INTEREST IN OPENING SESSIONS

Laymen's Missionary Movement
Began Campaign Here
Yesterday—Interesting and Instructive Speeches Heard.

SIR ANDREW FRASER.

The provincial convention of the Laymen's Missionary Movement opened its sessions in the Centenary church yesterday. Probably the feature of the day was the address by Sir Andrew Fraser, who addressed the delegates on the subject of "The Future of the Church in the Dominion." His address was a most interesting and instructive one, and was well received by the audience. Sir Andrew spoke of the need of a revival of the church, and of the importance of the missionary movement. He also spoke of the need of a closer union between the various denominations of the church.

Among the clergymen who arrived in the city yesterday to attend the convention were: Rev. H. T. Buckland, Red Rapids; Rev. W. Canon Smith, Fredericton; Rev. J. Wilkinson, Rev. C. A. S. Warfield, Springfield; Rev. W. R. Petticoat, Rev. W. Jones, St. Martins; Rev. A. H. Crawford, Hampton; Rev. C. K. Walley, Oromocto; Rev. W. P. Dunham, Miramichi; Rev. C. W. Nichols, St. Stephen; Rev. F. Gaskie, Hampton; Rev. Dean Schofield, Fredericton; Rev. A. Daniel, Rev. W. R. Hubbard, Rothesay; Rev. H. D. Marr, who supplied over Sunday in New Brunswick; Rev. E. H. Cress, Fredericton; Rev. Dr. Sprague, St. John's; Rev. J. Tilley, St. Martins; Rev. W. C. Senior, acting secretary, Toronto; Rev. J. C. Priest, secretary, St. John's; Rev. Dr. Cousins, Newcastle; Rev. Mr. Berry, Marysville; Rev. T. H. McDonald, Fredericton; Rev. D. Bell, Rossignol; Rev. David Patterson, land, Victoria; Rev. J. E. Wilson, Fredericton; Rev. S. W. Schurman, Hartland; Rev. J. W. Spurgeon, Fredericton, chairman of the United Baptist Foreign Mission Board, also came in on the Montreal train.

The following students from the T. N. B. registered last evening: E. Rice, J. M. Nason, J. J. Andrews, Carl Gaulton, G. Around the church banners were hung, inscribed with such mottoes as the following: "I am a Christian," "I am a missionary," "I am a worker for the Lord." Will Canada evangelize her share of the world? This is the only generation we can reach. Love never asks how much must I do, but how much can I do. They conquer who believe they are according to your faith be it unto you. System not spasm in business and industry in religion. The more religion we export the more we shall possess. Love grows by exercise. When the convention opened at four o'clock there was a fairly good attendance. Ex-Mayor T. H. Bullock presided, and on the platform with him were Rev. Dr. Flanders, Canon Gould, W. C. Senior and H. K. Caskey. A short service of intercession was held. Mr. Senior conducting the singing. Dr. Flanders reading a passage from the Psalms, and Bishop Richardson and Rev. Dr. Hutchinson leading in prayer. Mr. Bullock then expressed his pleasure at the honor done him in presiding. As a layman he was glad to see so many in attendance; he assured success.

Movement Spreading. Recently congresses of various denominations had become common; this was well. An awakened heathendom must be met by an awakened Christendom. The Laymen's Missionary Movement was an expression of the awakening. The missionary idea was the essential feature of Christianity; it was incumbent to bring all nations unto the Kingdom of God. Rev. Dr. Sydney Gould, general secretary of the M. S. C. C., then spoke on the central place of missions in the life of the church. "It is," he said, "as natural for the

NEW BRUNSWICK WOMAN WEDDED TO AN AVIATOR

MRS. WILLIAM B. ATWATER.
This is Mrs. William B. Atwater, wife of the Aviator since just a few days ago. Before that she was the widow of Senator Tom Platt. Mrs. Atwater will accompany her husband to the Curtis aviation school on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Atwater spent her girlhood days in New Brunswick, being the adopted daughter of the late Daniel and Mrs. Lark of Perth. She married her first husband, the late Holland Snow, at that place. A property at Perth, long owned by Mrs. Atwater has recently been presented to the United Baptist by Mrs. Atwater, and a new church will be built there.

During last October there were 23,997 arrivals, 12,646 of them having been at ocean ports and 12,256 from the states as against 23,297 for the United States, making a total number for the seven months, April 1st to November 1st, 1910, of 227,776 persons.

IMMIGRATION INCREASES 17 PER CENT.

Many Came From Across Border, But More Land at Ocean Ports—Figures for Seven Months.

Figures compared. Ottawa, Nov. 20.—Immigrant settlers to the number of 25,833 arrived in Canada during the first seven months of the current fiscal year, April 1st to November 1st. Of this number 17,260 arrived at ocean ports and 8,573 from the United States. These figures show an increase of 17 per cent, as compared with the figures for the corresponding months of the last fiscal year, which were 142,529 at ocean ports and 85,246 from the United States, making a total number for the seven months, April 1st to November 1st, 1910, of 227,776 persons.

TRIAL OF MEN WHO HELPED SIR WILFRID LAURIER WEDDED TO AN AVIATOR

Men Who Would Have Helped If They Could Held Equally Guilty—Held Up With Pistols.

PLAY HIGHWAYMEN.
Lincoln Centre, Kansas, Nov. 20.—How Shady Band "Tar Party" met at the mill of E. G. Clark, one of the wealthiest citizens of the county, and arranged the details of the plot to tar Miss Mary Chamberlain, the school teacher, whose experience at the hands of a band of all Kansas was told on the witness stand by Chester Anderson one of the "Tar Party" at the beginning of the trial today.

The three men on trial were Sheriff Clark, brother of E. G. Clark, the miller, who pleaded guilty; and John Schmidt and A. N. Simms, farmers. Anderson testified that they were not members of the band who actually "spiced the tar," as they came to the rendezvous on foot and were unable to keep up with the others, who rode motorcycles. County Attorney McCaless made the opening statement for the prosecution. He told how the plot was laid in Shady Bend, Aug. 7, how Edward Ricord, the Beverly barber, was hired to take Miss Chamberlain out in a buggy on the night of March 19, 1909, to a country dance and then to deliver her over to the men with the tar hidden behind the fence. He told how Chester Anderson and Delbert Kindelberger had played the highwayman to the barber and the girl.

"They held up the buggy at the point of pistols," McCaless declared. "They took the young woman from the buggy and threw her to the ground, and poured another rubbed the tar upon her naked body. All of the men were masked." "While the three men had not been at the actual 'tarring' McCaless said, by their own boast they were the only ones who were unable to keep pace with the motorcycle riders, they were equally to blame with the others he said.

PRINCESS HAS ELOPED WITH ACTOR

Greatest Disgrace Possible Has Come to Manchu Dynasty—Mother of Emperor Took Fortune With Her.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—Princess Lal, mother of the baby Emperor of China, and wife of the Prince Regent, has eloped with an actor, Yung Shu Lu, according to Chinese newspapers received today. A number of newspapers published in China refer to the "Disgrace that has come to the Royal family," but only one, the Xin La Po, the largest newspaper published in China, gives the Princess' name and an account of the elopement.

The mother of the Emperor of China, the Princess Lal, is said to have eloped with the actor Yung Shu Lu, and to have taken with her a fortune in jewels with her and to be living with Yung in Mukden. An actor and a barber are classed with the lowest castes in China, and Chinese here said today that the elopement of the Princess was the greatest disgrace that could come to the Manchu dynasty.

WORKINGMEN TO PROTECT SUFFRAGETTES

Latter Plan Aggressive Campaign With Which Asquith Does Not Sympathize—Protest Against Insult.

POLICE ARE VIOLENT.
London, Nov. 20.—The suffragettes are preparing to renew their attacks on parliament with a battle tomorrow night, which will surpass all previous campaigns. A few days ago a delegation of suffragettes interviewed Premier Asquith and attempted to win a pledge that the government would undertake to pass a bill giving equal suffrage to both sexes. Premier Asquith declined to make such a pledge, but told the women instead that he had always been opposed to woman suffrage.

At a subsequent meeting the suffragettes decided to inaugurate a "War of Demonstration" in Parliament Square on Nov. 21. They have summoned all their followers and male sympathizers to assemble at 8 o'clock in the Parliament building at 8 o'clock in the evening. The fact that the gathering is fixed for after dark may make unusual trouble for the police. Mrs. Patrick Lawrence explains it thus: "The gathering has been arranged late for the express reason that the decent honest workmen will be in the streets. We have found that their presence affords women moral protection against violence by the police and hoodlums."

Miss Christobel Pankhurst declared tonight that the women certainly will march their way to the floor of the House of Commons, this time to make their protest against "The great insult which Asquith has given."

It is reported that another woman's movement, the Women's Social and Political Union, is in preparation for a meeting and is sending out a petition signed by several members of the nobility in addition to the usual list of names. It is also reported that the Government is in possession of a letter from George's insurance bill, compelling women employees to make joint contributions to a sickness week, on the German plan.

WAS SPENCER MENTALLY RESPONSIBLE?

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 20.—"In my opinion Bertram G. Spencer was mentally responsible at the time he murdered Miss Martha B. Drake," said the testimony given late today in Spencer's trial, by Dr. John A. Houston, superintendent of the state insane hospital at Northampton, called by the defence as an alienist and immediately qualified by the declaration that the witness used the words "mentally responsible" in a medical sense and that he did not consider Spencer to have been necessarily legally responsible.

Spencer's mother was recalled briefly today and together with a man whom Spencer had robbed, told of the striking articles which had been stolen. A deposition from Dr. N. I. Drake, of Little Falls, N. Y., introduced today, told of Spencer's attempt at suicide. In another deposition from Mrs. Anita A. Markham, of Oakland, Cal., wife of a cousin of Spencer, alleged "quaker" acts of Spencer were told, living in Oakland in 1904 and 1907, were described. Dr. Henry La Motte, of Seattle, Wash., testified that he had observed observation for a time when the defendant was in the navy and the witness as a naval surgeon, had been stationed at Newport, R. I. The boy, he said, had been acting strangely.

PERSIA LOOKING TO BRITAIN FOR HELP

Willing to Make Concessions if Russian Troops Reported to Be on the Way Are Recalled.
London, Nov. 20.—Persia, re-iterating the crisis with Russia, has placed her case in the hands of Great Britain, as diplomatic relations with Russia have been broken off. Persia has asked Great Britain to advise her as to the course she should follow, and has promised to abide by the advice thus given. If necessary, Persia is prepared to comply with the demands of Russia, on condition that the Russian troops, if they have already started for Persia, shall return to Russia. St. Petersburg, Nov. 20.—A message from Bakou says that a steamer has left for Persia with a Russian regiment and full field equipment on board.

Wishes Governor General to Object to Cabinet-- Asks for Statement of Government's Policy on Naval Question and Receives Fitting Answer-- Brilliant Speeches of Members of Government.

PARTY IS UNITED
Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The debate on the address produced the expected explosion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's anger at his defeat. It also produced a definite and straightforward expression of opinion and the attitude of the government upon the naval issue. Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the conclusion of a bitter speech moved a singular amendment in which he declared of constitutional practice, the Governor General was urged to express dissatisfaction with the action of the House of Commons in approving the dissolution of the ministry. As Mr. Borden observed, this was a return to the constitutional practice of two hundred and fifty years ago, when the crown arrogated to itself a control of parliament long since repudiated.

The Laurier amendment was as follows: "We beg to represent to your Royal Highness that by resolution of March, 1909, adopted by the House of Commons, it was affirmed that: 'This House fully recognizes the duty of the people of Canada, as they increase in numbers and wealth, to assume in larger measure, the responsibilities of national defence; and further; 'That the House will cordially approve of any necessary expenditure designed to promote the speedy organization of a Canadian naval force; and that in pursuance of that resolution the late administration proceeded to adopt a well-defined policy of naval organization.'"

"That with regard to that policy, as well as to the whole question of naval defence there is in the present calling an intractable conflict of opinion, and that some of its members have repeatedly, both before and after the last election, denounced naval defence in any form whatever. 'We respectfully submit to your Royal Highness that it is a fundamental principle of constitutional government that the advisors of the crown shall be heartily in accord on all important questions of public policy, and that the inclusion by the Prime Minister in the present cabinet of members holding diametrically opposite views on a question of the highest importance to the Dominion and to the Empire, is contrary to the well understood principles of constitutional responsible government and should not receive the approval of the House.'"

Reply to Speech From Throne.
The address in reply to the speech from the throne was moved by R. B. Bennett, of Calgary and seconded by A. L. Severyn, of Dorchester. Both were of unusual brilliance. Mr. Bennett took advanced ground upon the subject of the question of the western provinces and the question of the capitalization of companies. A Liberal referred to his former connection with the C. P. R. giving Mr. Bennett an opportunity to state that on being elected he had severed his connection with all railways. Mr. Severyn delivered a strongly loyal speech.

CAPTAIN AND CREW AT SEA WITHOUT FOOD

Schooner Ida G. Farren Meets With Bad Weather and Supplies Run Out—Ship Badly Damaged.
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 20.—The schooner Ida G. Farren, Captain G. H. Gaslin, from Baltimore to Elizabeth City, N. C., with general cargo, arrived today after one of the severest experiences ever reported by a Chesapeake Bay trader. The Farren was caught in a storm of wind, Point Light on Nov. 15, and almost sank before she could be anchored and the wreckage on her deck cleared away. After a heroic struggle to save the ship and themselves, Captain Gaslin and his men found themselves without food or drink. During the blow their fresh water barrels had been carried overboard and the taking of sea water by the schooner had ruined all their food. The Farren finally made port badly damaged and with her crew glad to land alive. It takes Captain Gaslin ten days to make the trip from Baltimore.

LAST ELECTION WAS TURNOVER OF 67,000

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The clerk of the crown in chancery has received the official returns of the recent Dominion election from every constituency excepting Winnipeg and the Yukon. With figures for the former seat published the popular majority of the Conservative government is 43,382. In 1908 the Liberals had 24,000 of a popular majority which means a net out of a million and a quarter cast. The total government vote cast was 660,231 and the opposition, 616,848. In Prince Edward Island, Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia, the Conservatives led in the popular vote, while the Liberals led in New Brunswick, Quebec, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia and Alberta.

LAURIER'S BIRTHDAY PARTY.

MOTHERS DO YOU KNOW

That when you put a salve onto your child's skin, it passes through the pores and enters the blood, just as surely as if you put it into the child's stomach? You would not put a coarse mass of animal fat, colored by various mineral poisons (such as many crude salves are) into your child's blood by way of the stomach? Then why do so by way of the pores?

Take no risk. Use always the pure herbal essence provided in LAM-BIK, and break not the skin, no trace of any animal oil or fat, and no poisonous mineral coloring matter. From start to finish it is purely herbal.

It will heal sores, ulcers, abscesses, eruptions, varicose ulcers, sunburn, and breaks more quickly than any other known preparation. It is antiseptic, quickly stops the smarting of a sore eye, cures the itching of sores and blood-poisoning. It is a combination of healing power and scientific purity. Ask those who have proved it.

men were making their mark upon the lives of many communities. This heritage of Christian manhood was the result of the devotion of the early loyalists. Behind the loyalty, the capacity of self-sacrifice, which distinguished the men and women who settled this province was their faith in the Bible, the fear of God and the reverence of righteousness.

But this reverence is departing from the ways of their fathers. The blight of corruption has fallen upon the politics of this province. Your ministers know that there are many districts in this province where the whole system of morality has broken down. The Bible is no longer revered and read as it was.

The only remedy for this condition is the adoption of personal Christianity. Everybody should make great efforts to keep New Brunswick strong, pure, clean and Christian.

Diastema a Drawback. Continuing he said the fact of disunion militated against success in this direction. There was talk of the adoption of a new constitution. He reserved the right to express his opinion on this subject. He thought that the ministers of his church wherever they were needed, but he would not take advantage of the trouble of another church. There was room for honorable rivalry. With all the Sunday school teachings there are many districts in this province where the whole system of morality has broken down. The Bible is no longer revered and read as it was.

Church Must Be Ready. If the Chinese people achieved their object and took the seat of power, there would be a great mass movement among the Chinese towards Christianity. The Church must be ready. God was again going to use the passions of men to glorify Himself and through war to work the redemption of the Chinese.

Importance of Missions. In the face of the story of the Gospels, it should not be necessary to argue that mission work should occupy a central place in the church. The injunction to go forth and preach was permanent, and applied to all people. If the redemption of the world, the peace here, the church, the work before them, called for men; money was less needed than men who would give themselves to the service of God.

Rev. F. W. Anderson, of Toronto, responded on behalf of the delegates. After thanking the mayor for his welcome words and referring to the reputation possessed by St. John, he went on to say that the congress had been for a serious purpose, to beat the devil, as Pat said, of the Christian Endeavorers. They had gathered to take up a generation of people in the province who know not the Bible as it was known a few generations ago. The church must be ready to take up a generation of people in the province who know not the Bible as it was known a few generations ago.

Denominational Influence. A conference of the Protestant denominations would be held on Thursday to take up that question, and he thought that the presence of prayers of the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Sir Andrew Fraser. Sir Andrew spoke on the unfinished task in non-Christian lands. He said he was a bearer of the message of the church in the world. He had been in Canada at what Canada was doing to carry Christianity into other lands. As business men, they had been interested in the work of the church. He had seen something of the work done by the missionaries. He had seen something of the results in India, and gladly given the oldest son to the work of the missions.

It was said the missions did not produce results. He would not argue that. The works of the Lord were great and only those who took pleasure in them, were competent witnesses of the results. He had traveled over all India, and had seldom been for more than a day without seeing missionaries or their work. It was his official duty to inspect the work of the missions, and he could say that God's work progressed in the east as in the west. The Lord had done great things for India. But there was work to do. There were many places in India where the name of Christ was unknown.

Continuing, Mr. Fraser said the opportunities for missionary work in India were exceptional. There was no college in India to which missionaries were not admitted. All doors were open.

Unrest in India. A great intellectual unrest was going on in India; like other peoples they were claiming our civilization and industrial methods. If we gave them these things without Christianity, there might be danger to civilization. The church had put her hand to the plough; she dare not turn back.

A hymn was then sung and the meeting brought to a close.

Today's Programme. This morning the meeting will open at 10 o'clock and the speakers will be Rev. A. H. Arupp, Rev. W. T. Gunn, Rev. M. E. Fletcher, Rev. H. C. Priest and W. C. Senior.

At the afternoon session opening at 2.30, the speakers will be D. M. Rose, Rev. A. E. Armstrong, L. A. Hamilton, J. Campbell White and H. K. Casey. At the evening session, the speakers will be Ven. Archdeacon Reel, Rev. J. Campbell White and Sir Andrew Fraser.

At 2.30 p. m. a mass meeting for ladies will be held in St. John (tonic) church at which J. Campbell White and Sir Andrew Fraser will speak.

LADY FRASER TALKS ON WOMEN OF BENGAL

The winter course of lectures of the Women's Canadian Club, opened auspiciously yesterday afternoon, when Lady Fraser, wife of Sir Andrew Fraser, formerly governor of Bengal, addressed the club on the women of Bengal.

The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion and presented an attractive appearance. Mrs. E. A. Smith, president of the club, presided and introduced Lady Fraser in a brief but graceful speech. On the dais, with her, were Mrs. J. H. Murray, secretary, and Mrs. J. H. Murray, treasurer.

Lady Fraser is a charming personality, is a speaker of exceptional ability, eloquent and graceful, but simple withal, her address fascinated the hearers. Through her many years of residence in Bengal, by her exceptional tact, she had succeeded in penetrating beyond the purdah, and obtaining a remarkable insight into the character of the women, and through the careful study of these high born women, resulting in an appreciation of their mental and other qualities, Lady Fraser was peculiarly adapted to deal with the subject, and her masterful treatment of it gave unlimited delight.

The difficulty experienced in gaining access to the women was dwelt upon by the speaker at length. On the occasion of the visit to the Prince and Princess of Wales, a few years ago, Lady Fraser said, she had succeeded in winning the confidence of the ladies to visit the precedents, and leave their apartments to meet their royal guests. The gradual destruction of the barriers which shut off intercourse between the zenana women and the exterior world is under way, the speaker stated, and as the woman's missionary efforts are to a great extent accomplished, it is necessary to increase the number of missionaries and of lending heavy co-operation in their endeavors.

At the close of the lecture a vote of thanks moved by Mrs. G. P. Smith and seconded by Mrs. J. H. Murray, was tendered Lady Fraser by a brief address paid a graceful tribute to Lady Fraser.

Had Boils On Neck and Arms.

Had Them Lanced But Got No Relief Until He Used Burdock Blood Bitters.

Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still, at the same time are very painful. They are caused entirely by bad blood, and for you to get rid of them it is absolutely necessary to purify the blood into good condition. For this purpose there is no remedy that can compare with Burdock Blood Bitters. This preparation has been on the market for over 35 years, and has a reputation unequalled by any other for the making of pure, rich, red blood. Mr. H. J. Bates, Stratford, Ont., writes:—

"I have been troubled for several weeks with boils on my neck and arms. I had them lanced by the doctor, but as soon as one went others came. I tried all kinds of so called remedies, but could get no relief. I began to feel better, so I kept on taking them. When I had taken two boxes I was able to get up, and ten boxes cured me completely. The principal danger of Grippe is the after effects. The way to guard against this is to strengthen the Kidneys. Kidney Pills are always the last medicine anyone takes for Kidney disease. It always cures and no other medicine is needed."

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1911.

THE ST. JOHN VALLEY RAILWAY.

The Times says that the announcement made yesterday that the Federal and Provincial Governments had reached an agreement for the construction of the St. John Valley Railway would be pleasing information to Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Carvell, whose plan of construction has been adopted by the two Governments. This is hardly in line with the facts, but is about as near the truth as the Times ever gets when discussing political questions. No two men ever worked more zealously to prevent the construction of this important railway than Messrs. Pugsley and Carvell. For two solid years, under one pretext or another, they succeeded in keeping the question in the air and had it not been for Premier Fleming, who really wanted the railroad built at an early date, no headway whatever would have been made.

It will be remembered that in 1909, a large and influential delegation of residents of the St. John river valley went to Fredericton and laid the case of the Valley Railway before the Hazen Government. Mr. Hazen was prompt in his reply. He told the delegation that the Government was willing to guarantee the bonds of a company constructing the railroad to the extent of $25,000 a mile; the railroad after its construction to be operated as a part of the Intercolonial system, the Government of Canada paying as rental, 40 per cent. of the gross income of the railroad, this to be used to meet the interest on the guaranteed bonds. Mr. Hazen also suggested to the delegation that they proceed at once to Ottawa and submit their case to the Government there. The suggestion was put into effect and on their arrival at Ottawa the delegation was met by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Pugsley, who promised consideration and an early reply. No reply was received from the Government at Ottawa until a day or two before the prorogation of the House of Assembly, and then it was not from the Government at all, but from Mr. F. B. Carvell. When the Government was heard from through Dr. Pugsley, it was to propose an impossible specification for the construction of the railroad—a specification that would materially have changed the route over which it was proposed to construct the road.

While matters were in this position the Legislature of the Province met and during the session of 1910 a bill was passed authorizing the Government to make a survey of the route and to enter into a contract for the construction of the railroad under the specification laid down by Dr. Pugsley and heathily endorsed by Mr. Carvell. The Hazen Government recognizing the impossibility of getting any one to enter into a contract under Mr. Pugsley's specification added another part to the bill under the same authority as the Intercolonial in New Brunswick. This section was added to the act for the purpose of securing a railroad for the St. John river valley which everybody recognized to be an impossibility under the specifications submitted by Mr. Pugsley, and which he said was the only one the Government of Canada would accept.

While Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Carvell were doing their utmost to prevent the Hazen Government from building the Valley Railway, the survey of the line was made by various routes. The result of this survey was submitted to the Legislature in 1911, and during the month of June the Government was able to inform the public that a strong company were willing to undertake construction under part three of the act passed in 1910, provided the Dominion subsidy was assured; and if the railway were to follow the route from Hampton to St. John by either Perry's Point or Gondola Point additional assistance was provided for the construction of the bridges necessary. When the matter was submitted to the authorities at Ottawa, Dr. Pugsley's answer was that the Dominion subsidy of $6,400 a mile would only be for a railroad to be operated as a part of the Intercolonial system and constructed under the specifications submitted by himself. From this it was clearly intended to postpone construction of the railway for another year at least. Mr. Hazen was absent in England and Mr. Fleming was acting Premier when this decision on the part of the Minister of Public Works was handed down. Instead of surrendering, Mr. Fleming wrote to Dr. Pugsley suggesting a conference between the two Governments for the purpose of reaching some agreement that would secure the construction of the railway. This conference was held in St. John a few days later and the result announced that an agreement had been reached satisfactory to all parties. Dr. Pugsley abandoned his specification for that section of the line between Woodstock and Grand Falls, where it was practically impossible, and accepted Intercolonial grades. The Local Government in turn accepted Intercolonial operation. An agreement was also reached regarding the bridges, but on the latter question Dr. Pugsley frankly stated that he would have to obtain the consent of his colleagues before he could give the necessary guarantee of assistance. Whether this consent was ever secured or not is not a matter of record, as the elections were called on and took precedence over all other matters.

From this it will be seen that the activities of Dr. Pugsley and his colleague, Mr. Carvell, were more largely in the direction of delaying the construction of the railway than of forwarding it. Throughout the whole business every action of Dr. Pugsley was either to prevent or delay the construction of the railway by the Hazen Government. He first delayed the answer to the delegation until it was too late for the Legislature of New Brunswick to act in the matter at the session of 1910. He then proposed an impossible specification and declined either to amend it or to meet the Government of New Brunswick in conference to discuss the various features of the project. Then when the Government of New Brunswick was prepared to enter into a contract for the construction of the railway under Part III of the act of 1910, he refused point blank to recommend the Dominion subsidy for the railway unless operated by the Intercolonial. This does not look very much like the action of a man who was sincere in his motive to have the St. John Valley Railway built. It is, however, just what is to be expected from a political party whatever credit there may be due for bringing the St. John Valley Railway project to its present position, be it to the Hazen Administration and to Premier Fleming, who from the outset have made a sturdy fight to get the railway built.

The project is a most important one to the whole Province. The railway itself will open up one of the oldest and best agricultural districts, the growth of which is seriously hampered by lack of transportation facilities. It will also give an outlet at St. John for the Grand Trunk Pacific as well as the Canadian Northern. The new Government at Ottawa has given to the people of New Brunswick the necessary pledges of substantial aid to the Province—such aid that makes it possible for the Government of the Province to secure the construction of the Valley Railway on terms that will not render it a burden to the provincial treasury and which secures its operation as a part of the Intercolonial system, as originally suggested by Mr. Hazen. To Premier Fleming is due much praise for the persistence he has displayed to get a railway that will really open up such an important part of the Province of New Brunswick.

LAURIER IN OPPOSITION.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier does not appreciate the cold shades of Opposition. His somewhat petulant remarks on the Speakership of the House of Commons will, be a surprise to many who thought him a great statesman far removed from the party politician. In the course of a somewhat brief speech Sir Wilfrid disclosed his hatred of the Quebec Nationalists who successfully curbed his power in that Province. Why Sir Wilfrid should find it necessary to reflect on these gentlemen is puzzling. Whatever they are he was, it was, perhaps, his lack of success in his last appeal to the French element in Quebec that has embittered him.

Why should Sir Wilfrid object to the selection of Dr. Sproule for the Speakership? He was compelled to admit that by experience and knowledge Dr. Sproule was in every way fitted for the office. Why then should he ask the Conservative party to follow the British precedent and continue Mr. Marcell in office when he himself, when in power, had not displayed any unusual talent in the administration of his office. Indeed he had done things in his official capacity which he had no right to do and which were resented by a majority of Canada's population irrespective of politics. There were many good reasons why Mr. Marcell should not again be Speaker of the House of Commons and that the office should be filled by someone who had a higher ideal of his responsibilities; but it was Dr. Sproule and not Mr. Marcell that Sir Wilfrid dealt with.

It was scarcely good politics for the leader of the Government to have laid himself open to a charge of insincerity so early in his career as leader of the Opposition. It was bad citizenship also to attempt to arouse on the opening day of the House of Commons the race cry. It was a retreat in disorder when challenged by Hon. Mr. Borden to take a vote on the question to refuse to vote the mark. Defeat has evidently not increased the wisdom of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A DISORGANIZED PARTY.

The Liberal party, which its leaders thought a few short months ago was firmly entrenched in the hearts of the people of Canada, is now so thoroughly disorganized as to be almost an object of pity. While this demoralization is to some extent due to the fact that in more recent years the Liberal party has been the home of the grafter and the spendthrift, the action of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in attempting to hand over the commerce of Canada to the United States is the real cause of its present state. No statesman was ever before guilty of so disloyal an act as that which Sir Wilfrid Laurier attempted to foist on the people of this free country. It has been said that the Reciprocity pact was not a secret agreement. This is idle talk. There was no mandate from the people asking for Reciprocity with the United States and the result of the elections showed most conclusively that such an agreement was not wanted by a majority of the Canadian people.

The defeat of the Liberal Government was a great surprise to the men at the head of affairs. They had confidently calculated on their return to power by a larger majority than before. They had gauged the opinion of the country from a wrong standpoint. The people of Canada showed their resentment to the Czar-like methods of Sir Wilfrid by defeating him, and they are still resenting the methods of the Liberal party whenever opportunity offers.

Within the last few days the Conservatives have won two bye-elections for the Nova Scotia Legislature and now occupy one-third of the seats in that body. The same story of Liberal losses is reported from points as widely divergent as Prince Edward Island and Alberta. The Liberal leaders, who expected an immediate revision of public opinion will have to wait. Before they have another chance to rule in this country every Liberal Provincial Government from the Atlantic to the Pacific will have been swept from power.

One of the important questions being discussed in the Ontario election campaign is that relating to the improvement of the roads. Sir James Whitney states that the Federal and Provincial Governments will work together in an effort to improve the conditions of the highways in both old and new Ontario. Mr. Borden's plan for highway improvement has not yet been made public, but it is probable that it will take the line of granting aid to the Provincial Governments for highway improvements and will be of such a character that New Brunswick as well as Ontario will be in a position to benefit by it. Both Governments working together can accomplish many things that were hitherto impossible.

The election of Mr. Bonar Law to the leadership of the Unionist party of Great Britain is being very favorably commented upon by the press of Canada. Mr. Law has long been an important figure in the British House of Commons and will now have a wider opportunity of displaying his abilities than hitherto. The Maritime Provinces have given to Canada three of the eight Premiers the Dominion has had since Confederation, and have now provided the British House of Commons with an opposition leader. New Brunswickers are naturally proud of the distinction won by one of themselves and will follow the future course of Mr. Law with greater interest than ever before.

Thirty-five years ago the Royal Titles Act was passed, under which the King of Great Britain and Ireland became Emperor of India. King George is the third to bear the imperial title, and will be the first to be crowned at the ancient Mogul capital city. On the first day of January, 1877, Queen Victoria was proclaimed Empress of India, with much ceremony and splendor, and in January, 1903, a great Durbar was held for the proclamation of Edward the Seventh as Emperor. King Edward as Prince of Wales had been in India a short time before Victoria was proclaimed Empress. King George, as Duke of Cornwall, made a tour of India in 1901, and again as Prince of Wales in 1906, visiting Delhi on both occasions. He was accompanied both times by the Queen, so that they are quite familiar with the scene. The Duke of Connaught, now Governor General of Canada, attended the Durbar when King Edward was proclaimed. The Durbar of this year will doubtless exceed the others in magnificence and interest on account of the presence of the Emperor and Empress.

There have been two Conservative gains in Nova Scotia provincial bye-elections. It isn't too much to expect, as time progresses, that all the Provinces will be supporting Liberal Conservative principles, from ocean to ocean.

SIR ANDREW FRASER SPEAKS ON BRITISH RULE

Delivered Interesting Address on Administration of India, Before Canadian Club, Yesterday—Was Lieutenant Governor of Bengal—Describes Official and Private Life in the Eastern Empire.

British administration in India was the theme of an interesting address delivered before a largely attended meeting of the Canadian Club held in the Seaman's Mission last evening by Sir Andrew Fraser, formerly Lieutenant Governor of Bengal. Sir Andrew spent 37 years of his life in India, and his descriptions of life in India were illuminated by many striking stories drawn from his long personal experience. Geo. Henderson, president of the club, occupied the chair. The life of the British in India, said Sir Andrew, brought him into very close touch with the people. One of the things that first impressed him in India was that there was no homogeneous people, but people separated by caste, and it was only now that the people were becoming united. But there was a reality to this day, and people of different castes could not intermarry or eat together. Until all that was overcome, he said, it would be quite out of the question to have one Indian nation. If British influence was removed the Indians would be at the throats of the British, and there would be the old chaos among the nations. "If we want to do our duty," said Sir Andrew, "we will have to hold India for a long time."

British Rule.

The army, he said, was the symbol of the sympathy and justice of British rule. They did not keep the peace by having soldiers walking the streets, but the army was behind the authorities. Throughout the length and breadth of the land nothing was to be found but peace and contentment.

Sir Andrew explained the system by which the Home Government is brought into close contact with the people. Every district has a collector and magistrate, who is the head of every branch of government. He is the agent of the state, which is the land owner of India. The system was just, reasonable, equitable, and sympathetic. In every case where the government in Britain has had trouble over land settlement, an Indian officer has been sent for in order that the government would have the benefit of his advice," said the speaker.

Great Agriculturists.

Indians were great agriculturists, and the collector was a great power in agriculture. Great principles had to be applied, and the collectors were trained for years before being put in charge of a district. The people looked to the collector, and he was the friend of the people. The men had to be trustworthy, and only such men were appointed. Proceeding to show how the administrative was carried on by the executive officer, Sir Andrew Fraser described the duties of the district magistrate and civil commissioner over his wide area of jurisdiction, dwelling on the fact that he has control over all the departments of police, revenue, education, forestry and so forth.

but that above all he is the landlord, who receives the land revenues for the government under the system instituted by Lord Cornwallis. It had been the object of the government to make this land system beneficial to the people, and so successful had been that system that Egypt and Ireland had borrowed its principles and Indian civil servants to apply them. By a system of making country tours, camping among the villagers and meeting with them in familiar intercourse, wherein were settled difficulties of a legal and social nature on the spot, Sir Andrew pointed out the benefits of the district magistrate's functions, affirming that this sort of life was the only way in which the person who wished to study India could gain a real knowledge of it.

As an instance of the loyalty of the people of Bengal, Sir Andrew spoke of one of the attempts which had been made on his life. He was presiding at a lecture in Bengal, when a young man approached, pointed a revolver at his breast and pulled the trigger. The shell failed to explode, and before the assassin could pull the trigger a second time, one of the highest Indian noblemen in Bengal threw his arms around Sir Andrew and drew him out of the way. This, said Sir Andrew, proved that the Indians were loyal, and when he left the building an hour and a half later, the streets were thronged with cheering people. The young man who had attempted to kill Sir Andrew was ready to give his life for Bengal in order to show that the lieutenant governor was vulnerable.

The King's Visit.

King George and Queen Mary had left for India, he said, and would be given a welcome such as had never before been seen in India. It was a brave thing to do, but the Indians would show by their actions that they were as loyal as any people in any other part of the great British Empire.

If Indians were judged by their actions in court, continued the speaker, they were consummate liars, but judged by their home life, they were absolutely truthful, and would not tolerate a liar. No Indian, he said, could be a liar, and he would not tell at least one lie, but in their home life they would not allow a liar to live with them. It was that people who went to Calcutta and saw Indians only in the courts said the Orientals were not trustworthy, while men are only a few disaffected people, who take care that their own disaffection is not known, but who influence a half-brained and half-educated young man.

Anarchy and Unrest.

"They say there is anarchy and unrest in India," he continued. "There is unrest, and we are glad of it. It is the unrest of the awakening and the pressing forward of improvement. There is with this a little sedition. It is possible for a few men to do a great deal of harm. But the sedition is entirely circumscribed. The majority of the people of India are loyal to the British Empire, and are only a few disaffected people, who take care that their own disaffection is not known, but who influence a half-brained and half-educated young man."

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY HAS ANNIVERSARY

The 40th anniversary of the formation of St. Joseph's Society was fittingly observed last evening by the society and their friends. The entertainment took the form of a smoker and musical and literary evening. The attendance at the anniversary was large, including many who have been active in sustaining the society and in extending the influence of the organization among the Catholic young men of the city.

Joseph Lewis, president of the society, occupied the chair. Rev. Edward Conway, chaplain, and other prominent members occupying seats of honor. In an able address President Lewis reviewed the history of the society, since its inception 40 years ago. The first meeting place was in a room on Sydney street in the past, and the school now stands. Starting out few in numbers, but with high ideals, its members imbued with great energy and indomitable courage to overcome the obstacles with which they were confronted, had gradually increased its membership roll, and formulated a vigorous campaign to promote the interest of the young men. Since then its record has been a brilliant one, and its advance rapid. Active in the intellectual, social and physical welfare of its members, the society has proved a potent factor in the life of the young men. The 40th anniversary finds the society with a large and growing membership, well organized and active in the promotion of the aims and ideals of its founders.

Following the address of the president, Rev. P. Conway, who has recently been appointed spiritual adviser, gave a brief address in which he referred to the excellent work accomplished in the past, urged the members to continue in a greater extent this work, and to be faithful to the ideals set before them for their direction and to manifest in the affairs of the society a keen interest. J. A. Barry, H. O. McInerney, Wm. Pine, Dr. S. McDonnell, and L. Irigoien spoke briefly to the members.

An interesting programme was then carried out in which the following took part: D. Higgins, W. Ryan, A. Simmons, W. McMahon, J. Leger, L. Conlon, F. McGuigan, R. Garnet, Frank H. Ross, H. McQuade and M. P. Kelley.

A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the programme of selections rendered by the society's own orchestra. Under the capable direction of M. P. Kelley, the orchestra has been increased in numbers, has attained a high degree of excellence and is among the best musical organizations in the city.

New York, Nov. 20.—Trading fell off abruptly today on the stock exchange. The afternoon session was the dullist of several weeks, and the total of transactions was considerably below the recent average. BACHE'S WEEKLY REVIEW

New York, Nov. 19.—This coming week the American Bankers' Association will meet at New Orleans in its annual convention, to give its stamp of approval to the National Reserve Association Plan for the reformation of a system of banking and currency as any civilized country ever endured, and which has been in operation for nearly half a century.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

New York, Nov. 20.—Early transactions in today's cotton market promised a fair degree of activity but as the session progressed without fresh developments, the situation, which market narrowed into the same groove and the day's fluctuations were again from 4 points lower and the increased volume of selling by spot interests gave rise to talk of freer offers at the South. Later advice, however, failed to confirm this rumor and toward the nine-cent level the familiar demand from trade interests continued to support the market.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

New York, Nov. 20.—While it is extremely improbable that the resumption of hearing by the Stanley committee caused any real uneasiness in financial circles, it furnished nevertheless a pretext for speculative activity. Got A Pain In Your Back?

IF YOU HAVE HEED THE WARNING.

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Heed the warning; cure the weak, lame, aching back and dispose of any chances of further trouble.

If you don't do this, serious complications are very apt to arise, and the first thing you know you will be troubled with Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease; the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

On the first sign of a pain in the back, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken.

They go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the backache and prevent any further complications arising.

Mr. Stewart Johnston, Richardson Mines, N.S., writes: "For years I was troubled with my back, and I had to give up work. I tried Dr. after Dr. and was getting no better. I had almost given up hope when I began to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I took three boxes of them, and found I was completely cured. I feel I owe my life to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millbrae Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

THOSE ALL STAR BASE BALL TEAMS

Aside from the actual choice of the trophy winners, the most interesting thing about the vote of the Chalmers trophy commission seems to have been the incidental choice of an "all-star" baseball team, the first one ever picked except by individuals.

Taking for each position the players who received the highest number of points in the voting for the automobiles we get this team:

Outfield—Cobb of Detroit, Schultz of the Cubs and Jackson of Cleveland.

Infielders—Merkle of the Giants on first, Collins of the Athletics on second, Wagner of Pittsburgh at short and Baker of the Athletics at third.

Catchers—Thomas of the Athletics and Meyers of the Giants.

Pitchers—Walsh of the White Sox, Mathewson of the Giants, Johnson of Washington and Alexander of the Phillies.

Managers certainly should not be barred from an "all-star" team, but it was one of the rules of the contest for the Chalmers trophy that managers be included in the vote, since manifestly a good manager does most to help a team in any season and the automobile contest would have favored down chiefly to managers.

In that respect the naming of an "all-star" team by means of the trophy ballot does an injustice, it eliminates for instance, such catchers as Doin and Bresnahan, either of whom is a tower of strength to a team behind the bat. It leaves out such first basemen as Hal Chase and Frank Chance, although the latter has not taken much active part in the game this year on account of his health. It cuts out a grand old outfielder like Fred Clarke.

Almost as interesting as the all-star picking is the selection of all-American league and all-National league teams by the same ballots. The tabulated votes of the commission select:

Outfielders—Cobb of Detroit, Jackson of Cleveland, and Cree of the Yankees.

Infielders—Lajoie of Cleveland on first, Collins of the Athletics on second, Bush of Detroit at short and Baker of the Athletics at third.

Catcher—Thomas of the Athletics.

Pitchers—Walsh of the White Sox,

PRIVY COUNCIL'S DECISION IN CASE OF KING VS. LOVITT

is wide enough to include all property and every person everywhere, whether subjects of this kingdom or not, and no matter where they are domiciled. It has accordingly been held, through a long series of cases, that the duties are intended to be imposed only on those who become entitled by virtue of our law. The effect of this principle, is to exempt from the payment of legacy or succession duty movable property situated here which belonged to a testator domiciled abroad, for in dealing with the distribution of such property our courts act not on our own law, but on the law of the domicile of the testator or intestate on which the legacy or successor founds his title. Similarly in the case of movable property abroad which belonged to a person domiciled here, our courts will direct their distribution according to the law of that of the locality where they are found. In Blackwood vs. Reg. (8 A.C. 98) Sir Arthur Hobhouse, in delivering the opinion of their lordships' board, says: "For the purpose of succession and enjoyment the law of the domicile governs the foreign personal assets. For the purpose of legal representation of collection and of administration as distinguished from the distribution among the successors they are governed not by the law of the owner's domicile, but by the law of their own locality."

LONG LARRY M'LEAN NOW BAR TENDER

With Clark Griffith no longer in charge of the Cincinnati club and the future of McLean's matter of course, although the following is from the National League news items in Sporting News, the St. Louis baseball publication:

"It is a safe bet at the ratio of a 5 to 1 that Larry McLean will not be wearing the crimson-hued hoisery of Cincinnati when next fall rolls 'round." Mr. Herrmann will not discuss the matter, though his friends say that Long Larry is about through.

FRISCO FIGHT FANS SOLID FOR WOLGAST

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—Though it looks now that San Francisco will not have anything highly attractive to offer in the way of a boxing exhibition this month, California will not be without a whale of a card, for Ad Wolgast, champion lightweight of the world, will be engaged to defend his title against Fred Welsh at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day.

THOSE ALL STAR BASE BALL TEAMS

Aside from the actual choice of the trophy winners, the most interesting thing about the vote of the Chalmers trophy commission seems to have been the incidental choice of an "all-star" baseball team, the first one ever picked except by individuals. Taking for each position the players who received the highest number of points in the voting for the automobiles we get this team:

Outfield—Cobb of Detroit, Schultz of the Cubs and Jackson of Cleveland. Infielders—Merkle of the Giants on first, Collins of the Athletics on second, Wagner of Pittsburgh at short and Baker of the Athletics at third. Catchers—Thomas of the Athletics and Meyers of the Giants. Pitchers—Walsh of the White Sox, Mathewson of the Giants, Johnson of Washington and Alexander of the Phillies.

CONSERVATIVE CLUB HAD PLEASANT TIME

Every part of the two large rooms of the St. John Conservative club in the Market building was crowded last night when the members were at home to their friends, and one of the most enjoyable smokers that has been held for some time was enjoyed by the large crowd.

Alderman R. W. Wigmore presided and from eight o'clock until 10.30 o'clock there was a full moment for speeches, song and instrumental music made up a most enjoyable programme.

The programme was opened by Chairman Wigmore, who welcomed all present, and invited them to continue coming to the meetings which were furnished for the enjoyment of the Conservatives.

There were seated on the platform in addition to the chairman, Dr. J. W. Daniel, ex-M. P.; W. F. Hatheway, M. P.; Miss E. Agar, J. C. Chesley, Recorder J. R. H. Taylor, L. P. D. Tilley, J. Starr Tait, James Bryant, James Lewis, James Sproul, Ald. Norman McLeod and James E. Cowan. The rooms were filled with about 300 men and many others had to go away as they were unable to gain admission.

The different speakers congratulated the club on its excellent quarters and the tasteful manner in which they had been decorated.

Alderman Wigmore in a brief address stated that the club room was open day and night, and was not only open for political purposes but for reading and recreation rooms, where the members could enjoy themselves.

There were now about 300 men enrolled, and it was expected that in a short time there would be over 500. There is a piano and a billiard table, and it is expected that a pool table will be placed in the rooms in a couple of weeks.

Dr. J. W. Daniel, ex-M. P., was the next speaker, and he congratulated the club on their quarters. He spoke of the grand victory recently gained and wished the club success in their efforts.

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE COMING TO ST. JOHN

New Zealand Shipping Co. to Put Two Steamers on Route Between Here and Australia.

The importance with which St. John is viewed as an ideal winter port may be gathered from the fact that another trans-oceanic steamship line is to be inaugurated between here and foreign ports.

A communication received yesterday by J. T. Knight & Company contained the information that the New Zealand Shipping Company propose to establish a service between this port and Australia.

The inauguration of this line will further add to the prestige which St. John is gaining among the shipping ports of the world. Already large cargoes have been booked for the new lines.

WITNESSES HEARD IN VAN BUSKIRK CASE

Walter G. VanBuskirk, the youth who was arrested on Saturday evening by Detective Killen on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences, was taken before Police Magistrate Ritchie yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

C. W. Hope Grant, an insurance agent, was the first witness called and stated that he identified the prisoner as a young man who called at his house a few weeks ago and collected a dollar, saying that he was wanting a football team to play against the Y. M. C. A. team on the Shanrock grounds.

The prisoner did not wish to ask any questions and was remanded to jail for a few days until some other witnesses are called.

Small Fire. Considerable excitement was caused last evening in the home of John Seabury, at No. 9 Duke street, by the bursting of a lamp in a room on the ground floor. The alarm was rung in on Box 28, and on the arrival of the fire department it was found that the mattress and blankets in the room were blazing. A well directed stream of water was at once put to work with the result that the fire was immediately extinguished. Only a small amount of damage was done.

Basement Flooded. Owing to the unusually high tides of the past week, considerable trouble is being experienced in the operations on the new C. P. R. station. At the north end of the station there is between 5 and 6 feet of water which, owing to the sluggish drainage does not recede fast enough. Pumps were employed all day Sunday in the basement of the Mission church on Paradise Row. It was impossible to obtain heating to the flooded condition of the basement.

No Witnesses Present. Last night in the police court the inquest into the death of Thomas Evans, the ship laborer who died from injuries received while at work on the Furness liner, Shenandoah, some weeks ago, was resumed. J. B. Armstrong represented the steamship company and Daniel Mullin the friends of the deceased. Thomas McCullough the clerk read over the evidence that had been given at the previous session to the new jury who were empanelled as the first jury were discharged owing to the illness of Daniel McCullough. The same jury was sworn, Dominick Hayes being substituted for McCullough. The witnesses who were expected were not present, and the inquest was adjourned until this evening at 7.30 o'clock in the probate court rooms.

NELSON SHIELD FOR BUSINESS COLLEGE

Local Institution Presented with Trophy Made from Famous Admiral's Vessels-For Competition of Pupils.

The Rev. Alfred Hall, senior chaplain of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society visited Kerr's business college yesterday afternoon and presented to the college the Nelson shield. This shield is made from the brass and oak taken from Nelson's first flagship H. M. S. Foudroyant and the great hero was shot and died during the battle of Trafalgar.

This shield is mounted with copper ribbon engraved with the name on the top. The centre represents the Victory in full sail and shows Nelson's famous message, thus connecting the shield with the anniversary of Trafalgar.

The shield is stamped E. R. VII. by command. Below the centre are two bars, the first for the holder's name, and the lower bearing the motto, "Palman qui meruit ferat."

When the copper bolts from which the shield is made were first discovered in the holds of the old battleships small brooches were made, but on the suggestion of the Rev. Alfred Hall the large shields were made to take their place. The shields were first sent to South Africa where the Rev. Mr. Hall presented them to the various institutions of learning in that colony.

Lord Strathcona then presented the society with £1,000 with which to buy the copper and oak from the Lords of the Admiralty, and the Rev. Mr. Hall was appointed to come to Canada and present them.

These shields are for competition among the scholars, and in Kerr's business college the pupil making the highest mark during the final exams will have his or her name inscribed thereon.

During his speech of presentation the Rev. Mr. Hall complimented Mr. Kerr on the large and splendid school that he has, and said that though he had visited many such colleges since coming to Canada this was the best equipped he had yet seen.
