2. We have by far the largest stock of the best old European literature in Canada.
3. Professional bookselling is not with us a business in which large profits are made or extortionate prices charged. We have no fancy prices.
4. We pay ready money for all purchases and sell at the lowest possible remuneration to all customers for cash.

Journals of the House of Commons, complete, from vol. 1, 1546, (King Edward VI.) to vol. 55, 1800 (George III.), with 6 vols. of Indexes covering the same period together, 61 thick and large folio vols., the first 23 being substantially bound in calf, last 38 in half rough calf, edges uncut, 61.00. 1

Journal of the House of Lords, from vol. 1 (1st of King Henry VIII.) 1509, to vol. 33, 14th of King George III., 33 large folio vols., half rough calf, edges uncut, 17.50. 2

Anything approaching a consecutive series of these invaluable journals are rarely if ever for sale in England, and must become more rare and valuable, as time goes past. Indeed their value cannot be reckoned by dollars or pounds, as the information therein concerns the whole world, and cannot be obtained from any other source. These two sets were formerly in the possession of Mr. Alderman Pickett, who was Lord Mayor of London 1789-90, well known for his patriotism in connection with the Strand improvements. PICKETT STREET and its surroundings has recently made way for the magnificent pile of buildings known as the ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE. A copy of ALDERMAN PICKETT'S ADDRESS TO THE LIVERY OF LONDON on a separate sheet, will be found in the first vol. of the COMMONS JOURNALS, and several of his BOOK-PLATES will be found in the Journal of the House of Lords.

Mirror of Parliament, Debates and Proceedings in the Lords and Commons of Great Britain and Ireland, 1828-1835, 30 vols, folio, uniformly bound, half calf, 22.50. 3

This is a most important lot, containing all the debates relating to the History and passing of the FIRST REFORM BILL.

Rosellini, I Monumenti dell Egitto e della Nubia, disegnati dalla spedizione scientifico-letteraria Toscana in Egitto, distribuiti in ordine di materie interpretati, 3 vols., Atlas folio, one unbound and two in cloth boards, containing about 400 large plates of Hieroglyphs, Egyptian Architecture, Sculpture and Paintings, many in beautiful colors, perfect and clean as when used, but minus the 8vo. vols. of text. An 8vo. key will be found inserted therein. 40.00, Pisa, 1832-44. 4

Rosellini was professor of Oriental languages at Pisa, and was commissioned by the Grand Duke of Tuscany to explore the monuments of Egypt. He was assisted by six companions, some of whom were artists. He co-operated with Champollion, who had been sent to Egypt by the French Government. They returned in 1830, and this magnificent work is the joint product of their labors. Many of the monuments have been destroyed. Others are distributed throughout Europe. This is a very cheap set of these beautiful plates. The work is exceedingly rare, and will rise in value.

Silvestre's (M. J. B.) UNIVERSAL PALEOGRAPHY; or, a collection of fac-similes of the writings of all nations and periods, copied from the most celebrated and authentic manuscripts existing in the libraries and archives of France, Italy, Germany and England, containing 300 MOST BEAUTIFULLY EXECUTED FAC-SIMILES, TAKEN FROM MISSALS AND OTHER MSS., RICHLY ILLUMINATED IN THE FINEST STYLE OF ART. New and improved edition, arranged under the direction of SIR FREDERICK MADDEN, keeper of the MSS., in the BRITISH MUSEUM, 2 VOLS. IMPERIAL FOLIO, together with the HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE LETTER-PRESS to the preceding work by CHAMPOLLION FIGEAC, and CHAMPOLLION, JUN., translated into English, with considerable additions and corrections by SIR F. MADDEN, 2 vols, royal 8vo, together 4 vols, cloth, 60.00. H. G. Bohn, 1849-50. 5

A work of immense labor and learning. It cost nearly twenty thousand pounds to produce this splendid publication. A copy was recently sold in London for TWENTY-SEVEN POUNDS TEN SHILLINGS.

Edinburgh Review, from its commencement in 1803 to 1867, inclusive, with Indexes, vols. 1 to 50, vols. 1 to 54 in cloth boards, the remainder in half calf, 126 vols, edges mostly uncut, all being in substantial condition, 28.50. 6

— Another nice set, vols. 1 to 48, with index vol. 1 to 20, together 49 vols, half calf, 10.00. 1803-1828. 7

It may be interesting to state, this grand old Whig Review was projected quite by accident, by SYDNEY SMITH, at the residence of FRANCIS, LORD JEFFREY, who wrote nearly 200 articles, and are, we are ashamed to say, for the most part, still uncollected. The discordant notes of Political Philosophy became at once concentrated, through the splendid diction of its contributors. It embodies in its articles the whole history of the Political Reformation. Its origin and subsequent history is one of the most interesting chapters in the history of English Literature. Sir Walter Scott contributed to the early numbers, and afterwards joined The Quarterly. The celebrated JOHN ALLEN, of Edinburgh, discussed in 42 numbers constitutional problems, with that combination of historical knowledge and mental power, for which he was so distinguished, and, as LORD BROUGHAM says, "his extensive learning, and unrivalled power of subtle reasoning." MALTHEUS expounded Political Economy, PLAYFAIR made science interesting, and the dignified compositions of MACKINTOSH illustrated alike philosophy, literature, and politics.

Legal Observer (The) or Journal of Jurisprudence, published weekly. Vol. 1, 1830, to vol. 18, 1839; royal 8vo. in good library condition, law calf, 8.50. 8

Invaluable for its extensive reports of cases in the Superior Courts, Remarkable Trials, Learned Articles, and Debates in Parliament on Criminal Law, etc.

Micali, Monumenti Inediti della Storia degli Antichi Popoli Italiani, royal folio, 60 large and fine plates, some of which are colored, containing many hundred fine engravings of Vases, Bronzes, Sculptures, Urns, Masks, Arms, Gems, Ornaments, Bas-reliefs, etc., of Tuscan and early Italian Workmanship, with an 8vo vol. of Letter-press uncut in boards, The Folio being beautifully half bound red morocco, top edge gilt, 8.50. Firenze, 1844. 9

The archaeological labors of Micali have thrown a considerable light upon the early history of Italy. Sir William Betham says, "He is the most philosophical, candid and intelligent, as well as the most recent writer on the origin of the ancient people of Italy. He exposes the fabrications and falsifications of the Greeks and Romans, as well as the dreaming abilities of Passeri, Lanzi and Gori with considerable effect. Etruria Celtica."

Dickens' (C.) HOUSEHOLD WORDS, A COMPLETE SET, 19 vols, bound in 10, 1850-59. ALL THE YEAR ROUND, 22 vols, bound in 11, 1859-69, together, 21 thick vols, strongly and uniformly bound in half calf, 18.50. 10

Shillitoe (Thos.) Journal of his Life, Labor, and Travels in the Service of the Gospel. 2 vols, 8vo, cloth, 1.50. Lon. 1839. 124

Our author was the son of the Librarian of Gray's Inn, and became a shoemaker and resided at Tottenham, near London. He made some interesting missionary journeys in America, and his descriptions of the Mohawk and other Indian settlements of York, Pickering, the River Credit, his meeting with Peter Jones and other Indians, including the widow of Joseph Brant is simple and affecting. Old inhabitants of Yonge st. and Newmarket, will be here at home with Susanna Hatton and others of nearly 70 years ago. If Americans and Canadians could be induced to stop and read these 300 pages relating to the history of our country they might perhaps go on again with a firmer step.

British Magazine and Review; or, Universal Miscellany, from July-Dec., 1783. 60c. 321

An interesting old volume of 480 pp. Among a vast quantity of interesting old reading we notice an 8 page article on the United States, with table of population of 13 States, etc.

Edmum Farnesiarum Tabulae, AB ANNIBALE CARACCIO, depictae A. C. Cæsio Æri insculptae, atqua A. Lucio. Philarchæo. Explicationibus, illustrate. Numerous very fine and large old initial letters and other illustrations. Folio, half calf, 2.00. Romæ, 1753. 322

A beautiful specimen of Typography, and many of the illustrations are extremely fine and very curious. Caraccio, with his brother, shares the honor of founding a new school of painting. The Farnese Gallery at Rome cost him eight years of labor.

Prynne (William.) HISTORY of KING JOHN, KING HENRY III., and the most illustrious KING EDWARD I. Wherein the Ancient Sovereign Dominion of the Kings of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, over all persons in all causes is asserted and vindicated, etc. Collected out of the Ancient Records in the Tower of London. 1307 pp., very thick folio, calf, covers loose, 3.50. Lon. 1670. 323

An English Puritan, Politician and Antiquary. For publishing a pamphlet, the Star Chamber sentenced him to pay a large fine, to be exposed in the pillory, and to lose his ears. He was released in 1641. Prynne's works are very uncommon and bring very high prices.

Portraits (15) of Illustrious Persons in English History, on steel, from Original Pictures, by G. P. Harding, F.S.A., with Historical and Biographic Letterpress, royal 4to, cloth, gilt, 2.25. 324

These beautiful Portraits include Robert Dudley, Katherine of Arragon, Lord W. Russell, Duchess of Newcastle, Vere, Earl of Oxford, Sir Thos. Browne, Camden, etc.

Butterfield (Wm.) ELEVATIONS, SECTIONS, DETAILS, of the ANCIENT CHURCH of ST. JOHN BAPTIST at SHOTTESBROOK, BERKSHIRE, 10 plates, with Historical Descriptive Letterpress, folio, sewn, 75c., Pub. by Parker, of Oxford, 1844. 325

Duns Scotus (Joanne.) Insuper Scriptu Sup Primo Sententian. editum a fratre Joanne Duns, ordinis fratrum doctoris Subtilissimo edium Theologon Principe. Initial Capitals painted in red, the whole printed in fine Black Letter, in one thick 4to vol, oaken binding covered with stamped leather, and fine brass pins on each side, 7.25. 1481. 326

This famous Theologian and Metaphysician is known as the Subtle Doctor. Born about 1265, he became a Franciscan Friar, and Professor of Theology at Oxford. He was a great controversialist, and maintained a rivalry with the Thomists or Disciples of Aquinas. The greatest of the schoolmen, says Hallam, were THOMAS AQUINAS and DUNS SCOTUS.

Vossu (Isaaci.) VARIARUM OBSERVATIONUM LIBER, 397 pp., 4to, calf, 65c. Lon. 1685. A learned and interesting work. 327

Laacroix (Paul, Curator of the Imperial Library.) SCIENCE AND LITERATURE IN THE MIDDLE AGES, and at the period of the RENAISSANCE, illustrated with upwards of 400 engravings on wood. 550 pp., royal, 8vo, cloth, 2.50. 328

Universities, Schools, Students, Philosophic Sciences, Mathematical Sciences, Natural Sciences, Medical Sciences, Chemistry and Alchemy, the Occult Sciences, Popular Beliefs, Geographical Science, Heraldic Science, Proverbs, Languages, Romances, Popular Songs, National Poetry, Chronicles, Histories, Memoirs, the Drama. These subjects will only convey a poor idea of the contents of this fine volume.

— FRANCE, ITS INSTITUTIONS, CUSTOMS AND COSTUMES of the XVIII. CENTURY, 1700-1789. Illustrated with three hundred and fifty engravings on wood, royal 8vo, cloth, a beautiful volume, 3.25 329

Peter Pindar's Works. Portrait. The fine 8vo edition, in 5 vols, russia, 1.50. Lon. 1794-1801. 330

DR. JOHN WOLCOTT became a clergyman in Jamaica, where he shot pigeons on Sundays. On his return to London, he was lampooned by WILLIAM GIFFORD, whom he afterwards thrashed, and was rolled in the mud by the crowd for so doing. ROBERT BURNS declared Peter to be a "glorious fellow, and a first favorite of mine;" and BECKFORD describes him as a "delightful companion, and the best story-teller he ever heard;" that he knew the two worlds well—men and books—and was a shrewd observer of life."

Genealogist (The.) Edited by G. W. MARSHALL, LL.D., from its commencement with No. 1, July 1875, to No. 40, Oct., 1881, less parts 9, 22, 28, 32, but has 5 very thick parts for 1888, together 41 parts, 4.50. 331

This scarce and valuable publication abounds with Pedigrees of numerous Families, Rolls of Arms, Calendars, Wills, Monumental Inscriptions, Visitations, Parish Registers, Coats of Arms. Being out of print, it is impossible to procure them in the ordinary way. The original cost was $16.00.

Huntington (W.) Sinner saved. A CORRESPONDENCE between NOCTUA AURITA of the DESERT, and PHILOMELA of the KING'S DALE. 252 pp., half calf, very rare, 1.25. Bensley, 1799. 332

— The Apartments, Equipage and Parade of Immanuel, with Zion's Gates and Pleasant Fruits, new ed., 1835. THE CRY OF LITTLE FAITH HEARD AND ANSWERED, 1823. SPOILS TAKEN FROM THE TOWER OF LONDON without Siege, Violence, Bloodshed, Conquest or Loss to the owners, 1836. THE MUSIC AND ODOURS OF SAINTS, 1788, and THE FINAL EXHORTATION, 1813. All in one 8vo vol, and very rare, 2.00. 333

Pamphlets in Divinity, representing the WILLIAM HUNTINGTON school, including three by the "Coal-heaver" himself; others by WILLIAM GADSBY and other writers, about thirty in number—mostly printed in the early part of the century. Also 19 parts of Witnesses for the Truth, being memoirs of the Lord's people during the 19th century, of the same school of thought. 1.50 the lot. 334

The pamphlets and sermons of W. Huntington and his followers are very scarce, especially in their separate form. We give his own explanation of his adopted degree, S.S., which will be of interest: "As I cannot get a D.D. for want of cash, neither can I get an M.A. for want of learning, therefore, I am compelled to fly for refuge to S.S., by which I mean SINNER SAVED."

Gough (John.) History of the People called Quakers, from their First Rise to the Present Time, from the Most Authentic Records, 4 vols, 8vo, calf. Vol. 1 not quite uniform, but it is a sound and substantial set, and contains the history of a people which no historian of America can afford to ignore, 2.50. Lon. 1789. 335

Horatii, OPERA OMNIA, cum Indicibus Locupletissimis, recensuit et illustravit FRIDERICUS G. DOERING, portrait and vignette by Burney, 8vo, a nice, uncut copy in vellum, 1.25. Glasgow, 1826. 336

Gli Asolani di PIETRO BEMBO. The first and extremely rare edition. 8vo, half green morocco, 3.50, Aldus, 1506. 427

A learned Italian Cardinal born at Venice, 1470, became the Private Secretary of LEO X. Among his friends were the Painter RAPHAEL and CARDINAL BIBBENA. This volume is dedicated to LUCREZIA BORGIA, sister of CESARE BORGIA.

Tench (Watkin.) Letters written in France to a friend in London, between Nov. 1794, and May, 1795, 8vo, bds, uncut, 50c. Lon. 1796. 428

Captain, afterwards Major Tench, had been previously a prisoner in the American war, and, contending with superior force, his ship, the Alexander, was taken by the French.

Fletcher's (Phineas) PURPLE ISLAND; OR, THE ISLE OF MAN, with Christ's victory and Triumph over and after Death, by GILES FLETCHER, 8vo. A CLEAN AND PERFECT COPY IN THE ORIGINAL BOARDS, THE PAGES NOT HAVING BEEN CUT OPEN, AND THE EDGES BEING UNCUT. 5.50. Lon. 1783. 429

One of the most remarkable poems in the English language. Prefixed will be found the commendatory poems and verses by E. Benlowes, Francis Quarles, and others. The volume in any shape is exceedingly rare—it is questionable if a duplicate of the above is in existence. It is perfectly clean and not a single page cut open.

LITERATURE AND BIBLIOGRAPHY.

Ballads. A Century of Ballads. Collected, edited and illustrated in the facsimile of the originals, by JOHN ASHTON. Illustrative of the life, manners, and habits of the English nation, during the seventeenth century. Illustrated with a large number of quaint wood engravings. 4to, cloth, uncut edges, 4.00 (pub. 31s. 6d.) Stock. 582

Ballads, Social, Supernatural, Historical, Love, Drinking, Sea, Naval and Military, Sporting and Local, and Miscellaneous Ballads. The facsimile illustrations are most valuable, as they are specimens of early English wood engraving, which otherwise would be very scarce; and very interesting, as they depict the costumes and social habits of the seventeenth century.

"Mr. Ashton's 'Century of Ballads' is well edited, and printed in handsome form. The ballads have been chosen with discrimination, the editorial commentary is both interesting and valuable, and the quaint woodcuts are excellently reproduced in facsimile."—Athenæum.

"Dr. Latham's work is not only an English dictionary in the strict meaning of the term, but in many important respects a very valuable additional to our National Lexicography. It deserves to be studied by every one interested in the language, and as a book of reference is admirably fitted for general usefulness."—Edinburgh Review.

Johnson's (Dr.) ENGLISH DICTIONARY, with a HISTORY OF THE LANGUAGE, and a Grammar. BEST EDITION BY TODD. Port., 5 vols, 4to, half russiæ, gilt, marbled edges, 6.25. Longmans, 1818. 702

"Dr. Johnson, with great labor, has collected the various meanings of every word, and quoted the authorities."—Encyc. Brit., 7th edn.

"Had Johnson left nothing but his dictionary, one might have traced there a great intellect, a genuine man. Looking to its clearness of definition, its general solidity, honesty, insight, and successful method, it may be called the best of all dictionaries. There is in it a kind of architectural nobleness; it stands there like a great solid square-built edifice, finished symmetrically complete. You judge that a true builder did it."—Thomas Carlyle.

A good edition of Johnson's great work is undoubtedly the noblest monument of the nation's literature.

O'Connell (Daniel, the Liberator) Correspondence of, edited, with Notices of his Life and Times, by W. J. Fitzpatrick, F. S.A. Fine etched portrait, 2 vols, 8vo, cloth, gilt, 3.00. John Murray. 809

"To Mr. Fitzpatrick is due the gratitude of all students of history, and of human character, for the patience and pertinacity with which he has collected these letters, and the knowledge, discretion, and tact of his arrangement. He has let O'Connell tell his own story, and the connecting thread is slight and scientific, such as only minute knowledge of his period could make it. The reader is hardly conscious of its presence, yet it suffices to weld a huge mass of miscellaneous correspondence into an authentic biography and life-like portrait of the man who, of all others, made the greatest mark on his country and generation."—Athenaeum.

"History will speak of him as one of the most remarkable men who ever existed; his position was unique, there never was before, and there never will be again, anything resembling it."—Mr. Greville's Journals.

His enemies, and those who have resisted every kind of reform, styled him AGITATOR, but posterity has, with few exceptions, written him down the EMANCIPATOR, and waits with hope for others to take his place.
