

PRE-WAR POMP MARKS PARLIAMENT OPENING

BISHOP FALLON SHOULD ACQUAINT HIMSELF WITH THE FACTS BEFORE DENOUNCING "UPLIFTERS," IS THE OPINION OF PROTESTANT CLERGY

"The Bishop Must Have Been Hiding in the Cellar If He Had Not Heard of Outspoken Pronouncement On Divorce Made at the Social Service Council," Says Rev. T. D. McCullough.

The opinion of the Protestant clergy of the city seems to be entirely correct in the statement made on Sunday by Bishop Fallon that the voices of the social uplifters have been raised against the divorce menace, particularly in connection with the proposed bill.

When questioned by The Advertiser on the matter, Very Rev. Dean Tucker said that the Church of England was absolutely opposed to divorce and that clergymen of the church were forbidden to perform the ceremony in the case of divorced persons.

"Our bishops and synods have placed themselves on record on this question, and doubtless some definite action will be taken at its recent meeting in this city."

"I absolutely deny the right of the Roman Catholic Church to assume that it is the only guardian of the fidelity of married persons and of the sanctity of the home," said Rev. R. G. Peever of the First Methodist Church.

The Social Service Council, when it met in London, made a pronouncement on the divorce question, with which Bishop Fallon should have been acquainted before denouncing the "uplifters" for their lack of action.

The bishop's attitude and talk are not at all in keeping with the tenets of his own church, especially in view of the decision of the privy council in the Despatre-Tremblay case last week.

Rev. T. D. McCullough, local secretary of the Social Service Council, when his attention was called to Bishop Fallon's remarks, said that the bishop must have been hiding in a cellar if he had not heard of the very outspoken pronouncement made at the recent Social Service conference.

"The whole weight of the organization is being brought to bear against making divorce easier," said Mr. McCullough, "and the legislation committee of the council is considering the question of how to draw up a report."

"I think Bishop Fallon is over-zealous in regard to this divorce question. In regard to the divorce question, said Rev. G. A. Leichter of Adelaide Street Baptist Church, "the church is not in the morning. All the Baptist conventions have passed resolutions in opposition to any movement which tends to make divorce easier."

The general assembly must, therefore, stand in opposition to any interference with the sanctity of marriage. This resolution was handed to the general assembly of the Protestant churches in Ottawa in June of last year.

"The general assembly must draw the attention of our divines to the dangerous tendency in some quarters to the relaxation of our divorce laws and the consequent unsettling of family relationships, especially since the war."

The assembly affirms its belief that the marriage tie is permanent, and that the doctrine that marriage is indissoluble is the basis of the Christian faith. This resolution was handed to the general assembly of the Protestant churches in Ottawa in June of last year.

WE'LL GIVE YOU EMPLOYED MEN JOBS AS POLL CLERKS IN REFERENDUM ON CITY HALL

Applicants Must Write Fairly Good Hand and Those Appointed Will Receive Five Dollars for Day's Work, Says City Clerk.

If a referendum on a city hall site is taken within the next few weeks, as planned, unemployed men will be given positions as poll clerks as far as possible, City Clerk Baker announced today. There are from 40 to 60 places to be filled. Applicants for the positions must write a fairly good hand and be sufficiently well educated to handle the detailed work in connection with the vote. They will be paid $5 for the day's work.

It will be impossible to throw open the positions to the unemployed in the same manner, Mr. Baker said. Considerable experience is required to handle work of that kind, and only men who have proved themselves capable at other elections can be accepted.

STREET RAILWAY CARRIED OVER 15 MILLION PASSENGERS IN 1920

Energy Expended Would Have Carried Entire Population of Canada to the Moon and Back Three Times, With Numerous Trips On the Side.

Energy expended by the London street railway during 1920 if directed to one single object would have carried the entire population of Canada to the moon and back three times, and taken them for a few sight-seeing tours on that distant planet as well. The official figures in the report for the past year just closed show that the street railway carried 15,266,593 passengers. The number of passengers carried last year was 17,562,242, while the total number of passengers carried was 15,266,593.

London's steady growth is clearly reflected in the statement which covers a year's period from 1915 to 1920. The number of passengers carried in 1915 was 12,666,593. The next year it advanced to 13,717,710. The following year saw a slight falling off to 13,077,710, but this was made up in 1918, when a total of 15,745,165 passengers was carried. The next year the number leaped to 17,562,242, and in 1920 it reached this with a total of 15,266,593. The increase of 1920 over 1915 was practically three million passengers. The number of people using transfers was 1,417,514.

Conciliation Board Will Hear Claims of Cobalt Miners

Mine Managers Propose Wage Reduction Dating From February 16.

Ottawa, Feb. 14.—Canadian Press.—A communication indicating that an application for the appointment of a board of conciliation to act between the miners and the management of the Cobalt district will be made, has been received by the department of labor. The mine managers of the Cobalt district propose to put in force a wage reduction as from February 16, but the miners are anxious to have the wages maintained at the present level.

The department of labor is in communication with both parties to the dispute. The mine managers propose to put in force a wage reduction as from February 16, but the miners are anxious to have the wages maintained at the present level.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT OPENS; NEW LEGISLATION IS OUTLINED IN SPEECH FROM THRONE; KING TO DEBATE ELECTION MEASURES

Liberal Leader Will Move an Amendment to Address in Reply to Speech—Revision of Tariff Measures To Be Most Important Question Up for Consideration—The League of Nations and Trade Agreement With British Indies To Come Up for Full Discussions—Bill to Amend Election Act Will Be Submitted Along With Other Measures.

Ottawa, Feb. 14.—Canadian Press.—The 25th session of the Dominion Parliament opened this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when His Excellency, the Governor-General attended in the new senate chamber.

The session, which opened today, is expected to be full of fight. Members of the opposition are determined, they say, to force an early election, and some of the Government supporters are said to be strongly in favor of an early dissolution and appeal to the country. The first move to this end is expected to come when Hon. Mackenzie King, the Liberal leader, gets the floor tomorrow.

Mr. King is expected to reply to the speech from the throne, in which was the usual artillery salute from the guns on Parliament Hill.

After his speech, from the throne, the Commons returned to their own chamber. The address was moved by James McMillan (King's P. R. 1), and seconded by J. A. McKivvie (Yale-Cardinal).

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE. Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons: On your return to your parliamentary duties I am glad to be able to congratulate you on the relative prosperity of the country and its comparative freedom from the feeling of unrest which has afflicted many other countries so unfortunately situated. Following the conditions of expansion due to the war, a period of contraction was inevitable. Restriction of credit involving a certain amount of unemployment has been universal. But this Dominion has been less affected than other countries, and feeling has been less widespread in Canada.

Unemployment Measures. Unemployment, the world-wide result of the conditions to which I have referred, though less widespread in Canada than elsewhere, has nevertheless become a serious consideration. Of the charges for the relief of general unemployment measures have been taken as far as possible, and special measures have been adopted to deal with the situation. The Government is determined to do all in its power to relieve the distress caused by unemployment.

ANOTHER CRISIS APPROACHING IN RAILWAY PROBLEM

Report Issued by the Ontario Board Regarding Street Car Situation Shows That City's Inaction Is Causing the Commissioners to Become Restive.

That another crisis in London's street railway problem is rapidly approaching is clearly indicated by the report for 1920, which was issued today. The document was prepared jointly by Street Railway Company and the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board. The work of the company covers operation from January 1 to June 15, while that of the board deals with the rest of the year.

It is quite apparent that the board is growing restive at the inaction on the part of the city. The introduction to the report by Chairman D. M. McIntyre states: "It is contemplated by the act under which the board is in possession of the street railway, that a permanent solution of the difficulties arising out of the street railway transportation system should be found. In the very nature of things, in view of the statutory limitations on the powers of the board, and its inability to properly finance such undertaking, the board is unable to provide adequately for the inevitable wear and tear and depreciation of the plant. Much less is it able to meet the probable demands for improved service and extent of operation in a growing community like that of London."

Situation Obvious. "The board feels that it need not further emphasize the fact that the situation, which is plain and obvious, and it mentions them merely to remind the council of the urgent need for prompt action looking to some workable solution of the transportation difficulties, which will meet the present and future requirements of your city." "The statement for the complete year shows a deficit of $518. Passenger earnings were $22,206, while those of other sources of $7,400 brought this to $29,606. Operating expenses totaled $30,124, leaving a net deficit of $7,518. To be deducted from net earnings was $26,556 interest on bonds; $1,260 interest on loans, and $3,564 taxes; a total of $31,380.

This left a net income before providing for depreciation or bond redemption of $2,826. These latter items amounted to $33,206, accounting for the net deficit of $31,380.

Were Much Heavier. While the company and the board each operated the road for about the same length of time, both the expenditures and receipts of the company were much heavier than those of the board. The gross earnings of the company were $22,206, while those of the board were $29,606. The company's net operating expenses were $30,124. The board's were $29,606. The company paid $17,034 interest on bonds and $1,260 interest on loans. The board paid $3,564 taxes.

The general balance sheet lists the total assets of the company at $1,327,221. Of these $424,650 are current assets. The road and equipment is valued at $1,498,935, while real estate is valued at $7,132. The board's assets are valued at $1,106,150. From this is deducted depreciation to June 15 of $236,068, leaving $1,270,082. Depreciation under the railway board management of $13,500 reduced this to $1,256,582, while materials and supplies on hand for $28,080 brought it up to $1,284,662.

Liabilities $66,405. Current liabilities made up of accounts payable, wages payable, notes payable, accident insurance and outstanding tickets, amount to $66,405. Interest on bonds due is $5,285. Liability to bondholders on 5 per cent bonds is $15,900, while there is $6,000 of these bonds in the treasury as well. Liability to shareholders is made up of capital stock outstanding to the amount of $687,480, and a surplus of $84,076. Reserves for depreciation are $236,068. Along with the report of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, Leonard Tait, the secretary of the company, submits a report covering operation from January 1 to June 15.

The two strikes which occurred during the year were due to both company and employee alike.

The direct loss to the company due to thirteen days non-operation was $2,717 and to the employees in wages $12,570, an average of $215.4 each day, or $3.68 in wages to each employee on strike.

Operating Costs. In a comparative statement of operation from 1915 to 1920, the secretary points out that the earnings of the company increased, the operating expenses decreased, and the net gain amount yearly. By far the greater part of this was made up by increased wages. The increase in wages of 1920 over 1915 amounted to $147,133, while in other operating expenses it was only $12,757. This made the total increase in expenses in 1920, as compared with 1915, $159,891, while the total increase in earnings was only $125,870. This was an increase in expenses above the increase in earnings of $34,021.

Reason for the company's refusal to pay wages and other improvements is seen in the fact that they were unable to secure further capital after 1917, as they were no longer paying dividends. Improvements of the street railway were made in 1915, for which $50,000 capital was secured. The following year $28,000 was spent on improvements, although only $16,680 was obtained. In 1917 the amount spent was $46,822 and the capital obtained $44,800. In 1918 $41,587 was spent on improvements; in 1919 $47,743 and 1920 none. No capital was obtained the last three years.

Secretary's Report. Continuing, the secretary's report states: "It will be noted that improvements were made to the road and equipment in each year to 1915. The company was unable to secure any new capital after the year 1917, due to the discontinuance of dividends."

Fit and Full of Pep at 60
Because of That Latest Remedial Discovery of Dr. Pierce's.

Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances. Dr. Pierce advocates that every one should exercise in the outdoors air sufficiently, and from time to time stimulate the kidney action by means of An-er-ic.

When you have backache, dizzy spells or rheumatism, heed nature's warning. It means that you are a victim to uric-acid poisoning.

If you have that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, get Dr. Pierce's An-er-ic Tablets at the drug store, or send 10c for trial package to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

APHASIA VICTIM IN ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL

Andrew Elliott Has No Recollection of Trip From Flint.

Suffering from a form of aphasia, with partial loss of memory, Andrew Elliott, formerly of London Township, is in St. Joseph's Hospital under the care of Dr. Kenneth MacLean. Mr. Elliott had been working in Flint, Michigan, and has no conscious recollection of how he got to London. Five days ago he came into Dr. MacLean's office accompanied by another man, whom he called George. In reply to questions, he constantly kept turning to his friend and saying, "You know, George, his friend, however, seemed to know very little about Mr. Elliott, although True appeared to have been responsible for bringing him to the doctor's office."

It is not a complete case of aphasia, Dr. MacLean states, and some slight improvement is already noticeable. The first patient claimed to have been poisoned, but could not remember by whom or where. The physician is a very interesting one, the physician being gradually restored to him. High blood pressure, Dr. MacLean states, is the cause of the patient's illness. Mr. Elliott is about 55 years of age.

REAL ESTATE AGENTS RAISE COMMISSIONS

Will Charge Three Per Cent For Selling Improved Property.

That London is rapidly approaching the 200,000 population mark, the optimistic consensus of opinion arrived at by the members of the Real Estate Board at the last weekly meeting of this organization.

The real estate dealers professed to see in the recent industrial development of the city a new era of boom, which will presently make London one of the fastest growing cities in the country. Speakers at the board meeting declared that the number of people rushing into London seeking new homes here is quite as great as it was at this time last year, and expressed the view that it is regrettable that there are not more available homes to accommodate them.

Among other matters discussed by the members was the advocacy of provincial law, which, in their opinion, would benefit real estate owners, agents and brokers.

The board also passed a resolution recommending that on or after February 15, 1921, the rate of commission to be charged for selling improved property be 3 per cent, and all commission contracts in force previous to that date be cancelled and new signed contracts effected on and after March 1, 1921.

headache. Here is instant relief.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapiesin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress caused by acidity will end. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapiesin always put you back to normal. They come in bottles at once and they cost little at drug stores.

LADIES! DARKEN
YOUR GREY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, grey hair to its natural color is a well known fact. The hair used to keep her hair beautiful and glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.
But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Grandma's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you get this famous old preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally it is even that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking the strand at a time. By morning the grey hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes naturally dark and glossy.

TODAY'S MAILS WEIGHTED DOWN WITH FREIGHT OF "LOVE"

The little god cupid seems to have been busier than usual this St. Valentine's season, so busy that the stationery vendors and flower merchants forgot for a time the post-slump, and shovelled bright silver pieces and crisp bills into their money boxes with happy, smiling faces.

"More Valentine cards have been sold this year than ever before," declared one shopman. And the "posties" quite believed it, when they gathered up their purses this morning, weighed down with a freight of "love." Violets and red roses seem to have been the favorite purchases at the flower shops. Although one merchant laughingly remarked that "everything from a lily to an orchid" had been bought, and hinted something about "flowers telling their own story." The first time I saw one The Advertiser reporter that florist shops would be excellent hunting-grounds for "stupid" letters. The bullet-plum are sealed, the flower mowers and their interpretation, and what couldn't he tell?

St. Valentine's day was named in honor of Bishop Valentine, who died in the year 278 A. D. on the 14th of February, a day which the Romans had long since celebrated as a lovers' festival.

The ceremony of the festival was performed by the young men who chose their sweethearts by drawing names from a box.

In France during the age of chivalry it became the custom for the girls also to draw from the valentine box, choosing their cavaliers, and at this time the exchange of poetical effusions first became popular.

In England and Scotland during the seventeenth century the St. Valentine's revolver was found that he was obliged to exchange by the "Cupid's Director," etc., which offered "extensive selections of original valentines and answers, for every trade and profession," and Charles Lamb wrote, during this decade: "St.
Valentine's day is now a day of the weary, two-penny postman sinks beneath a load of delicate embassments not his own."

Burglars Surprised at Work;
One Winged by Householder

Night Intruder Shot by W. T. Orchard, Beaconsfield Avenue, But Escapes With Accomplice—Police Follow Blood-stained Tracks, But Fail To Make Capture.

Returning to their home at 79 Beaconsfield avenue at 8:40 p.m. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Orchard surprised two burglars in the act of breaking into their home.

Mr. Orchard instructed his wife to rush to the front door to prevent egress of the pair by this route. His wife then climbed through a bedroom window onto the front porch, and aimed with a revolver at the burglars.
The burglars made a hasty retreat back into the house, and in a few minutes the police arrived.

Thinking the burglars to be trapped upstairs, Detective Egerton took up his post at the rear of the house to capture them. However, it was discovered that the back window upstairs had been opened and the two burglars had escaped by dropping to a distance of about twenty feet. Their tracks in the snow were followed through backyards, but no trace of the criminals themselves were obtained.

That Mr. Orchard wounded one of the burglars is evidenced by blood stains on the front bedroom curtains and on the floor. The burglar who was wounded is believed to be the one who was seen running away from the house after the burglars had been captured.

REFRIGERATOR CARS
ARE NOW IN FAVOR
AMONG THE HOBOS

Pullman, sleeping and dining cars are declining in favor among a certain class of the travelling public. The stream roads of this continent, according to local railroad officials, are now being used by a large number of the gaily-painted refrigerator cars.

These cars are decreasing in popularity because of the fact that the refrigerator car is a more comfortable place in which to travel than the pullman or dining car.

The reason for this is that the

EVERYTHING ABOUT
MOVIE STARS FALSE

Says Rev. G. A. Leichter in Sunday Sermon.

"Will you ever be a star?" asked Rev. G. A. Leichter to a large congregation in Adelaide Street Baptist Church on Sunday evening. "I don't mean a movie star," he continued.
"Everything about them is false. They paint their faces to look pretty, and make their hair very attractive. What is their reward? They are only stars in the eyes of mankind, but not in the eyes of God."

He said that the movie stars are to stand high in relationship to mankind.

outcome of suffering and disgrace.

CONDITIONS BETTER THAN N OLD LAND

Says City Engineer, Who is Optimistic Regarding Local Civic Problems.

City Engineer H. A. Brazier resumed his duties today after returning from a visit of several weeks in England. He made the return voyage on the Atlantic and experienced much rough weather.
He has brought back with him an optimistic view of the problems confronting civic administrations here since his last visit to the old world.
He has considerable worry during the next few months, conditions here are infinitely better than in England as far as he can learn in the brief time he has spent here.

One outstanding feature of conditions which he noted in England was that practically no maintenance work had been possible during the war. This left railways and other public services in a bad state, which the country is now doing its best to remedy. Because which formerly made more than 60 miles an hour are now reduced to about 30.

He had an opportunity to study much public works restoration work brought about by the war.

The advantage of an electric road to the rural community was exemplified by the fact that the cost of maintainance under electricity was 50 percent less than that of steam.

In regard to the supply of power, Mr. Brazier stated that no less than $2,000,000 of horsepower was available in Ontario, of which only 955,000 was developed. The balance of 1,045,000 only 2,000,000 had been developed so far.

Coal was used for generating electricity, instead of for generating steam, two-thirds of the coal used by steam locomotives could be saved.

Europe was waking up to the fact that the best horse power was available in Ontario, of which only 955,000 was

GREAT ADVANTAGES OF ELECTRIFICATION
GIVEN BY SPEAKER

D. M. Morrison of L. and P. S.
Addresses Rotary Club.

"Electricity Versus Steam" was the subject which occupied the attention of the London Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in the Tecumseh House.

D. M. Morrison, engineer of the London and Port Stanley Railway, was the speaker. He said that there was no limit to the developments in the electrification of railways that might take place in the future. The use of electric locomotives had amply demonstrated their superiority over steam. By the use of electricity the plants could be more intensively used and the cost of labor was therefore reduced. The smoke nuisance was also eliminated, and the consequent drop in property values. Then, for electric locomotives, turntables, ash pits and coal and water facilities were done away with.

One-tenth of the total freight hauled by steam engines consisted of fuel to generate steam power, and the cost of maintenance under electricity was 50 percent less than that of steam.

The principal item of the program was a talk on "Proportionate and Systematic Giving" by Mrs. (Rev.) D. N. McCamus, the superintendent of this department for the London branch of the Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. McCamus in her talk gave many illuminating and instructive facts on this subject, and also illustrated her talk with personal incidents that had come under her notice while carrying out the duties of her office. She appealed to the various members present to be generous in their offerings, not only of money, but also of time and talents, in fact, anything they might happen to possess.

Mrs. McCamus inaugurated a membership and funds contest between five groups of the circle, the three losing groups to entertain the two winning. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Fennell served dainty refreshments, and a social time

XII.—Ingratating Charlie Davon.

April decided, that frank, impulsive manner was the best one to adopt under the awkward circumstances. And anyhow it was vastly better to have Betty as a friend than to have an enemy. For Betty knew too much!

"First of all I want to apologize for not being more cordial in the train today. April's tones were really regretful. If Betty proved forgiving, I—I didn't expect you to talk to me. Betty felt thoroughly embarrassed. You had a friend with you who didn't know me!"

"But I ought to have introduced you. Only—April's voice was mysteriously lowered—only she wasn't at all in a good temper, and you'd have found her so dull and cross. I was bored stiff myself—and that made me cross, too."

"It's quite all right—please don't apologize. When Jack introduced me to you the other evening I really wanted to be friends. April was a sufficiently good friend of Betty's, and I was sure that Betty would find a way to get acquainted with you."

She broke off, scanning the other girl's face. "I was wondering if you, in turn, would like to be acquainted with me?"

She looked straight into April's face with clear, untroubled eyes. "That clear, frank gaze was genuine, and not assumed. April was a sufficiently good friend of Betty's, and I was sure that Betty would find a way to get acquainted with you."

She never asked towards you in any other way than that of friendship," said Betty tranquilly, still with untroubled eyes. "Then that's all right. I want to say again that I'm sorry for any rudeness I showed. It's quite unlike my usual self."

Things were going well with her. If Betty did not care for Trevor, then she might as well be sure to make the most of the situation. "I'm glad to hear that," said Betty. "I'm glad to hear that."

It would be an easy matter to arrange for Betty to go to him while pretending to be her friend. And the friendship, too, would prevent Betty from ever telling him what she had seen tonight, in the glove box. Charlie Davon's fascination had carried her off her feet.

Tomorrow—Davon's Manner Displeased.

The pictures in a house are usually the oddest medley imaginable. More than any other thing they express the complexity of the elements that go to make up the average Canadian family. They are not the conscious choice of any one or even any two or three people. They have just happened. But the mistress of the house exerts a constant pressure on them. It is she who says where they shall hang, who changes them, perhaps deliberately, perhaps because a frame or a glass breaks at housecleaning time. It is she who has chosen, or who plans to choose the paper against which they hang.

Only the rich or the lucky in this country have original in oils or water colors to hang. Some of us may have one or two cherished treasures of that sort, sometimes really good, sometimes very bad; but for the most part our pictures are copies, engravings, etchings and photographs. However, in this form we have all the world of art to choose from, and a queer collection the result almost everywhere. For those of us who can find the time to read them there are books that will help us to understand, not only the pictures which we go to galleries to see, but the copies of great pictures, which we wish to frame, and hang on our walls.

As to the pictures which we have already, let us look them again, and see whether they belong where they hang, what they really mean to us, what relation they bear to the other things in our rooms. And let us not have too many of them around, that our lives are crowded with their incoherence; let us hang them straight on two cords, at a convenient height to be looked at, so that they may at least be seen for exactly what they are worth.

Around the Gate Fire.

Dear Miss Grey—Here I am again. I saw in Saturday's paper where Thistle wanted some patches to make sachet bags. I am sending a few. Hope they are what she wanted. I would like to have one when she sends them in. Also some part of the country that I had not seen before. What a lovely letter. Sunny Jim's letters are very interesting, but are few and far between. Nobody seems to care. I know what it means to be homesick. "The Bella of St. Mary's" and "Betty your Thistle, Johnny." Hoping I am not too much bother. Will try and help more next time.

I am sending the song, "How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," for Sweetheart, and "Long Boy," asked for by someone else. Will sign as before.

TOILET.

Ans.—When sachets and songs are sent in I shall forward them to you. Topsy. Thank you for patches and bags, also for sending in songs.

Dear Miss Grey and Mail Box Friends.—I read with much pleasure the letter every evening, and certainly enjoy them. I like the discussion on books, as I have read a great deal and always like other people's opinions on books and authors.

I saw where Thistle was making some more sachets for the Mail Box, and I would be very glad to set one. I will try and make one of some help next time. Am enclosing a further bit for the C. H. P., and I am glad to see the fund growing steadily.

With best wishes to all, I am, Yours truly, MAKE-BELIEVE.

Ans.—If Thistle sends in more sachets I shall forward one to you. Thank you for the hospital hint.

One Hundred Ties.

Dear Miss Grey—May I drop in for a few moments. This is my first visit and, like the rest, I come for help. I am sure you will gladly send me the famous stocking pattern when I tell you I have one hundred toes to keep warm. Please may I have one? I enjoy the page very much. It is so interesting and so full of good things. I enclose a skin-plaster for S. C. H., also cake recipe. Wishing all possible success in your good work.

Reliable Sponge Cake.—Beat 3 eggs three minutes, add 1 1/2 teaspoonful sugar, four, with which is sifted 1 teaspoon cream of tartar; beat three minutes before adding 1/2 cup of cold water, in which is dissolved 1/2 teaspoon soda; stir in 1 cup flour and mix thoroughly. Bake in moderate oven. This is splendid.

Ans.—Thank you for recipe and the "plaster." Am forwarding stocking-foot pattern, which will be a great help to you. Thank you for the hospital hint.

Whole Battalion of Uplifters Silent Before Divorce Menace, Bishop of London Complains

"Not a Solitary Squeak From Reformers, Sunday Paper and Tobacco Fighters—It Makes Me Sick," Says Rt. Rev. M. F. Fallon.

At the conclusion of the presentation to Rev. Father Young in St. Peter's Parish Hall yesterday forenoon, Bishop Fallon had a few words to say to the men of the Holy Name Society on the subject of the divorce bill which it is reported, will be presented to Parliament during the ensuing session. The hall was crowded.

"It has been a surprise to me," said the bishop, "that in a province where there are so many up-and-coming and moral people, where there are so many people wanting to force things down our throats which we do not want, while trying to prevent us enjoying things which we do want, battalions of reformers, cohorts to revise the commandments, whole armies to tackle the use of tobacco and the smoking of cigarettes on the reading of Sunday papers, and whose object is, in short, to dry up the face of the earth, to even stop the little rivulets that trickle down from the mountainside, there is no one to oppose this iniquitous divorce bill."

Not Solitary Squeak.
"Now, all this makes me sick; it makes me more sick when I think that in the face of the great menace to our province, there isn't a solitary reformers, cohorts to revise the
commandments, whole armies to
tackle the use of tobacco and the smoking of cigarettes against the great evil with which we are faced."

"There is a lot of nonsense inserted in the newspapers about the divorce tribunal at Ottawa, stating that it is a sham, that it exists for the benefit of the rich and not for the poor. That statement is falsified by the statistics; it can produce figures to prove this is utterly wrong. I am exceedingly sorry to have to say so, but the fact of the matter is that members of the laboring and artisan class constituted 90 per cent of those who applied for divorces during the last session. The argument that the present divorce tribunal is for the benefit of the rich is, therefore, false; it has no foundation, on the contrary, the Senate remits the fees to those unable to pay them.

"We believe that Christ said there is no power on earth that can break the marriage bond. We invite our non-Catholic friends to come in with us and stop this menace of legalized immorality."

Keep Fifth Quarantined.
"We don't want the dirty thing. Let us keep this fifth quarantined in the Senate Chamber at Ottawa," Bishop Fallon then called upon the Holy Name Society to oppose this iniquitous measure, for which there was no reason that would stand the test of reason, not merely by signing the petition against it but by telling their neighbors the truth about it. He also advised them to read Father Mahoney's pamphlet and to compare it with their Bibles.

"The divorce tribunal at Ottawa is a judicial body, and ought to be allowed to handle the matter," concluded the bishop. "About three-quarters of those who apply for divorces come from Toronto. We object that the rest of the province should be benefited by the immorality just because Toronto won't behave itself."

Hundreds Sign Petition.
At the 3:30 morning mass in St.
Peter's Cathedral the members of the society received Holy Communion in a body. The cathedral was filled, and Rev. Father Forriston, who preached, exhorted the men to exert their influence against the proposed bill. This sermon was based on the divorce scripture regarding divorce, and he quoted the words of the Holy Bible.
Paul to prove that nowhere in the New Testament did Christ permit it.

Hundreds of Catholic electors throughout the city signed the petition to the government against the proposed bill, copies of the document being placed at the doors of all the churches.

CATHOLIC WOMEN ORGANIZE LEAGUE BRANCH IN CITY

Local Societies Are Already Established in Many Canadian Cities.

A branch of the Catholic Women's League of Canada has been formed in London as the result of a largely attended meeting held in St. Peter's Parish Hall yesterday afternoon. Bishop Fallon presided and introduced the organizer of the league from Toronto, who explained its aims. These are along social welfare lines. There are branches of the organization in Toronto, Ottawa, Peterborough and other places, and its functions include the safeguarding of children, the training of "mothers," the meeting of friendless immigrant girls at stations and steamboats, and similar objects. A nominating committee was appointed, and the election of officers will take place at a future meeting.

On the motion of Miss Mary Manley, seconded by Mrs. Joseph J. Wray, a thanks was awarded to the organizer for her interesting address.

MILK PRODUCERS MEET.
At the annual meeting of the London branch of the Ontario Milk Producers' Association held in agricultural office on Saturday evening, the following officers were re-elected: President, J. C. Nicol, Wilton Grove; vice-president, W. J. Ellis, London Township; secretary-treasurer, Gordon Nicol, Wilton Grove.

A committee was appointed to see if arrangements could be made for holding a banquet at an early date and to engage speakers.
Gordon Nicol and W. J. Ellis, who were delegates to the milk producers' convention, recently held in Toronto, gave an interesting account of the proceedings.

LONDONER MAKES A BIG SUCCESS OF NEW COMPANY

Wonderful Record of New Business for Company Which S. C. Tweed
Organizes.

London has had during her many years of gratifying business growth the sponsoring of a number of men who have gone forth and "made good" in a big way in other fields of endeavor.
One such man is Sydney C. Tweed, a resident of London, who has organized the New York Equitable Life Insurance Company for this district, and now president and managing director of the Ontario Equitable Life and Accident Insurance Company of Waterloo, Ont.

Sydney C. Tweed has had a wonderful career in the insurance business.
His tenure in this line could easily be likened to that of King Midas, for he has been successful in every instance company with whom he has been connected, and his latest accomplishment, the organization of the New York Equitable Life Insurance Company, is one that ranks in less than six weeks as one of the most successful in the business of the world.

One of the big reasons for Mr.
Tweed's success is his knowledge of men. He knows them through and through, knows how to handle them, and how to get the best out of them.
This, coupled with his practical knowledge of the insurance business, together with an apparent superabundance of initiative, energy, and loyalty and lots of energy, has had much to do with Mr. Tweed's success in the insurance world.

Hundreds of Londoners will remember Mr. Tweed when he was president of the New York Equitable Life Insurance Company in this city. After he resigned from that company and took up his duties as president of the Ontario Equitable Life Insurance Company, he was elected manager of the London district of the Ontario Equitable Life Insurance Company, and is now located at Room 21, Dominion Savings Bank Building, 210 Dundas street, west.
With Mr. Tweed at the home office in the capacity of assistant manager, the actuary is another insurance man of many years' experience, Mr. M. P.
Langstaff, A.L.A., F.A.S., who has no doubt will have considerable influence upon the success of this new insurance company.

Mr. E. C. Mitchell, manager of the Ontario Equitable Life Insurance Company, and Mr. E. C. Mitchell, manager of the Ontario Equitable Life Insurance Company, are also directors of the company.

LITTLE BUT BIG—THE LITTLE PIANO WITH THE BIG TONE.
It is a smaller piano—the new miniature upright grand, manufactured by a Old Firm Heintzman & Co., Ltd., 102, 242 Dundas street, London. But the average sized upright, but it combines within its compact frame all the charm of the beautiful tone and delicacy of touch that is a marked feature of every piano bearing the name of this old-established 70-year firm.

TWELVE MOTHERS APPLY TO ALLOWANCE BOARD
Twelve applications were received and considered by the Middlesex Mothers' Allowance Board on Saturday afternoon. Some discussion as to preparing a budget, on which to base the rate to be paid to mothers, was held.
Each member was asked to prepare a budget and present it at a meeting to be held shortly. The members of the board present at the meeting were: John Drummond, Alisa Craig, Allan Mc-Pherson, Glenice Gray, Mrs. Malcolm Gray, Kumoka, Miss Mary Grant and John Stuart.

BOYS CONDUCT UNIQUE
SERVICE IN CHURCH
Four boys of the First Congregational Church helped to conduct the morning service on Sunday. Father and Son Sunday was the occasion.

John Clark read the first passage from the Bible, and Eric Brown, the second. Miss Doris Anundsen and Miss Jessie Robinson sang a solo. Miss Irene Anundsen recited Van Dyke's "Legend of Service."

Edgar Kelly and Teddy Carpenter were the exhibitors for an illustrated sermon by Rev. M. Kelly.

This is rather a unique service," said Mr. Kelly. "But it is a relic of Romanism to think that only a paid minister can lead a service to God." There was no law more conspicuous than the law of habit. All had been not good ones, however. Some boys had a habit of using crude slang and the gulf between that and blasphemy and swearing was not wide.

One of the boys was bound with several strands of thread. They represented a habit. He was able to break these from it. The other boys had the same habit, but he was bound twice as securely as the first boy. He was unable to get free, but with the aid of a pair of scissors, which represented the grace of God, he was freed.

TO PARTICIPATE IN CONTEST

This contest is open to all residents of the Province of Ontario. Solutions of the puzzle will not be accepted from outside of this territory.
While addresses for delivery of the prize list, which will be sent to all communications and matter relating to the contest must pass back and forth between the Province of Ontario, upon making a subscription payment to The Advertiser of not less than $2.50, or more than $10.00, may submit a solution of the puzzle.
You may submit as many different solutions as you wish with a subscription, on payment of not less than $2.50 or more than $10.00 with each one.
If you submit more than one solution, the payment with each one will be applied to extending the subscription.

carriage charges or postage.
Solutions must be mailed before the paper through. All amounts paid will be credited to the subscriber at the same rate, so you cannot lose, while standing an equal chance to win a valuable cash prize.

FACTS TO REMEMBER

While the amount you pay with a solution of the puzzle does not have an effect on your winning a prize, it does affect the amount you will receive. The prize list, which you will receive, will be determined by what the winners
pay. This is explained in the prize list, which you should study carefully before sending your solution.

The value of the first five prizes will also be increased $100 each by interesting four people who are not subscribers to become subscribers.
The sum of $25 will be added to each of these prizes, not to exceed four. Each of the new prizes will be $2.50 or more, than $2.50, and he has the privilege of entering the contest for a prize of $2.50 or more, the same terms as any other contest. The prize list, which you will receive, will be determined by what the winners
pay. This is explained in the prize list, which you should
study carefully before sending
your solution.

Extra Charts Furnished
Those desiring extra charts to work on, may obtain them with what they require if they send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for mailing them.
The office is located at 110 Dundas street, Postoffice Box 578.

The puzzle is already being sent to the person's residence, but in the name of some other member of the family, and you do not wish an additional copy, merely, of the puzzle, you may wish to have a copy of the puzzle sent to you. If you are already a subscriber, and wish to have a copy of the puzzle sent to you, then the prize list is being delivered to you.
If you are not a subscriber, you may wish to have a copy of the puzzle sent to you. If you want to pass a pleasant winter evening, invite in a few friends, and give to each one a chart, and see who in a given length of time can work out the best result. It will prove to be a most interesting game.
Extra charts may be secured for this purpose by calling upon the contest manager, or by whatever number is needed.
The best way to secure a chart in this contest will be reproduced in the prize list, which you will receive. The contest manager will check it up and compare it with his or her own work.

The amount of the first five prizes depends on how much you pay on your subscription. You may pay as low as $2.50, or as high as $10.00.

FIRST CAPITAL PRIZE
MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF $700.00

$100.00 in cash, to which will be added 50 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution;
also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution. The following table shows what the prize would be added to according to various subscription payments, without allowing anything for new subscribers.

$2.50 subscription payment would net $237.50
$5.00 subscription payment would net $475.00
$7.50 subscription payment would net $712.50
$10.00 subscription payment would net $950.00

Then added to each of these $100.00 offered for four new subscriptions, and you will see you can win $700.00 in all by paying $10.00 on your subscription, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution. The new subscriber may pay any amount from $2.50 to $10.00.

SECOND CAPITAL PRIZE
MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF $450.00

$100.00 in cash, to which will be added 25 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution;
also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution.
