you no distress. You don't need glasses, you'll be told so frankly. If you do need them, you'll be provided with properly fitted glasses, and that's exactly what your eyes require.

ARE NOT QUITE SATISFIED AT WASHINGTON

(Continued from page 1.) To legitimate and unavoidable results of the war, and did not prove the American exports were reaching England's enemies in quantity.

British Opinions London, Jan. 11.—The London afternoon papers, commenting on the reply of Foreign Secretary Grey to the American note, are unanimous in calling attention to Great Britain's debt of gratitude to the United States and her desire to repay it by interfering with American trade as little as is necessary to secure the safety of this country and her allies.

The papers take the ground that the foreign secretary's facts and figures, unless they can be explained or rebutted, prove that enormous supplies, necessary to the prosecution of the war, have reached the enemy under cover of neutral trade.

The Westminster Gazette says: "A belligerent is guarding his own interests. No obligation rests upon a neutral to help a belligerent or to prevent the embarkation of contraband. We do not wish to throw the slightest responsibility on the United States, but in dealing with a friendly neutral we can in a variety of ways consult his convenience, and the people of the United States may be assured that we will do whatever is possible to mitigate the sting of 'war' measures. Closer co-operation between the two governments will have good results."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Foreign Secretary Grey's reply was just what every Briton will approve, who warmly wishes to see the friendship of the United States, but who also is determined that no legitimate weapon shall be sheathed which can be used to bring the war to a speedy and successful conclusion."

The Globe expresses the opinion that Sir Edward Grey's frank and friendly reply goes in some direction toward meeting the wishes of the United States, than some of us think prudent.

The Globe suggests that the principal trouble over the question of contraband is an American trade prohibition of the publication of ship manifests until thirty days after the vessels have left American ports. In this connection the paper says: "If the consequent detention is inconvenient to the American trader, the American government has the remedy in its own hands."

MAJOR McLEAN IS TO COMMAND ONE OF SQUADRONS

Soldiers Entertained The Philathea Society of the German street Baptist church entertained between thirty and forty soldiers in the church institute last evening from five o'clock until a few minutes before seven. They were ably assisted by several members of the brotherhood, with "Colonel" Davis in command. An orchestra was in attendance, and a pleasant hour or more was spent with music, after which supper was served in the big dining and assembly room of the institute. Rev. Doctor McDonald and W. C. Cross briefly addressed the men, and Tipperary was sung with great vigor. A recitation by Private Hughes added greatly to the interest of the programme. A large delegation of ladies of the church was present. The soldiers greatly enjoyed the entertainment and practically all of them remained to the evening service in the church. They were invited to make use of the institute rooms every Monday and Friday evening.

While he is in the city tomorrow Brig. Gen. Rutherford will inspect the members of the No. 6 Co. A. S. C. under Major McKean, in a field near Fairville. After the excellent showing the members of this unit made in yesterday's church parade, their first time for such

With uniforms and equipment for the additional men, one new horse and their equipment, Commissioner McLellan made his estimate for the year $78,418.53. He pointed out the increase in expenditure to be $9 per cent, while the increase in the effective men of the force would be at least fifty per cent, while it would be impossible to estimate the additional results secured.

For Patriotic Fund. It was agreed that a vote on the estimates would be deferred until that of all departments had been submitted. Mayor Frank sounded a warning as to the increase in the tax rate. The county estimates were to come in, but they knew that these estimates would include $81,000 for the tuberculosis hospital, $12,000 for the Belgian and Patriotic funds and an overdraft of $10,000. Then he would ask for $28,000 for the Patriotic fund. Whatever went by the board, they could not neglect the soldiers.

The answer is that they resumed at three o'clock this afternoon. At four o'clock the commissioners will hear a delegation from the Playgrounds Association on behalf of an increased grant.

For German Prisoners (Amherst News). The preparation of the Lallebaule Iron Factory for the internment of German prisoners means much to Amherst. With eighty men on the job, eighty families are being supplied. Not only are the laborers making profit, but the contractors as well.

Sanitary arrangements are also excellent. Thirty-five closets are being placed throughout the building. There are five kitchen sinks for the prisoners and their guards, wags in the prison kitchen are an additional sink, twenty-four feet in length has been installed.

Possibly one of the biggest portions of one contract was the placing of the six hundred feet of abutment tables for the prisoners' kitchen. There are seventy-five taps from one and a half inch pipe, turning a flow of water along the boards.

Was Pale, Weak and Thin, and Had Nervous Headaches Before Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. H. Laich, Cannington Manor, Sask. writes:—You will remember me writing you last spring. Well, I gave up my doctor and began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This treatment cured me rapidly and I was soon myself again. I was pale, thin and weak, suffered from stomach troubles and liver complaint, and frequently had sick, nervous headaches. "I was surprised to find that in a few weeks' time I had gained 39 pounds in weight. I never felt so strong and well in all my life. Headaches never bother me any more, and I am grateful for the cure. If people would only give this medicine a fair trial they would certainly be cured."

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 11, 1915.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE WAR NEWS.

It is again declared that the relations between Greece and Turkey have reached a critical stage, and also that Roumania is practically certain to join in the war on the side of the Allies.

Today's cables say that the German offensive in the direction of Warsaw is less active, and it is thought a new plan of campaign in that region is about to be adopted.

The news from the Carpathians is to the effect that the Turks are bringing up heavy reinforcements, in the hope of retrieving to some extent their heavy losses in last week's great battle with the Russians.

There is still desperate fighting in France, especially in the region of Alsace, but the floods prevent the effective movement of infantry where the armies confront each other in Belgium.

German aeroplanes have again been hovering over Dunkirk and throwing bombs, but without doing any serious damage.

The reports appear to indicate the Canadian troops for France, but no definite information has been given out.

A significant statement comes from Rome to the effect that despatches from Vienna quote the Emperor Francis Joseph as saying to members of the Gallic nobility that his efforts are being directed to ending the war at the earliest moment possible.

Of course the war cannot be ended until German militarism is crushed, but the withdrawal of Austria from her alliance with Germany would greatly expedite that result.

THE BRITISH NOTE. The full text of the preliminary British reply to the American note of protest has been very favorably received in the United States, and is unanimously endorsed by the London press.

Another illustration is found in German Southwest Africa, where labor is hard to get, and one of the government experts who addressed the Reichstag on the principles of colonization said: "The Hereros must be compelled to work, and to work without compensation and in return for their food only."

Forced labor for years is only a just punishment, and at the same time it is the best method of training them. The feelings of Christianity and philanthropy, with which the missionaries work, must for the present be repudiated with all energy.

In the very same year, however (1904), according to Mr. W. H. Dawson, in his book "The Evolution of Modern Germany," General Von Trotha decided that the thing to do was not merely to repudiate "the feelings of Christianity and philanthropy," but to exterminate the natives entirely.

In a proclamation he said: "The Herero people must now leave the land. If it refuses I shall compel it with the gun. Within the German frontier every Herero, with or without weapon, with or without cattle will be shot. I shall take charge of no more women and children, but shall drive them back to their people or let them be shot at."

We are told that as a result of this order thousands of the natives were slain and thousands more driven into the desert to die.

abilities of the future is clear from a speech which he delivered in the Reichstag in 1895, or nearly fifteen years after the seizure of the two provinces. He declared that no French ministry had the courage to say that the French government renounced Strasbourg or accepted the peace by the terms of which they had lost Alsace-Lorraine.

Bismarck was seeking to secure the passage of a bill to increase the military strength of Germany, and he told the Reichstag that Germany's only hope of peace lay in such a military strength as would discourage France from declaring war.

"The possibility not only of a war but of a defeat is always there and you must not forget what the consequences of such an event would be. If a victorious French army stood before the gates of Berlin what conditions do you think would be imposed on us?"

The time is at hand when Bismarck's question of thirty years ago will be answered. A victorious French army will stand before the gates of Berlin, and one of the conditions imposed upon Germany will be the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine.

GERMAN BARBARITY. The discussion of barbarities committed by German soldiers in Belgium has recalled something of the former history of German military operations.

For example, when the Kaiser addressed the troops which were sent to aid in quelling the Boxer rising in China in 1900 he said: "Quarter will not be given. Whoever falls into your hands is forfeit to you, just as one thousand years ago the Huns of Attila made a name for themselves which is still mighty in tradition and story."

Another illustration is found in German Southwest Africa, where labor is hard to get, and one of the government experts who addressed the Reichstag on the principles of colonization said: "The Hereros must be compelled to work, and to work without compensation and in return for their food only."

Personal ridicule of the proxy editor of The Times by the brilliant editor of the Standard will not restore the $2,000 which was taken "by compulsion" from a railroad contractor, or give back to the lumbermen or the provincial treasury the fund collected by Mr. Berry and Mr. Teed.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

LIGHTER VEIN. Home Made Presents

"I thought I'd be economical this year and make my Christmas presents myself instead of buying them," said Mrs. Harlem; "so I bought a book of instructions and went ahead."

"How did you make out?" asked Mrs. Bronx.

"The materials footed up to $48.98, and I put in a month's hard sewing and cutting."

"How did that compare with last year?"

"Last year I bought all I wanted for $35."

A dandy went into a photographer's in a country town to get his photo taken. When the job was done he refused to pay, on the grounds that the picture was not like him.

"All right," said the photographer, "leave it there."

Next day he was passing the place and saw his picture in a showcase, and under it were the words, in big letters: "The ugliest mug in town."

He rushed in and abused the artist. "But, my man," said the artist, "yesterday you said the picture was not like you, so you have no reason to complain."

CANADA IN THE WAR

ed that Lt. Col. L. W. Shannon, assistant adjutant general of this division, will succeed General Hodgins.

An invalid soldier who returned to Canada yesterday, landing at Halifax from the steamer Missanable, said that more Canadian soldiers now quartered in Salisbury Plain were to be soon moved to the front.

Premier Murray of Nova Scotia had word yesterday of the safe arrival of the third Belgian relief ship from Halifax, at Rotterdam.

MOTHER! IT'S CRUEL TO FORCE OIL OR CALOMEL INTO A SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "physic" that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by the.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing give "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. It should be the first remedy given as it always does good, never any harm.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups painfully on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Britain Maintains Right of Search; Willing To Make Some Concessions

Washington, Jan. 10.—Great Britain's preliminary reply to the note from the United States government requesting an improvement in the treatment of American commerce by the British fleet was made public here and in London today by mutual agreement between the State department and the British foreign office.

The British communication concurred in the view of the United States that commerce between neutral nations should be interfered with only when imperatively necessary, and officials of the Washington government construed it as conceding that many of the principles expressed by the American note were just, and upheld by the previously accepted usages of international law. The only formal comment made tonight was contained in a brief statement issued by Secretary Bryan, who said:

"This answer being preliminary and not being intended as a complete reply, we will postpone comment until the full answer is received."

Briefly, the British note, while conceding the principles of the American government's contentions, points out difficulties in actual

CATARRH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by any local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

POLICE CHANGES

Sergt. John J. Smith was promoted by Chief of Police Clark last night from the charge of the night patrol on the northern division to the North End command in succession to Sergt. Kilpatrick, resigned. Acting Sergt. James E. Ross was called in out of the ranks and promoted to take Sergt. Smith's job. Both officers are popular and the appointments will be very favorably received.

WHAT WILL RELIEVE STOMACH TROUBLE

A Hard Question—But This Retired Ohio Farmer Answers It—Mr. Matteson's Statements Are Reliable.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"I suffered from nervous dyspepsia and stomach trouble so that large lumps would seem to come up in my throat, and would get so dizzy I could not stand up or even see. I tried different remedies but nothing seemed to help me until one day my druggist told me about Vinol. I tried it and soon noticed an improvement and now I am well."—J. A. T. MATTESON, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Vinol seldom fails to strengthen and tone up the tired, overtaxed and enervated nerves of the digestive organs and remove the cause of indigestion and soon enables the sufferer to digest with ease the foods that once caused distress. Vinol also creates a healthy appetite and builds up the weakened run-down system.

We have such faith in Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, that we ask every person in this vicinity suffering from nervous dyspepsia or stomach trouble to try Vinol on our offer to return their purchase money if it fails to benefit.

CONCERT IN AID OF NEW INFIRMARY SUDDAY A DECIDED SUCCESS

The sacred concert conducted in the Opera House yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the City Cornet Band in aid of the new infirmary, was distinctly successful. Every seat available was filled. A silver collection was taken and quite a sum secured. The committee in charge have reason to feel well satisfied with the results. The committee was composed of Miss Alice Dillon, S. C. Hurley, F. J. Joyce, Dr. C. M. Kelly, J. McGrath and J. Lloyd.

The programme was particularly meritorious and gave pleasure to all present. The band selections under the baton of Director Frank Waddington was highly praised. Those taking part in the programme besides the band, were Mrs. C. Morris, Miss Nellie Colahan, and Miss Louise Knight, each of whom was well received. The concert was thoroughly enjoyable.

The Sisters of Charity return sincere thanks to the members of the City Cornet Band, the ladies and gentlemen who took part in the concert and all who by their presence helped this worthy cause.

WAR NOTES

An unconfirmed report is published in La Prensa of Buenos Ayres, telling of the sinking of the German cruiser Von Tarn, 16,000 tons, by the British cruiser Invincible, 17,250 tons, of Admiral Sturdee's fleet. The Havas Agency reports that Danzig was bombarded by a dozen German aeroplanes on Sunday and thirty bombs were dropped, but little damage done. The alleged persecution of Greeks in Asia Minor is the immediate cause of strained relations between Greece and Turkey.

All this time I was suffering from dyspepsia from the improper food I was eating at the restaurant. "One day I saw a package of Grape-Nuts at the restaurant and tried some with cream. The food took my fancy at once. After a few lunches on it at midnight I noted an improvement in my feelings, and was able to work with less fatigue. "I have used Grape-Nuts as a regular diet since then, and have improved greatly. The old dyspepsia and bad feelings that I thought were necessary adjuncts to night work disappeared, and I am able to do much more and better work with less effort than ever before. This is the baseball player's inning. Bill Klem is the only umpire now in the big leagues who has officiated in six world series.

President Joe Lamm of the Red Sox said the other day that he would not be surprised if the American League moguls continued the team limit at twenty-five instead of cutting down to ten the National League's twenty-one-players-to-team rule.

Barney Dreyfus says that the Pirates won three pennants when their numbers were less than the present twenty-one player rule allowed, and adds that he has had done more by any one.

Anglo-German Match. Berlin, via London, Jan. 9.—The German army authorities have issued a general order prohibiting in future troops in the field from fraternizing with forces of the enemy as they did at several points in the western theatre of the war at Christmas.

To such an extent was this fraternizing carried out that at one place where the Germans and British played football Christmas Day they agreed to suspend hostilities for two days more.

BRITAIN'S PRINCE "TOMMY'S" FRIEND

Future King Performs Acts of Kindness in Fighting Zone

Known in Lines as "That Grenadier Chap" — Prince of Wales Gave His Collar Badge To Belgian Child

Writing from Northern France a special correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle sends the following account of the activities of the Prince of Wales:

Active service seems to suit the Prince of Wales very well and he is looking fit and well in spite of the enormous amount of work he manages to cram into the hours from daybreak until some time almost daybreak.

His Royal Highness absolutely refuses to allow anybody to relieve him of one iota of his duties. He manages in the most unobtrusive manner to perform many acts of kindness when he thinks he can do it without being recognized.

His penalty of being a prince of the royal blood of England is to be much in the public eye and many are the little anecdotes which have percolated through to headquarters. One of the prince's favorite habits is to vanish from mortal ken—"simply evaporate"—as one officer said to me—to be discovered possibly an hour later calmly smoking a cigarette and interrogating wounded men in some out-of-the-way corner which is invariably nearer the danger zone than his Royal Highness should be.

"That Grenadier Chap." He likes to get among men who do not know him, and the other day he was found sitting in a bus talking to a wounded sergeant and a downed private of the Seaforths, while the sergeant was explaining the methods of the messenger came up and said something to the Prince, who turned round and wished the man good-bye and good luck and then went off.

A minute or two later a soldier who had been standing near by came up to the bus and looked in "French great Grenadier chap" said the sergeant to the companion. "Why, didn't you know?" he replied, with a grin—"It's only the Prince of Wales."

A look of consternation overcame the features of the worthy sergeant and his companions. "Grenadier chap," said here's me and the boys smoking all his cigarettes, and I only called him 'Sir'!" Never mind, sergeant, your place won't think any the less of you for that, if you but knew it.

A Friend in Need. There is the petrol episode. One day, seeing a car jammed by the side of the road and two French soldiers wandering aimlessly about, the Prince pulled up and asked a passing figure "What's the matter?" "Well, your grace," replied the car owner, "I've run out of petrol, and I'm stuck here. Will you be so good as to lend me some?"

"Do you know who the officer is?" "That's no matter."

"Well, perhaps it may interest you to know that you are indebted to the Prince of Wales—good day and thanks," said the car started off, leaving the two French soldiers looking at one another.

"What's the matter?" "Well, your grace," replied the car owner, "I've run out of petrol, and I'm stuck here. Will you be so good as to lend me some?"

"Do you know who the officer is?" "That's no matter."

AN ELECTRIC BATTERY IN YOUR MOUTH

A dead frog, kicking convulsively as it hung from the iron railing of an Italian balcony—this was the first electric battery!

Luigi Galvani, a scientist born in Bologna, Italy, in 1777, had hung the frog on the balcony by a copper wire. He noticed that every time the legs touched the iron frog kicked. He believed this proved the frog's body contained electricity, but modern scientists know that the electric current was generated because the copper and iron were in contact above, while they were also connected by the body of the frog which had been soaked in a solution of salt and water. It is on this principle of two metals joined at one end and immersed in an acid solution, that scientists have invented the "galvanic cell," as it is called after Galvani.

You can make a primitive electric battery in your own mouth if you wish by placing a small piece of zinc and a piece of copper on your tongue and letting their edges touch. You will note at once a peculiar bitter taste. This proves that the metals, together with the salty saliva on the tongue, have made an electric cell of your mouth!

RE-UNITED THROUGH THE TELEGRAPH AND TIMES

Dorothy Weston, Sought by Father, is Located Here

Through the columns of The Telegraph and Times, a father and daughter have been reunited after a separation of five years. In Friday's Telegraph there appeared a letter from C. F. Weston, of Cloverdale, Carleton county, N. B., asking for information as to the whereabouts of his daughter, Dorothy May Weston who had recently left Yarmouth to come to St. John. A Times reporter located Miss Weston this morning at the Cornwall and York mill, Wall street, where she is employed and she explained that friends had already brought the story in the Telegraph to her attention and she had immediately written to her father.

The family is English and Miss Weston says that she was separated from her father about five years ago when he was working on the Golden Valley Fruit Farm at Truro and that she went to Yarmouth but that when her father left Truro she left Yarmouth about the same time and thus they lost track of each other. She was glad to hear that he was living and well in Carleton county and hoped her letter would reach him. Miss Weston is comfortably situated in a boarding house in Winter street and her employers speak well of her.

Cuba is the latest nation to have naval aspirations. According to information received by Cesar Barranco, local consul, two submarines and ten torpedo boat destroyers have been ordered by the island republic and she will soon be in a position to protect her neutrality.

Mr. Barranco today called attention to the fact that Pullman cars were now being conveyed across the steel car ferry from Key West to Havana and that tourists could now take their reservations through from New York and not change cars until they reached the extreme southern end of the island of Cuba.

DIRECT LINE BEFORE LONG BETWEEN ST. JOHN AND HAVANA

Cuban Consul Pleased With Developments of Last Two Months

"Before long we will have a greatly increased trade and a direct line of steamers running between St. John and Havana, if the progress made in the last two months is maintained," said Cesar Barranco, Cuban consul, this morning when interviewed as to the prospects for increased business with his country.

"The letters which I sent out early in December asking for co-operation of provincial shippers in routing their exports through St. John and which your paper was kind enough to publish have brought a very hearty response, both from merchants already engaged in the Cuban trade and from new firms seeking a market. Among the articles on the list mentioned are potatoes, fish and box shoes and one of these come from a Prince Edward Island man who undertook to transfer his business from Halifax to St. John.

"There has already been an eight increase in the trade although time is able to secure the direct service. Your potatoes here are superior to any of the American potatoes and should be in great demand in Cuba.

The "Go" of Our Mid-Winter Sale Is Perfectly Wonderful

(It is the Original)
 (It is the Greatest)
 (It is the Reliable)

These annual mid-winter events have grown larger and larger with the public's better realization of their benefits, but this one has thus far exceeded in volume of sales any previous one and this in view of the fact of the numerous clothing sales now being conducted by different stores.

Such throngs as have been here last Friday and Saturday the opening days could not have been attracted had there been any doubt of the sincerity of the statements made or of the genuineness of the values offered. And this is far more gratification to us in the thought of this manifestation of CONFIDENCE on the part of the public than in the fact that the volume of sales exceeds that of any corresponding period in our history.

The roots of this 26 year old business oak are facing deeper and deeper, and its branches extending wider and wider—and under them there is safety and protection for all who deal here.
