The Liverpool arrived at New York bring ing the latest English News. Parliamet met on the 27th-of May. Mr. Lefevre was elected Speaker by a majority of 15. The Jamaica Bill has been modified so as to give the Assembly an opportunity of reconsidering their position, and has been carried by a majosity of 30. The great Elucat on scheme is pretponed till next Session. The Edinburgh Observer of June 7, says Lord John Russells plan for the future government of Canala is to unite the upper and lower Provinces and to statinue the powers of the Governor and Council till 1542, Phadebase was a liverned.

See tempora mutantur &c: and it has been reserved for strange sectaries of the present day to prefer this claims to legitimate succession in eqvivalence to those who sprung from the Apos les and Fathers of the Church. We are led to make these observations in consequence of see no an article in the Halifax. of see ng an article in the Halifax Christian Messenger condemnatory of a communication in the Standard of the 18th of May adverting to the ordination of a Baptist Minister at St. George.

We should be sorry to enter on any palemical differences on this occasion, because we do not wish to expose the poor young man who addressed us, nor to exhibit his want of prudence, nor to proclaim his want of knowledge of ecclesiastical history, nor to hid tim lock in upon himself and if possible discern the degradation of a dupe to designing knaves who have entrapous to liquidate their respective accounts previous to the 1st day of August next, as all debradation of the last day of August next, as all debradations of ped him into a position shewing him devoid of sense, and into a communication distinguished for the absence of the plainest rules of english grammar. If the Messen-SAINT ANDREWS & SAINT JOHN ger were right in its appreciation our dispositions, we should certainly have published the letter alluded to, as a piece of the broadest and will in future be found at the bar of the Coaridicule on a host of aspirants who fancy they have a legitimate call be Robinson, Managing Director.
