COLONEL ROOSEVELT DIED SUDDENLY TODAY

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT DIED AT HIS HOME THIS MORNING

His Health Had Not Been Good for Some Time But the End was Unexpected. The Ex-President Was Sixty Years of Age. HIS LIFE A BRILLIANT CHAPTER.

(Special to the Record). OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died at his home on Sagamore Hill at 4.15 o'clock this morning. A clot of blood on the heart caused death. It was stated at the house.

The colonel went to bed last night feeling well. His end was peaceful. Several members of the family were at the bedside. Roosevelt returned home on Christmas Day from Roosevelt Hospital, where he had been ill for some time with sciatica. Immediately after he died his son, Archie Roosevelt, who is in Boston, was notified. He started for home at once. The house on Sagamore Hill was closed and nobody was allowed to enter the grounds after the colonel died. It was stated that the physician would issue an official announcement later in the day.

The end came when there was no one in the room but his valet. The following statement was made to the United Press by Dr. G. W. Fuller, of Oyster Bay, the physician who last saw Col. Roosevelt: "Colonel Roosevelt retired at twelve o'clock last night feeling much better. At 4.15 o'clock this morning he simply ceased to breathe. Death was caused probably by a pulmonary embolism. This pulmonary embolism, Doctor Fuller explained, is a blood clot upon one of the arteries of the lungs.

The funeral will be Wednesday from Christ Episcopal Church, Oyster Bay. Rev. Dr. George Talmadge will officiate and interment will be in the Young Memorial Cemetery at Oyster Bay Cove.

At the time of his death the only persons in the house at Sagamore Hill were Col. Roosevelt, his wife and the servants.

Col. Roosevelt spent Sunday evening resting, conversing with Mr. Roosevelt and chatting with Dr. Fuller who found him apparently much improved and in excellent spirits.

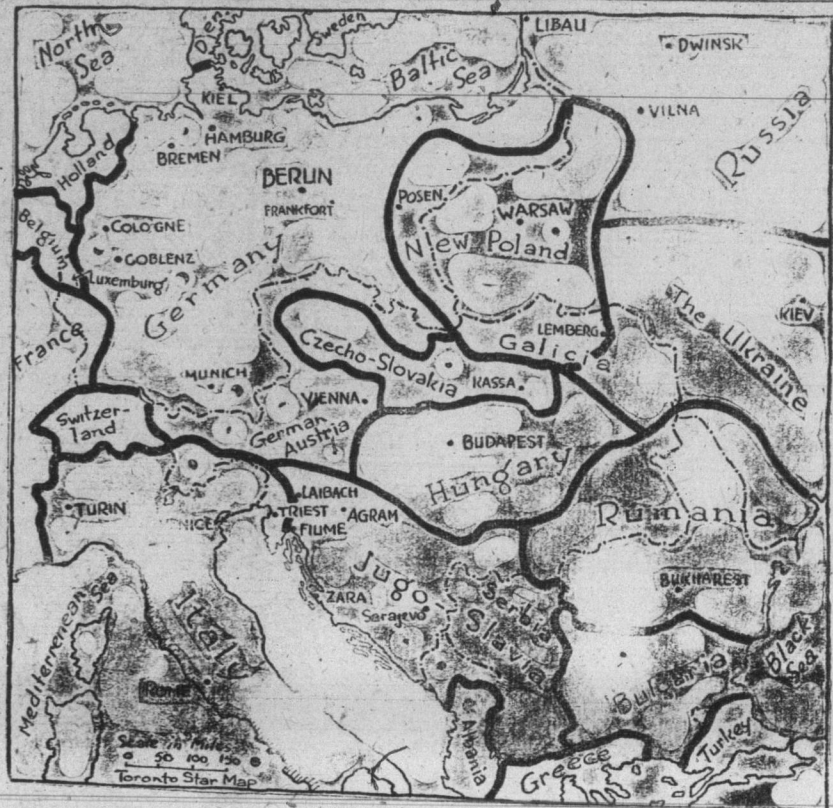

Colonel Roosevelt was sixty years old. Having been born in New York, October 27, 1858. He was the twenty-sixth President of the United States, having succeeded to the Presidency on the death of William McKinley, who was shot and killed at Buffalo, N. Y.

HAD NOT BEEN IN GOOD HEALTH. His health had not been very good for some time. In fact he had left Roosevelt Hospital only a short time ago and had gone home. Shortly before that he had undergone an operation at the hospital and was practically dead as a result of it.

HIS LIFE A BRILLIANT CHAPTER. The life of the former President is one of the most brilliant chapters in American history. Loved and admired in the same quarters, he succeeded, however, in acquiring the enmity of many prominent men and his later life was filled with strife on the one hand and preparation for even a more strenuous public life on the other. It was popularly believed, in fact, that Roosevelt would make an effort to become president again at the next national election, although no expression of any kind on the subject had come from him. The most recent great public effort of Roosevelt came at the last Republican National Convention, when, after the Republicans had refused to nominate him, he turned his strength to Senator Lodge. The latter, however, failed to secure the nomination and Charles E. Hughes was named to oppose Woodrow Wilson. Hughes then gained the full support of Colonel Roosevelt.

HIS PATRIOTIC MOVEMENTS. Roosevelt's war record was full of patriotic movements. His opposition to the Democratic Administration in its conduct of the war was marked. At the outbreak of hostilities he offered to raise a regiment of soldiers and head it in an expedition to France. His offer was refused. He was a pioneer in the plea for military preparedness in the United States and fought hard for a large army and a powerful navy long before this country entered the war.

(WASHINGTON MOURNS). WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Washington mourned deeply to-day for the former President Theodore Roosevelt. Many of the nation's leading men have expressed personal grief when told of the colonel's death. Political friends and foe alike agreed that this nation had suffered a great loss. The flag on the White House, where once T. R. lived, was at half mast. Likewise the flag under which he had fought was ordered

The Sad Demise of Mr. L. B. Guggisberg

OCURRED IN DETROIT, MICH., SATURDAY EVENING. He Had Just Returned from This City After Christmas Holidays.

Intelligence which has caused general regret among his many friends is that about the death of Mr. Leon B. Guggisberg in Detroit, Mich., who left here only a few days ago after a holiday visit with his mother and sister, Mrs. John Guggisberg and Mrs. Charles H. Janzen, respectively. Mr. Guggisberg returned to Detroit last Tuesday afternoon and soon afterwards became ill with an affliction which unfortunately terminated fatally. He passed away at 11.20 o'clock Saturday evening in Grace Hospital, Detroit.

The late Leon Byron Guggisberg was born in Preston on May 16th in 1889. Since he was nine years of age he resided in Gaylord, Mich., where he went as a lad to make his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott.

In Gaylord, he established a shoe store business with his brother, John, in 1910. He was also connected as salesman with Messrs. G. H. Bass and Co., shoe manufacturers. Included in the territory which he covered was Alaska. After the United States had entered the war he enlisted with the army and he was engaged on government work up to the time of his death, holding the responsible position of Labor Statistician for the Cadillac Motor Co., Detroit.

Mr. Guggisberg, while he had not resided in this district for many years, nevertheless, had many acquaintances, who will be pained to hear that he has passed away. His personality, kindness and gentleness impressed all who met him. The family loss also means a loss for those who were his associates in social circles and in business.

Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. John Guggisberg, city; one sister, Mrs. Charles H. Janzen, city; three brothers, Harold and Carl, also of this city, and John C. Gaylord, Mich. He was unmarried. His father, the late John Guggisberg, died about a year and a half ago.

The body has been brought here from Detroit. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Janzen to Mount Hope Cemetery and will be private.

Mr. Guggisberg was a member of No. 366 Masonic Lodge, Gaylord, Mich., and also of the Knights of Pythias Lodge, in that city.

Among the relatives from outside points who are here to attend the funeral are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Guggisberg, of Gaylord; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott, of the same place; and Mrs. Lena Wilson, of Detroit. To the bereaved mother, sister and brothers, sympathy and condolences are offered in the dark hours occasioned by the affliction.

St. Paul's Had Another Year of Prosperity

A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP FOR THE YEAR. A New Organ Will Be Secured.

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran church was held yesterday. Although forty of the congregation's young men were called to defend their country and church, the membership showed a very substantial increase. The number of contributing members being very nearly 500. The financial statement showed a surplus of $400.35 with no outstanding accounts or any financial obligations whatsoever. Today's surplus was exactly the salary of the present minister at the end of his first year, with the balance sheet showing a deficit, while the present salary is four times that amount, with a war bonus of $200.00 for 1918. This, as nothing else, shows the development of the church during the past.

Very substantial assistance was given to the church in the past by Mr. W. H. Schmalz as choir director. For the past 30 years Mr. Schmalz has undertaken this arduous and cumbersome task without any remuneration. A most hearty vote of thanks was tendered him and a committee appointed to buy for him a fitting remembrance.

A professional man was chosen as Mr. Schmalz's successor, who will begin his duties forthwith. It was also decided to purchase a new organ. A committee was appointed to arrange for the necessary funds and as soon as prices recede to normal, the new organ will be installed.

The election resulted in the reelection of all the last year's officials. A feature of St. Paul's church is the total absence of the collection plate. St. Paul's church has no collections in the ordinary sense of the word. All the monies needed are raised by voluntary pledges at the beginning of the year. Man in his natural state is opposed to the Gospel, it is pointed out. Collections further this natural opposition. A church without collections neutralizes this antagonism and places the issue square before man. Is not the Gospel of Christ worth so much? You will not be approached for any more.

In many churches the clearing of the Gospel is disturbed by the jingle of small coin, and the financial needs of the church stand out prominently ahead of the needs of the individual soul. "My brethren, these things sought not so to be," it is pointed out.

The financial condition of St. Paul's Lutheran church proves conclusively that a church can be financed without the old time collection—or "Klingelbettel"—methods.

People To Dictate The Peace Terms

MILAN, Jan. 6. (By Robert J. Bender).—"The peace settlement must be dictated by the people of the world, not by the statesmen," President Wilson declared to-day, in acknowledgment bestowed upon him of citizenship of Milan. "The peace delegates must abide by the spirit of the working classes and obtain peace for the general interest, instead of special interests," the President said. "The workers are the leaders in establishing international opinion, which must be the guide of the peace conference throughout their labors."

Toronto Has a Murder Case

Also an Attempted Suicide. Toronto Jan. 6.—Mrs. Charlotte Hurry, 38, wife of Thomas Huntley, 127 Campbell avenue, was murdered in her home late this afternoon and Pte. John Cook aged 40, a returned soldier with his throat gashed by a razor is under police guard at the Western Hospital charged with her murder and attempting suicide.

About 4.30 Cook rushed from the house exclaiming: "My throat is cut. I've gone crazy, but I'm not done yet!" Mrs. Arthur K. Dawes who lives next door, overhearing him, gave the alarm and Pte. Cook was taken to the hospital where he was found with the body of Mrs. Huntley lying in the parlor her throat cut apparently by a razor. From the kitchen at the rear of the house to where the body was found were evidences of a terrible struggle.

Apparently the woman had been attacked in the kitchen and fled towards the front of the house fighting for her life all the way, and arriving in the front parlor, found herself trapped by the police. The police were notified and medical attendance secured for Cook who was subsequently removed to the hospital under guard. His injuries are reported not to be severe.

Cook who went overseas with the 75th Battalion had made his home with the Huntleys previous to enlisting and returned there when he came back from overseas.

Mr. Huntley who is employed by Paddy Brothers West Toronto was a returned soldier who was enlisted in the 75th Battalion and was a member of the 75th Battalion. He was a member of the 75th Battalion and was a member of the 75th Battalion.

BOLSHEVISM STEADILY GAINING GROUND IN GERMANY

An Intelligent Movement Forced by Circumstances, Rather Than the Russian Manifestation of Violence.

BERLIN, Jan. 6. (By John Graudenz).—Bolshevism in Germany is in general an intellectual movement with practically no violence compared with the Russian variety. This form of radicalism is slowly gaining ground in Germany. The reasons for this can be summed up as follows:

First—Russian funds are being spent freely by agitation among the workmen and soldiers; second—there is a growing fear that Entente capitalism intends to exploit Germany; third—Unemployment and lack of food continue. Men out of work and deserters from the army and navy are finding it increasingly difficult to get enough to eat and are easily influenced by the Bolsheviks.

Most of the followers of Karl Liebknecht, the recognized leader of the movement, are to be found in Berlin, Bremen and a few industrial districts in the Rhineland and Silesia. It is impossible to obtain actual figures as to the number of Bolsheviks in Germany, but the nominations of Spartacus (German Bolshevik) as candidates for the national election indicate they are in a very small minority. At a recent meeting of Spartacus there were only a hundred delegates were present from all parts of the country.

Revolting Conditions on the Northland

Returned Soldiers Testify to Filth and Insufficiency of Food.

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—On the resumption of the Northland jury this morning Mr. Holden, counsel for the White Star Line, declared that the company having been communicated with had considered it unwise that the ship's officer should be allowed to give evidence and go until the evidence was heard to complaint had been submitted. "Then said Justice Hodgins, 'The company thinks the ship should be detained until the enquiry is finished—it may become a question as to who, the Admiralty or the company, is responsible for the holding of the ship and for the expense thereby incurred. Mr. Holden intimated that the ship would be held till the inquiry was over."

Private Alfred Blackman, Toronto, formerly in the forestry corps, was the first witness called. He declared that he had two specific complaints regarding food. "The second day out, he declared 'I wasn't eating soup myself but the man next me and he fished a maggot out of his. 'Did he complain?' asked his Lordship. 'No Sir he just vomited' replied the witness. 'Are you quite sure that was the cause?' 'I am. 'Wasn't it pretty rough weather?' 'Yes. 'And when men are sick vomiting is not uncommon.' 'Well, some are seasick.' Another time witness said he had gone to dinner and all that he had on his plate was a little piece of bone. He had complained to the orderly officer. The chief steward was called and he came and said Blackman had his allowance. "Then some one started to yell and as it ended up I got nothing at all. 'You had no dinner at all?' 'I had two pieces of sliced potato. I went away disgusted.' 'Why asked his Lordship. 'Didn't he offer you stay to see what happened following your complaints?' It seems a pity you didn't."

Witness further stated that he had trouble getting bread. On one occasion he had gone to the pantry and been refused. Witness had then complained to the orderly officer Lieut. Stacey, but he could not get to the pantry. He had a further complaint to make regarding the jam. "I didn't eat any of it myself," he said, "because on three different occasions I saw the steward mixing hot water into it. He had not purchased any food but had seen it purchased from the stewards. Witness further complained that on account of sweet pipes in his bunk room his blankets were always wet. When he slept water kept dripping on his back. Asked why somebody didn't remedy the condition he declared "What was everybody's business but nobody's business. 'You seemed to have been quite philosophical about it?' 'I didn't worry much.'"

Private M. Green of Toronto was the next witness called. He had been in the forestry and railway construction corps. He had complained on several occasions as to the shortage of food at dinner time. What he had received in the nature of meat portion on one occasion was all fat, simply left on his plate. He had got no more though he had protested to the pantry steward, who declared that that was all he was going to give him. "If you wanted to be sure of getting anything at the noon meal you had to line up an hour ahead. If you sat on your bunk at eleven o'clock and waited you had some chance of being fed at noon. If you didn't you had to wait for an hour afterwards. Witness had come to Canada originally on the Caronia. "How would you say the accommodation on the Northland for the troops compared with the accommodation on being Caronia in the afternoon for immigrants?" asked Mr. Ord. "You could not very well compare them," replied the witness. "Conditions were so much better on the Caronia."

He didn't think the Northland suited for carrying third class passengers. Lance Corporal Cook, Toronto, twice wounded, was the next witness called. He had fought in the 38th battalion and had seen 17 months service, having been wounded once at Lens and again at Arras. On the Northland he said ventilation was very bad and food was very scarce. He had complained as to the food to the steward who had told him he had his share and that if he wanted more food he had better line up again. Everybody seemed to be complaining and the attention of the officers was called to the situation, but it didn't do much good. Water was also scarce and for several days the men had to buy lemonade or gingerale at the canteen. He had crossed to England on the Empress of Britain and the conditions were much better on that vessel. "There was a better system," he said. "The men had always lots to eat."

Pte. W. H. Press, of Stratford, was the next witness. He had been six months in action and had been wounded at St. Elloi. During the first five days there were times when there was an insufficiency of meat and vegetables. After that he was employed in the second class cabin and got lots to eat. During the first five days he declared that stench and heat in quarters were oppressive and the men did not want to wait any longer than they had to for food. Yet they could not get out any supply unless they did wait; moreover, they were compelled to line-up. The latrines had overflowed and a hundred gallons of filthy water had poured down the stairs into his section.

Ontario Mennonites Have Raised The Sum of $60,000

TO BE TURNED OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR CHARITABLE PURPOSE

Possibly For Erection of Soldiers' Orphans' Home.
The Mennonites in Ontario had conscientious objections to war and they had more or less ready or conventional rights to our government that they should not be called on to do military service. The Ottawa government recognized their claims in a modified way.

Some months ago the Mennonites in their churches in Ontario and thru their ministers began raising a fund to turn over to the government for some charitable purpose as a mark of their appreciation of Canada recognizing their claims on the government in this respect. They have raised $60,000 and they will meet here in a few days to decide on the form of the offering. A number of them would like to see the money go toward a national home for the orphans of Canadian soldiers killed in the war.

After their conference here next week a delegation may be sent to Ottawa to take the matter up with the government. Toronto World.

Great Interest in Revival Meetings

The evangelistic services in the Alma St. U. B. Church are creating a great interest both in the church and in the City. The messages of the Evangelist are full of love, enthusiasm and power. Breaches are being repaired and broken down walls built up because, like in the days of Nehemiah, the people have a mind to work. Although the meetings have continued only a few days, the church is being crowded to the doors.

In the morning session of the Sunday School, Pte. John Woerner, a returned soldier gave a short talk on some experiences in the Great War. The evangelist Mrs. Durham gave an illustrated sermon and showed by the use of chemicals, how sin darkens and uns pure lives and how the cup of salvation restores to sweetness and purity. The pastor gave a short address on America's new task to feed the starving of the Old Testament World during the winter and a very liberal offering was taken for Syrian and Armenian Relief.

The church was filled to hear the morning message of the evangelist. The evangelist preached from Rev. 3, on the theme "Overcomers." The message was an exceptional appeal and full of power. The speaker held up Christ as a Captain of Salvation, through who we can overcome Self, the World, Satan and Death. The evening appeal was full of joy, inspiration and comfort to the believer, as a Christ most real and desirable to the unbeliever.

In the evening the evangelist spoke to a crowded house from Luke 8:28, "What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not." The speaker said that the attitude of most people still was that of the man who was full of demons, living in the tombs, not wishing to have anything to do with God's Son, looking upon Him not as the Saviour and life giver, but as a tormentor. Like in the days of Noah, The Prophets and Christ himself, the people still want nothing to do in a real and vital way with Jesus, the Son of God, the Father. They care neither for God's day, His Name or His Time. People still devalue his day, take His Name in vain, and squander his time. Men still squander and wreck their lives for time and eternity because they will have nothing to do with Jesus. Tombs are still their habitations because they love darkness rather than light and death rather than life. The evangelist gave many beautiful illustrations from real life showing how Christ rescues the perishing and lifts up the fallen. The evening message was one of the strongest appeals to accept Jesus as Saviour and King ever given in the Alma St. Church.

Evangelist Durham will speak every evening this week including Saturday, Song Service 7:45 preaching at 8 p.m.

AT ZION
Yesterday was Missionary Day at Zion Church and the pastor, Rev. J. P. Hauch, preached two forceful and very practical sermons, which were highly appreciated by the large audiences.

The speaker pointed out that too many people have an altogether too small conception of the claims of the Kingdom of Christ, and consequently they are not measuring up to the needs and demands of the Church of Christ. He drew a comparison between the recent world war and its demands upon the public and how they were promptly met, and the Kingdom of heaven stating that Christ's was a world program as well, and he always spoke in world terms: "Go ye into all the world;" "I am the light of the world;" "That the world may believe;" John followed and cried: "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world." Christmas need to widen their vision in order to live up to the call of the Kingdom.

Special envelopes were distributed setting forth the missionary cause and the various benevolences of the church, through which every one was given an opportunity to give a practical answer to this appeal.

The choir rendered suitable music for the occasion, and at the evening service. Miss Ethel Hinchcliffe, soloist of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, rendered "O rest in the Lord," in a pleasing manner. She will be with us again on the following Sunday, and we hope to hear her again.

At the Bible School the new officers took their places, and the newly-elected Superintendent, Mr. W. K. Weber, gave his inaugural address, and outlined the plans and needs for the New Year.

A celebration of the Holy Communion took place at the New Jerusalem Church at the morning service yesterday.

A sermon on the topic "How the Lord Manifested and revealed himself in his first and second advents" was delivered in the evening by the Minister Rev. Mr. Wetley.

At King Street Baptist the pastor, Rev. P. C. Cameron, spoke on "A Full-er life" at the morning service, and in the evening the sermon was a New Year's message, "Place where two seas meet."

Holy Communion features the services at the First English Lutheran Church yesterday, the event being observed in the evening. Rev. J. Maurer conducted the services.

At St. Peter's Lutheran Church the usual services were held both morning and evening. The minister, Rev. Dr. H.A. Sperling conducted and preached at both services.

"I never heard so much kicking in my life" was the way in which Company Q-M-Sgt. Flood of Toronto, the first witness in the morning said. During the first few days a number of the men were sick and unable to take food. As rations were drawn for all there were then no complaints about insufficiency. But later there were complaints at very meal. Ventilation in the men's section was also bad. The Northland was shut to sail for England at 10 a.m. to-day. She is being held, however, to enable her officers to give evidence at the inquiry. While the terms on which the admiral took over the Northland on a time charter have not been made public, it is stated that the delay will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000 per day.

Investigations Into Complaints About Northland

Ottawa Jan 5.—Investigations into conditions on the transport Northland proceeded before Justice Hodgins throughout Saturday morning and afternoon. The stories told by returned soldiers were similar to those of the previous day. There were complaints of bad ventilation below of insufficient food of the sale of food by stewards.

"Did you?" Mr. Orde Government counsel asked of Sgt. Charles Smith. "Yes," was the reply "one man had a chicken in his egg."

"Did you hear of that," counsel asked in astonished tones. "I saw it," Sgt. Smith quickly responded. "It was brought out to the sergeants' room for us to see."

But Sgt. Smith admitted later that to have an egg on a ship was "buying a pig in a poke." He complained too that one occasion two pints of water were put to the men's jam to make it go around. "until it looked like this"—and here the sergeant tapped the water jug standing on the table before him. With regard to the quality of the food generally, however, Sgt. Smith did not complain. His complaints were directed against the manner in which it was served.

Soldiers Home Coming Campaign

War Work and After-War Work

of the SALVATION ARMY

"FIRST TO SERVE—LAST TO APPEAL"

If one institution in the Empire was prepared for war, it was the Salvation Army. For fifty-three years it has been relieving distress wherever and whenever the need arose.

The Salvation Army has always been organized on a military basis—inured to hardship, sacrifice and service. It is always in action, day and night.

When the War came, intensifying human suffering and the need for bodily and spiritual help in a thousand ways, the Salvation Army was ready.

The twelfth day of the war found the Salvation Army at work behind the lines in Belgium. It has maintained 197 huts, 96 hostels and 40 rest rooms; 1,200 uniformed workers and 45 ambulances have been in service at the front—in addition to taking care of the needs of soldiers' families here at home, assisting the widows and orphans, and relieving distress arising from the absence of the soldier head of the family.

Hostilities have ceased, leaving vast and complex problems, and these problems arise notwithstanding all the Reparation work the Government has undertaken, in addition to the granting of pensions. Above and beyond what other agencies are accomplishing, there are thousands of cases of urgent human need among soldiers' families that the Salvation Army is trained and equipped to meet—provided the financial help is forthcoming. Hence—

The Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund

JANUARY 19th to 25th

While it could do so, the Salvation Army has carried on without any general appeal. Now the crisis has arisen, because our three hundred thousand soldier boys are returning. The budget for essential work during the coming year has been prepared. A million dollars must be raised to continue the after-the-war activities, which include:

Hostels for Soldiers

Salvation Army hostels are vitally necessary for the protection and comfort of the soldier at the many stopping places between France and his home here in Canada. These hostels—or military hotels—provide good food, clean beds, wholesome entertainment at a price the soldier can afford to pay. In addition to hostels already in operation, many more are needed near stations and landing places, from Paris, through London, Halifax, St. John, right through Canada to Vancouver. If the boys do not have the hostels, WHERE would they go?

Care of the Wives, Widows, Dependents and Orphans of Soldiers

Scores, and hundreds, of cases could be cited where soldiers overseas have been comforted by the assurance that the Salvation Army had stepped in to relieve their families from dire need. For instance, a mother with six children is discovered—no fuel, weather freezing, food and funds exhausted by sickness and other troubles. They are taken to the Salvation Army Emergency Receiving Home for a few days until their home is made habitable once more. Widow of soldier sends for help; Salvation Army workers cope with immediate necessity—send mother to Maternity Home, three children to Emergency Home. Winter and 300,000 boys returning increase the demands on the Salvation Army, whose personal help alone is of avail.

The service of the Salvation Army, founded on sacrifice, demonstrates the true Christian spirit. It is directed to the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. For two generations the Salvation Army has stood out and out for God.

It approaches practical problems in a practical way and achieves results. It co-operates with all—overlaps none. It recognizes neither color, race, nor creed. No organization does greater work at less cost. To carry on its great work among the 300,000 returning soldiers and their families, it must have financial help. On its behalf members of the Dominion Government, business men, and returned soldiers endorse this appeal for funds.

"Let Your Gratitude Find Expression in Service."

MARKETS NEEDED BY THE FARMERS

Presence of Thriving Cities Near By, Important to Residents of Country.

Residents of towns and cities everywhere are beginning to realize more acutely the fact that, except under very unusual conditions, their communities will prosper and develop only in proportion to the prosperity and development that comes to the farming sections which surround them. Realizing this fact, commercial clubs and chambers of commerce have in recent years been devoting as much of their attention to developing the country districts as they have to securing new industries and attracting new residents. They know that as the country about the towns becomes more thickly settled and as the farmers become more prosperous the more money will be spent in the towns and the faster these towns will grow. It is largely for this reason that the residents of the towns and cities have been doing more and more to aid the farmers in growing bigger crops and in improving marketing conditions. The towns and cities have contributed more and more liberally toward the building of good roads in the country districts and have paid a large part of the expense of maintaining agricultural experts to assist the farmers in growing bigger crops and getting more money out of their crops when they are placed on the market.

Not One-sided Proposition But this is not a one-sided proposition. If the city is dependent upon the country, so is the country dependent upon the city. What the farmer raises is worth absolutely nothing to him unless he can sell it at a price that will pay him a fair return on the money and time invested in its production. The farmer, without markets, would be in the same fix as a storekeeper without customers. In almost every case the farmer is dependent upon the nearby town or city for a market for at least his perishable products.

In the language of the street, it is a fifty-fifty proposition. The town needs the country and the country needs the town. The farmer needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in securing a market for his products. He needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in getting good roads over which he may haul his products without losing more time than the products are worth. He often needs the assistance of the storekeepers in helping him over a period of financial stringency.

Storekeeper Needs Farmer's Trade

On the other hand the storekeeper needs the business of the farmer. He does not ask the farmer to sell him his products on credit even though at the time he may be hard pushed for cash and may need more credit badly. He does not ask the farmer to help him build a sidewalk in front of his store. He does not ask for the business of the farmer unless he can sell the farmer the goods he needs at as low a price as he can secure them for elsewhere.

But does he always get the farmer's business? Ask the mail order man in the big city or ask the postmaster or the express agent in any town or city in the country. They could, if they would, tell of thousands of dollars sent away to the big cities to pay for goods that could be purchased just as cheaply and much more conveniently in the nearest town or city. These thousands of dollars, when sent to the mail order houses in the big cities, never come back. They do not help to build good roads past the farmers' houses. When the next crops are harvested, the mail order man won't buy any of the farmer's products. The potatoes, the tomatoes, the melons and other things that the farmer raises may lie and rot upon the ground so far as the mail order man is concerned.

No Credit from Mail Order Man

The mail order man won't sell the farmer 2 cents' worth of goods on one day's credit no matter how badly the farmer may need the goods or how little ready cash he has to pay for them. If the farmer's house burns down, the mail order man is not going to sell him any lumber on credit so that he may build another home. He will take what cash he can get the farmer to send him and there his interest in the farmer ends. If the farmer has no money to pay for what he needs, the mail order man will find others to help swell the stream of dollars which is building up his great fortune and helping build up the great city in which he lives. Let the home merchant help the farmer when he needs it. And the local merchant does help the farmer as long as he can, but there comes a time when he cannot. He cannot make money without customers. Without the legitimate profit that he makes from his sales he cannot "carry" the farmer over the rough spots, he cannot contribute to the good roads funds, he cannot pay the farmer cash for his products!

PRIVILEGE DEGENERATING INTO LICENSE.

In a statement issued on Saturday, the Board of Park Commissioners drew the public's attention to a number of nuisances, which have, like weeds, sprung up in Victoria park. Some skaters, while using the park lake have abused their privileges and wrought damages to trees and the boathouse, and others are said to nightly have gone on a war dance, to the annoyance of nearby residents.

That these nuisances cannot be permitted to continue needs no argument. The Board are public trustees, placed there not only to beautify the park and increase its attractions as a breathing spot and recreation ground for all who use it, but to protect it from injury by thoughtless persons.

The parks are public grounds, provided for enjoyment. These are commonly owned. Those who so far forget themselves as to destroy a tree or to damage a building are marring their own property. These are injuring themselves as well as every other citizen.

A public park consists of grounds set aside for general use. The money expended in growing grass, mowing trees and cultivating flowers and shrubs distinguishes it from a common. These are the marks of a community's culture. All may freely enjoy their possession while none may wantonly injure the units that form a beautiful whole.

Rightfully citizens, young and old, should take a pride in Victoria park. It has required nearly a generation to bring it to its present state of development. It is one of the city's best assets.

The Board endeavors annually to add to its attractions as a recreation ground, in order that a greater number of citizens may use and enjoy it. To accomplish this it is necessary that regulations be laid down and observed. Were every visitor to the park to pull off a branch from a tree, rip off a board from a building, or destroy a light, the grounds better be converted to other purposes, though to do so would inflict a loss upon the people of the city.

In a word it is desirable that all who will use the park but that none abuse the privilege. The training of the rising generation to understand that while they are at liberty to extract all the fun they can out of their games at the park, they have no license to injure public property, may be difficult yet is necessary. Here is an instance where they carry on their sports to their hearts' content without destroying the sources of their recreation. They can, so to say, eat their cake and still have it.

On the other hand he who destroys a tree or a flower in a park injures himself, in that he loses a proportion of his self-respect. He is the poorer for his indiscretion. Not only this, he has deprived his fellows of the opportunity of enjoying that which he has damaged or destroyed.

A law-abiding community like this, the authorities shrink from inflicting penalties upon thoughtless young folks, who in the exuberance of their spirits commit depredations. They do not even desire to withdraw the privileges granted because of a few offenders. Instead they desire the park to be an uplifting influence. Therefore they turn to parents and teachers and invite their assistance in cultivating a respect for park property.

The word "gentleman" has several meanings. One, which every youth in the community ought to try to attain too, is that of being "a person of refined manners." Having this as an ideal, he will view with disfavor anything savouring of destruction in connection with either private or public property.

The youth of Athens had centuries ago, a motto, which in part reads:

We will reverence and obey the city's laws and do our best to invite a like respect in those above us who are prone to abuse or set them at naught; We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty. Thus in all these ways we will transmit this city not only less but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

FARMS LESS FERTILE.

Canada has about 28,000,000 acres in field crops of which probably 20,000,000 acres are in the three Western Provinces. Is the fertility of the soil being kept up? Is it being exhausted, is it being increased? To get an answer, the Commission of Conservation carried out a survey of 2,245 farms. It asked questions of 2,245 farmers located all over Canada. It took them in groups of about thirty or forty—in all about 60 groups, from British Columbia to Prince Edward Island. On this point, it made a definite enquiry of the farmer as to whether the fertility of his farm was being maintained or was deteriorating.

Here is the answer: 30 per cent. of them reported about the same yield per acre as 20 years ago, 40 per cent. reported some increase in yield, and 30 per cent. reported some decrease. That is to say, the land, as used by 30 per cent. of all the men reporting, was poorer in its power to produce crops than it was 20 years before. From Manitoba, 32 per cent. of the farmers reported about the same yield per acre as 10 years before; not one man reported an increase; and 46 per cent. reported some decrease. That is a summary of the answers to the question when put under an intelligently conducted survey.

We want in Canada more serious and intelligently conducted surveys of our conditions in order that we may acquire real knowledge of facts as they are. Then we can come to conclusions and plan our course of action to deal with the facts discovered and properly interpreted.

In the West, the lure of land was for a time similar to the lure of the Yukon; and the lure of the Yukon in the main led on to disappointed men, deteriorated health, and parts of the Yukon left with less material substance than could be called wealth than it had before. There is some excuse for the pioneers taking more than one generation's share of the fertility stored in soil by the beneficence of nature during long ages of preparation. In the pioneer days they needed and had some right to more than their share of this store of natural wealth while making the place ready for occupation; but, after that first need is satisfied, it becomes their duty to make the place more fertile while in their hands.

The history of other countries and other farmers sheds light on our problems; and we may be instructed, to our great advantage, by their experience. In central New York, wheat growing was followed successfully for 60 years. During 20 years more the success was doubtful. Then it became definitely unprofitable. With a climate favourable for agriculture and propitious for crop-growing, it took 40 years of exclusive grain growing to make that system unprofitable, and 20 years more to compel the farmers to stop that sort of practice. Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and other Western States either have or are making similar history. Commission representatives have gone over them and talked to the old men; from 30 bushels of wheat to the acre they came down to 14.

Certain European countries have within about 30 years been able to effect an increase of about 30 per cent. in the yields per acre of their crops.

On the other hand, over large areas of Canada our methods of farming are exhausting the fertility of our farms to some extent; and there is danger that the fertility of considerable areas will be reduced below the point of profitable farming.

Baseball Meetings This Week.

New York, Jan. 6.—Several matters are on the baseball calendar for this week that promise to furnish some live discussion for the winter league fans. Several trades and changes that have been pending for some time, involving the possible transfer in the controlling interest of one of the major league clubs, are believed about due to come to a head. In addition, important developments are expected from one or two meetings of officials and club owners that are scheduled to be held this week.

Reports from Cincinnati that August Herrmann would tender his resignation as chairman of the National Commission when that body convenes in Chicago today for its annual meeting are construed here to mean that Ban Johnson and Herrmann have determined to acquiesce in the demand of the progressive club owners of both major leagues for a reorganization of the supreme governing body of professional baseball.

At the Hotel Imperial in this city the club owners of the new International league come together today to consider and decide upon important matters preliminary to the opening of the season. First on the agenda will be the election of a president of the league. The man most prominently mentioned in connection with the place appears to be "Davy" Fultz, who held the spotlight for a time as president of the now defunct Players' Fraternity.

Midwinter Tennis at Pinehurst

Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 6.—This resort today became the mecca for the faithful who stand high in the ranks of the tennis world. From North and South some of the foremost racket wielders of America are here to participate in the annual midwinter championship tournament which will be opened tomorrow on the courts of the Pinehurst Country Club. All indications point to the greatest attendance of players ever gathered together at one of these tournaments.

Birthday of Famous Prelate.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 6.—Many messages of greeting were received today at the archiepiscopal residence in this city to remind the Most Rev. Charles Hamilton, Archbishop of Ottawa and Metropolitan of Canada, that this was the eighty-fifth anniversary of his birth. The Archbishop, who is the titular head of the Anglican Church in the Dominion, was born at Hawkesbury, Ont. and received his education at Oxford University. In the early part of his career he was attached to various churches in Quebec. In 1885 he became bishop of Niagara, where he remained until the creation of the diocese of Ottawa in 1896, when he was chosen to be the first bishop of the new diocese. Ten years ago he was made first Archbishop of Ottawa and Metropolitan of Canada.

Non-Partisans to Control.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 6.—With more than three-fourths of the membership of both houses, the Non-Partisan League will be in absolute control of the North Dakota legislature which is to assemble for business tomorrow. In the last session, the Non-Partisans had the majority of the members of the house but lacked control of the senate. At the opening of the session, following the work of organization, the lawmakers will listen to the message of Governor Lynn J. Frazier, in which he will outline the legislative policies for the session. It is expected the Governor will deal particularly with measures aimed at establishing the workingmen's compensation in operation, the establishment of State-owned plants, elevators and flour mills, and other measures for which the Non-Partisan League stands.

This Woman Only Weighed 90 Pounds

Takes Tanlac and She Now Weighs 135 Pounds—Condition Was Alarming

"When my wife began taking Tanlac she only weighed ninety pounds and she now weighs one hundred and thirty-five, giving her an actual gain of forty-five pounds," said Clarence E. Malin, the well-known contractor living at 815 West Fifty-first Street, Seattle, Wash., recently.

Mr. Malin's statement, while indeed remarkable, is by no means exceptional, as thousands of well-known people all over America have testified that they have used the Master Medicine with the same astonishing and gratifying results.

Mrs. Malin commenced to fail in strength and go down hill two years, just after the birth of our last baby, continued Mr. Malin. "Her appetite was very poor and she would get so weak and dizzy at times that she would have to catch hold of something to keep from falling. The least little thing would bring on one of these dizzy spells. She always suffered this way just after getting up in the morning and was hardly ever free from headaches. I have known her to go five or six nights in succession without getting any sound sleep and I don't see how on earth she ever managed to lay down every little while during the day. As I said before, she only weighed ninety pounds and her condition was getting to be alarming.

"She never seemed to be able to get anything to help her, so I got her to take Tanlac and now she is just like a new person and I have never seen her looking better. Her appetite is just fine, she thoroughly enjoys her food and has not had a sign of dizziness since she began taking Tanlac. She sleeps like a child now, is cheerful and happy all the time and her work is not the least trouble to her.

"Well, I had been suffering a great deal with rheumatism in my arms and shoulders. I could scarcely raise my hands to my head and my right arm especially was so stiff that it took every bit of nerve and will power I had to do any work. So I decided to try Tanlac myself, as it was doing my wife so much good and now I never feel a sign of rheumatism. I can swing my arms and use them without feeling a pain of any kind and I also have picked up five or six pounds since I began taking the medicine. I certainly have every reason for praising Tanlac, for it has been a wonderful thing for both my wife and myself."

Tanlac is sold in Kitchener by E. O. Ritz & Co., in Galt by R. W. Meekham, in Hespeler by Jno. R. Phila, in New Hamburg by W. H. Boulton, in Milbank by R. B. Hamilton, in West Montrose by A. E. Riebert & Co., in Preston by L. H. Frick, in Waterloo by A. B. Learm in Doon by L. C. Bullock.

LABOR CAMPAIGN FOR PEACE LEAGUE

London Jan 3.—A great public campaign to advance the establishment of a League of Nations as an integral part of the peace settlement is to be launched in Great Britain tomorrow under the joint auspices of the British Trade Union Congress and the Labor Party. In London the campaign is to be inaugurated with demonstrations in the Albert Hall. Among the speakers invited are G. Bernard Shaw, Arthur Henderson, Ramsay MacDonald, Will Thorne and Mrs. Snowden.

Other demonstrations will be held simultaneously in Glasgow, Birmingham, Manchester, Carlisle, Leeds and Bristol next Sunday which organized labor purposes to observe as League of Nations Sunday, and the trade union and labor movement throughout the United Kingdom has been requested by party leaders to organize meetings of a public and representative character that day.

At all these demonstrations, the following resolutions will be submitted. That this meeting joins in the address of welcome to President Wilson by the Trades Union Congress parliamentary committee and the executive of the Labor Party congratulates him and those others who have worked for the ideal of almost universal acceptance of the League of Nations as the only means of preventing future wars, and calls upon the official British delegation to the Peace Congress to make the definite establishment of the League of Nations one of the foremost clauses in the peace settlement.

Recovered Strength After Sickness
Garrett, Texas.—"The measles left my little boy aged nine years in a very weak, run down condition—he coughed a good deal, and as medicines did not seem to help him, we finally took him out of school, and thought he would never be strong again. One day I read about the cod liver and iron tonic known as Vinol and such a change as it has made in my little boy—it stopped his cough, he is now back in school, strong and well."—Mrs. E.A. Wright.

There is nothing like Vinol to restore strength appetite and vim to pale, sickly children. We strongly recommend Vinol for this purpose.

He—In that case I suppose I'd better not print any kisses there.

Dobbs—Oh, yes. Then there began to be a rapid increase in the female population.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT.

What is it that comes over you one little day, when suddenly out of a clear sky comes the greyest of clouds to settle on your heart?

Oh, you are just one of the big moody sisterhood and so you can't explain. Why should you know wherefore the rose color fades all at once into a sudden grey? Why should a child know why it opens its petals at sunrise and closes them again at sunset?

What is it that you really want? Religion? A surprise? Music? An admirer? A new hat?—this much you DO know, you want SOMETHING ELSE! Your whole being cries aloud for a change of everything, inside and out. 'T would help some if you could go to a little church sit quietly in a deepy garden and on your knees there say, "Gentle Jesus meek and mild, look upon a little child."

and mild, look upon a little child."

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

CHAPTER IV.

Martin Ray was living in one of the crowded streets of Manchester. The north was better suited to him than the south, because the great centers of industry were there for some few months he had been unfortunate. Heaven, had blessed the beautiful land with a fine, warm summer the harvest was plentiful the fruit ripened in rich abundance; there was a general prosperity; no foreign war caused anxiety and agitation at home; orders from abroad had come in freely, and people were busy at work. There was no time for considering how the hand and money of the rich were to be divided; men did not care to be drawn from their work by agitation of any kind; and Martin Ray had had fewer lectures to himself. The contributions from different committees came in slowly. He was compelled to be content with writing pamphlets, which he had to publish, and underwent so much revision as to make them pointless. He was all the more eager to bring Leah forward. The girl has genius—their fire and power", he said to himself. "My mantle must fall on her. Men will listen to words from that beautiful mouth that they will not hear from mine."

He had trained her splendidly. She was well read and thoughtful. She was a girl of magnificent talent full of energy and the restless fire that proclaims genius. He had never told her until now what his intentions were with regard to her, and on this day he had called her into the miserable little room he dignified by the name of study, to communicate his plans to her.

"You have grown very beautiful, Leah," he said, looking at her quite calmly. "very beautiful; and it is time you know for what purpose Heaven has sent you that same beauty."

The girl smiled and blushed. She did not remember that her father had ever used such words to her before.

Martin Ray went on—

"You have a grand mission in life, Leah. You must not be as other girls; you must not think that dress, gayety, enjoyment, love, and marriage are the end and aim of your existence. You have a far more important future in store for you."

She looked up at him in wonder.

"I did not know that I had any mission, father," she said, quietly.

"What is it?"

"The greatest, Leah, that ever fell to a woman. I have been preaching and teaching at my life. I have given up everything in this world for the cause of the people—all my hopes, my ambition. I have served them, lived for them, spent my life for them; and now, even from the proudest of men, my mantle has fallen—and it has fallen upon you."

"I do not understand," she replied.

"What I tell you," he said. "You must take my place. I can preach and teach no longer. You must do it for me. You are young and beautiful; you have great talent; you have a clear, vibrating sweet voice that will make its way to the very hearts of men; you have the fire that belongs to genius; you have a brilliant imagination—indeed, I may say that you have every requirement; and a lady orator will be a novelty such as is not seen every day."

"What do you want me to be, father?" she asked slowly.

"A teacher of the people," he replied, grandly.

"How can I teach when I know nothing?" she asked.

"You have plenty of knowledge, and when it fails I will supply what you may need," he said. "I want you to set forth my doctrines, Leah, to spread my teachings. I want you to interpret my thoughts and ideas to the world. They will live after me, and I shall be famous after I am dead."

"But, father," she remarked, gravely, "you have spent your life, you say, in making known your belief; and if you, so wise, so good, so earnest, have not succeeded, what can I do? A girl, young, and untrained, ignorant?"

He interrupted her eagerly.

"I have succeeded in a measure," he said. "But one life is not long enough for the work. You must carry it on for me. You are just the person who can help me in my difficulty. What is your difficulty?"

"Well, my wife has twins and I have to fall in with the troops on deck, and would like some one to help her to look after the babies on shore. Of course we will look after them. Then there was another woman who was not at all well, and she had five children, and unfortunately her husband was not with her, so we took the whole lot under our wing."

"When they left the ship, we had relay of women—two, the mothers when they stepped off at the bottom of the gangway, take their babies from them, and conduct them to the waiting room. Necessarily there was some delay before they could take the train, and it was during this interval that our women did very splendid work, and where their forethought told."

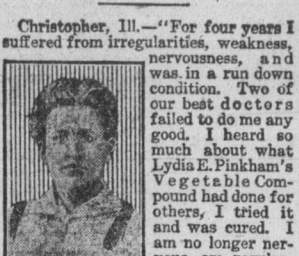

"While we were in the sheds all kinds of people came to us. One distressed fellow asked us to help him with regard to his wife, who was coming on a later boat, as she had been unable to procure passage with him—would we see that someone met and looked after her? Another woman had secured passage, but her husband, a French-Canadian, had been detained. How could she get in touch with her husband's people who were living in Quebec? In relays we stood by the whole day, until the last train pulled out about ten o'clock at night."

"To fill in the time of waiting Adjutant Best distributed postcards, which we afterwards collected and posted. Then, too, we arranged, as we were sending wires to all the main centres, if anyone gave us the name and address, we would see that their wire was sent on. Naturally, there was quite a rush."

The recent November election, at which Michigan, Oklahoma and South Dakota enfranchised their women, resulted in the addition of 1,500,000 women of voting age to the electorate of the United States.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HELENS, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience.

If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your case. The result of its long experience is at your service.

ARMY GREET'S NEW BABIES.

Warm Welcome on Dock for the Wives and Children of Returning Soldiers.

The problem of providing for the comfort of the many English brides— and Scotch and Irish brides, too—of the returned soldier, until they are settled in Canada, is engaging the attention of the Salvation Army. Recently at St. John, N.B., a transport arrived with a large number of women and children, a great many of the latter being infants.

The Chief Secretary, Colonel McMillan, was in St. John, and, learning of the expected arrival of so many women and children, he called together the Salvation Army Officers and made arrangements for the meeting of this boat. Mrs. Ensign Condie took charge of the women workers.

"The ship came up in the morning about nine o'clock. It was snowing a wet, sloppy snow. The deck were crowded with soldiers, and standing amongst them were many young women with their babies. As soon as the ship pulled in and the gang way was thrown across, another Salvationist and I were amongst the first who climbed on board. We were greeted everywhere with cries of 'Good old Army!' In the same of the Salvation Army in Canada I bade all the boys on deck a hearty welcome back to their own country."

"I then went back to the dining room, where most of the women and children were waiting. It would have done one good to have seen the look of pleasure with which this fine body of women greeted the uniform. Our first encounter was with a big Canadian soldier, who came to us and said, 'You are just the people who can help me in my difficulty. What is your difficulty?' 'Well, my wife has twins and I have to fall in with the troops on deck, and would like some one to help her to look after the babies on shore. Of course we will look after them. Then there was another woman who was not at all well, and she had five children, and unfortunately her husband was not with her, so we took the whole lot under our wing.'

"When they left the ship, we had relay of women—two, the mothers when they stepped off at the bottom of the gangway, take their babies from them, and conduct them to the waiting room. Necessarily there was some delay before they could take the train, and it was during this interval that our women did very splendid work, and where their forethought told."

"While we were in the sheds all kinds of people came to us. One distressed fellow asked us to help him with regard to his wife, who was coming on a later boat, as she had been unable to procure passage with him—would we see that someone met and looked after her? Another woman had secured passage, but her husband, a French-Canadian, had been detained. How could she get in touch with her husband's people who were living in Quebec? In relays we stood by the whole day, until the last train pulled out about ten o'clock at night."

"To fill in the time of waiting Adjutant Best distributed postcards, which we afterwards collected and posted. Then, too, we arranged, as we were sending wires to all the main centres, if anyone gave us the name and address, we would see that their wire was sent on. Naturally, there was quite a rush."

The recent November election, at which Michigan, Oklahoma and South Dakota enfranchised their women, resulted in the addition of 1,500,000 women of voting age to the electorate of the United States.

A Nation's Safety depends upon more than wealth or the power of its mighty guns. It rests in its robust children and in its strong, vigorous manhood.

Service and Satisfaction

Now that the season of inclement weather has arrived The News Record is particularly desirous that the service rendered by its carrier boys shall be specially satisfactory. One of the laxities in service to be strictly disciplined is the failure of the carrier boys to place papers inside boxes or between doors, so as to protect the papers against snow and wet, which is equally annoying to failure to deliver the paper at all. Subscribers who have reason to complain on account of any laxity or courtesy in newsboys' service will confer a favor upon the publishers by notifying the News Record office.

Fire Truck Out on Saturday

The Fire Department received two calls on Saturday, both for chimney fires. In the afternoon, one from Brubacher St. and one from Spring St. at about 10:30 in the evening. Good time was made on both trips, there being no damage at either places.

Choir Director Honored

At a social gathering in the basement of St. Matthew's after the regular practice of the adult choir, Mr. Otto G. Smith, the director, was agreeably surprised by the members, who presented him with a beautiful upholstered cane chair, as a token of their appreciation of his directorship and his personal qualities. Mr. Smith fittingly acknowledged the act of kindness.

Scout News

The fact that winter has now set in does not intervene with the work of the local boys. Every Thursday the boys meet in the basement of the Presbyterian Church and spend the evening working on the different tests that scouts must pass before becoming proficient. Last Thursday saw the signing up of nine "leaders" making a total membership of 3. Their initiation taking place before a good attendance of old scouts.

Infant Died

The death occurred on Saturday of the infant daughter, Catherine, of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer, city, aged 2 years.

Health of City Satisfactory

The health of the city is satisfactory. Only one case of scarlet fever is reported. No diphtheria cases are reported. Only a comparatively few cases of influenza exist in the city; at the Isolation Hospital there are only three patients.

Are Again Open

The indefatigable worker at the head of the Red Cross, Miss Jackson, is again at the rooms after the Christmas and New Year's holidays. The work of the Society will continue to be carried on for many months yet. The older workers are expected to help in the afternoon and the young ladies in the evenings.

Good Sleighting in Michigan

"There are about eight inches of snow and sleighing is general," Mr. J. B. Scott of Gaylord, Mich., said today in speaking about conditions in the town where he resides. "We can always depend on it that we will have snow in the winter season," he remarked. Conditions generally are very good on our side he stated. "Coming over I noticed that quite a number of factories between here and Port Huron are not operating. I presume that they have been engaged with war orders and that many of them were especially built for the purpose."

Operated Under Disadvantage

The Street Railway line to-day was at a disadvantage, several regular men being off duty owing to illness or to other causes. Messrs. Lachman and Davis are laid up, while Mr. Underwood was not able to be on duty owing to illness in his family, and Mr. Frickey was off owing to the bereavement occasioned by the death of Mrs. Frickey.

Despite the handicap a good service was given all day. Friends will learn with interest that Mr. Frank Martin will again join the staff.

Elections today

The elections in the majority of municipalities is taking place today.

MAY EXTEND TIME FOR SHIPPING WINE

Ottawa.—The Government will probably accede to the request of the grape growers and wine makers of Western Ontario for an extension of the period in which they may ship their product.

As the law stands at present the manufacture must cease at New Year's. This has been interpreted as also banning the transportation of existing stocks of wine within the province. It is very likely that any doubts will be removed and the right of shipment continued.

Hot Election fight on in Brantford

Brantford Jan 5.—When the polls close at 7 o'clock Monday night the most bitter municipal fight in Brantford's history will have been closed. Pamphlets attacking Mayor MacBride who is appealing for a second term, have been freely distributed while, in addition, the circulation of "The Terror of Russia" a highly revolutionary appeal to the workers to arise and take possession of all private property and follow the example of Russia, have been freely made during the campaign with regard to the handling of whiskey brought here during the "fit" campaign investigations of which have been asked for by the Brantford Municipal League. The latter has continued active despite the withdrawal of its candidate, Thomas Lyle on nomination day. Ex-Mayor Bowley is Mayor MacBride's only opponent and it is expected that he will get many votes which otherwise would have gone to Thomas Lyle.

The polls remain open until 7 o'clock but it is not thought that there will be any attempt to throw out the election even though the by-law to keep the polls open was not passed before November 15 as called for by the statutes. If the by-law were upset it would jeopardize the street railway extension and the new school by-laws which are to be submitted to the electors.

Educational Rally—in the parlors of the Y.W.C.A., Tuesday, Jan. 7th, 8 p.m., a good programme. Light refreshment. Come and bring a friend.

MAC'S MEGAPHONE

To-day when dealers all combine To rob you of your cash. Console yourself and quote the line: "Who steals my purse steals trash."

MacCallum does not want to be classed among the dealers who try to rob you. We treat you courteously, give you value-in fact try to save you money by dealing with us.

Prices are not coming down. We are now buying heavily so as to be able to protect you as long as we can from another advance which we expect in some lines.

You have no occasion to go out of town to buy anything in our lines. That's why we are always busy.

It is doubtful whether Guelph will be able to play hockey this year or not, as the collapse of the Royal City rink gives the team no rink accommodation.

EVERY GIRL WHO

EARN'S HER LIVING,

READ THIS!

Very complex in her physical relations to life, disease early seizes upon the woman, who works, and she must therefore guard jealously anything that would tend to destroy her vitality or health.

Probably nothing is of more service than Dr. Hamilton's Pills and every girl and woman can employ this grand remedy with gratifying results.

As a system tonic and blood renovator no treatment gives such results. For maintaining good digestion and healthy appetite, it is impossible to equal Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Dusky, sallow complexion is changed to a healthy, ruddy glow, which proves that Dr. Hamilton's Pills circulate blood that is rich and nourishing.

Weak organs are filled with new life and vitality; weakness, irregularities and the common ills are prevented.

When you feel poorly when the head aches, back feels lame, and a drowsy, tired feeling creeps through you—that tells of the need of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, try them.

Sold in yellow boxes 25c.

THE HONEYMOON, LIMITED

One of the most pretentious musical comedies of the season will be shown at the Roma Theatre Fri. night, Jan. 10, when "The Honeymoon Limited" will be the offering. Chas. F. Yale, the producer, has long held an enviable reputation in his particular field. He has assembled for the production of "The Honeymoon Limited" a company of 35 entertainers, embracing singers, dancers, comedians, musicians, together with a large chorus of shapely maidens. The famous Broadway pony chorus inaugurated by the producer remains as one of the novelties from an opening laid at Palm Beach, the show is seen in half a dozen scenes and finally ending on the Metropolitan roof garden in New York city.

Matter

There is a delicacy about mentioning piles. And yet so many suffer needlessly who could be readily relieved and cured if they only knew about Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Men tell one another about this remarkably successful treatment. But many women pine away their health and vitality, dread a surgical operation and not knowing how easily they can be cured at home by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Osteopathy

cures acute and chronic cases

People sometimes express greatest surprise upon learning that Osteopathy is equally good for digestive disturbances, anæmia, rheumatism, coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, pneumonia, spinal curvature, typhoid; indeed for all acute and chronic forms of disease. There are practically no limitations set for what Osteopathy is and what it will do in restoring the body to perfect physical condition.
