AUTO THIEF CAUSES MUCH EXCITEMENT

Citizens of Newcastle were treated to some excitement last Saturday evening, such as residents of New York and other large American cities are accustomed to, when the local police force attempted to arrest an automobile thief who is also suspected of being guilty of arson and robbing of stores. Some time ago a man giving his name as Edwards arrived in Newcastle and was successful in receiving a number of odd jobs about town. He, however, disappeared immediately after the J. D. Creaghan Co. Ltd. fire on May 23rd; but at that time he was not suspected of having anything to do with the conflagration.

Last week he suddenly reappeared in town with a big 1924 model Cadillac automobile. About the same time the local police force had received word that a car had been stolen in Maine and the one driven by Edwards answered the description furnished the police officers.

Search for Edwards and the car was immediately instituted but the numbers on the car driven by him did not correspond with those given the police, as on his arrival in Newcastle, Edwards crossed over to Nelson and took number plates off a car at the Fraser plant placed them on the stolen car and in this way succeeded in deceiving for a while, the police officers.

Chief of Police Hopkins and Deputy Sheriff Doran finally decided to accost Edwards and get the car. Night Policeman Hill saw him on Saturday evening allowing two young ladies to alight from the car and getting on the running board to get his business when Edwards immediately stepped on the gas and knocked Policeman Hill off. He steered his car for Call's Hill, going at a 50 mile an hour rate, and met Chief of Police Hopkins and Deputy Sheriff Doran coming down the hill driving in a wagon. The Chief got out of the wagon to head off the bandit, if possible, while the deputy sheriff turned the horse and wagon across the street in an endeavor to stop the on-rushing car. But the desperate thief was not so easily balked and bumped the horse and wagon out of his way and hit the chief of police on the arm and leg with the fender of the car throwing him into the ditch and proceeded at a lively clip up the hill and down King's Highway towards Douglastown and Bathurst.

Chief Hopkins immediately made arrangements with Mr. Edward Dalton to take a high-powered range car and a number of men to go with him, to give chase to the car thief, while residents along the road were telephoned to, acquainting them of the theft and requesting gasoline vendors not to supply anyone answering the thief's description with any further supply of gas.

Edwards got as far as the Depot Camp the car being overtaken there and when found had only about one gallon of gas in the tank. Edwards, realizing that the game was up with him and that the car would soon refuse to go further, decided to abandon the car, and he himself took to the woods.

A search was made for him but the posse was unable to locate him. The stolen car was brought back to Newcastle and a close watch is being kept for the apprehension of Edwards. It is thought that Edwards is the man who is responsible for the Creaghan fire; and on that morning left Newcastle for Maine; where he stole the car. On his return he is suspected as being the person responsible for the robbery of W. E. Forbe's store in Richibucto and also for the theft of gasoline in that town. His arrest is anxiously and eagerly awaited and if any of the charges can be proven against him he will be given a stiff sentence to Dorchester penitentiary.

NEWCASTLE MOURNS RESPECTED CITIZEN

In the death of William A. Park which occurred Sunday morning at his home here, Newcastle mourns the loss of one of its best known and most prominent citizens. Deceased had been ill for only a short time and was in his 70th year. The late Mr. Park was a native of Douglastown but resided here all his life. He was a lawyer and in his early life practised his profession until his appointment as Collector of Customs at this port, which position he filled until about a year ago when he retired on superannuation. In politics he was an active member of the Liberal-Conservative party and for a time represented Northumberland County in the local Legislature.

For many years the late Mr. Park was Secretary-treasurer of the Southwest Boom Co. He was an active member of St. James' Presbyterian Church having served for years on the Trustee Board; was past president of the Highland Society of New Brunswick at Miramichi and Newcastle Curling Club. He was a member of the Trustee Board of the Miramichi Hospital and was President of the Board during 1921 and took an active interest in the building of the Nurses' Home in connection with the hospital. During the war he was a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Patriotic Fund; also a past master of Northumberland Lodge F. and A.M. No. 17. In his younger days he was interested in the militia and was one of the officers of the Newcastle 12th Field Battery shortly after its formation.

He is survived by his wife, former Miss Edith Winslow daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Chatham, and one son Frank; also one brother James of Millerton and one sister Mrs. W. P. Bishop of Bathurst. The funeral will be held from the family residence Wednesday afternoon, 11th inst. under the auspices of the Masonic Order; interment in the Miramichi Cemetery.

Public Spirited Citizens Donate Flowers

Messrs. P. N. Brown, E. J. Morris and B. F. Maltby have kindly donated flowers for the flower beds in the public park. There is still an opportunity for others to donate flowers for the beds which are yet planted.

LOGALS DEFEATED BY CHATHAM

The Newcastle baseball team went down to defeat before Chatham in the Farrell Field here on Friday night by the score of 8 to 4. The batter for the locals was Ward; Craik and McKenzie and for Chatham Mayes and Moar. One of the largest gatherings of fans that ever watched a ball game here for a number of years was on hand to see the game and they were enthusiastic from start to finish. W. Ashford umpired balls and strikes while W. Watling looked after the bases. The evening was an ideal one for baseball; the sun being partially obscured by a cloud and a nice cool, gentle breeze blowing. The game went 7 1/2 innings Newcastle not playing their half of the 8th.

In the first Newcastle tallied one score while Chatham was blanked. In Chatham's second Ward was batted hard and several costly errors by the locals gave Chatham 8 runs. This was the only inning in which Chatham scored and it was the fatal one for Newcastle. In the locals second they failed to tally. In the third Craik relieved Ward at a point where it looked like another bad inning for the locals; but notwithstanding that three men were on bases Craik pulled out of a bad hole and saved the situation. In Newcastle's third one more tally was registered. The 4th 5th and 6th were blanks for both teams and the brand of ball was of a high standard the pitchers receiving excellent support from their respective teams. In Newcastle's half of the 7th Jack Keating a promising youngster--struck a homer but was called out because he failed to touch the bags in the circuit. In this inning Newcastle scored 2 more runs making the score 8 to 4. It was now becoming quite dark and was not looking any too promising for Chatham when they went to bat. Craik had no difficulty in holding his opponents in check and retired the inning with Chatham unable to score. Newcastle did not go to bat in the 8th as it was too dark and the umpire called the game. In Chatham's 8th a disgraceful exhibition of unsportsmanship--such as no body ever wants to see again was given by Veno of Chatham while running from second to third base. He was caught at third by Murray and it is alleged that he deliberately attempted an assault with his spiked shoes on Murray by jumping in the air towards him and only by a fraction of an inch missing catching the baseman with his spiked shoes. Had he done so--serious injuries would have resulted and Murray is fortunate that he is not at present nursing an ugly wound. Murray accused Veno of trying to maim him and for a time it looked as if a mix-up was going to occur. A number of the fans jumped the ropes and surrounded Veno while others called the police asking for his arrest. The local players and fans proved that they were genuine sports and not rowdys; otherwise Veno would have received a trouncing that he would not forget for some time. For this attitude Newcastle Sports are to be commended; but such a serious matter as the one alleged should not be allowed to drop without a severe reprimand to the player. Lovers of baseball want to see good, clean baseball and not rowdism. If actions such as the one referred to are allowed to go unchecked; then baseball is doomed. It is reported that on other occasions this same Chatham player has resorted to similar unseemly tricks; and if such is the case; it is about time that he was called to book. The local team should enter a strong protest against this player if the alleged charges are true; and an investigation by the League officials should be held immediately and if the charges are substantiated he should be debarred from baseball for all time to come.

PLENTY OF MONEY FOR LUXURIES

Germans Flood All Markets Everywhere.

According to the Overseas Daily Mail; British markets have been so denuded of luxuries by German buyers that prices of many articles have risen against the British consumer. They invaded London in search of art treasures; showing desperate keenness to lay in books; pictures and other non-depreciating treasures. They paid big prices in the London tortoiseshell auctions. In the past few weeks they have bought the best-class imported apples so heavily that London is feeling a shortage. Half of the furs sold at the London wholesale sales according to an authority were bought to clothe German women. They are purchasing diamonds and other gems; fine fabrics and other luxuries in London; some of the things at fantastic prices. And they paid in good pounds and dollars. They spent 25,000,000 francs with French wine growers within a few weeks. They ensured that these Germans who were not wintering abroad—and 70 per cent of the wealthy visitors to St. Moritz were Germans—should lack nothing sumptuous. Berlin lacked nothing in the way of Russian caviare; truffles; lobsters and the choicest fruit of which 975 tons of grapes was a heavy item.

FRUIT TREATMENT HEALS KIDNEYS

Concentrated Fruit Juices Give Astonishing Results

Anyone who has suffered with Weak or Irritated Kidneys—with the accompanying miseries of pain in the back, splitting headaches, swollen hands and feet, rheumatism and constipation—ought to try the Fruit Treatment for their trouble.

To those who use intensified fruit juices—"Fruit-a-tives"—for the first time, it seems almost impossible that the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes combined with tonics, could relieve Kidney Trouble.

But a short treatment of "Fruit-a-tives" gives quick relief and the regular use of these intensified fruit juices or "Fruit Liver Tablets" prove their marvellous virtues. Get "Fruit-a-tives" today and begin the Fruit Treatment. At all dealers; 25c. and 50c. a box; or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Will Visit Canada This Fall

In spite of all contradictions and denials it is generally known in Court and official circles that the Prince of Wales is most anxious to visit his ranch in Alberta this fall. The only difficulty that lies in the way is the fulfillment of the multitude of engagements which have been made for him and this may prove the stumbling block to prevent the visit.

The Prince not only wishes to see what progress has been made on the improvements designed and agreed to since his last visit but he also feels that a change to the free life of the open air on the ranch is essential after the tiring and harassing duties; both social and official which a peculiarly brilliant London season have in store for him this summer.

CANADA MAY BAR JAPANESE

Ottawa, June 2—Further restriction of Japanese immigration into Canada is under consideration by the Government. This was resolved today in the House of Commons when a question regarding oriental immigrants was asked. Hon. H.H. Stevens asked if the Government had received representations from retail merchants in British Columbia asking for the same restrictions to Japanese as now exist in reference to Chinese and what the Government intended to do about it.

The Minister of Immigration replied that such representations had been received and the "question of the advisability of further restricting Japanese immigration is under consideration."

OILING STREETS

The proposition to apply oil to the streets of Annapolis Royal was discussed again in the Town Council some months ago and turned down on account of the greatly increased price of oil from what it was when the experiment was successfully tried on Upper St. George Street two or three years ago. That the idea seems to be popular elsewhere however is evident from the following clippings from Pictou and Yarmouth papers:

From the Pictou Advocate May 2 Last year's experiment with oiling the streets clearly demonstrated that for dust laying oil is the only thing. For years we suffered with the dust nuisance; in spite of all that could be done to lay the dust by means of watering carts. But last year we enjoyed complete freedom from dust on the streets where oil was laid. The oil did more than lay the dust; it held the street material together prevented the autos from sucking it up and having it blown to the four winds. The oil paid for itself in saving wear and tear on the streets. What it accomplished in dust laying was pure velvet. At last evening's meeting Messrs. E. S. Hamilton and J. A. Fisher urged on the council the consideration of using the oil again this year. Some of the councillors favored the oil but Mayor MacEachern and Chairman Hugh Sutherland seemed to think it was too expensive. The Mayor thought that salt water should be tried. Salt water will never lay the dust and if used at all freely will cost as much as the oil. Further Coun. Brennan tells us that whatever the salt water dust touches; the finish on the wheels or other parts of autos it will leave a permanent stain. This matter of oiling the streets will be considered by the council again on Monday night. We think that all interested in clean streets and comfort should urge on their representatives in the council the use of oil. It has been proved that it is the only solution to the dust nuisance and by virtue of its binding qualities is a road preserver and builder. We do not want to go back to the old days when dust polluted the whole town and spread disease and discomfort everywhere.

From the Yarmouth Herald. Another very important improvement was effected last week when the Boston and Yarmouth S.S. Co. at its own expense thoroughly oiled Water Street along the entire front of the company's terminals also the right of way leading to and from the wharf. By this experiment the use of oil on our streets has been well demonstrated and the improvement it has made along that portion of Water Street has met with very favorable comment from many persons. Although the street and property was only oiled six days ago it will withstand the wet weather of the days which followed and is now settled into a very dry hard surface absolutely free from dust. So satisfactorily has it proven that we understand there are other Water street concerns considering at their own expense the use of oil on the street in front and the approaches to their premises.

This also from the Pictou Advocate A committee composed of Messrs. W.T. Ferguson; H. S. Hamilton; and J.A. Fisher appeared before the council in reference to having oil put on the streets to keep down the dust. Mr. Ferguson stated that the oil had been tried last year and had proved a complete success. The merchants and business men of the town generally were desirous that the oil be used again. They felt that the expense should be borne by the town as the oil was for the benefit of the town but they had agreed again this year to raise $450 and would expect the town to raise the balance and put on the oil. Made for finest laundering, you can use this soap for everything

For finest silks, or coarsest woolsens

These snowy, crinkly Palmolive PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES were made for laundering the sheerest, finest fabrics: silks, satins, chiffons, laces—lovely, expensive things.

For the foamy suds contains nothing that can possibly hurt the most fragile fabric, or dim the most delicate coloring. It actually lengthens the life of pretty, dainty things.

But—best of all—it can be used for laundering everything! Because it is economical. Being pure soap—nothing else—it actually goes farther. It saves all clothing. And it cleanses efficiently.

So it is ideal for the washing machine, or for any household purpose.

If only to try, get some today—from your dealer. He has them in handy, one-pound packages.

year they would expect the oiling of the streets to be done entirely by the town. The council agreed that the wish of the merchants and others should be complied with and agreed to raise the balance needed to purchase a tank car of oil and also to put the oil on the streets.

The salt water pump was put in shape this week and the salt water will be used on the streets before the oil is laid and after oil is laid it will likely be put on the streets that are not oiled. This should give us a town this summer very free from dust.

REVISED SPELLING

The school concert was about to begin. Four little girls were dressed to represent the word "star" and each had one letter of that word pinned on her show-white frock. Each letter began the verse of a touching little song.

"Now" said the teacher "form yourselves in position and wait until the curtain goes up."

The little girls did as they were told and while the piano played the accompaniment the curtain went up.

Instead of applause to greet the little girls; deep silence from the audience met them. They had got into the wrong order and the word they spelt was "rats".

HELP THE POLICE

The police of Newcastle intend to enforce the regulations governing automobiles running on our streets and all good citizens should support them in their efforts. There are times, despite the fact that we are a town of relatively small population, when traffic is dense and when there can be safety only by a scrupulous observance of the regulations. Around the square and King's Highway furnishes an invitation to the speeder; but the speeder must not be tolerated. We do not want any unfortunate accidents and the way to prevent this is for motorists to realize their responsibility and for the police officers to be unsparring in their efforts.

People, as a rule are reluctant to report their fellows for offences but in this matter of automobile regulations such feelings ought to be set aside, and especially so far as the speeder is concerned. The man or woman who will push his or her automobile through a town street at speed is a potential taker of human life and forfeits all consideration by others. All should join in an effort; to make it possible for everyone to use the streets and highways without fear of danger.

THE "CORNER GANG"

Numerous complaints are being made about the annoyance caused pedestrians through discourteous remarks; blockading of sidewalks; expectorating tobacco and other disgusting habits made by the "corner gang" which seems to think that it is their right to hold up the walls of the Post Office; Stohart Mercantile Co. Ltd. store; the Lounsbury Co. Ltd. building and many other corners throughout the town both day and night. We can assure these "gentlemen" that these structures have a sufficiently solid foundation to stand without "props."

If it is a matter of finding a comfortable resting place in the open air—we would recommend the "Memorial Field" where they may sit and gaze upon the green sward; blue sky and passers by. But of course it would still be necessary to refrain from objectionable language and practise even there.

One own sense of propriety should be sufficient for the average person to realize that it is not in the best interest of the town or themselves to congregate at street corners—let alone criticize passersby and otherwise make matters objectionable for them; but if there are persons so lacking in a sense of decency—the Chairman of the Police Committee should take prompt action in dealing with the nuisance.

The Sad Condition of a Brand-on Lady—How Relief Came

"I owe my present good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills" says Mrs. Annie Treherne; Brandon; Man, who tells of her new found health as follows:—"Some years ago I had an attack of pneumonia and it left me in a terribly weakened and run down state. I was unable to walk for a long time as I had practically lost the use of my legs and had to be carried upstairs for I had not the strength to go myself. I became despondent over my condition for I had tried many remedies which failed to help me. While in this wretched condition a lady friend urged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and I procured a supply. After taking the pills for a while I could see that I was growing stronger and I gladly continued their use until I had fully regained my old-time health and strength. Now if I feel at all run down at any time I at once take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they never fail me. I can therefore warmly recommend them to others who may be run down."

There is no better tonic than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to improve the blood and bring back strength after acute diseases such as fevers; pneumonia, influenza etc. Given a fair trial they will not disappoint you. If your dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

What sort of tea do they drink in Wolfville, N.S.? They drink the best tea they can buy—MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE. The people of Wolfville have proved that there is economy in buying the best tea obtainable; that not only is the flavor better but that there are more cups to the pound. No doubt if they could find a tea that was superior to MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE that is the tea they would buy.

Apply Minard's every day and rub it in well with the finger tips. It penetrates and heals. Removes inflammation.

REV. FATHER CARTER BURIED IN NEWCASTLE

Rev. John Carter the oldest priest in the diocese of Chatham died in the Hotel Dieu Hospital; Chatham on Saturday following an illness of three months. The late Father Carter was born at Newcastle on Oct. 26 1844. He received his early training at St. Michael's College at Chatham and his theological studies were pursued at the Grand Seminary Montreal. On June 21st 1868 he was ordained.

For more than 50 years Father Carter was an outstanding figure among the clergy of the diocese. He had pastorates first at Bathurst; then at Renou and finally at Petit Rocher. Two years ago he was forced to resign from his charge because of infirmity. The last two years of his life were spent at the Bishop's palace Chatham. The late priest was man of strong character; excellent scholarship and pleasing personality. To a great abiding zeal for the cause of the Master and a lofty conception of the priestly dignity and responsibility he added a gentleness of bearing; genuine humility and kindly consideration for others that distinguished him in life and inspired love and confidence in all who knew him.

Following Requiem High Mass in the Cathedral at 9:30 Tuesday morning the body was brought to Newcastle for interment in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery. Twenty two priests of the diocese were present at the funeral. Services at the Church and grave were conducted by Rev. P.W. Dixon.

Rev. Father Carter is survived by one brother Edward Carter; St. John's; Newfoundland; one half brother Henry Carter of Newcastle; and one half sister Mrs. J.F. Jones Port Hawkesbury; N.S.

Gov't Appoints Acting Minister

At the conclusion of the Provincial Government's meeting it was announced that Hon. Dr. J.E. Hetherington the Provincial Secretary Treasurer had been appointed acting Minister of Lands and Mines. Premier Veniot had been acting Minister since the resignation of Hon. C.W. Robinson upon his elevation recently to the Senate. The appointment of Hon. Dr. Hetherington as Acting Minister means there will be no immediate permanent Cabinet changes and apparently there will be no by-elections just now.

STAIRS—SMALLWOOD

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse; Newcastle on Tuesday afternoon when Rev. L.H. MacLean pastor of St James' Church united in marriage Miss Sadie Smallwood youngest daughter of D. Cameron and the late Mrs. Smallwood of Newcastle and E. LeBaron Stairs of the firm of Smallwood and Stairs; Moncton. The bride who was unattended wore a dress of meteor silk crepe and hand painted roses to match. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's uncle, William Touchie; where supper was served to the immediate friends of the contracting parties after which Mr. and Mrs. Stairs left by motor for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canada and on their return will reside in Moncton.

HOAR—PARKER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan D. Parker; Derby was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday June 3rd when their daughter Annie Blanche was united in marriage to Frederick M. Hoar of Moncton.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father entered the room to the strains of the wedding march played by her sister Mrs. Appleby; and looked charming in a cape dress of log cabin crepe with hat to match and fox fur and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. The guests were ushered by little Alice Parker, sister of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Scott pastor of the Methodist church in the presence of only the immediate relatives. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The happy couple left by motor for a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Toronto and Niagara and on their return will reside in Moncton. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls with platinum clasp and to the organist a gold brooch set with pearls.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts of cheques; silver; cut glass; china and linen

INSURANCE FIRMS WILL BE ASSESSED

Government to Recover Expenditure Incurred in Operation of Acts.

The assessment of insurance; trust and loan companies to recover the expenditure incurred by the Government in the operation of acts relating to such companies is proposed in legislation now introduced into the House of Commons. The assessments are to be based on the income of companies; ascertained in certain ways specified by law and the finding of the superintendent of insurance is to be final in fixing the assessments.

In the case of insurance companies the rate of assessment is to be based on the proportion borne by the expenditure of the Government in connection with the Insurance Act in the gross premium income of all insurance companies transacting business under the act less the amount paid by all the companies in dividends to policy holders. The rate thus arrived at is in turn applied to each company in a similar manner to ascertain the assessment due by the company to the Government.

In the case of trust companies the assessable fund is the total income of the company. The rate is struck by calculating the ratio between the expenditure of the Government in connection with the trust companies act to the total income of all the companies and this rate is then applied to each company to ascertain the amount of assessment due. The procedure in the case of loan companies is similar to that in trust companies.

SCOUTS AND CADETS HOLD FIELD DAY

The Field Day of the Scouts and Cadets was held on Tuesday last, June 3rd. The combined bodies left town about 9:30 and marched to the drill field above town, where they again lined up and were photographed by Mr. O. Larsen. This was followed by a lunch in regular army fashion.

After lunch a programme of sports was run off. To simplify matters the body was divided into three groups—Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors.

The following were the results:—40 yard dash (free for all)—Won by Charlie Keating (Bugle Band); 100 yard dash; Seniors—Jack Keating (Cadet); Intermediates—John Brander (Scout); Juniors—Fred Palmer (Cadet).

220 yard dash same as for 100 yard dash.

Standing Broad Jump—Fred Palmer (Cadet); 7 ft. 8 in.; Seniors—Harry Robertson (Cadet); 7 ft. 9 in.

Running Broad Jump—(Juniors)—Fred Palmer (Cadet); 13 ft 2 in.; (Seniors)—Jack Keating, Cadet, 14 ft. 8 in.

Hop, Step and Jump—(Juniors)—Beverly Sproul, Scout, 29 ft. Seniors—Jack Keating, Cadet 32 feet 2 inches.

Bag Race—Won by D. Fitzgerald, Cadet.

The Cadets won the tug-of-war and also the ball game with Keating and Lindon as battery against the Scouts with Allison and B. Sproul as battery.

About 4 o'clock the fall in was sounded, and the march home began. The bugle band showed here what it could do under the leadership of James Chambers. It led the boys all the way from the drill field to the Temperance Hall by way of Pleasant Street.

At the hall the boys were dismissed after voting the day just spent one of the best in their lives.

The Cadets and Scouts take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Ernest Russell for the use of the drill field and Mr. Stewart Weldon for a plate ball; also all others who helped to make the day the success that it was.

"PRESERVATION OF WILD LIEE"

An Interesting Story of a Trip With Compliments to Canada.

"Our trip demonstrated conclusively that the Canadian Government is well aware of the desirability of protecting its game herds, and as a rule is working consistently and devotedly to that task. In J. B. Harkin, Commissioner of the Canadian National Parks, the game have a true and staunch friend who is ever working towards the desired goal."

Such is the conclusion of a most interesting and beautifully illustrated article in "Parks and Recreation," which describes a trip taken by Mr. Doolittle, the editor of that magazine, to see if the reports of our Government in the preservation and propagation of our wild game herds were correct.

A good description of Buffalo Park, at Wainwright, and Banff Park, with pictures of the wild animals carefully preserved, is given.

Mr. Doolittle—referring to the salvation of the bison, or buffalo from extinction—says: "It took a few men of vision, determination and knowledge to make it a fact, and much credit should be given to the officials of the Canadian National Parks for their share."

But he adds: "The Canadian Government should not rest on its laurels, but should provide some means for taking care of the Wainwright Park increase other than by wholesale slaughter."

Speaking of Banff National Park he pays it a high compliment by saying: "The mountains of this Park are majestic and rugged, and, to our mind, with more grandeur than those of Rocky Mountain National Park in the States."

The article is very interesting and full of information, and copiously illustrated by pictures of the wild animals and scenery from photographs by Mr. Leslie E. Chambers, who accompanied Mr. Doolittle on the trip.

Government Wins By 99 Majority

Ottawa, June 4—Conservatives moved their amendment to the budget in the House this afternoon. It was proposed by A. J. Doucet, of Kent, N. B. and provided that the welfare of Canada "requires a consistently maintained protective policy." Without any preliminary speech Mr. Doucet moved his amendment when the bill to give effect to the tariff changes proposed in the budget came before the House for second reading. On dividing the House voted the Conservative amendment down by 135 to 36. Majority against 99.

No Room For Malice

There is no room in the breast of a newspaper editor for malice. He, of all men, learns the lessons of forbearance. He spends a lot of time each day, if his paper is a daily, in keeping out of the paper items that would hurt, or bring a blush of shame or sadden unnecessarily the heart of some wife or mother or friend.

CHRONIC INFLUENZA

Influenza is usually a short, sharp disease that; if it neither merges into pneumonia or seriously impairs the heart; subsides after a few days of great discomfort; leaving the patient apparently as well as ever. Occasionally; however;—and not so rarely as was formerly thought;—the patient does not fully recover. The acute symptoms disappear; and the doctor dismisses the patient with the assurance that the physical depression and the feeling of "all-goneness" that still remain will gradually pass if he will take care of himself and faithfully take the tonic prescribed for him. But the patient does not get well; his weakness and disinclination to think or to work persist; his determination to resume his normal activities is of no avail; he simply can't do it. Finally he concludes that he is breaking down; and if he is wise he goes back to the doctor for examination and advice.

The examination shows that his temperature is a degree or two below normal; though occasionally it makes brief excursions a degree or two above; the pulse is likely to be irregular; palpating on exertion and dropping a beat occasionally—a circumstance that directs attention to the heart which is found to be weak; moreover the blood pressure is usually too low. The appetite may remain good but digestion is slow; pains in the joints are common and the patient is often wakeful at night and drowsy through the day. He may be more or less irritable or too much depressed in spirits to care one way or the other. He may have repeated though slight nosebleeds; but nosebleed is not common.

The treatment of this distressing condition must be directed to removing the cause which is either chronic poisoning by the toxins of influenza and catarrhal germs lodged in some part of the respiratory tract or a form of auto-intoxication owing to the sluggish and incomplete action of the kidneys or the bowels. The hidden focus of the germs may be in the tonsils; in the nose or in the mouth. If it eludes search the system may be helped to under take the task of exterminating the germs by means of an appropriate vaccine; preferably made from the secretions of the patient's own throat. In some cases curiously enough—Nature does the work herself by giving the patient another acute attack of influenza the reaction to which is strong enough to cure the chronic as well as the acute trouble. The auto-intoxication present must be combatted by diuretics; castor oil and diet—Youth's Companion.

THE MEN WE CALL LUCKY!

SOME men go through life spending money faster than they earn it. When Opportunity comes, they are unable to grasp it, and in their blindness call themselves unlucky.

The successful man looks ahead—systematically building up a good bank balance. Then when Opportunity comes, he is in a position to seize it—does so, and reaps his reward.

He is often called "lucky." It was not luck—it was Foresight.

"Exhausted Nerves and Palpitating Heart"

Mrs. L. Whiting, 202 King St. West, Brockville, Ont., writes:

"I took very sick with my nerves and stomach, and seemed to be all run down. At times my heart would flutter and palpitate so and I would take such weak spells in the pit of my stomach that I sometimes thought I would never get better. I tried several doctors, but it seemed nothing they gave me helped. I had almost given up hope when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I tried it, and can say it certainly has done wonders for me. I did not stop until I had taken twenty-five boxes."

REGISTRATION SYSTEM PREVENTS LIFE

That practically the whole territory south of the Miramichi River in the Province of New Brunswick escaped without a serious forest fire in 1923 is believed to have been largely due to the inauguration of the system of Registration Certificates.

Under this system no person may camp; travel fish or picnic on forest land without first having registered with a Fire Warden or other authorized person; giving name and address and the route; destination; purpose and duration of the trip during the period from May 1st to November 30.
Only persons whose business takes them into the woods are exempt from this system and one of the results has been that the authorities know just who is in any section of the forest lands at any given time. If a conflagration starts which was not extinguished they know who was there and it is a simple matter to trace the person or persons responsible for the resulting destruction.

for care in the prevention of fires are not those who the Department of Lands and Mines seek to reach or to restrain by the system of registration certificates; on the other hand it is the great number of people who do not seem to remember what the forest resources mean to New Brunswick and who do not keep constantly in their minds the huge losses which this province has suffered from destruction by forest fires.

The issuing of Registration Certificates has not been instituted as a means of producing a revenue for the Government or of taxing the people. On the other hand no fees of more than ten cents may be charged by those authorized to charge a fee and no fee whatsoever may be charged by any employee of the Provincial Government. In order to avoid serious inconvenience to responsible persons who travel certain forest territory periodically a season certificate may be issued by the Deputy Minister upon the recommendation of the local ranger.
In extremely dry weather when the fire hazard is great all certificates may be cancelled and the issuing forbidden by proclamation until the fire hazard is reduced. The public have realized the necessity of this regulation and already thousands have registered for trips into the Forest.

BURN BRUSH
IN THE FALL

One of the most important steps taken in New Brunswick towards greater protection of the forests has been the policy of encouraging fall brush burning and the discouraging of spring burning of slash; piles and debris.

During the period from April 15th until October 15th burning within half a mile of forest land is not allowed except under permit together with the personal supervision of the ranger or fire warden acting under his supervision while after May 24th it is strictly prohibited and no fire permits may be issued unless special authority is secured from the Deputy Minister of Lands and Mines.

Regulations governing the burning of slash are contained in a handy booklet which is printed in both English and French and may be obtained for the asking from the Department of Lands and Mines; Fredericton. That the Fall Brush Burner has the endorsement of the public has been made very evident by the resolution passed by municipal councils and other bodies and it is hoped that the increased precaution being taken by the settlers will prevent Forest Fires this spring.

Maxwell's Road Map

The Advocate has received a copy of Maxwell's New Brunswick road map, giving full information to motorists regarding the roads between St. Stephen and St. John, Fredericton, Chipman and St. Andrews, covering the southwest section of the province.
The opening pages shows the mileage and gives directions for each point on the route, so that the motorist cannot fail to pursue the right way. Then follows the large map indicating all the roads and their connections. It is a most valuable aid to the traveller.

SEASON BACKWARD

Although the season has been very backward farmers in some sections have made fair progress with seeding operations. The frequent rains have given the grass a splendid start and already people are predicting an abundant hay crop. The backward spring has been a great blessing in one respect inasmuch as it seems to have given a great set back to insect pests. The tent caterpillar, which caused so much damage last spring and the spring before has evidently missed connection and will not likely be able to function this season. The cut worm and potato bug are also overdue, but will probably turn up in due course, but in reduced numbers.

DUNLOP TIRES
30 Years in Canada

Many a man is driving a motor today who was not born when Dunlop Tires first appeared on the highways of Canada.
Thirty years is a long time in the Tire business.
It is the very beginning of the industry. 1888 saw the world's first the industry taking hold in Canada.

Doesn't it stand to reason,
in view of the above facts, that we must be better equipped and better qualified to serve the exacting demands of Tire users?
Knowing the past of the Tire Industry so well, we must have pretty good intuition regarding not only the needs of the present, but the possibili-

Accident at Morrissy Bridge

The A. & R. Loggie tugboat, Alice Maud, lost her wheelhouse and smoke stack when she was drawn into the Morrissy Bridge by a tow of logs she was endeavoring to manoeuvre through the draw. When the captain saw he was being drawn backward he endeavored to avoid a contact, by ordering full speed ahead, but something fouled the wheel and the anchor was dropped, but this too caught in some tackle and could not be released before the boat struck the span with the above result. No one was injured. Some of the men jumped on the raft to get out of the way of the wreckage. The raft drifted down river and was secured at the Canadian Marsh not far above a set of salmon nets.

ACCIDENT

An unfortunate and almost serious accident occurred last Sunday evening on the Kings Highway between Jane and Thomas streets, when an automobile driven by Harry Sproul of Chatham accompanied by two lady passengers collided with a horse and wagon, driven by Mrs. James Craik of Newcastle and three small children. The occupants of the wagon were thrown out into the ditch and the wagon badly demolished. The car wheels became tangled with the wagon wheels and the shafts were broken thus allowing the horse to go free. Several passers-by assisted the injured woman and picked up the small children who while unhurt were badly frightened. The injured lady was taken to her home, where it was found that one of her ankles was sprained and otherwise severely shaken up.

Would Muzzle Scandal-Mongers

New York, June 6—"If I had my way, I would muzzle all scandal mongers and back-biters" declared Magistrate James V. Short in Gates Avenue Court, Brooklyn after hearing more than half a dozen cases in which neighbor charged neighbor with spreading scandal.

"The muzzling of dogs is obligatory" Magistrate Short went on "I believe that a woman who spreads scandal about another woman is far more dangerous than an unmuzzled dog, and her sting is worse than a dog bite. We could put a stop to this practice by muzzling such women and in that manner letting the public know the type they are."

Harkins Academy Cadets Inspected

Inspection of 218 Harkins' Academy Cadets took place on the school grounds at 3 p.m. on Friday. To the blast of the bugles and roll of drums the corps marched past the inspecting officer, Lt. Col. A.E. Snow like young guardsmen, first under their instructor, Major A. L. Barry and then under the company leader, Cadet Capt. Waldo McOrmack. A considerable gathering of the citizens of the town were present to witness the inspection including the Mayor and representatives of the Town Council, representatives of the Board of School Trustees, the clergy and parents of the boys.

After the "general salute" and "march past" the boys were put through company drill under their instructor and captain, and platoon drill under the platoon leaders, Jack Keating, Clive Lindon; Mike Livingston and Willis Taylor. The inspecting officers pronounced the work of these young commanders, excellent; and he was highly pleased with their knowledge of drill movements and discipline. They demonstrated that it does not take gray hair to make a leader.

Exhibitions of extended order drill and physical training were then put on the boys going through it without a hitch.

In the meantime the leader of the signal section, Jack Brander had his squad busy waggling a message which Col. Snow gave him to send by semaphore. This they put through with but one trifling error.

After the inspection the boys were addressed by Col. Snow who gave great praise for the excellent standing they had attained in their training. He told them this was training of the best kind for future citizenship and that they should follow it up.

Mr. F.E. Locke for the school Board, said it was a great surprise to him to know what a great work was being done in the Cadet Corps. He knew that a cadet company was formed each year but was not aware of the excellency of the training in self-control and leadership. He assured them that if all the boys in the town belonged to the Cadet Corps the citizenship of the town when they became men, would be on a higher plane.

Rev. W.J. MacLean referred to the first Cadet Corps that was organized at Newcastle. His son Harold was a member. They had been first in the province in drill that year. He hoped the boys would not forget when they were grown up the training they were now receiving and would carry the same discipline of the will right through their lives.

Rev. L.H. MacLean in a pleasing address referred to the great work being done by the Cadet instructor Major A.L. Barry and by Mr. James Chambers, the instructor of the Bugle Band. He complimented the boys on the manner in which they had gone through their drill and assured them that the time spent in these drills would help them greatly in after life.

Major H.G. Ritchie said it was the first cadet inspection he had attended in the town and he assured them that he would not miss another if he could possibly be present. He considered Cadet work excellent training for the body and mind and assured them that he would take more interest in the work in the future.

The corps ranks high in inspections among the other corps of the province, many of which have excellent facilities for training such as good armories and indoor shooting ranges. Here the boys have had to rely on the basement of the Presbyterian S.S. for Bugle Band practise and the S.O.T. Hall for rifle and general training in bad weather. Both these buildings were donated by the officers in charge.

Col. Snow left by the Ocean Ltd. for Dalhousie where he inspected the Corps there at 9 a.m. Saturday.

She Sent A Complaint

Miss Jean MacDonald, of Ste Anne de Bellevue, Que., attending MacDonald College, bought a box of Moir's Chocolates and wasn't satisfied with them. So she filled out the guarantee slip enclosed with each package and sent it back with a letter.

The letter said: "The only complaint is they went too quick. I need another box to keep the other one company. Moir's Chocolates are delightful."

KING'S HORSEMANSHIP GOT HIM OUT OF A TIGHT PLACE

Aldershot, Eng. June 10—The excellent horsemanship of King George got him out of a tight place this afternoon and saved him from a possible mishap. As the King was leaving the parade grounds on his charger after having reviewed the troops; the horse became frightened at the cheering crowds.

The horse "bucked" and nearly collided with a horse ridden by the Duke of Connaught beside the Queen's carriage. The King made a second attempt to force his horse to accompany the procession but the terrified animal plunged until his Royal rider was forced to turn back and ride home along a quiet route.

A NOBLE PROFESSION

The Smith Falls Record-News commenting on the position of the country doctor; compares his lot with that of the city doctor.

"The country doctor" says the Record-News; "is a slave to his profession. He must carry much in the way of medicine. He is subject to calls at all times of the day and night which necessitate long drives over roads which sometimes are almost impassable. His hours are long and if he has any sort of practice; his life is a strenuous one. He is dependent upon his own resources. Moreover; country practice lacks the glittering promise of great financial success; although a liberal income and an ultimate competence are practically assured."

The Toronto Globe says it agrees with the Record-News that no one should advise young doctors to shy away from country practice. If the country doctor has not the prospect of great wealth and fame the Globe adds; he enjoys the respect and consideration of the community. What is said about the country doctor is to a large extent true of the family doctor; the general practitioner in the city. The specialist has more hope of wealth and fame.

ARE YOUR NERVES "ALL ON EDGE?"

"Fruit-a-lives" Brings Rest and Comfort

Amazing Results from Intensified Fruit Juices

In these strenuous days, there is constant warfare waged against our nervous vitality.

The man and woman who is free of Nervousness and Sleeplessness; who is not more or less troubled with Indigestion, Rheumatism, Headaches, Neuralgia, Weariness and Loss of Vitality, Pain in the Back and Constipation, are very rare indeed.

This is why the Fruit Treatment, in the form of "Fruit-a-lives" is a blessing to nervous, sleepless, unstrung men and women.

"Fruit-a-lives" is really the intensified juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes and contains all the medicinal powers of these fruit juices and in a more active and concentrated form.

"Fruit-a-lives" will always relieve Nervousness and Sleeplessness by cleansing the system of waste—by rebuilding the nerve cells by means of pure, rich blood—by regulating the stomach, liver, bowels and skin—and by invigorating and re-vitalizing the whole system.

Try the fruit treatment for your nerves. Get a box of "Fruit-a-lives" today. Your druggist has them—25c. and 50c. a box., or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

The fact is that the community could not well do without either class. Specialization is essential to progress. But it is well to be reminded of the service performed by physicians who do not obtain wide-spread fame and who lead laborious lives, with exacting duties which forbid them to call any hour of the day or night their own.

With the coming of the automobile the hardships of the country doctor have been greatly reduced. However the medical profession is not an easy one whether the doctor is working in the city or in the country. But it is a noble profession and one responsible for a very large measure of sympathy and generosity to mankind.

Your Local Paper

The following brief article appeared in the Clarks Neb. Enterprise recently and we think so well of it that we are reprinting it fearing that a great many of our readers will steal it for their own columns. We can't stop them. It appeared under the above head and is as follows:

"Have you given it proper consideration? It is a matter of community interest.

"If your paper is not full of interesting news it is not your paper. It prints the news you furnish. Because of false modesty or thoughtless ness or lack of interest you fail to report to the paper what you know about yourself or others that is of interest. Then don't knock the paper if it fails to report that you went to Podunk Centre to visit your dear mother-in-law.

The local paper is a big family letter or at least it should be. Contribute your part to the letter and what a newsy paper you will have. Make a new resolution and try it out. Then don't forget the Subscription and Cash. The local paper cannot be run on promises or a bushel of turnips.

"Liver Trouble so Severe I Had to Quit Work"

Mr. Thomas Honey, Brantford, Ont., writes: "I was a great sufferer from enlargement of the liver for ten months, and finally I had to quit work. I would wake up in the mornings with a bitter taste in my mouth, had frequent headaches, yellow complexion, and pain in my right side, and between the shoulder blades. It was almost unbearable, and terribly weakening. I could not sleep at night and my heart also bothered me. But the whole trouble has now left me, thanks to that wonderful medicine, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

AUTOMOBILE TAX RECEIPTS $345,000

Indicating the increasing number of automobiles in N. B. and the buoyant state of automobile sales in this province this year, was a statement of receipts of Motor Vehicle License fees up to date this season given at the Motor Vehicle branch of the Provincial Public Works Department.

Receipts to date this year amount to $345,000, as compared with $249,000 up to June 6, 1923. The fact that the extra impost of 20 per cent to cover highway patrol has been in effect all this year and did not go into effect in 1923 until passed by the Provincial Legislature is a factor in increasing this year's but, while figures are not obtainable, there is a largely increased number of new automobiles being registered this year in N. B.

The total receipts from Motor Vehicle license fees in the fiscal year ending October 31st, 1923, was $374,278.80, which included the 20 per cent impost for highway patrol.

AS TO TOURISTS

The N. B. Publicity Bureau claims that there will be more summer tourists coming to N. B. this year from the States than ever before. If this proves true, it is to be hoped that they will be encouraged to come again, but apart from the climate and the beauties of nature they should be encouraged conspicuously in two other ways, as to their appetites and their "sleepettes." The average city tourist doesn't, as a rule, ask to be provided with expensive amusement; he asks for the most part to be let alone, to amuse himself in any "go-as-you-please" fashion that may strike his fancy. But the way to reach his heart is by providing accommodations that are absolutely clean and meals that are plain, wholesome, abundant, scrupulously clean and promptly served. Plenty of clean water and towels constantly replenished in rooms, count for more than silk curtains or expensive rugs. A good supply of clean paper napkins is better than soiled table linen of any kind. Don't serve skim milk if you can help it and don't dish up canned stuff; he can get rafts of that at home. If things are supposed to be served hot, such as soup, tea or coffee, don't serve them cold or half cold. Fresh milk, all the fresh bread and vegetables demanded, fresh trout or other fish and meat, good quiet sleeps and plenty of smiles—give him this kind of thing and he won't begrudge fair remuneration and go away with pleasant memories. The climate and nature will do the rest. Give them a chance.

GILLETT'S PURE FLAKE LYE

of air "joy riding", but would stipulate the holding of competitions among the various clubs as certain times during the year.

In providing a large number of men with the knowledge of at least the fundamentals of flying the Air Ministry obviously would be creating an extremely valuable reserve, on which it could draw in the event of war. There is the further advantage that the members of the local flying clubs would in no sense be members of military organizations.

They would be free of the military discipline observed by members of the militia, but at the same time they would have every incentive to become proficient as pilots. In the near future, however, it is the development of commercial flying for which promoters of the scheme have the highest expectations.

The light planes which the Air Ministry will issue will be almost as safe in operation as motorcycles. Even in the event of engine failure the Lympe trials already have proved that these planes glide gently to earth instead of doing a nose dive such as accounts for so many castaways to the larger machines.

With the risks of forced landings largely eliminated, the chief danger to the pilots of the light planes would be the risk of collisions and, although the government intends to relax its licensing restrictions, which at present retard the development of popular flying certain safety rules will continue to be rigidly enforced.

Both Lord Thomson, the present Air Minister, and the Duke of Sutherland, his predecessor, have expressed the hope that the formation of flying clubs will lead to the much wider use of light planes for business trips and for transportation of certain kinds of goods. They recall that the automobile began as a toy long before it became a necessity, and foresee the same development for planes.

Naturally, it cannot be predicted whether they are right or not, but they intend giving their theories a try-out on the largest scale yet attempted.

DUNLOP TIRES

30 Years in Canada

Many a man is driving a motor today who was not born when Dunlop Tires first appeared on the highways of Canada.

Thirty years is a long time in the Tire business. It is the very beginning of the industry. 1888 saw the world's first pneumatic tire; 1894 saw the industry taking hold in Canada.

Doesn't it stand to reason, in view of the above facts, that we must be better equipped and better qualified to serve the exacting demands of Tire users?

Knowing the past of the Tire Industry so well, we must have pretty good intuition regarding not only the needs of the present, but the possibilities of the future.

The chiefs of the British Air Ministry believe it can, and to this end announce the details of plans by which they hope to make the British an airfaring as well as a seafaring race.

Briefly, the Air Ministry intends to encourage the formation of local flying clubs, donating not only the equipment but also expert technical advice. They hope that by next spring in hundreds of English cities it will be

An Editor's Difficulties

One of the speakers, Mr. David Williamson; well known as Editor of the Quiver; referred in his address to the difficulties that editors have to encounter in trying to please readers. On one occasion; he said a lady was asked her opinion of a certain newspaper; and she delivered herself in these terms: "It is absolutely no use; it is the wrong size for cutting out a dress pattern; you cannot line a shelf with it; and it is hopeless for doing up a bonnet"

Ethics of Journalism

There is added to the somewhat sizable library of books dealing with the subject of journalism and its relation to those who make up the great mass of newspaper readers, a thoughtful volume by Nelson Antrim Crawford head of the department of industrial journalism in the Kansas State Agricultural College. The title quite definitely indicates the character and scope of the book, written avowedly for use by students in schools of journalism.

Mr. Crawford has done his work thoughtfully and painstakingly. That he has by no means exhausted the subject which he has sought to discuss may be due more to the limitations of space in a volume of the kind than to intentional oversight. Many volumes could, perhaps be written upon the text outlined.

Whatever Mr. Crawford's experience as an editor or publisher or whatever may have been his opportunities for close observation and study of the practical side of newspaper editing and publishing there is no doubt as to the soundness of his estimate of the responsibility of the press to society and the public or of his arguments in support of the necessity of a genuine consecration of the newspaper worker in whatever capacity to standards of truth and morality. The author has observed as many others are observing—the present day insistence by the newspaper reading public upon higher and ever higher standards of journalism. It can no longer be the excuse of the editor who caters to depraved taste that he is "giving the public what it wants." Mr. Crawford makes it quite plain that the appetite thus fed is one that has been created by those who designedly prey upon the ignorant and the vicious. He holds the newspapers of today to strict responsibility and insists that they courageously perform the duty that is theirs. The newspaper leads—or is expected to lead, in the forming as well as in the expressing of mass opinion. But he finds that it is the tendency of the newspapers themselves to yield to and to be governed by what he describes as "herd instincts." The result, concisely stated—is according to his summing up, that the truth is not told because of fear. This fear is that an advertiser will withdraw his patronage or that a bloc or clique of subscribers will take offense. In so far as a newspaper yields to or is influenced by this fear; it is pointed out it fails to perform its proper functions. And it is encouraging that the author sees specific evidences in the journalistic field today; of the courage which begets purposeful performance along progressive lines of true public service. Evidently Mr. Crawford is not obsessed with the belief that all real accomplishment in the field of newspaper making perished with the passing of the "era" of "giants" of other days. He conceives the responsibilities and the opportunities for actual accomplishment to be as great now as at anytime in the past. All that is needed is the courage; the vision; the unquenchable desire and determination to give—in unselfish service—that which makes of the newspaper of today the fearless champion and exponent of civic righteousness and decency by its unalterable adherence to the truth—Christian Science Monitor.4

PLAY OR PLOUGH.

Let the farm child play. Plenty of exercise in the open air should produce good health. But unfortunately the exercise the farm child gets is often one-sided. His major muscle get too much use; the auxiliary ones too little. His body does not develop symmetrically. Observations made during the world war proved that the farm reared young man reached the state of fatigue sooner than his city-reared comrade. The farm boy was out distanced in games calling for mental alertness by the city man. A slow mind has resulted from his being cheated out of play.

Pulling weeds and hoeing; driving a team hitched to a wagon or cultivator may not be injurious if supplemented by other vigorous exercise. But such work without corrective activities tends to make the country boy round shouldered and flat chested. He is apt to have a forward starting head. Lungs and heart and digestion do not get a chance. Health examinations of more than a million school children in New York show that while 72 per cent of the pupils in the city schools have physical defects the number in the rural schools is 87 per cent. As farms grow farther apart and the numbers of children in families decrease school becomes the only place where the child can play. So to cheat the child of his school time becomes a crime against his body as well as his mind. The boy who plays ball hard at school learns the meaning of enthusiasm. He finds out what it is to abandon himself to an enterprise. No matter how slight his physique this boy will make the hard-working optimist man of tomorrow and definitely outstrip in a brief time the large boned boy of fifteen who is being kept at home to do the ploughing.

What Pulls Population?
Brought up as we are on public speeches that identify the getting of population with the opening up of "farms" it sometimes takes us by surprise to learn that the forest is, in large sections of Canada the best agent of immigration we have and as regards millions of acres is the only member of the family of resources that can supply human sustenance. We have talked of population for so long in terms of prairie acres that we have entirely overlooked the fact that on 80% of the area of Canada there are no farming possibilities; forest growth and forest industries alone can attract people. We have equally forgotten that the deforesting of great areas of Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick has exiled from those districts and the Dominion large bodies of population. In our hurry to greet new batches of immigrants we have neglected to consider the problem whereby hundreds of once prosperous, well populated Canadian towns and villages have decreased in population or closed up shop altogether because of the disappearance of the forests representing their reason for existence. A vivid and authoritative instance of this depopulating process has come to the notice of the present writer. Here is an Ontario district known as the Madawaska river district. Fifty years ago lumbering on the Madawaska and Bonnechere rivers was at its best. Twelve companies and individuals were then operating. In 1873 and 1875 they took millions of feet of pine and spruce timber to Quebec. At that time they considered nothing less than fifteen inches and up and all clear stuff. Later on they took it down as low as eight inches. The square timber was all hewn by hand. Thriving and populous towns came into existence and rapidly expanded. One of the towns had two hotels, three stores; two blacksmith shops and a population of five hundred. It has now one general store, two hotels; one saw mill and a population of about fifty. Another of the towns had four hotels; eight stores; three sawmills and a population of about eight hundred. It has now two hotels; four stores; a power plant and a population of about three hundred. Another town had in 1903 a population of several hundred the exact number not being known; five stores; three hotels (worth fifteen thousand dollars) and two hundred thousand dollars in the annual drive. In 1923 the population had dwindled to sixty with three stores; two hotels (worth four thousand dollars) and one-tenth the number of logs in the drive.

In non-agricultural areas the permanence of population is directly measured by the permanence of "timber crops" and the outstanding enemy of timber crops is the human set forest fire.

Presented President with Steel Spike

George Munro, pioneer track layer of the Canadian Pacific Railway, received birthday congratulations on May 21 from Mr. E. W. Beatty, during the latter's recent visit in Vancouver. This meeting between one of the oldest employees and the executive head of the Canadian Pacific also marked the forty-ninth anniversary of the turning of the first sod on construction at Fort William in 1875, an event at which George Munro was present.

Another interesting co-incidence in connection with the meeting is the fact that the S. S. Quebec, which carried the handful of construction men including Mr. Munro, from Sarnia to Fort William, in May 1875, was owned and operated by the Beatty Steamship Line, of which Mr. Beatty's father, the late Mr. Henry Beatty, was president.

In 1881 when construction was begun on the last leg of the company's line between Yale, B. C. and the Coast, Mr. Munro was given charge of track laying at Emery, B. C. and when the last and famous gold spike was driven at Craigellachie by Lord Strathcona in 1885 he took possession of the steel spike which replaced the gold one and after treasuring it for the past 39 years as a keepsake presented it to Mr. Beatty.

REPORTS HIGHWAY FINE

The road between Fredericton and Newcastle was never in better shape according to a commercial man who was here last night. The distance which is roughly 106 miles he said he traveled in a little better than three hours. No less than three years ago he said, he would have been lucky had he been able to make the trip in six hours and that was only if he did not go in the ditch.

Electro-plating a Canadian Railway Operation

Photographs showing electro-plating operations at the Angus Shops, Montreal. No. 1 shows the tanks in which small articles are hung for plating, and No. 5 the lacquering process. The text below explains the other photographs fully.

Passengers on the Trans-Canada and other Canadian trains have often admired the tableware with which the dining cars are equipped, but comparatively few of the travelling public appreciate the extent to which electro-plating enters into every day use on a Railway. As a matter of fact, practically all metal hardware parts of passenger equipment interiors are plated, many of the engine parts, including the copper reflector of the head-light are plated, and various platinas are used on a thousand and one articles which enter daily into the life of a railroader.

The traveller notices the silver plate perhaps more than any other, but many metals are used by the railroad companies. Gold, for instance, is used by the Canadian Pacific for plating pepper castor tops and similar articles, copper is used on lighting and other metal car fixtures, zinc on refrigerator hardware, nickel on kitchen utensils, tin on trainmen's lanterns, mercury on telegraph elements and aluminum or lead on miscellaneous articles.

At its Angus Shops, Montreal, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has quite an extensive plant where the most of its electro-plating is carried on. The method used by this Company is a simple one but none the less effective.

The articles to be plated are first chemically cleaned, after which they are usually hung from a metal bar into a long vat where they are immersed in a chemical solution which varies with the metal to be deposited. The electric current, which is of low voltage, is connected, the positive pole to the metal plate or plates, and the negative to the bar from which the articles to be plated are suspended. As the electric current flows from the plating metal to the suspended articles, the metal is carried through the solution and deposited in the form of a thin coating over the entire surface of the required article.

This process is well illustrated in No. 2, which shows two electric headlight reflectors in the process of receiving silver plating. In this case the plate of silver is suspended in the centre of the reflector, which is filled with cyanide of potassium solution, and the electric current flows from the plate to the reflector which is, itself, the negative pole.

Illustration No. 3 shows the next step in the treatment of the headlight reflector, which, by the way, gives the highest concentration of light known. This is hand burnishing, the operator burnishing two reflectors in a working day. For articles which can be readily polished by a rotating buffing wheel, this is accomplished in the manner shown in No. 4.

Upon completion of the polishing operation, articles to be so treated are placed in a metal container and, by means of a small compressed air gun, sprayed with suitable lacquer. If it is desired to oxidize the plated article in order to make it harmonize with woodwork or other material, as is often the case with copper platings, it is exposed to heat or vapor, or immersed in some solution prior to the application of the finishing coat of lacquer.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company was the first large corporation in Canada to install its own electro-plating plant, but during the last few years this method of protecting metal from oxidation has developed into quite an industry and one which employs a large number of Canadian workmen.

A SERIOUS MATTER

The attention of the Chief of the Fire Department has been called to the habit of children in some sections of the town taking the caps off the hydrants and pushing stones inside. This is a serious matter and steps will immediately be taken to apprehend those guilty.

Instead he will find that there is a large consumption of good tea; in fact a large consumption of MORSE'S Tea which has been the favorite tea in St. Pierre; Miquelon for over forty years.

RAPIDLY RECOVERING

Reports from Lowell, Mass. received by relatives of Capt. David Petrie are that he is rapidly recovering from the effects of his wounds. Capt. Petrie's chest just above the right lung and while the wound was very painful it was not dangerous.

PROTECT FLOWERS IN PARK

Now that flowers have been planted in the public park it is the duty of every person to see that they are not destroyed. Children in past years have been in the habit of playing around the fountain and as a consequence the basin was a filthy conglomeration of sticks; paper; stones etc. This year's gods have been laid around the outer edge and flowers and ferns planted. The children are at their usual habits again this year and these sods and flowers are being trodden down and broken. If this continues there will be very little left of either sods or flowers in a very short time and the town might very well be saved the money expended on them. Parents should warn their children to refrain from these practices and all citizens who see children indulging in mutilating town property in this way should correct the children for so doing. The police might also keep an eye on the square and prevent both adults and children from destructive habits.

OF NO USE

No use grumbling because the weather doesn't suit. Make the best of what we get.

AUTO REGULATIONS

In the matter of intractions of the automobile regulations—the time for friendly warnings has gone by. Offenders should learn their lesson in the police court—for their own good and as a warning to others.
