

THE WEATHER:
NORTHERLY WINDS; FAIR.
TOMORROW—FAIR, Milder.

London Evening Advertiser

FOUR-PAGE ROTOGRAVURE
SECTION AND EIGHT COLORED COMICS
EVERY SATURDAY

61ST YEAR. NO. 24239

LONDON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1925. —SIXTEEN PAGES.

THREE CENTS.

UNION BILL PASSES COMMITTEE

Girl Stops Two Thieves; Over $2,000,000 in City Taxes

COMMISSION TO AID CHURCH MINORITIES

Private Bills Committee, by Vote of 43 to 17, Approves of Draft Measure on Church Union—Knox College Goes to Non-Concurrence With Joint Occupation For Three Years.

CURRIE-McCAUSLAND TO RENEW FIGHT

By N. J. O'NEAL.

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Correspondent.

Toronto, April 2.—By a vote of 43 to 17 the private bills committee of the legislature today adopted the draft bill drawn up by its sub-committee of nine, and reported to the house.

The draft bill has as its main features the following:
(1) Creation of a commission with coercive power to provide accommodation for minorities either way where all the churches in places of under 50,000 people have voted one way on union.
(2) Knox College to be given to the non-concurring church, but joint occupation of it to be had by unionists and anti-unionists for three years.

FIGHT NOT OVER YET.

The fight on the bill is not over, however. Col. J. A. Currie and J. A. McCausland, two Toronto members, made a determined effort to delay action on the bill until Tuesday, and after their defeat by the decisive vote of 43 to 17 they declared their intention of carrying the war to the floor of the house. Mr. McCausland promises to raise questions in the house. A filibuster on the Currie-McCausland forces with the government's intent on proroguing the house before Easter would be an interesting development. But will the premier allow it?

How They Voted.

Analysis of the vote in the committee shows that the Liberals voted for the bill almost unanimously, and that the Conservatives were more than two to one for it. Progressives were evenly split. So was Labor. Mr. Nickle said that in some cases it was found following the vote that there were some families that had no denomination to which they could go. In the cities an opposite condition of affairs was found. "Clause No. 8," he said, "recommends that a commission of three be appointed, one representing the uniting churches, a second the non-concurring congregations and a third to be selected by these two and these to constitute the commission and have authority and power to review conditions in any locality or community where they have either voted into union or out, ameliorate conditions and make the hardship as light as possible on the minority in those communities."

Knox Goes to Non-Concurrence.

The disposal of certain properties which were held jointly by two or more congregations, which had divided on the issue, would also be left to the commission.

Touching on the question of Knox college, the attorney-general explained that each side in the controversy wished to have a college in Toronto.

The settlement plan, he went on, gave Knox to the non-concurrence, with a provision for joint occupancy for a period of three years. Each side in the controversy would submit to the committee, by Monday next, the names of three representatives to act as trustees.

CARRIES 43 TO 17.

Toronto, April 2.—After one hour's discussion, the private bills committee of the Ontario legislature by 43 votes to 17, this morning accepted the church union bill as reported by its sub-committee. The stand taken by some members of the committee was that a few days should be given to the non-concurrence.

Please See Page 6, Column 2.

MAYOR TO BE QUERIED IN QUEBEC CIVIC PROBE

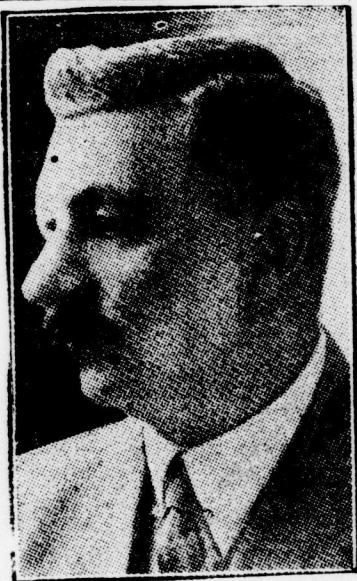

To Be Examined as to Benefit Through Business Transactions With City.

Quebec, April 2.—The mayor of Quebec, according to a decision rendered yesterday in the local civic inquiry by Judge Letellier, must appear in the witnessbox to answer any questions that may be put to him and any proof that might go to show that either the mayor or any of the aldermen had derived any benefit through any business transactions with the city should be produced before the court during the present inquiry.

This decision was in answer to an oblique question raised by the mayor on Tuesday morning. In handing down his decision, Judge Letellier said that he had secured the advice of the chief justice in the matter before reaching any decision.

N. B. PROGRESSIVES FAVOR GRAND FALLS PROJECT

Fredericton, N.B., April 2.—The Progressive group in the New Brunswick legislature favors the provincial government's proposal to proceed with the development of Grand Falls and they favor the policy of government ownership and control which has been adopted by the government because, they hold, it is the only means by which hydro can be carried to the rural communities so that all the people will have the benefit of cheap power. C. F. Fawcett, leader of the Progressives, endorsed Premier Veniot's policy in the legislature yesterday.

WILLIAM DUFF, M. P., of Lunenburg, N. S., whose statements in the house of commons yesterday that distress conditions in the Glace Bay strike area were not nearly as bad as represented, has drawn the fire of relief workers, who maintain his observations are pure fabrications or that his statements are based on ignorance of facts.

ALL FIRE OFFICERS MAY GO

Ald. Smith Declares General Clean-Up Will Follow If Chief Resigns.

OTHERS ARE FIRM

Resign or Demand His Dismissal, Is Stand of the Mayor.

Dismissal of Fire Chief John Aitken will precipitate the biggest shake-up in the history of the department, according to Ald. Edwin Smith. If the chief goes, other officers will be brought on the carpet and the whole force cleaned out, Ald. Smith declared.

The bombshell dropped by the mayor at an after meeting of No. 1 committee, when he asked for Chief Aitken's resignation, was a spectacular move on the part of his worship and Labor representatives and met with bold criticism from many sides today.

However, representatives of both factions in the council were ready to discuss the question freely today. Neither side appears ready to budge an inch from its position in the matter.

"The chief is too old a man and can no longer efficiently administer the department's affairs," says Mayor Verney and Labor representatives. "We must either have his resignation or we will demand his dismissal immediately."

"We will never stand for humiliating the chief further in this matter," says Ald. Smith, who is backed up by Ald. Douglas and Ald. Dole. "The chief has given 44 years of excellent service to the city. He is as young today as many men of 25."

The council will vote on the matter of the chief's resignation on Monday. A sharp split of opinion is expected. "If it is a matter of efficiency of the force, there will be more resignations than that of the chief demanded," Ald. Smith says. Assistant Chief Scott and Captain Mitchell can Please See Page 6, Column 7.

Seeding in West To Start in Week

Delayed by Moisture—Bumper Crops Anticipated.

Calgary, April 2.—Seeding operations in the Calgary district will not commence much before Good Friday and not then unless there is much sunshine and no rain or snow, as the land at the present time is very heavy with moisture.

Farmers are looking forward optimistically, expecting bumper crops this year, as they are assured that the early spring and moisture at this period augurs well for a good season. Farmers south of Calgary state that during the past 20 years there has never been so much moisture in the ground at this season of the year. The repeated dry years have given the soil a chance to rest, so that with plenty of moisture very heavy crops are anticipated.

Major G. S. Cott, who piloted the ship across the Atlantic, commanded her in today's flight, while Corporal Potter, one of the survivors of the R-38, was the chief. Flying conditions were ideal.

PADDY WINS SPRING CUP. Associated Press Despatch. Newbury, England, April 2.—Paddy, by Golden Sun, out of Shanogue, owned by Lady Bradford, won the spring cup of £1,500, run here today.

SERIOUSNESS OF FLOODS IN WEST IS INCREASING

Winnipeg, Man., April 2.—Rising waters in rivers, streamlets and creeks throughout Manitoba and Saskatchewan during the past 48 hours has greatly increased the seriousness of the flood situation. Two miles of railroad track was washed out on the Canadian National lines at Bredin, near Lumsden, Sask., and the railway traffic in other parts of the province is reported tied up on both systems.

How Taxes Are Divided

Education Takes 14 Mills and General Tax the Remaining 20 Mills in 34.5 Rate.

London's total expenditure for 1925 is $3,044,688. Of this total the amount to be raised by taxation is $2,352,330, to secure which a rate of 34.5 mills has been set.

The distribution of the 34.5 mills and the corresponding expenditure is as follows:	Mills.	$
Public schools	9.6649	$628,669
Collegiate	3.2265	224,887
Technical school	1.4545	101,385
Separate schools	(indep.)	45,013
Patriotic	(indep.)	4,900
General tax	20.0857	1,345,721
Annex	(indep.)	1,752
Totals	34.5000	$2,352,330

Assessment Climbs And Tax Rate Drops

But Lower Tax Rate Does Not Always Mean Less Money From the Ratepayer—London's Record Since 1920.

London's assessment, population and mill rate of taxation for the past six years are given below:

	Assessment.	Population.	Mill Rate.
1920	$44,111,915	59,100	40.00
1921	54,201,243	59,281	38.80
1922	63,749,926	59,784	34.91
1923	66,723,023	61,369	34.7
1924	69,035,726	61,867	34.66
1925	71,463,218	63,339	34.5

NO "JAM ON IT" FOR 1925 IN 34 MILLS PROGRAM

Cutting of Three Mills From Original Estimates Means That Many Projects Are Abandoned—Chairman McKay Says He Is Satisfied "If Lower Tax Rate Is Our Whole Object."

Dollar squeezing and estimate slashing have come out a winner in reducing London's tax rate. Useful bookkeeping helped last night when, after a fortnight's maneuvering, it was announced that the rate had been brought down to 34.5 mills, a fraction lower than the 1924 rate. It has been a matter largely of "internal management."

In efforts to get the rate down, the council chopped and sliced, added a little here and cut off a lot there, and finally were able to say that the rate "is down." New expenditures have been included to make up this year's rate and, at the same time, a deaf ear has been turned on other demands for funds.

THREE MILLS CUT OFF.

Had all expenditures requested been granted a rate of at least 38 mills would have resulted. Two weeks ago the tentative rate was 37.2. Practically three mills have been sweated off during the battle that has just been brought to an end.

London must do without some utilitarian additions this year, and London must go along without "fads or frills." There is absolutely no allowance for "extras" or emergency expenditures. If such should crop up an overdraft is inevitable.

But the council has brook't the tax rate down.

WHAT LONDON MUST DO WITHOUT.

The city must do without extra police protection, playground equipment and supervision, fire protection, and no allowance is made to start making up a deficit of at least $35,000 in the housing commission accounts. Some $40,000 has been cut from maintenance of schools, $18,000 has come off Victoria hospital expenses. There will be no provision for new costs of roads at Springbank. And the mayor, according to present plans, must be content with an $1,500 stipend.

The council was put on departments to get their estimates down to the 1924 level. Most of the sweating was done by officials or committees.

The last squeeze that put the lower rate over the top came last night and James Bell, city treasurer, announced that the 34.5 rate was reached.

NO PROVISION FOR AFTER DECEMBER.

"We have reduced the debt charges for the current year by $28,000," Mr. Bell said today. "We are making no provision whatever in this year's estimates for debt charges after December next. The tendency has been all along, in London and other cities, to provide only for the current year's expense in the matter of debt charges. However, we have some debenture issues which run from June to June of each year. It has been the custom to care for the payments on these six months ahead."

According to the municipal act, we are supposed to allow for interest only during the council year. So we have readjusted the system and this year we will have to pay only six months' interest on some of our debentures."

In this way Mr. Bell has been able to bring about another decrease in the estimates of at least $28,000.

RECEIPTS "OTHER THAN TAXATION."

The treasurer explains the receipts "other than taxation." These receipts amount, according to estimates, to $592,338.49, or more than a fifth of the total revenue necessary to maintain the city for the year.

There are over $135,000 in rentals, including the London & Port Stanley Railway; $15,000 in license fees, statute labor tax, income tax, dog tax, fish market surplus, housing commission revenue, and police court fines. These sums go direct to the city treasury and are not used to balance expenses in the departments from which they come.

SATISFIED IF LOWER RATE IS OBJECT.

"If the object is to get the tax rate down and keep it down, I am well satisfied," said Ald. Frank McKay, chairman of No. 1 committee, this morning. "The tendency is right enough, though I am sorry to see several expenditures not included. But if we are going to aim at a low tax rate, we must have no feeling regarding individual expenditures."

"The annexed districts will be included in the general rate in another two years and we may then have a good opportunity to look after some larger expenditures that have been pending. Or we could cut nearly two mills off the tax rate."

OVER TWO MILLIONS IN TAXES.

Estimates for 1925 call for expenditure of $3,044,688.22. About four-fifths of this, or $2,352,330, must be raised by taxation. Assessment has gone up only where new buildings have been erected and this is sufficient to care for $70,000 of 1925 taxes.

School expenditure is the largest collective spending body in the city, even greater than the board of works. Schools will cost London $999,556.46, outside of the separate schools, or 14.3455 mills of the tax rate. School upkeep costs the citizens practically two-fifths of their taxes.

WHAT THE CITY WILL GET.

The East London citizens will get a new high school out of this year's estimates and an addition will be made to the technical school. From general maintenance $40,000 has been cut in order to make room for school extension.

Slightly over 20 mills of the taxes, or $1,345,721.47, will go for general purposes, expenditures over which the council has more or less direct control. The fire alarm system will be modernized, new elevators will be installed at Victoria hospital, grants go up over $40,000 from last year, and relief and charity takes a $20,000 hop upwards. No. 1 committee, including the fire department, will spend nearly $30,000 more than last year, and No. 2 committee has made a modest increase of $11,000.

A big item in this year's expenditures will be $16,000 to care for this year's installment on the suburban paving account.

DR. ALEX W. HAYES, well-known Sarnia physician, whose funeral was held in that city on Tuesday afternoon under Masonic auspices. Dr. Hayes was a prominent figure in public activities at the time of his death, being chairman of the Sarnia board of education.

GIRL'S WIT FOILS TWO ROBBERS

Londoners Fail in Attempt To Steal Car From Farmer's Garage.

ATTACK FATHER

Police Informed and Three Are Placed Under Arrest in Short Time.

Verna Wilkinson, pretty 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilkinson, concessioner of London townships, was the heroine of a midnight battle, on her father's farm, with Gordon W. Hardy and Alex Stillwell of London and foiled the two young men in an attempt to steal Wilkinson's car from the family garage at an early hour this morning.

Both men were arrested in London by quick work on the part of High Constable Wharton, Provincial Constable Lloyd Mennie, and Licenses Inspector Walter Bolton. The prisoners appeared in county court before magistrate Hawshaw this morning on a charge of assault and attempted robbery, and were remanded to jail for a week at the request of Crown Attorney Albert M. Judd. A signed confession by Stillwell is in the hands of the police.

Attacked from her slumbers by the sound of a motor car, in the yard, Miss Wilkinson slipped out of bed at 12:15 this morning, put on her slippers, woke her parents and proceeded to the ground floor of the house. Looking out the kitchen window, after putting on a fur coat over her night robe, she saw that the garage door had been broken open and watched a man as he stooped over and fastened a rope to the rear end of her father's car. The headlights of the other car were trained on the door, but were snuffed out as she and her father ran from the house. Wilkinson ordered the men off the premises and was promptly assaulted and the daughter rushed for the house to phone the neighbors.

Got To Telephone.

"I just nicely got to the telephone, a few feet from the door, when Hardy rushed in and grabbed me," recounted Miss Wilkinson to The Advertiser this morning. "He wrestled with me, grabbed me by the throat and finally threw me out the door. He tore the telephone from the wall, but I didn't wait to see any more. I could still see my father fighting with the other man and I ran down the lane to the road on my way to K. Knapp's to phone for the police."

"Just at the gate I met Fred Ledge driving home. I didn't know who it was at the time, but I saw a woman in the car, and knew I was safe, and it was my friends of men in the yard. He drove me Mr. Knapp's, and we soon got to high constable on the phone. When we got back the men had gone in their car."

"Fortunately I had taken the number when the fight was going on in the hall, and I was able to give it to the police," concluded Miss Wilkinson.

County and provincial police were told in the praise of Miss Wilkinson, who was able to give them accurate descriptions of the two men as well as the number of their car.

Gave Information.

"She was absolutely cool and collected when we got there," related the high constable, "and was able to tell us everything we wanted to know in a very few minutes. This enabled us to get back to London in a hurry and helped us to land the men."

It was a case of covering the street in a hurry the police figured, and the zig-zag efforts were rewarded. Rectory street, near the C. N. tracks. Leaving their car they hurried in the direction of the court. Please See Page 3, Column 3.

Is It True?

That "up against the big, really important bit of life any ten women chosen at random will far outnumber any ten men chosen at random."

Irvin S. Cobb advances this idea in the article he has written for The Advertiser: "If I were a woman."

Read it on the "F" page of the Magazine Section this Saturday.

C. R. McKEOWN, M. L. A. for Dufferin, who moved the adoption of the draft union bill before the private bills committee today. The bill passed the committee, 43 to 17.

"PLAYING WITH ICEBERGS" COSTS SMALL BOY HIS LIFE

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, April 2.—While "playing with icebergs" 11-year-old Victor Leroux of Ste. Therese, fell into the river Aux Chenes, at a spot where the current is swift, and was swept away before he could be rescued.

EIGHT RUSSIAN SHIPS WILL VISIT GERMANY

Associated Press Despatch.

Berlin, April 2.—Advices from Kiel say eight units of the Russian fleet are expected to visit here next month in connection with the soviet naval manoeuvres.

The Weather

FORECASTS.

Northeast to north winds; fair and comparatively mild today and Friday. The depression which was over the maritime provinces yesterday has dispersed and another has formed off the middle Atlantic coast. A fairly deep depression has also developed over the southwest states, while to the northward pressure is quite high. The weather has been unsettled with showers in Eastern Ontario and Quebec, and fair in the western provinces.

Temperatures.

The highest and lowest temperatures during the 24 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were:

Stations.	High.	Low.	Weather.
Victoria	62	49	Cloudy
Calgary	58	45	Cloudy
Winnipeg	60	36	Cloudy
Port Arthur	48	36	Clear
Sault Ste. Marie	50	36	Clear
Toronto	42	28	Clear
St. John	46	32	Fair
Ottawa	42	34	Fair
Montreal	40	32	Cloudy
Quebec	38	24	Cloudy
St. John's	46	32	Fog, Cloudy
Halifax	48	32	Cloudy

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night were: Highest, 47; lowest, 28. Official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: 46; lowest, 38 below zero at 5:59 a.m. and sets at 6:45.

Barometric Readings. Yesterday—8 p.m.—29.05. Today—8 a.m.—29.11.

Council Sets City Tax Rate At 34.5 Mills :: Fire Chief's Resignation Asked

TAX RATE IS LOWERED BY FRACTION OF A MILL THROUGH BOOKKEEPING

City Council Definitely Fixes Rate For 1925 at 34.5 Mills by Reducing Expenditures and by Meeting Debt Charges For Six Months Only.

NEW FIRE ALARM SYSTEM POSSIBLE

London's tax rate for 1925 will be 34.5 mills. The city council last night definitely fixed the rate, making it 15-100ths of a mill lower than last year.

The 34.5 rate, prognosticated in The Advertiser, came as happy relief for the apostles of parsimony around the council, who at the last moment found new sources of revenue and fewer absolutely emergent reasons for proposed expenditures.

Gross expenditure was reduced to $3,044,668.72, and receipts other than taxation are estimated at $692,338.49.

The big cut this year is in debt charges, and this reduction is a matter of bookkeeping. Only debt charges for six months are provided for in this year's estimates.

Provide For Six Months.

According to the municipal act, the city is compelled to care for, in current estimates, only debt charges for the council year. In the past the custom has been to provide for charges six months in advance. Debt charges up to June are already paid. The council of this year will provide for only the last half of the year in the matter of debt charges, and it is expected that the calendar year will be followed in future.

Fire Chief Aitken's strenuous fight for efficient apparatus for the department made a little more progress than usual last night, when a motion was passed allowing the purchase of a new fire alarm system, by a debenture issue, if it is found impossible to properly repair the present system.

Costs $1,200 a Year.

B. L. Baulsh, London manager for the Northern Electric Company, told the council that the present alarm system is costing the city $1,200 annually for battery upkeep, an expense that could be cut to $200 a year with a proper system in use.

A man may be a genius in telephone or telephone wiring and at the same time he may know nothing about fire alarm systems. Mr. Baulsh told the council when reports of expert knowledge of fire alarms to determine trouble.

Some considerable objection was taken to the outright purchase of a new alarm system at a cost of $15,000. It was quite evident, however, that several thousand dollars might be spent in repairing the present system and a $2,000 item was included in the estimates. This sum will be spent in providing for repairs, or if such measure is found really practical, the money will go to pay the first year's debt on a bond issue.

Will Take Plebiscite.

Ald. Harry Bottrell's lone hand was trumped by economy cards, and his move to help the playgrounds department was supported only by Ald. McCormick.

A plebiscite will likely be taken next December to decide the attitude

MILLER CRITICIZES PROPOSED LAW

High School Regulations Will Be More Ambiguous Than Ever, Principal Says.

Legislation on school law now being discussed in the provincial legislature was made the subject of criticism by Principal E. A. Miller, M. A. of the collegiate institute, yesterday morning.

In connection with the attendance of "county or non-resident students" at the collegiate institute, Principal Miller stated that the proposed regulations were "even more ambiguous than the old regulations."

Students, under the proposed regulations, are to attend the high school or collegiate "reasonably accessible" to them, and therein lies the ambiguity. It will be a hard proposition to determine what students will pay fees as individuals," observed Principal Miller, "and what students will be taken by the authorities here as to his or her place of residence in relation to the high schools and collegiate institutes in the district," continued Principal Miller, "and the county from which the student claims to come will be billed for the cost of educating that student. Then it will be up to the county to pay or repudiate the bill in so far as each individual student is concerned. In the case of a dispute between the county concerned and the city educational authorities, the new regulations provide that it shall be settled by the Judge one year later."

Impossible to Collect.

"This would mean, if the decision favored the county, that in many instances it would be impossible to collect the fees from the individual since he or she might have left the school and his or her place of residence be unknown. Fees collected from students as individuals are always collected at the time they are attending school, and to maintain any machinery to collect fees from individuals one to two years after the period for which they are paid would, naturally, be very costly and practically impossible."

Principal Miller is of the opinion that the charge made on the counties of 80 per cent of the maintenance and capital costs of educating the students is fair and equitable. The fact that the city educational authorities must bear the balance of 20 per cent gives them the right to own the buildings and whole control of the school, apart from any control by the county. Moreover, county students can be refused admittance to the collegiate at any time.

With regard to county representation being placed on the London board of education, Principal Miller was inclined to believe that such a move would hardly come within the regulations because of the fact that for educational purposes London is separated from the rest of the county.

H. B. Beal Comments.

Touching on this same point, Principal H. B. Beal of the technical school pointed out that the county would stand to gain little since much of the local educational system did not concern the county at all. Furthermore, that the board of education was an extraneous body upon the education which pertained to the city itself (which it is not), no consideration for the county in the past, and the system it was interested in would deter the board from extravagant administration.

Principal Miller stated that there are about 200 county pupils attending three units of the collegiate institutes at the present time. Of this number, only two are paying fees as individuals. The fees for these two cases are assessed at the rate of $12 per subject per annum, with a maximum of eight subjects.

Principal H. B. Beal stated that the technical school also has a large number of county pupils, and last year collected $8,000 from Middlesex and other neighboring counties for students attending the technical school.

The proposed school regulations are now being discussed in the legislature and it is quite possible, therefore, that the ambiguous terms of the amendments to the act may be clarified before finally being passed by the house.

ROADS ARE OPENED.

Halifax, N. S., April 2.—With the opening to automobile traffic of all the highways in Yarmouth and Shelburne counties, and the probable early opening of all the highways in the province, Nova Scotia is ahead of the season from a month to six weeks.

LOIS MEREDITH, who is suing Lieut.-Col. Ian Omslow Dennistoun, husband of Almina, Dowager Countess of Carnarvon, for breach of promise and defamation of character, according to the Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune.

Eighty-four German Soldiers are Drowned

Only 5 Bodies Have Been Recovered Following Pontoon Disaster.

Associated Press Despatch.

Berlin, April 2.—It is believed that 84 soldiers perished in yesterday's disaster to a Reichswehr contingent on the Weser. The ministry of defence stated that five bodies had been recovered from the water and that one officer and 78 men of the 100 soldiers known to have been plunged into the river by the sinking of this pontoon were still missing.

The ministry statement recites that 150 soldiers were crammed onto the last of the five pontoon ferries which was only intended to carry 100 men. It was this pontoon which sank.

BULLET WHICH KILLED POLICEMAN IDENTIFIED

Experts' Testimony Closes Case Against Notorious Bandit Chapman.

Associated Press Despatch.

Hartford, Conn., April 2.—After two pistol experts had positively declared that the bullet which killed Patrolman James Skelly in New Britain last Oct. 12, had been fired from a gun identified as that of Gerald Chapman's, the state's murder case against the notorious bandit was completed shortly before noon yesterday.

Directly after the prosecution's case, Nathan O. Freedman, of Chapman's counsel, moved that the indictment be dismissed on the ground that the state had not proven its case against the accused. Judge Newell Jennings denied the motion.

LARGE LAND OWNERS EXPELLED BY SOVIETS

Forced To Part With Estates For Reasons of State.

By EDGAR ANSEL MOWLER, Special Cable to The London Advertiser and Chicago Daily News. Copyright.

Berlin, April 1.—The Soviet Government has issued a decree expelling former large land owners who are still living on their estates, forcing them to migrate to other parts of Russia.

The reason given is that these owners have, in some cases, managed to make the peasants depend on them again and to exert their influence in favor of an anti-Soviet conspiracy. It is admitted that the decree works an injustice in some cases but it is considered necessary for reasons of state.

LONDON WOMAN SEEKS HER LONG-LOST PARENT

Mrs. James Henry Mudge, 86 Dakin street, is making an effort to locate her father, Isaac Wotton, formerly of Plymouth, England, but of whom the family has had no trace for over 31 years except a recent intimation that he was living some place in Quebec province. Mr. Wotton was formerly a sailor, but is believed to have entered commercial life and to have resided in Canada for some years.

Mrs. Mudge, whose maiden name was Laura Wotton, came to London 14 years ago from 45 Tudor road, Newton Abbott, Devonshire, England.

CURRIE DEPLORES EXECUTIONS TALK

Former Canadian Commander States Information Furnished in British Commons Unwise.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal April 1.—Shown a London despatch in which Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, British secretary of war, was credited with stating in the House of Commons in reply to a question, that 25 members of the Canadian Expeditionary force were executed during the war for military offences, five New Zealanders and no Australians, Sir Arthur Currie, formerly commander in chief of the Canadian corps, made the following statement.

It is most unfortunate that any such figures should be given in the cable should have been asked for and it is hard to see what conceivable good anyone can derive from the information conveyed. It seems, moreover, a little hard to explain why such a question should have been asked or answered in the House of Commons without reference to Canada. The matter is one that concerns Canada alone.

Painful Subject

The subject of military executions was always painful, was one never discussed except when necessary and it is lamentable to have it re-awakened. There is, however, another aspect of the matter. The answer given by the Secretary of War makes a most unfair comparison between Canadian and Australian. The government of the dominions never gave up their authority over their own troops, but so far as discipline was concerned this authority was delegated to the chief of the British armies in France. This principle is definitely stated in an agreement made between the war office and the minister of overseas military forces of Canada in 1918. Australia delegated authority on this point less completely than did Canada. For once the court-martial on an Australian soldier could take place without one or more Australian officers being on the court. In the same way it is generally known that no death sentences on Australian soldiers were ever to be approved. While this latter fact was, so far as known, never published in orders and was a matter solely between the British government and the commander-in-chief and his adjutant-general, the situation was perfectly well known and realized.

"It don't wish to make any reflections on the conduct of the Australian court-martial, but it is not to be forgotten that 25 Canadians were executed while 25 Australians were not. It is nothing whatever. If the facts of the case as reported by Canadian Press are correct I consider the British government has committed another stupid blunder and struck a dangerous blow at imperial friendship."

U. S. SHIPPING BOARD SELLS FIVE VESSELS

Long Smouldering Controversy Opened Anew by Sale of Ships.

By DAVID LAWRENCE, Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

Washington, April 1.—The long smouldering controversy as between ownership of a merchant marine has broken out anew.

The decision of the Shipping Board by the close vote of four to three to sell five big ships to the Robert Dollar Lines in the Pacific is the culmination of a series of steps which may bring to an issue in the next congress whether the whole American merchant marine is to be turned over to private interests or whether more safeguards are to be placed around the disposal of the ships now owned by the Federal Government as a result of war questions.

J. MINNES, LYDIA BURNS WIN PRIZES IN EUCHRE

J. J. Minnes and Lydia Burns proved the winners of first prizes in Tuesday's euchre party in the labor temple, given by the Canadian Women's labor party. The consolation prizes were won by Mrs. Scott and H. Webb. Mrs. A. Johnston sang a number of solos, and a lunch was served after the card games were over.

At the end of the winter season, which will be about the middle of May, a grand prize will be presented to the person who scores the highest number of points in the season. Mr. Minnes is ahead at the present time in the race. The prize is a silver flower bowl.

MAYOR BACKED IN HIS MOVE TO OUST FIRE CHIEF AITKEN

Finance Committee Votes Four To Three To Ask Resignation.

MAY BE GIVEN $10,000

Move Comes As Bombshell at Special and Secret Meeting.

John Aitken, veteran chief of the London fire department, must resign from service if a motion passed by No. 1 committee last night is ratified by the city council on Monday. Meeting behind closed doors at a late hour, the finance committee cast a vote of 4 to 3 to demand the chief's resignation.

From storm clouds that have been gathering for some time came a bolt from Mayor G. A. Weniger's crossbow when he moved, at a hastily-arranged after-meeting of the committee, that the chief be ordered to turn in his keys of office.

Three Are Opposed.

Ald. Frank McKay, chairman of the committee, Ald. Thomas Clift and Ald. Robert Carswell supported the mayor. Opposition was made by Ald. Dr. L. H. Douglass, Edwin Smith and Paul Doig.

No conditions were attached to the motion, though it is understood a motion will subsequently be brought in to provide a $10,000 retiring allowance for Chief Aitken. This is not definite, but at least one of the aldermen reported as favoring the chief's resignation has already stated that he would not so vote unless the chief secured a substantial allowance. The chief is entitled to some $7,000 under the superannuation arrangement with the city.

The mayor's motion came as a bombshell last night. The council had already completed a 90-minute session to conclude estimate discussion, and over an hour had been spent in the regular session of No. 1 committee. The agenda was concluded, tenders were dealt with and the committee rose to leave. Chief Aitken and other officials and visitors and the press took their departure.

Hurried Meeting.

The committee was hurriedly called to order, and the mayor's motion tabled. Shortly before midnight, a vote of 4 to 3 in favor of demanding the chief's resignation was reported.

The mayor's consistent antagonism to the present administration of the fire department and organized labor's attitude favorable to the fire fighters' union brought the matter to a head. The mayor's argument is that the chief has been in the city for 44 years and that he is too old for the job.

Chief Aitken's bi-monthly report aroused a bit and organized labor's regular sitting of the committee. The chief reported having suspended Lieut. S. Scruby of No. 2 station for five days because of error made in responding to an alarm.

Only One Erred.

The chief reported that Lieutenant had received an alarm for fire last week, and had taken his company to the corner of Richmond and Dundas street, when he should have reported to Rectory and Dundas, a mile east of Richmond. He had been suspended for mistaking the alarm when all other companies responded correctly.

What's the usual suspension for

SARNIA GROCERS PLAN ASSOCIATION

Hawking One Matter To Be Dealt With by New Organization.

Special to The Advertiser.

Sarnia, April 1.—Grocers of the city decided, at a preliminary meeting held last evening, to organize an association. It is the intention to take up several matters concerning the welfare of the trade, including hawking, establishment of a credit bureau and co-operation in carrying out the egg grading regulations.

TRUCK LOAD OF ALCOHOL SEIZED NEAR BEAMSVILLE

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, April 2.—Word has reached headquarters of the provincial police of seizure of a truck containing 528 gallons of alcohol near Beamsville early yesterday morning. The truck, which left Niagara Falls with its heavy load of alcohol, was said to be making its way to Toronto, and when an attempt was made to intercept it at St. Catharines the driver refused to stop. When near Beamsville the driver of the truck jumped from it and disappeared.

NECK FURS

The Vogue For Spring

The popularity of Furs for Neckwear is large and growing daily. Nothing adds more tone to spring apparel than an appropriate neckpiece of fur.

Our showing for the season includes foxes, from natural red to the high-grade silver varieties, mink, stone marten, sable, ermine, squirrel, etc., are here also in all styles and qualities.

ROSS' LIMITED

MANUFACTURERS

PHONE 1319. 196 DUNDAS STREET.

FOUR BIG SPECIALS

In Coats, Suits, Dresses and Millinery

for Friday, Saturday and Monday. Here you will find a wonderful collection of last-minute styles in Ladies' Ready-to-Wear at most reasonable prices.

Everything in the Store Reduced to Special Prices

The reasons why we can offer you saving from $5 to $8 on a garment: First—We don't pay rent. Second—We are buying on a cash discount basis. Third—We believe in less profit and larger turnover.

The New Coat Fashions

Coats with the new, slender lines, new uses of embroidery and fur borders. Made of the finest charmeuse, Poirat twills, palau crepe and tricotines in all the new spring colors $10.50, $15, $18, $25

NEW ENSEMBLE AND TAILORED SUITS

The smartest expressions of the spring mode in exclusive models for women and misses at special reduction for today and tomorrow only. We can offer $15, $18, $25 you new ensemble suit with crepe lining, at

NEW SPRING AFTERNOON FROCKS

$10.00, $12.50, $16.50 and $19.75

Your dollars will work overtime at this Millinery Sale, madam. Tailored and Trimmed Hats, beautiful new $1.98, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98 colors, worth twice our sale price

WE HAVE ALL KINDS OF FUR CHOKERS ON SALE.

You Can Buy Your Fur Coat Now and Pay During the Summer

Dominion Ladies' Outfitters

247 DUNDAS STREET.

Dispensing

Your health is all important. We make a specialty of compounding prescriptions.

STRONG'S DRUG STORE

184 DUNDAS STREET.

DIAMONDS

Gruen WATCHES Elgin FINE JEWELRY

DIGNIFIED CREDIT

Just walk into our store, select any article that you wish, pay a small payment down and the balance in small weekly instalments—a most convenient way to buy quality jewelry at cash prices. Remember you pay no interest, and the same price is charged whether you use our charge account or pay cash.

PERFECT DIAMONDS	GUARANTEED WATCHES
$25 Diamonds, $5 Down	$10-$20 Watches, $3 Down
$35 Diamonds, $7 Down	$25 Gent's Gruen, $5 Down
$50 Diamonds, $10 Down	$35 Gent's Gruen, $5 Down
$75 Diamonds, $15 Down	$50-$100 Watches, $5 Down
$100 Diamonds, $20 Down	$15 Lady's Watch, $3 Down
$150 Diamonds, $30 Down	$20 Lady's Watch, $3 Down
$200 Diamonds, $50 Down	$25 Lady's Gruen, $5 Down
$300 Diamonds, $80 Down	$50-$100 Lady's, $5 Down

JOHNSTON BROS.

214 DUNDAS STREET

Boys Smoked While In Church Now They Must Go Regularly

Special to The Advertiser.

Goderich, April 1.—Magistrate Reid meted out a unique sentence to three Benmiller youths yesterday. Some Sundays ago, Gordon Vanstone, Roy McWhinney and Charles Harrison, attended divine service at the Benmiller Methodist church. During the service they raised a disturbance by talking, laughing and smoking. On a charge of interrupting a church service they were haled to police court, where the magistrate imposed sentence of an apology to the minister and trustees of the church, also that they must attend church service at this church once a Sunday for six months, reporting the same to the court. Magistrate Reid stated that the good influence of the church was the best cure for such cases.

Eye Strain

is often caused by small errors in vision. By correcting the vision we relieve the strain. Examination costs nothing. Drop in and see us.

LONDON OPTICAL

A.M.D.A.M.S.R.A. Optometrist.
DOMINION BUILDING, 2ND FLOOR
RICHMOND ST.

LITTLE FOLK CHARM WITH GREAT STORY

Anglican Church Members Depict the Missionary Opportunity Awaiting Christians.

A beautiful missionary story was told by little children of six Anglican churches of the city in a splendid pageant presented in Cronyn hall last evening. In depicting the missionary opportunity of the Christian church the little people presented their appeal in a simple and straightforward manner that was charming.

Six instructive scenes were produced, with each of the six churches taking a scene, and the urgent need for increased missionary activity in the home and foreign field was brought home to the large audience in this unique way. Addresses and appeals from the older folk go a long way toward raising money for missions, but not one of their challenges to the public could reach the heart of an audience as did the little folk of last night.

Directs Pageant. Miss Jean Waugh, diocesan secretary of juniors, directed the pageant as a whole, assembling the groups of children, by the way, trained by their own leaders. Rev. A. L. G. Clarke, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, was the chairman of the evening, and in a short explanatory address he added much interest to the evening through his clear explanation of the pageant.

This was followed by an address, which brings the children of the outposts districts of Canada. Throughout this scene attention was called to the system of Sunday school by which brings the children of the outposts districts of Canada.

Then came the pageant proper. The opening scene was presented by a group of children from the St. John's junior auxiliary, who depicted, in lively conversation, the work being done among the white settlers in the outposts districts of Canada.

Throughout this scene attention was called to the system of Sunday school by which brings the children of the outposts districts of Canada. This was followed by an address, which brings the children of the outposts districts of Canada.

The Christ Church children presented an attractive little scene, showing the school in the outposts, supported by the home Sunday school, which brings the children of the outposts districts of Canada.

A crimson curtain was used as a background for each scene, and the most effective for the colorful costumes of the children in the portrayals of India, China, Japan and the Eskimos of Canada showed up to good advantage against its solid white. Each of the cleverly arranged scenes were introduced by a representative of the church making the presentation, who made a short speech on the particular scene, and the following were the heralds: Miss Grace Gibberd, of St. John's; Lawrence Purley, of St. George's; Miss Dorothy Whitehead, of the Church of St. Paul; Miss Dorothy Robinson, of Cronyn Memorial; Miss Helen Dyson, of St. Matthew's; and Miss Dolly Rowley, of St. Paul's.

The Federal Boy Scouts made capable ushers.

GEORGE STEWART DIES AT HOME ON WINDSOR AVE.

George Stewart, 76 years old, a resident of London for the past 15 years, died today at his home, 31 Windsor avenue. Besides his wife, Mrs. Stewart, he was survived by three daughters, Mrs. W. Carr of Sarnia, Mrs. Thomas of W. Carr of Sarnia, and Mrs. George of W. Carr of Sarnia.

Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at his late home. Rev. J. A. Agnew will have charge. Interment is to be made at Woodland cemetery.

"I have just finished putting up a fence for a man who has already had 23 years' use out of it."

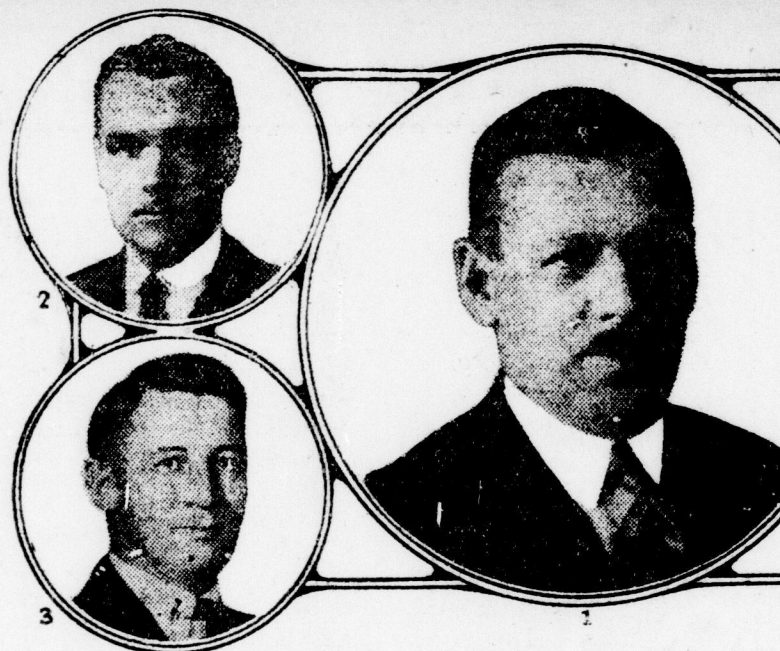

To satisfy my own curiosity, but on as heavy a strain my fence should stand in new, and this old REAL Fence stood it ers like this prove the for-dollar value in

Real Fence

Consult us on your fence proposition.

IDEAL FENCE & SPRING COMPANY OF CANADA, LTD. WINDSOR, ONT.

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY APPOINTMENT EFFECTIVE TODAY.

Shown above are five members of the executive staff of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, who assume new posts today following a reorganization. Number 1 is P. A. McFarlane, general commercial manager.

Number 2 is H. E. Scott, assistant to the vice-president, and a joint chief engineer. Number 3 is J. H. Brace, general traffic manager, appointed general plant manager.

Number 4 is R. Burrows, division manager at London, appointed general commercial manager, with headquarters at Montreal. Number 5 is J. N. Groleau, general supervisor of traffic, appointed general traffic manager.

COMMITTEE TO AID CHURCH MINORITIES

Concluded From Page 1.

be allowed to consider the bill, which was only fresh from the hands of the printers. Col. J. A. Currie, Toronto, urged that the matter should be allowed to stand over until Tuesday to allow members to study what was virtually a new bill.

C. R. McKeown (Cons., Dufferin), who last year sponsored the church union bill, pressed that the proposals should be reported this morning. He did not think any good would come of any further discussion in the private bills committee.

Mr. McKeown's motion to report the bill as drafted by the sub-committee, was carried on the following vote:

For—Armstrong, Berry, Black, Bradburn, Bragg, Callan, Chambers, (Warington), Chambers, Clarke, Clarke (Brockville), Clarke (Northumberland), Ecclestone, Elliott, Fallick, Fisher, Gray, Harcourt, Ireland, Joynt, Keefe, Keith, Kemp, Kennedy, (Peel), Lang, Lethbridge, Lewis, McKeown, Macrae, Mark, Martin, Oakley, Oke, Proulx, Raney, Rankin, Rose, Swell, Spence, Sweet, Taylor, Thomson (Lanark), Tretheway, Wallis, Widdifield.

Against—Carmichael, Currie, Edwards, Fenton, Finlayson, Gardiner, Gray, Hayman, McCallum, McFarlane, McWhinney, Milligan, Nesbitt, Rose, Vaughan, Welch, Wile.

Reviews Chief Clauses. Hon. Mr. Nickle, who had previously reviewed the chief clauses in the drafted bill proposed by the committee. For Presbyterian property the legislation makes provision for a commission of three, on representing non-concurring congregations, one representing the United church and a third to be selected by these groups. This commission has power to review conditions in any locality not above 50,000 population. The commission may settle property belonging to the church, and minorities get buildings. The commission is also given power to enforce any award that it makes.

What the committee asks is that Knox college, that is, the building, be given to the continuing Presbyterian church, and that for a term of three years the United church shall have the right of joint occupancy, and during that term the income from the endowment of approximately $350,000 or so long as the joint occupancy continues shall be available for the maintenance and upkeep of Knox. There shall be a division of the property, half and half, between the two groups, and then after the three years of joint occupancy, Knox, only the income of one half shall be paid to the United church until the dominion commission deals with the Knox, and when that matter comes before the dominion commission, the continuing Presbyterian church will be found by the commission.

In order that the Caven library at Knox might be preserved for all who in the future might desire to study theology, the committee is of opinion that it should be vested in a board of trustees who shall be charged with the maintenance and upkeep of the library. The library is in the building, is to be maintained and heat and light supplied by the continuing Presbyterian church.

These, said Mr. Nickle, were the broad principles that the committee had introduced into the bill as drafted for consideration. There were other changes, he went on, but mostly declaratory. For instance, there is a clause confirming certain provisions of the dominion act, which reads: "As it was assented to on the 19th of July, 1924." The purpose of this is that the legislature is only to be asked to give confirmation of the legislation up to the date of the passing of the dominion act, and not in to the bill a section which might be interpreted to confirm subsequent legislation or amendments to that act as time goes on.

Members would recall, continued Mr. Nickle, that when Queen's university was established in Kingston, it was a Presbyterian college, but in 1911 it was made undenominational by federal act. At that time the arrangements were made by the university that the college should receive $2,000 from the endowment of the university. In event of the theological college ceasing to carry on at Kingston any commission which might be located to a church or non-concurring body, such church or non-concurring body shall not be in a higher position than the Presbyterian church in Canada would have been with respect to the endowment as provided in the dominion act.

In concluding Mr. Nickle said: "In relation to Knox, the building goes to the continuing Presbyterian church, but the endowment is left to the determination of the dominion commission for the reason that the charter was obtained in 1852 at a time when

DETROIT MAN TO ADDRESS LONDON ADVERTISING CLUB

Emmanuel G. Frank, manager of the copy department in Campbell Ewald, the big Detroit advertising agency, will be the dinner speaker tomorrow night before the London Sales and Advertising club. The dinner, which is one of the regular winter dinners of this club, will be held in the Indian room of the Tecumseh House at a quarter past 6. Mr. Frank is expected to speak on advertising in general, and has not been tied down to any particular phase of the profession.

HARRIET S. BLACKBURN PASSES AWAY IN CITY

Daughter of the Late Stephen Blackburn Was Ill Several Weeks.

Miss Harriet Susannah Blackburn, daughter of the late Stephen Blackburn, who was registrar for West Middlesex for a number of years, died yesterday afternoon at Miss Greer's rest cure home following an illness of several weeks. Miss Blackburn is a sister of H. A. Blackburn, local master. She was a prominent resident of Gloucester.

Besides her brother, one sister, Kathleen E. Blackburn, and her mother, who is in her 94th year, survive.

The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from H. A. Blackburn's home at 26 Alma street. Rev. A. L. G. Clarke will have charge of the services. Interment is to be made at Woodland cemetery.

E. V. BUCHANAN LEAVES ON TWO MONTHS' TRIP

Will Sail From New York For Scotland on Saturday.

E. V. Buchanan, manager of the public utilities commission, left this afternoon on a two months' trip to Scotland and the continent.

The commission yesterday afternoon appointed Assistant Manager A. O. Hunt to act in his absence.

That Mr. Buchanan is exceedingly popular in London is evidenced by the fact that the Thames valley municipal golf course, opened last June, is proven by the fact that he tucked away in his baggage some where a number of pictures of the course to show friends and acquaintances on his trip just how beautiful the Forest City really is, and that it is no empty boast by which claim is laid to that title.

Mr. Buchanan, who was accompanied by Mrs. Buchanan and son, Billie, will sail from New York for Scotland on Saturday.

DR. DAVIES TO FINISH SERIES OF SERMONS

Large Numbers Pay Tribute to Noted Divine—Final Sermon Tonight.

Rev. Trevor H. Davies, D.D., pastor of the Timothy Eaton Memorial Methodist church, Toronto, will conclude tonight his series of Lenten sermons on "Great Christian Interpretations," which he has delivered this week in Dundas Center Methodist church.

JUNIOR PING PONG ARTISTS IN TOURNEY AT Y.M.C.A.

Junior ping-pong artists of the Y. M. C. A. are putting on a tournament. The boys have four tables on the top floor of the association building. There the merry hum of the celluloid ball may be heard throughout the day and night, as the players prepare for the finals.

The winners in the boys' department are going to challenge the big boys who play on the ground floor.

WATER SERVICE SHUTOFF SEEN

Commissioners Hint at Drastic Action in Manor, Highland Parks.

Brief, but nevertheless significant, was the comment made at the meeting of the commission yesterday afternoon regarding the unpaid water bill of a Manor and Highland Park citizen.

Manager E. V. Buchanan reported that J. F. Thomson, Jun., had refused to pay the new service charge, and that when the bill was returned to him by the commission for payment he had again sent it back inclosing a check to cover the old meter rate of 35 cents per two months. Instead of the new service charge of $1 for the same period.

"The duty of the commission's official," Chairman Clifford said, "is to Vining, cryptically, 'are to collect the rates. The city rates are so and so, and the late outside the city twice the city rates. That's all there is to it, and it is up to the officials to collect it.'"

"That's correct," replied the other three commissioners in chorus, following to the chairman's categorical question.

The comment upon the bill merely to stand by its new rates, $1 service charge for two months, and 15 cents per 100 cubic feet of water, and presumes action as to the cutting off of the service if residents of Manor Park or any other part of the city for that matter, persist in refusing to pay the newly levied water rates.

The commission decided that the policy of delay being attempted by a number of consumers with regard to the installation of an outside meter box, and the payment of it on the basis of $1 every two months until paid for, would have to be desisted by the consumers, and steps taken to force the meter to be installed by July 1 or have the service cut off.

The stand taken by the commission is that the water sold city consumers is supplied at cost, and that revenue from the waterworks department must perforce be made to meet expenditures.

POLICE WITHOUT TRACE OF CRAZED ATTACKER

Constables Have Kept Nightly Patrol Over Old Traction Bridge.

Police have found no trace of a crazed mulatto who is said to have brutally attacked and attempted to rob two London south residents at the foot of the traction bridge on Sunday and Tuesday night of this week.

The spots where the hold-ups occurred, at the south end of the bridge in a darkened remote section of Richmond street south, is being regularly patrolled by constables during the night. The man, who is believed to have been a mulatto, was seen with a 15-year-old boy, when he attempted to rob him, has apparently forsaken his haunts in that section of the city. Previously, on Tuesday night, attack he was seen in the Carfax crescent vicinity frequently.

HOLD CONCERT TONIGHT.

The annual concert by the Colborne street Methodist church choir, augmented to 55 voices, assisted by Miss Jessie Alexander, noted soloist, and Douglas Featherston, local violinist, will be given tonight in the church.

FIFTY UNEMPLOYED MEN ARE TAKEN ON BY C. P. R.

The ranks of the unemployed on Carling street have been thinned to a number of 50 men, who left this afternoon for track work on the C. P. R.

"The C. P. R. officials are to be commended," stated Superintendent J. C. Spencer of the government employment bureau this morning. "They could have obtained foreigners used to the work from Montreal, but they preferred to give jobs to Canadians and Britishers who were out of work."

CHIEF TO SHELTER FIVE WANDERERS

Magistrate After Viewing the "Rolls," Turns Them Over to Department Head.

Five carefree youths, who quit their native hearths in Hamilton to woo honest toil in greener fields, confronted the searching eyes of the law in London today. Timid, but quite alive to the new scene a courtroom presented, the bivouacked squad was too chagrined to argue that it wasn't a vagrant army.

Railway property has brought many setbacks in the lives of gentlemen of fortune, and unsympathetic history repeated itself in Magistrate Graydon's court. C. N. E. Constable Emmett had collected the boys and wanted their affairs straightened by one vested with authority in such matters.

Cecil Jayhart, Reginald Murphy, Rutherford Hayes, James Morton and Frank Phalen were the members of the slow exhibition into nowhere, and one keen look gave the magistrate the impression that introduced the boys and wanted their affairs straightened by one vested with authority in such matters.

The matter of money was broached, as befits good business, and Jayhart was disclosed as the most influential stockholder. He had $4.40 in his bank book balanced nicely with naughts while the most Phalen could raise was ten cents. Morton was not far behind, having only 84 cents in his pocket while Hayes could demand a dollar's worth of Canadian gold with his lone note.

Chief Birrell was named pilot-in-chief and he will map out a new course for his wards some time today.

Remanded For Week.

Admitting an indecent assault upon a girl of seven, William John Henderson, 151 Wellington street, a war veteran, was remanded a week for sentence. His money was introduced by Howard Cliff, the man's counsel, to show that he has never fully recovered from shock and wounds he received at Cambrai. He accused the girl of having seduced him, and told the jury that his left leg was now in a cast and his right arm was now in a cast and his right arm was now in a cast.

Counsel objected strongly to the court's views that Henderson should be placed in an institution if his mentality is such as the defense sought to prove. Clifford argued that the accused was simple-minded, not vicious, and that a warning would prevent a repetition of the occurrence, and that the general mentality of the accused was normal.

Not a Vagrant. William Babcock has off braved the hazards of a Northern Ontario bush, but it remained for civilization to ransack him. Babcock, bronzed and hardy-looking, stood up in the prisoners' box with a plaid lumberman's reefer slung over one arm, to show he didn't think he was a vagrant.

"I am an unemployed without money," was his definition of himself. "Where did you come from?" "Hamilton."

The backwoodsman will later in the court say that he was a vagrant, but he thought that he was copying the example of the five boys with the hope that the name of the eastern city would open the gates of liberty to him too. Babcock insisted that he was a vagrant.

Walter Nubny and Mrs. Mary E. Poppan, who gave their address as 180 Oxford street, charged under the moral code with making a home an improper place for a girl of 16, were remanded for a week to give their counsel, Mr. McElroy, K. C., a chance to prepare a defence.

Bail was set at $1,500 apiece and the court refused to lower the figure to $1,000 which Mr. McElroy thought was fairer. Fifteen hundred dollars seemed to be a favorite figure with the court, he bantered, but offered no further aid.

Bobbed Hair For Girls.

"Bobbed hair. Oh, yes, bobbed hair. Of course I am in favor of bobbed hair for girls. That is a real girls' hair. Not the old cuts. In my opinion a bobbed head is the ideal from every standpoint for the girl in her teens, but I like the old style of long hair properly coiffured on women."

"Yes, I like playing in Canada," he went on, in answer to a query from the reporter, "but I don't go out to the coast." "Glorious climate, lots of sport, boating, fishing, lot of people and everything you want. Upon my soul, if I were a wonder to me whenever I go out there to find so few people there. Every time I reach the coast I expect to find a colony of you easterners there."

NINE CASES ARE SET FOR TRIAL ON APRIL 7

Will Come Up Before Judge Talbot Macbeth at County Court Sittings.

Nine cases have been set down for trial before Judge Talbot Macbeth at the county court sittings opening at the courthouse on April 7. The list closed yesterday afternoon, Edmund Weld, clerk of the court stated.

Robert Kennedy, blacksmith, is suing Harry Coates over some land on the Wharfedale road. The plaintiff claims that a garage owned by Coates is on his land. This is disputed by the defendant. This is Tennent and Tennent for the plaintiff, Buchner and Ramsay for the defendant.

W. F. Thurlow is suing Thomas Patterson for $236.35 balance due for goods sold and delivered. T. W. Spence is suing the plaintiff and Jarvis and Vining for defendant.

"Do you really believe that you'll ever be able to settle down in that dear old place near Dartmouth?" asked the reporter, for he noticed how enthusiastic the actor was as soon as the show was mentioned. "You are so keen on your work that it will be a break to leave the stage."

ENJOY LIFE'S REAL JOYS IS GREAT ACTOR'S OUTLOOK

Cyril Maude Will Retire in Two Years to Home in Devon.

KEEN SPORTSMAN Likes Bobbed Hair on Girls, But Not the Older Women.

Cyril Maude, Englishman, sportsman, actor, he would probably not be in London today to play here for three nights in his new comedy, "Aren't We All." For forty-two years he has been an actor, gradually earning for himself the sobriquet of "the happiest comedian in the world," both from American and English critics.

During the war he was one of that fine band of English actors and actresses who gave their time and genius to help the men in France. His delicate humor and clever characterization were seen within sound of the boche guns, and probably more appreciated than in the biggest of London and New York houses.

For the last year he has been playing in "Aren't We All" in the Globe theatre, New York, where the critics like the New Yorkers, have taken him to their hearts. So much for the actor. The man is summed up in the first two titles in the first sentence. He is a quiet Englishman, and an exuberant sportsman, carrying his fame modestly, and glowing visibly in every realm of sport.

At the present time Mr. Maude is taking life in his usual philosophic way, and looking forward to the time when he will retire from the stage and become an English squire.

Living on a davenport in his room in the Tecumseh house this morning, Mr. Maude was seen in his dressing room, under his head, and a straight-stemmed bulldog pipe between his lips. Mr. Maude looked the happy philosopher he is.

"There's a little house in Devonshire outside Dartmouth," he said, "that I have just bought. Two more seasons on the stage, this next year, and I'll go and live in it. There are three packs of hounds near me, and I can get 10-pound bass from the garden wall. What more could you want?"

Altho his life, from school days along through the 42 years of theatrical work, Mr. Maude has been a sportsman. In between the scenes, the profession there was always time for a round or some nearby links or a ride with some pack, or a few days in the forest, and in some quiet nook in the country side of old England.

Likes Outdoors. "That's the real reason why I've kept as well as I have," he remarked, "although with a grudge of annoyance for he has a slight cold. 'I was always keen on being outside. It's a pleasure to be in town, you know, and all that sort of thing, but you've got to get away once in a while if you want to keep fit.'"

Like all Englishmen of his class, physical fitness is a creed. To allow oneself to get out of condition is almost "bad form" for him. That is the evidence of something seriously wrong in the social order of the individual.

"What do you think about prohibition as you have heard it in America," the reporter suggested. "I don't know," the Englishman caught the direction of the interviewer's gaze and smiled.

"Well, as far as I am personally concerned," he said, "I have never bothered me at all. All I am going to say on that matter is that I have always been comfortable in New York. You can draw your own conclusions," and he pulled the rug over him a little further as if to shut out an unnecessary topic.

"Do you like bobbed heads, Mr. Maude? Do you think they belong on the heads of women as well as girls?"

Mr. Maude opened his eyes. He makes a habit of closing them when he is resting, as he says the strain of the footlights is very great on the eyes.

He looked quickly at the man beside him. "I like the coast best, Vancouver, Victoria are lovely, especially Victoria. It is just like being home."

"Why don't you go out to the coast?" he asked. "Glorious climate, lots of sport, boating, fishing, lot of people and everything you want. Upon my soul, if I were a wonder to me whenever I go out there to find so few people there. Every time I reach the coast I expect to find a colony of you easterners there."

PLAN LARGE ATTENDANCE FOR "U" SUMMER SCHOOL

Plans for receiving a larger number of students at the summer school of the university of Western Ontario have been completed. Literature has been sent out to prospective students in Western Ontario. Although it is yet early to receive applications for admission, Dr. H. R. Kingston has received several requests for summer school information during the last week.

GOLD WATCH IS OFFERED FOR BEST RADIO SET

S. D. Baby, head of the publicity department of the Rotary Boys' Hobby Fair, announces that a gold watch has been offered by Milton Jackson, of the Jackson Cleaning Company, as a prize for the best radio display at the exhibition.

LONDON BAKERY JOINS BIG MERGER

Neal Company Announced as Part of New Canadian Syndicate.

The Neal Baking company of London is included in the list of six Canadian bakeries, operating ten bakeries in seven cities, according to a statement issued today by Edward L. Bernays of New York.

The combined businesses will be operated under the name of the Northern Baking, Limited, which has already been taken over by the Continental Baking corporation.

Following is a telegram received by The Advertiser today from Mr. Bernays:

"The Northern Baking, Limited, a Canadian corporation of Montreal, has been incorporated in Canada, and has acquired a tendency towards amalgamation in the baking business and are associated with Continental and Northern Baking, Limited."

The bakeries include James M. Aird, Limited, James Strachan, Limited, Dent, Harrison & Sons, Limited, D. M. & G. A. Aird, all of Montreal; The Ideal Baking Company, Limited, of Toronto and The Ideal Baking Company, Limited, of Windsor, St. Thomas, Sarnia, and London, Ont.

The bakeries are being operated under the same management and no material change in the personnel or policy of operation are contemplated. The growing tendency towards amalgamation in the baking business with resultant better service to the consumer is again illustrated in this case.

Beer Parlor Follows Chamber of Commerce. After May 15, the large room in the ground floor of the Tecumseh house now occupied by the chamber of commerce, will probably take on the appearance of a 4.4 cafe. At this is the expectation of hotel officials. When George O'Neill next comes to the city he will decide on the form of decoration and so on for the new restaurant.

HOPE TO HAVE EXAMS IN MEDICINE TRIED HERE

Nine London Students Will Try Canadian Council's Test This Year.

Graduating medical students will try their Canadian councils examinations on June 9. There is a graduating class of nine in London. It is hoped that it will be found possible to have the examinations held in London.

According to regulations, it requires at least ten candidates to have the councils tried here. Dr. W. H. Hill, dean of the institute of public health, said today that an effort is being made to have the local students try the examinations here.

The written papers, of course, are the same throughout Canada. London students try the same examinations as those in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg. The practical examinations in hospital work are almost the same, except that the local students going into a Toronto hospital suffer the disadvantage of strange surroundings, which do not help him in the nervous tension of trying important examinations.

Another factor, that of expense, enters into the purpose of having the finals tried here if possible. If the successful, the graduating class will be saved the expense of a trip to Toronto.

ALL FIRE OFFICERS MAY FOLLOW CHIEF

Concluded From Page 1.

be blamed just as much for this inefficiency talk.

"One thing I have no hesitation in saying, and that is that the chief has given excellent service to the city, and should not be dealt with in this manner. He should get more than his superannuation allowance, and should at least be kept on in an advisory capacity."

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girl was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it was due to you good and will save those doctor's bills." So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have told them the good it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I take my medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me." Mrs. Robert C. MacGregor, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.

A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results.

Gold Watch is Offered for Best Radio Set. S. D. Baby, head of the publicity department of the Rotary Boys' Hobby Fair, announces that a gold watch has been offered by Milton Jackson, of the Jackson Cleaning Company, as a prize for the best radio display at the exhibition.

Gold Watch is Offered for Best Radio Set. S. D. Baby, head of the publicity department of the Rotary Boys' Hobby Fair, announces that a gold watch has been offered by Milton Jackson, of the Jackson Cleaning Company, as a prize for the best radio display at the exhibition.

BEER PARLOR FOLLOWS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Tecumseh House Gives Notice That Rooms Will Be Needed.

After May 15, the large room in the ground floor of the Tecumseh house now occupied by the chamber of commerce, will probably take on the appearance of a 4.4 cafe. At this is the expectation of hotel officials. When George O'Neill next comes to the city he will decide on the form of decoration and so on for the new restaurant.

Weds Indian Rajah; Vicar Turns Laborer; Which-is-Who Twins

Miss Irene Thomas, once elected the most popular girl in Atlanta, Ga., is an excellent baseball player and is sponsoring a hard ball league for girls which will be organized in the southern city this year

Catherine Bourne of Steubenville, Ohio, was one of the many witnesses for the crown against Gerald Chapman, notorious law-breaker, who is now on trial for his life in Hartford, Conn., for the killing of a policeman

Elizabeth Keene, shown above, with her sister Margaret, is to be married to Eliot Holt, son of the millionaire publisher, and well-known New Yorker. The Keene twins, who defy identification, are now in Boston with the Greenwich Follies

Mr. H. Jaxon of London, England, has been appointed director of music for the British Empire Exhibition choir of 200 voices

Lady Guggisburg, wife of the governor of the Gold Coast, left London recently to return to that part of Africa, to make preparations for the reception of the Prince of Wales

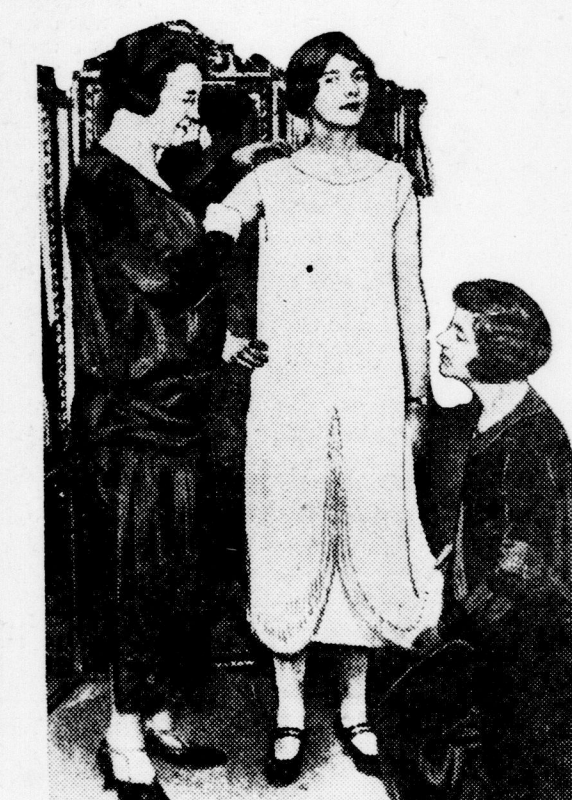

Emma Lindsey Squier, young authoress of the Puget Sound country, who specializes in animal stories, says, "It's the personality of an animal that makes the story." She is pointing to one of her heroes of a recent series

Rev. D. J. Morgan, vicar of a church in South Wales, is acting as a laborer in the excavation work preparatory to the building of a new church. He was aided by sixty of his congregation

Here is shown the latest study of Her Royal Highness, the Rani of Sarawak, wife of the wealthy Indian Rajah of Sarawak. Before her marriage she was Sylvia Brett, daughter of Viscount Fisher of England

Enid Hawksley, kneeling, granddaughter of the famous novelist, Charles Dickens, is now the proprietress of a very smart fashion shop in London, where her exceptional designing has drawn quite a clientele

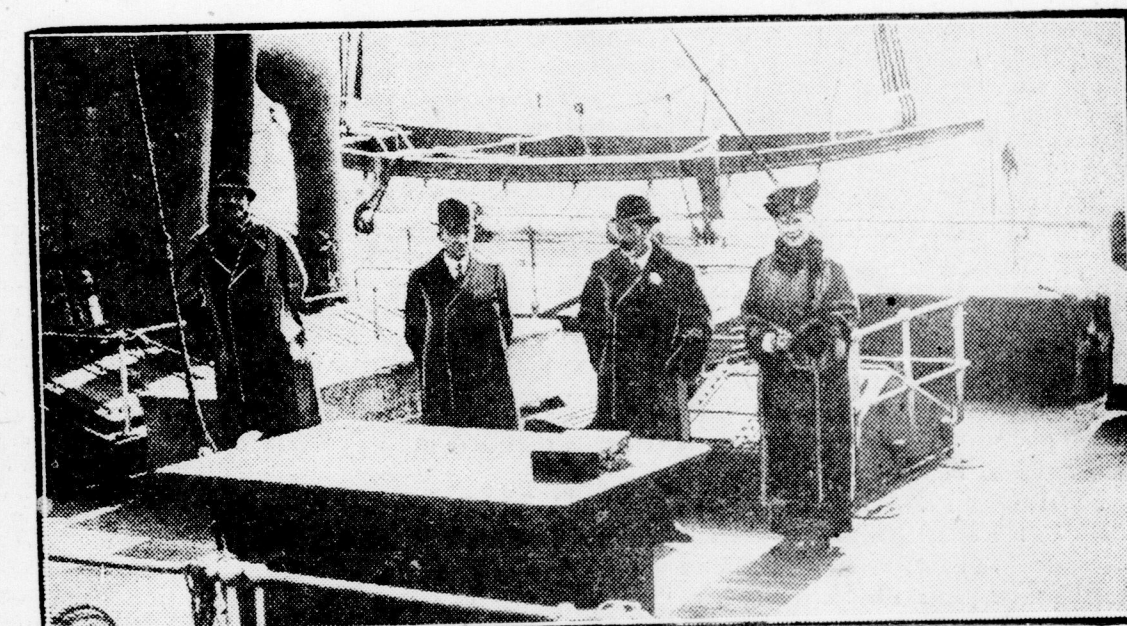

Mr. Joseph Earl of Selby, England, who retired recently, has coaled engines for the last fifty years. He was a well-known athlete and rugby footballer in his youth

Members of the Cambridge University rowing crew, who won the famous annual boat race against Oxford University recently, are shown wading in with their shell through the icy water, after one of their practice spins at Putney

Olga O'Byrne, ten years old, was the winner of the feature race in the Queen City Aquatic meet in Toronto recently. Competing in the 400-metre free style, she overcame a big lead in the final lap and finished with a good margin

King George has gone to the Mediterranean where he will cruise on the royal yacht in an effort to recover his health, seriously impaired during the past winter. This photograph shows His Majesty and Queen Mary aboard the S.S. Biarritz on which they crossed the channel

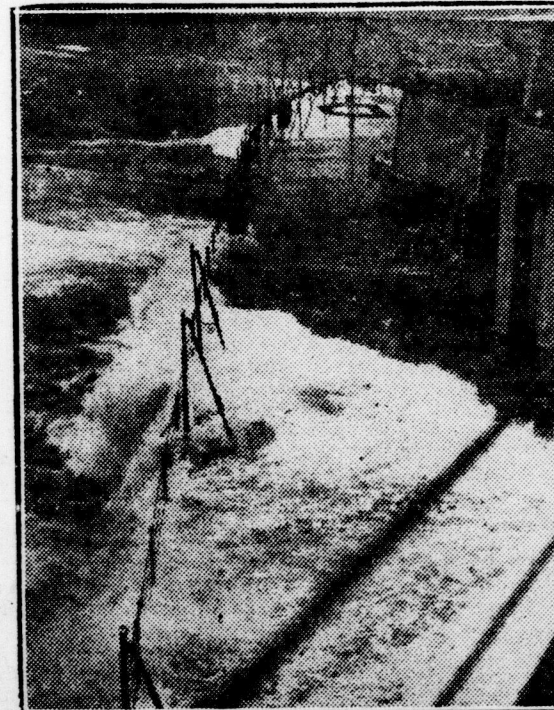

Some of the homeless in the great Susaki fire in Tokio, Japan, are shown camping out with all of their possessions they managed to salvage from the conflagration.

Miss Martha Candler, granddaughter of the Coco-Cola "King", is said to be one of the most athletic heiresses in the United States

Undaunted by the 71 surgical operations he has undergone as a result of his work with the X-ray, Dr. F. R. Baetjer of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, has just announced, after the amputation of his eighth finger, that he will continue his work

Here's the kind of weather the boys of the British navy get. Rough seas are shown breaking over H.M.S. Hood, which is now stationed at Palma

Mr. Cyril Roberts, prominent British artist, is shown with his portrait of Prince George, youngest son of King George of England, which the Prince recently posed for

MORE EVANGELISM IS PASTOR'S PLEA

Annual Thankoffering Meeting Held by Talbot Street Mission Circle.

The Sunday school room of Talbot street church was filled last evening on the occasion of the annual thank-offering meeting of the women's mission circle. The speaker was Rev. W. N. McDonald of Maitland street Baptist church, and he made a strong plea for a fuller realization of the great commission to evangelize the world. To do this it was necessary for the people in Canada to realize their oneness with those whom they were seeking to convert, and this feeling must be manifest right here at home.

"We must come to the point where we can make the humblest brother and sister feel at home," said the speaker. "When we come to the house of the Lord, we are all brothers in one Lord. It takes grace to do that and it may go against the grain, but if we are going to be powers for God we must pass through Samaria, even as the Master did. That feeling of unity in the Lord will break down our class lines, and will cause us to quit dividing our work into sections, such as home, foreign and western missions, because we are all one in one work under one Lord."

Doctrine Essential.

"Is our effort going to be the conception of a life or the conception of a doctrine? If you don't have doctrine you can't have life. Paul says that Jesus died; that's history, a matter of record. However, further and says He died for our sins—that's doctrine. There are some who tell us today that we must restate our faith in a new way, but what is needed more than anything else is to restate the old truths with power. The gospel does not need to be simplified or changed because Christ never made a statement about salvation that could not be understood. There is dynamic energy in the old story about the blood of Christ shed for the sins of the world. It has never been worn out. We have only one message for the world, and that is regeneration through the power of God."

Mr. McDonald was certain that if sound doctrine were taught today there would be fewer people ready to run after every new and strange doctrine that was presented in the land.

Made Life Members.

"Salvation is not something that needs fireworks and man-power, to make it operative. It is something that appeals to the reason that God has put inside a man's head. The trouble today is that there are many who will not give their tongues a rest and their brains a chance to work. They should remember the words of God, 'Be still, and know that I am God.' It is so easy to drink in the great depths of God's tuition. The world is living in sin and the remedy is the Christ of God." The mission circle of the foreign missionary society, and the rest of the evening Miss Agnes McCallum was made a life member of the home missionary society, and Miss Bella McCallum of the foreign missionary society. Mrs. Arthur Greenslade presided at the meeting and selections were given by the mission band and the church choir.

RAILROAD PURCHASE APPROVED BY SENATE

Michigan Senate Favours Buying
Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Branch.

Lansing, Mich., April 2.—Purchase of the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee railroad, a branch of the old Grand Trunk system, by the state, was approved by the state senate yesterday without a dissenting voice. Passing the Howarth resolutions over the protest of Grand Trunk representatives who appeared Tuesday before the senate committee on railroads and regulations, the senate thus put the matter squarely before the legislature.

Administration forces in backing and advancing the Howarth resolutions declare it is their purpose to secure from the Grand Trunk release of the line, or at least to have the state cancellation of the contract under which the road operates at the present time.

CATTLE DISEASE RESEARCH GRANT INCREASED BY HALF

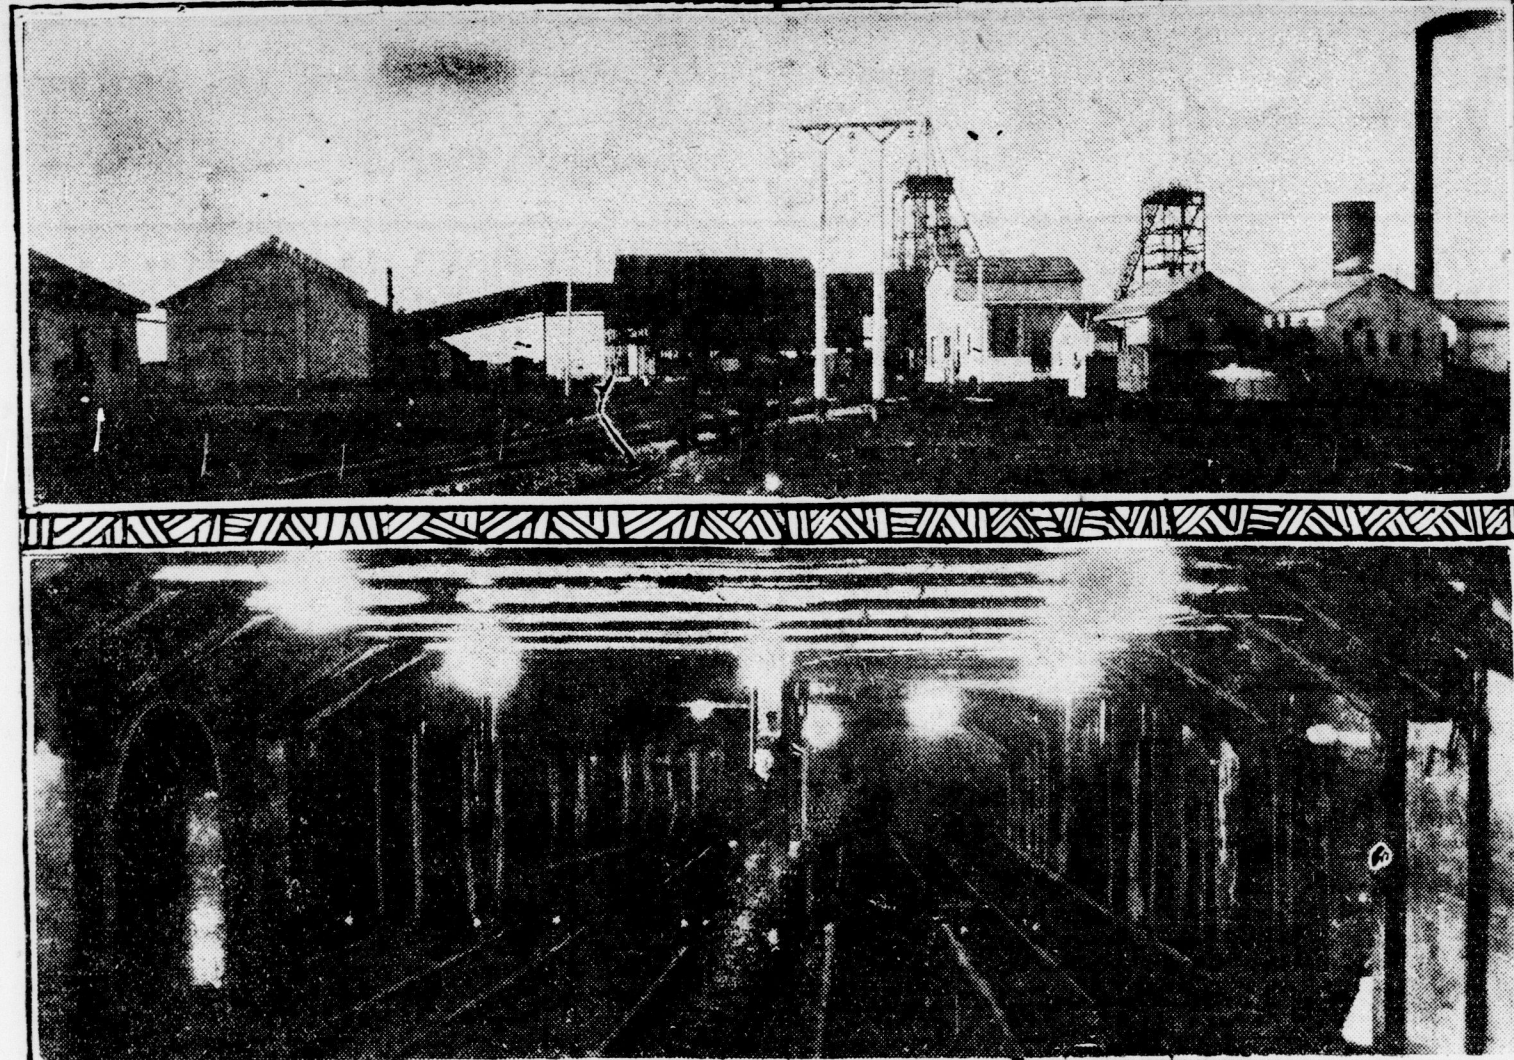

Associated Press Despatch.
London, April 2.—Over one and one-quarter millions sterling have been paid for compensation last year in connection with 1,440 outbreaks of cattle disease. Ten thousand pounds were granted by the government last year for research work on these diseases, but this year the grant has been raised to £15,000.

DR. JAMIESON TO SPEAK.

Dr. David Jamieson, M.L.A. for South Grey and chairman of the special committee investigating agricultural conditions in Ontario, will speak tomorrow to the London Kiwanis club. About fifty farmers from the county have been invited to attend the luncheon in the Tecumseh house to hear Dr. Jamieson speak.

Woman Afraid to Eat Anything

"I was afraid to eat because I always had stomach trouble after meals. Since taking Adlerika I can eat and feel fine." Mrs. A. Howard, ONE spoonful Adlerika removes GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Removes old waste matter from intestines and makes you feel happy and cheerful. Excellent for obstinate constipation. The Standard Drug, Ltd.—Advt.

Two views of No. 1 B mine at Bridgeport in the Glace Bay area, one of the collieries shut down because of the dispute between the miners and the British Empire Steel Corporation. The mine runs a mile and a quarter under the sea. It is fitted with electric light; the men and coal are transported in electric chairs and baths are provided for the men. Surface and underground views are shown.

GLACE BAY COLLIERY CLOSED DURING WAGE DISPUTE.

RUSH TO FLORIDA DUE TO ABOLITION OF TAXES

John S. Moore Returns From South and Tells of Conditions.

John S. Moore, manager of the London & Western Trusts Company, has returned from spending a month in Gainesville, Florida, where his son is attending the state university. Mr. Moore admits that he escaped from Florida without making an investment in real estate, a fairly difficult task because that state is just now in the throes of one of the greatest real estate booms the south has ever seen.

Questioned on this point, Mr. Moore admitted that it was an absolute fact, and that a person would long to find it out. "The reason is not hard to see," remarked Mr. Moore, "and it is probably the direct outcome of the legislation passed there a year ago, whereby they wiped out all income taxation and inheritance taxes. It was really a state invitation to all the people of means from other cities in the States to come down and live in Florida, under the new system of the state. Where a few years ago it was not possible to travel through some of the sand thoroughfares over five miles an hour, one now finds the paved roads running practically all over the state of Florida."

In regard to business conditions, Mr. Moore had little to say. His view had been principally on the commercial or manufacturing center, being known on account of it being the seat of the state university.

TRAPPED MINERS' FATE LEARNED BY GEOPHONE

Instrument Confirms Fear That
All 38 Men and Boys
Have Perished.

Associated Press Despatch.
Newcastle, England, April 2.—Military engineers today brought to Chatham a geophone, an instrument constructed on the principle of the stethoscope, in the hope of being able to ascertain from sounds below if any of the 38 miners who were caught in the Montague colliery by a rush of water several days ago were alive. Nothing was heard through the instrument and this was taken by the people of Seabwood where the mine is located, as confirming their fears that all the men and boys below have perished.

Today was the first time the geophone, which was much used during the world war, was applied to a mine disaster.

N. Y. AND ONTARIO RY. ASSETS ARE $100,039,944

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, April 2.—The report of the Ontario and Western Railway Company for the year ending Dec. 31 last, made public here today, shows total assets of $100,039,944, against $89,451,895 at the end of the previous year. Profit and loss surplus was $7,515,074, as contrasted with $7,493,271 for 1923. The net income for the year was $1,813,348, earned on the outstanding common stock, compared with 21 cents a share in 1923.

WOMEN OF URUGUAY TO GET VOTING RIGHT

By CLAUDE O. PIKE.
Special Cable To The London Advertiser and Chicago Daily News, Copyright.
Montevideo, April 2.—The women of Uruguay will be given the right to vote within a year, Baltasar Brum, former president of Uruguay, told delegates to the congress for Christian work in South America in an address Tuesday night. This action will make Uruguay the second country in the western hemisphere to grant suffrage to women.

On the Road with the Majors

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, April 2.—The Yankees yesterday defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers at Nashville, Tenn., by the healthy tally of 10 to 7, and also defeated a jinx, in the view of Manager Huggins. He was enthused because the Yankee fusillade of eighteen hits was accomplished largely off left-handed pitching—the accepted nemesis for the Yankees most powerful hitters.

The New York Giants, idle yesterday, today will open a four-day series with the Memphis team of the Southern league at Memphis, Tenn. A ninth-inning batting rally in five runs gave the Cleveland Indians an 8 to 6 victory over the Rochester International at Savannah, Ga., yesterday. Bobby Knobe, playing first base instead of Knowles, who is suffering from a sore arm, tripled with two on for the winning runs. Speaker also was out of the game, suffering from a sore throat.

The Detroit Tigers beat the Augustus team of the South Atlantic league 4 to 3 at Augusta, Ga., yesterday. The Tigers were scheduled to rest today and will meet the Cincinnati Reds tomorrow.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the Mobile Bears, 13 to 11, at Mobile, Ala., yesterday. The Sox had fourteen hits and made all but one count. In St. Petersburg the National league Boston Braves wiped out the St. Pete Saints, 16 to 2, profiting by a multitude of errors. Joe Ozoroski skil pitched for five innings and held the Saints runless, and then Mutch pitched the last four sessions. The Pittsburgh Pirates were considerably "clawed up" by the Vernon Tigers yesterday in the first game of their series at Los Angeles. Ray Kremer, the Pirates pitcher, walked a batter in the ninth inning when the bases were jammed, and gave the coast team the one run they needed. The score was 9 to 5. A 3 to 5 tie in the tenth inning of the Chicago Cubs-Oakland game at Oakland yesterday with the bases full was broken, when Grover Alexander singled and scored Weiss and McCauley and gave the Cubs the game, 7 to 5.

Red Faber and Holts Thurston did a thorough job on the mound for the Chicago White Sox at New Orleans yesterday.

Cardinals Win Game.

The St. Louis Cardinals won a game from the Seals 10 to 8 at San Francisco in chilly weather yesterday. The Browns lost to the Cincinnati Reds, 7 to 4, after losing in six of nine innings at Jacksonville, Fla. Reports from New Orleans, where the Washington Senators play the local Southern Association entry today, say that Manager Harris is not losing much sleep over the five defeats the champions have suffered in their six games with the Giants. While they have, of course, played to win all of them, it was said the players have been warned by Harris not to take any undue chances on the rough fields some of the games have been staged on.

VOYAGE OF MISHAPS ENDS AFTER 72 DAYS

Danish Freighter Arrives at Boston—Hard Hit Off Scotland.

Associated Press Despatch.
Boston, April 2.—Ending a voyage which began 72 days ago, the Danish freighter Anna Jensen arrived here yesterday after a series of mishaps off the coast of Scotland, which threatened to send the ship with all hands to the bottom. Officers and men frankly admitted that when they were drifting helplessly in heavy seas, with a disabled rudder, a smashed stern frame, a leak, which was flooding the stern and in imminent danger of being hurled against the precipitous cliffs, none ever expected to reach Boston.

Hurrying makeshift repairs the vessel was saved from wreck by the crew in the shadow of the cliffs and limped into Aberdeen, Scotland, where five weeks were necessary to refit her and send her on her way.

VICE-ADMIRAL SEYMOUR DIES IN LONDON, ENGLAND

Associated Press Despatch.
London, April 2.—Vice-Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymour, second sea lord and chief of naval personnel, died today. He was born Aug. 29, 1867, the son of the third baronet, Sir M. Culme-Seymour.

Sir Michael served as a rear admiral in the battle of Jutland, commanded the Black Sea and Caspian squadron in 1919, and was commander-in-chief of the north America and West Indies station from 1923 to 1924.

ANALYSIS FAILS TO SOLVE DOUBLE DEATH MYSTERY

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, April 2.—Searching analysis of the organs of Nathan McIlmoyle and Mrs. Rose Kahn, whose dead bodies were found in a house at Port Erie Beach on March 2 last, has failed to throw any light whatever upon the cause of the double fatality. Professor L. J. Rogers, provincial analyst, who has been engaged in the work for more than two weeks, reported today to Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general, that no trace of poison had been found in the stomach of either nor in food in the house, nor was any carbon monoxide in the air of the room. McIlmoyle's widow and family live near Peterboro, Ont. Mrs. Kahn's husband is a well-to-do merchant of Buffalo, N.Y.

Goitre

Great interest attaches to reports of a remarkable method for treating goitre recently demonstrated at the W. T. B. Laboratory, 3990 Minty Block, Battle Creek, Mich. It is used by the patient herself in her own home and it is said that the largest and most hideous goitres begin to recede almost in a day. They gradually get smaller until in three or four weeks they are often gone entirely. The treatment is perfectly safe for anyone to use and many believe it will prove the long sought specific for all goitres. A little book issued by the laboratory explains the method fully and will be mailed free for the asking to anyone interested.—Advt.

This Plainly Shows How This Remarkable Home Treatment Removes All Trace of Goitre, Leaving Neck Smooth and Natural.

WESTERN FLOOD SITUATION SERIOUS

Residents Are Forced to Leave
Homes as Assiniboine
Rises.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Man., April 2.—Manitoba and Saskatchewan are facing one of the most serious flood situations in many years, residents of many districts in the affected areas having been forced to leave their homes, while railway transportation has been badly disrupted by washouts.

Portage La Prairie, which suffered greatly from floods two years ago, again is menaced by the rising of the Assiniboine river. Part of the town already is under water and to protect its roadbed through the district the Canadian Pacific Railway company is reinforcing its levee.

Since that time attempts have been made by sailing vessel, steamship, reindeer dog sleds and even by balloon. All these endeavors, with the notable exception of Peary's in 1909, failed.

Only six persons will actually make the flying attempt to gain the North Pole—Captain Amundsen and Mr. Ellsworth, each an observer in one of the planes, a German, a Norwegian and a Lieut. Dietrichson, Norwegian naval lieutenant, and two mechanics, Oscar Omdal, a Norwegian, and Herr Feucht, a German. All other members of the expedition will remain on the S. S. "Farn."

Food For 30 Days.

The Danish Islands are about 600 miles from the Pole. The planes are expected to reach about 100 miles from the Pole, where they will be refueled. The expedition will be carried to make the proper observations both during the flight and at the North Pole. The aeroplanes will be assembled and tied to trip made at King's Bay, Spitzbergen.

Mounted Police Make Seizure in Farmhouse Near Montreal.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, April 2.—One of the biggest raids ever undertaken against counterfeiters in Canada was staged by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at a farmhouse some three miles beyond St. Lawrence, Que. parish, here yesterday, when they seized $150,000 worth of counterfeit $10 bills, at least 500,000 cut papers of the same size ready to be printed, a foot and power driven printing press of the most up-to-date design and other paraphernalia, and arrested seven men.

KINGSTON BANK MANAGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Kingston, April 2.—Francis Edward Dench, manager of the Kingston branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, died at his home here early this morning, following an illness of some three months duration. The late Mr. Dench, who was 51 years of age, was born in Windsor, Ont., the son of the late T. Q. Dench in that city. He had been in the service of the Bank of Commerce for the last 35 years, originally joining the branch at Windsor and serving in New York, New Orleans, Hamilton, Victoria, Charlottetown, St. Johns, Nfld., Toronto and Kingston. He is survived by his widow, formerly Mary Alice Hunt, of Cobourg, two children, his mother and three sisters.

EGYPTIAN KING OPENS GEOGRAPHICAL CONGRESS

Associated Press Despatch.
Cairo, Egypt, April 2.—King Fuad yesterday opened the International geographical congress. The opening took place in the opera house, which was crowded with delegates. Zikar Pasha, the premier, delivered a speech in which he welcomed the visitors to Egypt in the name of King Fuad. Prof. Nicola Vacchelli, director of the institute for military geography at Florence, Italy, spoke on the objects of the congress, alluding specifically to such subjects as unification of map scales, conventional signs and the spelling of names.

AVIATORS PREPARING FOR NORTH POLE DASH

Man's Greatest Venture Into Unknown Will Take Place in May.

600-MILE TRIP

Two Machines To Leave Norway—Will Be Gone Two Days.

Oslo, Norway, April 2.—Man will make his biggest plunge into the unknown next May when two aeroplanes jump off the icepack north of Spitzbergen for the North Pole. The planes are expected to traverse the 600 miles to the top of the world in a non-stop flight of from seven to eight hours. The expedition, which is under the direction of the Norwegian Aero club, will leave Tromsø, one of the most northern harbors of Norway, this week. The party will voyage to King's Bay, Spitzbergen, aboard a Norwegian naval transport and a commercial oil burner.

Toward the end of April or the beginning of May the expedition will proceed to the Danish islands, which lie off the coast of Spitzbergen just under the 80th latitude. The aeroplanes will fly there from King's Bay, accompanied by the transport.

Should open water be found beyond the Danish Islands, the transport will carry the expedition as far north as possible. It is possible that the hop-off will be made from the deck of the transport from a position above the 80th latitude.

Arrived at the North Pole, the exploring party will descend and remain for 24 hours to make soundings and observations and then will attempt the return flight to the Danish Islands.

$80,000 For Planes.

As the moment for the expedition's departure from Tromsø draws near all the Northland is astir. This snow-blanketed city, though far to the south of the Arctic, has been the scene of the gathering of the members of the exploring party. From America, Italy, France, Germany, Norway and Sweden they come. The newspapers are full of the details of the expedition's plans. Much space has been devoted to Ellsworth, the wealthy American explorer, who raises the $80,000 needed to buy the two aeroplanes, among his New York friends.

The public is waiting, with its eye on hand, to purchase the special North Pole flight stamps, issued by the Norwegian government to help defray the cost of the expedition.

When the two ships, the "Farn," a Norwegian naval transport of about 500 tons, and the "Hoboy," a 1,000-ton oil burner—leave Tromsø this week, there will be used a new era in polar exploration. The struggle to reach the North Pole began nearly 400 years ago when the Englishman, John Davis, first attempted to attain the pinnacle of the earth.

Since that time attempts have been made by sailing vessel, steamship, reindeer dog sleds and even by balloon. All these endeavors, with the notable exception of Peary's in 1909, failed.

Only six persons will actually make the flying attempt to gain the North Pole—Captain Amundsen and Mr. Ellsworth, each an observer in one of the planes, a German, a Norwegian and a Lieut. Dietrichson, Norwegian naval lieutenant, and two mechanics, Oscar Omdal, a Norwegian, and Herr Feucht, a German. All other members of the expedition will remain on the S. S. "Farn."

Food For 30 Days.

The Danish Islands are about 600 miles from the Pole. The planes are expected to reach about 100 miles from the Pole, where they will be refueled. The expedition will be carried to make the proper observations both during the flight and at the North Pole. The aeroplanes will be assembled and tied to trip made at King's Bay, Spitzbergen.

Mounted Police Make Seizure in Farmhouse Near Montreal.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, April 2.—One of the biggest raids ever undertaken against counterfeiters in Canada was staged by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at a farmhouse some three miles beyond St. Lawrence, Que. parish, here yesterday, when they seized $150,000 worth of counterfeit $10 bills, at least 500,000 cut papers of the same size ready to be printed, a foot and power driven printing press of the most up-to-date design and other paraphernalia, and arrested seven men.

KINGSTON BANK MANAGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Kingston, April 2.—Francis Edward Dench, manager of the Kingston branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, died at his home here early this morning, following an illness of some three months duration. The late Mr. Dench, who was 51 years of age, was born in Windsor, Ont., the son of the late T. Q. Dench in that city. He had been in the service of the Bank of Commerce for the last 35 years, originally joining the branch at Windsor and serving in New York, New Orleans, Hamilton, Victoria, Charlottetown, St. Johns, Nfld., Toronto and Kingston. He is survived by his widow, formerly Mary Alice Hunt, of Cobourg, two children, his mother and three sisters.

EGYPTIAN KING OPENS GEOGRAPHICAL CONGRESS

Associated Press Despatch.
Cairo, Egypt, April 2.—King Fuad yesterday opened the International geographical congress. The opening took place in the opera house, which was crowded with delegates. Zikar Pasha, the premier, delivered a speech in which he welcomed the visitors to Egypt in the name of King Fuad. Prof. Nicola Vacchelli, director of the institute for military geography at Florence, Italy, spoke on the objects of the congress, alluding specifically to such subjects as unification of map scales, conventional signs and the spelling of names.

They will carry a reserve ration of two pounds of food per day per man for 30 days. It will consist of various concentrated foods, with much chocolate and malted milk tablets.

No one is expected to be disappointed. Each believes that the Pole will be reached and the explorers back at their base within two days, after the hop-off. Should one plane become disabled the other could carry all six men back to the base. That is the reason why two planes are to be used, and why each will start out with but three passengers in its cockpit.

The aeroplanes were built especially for the North Pole flight at the Dornier plant, in Pisa, Italy. They are all-metal machines constructed of duralumin and fabric-covered material claimed to be as light as aluminum and as strong as steel. The planes each carry two Rolls-Royce engines, each engine with a horsepower of 350. Their span is 52 feet and length 32 feet. They are equipped with neither wheels nor ice runners. Their bottoms are fashioned like sleds, enabling them to land on either water or snow-covered ice.

LONDONER HEADS CHINESE COUNCIL

Dr. Wallace Crawford Given
Post on Health Education
Organization.

Dr. Wallace Crawford of London, Canada, now in China, writes Dr. Hill, of the institute of public health, from Kiating Sze, China, that he has been made head of the West China council on health education, an organization dealing with 110,000,000 people.

As the moment for the expedition's departure from Tromsø draws near all the Northland is astir. This snow-blanketed city, though far to the south of the Arctic, has been the scene of the gathering of the members of the exploring party. From America, Italy, France, Germany, Norway and Sweden they come.

The newspapers are full of the details of the expedition's plans. Much space has been devoted to Ellsworth, the wealthy American explorer, who raises the $80,000 needed to buy the two aeroplanes, among his New York friends.

The public is waiting, with its eye on hand, to purchase the special North Pole flight stamps, issued by the Norwegian government to help defray the cost of the expedition.

When the two ships, the "Farn," a Norwegian naval transport of about 500 tons, and the "Hoboy," a 1,000-ton oil burner—leave Tromsø this week, there will be used a new era in polar exploration. The struggle to reach the North Pole began nearly 400 years ago when the Englishman, John Davis, first attempted to attain the pinnacle of the earth.

Since that time attempts have been made by sailing vessel, steamship, reindeer dog sleds and even by balloon. All these endeavors, with the notable exception of Peary's in 1909, failed.

Only six persons will actually make the flying attempt to gain the North Pole—Captain Amundsen and Mr. Ellsworth, each an observer in one of the planes, a German, a Norwegian and a Lieut. Dietrichson, Norwegian naval lieutenant, and two mechanics, Oscar Omdal, a Norwegian, and Herr Feucht, a German. All other members of the expedition will remain on the S. S. "Farn."

Food For 30 Days.

The Danish Islands are about 600 miles from the Pole. The planes are expected to reach about 100 miles from the Pole, where they will be refueled. The expedition will be carried to make the proper observations both during the flight and at the North Pole. The aeroplanes will be assembled and tied to trip made at King's Bay, Spitzbergen.

Mounted Police Make Seizure in Farmhouse Near Montreal.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, April 2.—One of the biggest raids ever undertaken against counterfeiters in Canada was staged by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at a farmhouse some three miles beyond St. Lawrence, Que. parish, here yesterday, when they seized $150,000 worth of counterfeit $10 bills, at least 500,000 cut papers of the same size ready to be printed, a foot and power driven printing press of the most up-to-date design and other paraphernalia, and arrested seven men.

KINGSTON BANK MANAGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Kingston, April 2.—Francis Edward Dench, manager of the Kingston branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, died at his home here early this morning, following an illness of some three months duration. The late Mr. Dench, who was 51 years of age, was born in Windsor, Ont., the son of the late T. Q. Dench in that city. He had been in the service of the Bank of Commerce for the last 35 years, originally joining the branch at Windsor and serving in New York, New Orleans, Hamilton, Victoria, Charlottetown, St. Johns, Nfld., Toronto and Kingston. He is survived by his widow, formerly Mary Alice Hunt, of Cobourg, two children, his mother and three sisters.

EGYPTIAN KING OPENS GEOGRAPHICAL CONGRESS

Associated Press Despatch.
Cairo, Egypt, April 2.—King Fuad yesterday opened the International geographical congress. The opening took place in the opera house, which was crowded with delegates. Zikar Pasha, the premier, delivered a speech in which he welcomed the visitors to Egypt in the name of King Fuad. Prof. Nicola Vacchelli, director of the institute for military geography at Florence, Italy, spoke on the objects of the congress, alluding specifically to such subjects as unification of map scales, conventional signs and the spelling of names.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING PLAN IS OPPOSED

Finance Committee Votes
Down Proposal of Ald.
Doig.

The finance committee of the city council does not favor daylight saving time and a negative motion will go forward to the council on Monday. At the regular meeting of the committee last night a motion by Ald. Paul Doig, calling for daylight saving time during June, July and August, was voted down, only the mayor and Ald. Douglass supporting the mover.

"It's a hardship on the housewife and the school children," declared Ald. Edwin Smith. "Why, children will be going to school before their fathers go to work!"

"Where?" came the query. "Why, the railwaymen will be going to work on regular time. Yes, and there are some right around this committee who will be doing the same," put in Chairman Frank McKay.

Calls For Vote.

"Teas and nays," called Ald. Douglass. A letter from the London Labor party, protesting against the introduction of summer time, was read.

T. G. Meredith, city solicitor, reported that no authority could be given No. 1 committee to investigate the affairs of the housing commission. Ald. McKay pointed out that the committee was not shirking responsibility and that the housing commission was the right body to organize a probe.

Knollwood Park's application for a fire alarm extension was granted and action will be taken to have the complete system investigated.

Fee Permitted.

A $5 fee for auction sales of purebred cattle will be permitted in future, with the cattlemen's organization bringing in an amendment from out of town if they wish, without extra charge. This move was taken to get away from the necessity of an annual auctioneer having to pay a $50 license fee for one day's operations in the city.

The mayor's bicycle license scheme will be further probed by a resolution sent out by the council. Reports from house movers may be requested by special bylaw, following information from the Chatham city council.

Ald. Douglass was supported in his move for cleaning up the city to prevent fire hazards. He suggested that owners of unidy buildings be assessed for cost of fire insurance in these structures, should they fail to clean up premises when ordered. Information from the New York city council on the matter will be sought.

WESTERN FAIR EXECUTIVE HEARS COMMITTEE REPORT

Recommendations made by the various Western Fair committees were approved by the executive at a meeting held in the fair office yesterday afternoon with President J. H. Saunders presiding.

Although no money has been added to any of the projects, in several of the departments noticeably horticulture and light shows, Secretary Jackson stated.

The minutes of all the committee meetings were read by the secretary and given the approval of the executive.

HAD BOILS ALL OVER HIM

There is only one way to get rid of boils and boils and boils right to the seat of the trouble—the blood—as the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.

THE WORLD OF SPORT

Wossa Meet To Be Staged On New University Oval

Track Now Needs Only Settling To Be Fit For Use.

INTEREST GROWING

The 1925 Wossa track meet will be held on Western University's new oval, it was announced by Secretary Dr. Smith last night.

The meet is scheduled for May 16. The new track on the lower campus at Western needs only settling to be fit for use. The grading was done last year, and the oval track was raised in. It incloses Western's gridiron, but this will hardly be available next fall, despite the fact that a patch of grass was sown in the inclosure before winter set in.

The new track has been well constructed, and for the first time Wossa athletes will have "times" that will be accepted as official. It is a quarter-mile oval and has a 100-yard straightaway.

The annual banquet will also be held at Western, so that the Wossa athletes will spend the whole day out at the university which, with its beautiful setting, will be looking its very best by the time the meet rolls around.

The meet will not differ much from that of last year in its character. There will be three divisions as before. The winners last year were:

Senior—Central college.
Intermediate—London technical.
Junior—Sarnia, C. I.

Despite the fact that the Wossa track meet has been going for four seasons now, there is every indication of still increasing interest, and this year may witness a greater number of schools represented than ever before.

SEEK EARLY REVISION OF BOAT CLASSIC RULES

Associated Press Despatch.
London, April 1.—Saturday's boat race between the Oxford and Cambridge crews, which was won by the Oxford crew, is expected to lead to a revision of the rules governing the classic event, with a view to preventing recurrence of such incidents.

A number of old oarsmen of both Oxford and Cambridge propose to hold a meeting for discussion of the question. The initiative was taken by Cambridge, the winner of Saturday's race.

Gibbons, Tunney Sign For Battle

Both Agree To Post Forfeits of $10,000.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, April 1.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight, and Gene Tunney, United States light heavyweight champion, will meet in a 15-round match at the Polo Grounds here on the night of June 12. Articles of agreement were signed today by the managers of the two principals, and Jimmy Donnelly, matchmaker of the Polo Grounds, A. C. Gibbons will receive 20 per cent of the gate receipts and his share of the purse, while Tunney will receive 20 per cent. Both fighters agreed to post forfeit fees of $10,000.

Associated Press Despatch.
Philadelphia, April 1.—Mike Ballinero, Bayonne, N. J., was crowned junior lightweight champion of the world last night, receiving the judges' decision over Steve (Kid) Sullivan, Brooklyn, the titleholder, at the end of their ten-round bout.

Open Ball Field Honoring Gowdy, First To Enlist

Associated Press Despatch.
Pittsburgh, April 1.—The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

The new ball field, named in honor of Hank Gowdy, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was dedicated last night by the city of Pittsburgh.

GREB-DELANEY MAY GET MILK FUND MAIN BOUT

Tunney's Manager Passes Wells Up For Softer Pickings.

By FAIR PLAY. (Copyright, 1925.)

New York, April 1.—The proposed Tunney-Gibbons match is off. This shows that Billy Gibson has not lost his cunning.

Gene is developing in weight and strength and hitting power, but just at this stage of his career a fight with the giant negro would be the worst arrangement that could be made for him.

It looks as though a Tunney-Gibbons bout were sure for New York this summer, and that ought to be a corker.

So Harry Wells goes into the discard unless he is willing to meet George Geddy. April 1 was the date which Paddy Mullins set as being willing to wait for Dempsey. Now it is clear he will have to wait much longer than that if he waits for Dempsey. Poor Will!

A great fighter going to waste! It would not be at all surprising if Tex Rickard passed up the heavyweights arranged for the milk fund bouts, and instead signed Jack Delaney and Harry Greb in a fight for the limit of his class, in which he holds the Pittsburgh windmill.

It would be difficult to select a better drawing card than this fight would be. Delaney is known to be keen for the scrap.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

Bowling ON NATIONAL ALLEYS

FOREST CITY LEAGUE, LADIES.

City Hall—

B. Rose 144 157 180—481
A. McLaughlin 180 186 207—573
C. Gough 181 181 228—590
L. Smith 153 162 192—507
H. Watson 232 176 207—615
Totals 873 782 956—2561

Bank of Montreal—

Low score 135
Hazel Stewart 150 181—331
A. Matheson 134 118 96—348
C. Ward 119 168 122—409
G. Lurie 128 136 130—394
R. Alexander 162 106 128—396
Totals 643 646 657—1901

McCORMICK LEAGUE.

Woodpeckers—

Mallet 131 145 150—426
Cochran 145 163 148—456
Waggon 99 107 146—352
McCormick 135 145 148—388
Lottick 135 122 132—389
Totals 604 773 788—2165

Non-Skids—

H. White 94 183 167—444
J. Oleson 139 138 135—412
R. Windrim 114 136 104—354
A. White 104 139 113—356
F. Martin 101 122 132—355
Totals 563 766 700—2029

Black Jacks—

Hudlin 164 154 160—478
Hamilton 176 217 168—561
Fawley 121 152 167—440
Skinner 115 149 208—472
Pettit 208 146 168—522
Totals 783 845 847—2474

ON MITCHES ALLEYS

GREENE-SWIFT LEAGUE.

Magics—

R. McKellar 93 152 95—340
J. C. Fournell 114 118 106—338
Low Score 84 109 97—281
V. Roberts 142 112 82—336
Totals 463 510 410—1383

Spark Plugs—

H. King 120 100 97—317
S. King 195 153 102—442
L. Lashbrook 36 150 148—334
B. Brown 84 135 135—354
Totals 495 520 503—1423

Raglan's—

L. Rayson 129 99 107—335
L. Jackson 91 163 174—428
L. Elson 213 134 67—414
Totals 438 396 348—1182

Gang—

M. Lindsay 135 139 171—445
J. Perkins 181 148 92—421
M. Hynd 162 146 148—456
Totals 480 433 409—1299

BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE.

Play-Off.

National Drug—

Russell 147 202 195—544
J. Jepson 149 139 162—450
A. Mitchell 163 193 229—585
C. H. C. 163 174 174—511
J. McMaster 168 229 111—508
Totals 783 978 761—2522

Reo Motors—

G. Dutton 159 137 94—390
C. Fournell 142 143 149—434
L. Harter 138 85 121—344
J. Dutton 183 212 168—563
A. Brennan 187 173 173—533
Totals 857 742 638—2237

"Abe" Mitchell Sets Golf Mark

Associated Press Despatch.
Rochampton, England, April 1.—Abe Mitchell today set a record for British competitive golf, playing 36 holes on the Rochampton club course in 134 strokes. He scored 57 this morning and repeated it this afternoon, an unprecedented performance.

As a result, Mitchell heads those qualifying for the Rochampton club's annual invitation tournament for professionals for a prize of £200. Mitchell's partner, George Duncan, this morning scored 69, while Arthur Havers set a course record with 66. The Rochampton course is short, fairly level, and offers few difficulties. The qualifiers who followed Mitchell included Arthur Havers, 138; J. Okenden, 139; A. Compton, 140; George Duncan, 143, and eleven others.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

SPORT SNAPSHOTS

Jockey Wakeoff, practically an unknown, crashed into the limelight Saturday when he piloted Althorstone, an off-little known celebrity, home to victory in the Cottingham handicap. Wakeoff won the Cottingham handicap, which goes to the winning jockey, and with the fees that he earned from winning the purse, made something like $75 per second for every second he was in the race. The classic was a big disappointment, as it was run in a downpour of rain. There were 20,000 people at the track, and for once the sobriquet "Sunny" Jim Coffey, the handsome promoter, was a misnomer. Cottingham had named years ago in California, when he was a promoter of out-of-door shows. Though he promoted hundreds of events, it never rained on him. His luck was out for the big special Sunday, and while 40,000 were expected, only half that number were on the ground, and they saw such favorable as Cherry Tree, Phoebe, Challowee and Sumpson hopelessly beaten.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

GREENTREE FILLY WINNER AT BOWIE

Leopardess Wins $5,000 Inaugural Handicap, Opening Day Feature.

Associated Press Despatch.
Bowie, Md., April 1.—Leopardess won the $5,000 inaugural handicap, for three-year-olds and up, feature event of the opening of the eastern spring racing season here this afternoon. Donaghee was second, a length behind the winner, and Tester was third.

The start of the race was delayed about fifteen minutes by a rainstorm. Leopardess showed fine speed, racing the seven furlongs in 1:27 1-5, which is only four-fifths of a second slower than the track record. The Greentree filly broke in front and led all the way, but was under punishment at the end of the stretch. Tester raced evenly throughout. The mutual machine play-off on Leopardess was $8 straight, $3.40 a place and $2.60 third. Donaghee's backers received $6.90 and $4.90 for place and show bets, and Tester paid $3.90 to show.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

As for Greb, he is getting heavier all the time, and admits that it is now a troublesome matter to get down to his limit of his class, in which he holds the world's title.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

He might therefore be tempted, if enough money were offered, to go into the ring against the hard-hitting Delaney, who has faced him before, and none of them has ever done anything to him—nor since he became famous any way.

FERGUSON GIVES $2,000 INCREASE

Premier Puts Large Gift in Pay Envelopes of Cabinet Members.

NOW DRAW $8,000

Canadian Press Despatch. Parliament Buildings, Toronto, April 1.—Premier Ferguson introduced a bill this afternoon increasing the salaries of cabinet ministers from $6,000 a year to $8,000, and the seasonal indemnity of members of the house from $1,400 to $2,000.

He explained that when able men joined a government for public service they did so at considerable sacrifice and that their services were worth what was now proposed.

"If we are to secure efficient men we must pay them, so that they will not be worried," said the premier. Regarding increased salaries for members he said that the public had the wrong impression in thinking that they only worked three or four months a year. They work twelve months in a year, and are always the first to contribute to any function or any fund in their ridings.

There was no discussion, although it is expected that two or three progressive members will oppose the measure on second reading.

The legislature this afternoon made considerable headway with a variety of legislation.

The prime minister introduced a bill providing for township school boards instead of sectional boards.

He explained that he would withdraw the bill after second reading, after there had been expressions of opinion and the public had become acquainted with it.

SOVIET DELEGATES WILL SEEK PACT WITH FRANCE

Paris, April 1.—Four Soviet experts have arrived in Paris for negotiations of an economic nature with the French government. Leonid Krassin, the Soviet ambassador, has requested the government to set the time and the place for the first meeting.

Former Bank Chief Is Facing 15 Counts

Michael J. Haney, Former Home Bank President, To Stand Trial.

TRUE BILL RETURNED
Still Undecided Whether Judge or Jury Will Hear Charges.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, April 1.—Fifteen counts are recorded in the true bill brought in by the grand jury in the general sessions this afternoon against Michael J. Haney, former president of the Home Bank.

The charges are run in a series of three, each based on five dates during 1917-18-19, when Mr. Haney was president of the bank and are laid under the bank act.

The bill was returned in general sessions before Judge Coatsworth.

The Charges.
The additional counts are:

1.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 28th day of October, 1917, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

2.—That he used such false and deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

3.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

4.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 28th day of June, 1917, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

5.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

6.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

7.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1918, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

8.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

9.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

10.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1918, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

11.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

12.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

13.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

14.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

15.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

16.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

17.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

18.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

19.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

20.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

21.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

22.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

23.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

24.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

25.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

26.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

27.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

28.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

29.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

30.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

31.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

32.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

33.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

34.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

35.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

Jerusalem Sees College Opening

Associated Press Despatch. Jerusalem, April 1.—The new Hebrew university, situated on the summit of Mount Scopus, was solemnly inaugurated today in the presence of 7,000 persons in the great amphitheatre on the side of the hill. Thousands more, unable to gain admittance, had to be turned away.

The inaugural address was delivered by the Earl of Balfour, in which he set forth England's policy of encouraging the creation in Palestine of a national home for the Jews.

The charges are run in a series of three, each based on five dates during 1917-18-19, when Mr. Haney was president of the bank and are laid under the bank act.

The bill was returned in general sessions before Judge Coatsworth.

The Charges.
The additional counts are:

1.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 28th day of October, 1917, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

2.—That he used such false and deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

3.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

4.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 28th day of June, 1917, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

5.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

6.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

7.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1918, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

8.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

9.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

10.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1918, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

11.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

12.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

13.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

14.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

15.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

16.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

17.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

18.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

19.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

20.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

21.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

22.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

23.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

24.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

25.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

26.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

27.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

28.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

29.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

30.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

31.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

32.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

33.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

34.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

35.—That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.

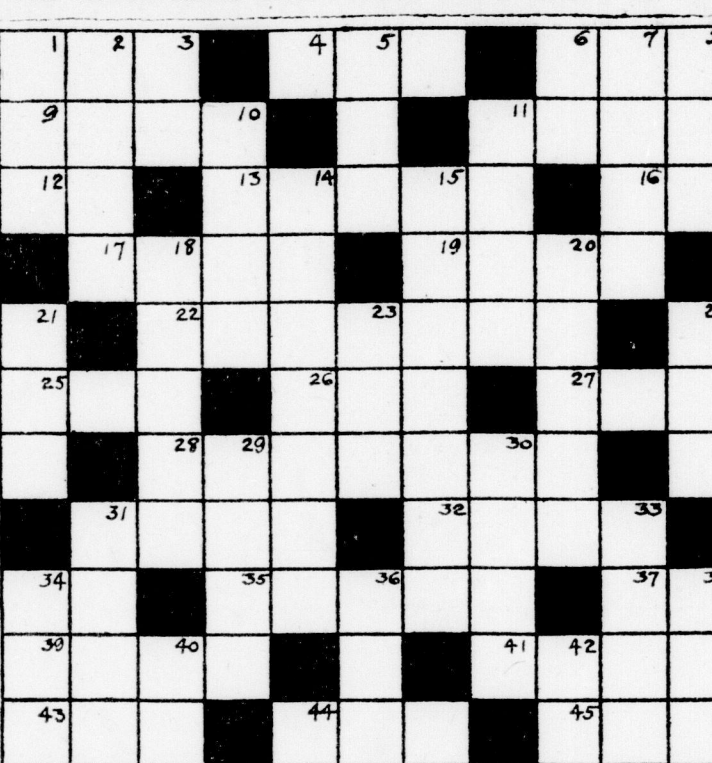

36.—That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

37.—That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.

ADAMANT—NOEL

The title of this puzzle is the solution to a word or group of words appearing in this puzzle. Can you find them?
Each word reads from left to right (horizontal) or downward (vertical) according to position. Lettered in correctly, words that cross will interlock.
Each number in the white squares also refers to a definition in the accompanying table.
Each definition suggests a word possessing the exact number of letters to fill the white spaces allotted to it.
Each white space is to receive one letter only. Words start only in numbered spaces.

THE ADVERTISER'S DAILY CROSS WORD PUZZLE NO. 145.

HORIZONTAL.

- 1 Feminine name
- 2 How old you are
- 3 Prefix in some words of Arabic origin
- 4 Unload
- 5 Revises for publication
- 6 Taper
- 7 Boy's nickname
- 8 Custom
- 9 Short, fixed periods of time
- 10 A tense organ
- 11 Wise
- 12 The Orient
- 13 Greek god of forests and pastures
- 14 Clear
- 15 A piece of salt water
- 16 Latin for "and"
- 17 To place in office
- 18 To frighten greatly

VERTICAL.

- 10 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 11 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 12 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 13 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 15th day of December, 1919, did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 14 That he used false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 15 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 16 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 17 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 18 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 19 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 20 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 21 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 22 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 23 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 24 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 25 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 26 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 27 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 28 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 29 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 30 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 31 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 32 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 33 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 34 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 35 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 36 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 37 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 38 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 39 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 40 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 41 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 42 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.
- 43 That as president of the Home Bank he on or about the 24th day of June, 1919, he did wilfully make false or deceptive statements.
- 44 That he used said false or deceptive statements with intent to deceive or mislead the minister of finance for Canada.
- 45 That he did negligently prepare, sign, approve or concur in said false statement, return, report or document respecting the affairs of the Home Bank.

SOLUTION TO NO. 144.

TAX EXEMPTIONS ARE INCREASED

Municipal Law Committee Approves Plan To Lighten Income Levy.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, April 1.—The municipal committee of the legislature today, by a majority, approved the bill of E. G. McEwen (Southwest Toronto) increasing the exemption from $200 to $400 of income of a householder for each dependent child, and also for any dependent father and mother.

Representatives from the assessment department of Toronto, Guelph, Kitchener and Peterborough spoke in opposition to the $400 exemption.

The bill of R. L. Brackin (West Kent) for licensing, regulating and governing the business of purchasing and selling fowl, was held over for some redrafting. It was felt that in its present form that it would restrict legal trade.

The tax exemption bill was passed on the face of strong opposition from the assessment department of the City of Toronto, Peterborough, Kitchener and Hamilton. Representatives of this city's interest on the fact that the proposed amendment would greatly decrease the revenues of the municipalities from this source.

E. Proulx (Prescott) moved in amendment that the exemption be made $300 instead of $400, the motion being lost on division.

Neighbors Save Home of Farmer

Rural Telephone Used To Call Aid in Malahide.

Special to The Advertiser. Malahide, April 1.—The timely assistance of neighbors probably saved Ross McConnell of the 4th concession of Malahide, the loss of his home. Sparks from the chimney set fire to the roof, one half of which was destroyed. A general alarm was sent in over the telephone lines, and neighbors promptly responded, soon getting the flames under control. Mr. McConnell's loss is fully covered by insurance.

REV. CAPT. RIDDIFORD.

Mount Brydges, April 1.—On Sunday evening, Rev. Capt. W. C. Riddiford of Burlington spoke in the Methodist church, taking as his subject, "Faith," from Hebrews ii, 13-40.

Again on Monday evening, Capt. Riddiford, who is grand organizer for the Orange Association for Western Ontario, gave an address on "Loyalty" in the community hall. A packed hall listened with great interest to an explanation of the place Orangeism takes in the British Empire.

DUFF ATTACKS STEEL CO. HEAD

Lunenburg Warrior Declares McLurg Should Be Driven From Cape Breton.

BLAMES COMPANY

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, April 1.—Angrily pounding his desk, interrupted over and over again, William Duff of Lunenburg, in the House of Commons today made a bitter reply to the description given by Miss Macphail on Tuesday of conditions in the mining fields of Cape Breton.

He declared that Mr. McLurg, vice-president of the British Empire Steel Corporation, should have been kicked out of Cape Breton for his stand the gaff interview. "He is not fit to have charge of anybody," exclaimed Mr. Duff. "I would not put him in charge of a hen-yard, let alone 12,000 miners in the county of Cape Breton. The quicker the shareholders of the British Empire Steel Corporation got together and reorganized the quicker there would be industrial peace in Nova Scotia."

Nova Scotians Proud.

Mr. Duff admitted that there was distress in Cape Breton, but he sharply challenged the conclusions reached by Miss Macphail. The conditions were, he said, not as bad as she had made out, and that he was not in charge of a hen-yard, let alone 12,000 miners in the county of Cape Breton. The quicker the shareholders of the British Empire Steel Corporation got together and reorganized the quicker there would be industrial peace in Nova Scotia."

Does that mean? queried J. L. Brown of Lisgar. "That the subscriptions collected in Ottawa to relieve the suffering are unacceptable or that we have unduly interfered in this matter?"

"I think that is the meaning," Mr. Duff replied. "And I think the people of Ottawa had better look after the poor within their own gates with the money they have subscribed for the so-called destitution in Cape Breton."

Mr. Brown came back with a query whether Premier King had not given a splendid lead with his private contribution to the Cape Breton funds.

Premier's Bugbear.

"The prime minister," retorted Mr. Duff, "has the biggest heart in this country."

Mr. Duff had no doubt the people of Ottawa had subscribed in good faith but they would have been better advised to consult the representatives of Nova Scotia, who knew the real conditions and what could be done to give relief to the miners.

He observed that the town of Glace Bay could borrow for relief purposes, and referring to the mayor of Glace Bay said: "Any one who will deliberately, for his own political purposes, allow women and children to starve is no good citizen of this country."

The miners to some extent were themselves to blame for the present condition of affairs. They had, he said, in the last four years paid $2,000,000 to the United Mine Workers, yet this organization had not come to the relief of the miners and their families.

Conditions in Cape Breton had been portrayed in parliament in a very much worse light than they actually were; but one could go to other parts of this country and find conditions in a less satisfactory state than those depicted in Nova Scotia.

Would Use Salt.

Miss Macphail had stated that she had met the mayor of Glace Bay. The mayor was a Labor member in the Nova Scotia Legislature, and there were other representatives of Labor in that House. She had also described the number of people she had found hungry after three weeks' strike, but did not comment on how many she had found who were not hungry. Some accounts of the suffering in Cape Breton should be taken with a grain of salt and seen in perspective.

Miss Macphail had deplored the houses she had found, where there were but two bedrooms, a sitting-room and a kitchen.

"Nova Scotia grandfathers of men in this House were brought up in houses with anything more than two bedrooms, a sitting-room and a kitchen? These conditions exist everywhere," said Mr. Duff.

Miss Macphail was certainly glibly said Mr. Duff, when she let the mayor of Glace Bay and his treasurer tell her that a poor miner was paying $20 a month for a house with a leaking roof. They actually paid about $2 a week.

"I don't know why the mayor of Glace Bay should put the honorable member from Southeast Grey in the hands of a treasurer, anyway."

Mr. Woodsworth asked if Mr. Duff had read the official reports on sanitary conditions in mining camps.

"Who is to blame for these conditions?" asked Mr. Duff.

Blames Labor Officials.

"The Labor mayor of the town of Glace Bay and the Labor mayor of other towns," replied Mr. Duff, in answering his own question. The mayor of that town should have called his council and voted money for relief.

Miss Macphail interrupted at this point to say that the city council had met, pledged all it could, and raised $5,000 for relief purposes.

William Irvine, (Labor, Winnipeg East) asked if Mr. Duff would make the same speech in Glace Bay as he was making in the House.

"Anyone who knows me knows I would make the same speech anywhere. To use the language of the member who spoke last night, 'I wouldn't give a damn where I made it.'"

Miss Macphail rose to deny having used such language, and Speaker Lemieux rose from his chair.

"All right, Mr. Speaker," said Mr. Duff. "I withdraw it. It wasn't parliamentary, but it was snappy."

Mr. Duff said that Miss Macphail had insinuated that the provincial government of Nova Scotia was afraid of the British Empire Steel Corporation. He failed to see why any government or person who wanted the votes of the people of Nova Scotia should be afraid of the British Empire Steel Corporation. The strike affected the whole of the province of Nova Scotia, and if Premier

IMMORAL CONDITIONS FOUND IN AYLMER HOUSE

Special to The Advertiser. Aylmer, April 1.—Conditions which were far from being satisfactory morally were discovered by Magistrate Maxwell here on Monday afternoon at the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Roberts on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. The evidence took up the greater part of the afternoon, and the woman was remanded to the county jail for one week to await sentence. Decision was also deferred in the case of an Aylmer young man, charged with being a frequenter. Mrs. Roberts' two children, a 10-year-old girl and a boy about 12 years, were ordered placed in the care of the children's shelter. The girl went willingly, but the boy has not been found. After the hearing, the woman's husband, who has been living separately from his wife, offered to take his wife home with him, but the court would not permit it.

Notice to Creditors

Re ALEXANDER BROOKS, late of the City of London, Traveller.

Creditors and others having claims against the estate of the said deceased are required to send full particulars of such claims to the undersigned executors of the will of the said deceased, on or before the 15th day of April, A. D. 1925, after which date the executors will proceed to distribute the assets of said estate, having regard only to the claims of which notice shall then have been given.

THE CANADA TRUST COMPANY,
446 Richmond Street, London, Ont.
276-W.

AUCTION SALE

I have been instructed by Mr. A. Swaine to sell by public auction the following on Saturday, April 4, at 2 p.m. sharp, rear of 88 York St. Cream separators, wheelbarrows, pumps of all kinds, Beatty Bros. hay cars, forks and steel tracks, one 3-h.p. gas engine, gates, one set of steel wagon wheels, pipe dies, cutters, wrenches, vices and fittings, pump repairs, cylinders of all sizes, leathers and plungers, litter carriers, tracks and hangers, also repairs for same. Beatty make. Bench vices, tools of all kinds, 2 office desks and other articles.

THOS. B. McKIM, Auctioneer.
Phone 4363.

HE ALMOST LOST HIS JOB

Unable to stand outdoor work in the cold weather, complaining constantly of a pain in the back—worn out, weak, practically worthless on the job—

That was what the foreman told him. "Jim," he said, "there must be something wrong with you. Have you ever had lumbago before or any kidney trouble?"

Jim replied, thoughtfully, "Well, I haven't felt right since I had the grip last spring. Ever since then I've been having these pains in my back, but I don't know what causes them."

"It's probably your kidneys," the foreman tells him. "Well, there's an easy way of overcoming your trouble. Have you ever heard of Dr. Pierce's An-uric tablets? They cured me of kidney trouble a year ago, and I can't praise 'An-uric' too highly. I was just like you."

Jim decides that the foreman is right and gets a package of "An-uric" (kidney-backache) tablets from his drugstore. It is long before he is his old, vigorous self again.

Hundreds of folks in this vicinity have "An-uric" to thank for their good health.

If you want a trial package of An-uric, send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont.—Advt.

Children Quickly Learn To Rely On Cuticura

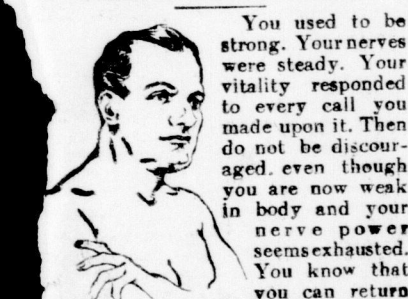

To soothe and heal the rashes and skin irritations of childhood. Daily use of Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, will keep the skin and scalp clean and healthy and prevent simple irritations from becoming serious.

Sample sent free by Mail. Address: Canadian Import, "Cuticura," 1400 St. Lawrence St., Montreal 26 and 27. Tel. 256.

Small Cuticura Soap Box 25c.

BUILD RED BLOOD, REGAIN STRENGTH AND NERVE FORCE

Body Vigor May Be Quickly Restored This Safe Way

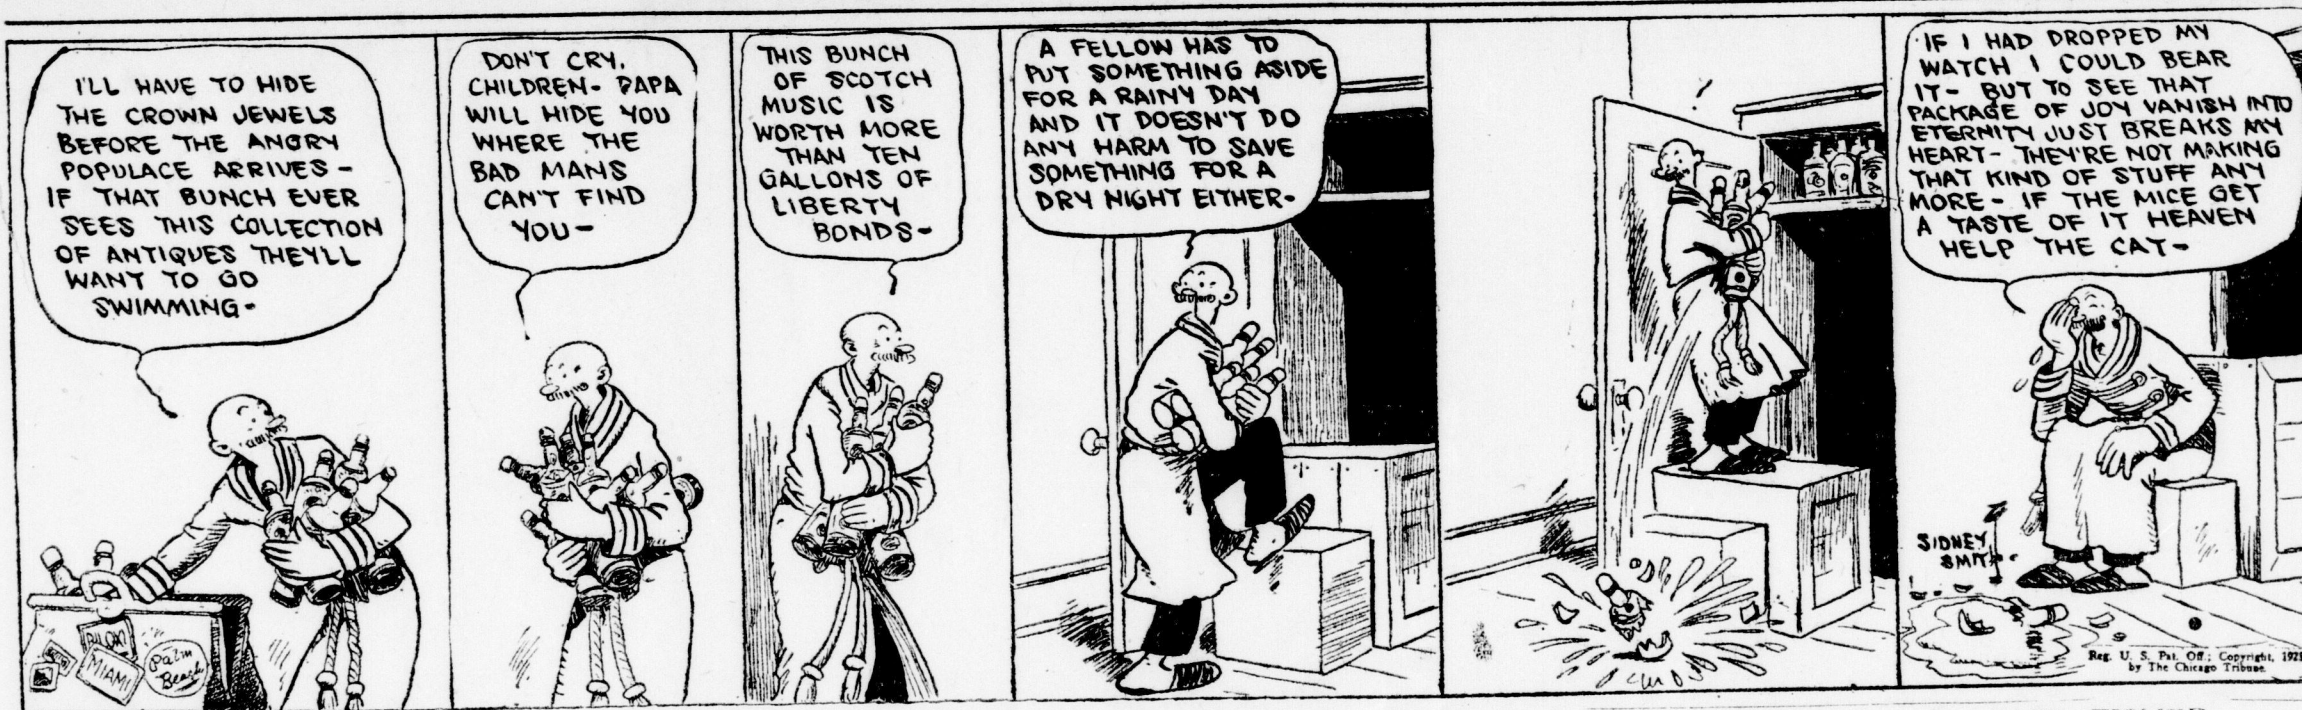

You used to be strong. Your nerves were steady. Your vitality responded to every call you made upon it. Then you got into a bad way. You are now weak in body and your nerve power is exhausted. You know that you can return to success and happiness just as soon as you win back your old time vigor.

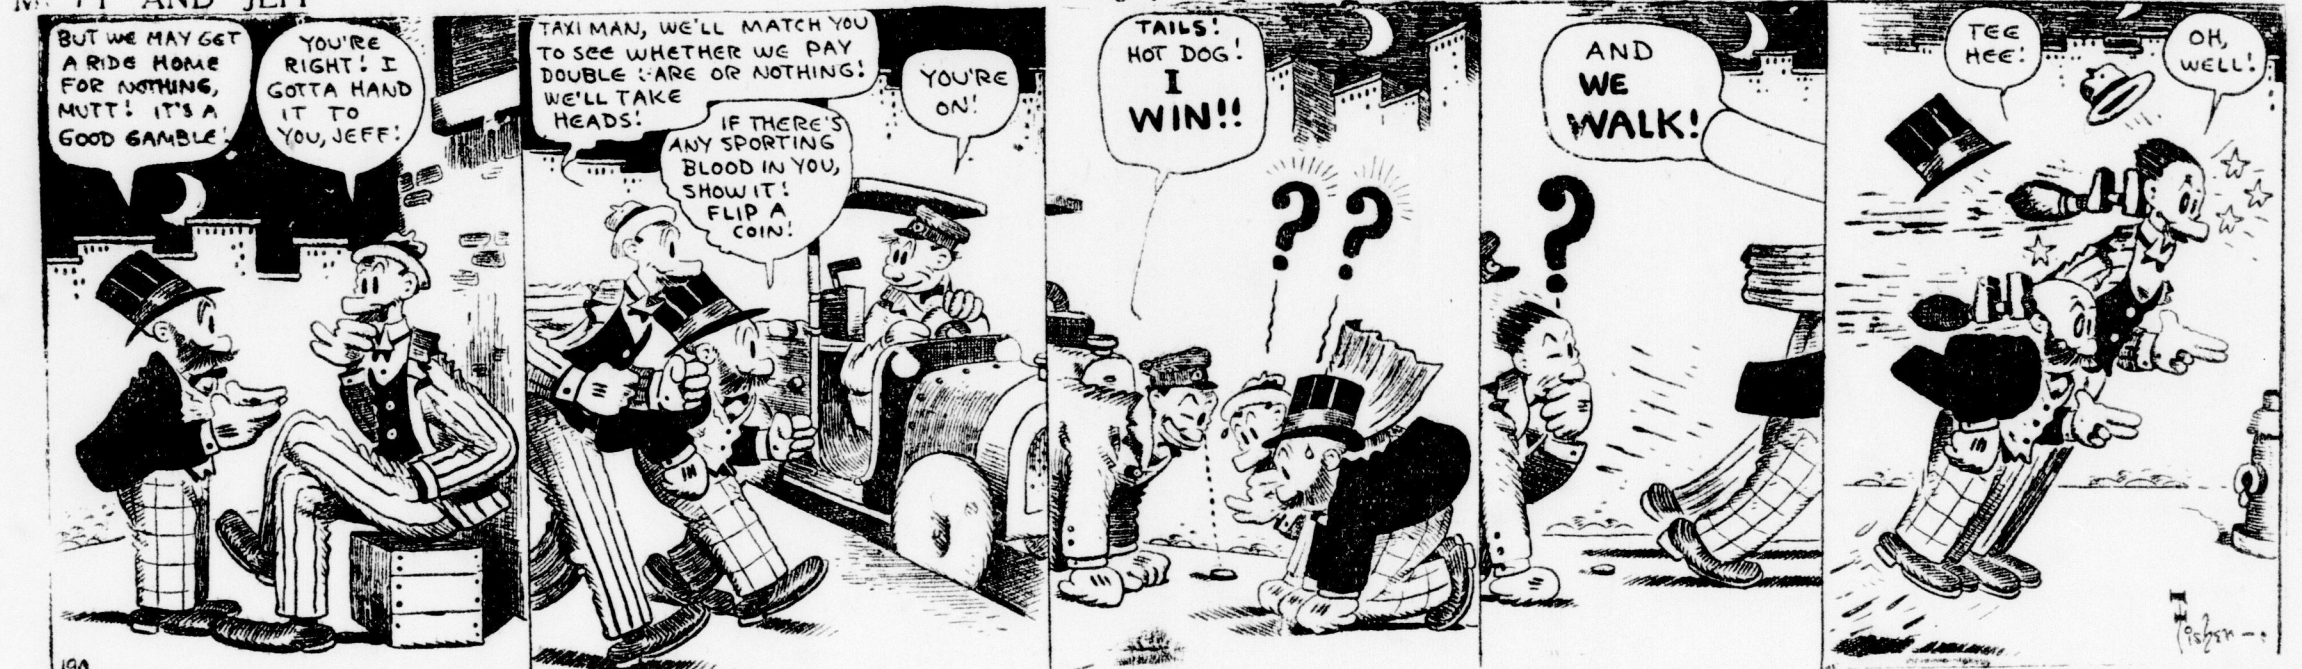

If your body has failed you, and you have spent your vitality by overwork or nervous strain, start today to build yourself up again. Create red blood that will pulsate through your veins with the throbbing life force. Nourish your nerves, which are the driving force of life.

Weak, rundown men—and women, too—can quickly regain strength. Go to your drugstore today, obtain a bottle of Wincarnis, and begin the Wincarnis treatment. For fifty years this strength-giving and nerve-restorative has rejuvenated discouraged, weakened men and women. Wincarnis is so effective that only three table-spoonfuls a day need be taken. Try Wincarnis and the difference just a few days brings—Advt.

THE GUMPS—HIS FIRST FALSE STEP

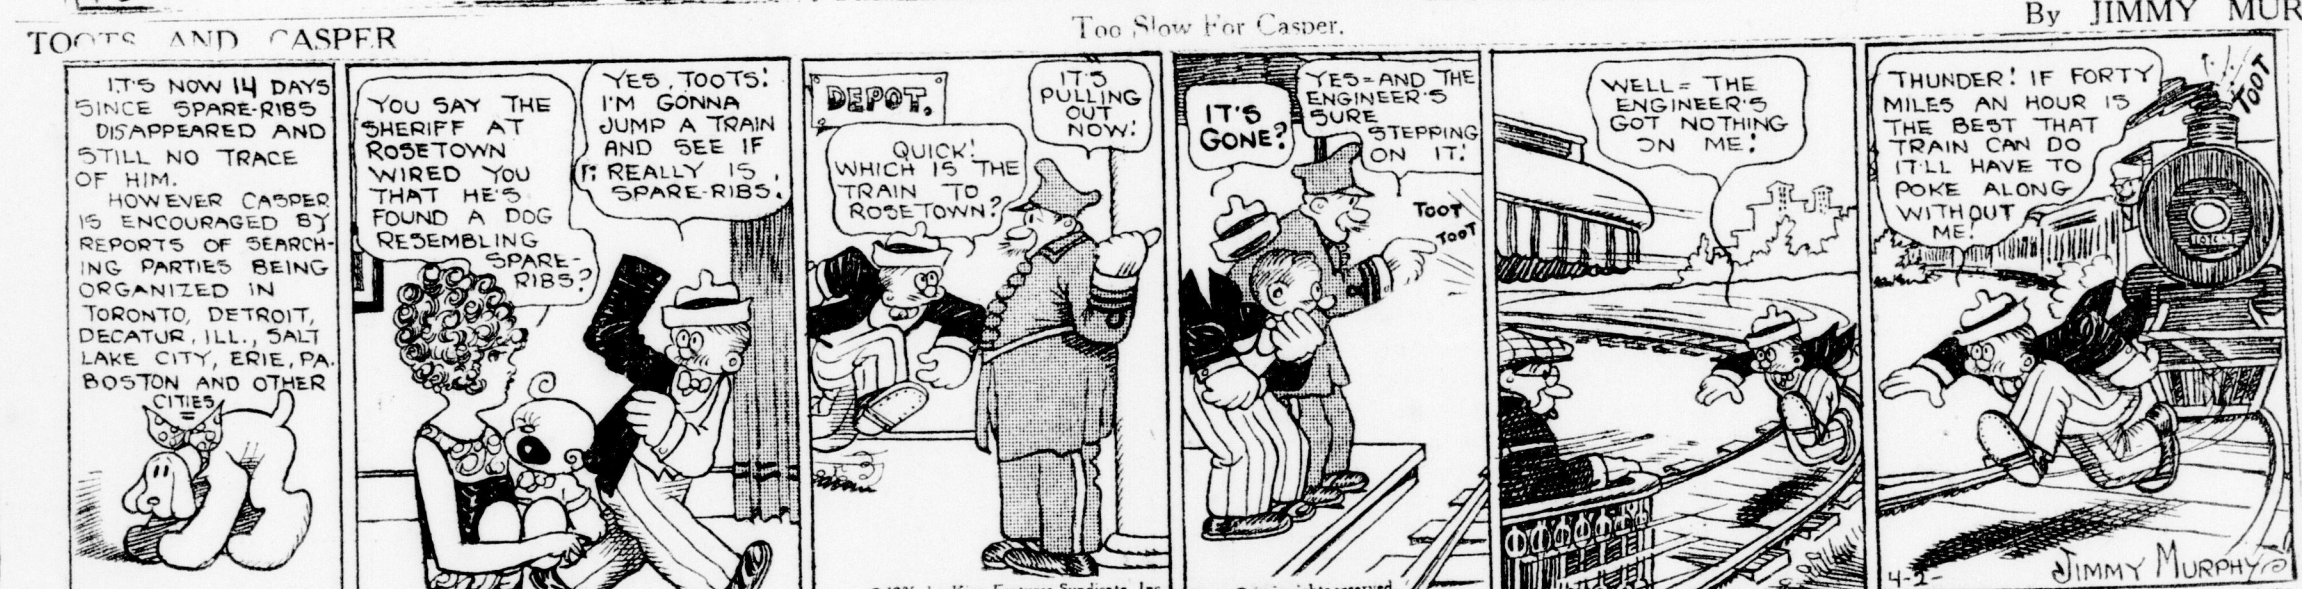

Was a Mighty Good Gamble At That. By BUD FISHER

Living Up To Her Name. By GENE BYRNES

Too Slow For Casper. By JIMMY MURPHY

TOOTS AND CASPER

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright 1925 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

RADIO

TODAY'S LIST

THURSDAY, APRIL 2.

WEAF, NEW YORK—8:15.

6 p.m.—Waldorf orchestra.

7 p.m.—Midweek services.

8 p.m.—Walter Lantz cartoon.

9 p.m.—Old-time serenaders.

10 p.m.—Columbia's "The Cat."

11 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

12 p.m.—Silvertown orchestra.

WJZ, NEW YORK—4:45.

7 p.m.—Commodore orchestra.

7:55 p.m.—Talk; review; college.

8:30 p.m.—Pan-American program.

10:30 p.m.—Christobel Hamilton, solo.

primo.

10:45 p.m.—Jacques Green's orchestra.

WJY, NEW YORK—4:05.

7:30 p.m.—Franklin orchestra.

8:15 p.m.—Ray G. Parker, tenor.

8:30 p.m.—Wanamaker organ recital.

9:30 p.m.—Nathaniel Pouch, bass.

10 p.m.—Talk; The Texans.

10:30 p.m.—Speech's orchestra.

WNYC, NEW YORK—5:20.

8:30 p.m.—Bloom's orchestra.

7:30 p.m.—Police alarms; talk.

4:45 p.m.—Piano recital; talk; E. H. Spivak, violinist.

9 p.m.—Alice and Rita Coakley.

8:15 p.m.—Musical trio.

9:45 p.m.—Griffin and Ehrenberg.

10:10 p.m.—Voluntary program.

WGBS, NEW YORK—3:15.

8 p.m.—Stories; dance orchestra.

7:30 p.m.—Vesey's orchestra.

8:30 p.m.—Talk; string quartet.

9:30 p.m.—Piccadilly theatre.

10 p.m.—Music and features.

11:30 p.m.—Russian Eagle orchestra.

WIP, PHILADELPHIA—5:05.

6 p.m.—Weather; dinner music.

7 p.m.—Uncle Wip's roll call.

8 p.m.—Talk; C. of P. concert.

9 p.m.—Mauder's Lenten cantata.

"Olivet to Calvary."

10:20 p.m.—Slipper frolic.

11 p.m.—Marburger's orchestra.

WFI, PHILADELPHIA—3:45.

6:30 p.m.—Concert orchestra.

7 p.m.—Bedtime stories.

8 p.m.—Hans Barth, pianist; Justin Lawrie, tenor.

8:30 p.m.—Waldorf concert orchestra.

9 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

10 p.m.—Silvertown orchestra.

WCAE, PITTSBURGH PRESS—4:15.

8:30 p.m.—William Penn orchestra.

9:30 p.m.—Uncle Wip's roll call.

8 p.m.—Moore's radio revue.

9 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

10 p.m.—Silvertown orchestra.

KDKA, E. PITTSBURGH—3:01.

6:15 p.m.—Broadway orchestra.

7:15 p.m.—Markets; Uncle Ed.

8 p.m.—Stockman-Farmer program.

8:30 p.m.—Maiden and Wig club; U. of P. present "Joan of Arkansas."

11 p.m.—Post studio program.

WRC, WASHINGTON—4:55.

6:45 p.m.—Children's stories.

7 p.m.—Lee house trio.

8 p.m.—"Cuban night" under auspices Pan-American union.

10 p.m.—Mayflower orchestra.

11 p.m.—Speech's orchestra.

WGY, SCHENECTADY—3:45.

6:30 p.m.—Ten Rock trio.

7:30 p.m.—Jacob's book chat.

7:45 p.m.—Practice club program.

8:30 p.m.—Pan-American program from station WRC, Washington.

WVJ, DETROIT—3:52.

6 p.m.—Dinner concert.

8 p.m.—WEAF's studio program.

9:30 p.m.—Waldorf concert orchestra.

10 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

WCMX, DETROIT—3:10.

6 p.m.—Goldkette's ensemble.

8:30 p.m.—Musical program.

WEAR, CLEVELAND—10:4.

7 p.m.—Vincent Percy, organist.

8 p.m.—Studio program (WEAF).

8:30 p.m.—Waldorf concert orchestra.

9 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

WYAT, CLEVELAND—3:44.

6 p.m.—Stattler orchestra.

WEAO, COLUMBUS—2:33.

8 p.m.—Program of Indian music.

(Central Standard Time.)

WSAL, CINCINNATI—3:25.

7 p.m.—Studio recital (WEAF).

8:30 p.m.—Waldorf concert orchestra.

9 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

10 p.m.—Silvertown orchestra.

WMM, CINCINNATI—4:23.

8 p.m.—Clarence Reeves, pianist.

9 p.m.—Original Rainbow orchestra.

WLV, CINCINNATI—2:22.

6 p.m.—State memory contest.

10 p.m.—Talk; Come orchestra and male quartet; Senator Schultz, Donnelly Melody boys.

WGN, CHICAGO—3:20.

5:30 p.m.—Society time.

8 p.m.—Organ and orchestra.

9 p.m.—Classical hour.

10 p.m.—Don Bestor's orchestra.

WQJ, CHICAGO—4:47.

6 p.m.—Dinner concert.

7 p.m.—Rainbow Skylarks.

1 a.m.—Hotsy-Totsy club.

WMAQ, CHICAGO—4:47.

6 p.m.—Organ; orchestra; Dadd.

8:45 p.m.—Lecture hour.

9:15 p.m.—Ravenswood choir.

KYW, CHICAGO—3:34.

6:35 p.m.—Children's stories.

7 p.m.—Congress dinner music.

8 p.m.—Good reading.

8:30 p.m.—Musical program.

10 p.m.—Evening at home.

1 a.m.—Insomnia club.

WLS, CHICAGO—4:46.

6 p.m.—Markets; weather, etc.

6:25 p.m.—Organ; WLS specialties.

7 p.m.—Five-hour dance program.

WHAS, LOUISVILLE—3:30.

7:30 p.m.—Tone.

WOC, DAVENPORT—4:3.

6:30 p.m.—Sandman's view.

7 p.m.—WEAF's studio program.

7:30 p.m.—Waldorf concert orchestra.

8 p.m.—Atwater-Kent artists.

9 p.m.—Silvertown orchestra.

11 p.m.—Conner's orchestra.

WHD, DES MOINES—5:26.

7:30 p.m.—Grinnell women's club.

11 p.m.—Dave Robinson orchestra.

WDAF, KANSAS CITY—3:55.

6 p.m.—School of the air.

11:45 p.m.—Nicolai's Frolic.

WMB, KANSAS CITY—3:55.

8:10 p.m.—Concert.

WOW, OMAHA—5:26.

5:45 p.m.—News story hour.

6:20 p.m.—Musical program.

6:45 p.m.—Randall's orchestra.

9 p.m.—WOAX anniversary program.

KFKX, HASTINGS—2:33.

5:15 p.m.—Radio club music.

9:30 p.m.—The Burton family.

WSB, ATLANTA—4:23.

5 p.m.—News; music stories.

5:30 p.m.—Concert program.

10:45 p.m.—Dr. Sheldon's organist.

KTHS, HOT SPRINGS—3:48.

8:30 p.m.—Pfeiffer's orchestra.

9:45 p.m.—Charles Elliott orchestra.

12:15 p.m.—Frola's orchestra.

WFAA, DALLAS—4:55.

6:30 p.m.—Lone Star Five orchestra.

8:30 p.m.—California C. of C. music.

11 p.m.—Peter Pate and Bud Morgan.

WBAP, FORT WORTH—4:59.

7:30 p.m.—Texas C. artists.

8:30 p.m.—Mrs. Coughlin's artists.

(Mountain Standard Time.)

CNRC, CALGARY—4:35.

2 p.m.—Franklin orchestra.

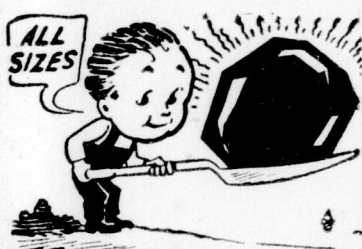

AL CHRISTIE INVITED TO VISIT HERE NEXT WEEK

Al Christie, a London boy, who has gone far in the motion picture world, and is famous because of the uproarious comedies he has produced, will be in London on Monday next if he accepts the invitation of John R. Minihinnick, manager of the Grand Theatre, sent him by wire last night. Mr. Christie was stage manager at the Grand Theatre for several years. Next week his first big picture, "Charlie's Aunt," will appear there, and Mr. Minihinnick has asked Mr. Christie to appear in person.

GIVEN JAIL TERM.

Goderich, April 1.—Appearing before Magistrate C. H. Reid, the Swiss immigrant, Robert Zur-werra, was sentenced to 3 to 5 months in the Ontario reformatory. Zur-werra was arrested in London with the young daughter of the farmer for whom he worked, and faced a charge of abduction.

Phone Johnny-on-the-Spot for COAL and COKE, 470.

APRIL CASH PRICES IN TON LOTS OR MORE

Anthracite Egg $15.00 per ton
Anthracite Stove $15.50 per ton
Anthracite Nut $15.50 per ton
Anthracite Pea $12.00 per ton
By-Product Coke $12.00 per ton
Cannel $13.00 per ton

We Can Make Immediate Delivery.

JOHN MANN & SONS
425 YORK STREET.

UTILITIES DECIDE FLOWERS TO GROW AT ROADS' EXPENSE

Will Open Thames Park Pool in Defiance of Health Board.

POLE CONTRACT

What to cut and what not to cut in its year's program in the parks and playgrounds departments occupied the attention of the public utilities commission at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

Faced with council cuts of $9,000 and $9,500 in its parks and playgrounds estimates, respectively, the commission debated in rather lively fashion as to how both ends would be made to meet.

Chairman Jared Vining upheld the maintenance of the paths and roadways in Victoria Park at the expense, if need be, of the flower beds, which he termed as "only aesthetic anyway."

Commissioner T. W. McFarland, chairman of the parks board, rallied strongly to the support of his flower beds, and, with the voice of Commissioner Philip Pocock and R. J. Webster, carried the day, so that the beds will be maintained and the roads and paths will suffer as result of the pared estimates.

Mr. McFarland was inclined to be critical of the council, which, he said, had agreed to provide $5,000 for a bandstand in Victoria Park, in supporting the Lions' club proposal to raise $5,000, and had at the same time cut the parks estimates by nearly $10,000.

"A bandstand is a luxury," said Mr. McFarland, "and yet the council would provide a stand and not help us maintain the parks."

Rules are Approved
Despite Mr. McFarland's expression of opinion that the board of health would not permit the commission to operate Thames playground swim-

Customs Reach a Half Million

Special to The Advertiser. Wallaceburg, April 1.—The following is the report of the customs and excise revenue for the fiscal year, which closed yesterday: Import duty, $478,182.68; sales tax, $4,265.04; excise tax, $16,515.64; sundry collections, $756.52; total, $499,719.88.

ming pool this coming summer without the installation of showers, the commission decided to "pass the buck" to the health board by opening the pool as last year and thus place the onus of closing the pool entirely upon the health board.

"It would be unfortunate," remarked Mr. Vining, "if the commission is unable to operate Thames pool this year because there is a considerable capital expenditure laid up there, and it would be idle. Thames pool last year was the most popular place in the county of Middlesex."

"Not only popular," asserted Mr. Pocock, "but beneficial as well." Rules for the Thames valley municipal golf course as submitted by Manager E. V. Buchanan, were approved, and Mr. McFarland directed to call a meeting of the members of the course to appoint a club captain and committees and to arrange for the season's play.

The draft of a blanket contract with the Bell Telephone Company for the common use of poles and mutual ownership of the same was considered by the commission and passed on to the commission's solicitor for approval.

The request made by Mrs. Harris to transfer the W. C. T. U. camp for girls from the golf course over to the vicinity of the Wonderland tourist camp was granted. The commission will provide a power line to the camp providing the W. C. T. U. authorities pay the labor costs of the installation of the line.

Write to Sir Adam

A communication concerning refreshment booth privileges near the Springbank park zoo from W. Lowry was referred to the parks board with power to act on the understanding that some financial return be secured by the commission from the concession.

The commission directed Mr. Vining and Secretary O. Ellwood to send a letter of encouragement to Sir Adam Beck, who is in the Dan Hopkins hotel at Baltimore and expressing the hope of the commission for his speedy and complete recovery.

Assistant Manager A. O. Hunt was appointed as acting manager during the absence of Mr. Buchanan, who leaves today on a two months' trip to Scotland and the continent. Mr. Vining on behalf of the commission wished Mr. Buchanan a pleasant holiday and a safe return.

MONTREAL DOCKS STILL IN DANGER

Riverside Drive Resembles Venice Street With Scores of Boats Passing.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, April 1.—The flood crisis has not passed. At noon today there was 55 feet of water in the 40-foot harbor channel, with every indication of a continued rise. Conditions were reported as "somewhat more serious" than they were yesterday, although surprisingly little damage has resulted from the unprecedented rise of the St. Lawrence, the Back river and the Riviere des Prairies.

This morning it was found necessary to send home 150 boarders from the Hochelaga nuns' convent on the flooding of the lower portions of the building. This driveway is affected more than any other principal thoroughfare, and today it resembled a street in Venice, with scores of rowboats, canoes and so forth passing up and down.

HARBINGERS of SPRING

—the First Smart Costumes that Welcome Easter!

The Easter costume's a matter of moment! To be —what?

Ensemble, perhaps. Or fur-trimmed coat with matching frock. Mannish, velvet-collared coat, with dress of printed silk. Tailored suit, in chic simplicity.

Spring endorses all of these as fashion-right. And if cost must be pondered equally with choice, here are similarly varied price ranges!

FURTHER FASHION INTEREST has been given Easter displays of new costumes by the presence of a young and charming model.

On a living model, gowns appear to utmost advantage. On a hanger, flatly hung, with rows and rows of other gowns, they lose appreciably in grace and beauty.

This modelling of new costumes will make your selections so much easier! And the glimpses of smart fashions, so attractively displayed throughout various departments, will add decidedly to the interest of your shopping.

The Easter Frock

Chosen for its Deftness of Line and Detail.

$22, $25, $35
$37.50, $45

Again price-rightness is stressed with fashion-rightness! The bewitching color story that is told in printed crepes or high-toned silks has a rival in the economical tale that runs along the price tags.

A little frock of printed crepe may be inexpensively chosen. And with these as a starting point stretches the whole gleaming collection of satin, sateen crepes and crepe de chine. Flared, flounced, frilled. Slender in silhouette, and often swirling below the knees, as buoyantly as though caught in a capricious April breeze.

The Easter Ensemble

Smartest Feature of New Modes.

$25, $37.50,
$45, $59, $69.

Prices slide along this interesting scale—but modes cling tightly to the smartest spring path. At $27.50 are featured ensembles for the average purse. Slim coat of twill fabric, with matching frock of printed crepe. Fashion right to the smallest detail.

Then farther along the price scale are introduced charmees and other new and luxurious fabrics.

$45, $59, $65,
$69

NEW BLOUSES

May meet spring vivaciously with frilly jabot fronts. Often they're of pastel broadcloth silks, and conform strictly to tailored lines. Or again, they feature a new fashion and take a narrow scarf collar that extends to finger-tip length.

$5.95, $9.50,
$12.50

Blouses, Second Floor.

NEW HANDBAGS

are smartly envelope shaped. In leather, at $3.50, $4.50, $6.50, $7.50. In black moire silk and black satin, embroidered, at $5.00.

Purses, Main Floor.

NEW GLOVES

place much of their fashion reliance on their cuffs. France has just sent new ones in kid. Two-tone gray with applique work at $3.50. Beaver brown with embroidery at $3.50. White with black embroidery at $3.75.

Gloves, Main Floor.

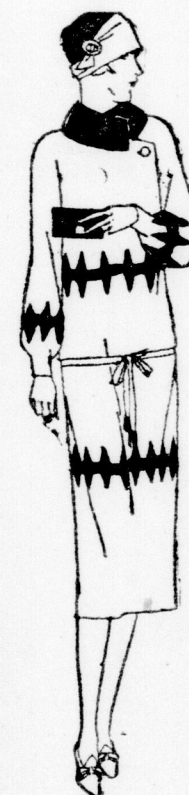

The Tailored Coat

With Mannish Velvet Collar.

$25, $35
$37.50

Worsted and tweeds, cut in swagger fashion. Prince of Wales lilies, with narrow velvet collar. $25.00

Tailored Coats of velour, in rust, rose and green shades, narrow, double-breasted lines, with velvet collar. $35.00, $37.50

The Easter Coat

Flattering, with Bands of Fur.

$35, $45, $52, $59,
$65, $69

A collection of formal coats, combining elegance with sophistication. The richest, softest materials, bordered or banded with blended squirrel, imitation chinchilla, imitation red fox, leopard, thibetline.

Silk Coats

At the Peak of the Formal Mode.

Black Coat in faille, with deep bandings and border of monkey fur over rust color. $89.00

Ottoman and Broadcloth in black, banded in imitation chinchilla. $85.00

Matelasse in blonde shade, with collar of squirrel dyed mink. $65.00

FUR STORAGE

Accommodation ready now for summer storage of your Fur Coats or Neck-Pieces.
Second Floor, or Phone 4400.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM
LIMITED

PATTERN COUNTER

New Location,
Main Floor, East Aisle.

ENJOY GOOD MUSIC IN YOUR OWN HOME AND IN REAL COMFORT

While they last, we will give away absolutely free with every Style No. 4 Phonograph of a popular make, a Chesterfield Chair as shown below. Unquestionably the greatest, most outstanding value ever offered the Canadian public.

This Instrument

Style No. 4
Phonograph

is one of the highest-grade Phonographs ever built in Canada, and one of our regular stock models. Sheraton design, made in genuine oak, mahogany and walnut. Equipped with seven record drawers, indexed alphabetically for record filing. Strong two-spring motor, playing five 10-inch records with one winding, Universal tone-arm, which plays all records perfectly. All exposed parts heavily nickel-plated.

FULLY GUARANTEED.

Sale Opens Friday, 9 a.m.

The Chair

is built to our strict specifications, with only the finest materials used in its perfect construction. Genuine Marshall spring cushions, heavy moss trimmings, walnut-finished frames, luxurious roll arms, double-woven denim interior covering over finest oil-tempered coil springs. These features can be had only in the highest-grade Chesterfield suites.

Open Evenings

Money back if you can buy this Phonograph cheaper for cash.

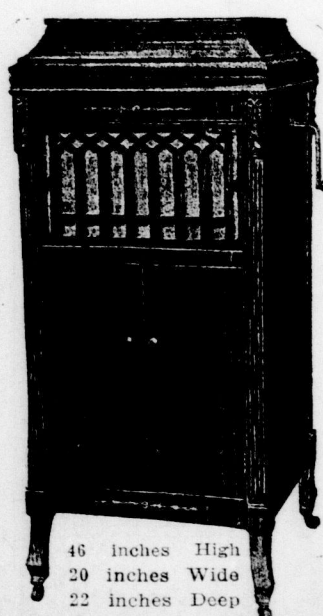

FREE

As faithful as the illustration is, it falls short of actually portraying the inherent charm and exquisite beauty of this High-Grade CHESTERFIELD CHAIR. Select any of the following covers: Mohair, Moquette, Tapestry and Silk Damask.

FREE

Terms To Suit You

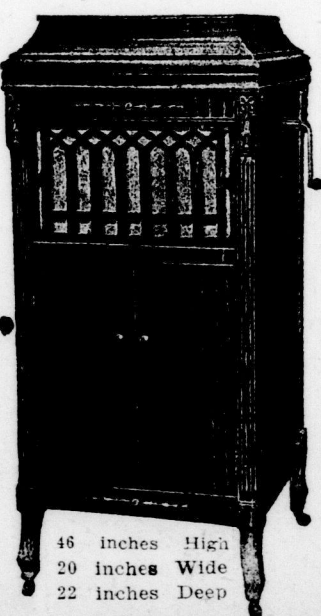

Money back if you can buy this Phonograph cheaper for cash.

Should you care to purchase a Chesterfield and extra chair to match, we can supply same at a Big Saving.

ASHTON'S MUSIC STORE

629 Dundas Phone 995M

46 inches High
20 inches Wide
22 inches Deep

DISMISSALS FOLLOW PROBE IN MONTREAL

Former Morality Squad Captain Discharged Following Refusal To Resign.

Canadian Press Despatch. Montreal, April 1.—Roch Sauve, former police captain in charge of number four police station, and at one time head of the morality squad, was today dismissed, following his refusal to resign.

This was the statement of Alderman Brodeur, chairman of the executive committee, who also announced the dismissal of Constables Conrad Trudeau and Achille Payette, both of whom had been denounced by Mr. Justice Coderre in his recent report on police conditions. No "reasons," however, for the dismissals were

Rowat's Teas

FROM THE BETTER GARDENS.
70c, 80c, 90c, $1.00, $1.10 and $2.00 Pound.

T. A. Rowat & Co.

250 Dundas St. W. Phone 3051-3052.

GILLIES

Coal - Coke - Wood

PHONE 1312

COR. ADELAIDE AND BATHURST

ywt

HAWKEN-LANG

COAL COMPANY

PHONE 522

given out today.

In addition the resignations of Detective Captain Nazaire Forget and Sergeant J. H. Bond were "accepted" by the committee.

Quality Vulcanizing Only.

ART WILKES

London Tire Repair Depot,

854 WELLINGTON STREET,

Opposite McLaughlin's. ywt

Carlyle

TREBILCOCK

OPTICIAN

233 Dundas St. Phone 2351.

Two Doors East of Majestic.

BADGES AND BUTTONS

MILITARY RIBBONS

At PEEL'S

Red Star News Company

10 MARKET LANE.

Our fitters are experts. $1.50 to $10.00. We have Trusses to fit all needs.

ANDERSON & NELLE

Dundas St.

WINNETT'S GOOD COAL

All sizes—for all uses—use Mill Creek Grate Coal. Office 232 William street, corner Horton.

PHONE 481. ywt

GEO. E. LOGAN

FUNERAL HOME

271-273 DUNDAS STREET.

PHONE 1963. ywt

N. J. GRIFFITH

FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER.

104 Dundas Street, London.

Residence on premises. Phone 450.

J. FERGUSON'S SONS

R. F. FERGUSON, Manager.

174-180 KING STREET.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

Handsome Motor Hearses.

Day or Night Service with Promptness, Neatness and Quietness.

Phone: Office 543; residence, 2056W.