

HURLED BOMBS AT LORRIES IN BELFAST CITY

Three Attacks Made on Military Forces in Different Parts of Place.

MAGNIFICENT HOME BURNED BY IRISH

Belfast, Feb. 6.—Dublin dispatches today revealed that Saturday night that city experienced a sensation when loud explosions and continuous volleys, resembling the sounds of a battle on a small scale, became audible from the distant suburbs. It turned out that three ambushes had occurred, one of which resulted in the killing of a four year old child.

Near Merrion Square The first ambush was in the neighborhood of Merrion Square, shortly before eight o'clock. Explosions which shook some of the older houses to their foundations were followed by volleys of rifles and revolver fire. The inhabitants sought refuge in their cellars, while persons in the street were stampeded by the firing. What had happened was that three houses were being at a lorry filled with soldiers. This precipitated an exchange of shots which lasted several minutes without effect, except for the wounding of two civilians by bomb splinters.

Two Lorries Bombed The second ambush occurred on the south side of the city where two military lorries were being driven. There was a similar exchange of gunfire and a child of four years was shot through the head and a woman was wounded and taken to a hospital. The third ambush occurred at 9 p. m. when two military lorries were at the castle. A Catholic priest was shot in the vicinity of a Catholic chapel. An officer of the military was slightly wounded and some civilians, including a boy, received unimportant injuries.

Many Are Hurt The report from Dublin Castle is that several persons were injured in the affair at Merrion Square, five civilians in the south and incident and two young men in the Rathmines encounter. The castle also reports that near Clonmel a patrol of the Devon Regiment discovered a body of about twenty men in the vicinity of a Catholic chapel. An officer of the military was slightly wounded and some civilians, including a boy, received unimportant injuries.

Great Home Burned London, Feb. 6.—Summerhill House, 23 miles from Dublin and one of the most beautiful homes in Ireland, was burned yesterday with a loss of $100,000, according to the Weekly Dispatch. Several men entered the rear of the castle and seized thirty gallons of petrol, with which they fired the two wings of the building which police auxiliaries found a roaring furnace upon their arrival. A quantity of valuable furniture and tapestry was destroyed. Summerhill House was the residence of the late Lord Langford. It is believed the place was fired to prevent its occupancy by the military.

It was also suggested that the government consider the sending of supplies either of wheat or flour, and that the government arrange for free transportation of supplies across Canada and by merchant marine to a Chinese port. The Premier's View. The premier admitted the humanitarian appeal and said he did not want to be understood as thinking they were under no obligation to help because the government of China is not doing its duty. ### UNCLE OF DEAD MONTREAL GIRL UNDER ARREST

AXE USED LIKE ONE THAT FAMILY OWNED No Motive For Horrible Crime Has Been Discovered by Police Yet.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—Arthur Jacques, 29 years old, of the rue St. Old Orchard Avenue, Notre Dame De Grace, this city, uncle of Adeline Malherbe, 27, of 67 Clarendon Avenue, Westmount, who was identified Saturday as the victim of the brutal murder Friday night when she was apparently struck in the back of the head with an axe, on Prospect street, and is being held as a material witness for the coroner's inquest which will be held tomorrow.

Denies Being Out. Jacques denied any knowledge of the murder and stated that on Friday night he was home at about nine o'clock and had not left the house until Saturday morning. In this he is supported by three persons at the house where he lives, one even stating that he had heard him snoring at 11 o'clock in his room. The murder was committed around 10.50 p. m.

Two Identify Prisoner. Miss Mary Girard, 45 Prospect street, who saw a man running away after the murder, when confronted with Jacques was unable to identify him. Two brothers, Jean and Rene Madore, who had seen a man standing on the corner of Prospect street and Green Avenue about the time of the murder on Friday night both picked out Jacques from a number of others at the detective bureau as the man in question.

Remembers the Axe. Jacques himself when shown the axe stated that he remembered having used an axe like this one when he lived at the Malherbe house and also remembered having broken the handle while chopping wood some five years ago. He was not sure that it was the same axe. Jacques was cool and calm on Saturday but on Sunday after close questioning by the police, collapsed in a fit of weeping.

R. L. RICHARDSON ILL. Winnipeg, Feb. 6.—R. L. Richardson, M. P., of Springfield, Manitoba, is confined to his home under medical advice and it is improbable that he will be in his place in Parliament for the early part of the session.

WORLD NEWS TODAY

CANADA The West Peterboro by-election is being held today with five candidates in the field. Hon. Dr. Toynbe, Minister of Agriculture, declares Canada will retaliate if the Fordney Bill is adopted by the United States. Arthur Jacques has been arrested as a material witness in the case of the murder of his niece Adeline Malherbe at Montreal.

UNITED STATES Big seizures of whiskey and drugs have been made in the port of New York. NEWFOUNDLAND A father is charged with cruelty to his child so that she died while attempting to reach her mother's grave. THE BRITISH ISLES Series of fatal bombing of military lorries is reported from Belfast.

Cardinal Logue has issued a statement in which he condemns the British rule in Ireland but declares that the killing of policemen is plain murder. "The cry of suffering Ireland!" said the Cardinal, "despite the efforts to smother it by propaganda will re-echo through centuries, marking out a sorry place in history for the present rulers. There has been no word of conciliation, but repression pure and simple such as has been unknown in Ireland since the days of Cromwell and such as outrages example except that of perhaps Turkey and the Bolsheviks."

Attacks Government. Cardinal Logue proceeded in scathing terms to denounce the policy of the government, which he said had robbed it of all sense of sacredness of human life and extinguished the instinctive horror of bloodshed. He declared that the official reports were acts of wanton oppression and injustice; that men gutless of any overt act against law and order had been held up as heroes and shot under the eyes of their families; that prisoners were shot in Ireland under the plea of attempting to escape though they were surrounded by armed men easily able to restrain them. Religion Not Spared. "Lastly," declared the Cardinal, "even religion has not been spared. Sacrifices of churches have been made, and some times little respect has been shown to sacred vessels and vestments. Churches have been surrounded by armed men while people attended services. They were held up as heroes as they left church. Of course, nothing was found except prayer books and rosaries; Catholics do not go armed to hear Mass or to attend a religious service."

Killing Police Is Murder. "It must not be inferred," the Cardinal's pastoral continued, "that I overlook or condone extremist crimes. The lying in wait and shooting of policemen or the firing of a shot of warfare, but is plain murder and will entail punishment for murder here and not, if not repeated and atoned for, terrible punishment hereafter. No reason adduced nor any end, however noble, could justify it."

Referring to the ineffectual peace negotiations, the Cardinal said that they left the suspicion they were a mere device "intended to mark time and amuse the public until the country is better fitted and in a position to be prepared to submit to any terms the rulers may dictate, and even to swallow the nauseous pill of partition."

Denies Rebels Broken. He emphatically denied the recent declaration of Major General Strickland in command of British troops, that the "Irish Republican Army" organization was dismembered and repudiated the suggestion that the republicans were in a state of anarchy, but a demonstration to disprove the assertions that the morale of the volunteers had been broken.

He intimated that the "Republican Army" would soon begin the issuance of a military communiqué probably weekly, and added: "Our system of communication is not yet very rapid, but it is certain. The Irish Republican Army does the entire country." Colonel X said the republicans were in a state of anarchy, but a demonstration to disprove the assertions that the morale of the volunteers had been broken.

Size of Force Varies. "The size of our forces varies according to the nature of the country and the number and character of the inhabitants. We are not steadily carrying out our plans. It should be understood, however, that we must organize and train men for the work while we are engaged in fighting."

The unit of the organization, according to the officer, is the company, whose full strength normally is one hundred men, each company being tactically self-contained and furnishing its own signallers, engineers and machine guns.

'MURDER' SAYS CARDINAL OF IRISH CRIMES

Primate of All Ireland, Cardinal Logue, Attacks British Methods.

CONDEMNNS EQUALLY KILLING OF POLICE Claims Conditions in Ireland Only Equalled in Turkey or Among Bolsheviks.

Belfast, Feb. 6.—The Lenten pastoral letters read today by all the Ulster Catholic Bishops were devoted to the serious situation existing in Ireland. That of Cardinal Logue, primate of all Ireland, dealt at great length with the situation.

"The cry of suffering Ireland!" said the Cardinal, "despite the efforts to smother it by propaganda will re-echo through centuries, marking out a sorry place in history for the present rulers. There has been no word of conciliation, but repression pure and simple such as has been unknown in Ireland since the days of Cromwell and such as outrages example except that of perhaps Turkey and the Bolsheviks."

Three of the Ministers Have Fled to Ankara and Others Want to Resign.

Constantinople, Feb. 6.—There is a crisis in the Moslem cabinet, due to attempts by the Nationalists to carry out their old plan of removing the Sultan's temporal power. ### FIFTEEN DOLLAR PER TON TARIFF AGAINST PAPERS

United States Newsprint Makers See Danger to Trade from Foreign Imports.

NOT ANXIOUS TO HIT TRADE WITH CANADA Papers Must Have Supplies from Dominion and Will Not Include Land in Measure.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Claiming that as a result of the present exchange situation newsprint manufacturers in Norway, Sweden, Holland and Germany can sell their products in the United States at a price below production costs here, United States newspaper manufacturers asked the House Ways and Means Committee Saturday to impose a tariff of $15 a ton on newsprint imported from any country except Canada.

The Present Rate. The present rate is 12 per cent ad valorem provided the value is above eight cents a pound, free entry being accorded stocks below that value. Excluding the request to suspend the duty on imports from Canada, the manufacturers said imports from that country constituted forty per cent of consumption in the United States and that Canadian newsprint was required "in the public interest."

The manufacturers asked that an arrangement similar to that now in force with respect to retaliatory action be incorporated in the tariff law.

Hits Canada Too. Under the proposed tariff of $15 a ton would be made applicable to Canadian imports on executive order if "unfair and inequitable" regulations or restrictions were adopted by the Dominion government or by the governments of any of the Canadian provinces.

Under another provision of the present arrangement, if any foreign country imposes any import duty or export license fee on printing paper, wood pulp, or wood for use in the manufacture of wood pulp an additional duty would be imposed on imports of print paper valued above 8 cents per pound from that country equal to the amount of the highest export duty or other charge imposed by such country.

W. PETERBORO BY-ELECTION VERY BITTER

UNIONIST AND LIBERAL FIGHTERS Issue Depends Largely on Strength of Vote J. H. Burnham Polls.

Special to The Standard. Peterboro, Feb. 6.—After a campaign that has been close, spectacular and bitter, the by-election issue in West Peterboro goes to the jury of the electors tomorrow with a great deal of uncertainty and doubt. Fighting to the last to keep up the morale of the supporters and to weaken the morale of their friends, all five candidates closed the campaign by expressing confidence in the result. Such statements, of course, mean little, and nobody outside a few of their own enthusiasts expects either the farmer, the labor or the independent candidate to win.

Two in Real Fight. The fight is between Gordon, Liberal and Denne, Conservative, and while all the conditions of the contest have favored the Liberal, seeing that J. H. Burnham, the independent Conservative candidate, cut heavily into the government's vote the balance of opinion is that Denne will win by a small majority.

Everything appears to hinge upon the strength that will be shown by J. H. Burnham. If he should poll more than a thousand votes (all of which would be a dead loss to the government) only an overwhelming minority of the country would enable Denne to win. Indeed, even though Burnham should poll 500 votes, a win for the government will be a remarkable evidence of strength, seeing that the farmer candidate will cut into the government as well as the Liberal vote in the country and that McMurray, the labor candidate, will take a big share of the votes of the working classes practically all protectionist and consequently erstwhile government supporters.

Government's Fight. The truth is that while the election of Mr. Gordon, the Liberal candidate, would not indicate any powerful opposition to the government in the country, but merely the result of a split in the government and protectionist ranks, a victory for the government, having regard to the loss of support indicated in Mr. Burnham's candidature and the fact that both Mr. Burnham and Mr. McMurray are pledged to high protection will be a remarkable achievement.

Issues Very Varied. The contest has been waged upon a jumble of issues, some national, some provincial, some local and others purely personal. The government tried hard throughout to concentrate upon what should have been the only issue namely, the tariff, but Gordon, the Mckenzie King candidate, ran away from a fight on that ground, preferring to wage a battle upon all kinds of minor canvasses behind a smoke screen of personalities and abuse.

Although admitting that he helped frame the Liberal tariff platform of 1916 it was difficult to pin Gordon down to any definite position. In this he was ably seconded by Mr. Eildred, who as the prime minister declared in Montreal, made a "proclamation of infidelity" to his party's fiscal creed, and urged the electors to support Gordon on the ground that no matter what he might have said, there was no more danger of the Liberals carrying out their free trade pledges now than there had been in 1916.

Only One Plan. As for Mr. Burnham, he conducted his campaign on the single issue, that the government had no mandate and that Mr. Meighen had no right to "destroy the Conservative party." This claim received a severe jolt when government speakers produced a Hansard report of a speech in which Mr. Burnham, speaking in the Commons on May 20, enthusiastically advocated a new party, but it made no apparent difference to Mr. Burnham's mind. His main support came from die-hard Tories, and his speeches, typical Burnhamesque utterances, added to the gaiety of the campaign. Throughout the election, neither the farmer or labor candidate appeared to be receiving any large support. The labor candidate, in particular, made but little impression.

Some Have Paid the Fines But There is a Jail Prospect for Others.

Special to The Standard.
Miss Grace Everett, a special session at the police court, presided over by Stipendiary Fielding, resulted in fines to the amount of $2,400 being imposed on five bootleggers, having been convicted of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act. This was a record day for Inspector Tracy since he has been on the job. The following were the defendants convicted: John Shea, fined $500 and costs, James Kempf $500 and costs, Himie Kominsky, $500 and costs, Theodore Swadlow, $500 and costs, and Val Besht, $400 and costs.

Wholesale Bootleggers.

Inspector Tracy had warrants issued for these bootleggers and all with the exception of Val Besht, were arrested and tried within a few hours. The inspector proved that they were wholesale bootleggers, having been seized by them of one gallon of rum, the price of $35 being asked for each can. With the inspector was Sergeant O'Leary when he was discovered carrying his wholesale business being carried on. No defence was offered in any of the cases, all the defendants throwing up the sponge after hearing the evidence of Mr. Tracy and Sergeant O'Leary. Three of the defendants have already enriched the city treasury with the amount of their fines.

CANDIDATES' REQUEST FOR MORE EXTRA VOTES HAS BEEN GRANTED

BULLETIN TO CONTESTANTS

Requests for more EXTRA votes has been granted—200,000 EXTRA votes for each and every $15 worth of subscriptions secured during this week—Make the most of this added week for extra vote ballots that has been given you. The offer ends Saturday night, February 12th, and will not be given again. Special Starr Graphophone offer ends the following Saturday night, February 13th. Which contestants will win the magnificent $215 Starr Phonograph.

Owing to the numerous requests for another extra vote offer received from the majority of the contestants, The Automobile and Movie Star Department of The Standard has decided to give the contestants another chance this week to secure extra votes. Many contestants stated that they had hardly got started on the extra vote offer before it ended.

It is our aim to assist and encourage the contestants in every possible way, consequently in view of the numerous requests for another chance for the extra votes, we have decided to give a bonus ballot good for 200,000 EXTRA votes for each and every $15 worth of subscriptions secured this week. There is no limit to the number of extra vote ballots that a contestant may secure during this offer. One will be given for each and every $15 worth of business collected.

GET AN EARLY START ON EXTRA VOTE OFFER.

It is a very poor plan to get off subscription-getting until the last day or two of a special offer, especially when the offer is as important as an EXTRA vote offer. Begin your campaign for the extra vote ballots TODAY—the first day of the extra vote offer—and make every minute of your spare time this week yield votes to the utmost.

No matter how many votes you have—secure more! It will take votes to win the big $1,000 Studebaker, the Gray-Dart, the Ford, the Movie Star Contracts and the other regular prizes. You cannot have too many votes to your credit! It is far better to have more than you need when the Judges make the final Count of Votes than to not have enough.

RACE FOR STARR PHONOGRAPHS.

The race for the two $215 Special Starr Phonographs was a very close one throughout the first week of the Phonograph offer. In fact no contestant can claim much of an advantage over the others in the race. The work done during this week and next week will therefore be the deciding factors in this race for these two desirable special prizes.

With best wishes for your success in securing votes and subscriptions during the Special Starr Phonograph offer and particularly during this week—the added week of the extra vote offer, we are,

Yours very truly

THE OFFICIAL JAR

The above reproduction is from a photo taken of the official Barley Jar, after it had been filled, sealed and labeled by Mayor Schofield. Twenty-two free prizes, including a 5-passenger Ford Touring Car, are offered for the best guesses on the number of kernels of barley that Mayor Schofield poured into the Small's Peanut Butter jar. We would suggest that you get a jar of Small's Peanut Butter, eat the delicious contents, wash the jar, fill it with barley purchased from Robertson's, count the kernels in your jar and thus arrive at some sort of an estimate on the number of kernels in the official jar. See the officially sealed jar on exhibition in the window at Macaulay Bros. & Co., 65 King Street.

THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

Among the members of the legal profession, though not very widely known in that circle, there is some discussion as to the propriety of maintaining the present system under which the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, sitting in London, is the final court of appeal in Canadian law suits.

In the opinion of the Journal of Commerce there is room for some difference of opinion as to the value of the appeal, but the Journal thinks it would be a mistake to suppose there is any widespread feeling against the existing system.

Where the question to be decided is purely one of law it is worth something to have the decision of such a body of eminent jurists as the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Behind the Scenes. A French writer once made one of his characters say: "Behind every man's success or failure there is a woman."

Women is essentially the playwright of existence. Standing in the wings, she sends her male puppets swarming, scurrying, conquering, falling across the stage.

The Doom of an Unpopular Tax. Unless the government exercise a prerogative shared with women and change their determined mind, the excess profits duty will disappear in April.

Royalists With Servants. Two kings, three queens, two princes, four princesses, and one duke attended the annual servants' ball at Sandringham.

The British in India. The Outlook, of New York, has a very interesting article this week on India and British rule there, written by David Downie, of Coonor, South India.

MODIFICATION OF TIMBER REGULATIONS.

The inextinguishability of Canada's forest resources is a myth which is rapidly losing credit, according to a statement issued by the Commission of Conservation.

Monkey Fought Dogs To Protect The Rats

Did His Best to Keep Terriers from Killing Rodents Which Infested Cage.

By L. G. MAINLAND. Copyright 1921, By London Daily Mail and Cross-Atlantic. London, Feb. 6.—When an effort was made at the Zoo to clear the great monkey cage of rats and keepers with dogs and ferrets entered, thirty monkeys promptly took to the roof. The only specimen who stayed below was a fine old rhesus monkey who had established his claim to be "king of the cage."

The ferrets did their work, the rats began to dash out and the dogs pounced on them, intensely eager. This was too much for the king monkey. He knew the rats. They had never done him any harm and he did not seem fair. The king uttered some loud shrieks, chattered and grimaced, and then threw himself on the biggest dog. Catching it around the neck, he tried to pull it off a rat. Finding the animal too heavy, he tried a lighter "rater," and while the massacre was on he hid his best to spoil the hunt.

Zoo dogs are specially trained to leave the captive animals alone, and not a dog tried to bite the plucky old king.

DURANT, AUTO WIZARD, STARTS TO COME BACK

By RICHARD SPILLANE. In the automotive industry there are two towering figures, Henry Ford and William O. Durant. To Ford Wall Street has been anathema. He has called at the Money Gods, cooled at them, defied them, played a lone hand all through the years and, marvel of marvels, prospered amazingly. Durant has played the game according to the rules of the monarchs of money and, although he has built up one of the giant business concerns, he has come a financial cropper.

Automobile people call Ford a genius and Durant a wizard. Ford has been picturesque and spectacular. Durant has dodged notoriety. These two men are great public assets. Ford's genius has been in mass production and, to some extent, in turning his ideas into business success.

A few weeks ago the country was startled by the news that Durant's interest in General Motors had been taken over by a financial group. In capitalization the General Motors is a monster million dollar affair. Ordinarily that would mean the end of the chapter for a man. But not Durant. He's "coming back." The other day Durant Motors, Inc. took out a charter at Albany. Its authorized capital is of 1,000,000 shares of no par value.

It is said Mr. Durant was flooded with subscriptions, in fact that the subscription blanks were printed. Who is this man Durant? For a person so big in industrial achievement comparatively little has been written about him. He's a blue-blooded Yank of Pilgrim stock. The "D" in his name stands for Crapo. As with Ford, he looks more like a student than a great industrialist. He isn't tall and he is slender. Yet it's a glint in his eye that tells you he is at his desk by 5 a. m. and clean up most of his day's work before the regular office force came on duty. He has been that way for thirty years or more.

It wasn't money or chance that made opportunity for him. He always was a wonder. When he was little more than a Michigan boy he was put in charge of a Michigan city that was bankrupt. In a few years he had it as sound financially as it could be. He used to be a Michigan city that was bankrupt. In a few years he had it as sound financially as it could be.

When he began business he had $2,000. That was less than thirty-five years ago. Six months ago he had 900 persons on his payroll and was conducting manufacturing operations in forty-eight cities. He is said to have made more millionaires than Carnegie. It's odd but true that the two great reverses Mr. Durant sustained came out of wholly contrary causes.

His first downfall came in a period of depression. The first affair was less than ten years ago. He had not the plant capacity for his business. He had to get millions of dollars with which to build more structures, purchase more machinery, more material, etc.

The automobile business is not a quick-asset proposition. You must have plant, machinery, labor, material, etc., to get out your product. You must have agencies. You must, at times, sell on installment. Not infrequently the money is a long coming. He was doing remarkably well and really he was doing remarkably well and really he was doing remarkably well.

It is not a pleasant story to tell what happened to Mr. Durant through the bond issue his company put out for five years. Mr. Durant was one of the voting trust members, but after five years he did not participate in its deliberations, and when the who had taken control from him by coming in at the annual election and voting a majority of the stock.

Some people in Wall Street never have forgiven him for that. What if he does the same thing some years hence?

HE SLEEPS ALL NIGHT LONG NOW Gets Up Every Morning Fresh As a Daisy Since Taking Tanlac, Says Schoope.

What I needed was just an all round building up, and Tanlac has done that very thing, said Joseph Schoope, Danvers, N. B. "For at least a year before taking Tanlac, I was in a badly run-down condition. I wasn't sick exactly, but no strength or energy, and it didn't take anything hard to tire me out. What little sleep I got seemed to do me no good, and I got up in the morning with a dull, heavy taste in my mouth and feeling worse than I did on going to bed. I had a dull headache all the time and felt weak and languid, and it was a drag for me to get through my work.

But Tanlac has straightened me out in every way. I have gained ten pounds in weight and am stronger and feel more like working than I have for years. I sleep fine, get up feeling as fresh as a daisy and feel good all through the day. I have recommended Tanlac to a great many of my friends. It is certainly a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., E. Main and by T. H. Deane, Fairlie, N. B., and R. D. Wetmore, Perry's Point, N. B., under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

SOCIALISTS OF ITALY ASK FOR MORE POLICEMEN Hostile Political Organization Has Instilled Real Fear Into Insolent Party Leaders. PRESENT FORCE IS OVERWORKED

By GUGLIELMO EMANUELE. Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger. Rome, Feb. 6.—The political situation in Italy is emphasized by a Socialist motion, introduced in which virtually consists of an appeal for more police protection against the activities of the Fascist. It is amusing to see the Socialists, who until lately were supposed to dominate the whole country and once asked for a reduction of the police strength, now finding it very useful to have even more police recruited to protect them. Several recent episodes fully justify the request, although the Socialists must admit that the police have been overworked in keeping a guard over the most violent extremists and their homes as well as the Socialist organization's buildings, which lately were the object of determined attacks by the Fascist.

Distasteful Political Group. What are the Fascists? They must not be confounded with the Nationalists, for really they are a distinct organization although many Nationalists also belong to the Fascist. It can be said that while the Nationalists are particularly interested in foreign policy, the Fascist are exclusively interested in domestic policy. Originally the comrades of the great war were enrolled in the Fascist "combatant" or fighter's leagues, but gradually a more conservative, professional, even peasant and a few workers of conservative leaning were admitted.

They are calling a halt on the habit which has become prevalent of giving way to Socialist insolence, in some provinces during the summer and autumn of last year the Socialists have become drunk with success and assumed a bullying attitude. It is just in Bologna, Modena, Ferrara, Pavia and Florence, where the Socialists made themselves impossible, that the factum has prospered. It was a product of irresistible reaction.

The Fascist have succeeded in demonstrating that the Fascist are generally cowardly. Taking a leaf from the Socialist book, the Fascist began to descend into the streets and at the slightest pretext pointing, or immediately blows with the Socialists.

Of course, their methods are not blameless, as they often use revolvers and hand grenades freely, but the curious fact is that the system has worked like magic in places which were particularly in the hands of a few extremists. Where in other countries tumultuous general occur between the extremists and the police the new system in Italy is for the Fascist to fight directly with the anarchists or rabid Socialists.

Now the Socialists in the chamber proclaim that Fascist are leading to a civil war, which is an exaggeration. No doubt Fascism is a transitory phenomenon, but up to now it has been effective in subduing the dictatorial attitude of the extreme Socialists had assumed. Now that the state is called upon to re-establish order by the same Socialists, it is hoped the government will step in to avoid conflicts, which have been increasing in number. The Socialists in the chamber had opposed the government bill aiming at disarming all citizens, but perhaps now they will see the absurdity of such a stand, as no hope of avoid battle-royals among the Socialists and Fascist can be entertained until both are deprived of their weapons.

UNITED STATES AND CANADA AS TWO BROTHERS

This Should Be Relation Says Business Manager New York Times.

By Louis Wiley in Maple Leaf. The relationship between Canada and the United States, always close because of the proximity and the similar ideals and ambitions of the two countries, grows nearer as the years pass. There is so wide an interchange and intermingling of the people and products of Canada and the United States—so continuous a crossing and recrossing of the boundary line—that our kinship with the British Empire is made more enduring as they grow older. Our ideals of liberty are practically the same, although Canada is part of an empire and the United States a republic. Our plans for development of natural industries, of manufactures, of export and trade are similar, because we are part of one great continent divided only by invisible lines. There should be union so far as possible in commerce and along every line of development, not only for our mutual good, but, perhaps at some time, for our mutual defense.

"The North American Instinct." In the fifty-odd years that have elapsed since the Canadian confederation of provinces was formed, Canada has made unusual progress. Before the first century of Canadian national life is finished there will doubtless be great growth in population and developed resources. The leaders in Canadian national life are resourceful, strong, patriotic men, and behind them stands a splendid body of intelligent and courageous citizens. Canada sent an unusually large percentage of its young men into the war to fight under the banner of the British Empire. The Canadian Corps were the corps d'élite of all armies. At the end of the war, after four years as a half of fighting, Canadian soldiers were fresh and better than ever before. They occupied at Vimy, the most forward position on the western front, but the Germans never would come near them. Throughout the whole offensive of 1918 the Germans carefully avoided Canadians, and whenever there was any contact it resulted in the complete discomfiture of the Germans. For every daring enterprise Canadians were selected, because they were not only as brave as the bravest but they had the North American instinct to take care of themselves.

In the United States, the Government, a few months ago, relinquished its operation of railways, and Canada emerged from the war having the largest number of miles of government-operated railways of any country. Canada is now proceeding to develop a permanent national policy toward the transportation facilities of the Dominion. The results will be followed with the deepest interest by all countries in the United States and other countries, who have urged and opposed the government ownership of transportation lines.

To a large extent, in the United States the necessity for pioneer development has passed. The transportation question in the United States is now one of providing adequate facilities at the lowest possible rates to take care of the enormous volume of natural and manufactured products, which await carriage from one section to another, and for export. Government operation in the United States in the period of war stress cannot be taken as any indication of the results which such operation by a private ownership of railways, under favorable financial conditions and factory solvent, many authorities content is productive of better results than government ownership.

Canada has a number of great newspapers, which in influence and enterprise of the leading journals of the United States. They differ little in ideals and on methods from United States newspapers of equal size and circulation. A serious problem which confronted American newspapers for some time after the end of the war was the shortage of newspaper paper. There has been a large increase in the advertising, due to the expansion of the business, but the production has not kept pace with the demand. It is great, however, there has been a great improvement in the situation.

The Newspaper Situation. In consequence of the disparity of supply and demand, the price of paper advanced to abnormal figures, with the result that many small but prosperous country newspapers were unable to obtain a sufficient supply for their needs, even at the high price prevailing. Other newspaper proprietors, whose profit is small, faced failure and suspension, and a number ceased publication.

Such conditions should not be permitted to exist. Newspapers are essential to the well-being of the people of both Canada and the United States. They are a necessity of business and are indispensable to the stability of our governments.

The Canadian Government has deemed it wise to place certain restrictions upon the exportation of newspaper paper to the United States. It is natural that Canada should desire to protect its own interests, but Canada should remember that the whole of North America is greater than that of either Canada or the United States.

We need new mills close to the forests, we need to find less expensive methods of transportation—perhaps the riters will help solve that part of the problem; we need a more equitable system of distribution and storage against the rigors of the winter season, when both manufacture and transportation are lessened. Scientists should be encouraged to discover new sources of raw material and new methods of manufacture, for with increasing intelligence and craving for education, the consumption of paper will increase, until the forests, our present source of raw material, are levelled to the ground.

Waiting Forty Years For Husband's Return

(Copyright, 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Feb. 6.—Every Christmas day for forty years a woman who lives in a cottage in one of the Glamorgan hills (Wales) has sat down to her dinner alone, with a plate set for another opposite her. She was married in May, 1880, to a sailor, who two months after their wedding left Cardiff in a ship which was given up as lost. He had assured her that he would be back for Christmas, and urged her to spare nothing in the way of food for their first Christmas dinner together. Christmas came, but no husband, Debussy Opera Now Highly Praised Was Formerly Condemned in France — Paris Delighted With Performance.

Paris, Feb. 6.—The recognition of "Pelleas et Melisande" at the Opera Comique has met with the unanimous approval of Parisian music lovers. Debussy has definitely conquered the esteem of his compatriots and from the reception his music meets with now it is hard to realize that this same piece, when first produced some 15 years ago, was condemned practically unanimously and the small group who found merit in the new music were contemptuously styled "Vehementes" as one should say musical monsters. Those few thought they perceived the advent of a new genius, the tearing aside of another veil in the temple of music and the inauguration of a new era in French music. That they were right, everybody now concedes, and it is amusing to note that some who were among the keenest detractors now declare that, far from being a revolutionary, he is carrying farther the purest French tradition.

Has Poetic Charm. This "pearl of modern French music," as it is described by one French critic, was most satisfactorily presented by the Opera-Comique company. Mme. Marguerite Clere makes a perfect Melisande, rendering all the poetic charm of the role. A new Pellen was forthcoming in the person of M. Strossio. He made a good impression; his tenor voice is sufficiently deep to enable him to take this half-baritone part and he proved himself also an accomplished actor. M. Veuille, the only one left of the original cast, who took the part of King Arlec, showed that he had lost none of his old ardor. The orchestra was supple and sensitive, responding well to the baton of M. Hausmann.

U.S. Women Asked To Aid League. Countess, President of National Council, Appeals for Co-operation.

By THE COUNTESS OF SELBORNE. (Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.) London, Feb. 6.—The British National Council of Women, over which I have the honor this year to preside, has earnestly sought for an international understanding among women to insure peace between nations. Even before the late war they had entered into relations with women of other nationalities. The horrors through which we have so lately passed have naturally added to our conviction of the wickedness of the war as a means of settling international differences. It has seemed to us that the best method of obtaining peace which we have so much at heart is to join the League of Nations Union, a society which has been forwarded in order to instruct the people of this country in the principles which the league itself hopes to accept as the new basis for international relations. One of the efforts of the league which we most sincerely believe in is that for the reduction of armaments. We therefore have affiliated ourselves to the League of Nations Union. Over here we very much hope that the United States will see her way to co-operate in some manner with what we believe is a sincere attempt of the best statesmen in Europe to avoid the danger of the repetition of the frightful calamity from which we are still suffering.

MANY WOMEN WILL REMAIN UNMARRIED. (Copyright, 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.) Copenhagen, Feb. 6.—Thirty-five million lives were lost directly or indirectly in consequence of the great war, according to the latest publication of the Copenhagen "Society for the Study of the Social Effects of the War." The excess of women caused by this loss is of paramount social importance.

BANANAS—TROPICAL STYLE. Peel eight bananas, cut in halves lengthwise, and arrange in a greased baking-dish. Add one cupful of sugar to one-half cupful of hot water and bring to the boiling point. Add six tablespoonsful of chopped raisins, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, and one-half cupful of finely chopped walnuts. Re-fill the potato shells and brush over the top with melted butter—two tablespoonsful will be sufficient for the six potatoes. Sprinkle with paprika and brown in a hot oven.

MORAL: DON'T TELL ALL YOU KNOW. When Applying for a Position Let Your Ability be Found Out.

In applying for a position a girl is not expected to disclose either her ability or previous business experience. However, in an endeavor to put her best foot forward and make a distinct and favorable impression, there is always danger that an applicant will overdo her part of the interview and give too glowing an account of her accomplishments. The business girl who brags about her ability or exaggerates in any way the history of her previous experience makes a mistake. As a rule a prospective employer is afraid of a girl who catalogues every business accomplishment as her own.

CALIFORNIA BAKED POTATOES. Wash and bake six medium-sized potatoes at 350 degs. F. for three-quarters of an hour, or until the potatoes are done. Cut in halves lengthwise, scoop out the potato, and mash, adding about one-half cupful of hot milk, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, and one-half cupful of finely chopped walnuts. TIPS TO HOUSEWIVES. An iron kettle for deep fat frying is a necessity in every kitchen. A very hot salt will not split plaster when it is driven into it. Have a small oilcloth apron hanging near the sink and wear while washing dishes. Bake the bacon; it is a great improvement over the frying method and does away with the smoke.

MASHED POTATO FRIED CAKES. 1 cup sugar. 1/2 cup sweet milk. 2 eggs. 2 teaspoons baking powder. 1 teaspoon vanilla. 1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg. 1/2 teaspoon salt. Flour to roll. Beat eggs well. Mix ingredients in order given. Roll on a floured molding board to about one-half inch thickness, cut with diamond cutter and fry in deep fat.

AS A WOMAN THINKETH. By HELEN ROWLAND. (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) When We Were Ten Years Younger!

What a quaint, old-fashioned world it was— When we were ten years younger! When the Maxixe and the Turkey-trot were considered shocking. And the "sheath skirt" and the "peep-knee waist" seemed deliciously quaint. And you could still get a luxurious and intoxicating thrill from riding in a taxicab, or going to a "studio tea." When to eat your way through a "red hot table d'hôte" was being a "bohemian," and to know how to curl appeared "round your fork was the height of sophistication." When that wicked opera, "Thais," was denounced from the platform. And that wicked dance, "The Bunny-Hug," was anathematized from the pulpit. And that stimulating jazz was just beginning to set the world by the ears! Oh, the glad and mad world it was! And, oh, the "pep" we had, and the things we said and did, and the dreams we dreamed— When we were ten years younger! When we sang those cynical songs. "My wife's gone to the country!" and "My wife won't let me," and "No wedding-bells for me!"—and all that sort of thing! When Prohibition was a "joke," and the favorite cup was the one about the clove on a husband's breath— When we were ten years younger! NEW WAYS OF SERVING JELLY. A jelly pancake is good. Beat until light, four eggs. Beat in one-fourth cup sugar and the same quantity of flour. Add a few grains of salt. When the large pancake is done, spread it over quickly with jelly and roll it up. Slice and serve with powdered sugar on top. Bread pudding may be given a new twist by making it into a Queen of puddings. Make the regular bread pudding, putting the yolks only into the pudding and reserving the whites. After the pudding is baked, spread it over with a thick layer of jelly. Make a meringue by beating the whites until stiff and then beating into them two tablespoons or so of powdered sugar. Spread over the jelly. Sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar and return to the oven for a few moments to lightly brown. This served with custard sauce is delicious indeed.

IS POLITENESS A LOST ART? Once upon a time, they tell us, a humorist's wife happened to mend his table manners. "Give me another chop—" he would remark pleasantly. "If you—" she began at once. "If you have any," he replied practically. "What do you say, dear?" said his apologetic mother as he took one without a sound. "Feel it!" he said, wearily.

"THE ENGLISHMAN." (Written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox on board the Olympic after the Titanic Disaster.) Born in the flesh, and bred in the bone. Some of us harbour still. A new-world pride, and we faint or sprinkle the top with shredded coconut. We claim our place as a separate race. Or a self-created clan. Till there comes a day, when we like to say, "We are kin to the Englishman."

ACHIEVEMENT. The man who seeks one thing in life, and but one. May hope to achieve it before life is 60. But he who seeks all things wherever he goes, Only reaps from the hope which around him he sows. A harvest of barren regrets. —Oswin Meredith.

Girl of Sixteen Plays Titania. Granddaughter of Sir Henry Irving Thinks Stage a Business—Is Modest.

(Copyright 1921, by Public Ledger.) London, Feb. 6.—The third generation of the famous Irving family is beginning to earn its laurels on the stage. The newest asset to London's diminishing galaxy of real dramatic stars is Miss Elizabeth Irving, the granddaughter of Sir Henry Irving and the daughter of H. H. Irving, who as actor and manager followed in the footsteps of his distinguished father. Elizabeth Irving has just made her stage debut as Titania in "Midsummer Night's Dream." Miss Irving is only sixteen, and though she is acting in Shakespeare at this very youthful age, she has never been stage-struck. This fact, she points out, is because she has always known so much about the stage. The theatre has never had for her the glamour and illusion that it has for young matinee enthusiasts of schoolgirl age. To this serious young person the stage is a business and acting is a job. Only a School Girl. When she received the offer to present Titania in Bernard Shaw's production of "Midsummer Night's Dream" Miss Irving was still at school at Wickham Abbey, one of England's large public schools for girls. In the back of her head had been the subconscious conviction that some day she would go on the stage. But she was quite contented to be a schoolgirl. Then she realized the dream of every ambitious actress and was offered a Shakespearean role. School days were quickly cast, and Elizabeth Irving followed in the footsteps of her father and went on the stage. She is a beautiful, graceful girl, with the green of the Atholian woods. Her acting is still immature, and though she reads Shakespeare well, she fails to put all the meaning into the lines. That, however, is a defect that time will correct, and critics unite in declaring that with added maturity and experience the "little Irving girl" will be a credit to her distinguished ancestors. Believes in Fairies.

Films For Schools. Efforts are being made to have juvenile motion pictures included in the curriculum of Washington, D. C., schools. For the purpose of interesting school officials and the public in the movement, it is understood that local society leaders are planning the presentation of a series of such films at a local theatre every Saturday morning. School and civic officials, it is stated, have endorsed the plan and a number of prominent Washingtonians have been invited to attend the first showing of the pictures.

SOME DON'TS. Do you feel you'd like to quit? Don't. Get to feeling you don't fit? Don't. Do you want to yell "All in!" Don't. And you'll sure show up a little thin, and you think you'll never win? Don't. There's a kick you want to make? Don't. There's a head you want to break? Don't. Do you feel you want to whine, like a genuine canine, and send blue streak down the line? Don't. When you see a chance to duck, don't. When you want to chuck your luck, don't. Keep right on without a stop, and you'll sure show up on top. If, just when you want to stop, you don't. His Calling. ## Lively Boxing Held At Y.M.C.A.

A large crowd that packed the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to capacity witnessed the City Boxing Championships Saturday night. There were ten bouts in every class, with the exception of the bantamweight, and a number of good bouts were staged. The championship of the flyweight was won by Rodrick Johnson, Y. M. C. A., who defeated Roy Boyce, also of the Y. M. C. A.

The bantamweight championship went to Bruce Hewitson, Y. M. C. A., and was unopposed. Bill McHenry lost to Morris McJunkin, both of the Y. M. C. A. The waterweight belt was won by Thomas Williams of the Y. M. C. A., who defeated Harold Climo of the Y. M. C. A.

The "fly" held a record crowd, who gathered long before eight o'clock and waited in the outer hall for the bouts to start. Applications had been received all throughout the afternoon for staggole seats, and the booking of all these available was completed before the opening of the bouts.

Rustles had been received for every class but the heavyweight, thus ensuring a good series of matches. The number in the flyweight class (119 lbs.) made for some keen competition.

Flyweight
Rodrick Johnson won from Don Young, both of the Y. M. C. A. in the first bout over. Roy Boyce, Y. M. C. A., won from George McDonald, Y. M. C. A., both boys boxing cleverly.

In the final bout Johnson won from Boyce by more aggressive work, although Boyce was conceded to be the better of the two.

Bantamweight
Bruce Hewitson of the Y. M. C. A. was the only entrant in this class. He put on an exhibition bout later in the evening with George Samudra, both boys boxing prettily from the start. Hewitson showed to advantage in the final round.

Waterweight
The entries in this class furnished a very hot contest. Warden Gray, Y. M. C. A., got the decision in the first bout over. Harold Climo, Y. M. C. A., won from Thomas Williams in the second round. Gray showed the results of hard training.

Heavyweight
Bruce Winchester and Gordon Williams were the next two to meet, both of the Y. M. C. A. Wilson put up a good fight and is a comer in the game. Winchester's experience stood him in good stead, however.

In the third bout Winchester met Gordon Campbell, Y. M. C. A., and won on points.

In the final bout Winchester met Warden Gray in a hard fourth tussle, Gray boxing gamely up to the sound of the gong, Winchester winning the title on his merits.

Lightweight
The bout of the evening came in the lightweight class, when Bill McHenry met Morris McJunkin, both of the Y. M. C. A. Interest centered round these two, as they are considered the two best amateur boxers in the city. Both boys showed their knowledge of the game from the very first round, which ended slightly in McJunkin's favor.

The second round found both working hard, but an unintended foul gave McJunkin a shaking up and the round went to McHenry.

The third round followed strong, but McHenry showed the effects of the previous round, and though he fought gamely to the end of the round, the title was awarded McHenry.

Welterweight
Harold Climo, Y. M. C. A., and Earl Belyea, unopposed, stepped into the ring for the first bout in this class. They only boxed two rounds, Climo getting the decision.

In the final bout Tom Williams of the Y. M. C. A. and Almie put up a great exhibition.

In the first round Williams followed up more closely than his opponent. In the second round he worked him down. The last round was his, too, good training taking its toll in his favor and he was awarded the bout.

Sergeant-Detective Jack Powers refereed the bouts with his off-time skill. The medals were presented by A. W. Covey, president of the A. A. U. C. Maritime Branch. He referred to the evening's competition as a revival of boxing at St. John after a lapse of several years, and paid tribute to the Y. M. C. A. for its promotion of clean amateur sport.

The championships were under the direction of W. Bowlin, physical director of the Y. M. C. A.

Moncton C.N.R. Team Defeated Alerts

Close Senior Basketball at Y.M.C.A.—High School Girls Also Intermediate Played.

The Alerts lost to the C.N.R. team of Moncton by but one point when the two teams met in the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night, the score being 22 to 21. The Alerts did not play up to their usual form in the opening stages of the game, and the C.N.R. boys lined up a considerable lead. In the final period of the home boys' lineup and hit the old strike netting four baskets in quick succession. They were unable to sustain the score as readily made by the Monctonians, however.

Ryan and Dykeman were back in the game after an absence of some time. The Alerts tried to play fast but combination, but were unable to hold the ball. Their shooting was also rather wild. The Moncton team favored field goals and attempted a number of shots from well out on the floor. Trites of the visitors and Ketchum of the home team were the chief scorers of the evening. Moncton was much stronger on converting. Of the nine fouls awarded them, they scored seven. The Alerts got two out of twelve. The line-up of the two teams follows:

The game was an interesting one, and the Baptists showed a decided aptness for the game, although but new to it. There is no doubt but that they will develop into a strong team. At half time the Y. M. C. A. was leading 10 to 5. Both teams doubled their score in the final period. W. B. being referred.

Hamilton Lost To Senators

Hamilton, Ont., Feb. 6—Percy Thompson's athletes failed to repeat the form last night in the game against Ottawa, that they showed the previous night, and they went down to defeat by a score of 7 to 2.

The Hamilton team weakened badly in the second period, when they were outplayed by the visitors who gained such a lead that all hopes of a victory for the locals were shattered before the second intermission came.

The splendid team play of the Senators got much better results than the individual work of the Hamilton.

ST. JOSEPH'S WON FROM ST. THOMAS

St. Joseph's hockey team played their fourth game of the season and won their third when they defeated the St. Thomas' College team of Chatham in the St. Joseph's College ring Thursday by a score of 3 to 2.

MRS. JENNY DILL ON HIKE.

Mrs. Jennie Dill and her husband, Frank, who are hiking from Halifax to Vancouver, B. C., were given a good send-off at Truro Friday morning and reached Londonport that night after a hard tramp of 15 miles. They reported the going heavy but intended leaving Londonport Saturday morning with Thomson as their goal 25 miles westward. If Mr. and Mrs. Dill made Thomson Saturday night their next mark would probably be Macan 25 miles for yesterday's tramp.

Canadiens Lost To St. Patricks

Toronto Hockey Players Had Little Difficulty in Defeating the Montrealers 10 to 6.

Toronto, Feb. 6—St. Patrick's found little difficulty in defeating Canadiens Montreal here Saturday night by a score of 10 to 6. They presented their strongest line-up, and on the play well deserved their victory. As a result they have more than an even chance for the second half honors. The winners appeared to good advantage in the first period and scored three goals, limiting Canadiens to one lone tally. In the second period, the Canadiens appeared to have a new lease of life, and in the first two minutes of play scored three goals, thus equalling the score. It looked as if Canadiens might be able to get the goal that would give them the lead, but Noble turned their chances by knocking in a rebound of Donny's shot. After that it was a procession for the Irishmen and they added four more goals before the second period ended. In the final period, Canadiens managed to score by a break, tallying twice, while the Saints were acquiring a similar number.

Earl Thompson Won At Boston

Crack Hurdler of Canadian Olympic Team Carried Dartmouth Colors to Victory.

Boston, Feb. 6—Earl Thompson, the crack hurdler of the Canadian Olympic team, figured prominently yesterday in the annual indoor games of the Boston Athletic Association, when he carried Dartmouth College colors to victory in the 50 yards high hurdles. His time was 6 3/5 seconds. Cecil E. Beatz, who also ran for Canada at Antwerp, represented New Hampshire College in the three mile race for the Williams Cup, but was defeated. The winner was Gordon T. Knightbridge, formerly of New Hampshire College, whose time was 14 minutes 56 4/5 seconds.

British Crew Not Likely To Come

London, Feb. 6—Considerable doubt appears to exist in University Boat Club circles here as to whether it will be possible for a British crew to compete in the International collegiate championship regatta to be held at Foughekeagle, N. Y., June 22. Lacking a formal invitation, university authorities decline to speak officially.

The nearness of the international event offers a prime obstacle, boating experts say. The Henley races, which attract a large field of contestants, are held in the first week of July. Therefore, crews representing the flower of English oarsmen would scarcely have time to cross the Atlantic and put in two weeks of steady training, which they are said to regard as essential before a race.

It is stated also that by July the Henley crews would be pretty well worn out, for between the Henley event and the Oxford-Cambridge race the men would have been racing quite steadily from February through the latter weeks.

Finances also offer a problem. On this side each man pays his own expenses when competing in a boat race, except for the regular college tax for athletics, none of which goes into a university athletic contest. Back as arrangement does not provide for contests outside England.

If any team should go over it is regarded as likely that it would be a "yearling" crew.

City Basketball League Standings

The championship of the Senior end of the City Basketball League has never been in doubt from the opening games of the season, as the Y. M. C. A. seniors, last year's champions, have never been defeated.

In the intermediate section, however, speculation has been rife as to whom the decision will go. The Y. M. C. A. of the High school, and the Y. M. C. I. all have a fighting chance, and as they are very evenly matched their progress will be watched with interest. The standing of the leagues at present is as follows:

Seniors	Won	Lost	For	Against

Keel of "Mayflower" Laid During Week

Essex, Mass., Feb. 6—The keel of the fishing schooner Mayflower, which is to be contended for the international cup next fall, will be laid next week, according to an announcement tonight by Everett James, her builder. Under present plans, Governor Coolidge next Thursday will drive the first spike. Work on the schooner will be rushed, Mr. James said, in efforts to have the vessel ready by April 30, so that she may have a season on the fishing banks as required by the rules governing the race.

Racing Authorities Reach Agreement

Maryland Will Recognize Jockey Club's Stud Book and Forfeit List.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 6—The Maryland Racing Commission and the stewards of the New York Jockey Club met at the Ritz Carlton today, and after a lengthy conference reached a working agreement for the conduct of the racing during the ensuing year.

It was agreed that the Maryland Commission should have complete control of the racing officials in that State, but on the other hand the Maryland authorities agreed to recognize the stud book of the New York Jockey Club as the standard for determining the class of stallions and also to subscribe to and enforce the "forfeit list."

The case of Sculling, the jockey whose debarment by the Jockey Club threatened to break all relations between these two powerful racing bodies and dropped by mutual consent, is now regarded as a dead issue.

The "forfeit list" is an arrangement by which horse owners owing money in one State cannot race in another where the list is recognized without paying their back debts.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, headed the New York delegation at the meeting, while Stuart Oliver of Baltimore, chairman of the Maryland Racing Commission, was leader of the Southern forces.

Hilton Belyea Is In Championships

Maritime Provincial Champion Will Try for Honors at Lake Placid Races.

Sifton Belyea, Maritime Provincial Champion, left Saturday for Lake Placid, N. Y., to compete in the championship races there today and tomorrow. Hilton will wear the colors of the Capeton Curling Club, and his many friends expected that the West St. John skater will return with honors despite the fact that he has not had the practice that other skaters have experienced. Belyea is an excellent long distance skater and will not leave the finish of these events to the sprinters but will make and grind hard from the start, and in the respect is where endurance counts. The St. John athlete has plenty of staying qualities and will undoubtedly by make good.

Cobb Cuts Out The 7.30 A.M. Call

Also Will Eliminate Morning Practice for Tigers—Preparing for Coming Season.

Detroit, Feb. 6—Developments today show that Tyrus Cobb, as the new manager of the Tigers, will revolutionize training methods of the players in the camp at San Antonio. He will eliminate morning practice and the 7.30 a. m. call.

Cobb has reasoned out that the morning practice to players is dangerous to their physical being. With morning practice at 9 o'clock the players appear on the field with a full stomach and strenuous exercise, says Ty, harmful. A late breakfast and 2 o'clock practice is the program Cobb has practically decided upon.

As a player Cobb rarely indulged in morning practice, and also reported very late in the spring to the training camp.

Rubber Bands On Curling Stones

An Experiment Was Made in Montreal and Found Very Satisfactory.

Montreal, Feb. 6—A well-known member of the Caledonian Curling Club of this city, who figured prominently in the Quebec granite tourney last week, has discovered that by means of putting rubber rings or bands around curling stones (granite) much of the objection which curlers using irons have had in the past against the use of granite is done away with. An experiment was made last night in the Caledonian Curling Club, and it was shown, for instance, that where formerly a stone (granite) when touching other stones on the ice, would scatter them like a crane of snipe at the appearance of a hunting dog, provided with the rubber bands they acted much like the purpose and will be carefully tried out, as their adoption would result in a much increased use of stones which were the utensils originally used in the game in the Old Country.

BOYS RACE

A large crowd at St. Peter's rink Saturday afternoon enjoyed a half mile race for boys. Vowels was first, Stuart second, and Moore third.

Let Horse Wander Home and Found Still in Barn—Owner Fined.

Alliance, Ohio, Feb. 1.—For four hours a west-bound looking old horse hitched to a buggy was left standing on a downtown street. The outfit was examined by the local police and brought to Police Headquarters.

A search of the barn was made and a twenty-five gallon milk can was discovered, carefully concealed.

"Why do you see that?" "Well, you may pick beautiful strains on a mandolin for an hour and also won't even look out of the window, but just one hook of a horn and out she comes."

These signs, the speaker said, really prove the presence of Christ. His reign will mean virtue, joy and life for the world at large and the eternal overthrowing of evil, sorrow and death.

Fear Proposed Emergency Tariff

New Brunswick Fishermen Fear Effect on Their Industry Should Law Pass Congress.
New Brunswick fishermen operating in the Grand Banks and Fundy Bays fear the effect of the proposed emergency tariff, now being discussed at Washington, may have on their industry should the law successfully pass Congress.

Former Duty.
If the former duty of 3-4 cent per pound be reimposed on smoked fish, also two cents a pound on the prepared fish product known as boneless herring be enacted into law by the U. S. Congress, it will cause a great financial loss to Canadian fish curers, according to the statement of a well known trader in the fish industry who was in the city Saturday.

Superior Quality.
During the past few years, he says, the Canadian operating in these waters, have been able to put on the market a superior quality of goods that have found ready sale in the States. At many of the settlements an extensive business in the boneless product has been carried on in recent years, and as the product entered the United States duty free a most profitable market was found there.

In fact the principal demand in the United States for the smoked and boneless fish has been supplied by the New Brunswick men. They have not only benefited by the great demand for their product, but, also, by the exchange rate which has added about twelve cents to every dollar's worth of product sold.

Plants Getting Ready.
In anticipation of the Emergency Tariff Bill becoming a law, our informant says the dried fish plants at Eastport are being placed in readiness to go heavily into the business, as they believe the tariffs will make it impossible for the New Brunswick or to put their goods on the market at a profit and undersell the Washington county folks.

Depending on Tariff.
"We know the Yanks across the Bay are depending upon the Emergency Tariff to swing the demand for these products their way, but, despite the tariff we will endeavor to figure out some way to hold the trade here. We have the work so well systematized now that we feel we can place our goods on the market cheaper than the Yanks, and we will try to find some other saving to offset the tariff imposition," said our informant.

Big Congregations At Central Church

Rev. D. J. McPherson Preached at Services—Fifth Anniversary of Union.
A crowded church greeted the Rev. D. J. McPherson at the Central Baptist church at both services yesterday. The occasion was the fifth anniversary of the founding of the Central church by the union of the Brussels and Letestier streets congregations. Rev. F. Bone was in charge of the special services with Rev. McPherson, a former pastor, as the speaker for the day. The music for the anniversary was in charge of Prof. A. U. Brander. In the morning the service consisted of an anthem, the soloists being Miss Campbell, Mrs. Fraser, Messrs. Coman and Thorne. In the evening Miss Campbell sang the solo part of the anthem, "Thou O God, Art Praised." Miss Campbell and Mr. Brander contributed a duet, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," while a male chorus sang "Lead Kindly Light." The contributions of the day were very large.

Sudden Death of Local Merchant

John Edgecombe, About City Friday, Took Ill in Evening and Died Yesterday.
The wide circle of John Edgecombe's friends will be deeply grieved to learn of his death which occurred yesterday morning after a brief illness at the residence of W. H. Humphrey, 111 Hazen street. Mr. Edgecombe was about the city on Friday afternoon and took ill that evening. He was a native of England and was born in Ashburton, Devonshire, seventy-eight years ago. About sixty-one years ago he came to St. John and from that date until recently conducted a merchant tailor business. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and one of the oldest members in St. George's Society.
He was one of the best known citizens in St. John, and popular with a very wide circle of acquaintances. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, of this city, and Mrs. Fred Kerwell, of London, Eng., also three brothers, William Edgecombe, gentleman at Ashburton, Devonshire, England; Richard Smurdon Edgecombe, a lawyer at Newton Abbot, Devonshire, England; and Fred Edgecombe, at Kerswell, Torquay, England. F. B. Edgecombe, of Fredericton, and A. G. Edgecombe, of the Edgecombe Carriage Works, St. John, are cousins.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday and the service will be held at Trinity church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED
To give unemployment to a number of men who have been out of work the Central Baptist church had its building thoroughly cleaned during the past week. The entire place from basement to roof was gone over carefully.

Father And Son Hikers In City

The Behans of Dartmouth Arrived Friday Night and Left Yesterday for Welsford.
The Behans, father and son, veterans of the World War, now on a hike from Halifax to Vancouver, arrived in this city at 11:30 Friday night. They left Sussex Friday morning at eight o'clock and covered the 44 miles to this city in 15 1/2 hours. They have been eleven days on the road since leaving Halifax and have made an average of 25 miles a day.

After Burkman
They are out to beat Charles Burkman, who has a week's start of them, and also to establish a new record for a hiking trip across the continent in the trip from Halifax to this city they claim to be five days' ahead of Burkman's time.

They spent Saturday in the city taking in the sights and calling on acquaintances. They were entertained in the evening by Commissioner Thornton.
Left Yesterday
They resumed their journey yesterday morning, leaving here at 8 o'clock with Welsford as their objective for the day.

The Behans report having been most cordially treated by New Brunswickers in all the towns they have passed through. In only one place were they asked to pay their hotel bill.
Like Burkman, the Behans are depriving the expenses of their trip by the sale of post cards.

64th Anniversary And Reopening

Rev. W. G. Lane, Yarmouth, Preached to Large Congregations in Exmouth St. Church.
Special services commemorated the sixty-fourth anniversary of the Exmouth street Methodist church which reopened yesterday following extensive renovations. Sermons were preached at both the morning and evening services by the Rev. W. G. Lane, of Yarmouth.

The Power House.
In his evening sermon "The Power House," in which he compared Heaven to a power house from which there came three wires, one to Bethlehem Humanity, one to which was united to the first give light; and the third, the supplementary force supplied by the Holy Spirit.

He said, turned on the current at the power house, and left the switch with man. To each and every creature He left the decision of whether he should turn on the switch and enjoy the power God had placed in his hands.

Sacramental service was conducted in the evening by the pastor, Rev. G. F. Dawson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lane and Rev. Dr. S. F. Huastis.

Fine Musical Programme
The music and singing were especially pleasing. Miss Mable Sandell was the organist and E. E. Thomas conducted the always excellent choir, which had been augmented by a number of voices. Dr. Bonnell's solo was much enjoyed.

The morning and evening's musical programmes follow:
Morning.
Prelude—Andantino (Haydn)
Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow.
Invocation.
Hallelujah—Sabbath Day (Choir)
Te Deum (Hopkins)
Voluntary—Prayer (Benoit)
Anthem—They shall mount up with wings as eagles (Stimper)
Voluntary (Bach)
Evening.
Prelude—Largo (Handel)
All Hail the Power of Jesus' name.
Anthem—The Lord Gave the Word (Turner)
Solo—The Lord is My Light (Alliton)
Dr. Percival Bonnell
Voluntary—Angel's Serenade (Arranged by Lott)
Anthem—Break Forth into Joy (Stimper)
Vesper Hymn.
Postlude—Festiva March (Stewart).

The church was packed by large congregations at both the morning and evening services, and much admiration was expressed at the new arrangements and extensive alterations the church has undergone after four weeks' work.

The choir loft has been enlarged by the addition of four new seats. The seats are now arranged with three on one side and four on the other and afford much better accommodation. The minister's platform has also been extended and widened, and the space between the communion rail and the platform enlarged. A number of new lights have been added to the auditorium.

Two new rooms have been added in the rear of the church. One is to be used as a robing room by the choir, and the other will be used for committee meetings. It is thought that the present arrangements will prove highly satisfactory.

PAID THE DAMAGE.
Two men got into an argument at the United Cafe, Charlotte street, last night and before they could settle the battle of words a rough house was started in the stall they occupied. Dishes were smashed, table overturned and chairs knocked about doing damage to the extent of $12. The police were summoned, but no arrests were made as the men settled for the damages.

Memorial Window To Fallen Heroes

Impressive Services at St. James in Loving Memory of Fifteen Young Men.
A most impressive service was held at St. James church, Sunday morning, when a memorial window and tablet were dedicated in honor of the fifteen young men, members of the church who died in freedom's cause, during the world war.

Beautiful Work of Art
The memorial window is a most beautiful product of the glass worker's art. Splendid in detail, its beautiful colors harmonizing for a perfect rest to the subject of the window in taken from the word of St. Paul, "Parting on the Armor," and the scene depicted is from the Pilgrims' progress, the placing of the armor on the men about to go forth to war. The window was made by the N. T. Lyon Glass Company, of Toronto, and is one of the finest in the church.

The inscription on the window is: "To the Glory of God and in loving appreciation of the men of St. James church who served in the great war, 1914-1918. Erected by relatives and friends."
The names on Tablet
The brass tablet, beside the window bears the inscription: "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of our sacred dead in the great war, 1914-1918. The following names of men who fell in the war and whose memory will ever be perpetuated at St. James, are inscribed on the tablet: Ernest Poncy Ryans—Died in France March 17, 1918. Frank Riddle Armstrong—Killed in action March 27, 1918. Thomas Rowley—Officially reported missing. William Henderston—Killed in action. Fred Campbell—Officially reported missing. Alfred Thomas Rees—Officially reported missing. William Dennis—Died in France April 12, 1918. Walter H. Allan—Died of wounds in France, 1918. William John Kee—Died December 20, 1918. George Ralph—Died 1919. John Clayburn Murray—Killed in action, 1918. Royden Stewart Murray—Killed in action, 1918. Frederick Clark—Lost at sea on "Linderooy Castle". Beverley A. Allen—Killed in action. Harold Linton—Killed in action. John LeMoine LeCain—Died in Germany Feb. 11, 1918. The tablet was made by G. Herbert Greens, one of St. James' vestrymen.

The Service
Communion and unveiling service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Cody, who read a portion of the Scripture and repeated two prayers. The window was unveiled by Capt. Robert Murray and Mr. John C. Kee, one of the church wardens, both of whom lost sons in the war. The last part was sounded by Bugler Hugh Yearwood.

Dedicatory Sermon
The dedicatory sermon was from the text: "Put on the Whole Armor of God." The pastor drew examples from the window and the significance of the occasion which brought them to his eyes, he carried on and the world brought nearer to God's ideal. Most appropriate music was rendered by the choir. N. Arnold Kee rendered the beautiful solo, "Rest in the Lord."

The windows were installed by two of the church vestrymen, William J. Nagle and Robert J. Dibbles.

SOME CHICKENS.
Mr. W. F. Lawrence, of Dorchester, recently killed ten chickens, all six months old. Six of the birds when dressed, weighed over 5 1/2 pounds each, and two of them weighed 14 pounds, one ounce. The birds were Rhode Island.
