

JAPAN'S MILITARY OPERATIONS IN THE CHINA SEA

MUKADO'S INTERVENTION IS PROMPTED BY PURELY PACIFIC MOTIVES

Lasting Peace in far East makes War with Germany necessary—Will limit operations to China Sea—Kaiser's insatiable ambition for Territory—Japan desires to Strengthen Bonds of Friendship with States.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—The following statement, inspired from Tokio, was given to the press this afternoon by the Japanese Consul-General for Canada, Mr. Yada. It is an official declaration of the reasons for Japan's intervention in the present war, and of the pacific ends which the Mikado's government has in view, in common with the interests of the United States and of Great Britain.

The rich region of middle China. Moreover, the diplomatic history of the Far East shows conclusively that Germany's course runs directly counter to the principle of the integrity of China, and the open door, and it points plainly to the eventuality of her brandishing the mailed fist unadvisedly, when she is fully prepared. The United States performed an act of self-abnegation when it freed Cuba, and gave that country its independence in proposing to give Kiao-Chow back to China, Japan was actuated by the same altruistic motives as the United States. To bring it home more forcibly, suppose Havana were held by Germany what would be the attitude of the United States, with its knowledge of Germany's well known desire to acquire colonies, particularly in America? Would it not deem it imperative to remove this tremendous military force from such close proximity to its territory? It cannot be too strongly reiterated that the action of Japan is inspired by a sincere purpose to create conditions which will insure a durable peace, a peace which will be as much in the interest of the United States, as in that of Japan.

Limit Operations to China Sea.

Japan is determined, after full consultation with her ally, to limit territorial operations to the China Sea. Japan has not, and never has had, hostility, or even objection to the plans of the United States and Great Britain in the Far East. On the other hand, they have strongly appealed to her sense of right and justice. Great Britain is satisfied with her territorial status quo. The United States has no desire for Far Eastern aggrandizement. Both the United States and Great Britain are satisfied with their status quo where their products can be sold in competition with those of other nations. Germany, on the other hand, has had a dual aim, extension of her trade and particularly the acquiring of exclusive markets. In other words, the Kaiser Wilhelm has sought colonies about which a wall could be built, leaving a preferential door open for German trade. Take the case of Kiao-Chow. That point was seized and a lease of 99 years extorted from China with the murder of two German missionaries in Shantung as the pretext. In addition Germany did not comply with other concessions, designed to assist her commerce in the prosperous and populated region of Shantung and its hinterland. Finally, the province were held personally responsible, and the Peking government was forced also to erect a church of the faith of the murdered missionaries. Such punishment was not in accord with mercy, but prescribed by the insatiable territorial ambition of the German government.

By her acquisition of Kiao-Chow, Germany became a menace to the peace of the Far East. The point she almost impregnable fortified not only became a cancer in the side of China, but, to change the metaphor, an arrow directed at Japan. With Kiao-Chow in her possession, Germany had a great advantage of all nations trading in

There is no feeling of hostility in Japan towards the United States. There is a strong, firm purpose to maintain the bonds of friendship that have united the two nations for so many years. Questions, of course, have arisen between us. Questions will arise. But these questions have never endangered the traditional relations of firm friendship resting upon the basis rendered indestructible by ties forged by the history of half a century. Japanese know they have nothing to fear from the United States. Americans realize they have nothing to fear from Japan. Separated as the two nations are by the largest ocean in the world, there can be no conflict arising from such contact as exists in Europe.

"To Japan, peace with Americans is essential, by virtue of the fact that it draws upon your southern States for raw cotton, and upon other sections for materials which it requires. To the United States, peace with Japan is necessary, because of your trade with the Chinese, and because it poses held in common by both countries.

People in Land of Dykes And Windmills Calm in Spite of The Cataclysm

Rotterdam, Aug. 24, via London.—While the major part of Europe is in a state of war, thought in the Netherlands to be one of extermination, the good burghers of Holland manage to live their normal lives, in spite of the excitement that was apparent when the strife first became a reality. At that time large crowds gathered in front of the newspaper offices watching the posting of bulletins. Everybody feared that Holland would be embroiled, but today the feeling is that the land of dykes and windmills would not be dragged into the bloody struggle.

Holland nevertheless has been hard hit commercially. On the fields rot thousands of tons of vegetables which formerly were consumed in England and Germany. The dairy market also suffers and in the ports a thousand bottoms lay idle. The unemployment in Rotterdam alone numbers fifty thousand, and in other cities the conditions are similar.

NIobe WILL BE IN COMMISSION SEPTEMBER 1

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—The Naval Service Department announces that H. M. C. S. Niobe will be in commission on Sept. 1. She was put in the dry dock today at Halifax to have her hull under water overhauled. Capt. Corbett of H. M. S. Albatross, the gunboat which was left on the Pacific coast will be in command. He has arrived in Halifax with 200 men of the Shearwater and Albatross.

The Niobe will join the cruiser patrol which the British Admiralty is now running on the Atlantic and will likely be stationed on the St. Lawrence relieving H. M. S. Lancaster. The Niobe has her full complement of 730 men raised in Canada. They are thoroughly experienced as all of them are ex-British navy men.

Germans renew attack on Namur with poor success—Dynamite high buildings in Tsing Tau.

London, Aug. 24.—7.20 p. m.—The first list of the casualties sustained by the British expeditionary army on the continent was published here today. It contains but three names. One of them is that of the Earl of Leven Melville, a Lieutenant in the Second Dragoons, Royal Scots Greys, who was dangerously wounded August 22, apparently in the cavalry fight in Waterloo. The other wounded men are a sergeant of the Royal Flying Corps and a captain of engineers.

BOMBARDING OF KIAU-CHAU BY JAPAN HAS BEGUN

Three Squadrons being sent against German port in China—The Nation a unit in backing up Government action in declaring War on Kaiser.

Tokio, Aug. 24.—Japan is directing three squadrons against the German province of Kiau-Chau and the German warship in eastern waters. Vice-Admiral Tomonaga Kato was, today, appointed commander-in-chief of the first squadron, which will carry out the main offensive movement against Germany. Vice-Admiral Sadakichi Kato will command the second squadron and Rear-Admiral Tsuchiya, the third.

RUSSIAN ARM ALONG 100

Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that Czar's Troops are getting their stride—Have routed Germans in East Prussia and taken Soldau.

London, Aug. 24, 4.35 a. m.—A despatch to the Times from St. Petersburg, which followed the first reports of Russian successes in East Prussia, says: "It is not a doubtful report. Continuing their pursuit of the Germans the Russians occupied Soldau, thirteen miles southwest of Neldenburg, whence they command the railway to Danzig."

Paris, Aug. 24.—It is announced officially at the war office that the German force that invaded Russia and was reported to have occupied Miowia has been driven back by the Russians and that the latter have invested Salla. Salla is one hundred miles south and 137 miles east of Kolnigsberg, and this latter movement is believed to indicate that the Russian advancing army of invasion extends along a front of nearly 100 miles. The Germans are also reported in the official bulletins to have evacuated in Poland.

London, Aug. 24, 10.26 a. m.—The French embassy this morning received a telegram from the minister of foreign affairs at Paris stating that contact had been established between the opposing forces all along the line, and up to the present without advantage to either side. The message confirmed the report that the German auxiliary Zeppelin No. 5 had been destroyed, and that there had been great Russian successes.

RUSSIA ADVANCING THE ENEMY OUT OF EAST PRUSSIA

RUSSIAN ARMY ADVANCING ALONG 100 MILE FRONTIER

Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that Czar's Troops are getting their stride—Have routed Germans in East Prussia and taken Soldau.

London, Aug. 24, 4.25 a. m.—A despatch to the Times from St. Petersburg, which followed the first reports of Russian successes in East Prussia, says: "It is not a defeat, but a rout. Continuing their pursuit of the Germans the Russians occupied Soldau, thirteen miles southwest of Traidenberg, whence they command the railway to Danzig."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 24.—The Russian northern army is moving rapidly along the railway from Eydtkuhnen toward Koenigsberg, and today is reported west of Insterburg. The Russian front is many miles long, and is reported as sweeping the entire territory of Eastern Prussia clear of the enemy as it moves forward. The fighting has been of the most desperate character, and the war office claims that the fighting effectiveness of the three German army corps, which have been bearing the brunt of the defense has been seriously injured. The Russian centre today was between Insterburg and Norkitten, while the front extended in half circle from Grunzhelde on the north far south into the Lake region.

Paris, Aug. 24.—It is announced officially at the war office that the German forces that invaded Russia and was reported to have occupied Miowa has been driven back by the Russians and that the latter have invaded Salla. Salla is one hundred miles south and 117 miles east of Koenigsberg, and this latter movement is believed to indicate that the Russian advancing army of invasion extends along a front of nearly 100 miles. The Germans are also reported in the official bulletins to have evacuated in Poland.

London, Aug. 24, 10.26 a. m.—The French embassy this morning received a telegram from the minister of foreign affairs at Paris stating that contact had been established between the opposing forces all along the line, and up to the present without advantage to either side. The message confirmed the report that the German ship "Hermann" No. 3, had been destroyed and that there had been great Russian successes.

Paris, Aug. 24.—The following official announcement was made here today: "The great battle between the greater part of the forces of England and France against the bulk of the German army continues today. The mission of the English and the French is to hold virtually the entire German army in Belgium, while our Russian allies pursue their successes in the east."

LET NEUTRAL NATIONS ACT FOR BELLIGERENTS

In case of Principles of International Law regarding Contraband—Blockade and other points.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Regarding the principles of international law concerning contraband, blockade, the rights of neutrals shipping, and the obligations upon neutrals to maintain strict impartiality in their treatment of the war and commercial ships of belligerents, it is the purpose of the British government, and, it is understood, of the belligerents, to request such neutral powers as the United States to deal with each individual question involving the application of neutrality as a distinct legal proposition. This would eliminate the diplomatic treatment of such questions and would result in a standard and uniform method of dealing with these delicate and difficult questions which would not be subject to challenge by any fair minded belligerent.

Great Britain and France already have signified their purpose to abide by the declarations of London, as affecting their rights and that of neutral nations during the present war, notwithstanding the fact that their formal assent to these declarations have not yet been reported. The United States government had ratified the declarations in treaty form, but has withheld their promulgation because of the failure of the great European powers to consummate the international agreement. It is the British view that declarations would not prevent the transfer of merchant ships under belligerent flags to the American mercantile marine, under the provision of the new registry law, providing the transfers are bona fide, and there is no intention to use the vessels for the benefit of the belligerent state, nor to return them to foreign ownership at the conclusion of hostilities.

BEGIN WEEDING OUT PROCESS AT VALCARTIER

Quebec, Aug. 24.—Lieut. A. T. Shillington, of Ottawa, senior medical recruiting officer, assisted by a staff of about twenty physicians from several eastern cities, will decide for the fate of many of the militiamen encamped here tomorrow. Early in the morning the weeding out process will begin and it will probably take more than a week to medically examine all the volunteers. Despite the fact that a stiff examination of all recruits took place before they were enlisted, the inspection here will be more severe and there is a possibility of many being struck off the rolls. The men found to be unfit for service will be sent to their respective homes immediately.

There are nearly 15,000 men in camp tonight. Only three regiments reached the camp, the 33rd, 54th and 84th, all from the eastern townships. But tomorrow will be a heavy day for the transport officers, as there will be more special trains and troops to arrive than on any day since the opening of mobilization. It is expected that about 6,000 more soldiers will arrive and Montreal will contribute about 2,500 of them.

There is no definite information as to what strength the camp will reach when all the troops are here, but it is figured that nearly thirty thousand men will be in training with in the next few days. As not more than 20,000 will go on the first contingent there will be several thousand left behind. Those who do not go with the first body of troops will not be sent to their respective homes but will remain encamped here awaiting the order to board the transports at Quebec. It is generally considered that it will take at least three weeks to get the soldiers in good shape to be taken abroad, although no date has been fixed. The camp now is simply doted with tents from end to end and has been divided into what is known as twelve battalion areas. Each battalion consists of from five to nine regiments or about 1,500 men, eight companies will make up each regiment.

Washington, Aug. 24.—While the house was passing today a bill to print five thousand copies of the Hague convention treaties of 1864 and 1907, Representative Mann interrupted. "In view of what is taking place in Europe," he said, "this strikes me as a sort of legislative sarcasm. If there is any useless body or theory anywhere at the present time, it is the Hague peace tribunal."

BOULOGNE FEARS CAPTURE BY GERMANS

London, Aug. 24, 9.40 p. m.—Dr. R. K. Morton, of Philadelphia, who arrived in London from Lausanne, said: "Alarm is spreading in Boulogne. The idea now prevails there that the Germans will try to capture that port as part of a general plan to shut off communication between France and England. The people of Boulogne fear the foggy, cloudy season, when they expect activity by the Germans along the English channel."

A prominent Massachusetts woman, who reached London by way of the Hague, said when she left Munich on Tuesday the city was much depressed on account of rumors that the Munich troops had suffered heavily a few days before at Muehausen. TWO THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS GO FROM MONTREAL

Montreal, Aug. 24.—There were no sad farewells at the railway stations tonight, when more than two thousand Montreal volunteers entrained for Valcartier. The farewells were all said during the day at the armories, and tonight the soldiers marched straight to the trains as if there were no such thing as a pathetic parting. Following are the troops which left tonight: Fifth Royal Highlanders of Canada, 1,115; First Royal Montreal, composed of First Grenadier Guards of Canada, 400; Third Victoria Rifles, 370; 65th Carabiniers of Mount Royal, 307; total 2,192.

VON EMMICH RETURNS SWORD TO HIS ENEMY

London, Aug. 24.—The correspondent at Amsterdam of Reuter's Telegram Company, sends a story taken from the Aancher Post telling of the courteous treatment General Leman, commander of the Liege forts received at the hands of General Von Emmich of the German forces.

"General Leman," the story runs, "was found by the Germans nearly suffocated under the ruins of a destroyed fort. The German officers treated him with the greatest friendliness and took him before General Von Emmich, to whom the Belgian handed over his sword. In recognition of General Leman's brave conduct in a hopeless situation, General Von Emmich returned his sword to him, and after a short rest he was taken with other captive officers to Aischapel, and thence to Cologne."

TORONTO WILL GIVE 100 HORSES TO GOVERNMENT

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Final preparations for the patriotic fund campaign, commencing tomorrow, were made at a dinner given to the workers tonight. A number of new teams were appointed.

The city council, at a five minute session today endorsed the proposal to present one hundred horses, drawn from three civic departments to the Dominion government for use during the war.

Many Toronto physicians have decided to give their services free to patients who may be dependent on those who have volunteered for the war. A special meeting of the Toronto Academy of Medicine today passed a resolution advocating this action as a patriotic duty. At a conference held today between

AUSTRIAN RESERVISTS ARRESTED

Welland, Ont., Aug. 24.—Twenty-two Austrian reservists, leaving Canada for Austria, have been arrested at Bridgeburg, and fourteen more at Niagara Falls. Special constables have been sworn in to guard them until they are dealt with by the military authorities.

Toronto representatives and members of the Ontario cabinet, it was decided to call another meeting and arrange for a joint committee of the government and members of the legislature, from industrial centres, to impress on the manufacturers of the province the duty of keeping their plants open as long as possible.

FOR HOME AND COUNTRY

VOLUNTEERS ARE REQUIRED

The 62nd Regiment, St. John Fusiliers, formerly on a peace footing, and lessened in strength by a large number of its members offering for Overseas Service, is now to be recruited

TO FULL WAR STRENGTH

At the present time instructions from Ottawa state that this enlistment is to be without cost to the public. This means that until later instructions are issued no pay will be allowed for any drilling that may be done. It is, however, anticipated that before long remuneration will be granted to those who may now volunteer for Home Defence, and that such remuneration will be at the rate of one dollar per day.

Such enlistment means:—

That in case of necessity the regiment may be called upon, or a certain portion of it may be called upon, for service in defence of Canada.

That in event of such a call, the men under arms will be remunerated at the rate mentioned above.

That under the existing military regulations, no person enlisting for militia service, or in home defence, can be ordered for foreign service, but will remain in Canada.

That those who now enlist for home defence and who may hereafter desire to offer for foreign service, will have the benefit of the training they may now receive and will thus be more acceptable than any who are lacking in such training.

That the duty of each member of the British Empire is to perform that which falls to his lot, and that at the present time such duty and such opportunity to serve is offered to all who may desire to enlist.

THE 62ND REGIMENT NEEDS 500 MEN

These Are for Home Defence Only and May Not Be Compelled to Serve Overseas

They are required to bring this regiment to a war footing, according to instructions from Ottawa. There are many men in St. John at the present moment who perhaps may feel that this call does not mean them. THINK IT OVER.

YOU OWE A DUTY TO THE EMPIRE

YOU OWE A DUTY TO CANADA

YOU OWE A DUTY TO YOUR HOME

This enlistment means service in defence of The Empire, of Canada, and of your home. It is your duty to offer for such service as every true born Briton, every true born Canadian, should be proud to perform.

We Need You--Canada Needs You--Britain Needs You

Do not longer delay, but hand in your name and be prepared to do a man's duty for your country in its hour of peril.

Apply at once, either at the recruiting office, 81 Prince William Street, or to the Recruiting Officer, the Armouries.

the opportunity for the scouts to show that they can be of material service to their country. They will be utilized, says the statement, to take the lighter work of men in order that these might be released to the more arduous duties of war. Their duties are non-military, and come rather within the scope of police work, carried out under the general direction of county authorities. Included are the guarding and patrolling of bridges, and telegraph lines against damage by spies, collecting information as to supplies, circulating notices to inhabitants, and similar duties connected with commandeering and warnings; carrying out organized relief measures, serving as signal fliers, and signallers; helping families of men employed in defense duties, or aiding the sick and wounded; establishing first aid, dressing or nursing stations, acting as guides and orderlies, including the guiding of vessels in unbuoyed channels, or showing lights to friendly vessels and assisting coast guards.

There is much doing nowadays the agricultural department of the John Exhibition. The management states that during the last few days many important entries have been received, and that in most cases they have been accepted.

The joy of having successfully evaded the distressing scenes caused by the war in Europe, and of returning to his wife and family at home, was greatly offset for Wm. C. Cross, manager of Hall & Fairweather, upon learning of his arrival from New York, that one of his children had died during his absence.

Mr. Cross enjoyed the first part of his continental trip, on which he represented the Y. M. C. A. at the World's conference, but the disturbing scenes surrounding the later portion detracted from the pleasure and the news of death in his family caused the delight of his home-coming to be tinged with sorrow.

EXHIBITION PLANS PROGRESSING WELL

Arrangements for Fair well underway—Entries still come in.

There is much doing nowadays in the agricultural department of the St. John Exhibition. The management states that during the last few days many important entries have been received, and that in most cases, these have been accepted. Only a few days now remain before the opening of the big show, but it is the opinion of the management that the agricultural section will be one of the most successful in recent years.

The erection of the different booths, which has been proceeding briskly of late, has now nearly reached completion, and this feature of the exhibition will compare favorably with past activities in this respect.

The dog show, a department which has always found favor with the public, will be, it is anticipated, particularly interesting. Entries of dogs are still being received, and by the time the public are admitted to the grounds on September 7 a fine exhibit of the friend of man will be in evidence.

W. C. CROSS HOME FROM EUROPE. The joy of having successfully evaded the distressing scenes caused by the war in Europe, and of returning to his wife and family at home, was greatly offset for W. C. Cross, manager of Hall & Fairweather, upon learning on his arrival from New York, that one of his children had died during his absence. He reached New York on Saturday in the steamer Baltic, considering himself fortunate to have escaped the heavy demands for accommodation, to be able to get even a berth in that quarter of the ship. Up to the time of reaching New York he had been unaware of the little one's death, efforts to reach him by cable having been futile.

Mr. Cross enjoyed the first part of his continental trip, on which he represented the Y. M. C. A. at the World's conference, but the disturbing scenes surrounding the later portion detracted from the pleasure and the news of death in his family caused the delight of his home-coming to be tinged with sorrow. Mr. Cross had been in Paris at the outbreak of the war, and only with difficulty was he able to cross the channel with warships on either side of the steamer in England. There he was compelled to remain several days until he was able to secure passage, and then he was forced to abandon his first-class saloon accommodation for the steerage. He came through many exciting and thrilling scenes before leaving Europe, and received a vivid and lasting impression of the horrors of war, even though many miles removed from the firing line.

MARRIED. MORROW-FORREST—On August 24th at St. Mathias church, Westmount, Montreal, by the Rev. Edward Bushnell, assisted by Rev. Canon Renaud, Norah Lillifott Forrest of Westmount, to Thomas McLellan Morrow, both formerly of this city.

DIED. MAXWELL—On the morning of the 23rd inst., at his residence, 385 Union street, Robert Maxwell, aged 58 years, leaving a loving wife, two sons, five daughters, father and three sisters to mourn. Funeral on Tuesday, 25th inst., from his late residence. Service begins at 2.30 o'clock.

FUNERAL NOTICE. All members of the St. John Co. Royal Scottish Chapter are requested to meet at the Orange Hall, Germain street, at 1.30 p.m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late companion, Hon. Robert Maxwell.

LYRIC PROGRAMME SATISFIED CROWD

Clever vaudeville and good pictures make pleasing entertainment.

The management of the Lyric is so well known as capable of bringing to the notice of patrons something that is well worth seeing, something that will relieve the mind from the cares of the ordinary mortal, that it would seem superfluous to remark that they were again to the fore last evening with an excellent programme. Every one seemed to be happy at the Lyric, for there was fun and merriment of the genuine sort, and also a fine series of pictures.

The joyous Irish lady soldiers were there, and everybody agreed that they had ammunition enough to kill any temporary germ of gloom that might be subsisting in the humans—and many were at the Lyric last evening—who were present to see and hear them. Beach and Carroll are the soldiers, and they wear special uniforms. The audience enjoyed the frolics thoroughly, as well they might, but this act did not constitute the whole programme at the Lyric. The Thauhouser people supplied in friendly rivalry, one of those film productions that have made them famous. The pictures were shown in two reels and were admired by everyone present.

INTRODUCTION OF GAS LIGHTING IN ROME. An interesting and rather amusing account appears in the Journal des Debats of the difficulties gas has had to face in making the conquest of the Vatican.

IN 1844 an English engineer settled at Rome. He was well received by society. After a time he asked for an audience of the Pope—Gregory XVI—in order to obtain permission to set up gas works in the Eternal City.

His reception at the Vatican was not flattering to his hopes. "I don't understand," said the Pontiff, "how you can submit to me a proposal so inimical to the interests of the Church."

CARDINAL WHO MAY SUCCEED POPE PIUS X

Cardinal Vincent Vanutelli is a member of the Sacred College of Cardinals which meets in the Vatican to elect a successor. He is one of the prominent members and may be elected the new Pontiff to head the Roman Catholic church.

Gregory XVI had been, and the affair hung fire till his death. The first act of his successor was to remove the embargo, and along with it the others under which the older system of gas lighting had always labored.—London Standard.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE. The first wire for the Brooklyn suspension bridge was stretched across the East river 28 years ago today, Aug. 14, 1876. The design for this bridge, once considered among the wonders of the modern world, were completed by John A. Roebling nearly a decade before construction was commenced in 1870. The caisson for the Brooklyn tower was sunk in 1871, and the caisson on the New York side was laid the following year. The Brooklyn tower was completed in 1875 and the New York tower in July of 1876, and the first wire was put in place the following month. The cable-making was commenced in June, 1877. In 1885 the bridge was completed at a cost of $15,000,000. John A. Roebling died in 1869, and his son, Washington A. Roebling succeeded him as engineer. The latter was stricken with a peculiar "caisson disease," which also afflicted many of the workmen and was compelled for a time to give up active work, although his mind remained the directing force which carried the great structure to completion.

Future Wonders. Mike—Plawat do yer 'ink av the way they have now av s'indin' 'impasses widout wires er poles? Pat—Sure, it's a great invention! I expect you or these days they'll find a way 't' travel widout lavin' home.

FIGHTERS ARE HARD TO HANDLE RESULTS OF THE BIG LEAGUES NO HEAVYWEIGHT EVER POSSESSED ALL GOOD POINTS LEFT HANDERS ADVANTAGE ON RIGHT HANDERS TYLER HAS ONLY OVERHAND CROSS ALMOST FAINTED IN THE STREET

Prizefighters are as temperamental as prize dogs, and almost as hard to manage is the opinion of Jimmy Dime, of Newcastle, Pa., who has been in the business of managing and training prizefighters almost since the time that Chris Columbus cast anchor off Sandy Hook, or wherever it was that he cast anchor.

"There's a hard bunch to handle unless you just get the knack of it," declares Dime, who at present has as big a "stable" as any man in the country. "Some of 'em you've got to humor; others you have to browbeat. You have to study their temperaments and figure out just the right method of reach. When you discover the method and apply it, the rest is easy.

"Big Dan Dalley, the heavyweight in my string, used to have a fondness for pastry, with cream puffs at his particular specialty. Everybody knows that pastry isn't good for fighters. I told Dan so, but he said he guessed it wouldn't hurt him. Finally I forbade him eating pastry. But he used to slip away and eat his fill at a neighboring restaurant.

"But I fixed that finally. Took the restaurant man into my confidence. The next day when Dan called for cream puffs he got them. But he noticed that peculiar restlessness about them. The delicious flavor was gone. And he noticed that peculiar restlessness every time he ate the cream puffs. Pretty soon he decided that cream puffs did not agree with him, and he quit. The flavor that he noticed was aluminum, which had been injected in the cream puffs.

Tommy Jones, one of the lightweights in my string, is a tango fiend. Tangos is all right if it isn't overdone—but what tango doesn't overdo it Tommy used to slip away at night and go tangos instead of sleeping. I finally had to cure Tommy's tangos ideas by instructing one of the men that he works out with to slip over a punch that would blacken a man's eye. At any rate, Tommy didn't.

Job Chip, a middleweight, and a brother to George Chip, who was world middleweight champion until Al McCormack put him out, had a strange fondness for jewelry. Where other fighters think of banking their money, Job thinks only of investing it in diamonds and rubies. He has quite a collection of gems now, and he wears them on the ring, contending that they won't hurt his fingers. But I finally convinced him to the contrary by hiding the jewelry on the night before his fight. George Chip has a 'bug on gathering cigarette coupons. 'Bearcat' Tom McMahon likes the movies. He's a fiend. And I have discovered that watching the films isn't good for the eyesight. It hurts it, as far as a fighter is concerned. I had a hard time trying to convince McMahon.

Patsy Branigan, the bantam, is what might be called a dude. Patsy aims to be immaculate in his street dress, and usually is. He never goes into a fight before he gets his hair cut, his face shaved, and is treated with a massage. It seems funny a man who has battered up wanting to have his beautiful forehead, but that's the case with Patsy.

"So it goes with all the others that I am handling now or have handled. They're mighty peculiar. As I have said, you have to humor some and browbeat the others. And when both these methods fail you have to hit upon some scheme whereby you can cure them of the traits and peculiarities that are a detriment to their ring success."

BIRTHDAY OF GEORGE CHIP AND GEORGE K. O. BROWN.

Club announced a show the under-taker always backs up to the door to take away the loser. George Chip, who claimed the mid-dleweight title last year by reason of his two knockouts over Frank Klaus, has been fighting about five years. A majority of his battles have been six, ten and twelve-round decision affairs.

SPORTOGRAPHY BY "GRAY"

Birthday congratulations are due today to two prominent members of the Union of Middleweight Champions. Mr. George Chipulotis and Mr. George Contas, better known to the fraternal-ists of fans as George Chip and George Knockout Brown, respectively and respectfully, Chip, who achieved his ring name by chopping off part of his bona fide moniker, was born twenty-six years ago today in Scranton, Pa., while Knockout Brown is twenty-four years of age and was born in the town of Sparta, Greece. Chip is of Telewani descent. Telewani being a little country in—er—but of course you know where Telewani is. Huh?

BOER WAR FILM IS STRIKINGLY REAL

The crowds in attendance at Imperial Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening enjoyed the British army spectacle, "The Boer War," to the fullest. This picture, because of its historical fidelity, is most magnificent and thrilling. There never was in all the world's history a more romantic and picturesque war than the contest between Boer and Briton for the possession of sovereignty in Southern Africa. The setting was the African veldt broken by the irregular round hills which the Boers called "kopjes" and which looked like and actually proved to be almost impenetrable fortresses of nature.

THE ST. JOHN BUSINESS COLLEGE. The St. John Business College and Shortland Institute is now entering on its forty-seventh year of useful work. Testimony has already been received from many quarters that this centre of instruction, so capably supervised by S. Kerr, has sent forth many young men and women to take their share in all those spheres of business and professional activity that are worth while. Many have testified to the worth of the instruction received, and there is good reason to believe that the college and institute will continue to receive the patronage due to a well-organized and carefully supervised educational institution.

AMERICANS WELCOMED

No truth to report that United States people are not allowed in Canada.

A report apparently is being circulated in the States that Americans are not allowed in Canada, and that there is a feeling here that the true facts should be known.

Yesterday the Board of Trade received a letter from Riverside, stating that a report was current there that Canada had refused to admit people from the States since the outbreak of the war, and asking if the report was true.

How the report originated is worrying some persons. It is supposed the arrest of a German American who was spending a vacation in the province had something to do with the rumor which is likely to seriously affect the tourist traffic.

Rain Coats. If you need a raincoat for the fall see the many stylish garments being shown by F. A. Dykeman & Co. Among the newest fabrics are orduroy and tweed effects. These coats are made to be worn in all weathers, are dressy and serviceable.
