Help Hutch & SHE help Ethiopia

By MIKE MACKINNON
Brunswickan Staff

In recent days media attention has been focused on the plight of starving thousands in the North African country of Ethiopia resulting in efforts at UNB to raise funds for relief.

Richard Hutchins, a 26 year old UNB graduate student, has been on a bread and water diet since Monday morning in an effort to raise $10,000. He has been in the Student Union Building 24 hours a day, spending the day in the cafeteria and sleeping in the Blue Lounge at night. Several challenges have been issued, including one on the part of the Aquinian to the Brunswickan and CHSR-FM to raise $100, and by the UNB Rugby Club to all other athletic organizations to match its $200 donation.

Students Help Ethiopia (SHE) is a student group of 12 people that have as their goals the following: to initiate fund raising in the Fredericton area and channel these funds through the YMCA International Development Agency; to spark an interest in the calamity of third world countries with the hope of creating efforts in the general public to raise funds and develop an awareness of the Third World.

Richard Hutchins and Gary Grant, President of SHE.

Trust funds have been set up in several Fredericton banks through which contributions can be made.

No specific goal has been set as it felt this would be too limiting. Trust funds will be open until December 31, a date set with taxation purposes in mind. At this point the money will be channelled through the World Alliance of the YMCA to the Sudan where refugee camps are operated. Most of the funds will be made available to Northern Ethiopia where Eritrea (a province in the control of government troops) is located, independent of the Marxist Ethiopian government.

As with Hutchins' effort, several challenges have been issued. In particular, SHE has challenged maritime universities to initiate fund raising activities on their campuses. In addition, fund raising has been started at Fredericton High for SHE and it is planned to begin activities in the residences.

FOX WINS BIG!!

By DAVID MAZEROLLE

Business student Larry Fox was elected SRC President Wednesday night, ending John Bosnitch's unprecedented two terms in the job. The election was rather an upset, with many observers predicting the vote to be split between Fox and Bosnitch's other challenger, Kaye MacPhee, thus delivering Bosnitch with another win.

Trends in voting for this election were unique, going against almost every voter pattern established in previous contests. Head hall, usually where Bosnitch, a survey engineering student, gains the most votes, was won by Larry Fox. McConnell Hall was expected to go in Fox's favour since he is a former residence student, but Bosnitch beat him there by 35 votes. Fox beat Bosnitch at every poll except McConnell and MacLeod House.

Kaye MacPhee finished a distant third, interestingly scoring low at Dunn and MacLeod, both featuring mostly women voters.

The election in many ways seemed a flout of John Bosnitch and anyone associated too strongly with him. Oliver Koncz, strongly linked with Bosnitch since the days of the Student Party, was defeated by Doug Burgess as VP Finance.

Our new VP Administration will be former MacKenzie house president Larry Long, to complete the revised SRC Executive. The position of VP Public Relations was not contested.

Dr. James Downey has granted approval of the organization, which will be working with UNB Comptroller John O'Brian to ensure proper accounting procedures are followed.

SHE expects to be known by the university community in two or three weeks and anticipates enthusiastic support from the student body. It is felt by this group that it is important for individual involvement.

Though Hutchins and SHE are running separate fund raising campaigns, there is no competition between them; they are aligned in their efforts to raise funds for Ethiopia and other North African countries, with SHE initially helping Hutch to reach his goal.

Law Students Society vs. CP's

By SHELLY NELSON
of the Brunswickan

"The Law Students' Society never close the bar on time and people always refuse to leave." With these words, Steve McGill, assistant-chief of Campus Police, goes on to add that CP's have to be begged to work at the Law Pubs "because of the hassles."

The alleged hassles refer to the Hallowe'en Pub held on the night of Oct. 27, at Ludlow Hall. According to Barb Whitenet, also Assistant-chief of Campus Police, Faisal Joseph, President of Law Students' Society (LSS) refused to close the bar because of the time change, thus causing five CP's to be present in order to remove the alcohol from the premises. The CP's also had to close the pub down, which remained open until 1:45 am.

Joseph argues that the bar was closed at 12:55, the money was counted, and the pub resumed until 1:45 without the use of alcohol. This is confirmed by a reliable source.

This source goes on to confirm Steve McGill's allegations that Joseph threatened to lock out Chris Earl and a CP who were on their way to collect the alcohol.

The other allegations concerning the LSS deal with the issues of:

- 1) an unlicensed bartender dispensing alcohol.
- 2) alcohol that was smuggled into the pub for resale
- 3) the irregularity of the closing of the bar.
- 4) the intimidation of CP's while patrolling the Law Pubs.

Joseph, while admitting that there was an unlicensed bartender behind the bar, and that smuggling in of alcohol took place, contends that any CP's working the pubs have had the best of treatment.

Joseph states that he has never received any complaints from CP's and challenges these "phantom CP's" to come to him with their complaints.

Because of these allegations, Joseph notes that the LSS has been threatened with the suspension of their privileges, stating that "if the reason for such a recommendation is the continuation of the infractions, I feel it only fair that those accused have at least an opportunity to be aware of the charge...this has not been done in relation to the (events) at the law school." Joseph went on to state that from conversations he has had with those concerned, these problems will cease to exist.

Despite this, the LSS is seeking to obtain their own liquor license, noting that the current one "has affected the social fabric of the university to what most would agree is intolerable." The main contentions with the blanket liquor policy are 1) they are prohibited from continuing pubs, without the use of alcohol, beyond 1 o'clock. 2) the number of social functions are limited due to administrative costs.

What will come of this remains to be seen, as both sides hold fast to their sides of the story.

Ethiopia: Not alone in misery

Unless students have been hibernating since the first frost they should be well aware of the plight of the Ethiopian people. It is expected that 900,000 of these people will perish from starvation before the year's end, yet this is a situation not unique to those of Ethiopia. Out of Africa's 50 nations, another 26 are in the same predicament or on the verge of it. Mozambique, for example, finds itself in much the same position as Ethiopia, where already 200,000 people have starved.

In addition to questioning the reasons for the sudden attention on Ethiopia one is forced to ask if the calamity could have been avoided. The latter question is closely linked with the former when one considers the shameful conduct of the media and government officials. Why is there suddenly a plethora of film features and news articles when signs of this calamity have been readily apparent for at least two years?

Charges abound that Western governments have been reluctant to supply relief. The White House threatened to block aid unless Congress agreed to continue its support of Nicaraguan rebels. Equally reprehensible are the actions of the Soviet government and the Marxist regime of Ethiopian leadership in Addis Abbaba. Moscow has supplied $3 - 5 billion in military aid since the Mengistu regime came to power in 1974. The Ethiopian government spent $50 million on a political organization in relation to its tenth anniversary.

It is apparent that we as world citizens must concentrate on the problem of starvation in a more reliable and consistent manner instead of putting it out of our minds until the problem reaches crisis proportions. In many cases by the time we do react, it is too late. Many of the children in Ethiopia, Mozambique and other third world countries are beyond help. We need to read the signs now and identify where and when the problem will become this grave in the years to come.

Concentration on Ethiopia presents a number of problems. With aid going mainly to Ethiopia, there will be an influx of refugees from the nations suffering from the same problem, resulting in a greatly swollen Ethiopian population that will further complicate matters. The aid can also become a political tool and weapon in the hand of the Ethiopian government, particularly in the province of Eritrea where the government troops are involved in a civil war.

Students at UNB and Saint Thomas have been presented with the opportunity to show their concern for the crisis. Richard Hutchins is sitting in the SUB cafeteria for the fifth day now in an attempt to raise $10,000 to be channelled through the YMCA World Alliance to the Sudan (where refugee camps are to be established). In addition, Students Help Ethiopia, an organization interested in initiating fund raising efforts in Fredericton and sparking a concern for the Third World has been established. We encourage ALL UNB and STU students to become involved and support the cause for we are all world citizens first and foremost.

mugwump journal

By TIMOTHY LETHBRIDGE
Managing Editor

This week has been the most significant week in the recent history of student affairs at UNB. The defeat of John Bosnitch and many of his associates at the polls signifies the end of an era. We must, however, be very careful when interpreting the results.

Firstly, I would say that Students are not going to lose achievements gained by Bosnitch during his two years in power. The CSL Store and photocopy centre will remain—all the winners appear in favor of that. The visibility the student government has gained will remain; most of the winners have strong personalities and strong ambitions which will result in the continued progress of student movement.

What the students are going to gain is an efficient, well-managed and accountable Student Union. Discussions with the administration will result in mutual respect. By using business-like and mature means to strive for the objectives of Bosnitch, the new student administration is sure to make great achievements in the coming year.

John's concession speech shows he is sincere and he deserves respect for that. I have always felt him to be a man of integrity, but with poor administrative skills. John listed his achievements and apologized profusely for, "letting down," the students. He conceded defeat at 1 a.m. Thursday morning after losing his home faculty poll, Engineering. He said he did not know why he lost, but his, "faith in democracy," told him that he indeed had, "done something wrong."

I think that Bosnitch is down, but not out. Maybe this defeat will give him the breathing-space he needs to buckle down to his studies and get his degree. I think, however, that we will see John in politics on a larger scale in not too many years.

A commentary on the election would not be complete without congratulating Larry Fox. Best of luck Larry!

I was impressed by the quality of the election coverage on CHSR-FM. I rarely listen to our campus station these days, being a CBC fanatic, but I found both the commentary by news personnel and the intervening music program to be of very high quality.

One final point on the elections: To those who run the elections, next time please make boxes where the voters may mark their X. The ballots looked as if they were produced in a terrible hurry, with little care.

Far more important than any student election is the sacrifice being made by our Features Editor, Richard Hutchins.

His hunger strike for the people of Ethiopia serves the important purpose of raising the awareness of students at UNB. I would urge all students to give five or ten dollars, or what you can afford.

Not only is Hutch sacrificing normal food, but he is also sacrificing his academic studies. For his sake, I would urge that we help him meet his objective as soon as possible so he does not undergo undue hardship as exams approach.

To cut costs, city crews in Fredericton are using a different type of ice melting method for the streets this Winter. Even though its ability to melt snow may be better, I was appalled by a statement by the City Engineer, said with a chuckle, that the new mixture will actually be more damaging to vehicles.

While other municipalities strive to find new methods of ice removal that damage cars less, Fredericton blithely proceeds to make matters worse. I would urge a public outcry to force city council to reverse this decision.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Rm. 35, Student Union Building, UNB Campus
DEADLINE: 5 p.m. Tuesday

November 23, 1984

THE BRUNSWICKAN-7

Editor's Note: The Brunswickan strives to be a forum for issues concerning students and the world we live in. The Bruns will print letters provided they are typed or printed and double spaced on one side of the paper. Letters of excessive length may be cut.

We require all letters to be signed including the student number. However, we will withhold the name upon request.

As a matter of policy, we will not print any letter that is considered sexist, racist or homophobic.

Note from editor

For a university of our size, the number of people who work on the Brunswickan is but a speck. We still try our best to bring you, the students, all the news that you may be concerned about. Sometimes we do it, sometimes we don't. Instead of complaining about the state of your newspaper, stop and think. The Brunswickan, unlike the weather, is something that can be talked about and changed. We need your input and your help. There's 7000 students at UNB and less than 40 work on the Brunswickan. We do our best, but we can't do it all. Think about it.

Lack of coverage

Dear Editor:

What does it take to get coverage by the Bruns? Does one have to be political? Or do we just have to have the name Bosnitch? This year there seems to have been coverage of epic proportions about Bosnitch or the SUB. UNB has more to offer for your journalistic endeavours than merely the aforementioned items. A case in question was your unparalleled coverage of this year's Red 'N Black. I mean there was NONE!!!

Many individuals put valuable time and effort in the production, and the Bruns did not even recognize their efforts by writing a simple review. It is too bad that nobody showed up at the Playhouse to review Red 'N Black, for they missed a really good show.

What we should do for next year's Red 'N Black is to have John Bosnitch in the kickline, thereby ensuring the Red 'N Black gets the coverage it deserves.

Sincerely yours,

A disappointed cast member of Red and Black 1984

Yaqzan responds

Dear Editor:

I was a little surprised to read your note in the Brunswickan of November 16, 1984, that you must discontinue the publication of my "Open Letter to the Jewish People." I also felt sorry that you were intimidated to do so. It is not clear from your note as to who questioned your responsibility in publishing the letter, and threatened legal action, and whether the "illegal" material has already appeared in the first installment, or someone foresaw it coming in the future? If it has already been published, then I, and surely many of your readers, would like to know exactly which of my comments or views were "illegal" to publish.

I have sent copies of my letter to several Jewish publications and have not received a single complaint. The reason I do not wish any alterations introduced, is that I want to be responsible for what I have to say, or not to have to blame someone else for it. On the other hand, if any factual errors or logical flaws in my reasoning were to be pointed out to me, I would be more than willing to accept amendments, because I would rather be right than wrong.

I think that you owe it to your readers and to me to clarify as to who threatened you and on what grounds. Assuming that you have read the letter yourself, what are your personal views on the subject, as the editor of the paper? Are the people threatening legal action a part of the university community? We are supposed to be a community of scholars. Is it not possible for anyone to enter into an intellectual discussion and point out any fallacies, if they exist, in my thinking rather than resort to intimidation and brute force? Civil courts were not created for resolving intellectual disputes, and their unrestricted use is what I consider a result of law "worshipping," to which I referred in the part of the letter you have already published.

Many newspapers and magazines are full of opinionated editorials and columns; and even outright lies are passed on in the name of "freedom of the press." What about your freedom as students at a university with the right and obligation to explore conflicting views on any subject? In other words, have you been blackmailed by the threat of legal action? What about my rights of free speech and free expression of ideas?

If you do not publish the rest of my letter, is it not tantamount to having been charged, tried, convicted and sentenced, without ever having a chance to defend myself? Will your average reader not assume that I must have written something terribly bad to be denied publication? Would it therefore be fair for me to threaten you with legal action for humiliating me publicly in the eyes of my students and colleagues by discontinuing the publication of my letter?

Apparently, you are already conscious of what law worshipping entails, as the following sentence expresses so eloquently: "No sooner do I get back from Ottawa than I step into a controversy where the dreaded specter of LEGAL ACTION rears its ugly head." You have expressed fright rather than respect for such use of the law, and I sympathize with you. If you and I can be muzzled by mere threats from those who have the time and money to indulge in legal actions, then all our cherished ideals and slogans about freedom and free speech would mean little more than the dreams of those in the totalitarian states, where the powerful and mighty, we are told, control everyone's thoughts and actions.

Perhaps your very active SRC President, as well as those among the administration and the faculty, who profess free speech, academic freedom and student welfare, will go into action and help you maintain your freedoms.

Sincerely,
Matin Yaqzan

Money not enough

To the Editor:

On Monday evening, October 29, I happened to catch a news report depicting the current situation in Northern Africa, specifically Ethiopia. The pictures were harsh and brutal. Before the cameras were thousands of refugees, all of them starving to death. Children and grown-ups alike were wailing in pain, some were grotesquely deformed, while others just sat there, flies mauling all over them. Some were dead.

This scene, stumbled upon by a BBC television crew is one of many happening at this very moment. The reason for the magnitude of misery according to the report, is a combination of civil war ravaging the country, and a prolonged drought of four or five years.

People all over Great Britain and the U.S. who saw the initial reports began devoting money by the handful, and a substantial amount has been collected. The United States relief organization doubled their foot allotment value to 35 million dollars. Whoopie Shit! With that kind of money they would have bought one and a half F-18 jet fighters. Or they could have bought a little less than 1/10 of a nuclear-powered submarine. Or almost 2 ICBM's (Inter-Continental Ballistic Missiles, the kind that whop the crap out of everybody. The point I'm trying to make is that the money being sent over there right now is significant only in the fact that it gets rid of the short term problem.

The whole problem cannot be solved by sending more money. Everyone's fingers seem to get just a little too sticky for my liking, handling all that cash.

No, the only way we can solve this problem is if we go over and help them ourselves. We need doctors and medical personnel for obvious reasons. We need Engineers and Engineering technicians, agricultural specialists and machine operators. We need everybody. And we need to sell a couple of nuclear subs, a few F-19 jet fighters, and a lot of ICBM's to pay for it all. Secondly to the whole situation, we might eliminate unemployment. Primarily, we would be helping starving and suffering people in the long term.

Starving and suffering. It doesn't sound so bad on paper. But imagine this. Imagine your 3 month old niece or nephew, crying because she's hungry. Isn't that sad. Feed her. Next time, when she starts to cry, feed her the day after tomorrow. That's short-term starvation.

I don't know what the whole solution is to their horrifying problem. But something better get done soon. It is not directly our fault that this situation is occurring but in the grand scheme of things, something is definitely wrong, and only we can change it.

Sincerely,

Name withheld

Ethiopia; and the mind freezes.

Frightening images of dying and of the dead brought into our living rooms by the "magic of television." The countries of East and West react, but far too late. There are no easy, patch-up solutions. Were we talking about a simple famine, perhaps there would be a simple remedy. Ethiopia is, however, not just a country with little food and many people.

This famine, its manifestations and its causes have been with us for decades. Most people paid little attention to the problems, either ignoring the country (and most of the Third World, for that matter) or focusing on the political aspects in an extension of the East/West struggle. And political aspects do abound. From the middle of the century until the mid-70's, Ethiopia was ruled by the Emperor Haile Selassie... As one might expect, mismanagement is the operative word for this period. Millions of hectares of land were claimed by the government; most of it was doled out to whoever happened to catch Selassie's favour. Much of the land was left uncultivated. On top of this, the government and landlords collected taxes of 50% (and sometimes more) on the produce of the people. There was no way for individuals to put away food for the recurring periods of drought.

Due to the desperate need for food and firewood, rational agricultural planning never stood a chance. Deforestation went on at ridiculous rates. Because of this, erosion has become a major problem. With a growing population and all the "spare land" in the hands of Selassie et. al., the peasants were required to resort to cultivating land of poor quality. Further, they could not afford the luxury of allowing fields to lie fallow and so many tracts were soon incapable of producing food. In order to plough slope land, more oxen than normal were need; this led, of course, to heavier strain on grazing lands. As the firewood supply dwindled, more and more manure was burned, thus depriving the land of fertilizer.

In 1962, the Selassie government annexed the former Italian colony of Eritrea. This northern "province" has been at war with the Ethiopian government ever since.

All in all, a pretty nasty business.

The famine of 1972-74 (200,000 estimated to have died) and the oil-price shock of 1973 spelled the end for the Selassie regime. A Marxist government under Mengistu Hail Mariam took over in 1973; it nationalized all property in 1975 causing Canada, the US and Britain to end their aid programmes. Canada resumed its role in 1980, Britain gave aid through the EEC and the US has recently restarted its aid programme. Aid is the only route for Ethiopia to take as it is one of the ten poorest nations on Earth.

The present Marxist regime has not been much more successful than the monarchy in feeding the people. It attempted some land reforms but finds it difficult to cope, with the war still on. Mengistu recently rejected a call by the Eritrean People's Liberation Front for a cease-fire so that food and medical supplies can be effectively distributed in the north. Mengistu claimed that the "terrorists", as he refers to them, are not "an obstacle to the implementation of relief efforts." External Affairs Minister Joe Clark seems to have been impressed by how effectively supplies are being distributed. Still, with a lack of trucks and good roads, more and more supplies are being flown in directly by the donor governments and many private groups are steering clear of the Mengistu government by sending their aid through the Sudan.

At present about 9 million people are immediately threatened. It is estimated 1.2 million tonnes of grain will be needed by these people over the next 12 months. Within 6 to 12 months, another 6 million people in the southern region of Harage will be facing the same catastrophe as we hear about on the evening news today. Another 500,000 tonnes will be needed there. Further, death does not come only in the form of starvation. There is amoebic dysentery since most of what water there is is filthy. Typhus and pneumonia are also problems as most people are too weak to fight off disease. Dehydration, of course, as a result of the famine. Cold nights, poor shelters and lack of firewood lead to hypothermia. Perhaps the most bitter death is by cardiac arrest; many die after being fed simply because their bodies cannot stand the shock of food.

Ethiopia is dying because she could not stave off this disaster by herself and because the rest of the world was largely indifferent. Governments played politics and most people simply ignored the problems, a sign of our mainstream selfishness. There were those who tried to help and they have saved lives, due to them we can be grateful. The rest of us had to be spurred on, not through the magic, but through the horror of television. Our money, our time can help, but as one journalist put it, we are engrossed in "post-mortem" activities. Still, this is no reason to give up, to "cut our losses."

Ironically, many people recognize now that it would have been less expensive in terms of dollars to supply Ethiopia with aid a couple of years ago than it is to feed her in the midst of this terrible famine. Money could have, should have, been spent on water projects, building up food supplies, land rehabilitation and medical work in the late 1970's and early 80's; the famine was not unforeseen.

Hopefully, we will remember, after picking up the pieces of Ethiopia, that prevention of this sort of disaster costs fewer dollars than the mop-up work. It is also a helluva lot less expensive in terms of lives.

UNB RESIDENCES

In about six week's time this term will end and, as always happens, some people will leave the residences and others will arrive to take their places. If YOU are one of those who will either be coming or going, please read on - it might even save you some money!

IF YOU ARE IN RESIDENCE NOW AND DO NOT PLAN TO RETURN IN JANUARY:

1. Tell your residence office NOW while you think of it. (Women's Residence Office: 453-4800; Men's Residence Office: 453-4835)

2. Whatever you do, be absolutely sure that you GIVE YOUR NOTICE BY DECEMBER 7 - the last day of classes.

3. If you fail to give notice by December 7 you will be subject to a surcharge of $100.00, as set down in the current UNB Residence Fee Payment Schedule, para 2(F).

4. Bear in mind that the residences do not want your money; but they do want to know what beds will be available for the many students who have already applied for places in January - so do those students.

5. So help yourself by helping us and tell us your plans before December 7.

All residences (women's, men's and coed) have waiting lists for January and the number of vacancies will not be known until after December 7. However all new applicants will be accepted in chronological order until space is filled. If you are interested and have NOT yet applied, please contact the appropriate office (see below) and complete an application form. If you have already applied, you will be notified of your reservation as soon as a suitable vacancy arises.

IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIAL PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS please talk to your residence dean before December 7.

IF YOU ARE NOT IN RESIDENCE BUT WOULD LIKE TO ENTER IN JANUARY:

CHRISTMAS RECESS

The residences will close for all normal purposes on December 23 and will reopen on January 6.

Students who wish to stay in residence during all or part of the Christmas Recess should notify their residence office. Complete information will be distributed shortly in the closing notices.

Blake free for students Wed.

Blake, by Elliot Hayes, directed by Richard Monette, will be presented at the Fredericton Playhouse November 27 and 28 at 8 p.m. Subtitled Innocence and Experience, the play will feature Douglas Campbell as William Blake. Tickets are $20 and will be available at the Playhouse box office on days of the performance. These evenings at the theatre are made possible by the Fredericton Council on the Arts through its On Stage Series.

Poet, painter, engraver, and visionary, creator of a simple and emotionally direct method of thought and expression in the arts, William Blake is now recognized for the breadth of his invention in poetry and painting and for his prophetic vision.

Blake was presented for over a month last year at the Stratford Festival.

The show will be playing free for all UNB-STU students on Wednesday, November 28 at 12:30 sharp in the Marshall D'Avray Hall auditorium, as part of the C.A.C. series.

Red 'n' Black best in 8 years

Red and Black has gone for another year. It was quite frankly, the best show in the last 8 years according to light man Chris Earl.

Last year's show went well over 4 hours and was thought to be boring at times. This year the Red and Black committee decided to cut the length of the show by only accepting quality acts, and quality they were.

The show was fast paced and according to several hands at the Playhouse, it went off almost as well as a professional show.

The first act was a dancing act done to the tunes of Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy and Dance All Night Long. The choreography was extremely well done and the dancers had obviously practiced a lot.

The second act featured vocalist Lisa Blovin. She sang two songs, one of which, "Carry Me Back", she had written herself. Miss Blovin exhibited a fine range in both her singing and writing ability.

Jeff Irwin, A.K.A. Captain Carpet was on hand for the show, and as per usual, put on a great performance. He showed the Master of the Ceremonies that its not what joke you tell, it's how you tell it.

Next up on the program were another musical act; Fowler and MacDonald. Miss MacDonald sang two songs; Morning Train by Sheena Easton and You and Me Against the World by Helen Reddy. She gave an excellent rendition of both songs but showed no originality. She tried to copy the singing styles of both singers and it really didn't come off too well.

One of the more popular forms of entertainment this year has been the airband. The show had one in the form of a Billy Idol impersonator. Unfortunately, Mr. Idol is a rather popular figure in the Airband contest and the Red and Black Variety was not up to snuff. Their keyboard player and bass guitarist was absolutely terrible. The Idol imitator showed a lot of energy and their lead guitarist was easily the best in the band.

The sixth act of the night was Kathleen Bryden. She showed her talents first on the piano by playing a Bach piece and then gave a stirring rendition of "The Way We Were."

Last up before the halftime was the infamous jug band. This year brought something new to the band. They had

LA CHRONIQUE ETOILÉE

par MARC POIRIER

Que pensez-vous d'aller voir LOVE?

Les universitaires, spécialement ceux du département de français, sont invités à venir voir LOVE, de Murray Schisgal, à l'affiche au théâtre du Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne le 4 décembre à 20h00

LOVE est un satire, un face sur les problèmes de la vie moderne et sur les relations humaines. L'auteur nous montre dans cette pièce son agacement pour les solutions de facilité et théâtrale.

Le jeu se fait autour de trois personnages: Harry, l'intellectuel d'prim?, Milt, l'homme d'affaire qui convoite sa secrétaire, et Ellen, épouse perpétuellement à la recherche d'un idéal confus d'art et d'amour. Ces rôles sont interprétés respectivement par Marcel Thériault, Yvon Aucoin et Andrée Samson, qui fait ses débuts avec le THEATRE POPULAIRE D'ACADIE. Vous entendrez par eux tous les slogans connus sur le mariage et la société, sur le suicide et le sexe.

L'admission est de 7,50$ pour les adultes et de 5,50$ pour les étudiants.

Venez voir LOVE: UN RENDEZ-VOUS AVEC L'HUMOUR!

Misérables que vous êtes!

Jean Valjean est un forçat libéré qui veut consacrer sa vie à faire le bien; il a été frappé par la charité d'un vieux prêtre. Un policier tenace, Javert, croise toujours son chemin. Valjean doit changer d'identité: Il devient M. Madeleine, maire et bien-faiteur d'un village; et ensuite Ultime Fauchelevent pour prendre à sa charge Cossette, une jeune orpheline. Pour le bonheur de cette dernière, il sauve la vie de Marius, un jeune homme imprudemment engagé dans une insurrection.

LES MISERABLES, un film de Robert Hossein d'après l'oeuvre de VICTOR HUGO, sera présenté par le Cercle français de concert avec le comité local d'Amnistie Internationale les 1er et 2 décembre au théâtre du Centre communautaire à 20h00. l'admission est de 4,00$ (membres du Cercle) et 5,00$ (non-membres).

N'oubliez pas Nérée

Il ne faudrait pas oublier l'expositin de NEREE DEGRACE qui aura lieu au foyer du théâtre du Centre communautaire du 29 NOVEMBRE AU 12 DECEMBRE.

Nérée, comme nous vous l'avons dit la semaine dernière, est une peintre d'origine acadienne de 64 ans et qui, même s'il n'expose que depuis environ 5 ans, a déjà accédé à une certaine notoriété

Le vernissage de cette expo-vente organisée par L'ASSOCIATION POUR L'ART VISUEL ET L'ARTISANAT aura lieu vendredi le 30 novembre à 20h00. Le peintre sera présent, alors ce sera votre chance de rencontrer celui qui est surnommé L'AMBASSADEUR ACADIEN DE LA PEINTURE.

Il est à noter....

Une exposition de toiles, oeuvres de MICHELLE OUELLET est à l'honneur au foyer du théâtre du Centre communautaire jusqu'au 28 novembre. Elle est mise sur pied par L'ASSOCIATION POUR L'ART VISUEL ET L'ARTISANAT.

Le COMITE DES FINISSANTS de l'Ecole Sainte-Anne ramasse des fonds par l'entremise d'un déjeuner communautaire le 25 novembre après les deux messes au Centre communautaire. Admission: 2,50$

Cellar Theatre Festival set

UNB'S CELLAR THEATRE FESTIVAL CONTINUES WITH ONE-ACT PLAYS

The nine-day Cellar Theatre Festival at UNB continued on Tuesday, November 27 and Wednesday, November 28 with dual performances of the one-act plays, The Bear and Mall.

Showtime both evenings is 7:30 p.m. in the Cellar Theatre—Carleton Hall, Room 139. Admission is free.

Anton Chekhov's farcical romance, The Bear, directed by arts student Elaine Grant, with assistance from graduate student Martin Hewitt, stars forestry student Hilary Veen as the wealthy and flirtatious Elena Popova. UNB English professor Reavley Gair plays her unkempt creditor and would-be suitor, Grigory Smirnov. Engineering student Peter Sutherland rounds out the cast as Popova's slow-witted servant, Luka.

Mall, an improvisational play by UNB English professor Kent Thompson, is an ironic comedy about an unlucky janitor with a passion for buying lottery tickets. A much talent, and someone who could actually play a musical instrument. It was obvious that they had practiced

After the intermission, which took too long (have to have Kenny flogged), the band Zensation performed two songs. They were very well polished and showed a great deal of musical talent.

Next up was the Business Society. They performed a dance scene from the Broadway play Cats. This also included a flute solo by Melissa Ackerly.

Then came the ever popular Constantine Brothers, Ed and Walter, who were at their usual best. They also remained on stage for the next act; The Rugby Club. Those crazy boys performed a song and dance routing to Patricia The Stripper, much to the delight of many young women in the audience.

The second last act was quite interesting. It seems twenty-five years ago, Michael Jackson's father visited Buctouche, and left behind 3 illegitimate children. Lead vocalist Jerry Jackson dressed in his pink jumpsuit showed that he was quite at home with the Blues.

Last but not least was the kickline. This year the kickline did something different, they took different styles from previous lines over the last 40 years and quite amply spliced them together. This ended the best show east of Montreal.

more promising passion emerges in the form of the lotto ticket saleswoman.

Presented by the UNB Drama Society and UNB's

"Principles of Drama Production" class, the Cellar Theatre Festival is sponsored by the Student Union and the English department.

UNB Red Blazers win round one

By MARY SCOTT
Brunswickan Staff

The UNB Red Blazers Women's Hockey Team played their first game of the season against another women's team, and came away winners. Sunday the girls travelled to St. John to meet the Golden Lights, one of two teams, the other being from Moncton, that the Blazers must defeat to take their fourth straight N.B. Senior championship. The girls took a hard fought 4-2 win with a pair of unanswered third period goals.

Joanne Gillies got 2 goals for UNB, she opened the scoring midway through the first period, linemates Sandy Ward and Carolyn Boushel assisted. She got her second with the score tied 1-1 late in the second period, Carol Allport and Carol Cooper got assists on that goal.

Before the period was over however, the persistent Saint Johners came back to tie on a powerplay goal by Sharon Hughs, setting the stage for some third period heroics from two of the Blazers.

Team Captain Carol Cooper rushed up ice from her defense position to score the eventual winner at the midway mark of the period, Allison Lee got the only assist. With 2 minutes left in the game Carol Allport got an insurance marker, as she whipped the puck over a falling Barb Riley, France Thibodeau and Chris MacLoon got helpers on that goal.

The 4-2 win is only counted as an exhibition game but with the short schedule the girls play (25 to 35 games), every game means so much.

On Monday night the Red Blazers returned to the friendly confines of the Aitken Center for a game with the Nashwaaksis Bantem boys team. The game marked the first time this season that UNB had their whole team together for a game, the final addition being Anne Campbell, who had been late joining the team because of other commitments, she proved to be worth the wait.

The teams battled through a scoreless first 20 minutes. Then the boys struck for a pair of quick goals around the 5 minute mark of the second. Before the period ended however the Blazers came to life, as Allport cut the Nashwaaksis lead in half.

It proved to be an exciting third period, as the Red Blazers hit stride and matched the boys, in fact they outshot them 16-14. Campbell opened the period by tying the game on a perfect setup by Paula MacDonald. But the tie was shortlived as Barry Naugle put the Bantems back in front with an end to end rush 15 seconds later. It took UNB just two minutes to tie it up once more, as Allport collected her second of the game, being set up by linemates Alison Lee and France Thibodeau.

The wide open pace caught the girls however, the Bantems got two quick goals from Darcy Monahan and Quentin Gunter to apparently nail down the win. The Blazers would not cooperate, Sandy Ward found Cooper alone in front of the net to close the team to within one with 5 minutes left on the clock. With goalie Wendy Dickinson on the bench UNB twice came close to tying the game, Campbell was outstanding winning 4 straight face-offs. It was not to be, the Bantems put the win away with an empty net goal at the 19:48 mark to make the final score 6-4. Despite the loss everyone seemed happy with the way the team had played, in particular coach Mike Power, in a phone interview with this reporter he talked about the weekend, "We looked sluggish against Saint John to be honest, but it took a lot of character for the team to come back the next night and play that well. You ask if we are better than last year, well I think we are, one thing for sure, we are a lot more exciting."

The Red Blazers return to the ice this Sunday as they host the Golden Lights at the Aitken Center in a 5:30 game. Remember to come out and support Canada's fastest growing women's sport — Hockey, admission is free.

Raiders drop 2 over weekend

Coach Nelson was quite pleased with the Red Raiders effort in both halves. He feels that given a home court advantage, the Raiders may surprise the UPEI team.

The Red Raiders are looking forward to playing this team in the future. This weekend UNB play host to Mount Allison University. This promises to be a competitive two-game series of AUAA basketball.

In the second game the Red Raiders displayed a strong defensive effort in both halves. The end result was a 77-64 loss to the Panthers. UPEI led by only one point at half time.

Tom Gillespie and Mark Newell combined to score 17 and 15 points respectively. UNB center Dale MacIssac hooped 10 points to add to their cause.

The Bombers come back big

By KEN QUIGLEY

To no one's surprise, this year's Grey Cup champions are the Winnipeg Bluebombers. Las Vegas had predicted them to win by 10 points, though everybody and their neighbours were betting on Winnipeg to crush the Hamilton Tigercats by at least two touchdowns.

However, after the first quarter was over, there were many jaws dangling on the floor as Hamilton was completely dominating. Dieter Brock, the ti-cat quarterback, showed his ability to perform under pressure, when, on a second and twenty, he hit Rocky Dipietro with a thirty yard bomb bringing the ball to the fifteen yard line. On the very next play, Brock, after finding no one open, scrambled for the major. The Winnipeg Blues did not end there, for on the Bluebombers next possession, quarterback Tom Clements was intercepted by Toronto's nightmare, Felix Wright. This allowed Brock and the boys to drive down the field on an eventual five yard lob to Dipietro for their 2nd touchdown, 14-0 Hamilton. The quarter ended with Trevar Kennard kicking for the field goal, shortening the Hamilton lead to 14-3.

The second quarter... was all Winnipeg's, as the much maligned Bluebomber offence finally got rolling. After trading field goals, David Shaw intercepted a Brock bomb and brought it all the way down to Hamilton 30 yard line. From there Sean Kehoe and Willard Reeves combined their rushes to gain Winnipeg's first major; 17-13 Hamilton. The Bluebombers edged ahead after Clements connected with Poplawski for a second touchdown; 20-17 Winnipeg. However, it was the next play that put the game out of reach for the Ti-cats. Tyrone Jones delivers a crushing sack on Dieter Brock forcing him to fumble the ball, enabling lineman Stan McKewis to scoop up the ball and skip into the endzone untouched; 27-17 Winnipeg. Treveor Kennard closed the first half with another field goal; 30-17. The Bluebombers 27 point effort in the second quarter broke a long standing record for most points gained in a single quarter in a Grey Cup.

It was all down hill for Hamilton in the second half as Clements connects with 3 successive bombs to James Murphy, Joe Poplawski, and Rick House to set up another Williard Reeves major; 40-17.

In the fourth quarter Clements conceded the limelight to back up quarterback John Hufnagel. After a 29 yard run from Sean Kehoe to the 30 yard line, Hufnagel hits Jeff Boyd in the end-zone for the final TD of the game; 47-17. Thus ending Winnipeg's twenty-two year Grey Cup drought.

Tom Clements was later named offensive player of the game. Tyrone Jones, with 3 sacks, collected the defensive award and Sean Kehoe was honored as the most outstanding Canadian player for his 100 yards rushed.

Of course if the Toronto Argonauts were there.....

Intramurals

This year was the inaugural season for Touch Football in the Intramural system. The league consisted of nine teams that battled down to the wire to determine which four teams would make the play-offs. The regular season ended with the Ghostbusters in first place with an unblemished record of six wins and two ties. The No Names finished second followed by the Panthers and Civil respectively.

In the semi-final round of the play-offs it was a case of who could survive in the mud and rain, as it had rained all day and was still raining during the games; just imagine what Buchanan Field looked like! The results were the Ghostbusters defeating fourth place Civil 20-0, and the No Names defeating third place Panthers 28-0.

The stage was set for the final game which was to see

NFL Football With

TERRY HOBBS

New England Patriots (8-4) vs. DALLAS COWBOYS (7-5)

Pats by 4.

Patriots have been playing excellent football of late and should roll right on in the playoffs. As for Dallas, maybe next year.

Green Bay Packers (5-7) vs. DETROIT LIONS (3-5)

Packers by 6

No contest! The Packers' offence have been blowing away their opponents in the last few weeks. It's a shame that Green Bay had a terrible start because if they didn't they would be challenging the Bears for supremacy in the NFC Central.

Kansas City Chiefs (5-7) vs. NEW YORK GIANTS (7-5)

Giants by 6

It's about time the Giants won 2 in a row. They better win if they have any hopes of making the playoffs. Chiefs started the season well but it seems that every week they get worse and worse. If they keep this up by the end of the season they will be the worst team in the league.

Philadelphia Eagles (5-6-1) vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS (6-6)

Eagles by 6

St. Louis is dying while the Eagles are rejuvenated. The winner of this game might actually make the playoffs. (God knows what's going on in the NFC east). The whole key to the game is how effectively Jaworski and Lomax can move their offences. Jaworski has the edge in experience (get my drift).

Buffalo Bills (1-11) vs. WASHINGTON REDSKINS (7-5)

Skins by 10

The Bills will not find this the Dallas Cowboys. Riggins along with the rest of the Hogs always play well at home and that spells trouble for Buffalo.

Chicago Bears (8-4) vs. MINNESOTA VIKINGS (3-9)

Bears by 3

This game could be interesting. Bears pulled but a squeaker over Detroit last week. I wonder how Mr. Ditka will prepare his troops for this week's match-up. The whole game depends on incentive. Even though the Bears have the division title wrapped up, this is no time for a let down.

Los Angeles Rams (7-5) vs. TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS (4-8)

Rams by 3

I don't like the Rams, I never did. Unfortunately, I have got to give credit where credit is due. Erik Dickerson is a remarkable player and should carry the load for the Rams.

Atlanta Falcons (3-9) vs. CINCINNATI BENGALS (4-8)

Bengals by 6

Falcons just don't have the talent to compete with the Bengals. The only good thing about Atlanta is their quarterback Steve Bartkowski and he has no receivers to throw the ball to. A healthy William Andrews could make the Falcons a mediocre team but without him they are like a fish out of water.

San Francisco 49er's (11-1) vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (6-6)

49er's

40er's just keep on rolling. As for New Orleans they are improving but they are nowhere in the same league as San Francisco.

Houston Oilers (2-10) vs. CLEVELAND BROWNS (3-9)

Oilers by 3

The Apathy Bowl!

I cannot believe that these 2 teams won their games last week. Ah well! The Oilers are on a roll. It's about time that Warren Moon started showing those folks down Texas way that he really plays football. Way to go Warren!

San Diego Chargers (6-6) vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS (6-6)

Chargers by 3

Everybody knows that the Chargers beat everyone outside their division. Its the inter-division rivals that San Diego has all the problems with. As for the Steelers, they will make the playoffs (8-8 record) and get humiliated in the first round. If only they had Mr. Bradshaw.

Indiannapolis Colts (4-8) vs. LOS ANGELES RAIDERS (8-4)

Raiders by 7

Christmas comes early when you are a Raider fan. Colts will be beaten, bruised, battered and put out to pasture to be shot. If New England can score 50 points against the Colts God (and myself) knows how many points Marcus Allen and the Raiders can rack up against the hopeless Colts.

Seattle Seahawks (10-2) vs. DENVER BRONCOS (11-1)

Seahawks by 3

The game everyone has been waiting for. I predict that Mr. Elway will be taken from the game in the second quarter with bruised ribs (Just a hunch). Go Seahawks!

New York Jets (7-5) vs. MIAMI DOLPHINS (11-1)

Dolphins by 10

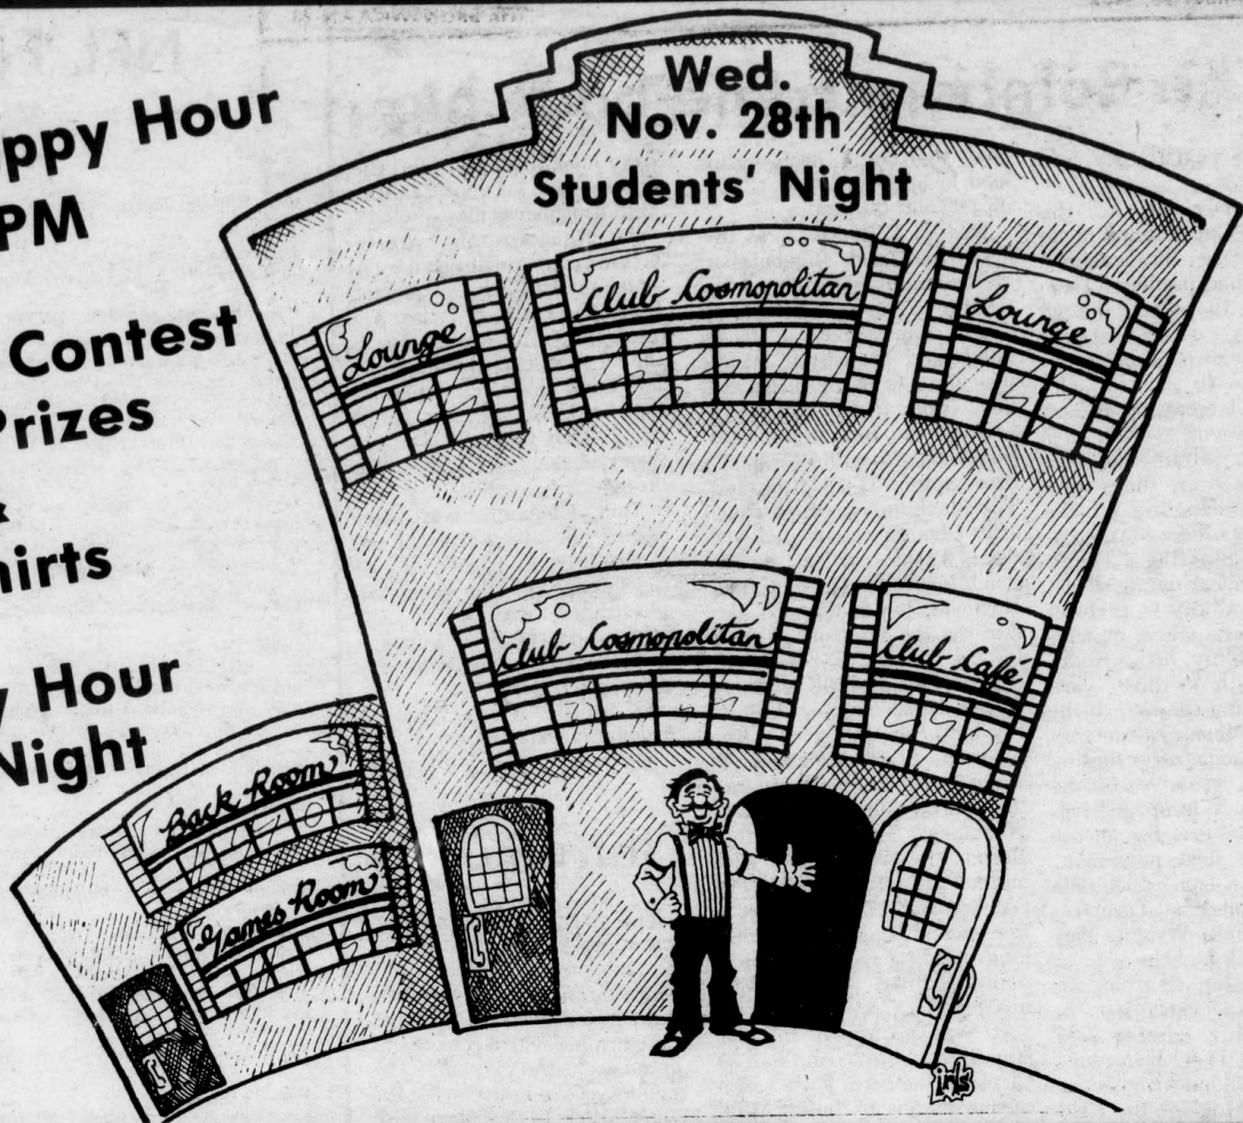

Miami needed a los to bring them back to earth. Shula will have the boys geared up for this one. The Jets are finished when you play Houston and lose you should not be allowed on the same playing field as the Dolphins.

Devils host UPEI, X-Men

By IAN SUTHERLAND
Brunswickan Staff

There's no place like home. At least, the hockey Red Devils are hoping that saying holds true this weekend when they return to the Aitken Centre for a pair of Atlantic Universities Hockey Conference games. The Devils, who are 2-5 this season, host the first-place University of Prince Edward Island Panthers Saturday at 2 p.m. while St. Francis Xavier X-men are at the Aitken Centre at the same time Sunday. The Devils have been on the road for the past five games and the pace has seemed to affect their play. Coach Don MacAdam is looking for better things from his troops this week.

"We've had a lot of regrouping to do as a team since the loss against St. Thomas last week," he said. "We were simply outworked that game; and when you are outworked like that it has nothing to do with your style of play...it's simply and definitely a mental problem."

In fact, MacAdam believes his club wasn't mentally ready going into the big game against the Tommies, and sees the mental aspect of the game the biggest obstacle his club is facing at the moment.

Another problem besetting the Devils is that one line is carrying the team offensively, with Robbie Forbes, Mark Jeffrey and John LeBlanc contributing the lion's share of the goals. With a tough opponent like the Panthers in town Saturday, MacAdam is looking for other forwards to start finding the mark.

"UPEI is the best team in the conference at this moment," he said. "They are a very talented team with six players in the top 10 scoring and plenty of ability on defence and in goal. They've been playing extremely well so far this season."

However, MacAdam has no plans to implement any special strategy to stop the Panthers and their attack, preferring instead to concentrate on his own squad. "At this point, we have to concentrate on getting our own act together as a team."

On Sunday, the X-men are in town for a rematch against the Devils, having dropped a 6-5 decision to the Devils in Antigonish two weeks ago. However, the X-men have won two game since then and should provide the Devils with stiff challenge.

"I thought we outplayed them by quite a margin there, but we had a letdown in the third period and had to hang on to win it. It could be quite a game."

Saturday's game against UPEI is also the first "Noise Day" of the season, with the section of the Aitken Centre making the most noise receiving a prize from The Riverview Arms.

Athletes of the week

UNB Wrestler Randy Smith has been chosen as the male athlete of the week. Female athlete of the week is Kelly Cuddigy of the women's swim team.

Randy is a third year Engineering student who hails from Toronto, Ontario. The 23 year old 125-pound wrestler is in his first year with the team. Randy was undefeated last weekend at the University of Maine Presque Isle. In the process he upset the defending CIAU champion from Mount Allison University.

Kelly Cuddigy is an 18 year old hailing from Moncton, New Brunswick. She is a second year Engineering student and in her second year with the team. In addition Kelly is an AUSA all-star and 1984 CIAU finalist. The women's swim team were victorious over Mount Allison University (66-27) and Acadia University (69-25).

Kelly finished first in three events. (400 freestyle, 200 freestyle and the 800 freestyle relay.) In her 400 freestyle Kelly beat her personal best by 7 seconds as well as setting a team record. The performance in the 200 freestyle was a personal best also. Her 800 freestyle relay team finished first as well.

the Ghostbusters play the No Names. The Ghostbusters were still undefeated having beaten the No Names in the regular season, but the No Names felt they had nothing to lose, and thus the inevitable happened, the Ghostbusters ended up losing the championship play-off game to the No Names 13-12. It was a hard fought defensive struggle, which saw the Ghostbusters fail to tie the game with just three (3) plays left in the game. The No Names simply sat on the ball for the next three plays to survive the game.

Thanks to all those that made the league a success. There may be a few minor details to iron out, seeing as how this was the first year Touch Football was played. Special thanks to those who officiated, for without you it would have been hard to have a league.

Thanks again!

Touch Football Convenor
(Tom Vosper)

A SPORTING CHANCE !!!

Bring on the dancing girls and the fiddler because we are finally rid of that curse known as CFL Football. The annual Grey Cup game was played last Sunday and, as usual, it was nothing more than a glorified practice for one of the two teams. The Winnipeg Blue Bombers showed no mercy when they totally demolished the Hamilton Tiger Cats 47-17 in Edmonton. As a result of this, I think its time to make some recommendations about the way things operate in the CFL.

First of all, the format of East vs. West should be done away with. Now I realize that this is going to add to the problem of regional disparity within the country, but the way the Eastern teams (with the exception of the Argos), play football I think I could live with the isolation. If the CFL is to continue such a format maybe they should consider moving Calgary and Saskatchewan to the Eastern division and switch Toronto over to the west to make the balance equal the winners in the west and the losers in the east. Then when playoff times comes around all they have to do is toss a coin to see how many points the east is going to lose by.

Secondly, the CFL should do something about its rules. Only in Canada can a tie game go into overtime and become a battle of the most points, since they must play TWO Ten Minute Overtime periods. Wouldn't it be simpler to just flip a coin for the kickoff and play sudden death; it's much quicker and saves everybody from the embarrassment of giving up two or three TD's in the overtime. What is also crazy is the system of downs in the league. How can a person expect a game to be exciting when all that happens is a running play, a pass play and then a punt with an occasional touchdown or field goal thrown in.

To make life easier for the fans, I think one requirement for every team with a CFL Franchise is a covered stadium. If this rule were enforced, no longer would your average fan have to take a wilderness survival course and 3 years worth of supplies just to survive an November afternoon at Commonwealth Stadium (that's in Edmonton for all you people who flunked basic geography). Not only would this make the playing conditions better, but it would also increase the calibre of the team since, only the winning teams could afford to put a roof on their buildings. (Look on the bright side—at least we're assured of one team in the league)

Finally, I think the CFL should try and find some coaches who are going to be vocal or present a good image for the league. Just imagine what it would be like if Canada had a coach like Tom Landry of the Cowboys or Don Shula of the Dolphins. Those names are almost household words across North America. How many CFL coaches can you name off the top of your head? (I rest my case).

I'll admit that these recommendations may not be acceptable to everyone in the country, but then again what do I care — the NFL season is winding down and my Redskins still have a shot at another trip to the Super Bowl.....WITH A SPORTING CHANCE!!!

Ski Club notes

The UNB Recreational Ski Club would like to thank W.J. Beairsto Co. Ltd., for the use of their trucks which made our bottle drive a great success. We would also like to announce the winners of our raffle. 1st place: Linda Foreman, 2nd place: G. Jordan. 1st prize was a $30.00 gift certificate to Sub Town; 2nd prize was a $15.00 gift certificate for a record. The Ski Club will be leaving today for a Ski Weekend in Amqui, Quebec.

Kayak Club

Now that the rivers are freezing up, the Kayak Club is moving indoors.

Starting this Sunday at 4:30 p.m. the Kayak Club swings into it's regular sessions at the Atken Pool. Pool sessions are every Sunday from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Basic paddling skills, safety techniques and eskimo rolling will be taught by qualified instructors in a series of regularly scheduled sessions.

Two scheduled courses will commence this Sunday, November 25th and continued for three sessions on December 2nd and 9th. The first course is an Introductory course for participants with little or no kayaking experience. The second course being offered is for participants with some paddling experience who want to learn eskimo rolling. All kayaks and equipment will be provided by the club. The cost of each course is $25 and membership fee and equipment use fee for the year is $5 and $15, respectively.

For further information about the club and course registration call Peter Forbes at 474-0474 or David Whittingham at 453-4501 ext 24/466-3585.
