Strictly Cash!

Selling goods strictly for cash enables us to buy for cash—you know what a difference that makes in our favor. The cash discounts in a year on a Six Store Business like this is a profit in itself. Add to that the interest paid by the credit buyer and seller and you get some idea of the buying and selling prestige of the cash business over the credit. And we've not said a word about the losses made by the credit giving merchant. You've heard of them. Ask yourself—who makes good the loss? There are no frills about this business and success comes because its deserved.

CONSERVATIVE SWEEP

HOW THEY STAND.

Liberals including Laborites..... 72
Nationalists..... 45

London, Oct. 5, 4 a. m.—The "khaki" boom has swept the country. At midnight returns received showed the total number of elected to be 397, with the relative strength of the parties as follows:

Ministerialists, 280; Liberals, including laborites, 72; Nationalists, 45. The Conservatives have gained altogether 21 seats, and the Liberals 14. The Daily Mail describes the elections as "the rout of the pro-Bosers," and "the debacle of little Englandism."

Yesterday's pollings are a tale of increased ministerialist and diminished Liberal majorities. The strengthening of the country has replied in a very decided voice in favor of the war and of the annexation of the republics. Even Liberal Scotland is at last feeling the fall force of the shock, the Glasgow Tories being as much astonished as the Liberals at their unexpected success in winning two seats. Andrew Dryburgh Provand, who was defeated in the Blackfriars division, had sat for Glasgow in the Liberal interests since 1886, and the Bridgeton division was Sir Geo. Otto Trevelyan's seat. Both had long been Liberal strongholds.

The results in Liverpool and other industrial districts tell a similar story of increased unionist majorities. Mr. Chamberlain, who was listening to the results over the telephone, sent the following message to the people of Birmingham:

"This has been a good day's work for the empire." London itself felt the full tide of the Unionist victory. The Liberal report from the metropolis will not amount to more than seven or eight out of 62 members. Indeed, the isolated Liberal successes only serve to enhance the sweeping nature of the Unionist triumph. In all directions the anti-war candidates have been defeated. Even Mr. Cremer's success at Haggerston, is doubtful, as a recount has been demanded.

The Kaiser Issues Another Note to the Powers.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—An official of the Foreign Office informs the correspondent of the Associated Press that Germany is issuing a second note to the powers regarding the method of punishing offenders for the outrages in China. This note is issued as a result of the edict of the Emperor of China beginning yesterday. The text of the note of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Count Von Bulow, to the powers is as follows:—"The Imperial Government is informed of an edict of the Chinese Emperor by which the total of Shanghai, where the punishment of offenders is named for having supported the Boxers. The Imperial Government assumes that all the other cabinets concerned have received a similar communication. According to the authenticity of the edict, on which we, for our part, do not wish to cast a doubt until evidence is received to the contrary, you can perceive in it the first sign towards a practical basis for the re-establishment of an orderly state of things in China. The Imperial Government, therefore, proposes that the powers come to an agreement to instruct their diplomatic representatives in China to examine and give their opinion on the following points:—"First—Whether the list contained in the edict of persons to be punished is sufficient and correct. "Second—Whether the punishments proposed meet the case. "Third—In what way the powers can control the carrying out of the penalties imposed. "The information received up to the present concerning the reception of this proposal by the powers justifies the belief that a general understanding on this matter may be looked for."

STOPPED BY DEATH.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct. 5.—Lying at the morgue in this city with a bullet through his heart is the body of a powerfully built man, with black hair and mustache, about 6 feet tall, and aged apparently 45 years. He was one of two men who held up the Kansas City passenger train on the Burlington road three miles south of this city at midnight. Express Messenger Chas. Baxter killed him. The two men boarded the train at Union Pacific transfer, and climbed over the tender just as the train was crossing the Mosquito Creek bridge. Engineer Donnelly and Frank Holman, fireman, who were in charge of the engine, were ordered to stop as soon as the train had crossed the bridge. While one man held a revolver on the engine crew his companion went back and cut off the baggage and mail cars, leaving the day coaches and sleepers standing on the main line. Acting under orders, the engineer pulled the train half a mile down the track, where a stop was made. The two robbers approached the express car and ordered Messenger Baxter to open the door. He refused to do so. Under compulsion, Engineer Donnelly attached a stick of dynamite to the side door of the car and blew it open. In the meantime Messenger Baxter seized his gun and escaped from the door on the opposite side of the car. As soon as the door was opened one of the robbers entered the car while his companion marched the engineer and fireman back to the engine. Baxter crept around in front of the engine, and seeing the robber keeping guard over the engine crew, fired one shot and killed him instantly. As soon as the shot was heard the robber in the car jumped to the ground and fled through a cornfield. The dead man was brought to this city. Nothing was found on it by which it could be identified. The robber inside the car was preparing to blow the safe at the time his companion was killed.

It is right off the top. The cream of the milking, so to speak. You'll say so when you see our New Fall Shoes For Men at $3, $4 and $5.

Thibodeau & Jacques What About Your Fall Kid Gloves?

We desire to direct your attention to our magnificent assortment of Perrin's French kid gloves, the best and most reliable gloves made in the world. This store has had the lead for kid gloves for many years, but this season we have out-done ourselves. Remember when we say kid gloves we mean real kid not a lamb skin imitation. Perrin-Frere make nothing but guaranteed kid gloves and we are agents for their productions in Chatham. A pleasing feature of this store is the fitting of gloves by an expert who will be pleased to fit your hands in a pair of our Perrin gloves, every pair guaranteed, all the new shades to match your suits, as well as black and white in dressed and suede gloves, prices $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. In order to meet the demand for a cheap glove we have secured the agency for an Italian glove, 2 dome fastener, in black, brown and tan, the best glove we have ever sold at the price 50c.

Miss Barrett and Miss Munro, of Ottawa, will give a course of lessons in embroidery and lace work during the next three weeks in the parlors of the Hotel Garner. Lessons free, hours from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Last week Frank Hallinan secured a heifer from Wm. Agar, of the Prince Albert Road, Chatham township, that weighed 740 lbs. The animal was a thoroughbred Durham and was raised by Wm. McGuigan, Cedar Springs.

Mr. W. E. Rispen is having extensive repairs made to the Elbert's Hotel, corner of King and Fifth streets, putting in waterworks and modern conveniences, and otherwise putting the property in good condition. There are a number of good rooms to rent in this building, which can be secured on application to Mr. Rispen.

There was a large attendance at the Epworth League meeting in Wesley Church, Raleigh, on Wednesday evening. The meeting was conducted by Miss Ethel Brown. After the religious exercises a short literary program was provided. Miss Gertrude Brown gave a reading, Miss M. A. Anker, Miss E. Crowe, Mrs. R. P. Gilbert and Mrs. Richards. The Rev. Dr. Hannon occupied the chair during the presentation of the following program:

Chairman's address.

Selection—Apollo Mandolin and Guitar Club.

Recitation—Miss L. McKenzie.

Address—Rev. H. W. Locke.

Solo—Miss Clara Gammage.

Address—Mr. C. Austin.

Song—Mr. W. Turner.

God Save the Queen.

The members of the Apollo Mandolin Club present: Lester Heath, guitar; Brundage, mandolin; W. Wrigley, mandolin; Earl Sheldrick, flute. The ladies realized a nice sum from the harvest home, which was a grand success.

All the directors of the Agricultural Society are expecting great results from the fair on Oct. 9, 10, 11. The Penitential Fair this year certainly promises well.

Herbert Fisher was with Alie Drake on his Idaho trip, and he, too, assisted in killing the bear. Fisher hid the hide of the bear that Alie shot, but he also claims to have had a hand in the execution, and his claim stands indisputed.

Unintentionally a King St. firm forgot their delivery horse when leaving and left it standing tied all night in the rear of Dossie's Martin's stable. Humane Officer Henry Dagneau saw the horse and had it put in a nearby stable. He ordered it to be fed and rested all day.

Bedlam was again turned loose in Windsor last night. Another Windsor boy returned home from the South African war and the citizens were apparently not giving him just as royal a welcome as the three other boys have received. The hero who was given this ovation by his fellow-townsmen is Clarence K. Horton. He comes back covered with glory and has a bullet wound in his leg.

HOUSE TO LET—A comfortable and commodious brick cottage on Weirton St., West, with storm porch and wind-up, also window screens etc., good water and gas.

LOOK WANTED—At Tecumseh House, Wallaceburg, apply to E. Bourassa, 22 Bath St., Chatham, or apply at hotel.

The plaintiffs (S. I. Co.) then appealed to the Court of Appeal in Toronto but there they met with the same fate, as that court unanimously upheld the judgment of trial judge and again put the costs upon the Sutherland-Innes Co.

The plaintiffs then appealed to the supreme court at Ottawa and the case was argued there at the last sitting, and judgment has just been delivered by the court reversing all the judges in the courts below and restraining Romney from collecting the taxes and ordering that township to pay the costs in the different courts through which the case has passed.

This is another evidence of the proverbial uncertainty of the law. The township won in all the Ontario courts without a dissenting judge, but the supreme court at Ottawa (in which more than half the judges are from other provinces) reverse everything previously decided and orders Romney, which until now had been successful in all the courts, to pay all costs in all the courts. Chas. R. Atkinson, Q. C., and Geo. B. Douglas, have acted throughout for the Sutherland-Innes Co., and in the argument in the supreme court at Ottawa, W. Wallace, Q. C., also acted for them; while A. B. Aylesworth, Q. C., and J. B. Rankin, Q. C., acted for the township throughout.

The ordinary layman unacquainted with the legal proceedings is inclined to ask, "If the law as pronounced by the supreme court at Ottawa is to be taken as correct, why should not the case have gone there directly from the Chatham trial and thus prevented the costs and delay of the other intermediate appeals?" Surely there are some reforms for our legislatures to make!

WHO WINS, ANYHOW?

MRS. GARNER DEAD

There passed away to-day about 12:30, a lady whose name has been more closely allied with the growth of this city than that of probably any other woman in it. Born in Peebles, Southern Scotland, in 1834, she came to this country in the early fifties, when her father, the late John Kerr, settled in Maidstone. In 1855 Miss Isabella Kerr came to Chatham and shortly afterwards married John Garner. They engaged in the brewing business and prospered. Mr. Garner passed away in 1881, while proprietor of the Garner House, and Mrs. Garner the following year built a residence on Thames street, where she has since resided with her housekeeper, Miss Kingston, and of late years her niece, Miss Aggie Kerr, of Maidstone. Mrs. Garner had five brothers and four sisters. One brother alone predeceased her. They are: Margaret, wife of Hugh Kerr, this city; William Kerr, John Kerr, Mrs. Henry Arnold, Mrs. Maidstone; Peter Kerr, Birmingham, Mich.; Robert Kerr, Milton Dyke, and Mrs. Hunt, Dorchester. Mrs. Garner owned the Hotel Garner, the Victoria Block, stock in the City of Chatham and shares in a number of insurance companies, her property aggregating in all over $150,000.

TEA AND CONCERT.

A splendid tea and concert was given last evening in the Providence Methodist Church, of which Rev. John Osterhout is pastor. The tea was served in the back of the church and the tables were filled three or four times. Some 400 persons had supper. The ladies who looked after the wants of the guests were Miss B. Cook, Miss G. Cook, Miss G. Crowe, Miss M. A. Anker, Miss E. Crowe, Mrs. R. P. Gilbert and Mrs. Richards. The Rev. Dr. Hannon occupied the chair during the presentation of the following program:

All the directors of the Agricultural Society are expecting great results from the fair on Oct. 9, 10, 11. The Penitential Fair this year certainly promises well.

Herbert Fisher was with Alie Drake on his Idaho trip, and he, too, assisted in killing the bear. Fisher hid the hide of the bear that Alie shot, but he also claims to have had a hand in the execution, and his claim stands indisputed.

Unintentionally a King St. firm forgot their delivery horse when leaving and left it standing tied all night in the rear of Dossie's Martin's stable. Humane Officer Henry Dagneau saw the horse and had it put in a nearby stable. He ordered it to be fed and rested all day.

Bedlam was again turned loose in Windsor last night. Another Windsor boy returned home from the South African war and the citizens were apparently not giving him just as royal a welcome as the three other boys have received. The hero who was given this ovation by his fellow-townsmen is Clarence K. Horton. He comes back covered with glory and has a bullet wound in his leg.

The plaintiffs (S. I. Co.) then appealed to the Court of Appeal in Toronto but there they met with the same fate, as that court unanimously upheld the judgment of trial judge and again put the costs upon the Sutherland-Innes Co.

The plaintiffs then appealed to the supreme court at Ottawa and the case was argued there at the last sitting, and judgment has just been delivered by the court reversing all the judges in the courts below and restraining Romney from collecting the taxes and ordering that township to pay the costs in the different courts through which the case has passed.

This is another evidence of the proverbial uncertainty of the law. The township won in all the Ontario courts without a dissenting judge, but the supreme court at Ottawa (in which more than half the judges are from other provinces) reverse everything previously decided and orders Romney, which until now had been successful in all the courts, to pay all costs in all the courts. Chas. R. Atkinson, Q. C., and Geo. B. Douglas, have acted throughout for the Sutherland-Innes Co., and in the argument in the supreme court at Ottawa, W. Wallace, Q. C., also acted for them; while A. B. Aylesworth, Q. C., and J. B. Rankin, Q. C., acted for the township throughout.

The ordinary layman unacquainted with the legal proceedings is inclined to ask, "If the law as pronounced by the supreme court at Ottawa is to be taken as correct, why should not the case have gone there directly from the Chatham trial and thus prevented the costs and delay of the other intermediate appeals?" Surely there are some reforms for our legislatures to make!

WHO WINS, ANYHOW?

There is, however, evidently some doubt as to the above decision as J. B. Rankin, B. A., Q. C., counsel for Romney, is in receipt of the following telegram, via C. F. R., at noon today:

Ottawa, Oct. 5, 1900.

J. B. Rankin, Esq., Q. C.,

Sutherland vs. Romney appeal dismissed as to by-law 601 with costs and as to the by-law 602 without costs.

WILD BOYISH TRICKS

CRAZY PRANKS PERPETRATED BY COLLEGE STUDENTS.

"In all ages," said the man who observes, "boys have been boys, and at times their play may smack of brutality, at others it is amusing and even clever. Some years ago at Harvard a cart containing bricks broke down in front of Memorial Hall. It being then late, the driver left it there for the night. The next morning, securely resting on the ridge of the roof of Memorial Hall, was that self same load of bricks, although how it got there is to this day a mystery. The scuttle to the roof was far too small to admit the body of the cart. On the other hand, the cart was too heavy, it seemed, to have been pulled up by hand from the outside, and besides neither wall nor roof showed any sign of its passage. Yet there it was, and there it remained until at considerable expense to pockets and temper the college authorities had it removed and restored to its clamorous owner.

"The preparatory school to which I went was in a small country village. A fire was looked upon as a great affair and was attended by the students in a body. Once there our custom was to hurl ribald remarks and advice at the various firemen by name. To get even it was their habit, at unexpected moments, to turn the hose upon us. A few duckings taught us caution, and we at length were usually able to scamper away without a wetting.

"One bitter winter afternoon we gathered at a fire and engaged in our usual occupation of baiting the firemen. At length they tried to reach us with the hose, but having anticipated the move we were without its range. But unnoticed behind us had been standing the principal of the school. On his august person the stream of water descended like an avenging fate, and before the panic stricken firemen could turn it away he was wet to his respectable skin. The water froze as it struck, and we were presently gazing upon a human icicle.

"At length we recovered sufficiently to go to his aid, and wrapping him in coats, drove him rapidly to his home, during which the entire school shook in its shoes, while the wretched firemen were for resigning in a body. But he was a thorough good fellow, and beyond a few words as to the wrong we were doing in interfering with a public servant in the discharge of his duty he allowed the incident to pass by unnoticed.

"The town hall was one of those hideous and bleak structures so common in the New England towns of 20 years ago, where the only attempt at decoration was a funeral cupola in the exact center of the roof, on top of which was a large figure of Justice. To the horror of the selectmen the town awoke one morning to gaze upon a transfigured Justice. A light blue crinoline skirt and red shawl enveloped her figure, and she looked coquettishly out from beneath the shadow of an immense poke bonnet. As a particularly happy thought, she was weighing two babies in the scales.

"Then came an awful row. The town had no hook and ladder truck, without the aid of which no one could be found to remove the garments. The nearest hook and ladder company was 12 miles distant and required not only permission of the town council but the expenditure of cash to bring it over. The selectmen declared that as it was manifestly a trick of the students the faculty should pay. The faculty firmly refused, holding that there was no proof that such was the case. For ten days the controversy raged, and then the selectmen gave way and paid for the hook and ladder truck. The day the hook and ladder company was to come a storm sprang up which lasted for three days. When the goddess was finally stripped of her clothing, the dyes had run, and she emerged tinted with all the colors of the rainbow. She had to be painted afresh, the selectmen footing the cost with sullen faces.

"The secret was successfully kept as to how the goddess was decorated. The night previous to the occurrence there had been a show in the town hall. When it was over, the captain of the football team and two fellow conspirators had sneaked beneath the balcony fronted stage. When all was quiet, they had ascended to the roof. Once there one end of a long rope had been attached to the captain's waist and the other to that of one of the others. The third man accompanied the climber to the base of the figure with the bundle of clothes. The skirt and babies were easily placed, but the shawl and bonnet came as harder work, the figure rocking fearfully on its base. The idea of the rope was that in case the dresser fell he would be saved from rolling to the ground. If such an accident had happened, when he bounded from the sloping sides of the roof he undoubtedly would have carried the football captain to the ground with him. They didn't think of this, however, and it gave them a greater feeling of safety."

A Sure Sign.

When a young lady begins to manifest an interest in the arrangement of a young man's cravat, his bachelor days are numbered. It is time to begin to hoard money.

It is the humble man that advances. He recognizes his imperfections and strives to improve. His progress is the result of his knowledge of self. The vain, conceited, arrogant man stands still.

It's Your Nerves.

It's the Condition of Your Nerves That Either Makes Your Life a Round of Pleasure or a Useless Burden

To many women life is one round of sickness, weakness and ill health. To attempt even the lightest household duties fatigues them. Many of the symptoms accompanying this state of decline are: a feeling of tiredness, waking, faintness, dizziness, sinking feeling, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, cold hands and feet, headache, dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back and side and all other accompaniments of a run down and weakened constitution.

All these symptoms and conditions are simply the result of a poor quality and defective circulation of the blood, with a wasting away of the nerve forces.

QUIET HOUR CHATS

By Laura Jean Libbey.

THE POPULAR MAIDEN.

By Laura Jean Libbey.

There are many estimable people who fall entirely in the knack of acquiring and holding friends.

Every one loves the bright, cheerful girl; but who signs for the companion ship of the fretful, irritable girl, the girl who picks up the most trivial remark that drops thoughtlessly from one's lips and frets upon having a fit of the sulks over it?

"Let your temper be sweet and even, my dear, and who signs for the companion ship of the fretful, irritable girl, the girl who picks up the most trivial remark that drops thoughtlessly from one's lips and frets upon having a fit of the sulks over it?"

Do not get so intimate with any companion that you would have cause to fear her breaking off her intimacy with you.

Make no unkind remarks concerning others to your companion. For from that moment you are in her power, and she knows it.

Always preserve a certain amount of gentle dignity in your demeanor, even with your closest friends.

Never get too familiar with them, remembering also that "familiarity breeds contempt."

Never arouse envy in the breasts of your companions. It is a noxious plant which spreads alarmingly as it grows, and you can never tell where its poisonous seeds may be sown by treacherous breezes.

Be careful not to talk continually of yourself. The subject may be deeply interesting to you, but has little or no interest for your listeners. In fact they are often bored almost beyond the limit of patience by hearing story after story in which you were the heroine.

Be very chary of self-praise. It is not well to be continually throwing bouquets to yourself. Let others do that.

You will see that it takes tact, kindness of heart and action, and true nobility of spirit to attract and hold friendship, my dear girl. But any one can do this if they once make their mind up to obliterate all the faults that I have pointed out here.

Let her who is disliked by every one with whom she comes in contact look carefully at her own mannerisms and actions to discover the cause. For there it lies assuredly.

I have just a few more words of counsel to add, and those are: No matter in what society you may find yourself, above all things be natural in manner and speech.

Never strive vainly to keep up a fawning conversation. Better be silent and look pleasant unless you have something sensible and fitting to remark.

Never strive vainly to keep up a fawning conversation. Better be silent and look pleasant unless you have something sensible and fitting to remark.

The most amazing thing about a Moro is his trousers. If he is of any station, or has any money, they are made of silk, and the more colors and the brighter they are the better. And the greens and reds are not soft, subdued affairs; they are the most violent and vehement things in the color line. It is the fit of them that is the wonder, though. If they were of the right shade of brown, you couldn't tell that there were any trousers. By way of explanation to her friend she pointed out that the waistband had three buttons at intervals of about an inch, so that the skirt could be let out or taken up at pleasure.

"What on earth is that for?" asked her friend. "The first hole is to be used in the morning, the second after dinner, and the third after a walk."

"The simplest way is the best way to make ice-cream. Ice-cream that has been cooked, boiled and doctored with eggs and cornstarch is not nearly so good as that made with pure or slightly diluted cream. To every cup of pure cream, if the cream is very rich, take a cupful of sweet milk. If the cream is not very rich do not dilute it. Sweeten to taste with pulverized sugar, seeing that the sugar is well dissolved, and flavor with vanilla flavoring. Set the pan which contains the sweetened cream on ice until it is thoroughly chilled, then pour it into the freezer and freeze.

FROM THE BEST THINKERS

Which of your philosophical systems is other than a dream theorem; a net quotient, confidently given out, where divisor and dividend are both unknown? What are all your national wars with their Moscow retreats, and their revolutionary, hate-diac revolutions, but the somnambulism of uneasy sleepers. This dreaming, this somnambulism is what we on earth call life; wherein the most indeed undoubtedly wander, as if they knew right hand from left; yet they only are wiser who know that they know nothing.—Thomas Carlyle.

The soul of man Resembleth water. From heaven it cometh, To heaven it soareth, And then again To earth descendeth. Changing ever.—Goethe

There is a marked peculiarity of the American people apparent almost from the first: the singular buoyancy and elasticity both of the national and individual character. It may be the product of the brilliant, exhilarating invigorating climate; it may be the accompaniment of the vast horizon opened out by the boundless territory it may be partly the youth of the nation, but its existence is unquestionable.—Dean Stanley.

The more I've viewed this world, the more I've found. That filled as 'tis with scenes and creatures rare Fancy commands, within her own bright round, scenes and creatures far more fair.—Thomas Moore.

"What do you think of his nerve?" exclaimed the young man who was notoriously tricky in business; "he called me a bare-faced robber." "Of well," replied the man who knew him, "probably in his excitement he didn't notice your mustache."

GIRLHOOD

Mothers, we call your attention to your daughters who are going to school. If they are weak, if they feel tired, if they have no ambition to study look out for them. It is only a matter of time until you have to take them out of school. Your own experience should teach you what we refer to. You should not leave your daughters to their own ignorance, for they will surely die on your hands or be invalids for years and a burden to you. But if you take proper care of them, they will come forth from girlhood to womanhood, healthy, strong and cheerful. Is it not your greatest ambition to have them so? At the first symptoms make them take Dr. Coderre's Red Pills, and then you need fear nothing, as they will come out of that period as fresh and healthy as you wish to have them. This is true; before going any further, get the proof of what we tell you. We do not fear, for just as sure as there is a sun, Dr. Coderre's Red Pills will do for your daughters what they have done for so many others. To prove the truth of our statements we give you the names and addresses of the following ladies to whom you can write:

Miss Rose Greenwood, 125 Orange St., Fall River, Mass., writes: "For three years I was a great sufferer from female weakness, was constipated and had back and side aches nearly all the time. I was awfully nervous. The doctors cost me lots of money, but they could not help me. Dr. Coderre's Red Pills, together with the Purgative Tablets have cured me."

Dr. Coderre's Red Pills are not only good for young ladies, they are good for old ladies and married women as well. They are not intended for any bad purpose and married women can take them under any conditions. They cure all diseases peculiar to women. They are not a cure all. They are not to be compared with old-fashioned liquid remedies advertised to cure everything. This great specialty for woman's diseases should be given the preference in all cases. If you have been suffering for years, we wish you would write our doctor specialists, or go and see them at their offices. They will give you advice by mail or at the office, absolutely free. Their success in treating women's diseases is wonderful. It is well worth your while to consult them if you are sick. Send us your name on a postal card and we will mail you free, our doctor's book for Pale and Weak Women. Constipated women should not depend upon Dr. Coderre's Red Pills to cure that trouble, for the pills are not purgative. Women who suffer thus, should take Dr. Coderre's Purgative Tablets together with the Red Pills. These two remedies have a wonderful effect upon the system. The Tablets sell at 25c. a box and the Red Pills at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. You should read carefully the directions around each box of pills and follow them strictly. Our pills are for sale by all first class druggists. Beware of imitations.

Miss Isabel West Main Street, Chicopee Falls, Mass., writes: "I had to take my daughter Lilly from school, she used to faint with the least fatigue. She was not developed for her age. She is now 15. My physician encouraged me to give her Dr. Coderre's Red Pills. She has not been sick since she took the first box. She is now strong and has a good appetite. She is regular and the symptoms have disappeared."

Miss Fay Jewell, Box 333, Sherbrooke, Que., writes: "I have not been well since I was 14 years of age. Sometimes I thought I would die. My periods sometimes would come twice a month. I only used Dr. Coderre's Red Pills once when I found that they were helping me. My heart ached terribly and I was very nervous. I could not dress without fainting. Everything I ate gathered like a ball in my stomach. I had to have my hair cut on account of my headaches. I was pale and thin, and so weak that my limbs would tremble under me. It is Dr. Coderre's Red Pills alone that have cured me."

Miss Maude Slater, 107 Cedar Grove St., New Bedford, Mass., writes: "I have been sick in bed and I was so weak that I could not even rest my hands. The doctor thought that I was in consumption. I coughed and had pains everywhere. It is surprising what good Dr. Coderre's Red Pills have done me. My appetite is good, I sleep well and feel rested in the morning. I can do all my work without getting tired."

DEATH IN THE VIAL.

THE FIFTH TABLET CARRIED A DOSE THAT WAS FATAL.

Why the Doctor Had a Premonition That Misfortune Had Overtaken a Wealthy Planter—How the Story of the Crime Leaked Out.

The story was told by a police commissioner of another city who was in New Orleans recently on a visit. "The most ingenious murder I ever knew anything about," he said, "was committed by a young physician. He was a rising practitioner at a place where I formerly lived, and with your permission, I will speak of him simply as Dr. Smith.

"About a dozen years ago, as nearly as I remember, this young man went on a visit to a relative in a neighboring city, and one afternoon, on the fourth day of his stay, he started a lady member of the household by remarking that he had a feeling that some misfortune had overtaken a wealthy planter whom they both knew very well, and whom I will call Colonel Jones. The colonel was a prominent resident of the doctor's home town and had a large outward estate, which he was in the habit of visiting one Sunday a week.

"On the day of Smith's singular premonition he was on one of those tours of inspection, but failed to come back, and the following morning his corpse was found lying in a cornfield. He had evidently been dead about 24 hours, and from the appearance of the body seemed to have been seized with some sort of fit or convulsion.

"Of course the affair created a great stir, and the police made a pretty thorough investigation, but the only thing they found that merited any special attention was a small, round vial in the dead man's vest pocket. It was about the diameter of a lead pencil by four inches long, and had originally contained a couple of dozen medicinal tablets, which, lying one on top of the other, filled the little bottle to the cork. A few still remained in the bottom.

"Upon inquiry it was learned without trouble that the tablets were a harmless preparation of soda, and that Jones himself had bought them at a local drug store. That ended suspicion in that quarter, and for lack of any thing better, the coroner returned a verdict of death from sunstroke.

There was no autopsy. "Some time after Jones had been buried," continued the police commissioner, "I learned accidentally of Dr. Smith's curious prophecy, and it set me to thinking. Eventually I evolved a theory, but it was impossible at the time to sustain it with proof, and for five or six years I kept it pigeonholed in my brain, waiting for something to happen. Meanwhile, to everybody's surprise, Dr. Smith went to the dogs. He began by drinking heavily, gradually lost his practice, and finally slipped out to avoid prosecution for cashing a fake draft. After his flight I learned enough to absolutely confirm my theory as to Jones' death. What had really happened was this:

"Dr. Smith owed the old man a considerable sum of money, and had given a note, upon which he had forged his father's name as indorser. The planter was pressing him for payment and had threatened suit, which meant inevitable exposure. One day, while they were conversing, Jones pulled out a little glass vial and swallowed one of the tablets it contained, remarking that he took one daily, after dinner, for sour stomach.

"That suggested a diabolical scheme of assassination, which the doctor proceeded to put into execution. Repairing to his office, he made up a duplicate tablet of strychnine, and, encountering the colonel next day, asked him to let him have the vial for a moment, so he could copy the address of the makers from the label.

"Jones handed it over unsuspectingly, and while his attention was briefly turned elsewhere Smith put in the prepared tablet. He placed it under the top four, thus making it reasonable to believe that his victim would take it on the fifth day from that date. Next morning he left town, so as to be far away when the tragedy was consummated, and some mysterious, uncontrollable impulse evidently led him to make the prediction that first excited my suspicion.

"When I made certain of all this, I located Smith in Oklahoma and was on the point of applying for an extradition warrant when he anticipated me by contracting pneumonia and dying. I thereupon returned the case to its mental pigeonhole, where it has remained ever since.

"Pardon me for asking," said one of the listeners, "but is that really a true story, or are you entertaining us with interesting fiction?"

"It is absolutely true," replied the narrator.

"But how did you learn the particulars?"

"Well," said the police commissioner, smiling, "Smith was like most clever criminals—he had one weak spot. He was fool enough to tell a woman. She blabbed."

At a Course Dinner.

A woman just arrived from Australia was recently negotiating with an agent in London for a house in one of the newer districts of Kensington. She asked if it was a nice neighborhood. "It is thoroughly desirable, madam," replied the house agent. "They are without exception soup and fish families."

It is not correct to say that a girl "renders" a song. If she lives long enough to become of some use in the world, she may some day render land, but she can't render a song.—Aitchison

MANY MINES CLOSED.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 26.—The few developments in the strike situation here since Monday were favorable to the strikers. Three additional collieries were closed yesterday in this region, because the number of men who reported for duty was not sufficient to operate them. In this city but one colliery is working. That is the Cambridge, which has its full complement of men.

Other collieries in this region still in operation are the Bast, at Ashland; Potts at Locustdale; Locust Spring at Locust Gap, and the North Franklin at The North. The Bast colliery is said to be short-handed.

The English-speaking mine workers of this borough yesterday formed a branch of the United Mine Workers, and 250 men are said to have joined the union.

The troops yesterday had nothing to occupy their time but guard duty, practice marches and regimental parades.

It was learned last night that Sheriff Harvey of this (Luzerne) county has telegraphed to Governor Stone asking that troops be sent to this county on the ground that he (the sheriff) cannot guarantee the safety of persons or property during the night marches of the strikers. The Governor, it is understood, is considering the matter.

The strikers met after midnight at Cranberry, and when they reached Tompkins they were stopped by Sheriff Harvey and 30 armed deputies, who went to that place on a special train. The sheriff read the Riot Act to them. The strikers then scattered in different directions and began missionary work in preventing night marches of the strikers. A number of men from going to work, and in consequence the Derringer and the Gowen mines were crippled. The Tompkins mine was only slightly affected.

Four of the marchers were arrested, charged with breach of the peace, and were taken to South Wilkesbarre and committed without bail.

Rhore Trescott, a coal iron policeman, says he saw President Mitchell and "Mother" Jones at a hill at Derringer directing the movements of the men. President Mitchell denies this. It was rumored that another march was to be made to-day to Black Creek, three miles from Hazelton.

The most important development here yesterday outside of the request for soldiers, was the answer of G. B. Markle & Co. to the demands presented by the firm's employees 10 days ago. The answer is not considered satisfactory by many of the Markle employees, and what action they will take at their meeting to-day is not certain. There was much talk among them last night of a strike.

The firm's reply to the demands of the men for a 5 to 10 per cent advance, announces its willingness to pay the men semi-monthly, agrees to arbitrate the question of better pay, refuses on the demand of the driver boys and engineers for more pay, promises to adjust grievances relating to the carrying of men and tools down through the slope in mine cars, offers the men a new lease for propping, which is lower than the rate asked for, agrees to build powder houses, so that the men will not have to carry the explosive a great distance, and concedes the pillar robbing grievance.

The Markle firm then announced that at the request of the mine workers in its employ work will be suspended to-day in order to give the men an opportunity to consider the company's answer.

PREMIER MARCHAND DEAD.

The First Minister of the Quebec Government Has Passed Away.

Quebec, Sept. 26.—Hon. F. G. Marchand, Premier of the Province, died at 7:45 last evening.

Hon. Felix Gabriel Marchand was the son of Gabriel Marchand, merchant, of St. John's, Quebec. He was born at St. John's Jan. 9, 1832, and received his education at the college of St. Hyacinthe. He was made a notary public in 1855, and entered the practice of his profession in his native town, where he remained until his death. He was returned to the Legislature as member for St. John's in 1897, and had occupied the seat continuously since. He was chosen as Speaker of the Assembly in 1898, and was re-elected in 1900. He was also chosen as Speaker of the House of Commons in 1900.

Marchand was called upon to form a new Administration, and was sworn into the office of Treasurer in the new Cabinet. Deceased was for many years an active journalist, and did much to elevate the tone of the French-Canadian press. Mr. Marchand was distinguished as the author of several dramatic works, among them "Tatenville," a comedy (1869), "Erreurs of a Count" (1872), a vaudeville sketch: "Un Bonheur en Attire un Autre," a comedy (1884), and "Les Faux Brillants," a comedy (1885). Later on he published a manual treating of the notarial profession in Canada. Shortly after his death he took the lead in the volunteer movement in the district of Therville, the result being the formation of the 21st Battalion, Richelieu Light Infantry, to the command of which he succeeded in 1895. Col. Marchand was on active service during the Fenian raids, his corps being sent to the front at the first alarm.

Brush Fire Raging.

BABY'S FACE MASS OF SORES

They Almost Closed Her Eyes. Physicians of No Benefit. Healed by CUTICURA.

"When my little sister was four months old her face broke out with sores. Small pimples broke out over her face and it was one mass of sores, which almost closed her eyes and reached into the corners of her mouth. For several weeks a physician attended her, but as she refused to take or benefit from his treatment we searched for other means. We bought a box of CUTICURA and a box of CUTICURA (ointment). Her face healed and she grew healthy again. You can use this letter as a testimonial. Signed by parents. ROSA BURGER, Solomon, Kan. Signed by parents. FRED BURGER, Mrs. C. BURGER.

TETTER ON HANDS CURED BY CUTICURA

I had Tetters on my hands for two years. My hands were red, swollen, and itched so that I could not do my work. I tried everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried CUTICURA and it cured me. It is so much better than the other remedies I have tried. Signed by SALLIE E. COPELAND, Woodland, N. C. Sept. 17, 1900.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood purifiers and blemish cures, internally (to cleanse the blood of all impurities and poisonous elements), with warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, followed by gentle applications of CUTICURA, the great skin cure externally (to clear the skin and scalp and restore the hair), will instantly relieve and speedily cure the most horrid Tetters, eruptions, and sores of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

PIMPLES blotches, blackheads, red, rough, oily skin, itching, burning, and all other blemishes of the face and scalp, cured by CUTICURA. PIMPLES, blotches, blackheads, red, rough, oily skin, itching, burning, and all other blemishes of the face and scalp, cured by CUTICURA.

If I were to name the three most precious resources of life I should say books, friends and nature.—John Burroughs.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles and feel the result in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, run-down feeling, but "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man," writes J. W. Gardner, of Idaho, Ind., "when he is all run-down and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat and sleep and feel like a new man. Only 50c. Every bottle guaranteed by A. I. McCall & Co., druggists.

Fortune may render a man unhappy; it is only himself that can make himself despicable.

A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman, and when it is ungratified she is deprived of the greatest happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy. This remedy imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, and of which in often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1000 pages of advice, and which is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing and customs. Gentlemen,—I tell from a bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as the men stepped on it, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it. In an hour and a half I was nearly well. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of it. I can sincerely recommend it as the best Liniment that I know of in use. Yours truly, C. H. GORDON.

In the Jaws of a Lion

The gallant Major Swaine tells of being knocked senseless by a lion that lacerated his arm. His thrilling escape from the jaws of death is only equalled by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved thousands from desperate Throat and Lung troubles. "All doctors said my wife would soon die of Consumption," writes L. Q. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "but your wonderful medicine completely cured her, and saved her life." Satisfaction is guaranteed by A. I. McCall & Co., who give ten bottles free. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Flour should not be kept in a store-room or pantry where there is cooked food, as it readily absorbs odors. Ignorance of this fact accounts for poor bread often than an inferior quality of flour.

BEING POPULAR.

Be Nice If You Want to Succeed in Attaining that End.

Popularity is won by a mixture of self-suppression and self-assertion. The first step toward learning how to please most people is by realizing that they are more interested in themselves than in you, and the measure of their regard will be the degree in which you minister to their pleasure and self-importance.

The way to be popular is to give much and take nothing. After all, we ourselves like best the friends who care to know details of our private experiences, so why should we act toward others as though their affairs were matters of indifference to us? Learn to rejoice when you hear of the success of an acquaintance, then you will not forget to congratulate her when she next meets you. Be sorry for a neighbor's clouded prospects—she will be gratified to find herself of consequence to you.

This worldly sermon has for its text, "Be nice if you want to be popular." There is no need to debate the question "Is popularity worth seeking?" for all pursue this form of the bubble reputation. Society would dissolve into fragments if we did not.

Another essential ingredient of popularity is "cheek." Timidity is the extra apostrophe of flattery that spoils the Modest is a mistake, except in the company of highly gifted individuals, and even they would mostly rather be playfully than actually worshipped. Malicious gossip must be kept under the lock and key of the will. It repeated it alarms those whom most amuses, who think "If Elizabeth would say such sharp things about Maud, what will she say of me?"

In conversation assist the backward and help the adventurous to execute clever manoeuvres; in literary discussion be as brilliant as you please, in short sentences, but exact the point for praise from the rambling arguments of others—in fact, remember always that a human being thinks "How can I acquire myself well?" not "How nice it is to meet with so much cleverness!"

This is all give and no take? True. But the reward is "being popular."

Boer Ladies at Home.

Some interesting notes about the ways and customs of the Dutch ladies appear in the British Weekly from a correspondent who spent some time in Boer households in the Walkerstrom district of the Transvaal. The ladies, we are told, have very pale complexions, in the whiteness of which they take their pride. To keep off the corching sun's rays, they envelop their heads in white linen scarves, worn like the nuns and sisters of mercy, and over this wear either the sunbonnet or "cap," or a large straw hat tied under the chin with strings. They have the impression that they "burn black," and know nothing of the becoming brown sunburn which English girls like to get.

Class there is an American organ or "seraphine," and the girls are generally in the most Boer house of the better ally able to play simple tunes and accompany songs and hymns. Four girls in one house where the correspondent was staying surprised their visitor by singing the familiar old songs, "On the Gloaming," and "Just Before the Battle, Mother," in preference to Dutch songs. As only one seemed able to speak English, it was curious to hear the others join in the choruses. The daughter of the house is always the one to bring the customary cup of coffee to the visitors.

At the same house the daughters entertained their visitor in their bedroom by showing her box after box full of elaborate crochet-work, counterpanes, antimacassars, and yards and yards of crocheted lace frillings, which they had made. They are also very clever makers of paper, bowers, and may of the paper and entertaining rooms are freely adorned with colored bunches and festoons of them. In some houses the bedroom walls are adorned with pages from fashion-books. The ignorance of the Boer girls is sometimes surprising. One old Dutch "frail" quite thought that there were still or black people all over the world, and no doubt wondered how the English could get any work done with no servants at command.

Three Excellent Recipes.

CHEESE BISCUITS.—Place four ounces of Parmesan cheese and four ounces of pastry butter in a basin with a little salt and a few grains of cayenne. Rub into this two ounces of butter and make into a stiff dough with the yolk of an egg. Roll the pastry out thinly, cut it into rounds, prick with a fork and bake in a cool oven until crisp. Keep these biscuits in a tin until quite cool.

PRUNE JELLY.—Take one quart of prunes, stir until soft and mash through colander; half a box of gelatin; put in bowl, cover with cold water, let it soak for about five minutes; take a pint and a half of the mashed prunes, add to the gelatin, with three tablespoonsful of sugar, put on the stove, and let boil for five minutes; pour into jelly moulds and serve with cream.

EGGS A LA JOSEPHINE.—Boil six eggs twenty minutes. Remove the shells. Separate the yolks in thin, narrow slices, and mix them with an equal quantity of fine shredded cooked fish and a tablespoonful of fine parsley. Place the mixture on a plate in a circular or oval ring, and put the yolks in the centre. Set the plate in a steamer to heat the mixture. Make a pint of thick white sauce and pour around the edge of the dish.

Fish Not Brain Food.

The popular notion that "fish is a brain food" is a mistake, for eminent physiologists tell us that fish, no more than any other nitrogenous food, contributes to brain growth and development. All nitrogenous foods, such as fish, meat, eggs and so on, repair the waste tissues of the body, but fish is of no more importance than the others.

DRESDEN.

Oct. 5.—F. B. Carscadden and wife, of Nanapanee, are the guests of their uncle, Jas. B. Carscadden. Mr. and Mrs. Carscadden are on their wedding trip, the marriage taking place on Wednesday last at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Percy, of Nanapanee. The marriage of Walter H. Willson and Miss Clementine Sharp took place at the residence of the bride's parents yesterday at high noon in the presence of only immediate friends. The bride was gowned in white organdie and the bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Sharpe wore white organdie, over pale blue. Dr. H. S. McDonald acted as groomsmen. After the wedding breakfast the happy couple left for Montreal, Toronto and other points.
