Pope's Allocation Refers to Privileged Position of Jews in Palestine—Diplomatic Relations With Holy See.

Rome, June 14.—Three Italian cardinals were added to the sacred college yesterday when Pope Benedict, in a secret consistory, received the resignation of Monsignor Giovanni Tacci Porcelli, the papal major domo, Monsignor Camillo Laurenti, secretary of the congregation of the Propaganda, and Monsignor Achille Ratti, papal nuncio to Poland.

The ceremony was most solemn and picturesque, but none of the ordinary spectators who usually attend consistory functions were permitted to attend. All the cardinals of the three great orders of cardinals, priests, deacons and monks were in Rome assembled in the Hall of the Consistory, where their gorgeous robes made a splendid picture.

Pope Benedict, surrounded by his Swiss and noble guards, and followed by the Sistine Choir, and reading an allocation, the Pontiff proceeded to announce the names of the new cardinals, asking for each the approval of the members of the sacred college.

ST. JOHN MAN IN HORRORS OF PUEBLO FLOOD

Writes of Fearful Scenes of Death and Ruin.

River Raged Through City, Fire Added to Fearful Conditions—Some Experiences in Which He Had Part.

A St. John man has just received the following letter from a relative in Pueblo, Colorado, dated June 5, and mailed two days later:

"I write a tale of desolation, destruction and death, with all the forces of Hell turned loose to wreak vengeance on this city. No water, no gas, no light of any kind, except a meager supply of candles and kerosene lamps; no bread, no heat, several hundreds drowned and the damned river rising again. Yesterday, I was much shaken and am not in normal condition of mind as I write. I cannot recount the horrors I saw yesterday while wading knee deep in oozy slime. Business blocks battered and pieces by floating trees and piles of burning lumber. Houses roaring like flames, my own in Fifth street in the worst part of the fire. However, I managed to get a bucket brigade under the direction of one or two firemen and the houses were finally saved with the exception of the barn which was burned. I had my houses well insured, and if they had burned I would have been much better off, but there are thousands of families homeless, and though it will cost me $500 plus to re-build, it is better so.

We are shut off from the outside world, no railroads, no telephones, no telegrams and food shortage threatened. The city is under martial law. Above rages a huge airplane most of the day and they drop us no papers, no one knows why. It is so dark as I write that I can scarcely see at three o'clock in the afternoon and here come the accused river again racing up Fourth street, the levees being gone. No one could imagine the amount of silt carried by the river. No one could hear without being moved to desperation the tales told me yesterday, as I waded in the mud. There have been here thirty years and know the bulk of the business and poor people, where the rain is. Friday night, June 3, a heavy rain fell, and the water rose and deluge I cannot describe. The water rose higher by ten feet than our last flood in 1894, the sky was a lurid brightness, with flames. The King lumber yard had an unslacked lime warehouse, and when the water struck it the whole plant was fired. Piles of burning lumber drifted off in the ten foot current and stacked against the poor little homes in Peppersauce. I watched the disaster in the deluge and of course was almost drowned from the down pour from overhead. The boat kept arriving with poor wretches, mostly children, pale, well high gone. Today I am tired and sore and filled with horror. Hope they will not ask me to identify any of the dead.

DIVIDED ON THE IRISH QUESTION

Breach Over Course in Labor Parliament. Demand That Two "Official Resolutions of Irish Republic" be Used—Boycott Proposed, Some Against It.

Denver, Colo., June 14.—Efforts to prevent a widening of the breach between the two factions of Sinn Fein sympathizers among the delegates was being made today at the opening of the second session of the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

When the committee started to work, T. J. Vine of Chicago, secretary of the labor bureau of the American commission of Irish independence, served notice that two "official resolutions of the Irish republic" must be incorporated in the resolution, or he would act independently in presenting the documents to the convention.

The "official resolutions" called for a boycott, not only of British-made goods, but on all products made by British capital, and the boycott of British insurance companies and similar business organizations. They also provided that the executive council of the federation shall immediately compile a list of British-made goods and firms backed by British capital and send it to every one of the members of organized labor in the U. ASKS THAT SIMS BE BARRED AS AN UNDESIRABLE ALIEN

Washington, June 14—Representative Gallivan of Boston introduced a resolution in the House on Friday, which, in the ordinary course, will be referred to the Committee on Immigration, to prevent Rear Admiral William S. Sims from returning to the shores of America, on the ground that he is an "undesirable alien."

Whereas, one William Sowden Sims, a foreign-born citizen of the United States, but now connected, unhappily and unfortunately, with the naval establishment of this country, in a speech in London, Eng., recently made a most vicious and un-American attack upon 18,000,000 citizens of this great republic in an apparent attempt to arouse the hatred of the English populace against America; and

Whereas, on other occasions said Sims publicly stated that in case of a war between the United States and Great Britain one British ship could easily dispose of four or five American ships of corresponding type; and

Whereas, repeatedly the said Sims has publicly depreciated his superior officers in the naval establishment and the character and quality of the government of this republic; be it

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said Sims by his many attacks on the citizenship of America and the naval establishment of this country, has shown himself really to be an undesirable alien; and, be it further

Resolved, That the readmittance of said Sims to any port of entry of this country is absolutely forbidden."

THE SIMS RECALL

Washington, June 13—Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, introduced today a resolution requesting President Harding to inform the senate whether "there is as much reason and justification for a reprimand of the recall of Ambassador George W. Harvey for his Pillgrim's Day speech of May 19, 1921, as for the reprimand or recall of Admiral William S. Sims for his speech of June 7, 1921."

FIRESTONE PUTS PRICES ON BASIC LEVEL

Prices for Firestone tires are now on the level that would be in effect if their Canadian factory were actually in operation.

When the Firestone Company entered Canada they expected to be producing a Canadian-made tire this summer. Unavoidable delays have retarded construction so that this is not possible. About two million dollars have already been invested in the Canadian plant and construction is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

However, the company has decided to place their prices on the same level as if their Canadian plant were operating. This will be a decided advantage to Canadian car owners who now need pay no more for the Firestone quality that has made these tires known the world over as giving most miles per dollar.

BOLSHEVIK EYES ARE ON CONSTANTINOPLE

TIME TO WAKE UP.

Unless those who know what the harbor commission act really means, and how its adoption would injuriously affect the interests of St. John, bestir themselves, the vote on August 1st may go in favor of commission and against the interests of the port.

CHURCH UNION.

Discussing the subject of church union the Montreal Herald recalls an utterance of the late Dr. George M. Grant, and says: "For breadth of vision, boldness of conception and courage of conviction on the question of church union, we must salute the memory of that great Presbyterian leader in Canada, George M. Grant, who held the view, and publicly expressed it, that whatever else Canada needed she demanded peace between Protestants and Roman Catholics as a necessary condition of strength and unity."

CO-OPERATION AND WORK.

M. Wallenberg, president of the Stockholm, Sweden, Chamber of Commerce, in an address last week before the New York Chamber of Commerce, offered this remedy for the disturbed conditions in the industrial, financial and commercial world today: "The sooner we stop theorizing and get to work—hard work—keeping our hands and minds engaged, we will restore confidence. Too many people have time to theorize on depression and too little time to work. Stop theorizing and do something."

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

The conference of Dominion premiers in London has given rise to a great deal of discussion in the press, and many assertions that are without foundation. There will be no attempt by the imperial government to lead the Dominions into a course that would not be approved by the people of the different portions of the Empire.

QUEBEC LIQUOR QUESTION.

Quebec, June 14.—(Canadian Press)—The Quebec board of trade yesterday made public a letter from Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, in reply to a telegram regarding the suspension or repeal of the Scott Act, stating that "there is no power in the governor-in-council to suspend the act, and the question of its repeal in Quebec remains to be determined by parliament as provided by law."

THE PATH OF LABOR.

Never in a costly palace did I rest on golden bed, Never in a hermit's cavern have I eaten idle bread. Born in a lowly stable, where the cattle round me stood, Trained a carpenter in Nazareth, I have toiled and found it good. They who treat the path of labor follow where my feet have trod; They who work without complaining do the holy will of God.

LIGHTER VEIN.

WESTERN METHODISTS CONCERNING OUR HARBOR.

To the Editor of the Times-Star: Sir—A writer in the Globe thinks we ought to put the harbor in commission. There is no doubt some people in Montreal who say "You can fool some people all the time, and you can fool all the people some time, but you cannot fool the people the time." If the citizens of St. John allow our harbor to go into the proposed commission all the people will be fooled for all time.

NEW METHODS OF HEALTH TEACHING

Novel Demonstrations Planned for Tuberculosis Association Meeting Opened in New York.

New York, June 14.—Up-to-the-minute methods of teaching health principles to children will be shown in the seventeenth annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association which opened here today.

Marionette shows, a cardboard theatre, motion pictures and pageants are some of the novel schemes to be advanced for inculcating in the minds of children the value of strict adherence to health principles.

The history of the National Tuberculosis Association will be presented before the convention Thursday night through the medium of a pageant entitled "The Crusade of the Double Barred Cross."

"Humpty-Dumpty," the clown employed by the association, will, by lever clowning, show how to teach children the proper rules of health and hygiene.

Poster exhibits, newspaper publicity, moving picture schemes and various other ways of teaching health principles will be subjects for discussion throughout the meeting.

Dr. Gerald B. Webb of Colorado Springs, president of the association, will open the meeting tomorrow afternoon with his annual address to the 300 representatives who will attend the session.

Dr. Charles P. Hatfield, managing director of the association, will report on the work of the organization in various parts of the country during the year.

Tomorrow night's meeting of the advisory council will include a symposium on federal provision for tuberculosis for soldiers and sailors. The speakers will be: Dr. Haven Emerson of New York, medical advisor to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance; Dr. F. C. Smith of the United States Public Health Service; Uel W. MAGNA CHARTA DAY WARMLY APPROVED

Celebration Endorsed by Prominent Statesmen of the Empire and United States.

The movement proposed some years ago for an annual observance of Magna Carta Day, June 15, by the English-speaking nations, is endorsed by the owing and by many others:

United States. See Admiral Sims—"You have my warmest sympathy and approval." Mr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, New York—"I commend earnestly your suggestion that the anniversary of Magna Carta should be annually celebrated throughout the English-speaking world as the occasion of a re-dedication of the English-speaking peoples to the great and lasting principles of liberty which they give the plan their cordial support. Cyrus Northrup, President of the University of Minnesota—"I fully approve an annual convention of English-speaking nations." Hop Samuel Fallows, the Reformist Church, Chicago—"I am fully in favor of the annual commemoration. We must be firmly united to the peace and progress of the world." John Grier Hibben, President of Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.—

"GEE! I'D CLEAN FORGOT YOU."

—Washburn in Pittsburg Post.

"I approve heartily of this enterprise, and wish you all success in it." Dr. W. O. Thompson, President of Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio—"Your proposal has my most cordial approval. The permanent good-will and mutual understanding between all these nations is of the utmost importance to the progress of the world and to its future peace." Chas. C. Meurisse, Supreme President of the Sons of St. George, Chicago, has endorsed the plan as has the Supreme Secretary. James B. Forgan, President First National Bank, Chicago—"The plan is a very good one, and I hope it may be inaugurated." Canada. "Ralph Connor"—"The Anglo-Celtic nations are united in their devotion to the ideals of justice and right in the guidance of human affairs. Anything that gives visibility to this union of sentiment, anything that tends to crystallize this continent cannot fail to promote the well-being of the world. Your suggestion of an annual commemoration day for the seven English-speaking nations, and that the day be the 15th of June, Magna Carta Day, wins my entire approval." Sir Robert L. Borden—"Your purpose commands my fullest sympathy, and an annual holiday in commemoration of a century of peace has much to commend it." Sir Wilfrid Laurier thought that the plan would be conducive to the highest possible development of civilization. Archbishop Hamilton, Ottawa—"Permit me to express my appreciation of the good influence which will be exercised by an annual English-speaking holiday." Hon. Sir Hugh John Macdonald, Winnipeg—"I have no hesitation in saying that your object has my sympathy and I wish you every success." Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King—"The idea of an annual holiday in commemoration of the anniversary of one hundred years of peace is one which will commend itself to many." Major General Sir Sam Hughes—"I think this is a splendid idea." Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Senator—"Your idea is a splendid one." One of the leading Chief Justices—"I am most cordially in favor of any plan which will draw together the English-speaking peoples. The centenary should be perpetual. The time must come when some statesmen more fortunate even than President Monroe will lay down the doctrine that between the English-speaking nations war is impossible." Lord Roberts—"I sympathize with your desire to see one day set aside on which English-speaking nations could celebrate their common ideals." Lord Fisher of Kilverstone—"Am in entire accord with your plan." Earl of Kintore—"I am in cordial sympathy with your idea to keep alive and foster the great progress in drawing our nations together. Such a day would assuredly have its effect upon Europe and Asia." Viscount Bryce—"Your plan interests me greatly, and I am suggesting it to the British committee." PHOTOGRAPHY TO REPLACE PRINTING?

London, May 27.—(A. P. by mail.)—Suggestion that printing from type is likely to be superseded was made by William Gamble at the recent World's Congress of Printers held here in connection with the International Printing and Allied Trades exhibition. Mr. Gamble said that at least three inventors were trying to develop a photographic process to take the place of printing from type. He predicted that the machines for printing by photographic process would hardly occupy more space than a typewriter nor be any more complicated. He expressed the opinion that eventually the great printing presses in newspaper offices would give place to smaller, swift-running and comparatively noiseless machines which would turn out printed matter with almost the same facility as the moving picture operator reels off his film.

WANT NEW STYLE OF FURNITURE

Paris, May 16.—(Associated Press, By Mail.)—A new style in furniture was demanded by representatives of the French furniture at the Furniture Congress recently held here. Architects are blamed by the president of the Furniture Makers' Association for the continued production of false Louis XV, Louis XVI, and other styles of antiques. They design interiors to go with such furniture and naturally the manufacturers have to meet the demand, he says. The president proposed that the teachers in the fine arts school should begin the campaign for a modern original style by inspiring original ideas under the general direction of a committee composed of artists, architects and furniture makers. He hopes this method will produce an entirely new style that will mark this epoch as did the styles of the two Louises of the Empire and the Renaissance.

PARROT HALTS CHICAGO TRAFFIC

Owl Adds to the Confusion—Monkey Steals Gems for Organ Grinder.

Chicago, June 14.—Here is a tale of the windy city. Yesterday when thousands of automobiles were rushing through Evanston, the drivers were disconcerted by orders from an unseen officer: "Not so fast, go slow, stop."

Traffic was jammed for blocks, while trade chafers sought to find the reason for the snarl. Finally the chief of police despatched his reserves to solve the mystery. They found swinging in a tree a parrot, which was issuing the orders, while in a neighboring tree, a pet owl was whistling, with the result that motorists were at a loss which order to obey.

After chasing the parrot and owl from their perches, the officers rounded up an organ grinder, who had trained his monkey to climb into windows and pass out articles of value. The police intercepted the animal as he was descending with a valuable vase and a lavalliere he had stolen from a bedroom.

TO DEVELOP THE INLAND WATER ROUTES OF U. S.

More Attention to be Given by House and Senate to the Matter—High Rail Rates One of the Factors.

Washington, June 14.—(By Canadian Press) Increased attention is to be given en by Congress to inland water transportation from this time forth. This is the word that comes from prominent members of both houses who have been giving thought to the general transportation problem of the United States.

For some years in congress it has been the fashion to criticize the river and harbor bill as a "pork barrel" measure. This criticism in the case of some appropriations has been well founded, but at the same time it has operated to prevent waterway improvements that have deserved to be carried ahead.

Modern milling of the world's best wheat, naturally produces the world's best flour.

Ask your grocer for the best and he will sell you

PURITY FLOUR "More Bread and Better Bread"

"Right Here" We want to repeat once again that for downright irresistible quality and value in Tea—

ity of the roads to waterway development. But the high rail rates, the seeming inability of the railroads to give the service the public demands, and the very evident fact that with the development of the country there will be traffic for both the rails and the waterways, in plenty, are serving to bring about a different attitude in congress toward river and harbor appropriations.

Such projects as the development of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence waterway to the gulf and a number of others that might be mentioned, according to all signs, are going to be given serious consideration in this congress and efforts made to get them under way and to the stage where they are not merely subjects for stump speeches and after-dinner oratory.

The whole country about the Great Lakes and throughout the Mississippi valley is interested in seeing a large amount of boat traffic go over the lakes and get to the eastern coast by the Erie and St. Lawrence routes. The pressure for this from chambers of commerce and business organizations is growing. This pressure is felt in congress. Representative Sweet, a prominent member of the house interstate commission, said recently it was imperative that congress give close and intelligent attention to inland waterway transportation from now on.

COST SMALL FORTUNE TO DISMANTLE BIG WHEEL

Paris, May 26.—(Assoc. Press, by mail) The great Ferris wheel, erected near the Champ de Mars for the exposition of 1900, and long since condemned to destruction, now stands like a partially dismantled skeleton in midair, minus its cars and lacking a part of the huge rim.

It is propped up by a system of scaffolding that cost nearly $50,000, and, at the equivalent of nearly $100,000 more in labor and lumber, promises to remain indefinitely in its present partial dilapidation.

The contractor who invested the large sums for dismantling it expected to make a profit out of the old steel, but finding no buyers, is willing to stand his loss and let anyone else try.

"MOST CHEERFUL MAN IN RUSSIA"

Lenin, Head of Bolsheviks, Works Hard but Has Many Diversions—Leads a Simple Life.

Reval, Estonia, May 26.—(Associated Press, By Mail)—Nikolai Lenin, head of the Russian Bolshevik government, has recently developed a liking for wolf-hunting. According to recent arrivals from Moscow, Lenin in company with Krikenko, one of the Red Army leaders, has just returned after a wolf drive at Zhabovo.

Those who know Lenin most intimately declare that despite the numerous crises through which he has had to lead the Bolshevik regime, he is still perhaps the "most cheerful man in Russia."

He preserves his continual good humor by shielding himself closely from detailed work when in his office at the Kremlin, devoting his time to the big problems of government and to the preparation of his speeches and pamphlets in which he advocates numerous changes from his old strict communistic policy.

Between labor hours when in his office he reads novels and socialistic works by foreign authors in the original French, English and German, and also keeps in touch with the principal works on other subjects.

It is said that he continues to live simply, in striking contrast to some minor Bolshevik officials who occupy luxurious quarters. Lenin and his wife have only a few rooms.

Mrs. Lenin, say those who know her, disagrees quite strongly with her husband on many political subjects, being more of the social revolutionist type, advocating slower change than Lenin's Communism. However, it is said they get along excellently.

LOST MUCH TIME THROUGH STRIKES

55,000,000 Days was the Price Paid in Italy Last Year for Labor Troubles.

Rome, May 26.—(A. P., by mail)—Italy lost 55,000,000 days of work last year because of strikes, according to figures just published by the ministry of labor. This time includes labor disorders of every kind—wage disputes, loss occasioned by the occupation of the factories by workmen from last July to September and disorders in the farming districts.

Wage disputes caused the major part of the loss, with 16,000,000 days. The Communist agitations of last year when the factories were occupied are calculated to have resulted in 10,000,000 lost days. Political strikes and other disorders not included in the other classes are said to have lost 15,500,000 days.

The textile workers engaged in 212 strikes, the largest number in any trade, throwing out of work nearly 150,000 workmen. The most costly dispute was that of the transportation workers who had 107 strikes, affecting 241,359 workmen and losing 2,523,057 days of work.

JUGOSLAVIA'S NEW CONSTITUTION

Belgrade, May 26.—(Associated Press, By Mail)—Jugoslavia's new constitution, recently adopted in principle by its parliament, sets up a hereditary, constitutional monarchy to be known as "The State of Serbs, Croats and Slovenians," Peter Karageorgewitch (King of Serbia) is formal emperor, with King Peter the First and Prince Alexander, the regent, as heir apparent. The crown will descend in the male line, with the prince's heirs fixed at 18 years.

A single chamber is provided in the constitution. Deputies are to be elected by direct, secret ballot for four years and by universal suffrage, with a deputy for each 50,000 inhabitants.

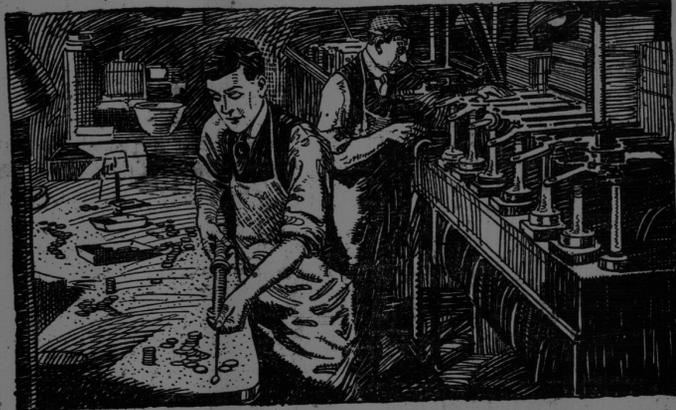

To co-operate the varied legislation and governments of the countries now grouped in a federation, a constitutional committee will sit for five years, empowered to offer codifying laws that must be either accepted or rejected by the Chamber.

Minorities and religious cults are protected but the clergy is prohibited from using its offices in partisan politics.

The King's power is limited in several directions. He has the right of amnesty and pardon, except in case of aggression against the state or a declaration of war against it.

The King's person is inviolable but suits may be brought against him where his private property is concerned. The King may not become the head of another state without the consent of the people's representatives.

 "I sold a house the day before the flood to Jackson, a huge negro. The flood drifted away while his wife and he watched it from a tree. His wife, a heavy woman, became exhausted with cold and beating rain, dropped out of the tree he saw her no more. I heard a tale of belief in God that amazed me, especially what he claimed was the direct result of prayer. A poor woman (white) gave birth to a child at 3 p. m. Thursday, June 2, at 7 p. m. came warning from the shrieking of the siren of the awful flood. He staid until the last one of his neighbors called to him to higher ground, telling them that his wife could not be moved. Then came the fierce rush of waters and he had the bed taken into the attic of their home which was only one-story in height. The water rose to the bed, his wife calmly said: 'If it is the will of God, we shall live. He grasped a bed and beat a hole through the roof. The Methodist minister, who knew their awful plight arrived at the same moment and pulled the boat landed there all safely on higher ground and mother and child are doing well at the hospital. The man, Harrison, told me this with his own mouth, and further stated that he had just been able to get into his own house and recover $50 in cash and a gold watch. The house was tilted at such an angle that he wondered how he got in looking at the roof wondered still more how they escaped through that roof. The location was about 615 W. 6th, just one block north of my two houses."
 "As I write, the river is racing again through the town and it may reach my office yet; so far in the morning the curb. The loss will run into many millions of dollars. The lightning is flashing and the deluge is on. May need Noah's Ark to get out of this. Enough for now."
 "The third day—Am in bad shape with rheumatism in my back, right hand and legs. It was one of our black nights about twenty-four hours long, with rain descending in torrents; for some unknown reason the third flood last night did not come up quite so high and there were no fires. From a slip of paper gotten out on a hand press, we learn that two trains which turned over before getting out of the city when the flood overtook them did not have all their passengers drowned, as first reported. Four babies were born in the court house last night, all boys who should practise law when they grow to manhood. Trenches have been dug not alone for burying the dead animals. Modern sanitation is a failure just for the time being."
 "The Denver people spread the report that we had 2,000 drowned; I guess the number at maybe 200 to 300. The governor proclaimed martial law and sent two Denver troops on army trucks; also other troops overland, there being no chance of railroad transportation. It took the Denver boys twenty-four hours to get here and they built four pontoon bridges in the last twenty miles. We are glad to see them. They brought some drinking water, which of course did not come up quite so high and there were no fires. UNION CASE IN THE COURT TODAY

Longshoremen's President Concludes Evidence—Grocers Testify About Joseph Elliott and Checks.

The case of C. G. Langbier, charged with embezzlement from the International Longshoremen's Union, was continued this morning in the police court. J. J. Donovan, president of the union, continued his evidence. Having completed the survey of the minute books and financial statements, he said that previous to May 1 the salary of the secretary-treasurer was $40 a week. On the evening of May 10, he said that while working at the sugar refinery wharf, Langbier was down to see him. "Jerry, I'm in wrong," Langbier had said to him and then announced that Mr. Reicker told the witness that he had found the accused was short in his accounts to the amount of between $700 and $800. The witness said that he returned to work and met the accused about 11:30 that night when the latter gave him the keys to the office and safe and asked him not to do anything in the matter until the following Monday. The case was again postponed until 12 o'clock on Thursday and the magistrate suggested that in view of the financial statements and the manner in which the books were kept, both sides should get together in the meantime and endeavor to get the case fixed up as speedily as possible. The evidence given to date, it looked as if the accused had not defaulted through any criminal intent.

A case against Joseph Elliott, charged with passing bogus checks, was taken up. F. S. Purdy, grocer, said that the defendant was in his store on the evening of May 21, and presented a check signed Mr. Smith of the Smith Brokerage Co., asking the witness to cash it. The check was for $22 and the witness cashed it. He deposited the check in the bank. He identified the check produced in court as that which the defendant had cashed in his store.

Irving D. Appleby, grocer, said the accused had cashed a check at his store on the evening of either May 28 or 29, for the sum of $12. The check had the name of Malcolm MacKay and the accused produced a letter of recommendation from Commissioner Thornton. The following morning he received a telephone message from the accused asking him not to present the check for payment as Mr. MacKay was transferring his account to another bank. The witness said this aroused his suspicions and he communicated with Commissioner Thornton and the police. He identified the check in court. Cross-examined by Colonel E. C. Weyman, who appeared for the defence, the witness said that Elliott told him if the check was not good he would be responsible.

H. R. Coleman told of the defendant being at his store and cashing the check early in May. A few days later, he said, the defendant telephoned him and asked him not to cash the check, and he worked in an aim to fix it up. The defendant did not do so, and so he reported the matter to the police.

D. Masdovecchio testified that the defendant had asked him to cash a check for $170 and upon his being unable to do so, got $15 from him, allowing witness to hold check as security. Upon enquiry at the bank he said he found there were no funds to meet the check and defendant rang him by telephone and asked him to hold the check for a few days. The case was postponed.

A charge was brought by the S. P. C. against Edward Dumphrey, driver for C. H. Peters, for overloading his horse. Policeman Howard made the report and the accused said he had been ordered to take the load by his boss, Mr. O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien was summoned to court and told that he did not consider the load too heavy for the horse. A fine of $50 was struck against both O'Brien and Dumphrey, but was allowed to stand.

One man charged with drunkenness was remanded.

THE JUNE BRIDES

Ruske-Long
 A wedding of interest took place in the Douglas avenue church this morning at seven o'clock when Miss Margaret Long, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Long of Exmouth street, was united in marriage to John Campbell Ruske, assistant manager of the Ford Motor Co., St. John branch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. B. Appel. The bride wore a sand colored suit with picture hat and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Ruske left on the Digby boat and after an automobile trip through the Annapolis valley will return to St. John. They will reside at 88 Wright street. Many friends extend best wishes for a long and happy life filled with happiness.

WILL BENEFIT THE NORTH END

The programme of water main renewals which Commissioner Jones is now carrying out should prove of great benefit to the north end. Practically the last link in a continuous service through a pipe at least twelve inches in diameter will be the new pipe in Celebration street which the council approved yesterday.

The service to the North End is supplied through a 16-inch main in City Road, thence by a 12-inch pipe up Clyde street near Christie's factory. This joins the 8-inch pipe now in Celebration street which is to be replaced by a 12-inch line which will extend across Stanley street. The 12-inch main in Paradise Row is a small section of 8-inch pipe which the commissioner proposes renewing with the larger size as soon as Celebration street is finished. This will make the enlarged service complete to the North End.

A Kitchen Cabinet Means Efficiency and Satisfaction

A KITCHEN CABINET is more than a "piece of kitchen furniture." In this age of efficiency and sanitation there is nothing which will take the place of this cabinet as a place to store your cooking ingredients and utensils.

IN TIMES GONE BY a CLEAN kitchen was all that was desired, but now we know that food and utensils exposed in the cleanest kitchen are in violation of the simplest laws of sanitation. The steps lost in the kitchen originated the drudge.

WE WANT YOU to see the Cabinets we have here for your inspection. No obligation entailed in a call.
