Canadian Press Despatch. Woodstock, April 19 .- David Mackie Junior of Blenheim Township died in the hospital this morning from injuries said to have been received in a quarrel with his brother on the dead man's farm, two miles from Drumbo, on Wednesday morning.

The brothers, who live on farms adjacent to one another, it is charged, have not been on the best of terms for some time. Wednesday morning Milra Mackie went over to his broth er's in search of a carpenter's plane. He found the tool, which was a three-foot iron affair, and was in the act of leaving the farm when he was intercepted by his brother David, who demanded the plane, according to the information given the police. Milra refused to hand it over, and a quarrel followed for possession. It was during the quarrel that David received the wound which resulted in his death this morning. Different versions of the affair are told. Mrs. David Mackie Jun., it is said, claims that her husband told her before he died that the wounds were inflicted when he was struck on the head by the plane in the hands of his brother. Putting It On Real Thick.

Conservatives of Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto tendered a dinner to Hon. Arthur Meighen on Wednesday night. The Ottawa correspondent of the Mail and Empire felt, of course, that he should do something out of the ordinary about it, so by way of an advance notice his rights. he brought out the fact that above all else Mr. Meighen desires to "subordinate partizanship to a calm, dispassionate, constructive analysis of the grave problems which confront the country."

It was the lack of constructive leadership that caused his following in the House of Commons to be reduced from 120 to 50 in the last election. The Conservative group in the legislature is determined that there shall not be redistribution. Col. J. A. Currie, letter snatcher, contributed four hours to the obstruction. He was followed by W. H. The Very Large Farm a Loser.

There seems to be a certain fairly well fixed point at which a farm becomes too large to be profitable. Mr. Robert Forke, leader of the Progressive party at Ottawa, stated to The Advertiser some weeks ago, when discussing this point, that some of the trouble in the west was due to too large farms. The owner found that he had to buy a lot of machinery and hire a great deal of help. In this way he built up a large overhead expense that it was very hard to control, and in times of poor crops very hard to curtail.

The same thing can be applied to Ontario. The question was put to Prof. A. Leitch of the O. A. C. at the hearing of the committee on agricultural conditions at Ottawa. His answer to the query is interesting:

"In businesses other than farming, the larger the business the lower the cost of producing the goods, up te a certain point. That is true in every business, but that point is reached in farming long before it is in other businesses. The reason is that you cannot hire for money the care and service that the average farmer and his family render for themselves. If it were possible to take half a township in Ontario and combine it into one big farm, there is not a man in the world with brains enough to run ft."

Getting wet is a common experi-ence. I do not approve of going out with the deliberate intention of getting wet, but clean water never hurt anybody. It really makes no differ-ence whether it is taken internally or applied externally, either intentionally or inadvertently. No one need worry over a good wetting. There is nothing harmful about wet clothes. The danger comes from living in The danger comes from living in damp garments for hours, with consequent chilling of the body.

If you get wet, go on briskly with your work or walk. So long as you are exercising, so long as your heart is doing its full duty, you are just as safe as you would be in the surf or lake.

Everybody knows it is unpleasant

Famous Investigator Expects To Clear Up Wall Street Bombing.

CHANGES OPINION

Former Londoner Believed To Have Given Reliable Information.

Associated Press Despatch. Los Angeles, Cal., April 19 .- The statement of Herbert Wilson, former London (Ontario) evangelist, alleged mail robber and convicted murderer that he provided the explosive for the bomb exploded in Wall street, New York City, September 16, 1920, is logical and may be true, William J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice declared yesterday after a conference here with Wilson.

"Wilson tells a straightforward and logical story," Burns said. While it gram has been arranged.

Ellwood Moore will give an address on "Camp Life." Lantern slides showing the work of the Tuxis boys will be shown as well.

It was decided to hold a nominating convention in Mitchell on the second day of May to choose a candidate for the provincial election.

Wall Street bombing, having learned that the parties responsible for it are now in Russia, Wilson's story could well fit in with the facts as we already know them. We will state s true that the department of justice immediately checking up the details as he gave them to us. If our inves-tigation proves Wilson's story to be true—and I know of no reason why it will not—we will know the sources of the explosive which went into the Burns, who came from Florida to interview Wilson, declined to make public any of the information Wilson gave him. Before going into conference, which lasted more than an hour, Burns expressed the opinion that Wilson was "talking for his own benefit." After the interview, Burns said he had changed that opinion and believed Wilson was sincere in telling his story and not making his statement to gain favors.

statement to gain favors.
Wilson made statements to Sheriff
William Treager, about two weeks ago, that he had furnished the explosive and manufactured the bomb which was used in the Wall Street combing. The bomb, he declared, was made at his home here in August, 1920, and was sold for the purpose, 1920, and was sold for the purpose, he thought, of being used by safe-blowers in covering up their work. He said he later learned that the bomb had been used for the Wall Street bombing.

Wilson and his partner, Herbert Cox, were first arrested here for robbing a mail truck of approximately $1,000,000 in securities.

Yesterday the young mother said she had repented her act, and wanted to live for her little girl, Cymbaline, who is being cared for by Mrs. Richardson's sister, Mrs. Lester Runyan, artison's sister, Mrs. Lester Runyau, at the Sibley street address.

Richardson, his wife said, left her three weeks ago, taking their combined savings, toward which she had contributed a good share. Just before he left, she said, he bought a new automobile. "I don't want to find him," she said, "I don't want him to come back. He doesn't care for me or our little girl. When I got better Cymbaline and I are going back to live with my parents in Thessalon."

TRAVELERS' AID HELPS 719 PEOPLE IN MONTH

Reports of Various Y.W.C.A. Committees Show Marked Progress.

Favorable reports were given at the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board held yesterday afternoon at "Lenmore." The Travelers' Aid secretary stated that 719 persons had been assisted in various ways at the stations during the past month. Her report also showed that a list of boarding houses was being prepared, which contains the names of boarding houses visited and found suitable.

Mrs. Gordon Philip, convener of the physical department, reported that the members were busy making wigs, costumes and scenery for the physical exhibition being held May 4th.

The Nightingale Club is presenting a play April 26th in the collegiate auditorium, the title of which is "When the Lane Turned," and the Pollyannas are planning to present one early in May. The proceeds of these plays will be expended in sending delegates to the provincial study conference arranged by the National Council and the balance left will be devoted to the girls' camp at Port

A report of the Woolcraft Class which is held every Monday evening under the direction of Mrs. Crouch, was given also.

Congratulations were extended to the 16 girls who were successful in obtaining 70 per cent and over in the examinations of the St. John Ambulance Corps. This course was conducted by Dr. R. Gordon, and Dr. B. F. Keilor acted as examiner. The certificates will be presented Friday evening following a supper, at which H. B. Beal, principal of the Technical School, Mrs. Donald McLean, president of the Y board, and Mrs. John Dennis, convener of the committee, Dennis, convener of the committee, will be guests of honor, along with Dr. Keilor and Dr. Gordon. RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

May Obtain Relief By Enriching the Blood Supply.

In the days of our fathers and grandfathers, rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications, which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not remove the trouble. In these days there were many cripples. Now, medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known, and the more general use of these pills has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against further ravages of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have helped thousands—if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you. You can get these pills through any

W. E. N. Sinclair Is Certain to Lead Liberals - Progressives Will Enter Race.

Special to The Advertiser. Oshawa, Ont., April 19.-The Progressives have definitely announced that they will enter the contest in South Ontario. Two names are prominent as possible candidates for the Progressive party. F. C. Richardson, of Pickering, ex-warden of the county, is most likely to go before the electors in June. Mr. Richardson has been an ardent supporter of Mr. Drury, especially on hydro radial pol-icies. The other name suggested is F. M. Chapman, who ran as a Pro-gressive in the last federal election gressive in the last federal election. It is almost certain that W. E. N.

Sinclair, the present member South Ontario, will lead the Liberal Shanghai, Apr. —A conference here today betwo: two admirals representing the n.nistry of the navy at Peking and Admiral Lin Chien Ching, commander of the Chinese warships, which two days ago declared their independence of the Peking Government, completely failed to bring the rebel squadron back into squadron, is only an emergency measure, pending the suppression of ban-ering their forces, and according to its.

FOR ENGLISH CONCERT

Program of Merit To Be Given in Patricia Theatre Tomorrow Evening.

In celebration of St. George's anniversary, a grand concert will be given in the Patricia Theatre on Friday FIFTEEN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES been brought to light, I have no doubt of the Sons of England Benevolent evening at 8:15, under the auspices > as one of the finest sopranos of the day in Canada, possessing, as she does, everything needful to the success of a singer-color, range, qual > ity, power and form. Of Joe Williams, the English come dian, with a long Canadian record of fun-making and the singing of comic songs, the critics have always been enthusiastic. From Massey Hall to the Pacific slope his songs have brought smiles and chuckles to happy audiences, and his name on any bill is a surety of clean fun and laugh

> The program contains, as it should a majority of the old English airs. and all worthy Sons of England will welcome such favorites as "The Song of the Bow," "Up from Somerset," "Young Tom o' Devon," "Drake Goes West," "The Company Sergeant-Major," and so on. Elgar's inspiring "Land of Hope and Glory" will be sung by Gladys Topping Cornell, and Luther Jackson a London boy with : voice of fine quality, will offer the "Song of the Bow."

> The committee who have arranged evening have planned a real St. George's night, in which the breath of the country lanes, of the wild rose, and the hedge rows, will be carried in the lilt of the old songs, and they promise every Englishman who comes to the Patricia on Friday night that it will be a little trip "home" and pleasant memory to carry through each day's work.

The financial statement for Loew's London Theatres, Limited, for the year ending Jan. 6, 1923, shows that company to have worked into a strong financial position. Earnings were almost double those of the previous year, and were sufficient to allow for the payment of all bank loans, accounts payable, to pay six months' arrears on the preferred stock, and still have a credit balance of $4,703 to carry into the new year.

Operating revenue, less expense of Dairy Products, Beta the new year.
Operating revenue, less the new year.

Operating revenue, less expense of managament, etc., was $68,348, compared with $48,326 for 1921. Along with rents amounting to $240, this sum was brought up to $55,588. After deducting interest charges, etc., of $21,798 and general expenses of $5,130, there remained net earnings, before depreciation, of $41,660, almost twice as much as the figures for 1921, which stood at $22,135. The sum of $18,930 was allowed for depreciation, leaving $22,135. The sum of $18,930 was allowed for depreciation, leaving $22,230 available. From this has been deducted the 1921 deficit, $1,824; payment on account of arrears on preferred stock. $11,809, and taxes of $4,394. The balance at credit of profit and loss account now stands at $4,705, as against a deficit of $1,824 a year ago.

Bank loans of $7,022 and bills and accounts payable amounting to $7,262 appearing in the 1921 statement were paid off during the year. The only now stands at $4,703, as against a deficit of $1,824 a year ago.

Bank loans of $7,022 and bills and accounts payable amounting to $7,262 appearing in the 1921 statement were paid off during the year. The only current liabilities the company now has is an item of $4,300 for Dominion income tax and accounts payable of $200. Mortgages have been reduced from $38,440 to $35,436. Against these the company had the sum of $12,162 in cash and real estate, leasehold buildings and Turkeys, hens, over 9 and real estate, leasehold buildings and equipment, less depreciation, valued at $351.012. PRICES MODERATING IN FINISHED STEEL

United States Steel Corporation Operating at 93 Per Cent of Capacity.

New York, April 18 .- Iron Age says There is increasing evidence of moderation in prices of finished steel and in the attitude of buyers. Pressure on the mills is just as great, but there is less offering of premiums to get early delivery steel and less effort to place contracts covering third quarter months. The steel corporation's operations continue at 93 per cent, or somewhat better, and independent companies have made a slight increase in their recent running rate. It is appreciated, however, that the test is yet to come of the ability of steel companies to hold their forces intact in the face of the high wages offered for some forms of outdoor work. the mills is just as great, but there high wages offered for some forms of outdoor work.

Early delivery plates, shapes and hars have sold in the past week at prices somewhat below the extremes of two and three weeks ago, and with this tendency there is less concern of the possibility of speculative buying. A few price changes are yet to come in connection with net buying and forward delivery. Some plpe producers look for higher prices, but the steel corporation policy is not yet made known.

There is an expectation that wire products of the Steel Corporation will find a higher level. The Carnegie Steel Company opened its books this week for cotton ties for 1923 at $1.60 per bundle of 45 pounds, as against $1.10 last year. Other makers have adopted the $1.60 price, which is nearly equivalent to 3 cents per pound for steel hoops.

Fabricated steel business is not running at the rate of March, but that month established a high point. The past week's known contracts totalled 25,000 tons, and inquiries 17,000 tons.

The week's railroad equipment business is a surprise, seeing how much is booked ahead. Purchases of cars exis booked ahead. Purchases of cars exceeded 6,300, and there were 83 locomotives, new steel rail inquiry, chiefly in the Chicago district and the south, amounts to 250,000 tons, and some of it has been booked by Steel Corporation Mills, which can not deliver before late in the year.

WANT AD TIPS

GIVE YOUR ADDRESS, TOO

A great many people are not telephone subscribers, yet they may be just as interested in the article your Want Ad offers as though they were. The Jones family are just such folks. In need of a kitchen range a few days ago, they scanned the Want Ads. Two ranges were offered. The advertiser of one gave only her 'phone number. The second advertiser gave both 'phone number and address.

Mrs. Jones took the family car in the afternoon, and started out to buy a range. She went first to the advertiser whose Want Ad gave an address. Naturally, she did. Calling the other range advertiser would have meant troubling a neighbor, or patronizing a drug store booth. Also, like many people who use the telephone infrequently, Mrs. Jones doesn't relish 'phone conversations, and avoids them when she can. She answered first the Want Ad with an address. The range suited, and the price was right. "Why look any farther?" Mrs. Jones reasoned. And bought. The advertiser's address takes up little space in any Want Ad, yet those few words often will be sales-makers. Buying any of various things, many readers take the attitude: "We'll go to see. We won't trouble to 'phone, because before buying we would wish to see the article anyway." So they jump into the car, and are away-first, to the advertisers whose addresses are given. And if your Want Ad gives an address, you are likely to receive a visit. The name in addition to the address often helps out, too. Replying to your Want Ad, an inquirer finds as he gets to the block that he has forgotten the exact number. However, he has your name, and his dilemma is easily solved. All he has to do is to stop at the first house, and ask where "Mr. Stone" lives. That's a lot better than having to ask: "Who has a kitchen range to sell in this block?"

Little things like these do increase Want Ad results. (All Rights Reserved.)

Police and Firemen Make Desperate Efforts To Rescue Tenants.

Flames Cut Off Escape for 150 Persons Living in Apartment.

Associated Press Despatch. Lynn, Mass., April 19.—Five per-ons were killed in a fire which destroyed the Essex Castle, a five-story brick apartment house on Ellis street, in the center of the city, early today. At least one other is missing, and many occupants sustained burns and other injuries. The known dead are: Frank Tozier, George Philpot, Mrs. Antoinette Hanlan, Miss Margaret J. Nutter and Harry Fairchild. Miss Aimi Gilman is missing. Police and firemen this forenoon were mak ing every effort to determine whether there were other bodies in the ruins. The fire started on one of the lower floors, and almost immediately the interior of the building burst flames. Only a few of the 150 persons living in the forty-nine suiter were able to make their way down the stairways before these were cut off by fire and smoke. Many jumped

Your Backyard Garden

The sowing of the green pea crop first of the first crop of the annually planted ones that comes in the order of planting, and should be sown at once, as this will give a good strong growth before the warm weather comes to retard it. The frost has gone from the backyard gardens, and if it is not entirely out of the lower soil of your garden, this need not prevent the sowing of peas, as they are hardy; and in any case will in all probability not con through the ground before the hard frosts are over for this spring. Peas may be sown in single drills, if desired, but a far better way is to sow them in two parallel drills, or tendency to dry out, unless the ground is almost roots; and it has been

This is the planting, try and keep the two rows straight, and spaced at a uniform distance apart of about eight inches It might be well to explain that in the picking of the peas planted in this manner it is customary to throw the vines of the first row to side as they are picked, and to lay the second row of vines over the first one while picking it. At the next picking, this is reversed. After the first picking, this will present no difficulty, and the picking can actu-ally be done more quickly than if the peas were planted far apart.

get away with it. Do you reckon, Harold, you could put things right for me?" Yes," he said, smiling rather grimly, "I think I can."

You mean that! You can really do it?" she cried.
"There is still a brilliant opening for you," he said ambiguously. "You had better leave it entirely to me." Sure I will! You're a Harold. There's such a lot of things you're wise to that haven't come my way. I'd be just lost without you. Fut I've had all the society I need

A semi-religious film was being shown, ending in the death-bed scene of a small girl under circumstances of pathos, which bored Agnes and made her restless. The adventures of a heroine chased by a motor load of armed "toughs" and afterwards leading from one skyscraper roof to another with the agility of a jack-rabbit, excited her so much that the

A clever and well-acted love scene subsequently made her slip her hand into Drummond's and press it convulsively and unconsciously, her eyes glued on the screen. He felt her warm breath on his cheek.

Drummond's earlier disgust, which had nearly overwhelmed him at the restaurant, gave way slowly to an odd fascination. The spell of her presence was upon him. With it was a secret amazement of himself. Drummond, in a sense one of the most fastidious of men, would have taought he was the last who could be attracted by this strange mixture of childishness, charm and cruelty. But the charm was there, and her

Excelsis raises the oft-repeated query Excelsis raises the oft-repeated query as to whether a goal may be scored direct from a free kick given against a goalkeeper for handling the ball outside the penalty area? A goal may, of course, be scored irrespective of whether the ball has been touched by a second player or not. A goalkeeper outside the protection of his own penalty area is placed on exactly the same terms as any other one of the players on the same side. If he handles the ball a free kick is given for so doing. The conkick is given for so doing. The con-fusion in what should ordinarily be a fusion in what should ordinarily be a clear point is probably brought about by a kindred act on the part of the goal-keeper—that of carrying the ball. Should a goalkeeper carry the ball more than the regulation two steps, a free kick is given against him for carrying. From this free kick a goal cannot be scored direct. But the offences are quite different and should not be con-tised.

The English association football eleven, composed of eight professionals and three amateurs, that will meet France in Paris on May 10, has been selected and will comprise the following players: Pearson (West Bromwich) and Titmuss (Southampton). Plumb (Charlton), Hill (Plymouth) and Barton (Birmingham), Osborne (Pulham), Buchan (Sunderland). Creek (Corinthians), Hartley (Oxford City), and Lieut. Hegan (the Army).

Hartley (Oxford City), and Lieut. Hegan (the Army).

Both Hamilton and Toronto critics term Tiny Thombs of Hamilton Westinghouse team (who is 41 years of age) and Geordie Campbell of Toronto Scottish, who is Tiny's junior by three years, the daddles of soccer football in Canada. London, Ontario, can go one better than that, for at present the Forest City domiciles what one may term the granddads of Canadian association football. In its McHaynes, Croots, Jimmy Green, Jimmy Smith and "Chick" Lownie. Those players of the "dribbling code" game seem to go on for ever, and in fact it is fully expected that all will qualify for the old age pension whilst playing soccer football. Here's hoping.

The provincial league will come into the limelight on Saturday, when the first games of the series takes place with the initial games being as follows: Brantford Massey-Harris vs. Hamilton Vets, Hamilton Stelcos vs. Brantford Cockshutts, and Kitchener Rovers vs. Guelph Taylor-Forbes.

Taylor-Forbes.

The Provincial's initial year in 1922 was a most successful one, with the winners in Hamilton Vets going through the whole series without meeting one reverse. Vets' closest opponents were Toronto Caledonian F. C. who played one drawn game with the Vets, finishing second in the competition.

Seriously, the mistaken idea that Marchand had scored one more foul than he actually did was an unfortunate one. Mr. Taylor scored the game carefully in this respect in that he used the regular scoring method, and the moment the mistake was discovered the scorer handed President Brown the book.

ST. THOMAS REPAIRS PINAFORE PARK FIELD

To Be Completed For Opening of Southern Ontario League On May 24th.

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, April 18.—According to plans now being carried out, St. Thomas will have one of the fastest and most up-to-date baseball diamonds in the Dominion ready for the opening game of the Southern Ontario League here May 24, when Woodstock will meet the locals. The members of No. 4 committee, in company with local baseball moguls, visited the grounds Wednesday and immediately instructed capable men to complete the improvement work. The sod has been overturned and changes made. The big item is that the press box beneath the grandstand is to be fully renovated.

The new soccer pitch south of the park will be put into excellent shape as well. It is the desire of those behind the movement to make Pinafore Park as perfect as possible, comparable with the fast grounds at Tecumseh Park, London, and the snappy field at Galt. The local outfield will be 300 feet distant from the home plate, although the amateur regulations only call for 275 feet. One thousand square yards of sod will be required to complete the field. The city council has appropriated nearly $1,000 for this work.

t is at once pleasing and amusing to these new purchasers.

It shouldn't be a great task, but in many instances it is, at least from my own observations. Possibly the greatest handicap is that both are store shy. Young ladies, on the one hand, have rarely purchased anything but wearing apparel, and, good-ness knows, how many young fel-lows are there who will entertain

Now he is a man of affairs; he is showing a willy—and on the things she likes Didn't he say just a moment ago, "Well, you are doing the picking out." Wheels are turning in her head luces such ecstacy.

It is merely a stage in their career; but it is just bundled full of new sensations and happy realizations. There seems no time for reflectionthe future holds so many pleasant possibilities. Today's activities on the part of both bind more than words and oft-repeated declarations of the past. There is a wonder and importance. This new experience is quite liable o upset all their previous plans as to just what they intended to buy. The young lady is more prone now to seek his pleasure in the selection rather than accept her own dream plans of yesterweek. The young chap becomes interested, where be

There is an aptitude to leave it for a little while, so hese new experiences can be pleas urably reflected upon-to sort of aford time to drink of this new wine as it were.

A clever salesman it is who can handle such a situation. It requires experience and a wonderful fount f human interest.

Never will I forget the time three years ago when it took a prospective bride and groom a day and a half to select a whole houseful of furniture It wasn't theirs so much as my fault. It was because of failure to set them
