Annual Report.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE MISSION WORK OF THE M. E. CHURCH IN CANADA :

In issuing the Annual Report of the contributions of our people in aid of our Missions, the Missionary Board desires, in the spirit of the Gospel of Christ, to say a few earnest and faithful words to the lovers and promoters of the Missionary operations of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada.

In the first place, let us all be profoundly and continually grateful to God for what He hath wrought in us, for us, and through us. We have ourselves, either directly or indirectly, experienced multitudes of invaluable blessings, through the blood-purchased, spirit-sanctioned, and martyr-sealed Gospel of Christ. If friends have been saved from sin and exalted to glory, the Gospel hath done it; if our own souls are cleansed and trustful and peaceful, the Gospel hath done it; if the civil and religious liberty of a Christian civilization establishes us in its security and bestows on us its honors, the Gospel hath done it; if the increasing light of the science of this Christian era shines upon us, making many hidden ways plain and diffusing the unspeakable advantages of Christian culture and schools, the Gospel hath done it; if there is implanted in our hearts the good hope of heaven, if there are within us pious impulses to virtue, or upon us generous restraints from vice, the Gospel hath done it. And can we imagine such a Gospel is for us alone? Can we think that God, who is no respecter of persons, should not have designed it for all? Can we suppose that such an economy of grace, divine as it is in its origin, glowing with light, instinct with life, and beaming with love, should not carry within itself an energy of dissemination, a moral obligation, a religious and conscientious impulse in all recipients to urge it onward and outward, and to bear it speedily to all our kindred and all our countrymen and all men, with its fulness of blessings for all? It is a divine authority; it is God Himself that saith, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." It is a divine injunction—"Freely ye have received, freely give." It is of divine inspiration—"If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?" "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel"; "Every man, according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give: not grudgingly or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver."

In the second place, let us, seeing what God hath wrought by us and through us in the past, humbly seek His aid, rely on Him alone in the future, trust Him fully, follow His commands, and do His work. Who is sufficient for these things but the Omnipotent God alone? By what a strange way has He ever led His people! How marvelous is the history of our Methodism! Especially how wondrous in our eyes is what God hath wrought in and by our own beloved Zion! We look and wonder and adore, and labor at God's commands, and offer all our work to Him. The years are few since Episcopal Methodism, planted in this country one hundred years ago, was left a second time in weakness to prosecute the glorious commission of preaching the Word of Life—in such weakness as many had said it were annihilation and death. Few, and to themselves and to God tremblingly feeble, were the ministers; scattered and peeled where the people. But the Lord put honor upon their labors and enterprises: it is the Lord's doing, and marvelous in our eyes. To Him and to Him alone ascribe we all the glory. And the ways and works of the fathers must instruct us—the children. We must pay heed to this lesson of our history. The first preachers went forth in simplicity of mind, trusting the Lord: they had none other to trust. And surely they required none other. Without learning, wealth, civil or social power, honor, or worldly renown, like unto the Apostles of our Lord, they went forth in the name of Christ, relied on the mighty God, and prevailed. Constant, humble labor, cheerful self-sacrifice, prayer and mighty faith, gave them the victory. Not one of these elements of power dare we to-day think of losing or lessening. We must have willing toil and ready and entire consecration; we must have ceaseless prayer, an abiding knowledge of our helplessness in ourselves and of our dependence upon God, and a firm, unalterable trust in His covenanted willingness and His grace-pledged power and wisdom to lead us on and secure to us success in our efforts to plant and establish the kingdom of Christ among men. Oh! for a constant dependence, a firm reliance of preachers and people on God! Oh! for a sense of weakness and an unwavering trust in God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for the first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall great enterprises of the Gospel work that are upon us! This is the God that rescued Daniel from the lions and the Hebrew children from the fire. It is He that maketh of the little one a great nation, and of the feeble one a mighty people. He maketh the increase of the handful of corn majestic as the forests of Lebanon. Let our trust be in God.

In the third place, let us faithfully do our part, and in our efforts measure up to the responsibilities of the hour. Opening doors invite earnest souls, enterprising men; men of faith, men of God. Enlarging fields, whitening harvests, demand more and more vigorous laborers, more skillful, active reapers. The fields are everywhere white to the harvest. The people perish in multitudes for lack of the Word of Life, and find it not. And the Lord of the harvest cometh quickly to the judgment; yea, to every man, He is at the door. Is this a time for sloth, inactivity, and indifference? Is this a time for covetousness, worldliness, and the gratification of pride or fond desire? Is this a time for heaping up of treasure and self-gratification on the part of the people of the Lord? Is it a time for us to be satisfied with what has been accomplished, and to take rest and glory to ourselves as though the work were all done? Has Jesus, the dying Lord, seen of the travail of His soul and been satisfied? Nay, verily, is it not rather a time that we humble ourselves before God, confessing that we have been unfaithful stewards, deploring that we have achieved so little with the means in our hand and yet astonished that God hath wrought so great things by our feeble, unworthy efforts? Is it not time that we deny ourselves of ungodliness and wordly lusts, and cease to make provision for the flesh to fulfil the lusts thereof? Is it not time to remember that we shall give account of our stewardship; that we are not our own, but are bought with a price; that we have nothing that we have not received; and that we shall render account for the use of the talents, five, two, or one, entrusted to our care? Is it not time that we consecrate self, property, family, talent, influence—all to God and His glorious work; choose Him as our portion, and leave us, in all our affairs, to His wise direction, that we and ours may be truly safe in this world and happy in that which is to come? Is it not time that Christian parents taught their children by example that the accumulation of riches is not the sole end of life, and that self-indulgence is not the highest excellency and felicity of our earthly pilgrimage? Is it not time that the Christian Church had learned what Christ meant when He said, "Seek ye must settle such questions ultimately with their God, and at the judgment; be added unto you"; and again, that it remembered the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive"! Is it not time that more of the wealth of earth, especially of the possessions of Christian men, should find its way from cheerful hearts and willing hands into the treasury of the Lord, to prosecute the work of God and the propagation of the Gospel of Christ to the end of the earth?

These questions we trust our dear people will answer practically, promptly, liberally, and conscientiously in the fear of God and in the light of His Word. Great demands are upon us. For this we should be thankful to God; for, great as they are, they are not greater than the resources of the Church duly consecrated can meet; and certainly not greater than the Lord God Almighty, operating in and through an humble, obedient, and faithful people, can supply. Even had we labored and sacrificed to exhaustion, our exhaustion were the opportunity of the God of all grace; for His strength is made perfect in weakness. The demands upon us in Ontario are pressing. There are points, burdened at least to the very verge of endurance, that increased mission funds could relieve; there are fields calling for our labor, rich in promise, which for lack of means we cannot occupy; besides all which is our remote mission ground in Manitoba. There, for a time at least, men must be almost wholly sustained and church-building subsidized from the Mission funds. And who shall say such work will not pay? Who can say the expenditures, even in Ontario, have not secured encouraging returns? Many of our best circuits and stations were once mission ground; in fact, the whole land was mission ground and every preacher a missionary. And so, in the spiritual sense, it ought to continue. Many of our most successful ministers have been gathered in from mission fields. And shall it not be so in fast-settling Manitoba and the rapidly-opening great North-West? Shall we not be permitted there to see large and flourishing societies and vigorous and compact circuits? Everything depends on our present fidelity and liberality. Now the crisis is upon us; now is the time for action. The energy and vigor of a few years will shape the course of the future. We can incur and suffer failure and disgrace, or we can achieve success and bring glory to God. Which shall it be? Let every Episcopal Methodist and every friend of Episcopal Methodism ask himself, Which shall it be! And let him answer by dwelling more with God in prayer, and by increasing, and, if at all practicable, at least doubling his missionary contributions. Men and we are quite sure that if every brother, sister, and friend would weigh this matter aright, our next Annual Report would afford us the high gratification of an increase of at least one hundred per cent. in the receipts for the cause of Missions as entrusted to our care. Certainly the figure has not been set too high when it is urgently requested that every circuit or district average at least one dollar per member. There have been men giving a dollar a year, year after year, though God has in the meantime quadrupled their wealth, and though the demands of the work have increased tenfold upon our hands. Brethren, we ask you before God and the court of an honest, enlightened conscience, is this measure up to the demands of duty? Is this seizing an opportunity, embracing a privilege for Christ? Is this a line of Christian action that will bring to us the rewards of consecration, liberality, and cheerful beneficence? Is this like Christ, who loved us and gave Himself for us? May God by His word and eternal spirit led us to such an answer, both in spirit and practice, as shall quicken the Church of Christ on earth and enlarge the number and enhance the felicity of the glorified in heaven.

For the current year the amount required to meet the appropriation to local fields of mission work and the expenditure in Manitoba, including the assistance rendered towards the building of churches, will equal an average contribution of one dollar per member throughout the denomination, which sum the Board earnestly hopes will be realized. To do this, however, larger individual subscriptions must be made, and a more effectively organized system for securing means must be devised on the various Circuits, and we trust that to accomplish such ends both pastors and people will heartily unite. In so far as the information before us, and the reports to the late Conference enable us to form an opinion, we believe the missions in Ontario, almost without exception, are prosperous and progressive, several of them, however, needing larger appropriations. In looking over our whole mission work we have reason to thank God and take courage. Its past history calls for gratitude, its present demands call for increased liberality and a firm faith in God; and if these conditions are met, we may confidently expect the Divine blessing. Shall we go up to possess the land? The answer, brethren and friends, lies with you.

—OF THE—

Bay of Quinte Annual Conference Missionary Society.

ARTICLE 1.—This Society shall be known as the Missionary Society of the Bay Quinte Annual Conference, auxiliary to the Parent Missionary Society of the M. E. Church in Canada.

ART. 2.—Said Society shall be composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Committee of Seven.

ART. 3.—Said officers and members of the committee shall be elected annually at the time and place of the meeting of the B. Q. Conference, by the Missionary Board ; but this election shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.

ART. 4.—The Board will meet at the call of the President ; in his absence at the call of one of the Vice-Presidents, at the time and place mentioned in said call.

ART. 5.—The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board ; in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents ; and in their absence the Board may appoint one of the members of the committee President pro tem. Such presiding officer shall settle all law questions ; but his decision is subject to an appeal to the Bishop, whose decision shall be final. He shall exercise the rights and privileges due any President.

ART. 6.—The Secretary shall take the minutes of each session, preserve them carefully, make ready the missionary reports for the press, and discharge all other duties which his office demands.

ART. 7.—The Treasurer shall take care of all money placed in his hands, and only pay out what is ordered by the Board, and this only by a written order from the Secretary of said Board ; and in every case must take a receipt from those receiving money, so as to be able to place these receipts in the hands of the Auditors appointed by the Board to audit his books.

ART. 8.—The object of this Society shall be to have full control of the finances of the home missionary work, and render such assistance to the Parent Society as said Society may demand for the extension of its work.

ART. 9.—This Board has no power to pay any money to missionaries unless they first have satisfactory evidence that said missionaries have faithfully done their work. In no case have they power to deduct from the appropriation to the mission field, if the work has been done satisfactorily. The Board has power to add to the appropriation in necessitous cases. All assessments and appropriations must be made by this Board.

ART. 10.—The decisions of the Board shall be final on all questions of finance pertaining to our home missions when not conflicting with the parent society.

ART. 11.—At any meeting of the Board seven members shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

ART. 12.—The Board shall make provision for the annual missionary meeting, to be held at the time and place of the meeting of the Annual Conference, providing the Board deems it advisable to hold said meeting.

ART. 13.—The Board has no authority to order any money paid to missionaries until they first receive a written report from such field. This report shall contain the number of members, number of appointments, amount of missionary money raised on said field, minister's salary, probability of said charge becoming self-sustaining, and all other information that will assist the Board in the righteous distribution of its funds, the report to be written by the missionary upon the field. If impossible for him to attend to the writing of it himself from sickness, such report shall be given by the P. E. These reports must be in the hands of the Secretary within twenty-four hours of the opening of the Annual Conference.
