Huns Again Raid London; At Least 11 People Killed

Seven or Eight Air Machines Get Across

INJURED NUMBER 46

Feared Six More Bodies Are in Wreckage of Houses—German Spring Surprise by Not Waiting for Moonlight Night

London, Mar. 8.—Seven or eight German airplanes made a raid over England last night. One dropped bombs in the northwest and southwest districts of the city. Another dropped bombs in the north district of London, demolishing several houses. The following statement was made officially:—

"An official report says:—'Last night's air raid appears to have been carried out by seven or eight enemy airplanes, of which two reached London. The first two raiders approached the Isle of Thanet at about 10.55 p. m., and proceeded up the Thames estuary. Both were turned back before reaching London.

"Meanwhile the third raider came across the Essex coast at 11.20 p. m. and dived west. At 11.45 p. m. it was reported over East London. A few minutes later it dropped bombs on the southwestern and northwestern districts. At 11.50 p. m. the fourth raider, which had also come in across Essex, dropped bombs to the north of London, and then proceeded south across the capital, dropping its remaining bombs on the northern district between 12.20 and 12.30 a. m. The remaining enemy machine, of which came across the Essex coast, was turned back before they reached London.

"A certain amount of damage was caused to residential property in London. Several houses have been demolished. The first of these was a three-story house in the northwestern district, which was completely wrecked, but the clergyman escaped. He is a special constable and had left home in a motor car. The explosion came a few minutes before the explosion which damaged his residence. The vicar worked throughout the night, assisting the wounded and homeless neighbors.

A later official report reads: "The latest police reports state that eleven were killed and forty-six injured in last night's air raid. The house of the British Legion in the northwestern district was destroyed, but the clergyman escaped. He is a special constable and had left home in a motor car. The explosion came a few minutes before the explosion which damaged his residence. The vicar worked throughout the night, assisting the wounded and homeless neighbors.

The greatest damage in London was inflicted in the northwestern section, where four bombs demolished several houses. All the damage and casualties in the district were confined to two parallel streets, although as usual windows were broken in a radius of several blocks. A single raider appeared over this area. Hundreds of persons were just preparing to desert their homes, most of which are three-story buildings, for the more substantial shelter of the two nearby subways when the bombs began to fall.

The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and brick, crashing through two floors before it exploded. While the police, special constables and volunteer rescuers were busy there three more bombs fell nearby in quick succession. Ambulances arrived speedily and, notwithstanding the confusion, the rescuers worked effectively under the anti-aircraft barrage. For twenty minutes after the bombing of this district the barrage was continued.

There was a remarkable display of the anti-aircraft lights last night and it is believed by many that this furnished conditions under which the air raiders could work more effectively than under a clear starry sky. As if to accentuate the brightness by contrast, the skies to the southwest towards France and the English channel grew what seemed to be pitch dark.

HON. F. B. CARVELL MAKES REFERENCE TO RAILWAYS

Says He Realizes That Government Lines in Canada Must Be Rebuilt

Ottawa, Mar. 8.—"I am not an engineer," said Hon. Frank B. Carvell, minister of public works, to an assembly of engineers yesterday, "I am a farmer. Perhaps you did not know that. Sometimes I practice law for the purpose of making a living."

In referring to the problems of reconstruction which will face the world when the war has ended, Mr. Carvell said the time was in Canada when the engineer was supposed, as a matter of course, to go out on railway survey, but that time had passed.

"We must have railways, of course," he said. "I don't want to discuss the railway situation. Canada today is pretty well supplied with railways, at least the government of Canada is. I am not advocating the construction of more railways, but I realize that the railways, at least the government railways, must be rebuilt. They must be made safe for trains and that is a work for engineering ability and service."

Debate May Be Closed By Tonight

Legislature To Get Early Down To Business

Ottawa, Mar. 8.—The ceremonies at the opening of parliament on Monday, March 18, will be of a strictly business-like character. In this the example of the British parliament is being followed. There the king and his staff officiated at the opening in service khaki.

Colonel Chambers, leader of the Black Rod, announced this morning that there will be no invitations issued this year to the floor of the senate and when the governor-general arrives to open parliament, although the time honored programme will be followed in its entirety, there will be no one on the floor of the senate but the senators and floor officers for that purpose.

Fredericton, March 8.—If preliminary plans may be taken as a criterion this is to be a business like session of the legislature. It is understood that when the house resumes this afternoon, Mr. Murray, leader of the opposition, will be heard on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Unless the unforeseen occurs, Premier Foster will then close the debate and the reply will be submitted to the House at an early date, thus clearing the decks for action on the regular business without further delay. It is expected that the house will adjourn this afternoon to resume on Monday evening.

A Railway Project. The committee to nominate all standing and select committees, consisting of Hon. Messrs. Foster, Veinot and Robinson, Mr. Murray (Kings), and Mr. Smith (Carleton), met at noon today. As there have been no changes since last year to affect the situation, all the committees were re-nominated without change.

W. H. Manfield, of Bangor, president of the Eastern Maine Railway Company, is in Fredericton seeking legislation to aid in promoting a new line of railway. The proposed line would be from a point at or near Fredericton on the Valley Railway to the Maine border. Mr. Manfield says he has charters for the construction of a connecting line on the other side of the boundary up to the Maine border, but would need to complete the line in New Brunswick to make his project of any value.

Judging from the attitude of the members, due to war conditions and also to the railway problems they now have on their hands as a result of the policy of the previous government, it does not seem at all likely that Mr. Manfield will receive a favorable reception. There seems to be a general feeling that the province will have all it can attend to in the way of railway propositions as a result of the war.

The first caucus of the government members was held last evening to discuss the programme for the session. Hon. J. T. Burchill, Northumberland, was re-elected chairman and J. E. Michaud was elected secretary.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"TOM SAWYER" AT IMPERIAL

The "Precious Jewels" He Got for Allowing His Pals to Whitewash the Fence—Fatty Arbuckle Too

In "Tom Sawyer" which is the attraction just now at Imperial Theatre, Jack Pickford has achieved one of the best boy impersonations of his entire career. The picture was filmed in the town of Missouri, and shows the very house where Mark Twain lived as a boy and the house where Huck Finn lived. It is all here—even to the famous fence which Tom was set to whitewash the morning his friends came to see at him but remained to paint the fence for which previous privilege they paid to Tom—do you remember?

Twelve marbles.
Part of a Jew-harp.
A cotton spool.
A key that wouldn't unlock.
A piece of chalk.
A glass stopper.
A tin soldier.
Two tadpoles.
A fire-cracker.
A kitten with one eye.
A brass door-knob.
A dog collar.
Broken knife handle.
Four pieces of orange peel.
Pieces of broken ash.

All these precious articles will be shown in the course of the famous story and everybody who sees "Tom Sawyer" will be tickled to pieces. It is a gem of boyhood days literature. In addition to this big attraction the Imperial will present the remarkable "Hoosier" (Fatty) Arbuckle in his late success "A Country Hero." In fact no more cheerful and wholesome programme could be put on for old and young. The serial skips this week through an American express embargo that withheld the fourth chapter for seven days. All Canadian and Eastern American houses are affected by this war measure.

Arthur Henderson Says:

Buy in St. John isn't enough. Buy at Henderson's, that's the stuff. I think it's a poor citizen that sends out of town for his wearing apparel, or anything else. The reason Upper Canada has control of the wealth of Canada is that too many of the other provinces send a big part of their money to Ontario and Quebec to purchase merchandise that can be had at home just as cheap, and in some cases cheaper. When it's Clothing, buy at Henderson's. HENDERSON 104 King St.

Rheumatism Entirely Gone

After Twenty-seven Years of Suffering—Swelling and Puffiness Has Disappeared—Not a Pain or an Ache Left

A most astonishing cure of rheumatism and eczema has been reported here, and Mrs. Ray is enthusiastic in telling her many friends how cure was effected. Rheumatism and eczema frequently go together, and in this case caused the most keen distress imaginable. All the swelling and puffiness resulting from many years of rheumatism has disappeared, and there is not a pain or an ache left.

Mr. G. H. Ray, R. R. No. 1, Kincaid, Ont., writes: "Mrs. Ray has been using your Kidney-Liver Pills. She was very bad with rheumatism and eczema, and had had the fearful twenty-seven years. It was simply terrible what she suffered. I persuaded her to try $1.00 worth of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. She is now on the last box, and let me tell you she scarcely knows herself, she is so free from both these diseases. All the swelling and puffiness caused by the rheumatism has gone away, and she has gone down in weight 18½ pounds. She never has an ache nor pain, biliousness nor sick head, all these things she often says herself 'How glad I am that I know what to do instead of paying doctors so much to make me worse.'"

There is only one way that the poison in the blood can be cleaned out, and that is by the healthy action of the kidneys, liver and bowels. Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly and specifically on these organs and ensure their activity they remove the cause of rheumatism and other dreadfully painful and fatal diseases. One will lose 25 cents a box, all dealers of Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTOR GOES TO PENITENTIARY

Two Years for Winnipeg Man—Montreal Socialist's Plea for Exemption

Winnipeg, Mar. 8.—Arthur P. Carter, a conscientious objector, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge MacDonnell in the city police court yesterday. When asked to what denomination he belonged, he could name no particular sect.

Montreal, Mar. 8.—Michael Boulay, a well known Socialist worker, appeared before Mr. Justice Lane yesterday as military appeal court judge, and pleaded for exemption from service on the ground that his operations as a labor organizer were in the national interest, while he was possessed, he argued, of unusual aptitude. Boulay was the defeated candidate in Jacques Cartier at the recent federal elections and contended by his arrest yesterday, the partner of his successful opponent, S. W. Jacobs. The case was taken on a delibere.

KAISER'S PROPERTY FIRST UNDER HAMMER

Hollweg's Holdings in The United States Also To Be Sold

Washington, Mar. 8.—Property in the United States owned by the Kaiser himself, former Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg, the German "junkers" generally, and the German government itself, will be the first to go under the hammer under the plan of a Mitchell Palmer alien property custodian, to sell German-owned property here to the highest bidder.

Properties of merely minor individuals probably will not be sold, but the direct purpose of the move is to break up the outposts of Kultur in America.

REPORT BY THE DOMINION ANALYST ON CANNED FISH

Ottawa, Mar. 8.—A McGill, chief Dominion analyst, has reported on 275 samples of canned fish collected in all parts of Canada. Of these samples, 166 were salmon, the most generally used canned fish. Of the salmon samples, 110 were found sound and good; seven showed softened fish but nothing to indicate decomposition. These samples, the report says, were probably several years old. Three samples were spoiled by decay. In eighteen samples the tin was slightly corroded and the contents stained with iron. These, too, were presumably several years old. It is much to be desired, says the report, in this connection, that the date of packing should be marked on the tin.

Of thirty-nine samples of sardines reported on, in only one were the contents spoiled by decay. Of twenty samples of herring fourteen were found in good condition. All nine samples of lobsters examined were found to be in good condition.

THE WHOLE BODY NEEDS PURE BLOOD

The bones, the muscles, and all the organs of the body depend for their strength and tone and healthy action on pure blood.

If the blood is very impure, the bones become diseased; the muscles become feeble; tomorrow loses its elasticity, and there is inability to perform the usual amount of labor. The skin loses its clearness, and pimples, blotches and other eruptions appear.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood. It is positively unequalled in the treatment of scrofula and other humors, catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, that tired feeling. Be sure to get Hood's and get it today. All druggists.

THE SOLDIERS AND THE TEMPTATIONS OF LONDON

Ottawa, Mar. 8.—That "the existing organizations provide every conceivable counter attraction to the lure of the streets, and the only man who gets into trouble in London today is the man who will find his way to trouble anywhere," is the assertion made in an official report just received by the military department on organizations for the care of Canadian soldiers in the empire's capital.

"There are temptations in every city," the report goes on to say, "and London in war time cannot pretend to be a Utopia. Though the sale of alcoholic drinks has been enormously restricted by law, though treating is forbidden and drunkenness has decreased almost to the vanishing point, and though the efforts of what is probably the most effective police system in the world have worked wonders in the repression of temptations to vice, it would be folly to suggest that there are no temptations in London."

The Belgians on the 6th, after beating back the raiders, counter-attacked splendidly behind an intense barrage. The raiders were steadily driven back into their own lines with heavy losses. The Belgian raiders took eighty-four prisoners, eight machine guns and a quantity of rifles and bombs."

RECORD YEAR IN LOSSES BY FIRE

Total of $230,000,000 in United States, Highest in Some Years

Trenton, N. J., Mar. 8.—Losses from fire aggregated $230,000,000 in 1917, and were larger than in any previous year, except one, 1906, in the nation's history, according to a communication received by the New Jersey State Council of Defense from the Council of National Defense. The San Francisco earthquake and conflagration occurred in 1906. The losses also totalled $300,000,000 more than in 1917.

The communication from the National Council of Defense asserts that a particularly ominous feature of the situation is a recent great increase of fires of incendiary origin in places where they were effective in discouraging industry, such as factories, warehouses, lumber yards and docks.

"This disastrous condition must be improved," it declares. "The speeding up of industries must not be allowed to crowd out precautions known to be important, nor must over-confidence be allowed to relax safeguards."

A NEEDED REFORM.

The government bill providing for a public health department for this province will doubtless receive the most sympathetic consideration from the members of the legislature. In a circular recently issued the following appears: "This department would occupy a position similar to that occupied by other departments, such as public works, lands and mines, agriculture, etc. Among the many matters receiving attention and over which this department would have control are found the following: Vital statistics, medical inspection of public schools, tuberculosis, venereal disease control—(the latter has become a gigantic problem and one which all governments are concentrating every effort to combat, and if not taken in hand immediately in this province will possibly have disseminated itself among hundreds of innocent families throughout the province)—child welfare, prevention of epidemics, examination of milk, examination of water supply, etc."

The proposed legislation is based upon the Hall report, recently issued, in which the sanitary expert, Mr. John Hall, said: "An investigation of health conditions in New Brunswick shows that, except in the three largest communities, very little so-called public health work is done. Vital statistics and other records are in a deplorable state, and few actual facts relating to the health of the people can now be obtained. There is evidence, however, that epidemics of communicable diseases of children are relatively common and cause many deaths. Tuberculosis is prevalent but poorly cared for, and the infant mortality rate, at least in some places, is high. The provincial government, while having the legal power, has done almost nothing to remedy conditions. The registration of vital statistics has been discouraged, the board of health has had no money, information or interest to work with, and has done little aside from trying to control smallpox epidemics. The Jordan Memorial Sanitarium for treatment of early cases of tuberculosis is almost the only constructive work now under way. A plan for the establishment of a provincial department of health on modern lines will require new laws, capable officials and money, and must be unhampered by politics. The greatest need is for a propaganda of popular education, and the means of carrying this on are many. Provision for laboratory facilities, medical school inspection, adequate control of communicable diseases, and supervision over sanitary engineering should be made at once."

Mr. Hall says that in going through the province he found a lively interest in the subject and a consciousness of the fact that in the matter of health promotion and disease control New Brunswick is far behind the times. He adds that no more suitable time for action ever came to a government than now, during the period of the great war and its demands for conservation.

In this connection it is worthy of note that the Public Health Journal, in its February number, calls for the establishment of a federal department of public health to co-operate with the provincial departments. We quote one paragraph: "Canada is big enough to establish and maintain a federal department of health which will command respect and consideration; and in which politics will play no part; and finally one which would make certain that every Canadian, present and future, enjoyed a maximum of good health, reasonable hours of labor, health insurance, and other benefits which are the right of a citizen of a great natural wealth we are entitled to. Let us for one thing cease manufacturing railway millionaires and in place thereof develop a federal department of public health."

These remarks apply to New Brunswick as well as to Canada as a whole. This province must have a modern health department for its own sake, and such a department could bring still greater benefits to the people by co-operation with the federal department whose establishment is only a question of a short time. The bill to be introduced by Hon. Dr. Roberts is the first great step, and should be hailed with universal satisfaction.

TWO OPINIONS.

"The speech with which the government opened the legislative session today is one of the most important placed in the mouth of a New Brunswick governor for many years. Practically every paragraph has an interest of its own, and there are paragraphs which suggest legislation of far-reaching importance."

In these words the St. John Globe begins an article expressing appreciation of the speech from the throne, read by Lieut.-Gov. Pugsley in the legislature yesterday. But note what the Standard says:—

"On the whole the speech is a disappointment. No deliverance in recent years has been more disposed to take credit for the work of others or has been more meagre in real constructive legislation than that delivered by Governor Pugsley yesterday. As we have previously remarked, there is no disposition, in the times, to be unduly critical, but in all truth, it is difficult to see where the Foster government's second official announcement gives any promise of a useful legislative session."

The Globe highly approves of the paragraph in the speech referring to proposed action to recover certain moneys wrongfully obtained by persons connected with the Valley Railway finance. On this the Standard discreetly reserves comment.

As a matter of fact this is the fly in the ointment, so far as the Standard is concerned. No speech from the throne or anywhere else that hinted at action to recover Valley Railway loot could be regarded with any degree of favor by the Standard.

THE BIG BROTHERS.

The Rotary Club did a fine thing when it took up the Big Brother movement. The Knights of Columbus did a fine thing when they agreed to co-operate. It is an example to other organizations and to the church brotherhoods. To give a boy a broader vision, to give him sympathy and friendship, to make him feel that a good citizen is taking a personal interest in him, is something that makes for healthy development and better citizenship. And if the Big Brother finds his lad in a very poor flat, where the family live under great disadvantages the revelation will give him a wider sympathy for those who are handicapped in the struggle of life. We may be sure the soldiers overseas will be gladdened by the knowledge that earnest men at home are interested in the welfare of their boys.

Last evening was a notable one in the history of the local Y. M. C. A. President Barbour was able to announce that more than the $14,000 needed had been secured, and there were added to the membership of the boys' department more than seventy sons of soldiers overseas. Moreover, a large number of busy men were there with the boys, and got a clearer knowledge of what the Y. M. C. A. may be made to mean in boy life.

And the Big Brother movement is to spread. The Halifax Rotary Club, which took the initiative, has asked the St. John club for full particulars of how the plan is worked out here. Mr. L. A. Buckley, the Maritime Boys' Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has been asked to address the Charlottetown Rotary Club on the same subject, and got full information at the local Y. M. C. A. last evening. The Big Brother movement is capable of infinite variations, and now that a good start has been made it is certain to take a strong hold upon the interest of men, to their own benefit as well as the benefit of the boys.

Hon. Mr. Carvell says the government railways must be rebuilt and made safe for trains. They have been allowed to run down, and a large expenditure is necessary. The government at Ottawa is confronted with great home problems as well as those arising out of the war.

There will be many more boys from the cities, towns and villages at work next summer on the farms. It will be good for the boys and will aid materially in the campaign for greater food production.

The British casualties for the first week in March were the smallest for several months, but heavy fighting may come at any time, now that weather conditions are more favorable.

Germany continues to tighten her grip in the east, and to lay her plans for future operations in the farther east. These plans must be rendered impossible of fulfillment when the peace terms are dictated by the Allies.

Dr. Hetherington and Mr. Michael made interesting and excellent speeches in the legislature yesterday. They bring strength to the debating talent of the house.

The Retail Merchants' Association also demands that outside counsel be secured to aid in fighting the city's battle with the power company.

The Retail Merchants' Association wants daylight saving for all Canada. That is the best method of action. Make it nation-wide.

The iron heel is on the neck of Roumania. Russia helped to place it there. The Allies must take it off, when they also relieve Serbia and Belgium.

Another air raid on London was in progress early this morning. Ruthless retaliation is the only cure.

The Kaiser still boasts about the German sword, which drips with the blood of women and children.

One of the great tasks of the Allies is to save Russia from herself as well as from the Germans.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Know His Place.
(From the Ladies' Home Journal.)
Sister Smith was called upon for testimony in a revival meeting. She humbly declined in these words: "I have been a transgressor and a black sheep for a good many years, and have only recently seen the light. I believe that my place is in a dark corner behind the door."
Brother Jones was next called upon.

Following Sister Smith's meek example, he said: "I, too, have been a sinner for more than forty years, and I do not think I ought to stand before you as a model. I think my place is behind the door, in a dark corner, with Sister Smith."

How The United States Is "Making Good" in Aviation

Hindenburg is not uneasy about the coming American offensive in the air, for we hear that the German military authorities have been telling their newspaper correspondents "that this American peril does not exist." Even some of the newspaper writers in the United States seem to have shared Teuton contempt for our aerial preparations. Secretary of War Baker's statement that American-made battle-planes have already gone to France five months ahead of schedule, however, has gone far to re-establish confidence at home.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 9th is a comprehensive and detailed summary of facts from all available sources and shows what America has accomplished in carrying out its aviation programme up to the present time, and what it may be expected to do in the near future. Many angles of the subject are dwelt upon in this article, but careful reading of it will justify the confident assertion of the Syracuse Post Standard that "if the airplane is to be the means by which the Hohenzollerns, Hindenburg, Ludendorff, and the whole murderous outfit are to be brought to the bar of justice, our fliers can be trusted to do the business."

Some of the other striking topics treated in this particularly interesting number of "The Digest" are:—

The Reason For "The Digest's" Wonderful Popularity

Why are the best citizens of America, in these times of stress and strife, of uncertainty and warring opinions, turning more and more, each week, to THE LITERARY DIGEST for reliable information and unbiased facts regarding current events? Why do more than fifty thousand physicians, forty-six thousand lawyers, two hundred and eighty thousand manufacturers and merchants, eighty thousand Government, State, and Municipal officials, and a hundred thousand editors, publishers, educators, librarians, and professional men subscribe for it? It is not a commercial, business, or financial magazine. It does not specialize in any of their particular lines of endeavor. The answer is that nowhere, except in THE LITERARY DIGEST, can they find the vital news of the world set forth tersely, truthfully, and without bias. Prove this today for yourself.

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight, and by morning, most of it will be gone. If not all, use two or three more applications and it will be completely dissolved and entirely destroyed. Every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

THE LEGISLATURE

Appointments at Opening Session; Speeches of Mover and Second of Address

At the opening of the N. B. legislative assembly yesterday the speaker, after the opening prayer, announced the absence through illness of Henry B. Rainford, thirty years clerk of the house, and the appointments of George Y. Dibble as clerk with John M. Keefe of Edmundston as assistant clerk followed.

Dr. J. E. Hetherington moved the address in reply to the speech from the throne and this was seconded by J. E. Michael of Madawaska. In moving the address Dr. Hetherington referred to matters dealt with in the speech and included the following:

We join in a thorough appreciation of every effort made by the farmers of our province toward the furthering of increased production, and we heartily endorse every effort of the government that will result in creating a greater supply of food stuffs.

As a great wheat producing and agricultural country, Canada carries a heavy responsibility in this war struggle, and while New Brunswick does not stand first in agriculture, as do some of the provinces, she has considerable room for expansion along this line, and there is no doubt that such are the capabilities of certain fertile sections of the province, that by the judicious use of fertilizers, the adoption of a regular system of crop rotation, and by stock raising, the yield in food products could well be doubled, and in some cases trebled.

We are glad to note that this government is formulating plans toward the encouraging of our returned soldiers to adopt the pursuit of agriculture. Doubtless such action will meet with ready response from those returning from overseas. The continued outdoor activities of their service over there will render many men reluctant to return to the confines of office and desk when they come back and an opportunity to enter the field of agriculture will no doubt be both welcome and healthful.

We concur with his honor in his sentiments of pleasure upon observing the results of the prohibitory act. These results have indeed been both beneficial and far-reaching, touching the home and the industrial life alike. It is doubtful if any act has ever been passed in this house which has brought such a measure of contentment to and affected the home life of so many people, bringing with it mental, moral and physical betterment.

The members of this house may differ with each other in political opinions, but every honorable gentleman will recognize and support legislation which has for its purpose the prevention of irregularities, such as made it necessary to appoint a commissioner to investigate the affairs of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company. The business of this province should be so conducted that there would be no occasion for such investigations. There should be no difficulty about carrying on the affairs of the country in an honest and economical manner, with proper regard for what is due the people who look to us to safeguard their interests and protect their rights. Any legislation designed to secure the redress of wrongs committed against the province in connection with the St. John and Quebec Railway Company in the past and to provide greater safeguards for the future must surely be acceptable to every honorable member of this house.

The report recently completed by Mr. John Hall, covering the health conditions in this province, is indeed alarming in its revelations. It strips us of such complacency as we have permitted ourselves to enjoy and places us at least a decade behind the times in the supervision of our public health. It is quite time that we adopted some adequate policy for remedying the situation as it now exists, and took some steps toward the safe-guarding of the general health of our population. The failure to do so in these days of scientific advancement in medical knowledge and well-tried-out systems of sanitation, disease control and other means of preserving life and health become little short of criminal. I think I am free to

Why Chilly Weather Brings Rheumatism

Says skin pores are closed and uric acid remains in blood.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water. Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effective lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

say that any legislation that the government may be pleased to propose to improve better health conditions will meet with a sympathetic reception. Mr. Michael said in part: It is useless for me to say that the people of this province, irrespective of race, creed or political allegiance, receive the appointment with much satisfaction, for the political and private records of the honorable gentleman eminently qualified him for the office and the honor conferred upon him was a fitting reward for the services rendered to his native province. Another appointment which was received with no less satisfaction was that of the present chief justice of our supreme court. With the Honorable Mr. Pugsley as the head of the executive and the Honorable Mr. Eason presiding over the judiciary we may rest assured that the relations between the executive and

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspapers and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jas. Romberg, 620 Knapp St., N. E., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Romberg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial. For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications or are troubled by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Co., Lynn, Mass.

the judiciary will be nothing but friendly.

Now, Sir, if you look at his honor's message, you will admit that the most important—is to do away with the time-worn argument generally offered—that it is more remarkable by what it does not contain than by what it does contain. For if it is true that the speech from the throne contains the legislative programme of the members of this house to find that the treasury benches are occupied by the scenic problems of the day and are determined to grapple with them.

Another problem with which the government has to grapple, not arising out of the war but the most important of the finances of the province. It is now an open secret that for some time past the revenue has not been sufficient to meet the current expenses of the province and the gap has become such that it is causing anxiety in the minds of those who have the interests of the province at heart. This unfortunate situation may be ascribed to two main causes—our over estimation of the value of our forests as revenue producing property. Until recently we felt that the revenues from our crown lands administered our public affairs, and we did not seem to realize that the same other sources of revenue. But with the lumber market being depressed and the cost of administration following the ascending scale like the costs of everything else, the government has to look to some other sources for revenue in order to buckle the budget. If we look up our public records we find that our political history has consisted mostly in promoting one railroad, in building another and unbuilding a third, and I need not say that the last chapter of our railroad history has been particularly sad, as we see that the province will rehabilitate the good name of our province.

Both the mover and the seconder of the address in reply to the speech from the throne were the recipients of much commendation after they delivered their speeches. Judson E. Hetherington bears a name well known in New Brunswick's legislative history, his father having been a familiar figure in the house of assembly for many years. Dr. Hetherington was warmly congratulated both upon the matter in his speech and the manner in which he delivered it, and Mr. Michael, likewise, received warm commendation. Mr. Murray (Kings) moved the adjournment of the debate which was made in the order of the day for tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved that the committee to nominate all standing and select committees consist of Hon. Messrs. Foster, Vesilud and Robinson and Mr. Murray (Kings) and Mr. Smith (Carlton). Hon. Mr. Foster submitted an agreement with R. P. Allen for reporting and publishing the debates of the session. This was concurred in and the official reporter assigned a seat on the floor of the house.

Following the session the first official reception of the season was held by Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley in the parlors of the Queen Hotel. Mrs. Pugsley being attended by Mrs. D. C. Scott of Ottawa, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm of St. John, and Mrs. Gilmor Brown, of Rothesay. A great number took advantage of the opportunity to pay their respects to the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley and from 4 to 6 o'clock the parlors were thronged. Light refreshments were served and music was furnished by Rowan's orchestra. Among those from St. John who attended were Brigadier-General A. H. Macdonnell, Lieutenant-Colonel A. A. H. ### ROTARY MEMBERS AND SOLDIER BOYS MEET AT Y.M.C.A.

The Big Brother Movement Advanced a Stage at Pleasant Gathering

The good works that the Rotary Club have performed in St. John, and they are by no means few, have long been appreciated by the citizens, but their last night in giving to more than seventy soldier boys, the privileges of the Y. M. C. A. is perhaps the biggest thing that they have yet done, because of the happiness that it will undoubtedly bring into the lives of these young men, whose fathers are away in France, fighting that they may have liberty. Members of the Rotary Club and about seventy of these sons of soldiers were at the Y. M. C. A. last evening and a short programme was carried out. It was the plan of the Rotary Club that each of its members should take under his supervision, a soldier's son and act to him as a big brother until the war is over or his father comes home. Each Rotarian buys his "soldier boy" a ticket for the Y. M. C. A., a gymnasium suit and a pair of sneakers. He is to visit his "brother" at frequent intervals and to generally keep an elderly brother's eye over him while his father is away. A. M. Beland was in charge of the entertainment last evening. He made a few opening remarks explaining the object of the club in this matter. He then called out the names of the boys and ascribed to each, the Rotarian who is to be his "big brother." Then T. H. Estabrook called out the names of the boys and presented each a full membership ticket for the institution. By this time the "big brothers" had got acquainted with the boys and they were acting together in just the way they were expected to. The membership of the Rotary Club, however, was not large enough to provide a big brother for each boy and so other citizens, not members of the club, were asked to join in the work. They readily agreed to do so and now every "soldier boy" has a big brother to keep an interested eye over him and see that he does not come under undesirable influences while his father is in France.

W. C. Cross, chairman of the boys' work committee, said that the membership added last night made the total membership in the boys' department more than 400. He explained to the new members not to go into the thing for what they could get out of it alone, but to go in with the spirit of "helping the other fellow." There were addresses also by G. E. Barbour and A. M. Gregg, a reading by A. M. Beland and refreshments were served by the Young Ladies' League.

According to the views of the New York State Factory Investigation Commission, the least amount a girl can live on in that state is $11.70 per week. Yesterday's work brought the local Y. M. C. A. fund up to the $16,000 mark for.

INCLUDE GRAND TRUNK IN PLAN

Likely Ultimately Part of Government Railway System

NEGOTIATIONS OPENED

Some Division in Cabinet Over Method But Railway Nationalization Practically Decided on; C. N. R. and G. T. P. Also Included

(Special to Times)—Ottawa, Mar. 8.—Although there is said to be still some division of opinion within the cabinet in regard to the method, opportunity and extent of railway nationalization in Canada, it is understood that a decision has practically been reached to include the Grand Trunk along with the C. N. R. and the G. T. P. in the consolidated transcontinental government railway system.

Negotiations are known to have been in progress for some time with the Grand Trunk with the directorate looking to some mutually satisfactory arrangement for the acquisition by the government of the stock now owned by the 200,000 shareholders, for the most part in Great Britain. While the question of actual government operation of both the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk systems may be kept in abeyance for the time being, and while the systems may be continued to be operated under present staffs with the companies preserving their corporate entity, as was provided for in the Canadian Northern stock expropriation legislation of last year, the government believes that a virtual ownership of the systems is now necessary in order to insure the economic reform necessary by way of cutting out duplication of services, pooling equipment, etc., and insuring proper government control and utilization of the federal monies that must go by the millions during the next few years to keep the systems in operation.

On the question of ownership of the systems by the people of Canada who now have to foot the deficits there is little or no difference of opinion in the cabinet under existing circumstances and necessities. On the question of direct government operation with its dangers of political interference and uneconomic management, there is divided counsel. But the first step of ownership of stock will, it is believed, be taken. That if consummated will provide at least for a necessary central control of general railway operation and policy of the transcontinental system, details of policy in regard to a permanent method of operation can be worked out later when war conditions do not impose so much strain on the government's time and attention. A covering authority from parliament to proceed thus far with the railway nationalization project will probably be asked by the government this coming session.

The Grand Trunk

Negotiations with the Grand Trunk directorate are understood to be still in a tentative stage. They are being conducted through Sir George Perley with Chairman Smithers of the Grand Trunk in London. It may be that an agreement can be reached through this medium in time to have parliament ratify the bargain before prorogation. But the probabilities are that no final agreement will be reached until Sir Robert Borden, Hon. Arthur Meighen, Hon. N. W. Howells and Hon. Dr. Reid, minister of railways, take the matter up personally with the Grand Trunk directorate next June. Meanwhile whatever temporary financial assistance is needed by the Grand Trunk to meet fixed charges, equipment and betterment needs, etc., will be arranged for by the government under proper safeguards.

BLONDIN MAY NOT GIVE UP HIS POST JUST NOW

Matter of French Canadian Representation in the Cabinet—Probably No Successor to Sevigny

(Special to Times)—Ottawa, Mar. 8.—While it is certain that the resignation of Hon. Albert Sevigny as minister of inland revenue will be accepted by the prime minister it is understood that there is some question as to whether or not Colonel Hon. N. E. Blondin, the postmaster-general, will at once retire from the cabinet. Although Colonel Blondin was defeated in both constituencies in which he ran in Quebec and would therefore naturally be expected to remain in the cabinet without a seat in parliament, the prime minister is confronted with the other anomaly of leaving the French-Canadian population without a representative in the cabinet, or control of a single department of state. Under the circumstances the suggestion has been made that one temporary, though not altogether satisfactory expedient might be to transfer Colonel Blondin to the senate so soon as a vacancy from Quebec occurs and leave him still as postmaster-general. He would probably remain overseas during the session of parliament and Hon. C. J. Doherty would continue acting postmaster-general, thus keeping this big department of state still administered by a minister from Quebec.

While this scheme might be considered as more or less of a camouflage for French-Canadian representation in the government, it is possibly the only compromise that could be effected for the present since there seems to be little chance of electing a French-Canadian Unionist from Quebec until the present antagonism towards the government and the Military Service Act has died down. As for a successor to Hon. Mr. Sevigny, it is likely there will not be any. The inland revenue department with much of its function gone through the abolition of liquor manufacture, can now be very well merged with the department of customs. One minister can easily manage the customs department with the added work of looking after excise, weights and measures, etc.

LAWYER PUNCHES HIS LEARNED FRIEND

Uproar in New York Court as Word "Lied" is Used

James W. Osborne, a lawyer, drove his fist into the face of Frank Aronow, counsel for Detective Frank McGee, as the lawyer was summing up before Justice Goff and the jury in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, New York. The assault before the justice threw the court room into an uproar and Justice Goff, after restoring order, announced he would have something to say to both lawyers after the trial was concluded. Mr. Osborne's ire was aroused by the defence counsel's inference that he lied.

At recess a newspaper friend of both lawyers induced the two belligerents to shake hands after Mr. Osborne had apologized to Mr. Aronow. Speculation was rife as to whether the matter would cause a mistrial or if contempt charges would be brought.

Mr. Osborne, as the special counsel for the prosecution, was sitting at the counsel table listening to Mr. Aronow summing up for McGee. The defendant's counsel asserted to the jury that the prosecution had taken unfair advantage in putting on the witness stand John L. Lagaranne, a detective sergeant convicted of neglect of duty in the Ruth Cruger murder investigation, the same charge on which McGee was tried.

Mr. Aronow said the prosecutor's calling Lagaranne ostensibly to identify papers actually was to get before the jury that Lagaranne was convicted on the same charge as made against McGee.

"The district attorney lied and deliberately lied before the grand jury," asserted Mr. Aronow. Mr. Osborne looked up hastily, then, leaping to his feet, he shouted, "Don't you say I lied?" With the words Mr. Osborne's right fist shot out, striking Mr. Aronow squarely on the right cheek.

Court attendants jumped to seize Mr. Osborne's arms, spectators exclaimed excitedly and Justice Goff hammered for order. A bright red spot, growing rapidly into a lump, appeared on Mr. Aronow's cheek. After staggering from the blow he righted himself and went on to the end of his brief summing up. Mr. Osborne rose immediately.

"Your Honor, I humbly apologize to you," he said. "This is the first time in my practice of thirty-five years that I have allowed my temper to get the best of me in court. I apologize, very humbly."

PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND NERVE TROUBLES

WERE CURED BY MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

When the heart begins to beat irregularly or intermittingly, palpitate and throb, skip beats, beat fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, it causes great anxiety and alarm and the least exertion or exertion seems to affect it.

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable through this unnatural action of the heart.

To all sufferers from heart troubles we would advise the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which by their action in strengthening the heart and regulating the beat remove all the distressing conditions, and impart vigor and vitality to the system.

Mrs. Thomas Davidson, Mount Brydges, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer in the past with nerve troubles and palpitation of the heart. I tried several remedies, but without any good results. My son came in one day and advised me to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Rheumatism A Home Cure Given By One Who Had It

In the spring of 1908 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number of people who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

Whether or not he plays with the Yankees depends on whether he is able to get a man to take his place in Florida, which is his brother Ira in running the Plank brothers' garage on the Lincoln Highway at Gettysburg.

Huggins is not worrying about Derrell Pratt. He expects that the former St. Louis second baseman, who is now in Florida, will report at Mason and will sign his contract there before the training season starts.

BURIED TODAY.
 The large number of friends assembled and the magnificent array of floral tributes received testified to the deep sympathy felt for the bereaved ones in the death of Mrs. George G. Starkey, who died in Fitchburg, Mass., and whose funeral was held this afternoon from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Starkey, 147 Main street. Further evidence was in the great number of people who called at the home to express their regret at her early death.
 An impressive funeral service was conducted at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. I. W. Williamson, pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, and several hymns were feelingly sung by the male quartette of the church. The funeral was to Cedar Hill, where interment was made.
 The beautiful floral offerings included pieces from Fitchburg, Manchester, N. H., Boston and the city, as follows: Wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kindred and family, Fitchburg, composed of twenty-seven roses, one for each year of Mrs. Starkey's life; star from Mr. and Mrs. Donlon and girls, Fitchburg; spray of pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Maxon Fitchburg; lilies from Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilson, Manchester, N. H.; bouquet from H. S. Wilson, Manchester, N. H.; violets, Miss Pearl Sullivan, Boston; floral pillow with "Wife" in purple letters, from Mr. Starkey; basket of flowers from Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Starkey and daughters; spray of carnations, Barry Vaughan; cross, from Arthur Fleming of Chatham, a returned member of the 26th Battalion; spray, Mrs. Thomas Donovan; spray of tulips and carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Garvia; spray of pink and white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Wilson; spray of carnations, Young Ladies' Class of Victoria street church; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hiltzeway; cross, Miss M. Horsman; bouquet of tulips, from a friend; bouquet, Mrs. E. F. Wallace; bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. Spolane, and spray of tulips from Charles Kee.

COLDEST MARCH MORN IN 21 YEARS
 Eight Below Zero in City, 20 at Rothesay—Brilliant Spectacle in Sky Last Night
 Another cold weather record has been established this winter. This morning the thermometer dropped to eight degrees below zero, which is the lowest recorded in March since the year 1897. The records in the Meteorological Observatory show that in 1900 the mercury dropped to five degrees below zero in March, one degree below in 1904, three degrees below in 1907, one degree in 1908 and five degrees below in 1918. As there was comparatively little wind this morning the cold was not so penetrating as it was at other times when the thermometer registered several points above zero. At Rothesay it is said that thermometers registered twenty degrees below, and at Hampton twenty-one degrees below. A brilliant display of aurora borealis was witnessed last night between 11 and 12 o'clock. The display was of the most beautiful of aurora's manifestations. The phenomenon appeared at its fullest beauty a little before 12 o'clock, when there was a striking auroral display. From the direction of the north magnificently colored shafts of light started to rise and with streams of golden rays spreading out in every direction and then forming a large circle. In this circle a beautiful red glow appeared and showed up in striking contrast to the other colors, green, blue and yellow predominating, visible in the north.
 D. L. Hutchinson, director of the Meteorological Observatory in Douglas, said today that it was a brilliant display of the aurora borealis or northern lights, but it could not be compared with a display seen here last autumn. He said it was not an unusual thing to see such pictures in this section of the country and many exceeded last night's, although it was undoubtedly the best this winter.
 Many citizens in the streets at the time of the phenomenon stood and watched the magnificent blending of colors from the northern lights, but they could not account for the red glow. Some attributed this to a reflection of some very bright fire in some other part of the country, while not a few were heard to remark that they thought the end of the world was coming.
 Boston, Mar. 8.—An aurora borealis of brilliant red was visible throughout New England last night for a period of about three hours. At the Harvard observatory it was said that the blood-red effect was rather unusual in the aurora light displays, and that it resulted from peculiar electrical conditions in the upper strata of the atmosphere.

ANOTHER MAN BROUGHT INTO THE WOOL CASE
 C. H. Kelly, alias C. H. Cain, alias John Kane, was before the police magistrate this morning charged with stealing wool in connection with the same case of the two Hayes. H. W. Stubbs of the Canada Hide Company was on the stand again this morning and testified that on Jan. 18 the man known as Kelly sold him one hide, five casks and a quantity of unwashed wool for $100.48. He met the man in a cart and bought the wool then they drove. He informed the court that the prisoner then gave him the name of Kane. On the harness of the wagon which the prisoner was driving were the letters "N. H. D. in brass."
 Policeman Coughlan swore as to the identity of the prisoner who, he said, was Carl H. Kelly.
 Detective Biddecombe testified that he had arrested the prisoner last winter and the name he then gave was John Kane. The hearing was adjourned at the instance of W. M. Ryan, who is appearing for the Colonial Hide Company. One prisoner charged with drunkenness, was sent below.

 McAvity and Cummings rolled well for the office team.
 Stratton and Legge were both away off.
 Bewick rolled a fairly good game.

THE FIGHT AGAINST THE POWER COMPANY
 The sub-committee appointed by the Committee of One Hundred have been busy this afternoon conferring with the city council and preparing a programme and plan of action to be submitted to the general committee at a meeting which will probably be held on Tuesday evening.
 There is a steadily growing interest in the fight against the New Brunswick Power Company, and the strong resolution adopted by the Retail Merchants' Association last evening is a further indication of popular feeling.
