British Have Taken Famous Mt. Kemmel

Notable Success of Our Troops Is Continuing

More Important Places Are Captured In Spirited Rush—Dramoutre Among Them—French In Heavy Artillery Fighting

London, Aug. 31—(1.10 p.m.)—Mont Kemmel, the famous stronghold southwest of Ypres, which was the scene of terrible fighting during the German offensive in Flanders late in April, has been captured by the British, according to advices from the front.

Mont St. Quentin, a mile and a half north of Peronne, has been taken by Field Marshal Haig's forces.

The British have captured a strong point known as the St. Servin's farm, and the village of Eterigny, north of the Arras-Cambrai road and west of Arras.

London, Aug. 31—German troops have been driven from their positions east of Clerf, on the Somme, northwest of Peronne, and the British advance in this ally is continuing.

On the south side of the Lys salient the British have occupied the village of Courtrai, northeast of Belgium.

Troops of Field Marshal Haig crossed the Hindenburg line to the south of Bailleul yesterday. In the Lys salient the British forces are reported to have taken Nootte Boom, three miles south of Bailleul. The Germans have retreated from the town of Bailleul.

North of Soissons French troops today captured Hill 159, and they now hold all the high ground between Soissons and Leury, according to information received from the battlefield last evening.

London, Aug. 31—British forces have entered the village of Dramoutre, south of Clerf, on the north side of the Lys salient, according to the official statement issued by the war office today.

FRENCH REPORT Paris, Aug. 31—During the night there was heavy artillery fighting in the region of the Canal du Nord, north of Noyon and between the Ailette and the Sambre. German raids in the Champagne were unsuccessful.

With the French Army in France, Aug. 30—(By the Associated Press, London.) The French and American, under the command of General Mangin, advanced today on the plateau north of Soissons to the western edge of Coucy, taking the town and Chaulgny after very hard fighting.

Further north between the Ailette and the road from Coucy to Chaulgny, the struggle was equally severe. The French occupied Champs, the Daast Wood, Prast and Villette.

General Mangin has gained a strong foothold on the north bank of the Ailette and the plateau north of Soissons, occupying positions of great tactical interest with a view to future operations.

General Mangin's troops enlarged their positions around Noyon, completing the conquest of Mount St. Siméon, and capturing the greater part of Geny, after most desperate fighting. Several hundred prisoners were taken today.

The advance of the French eastward on the Canal du Nord was one of the most interesting features of the day's operations. They crossed the canal at two places, opposite Catigny and Beaurains, king Chevilly and Hill 80, which still remain in the western angle of the Ailette salient.

Further north the French advanced to the edge of the Canal du Nord, which they held over its entire distance from Noyon to Rouy-le-Grand, north of Neuf.

General Mangin's men are now firmly in possession of positions around Noyon without which the enemy cannot hope to cling long to this salient.

Very Important. With the French Army in France, Aug. 30—(Evening)—This evening there remains to the Germans no other position to fall back upon west of the Hindenburg line than a line running from Ham to Berles-lez-Traoui. The third army, continuing its progress of the early morning in the region of Noyon, has occupied Mont St. Siméon, while the Canal du Nord has been crossed at Chevilly. The extent of these gains in territory is insignificant, but strategically they are of great importance.

The loss of Mont St. Siméon means the loss to the Germans of the main defence point of the salient extending from the Canal du Nord to the Ailette, while the French retreating forces to quicken their light or suffer greater losses.

Several hundred prisoners were taken today. The advance of the French eastward from the Canal du Nord was one of the greatest of the present week.

DEFEAT FOR BOLSHIEVIKI

Allies' Forces Win Three Day Battle—Enemy in Flight

London, Aug. 31—The Daily Mail's Harbin correspondent, telegraphing on Thursday regarding the situation in Siberia, says the Bolshevik forces were defeated in a three days battle along the Ussuri River, losing 400 men killed. The correspondent adds that the Bolshevik troops are fleeing toward Khabarovsk and that the Japanese have occupied Iman, midway between Nikol and Khabarovsk.

Vladivostok, Aug. 26—Four hundred Soviet troops who joined the forces of Lieut-General Horvath, anti-Bolshevik leader, have been disarmed by the Allies pursuant to the decision of the Allied commanders to end an intolerable situation that promised to result in local disturbances.

Now Hear Boy-Ed With the American Army in France, Aug. 31—(By the Associated Press)—was a secret treaty between Great Britain and the United States that caused Germany's entry into the war, according to a book by Captain Karl Boy-Ed, former German naval attaché at Washington, whose book the subject has just been published in Berlin, according to a prisoner taken from the Russians.

NINE GERMAN CITIES BOMBED IN LAST WEEK

British Aerial Operations Grow More Intense

MANY HUN PLANES DOWNED

Total of 108 for 32 British Machines Lost—Coast Region Also Was Heavily Bombed

London, Aug. 30—The operations of the British air forces are steadily increasing in intensity and daring. During the last week seven raids were made into German territory and nine German cities were bombed, of which Mannheim provided the most striking example of the success achieved. The German defense tactics were temporarily demoralized and paralyzed by an unprecedented attack from bombing machines flying at house top level, to which is attributed the safe return of all the machines after the raid.

During the week 200 tons of bombs were dropped in the battle area alone, and by day and night vigorous attacks were made on railways and centres of communications behind the enemy lines.

The German retreat, which was accelerated by the increasing activity of the British airmen, who cooperated with the advancing infantry and tank units. Their attacks silenced many enemy batteries and overcame isolated centres of resistance by machine gun fire from a low height.

In aerial combats seventy-four enemy machines were destroyed and thirty-four driven down out of control, while thirty-two British machines were lost.

In the northern coastal region, many aerial attacks were made at Zebruggen, Ostend and Bruges, the latter being raided nine times. The intensive character of the attacks on these coastal fortresses is indicated by the record of the last three months, showing that Zebruggen was raided seventy-two times, Bruges, sixty-three and Ostend, sixty-down by us on August 29 and ten were again yesterday.

Eleven hostile machines were shot down and one of our own was lost. Nine of our machines are missing. Our airmen were actively engaged in all departments of their work throughout the day.

Fifteen and a half tons of bombs were dropped on a variety of targets including the Bruges dry docks and many railway connections beyond the battle zone. Unfavorable weather prevented night flying.

THE EMPIRE AND THE PAPERS

Cable and News Matters Discussed at Conference in London

London, Aug. 30—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuters' Limited)—The Australian, New Zealand and South African press men from overseas, and representatives of the British press met at the Savoy Hotel tonight to discuss matters of mutual interest.

Sir George Riddell urged the necessity of additional and cheaper cable services and referred to the publication of colonial matters in the London press.

He said it was most important that journalists and commoners should visit the dominions. He thought no man should be elected to parliament unless he had first visited the dominions.

At the press men's conference a resolution was carried urging the formation of an empire press union in an endeavor to secure better, cheaper and quicker facilities for the dissemination of news throughout the empire. Whatever cooperation the government gives should be limited, it was urged, to assisting in providing for such facilities. It was also urged that an endeavor should be made to induce the press of the United Kingdom to give more attention to news of the dominions.

German Resistance On Wings Increases; Quieter in Centre

Paris, Aug. 31—While the centre of the eighty mile battle line was relatively quiet, enemy resistance increased on both wings. He was unable, however, to quiet the progress of the Allies.

At the northern end General Horn and General Byng gained important ground for future operations by the taking of Bullecourt, the most solid position in that sector.

(Last night's British official statement admitted that the British troops had been forced to fall back to the western outskirts of Bullecourt.)

General Mangin attacked the southern end of the line. The region in which he is fighting forms an elbow where the line running from Dandrik to Noyon meets a line running at right angles across France to Nancy. This "finger" position is exceptionally strong since it is based north of Soissons on a high plateau overlooking the valley of the Aisne, to the south, and the Ailette, to the north. There are wooded ranges of hills in this country which dominate Laun, and serious defeat here would obliging the enemy to make a precipitate retreat and force him to abandon not only the line of the Vesle, but the three lines formed by the Aisne, the Chemin des Dames and the Ailette.

General Ludendorff, in consequence, has thrown in the best divisions he can muster. These are Alpine regiments, Prussian Guards and picked Bavarian and Saxon units.

STRIKE OF LONDON POLICE GROWS

Majority of the 22,000 Are Out—Labor Men Are in Sympathy

London, Aug. 31—The strike of London police spread steadily throughout the night and early today a majority of the 22,000 constables had joined in the movement. The City of London police joined the metropolitan forces last night and only a few members of the night shift came on duty at six o'clock, or appeared in the streets.

Following a meeting in the open air at Tower Hill, at which their grievances were discussed, 3,000 strikers in plain clothes paraded the streets. At the meeting it was decided that the executives of the policemen's union should today renew their request for permanent increases in wages.

Secretary Carmichael of the London Trades Council, and other labor leaders assured the strikers that organized labor is in sympathy with them. Mr. Carmichael declared that workmen stood ready to make Monday a general holiday as an expression of sympathy.

It was proposed at the meeting that the executives of the union go to Whitehall today and demand to see Premier Lloyd George. It was also resolved at the meeting that the police remain on duty at all governmental works in recognition, it was said, of the fact that the public appears generally to be in sympathy with the police, who it recognizes have always been under paid and that wages have not been increased during the war proportionately with those of other workers.

Like Days At Verdun

Germans Sacrificing Men Ruthlessly In Hope To Hold Ailette Positions

London, Aug. 31—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at French headquarters, writing of the slaughter in the fighting on the east bank of the Ailette, says:

"It is the old days of Verdun again. The Germans are resorting to their old methods of crowding men into the front lines rather than placing them in echelon in accordance with the more recent theory of the German high command. This probably is enabling them to hold the Ailette positions longer, but at a terrible sacrifice, as General Mangin's artillery is playing on them with deadly precision. The position is as important for the French to win as for the Germans to keep."

DELAYED RETREAT TOO LONG

Paris, Aug. 31—Conservative military opinion here views the situation with great satisfaction. It is felt the Germans delayed their retreat too long, and that they are fighting so hard and sacrificing men to gain time because the Hindenburg line is not yet ready.

Ready For New Loan—$1,200,000,000 in Saving Bank Deposits—Second Victory Loan Sure of Success

Ottawa, Aug. 30—That the Canadian public is preparing for the offensive now being planned by the national committee in charge of the forthcoming victory loan is strikingly indicated in the most recent bank statement issued by the treasury department here. It is highly probable that by the time the next loan campaign is launched, probably in October, there will be more money in the savings banks of Canada than ever before in the history of the Dominion, despite the fact that the Canadian people have subscribed $400,000,000 within the last ten months to finance Canada's effort in the war. At the end of July total savings in bank deposits in Canada were crowding the billion mark and within sixteen millions of the high level mark reached just before the payments of the first victory loan were due last autumn. In other words the public of Canada absorbed the greatest financial war issue ever issued in the country and during the process added over twenty-six million dollars to its credit balance in the Canadian chartered banks.

An Unprecedented Total. With approximately $400,000,000 coming into the pockets of the food producers of the Dominion for wheat alone, a great part of which will find its way in the ordinary course of events to the (Continued on page 2, second column)

Roush Pressing Wheat For First Place in the National—Figures of Players in the Big Leagues

Chicago, Aug. 31—Captain Tyrus Cobb, who this week stepped from the spot-light of baseball into the chemical industry of the army, took with him the 1918 batting honors of the American League. He had taken the first honors every year since 1914, with the exception of one season, when in 1916, Tris Speaker nosed him out. Cobb's average, according to figures released today, is .377. Burns, of Philadelphia, is second, with .346, and Geo. Sisler, of St. Louis, third, with .337.

Cobb, however, did not excel in base stealing, for Sisler, with a total of forty, leads by six over the Georgian. Chapman, of Cleveland, is sandwiched between them, with thirty-six. Chapman is leading in sacrifice hitting, with thirty-four, while Shean, of Boston, is close up with thirty-three, and Melvin, Boston, next with thirty. Babe Ruth, the Boston star, and Walker, of Philadelphia, remain tied for honors in home run hitting, with eleven each. Boston leads the league in club fielding, with an average of .971, but is sixth in batting, with .246. Cleveland, the runner-up in the race, tops the league in hitting with .263.

Batting honors in the National League race probably will not be decided until the final games of the season on Monday. Roush, Cincinnati, is pressing Wheat, Brooklyn, for the lead, according to today's average. Wheat's mark is .344. Roush is three points behind him.

Carey, of Pittsburgh, is certain to finish the race with base stealing honors, having fifty-five to his credit. Roush is the leading sacrifice hitter, with a total of thirty-three. In home run hitting, Cravath, of Philadelphia, tops the list with seventy-five. Cincinnati is first in team hitting with an average of .278, while Chicago is second with .267. Chicago also is second in team fielding.

savings bank accounts of farmers and with the payment for other grains in addition, it is considered highly probable in financial circles here that by the end of October next the total savings bank deposits of Canada will have reached an unprecedented total, beside which the record figure of slightly over one billion dollars will sink into insignificance.

Assured of Success. Sir Thomas White, therefore, and his committee of loan campaign workers are to find a particularly fertile field in which to sow their loan propaganda for Canada's greatest financial effort.

Canada Never Richer. Canada was never richer in her existence. The empire, of which Canada is one of the heaviest charter members, is about to conclude the greatest war in history with the palm of victory on its shield, Canadian opportunity as a world trader is full of unlimited possibilities.

In a word, despite the sordid and distressing exigencies of war the immediate future of the Dominion from an economic standpoint is rosy and the people of Canada are ready for the onslaught of the victory loan committee.

Even if Sir Thomas White asks that the final objective of the effort be $300,000,000, the people of the country are in a position to pay the entire sum out of their savings bank deposits and still have over half a billion dollars to the good.

Canada, therefore, is making "silver bullets" to help win the war in addition to manufacturing munitions of heavier calibre.

The recent bank statement is eloquent not only in the way of savings bank deposits, there are other phases of the showing which indicate that, despite the war, there is prosperity in Canada.

Current loans stand at the record figure of $905,667,238, an increase of nearly eight and a half millions in the month, indicating that bankers are lending a more sympathetic ear to the requests of borrowing business men whose industries are in need of financial help if expansion in business is to ensue.

All together the most recent bank statement is a highly encouraging document, according to officials here. Much is heard of the extravagance of war time. The bank statement shows that everyone is not spending all the money he is earning.

What's Happening In Troubled Russia?

(Toronto Globe.) Puffing and blowing as he feverishly packs his grip, Lenin exclaims: "We may be compelled to go away, but before we go we shall slam the door behind us with such force that they will remember us for a very long time."

So exit Lenin and Trotsky, now producers of the pliers, in a day to days to discern some elements of strength or greatness in those who succeed in swaying vast numbers of their fellow-beings.

The slaming of the door of departure is about the only sound the Bolshevik leader has made since he left the Kremlin. His silly threats and pronouncements complete the picture of himself which he has photographed for the world during the past month.

As The New York Sun recently pointed out, one of the mysteries of the great war to be solved by the pliers, is the question of why Lenin and Trotsky gained over the people of Russia. It is usually possible to discern some elements of strength or greatness in those who succeed in swaying vast numbers of their fellow-beings.

EVERY WOMAN'S RIGHT

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of every ten suffer from some ailment, usually from some form of bloodlessness.

That is why one sees on every side pale thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headache, weak backs, aching limbs and general debility.

Women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy, active women.

This new, rich, red blood is supplied in abundance by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body.

Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found a prompt cure when suffering from anemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, rheumatism, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer.

There is no part of this broad dominion in which you will not find some former sufferer who has regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this is the reason why they have been so successful in household remedy for more than a generation.

If you are ailing and will give the pills a fair trial you will find renewed health and happiness in their use.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a bottle, by sending $2.00 for the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville (Ont.).

MAKING IT EASY FOR YOUR EYES

Defective eyes have to work harder to see.

Usually vision isn't as good as it would be if properly fitted glasses were worn.

Eye-strain exists, and unless it is removed permanent injury to sight will follow. Glasses help the overworked eyes. They bring normal vision and protect sight.

There are very few perfect eyes. Often strain is present when it is not suspected. The sensible thing is to have us examine your eyes. Then you will know exactly what should be done.

BRITISH NAVY HAS STOOD THE TEST

Protected The United States and All Allied Countries, and Now Makes Complete Victory Possible—How The Money Is Being Spent—Remember September 5, Next Thursday

Sergeant Empey, author of "Over the Top," speaking before the Canadian Club in New York, said of the British Navy:—"That great navy has kept the German flag out of London. The British army has kept that flag out of Paris, and the British navy has kept the German flag out of the United States."

Interest in the big drive for funds next Thursday is very keen, and already large checks are coming in entirely unsolicited, indicating that St. John is going after a record.

Many, however, are asking to what use will this money be placed, indicating that there is a very great lack of definite information on this very important point.

A very careful reading of the following will provide all the necessary details and certainly convince the most sceptical that never have our people been approached for funds when the cause was more worthy and important:

The money is for the dependents of merchant seamen who are entitled to pensions, as well as for the men who still carry on the service of ocean transportation, without which the Allies long ago would have been starved into making an ignominious peace.

The bulk of the funds will be allocated by the council of the league to various funds for the benefit of the sailors of the empire, including our own dominion. The most important of these is King George's fund for sailors.

As a sailor himself for a large part of his life, the king has a very special interest in those who go down to the sea in ships, and the purpose of the fund established by him is "to assure more efficient aid for the Marine Benevolent Association's institutions, which have done so much for the marine during this struggle and whose resources have been greatly strained by the stress of war, and for the assistance of British and Canadian sailors and their dependents, sailors' homes, institutes, and hospitals in Canada and throughout the empire."

There is no need of an elaborate argument to strengthen such an appeal. Let none lull themselves into security with the idea that the war is over. The needs of the sailors are great. It is up to our people to do their share on Thursday.

Canadian National Institute To Open Special School In Toronto

Industrial Training—By Modern Methods Sightless Persons Become Efficient in Many Professions

"If the blind who have come to us from the battlefield only serve to awaken us to our duty to the blind in Canada, the suffering will be well worth while."

These are the words of a Canadian soldier who has given his sight for his country, and they put in brief the inception of a movement which has resulted in the organization of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind has been organized for the purpose of advancing the interests of the blind throughout the Dominion by the establishment of industrial training and workshops, home-teaching and after-care of the adult blind. Propaganda will be set on foot for the prevention of blindness and creating interest in the care and preservation of sight.

It is estimated that there are over 2,600 blind persons in Ontario alone, and arrangements have been made for the establishment of an industrial training school in Toronto. This school, situated at 465 King street west, will be opened in September. It will be under the management of Henry Wills of the Blind Institute, Massachusetts, who has been appointed instructor.

Under modern methods of training the blind can become as efficient in many trades and professions as sighted persons. There are already many blind men in prominent positions in the business world, and many are successful in their own occupations.

THE SOLDIER AND HIS DOG

Loses Him on Long March Only to Find Him Shell-Shocked in Hospital and Then is Happy

"This" says The Stars and Stripes, the twice newspaper publisher in France, by the American Expeditionary Force, is the story of Verdun Belle, a trench dog who adopted a young leatherneck, and how she followed him to the edge of the battle around Chateau Thierry, and waiting for him when he carried him out.

"Belle" is a true story." The Stars and Stripes goes on, "shabby white with great splashes of chocolate brown in her coat. Her ears are brown and silky. Her ancestry is dubious. She is undersize and would not stand a chance among the haughtier breeds they show in splendor at Madison Square Garden back home. But the marines think there was a dog like her."

The story tells how Belle bobbed up out of nowhere in a sector near Verdun, singled out a young private of marines and attached herself to him. "Belle was used to war as the most weather-beaten puller. The tremble of the ground did not disturb her and the whining whirr of the shells overhead only made her twitch and wriggle her nose in her sleep. She was trench broken. You could have put a plate of savory pork chops on the parapet and nothing would have induced her to go after them."

She actually learned to race for the spot where an improvised gas mask contrived by her master could be put over her nose whenever the signal warning of a gas attack was sounded.

Before long Belle became the mother of nine brown and white puppies. They had hardly opened their eyes before the marines' regiment got orders to "hike" for another sector. Some might have thought the dog and her pups would be left behind, but this never occurred to her master. He commanded a market basket somewhere, put the pups into it and let Verdun Belle trot behind.

In spite of the fact that the amount of equipment which each marine carries on the march is supposed to be all that a man can possibly carry, this marine somehow found strength to carry it extra weight of the basket. Forty miles he carried his burden along the parched French highway. But then came a order to march even farther and relief units the marine was forced to give up the basket. Mournfully he killed four of the puppies, but the other three slipped into his shirt front.

"Then he trudged on his way, carrying these three, pouched in fore and green as a kangaroo carries its young, while the mother dog trotted troglodyte behind."

Another of the pups died on the long march and somewhere in the tremendous procession of marching men and endless lines of trucks and wagons Belle herself got lost. The marine was at his wit's end to keep the two puppies alive. Finally he had the crew of an ambulance passing back from the front, turned the pups over to them and disappeared with the ambulance. The council or governing body is composed of eighteen members, of whom one-third are blind. Of the blind members of the council, Messrs. Baker, Turner and Viets lost their sight in the war.

The local Overland dealers are doing their utmost to secure cars with which to fill fall orders, and they are finding the fall business brisk, due in a measure undoubtedly to the fact that those who wish to have cars next season realize that they must purchase them now or do without. Their Mr. Pugsley and Mr. MacLennan left on Thursday evening's train for Toronto, where they will endeavor to secure additional shipments. They also expect to visit the American factory at Toledo for the same purpose. J. A. Pugsley & Co., 45 Princess St.

LIGHTER VEIN He Knew. Tommy (dictating letter) to be sent to his wife—The nurses here are a very plain lot—

No Soothing 'Em. "I'm in hard luck." "Why?" "I told Belle she was the first girl I ever loved, and she said she couldn't waste her time training amateurs. Then I told Nancy I had made love to other girls, but that she was my real passion, and she asked me if it were a cultured taste with me or a forlorn hope."—Stray Stories.

Von Hutier, Perhaps. "General," cried the orderly, riding up in great excitement, "our left wing is gone." "Then it is no longer possible to fly," replied the general thoughtfully. "However, we should not forget that our legs are left." Thereupon he led the way.

THE RETURNED SOLDIER. (Toronto Star.) No man who is really a returned soldier from the front needs to be in want. There may be too much red tape sometimes and things may go wrong, but even so, the man who limps home from the war need not get in touch with the organizations that exist and he will be put in the way of having his needs looked into. The best friends of the soldiers are those who have set themselves the task of seeing that the veterans of this war shall not have to go from door to door in quest of a living.

THE NEXT NEWS. (Toronto Star.) The next news that may be looked for is that the American army has sprung an offensive on another part of the front and is rolling forward sensationally.

There will be a large crowd at Johnston's, Upper Loch Lomond, Sunday and Labor Day. Come along and meet your friends.

SPECIALIST SAID HE MUST OPERATE

MME. F. GARBAU. 183 Papineau Ave., Montreal. "For three years I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This I refused to permit. I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so I decided to try it. The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now my health is excellent—I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks."

War Canning Bulletin

Issued by Canada Food Board

PUT IN YOUR RESERVE.

Illustration by courtesy of National War Garden Commission, Washington.

In spite of the season's hard work in his war garden this chap has quite a reserve of strength yet and has just been advising his wife to put her reserve into the cellar and pantry—to do it up in jars and seal it tight.

In telling her this, he is only repeating what the Food Board and other organizations have been saying ever since the first seed was planted in the war garden of 1918. Even the woman who thinks she knows all about canning can learn something from the booklet issued by the Canada Food Board on the canning, drying and storing of fruit and vegetables. Send to any of the provincial committees for it, enclosing five cents.

Food Board Flashes For Feminine Folk

Pekingese are out of fashion in Britain these days. What do you think has succeeded them? Well, just Madame Buny and her large family!

Before the war Lady Decies was one of the leading specialists in Pekingese in a palatial establishment in London where Society with a capital "S" foregathered to buy the bibelots of the moment. Now the Pekingese have gone the way of all non-essentials in war time and she keeps a rabbitry where she sells edible bunnies at reasonable prices. You get more bunny for your meat coupon than you do of beef or mutton.

"I am here to explain, to teach, to sell," declares Lady Decies from the depths of her mauve overall. "The government asks us to keep rabbits and I am anxious to teach returned soldiers how to care for them and make their hutches."

How about more rabbits in Canada as a contribution to the country's food supply?

FREE TO BOYS AND GIRLS This Lovely Pony or $100.00 Cash

Can You Solve This Great War Puzzle?

WHO WANTS ME?

Four Things That Will Win The War WHAT ARE THEY?

THE 16 Circles above can be made to spell out the names of the four chief things that are going to win the war. Our bright-eyed Canadian boys and girls help provide at least one of these things. Every boy and girl should know all of them. Can you tell what words the four magic circles represent?

How to solve it.—Each circle represents a letter of the word called for. The number of dots in the circle represents the position of that letter in the alphabet. For instance: "A" would be represented by a circle with one dot because it is the first letter of the alphabet; "B" would be represented by a circle with two dots because it is the second letter; "C" would be represented by three dots; "D" by four dots and so on. You must correctly count the dots in each circle, figure out the letter represented by its position in the alphabet, and when you have them all figured out put them into proper relation to spell the name wanted. It's not an easy puzzle but if you can solve it correctly you may win this lovely shetland pony or one of the grand Cash prizes above.

A gentle and playful as a dog, providing security for the whole family.

Send Your Answers This Very Evening!

Only boys and girls under 15 years of age may send answers and each boy or girl desiring his entry to stand for the evening drawing of the grand prizes will be required to perform a small service for us for which an additional valuable reward or special cash prize will be given. Contest will close on September 31st and the prize will be awarded immediately after. Send your entries to:

NEW BILL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The change of programme in the Opera House last evening attracted the usual capacity houses. While it could compare favorably with some, it was not so good as the usual line of entertainment provided in this popular theatre. This can be partially attributed to the fact that one of the acts missed train connections and did not arrive in time for the performance, and a motion picture had to be substituted in its place. However, the entertainment is not without its good points and many will find enjoyment during the week.

The episode of "The Lion's Claws" was as usual thrilling and depicts many novel happenings and situations. Following this picture another was thrown on the screen showing the activities of the soldiers at the front while on the march, in action and at the billets. The first van derlinde number was that of Barbour and Lynn. The latter was here before, and while his jokes are good, his presentation, make-up, etc.

"When Can You Deliver?"

THAT'S the customer's first question, usually. How do you answer him?

Your goods may be superior, your clerks may be courteous, your store attractive, but, after all, unless your deliveries are prompt and dependable, your customers will be disappointed and trade elsewhere next time. Do you realize how many people judge a store by its deliveries?

Is your delivery system on a par with the rest of your business? Does it draw new trade or lose customers for you? Are your homes as suitable for you as they were at one time? If not, why do you persist in being a little behind the times, when a Ford One Ton Truck would be more in line with your other business standards?

Perhaps your deliveries cost you too much. If you are using motor trucks, they may be too heavy for your line of business and therefore too expensive. The Ford Truck uses less fuel when handling a full load than some trucks use running empty.

The Ford One Ton Truck is a money saver, so why not modernize this department of your business at once?

All prices subject to war tax charges, except trucks and chassis

WAR SITUATION LAST NIGHT

New York, Aug. 30.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: There has been no abatement in the strength of the offensive the British, French and American troops are throwing against the German armies from Arras to the region of Soissons. And as yet there is no indication that it is the purpose of the seemingly demoralized enemy to turn about and face their aggressors or to offer more resistance for the present than through the activities of strong rear guards.

Not alone have the Allied troops all over the battlefield from Arras to Soissons gained further important terrain, but to the north the British have advanced their line materially in the famous Lys sector—and apparently without much effort on the part of the foe to restrain them.

French Gain Important

Of greater significance than any of the other victories achieved in Friday's fighting is the gain of the French, with whom Americans are brigaded in this general sector, north of Soissons.

The latest French official communication records the capture by the French here of Chavigny, three miles northwest and outflanking the Aisne on the Chemin-des-Dames positions. Also being this general situation has been

VIA CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS TO WESTERN CANADA

Excellent Through Train Service From Maritime Provinces to Winnipeg and Pacific Coast.

Via the Canadian Government railways to western Canada is the route now extensively followed by many travellers from points in the maritime provinces, splendid through service being afforded via Canadian Government railways through Quebec to Winnipeg.

Through the vast section of northern Quebec and northern Ontario, the traveller enjoys all the delights of a quick and comfortable journey through a new country abounding in great lakes and rivers, a territory glowing with the lively promise of Canada's great future.

From maritime province points passengers may journey to Lewis by the Ocean Limited or by the Maritime Express, the latter train affording the most convenient and direct connection with the Western National which leaves Quebec at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. Thus a passenger leaving Halifax on Monday, Wednesday or Friday will reach Lewis at 1:30 p.m. the day following, and by taking the Western National from Quebec the same afternoon, will arrive in Winnipeg on Thursday, Saturday or Monday evening at 6 p.m.

A pleasing feature of travel via this route is the personal attention given passengers by train officials. At Lewis a special representative meets the trains and attends to all details of the transfer to Palais Station, Quebec, etc.

At Winnipeg convenient connection is made for points west to and including the Pacific coast via Canadian Northern railway, Grand Trunk Pacific railway and Canadian Pacific railway according to destination.

Via the Canadian Government railways is the quickest and most convenient route between eastern and western Canada, through a country of marvellous scenic beauty and over one of the finest and smoothest roadways in America. Full information regarding fares via this route and reservation for sleeping car accommodation may be made on application to nearest local ticket agent of Canadian Government railways, or to A. L. Gibb, City Ticket Agent, St. John, N. B.

"Mutt" and "Jeff."

(Manchester Guardian.)
We do not know much about "Mutt" and "Jeff" over here, and occasional glimpses of them in the famous cartoons do not account for the amazing vogue of these heroes. Still something like twenty million people follow their adventures every day in a host of papers in Canada and the States. I hear that the cartoonist, Lieutenant Bud Fisher, has put "Mutt" and "Jeff" into khaki. They have joined the American army, and their adventures in London and in the training camp are giving great delight day by day all over America. Lieutenant Fisher offered by cable to enlist "Mutt" and "Jeff," and the offer was cheerfully accepted by our ministry of information. Lieutenant Fisher is now an officer in the British army, and is about to leave London for the front, so that "Mutt" and "Jeff" will soon be in action.

ALL OVER A BALL GAME!

(Hamilton Herald.)
"Big, brave, handsome Babe Fisher," "Babe Fisher just leaned on that old apple with all his manly strength," "Red Fisher was the hero of the hour," and "Good old Red." Those are some of the expressions used in the columns of the Toronto papers in describing the feat of "Red" Fisher in scoring four runs by a home-run "wallop" in a recent game. One would almost imagine from the fuss made about it that he had "walloped" the Kaiser.

GIANTS and COURTENAYS
PLAY TIE GAME
Keenly Contested Game Ends in Fifth Inning With the Score 4 to 4

It is estimated that fully 800 people witnessed the game in West St. John last evening between the Giants and the Courtneys, which ended in a tie, 4 to 4. The teams battled for five innings in an effort to win, but darkness came on and they had to content with a tie. In the first inning the Courtneys were blanked, but the Giants in their half garnered no fewer than four runs. For a time it looked as if they had only the game on ice, but the breaks of the game changed the tide in the third inning and their opponents netted three runs. An error by one of the Giants followed by a close decision by one of the umpires on a third strike, striking a batter out and having him recalled by the umpire who indicated he had only two strikes, were all instrumental in causing the trouble and the subsequent scoring. In the fourth inning they tied the score and as neither side were able to get a man around in the last inning the game ended.
There were several good plays made by both sides. Mahoney to McGovern to Dever, and a long drive to deep centre by Garnett.

FREEDERICK BOWLERS
WILL PLAY LOCAL TEAMS
HERE ON LABOR DAY
Local bowling enthusiasts will have an opportunity of enjoying their favorite pastime on Labor Day when a star aggregation of pin fall artists from Fredericton will motor to the city to play the famous Black's Alley team. These games should prove highly interesting, judging from the showing of the visitors on their home alleys and there is no doubt that considerable enthusiasm will be aroused by their visit. All three games will be played on Black's alleys.

Fourteen-Pound Trout
They May Be Caught in Idaho Streams By Skillful Anglers
For the angler who has a fondness for the husky, bulldog tug of heavy bodied fish at the end of thirty or forty feet of silken line, Idaho has a number of refuges where rainbow trout are found in numbers and sizes to delight the heart of the most fastidious. With the fighting spirit of a bulldog, the rainbow weighing from six to fourteen pounds, will test the best of tackle and will give the fisherman an opportunity to furnish all the excitement that he desires. The fisherman who has the skill to win the fight that follows the strike of one of these fighting residents.
What a thrill it gives the earnest fisherman, after a few fruitless casts with spinner and attached porkrind or other trailing tidbit of cut bait, to feel a strike that fairly carries the rod from his hand and drives the hooks home, as the shimmering body of the fish leaps into the air, throwing a spray of water in a flipping arc that ends in a splash as the line tightens again to the screeching monotone of the reel while the big fish takes the offensive in a mad rush for cover and entanglements that mean disaster to the luckless fisherman.
With the rainbow repeating his aerial flights at the end of his mad rushes as he is checked in his strategic manoeuvres to gain cover, the fisherman who has the skill to reel in the fish finally settles to a relentless tugging that seems tireless, as the fisherman piles his skill to a wearing deadlock to tire the big fish into submission. This is finally accomplished as yards of line are reeled in slowly but surely until the sun's rays down in the water betray the presence of the fish in silver flashes that are blurred with red and a mottled blue-colored back as the fish does a sort of spinning whirling dervish stunt in his last efforts to gain his freedom.
Like a bunch grass bronco, who has lived his wild, free life according to his own dictates, the rainbow submits to the leading string only when exhausted and over-powered. He fights to the last ditch and is reeled only when there is not another drop in his muscular, graceful body that is slipped skillfully into the maw of a landing net.
A landing net is almost an essential piece of the fisherman's equipment when, after these prizes, as a lost rainbow is quite an item to him, with so much weight on the day, and with so much weight on a straining tackle a last feeble flop may be the one that is needed to free the biggest fish of the day, as an awkward landing is made on the shore, or a hook is torn from the fish's mouth in attempting to raise the quarry above water to get a hand hold in its slippery gills. It is much easier and safer to ease the big fighter into the waiting net, for a fish is never caught until safely creel. This is more than applicable to rainbow trout with their tenacity that has a bit of scamp left to the point of exhaustion.

Grandmother Gave It To Mother, Mother To Me, I To My Baby
Read what Mrs. Wm. Gray, Jacquet River, N.B., has to say about Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. She writes: "There is no medicine I know of that can come up with Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has been in our house for forty years. My grandmother gave it to my mother, she to me, I to my baby. For summer complaint it has no equal. I never miss a chance of telling my neighbors about it. I would not think it safe to go to the country in the summer without a bottle of it. It has saved my many a doctor bill."
For the past 72 years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been recognized by both the people and the medical profession as the greatest remedy known for all cases of diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, pains in the stomach, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, sea-sickness and all bowel complaints. There are so many spurious "strawberry" preparations on the market today that it would be well for you to see that the name "Dr. Fowler's" is on every bottle you buy.
Our guarantee, that it will do what we claim for it, stands behind every bottle. But the limitations—what is their record, where the guarantee? Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 30c.

LET HER KEEP THEM.
(New York Herald.)
Dr. Solf, in his latest issue of German peace conditions lays down the proposition that Germany must retain her colonies. This, no doubt is perfectly satisfactory to the Entente Powers. The colonies Germany has on hand one might with a little dexterity "put in one's eye with a fork."
Herbert F. Williams of Liverpool University, has been adopted Conservative and Unionist candidates for the combined universities, comprising Durham, Manchester, Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Birmingham and Bristol.
For years Wood River held the laurels for Southern Idaho as the master trout stream of that section, but recently other streams have come into prominence, through planting, that bid fair to cope with the mighty Wood for honors in big fish. Mackay Dam on Big Lost River will generally reward the spinner artist with goodly catches of a fighting variety of rainbows that uphold the reputation of their race. Arrowrock on the Boise River has recently contributed liberally of rainbows in large quantities and of sizes that will test the best of tackle. Likewise, a number of lesser streams have lately won their spurs, in the quality, numbers, and sizes of their rainbows.
Being of a hardy, prolific nature, these big fellows will adapt themselves to almost any condition where they are given the slightest chance, and for this reason have proved themselves a favorite in the hands of the fish committing as well as a winner with the fishermen who enjoy a tussle that requires a bit of skill in the winning of a battle that is fought to a rewarded finish, that justifies the title given them of the bulldogs of the trout family.—Otto M. Jones in Idaho Statesman.

RUSH FOR SCHOOL PERMITS.
The rush is on in the school trustees' offices. Scores of mothers were filling the place this forenoon securing permits for their little ones to enter school on Tuesday. It looked today as if the usual number of permits was going to be requested. Either a vaccination certificate or satisfactory scar is necessary from each applicant.

THE K. C. DRIVE.
The New, Freeman says that Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island have made an exceptionally fine showing in the Knights of Columbus army auto drive. Nova Scotia was asked to give $100,000 and to date over $115,000 has been subscribed. Prince Edward Island was set down for $10,000 and already upwards of $20,000 has been turned in. It is estimated that the total for both provinces will reach $125,000 and exceed all expectations.

SHOULD COPY OUR GOOD ROADS.
It would appear from the report of a recently returned auto party that the roads in the sister province of Nova Scotia are now suffering by comparison with those in New Brunswick. Between Amherst and Truro along the St. John auto suffered seven blow-outs and the trouble was not due to defective tires either. Before Halifax was reached a report of ten tire troubles had been rolled up—stone bruises, puncture from stone, wall cuts on "shoes" and various other violent injury due to condition of roads. So if the sister province wants to keep up her reputation she will have to pay more attention to the highways, if reports herewith outlined are correct.

SCHOOL HEATING PLANT TROUBLESOME.
More repairs and re-arranging are being done to the heating plant in Centennial school, Brussels street. This outfit has given all kinds of trouble for several seasons, and many investigations and experiments have not seemed to get it working to full satisfaction. Former caretaker Hill, during whose occupancy of the job the plant was installed and who is practiced along heating apparatus lines of work, is now investigating the layout and will make some changes. It is thought there is too much piping for one thing, probably as much as 800 feet.

The names of maritime province men include:

INFANTRY.

THURSDAY'S CRASH INCIDENTS.

The recent head-on collision of locomotives in the Sussex railway yard gave occasion for a remarkable demonstration of grit and physical endurance against pain. The locomotive fireman, Harold Bannister, who was pinned under the wreckage by the head and must certainly have suffered excruciating pain for a considerable number of hours, exhibited fortitude that was remarkable. In his precarious position and not really knowing the extent of his injury, he partook of breakfast and was fed later on, through the thoughtfulness of Teck McLeod.

The crash of locomotives woke half Sussex town early Thursday morning when a very heavy fog hung over the place. People rushed into the streets in their nightclothes and it was necessary to call the fire department out to prevent the spread of flames near where the injured man was pinned down. There was also a flood of molasses, which was part of the freight in a car mixed up in the smash. At the present time a wrecking crane has got the damaged locomotive, etc., pretty well picked up and hauled off to the scrap heap at Magog.

RECEIVES HER DEAD HUSBAND'S PRAYER BOOK RIDDLED BY BULLETS

Memento of Private H. Addison Comes to Wife From the Battlefield

Since the commencement of the war we daily hear of happenings which in times of peace would be beyond imagination. On May 19 Private H. Addison of this city was killed in action. About one week after his wife, Mrs. Annie Addison, received in the mail a prayer book marked with bullet holes. There was no accompanying letter, no line saying by whom it was sent or to whom it belonged, but on examination of the prayer book she found her husband's name on the bottom of the outer cover. Mrs. Addison being much carried over the matter, wrote to Ottawa for particulars in reference to the book. Sometime passed and only recently she received the following from the chaplain of the unit to which her husband belonged:

"I suppose you are the wife of Private H. Addison, and we have found in his pay book that his next of kin was Annie Addison. I wish to express to you my sincere sorrow over what has occurred, and you have been fully informed both from Ottawa and also from the boy's chums in the hospital to which he was recently attached. The poor laddie got it indeed. I think he was instantly killed.

"Sometime ago I sent you his testament, containing what I judged to be his wife's name. You likely gave it to him when he was leaving home to take his place with other soldier boys. The prayer book was found after his death, riddled with bullets. He did not have the book with him when he was killed. The book was afterward found lying on the battlefield. It was found by one of your husband's friends and brought to me. I have it now. I think it is a day following his death, in the military cemetery. The cemetery is nicely cared for and both flowers and shrubs have been planted. Each grave will have perpetual care and stone monuments will soon replace the little wooden crosses erected there now. My real sympathy is yours.

"A. E. HAGER, Chaplain."

HAPPY REUNION OF MR. VROOM AND DADDY LONG LEGS PLAYERS

Ludwig Vroom, an ex-St. John boy who came from the innermost theatrical producing circles of New York to join the 9th Siege Battery on his native heath, had a grand reunion with some of his old friends and associates while the "Daddy Long Legs" company was in town.

The afternoon of the day upon which the company arrived a detachment of battery boys was being marched past the Imperial Theatre en route to a studio to be photographed. Mr. Vroom was in the party and was hailed by Manager Ely of the "Daddy company" from the curb. At that moment the officer in charge halted the men and they were ordered to stand at attention. Mr. Vroom was most warmly greeted by the members of the company who were strolling up the street to the theatre.

In the evening the St. John boy was tendered the courtesy of a box by the managers of the company and theatre and he added his party had his share of some chatty moments with Edna Walton, the star; Robert Phillips, leading man, and other members of the aggregation, nearly all of whom Mr. Vroom had actually contracted into Henry Miller's employ.

In the case of Miss Walton she was truly a discovery of Mr. Vroom who while he occupied an important post in the Henry Miller office, Miss Walton has thoroughly vindicated his judgment as a suitable star for the charming role of Judy and it was interesting to hear them discuss the matter and exchange compliments.

Mr. Vroom placed five "Daddy Long Legs" companies on the road for Mr. Miller and for two seasons managed one of the principal ones. Therefore it was naturally very pleasing to him to have one of his own creations visit St. John while he was here. From the hearty manner in which the St. John boy was greeted by the audience he must certainly be popular on the Rialto.

THE KING SQUARE TREES

St. John, already almost a pauper for shade trees and ornamental shrubbery, will likely be worse off before it can adorn its open places with new growths. Public works department men are today pruning the trees in King square in anticipation of icy rains and blizzard blasts and the sight of big trees having their limbs and little branches lopped off to save their lives altogether is not a reassuring one.

Within the last three or four years about a dozen full-grown trees in the Loyalist burying ground and King square have either fallen a prey to gales or have been sawn down for the protection of the public. These removals have always been a source of regret as the trees leave great gaps in the open places, gaps which a generation of growth cannot fill.

Now the remaining trees are being trimmed and dressed to bolster up their old age and to preserve them against rough breakage and decay when the storms start later. Younger trees are not big enough to take their places, so the stately old balm of gileads and birches are being carefully looked after. The soil in King square is so shallow that tree planting is not always successful. There is not more than from two to two and a half feet of earth. Most of the trees now standing have their root spread roundabout and garled around rock. So when town planning schemes are on foot doubtless this ornamental phase of the city's appearance will be fully considered and something done to ensure future generations of a slightly park—a time when the present line of old trees will have died off.

TWENTY-TWO DEATHS.
Twenty-two deaths were reported to the board of health during the week, as follows: Tuberculosis, seven; marasmus, two; cholera infantum, two, and carcinoma of stomach, meningitis, typhoid fever, general paralysis, heart disease, premature birth and pneumonia, each one.
