TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

G. B. N. H. L.—The regular weekly meeting of the League will be held in the Crispin Hall this (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock. As business of great importance will be transacted, a full attendance of the members is requested.

UNGUARDED USE OF FIREARMS.—Yesterday afternoon as the wife of one of our citizens, along with her children, were taking a walk in the vicinity of the Central Exhibition Grounds, a bullet came whizzing past within a few inches of her head. On recovering from her alarm and consternation she espied at some little distance a young lad, with a gun in his hand, walking off as coolly as if he had performed some heroic exploit, not unworthy of a distinguished niche in the Provincial Penitentiary or even in a more exalted position. It is much to be regretted that the stringency of the law in regard to the illegal use of firearms is not more frequently put in operation, and a deterring example made of default offenders.

DEATH OF AN OLD SETTLER IN ERANOSA.—It is with great regret we record the death of Donald Black, Esq., a very old settler in Eranosia, and a man universally esteemed. He died on Sunday morning, the 19th inst., at his residence near Everton, after a lingering illness. The deceased was a native of Argyllshire, Scotland, and emigrated to Canada in 1820, and lived for some years in the township of Albion. During a portion of this time he assisted his brother Hugh in surveying. He settled in Nassagawey in 1826, where he acted for some time as Township Clerk. In 1832 he removed to Eranosia, where he settled on his farm, on which he afterwards lived and died. During the long period of his residence in Eranosia, he filled the offices of District, County and Township Councillor and Reeve, and for the past few years was Township Assessor. He discharged the duties of these several offices in such a conscientious and creditable manner as to bring honor on himself, and to call forth the cordial approval of his constituents. In fact he sacrificed much time and means in the public interests, and received no reward but the approval of his own conscience, and the satisfaction of seeing the Township grow and prosper through his efforts. In private life Mr. Black was as highly esteemed for his many Christian virtues, his uniform kindness and obliging disposition. Although for some years retired from public life, his death has caused a blank in the Township, for whose interests he so long and earnestly labored. He is to be buried to-day in the Everton Cemetery.

Local and Other Items.

BOLTON VILLAGE on the W. G. & B. Railway wants to be incorporated. A son of Mr. Charles King, a farmer, near Wellington Square, was killed on Monday afternoon while riding a horse. At the Walkerton Assizes a verdict of manslaughter was rendered against the Indian who was arrested for murder at Sauguen last fall. On Monday afternoon the employees of the Hamilton Standard newspaper struck work, in consequence of alleged unfairness in the giving out of copy and other grievances. The shingle mill and barn, together with all the machinery and contents, owned by Mr. John Furlong, of Ottaville, was destroyed by fire early on Sunday morning. Loss $1,500. A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN, name unknown, was run over and killed on the T. G. & B. Railway at the Union Station, Toronto, on Monday. She fell in attempting to cross, as the train was backing. The Standard says the yardmen in Hamilton yard, G. V. R., were discharged on Monday morning on account of their request to the heads of the department for shorter hours of labor or an advance of pay. A LARGE additional number in the employment of Hamilton & Sons, foundrymen, Toronto, struck work on Monday. This is not a question of nine hours, but a dispute as to whether Hamilton can dismiss any of them, whether objectionable or not. RESUMED.—The Hamilton Times says: The greater number of the city foundries were opened again to-day, though not in all cases with a full complement of workmen, yet sufficient to run the works. Messrs. Stewart & Co., Maenab Street, have forty men at work; Messrs. Groney sixteen moulders and their help. Messrs. Gurney & Ware and others. Those at work have agreed to the rules and regulations submitted to them, and are working under them. It is expected that some of the shops will resume, in full strength, to-morrow. THE DAWSON ROUTE.—The Manitoba Liberal of the 20th April, urges the great importance of immediately making such improvements on the Dawson Road as will permit the passage over it by mid-summer of the heavy imported merchandise required in the new Province. "It will be a joyful day indeed, for our importers," remarks the Liberal, "when goods can come to us without the delays, annoyances and expenses of the American bonding system," for unfortunately "bonded goods can only be transported over bonded lines, and the consequence is that half a million of dollars go out of the country for freights to American transportation firms, and we are compelled to pay those firms just what they choose to ask, which this season is about $80 per ton from Toronto.

10,000 Emigrants Arrived.

New York, May 21.—A special from London to the Herald says: "Our correspondent at Zanzibar writes that Seyid Ben Majid, one of the principal Arabs of Ujiji, left that place on the 12th of January last, and arrived at Uyenwenba on the 5th of February. He reported to Sheikh Ben Nasib, an important personage in Uyenwenba, that Stanley had reached Ujiji, fifty days before he left, by a circuitous route which he was compelled to take on account of the troubles on the regular caravan route. At the time of Stanley's arrival Dr. Livingstone was not at Ujiji. He had been travelling in the neighbouring country and was at Myemba, twenty days march from Ujiji, between Lakes Tanganyika and Victoria Nyanza, but at the time of the departure of Seyid Ben Majid Dr. Livingstone had arrived at Ujiji, and he and Stanley were there together. Sheikh Ben Nasib sent this news from Uyenwenba to his brother, Abdallah Ben Nasib, at Genebar, by his trusty slave Saade, who left Uyenwenba on the 8th of February, and reached Genebar on the 2nd of April. Abdallah Ben Nasib and the slave Saade were both seen by the correspondent at Genebar. Some consider it strange that Stanley, if at Ujiji when Seyid Ben Majid left, did not send letters by him to Uyenwenba, as he is very well explained by the circumstance that Seyid Ben Majid did not intend to go to Uyenwenba when he left Ujiji, but started with an armed force to fight against a native chief named Misanabo, between these places, and only came to Uyenwenba because his fighting operations brought him near. Philadelphia, May 20.—This afternoon thousands of people visited the park and shores of Schuler River adjacent to witness the great contest between Coultter and Cavitt, of Pittsburg, and the Bigler Brothers, of New York. The day was very disagreeable, the wind blowing fearfully, and for a long time it was doubtful if the race would take place. The contest was for $1,000 a side, and the distance to be five miles. At the start Coultter and Cavett were ahead but they went through the third instead of the second arch of the bridge and lost 100 feet. This distance they were unable to regain, and the Bigler Brothers came in at least 12 lengths ahead. Time 32 minutes 1 second. New York, May 21.—The Tribune this morning publishes the names of a large number of persons who, it alleges, adulterated their milk, and gives figures showing that 1,800 gallons of swill milk are received daily, and that the total receipts of 74,800 gallons are swelled to 93,500 gallons by the addition of water. Over 10,000 emigrants arrived at Castle Garden yesterday. This is the largest number that have landed in one day since the establishment of this Institution. Washington, May 21.—President and Mrs. Grant returned from their visit to the country seat of Postmaster-General Gresswell, at Elkton, M. D. Little Rock, Ark., May 21.—The Arkansas River is 26 feet deep at this point, and is still rising. It lacks by 4 feet of being as high as in 1844. The town of Argenti, opposite here, is overflowed. New York, May 21.—Among the arrivals by the steamer Russia is Sir Thomas Dakin, ex-Lord Mayor of London. Philadelphia, May 21.—The Board of Trade last evening passed resolutions approving of the supplemental article to the Treaty of Washington. Base Ball. The Guelph Maple Leaf Club have two events of considerable importance on their hands, one on the 24th of May with the Dauntless Club, of Toronto, and the other on the 1st of July with the Baltimore Club, U. S. We are glad to observe that the Guelph men are in active practice every available evening, and we are informed that judging from recent exhibitions of their skill when so employed, the champions and their friends have every reason to believe that in the coming season the silver ball is not likely to make an inglorious exit from Guelph. The Dauntless Club stands high in the rank of Ontario base ball clubs, and it may therefore reasonably be expected that a good game will be forthcoming on the 24th. The match with the Baltimore Club will be one of more than ordinary interest, as the Baltimore embrace some of the finest players in the States, notably Fisher, the famous pitcher of the Rockford Club, (now dis-banded), and several of the Haymakers who were here also last year. Those who are interested in the game of base ball and success of the Guelph Club will be glad to learn that Mr. W. Smith has acquired a velocity of pitch that will somewhat astonish the unlearned in the art of batting in this style of delivery, and that the Guelph nine are about to introduce him as their pitcher in the coming contests, with Mr. Wm. Sunley as an alternative of a somewhat different but scarcely less efficacious style.

Town Council.

The regular meeting of the Town Council took place on Monday evening in the Council Chamber, the Mayor in the chair. Present, Messrs. Massie, Snyder, Crowe, Bruce, Elliott, McMillan, Allan, Mitchell, Hogg, Kennedy, Stewart, Stevenson.

COMMUNICATIONS, &c.

Mr. Elliott read a petition from Geo. S. Powell asking that his name be substituted in place of Mr. John McNeill's on the assessment roll, as he was now occupying the premises of the latter.

Mr. Massie read a petition from Burr, Skinner & Co., asking to be exempted from taxes for a period of five years as they are about to open a cabinet factory in town.

Mr. McMillan read a petition from Jas. Hower asking for a transfer of the Great Western Hotel license to him; also from some of the ratepayers of the East Ward, asking that a sidewalk be erected on Ontario street to its junction with Neo street.

Mr. Allan read a petition from McLeod, Wood & Co., praying the Council to repair the sidewalk between the Grand Trunk Passenger Station and W. Bell & Co's establishment.

The above petitions were referred to the proper committees, with the exception of Jas. Hower's, which was laid over till the proper number of signatures had been received.

Mr. McMillan presented a petition from M. J. Duran asking that he be assessed for the property lately occupied by Jas. Welsh and J. W. Colson, as he is now in possession of the same; also from the latter parties asking to have their names erased from the Assessor's roll for the said property. A petition was also read from Mr. John Harris asking for the use of the Exhibition Buildings and Grounds on the Dominion Day in order to hold the Annual Charity Picnic in aid of the St. Joseph's Hospital. Referred.

Mr. Mitchell read the report of the Road & Bridge Committee to the effect that they did not consider it advisable to grant Messrs. McLeod, Wood & Co., and Mr. J. Horsman's prayer to be permitted to use part of Macdonnell street for piling wood; that the petition of James Davidson for remission of fine for encroaching on the public highway be not granted; that the Council do not give any instruction to Mr. Denroche with reference to place on which to erect his fence; with reference to the petition to have a foot bridge erected over the Speed on consideration of the rate-payers of that section raising an equivalent sum to that of the Council's grant of $250; that Graham Street be closed upon the parties petitioning paying a sum of $150 for the property; that the Clerk be instructed to notify parties erecting buildings upon Yorkshire Street and London Road that they were encroaching on the street allowance; that the Committee be empowered to advertise for tenders for lumber; also stating that they had received tenders for street-watering, and that they let the contract to James Towell at the rate of $33.50 per week; also asking that a further sum of $2,877 be put to credit to be expended on street repairs.

Mr. Elliott read the report of the Market House Committee, recommending that after the passing of the new By-law the stalls be re-fitted and cleaned, certain necessities prepared for the vegetable shed; that the Mechanics' Institute were in arrears for the rent of the rooms occupied by them, and recommended that the Treasurer be instructed to collect the same. The estimated expenditure for the year was set down at $1,408, and the total receipts at $3,384.

Mr. Elliott also reported that the Chairman of the Fire and Water Committee was unwell and that their report was not ready. He (Mr. Elliott) stated that a portion of the horse ordered from Montreal had arrived.

Mr. McMillan, chairman of the Special Committee to investigate the matter at question between the town and the Grand Trunk Railway Bridge, reported verbally that they had held a meeting, but in consequence of the absence of the original documents bearing upon the case they had deferred reporting until another meeting should be held.

The Council went into committee on the Road & Bridge Committee report. Mr. McMillan in the chair. The report was voted upon in clauses; the clause with reference to the erection of the foot bridge was left over for further consideration; clause nine was objected to by Messrs. Barr, Skinner & Co's factory was within the line drawn out by the Canada Company. Mr. Mitchell contended that the building was two or three feet over the line surveyed by Mr. Cooper, but the report did not necessitate the removal of the buildings, but simply defined the limits of the streets.

After some further discussion, a motion for the non-adoption of the clause was carried.

Moved by Mr. Elliott, seconded by Mr. Snyder, that the following be substituted in place of the clause struck out: that the Road and Bridge Committee instruct the clerk to notify parties whose fences encroach on street allowances to remove the same. Carried.

The Council resumed.

Mr. Mitchell moved, seconded by Mr. Kennedy, that the report as presented be adopted, with the exception of the seventh and twelfth clauses, which latter be referred to the Finance Committee.

Moved in amendment by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th 6th 8th, 10th, 11th and 12th clauses be adopted, and the remainder of the report be referred to the Finance Committee.

On the vote being taken, the amendment was carried by a vote of 8 to 3.

The report of the Market House Committee was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. McMillan stated that, from information gleaned from parties interested, the time given to the latter to prepare themselves for the change authorized by the new By-law was rather short. Many of them had rented their stalls for a year, and had stored up ice which would necessarily have to be removed and thereby entail considerable expense and inconvenience.

Moved by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Bruce, that a By-law for remuneration of town officers be introduced and read a first and second time. Carried, and by-law read accordingly.

Mr. McMillan presented James Hower's petition for transfer of license with the necessary number of signatures, which was referred to the License Inspector.

Moved by Mr. Bruce, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that $50 be granted for the re-gilding of the School children on the Queen's Birthday, and that the Market House Committee be instructed to illuminate the Market buildings. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Allan, seconded by Mr. Bruce, that the town constables be instructed to carry out the provisions of the clause with reference to the use of firearms and fire-works in the street with greater rigor. Carried.

On motion, rule fifty-two was suspended for one hour.

Mr. Massie then drew the attention of the Council to the project of raising a sum of money to be offered as an inducement to Mr. Jos. Bainer, of Whitley, to establish a piano factory here, and moved, seconded by Mr. Bruce, that this Council pledges itself to grant a bonus to Mr. Jos. Bainer, of Whitley, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a manufacturing establishment within the bounds of this municipality for the manufacture of piano fortes, such bonus to be in the shape of a loan, secured, for $3,000, at six per cent interest, for five years, and to exempt his manufactory and stock in trade from taxation during the same period. Mr. Massie added that he was aware that the motion was out of order, but this being a matter of importance to the progress of the town he took this means of bringing the matter before them, and if not successful in securing the desired sum, to hear their opinion on the matter. Mr. Bainer, as said, was a gentleman of integrity so far as he could be learned, and has established a business of some importance in Whitley, his manufactures having gained a high reputation at home and abroad, as his list of premiums would show. The Council ran very little risk in granting the loan, as the amount was to be secured in a manner satisfactory to the members of the Board.

Mr. Elliott replied that since the motion was one out of order, the Mayor should over-rule it. He wondered that Mr. Massie would hint at such a measure which would involve the town in deeper debt and he did not see how the sum could be raised. It would be an injustice to those who had established large businesses in town and assisted in its growth to start a business which might probably injure their own. He thought the matter should receive further consideration.

Mr. Bruce supported Mr. Massie, and wondered that Mr. Elliott should oppose a scheme which he had sustained on a former occasion.

Mr. Hogg also supported the motion, and pointed out the benefits accruing to the town from an increased manufacturing trade.

Messrs. Stevenson and McMillan considered that the matter had been sprung upon them rather suddenly, and they were therefore unable to express their opinion fully upon the subject. They favoured the idea of using endeavours to encourage manufacturers to come to the town, but they held that the Council should act cautiously.

A motion to suspend the rule pending upon the motion was lost, and the Mayor consequently ruled the motion out of order.

The Council then adjourned.

Guelph Sewing Machine Company--

Concession to the Men.

In view of the agitation at present existing among the working men for a reduction of the hours of labor, the Guelph Sewing Machine Company have accorded their hands temporarily an extra hour on Saturdays, with the understanding that, upon the nine hour innovation becoming general, the change should be adopted by the Company. In consequence of this concession, the employees met in the Factory at six o'clock on Monday evening when Mr. Dixon briefly stated to the proprietors the object of the gathering, which was to return thanks for this concession, and express their sense of the courteous manner in which their sympathies with the movement had been met.

Mr. Lovey, seconded by Mr. Higham, moved that the employees tender their hearty thanks to the said Company for the liberal manner in which they have acted towards us by granting us an additional hour on Saturday, thus enabling us to leave work at 4 o'clock p. m. on Saturday.

The proprietors acknowledged the compliment in fitting terms. They said the concession was made because the firm felt that some recognition of the movement should be made. Respecting the question itself, they thought it was prematurely brought to its present issue. The trade of Canada was as it were in its infancy, and liable to be nipped by the "untimely frosts" of strikes and lock-outs. The movement for shortening the hours of labor might ultimately prevail when it could be effected with less injury to the trade than at present.

Judge—I fine Tim Leary five dollars for assault and battery on Pat Maloy. Pat Maloy—But, yer honor, I want more damages. He blacked me eye, and shure if I had been invited to a party, I couldn't have gone. Judge—The court knows nothing of consequential damages. You must carry your case to Geneva. Adjourned.

The health officer of New York recently said to a Tribune reporter: "I don't know of any way to suppress the watering or adulteration of milk, chiefly because we can't see it done, nor find out who does it. I sincerely believe that not one hundred quarts of absolutely pure milk are sold in this city in a day."

The Council and the Manufacturing Interests.

We don't know what to make of our Town Council in the matter of encouraging manufacturing enterprise in Guelph. Some two or three weeks ago they passed a resolution holding out inducements to manufacturers who were desirous of starting business in the Town. They adopted by an unanimous vote the report of a special committee presented at a subsequent meeting, which recommends that in every case where a manufacturer proposes to establish himself in the Town, and when the enterprise is of sufficient importance and magnitude to warrant them giving aid, that such establishment shall be exempted from taxation on the land and buildings for five years, and also that the Council should give any other encouragement which it may deem desirable to offer. The Clerk was moreover instructed to advertise to the world that the Council was prepared to hold out the encouragement named, and he has done so. Yet, in the face of this, we find that at the meeting last night, a resolution for granting the small bonus of $3000 to Mr. Rainer, of Whitby, was thrown out on the bare technical objection that a rule of the Council did not allow such a motion to be brought up, and when a motion to suspend the rule was moved, only three members supported it.

Mr. Rainer proposes to remove his piano manufactory from Whitby to Guelph. Thirty of the ratepayers have subscribed $3000 in $100 each, which they give him as a loan for a term of years, at a low rate of interest. Mr. Rainer asked for $1000, and Mr. Massie by his resolution, which was ruled out of order, proposed that the Town should advance the other $2000 for five years, at six per cent interest.

Mr. Massie, in moving his resolution, may not have gone exactly by rule, but he was acting in the spirit of the offer made by the Council. True, Mr. Rainer had sent in no application to the Council for assistance, as he was required to do by the report of the Council. Still, the Council, instead of rejecting the motion, might have so amended it, or brought in another resolution, instructing Mr. Rainer how to act, and giving him ground to hope that he would receive the required aid after due consideration of his application. We do not say that the Council should break through all rules in order to suit one particular case, but at the same time the members should not even give the appearance of stultifying themselves by adopting a resolution one night, and then on the next night rejecting another which is designed to carry out the requirement of the one first passed.

We fully believe and hope that the Council had no such design. But they failed to show this, and they leave the public to draw the inference that what they say one day they are prepared to do, they show by their action the next that they have no intention of giving effect to their promise. If such applications are to be entertained and bonuses given, the Council must, in the interests of the ratepayers, see that they are granted to enterprises worthy of encouragement, and after careful examination made, and proper safeguards applied. But they might at least, by resolution, have, while rejecting Mr. Massie's motion, instructed Mr. Rainer how to make his application, and informed him that they were willing to entertain it on the terms of the offer advertised by the Council.

Canada and the States.

ADDRESS BY THE REV. ALEX. SUTHERLAND.
At last Saturday's session of the Methodist General Conference, at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, the Rev. G. K. Sutherland and the Rev. Alexander Sutherland, delegates from the Wesleyan Conference of Canada, were introduced and made brief addresses. Mr. Sutherland said he saw reference occasionally in the papers to the annexation of Canada, and sometimes our good friends, the Fenians, had undertaken to invade Ireland by means of Canada. (Laughter) He had not much anxiety on these occasions, because he thought the religious sense of men in this country was large enough to prevent the greatest calamities that could befall the civilized world—a collision between Great Britain and America. But since he had been privileged to see this great country, and since he had felt the kindness of so many of the brethren, he was beginning to fear that they would conquer his country by love. Many Methodist ministers had come over to view this goodly land, and had returned no more; and he felt that the wisest way for him was to hasten away from the enchanted ground, lest, like Bunyan's Pilgrim, he might forget whence he came, and whether he was going to return. He was afraid there was some misapprehension in regard to the character of Canada; they thought it was a dull, bleak, cold, sterile place, not much larger than one of the States of the Union. But he begged to inform them that Canada contained 120,000 square miles more of territory than the United States. (Laughter.) Well, it was true that some parts of the country lay near the pole, but it must be recalled that if the United States boasted of possessing the "Hub of the Universe," Canada possessed one of the axes. (Laughter.) But below this region of ice and snow there was a rich and fertile belt of land, capable of maintaining a population of 70,000,000 or 80,000,000. While Canadians were firmly attached to their own institutions, they had a fervent and generous admiration for those of the United States; and their feeling was: "Let there never be strife between thy herdsmen and mine, for we are brethren." The speaker then referred to many interesting particulars in regard to Canadian Methodism—the desire for consolidation, the conflict with the "compact, restless, aggressive Dominion" of one of the Provinces, and the mission of the Indians.

The Great Musical Jubilee.

The music of the great Peace Jubilee has been published in paper covers, by Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston. The selection is one of great variety, and seems to be well adapted to the needs of a great chorus. There are few brilliant pieces; but some of those printed must be taken at a much slower tempo than that at which they are usually sung to be performed by so many thousand singers. The book contains several of the best choruses from the oratorios, among which are "Sleepers, Wake!" and "To God on High," from St. Paul; "The Hallelujah Chorus," from the Messiah; "Thanks be to God," and the magnificent "He watcheth over Israel," from Elijah; "Inflammatus," from Stabat Mater; and "The Heavens are telling," from the Creation. There are two chorals from Bach's Passion Music; and several old pieces, which are sure to be popular. Mr. Dudley Duck has written a Festival Hymn, both words and music, which is a graceful and noble movement, with a beautiful accompaniment. The music of the programme which is likely to be most effective and most universally enjoyed, however is that of the old-fashioned hymn tunes, of which we are to have "Ephraim," "Rock of Ages," "Hebron," "Bethany," "Nearer my God, to Thee," "Nuremberg," "Old Hundred," and many others. It is easy to believe that these church tunes will have a magnificent effect when performed by so grand a chorus. At any rate, the musical blood of Boston is up, and we may expect that the Jubilee will be such a performance as the world has never seen.

Terrible Disaster at Sea.

WRECK OF A BRIG AND FORTY-FIVE LIVES LOST.
The Harbour Grace papers contain details of a fearful disaster which has occurred at Labrador. On the 11th of March, the brig Huntsman, commanded by Capt. Robt. Dawe, sailed from Harbor Grace with a crew of 62 men, on a sealing voyage. When off Cape Charles, Labrador, on Sunday, April 21st, in company with the Rescue, Vesta and Lord Clyde, and near Bottle Harbor the Huntsman having forged ahead, a gale from the north-east sprung up suddenly at nine o'clock in the evening, and she was driven upon the rocks. Before she struck three seamen saw the rocks and jumped overboard to try and save themselves, but were killed instantly by the rush of floating ice. The remaining 53 took to the rigging, but in five minutes both masts bent over six feet from the deck, and only 17 escaping drowning. Of these, all but three were more or less injured by having arms and legs broken and bodies bruised. They managed to reach the Rescue by crawling over the ice a distance of half a mile. Forty-five men were lost, most of them leaving families at or near Harbor Grace. The other vessels escaped with little damage.

HELEN MOIR

OR LOVE AND HONOUR. A TALE OF THE CLYDE. CHAPTER XXXV.

Edwin and Ritchie sat beside Jaquin's couch anxiously watching and waiting in the hope that he would revive and be induced to give them the longed-for information regarding Bridgenorth and Helen. Their suspense now in reference to those dear ones was something terrible. The fears and forebodings which they conjured up were paralyzing. They imagined all manner of evil things as having been done to them—atrocities which they durst not name even to each other, but the terror and despair of which caused the sweatdrops of agony to start on their brow, and deep half-suppressed groans to come from their bosom.

They were surprised to see how greatly it revived him. The dull vacancy in his eyes brightened into intelligence, and the look with which he regarded them, while indicative of surprise, also betrayed recognition; so that when Ritchie laid back his head on the pillow, which he had smoothed with all the gentleness of a woman, he lay steadily regarding them. "You know us, I see," said Edwin.

"That's gaunton," was the unceremonious reply. "You would have let me lie as I was on the ground, if you had not wanted to get something out of me—to know about Master Bridgenorth and the girl. Oh, I understand your game; but its no go—I'll tell nothing."

"Why will you not? What notice can you have for being so cruelly obstinate?" "Didn't I tell you before?" "Revenge?" "Revenge for what? What wrong did you ever receive at the hand of my uncle or any of us? Nay, have you not assisted with all your power to inflict a terrible wrong on him? I know all about the plot which you and Philip Jordan and Mangles so successfully wrought out, by which my uncle's life was lighted, his heart wrung with keenest sorrow, and fears of misery and exile heaped upon him! Show some remorse, old man, for such an accumulation of frightful injuries, by giving us to know where he and Helen now are, so that if they are in straits we may succour them."

"I knew that was your object in bringing me here," said Jaquin. "It was out of no goodwill to me, whom you would rather have kicked with scorn and contempt. You think to earn my gratitude, and receive the price you know I can pay. I know nothing about gratitude. There was one man I loved, and that was Philip Jordan. His death was brought about by the business you speak of, and I have hated your uncle for being the cause of it. I have hated him for twenty years; I hate him still; I shall die hating him and all belonging to him. Once for all, I tell you I shall die in my revenge. Ha! the packet. Have you dared to take it?—to open it?"

"No; it is under your pillow still. I suppose it contains papers relating to the abduction?" "No, it does not," hissed Jaquin, with fierce, eager rapidity. "The papers in it have nothing to do with Dubouche's business. You hear me—nothing. Perhaps you don't believe that, but I swear it." "They seem to be very important, at any rate," rejoined Edwin. "I have may judge by your anxiety to retain possession of them."
