London, Dec. 5.—The Daily Chronicle today gives prominence to the following article: "Plans have been maturing for some time for a settlement of the Irish question in the event of a government coming into office in which Sir Edward Carson would be a prominent member."

Asquith Surprised Lloyd-George had taken the premier completely by surprise with his threat to resign unless his demands for a Cabinet reorganization and a more vigorous prosecution of the war were met with. The premier was caught off his balance. To gain the Government he reconstructed. That move halted the efforts of the Opposition.

London, Dec. 6.—(1.58 p.m.)—The King has sent for Mr. Lloyd-George. After receiving Mr. Lloyd-George, to whom presumably he offered the premiership, King George summoned to the palace several members of the recent cabinet in the hope of solving the crisis.

On condition of the acceptance of this scheme by the Nationalist party is they agree to the extension of conscription to Ireland. It is estimated that conscription, if applied to Ireland, on the same basis as now prevails in Great Britain, would bring an additional 10,000 men.

Changes Are Impending By Courier Leased Wire. New York, Dec. 6.—The New York Times this morning publishes a special cable from Paris based on a statement by a French political writer who has exceptional inside knowledge of affairs, intimating the possibility of a change in the supreme command of the French military forces.

Salvation of the situation lies with Bonar Law, Sir Edward Carson and Lloyd-George, who are regarded as necessarily forming the nucleus of whatever cabinet is formed. Beyond these three there is very little speculation as to the personnel of the new government.

Lloyd George

London, Dec. 6.—(New York Times cable.)—The Morning Post's political correspondent says: The political situation is so chaotic that it can hardly be expected even if the best good fortune that Bonar Law will be able to form a ministry till after next month.

"Lloyd George's scheme of a small war council with large executive powers, Asquith, as prime minister, having the right to be present, but with no authority, either personally or through the cabinet to interfere with the council's day-by-day conduct of the war, was an honest endeavor to put life and vigor into the ministry without the dangers and delays inseparable from a thorough reconstruction of the government.

"On Monday evening, it was understood by all sections of the government that the difficulties attending its adoption had been explored, even if a few details remained to be adjusted, but late on Monday night, some ministers of the old political leagues of Asquith (Viscount Grey, the Marquess of Crewe, McKenna and Bunsford) are named) saw their chief and expressed their profound disagreement with the Lloyd George plan. They, in turn, threatened to resign if it was carried out, and Mr. Kennan and Bunsford in particular vigorously objected to the including of Carson in the cabinet.

"Once more Asquith wavered. The situation was canvassed yet again. The probabilities were explored, and it was thought there was more than a fighting chance of getting rid of the war secretary altogether. Hence the statement in the Chronicle yesterday morning that rather than consent to the setting up of a war council, of which he was not the effective chairman, Asquith would resign, and the other statement printed in the Westminster Gazette that Asquith has definitely declined the proposal, and that so far as he is concerned there will be no departure from his resolve." Both journals, and especially the latter, are strong supporters of the late premier and in his confidence.

"Yesterday morning the decision of Asquith was communicated to Lloyd George in a letter which he said to have been handed, and bolted the door to any chance of accommodation. Lloyd George at once made it known that he should persist in his resignation. Then came intervention from some Unionist members of the cabinet. Bonar Law had a conference with Mr. Chamberlain and Earl Curzon of Kedleston, at which Sir Edward Carson was also present. "It is to be noted that the Unionist leader came to the decision that if Lloyd George were to be driven out of the cabinet, Bonar Law and other members of the Unionist party would not remain. Lord Curzon went from the Colonial office to 10 Downing street and communicated the decision, whatever it was. On receipt of Lord Curzon's message, and after consultation with several of his colleagues, the prime minister went to Buckingham Palace shortly before 7 o'clock and tendered his resignation to the King."

New York, Dec. 6.—(Associated Press cable.)—The public is awaiting with the greatest interest the next step in the political crisis. Ordinarily the selection by the King of a leader such as Mr. Bonar Law to form a new ministry, would be taken as a solution, but from the first there was some doubt whether the Unionist leader could succeed in the task assigned to him, or whether he could command the support of a majority in the House of Commons if he did form a cabinet.

The Nationalists, who withdrew their support from Premier Asquith because of his failure to carry out the agreement made by Mr. Lloyd-George for bringing Home Rule into force immediately would hardly be likely to follow a cabinet of which the Unionist leader was the chief and in which Sir Edward-Carson was included. It has been suggested that support might be obtained by granting their demands regarding Ireland and it was even said Sir Edward was a party to this, but the Ulster leader telegraphed to his supporters in Belfast a flat denial of the report, saying: "The proposals attributed to me are without foundation. Ulster men know my views and my unabated loyalty to them."

Another difficulty was presented by the Labor party, whose leader, George Wardle, announced yesterday the intention of the Labor members in the House of Commons to support Mr. Asquith. They are meeting today to make a final decision. The Manchester Guardian, which generally voices the opinion of the provincial members, expressed the opinion that Mr. Bonar Law would be more likely to effect a combination which the House of Commons would support than Mr. Lloyd-George would be, and added there was no reason to believe Mr. Lloyd-George had any ambitions for the task. The Guardian, which supports Mr. Lloyd-George, says that in a letter to Mr. Asquith, he took the stand that a man could not act both as premier and as a member of the war council which would have to sit morning and evening and deal with the most terribly urgent war problems. "The hope he expressed generally that an election will be avoided on account of the delay and of interference with the business of war, should an election become necessary, is a solid mahogany bedroom suite purchased for the use of the late King Edward when, as Prince of Wales, he visited Canada. He did not, however, land at Kingston.

Courier Xmas Edition

A special Christmas Edition will be published by The Courier this year, on Saturday, December 16th.

There will be three extra sections, supplementing the regular issue. Of these, one will be a hand-colored section, replete with Christmas stories, etc. Another section will be devoted to an illustrated record of the part taken by Brantford and Brant County in connection with the war.

There will be no additional charge to regular subscribers, but extra copies will be printed and may be secured at 5 cents each. Orders for extra copies should be left with carriers or at the office, at once.

THE BRANTFORD COURIER.

THE COURIER

Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, every afternoon, at Dalhousie Street, Brantford, Canada. Subscription rate: By carrier, $4 a year; by mail to British possessions and the United States, $5 per annum.

Tuesday, December 5th, 1916.

THE SITUATION. Attempts of the Russo-Rumanians to prevent the tightening of the ring around Bucharest have not succeeded. The foe is also closing on the oil refining centre of Ploesti.

The latter continue to add to their successes. North of Grunishite, they have captured more strong positions, together with much ammunition. The official report states that a large number of enemy dead were found on the conquered ground.

On the Somme front the lull still continues. The Huns have again defied Uncle Sam. There were forty-seven Americans on an Italian steamship sunk by a submarine and one of them has since died.

THE CHILDREN'S AID. The Courier makes no apology for devoting so much space in this issue to the affairs of the Children's Aid Society.

It would be impossible to compute the value of the work accomplished by this institution. The careful up-bringing of boys and girls is the most vital concern to the welfare of the state, and the Children's Aid looks after a class of little unfortunates who might otherwise become a menace to society.

The Brantford branch is particularly fortunate in having the services of such a painstaking and efficient secretary as Mr. J. Leslie Axford. He at all times discharges the very onerous duties of the position with tact and efficiency and at the shelter there has for years been the notable work of Miss Brown whose interest in, and sacrifices for her little charges, have been beyond all praise.

THE RESIGNATION OF ASQUITH. Lloyd-George has won out. That is the plain meaning of the resignation of Premier Asquith, no matter whether Bonar Law succeeds in forming a new Government, or the little Welshman is finally entrusted with the task.

It has long been known that Lloyd George has chafed under Asquith's leadership in the matter of the conduct of the war. The latter is a master of phrase and his conciliatory methods have kept together his Ministry in a remarkable way for many years. These things do not count however, when action is demanded in dealing with a most alert and unscrupulous foe.

Lloyd-George, as the father of the idea of a small war committee with Asquith left out, must have known that his leader could not accept any such proposal, and that a crisis would be precipitated. Asquith manifestly thought that he could again manoeuvre matters as he had so often done before, and he promised a reconstructed Cabinet. This time, however, the "old parliamentary hand" failed to turn the trick, and his resignation resulted. He found that with Lloyd-George out he could not make headway, just as years ago Gladstone discovered that with Chamberlain out his Government was dashed.

It seems unlikely that Bonar Law will accept the offer to form a Cabinet. He has had no mandate from the people and it is doubtful if he could control the House in its present shape with any degree of stability. Lloyd-George would seem to be the man and much would be expected of any administration of which he was the head, for he is a marvel of tireless energy and initiative.

As for Asquith, his hand has been forced from the helm, by one of his own colleagues, who had sized him up at close hand as unequal to the titanic task thrust upon him in the present world crisis.

Lloyd George has had a most meteoric career. Of humble Welsh parentage, he was educated for the law, mainly through the self-sacrifice of an uncle, and very early in his career he exhibited great fighting qualities.

Soon after he entered public life, he very speedily assumed a leading position in the councils of the Liberal party, became Chancellor of the Exchequer, and finally Secretary of War upon the tragic death of Lord Kitchener, meanwhile taking up with marked achievement, many other duties, notably the reorganization of the munitions output. Should he become head of Empire affairs, many will be inclined to doubt if he will be able to exercise the suavity by which Asquith has been able to keep so many diverse elements together. It is hinted that the Irish may be brought into line by a scheme which Carson is said to have for Home Rule. Be that as it may, there are other divergent factions with which he would have to reckon. It might be quite on the cards that a general election will have to take place before matters can be straightened out or Asquith again sent for.

The crisis is chiefly unfortunate because of the undoubted use to which it will be put by the Kaiserites as an alleged evidence that the British people are tired of the war, and the conduct of it.

[Since the above was written, it is announced that Bonar Law has declined the cabinet making task, and that Lloyd George has been asked to make the effort.]

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Mebbe Asquith dropped out with the idea that he will be on top once more after Lloyd George has had a whack at the difficult game. Winston Churchill, French, Jellicoe and now Asquith have gone under by reason of the war strain.

The Teutons have deluded Wilson once more. This will lead to some more submarine work in the White House ink bottle.

SERIOUSLY ILL.
Word of the serious illness of Pte. Roy Hill of the 125th battalion, was received in the city this week. He is suffering from pneumonia, and although in a serious condition, hopes are entertained for his recovery.

PASSED EXAM.
Lt. F. G. Lyke, Capt. E. Sweet, Sgt. H. W. Brooks, Sgt. W. Roberts and Sgt. R. F. Thompson, of the 215th battalion, were successful in passing an examination held recently at Toronto in the Lewis Automatic Rifle.

AMNESTY.
The first official notice regarding the recent amnesty declared by the Governor General for deserters from units of the Canadian Expeditionary Force who returned at the Armories this morning.

WINTER CAPS.
Quartermaster, Captain Ferguson, announced to-day that the supply of rubbers and winter caps for the men had arrived yesterday and that they would be issued as soon as possible. Captain Ferguson was in Hamilton yesterday attending a conference of the quartermasters of this division. Captain Corey was in Toronto where a meeting of the paymasters was held.

215TH ROUTE MARCH.
The weekly route march of the 215th Battalion was held to-day, the men starting out at ten o'clock with Paris as their object. It was expected that the battalion would arrive there at about twelve o'clock and have their mid-day meal in the park. Arrangements to that effect having been made. The field kitchen and transport wagons set out before the time appointed for the march, in order that they might arrive there in time to have the preparations completed without delay.

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.
The committee of school management of the Board of Education, met last evening, when business of a routine character was transacted. The appointment of Miss Balfour of Hamilton, a late addition to the teaching staff of the Collegiate Institute, was confirmed. Miss Balfour will act as an assistant teacher.

COMING HOME.
Ptes. S. Godfrey and E. T. Walton of this city, together with Pte. H. L. Geddes, of Simcoe, were among a party of invalid soldiers who reached Quebec last evening on their way home.

WENT TO MICHIGAN.
In response to the notice published in yesterday's issue for the purpose of locating Mr. D. D. Clark of this city, whose father had died in West Branch, Sheriff J. W. Westbrook stated to-day that the gentleman had seen the notice, and after ascertaining the particulars, had departed for West Branch, Michigan.

WHAT GROUP?
Although it has been definitely decided that the 215th will enter a team in the O.H.A., it has not been determined in what group they will be represented. Accordingly, nothing more has been done in regard to organizing the team until definite knowledge is forthcoming regarding the colder weather will permit of practices.

REGISTRATION IN CAYUGA.
There was no doubt in the mind of H. Col. Morris this morning that the 215th battalion would soon be up to the required strength, and leave the city as well equipped and trained as any unit that has left Brantford up to date. The O.C. was also highly enthusiastic over the organization meeting held in Cayuga yesterday, when it was decided to have a registration of the manhood of the country for the purpose of deciding as to who were eligible to go.

ALARM FROM NEW BOX.
The installation of the new fire alarm system which is now taking place throughout the city proved effective this morning, when at about half past eight, an alarm was sent from a box that was only placed in position last Thursday at the corner of Wells avenue and Dundas streets. When the firemen arrived on the scene, they found a chimney fire at 9 North Park street in a new house. There was an opening at the foot of the chimney through which a spark had escaped and ignited some cloth. The blaze was extinguished with little damage. Another chimney fire at 113 West Hill street, yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock necessitated a run by the firemen. Little trouble resulted from the fire.

POLICE COURT.
Breach of the dog license by-law, was responsible for the appearance in the police court this morning of seven owners of canines. Six of the offenders had taken steps to comply with the law, and the charges were dropped. The other was allowed the day's grace to follow the example of his fellows in distress. The conviction of a drunk was the complaint against Mrs. Emma Muirhead, who pleaded her case so eloquently before the magistrate that he allowed her to go on the payment of a $1.00 witness fee and the return of the trunk to its rightful owner. Mrs. Frenki apparently got too "frisky" in the vicinity of the Grand Trunk tracks recently, and being attracted by the welcome sight of black diamonds, decided to remove some to her place of abode. His Worship decided that the offence was serious enough to warrant a fine of $5 which he imposed, and allowed Mrs. Frenki to go on suspended sentence.

A deputation of 20 labor men yesterday presented the resolutions passed by the recent Trades and Labor Congress meeting to the Ontario Government. Among them was one in favor of an amendment to the Ontario temperance act to permit beer and wine licenses after the war. There were also resolutions in favor of agricultural credits for home-steaders, additional powers for factory inspectors, and an eight-hour day for miners. The Government promised consideration.

DEPUTIES RECONVENE

By Corrier Leased Wire.
Rome, Dec. 4.—The chamber of deputies reconvened to-day. The people are waiting with considerable interest the government's financial statement, and also a report on the war by the premier, who will probably take an opportunity to deal with a motion presented by the Intransigent Socialists, urging the government to take advantage of the disposition to mediate shown in the United States, and to see if it is possible to find a way to end the war.

Hair Coming Out?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water
Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effects upon the system.

High School Club Opening Banquet

The opening banquet of the High School Club was largely attended at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. After a sumptuous supper served by the ladies, speeches were made with regard to past successes of the club, and concerning the more brilliant successes looked forward to this year.

These were emphasized by the speakers of the evening, namely, Rev. Mr. Gordon, Mr. Passmore, Mr. Shorey, Mr. Runnings, and Lieutenant Kenneth Wood on behalf of the fossils.

Mr. Harry Waddington has taken the presidency for the coming season, therefore the High School Club is undoubtedly assured of success.

The group leaders and officers were appointed and from the present point of view, everything looks toward success. Mr. Hume Byerson selected the different groups in a most efficient manner.

At the termination of these interesting and instructive speeches, the members all joined in giving three hearty cheers for "the ladies."

Children's Zeal

Continued from page 2 House Committee. The report of Mrs. Ker, com of the House Committee, was as follows: To the officers, Members and Parents of the Children's Aid Society.

The close of the year marks other milestone in the history of Children's Shelter. Five years come and gone since the opening of the second time closing the year without a deficit, which is most encouraging, when we stop to the strenuous times.

I am sorry to state the membership is falling off, many members are not to call till this terrible day is over, then they will give of which I am convinced will be case.

We have been most fortunate securing the services of Miss Brown as matron, she has been seven months, and is most satisfactory in every respect. My wishes me to state to the effect that when we engaged Miss Brown it was as matron at the Children's Shelter, not as a janitor or a man. She has had to act in the capacity a great many times in the past summer, with the assistance of Miss Brown, whenever the juvenile delinquents were placed in the shelter. My committee does not think this place fit for juvenile crime, it has a very bad influence, a contamination to the wards in the Shelter. We cannot expect the matron or Miss Brown to be on watch night and day. That is what we must have, a matron, we presume the house committee, what that means, that we must avoid if possible.

My committee have had a strenuous year at the Shelter, the greatest number of children since the opening. My committee must now realize that very soon Brown leaves to take a well-earned rest, how she has stood five years the work and worry, is a puzzle. There is a limit to all this shall require extra help soon. Brown has been of great assistance to the Shelter as well as to Mr. Ford, at all times taking part work off his hands in a most satisfactory manner. We hope to have with us for some time yet, a matron, we presume the house committee, what that means, that we must avoid if possible.

The Superintendent of the Province of Alberta paid us a visit and complimented us on the care of the children, the Shelter surroundings, stating it was up-to-date Shelter, and best it was a home, that is what a matron should be.

My committee gave a party on the 4th of August, in aid of much wronged brave Belgium had a splendid response, amounting to the commensation of real near four thousand pounds, seven hundred pounds of cereals and canned goods, and

MEETING OF HOSPITAL BOARD

No Cases in Isolation Building.

The Matter of The Pay of Patients From Townships.

The regular meeting of the Board of Hospital Governors took place yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. C. H. Waterous (president), A. K. Bunnell, R. Sanderson, J. Sanderson, Geo. Kippax, F. D. Reville.
 A large amount of business was transacted, but mostly of a routine nature.
 A comprehensive report was read from Mr. D. Webster, with reference to the heating plant, and it was decided to retain his services in an advisory capacity with Messrs. C. H. Waterous and J. Sanderson as an advisory committee to go into the whole matter.
 The question of the pay for Township patients will be taken up with those municipalities. At present, the hospital has to make up quite a difference on each one.
 A purchase from the Women's Patriotic League a quantity of absorbent gauze and common cotton, for which they have no further use.
 Miss Ford submitted her monthly report, from which the following extracts are taken:
 Admissions 132; discharges 137; births 8; isolation closed; operations 90; patients in residence 71.
 We again report a quiet month, the number of patients admitted about the same as November of last year. We have but two cases of typhoid, both doing well.
 The monthly meeting of house committee and Women's Hospital Aid was held on Tuesday, November 28th, five members present.
 In discussing the preparations for Christmas, it was decided, under existing circumstances, that to spend money in decorations would not be right. We have to thank the Women's Hospital Aid for the completed furnishings for two rooms in service building, taken over for nurses, partially help the congestion in the nurses' home. The furniture supplied is the same as in use, and can be moved when another floor is added to the nurses' home; also for 32 new shades supplied for nurses' home, replacing the badly worn ones. Some were in fair condition, and these were removed to the Elizabeth street side, and the new ones placed where most conspicuous.
 The visitors for the month were Mrs. J. M. Young and Mrs. T. L. Wood, who were interested and most generous visitors.
 The physician for the month, Dr. Hanna, who acted for his son, Dr. Gordon Hanna, now overseas.
 The visiting governors, Mayor Bowley and Mr. A. K. Bunnell.

YOUNG CANADIAN WOMEN DOCTORS WHO SEEK COMMISSIONS.

Acting on the offer of the University of Toronto to grant degrees to fourth-year medical students who enter the army, the four lady students of the class have applied to Lt.-Col. Fred W. Harlow is now confronted with a knotty problem, as there are no provisions made in the military regulations for the granting of regular commissions to women.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder bothers— Drink lots of water.
 We are a nation of meat eaters. Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder bothers, and our blood is filled with uric acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.
 When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.
 Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

(From our own correspondent)
 We have received further particulars regarding the death of the late William Cranston, who passed away at Grand Prairie City, Alberta, on August the 17th.  Shoes are up 80% to 100% in price—and going higher. Rubbers cost practically the same as before the war. A good pair of shoes runs away with as much money as five to ten pairs of equally good rubbers.
 Yet one of these pairs of rubbers, worn when needed, will make a pair of shoes last half as long again—perhaps twice as long—for nothing destroys shoe-leather like getting wet.
 So the money spent in rubbers is returned several times over in the saving of shoes alone, and again in the prevention of colds and worse, with the attendant expense and danger.
 Beyond these personal advantages, wearing rubbers is a patriotic duty. Leather is growing scarcer, while its need for the soldiers is as great or greater than ever. Every pair of shoes we save, by releasing that much leather, helps a bit toward winning the war.

HOW CHARLEROI WAS SACKED

Slaughter, Theft and Destruction Left Population in Pittiable State

When the German armies invaded the Judicial District of Charleroi, in Belgium, they killed 110 men, nine women, and eight children, they wounded 34 men, 12 women and 3 children, and they caused the disappearance of 300 men, 250 women, 249 children and 63 entire families. In addition they burned down 769 houses, pillaged or partially burned 2,221 others, and left more than 3,000 families without shelter. The total value to houses and property alone was 12,500,000 francs. In addition to that they made wholesale requisition of the food and provisions of the people, and on the top of it obtained by means of still further horrors an indemnity of 10,000,000 francs.

These facts are just one instance in a long list of the horrors of the Belgian invasion published by the British government from sworn statements supplied by the Belgian Legation in London.

It is hard to realize the utter state of dependence on outside help to which the people of Belgium have been reduced. Facts like the above help to show the situation.

Self-sustaining communities have been utterly disorganized. Many of the men shot or carried away in imprisonment, houses burned, all food supplies stolen, and industries destroyed—these are the conditions which the Belgians are still facing.

It is to bring food and clothing to these people now so pathetically destitute that the Belgian Relief Committee is redoubling its efforts. The need is greater than ever in Belgium, for the nearer the day of deliverance comes to these people, the more do the Germans exhaust all the resources of the country.

The help of Canadians is earnestly sought through local committees, and subscriptions to these committees, or to the Central Belgian Relief Committee, 59 Peter street, Montreal, are welcomed.

The Supreme Court sitting at Augusta, Maine, decided in favor of John B. Henderson, of Washington, D.C., in a suit alleging breach of promise brought by Elizabeth Gammon who sought damages of $250,000.

Edward Berry, charged with killing Mrs. Fannie Brookbank, a wealthy woman, at Jeffersonville, Ind., last March, was found guilty in circuit court. He was sentenced to imprisonment for life. Mrs. Brookbank's body was found by neighbors in a closet of her home. Berry was connected with the crime through findings of Mrs. Brookbank's watch in a Louisville, Ky., newspaper.

V. A. Sinclair, M.P.P., has given a donation of flowers, shrubs and bulbs to the schools around Tillsonburg.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

The Hospital for Sick Children COLLEGE ST., TORONTO.

Dear Mr. Editor: Thanks for the privilege of appealing through your columns on behalf of the Hospital for Sick Children, the great Provincial Charity.

Our need of money is measured by the children's need of help, and you can judge how great that need must be when last year 3,948 sick little ones were treated as inpatients, and as will be seen from the 1916 figures, 592 patients were admitted from 242 places outside Toronto.

Last year 271 in-patients were treated for deformities, such as club feet, bow-legs, knock-knees, Pott's disease of the spine, lateral curvature of the spine, dislocations, infantile paralysis, tubercular disease of knee, hip, ankle.

Is the Hospital for Sick Children to take dollars out of your pocket, or is death to take babies out of their cradles? That is the question.

One gift more in the Hospital's treasury means one coffin less in the LITTLE WHITE HEARSE.

The Hospital must be digging up help for little children from the soil of human kindness, or sections will be digging graves for little children in the soil of many a cemetery.

The Hospital for Sick Children can only volunteer its mery in so far as you friends of little children volunteer your money for service in the Hospital's never-ending battle for the lives of the little ones.

Let your money fight in the trenches of some mother's trouble and rescue some little child from the dugout of pain, disease and death.

Can the Hospital leave children to die because the fathers of those children have left home to fight for liberty on the British battle line, and can the Hospital help the children of Canada's soldiers with its care unless you help the Hospital with your cash?

You have money enough to help every other war fund without keeping back a dollar from the Hospital's war fund—the fund that helps the Hospital save the lives of little children, including the soldiers' little children.

Do not let the little children pay, in the loss of the Hospital's care, the contribution that should be given and must be given to the war funds.

Your money can send a message of cheer to some father in the trenches—yes, send that message from the cot where the Hospital nurses some little child back to life, the child of the father who is fighting your battle in the trenches.

Every dollar kept from the Hospital's power to serve the little children is a weight added to the burdens and a grief added to the sorrows of this war.

You can hear to have your pocket emptied of a little money easier than some mother can bear to have her home emptied of a little child.

Will you send a dollar, or more if you can, to Douglas Davidson, Secretary-Treasurer, or

THE KING OF BEES.

Long, long ago, when the head of the bald eagle wasn't white but colored like the rest of him, the bees wanted a king. So a great regiment of bees, bumble bees and honey bees and bees and bees and bees of every kind there is, marched over hill and dale with a bee-band humming music, to a mountain cave, where a black dwarf lived. This dwarf was so wise, birds and beasts and bees all said, that he could settle anything with the wisdom of his head and do anything with the magic of the black fire he kept burning in his cave.

"Well, oh, bees," said the black dwarf, "what do ye come seeking, drawn up thus before my cave in lines of battle?"

"It is not a battle that we seek, wiseman of black," said a huge bee, who seemed to be a sort of leader. "We seek a king."

"Art thou not a sort of king?" asked the black dwarf.

"Nay," said the Bee. "We would have a bigger king than I. We would have a king like unto a bee—yet different. Let his hum be louder and his wings stronger. Let him be handsomer and bigger so that, looking, one may see at once that he is king."

"There is no such bee," said the dwarf.

"That we know," cried the bees. For we have searched and searched through Bee-land. We ask thee, oh king, with the magic of thy black fire to make us such a king. And, king, a queen that their children may be kings and queens in Bee-land."

"Bring me 100 rose-cups full of honey," said the black dwarf, "and it shall be done."

So the bees brought to the black dwarf 100 rose-cups of honey. And when they had done so, the dwarf brought forth a huge sea-shell and asked the bigger bees to hum and hum at the mouth of it. When he hummed in the sea-shell all the hum he wanted he bade the bees begone and return when the king-moon smiled upon the Bee-land.

Then the dwarf caught a shooting star and dropped it in the black fire. He poured the hum from the sea shell into the black fire. He melted an amerald. He melted a sapphire. He melted a bit of forked lightning and all these he poured into the black fire. Then he journeyed far and returned with a bit of rainbow. And when he poured some honey into the fire he began to chant. Now while he was chanting a swallow flew into the cave and one of his feathers dropped into the fire and was gone in a flash. The angry dwarf chased the swallow forth, but the mischief was done. When he saw his wand and bade the king of the bees come forth—it had feathers!

But dear me! he was a beautiful king! His feathers in a ray of sunlight flashed emerald and sapphire and rainbow. His tail was forked like lightning and he had the swiftness of lightning and of the shooting star. He was bigger than a bee and yet smaller than a bird. He was a little like a swallow and yet he was only a couple of inches long. His splendid wings for all they were tiny hummed and hummed. The dwarf brought a flower and it tipped honey like a bee. It could fly like a bird and yet unlike most birds it could fly backwards. Oh, 'twas a gorgeous king, but the dwarf was worried—worried about the feathers. Then he made the queen and when the King-moon shone on Bee-land the bees came to their king and queen and 'th glad to say they didn't mind the feathers. But the dwarf knew he'd made a humming bird.

Tomorrow—the battle of the bees and birds.

PUNISHING CHILDREN

It all the punishments that are visited on children in anger or irritation or annoyance were withheld, I think the average child's punishments could be cut in half.

It is really astonishing to see how even the well-bred, well-intentioned, conscientious mothers will let themselves be influenced by irritation or annoyance in the treatment of a beloved child.

And yet it is so astonishing when one remembers what havoc close contact with small children is apt to play with one's nerves.

Why Are They So Tiring?

Why is it, when they are so adorable?

Perhaps because they have so much more energy than we. You know grown up people who are too full of nervous energy are apt to be wearing.

I know some one will assure me by mail that right feeling mothers do not find their children tiresome.

I beg to differ. There are some women who have the gift of dealing with children just as some have the gift of song or of skill with the needle, but I know many sweet conscientious women who are tired out by too-close contact with their brood.

She Found Herself Eager To Punish

Just the other day I found a young mother with tears in her eyes. "I was just going to punish Ruth," she said, "when I found I was really taking pleasure in doing it so I stopped right off. How can I be so cruel to my own children. I must be a perfect brute."

"On the contrary," I said, "you are an unusually thoughtful, conscientious mother. Many women vent their irritation on their children every day without ever realizing that is what they are doing."

What Does Discipline Mean?

It all goes back to a question of motives. A child should be punished for discipline. Discipline means "to improve by corrective and penal methods." It doesn't mean to punish for vengeance's sake.

I think Seneca's ideal of punishment would be an excellent thing for every mother, the ruler in her little kingdom, to hang up over her desk.

"We will not punish a man because he hath offended, but that he may offend no more; nor does punishment ever look to the past, but to the future; for it is not the result of passion, but that the same thing may be, guided against in time to come."

A two and one-half cent piece is demanded by the country, according to the director of the U.S. mint, the annual report recommends passage of a law authorizing coins of that denomination from copper and nickel.

GIRL'S COAT.

By Anabel Worthington.

If you will make this coat for your daughter she will have reason to be all puffed up with pride, for it has features that proclaim it stylish and jaunty.

There is just a little bit of French to it with its raised waistline where the body and skirt sections join with a felled seam. No one can help noticing that smartness is gained by extending the neck line at one side, carrying it over to yoke depth at the opposite side for closing with a large single button.

No wool can bow harm to the wearer because the body part is fitted. The choice of a cuffed sleeve or an unmodified one depends upon individual selection; the neck should have a velvet or fur collar unless corduroy makes the coat, when a collar of self material will do. The three piece skirt is of voluminous cut and with ripple enough to rival that in a big coat.

Broadcloth, velvet, zibeline, velour and the like are suitable fabrics and if you will reproduce this design, you will decide there is more meaning in the word "Pattern" than you thought.

The coat, U. S. S. G. L. cuts in sizes 12 to 14 years. To make in size 4 requires 1 1/2

SIGNS OF AGE

I realize with bitter grief, I'm in the mire and yellow leaf. The things that once excited me and made me throw two fits or three, no longer make the old appeal, and quite indifferent I feel. When presidential nights were on, in happy times forever gone, for days together I saw red, I really thought if A should win, a golden era would begin; I really thought if A should lose, we'd have to soak our shirts and shoes to buy our hungry children bread, and fire would be a thing of dread. But now I hear the statesmen roar the same old thunder as of yore, and not a tremor do I feel, and not a warring makes appeal. I know that when the fess is done, and A has lost, and B has won, we'll all plod on the same old way, and saw our wood and hale our hay, and love and laugh, and sing, and sigh, and woo and wed and work and die.

Cardinal Mercier Bissing's Le Deportation

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Dec. 6.—Documents received here give the text of a reply of General Von Bissing, governor of Belgium, to Cardinal Mercier's letter of October 26, in which the Cardinal's rejoinder of Dec. 10.

General Von Bissing's reply October 26, begins by denying violation of the assurance of man commander gave at the signing of the war that no man be removed from Belgium, if that such removals had been made by "the clandestine employment of large numbers of young men to join the Belgian army."

"The German authorities have been quite justified in using the example of Eastern France, but they have not done so."

Contending that the employment of Belgian unemployed in France has nothing to do with the war, but is purely a social and economic measure, General Von Bissing says:

"Great Britain's mercileless economic isolation of Germany equally on Belgium; it depends on raw materials and prevents export of manufactures, and deals a vital blow, leaving the people unemployed and a state of public calamity."

General Von Bissing then states that the Belgian real state of affairs and that thousands of them have gone many where they could get pay. Others would follow, but are deterred by influence at leastly brought to bear on them.

He concludes by inviting the world to study the situation of Belgium and economic viewpoint.

Replying on November 1, Cardinal Mercier recalls the promise by Baron von Hühne and subsequently confirmed by Baron von Hühne.

"The undertaking was entirely without time limit. Young people have nothing that they may be sent to either to be enrolled in the employed at forced labor."

"This engagement has lasted every day a thousand fifteen days."

In answer to General Mercier's charge that England have done such things Cardinal Mercier replies that should look to those countries, not towards a persecuted population. The Cardinal denies that the Belgian masses public order five million Belgians are witnesses of the dignity and patience of our classes."

Cardinal Mercier then says that he has nothing to do with the war, but properly speak something to do with the properly speaking."

"For," he continues, "Belgium does not take up arms."

Belgium does not take up arms.

Domination of Might Over Right in Belgium

Cardinal Mercier Replies Scathingly to Von Bissing's Letter Justifying German Deportation of Belgian Workmen

By Courier Special Wire.
London, Dec. 6.—Documents received here give the text of the reply of General Von Bissing, military governor of Belgium, to Cardinal Mercier's letter of October 19, and the Cardinal's rejoinder of November 10.
General Von Bissing's reply, dated October 24, begins by denying any violation of the assurance the German commander gave at the beginning of the war that no men would be removed from Belgium, declaring that such removals had been justified by "the clandestine emigration of large numbers of young men wishing to join the Belgian army." He adds:

"The German authorities would have been quite justified in following the example of England and France, but they have not done so. Contending that the employment of Belgian unemployed in Germany has nothing to do with the conduct of the war, but is purely a social and economic measure, General Von Bissing says:

"Great Britain's merciless economic isolation of Germany bears equally on Belgium; it deprives her of raw materials and prevents the export of manufactures, and thus deals a vital blow, leaving masses of the people unemployed and bringing a state of public calamity to Belgium."

General Von Bissing then declares that the Belgian people realize the state of affairs and that "tens of thousands of them have gone to Germany where they could get better pay. Others would follow, he says, but are deterred by influence systematically brought to bear on them. He concludes by inviting the cardinal to study the situation from a social and economic viewpoint.

Replying on November 10, Cardinal Mercier recalls the promise made by Baron von Hülse and subsequently confirmed by Baron von Der Goltz and says:

"The undertaking was explicit and entirely without time limit that 'young people have nothing to fear that they may be sent to Germany either to be employed in the army or employed at forced labor.' 'This engagement has been violated every day a thousand times for fifteen days.'
In answer to General Von Bissing's charge that England and France have done such things, Cardinal Mercier reminds them that they should look to those countries for revenge, not towards a peaceful and disarmed population. The Cardinal then denies that the Belgian workmen menaced public order, saying 'five million Belgians and some hundred Americans are wondering witnesses of the dignity and impeccable patience of our working classes.'
Cardinal Mercier then says that if, as von Bissing declares, such labor has nothing to do with the conduct of the war properly speaking, it has something to do with the war 'improperly speaking.'
'For,' he continues, 'even if a Belgian does not take up arms, he releases the hands of a German workman who will take them up.' The letter concludes as follows: 'Monsieur Governor, at the beginning of my letter I recalled the noble words of your excellency: 'I have come to Belgium to heal the wounds of your country.' If your excellency could, as we priests do, enter the homes of the working people and hear the lamentations of the wives and mothers to whom your decree brings mourning and poverty, you would be better able to see yourself that the wounds of the Belgian people are open and bleeding.

'Two years ago they say there was death, there was pillage, there was burning. But it was war. Today there is no longer war. It is cold calculation, desired destruction, the domination of might over right, the humiliation of man in defiance of humanity. It depends on you, your excellency to silence the voice, the cries of outraged conscience.
'May God, on whom we call with all the ardor of the soul of an oppressed people, inspire you with the pity of the Good Samaritan.'

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says 'glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.'

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right after breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the system and toxin from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately morning to evening. This phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and refreshing, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headache or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become 'real cranks on the subject shortly.'

John Seville, foreman for Walter Schell, of East Oxford, was attacked and seriously gored by a bull on the Schell farm.

PARIS TO AID RECRUITING

Decision Reached at Session of Town Council Held This Week

Dec. 5th, 1916.
The death took place yesterday morning of Charles E. Hillis, the deceased was born near Courtland, Ont. 54 years ago, and was a daughter of the late Mr. Charles Hillis. About 30 years ago she was married to Mr. Wilson, and lived to Brantford as a bride but later moved to Paris, and lived in the town of Paris, and Broomhill farm near Paris. The late Mrs. Wilson had been in declining health for some years. About two weeks ago she was taken to a nursing home where she never rallied. A husband, one daughter, Mrs. T. Brown and two sons are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place to the Paris Cemetery tomorrow afternoon, and the service will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Langton, of the Baptist church, of which church the deceased was a member.
We notice a decrease in the customs receipts of $1,393.57 for the month of Nov. 1915, it was $15,056.80, while this year it is only $13,657.78.
Last evening there was a large attendance of manufacturing and business men in the council chamber, who had met at the call of the speaker to hear the Col. Morris Roewe to hear the Col. Morris Roewe to hear the needs of recruiting for the 21st Battalion. The Col. was unavoidably absent through illness, and Captain MacKenney represented him. The Captain paid a tribute to Paris in the large number of men it had sent overseas as well as in the fact that more men were needed camp. That more men were needed all were well aware and it was thought possible that a number could be obtained in town and vicinity. He explained how in Brantford a census of all men of military age had been taken and it was surprising the number of men who had entered Brantford during the past year.
Among those who spoke were Messrs T. Bonnar, John Harold, F. Smoke, C. B. Robinson, H. Hedite, J. R. Layton, A. W. Bell, Dr. Lovett, Rev. Mr. Evans, Rev. Adamson, Nicholson and Father Cassidy, who were in favor of recruiting and manning taken to aid recruiting and manning. Messrs. T. Bonnar, J. R. Layton, A. W. Bell, Dr. Lovett, Rev. Mr. Evans, Rev. ## Montreal City Council Fears for Its Existence

Rumored That It Will Be Wiped Out by Provincial Government and Commission Form of Municipal Control Established

Montreal, Dec. 5.—Excitement was caused at the City Hall this morning by the circulation of a rumor that the provincial government intended to wipe out the city council and board of control and substitute a commission form of municipal government. The rumor stated that Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of the province, had told a member of a civic delegation to Quebec, that the present municipal system of Montreal was to be done away with.
The Administration of Montreal has been under fire for a long time. Several commissioners have investigated allegations against aldermen

NO CHANGES IN TEMPERANCE ACT

Premier Says Beer and Wine License in Ontario Is Impossible

Toronto, Dec. 6.—'I wouldn't be candid with you if I held out any hope of an amendment to the Ontario temperance act, permitting the issuing of wine and beer licenses,' declared Premier Hearst to a delegation of twenty leading labor men, which had waited upon the Government yesterday morning and presented among twenty other resolutions affecting Ontario legislation, as passed by the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, one asking that the temperance act be amended to allow beer and wine licenses to be issued.
Premier Hearst added that the evidence which came to him was that the act had been of great benefit to the people of the province generally. He had no doubt but that resulant depreciation in values of hotel properties, and losses in business to certain classes, but much good had flowed from the act, and this had more than counterbalanced the losses referred to.

The deputation was received by Premier Hearst, Hon. Dr. Fyfe and Hon. P. J. McLaughlin, Dr. W. E. Riddell, superintendent of the recently organized trades and labor department, was also present.

The beer and wine license resolution around which interest centered, also asked that in the provincial referendum, to be taken after the war, a separate ballot be prepared on the question of the issuance of beer and wine licenses. To this feature of the resolution the premier in his reply made no reference.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing, a gentle liver and bowel cleanser should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills give them a teaspoonful in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again.

All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

WILSON IS AGAIN DEIFIED BY HUNS

Italian Ship Torpedoed Had 47 Americans Aboard—One Killed.

Madrid, Dec 6.—The Italian steamer Palermo, with forty-seven Americans on board, has been torpedoed off the Spanish coast. One sailor, reported to be an American, was wounded by a shell and died in a hospital.

The Italian steamer Palermo, of 9,205 tons gross, left New York November 15 for Genoa and Spezia and was last reported as passing Gibraltar on November 28. She carried no passengers, but had on board forty-seven American horse tenders. In addition to horses she carried a general cargo. Besides 858 mules and 163 horses, the Palermo carried 1,452 cases of "T. N. T." the most powerful explosive made, and tons of munitions and war supplies.

The Palermo was built in 1899 at Newcastle. Her length was 470, width 56 feet, and depth 32.1 feet.

Efforts to form an alliance between General Felix Diaz and Senator Don Eduardo Iturbide are denounced by Diaz partisans as an effort to rob him of the fruits of his revolution against Carranza.

A team of frightened horses drawing an undertaker's wagon ran away in New York, knocked down one woman, who suffered a fracture of the skull, and another woman, who was seriously hurt.

The fact that Governor Whitman of New York State will have at his disposal patronage representing close to $1,000,000 in salaries is said to explain the crumbling of the opposition to him as leader of the Republican organization.
