WELCOMES MEN FROM DOMINION

New York Tribune on Washington Conference Sees Problems as Affecting Us—Interest Increases in London—Premier Briand to Make Important Speech.

New York, Oct. 8.—(Canadian Press)—The announcement that three of the British self-governing dominions are to be represented directly in the Washington conference is good news to the people of the U. S. does. They want to see the latest reports to indicate Canada, Australia and South Africa are to name members of the British delegation, which is to be increased in size from four to six, and the dominions will thus have three votes to Great Britain's three, the paper continues.

London, Oct. 8.—Interest in the Washington conference on limitation of armaments and Far Eastern questions is growing in London, as is evidenced by the amount of newspaper space devoted to it. Editorial comment which hitherto has been sporadic and largely colorless, was given precedence by several of this morning's newspapers over subjects before the British people. Some journals, assuming that Prime Minister Lloyd George's decision not to attend the conference was final, warmly approved of the suggestion that A. J. Balfour would be leader of the British delegation.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Premier Briand, accompanied by several members of his cabinet, left for St. Nazaire this morning, and tomorrow will deliver an address outlining the government's foreign policy. He has been for a considerable time preparing this speech and it was indicated today he might reply to criticisms made last Sunday by former Premier Clemenceau regarding the execution of the Versailles treaty.

The policy to be followed by France at the Washington conference next month will be one of the features of the premier's address, which is regarded here as probably having a greater international significance than bearing upon domestic political controversies.

Body Under Paddle Wheel of D. J. Purdy

Mystery of Disappearance of Wm. Sweeney of Fredericton Solved by Grim Discovery Made This Morning.

(Special to Times.) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 8.—The mystery of the whereabouts of Wm. Sweeney of this city, missing from his home upwards of a week, was solved at 6.30 this morning when the fireman of the steamer D. J. Purdy, making inspection of the paddle wheels prior to starting for St. John, discovered an object which turned out to be the body of an unfortunate man. W. J. Southern, local manager for the Crystal Steam S. S. Co., was notified and he informed Patrolman G. A. Murray, who made arrangements for the removal of the body and the summoning of the coroner.

Mr. Sweeney was well known about the city. By trade he was a carpenter, but the last summer was in the employ of the city street department. He had considerable knowledge as a naturalist. Articles written by him on the habits of game and other wild animals appeared in various sportsmen's publications. He left his home for the last time a week ago on Tuesday, and was seen by several others that they saw him so recently as Monday last. He was a frequenter of the St. John river, and was seen on several occasions using a small boat. A boat believed to be that of his was found drifting a few days ago by Smith Mercantile of this city. Mr. Sweeney's sister, Mrs. Sweeney, who lives at 101 St. John street, was notified of the discovery this morning, and she is now making arrangements to have the body buried.

FRIENDS ARE ANXIOUS ABOUT REV. GEO. SCOTT

His wife and friends are deeply concerned over the apparent disappearance of Rev. George Scott, agent of the Children's Aid Society, who was seen at breakfast as usual yesterday morning and went out. He was seen walking down the street about nine o'clock and was in the police station chatting with the detectives at ten o'clock. Since then he has not been heard of. He had no business to call him out of town, and was to have preached in East St. John Mission tomorrow evening. He never went anywhere, without telling Mrs. Scott about it.

FOR THE ORPHANS

From the Carleton Place of the west side, Treasurer Bankine of the Protestant Orphanage has received a check for $100 for the British street and another $100 for its west side orphanage. The marden party at the Wright street Memorial Home yielded $25 for that institution. This included $25 from the W. A. of the Newfoundland Society.

As Hiram Sees It

"I shouldn't be surprised," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, to the Times reporter "if killing people got to be a nice, respectable occupation in New Brunswick. Quite a lot of folks has been doing it, one way or another, in the last couple of years. We don't last go into the woods out to the Settlement now for fear some fellow'll let go with a moose gun or a nice little handful of partridge shot. It ain't none too safe in town—nuther. I guess when we get the factories comin' in on every train we ought to get one to make tank suits—so people could go out without fear of bein' shot or knocked in the head. Mebbe if we didn't hev a few probabill' murder' nobodys 'ud ever think about it. They say nobodys ever thought about takin' a drink—just gettin' drunk—but that's what they do—will we get prohibition—'an' then everybody took it up as a business. I don't see that that's what their names is tellin' us every day. Still, I guess me 'n' Hamer'll vote yes next Monday—just the same."

PREMIER FOSTER WRITES OF LIBERAL PRIMARIES OCT. 11

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—I deem it my duty in view of the approaching convention of the Liberal Party to be held for the City and County of St. John-Albert, to impress upon all electors, both men and women, who are opposed to the present dominion government, the importance of attending the primaries to be held on Tuesday evening, the 11th instant, for the election of delegates to select two candidates. In view of the fact that in the election of 1917 all Liberals did not see eye to eye and as since that time these shadows have disappeared, it is most important for the success of the party that the delegates at the primaries should be chosen as representative of all sections of the province. I believe the delegates should be chosen as follows:—Mr. W. E. Foster, St. John-Albert; Mr. J. J. McKeen, St. John-Albert; Mr. J. J. McKeen, St. John-Albert.

ITALIAN'S ACTIONS LED TO HIS ARREST

Had Between $60,000 and $100,000 Worth of Jewels and Laces Concealed.

New York, Oct. 8.—Raffel Romano, who gave his address as 201 Grand street, Manhattan, was the first cabin passenger to embark from the steamer "Italia" line, when the liner docked from Trieste and Naples. Handling his declaration to open his baggage, Deputy Surveyor John P. O'Connor, observing Romano, thought he acted suspiciously, and invited him back on the ship, where he searched him. According to O'Connor, Romano concealed in his hat and his shoes jewels and laces valued at between $60,000 and $100,000. Romano had had no access to his baggage since he had left his declaration. Among the jewels were a solitaire diamond ring with a 22-carat stone, a watch with a loose diamond and forty-seven loose pearls.

It is likely that the second trial of John Paris, indicted on a charge of murdering Sarah Jane McAuley, in whose case the jury disagreed at the first trial, will be commenced before Judge Barry at an adjourned sitting of the circuit court here on November 1. GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

TAMING OF SHREW NOTHING ON THIS

Bert Lytell Foils Wiles of a Heartbreaker in "The Misleading Lady"—Here Monday.

In this picturization of a recent stage success at Imperial Theatre, Monday, Bert Lytell again displays that exceptional versatility which has earned him an undisputed niche in screendom. He enacts the leading role of Jack Craigen, engineer just returned to effect New York from a big construction job in Africa. Craigen is a confirmed woman hater, and almost his first experience upon returning to dress-suit civilization is to meet beautiful Helen Steele, who breaks down his barriers of aversion to femininity and forces him to propose. Only after he has made his avowal does Craigen learn that she has been deceived; that stage-struck Helen had waded to bring him to his knees to prove her fitness for a leading part at a millionaire's "little theatre." Craigen is infuriated by such treatment and determines to teach her a lesson. He abducts Helen, struggling to his hunting lodge in the fastnesses of the Adirondacks. Acting the cave man he chains her to the floor, how Helen rebels and is later captivated by this brusque wooing is told in a story bristling with sprightly action and heightened by delicious humor. On the New York stage "The Misleading Lady," by Charles Goddard and Paul Dickey, was a triumph. On the screen it is even more effective.

who, after shooting her twice in the head, robbed her of a pocketbook containing $190. The reports were heard in Police Headquarters, two blocks away, but before the arrival of Policemen Maher and Seales the robber made his escape. Miss Cordes was removed to the Southampton Hospital, where Dr. George Schenk said that her wounds were not expected to prove fatal. He said that both bullets had plowed through the woman's scalp, one of them chipping the frontal bone. After she had been attended by the surgeon Miss Cordes made a statement to the policeman which resulted in the arrest of George Sulzer, thirty years old, in his home in Main street, near the scene of the shooting. Miss Cordes said that a few minutes before the robber confronted her with a pistol she had left a card party in the home of Charles Schneider in Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider offered to escort her to her home in Newton street, three blocks away, but she told them that she was not afraid to go home alone. As she turned into Newton street from Main street she saw a man jump back into the door of a store. She thought nothing of the incident, she said, but when she reached the store the man stepped in front of her, and without a word, fired two shots. She attempted to grapple with the man, but he struck her with the butt of the pistol and she fell. Then the robber grabbed the pocketbook and disappeared. When Sulzer was questioned he admitted that he knew Miss Cordes.

GREAT BOON FOR SMALL CAR OWNERS

Dunlop Rubber Company's New Straight Wall, 31 x 4 Cord Tire.

Users of cars taking 30 x 3 1/2 rims have now available a Straight Wall type of rim, which allows the use of a 31 x 4 Straight Wall Cord Tire, recently developed by the Dunlop Tire & Rubber Goods Co. Limited. This 31 x 4 Cord Tire, as previously stated, is made to fit the new Straight Wall rim in 30 x 3 1/2 size, and its introduction at this date is particularly interesting because the 31 x 4 Straight Wall Cord Tire represents an extension of the Straight Wall principle in tire-building to the smaller car tire. This makes it possible for owners of "Brics," "Chevrolet," "Ford," "Gray-Dow," "Maxwell" or "Overland" cars to use the new Straight Wall Tire—if they so wish—by converting their present Clincher Rims into Straight Wall. Rim makers are now supplying 30 x 3 1/2 Straight Wall Rims to interchange with 30 x 3 1/2 Clincher De-mountable Rims or Solid type 30 x 3 1/2 Clincher Rims. The new 30 x 3 1/2 Straight Wall rim is exactly the same as the 32 x 3 1/2 Straight Wall rim except that it is twenty-three inches in diameter instead of twenty-five. "31 x 4 Straight Wall" introduces a new size in Cord Tires, one that undoubtedly will be very popular because of the records it will set for tremendous mileage. One Car Maker has already adopted the new Dunlop Cord Tire for equipment of his cars and the prospects are that others will follow the example immediately. The new Straight Wall Cord is supplied in both "Ribbed" and the well-known "Traction" tread designs.

CLEVER TRICK DOGS AT OPERA HOUSE

Seymour's Trained Dogs the Best Seen Here Yet—Four Other High Standard Acts.

Seymour's Happy Family consists of twelve clever trick dogs of wonderful intelligence. They appear to be able to do most everything a dog could possibly do, as well as some things that dogs have never been induced to do before. The act is unquestionably the best and cleverest animal offering yet seen and will entertain the old as well as the young folks. Comedy prevails throughout the act furnished by two clever clown canines who certainly are worth while. Other sterling attractions on the bill include McManus and McNulty, known as "The Noble Nuts," a droll pair of comedians who went over with a bang last night and was highly applauded. Helen Miller, who is both charming and clever, instantly won favor with the audience with her smile and excellent performance on the Xylophone. George P. Wilson's Hebrew comedy is a source of great joy, and he is a skillful pianist, too. "Songs and talk you've never heard" is the way the act is billed, and that's true, but the audience will like to hear them again. Ed and Eva, Redding's sketch in Dreamville proved popular with the audience and received hearty applause. The picture program consists of the British and Canadian News Weekly; also a two reel comedy, that is really a riotous fun. This programme will be continued today and Monday.

Bread means food economy

Bread is Biggest Food Value—
You don't have to be a sedate, old housekeeper to grasp the truth—
Bread is your Best Food—
Eat more of it

Children instinctively love and prize Bread for its delicious, full-flavored sweetness. Older folks prize it even more for its wholesome nutritiousness, and the fact that it agrees with everyone, and with other foods as well.

Eat more Bread—combine Bread freely with other foods, and you'll enjoy richer, more tempting meals at much reduced cost. All thrifty Canadians are now asked to eat Bread.

BUTTER-NUT BREAD
—is Best of all Breads, just as Bread is Best of all foods. Ask your grocer.

GOSSARD BRASSIERES

It is generally conceded that the American business girl is without equal, both in efficiency and in appearance.

Stenographers and other business women prefer Gossard Brassieres because their perfect support sustains them in comfort through the busiest day, and gives them a trimness above the waistline that assures a youthful and charming silhouette beneath the sheerser waist.

Gossard Brassieres so faultlessly fit the figures for which they are specially designed, that you are unconscious of their support save for a pleasant feeling of well-being.

The daintiest of materials are combined in a charming and unexpected way and we offer a most unusual selection. A specially informed saleswoman will serve you.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS

ORPHANAGE FAIR DAILY NEWSLETTER

To the Protestants of N. B.
Greetings:
If there is anything in this world to cause a feeling of gratification it is to find that one's efforts are appreciated, especially when it is expressed in financial terms.

A gentleman more or less noted for his generosity informs us that he has been endeavoring to do in the interests of the orphan children of our province, has presented us with a check sufficient to cover the cost of their publication, at the same time requesting that his name be withheld. As this amounts to quite a large sum of money the committee are very grateful to the donor. It has been suggested that the publication of this might be an inducement to others to assist.

It also gives us great pleasure to announce to our prospective contributors both along the shore from Grand Manan up and also those along the St. John river from Fredericton down that agents of the following steamers have consented to carry any reasonable quantity of goods of any kind, that is contributions addressed to J. E. Arthur, for Orphanage Fair, free of charge: Steamers "Grand Manan," "Cannons Boat," "D. J. Purdy," "Majestic," "Chaplain," "Oceanic," "Hampton" and "Premier." This should act as an incentive to farmers and others desirous of assisting.

Season tickets still on sale at $1 each, 4 for $5. Everybody interested in this work should both give and urge it on others. Don't lie down on the job! Keep on pushing! Fair 17th to 27th. Address Jas. E. Arthur, P. O. Box 12, St. John, N. B.

VOTE ON MONDAY

Every right-thinking voter in St. John and in the province of New Brunswick has an important duty to perform on Monday. Prohibition cannot be made effective while liquor may be freely imported.

The experience of Nova Scotia should be a guide to this province. There they voted against liquor importation a year ago, and in reply to an enquiry by Rev. William Harrison, of Moncton, Rev. H. R. Grant writes:

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

By proclamation of the governor-general, the week beginning tomorrow is to be observed as "fire prevention week" in Canada.

YOUTH NEARLY COLLAPSES IN ONTARIO COURT WHEN VERDICT IS ANNOUNCED

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 2.—Wilfred McLean, aged 22, yesterday was sentenced to five years in the Ontario Court when the verdict of "guilty" was pronounced on him by Chief Justice Mulock before the completion of the court.

A DELIVERER

To Commodore Stewart of the Chatham World the other world has all gone wrong. Mr. Mackenzie King is emitting a "schoolboy whine"; the Liberal press, big and little, is joining in "a parrot cry"; Mr. King is also talking "poppycock, soporifics"; the York-Sunbury farmers "must have money to burn"; and "with every labor union man, his wife, daughters and mother-in-law at the polls, and the great majority of other men and women staying at home or in their places of business, the long shorem and mill hands must continue to select representatives to serve the county in the legislature and in parliament without regard to fitness or qualification for such positions.

Ovation of Mackenzie King in Amherst Broke All the Records. (Staff Correspondent Halifax Chronicle) Amherst, N. WOMAN APPEALS TO WOMEN VOTERS

A woman voter makes this appeal to the other women voters in regard to Monday's plebiscite—
"Do you realize what a wonderful opportunity this is, to be able to say by our ballot that the importation of intoxicating liquor into our province shall cease? You may not have greatly desired the vote, but now that it is in your hands I am sure that you will look on it as a sacred trust, a powerful weapon for righteousness. The government places the responsibility on the individual voter—on you and on me."

drinking. I wonder if any of you know just how many sermons have been preached in the old days and sold over more than sixty bars. And the bootlegger, who in those days, also the dive and cellar, where drink was sold illegally. Records show that in one district there were thirty such places. Those who sell liquor do it solely for gain; by evading the law there is more gain; and the high cost of same. Two sides will claim your support on Monday, and they are as wide apart as the poles. The motto of one might well be, "Self, self-interest, of one might as truly be, "For the good of others, for the happiness of your home and mine, and for the safeguarding of all."
The upper house of the Anglican general synod of the Church of England, in session in Hamilton, Ont., outlined its policy yesterday as follows:—
"The upper house recommends that all formal invitations to the authorities of other churches within the Dominion of Canada, and all conferences that may result therefrom, shall be in charge of a special joint committee to be appointed for this purpose at this session of the general synod."
Against Open Pulpits.
The third resolution outlined the conditions on which the bishops would agree to such conferences. They state in the first place that they "cannot agree of general schemes of inter-communion or exchange of pulpits," nor of the celebration in Anglican churches of the Holy Communion for members of the Anglican church by ministers who have not been episcopally ordained.
Continuing, the resolution says: "The bishops of the Church of England in Canada will support the action of any bishop who, provided there be no canonical impediment, gives occasional authorization to ministers not episcopally ordained, to preach in churches within his diocese, and clergy of his diocese to preach in the churches of such ministers provided that, in his opinion, such ministers are working towards an ideal of union, such as is described in the Lambeth appeal, it being clearly and distinctly understood that this involves the whole-hearted acceptance by such ministers of all set forth in paragraph six of the 'appeal to all Christian people,' which is as follows:—
"We believe that the viable union of the church will be found to involve the whole-hearted acceptance of the Holy Scriptures, as the record of God's revelation of Himself to man, and as being the rule and ultimate standard of faith, and the creed, commonly called Nicene as the sufficient statement of the Christian faith, and either it or the Apostles' Creed as the baptismal confession of belief; the divinely instituted Sacraments of baptism and the Holy Communion as expressing for all the corporate life of the whole fellowship in and with Christ; a ministry acknowledged by every part of the church as possessing not only the inward call of the spirit, but also the commission of Christ and the authority of the whole body."
A report submitted by P. W. Vroom, D. D., of Windsor, N. S., suggested that the matter of the most desirable name for the church be left to a ballot of the

HANGED HIMSELF WITH BED SHEET

Wife Had Re-married in Russia, Believing Victim Dead in France—Modern Enoch Arden.

(Montreal Gazette.) Hanging by the neck from a bed sheet tied to an open French window, Sider Ocheratnik, forty-five years of age, a returned soldier, was found dead by the keeper of the rooming house where he lived at 244 Dorchester street east, at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Ocheratnik is believed to have taken his life following the marriage of his wife with another man in Russia, when she was reported as dead while serving in France.

around his neck, and securing it to the top of the open French window. Stark told Puste and Sergt Young he remembered that, in conversation, Ocheratnik had mentioned that while he was in France his wife had received notification that he was dead. When he returned to his home in Russia after being demobilized in March, 1919, he found she had re-married, believing him dead. There were two children and he had left to come to Canada. He had said that life would never be the same.

POWER COMPANY WRITES MAYOR
Withdraws Statement Regarding Himself and City Chamberlain—The Mayor's Comments on Claim Regarding Protection—Motor Vehicle By-laws.
Mayor Schofield has received the following letter from the president of the New Brunswick Power Co., regarding a statement published in the press following the recent street disorders:
St. John, N. B., October 4th 1921.
His Worship Mayor Schofield, St. John, N. B.:
Sir—I greatly regret that any question has arisen with reference to the statements published in the "Globe" on Tuesday last.
After our meeting at your office on Wednesday when you explained the causes which were behind the non-enforcement of jitney by-laws in this city, our Directors as a body unanimously agreed that we would not object to the statements issued, in so far as any criticism of yourself and the City Chamberlain were concerned. At no time last evening our intention to reflect on the personal conduct of either of you.
I feel quite certain you will appreciate the feelings of this Board, which has seen its property destroyed in the most public places, yet no satisfactory effort has been made to punish the offenders.
Under such conditions and in these trying times extreme statements may have been made and if they have reflected on you or the Chamberlain in your official capacities, I feel this letter will be accepted by you as a genuine effort on our part to undo any injury you may have suffered.
At the same time we quite appreciate that the situation has been as trying to you as to us.
Your very truly,
NEW BRUNSWICK POWER CO.

Commenting on this the mayor said:—He was quite satisfied so far as the chamberlain and himself were concerned as all he wanted was that they should be put right in the eyes of their friends and the public throughout the province and that the same publicity be given to a denial of the article published as was given the original publication.
There was also general criticism of the Police without any specific and definite charge such as was levelled at the mayor and chamberlain and he, the mayor, had no hesitation in saying that most of the criticism was most unfair, for instance: It was stated that the chief was informed of the parade—asked for protection which was promised and the inference is that the chief had not given the protection.
Here are the facts for the public—Sixty-five per cent of the force on duty protected the power house, in which the public generally are interested, for if lawless citizens decide to stir up trouble there, what would become of the light and power for the great mass of workers dependent on the plants and factories of the City for their daily work?
Was the plant destroyed—or protected as promised?
Is it fair to assume that the city should protect every car over the route? If so the tax payers must face almost double the present number of Police with consequent cost.
The statement was made that "the enforcement of the laws by the City Police has all along been in the interest of a special class and not in the interests of all."
With sixty-five per cent on the night referred to protecting property at one spot in which "all" were interested and the balance scattered over "all" the rest of the City and the citizen's property.
Is that one class?
The claim is put forth that the "local police are in sympathy with the law breakers."
I do not know if this is meant the boys who have since been brought before the court, or the former employees of the power company, or others in the parade.
"In any event, I would like to take this opportunity of stating to the public that I, in company with the commissioner of public safety have addressed practically every member of the force, and have tried to explain the situation to them, and that they, like ourselves must take absolutely a neutral position in the present trouble, and protect the interests of all, and we feel quite safe in saying that there is not a man that does not know who he has got to do as he pleased."
With reference to the traffic by-laws, the mayor said his office had received much criticism from jitney drivers, bus drivers, taxi cabs, power company, letter writers, and many others too numerous to mention, and perhaps it might not be out of place to try to enlighten our readers on some of these laws.
In the first place, the by-laws were necessary, as every driver seemed to think he had the right to do as he pleased.
The laws were well advertised before being passed, and that was the time for the critic to discuss them, instead of after they became law.
The mayor's office was condemned because he licensed them.
He was also condemned because he did not license them, while waiting to get the by-laws on a practical basis.
For the benefit of the public, it might be well to explain: There are three classes of licenses, and all are subject to being revoked for cause, and are also subject to any by-laws which may still be put in effect.
There is the jitney and bus. This class must go on a regular route and must serve it each day, must only charge 10c. three tickets for 25c., or twenty tickets for one dollar. Must post the fares in his car to this effect.
There is the taxi. This must stand on a designated parking place and be subject to call. His fare must be posted in his car—50c. per passenger within the city limits; $4 for the first hour, $3 for the second hour; tours by arrangement.

LOCAL NEWS
PROPERTY SOLD.
At Chubb's corner this morning Auctioneer F. L. Potts disposed of a freehold property at 17 Garden street belonging to the Dickson estate. It was bid in by George Kane at $3,300.
THE LATE EARL HANSON.
The death of Earl Hanson, aged sixteen, occurred early this morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson, 57 Guilford street, West St. John. He was a young man of fine character and was a popular member of the Charlotte street Baptist church and the Y. M. C. A. Previous to his illness he had been in the employ of Emerson & Fisher, Ltd. Besides his parents he leaves to mourn one brother, Carl, and one sister, Beatrice, both of this city. They will have the deep sympathy of many friends. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2.30.
THAT CASE OF DESTITUTION
With reference to a pathetic case mentioned in a morning paper having been discovered by home visitation workers, the Times learns this morning that a city clergyman has been helping this family at intervals for twelve years; that he sent in two dollars worth of food Thursday morning and that three dollars worth was to be sent in by the municipal authorities this morning, and that the case is one of the hopeless kind which may have to be solved by the municipal home. The wife, who is in hospital, though still young, is the mother of eighteen children, of whom eleven are dead. The husband, now ill, is not at best a strong man. The family is destitute and the children in need of clothing as well as food, but it is not a lack of sympathy or help that has brought about present conditions. The helpers are in despair as to what should be done other than through the agency of the Municipal Home authorities.

BRING MANY OF POLICE TO COURT
All But One of Sergt. Rankine's Squad There on Traffic Cases.
Some taxi and jitney drivers appeared in the police court this morning to answer the charges of traffic violations. About fifteen policemen were present to prosecute the cases and in one instance, which a policeman was not present Sergeant Rankine, who is in charge of the North End, said that all policemen in his district, with the exception of this one were in court. He said he had to leave three to try to look after things while the others returned.
George McCarthy and Frank Donnelly were charged with not displaying license numbers on their taxis. The former said he had paid for his license and he would not get a license number from City Hall. He asked Magistrate Ritchie why they had taken his money for a license if they would not give him a number? In answer, the Magistrate said: "Do you think I will say anything against the Mayor or Chamberlain?" "I won't say a word. I want them to increase my salary." The defendant then said he was not going to be held up by a lot of old women at city hall." Both defendants were fined $10, which they paid under protest and the regular appeal. An extra dollar was collected and they departed.
M. F. Saunders was charged with operating a free bus without displaying his license number. He maintained that it was a private car and he did not have to have any license number. Home Visitation Great Success; More Than 62,300 People Visited

CLASSIFICATION WORK TODAY SHOWS LAST NIGHT'S ESTIMATES VERY CONSERVATIVE

More Than 28,600 Non-Church Members Express Preference for Some Church—Greatest Opportunity Ever Known—Workers Discover Needy Cases and Churches Quickly Heed—Work in Best Sections Shows Interest Never Before Realized.

All organizations, political and other-wise, have to bow to the Sunday school and church leaders of Saint John, when it comes to complete organization, thorough work and quick results. The Home Visitation of St. John and the adjoining sections yesterday afternoon was one of the greatest successes of any movement ever undertaken in the history of the city and when asked about the work, as compared to other cities, J. Shreve Durham, international superintendent of home visitation who has been in charge of the work in St. John, said that it was one of the very best pieces of work he had known, and that he could surely say it was one of the greatest successes, and there had been none greater.

The complete organization is shown by the fact that before ten o'clock last night every block in the city and suburbs was in the hands of the leaders, completed, except six, which were in a few districts where the population was heavy, and the churches were not so numerous. There were more visitors than were needed in the city as a whole, but visitors had been sent to the neighborhoods in which they had requested to work, and the leaders hoped to get the surplus workers to go to the more needy districts. Many went, but many thinking there were too many everywhere, went to their homes after seeing so many not needed in their sections.

Conservative Estimates made. No detailed tabulations of the people visited are made, since it is believed of greater value to get the cards into the hands of the pastors preferred at once, but thousands of cards from every section are carefully gone through to see if they are correctly filled out, and the average per card is made. More than 62,300 of the record cards have been filled out, and they average nearly four to a card, which makes the estimate of more than 250,000 people visited seem very conservative.

The large number of workers at the headquarters today find that the figures given on the estimates last night are even more than expected. In the evening sections responded in an even greater way than the centre of the city. Many more visitors were sent to the poorer sections of the city, and many more earnest workers that secured autos and used them to get to St. John and Little River covered their sections far out.

Local leaders say that the work of the Home Visitation is the greatest opportunity of the city's history. Fully 28,600 people who do not claim connection as members or communicants of any church, have expressed a preference for some faith or denomination, or for some pastor, priest or rabbi. All the pastors are planning to follow up the work promptly and prove to all these people how much their churches wish to welcome them.

BUSINESS IN CANADA BETTER

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—The general improvement noticeable for some time past in manufacturing, wholesale and even retail lines, still continues. ELEVATED TRAINS, FORTY FEET ABOVE GROUND, CRASHED

Twenty-five Persons Hurt and Hundreds Terrified in Smash-up—Wooden Train Crashed.

New York, Oct. 8.—Twenty-five persons were hurt and hundreds terrified at seven o'clock at night when a six-car elevated train crashed into a home-gone-crashed into a train stalled forty feet above the ground on the elevated structure at Roosevelt avenue and first street, Corona, L. I., on the line running from the Grand Central Station to Cortez.

The moving train was composed of wooden cars of the Second Avenue elevated line. It ran into a stalled Interborough train composed of steel coaches. The motorman's box on the front of the wooden train was crushed like an eggshell. The platform and much of the woodwork of the first car was shattered and it was scarcely lifted from the rails and left resting against the rear of the steel train. All the windows in the steel car were broken. Not a window in the wooden car was broken. Not a window in the wooden car was broken.

There is a slight curve where the collision occurred, but the impact was not strong enough to drive either train off the tracks. It was shortly lifted from the ground and was moved to a siding. The passengers could not tell whether they were to be hurried to the ground or to a new train. Fragments of wood and steel stuck out in all directions from the front of the first wooden car, came in contact with the third rail, which poured torrents of sparks over both trains.

Panic crowds darted towards the rear of the wooden one. Guards on the wooden train held the gates shut at first, because of the confusion and the women would jump to the street in fright from the sparks and glare. Finally, the passengers began to alight from the rear of the wooden train and back along the elevated structure.

The fire department had arrived at the meantime, but the tracks were too hot for the use of ambulances, and all were able to leave for home.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM PRESSES

Government and Labor Leaders Arrange Conference in England.

London, Oct. 8.—The pressure of the unemployment problem is steadily increasing, and intense anxiety is being maintained by labor organizations, manufacturers and the public, regarding a plan which the government is formulating to deal with it.

A joint conference of labor leaders yesterday accepted the prime minister's invitation to advise with the cabinet next week on the question, but the laborites revealed in an exchange of communications with Lloyd George their desire to begin discussions immediately. They contended merely to examine the government's proposal, explicitly dissociating themselves from responsibility for the policy to be adopted by the government.

Ben Tillett, Labor M. P., and organizer of the Dockers' Union, of which for many years he has been general secretary, in a manifesto last night declared: "Bankruptcy stares us in the face. This winter will be the testing time for working class organization. Every form of government is in a state of panic or ruin and whether it will be an imperial or national government, disaster impinges on the administration, but whatever the chaos of accumulated debts, labor and industry will have to meet the issue. He urges the co-operating of all trade unions to compel government assistance.

N. B. FARMER PUTS END TO HIS LIFE

Sends Bullet Through Heart; Lives Through.

Milford Gulliver, 86 Years Old, of Doyme Ridge, York County, Victim in Tragedy—Gave No Reason for Act.

Fredricton, N. B., Oct. 8.—A shocking fatality occurred at Doyme Ridge, York County, yesterday afternoon when Milford Gulliver, aged thirty-eight years, a farmer, shot himself through the heart and died soon afterward. According to information received he had been out attending to duties about the farm when he returned to the house and asked his wife for the rifle. She gave it to him, thinking he was going out to shoot partridge. Just as he was leaving the house he made the remark: "This is the last time I will be back to this house." His wife did not think anything of this. He went to a knoll behind the barn, tied a piece of sheeting to the trigger, lay down on the knoll, pulled the string and shot himself through the heart, the shot coming out through the shoulder, tearing the ribs and leaving a gap in the heart.

A member of the family heard the shot and found him. A doctor was summoned but could do nothing for him. The shell, which was a 20 short shell with ball, made a hole in the heart that the doctor was able to place his finger in the wound and feel the heart working. He lived between two and three hours, and while he never lost consciousness he gave no reason for the rash act.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1921

A VIGOROUS REPLY TO REV. H. T. ROE

The Wesleyan Urges New Brunswick Readers to Support Prohibition.

(The Wesleyan.)

The Rev. Harold T. Roe, in his "Notes and Notions," in The Halifax Herald, makes a strong impeachment of prohibition, especially as it is enforced in Halifax and Dartmouth. No doubt there is some reason for disappointment in the present effect of prohibition but not for any one who made any serious study of the situation immediately preceding the enactment of prohibition.

On the plea of "personal use" vast quantities of intoxicants were brought into the province for illicit sale rather than personal use, and until that supply would be practically exhausted it was expected that it would give evidence of itself as it is doing in the larger centres. When he says "I am not criticizing police officials or liquor vendors," we presume he is criticism prohibition itself. When he says: "Prohibition has driven liquor from the front room to the back alley," we thank God for that. We have just returned from a country where the cursed traffic flaunts itself in the most public and prominent places, with its saloons thronged with men and women, served by alluring bartenders, and we said to God we belong to a country where the demoralising business is driven from the highways and the streets along which our young people pass, an outlaw to be hunted in the back alleys and dark dens not generally frequented by our people. When he says of prohibition, "It has piled foul harpies who peddle rot-gut and embalming fluid we wonder how he can ever commend the Ten Commandments. We venture the assertion that for every time the prohibition law is violated in Halifax and Dartmouth the commandment against profane swearing, against taking the name of God in vain, is violated a thousand times. Will he then slur God for the enactment which makes blasphemers, who would not know this sin were it not for the law? Would he abrogate the decalogue because it drives theft, and whomsoever and murder to "the back alley?" When we read "Notes and Notions," were is not for the name of the author, at top and bottom, we would have said "An enemy hath done this," the "notions" savored so much of the paid advertising matter against prohibition now appearing in some of the St. John papers. Did we not know better, when we read "speaking personally, I have yet to find a man who does not know where to get liquor (of a sort) if he wants it," we might suppose that our friend makes "notions" are the result of a fit of pessimism because of the lamentable evasions of the law which prevails and which to some extent must be expected. Nevertheless, it is for all patriots and lovers of their kind to make their best endeavor to completely banish this evil from our land.

At the Ecumenical Conference there were more than two hundred delegates from the United States, Bishops, editors, pastors, judges, lawyers, and men of varied business, and one and all proclaimed prohibition in the United States notwithstanding much evasion and violation, as an unquestioned blessing to the nation, not only from a moral, but also from an economic standpoint. Going over in the boat we had conversation with a gentleman who said "I was very fond of a cocktail, but my nation has adopted prohibition. I believe it is in the best interests of the whole people, and I have become a teetotaler."

Then let all our New Brunswick readers do their best to roll up a great majority for prohibition on the 10th inst.

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir,—Kindly publish the following telegram received this afternoon from the Rev. Harold T. Roe concerning statements alleged to have been made by him.

Sincerely,
R. G. FULTON,
Halifax, Oct. 7, 1921.

My article in Herald is not to be taken as an attack on prohibition but on the lack of law enforcement in Halifax and Dartmouth. I was getting after the "higher-ups" and those who wink at the law here, resulting in the conditions I set forth. Every sane man knows that prohibition, rigidly enforced, is the only way to rid the country of the liquor curse. Regret the wilful misuse of extracts from my article by unscrupulous liquor interests in your city. Please publish this.

HAROLD T. ROE.
Inspector Caples of the local police force, is at present away on his holidays and is not being taken by Sergeant Scott, who is acting as inspector.

CLEAR IN ONE CASE; JAILED IN ANOTHER

St. Catharines, Oct. 8.—Thomas Wright of Port Dalhousie was fined $200 and costs for a breach of the O. T. A. License Inspector J. W. King and Chief of Police David Kaye of Port Dalhousie testified that they visited Wright's place some time ago and found a couple of barrels of wine in the cellar. Being suspicious, they went back a few days later, and neither wine nor barrels were there. So a charge of having liquor for sale was laid against Wright, and he was summoned to court. Taking the stand in his own defense this afternoon, Wright made the surprising plea that he had stolen two barrels of wine from another man's cellar, and the latter finding it out, had given him so many hours to put the barrels back, failing in which he would prosecute Wright for theft.

"So I got a truck and took the barrels back and put them where I got them," said Wright. He was corroborated in this by the owner, who went on the stand.

Magistrate Campbell said the charge of having liquor for sale could not hold, in view of that evidence, whereupon another charge was laid against Wright of having liquor other than in a private house. The offense was committed when Wright was driving the liquor back, and he was convicted on his own evidence. As he had not the money to pay the fine he was sent to jail for three months.

The original owner of the wine suspected Wright had stolen it, from reports he heard of men getting drunk in Wright's house.

WOODSTOCK LADY A CANDIDATE

Fredericton, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Minnie Bell Adney, of Woodstock, wife of Lieut. Tappan Adney, R.C.E., who offered as a candidate in the by-election that followed the resignation of Hon. F. B. Carvell as minister of public works to become chairman of the railway commission, has decided to offer in Carleton-Victoria riding as a Liberal candidate in the dominion elections.

J. D. O'Connell addressed a large meeting in the Temple Hall, Main street, last night in the interests of the prohibition of importation of liquor. A capacity audience listened to Mr. O'Connell's stirring address with evident appreciation. W. H. MacDonald was chairman of the meeting and Captain Kinney also gave a much applauded speech.

"Built-in-Canada"

This is a Studebaker Year

For the first eight months of 1921, *

Total sales of Studebaker Cars were:
41% MORE than for the same period of 1920.
101% MORE than for the same period of 1919.

But total sales of Repair Parts were:
13% LESS than for the same period of 1920.
3% LESS than for the same period of 1919.

While the total numbers of Studebaker Cars sold were:
326,000 up to September 1st, 1919.
375,000 up to September 1st, 1920.
442,000 up to September 1st, 1921.

Summing up 116,000 more Studebaker Cars were maintained in operation with 3% less parts business than two years ago, which conclusively proves that—
Studebaker Cars are standing up in service and staying out of repair shops, to a degree unexcelled, we believe, by any cars of whatever price.

MADAM SLOAT

Perth Junction, N. B., Jan. 22nd, 1920. "For many years I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple, was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good. Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. So the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-tives" which I take regularly."

COST OF LIVING OUTPACED WAGES

Lot of Wage Earners Witnessed Little Material Improvement, Said Official—Industrial Problems.

(Montreal Gazette.) Industrial relations formed the theme of last night's discussion at the Canadian Conference on Public Welfare at the Windsor Hotel, when papers on the cost of living and wages, on industrial councils, and on the incentive of labor were read. The fact that considerable success had attended the formation of Whitney Councils in England and of Harvesters Councils in the United States and a representative of the Department of Labor while the president of the Ottawa Trades and Labor Council, J. A. P. Hayden, was emphatic in declaring that Canada had failed in her duty to enact legislation in accordance with the labor clauses of the Peace Treaty; also that trade unionism must always seek to remove as the incentive to labor the fear of the unemployment.

The session, which was well attended, was presided over by Senator Lorne C. Webster, who did not make any comments on the addresses. In introducing the chairman, Mr. Falk expressed regret that there was not present more of the "captains of industry," as he said unless these problems were faced by employers, they would encounter them in other ways.

In a paper on "The Cost of Living and Wages," Mr. C. W. Bolton, chief statistician of the Department of Labor at Ottawa explained by aid of wall charts, rises in cost of commodities, starting from 1910. Early in 1919 food and fuel had eased off a little for a time, but rent and clothing had again risen steeply and the upward movement continued until the middle of 1920, when food was 130 per cent. above 1913 prices, fuel 86 per cent., rent 32 per cent. and clothing 160 per cent. all items averaging 106 per cent. higher than in 1913. Food then began to fall somewhat steeply and clothing followed. Early in 1920 fuel began to fall and wood and coal were also down. Rentals continued to rise, but by July last food was only 60 per cent. above 1913 levels, fuel 97 per cent., clothing 73 per cent., rent 44 per cent. and all items 62 per cent.

Rise in Wages. Dealing with rise in wages, Mr. Bolton showed that by 1920 the average increase in hourly rates of wages for seven building trades over 1913 rates was 66 per cent. in five metal trades 109 per cent. in two printing trades 84 per cent., for street railway motormen and conductors 94 per cent.; the average increase for 21 classes being 90 per cent. Weekly rates rose slightly less owing to some reductions in hours. Statistics indicated that increases in wages for unskilled and semi-skilled.

Mr. T. A. Stevenson, of the Department of Labor, Ottawa, then read a paper on Industrial Relations, in which he explained and reviewed the formation of what are known as the Whitney Councils in England and the Harvesters Council in the United States, for the joint management of industries as far as the welfare of employees concerned. Under the Whitney plan he said three and a half million workers had been working satisfactorily. But the mining, transportation and dock interests had not gone in under that plan, and there had been more unrest and strikes in those industries than any other of late. That plan had arisen out of an inquiry by a Royal Commission into the best way to allay labor unrest. The Harvesters plan, called after the International Harvesters Company, was a voluntary effort and its success was seen in the fact that there had been only one deadlock in a year and a half, which was settled by compromise. That plan had been adopted by other corporations, including the International Harvester Company of Hamilton, Ont., Massey-Harris, of Toronto, the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, the Bell Telephone Company, the Gutta-Percha Company and others. The speaker also referred to the success of the Canadian Railway Board of Adjustment No. 1. He advocated these joint industrial councils on the ground that it was better for employers and employed to keep in con-

Why It Costs You Too Much To Live

The trend of living costs, as the Baltimore Sun observes, "is the most important issue in the average household of America today." When, therefore, this trend is upward, especially in foodstuffs, as during the past few weeks, father and mother naturally wonder a bit anxiously if this upward trend indicates the end of price reductions in many lines and the beginning of a new era of increasing costs. If prosperity is waiting for prices to come down where people can buy, then the reverse movement has a meaning to every one—banker, merchant, or toiler—and if the toiler happens to be among the millions of unemployed, his interest in this subject is apt to be especially acute. Reasons for the recent advance, from profiteers to short crops, come from all sides. The 70-per cent. increase in the price of cotton, thus giving Southern farmers more money to spend, is also advanced as a reason by Wallace's Farmer (Des Moines). "Labor costs, coal costs, high interest rates, and high freight rates"—each has contributed to the rise in food costs, maintains the Memphis Commercial Appeal, which further declares that "war profiteers are seizing upon a natural demand to advance prices."

A careful examination of the editorial pages of newspapers in all parts of the United States has been made by The Literary Digest, with a view toward seeking the causes of high living costs, the tendencies for a rise or drop in them, and the remedies suggested for the relief of the public.

In the leading article of The Literary Digest this week, October 8th, the result of this examination is presented, and it makes enlightening reading, indeed.
