THE QUEBEC STAR

"The gravest Man is the Fool, the gravest Bird is the Goose, the gravest Beast is the Ass."

VOL. I.—No. 19.

QUEBEC, SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1876.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

PRISE FIGHT.

On the 22nd of March was assembled one of the largest crowds that was ever witnessed in Sillery Cove, to view the prize fight between Long Dan and Dick Pow-wer, for a ceg of spruce beer aside, in the crowd we noticed the following gentlemen, John O'Brien, Tim Mahony, John Kelly, Wm. Munro, Tom McNamee, Chas. Wilson, Frank McHugh, Sam Viehnev, Bill Grattan, Charles Dubey, and Ben Lovout. The ring was made and both combatants entered the ring, there were both stripped to the waist, Dick was in splendid condition and looked like a man that was shure of victory, Long Dan looked like a lamp post, his hair was standing on end with feight, Jef Malone, Dick's second said that he often handlot a game cock in a fight and seldom lost a battle, but this was his first time of handling a man, and that he was confident of his man taking the battle, he offered ten dollars on Dick, no one took him up, Tim Crow, Long Dan's second told him to shut up about his ten dollars and bring his man up to the scratch. It was agreed that both men should fight fair play.

1st round.—Both men met and after a little sparring Long Dan made a straight box at Dick, but missed him and went, headlong into the crowd and knocked two men down with his head, Time 2 minutes.

2nd round.—Long Dan came up again to the scratch, his blunder was up, he made a rush at Dick and Dick struck him under the left ear that sent him spinning round like a top five or six times, Time 3 minutes.

3rd round.—Dan came up again like a knife and made a box at Dick, but Dick knocked it off, and he gave Long Dan a box in the broad basket that made Long Dan throw up a yard of Boulogne sausager, Time 5 minutes.

4th round.—Dan came up again un-nnually, he made a winding box at Dick, but Dick jumped back, and with the force of the blow he was making at Dick turned himself round and he hit his second Jim Crow in the mouth and broke two of his teeth, Time 7 minutes and 1 second.

5th round.—They met again, and a good deal of sparring, Dick hit Long Dan in the month and knocked three of his teeth with half of his under lis down his throat, Time 10 minutes.

6th round.—There was some good sparring in this round and some hard boxes given on both sides, when Long Dan tried to cross buttock Dick, but Dick lifted him up by the seat of his trowsers and flung him up again Pat Boyce's house, his nose came in contact with the handle of the door which made the claret fly in all directions, Time 8 minutes.

7th round.—Dan came up to time but he was in a great passion, he struck Dick a box on the top of the head that brought Dick down on his knees, when Dan made a kick at Dick's nose and knocked off a piece of it, and with the force of the kick it sent the piece of Dick's nose up on top of Pat Boyce's chimney, Dick called out for fair play, when Jef Malone, Dick's second struck Long Dan under the left rib that rose him off his legs and sent him headlong into Pat Boyce's shop through the window and broke a lot of show glasses and decanters, Jim Crow, Long Dan's second then made for Jef to gonge him, but Jef got Tim's finger in his mouth and bit the first joint off and threw the pieces up on top of Pat Boyce's chimney along with the piece of Dick's nose, here the crowd interceded and seperated the two seconds, Time 18 minutes.

8th round.—Dick and Dan met again this was a severe round, after a good deal of sparring both parties clenched, when Dick threw Dan over his head on top of Jef Malone and broke Jef's pipe, Time 5 minutes.

9th round.—Dan came up very slow this time, he looked faged out, there was a few boxes given on both sides, when Dan hit Dick in the eye and bunged it up, Dick got in a great passion, he made a winding box at Dan and struck him in the middle and broke him in two pieces, both pieces were brotnt into Pat Boyce's, John O'Brien and Billy McHugh said prayers, and Charles Lynch, John Whalin, John Munroe and Felix Langlois, sang a hymn, there was then a collection made by Harry Hall to recompence Pat Conners took each a piece of Long Dan and carried it to his home in New London Cove, Tom McNamee treated all hands in Pat Boyce's, and he told Pat to chalk it down to him and that he would hay him after the races. Thus endid one of the hardest fought battles ever known in Sillery Cove, ending with such an awful result.

I remain Yours,
Spokeshaye.

To the Editor of the Quebec Star:

Dear Sir.

I have no doubt you will remember a very interesting wedding that occurred here some two months ago; but it now appears the bridegroom had promised marriage to another certain widow who keeps a boardinghouse, and as he has not fulfilled his promise to her. She is about to institute a suit against him for breach of promise.

It also appears she is about to enter a contra action against him for damages. He had made a present of a parrot to widow No. 1. But after getting married to widow No. 2, he demanded polly for the amusement of the bride. But about this time poor polly took sick and although the best medical aid in Pensacola was procured. Poor polly gave up the ghost, now as Ebba had demanded polly the widow thought best to comply. So she procured a very nice coffin and laid polly out in state and sent him home to Ebenezer But as it looks rather suspicious that polly should die about this time. Ebba called in Dr. T. P. Brown a very clever man in smallpox case to have polly examined. In my next I will give you the result of the post mortem examination.

I remain,

Yours,

Red Snappers.

P. S. O'Brien is detained here as a witness for plaintiff John Peavly St. Johns House is also a very material witness. He says he can make one big swear that he saw him kiss it on the depot. Ted enright and Charly knowals is quarantined on account of small pox. Billy Cavan is off to Texas on a sacred mission. Afterwards he is bound to salt lake city to shake hands with Brigham.

R. S.

That steamboat agent had better not be running after girls in John street or he will get what he wont like some of these fine nights, the Margaret street girl sized him, she sold all his Furniture and left him in the Larch poor goose, will you try to keep a girl again and starve her.

Foll particulars of the Grand Concert which took place at the soup Kitchen on Tuesday night as regards Mr. Hodge we all think he gave perfect satisfaction, the dancing was something good he is a regular Clogger, as regard Miss H. W.—she performed her part very good as far as singing was concerned, the Ticket agent did very good, in fact the whole affair was a complete success, the Piano used for the occasion was kindly lent by Mr. Morgan.

PANCAKE AND LATIER PARTY.

Dear Dadd.

The annual reunion of the Q.B.C. took place at their spacious rooms at Harry Eagley Paul street on the St. Patrick's night, though not on a par with the reunions of yester year, with prime wines, and french delicacies and the like usually held by more aristocratic organizations will long remain in the minds of those fortunate to be their guests on that occasion, though the fair sex was not represented, their ample duty to repast provided, the following gentleman comprise the officers of the club, John McTennus, J. McWilliams, John Hannon, J. Boss, Lar Foley, J. Jennings, M. Foley, Pat Connors, E. Reynolds John Bryson, T. Sheridan, D. Connors, the D. H. B. C was represented largely of whom we notice P. E. Lane, J. Nealy, W. Shanahan Steve Grogan and J. Torrance the music was furnished by M. Eagly who did full justice to the occasion, John Jennings contributed largely to the amusement of the evening by rendering a stump oration, of his own creation, Lar Foley and Pat Connors by request of the company danced a statue eulog which was loudly applauded, Steve Grogan than sang Put me in my little bed, Jim Nealey was then called on to sing he arose and said he was not much of a singer, but was a good a whistler as ever cocked a lip, John MacManus got up to make a few remarks he said he was sorry he had to leave the club, Hannon asked his reasons for leaving the club, well he said I am getting tired sleeping alone every night with nothing else for a companion but a bad cold, MacManus was interrupted by John Bryson who said that J. Boss being a nonmember and an uninvited guest was politely told to withdraw. Boss now commenced to get his devil up, then a general row ensued, at this state of proceeding John McWilliams rushed down stairs with a stick of latier in his hand, and waving it in a most threatening manner said if he could not maintain order he would clear the house, the company knowing Johnny to be a boisterous resumed their seats, W. Shanahan the made a few remarks he said he was intended to oppose M. Dunning in the comic municipal election for Chaniplain ward and hoped they would give him all their support, Pat Connors now invited all down to Pat Toobey's to have a drink.

I now remain remain

John Boss.

The corporation of the city of Quebec has decided on having Lucy Cannons portrait taken and placed over the mayors chair, also Joseph Rousseau as a mark of respect for their long and valuable services to the citizens of Quebec. I wish they would not spend our money that way.

Honoré Plamondon.

Dear Star,

You are not aware of the new Chewer Club which has been formed in Cornell's saddler's back work shop, and which consists of the following gentlemen : MM. Miles, Brodie, McWilliams, Smeaton, Old Gore, Tweedie; and a few others that we wont mention at present, but Mr. Editor that this club is formed, their intention is to play chequers for the whiskey, which will be supplied by Charles himself, but as this club is so young I can give you much information, I believe the first game is to be played between Smeaton and Brodie for a pound of snuff aside.

Success to the club.

To the Editor of the Quebec Star.

Dear Star

I have heard it asserted by R. Kerr, that Tom Edwards thinks about opening a "Pawn" shop at South Quebec, go in Tom and dont stick in the mud, hoping you will call and cancel that long standing debt, of yours, by the bye dont forget the small tribute on the sedate.

UNIVERSITÉ LAVAL.

Comité des Droits et Privileges des Étudiants.

La séance s'ouvre à 10 heures.

On fut assez longtemps sans pouvoir dire qui présidait l'assemblée, car on ne voyait au-dessus de la table présidentielle qu'un petit bout de nez rouge, et que quer tous les cheveux blancs, mais la séance se fait : le petit nez rouge et les tresses de cheveux s'agitent dans le lassant un peu au dessus du niveau des chaises et une petite voix s'écrie : "Messieurs," (Même sur la table, crient de toutes parts) — "Messieurs," (monte sur la table, on ne le voit pas) — "Messieurs" — (éclate troisième apostrophe, deux membres, Charlie Fitz et Gus Tessier, perdant patience, saisissent le président, et le placent debout sur la table entre deux autres résolus, alors dans les plus durs Ulster, aussitôt, je retrouve mon ami Horace Archambault, président du comité — j<sup>e</sup> Messieurs, continua-t-il, vous savez pourquoi cette assemblée a été convoquée. Un petit journal insulteur, appelé le "Star" a osé jeter sa haine sur un de nos amis, un de nos ex-considérés, sur William Brouage Chassegois De Léry. Eh bien ! Messieurs, ce comité doit prendre des moyens rigoureux pour venger notre honnête attaque." (Tonnerre d'applaudissement, au milieu desquels le Président disparaît dans son Ulster, comme un éclair dans les gros nuages.)

M. J. Lefebvre : "Messieurs, notre président est noble, quoiqu'il ne soit pas chassegois." A ces mots, on entend de tous les coins de la salle, des sifflements, des hurlements et ces paroles : "A bas ! à bas ! pas de calembourgs ! déhors ! Bismarck ! à bas !" Quand l'ordre fut un peu rétabli, M. Charlie Fitz, mettant ses mains derrière le dos et levant aussi haut qu'il le peut sa tête couronnée par vingt-sept printemps, prend la parole : "Dans un discours que je viens de prononcer à St. Columban, Messieurs, j'ai dit au milieu des applaudissements, que tous les grands hommes sont persécutés. Oui, O'Connell fut un grand homme ! (Vociférations par Messieurs Roncy, Delanoy et Conroy,) et il fut persécuté. Est-il surprenant que l'histoire so-répète ? Est-il surprenant, dis-je, que notre ami DeLéry soit persécuté après l'entrée triomphale qu'il vient de faire dans le temple de la justice ? Et si vous me le permettez, je citerai mon premier exemple : je sens que je suis né pour être persécuté...."

A ce moment, il y eut une interruption bruyante : Jim Cloutier se débat comme un possédé entre les mains de Stallard et de Robitaille, tandis que Malouin le retient par le queue de son habit ; enfin il se dégagé : "Messieurs," crie-t-il, rendu déjà au sommet de sa voix, "je me lève pour protester à la face du peuple contre cette séance ridicule et les idées émises jusqu'ici. Comment ! parce que le Star s'est moqué de DeLéry, vous allez vous fâcher tout rouge ! Comment ! vous allez lancer vos soudées contre le Star ! Et pourquoi, Messieurs, tant se fâcher parce que DeLéry est attaqué ! moi, je suis attaqué chaque semaine ! quelle différence y a-t-il entre DeLéry et moi ! (Bravos répétés en échos par Stallard, Malouin et Robitaille.) La démocratie, Messieurs....." mais après ce supreme effort, vox fauibus haesit, il ne peut aller plus loin et s'affaisse presque sans connaissance dans le sein de Malouin.

Plusieurs voix appellent M. Jones. M. Delaney dit qu'il est aux Billiards, sur quoi on entend la voix mélodieuse d'Israel, "c'est pas vrai, je ne joue plus aux Billiards va te laver, Delaney." Puis, M. Drolet ayant crié "Casgrain, Casgrain l'" celui-ci, sans trop se faire prier, se lève, engloutit ses mains dans ses étroites culottes et procède : "MM. Dans le Haut-Canada, d'où je viens, jamais on ne voit ce que nous avons vu ici ce matin, une attaque brutale contre un ex-confrère, une assemblée convoquée pour la venger... (Tu te pousse, Casgrain, crie Saint-Jacques !) et un homme qui se dit philosophe, essayer d'enlever l'action de ce comité ! (Shoot the breeches, dit Campbell). Non, MM. dans le Haut-Canada, il n'y a pas de "Star," mais il n'y a pas non plus de Cloutier, il n'y a pas de demagogues. Quand j'ai lu le "Star," moi qui descends des Casgrain d'Airvault"... (Des veaux ! crie Lefebvre sur quoi l'assemblée s'agit, le petit président sort de son Ulster, Drolet demande à Lefebvre "Où est ton chien ?" on saisit le malheureux calembourgeois et on le met à la porte.

Cependant au milieu de l'agitation, le président se lève et à la vue de cet homme imposant, la tumulte s'apaise ; telle on voit la mer en courroix planer sur la surface agitée quand Neptune lève au-dessus des flots sa tête auguste. Le président invite M. Livernois à appoiter le flambeau de sa logique au milieu des ténèbres dans lesquelles le comité est plongé : M. Livernois ; "MM. Toute société doit se protéger, or nous sommes une société, donc nous devons nous protéger. M. de Léry est un des membres de cette société, (Fourbe Roy s'écrie : parle pas si vite !) donc, en vertu du principe posé, nous devons le protéger. Je ne puis comprendre mon ami, M. Cloutier, si versé dans la philosophie et qui cependant vient soutenir des principes subversifs, des principes en désaccord avec Bullock, Suarez Cortés. Je conclus donc que, puisque toute société a le droit de se protéger que, puisque nous sommes une société, que puisque M. de Léry est un membre de cette société, nous devons le protéger." M. Masson, avec enthousiasme : "Ce sont mes principes, les principes de Vauillot. Quant je rédigeais la Nouvelle France.... (M. Saint Jacques, "Oui, la Nouvelle France, j'ai souscrit une piastre pour ce sacré journal tombé au bout d'un mois !") M. Masson passait et par le trou de la serrure on entend M. Lefebvre qui dit : "T'es massé !"

M. Drolet prend la parole : "MM. comme il arrive midi et que j'ai faim, je propose, secondé par M. Fremont que le comité s'journe maintenant" avant que la séance fut levée, on lut la motion suivante : "Proposé par Mr. Gus. Tessier, secondé par M. Gus. Dionne que M. Gus. DeLéry soit chargé de signifier le protêt suivant, à savoir :" L'an mil huit cent soixante et seize, le vingt-six Mars, nous, notaire, instrumentant faisant et parfaisant dans et pour la province de Québec, soussigné, avons protesté et mis en demeure et par les présentes protestons et mettons en demeure le journal appelé le "Star," de retraiter, corriger et mettre à néant, sous un délai de huit jours, les assertions frauduleuses, menteuses et columnatrices que le dit Star a publié dans son numéra du vingt-cinq Mars dernier, contre William Brouage chaussé gros Deléry, Ecuier, avocat.

Dont acte etc. etc. etc., fait et passé etc. etc. etc. copie des présentes demeurant en mon étude.

(Signé) G. Deléry, N. P. par derrière.

La motion est mise aux voix. Elle est adoptée par tout à l'exception de M.M. Cloutier et Malouin.

Le président lève alors la séance, Chs. Fitz, G. Stuart, et G. Tessier s'en vont en chantant "The Mulligan Guards" et L. Drolet, Fourbe Roy et Gaspard Turcotte entonnent ; Ah ! quel nez !"

SUCCESEUR DE WHISKEY MASON.

Le métier de Corroyeur étant devenu peu lucratif, Mr. Puff Roy s'est décidé à remplacer le fameux Whiskey Mason et se constituer l'informateur du percepteur du Région. Ainsi, avis aux Hoteliers et autres Mr. Puff Roy a fait ses preuves en plus d'une circonstance. Mr. A. A. Cantin, épicer de la Rue St-Vallier, peut vous donner des nouvelles.

FETE ST. PATRICE.

Vendredi, 17 du mois dernier, étant la fête de St. Patrice, plusieurs de nos concitoyans de Québec ont passé une belle soirée chez Raymond Drolet, bûtellier, rue St. Jean, donnée par George St. Pierre son secrétaire législatif. Parmi les invités ont remarqué Johnny Léonard, Grand Bigaourte, p'tit Joe Voyer, p'tit Pit Charest, Rowbottom, Simey Mariel, p'tit Guste Daniel, Elz. Gagné, Johnny Drouin imprimeur, Célestine Laplante, Elzéar Gauvreau par la grâce de Dieu et de son père, A. B. Charron la gitoule, Prosper Verret le Dieu des barbards, Évariste Page, George St. Pierre, enfin un grand nombre d'autres dont on ne sait pas les noms. Pluiseurs curieux ont essayé de rentrer mais en vain, vu qu'ils n'étaient pas des invités, il n'y a exception que pour p'tit Coque Blais p'tit connu de la batteuse à l'hôtel St. Louis qui a pu faire partie du carnaval grâce à son capot de castor, et sa figure imposante de chinois rebatatis, et sa bonne renommée. L'orchestre était des mieux choisis, voici les noms des musiciens qui ont bien voulu prêter leur savoir-faire : picaviette Pts. Vézina avec la clarinette de la rue St. Valier, R. Drolet fils avec le cornet de p'tit Ours, Embusie Derry et Alfred Vézina avec le violon de la rue St. Valier, tous deux gratteux bien connus, p'tit Coque Blais avec son sifflet naturel et Tom McCaffrey le grand gignac, Georges Belneau a joué un solo sur les Baltimore Oyster Clam, intitulé la Marche de Saint Georges. T. Gosselin et N. Lafont seraient les rafraîchissements et W. Laroche était fournisseur de solds. Le père Raymond Drolet les a fait beaucoup rire en battant les ailes de pigeon avec Popine, durant la veillée. Enfin on s'est séparé, enchanté de la veillée de G. St. Pierre en la rencontrant et lui promettant de lui rendre cela à Pâques ou à la Trinité. Au moment de mettre sous presse nous apprenons que Victor Desplats bardier, a eu l'honneur de tout coiffer les invités du carnaval chez R. Drolet.

UN FORT EN GUEULE.

Si Paris possède la Fille de Madame Angot, la ville de Québec a l'orgueil de posséder le fils de Madame Angot. Il diffère un peu de sa mère, quoi que fort en gueule, il n'est pas joli, pen poli, et possédant un gros MAGOT. Sa célébrité consiste à gueuler des heures durant, perché soit sur une table, une chaise, ou sur une botte de chandelle, devant quinze à trente curieux, qui le plus souvent sont forcés de se boucher les oreilles à deux mains pour se protéger contre un orage de cuirs et d'expressions grossières et ridicules qu'il ne peut s'empêcher de faire pleuvoir sur la tête du groupe qui assiste à ses réunions publiques. Ce fort en gueule se distingue aussi par un genre unique d'effronterie qu'il porte avec brutalité sur sa figure allongée par un sourcil qui se perd à la clame d'un crâne roulé de toute chevelure et dont la forme ressemble beaucoup à ses melons d'eau qui nous viennent du sud de l'Amérique en temps de canicule !

Enfin, ce fort en gueule, ne peut conserver un ami, et vous le reconnaîtrez par sa langue pendue comme un grelot défilé, et déchirant la réputation de tout le monde, surtout celle de son ancien ami, Olivier Délorier, serblanier, . . . Comment vous sarez son nom, vous aussi ! — Certainement. Qui ne connaît point cet encanteur peu pêti et si fort en gueule de la rue St. Jean, qui amuse le public presque autant que son défunt Crétot. . . . Lemieux alors, c'est de taire son nom, et le laisser deviner au public.

Nous déisons informer le public que M. Woolley emploie à son service trois hommes très habiles, mais par malice non en prenant son intérêt ; mais en prenant bien leur propre intérêt. Craignant beaucoup de perdre leur place, il se sont imaginés qu'en employant toutes les catesses d'un veau auprès de sa mère, se disputant à qui la lécherait la mieux, qu'ils pourraient influencer leur maître, mais pas du tout. Nous espérons que M. Woolley continuera toujours emporter les premiers prix pour ses châtaignes, y remportera par évidemment le premier prix sur ces veaux. Car il est bien sûr que principalement deux de ces veaux Lacroix et Haïel qui ont toujours pensé donner une personne tenant lieu à un autre en travaillant donneront sans aucun doute victoire à M. Woolley, car l'un étant le champion du Damier, et l'autre le champion du Petit-Mistigris seront les plus fins des veaux, nous espérons qu'à l'exhibition de Pâques disparaîtront à jamais ces veaux, qui seront remplacés par un gentilhomme, et qui tout en donnant justice à M. Woolley, donnera probablement justice à ces employés.

Avant le départ de ces veaux une visite respectueuse demandée en particulier à M. les bouchers.

Un ami désolé.

M. le Réducteur.

Veuillez donc avertir Mr. A. Laurin, dans votre prochain numéro, que s'il retourne encore contenter le réducteur à Mademoiselle Noémie Kinset de St. Stanislas, je me verrai forcée d'écrire aux parents de la dite demoiselle des détails qui certainement tout en étant bien vrai, ne seront pas en faveur de Mr. Laurin surtout un petit voyage à Montréal avec mademoiselles Georgiana B. et Louise L. Ainsi qu'il se tienne pour bien et duement avertie.

Nous aimons à prévenir Monsieur Bébô Bergeron de bien faire attention à lui, car le Conseil Municipal va proposer de faire une nouvelle érection au printemps s'il ne fait pas son devoir nous lui demanderons plus tard ce qu'il aura à faire.

Un ami.

Mariés d'affirmer les jeunes garçons par Joseph Caouette de l'archevêché, c'est d'avoir de la gomme, des pipes, du tabac, des livres d'histoires, un canapé puis autre chose blout je n'ose pas le dire, puis autre chose blout je ne dirai pas du tout.

Un connaisseur de la café de l'archevêché où il habite.

LE CLUB LAVAL DE ST. SAUVEUR.

Le Club Laval de St. Sauveur a donné jeudi passé à l'occasion de la mi-carême un grand bal à laquelle assistait l'élite des jeunes gens de cette localité rien ne manquait pour rendre cette soirée une des plus brillantes du carême, repas aux carottes et à la moutarde, une douzaine de batons et cannes de sucre, rafraîchissement au whisky et à la petite bière, discours eloquents prononcés par les membres aux sanités adressées après la veillée, tous les membres un baton de sucre à la main et bande en tête en jouant le "Canadian errant" sont allés remercier M. George Couture leur président qui arrivé chez lui s'est perché sur la clôture et leur a adressé le discours suivant :

Mes amis — Je suis heureux de vous voir en aussi grand nombre ce matin (ils étaient à peu près onze la bande comprise) ça me ferait un grand plaisir de vous faire entrer mais l'heure est trop avancé, poupi et momman sont couchés je ne pourrai pas vous mettre en leur présence, mais j'espere que quand viendra le jour . . . . . Ici l'orateur a tombé comme foudroyé par la pièce d'éloquence qu'il venait d'enlancer et a été au moins vingt minutes sans connaissance pendant lesquelles M. Hamel commis chez Allard et Aynot ou nom de ses consœurs a remercié le président de la sympathie qu'il semblait avoir pour les membres qu'ils acceptaient avec reconnaissance l'honneur qu'il leur serait fait en les introduisant auprès de son poupa et de momma quand le jour viendrait qu'il demandait la faveur de les laisser aller au club pour visiter une ou deux bouteilles qui leur restaient et de vouloir bien se coucher sans inquiétude que le lendemain personne ne manquerait à son appel.

Laclésair le club s'est mis en procession en chantant avec accompagnement de bande

Bonsoir M. Couture
Bonsoir notre président
Descendez de dessus la clôture
Et venez-vous dorénavant.
La ton tra la la la la.

Et son retour vers au club sans attendre la réponse du président qui n'était pas encore revenu de son Jack (évanouissement).

GRANDE VENTE.

Mr. Puff Roy donne avis au public qu'il est décidé à renouveler sa garde-robe et que lundi prochain il vendra à l'encaix ses vingt huit paires de pantalon, quantité de bas de soie, de vestes blouses, chemises etc. le tout sans réserve.

NOË ET SON ARCHE.

Après la fameuse soudade de l'autre soir dans l'arche de Noë et ayant même que la police eut ramassé et trainé à domicile chaque des illustres convives, le comité de santé s'est empressé de faire visiter et nettoyer l'arche, afin d'éviter la peste, ou autre contagion qui pourrait survenir avec les dégâts du printemps. Voici un aperçu de ce que les vidangeurs ont sorti de l'arche pendant huit jours nettoyage : vingt un voyage à cheval de bouteille cassé cinq brocante pleine d'ordures et 9 chaudières verte remplis de quelques choses que nous croyions être des fromages rassis.

Parmi les immondices de toutes sortes, on a trouvé aussi, un casque qui a coûté à la province $32.000, et qui est resté célèbre par deux voyages fait en Europe mais nous regrettons de dire qu'il était rempli de vermine ; il en contenait plus d'un demi minot, aussi, un ras-scul anti-diluvien appartenant à Noë, une perroque et un manche de lavette, la propriété de Garant, une paire d'oreilles d'âne que l'on croit devoir appartenir à Florent Guay, un battois de lavasse une queue de loup garou, un bâton de policeman, et une paire de battois de huit pouces et demi de long que l'on suppose provenir des frères Dugaux.

Nous n'en finirions pas avec cet intéressant inventaire, mais la décence nous oblige de passer sous silence une foule d'incidents qu'une plume honnête se saurait décrire.

O ! tempora O ! mores. Ce qui veut dire en françois quel tas de salots !!!

EN FURIE.

M. J. B. Caouette, l'apprenti orateur et pointeur de St. Sauveur, dont nous avons eu l'occasion de parler dans nos numéros précédents, fait le diable à quatre pour découvrir l'auteur des articles qui ont été écrits contre lui.

Eh bien, mon cher M. Caouette, afin de vous ôter ce trouble, j'ai l'honneur de vous annoncer que c'est moi qui me suis permis de vous décocher ces quelques traits ; entoamis, il ne faut pas y aller par beaucoup de détours ; aussi c'est moi qui vous ai critiqué dans le "Courrier du Canada" l'année dernière.

Un Pointeur.

CHANGEMENT DE DOMICILE.

M. Edmond Leclerc boulanger, informe ses praticiens et le public en général qu'il changera de domicile au printemps, et qu'il continuera comme d'habitude à prendre un vir à chaque pratique, principalement chez M. Lacroix où il en prendra plus qu'un, on dit aussi que M. J. Gamache sera chargé de la surveillance de son nouvel établissement.

Une pratique.

François Vézina la cruelle voyant une petite chance d'ouvrage ce printemps, il a fait application à la compagnie du St. Laurent comme cooke sur un bateau pour laver la vessele et éplucher les patates.
