THIRD WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

CAPT. A.C. CAMPBELL having been duly Sworn States:

I am L.A.D. Officer of 37 L.A.D. on the night of 29/30 June 1940 - The 37 LAD took over a vehicle CM 4202063 a Red Station Wagon on charge ~~belonging~~ to the R.O.R.E.C. I examined the vehicle for damage and estimated the cost of repair at £ 70-18-0 of which £ 27-8-0 was Labour, the balance being material. The vehicle was then evacuated to 3 Coy Div Ord Workshop and in my opinion it will not be reconditioned. I know that it was evacuated beyond D.O.W.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. Can you tell us the details of the damage done?

A. Damage to front Spring, front axle, frame, radiator and gaitle, engine mounting, spar, right front fender and right headlight, one side of the windshield, seven window panes, two doors, dash board and steering wheel.

Q. Does the £43-10-0 represent your estimate of replacement value of parts damaged. That is to say, replacement by new parts?

A. Yes.

Q Have you the log book for the vehicle?

A. No.

Q. Did you get it from at the time of the accident?

A No but I got it a number of weeks after the accident.

Q. Where is the log book now?

A. With Q.M.R. as far as I know, it was returned there as, by the time it had been received, the vehicle had been evacuated from B.D.O.W.

Q. Could you tell us when the date vehicle was put in to service?

A. Not from memory.

Q. Is it possible that your estimate of £43.10.0. is high.

A. It may have been high or low possibly.

Q. Assuming that the vehicle is back on the road, it would not necessarily have been with new parts?

A. No it could have been repaired with second hand part which would have reduced the cost.

Q. Did you consider the damage & part from the mechanical angle or to depreciated?

A. No ~~I did not~~ I only considered the parts that had been damaged.

Q. Could the damage have been caused by another vehicle side-swiping this one?

A. It could have been possible but the main damage was on the front end.

Q. Could some of the damage have been caused prior to this accident?

A. Yes.

Q. What is the basis of the labour cost?

A. 137 hours at 4/- per hour.

BY THE COURT.

Q. Is it possible that as many as one half of the damaged part could have been replaced by used parts?

A. They might all have been replaced. My estimate is for 100% new part to replace the damaged one. RP 83(8) COMPLIED WITH.

The accused B63471 Rfn Elmer N., 1st Prov Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, having been duly sworn states,

I was in Eastbourne on the night of 24th June 1942. At about 9.00 at night I was on my way home when I met Corporal Chard. He asked me to buy him a beer which I did, then we started for camp at Rattle Park. Half way home, coming through Old Town, Corporal Chard said he could'nt go any further & asked me to get the station wagon to take him back to camp As I was employed as the driver of vehicle CM 4202063 I went & got it. I picked up Corporal Chard & started back to camp but went past the turn so I suddenly saw the roadsheet in front of me & tried to turn but crashed into the bank. I was thrown out of the vehicle I then helped Corporal Chard out of the vehicle & took to the R A P at the camp.

On his evidence being read to him the witness desires to make the following alteration.

I had no authorization, other than Corporal Chard asking me, to use the station wagon on the night of June 24th 1942.

The windows & doors were damaged & the front bumper was broken when the vehicle was handed over to my charge about three weeks before the accident, by Rfn Drake J.

I reported to Cpl Ryerse, he went looking for the missing veh, he found it and came back, took me to the scene of the accident. Spr Elms came out of a nearby house, I asked him, if he was driving the veh and had he caused the damage? He admitted he did, I immediately placed him under arrest and escorted him back to his unit lines, I saw three dead chickens, at the scene of the accident.

Ans: Yes Sir.

Ans: I asked the accused if he was driving the veh and had he caused the damage.
Def: Did Elms show any signs of having been drinking or did he appear perfectly normal?
Ans: No signs of having been drinking and he was perfectly normal.

The Defence sums up:
I would like to submit to the court that there is no prima facie of the case, first the prosecution has brought no witnesses who saw Spr Elms in the veh in question and secondly no witnesses showing that he was responsible for the accident and alleged admission by Elms, brought out in Cpl Goodwin evidence in my opinion is not sufficient to convict him on these two charges. With regard to the 4th charge, I'd like to submit , no evidence has been provided to show Elms AWL.

The Prosecution:

To begin with, just going over the defence in the case of the first two witnesses in particular, the defence kept pressin on the argument that there was no laid down check on the picquet. Spr Girven and Spr Eller both stated they had been operating under this system for sometime and definitely stated the duties the picquet were to perform. To my mind therefore Spr Elms must have definitely known what his duties were as had been on picquet duty many other times under identical conditions. Another arguement for the defence was the picquet could not carry out his duties without having to leave the vehicle park. At the time in question the only one of these duties that Spr Elms was to perform was to awaken the next relief, who was sleeping in the veh park. In looking back at the charge sheet the defence has pleaded guilty to the first charge and not guilty to the fourth. The defence who pleaded Guilty on the first chatge and not guilty on the 4th charge, does not seem to tie in in my mind. The main defence presented has been that no one actually saw Spr Elms in the vehicle in question. The prosecution admits this point but I would like to draw the Courts attention to page 72-2 MML Sec 13 - EVIDENCE. This is what we are baseing our case on in this case.

The Defence:

The first thing that strikes me in this case is the fact that there was some descrepancy in the testimony given by the prosecution witnesses, and most noticable ones, first the number of peolpe who slept in their vehs, and secondly the time. Ellers in his evidence says he informed L/Cpl Goodwin that Elms and the vehicle were missing after Reveille. L/Cpl Goodwin states that he was awakened and thathe was given this information at 0350 hrs. If mistakes like this are made in giving sworn evidence, I'm wondering how much of their evidence we can accept as the truth. The prosecution talks about the picquet system working satisfactorily until some thing goes wrong, and the weak points in the system are found.

The prosecution also mentioned points of the defence in summing up, I would like to correct that and say we have not presented any defence. A man has to shown as guilty before he requires any defence. The ovidence presented by the prosecution in my opinion is not sufficient to establish Elms's guilt. He was shown as missing from his billetat I believe, 0345 hrs, at the same time, a veh was known to have been missing. No evidence was presented to show that Elms took the missing veh. Elms is guilty on the first charge, in that he did not waken his relief for picquet duty. Because he missing from his billets at 0345 hrs does not infer that he was AWL from 0200 to 0900 hrs.

Since joining the army in 1940, Spr Elms, has had only minor crimes, I would say that for over 4 yrs of Active Service, his conduct could be considered reasonably good. I therefore ask the Court to take this into consideration in Spr Elms's sentence.

My wife had a lip cut and her nose was bleeding.

Cross examination

The café closed at 2 2:00 hrs. There was my father my wife, myself and three soldiers with whom I was speaking were in the café. I saw the accused strike my wife. ~~He then~~ ~~was opening the door and~~ I can get behind the counter though am opening ~~my side door~~ about a yard wide. The counter is about 1½ yds high and about 2 feet wide. If would come up to the pocket flaps of accused. After he hit my wife he fell on top of her behind the counter. The three other soldiers did not do anything. I am not sure but I think it was the right hand that he hit my wife with.

RP § 3(a) complied with.

R.P. S 3 (3) complied with.

Def. Offr. closing address

The accused admits possession of the guns but says that he was under the influence of liquor and doesn't remember stabbing the woman. Difficult to stab a woman behind as with a bar. Spr Elms was to the west. No obscurity evidence available but only guilty person on the spot. Conclusion, he is not type of person to walk into a cafe and stab a woman and not remember it.

Prosecuting offrs closing address

Evidence of 3 witnesses is clear and unmistakable. Spr Elms came into the cafe. Attack on Adams by accd. Had enough to make the lips and nose bleed. No attempt taking the money and the intent is clear from the action of hitting it. The offence initiates was with Elms the first time he was in the cafe not at the time of the incident.

11 Dec 1944

I have been cautioned by C.S.M. Sait, S.B. No 1 Special Investigation Section, Provost Corps Army, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. E.W.E.

I am William Elms age 22 years, and I was born at Upper Big Tracadie, Nova Scotia, on 9 May 1922. I joined the Canadian Army 23 June 1941, in the Royal Canadian Engineers. I came to England in November 1941 and I arrived in France on the 22 June 1944.

Last Thursday night I left camp at about 7 o'clock in the evening. Captain Rowe was with me. We went to a liquor store and bought a bottle of cognac. We went to the café that supposes to have the trouble and drank the cognac. Then we went to a dance down town. Then we came back to that café and I bought a bottle of gin off that woman and drank that there. Then there was quarreling and fighting, everybody was hitting each other. I don't know, I wasn't fighting. Then I got pushed behind the counter and I seen some money on the floor in a little purse so I picked it up. I came back to camp. I don't know how much money there was, I was drunk. That's all.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

Summary of evidence in the case of No. E41469 Spr. Elms, William, on strength of No 1 Cdn Mech Eqpt Park Coy RCE. A soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS
For the Prosecution

Martha Royaert of Cafe Cietax, 16 Zwynaerdesteenweg, Ghent, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

At Cafe Cietax, on Friday, the eighth of December, at approximately one o'clock in the morning, I was standing behind the counter when Spr Elms, William, whom I now recognize, ran into the cafe. Spr Elms, William, ran straight over to the counter and struck me a blow in the face, knocking me down behind the counter. The accused then fell on top of me and grabbed the purse which was in a blue bag. The accused then jumped up and ran out of the cafe. This purse contained between eight and nine thousand francs. The blue bag with the purse in it was used to keep all the money taken in during the day. At the time the accused grabbed the purse it was inside the blue bag on the bottom shelf of the counter.

Two soldiers ran into the cafe immediately behind the accused. One of the soldiers ran over to my father-in-law, who was standing at the front end of the counter. I did not see what happened between this soldier and my father-in-law as I had been knocked to the floor. The last I saw of the third soldier was just before I was hit and he was standing near the door of the cafe. I had not seen these two soldiers before and I am not able to recognize them.

The next thing that I remember was being helped up by my husband and my father-in-law. My lips were badly cut and bleeding and my nose and mouth were bleeding. I was very sick and my husband put me to bed.

On Friday afternoon I went to the clinic, where the accused was known to live, and reported this occurence to an officer or non-commissioned officer.

SECOND WITNESS
For the Prosecution

Albert Royaert of Cafe Cietax, 16 Zwynaerdesteenweg, Ghent, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

At Cafe Cietax, on Friday morning, the eighth of December, between one o'clock and one fifteen, I was standing near the window with three soldiers when the accused entered the cafe, followed by two soldiers. The accused whom I now recognize, ran over th the counter and struck my wife a blow in the face. I saw my wife fall behind the counter and the accused fall on top of her. The accused then jumped up and ran out of the cafe. I immediately went over to the counter to see about my wife. I saw the blue bag lying on the floor behind the counter. My wife, who was now sitting on the floor, looked into the blue bag to see if the purse containing our money was gone. The purse was not there. The purse contained the money taken in by the cafe, and my wifes identity card. I have bot seen the purse or the card since.

The first soldier who followed the accused into the cafe ran over to my father ~~in-law~~ and struck him on the face. The third soldier waited at the door. These two soldiers ran out of the cafe with the accused. I had not seen these two soldiers before and I am not able to recognize them again.

The accused had been in the cafe at least twice the same evening, before the attack on my wife. While there, he drank and danced. He did not appear to be drunk. The second time he was in the cafe, about half past ten, he ordered a half bottle of gin. He said that he had no money and promised to pay for the gin later.

THIRD WITNESS For the Prosecution

Domien Royaert of Cafe Cietax, 16 Zwynaerdesteenweg, Ghent, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

At Cafe Cietax on Friday, the eighth of December, between one o'clock and one fifteen in the morning I was standing near my son and was speaking with two soldiers whom I do not know. I saw the accused, whom I now recognize, come into the cafe followed by two other soldiers. The accused went straight to the counter and struck my daughter-in-law, Martha Royaert, in the mouth. My daughter-in-law fell behind the counter with the accused on top of her. At this moment the second soldier who had run up to me, struck me twice in the nose with his fist. The third soldier remained at the door. The accused and the other two soldiers then ran out of the cafe. I had not seen the second and third soldiers before and I am unable to recognize them again. The two soldiers who I was talking to, before the attack on my daughter-in-law, then walked out of the cafe.

I had seen the accused in the cafe at least twice during this same evening. I didn't see the accused drinking but I did see the accused dancing. He did not appear to have been drinking, and in my opinion he was not drunk.

I then helped my daughter-in-law to a bed in the kitchen. Her face was cut and bleeding around the mouth and nose.

FOURTH WITNESS For the Prosecution

B-3013 CSM Lucas, F.E., of No 1 Cdn Mech Eqpt Pk Coy RCE, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

At approximately 1715 hrs. on the eighth of December 1944 I was walking from my quarters through the first wing of the clinic, when I saw the O.C. with the accused, Spr Elms, William, whom I now recognize. The accused had been searched and all his money, cigarettes, personal effects, were in a pile on the floor. The O.C. asked me to pick up the money and count it. I did this in his presence and found fourteen hundred and eighty francs. I then placed Spr. Elms, W. under close arrest.

I then spoke to the civilian woman who had made the complaint. She was very nervous and told me that the accused had struck her in the mouth, her lips were very swollen.

At approximately 1910 hrs., eighth of December, 1944, in company with S/Sgt Donahoe, I searched the quarters of the accused and I found the following:-

1200 francs in the accused's ammunition pouch.
1200 francs in the accused's respirator haversack.

At approximately 2000 hrs. the same evening I sent for the accused and produced both the ammunition pouch and the respirator haversack and he identified them as his own property.

I produce thirty eight hundred and eighty francs which I confiscated from the accused and from his quarters.
Marked Exhibit "A"

On the ninth of December 1944, at 1315 hrs. I held a muster parade for the purpose of affording the civilians an opportunity to identify any personnel of this unit who were concerned in the affair of the night of the seventh or morning of the eighth. The woman whom I had seen the night before, and had made the complaint, was the first to view the parade. She identified Spr. Elms, William.

The next to view the parade was Albert Royaert. He identified Spr. Elms, William.

The next to view the parade was Domien Royaert. He identified Spr. Elms, William.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Q.5. Tell the court what you know with respect to the accused on the morning of the 23rd Sept. 42.

A.5. On Wednesday morning of the 23rd Sept 42 at 1250 hrs, I went to the Guard quarters and told Pte. Elsworth to report to Ward "A" West Wing, and relieve Pte. Conrad to enable this man to go for lunch. He said he would not do so, and that as a man he was entitled to two hours break. I then told him to consider himself under open arrest. He still refused to go to the ward. I reported the incident to Sgt. Beggs. Pte. Elsworth was to relieve Pte. Conrad at 1300 hrs. The guard are warned for duty at a duty parade every morning at 0915 hrs. The men are warned what wards they are to work in and the times they are to be ready for duty. We change guard at 0930 hrs and then for a period of 24 hrs we do a period two hrs on and two hours off, with the exception of the meal parade and instead of going on at 1330 hrs the guard is changed at 1300 hrs. This enables the guards to get a hot meal. I have here the notices which were posted that morning warning the men on the guards for duty. (These are marked Exhibits A and B, and having been signed by the President are attached to the Proceedings.) These notices were posted in the guard room. The name of the accused was called on the morning of the 23rd when the men were warned for guard.

Cross-examined by the defending officer:
I was on duty on the 23rd Sept. 42. I warned the Guard on that morning, concerning their tour of duty. I warned the men by calling the men by name and detailing them for different shifts. In this way I warned the accused that he would be on duty in a certain ward at a certain time. (The defending officer produced a file of guard reports which the witness identified as being the Guard reports for the 15th CGH for the period 21 to 26 Sept. 42.) (These reports are marked Exhibit "C" and having been signed by the President are attached to the proceedings.) According to Exhibit "C" the hours for the Guard for Monday 21 Sept. 42 are a straight two hr period and there is no break at noon. This means that the shift which goes on at 1130 hrs was not relieved until 1330 hrs. There is a different NCO on this guard. He apparently had one system and I had another. The Saturday previous to 23 Sept. 42 a parade was held and the duty officer indicated to the men the various regulations regarding the guards. In this parade he mentioned that the tour of duty was for two hours followed by two hours off.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor:
The system of changing guards was changed from the one previously established, on Monday 21 Sept. 42 in order to enable all the guards to get a hot meal.

Re-examined by the defending officer:

The hours which were established on Monday were , 0930 to 1130 hrs, then 1130 hrs to 1300 hrs. This was to enable the men to get a hot lunch. I warned the accused at 1250 hrs, to be ready for 1300 hrs.

Examined by the Court:
In order to carry out the order I gave to the accused, that is, to relieve Pte. Conrad at 1300 hrs, it was necessary for him to get ready and leave as soon as he got the order. The accused was a member of a guard of which a was a cpl. on the guard.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution: G17556 Pte. Moore, R. Carleton and York Regt., No.1. [illegible], attached to No.15, CGH, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.6. What is your number, rank, name, and unit?

Prosecution
2nd Witness

Q.7 Tell the court what you know of an incident between the accused and Cpl. Bickerdyke, on 23 Sept. 42.

A.7.- On 23rd Sept. 42 at approx 1245 hrs I was standing by my bed in my hut when Cpl. Bickerdyke entered the hut and went to the bed of Pte. Elsworth. He told him to relieve one of the sentries so he could go to dinner. Pte. Elsworth told Cpl. Bickerdyke that he was off duty for two hours. The corporal said" It is an order and you can consider yourself under open arrest"

Cross-examined by the defending officer:
I was not on parade when Cpl. Bickerdyke detailed the men. The tour of duty for the guards is two hours off and two hours on. This was given by the duty officer.

Examined by the Court:
I was present when the Cpl. told the accused to relieve one of the sentries for dinner. In order to carry out the order it was necessary for the accused to have carried out the order as soon as it was given. The manner of the accused was not insubordinate at that time.

By the President to the Accused?
" Do you wish to give evidence under oath or do you wish to make a statement not on oath? You do not have to do either. If you elect to give evidence on oath, you are liable to cross-examination as any other witness. If you make a statement you will not be sworn and you will not be cross-examined, nor will you be obliged to answer any question. Evidence on oath carries more weight than a statement. If you make a statement it will be taken down in writing and will be given due consideration."

Q.8.- Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A.8.- Yes, Sir.

Q.9.- Do you intend to call any other witnesses on your behalf?

A.9.-Yes, Sir.

Q.10.- Are they witnesses as to facts or as to character orboth?

A.10.-They are witnesses as to character.

The defending officer makes no opening address:

1st Witness for the defence: the accused, H16127 Pte. Elsworth, J.A., P.P.C.L.I., attached to No. 15 CGH, having been duly sworn is examined by the defending officer:

Q.11.- What is your number, name, rank, and unit?

A.11. I am H 16127 Pte. Elsworth, J.A., P.P.C.L.I., attached to No. 15, CGH.

A.12.- Tell the court about your military and civilian background and about the incident with Cpl. Bickerdyke, on 23 Sept. 42.

A.12.- I am 28 yrs old. I have been on active service two yrs and nine months. I enlisted in Sept. 1939. I began my military career at the age of ten yrs as a member of the Queens Own Cadet Corps., Then I served with the 1st Sqn, Medium M.G., then with the 17th Battery, RCA, then in 1936 with the P.P.C.L.I., then back to the 17th Battery RCA, I joined for active service in Winnipeg.

Defence
1st Witness

I have had one year of university education at the University of Manitoba. At this time I came into contact with the officers of the unit in which served. At this time some of these officers suggested I take a commission in their units. Major Mason was one of these officers. He was from the Queen's Own Camerons of Canada. I did not accept such an offer because I joined the P.P.C.L.I. as a private. I was employed at this time as an insurance agent. I had a satisfactory income at this time. However I sacrificed this income of forty dollars per week to join the army as a private soldier at one dollar and thirty cents a day. I did this because I preferred to join a unit and serve Overseas rather than wait for a commission in Canada.
Cpl. Bickerdyke warned me for duty on 23 Sept. 42 by calling out the first eight names for the first relief and the second eight names for the second relief. Then he warned some men for escort duty. Cpl. Bickerdyke read out the times of duty from 0930 hrs to 1130 hrs and the second relief from 1130 - 1330 hrs. The duty officer laid down previously a schedule of two hours on and two hours off for twenty four hours, and then twenty four hours off duty. I finished my first shift at 1130 hrs. I understood that I was to go on duty next at 1330 hrs. When the Cpl. warned me at 1250 hrs for duty at 1300 hrs I told him I was going on at 1330 hrs. I told him that my duty was two hours on and two hours off. I received a letter from home on that day. It was from a cousin of mine. I was reading it when the cpl. warned me for guard at 1250 hrs. It was concerning an estate of eighty-five thousand dollars of which I had a twenty-five pet cent interest. I was very disturbed over the letter, in fact, so much so, that I wanted to have the matter looked into by the Adjutant General's Department.

Cross-Examined by the Prosecutor:
Cpl. Bickerdyke gave me an order to go on duty. I replied that I was going on duty at 1330 hrs. I knew the responsibility of a soldier to obey an order. I did not make any remarks about an NCO. I did not ask the corporal to be excused this duty.

Examined by the Court:
I intended to go on duty at 1330 hrs. I did not intend to go on duty at 1300 hrs.

2nd Witness for the Defence: Capt. R.M.Snider, Queen's Own Camerons of Canada, having been duly sworn is examined by the defending officer:

Q.13. What is your rank, name, and unit.

A.13.- I am Capt. R.M.Snider, Queen's Own Camerons Of Canada.

Q.14. Tell the Court what you know of the civil and military character of the accused.

A.14. I am the transport officer of the Queen's Own Camerons of Canada. I know the accused. I have known him for fifteen years. I was interested in the Queens Own Sgt since 1931. At that time I was aware that Pte. Ellsworth received an offer to take a commission. I know that the accused was educated for one year at the University of Manitoba. He was a respectable business man in Winnipeg before enlistment. I know his family very well. They are a respectable Winnipeg family. He began his military career in the Cameron Cadets in which he served four yrs. He also served with P.P.C.L.I. for three months. He was liked by the officers of these units. His background, intelligence, and general military experience entitled him to be considered as officer material. I was surprised considering these things that he joined the Army and came Overseas as a private.

3rd Witness for the defence: H/Capt. S.B.East,C.C.S. attached to P.P.C.L.I. having been duly sworn is examined by the defending officer:

Q.15. What is your rank, name and number?

A.15. I am H/Capt. S.B.East, C.C.S. attached to the P.P.C.L.I.

Q.16. Tell the Court what you know about the character of the accused.

A.16. I was attached to the P.P.C.L.I. as chaplain in Oct,1940, and have been with that unit ever since. I met the accused not long after I came to the Regt. I was attracted to him because he was one of a group which was interested in books and had an education above the average. I had frequent discussions with him on subjects of common interest. I have only missed one battalion exercise. In particular I was on one exercise in which the Regt. marched seventy-five miles in three days. Towards the end of the third day I was marching in the same platoon as Elsworth. I noticed him particularly because having marched for two days I was very tired and Pte. Elsworth helped to cheer me up. He was in excellent spirits and very cheery. Pte. Elsworth was one of those soldiers in the Regiment who had a good record.

The defence closed:

The prosecutor declined to make a closing address, relying on the evidence submitted.

The defending officer made a closing address. (A copy of this address in writing prepared by the defending officer is attached, signed by the President and marked Appendix A.)

The Court find that the accused No.H16127 Pte. Elsworth,J.A. is Guilty of the first charge.

The finding of the Court on the Second Charge is read to the accused.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution: Lieut.D. G.Balsillie, Seaforths of Canada, No.15,CAH, Canadian Army.Overseas,is duly sworn.

Q.17- Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?

A.17- I produce MFB 355 and certified copy of MFM 6 sir.

MFB 355 and certified copy of MFM 6 are signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Q.18.- Is the accused person named in the statement you have read?

A.18.- Yes,sir.

Q.19.- Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the Regimental books?

A.19.- Yes,sir.

Q.20.- Are they true extracts from the Regimental Books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?

A.20.-Yes, sir.

Q.21.-Have you any other evidence?

A.21.-No sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

By the President to the accused:

Q.22 Do you wish to address the Court in mitigation of sentence?

A.22.Yes, sir.

The defending officer makes a plea in mitigation of sentence. (A copy of this address in writing prepared by the defending officer is attached, signed by the President and marked Appendix "B".)

The court is closed for consideration of the sentence.

Defending Officers Closing address

Appendix A

Both prosecution witnesses have established the fact that the tour of duty for the Guard was laid down as two hours on and two hours off. The Guard report confirms this fact.

Pte Moore, a prosecution witness, stated in his evidence that the conduct of accused on being warned for duty was not insubordinate.

The accused, on oath, has stated that it was his undersatnding that his next tour of duty did not commence until 1330 hrs and that he intended to report for duty at that time.

The accused had received news from home on the date of the offence and this news was of a disturbing nature sufficient to cause the accused great anxiety. It may well be that the accused in this state of mind did not fully realize that his failure to report for duty immediately he was warned would result in a charge being placed against him. Especially is this so, since the tour of duty calling for two hours on and two hours off was so firmly fixed in his mind.

It was not the intention of accused to flagrantly disobey a lawful command. The facts which have been brought out in evidence reveal that there was lack of uniformity in the conduct of Guard Commanders in relation to the hours covered by the tours of duty. This resulted in misunderstanding. The accused shared in this misunderstanding. The accused should be given the benefit of the doubt.

Appendix "B"

Defending Officers Plea in Mitigation of Sentence

Capt. Snider has testified that he has known the accused for a good number of years. He has testified to the general good conduct of the accused. He has referred to the respect in which the accused was held in his native city of Winnipeg. He has referred also to the esteem in which accused was held by officers of the Q.O. H.C. of Can. and of the fact that a promise of a commission was held out to the accused if he joined that unit. Capt. Snider has said that despite this offer the accused left a good job to enlist as a private in another unit in order to go overseas sooner.

Capt. East, Padre and Educational Officer, P.P.C.L.I. was attracted to the accused while accused was a member of the field unit. He has testified that he was much impressed by the intelligence of the accused which he had an opportunity to examine in many discussions with the accused. Capt. East has emphasied the soldierly qualities of the accused and referred in particular to the cheerful conduct of the accused on a unit 70 mile march.

Accused was distracted by receipt of a letter on the date of the offence. He laboured under an honest misunderstanding in respect to the tours of duty. A light sentence under the circumstances would serve the ends of justice.

"D"

In my plea for mitigation of sentence I wish to draw the attention of the court to the following:- On the day in question Pte. Longmuir told me that I had to scrub the ~~basement~~ stairs, clean up the basement hall, two very filthy cupboards, the passageway and the outside stairs. He further told me that if I did not hurry up & get it finished that I would be there all night & he would remain there with me. All this work was over & above what the remainder of the prisoners were called upon to do. Private Longmuir seemed to take great delight in making things as unpleasant as possible for me.

Prior to being placed in detention I was in the regimental sick bay for some period ~~with~~ with chest trouble. I was placed on light duty by the M.O. pending an X-ray. Up until May 2nd, whilst in detention, I was called upon to do the work of the average full duty man in detention, with the exception of pack drill. Because of this I became quite fatigued early in the afternoons, with the result that my work slowed up and the R.P. in charge was continually trying to hurry me along.

This, coupled with, in my idea, the unfair distribution of the work to be done, provoked me into saying that which I did.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

On Monday Jany 11/43 about 10 in the morning I went to my kit bag to get 2 packages of cigarettes. I found that 15 packages were missing. The carton had been taken. It was a 1000 Cigarette Carton. They were Sweet Caporal Cigarettes. The Carton had been opened by me. Ten packages had previously been taken out by me. There were 15 packages left after I missed the 15. I took 2 packages for myself & marked the remaining 13 packages. The mark I made was a long scratch on the wax paper on the bottom of each package. I threw the 13 packages & locked my kit bag. I locked it with a padlock. Each night I checked my kit bag. On Thursday the 21st of January another six packages were missing. I reported the whole matter to Sgt Kroesing. About midnight on Thursday the 21st of Jany Sgt Kroesing woke me & showed me a package of 25 Sweet Caporal Cigarettes which I identified as mine by my identification mark. I identified as mine.

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

The Sgt then went out keeping the package of cigs. Pte Elter the accused came in the door as Sgt Kreesing went out. Elter asked me if I had been losing cigarettes & I told him I had lost 6 packages that day. I asked him "Where did you get that package?" I was referring to the package Sgt Kreesing had shown me. The accused said he got them from the shanpert that he had been in the habit of selling him cigs from the shanpert. Sgt Kreesing came back in & placed Elter under close arrest. The accused & I were in the same room no one else - just the two of us lived in that room. This one package of my marked cigarettes is all that has been located. Later I gave two of the packages of cigs which I had marked and which had not been stolen to Sgt Kreesing as evidence.

Cross Examined: No one was with me when I marked those cigs. It was ~~3 days after the~~ ~~of~~ ~~June~~ Saturday morning the 23rd June 1943 that I showed the marked cigarettes to Sgt Kreesing. I deny that before the C.O. I stated that I had sold cigarettes to Elter.

Re-Examination: I produced the Elter marked cigs to Sgt Kreesing on the 23rd of January because Sgt Kreesing asked to see them.

To the court: On the 9th of January 1943 I gave Elter one package of cigarettes.

They were not out of the same carton as the missing cigarettes but from a previous shipment. Before I missed any of the cigarettes from this carton I had given 4 packages to another soldier Pte Pringelly. They were not marked in anyway. I never gave a note or otherwise disposed of any of my cigs to Pte Shanfort. I did not know Shanfort. I have been with the unit since we left Calgary. I have known the accused since he came to us for the holding unit is about 3 months ago. I sold no cigarettes to the accused. On Monday or Tuesday prior to the time that I gave Elton the memorandum referred to above he asked me for 2 packages & said he would pay me on pay day. I gave him the two & said that some day I would be out & if so I could call on him for him. None of the cigarettes which I gave the accused were from the carton where the stolen cigarettes came from.

I am in charge of the billets known as 77 Fairway. On Jany 21/43 at about ~~Pte~~ 1930 hours Pte Townshend made a report to me about Cigarettes. I went to 77 Fairway billets and questioned the Host Soldiers. As Pte Elder is on ~~charge~~ a room mate of Townshend I waited for Elder to come in. He came in about 2345 hours. I stopped him in the hall & led him into the kitchen. I asked if he had any Cigarettes on him. He said yes & produced a crumpled package of Sweet Caporal Cigs. It was squashed flat & had no wrapper Celophane or wax on them. I did not look inside to see how many cigarettes there were. I then told him six packages of Cigarettes had been stolen sometime during the day & asked him if he would let me search his belongings & the clothing he was wearing. He replied yes & proceeded to search himself.

W. G. Gibson

He unbuttoned his battle dress blouse & among other things he pulled out was another packet of Sweet Caps - Cigarettes. The wax covering was still on this packet of Cigarettes. I noticed a tiny scratch along the bottom of the packet. The scratch was on the wax covering. I had previously been told by Townshend that he had put a scratch identification mark on the bottom of his cigarettes. I took this one packet with the scratch from Elton & was left it in the Townshends room. Townshend woke up - examined the packet & said it was his. I completed searching the effects of the accused but found no more cigs. I then put the accused under close arrest. I asked when the accused produced the first packet where he got it & he said from Stanfort & I asked the same question when the accused produced the packet with the scratch & he said from Stanfort - After arresting the accused I turned the identified packet of Cigs taken from the accused over to C.S.M. ~~Bowen~~ Bowen. Because of previous theft of Cigarettes, Hut orderlys had been previously warned to pay special attention to there jobs. At the time I showed Townsend the package of Cigs I had taken from Utes. Townsend offered to show me other cigarettes of his which he had marked in the same way. I believe the accused had followed me in, because when I turned around he was standing in the doorway - but I told Townsend I did not want to see Utes. On the morning of 23rd January I had Townsend bring some packets of his cigarettes with identification & Corbury Adams for comparison. The comparisons showed the marks were similar. There was no doubt Townsend took part in packing the cigs for comparison when asked.

Hutchinson sig.

Cross Examined: On the 23rd of January when I asked Townshend to produce some of his cigarettes for inspection he was in the hall of his billets:

To the Court. I identify this as the package of cigarettes I took from the accused (Exhibit "G") It has the same scratch on the bottom of the box & from its general appearance. The witness is shown two other packets of same Cpl Elder & states "these both have scratches along the bottom similar to the scratch on the bottom of Exhibit G & they are similar to the 2 packages that Townshend showed me on Jany 23/43 Elder & Townshend are the sole occupants of the room they share.

The Calgary Highlanders. C.A.(O)., sworn, states:
On Monday, the 18 Jan 43 I went to my kit-bag and found the carton containing my cigarettes torn and fifteen packages missing. I took two packages out and marked the remaining thirteen packages by marking a scratch along the waxed paper on the bottom of the package with a pin.
On Wednesday night at 1930 hrs I checked my cigarettes and there were no more missing. On Thursday, 21 Jan. 43, at 1930 hrs, I checked them again and six packages were missing. I looked for my platoon sgt., Sgt. Kroesing, to report the loss. I found him at the K of C Canteen. I told him about it and told him my cigarettes were marked but not how they were marked. He went back to my billet to investigate and I went back about 15 minutes later. He told me there were none of my cigarettes in the billet and there was only one more man in the billet to question, my only room-mate, pte. Elter. Sgt. Kroesing said he would wait and question Elter when he came in. I went to bed about 2230 hrs, and was awakened around 2400 hrs and a package of cigarettes put in front of me by Sgt. Kroesing, and I asked, "ARE THESE MINE?" I examined them and said,"yes". Pte. Elter came in and asked me, have you been loosing cigarettes? I said, "Yes, six packages". He said, "well I didn't take any cigarettes", I suspected that Sgt. Kroesing had got the package which he showed me from pte. Elter, so I asked him, "where did you get that package? Elter said he had got them from Shaufert, Sgt. Kroesing then placed Elter under close arrest. On Saturday morning I was told to report to the Orderly Room and they asked me to bring two of the marked packages which I had left, with me. CSM Bowen took them. None of my other missing cigarettes have shown up.

Cross-examined by the Accused:
Q1. Did you not sell me cigarettes about a week ago last Sunday?
Answer. "NO"
Q2. Were you in all night on Wednesday 20 Jan 43., or did you go to a show at the Lido Club?
Answer. I went to a show at the Lido Club.

G.T. Townshend

Second Witness for the Prosecution M10865 Sgt. Kroesing. G. Support Coy,
The Calgary Highlanders. C.A.(O), sworn, states:
I am in charge of 77, Fairway, a billet of Support Coy. At approx 1930 hrs on the 21 Jan 43, pte. Townshend reported to me at the K of C canteen that six packages of cigarettes which he had marked were missing from his kit-bag. I went to the billet, and as only one or two men were in the billet I did not hold a kit inspection. The hut orderly, on being questioned told me that there had been no one other than Townshend and Elter in their room to his knowledge on that day. As I was leaving to report the matter to the Coy Orderly Room, Townshend mentioned that he had marked the cigarettes by scratching the waxed paper on the bottom of each package, in a long line. I returned to the billet to await pte. Elter who was out on late pass, as I thought he might be able to give some assistance, since he is Townshend's room mate. Elter came in about 2345 hrs. In conversation with him, I asked him if he had any cigarettes, and he produced a partly used package, from which of course, the waxed paper had been removed. I then told him that cigarettes were missing from Townshend's kit-bag, and asked him if he would mind being searched. He agreed, and started to search himself, and produced among other things, an unused package of Sweet Caporal cigarettes with waxed paper covering on them

H. Kroesing

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution M36954 Pte.Ollenbittle D.Support Coy. The Calgary Highlanders,C.A.C.,sworn,states;

On 21st Jan.'43 I relieved Elliot as hut orderly between the hours of 1130 and 1135,and again between the hrs.of 1330 and 1400.During the time I was on duty I am sure that nobody entered the room occupied by Townsend and Elter.

Accused Declines to Cross-Examine.

D Ollenbittle

I examined them and found a mark on the bottom, a long scratch along the waxed paper on the bottom which looked as if it had been done by some pointed instrument. I then took them to Townshend, who was in bed, and asked him whether he could identify the cigarettes as his. He took the package, turned the bottom up, and pointed out the scratch along the bot bottom, replying. Yes, that is the way I marked them. About half a minute had elapsed since I had taken my eyes off Elter and I know told him that I was now going to search his kit which I did assisted by Elter. The search did not reveal any more of the missing cigarettes. I then had Elter placed under close arrest and placed in the detention room. Townshend then offerred to show me more marked packages, but I did not bother looking at them. I turned the package which I had taken from Elter, over to CSM Bowen.

Cross-examined by the Accused:
Qu. Where was I between 0930 hrs and 1630 hrs on the 21 Jan 43.
Answer. I beleive you were on Brigade fatigue.
Q2. Did you tell Townshend who you got the cigarettes from when you took the package from his room?
Answer. "No"
Q3. When Townshend went down to the K of C Canteen did he return with you to the billet?
Answer. No, he was still there when I left.

Question by the officer taking the summary:
When to your knowledge did Townshend first produce other marked packages?
Answer. At the Coy Orderly Room on Saturday morning.

H. Kroesing

Third Witness for the Prosecution M11062 pte. Elliott. T.C. Support Coy The Calgary Highlanders. C.A.(O)., sworn, states:
At 0600 hrs 21 Jan 43, I went on duty as hut orderly of the billet at 77, Fairways. I was on duty when pte. Townshend left the billet in the morning. Pte. Elter came in between 9 and 10 to clean a rifle. While he was doing it he was warned to go on Brigade fatigue and he went out of the kitchen and into his room, he came back into the kitchen shortly afterwards and left the billet. I went for lunch at 1130 hrs, and was back in the billet about 5 minutes later. I left again at 1330 hrs and returned about 1400 hrs. Pte. Ollenbittle took over my duties of hut orderly while I was away. I was away from about 1630 hrs to 1640 hrs to get supper. No one was left in charge at that time as the whole section was around. Elter came in while I was at supper and Townshend came in shortly after 1800 hrs. During the time I was on duty I am sure that no one except Elter and Townshend was in their room. About 1900 hrs pte. Townshend told me that some of his cigarettes were missing. He showed me a few marked packages and said the missing cigarettes wer marked in the same way. They were marked by a thin scratchy line along the bottom on the waxed paper. He went to get Sgt. Kroesing who came to the billet shortly afterwards to investigate.

Cross-examined by the Accused:
Qu. Did you see me enter my room between 0900 hrs and 1000 hrs 21 Jan?
Answer. No, but I saw you come in, leave the kitchen, and heard you walking around in your room, and you were the only other person in the billet.

The Accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P.4.(E) says. "I will be sworn in".

The Accused, M100706 Pte. Elter. C.J., sworn, states;
On the 21 Jan 43, I was on Brigade fatigue. I went on parade at 0830 hrs and returned to my billets at about 0900 hrs to clean a rifle. I did not enter my room but cleaned it in the kitchen. While I was there I was warned for the fatigue and went out about 1000 hrs, and did not return until about 1630 hrs. I then changed and had supper, and at about 1730 went over to Don Coy to see pte. Shaufert. I was short of cigarettes and asked him for some, and he gave me a package of Sweet Caps, and I then went down town alone. I returned to my billet at about 2330 hrs. When I went in the kitchen Sgt. Kroesing asked me if I had any cigarettes and I offerred him the package I had been using. He then asked me if I had any more and I produced the package which Shaufert had given to me. He asked me if I would mind being searched. I said I did but produced everything I had on me for him to examine. He took the package of cigarettes and told me that Townshend was missing some cigarettes and took them in to Townshend. [2 Can Corps 15-6-43]

Mr President & Members of the Court.

You have the evidence before you and there is no need to review it any further and you have also heard my clients plea to the charges. Must before the court deliberates on the case I should like to ask that due consideration be given to his record prior to the events which are now before this court. As you will see from his conduct sheet he enlisted in April 1942 and up until now this year had no crimes of any nature against him. He is a young man and did not realize the serious nature of his act. He has already admitted his wrongdoing and by his action in giving himself up has shown that now he realizes his offence. In view of his prior record and also in view of the fact that he is just 20 years of age, I would ask that the court deal as leniently with him as possible.

It has often been the case in the past for a man through some misguided sense of superiority, or perhaps lack of morale to become fed up with his surroundings and do things which he deeply regrets afterwards. He would appear to be under in this case and as I have already stated there is no evidence to show he does realize now the seriousness of the offence but at the time did not. I should like therefore, to enter a plea of mitigation on his behalf.

I firmly believe that of this man is dealt with leniently he will become a first class soldier and a credit to his country.

President of the Court.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

No.D-12008, Gnr.Donald Frederick Elvidge, R.H.Q., 6 Cdn.L.A.A.Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service.

CHARGES:

1. Absence without leave.Sec.15(1) A.A. In that he, in the field, while under sentence of Field Punishment, absented himself without leave from 2130 hrs. 15 July, 1943 until surrendering himself to the Military Police at 2030 hrs. 5 August, 1943. Total absence 20 days 23 hours. Cost of Return to his Unit being £2-3-2.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS No.D-118736, A/R.S.M.Parkin, A.E. having been duly sworn stated as follows:

" Sir, I am the Regimental Sergeant-Major of the 6 Cdn.L.A.A.Regiment. On the 14 July, 1943, Gnr.Elvidge, a member of the R.H.Q.staff, whom I now recognize as the accused, was brought before the Commanding Officer on a charge under Sec.40 A.A., for which he received a sentence of twenty-eight days Field Punishment. At this date the Regiment was at Penybont Camp, Wales, under canvas with no provision available for keeping a soldier under sentence in close custody. For this reason, the punishment awarded to Gnr.Elvidge consisted of general fatigues. Amongst those fatigues was the tending of fires for the W.V.S.Canteen. He was on this fatigue on 15 July 1943. The Canteen closed at 2100 hrs. and Gnr.Elvidge should have been back at his tent by 2120 hrs. At 2130 hrs I checked his tent and he was not there. I again checked his tent at 2300 hrs and he still was not present. I checked his tent at reveille at 0600 hrs. 16 July, 1943, he was still not present. I called the roll every day and Gnr.Elvidge has not answered his name since then. I did not see or hear of Gnr. Elvidge until 13 August 1943 at 1345 hrs. when he was turned over to me by a member of the Canadian Provost Corps. The member of the Canadian Provost Corps also turned over to me certain documents, namely; (a) A Certificate under the Army Act, Sec.163 para(1) sub-para (j),(b) MFB.292-Daily Sick Report(c) AMD2-1, Hospital Discharge Notification and (d) two Expense Vouchers amounting to the sum of £2-3-2, being the cost of return of Gnr.Elvidge to his Unit. I now tender these documents in evidence."

Police Sgt. Frank Beavis, 40 "A" Division, Metropolitan Police,
having been duly sworn, states:
I recognise the accused. About 9.55 p.m. on the 6 June I was on duty in uniform at Trafalgar Sq.
London S.W.1. when I saw and heard about 11 or 12 Canadian soldiers approaching me from the corner of Northumberland Ave. They were in high spirits & taking up a considerable portion of the roadway causing traffic coming from Whitehall to suddenly stop. They were all shouting and one remark was overheard regarding "your women country". They came towards me and then they rushed me
I asked them to be quiet as they were in uniform and to behave themselves when L/Cpl. who was in front of the and facing me shouted: "You're asking for fighting tonight - get out of it - come on boys, start on up"

Gwg

6 (Cont.) Beaver

with that they all came round me and the L/Cpl struck me on the chest. I immediately caught hold of him and told him I would take him into custody for using unnecessary violence and for assaulting me and at once ~~took~~ took hold of one of the arms and eventually the L/Cpl managed to get his scope.

At that time I had a Canadian soldier on my back who also caught my throat and was being held when the police finally reached me."

(Mr. Redman objected that this was not the subject of a specific charge. The objection was sustained.)

At that moment two Reserve 66 "E" Div. Police cars arriving some distance and Ely immediately arrested, but him on the mouth with his eyes got knocking him clean over. Actually a black servant at got up at his nose and went bleeding. I managed to get rid of the wretch from my back and retired at Ely and caught hold of him, by the time the Cambridge Volge Club had got up. Another relief then arrived at us, (the prince, Cambridge T. and myself) we dragged bodily towards the ends and made a prisoner of the ogress shortly by which time I started Ely was lugged bodily over the fence bringing us on one side of the wall, as Ely on the other. There, with prisoner there about four feet ~~high~~ six ~~wall~~ high as 2 feet thick. I tried to retain hold of Ely during the ogre on of his barbedwire but was eventually forced to release my hand by being pulled in one direction by Cpl Bears behind me and the pressure was being pulled by others in back of him, one of them was a R.C.C.S. Sgt. who repeatedly punched my hand, and [illegible] as a consequence I had to release my hold.

[the a.s.g.a. other than Bears]

Ely got away run up hollers
Hill along the north side of Progress Sq. then out the end of a police car shed as passing I caught him, put him in the police car and brought him back to the R.C. corner of Progress Sq.
I brought him to that corner because I wasn't sure what else was happening down there.

CS Bears

Austin Wedin was arrested and both were charged by Canada Customs Police Officers when they were detained pending arrival of escort. At the station Ely Lees had been arrested for he had been using abusive behavior, swearing and obstructing police and he jumped up, slung his backpack blame off and shouted: "I've hundred pounds ya bastard I'll fucking see him" and struck me. Glen in the stomach with his fist. I did not retaliate. Ely went into the police station what my hands. Ely questioned Dave Olle that about half an hour afterwards. 2. "Mr. Spencer" "Then ya owe the accused but Toby that can only you said.

C6 Bears

Q: That he might be badly hurt and I sent [illegible] against him?

Cross-Examined by defence counsel Hudson,

Bears states: I did not hear them singing - some of them may have been singing but the majority were shouting. I asked them to be quiet. They were in my long line across the wood. The battle was proceeding down towards Hill - and they were cutting across it. There was a bus and a cab in the procession. A Lieut in the centre took exception to my asking them to be quiet. I had not spoken to the soldiers prior to this. The Lieut struck me just before I spoke to him.
I was surrounded by the soldiers just before I was struck. I was struck several blows - coming from all sides. One of the soldiers shouted at my back after I answered the Lieut. I was only able to keep on with Lieut for a minute or so.
I was forced to let him go.

C. Bears

I started after him but I was held away from him by the man pulling on my back by other pulling at me from behind. My first got was to get rid of the man on my back which I did. Then I received a blow on the stomach just before I got rid of the man on my back. As that received from Ely she had swung away from Ely we came face to face with the Lion Keeper and struck him in the [illegible] the Light had gone by this time. Ely struck Tolzer a few seconds after. The whole affair took very few minutes - perhaps ten minutes at least.

Objection by the defence: I submit I am entitled to cross-examine them as to the writing by contradicting the evidence that this is my writing by saying that I am not the writer but by referring to inconsistent statements made previously as to any note record whether such statements are recorded in writing

C (8) years

I am entitled to ask the witness whether or not in certain statements were made and if refresh his memory by referring to the specific occasions. The fact if that such statements were made before a court is a contradiction and the whole matter goes to credibility of W.

Ruling of Judge Advocate - I
In military courts-martial such cases stand and I decide on the merits. The case now being tried must be determined by the court only on evidence brought before it by witnesses for the prosecution or defence. The A witness may be challenged on variations between his statement at the inquiry & evidence and his oral evidence before the court.
I therefore rule that evidence which the witness may have given in another case may not be introduced in this case.

(9) (Bearis) (continued) Renewal of Cross-examination by Defence:
Bearis states: On first night of the accused was with the armed convoy across the road. He had a sergeant with the shotgun and I noticed him by his size. I next noticed him when I received a blow in the stomach.
After I had shaken myself free
I went for the man in my back
I went for Ely after I had seen him hit Tolzer. I caught hold of him and Tolzer had got up to and caught hold of him too. [to via rapid interrogation [Questioned about a statement about Cavadrais, Bearis denies that he had made any statement about Cavadrais either in the particular statement or elsewhere.]
Re-examined by prosecutor:
Bearis states: It only took a few seconds before Tolzer and myself after he had been hit.
Questioned by the court:
Bearis states: I don't think the remark made was in the statement referred to by my weight. Ely was booked in about 10.30 p.m.
Guard

C (10) Tolzer

P.C. TOLZER, William Stanley — [redacted] Met Reserve Constable 66 "E" Division, Metropolitan Police; having been duly sworn, states:

I recognise the accused. About 9.55 p.m. on 6 June 43 I was on duty in the Strand, W.C. 2, when in consequence of what I was told I went to the S.E. corner of Tropolgar Sq. where I saw Sgt. Bears 40 "A" Div. surrounded by a number of Canadian soldiers who were assaulting him. One of the Can soldiers was on his back. I went into his assistance and when I almost reached the Sgt. who was against the wall I caught hold of right Ely and he struck me on the nose and mouth, knocking me down. I got up but was pushed away by other Can soldiers.

C.I [Tokyo]

I later saw him, partly held by Sgt. Bears but with the assistance of the soldiers he managed to get out the door and ran away. Later I saw him in the police car and he was taken to Camp Roi.
The sgt. left the charge room at the station and later he came back and Ely struck the sgt in the stomach saying: "Two hundred pounds you bastard - I'll fucking well kill you."

Justice of the peace, Tokyo state: Ely was facing the sgt when I saw his fist. [illegible] him he when I both turned around and struck me.
I clinched Ely to fly and break up the fight. As I was hit
I remember help to Sgt
Bears for a few minutes - but
I broke up the fight for a minute.

Cir Tolge

C. I. by defence:

Tolge states: Ely struck the Sgt. in the charge room - He had been talking quietly with the other medics - Sgt. Bean came in a little later. Ely jumped up about as one of the Sgt. came in and struck him - I do not recall the Sgt. making any remark. The Sgt. had gone up again to Trafalgar Sq. with the police wagon. I was with the prisoner the whole time.

Tolge states: I had a good look at Ely she he turned around after I had grabbed him. He paused and then hit me. - I caught hold of him - he swung around - paused - then struck me. I didn't see it until it almost reached me. It happened in a matter of seconds.

Q: How did you recognize his face

Question by court:
Q: That was the Sgt. Bears was giving out the law?
A: Yes sir
2: It wasn't that he was using bad language Sgt.
A: No sir

D-12

Defence counsel address:
He argued that there were two questions - was there an offence committed and did the accused commit the offence. He contended there was some doubt as to whether Sgt was the man who struck Tozer. The evidence of Sgt. Beavis was that he saw the blow struck just as he was clearing a man off his back and fighting off others and trying to release a light he had previously arrested. In the confusion Sgt. Beavis might well have been mistaken. Tozer's evidence was that he had grabbed the accused from behind and that the accused had turned around, paused and struck him. On that basis Tozer, he argued, would be unable to identify the individual. Tozer's evidence did not prove that the assailant knew he was striking a policeman. Unless the court was satisfied that the identity of the accused was established the first charge should be dismissed.

D-63

At the close of the second charge the defence submitted that a case had not been made out. Even if the identity of the accused had been established, it was pure speculation whether the L/Cpl would not have escaped if Tyler had not been hit. There was no evidence that a L/Cpl was under arrest or had escaped arrest. As to Sgt. Bearis' evidence that he ~~[illegible]~~ ceased to chase the L/Cpl to ~~[illegible]~~ go to Tyler's assistance, that was not a matter for evidence but only a decision for Sgt. Bearis. On the merits of the attack on Sgt. Bearis in the station the defence admitted the attack but there was a divergence of evidence as to the circumstances of that attack. There was a conflict of evidence and Sgt. Bearis denied making any statement as alleged by Drury. As to whether the statement as made if Bearis made it he could regard L as would not like to admit it. Tyler may not have heard it because of absence from the room it was reluctant to admit it: if the statement was made, in view of the general excitement it must be considered that Sgt. Bears knew he was "storing things up against" it was a reasonable action of the accused resented it and there was reasonable provocation for the assault. He was greatly incited as a Canadian and at a time when he was in a state of excitement and by a person he thought particularly abusive. The court shared again if it believed the words were spoken.

Prosecutor's address:

He stated he wished to stress the seriousness of the charge but in fairness both accused that there must be remembered that there were others involved. The Metropolitan police should be assisted not hindered. The police had men worked certain things in trying to keep the peace. The evidence for the defence was clear on points that

On the last three charges the defence rested & therefore a certain statement had been made by the police ofct. It was a question of the balance of the weight of evidence.

Ultimately must be found an innocent man unless the court finds that the charges were proven against him and these charges must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. Barring reasonable doubt the accused must be found guilty. If there was reasonable doubt it must be resolved in favour of the accused.

Unless a witness's evidence for the prosecution challenged a prima facie case had been established. Unless the evidence was challenged by just as cogent evidence as produced for the prosecution the charges must be held to be proven. The court was referred to R. v. R 13 and R. v. R. 11.

would help the accused and vague as points that would involve the accused - Tyler would recognise the man who he saw in front of him waiting to shoot him - He was also recognisable for his stature - He contended there could be no doubt as to the guilt of the accused and that Sgt. Bean was determined to arrest the man who had assaulted Tyler.
On the remaining charge the prosecutor said that he would resist remarks about Canadians but not on the particular day here - It was the word of two Metropolitan police against two Canadians who had drunk considerable -

Judg. Advocate's address:
The function of the J. A., he said, was clear - The court ruled the questions of fact but on questions of law the J.A's rulings were final and could only be disregarded for serious reasons that must be

The charge sheet was in two parts. The offence for which the accused was charged and the particulars of the charge. There was provision for dealing with a charge even if all the particulars were not proved. The accused could not be convicted of both charges in the alternative. But he could be acquitted of both but could only be convicted of one or the other.

His character is so far as I am aware is unimpeachable.

3rd Character Witness.

Douglas George Hayes, Millcroft, Church Lane, Burstow, Surrey. Having been duly sworn states.

I am headmaster of Crawley Down School & have known the accused for a period of eight months. He is connected with the youth movement which is patronised by the older boys of my school. He has assisted me in training these boys. Much of the good work in this youth movement is produced by imitation of their elders & in this case they have been affected by E.G.'s advantageous personality. He is held in high regard by the boys parents & those who know him in the village.

The defending officer addresses the court:

His soldier joined up in 1939 has practically been conducted sheet. He has not only done good work for his C.O. but has used his spare time in assisting the local population in training their own children. I ask the court to consider the case in the light of the evidence they have just heard. There were a number of soldiers concerned in the fracas on 6 Jan. 43 & some of these have not been apprehended & appeared in front of a court. I think that the court should consider the circumstances under which the charges were laid. There are several incidents in this soldiers case. He is very evidently a good soldier, a good citizen & a definite asset to the Canadian Army. There is no evidence of serious physical injury to either recipients of his blows.

6th day of June. 1943

Name Frank Beavis.

Address Police Station,

Cannon Row. S.W.1.

Age Occupation Police Sergeant 40 "A" Division.

Statement At 9.55 p.m. on 6th June, 1943, whilst on duty at Trafalgar Square, London, S.W.1., I saw about 12 Canadian soldiers, the majority of whom were N.C.O.'s cross the roadway from Northumberland Avenue, towards the south ~~west~~ corner of Trafalgar Square. They appeared to have been drinking and were shouting at the tops of their voices, and deliberately walked in front of oncoming traffic causing a bus and ~~xx~~ other vehicles to stop suddenly, shouting out some remarks about " your rotten country". As they approached me, strung out in a long line right across the roadway, I asked them to behave themselves, and to be a little quieter. A lance Corporal, not in custody, said to me " You're asking for fucking trouble, get out of it. Come on boys smash him up". They all got round me, pushing me back along the footway, when the lance corporal struck me in the chest. I at once seized hold of him and told him I should arrest him for insulting behaviour, and for assaulting me. I immediately received a rain of blows, and they commenced to wrench the lance Corporal away from me. A soldier whom I now know as Private Drury, No. B. 85796 attached to the R.C.C.Signals jumped on my back shouting let him go you bastard" half choking me with his arms. This and the pulling of the other men eventually caused the escape of my prisoner. At this point Private Patrick ELY, No. D. 21191 also attached to the R.C.C.S. attacked me, but I managed to get free from Drury and as I went to run after the escaping prisoner, Ely seeing another Police Officer running to my assistance, jumped straight at him and knocked him down with a blow in the mouth with his right fist. I at~~x~~ once caught hold of Ely, and the War Reserve who was able to get up also caught hold of him when we were again set upon by Drury and his companions and forced to leave go. Ely run up Trafalgar Square, and I finally caught him in Whitcombe Street, with the aid of a passing motor car, conveying him back to Trafalgar Square. He fought all the time. Immediately on my return Drury, and another Canadian rushed at me, and Drury shouting "You can't' touch Canadians in this country you bastard " they both attacked me. I closed with both of them and caught ~~xx~~ hold of them but in the melee which ensued I could only manage to retain hold of Drury, and this only with the help of several civilians who came to my assistance. In this melee I struck Drury several times as he was fighting madly. I finally told ~~him~~ that he was being arrested for (1) using insulting behaviour likely to cause a breach of the peace, (2) assaulting me in the execution of my duty, and obstructing me in such a manner as to enable a prisoner to escape, when he said "its nothing what I'll do to you when this lots over". Ely and Drury were conveyed to Cannon Row Police Station, where they were detained pending enquiries and escort. Ely was then told that he had been arrested for Obstructing Police, Assault on Police, and insulting behaviour". When I told him this, he flung off his jacket and jumped at me punching me in the stomach, shouting "

Statement About 9.55 p.m. on 6th June, 1943, when on Duty in the Strand, W.C.2., in consequence of what I was told I ran to the South ~~XXX~~ East corner of Trafalgar Square, where I saw Police Sergeant 40 "A" Division, surrounded by a number of Canadian soldiers, about ten or twelve, who were attacking him. One of the Candian soldiers was on the Sergeants back. As I went in to his assistance, and as I had almost reached the Sergeant, I went to catch hold of Private Ely, No. D21191, who was attacking him, he swung round jumped at me and struck me in the mouth and nose with his right fist, knocking me down. I jumped up and caught hold of him, but the soldiers with him finally forced us to relinquish out hold and he ran away, up to the North side of Trafalgar Square. A few minutes later the Sergeant returned with the man Ely, and when he arrived again, I saw Drury and another man go for him. Another scramble or ~~struggle~~ ensued and Dury was finally arrested. They were ~~both~~ conveyed to Cannon Row Police Station, where they were told they had been arrested for insulting behaviour, assault on police and obstruction, Ely who had half taken off ~~at~~ his blouse, jumped up and struck P.S. 40 in the stomach shouting out " 200 pounds you bastard, I'll fucking well kill you". RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans YES.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para L3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on FIRST charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on .....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 17(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C1. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Defending offer assumes the court and states that defense is willing to admit 2 facts:

① There was a work ticket properly signed by Capt. Gotland issued to Pfc. Emard to drive ~~[illegible]~~ Cdn Mil Veh # C2 425585 5 from Lauterau to Brunnen + Dieren on 23 Sept. 45.

② That Pfc Emard did in fact give Gnr Burrows permission to drive the said vehicle.

Prosecuting offer states that ~~he has~~ in view of the ~~fact~~ admission made by the defence, he has no evidence to call.

D-6. First witness for the defence - the accused. M100881 Pfc. Emard L.T. having been duly sworn states:

"I am an above named. about 2045 or 2100 hrs Gnr Burrows came to me + asked permission to drive to Dieren to see some friends. I knew he was a qualified driver + I gave him permission because he was in a fit condition to drive. I gave him the rotor arm + the work ticket.

X-exam

I didn't know of any regulation that makes this giving of permission ~~un~~ unauthorized but. I have been driving for 3 yrs. civil + I have been in the army. I have had a licence for 3 yrs. civ + I qualified as a driver

By the court

I have only been with this regiment 2½ months. but to my knowledge it was always

2883

O.K. for one qualified driver to take over from another qualified driver in case the one driver got hurt or anything like that. I understand that when a work ticket is made out to me I am responsible for the vehicle. I ~~think~~ figured that when I had handed over the work ticket & given permission to another driver to drive, the vehicle is then in his care & I am relieved of responsibility. I have never read any order to prohibit handing over a vehicle to another driver. Being a N.C.O. I thought that I could give that permission.
R.P. #3(B) applies with Prosecuting Officer cross ex:

It is true that there are no orders produced to show that a driver may not turn over a vehicle. Accused says it is all right to do so if a driver got hurt or anything like that. That may be so in extenuating circumstances but in this case there were no such circumstances.

Accused has driven for 3 yrs. Any Officer & N.C.O in the army for that length of time knows that without proper authority, a driver may not drive a vehicle. The work ticket was in favour of Cpl Reed & does not authorize anybody else to drive. It authorizes only Reed to drive & it does not authorize Reed to turn the vehicle over to anyone else.

Exhibit

Defending Offr sums up.

I the defence submits that

(i) I the fact that the accused statement shows no criminal intent

(ii) I the fact that the circumstances must be granted

(iii) I the fact that the accused is an N.C.O. and therefore can be assumed to have some power and discretion

(iv) I the fact that he gave the waste ticket to Barnes all show that the giving authority was not in fact wrongful and without authority

C.A. Forbes Capt R.A.C.

J.A. Sums up.

The charge can be broken down into two parts.

1. Statement of offence - conduct to the prejudice of good order & military discipline
2. The particulars alleged to support the statement of the offence.

Re the particulars. They are not in dispute. The accused himself has admitted them — in evidence under oath.

You must find that these particulars amount to the prejudice of both good order & military discipline before you can convict.

In deciding whether or not any set of particulars amount to the prejudice of good order & military discipline you are entitled to draw on your ~~military~~ experience. You are all regular officers & you have had varying lengths of military experience and you are well qualified to answer that question.

B-2. Statement by the accused:

On 23 Sep. after dinner I got permission from BSM to be in charge of a liberty vehicle to Bremen & Diepholz. About 1600 hrs. Burrows came to me & told me that 2 Br civilians had come down from Diepholz on business & they would like to get a ride back to Diepholz. I told him to tell the civilians to see with me & I would get a civilian release. I went to the Sty Office & asked the W.C.O for a civilian release from & he gave me one. Then going to the Offrs Mess to find either Capt. Gotland or Capt. Lennon to get them to sign the release. I told the civilians would like to get back to Diepholz with us in the vehicle. They told me that the civilian release had to be signed by the O.C. They first asked the adjt if he could give permission & the adjt said No. It was late in the afternoon. So, after leaving the offrs mess, I went to my own mess hall for supper. I had told 3 or 4 of the fellows who were going with me that I would meet them at the billets with the truck. So at 1700 hrs. I drove the truck up to the billets & there I waited for the rest of the fellows. On arrival of Burrows & the 2 civilians, I told them that I could not get the civilian release signed. It was now 1730 hrs. and knowing that the civilians had already waited 1½ hrs in order to go with me, I decided to take them with me. ~~Before~~ I had told the civies that they would have to sign the civilian release. They both signed their names. Then we proceeded to Diepholz.

R.P. 93(b) applies each.

1 civilian was found in the back of one vehicle & 1 civilian was found in the back of another vehicle. I told Capt Gotland & Capt Lennon about this & they were both very displeased.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF M66686, GUNNER BARROWS, WILLIAM ALBERT, 13th CANADIAN FIELD REGIMENT (CDA), A SOLDIER OF THE CANADIAN ARMY PLACED ON ACTIVE SERVICE, AND M100881, BOMBARDIER EMARD, LAWRENCE LOUIS, 13th CANADIAN FIELD REGIMENT (CDA), A SOLDIER OF THE CANADIAN ARMY PLACED ON ACTIVE SERVICE.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER THE EVIDENCE IS TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS:- 13075173 Sergeant RAINE, M.W., 603 CMP, Coy. (VP) having been duly sworn, states:

"On the 23rd of September, 1945 at about 2255 hours, I was called to the scene of an accident at Brummen. On arrival at the scene, I learned that one man had been killed, one injured and taken to hospital. Both these people were civilians. The driver, a soldier was removed to No. 1 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. The vehicle involved was a ~~UP~~ ~~matic~~. It was facing towards Brummen on the left side of the road. The rear wheel assembly was torn from the undercarriage and the front of the truck was badly damaged. The RCEME tow truck could not remove the vehicle, therefore, a RCEME transport was called in. The road at the scene of the accident has a left bend as it approaches Brummen from Dieren. The camber of the road is normal from right to left. The road is twenty-one feet wide with a cycle path, three feet wide on both sides. There is no curb on either side of the road. I couldn't find any work ticket or authorisation for carriage of civilians in the W.D. vehicle. The road surface was dry and it was a moonlight night, causing the trees on the east side of the road to cast a shadow. I queried those persons at the scene of the accident and discovered no actual witness at the time of the accident. I obtained a statement from Bombardier Emard, L.L. who said that he was in charge of the vehicle, but was not riding in the vehicle at the time of the accident."

Both the accused decline to cross examine.

This a certified true copy of the original statement. [signature] Capt.

RECORD WITNESS:- Doctor Anton Aorteweg of A194 Brummen, Holland having been duly sworn states:

"On the 23rd of September, 1945 at about 2200 hours on the main road between Dieren and Brummen, I heard an accident and went to the scene immediately. I must have been there within three minutes. I was the first person at the scene of the accident. I saw a vehicle burning slightly on the west side of the road and found three persons; one soldier and two civilians.

The soldier was lying head downwards out the open door, being clamped in that position by his shoe being caught under the dash-board. On the east side of the road, I found two other persons, the first one opposite the vehicle with his head in the direction of Brummen, the other one three metres south with his head in the direction of Dieren. The soldier was conscious. With the help of some civilians who arrived after me, we lifted the soldier out of his position and laid him on the east side of the road. He was badly hurt on the head. My first impression was that he had concussion. I ordered him to lay down, but after some minutes, he got up by himself. With my assistance, he walked to a car which had driven up. I asked the driver to take the soldier to the hospital in Zutphen for treatment. The civilian lying with his head in the direction of Brummen was dead. He must have broken the back of his skull by being thrown onto the hard stone road. The other civilian was lying on his back, but he was conscious and could talk to me. He had broken his leg beneath the knee and had some slight injuries on his head. In my profession, I am usually asked in situations such as this, whether my impression of the driver's condition led me to believe he was drunk. I therefore checked on this possibility. My impression was that he was not drunk. I spoke to him and he tried to answer, but the injuries to his mouth made speech impossible."

THIRD WITNESS:- Sergeant Hendrick Dokter of KONINKLIJKE MARECHAUSSEE and Derk Jan Koekkoek (Cpl) (Dutch Civilian Police) of Brummen, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

"In the evening of the 23rd September, 1945 at about 2200 hours, the undersigned, Hendrick Dokter and Derk Jan Koekkoek, both attached to the a/m group, heard while we were on night duty at Brummen, a heavy blow. Immediately we proceeded into the direction of the sound and found that the blow was caused by a military four-wheeled vehicle, which had struck two trees along the highway, Dieren-Brummen, between LEUVENHEIMSCHEERZEK and the house of Belmonte under the commune of Brummen. We observed that a physician, Dr. A. Korteweg living at Brummen was rendering first-aid to a civilian, lying alongside the road with a broken right leg and injuries about the head. Another civilian was lying dead a little further on. A totally wrecked vehicle was standing at the other side of the road. The injured civilian is named Korinus Pieper, born at Rheden, 11th November 1910, butcher, living at Dieren, 2 Spoorstraat. We the undersigned state that Pieper's breath was smelling of liquor. The person who got killed is Hendrikus Heggelaar. We conveyed the body to the mortuary at the General Cemetery at Brummen, where we showed it the same night to Gradus Smeltink of Dieren and Hendrik van Tent Beeking of Dieren, who both separately, identified the body. Pieper was conveyed to the General Hospital at Zutphen. Our opinion about the accident is that the vehicle had been travelling too fast. The condition of the road was favorable (dry). The road makes here a slight bend. The road consists of bricks. It is possible that the accident is partly due to the consumption of liquor, as a part of a stone bottle was found in the wrecked car. This piece has been handed over to the M.P."

FOURTH WITNESS:- Gradus Smeltink, a baker, living at 56 Harderwijkerweg, Dieren, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

Part I Exhibit

"On the evening of 23rd September, 1945, at about 2000 hours, I, together with Pieper and Heggelaar and four Canadian soldiers, whom we had met at Cafe de Slaus at Dieren, went in a military motor vehicle to Brummen to a dance. When we had been there for a little while, our comrades, Pieper and Heggelaar, beckoned us and indicated to us that they were going for a little while. As we were dancing at that time, we did not bother much about it. Later on we heard that there had been an accident on the Brummen-Dieren road, and that Heggelaar was dead and Pieper injured. We went then to the scene of the accident and continued from there to the Mortuary at the General Cemetery at Brummen. Two Dutch civilians policemen took us there from the scene of the accident. I identified the dead body as that of Hendrikus Heggelaar.

FIFTH WITNESS:- Hendrik van Tent Beeking, carpenter, of 9 Prinsenstraat, Dieren, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

"On the evening of 23rd September, 1945 at approximately 2000 hours, I, together with Pieper, Heggelaar and Smeltink and four Canadian soldiers whom we had met in the Cafe de Sluis at Dieren, went in a military motor vehicle to a dance at Brummen. About half an hour after arrival and while I was dancing, Pieper and Heggelaar waved to me indicating they were leaving the dance. At about 2215 hours, the band suddenly stopped playing; the band leader asked for Smeltink and they informed Smeltink and myself that there had been an accident on the Dieren-Brummen road. A little boy had brought the information to the band leader including the fact that Heggelaar had probably been killed as a result. Smeltink and I then went to the scene of the accident and there we saw two Dutch civilian policemen who took us to the Mortuary at the cemetery. There I identified the body as that of my comrade, Heggelaar."

SIXTH WITNESS:- Marinus Pieper, butcher, of 2 Spoorstraat, Dieren, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

"On the evening of 23 September, 1945 at about 1830 hours, after finishing my supper and after meeting my three friends, Smeltink, Beeking and Heggelaar, went to the Cafe de Sluis for a dance. This was at about 1945 hours. When we arrived in the Sluis we were informed that no dance was to be held that evening. We heard there was a dance at Brummen. At the Cafe we met four Canadian soldiers and Freriks and we all went together to Brummen. This was about 2030 hours. We were carried there in an army vehicle driven by one of the Canadian soldiers, who was a small man with no moustache. The other driver who drove Heggelaar and I back from Brummen, was tall, black hair and a small moustache, resembling one of the two soldiers standing before me, (indicating Gunner Borrows). At the dance-hall at Brummen, I had a dance and one and a half glasses of beer, and Heggelaar, a Canadian soldier and myself decided to go back to Dieren for more beer.

We informed the others and left. We arrived at Dieren at 2130 hours and went to the Cafe de Sluis where Heggelaar and I had four or five beers. The Soldier drank not as much as Heggelaar and I, four or possibly five beers. At about 2150 hours, we left Dieren for Brummen. On the road I felt we were travelling too fast and I remarked on this to Heggelaar who replied that the driver was a good one. I remember nothing immediately prior to the accident; it all happened so suddenly.

"On the night of 23rd September, 1945, we went to a dance at Dieren. We went in a vehicle from 22nd Battery about 1730 hours. In the vehicle were Bombardier Emard driving, Gunner Borrows, Gunner Sperling, Gunner Bell, Gunner Marks, myself and two civilians, one girl and a man. On arrival at Dieren, we unloaded the bicycles and the civilians went to their house. The civilian man returned with a bottle of gin which seven of us drank by the vehicle park. After that we went to the Cafe de Sluis, this party including Gunner Bell, Gunner Sperling, the civilian man who is called "William" and myself. Bombardier Emard and Gunner Borrows went to see their girl friends. The four of us stayed in the Cafe for about an hour. There we had a few beers. Later Bombardier Emard and Gunner Borrows came to the Cafe. A civilian told us that there was a dance at Brummen. About fifteen minutes after the arrival of Bombardier Emard and Gunner Borrows, we left the Cafe to go to Brummen. In the vehicle were Bombardier Emard driving, Gunner Borrows, Gunner Sperling, myself, and about four civilians. I am not sure of the exact number of civilians, because I was in the rear of the vehicle and it was dark. On arrival at the dance-hall, we had a glass of beer each, then went inside the dance-hall. About half an hour later, Gunner Sperling called me outside to have some gin given by the civilians. About an hour later the orchestra leader made an announcement that I could not understand. Immediately afterwards, I heard that there had been an accident to a Canadian vehicle not very far away from the dance-hall."

A1. - "No." "About the only think that was wrong with it was the steering." "It shimmied at certain speeds. Also when taking corners or curves, due to the shimmy the steering wheel would at times give violent jerks."

Q2. - (Bdr. Emard) "Previous to my trip, had there been work done to fix this fault?"

A2. - "Yes." "I had the vehicle under observation and had been working on the steering for approximately a week, but finding I was unable to repair it, I decided to take it to the L.A.D the next day, Monday, the 24th September.

Q5. - (Gnr. Borrows) "Did the vehicle always shimmy at the same rate of speed?"

A5. - "To the best of my knowledge, after several road-tests, it did."

Q6. - (Gnr. Borrows) "At what speed did you notice this?"

A6. - "The shimmying started between 30 mph and 31 mph, and reached its peak at 34 mph to 35 mph.

" on the night of 2 3 Sep 45, at 2300 hours, a Canadian soldier was brought in to the Roman Catholic Hospital at Zutphen. I was on night duty that night with two other nurses. I telephoned the doctor who came to the Hospital and said to me that the patient was not in great danger and as there was not room for him in our hospital, the Dutch soldier who had brought the soldier in, told me to phone Appledoorn to the military hospital. I could not do so, as I did not know there was a military hospital there, nor did I know the phone number. The Dutch soldier went out and returned later and told me that he had made arrangements for a vehicle to come from Appledoorn to pick up the injured soldier. At 2400 hours the vehicle came with two red-cross soldiers andtook the injured soldier away.

Q.1 - (Gnr. Borrows) "What condition in your opinion was I in the time I was under your care?"

A.1 - " You were in pain and suffering and asking all the time for the doctor. The Dutch soldier said to me." "It was always drunken Canadian soldiers causing accidents." although he did not say absolutely that you were drunk." I got the impression the m that you were drunk. Your breath smelled of alcohol.

It was not so strong but in the beginning, I could smell it. We put a blanket around you to keep you warm and washed the blood off your face and hands and we bandaged your head. You were very unquiet all the time, wanting to put your hand on your bandage. We therefore could not leave you alone.

STATEMENT BY F 35196 Pte. EMBREE, D.S., 4 C I R U PURSUANT TO R.P. 40 (d) at F.G.C.M. 4 April 1944

I enlisted in the Army on 1 April 1942 and received Basic and Advanced Training in Canada. I wanted to be a fighting soldier. My Pay Book shows that I qualified Class II, and Class I in range work on the rifle and L.M.G. respectively.

When I arrived overseas in November 1942, I did six weeks Basic Training with "B" Coy 7 C I R U and passed all my T.'s on B.T. At the completion of my training I was put on kitchen duty as a cook contrary to my wishes. I was paraded several times to be put on draft to the field. After approximately two months in the kitchen I was sent to "A" Coy for a short time, then to "B" Coy again for three weeks training. My Coy Comd promised to get me on the next draft. However instead I was put on the R.P. Staff and remained there for two and a half months.

On being paraded again, I was put on scheme "Hot-dog" in October 1943. I was taken off before the draft left without any reason being given. I was promised that I would go on the next draft. In January 1944 I was again taken off a C.N.F. draft without a reason being given.

I didn't like life at the Reinforcement Unit and they weren't sending me to my unit as they had promised so many times. My wife wasn't writing to me regularly and I hadn't heard from her for weeks before going absent. I was worried about my child. All of this made my morale very low so I went A.W.L. I realized my mistake and surrendered myself on March 1, 1944. I would like this Court to recommend also that I be placed on an overseas draft at the completion of whatever punishment is awarded.

Ex F. Plea in Mitigation of Punishment: re Sunbeam Court-martial
Apr 4/44

1. The statement made by the accused is self explantory and I do not see any reason to believe that the statements made are not reasonably correct. In my own experience and in the experience of the members of this Court we have seen men "pushed around" in Reinforcement units. This is not intentional but due mainly to the system. There is an ever changing ~~personnel~~ instructional staff. Officers and NCO's are going to and from Courses - to and from the field, leave etc. Platoon comdrs like myself very often slip up with regard to the men's problems because they platoon comdrs and men never really get a chance to become known to one another. Even Coy. Comdrs sometimes make mistakes or take ~~not~~ the men's point of view a little too lightly

2. The C.O. probably thought that he should not have dealt with this case but had all the circumstances been properly presented to him as we are considering them to-day I think he would have awarded his own punishment. Nervousness, fear, lack of education makes it very difficult for a man to put his case properly before the C.O.

3. The accused surrendered himself on mar 1/44
It is now Apr 4/44 and the accused has been in detention awaiting ~~35 days~~ on court-martial for 35 days.
This is unusual but understandable to a certain extent in view of the change from 7 C/RK to 4 C/RK and the later change in locality of 4 C/RK.
The date of the award of a crt-martial, as you know, is ~~to date or which the sentence~~ the effective date of as far as the sentence is concerned. The 35 days spent in detention should be given serious consideration and I submit that the accused should not in any case be more than C O's punishment.

I Pte. Embree. D.S of WNS Regt Y. C.I.R.U C.A.O.C.
do hereby swear that this is a true statement of my period of absence from the D/M C.I.R.U
I joined the Canadian Army at Halifax N.S. three years ago, and after serving for 1 year, I was discharged for having been unfit with varicose vein trouble.
In 1942, I had my ailment treated, and finally cured.
I then enlisted in the West Nova Scotia Regt at Truro N.S. this on my own accord, and for Overseas Service.
On my arrival in England on Nov 1942 I was posted to D/M C.I.R.U at Witley, and ever since then I have never been able to get posted to the Field, although I tried hard enough to get there.
After that I got put in the Kitchen as cook, I finally got disgusted, and I just went off A.W.O.L.
After I had been gone almost 13 days I realized just what a foolish thing that I had done so I surrendered myself to the Civilian Police at Truro
All I ask is a chance to get in the Field, and I give my word that I will soldier.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit,* notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. DD

Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?

Question to the accused.

NO, SIR

Answer.

~~Evidence as to character~~

Prosecutor, Capt. W. D. Hungerford, 46 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Court.

Q. 1 - Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused?
A. 1 - I have the MFM 1 and also the Record of Service of the accused sir

MFB 355 and MFM 1 are read, Marked "Y" and "Z" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Prosecutor - Sir, I would point out that in this column he jumps from provisional lieutenant to Captain which rank appears in this column continuously later on Defending Officer - There is actually an error in that "To be Capt", It may be an error but we do not intend to make an issue of it
Judge-Advocate - That only shows the Unit authority for it?
Defending Officer - Yes, sir, it does not show on the blue sheet
Judge-Advocate - Then it is common ground to both parties that he is in fact only an acting captain?
Defending Officer - So far as I am concerned, sir. I am not making a point of it

Q. 2 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have just read?
A. 2 - Yes, sir
Q. 3 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A. 3 - Yes, sir
Q. 4 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A. 4 - Yes, sir

DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS STANDS DOWN

President to Defending Officer - Do you wish to address the court?
Defending Officer - Yes, sir. The court is faced now this morning with the very difficult problem of determining a sentence to pass upon a young officer who deliberately went absent without leave, according to his own statement, for the purpose of recording a grievance. Your problem, gentlemen, is manifold. You want to know why he did this foolish thing, why he took the law into his own hands and why he didn't use the proper method of laying a complaint and you want to know whether he is worth saving for the Service and, if he is worth saving for the Service what is to be done with him? Capt. Emberley is now 33. He has been in the Army for two years but I submit, gentlemen, he knows virtually nothing about the Army and it is easy to see why. Up to September 1941 he was Chief Steward and Purchasing Agent for the Lord Nelson Hotel in Halifax earning $150.00 a month. A friend of his who was District Inspector of Catering for M.D.6, Halifax and was about to give up his appointment suggested to Emberley that he might apply for it. Emberley did this and after a couple of short interviews was taken on strength as a Provisional Second Lieutenant or Lieutenant (there is a little confusion on that point) on 28 Sep 41. Four or five days later he was made Acting Captain. He was given two weeks specialist training which he describes as nothing but a Cook's Tour of the kitchens of large camps such as Petawawa and Camp Borden. He was then sent to take up his appointment as District Inspector of Catering at Halifax and he was there until May of this year. In February of this year, as he said in his statement at the Summary of Evidence, he had a three or four weeks course at the Officers' Training Centre at Three Rivers where he qualified as Lieutenant.

Now, the Court knows by experience that we learn military fundamentals in two ways - firstly those that are taught us in our formal training and secondly, those we learn from our fellows. Now, I submit, gentlemen, that this officer had the opportunity to learn military fundamentals in neither of these ways. During all the time he was in Halifax, for instance, he lived at home with his wife and child. He did not live in a Mess. He was denied Mess Life. He had no particular friends at HQ, M.D. 6. He received his directions from "Q" but his military coaching from no one. The absence of his formal training is apparent from his record. The only formal training on his record is the course he took at Three Rivers early this year.

I suggest, gentlemen, that all these things resulted in an inferiority complex - a feeling of futility, a feeling that things military were away beyond his understanding, away beyond his capacity but at any rate he came overseas. He was given an opportunity to come overseas and he took it hoping for improvement over here. But over here he discovered that the people he ran into were even more sophisticated in his opinion than they were at home and so he did this foolish thing, this foolish act for which he is now on charge and on trial. He did not even know the proper method of laying a complaint. Military law was never properly explained to him until three days ago. He has read the Army Act only once. When he went absent without leave Capt. Emberley felt that the Army was not the place for him, that he was a misfit, that he would never do a proper job in the Army and that he would never get a job in the Army that he liked because of the lack of training but I submit, gentlemen, that the Army does not know whether or not Capt. Emberley is a fit person to carry on in this life. He has not had the opportunities that officers usually get in this Army. All the Army information about him is that he has been tried as a catering officer and that he did not like it. He is very emphatic on that. We know he has not been trained in any job and he has only been tested in one job and there are lots of jobs in the Army.

Capt. Emberley now has three firm resolutions or desires, if you wish. He wishes to stay in the Army. He wishes to retain his commission. He wishes to become a regimental officer in his own Corps, the Army Service Corps and thirdly - a correlative of the second, he knows if he is to be a regimental officer in his Corps he knows it must mean reverting which he is prepared to do.

Now, gentlemen, I submit that this gentleman is worth saving because he has not had the proper opportunities. His actual capabilities other than as catering officer are not known but I suggest that the position that he held down in civil life indicates that he is a man worthy of commisioned rank and whoever appointed him to commisioned rank in the first place was not in error. Emberley is resolved to be useful provided he is not asked to do catering duties and I suggest that that is a fair proviso.

I therefore request you, sir, and gentlemen to record a sentence which will permit this officer to carry on - which will permit this officer to serve - which will permit this officer to have more training, to understand the Army and will permit this officer to carry out these three resolutions which he has made COURT - The court is closed for consideration of the sentence. The sentence being subject to confirmation will be promulgated later and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.

Summary of evidence in the case of Captain J.H.J. Emberley, attached to 46 Canadian General Transport Company, R.C.A.S.C., Canadian Army Overseas, charged with Absence without leave from 20 Sep 43 to 24 Sep 43.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness

Captain H.L. Howe, 2 Cdn Corps Catering Advisor, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:-

I am Herbert Leonard Howe, R.C.A.S.C., 2 Cdn Corps Catering Advisor. In accordance with verbal instructions issued to me by the Chief Inspector of Catering (Lt.Col. A.W. Childs, R.C.A.S.C.) C.A.(O) and under authority of C.M.H.Q. MS 6/MS/7250, dated 9 Sep 43. Captain J.H.J. Emberley was attached wef 10 September 1943 to H.Q. 2 Cdn Corps for training as a catering advisor under my command. Captain Emberley accompanied me on Exercise "LINK" during the period Sep 10th to 18th and returned with me to 2 Cdn Corps H.Q. on Saturday 18 Sep 43. He was given permission by me to proceed on leave until 0900 hrs Monday 20 Sep 43. I had arranged with him that he would call my office on Monday the 20th Sep 43. at approximately 0900 hrs from the station of arrival, namely, Weybridge, Surrey, and I would have him picked up there from whence we would carry on with our normal work.

I did not hear from Captain Emberley again until I met him in my office at 2 Cdn Corps H.Q. at approximately 1600 hours Friday 24 Sep 43. In the meantime, I had endeavoured to ascertain Captain Emberley's whereabouts by phoning 1 Cdn ASC. Reinf Unit on Monday the 20th and Tuesday the 21st Sep 43. and also through the Chief Inspector of Catering. These efforts met without success. I was instructed on Wenesday morning 22nd Sep 43. by the Chief Inspector of Catering to bring the matter to the attention of "A" Branch, H.Q. 2 Cdn Corps by letter and this I did."

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

H.L. Howe (Capt)

(Signature of Witness)

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The Accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

The accused, Captain J.H.J. Emberley, attached to 46 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:-

On the advice of the District Inspector of Catering (M.D.6 Halifax), I applied to the Chief Inspector of Catering NDHQ, for a position as District Inspector of Catering & Messing, in June 1941.

In Sep 41 I received word from the CIC to apply to the DSATO MD6 for interview, and was subsequently taken into the army as a Prov 2/Lt and a few days later made an A/Capt. The CIC up to this point had never seen me and had never interviewed me in person or by mail, and I had no idea what duties my job entailed.

The only trg I got was a tour of the kitchens of some of the larger trg centres, such as Camp Borden and Petawawa under the direction of the CIC.

After this tour of about 2 weeks, I was posted to HQ M.D.6 as District Inspector of Catering & Messing and was left largely to myself to find my way about and to do a job I had little knowledge of. In three or four months time I decided that I was not suited to the job nor the job to me, and made that fact known to the CIC, pointing out that I could serve better as a Supply Officer. I received an answer from him, written in a jocular vein, but nothing was done. I therefore carried on, awaiting an opportune moment to do something myself.

In Feb 43 I was sent to O.T.C. at Three Rivers Que, for a Common to all Arms Course, which lasted 22 days, at which I qualified as 2/Lt.

By this time I was thoroughly disinterested in the Army as a whole and was beginning to seek ways of getting out of it, when word came from M"HQ that a Catering Adviser was wanted overseas, and I was "invited" to volunteer.

After some consideration I accepted, feeling that my outlook would change upon arrival overseas. To my chagrin, I found that such was not the case, and made the situation known to Lt-Col.Childs (the Chief Inspector of Catering Cdn Army Overseas), to whom I wrote in Jul 43. I do not know exactly what he did about it, but I took it upon myself to have a talk with the personnel Selection Officer at 1 CASCRU, whom I told that I wished to return to civil life, or return to Canada in any case.

The next word I received was that I was to see the psychiatrist at 8 Cdn Gen Hosp. We had a long conversation in which I told him what was on my mind. He told me that I could go back to Canada and that he could set the necessary machinery in motion then and there, but it would be in disgrace that I would return.

Since, like any one else, I do not relish disgrace, I decided to continue my efforts and was subsequently posted to HQ 2 Cdn Corps for trg by the Corps Catering Adviser. I attended Exercise "LINK" with him, at the end of which I felt that I had all of the Army that I could take, so therefore went A.W.L. with the idea that such action would bring my case forcibly into the limelight.

I certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

To the President of the Court. [illegible]

Sir -

I have the honour to make the following statement on my own behalf.

That I went absent without leave on the 18th and on the 19th on the summary of evidence my attitude was a result of my dislike of my occupation in the army.

On thinking my position over since then, however, I have changed my attitude. I now most sincerely wish to hold my commission, to stay overseas and to seek regimental employment. Given the opportunity, I shall do my utmost to justify any faith your court may place in me.

I humbly regret the trouble I have caused. I feel it was a good bit due to my own ignorance.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
C 94254 Sgt Goyette, R.W. of Convoy Sec 1 CCOD RCOC having been duly sworn states:

At approx 0830 hrs 18 Jul 44 a parade was called of the Convoy Sec of the Unit. The accused whom I now recognize, was on this parade. The accused produced a round of sten gun amn. I asked Pte Emberley to give me this rd of sten gun amn which he did, at the same time asking what I intended to do with the said rd. I informed the accused that it was no concern of his, but I would see to it that it got to the right authorities; by that I meant the QM stores. Pte Emberley told me that it was a concern of his as to what I was to do with it. I ordered the accused to be quiet and that there would be no talking on parade. After having ordered him to be quiet he repeated for the second time that it was a concern of his what I was to do with the rd of amn aforementioned. For the third time I ordered the accused to be quiet and that there would be no talking or I would march him to the guard house. He replied that he cared nothing for the guard house. It was at that time that I ordered two escorts to fall out and march the accused to the guard house.

EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.1 The Sgt Major of your unit called out on parade that morning that all amn whether it be sten gun or .303 was to be turned in to the pl sgt and that he, the pl sgt, would take it to the QM stores?
A.1 The Sgt Major brought the parade to attention and I think that what he said was "all amn will be turned in to your pl sgts".

Q.2 Has the Sgt Major a strong voice?
A.2 The Sgt Major has a very good voice.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.3 I understand you gave an order for the accused to be quiet, will you give us your exact words?
A.3 I told him there would be no talking on parade.

Q.4 If these are the exact words why did you state on a previous occasion under oath that you told him to stop his grousing?
A.4 What I termed as grousing sir, was mumbling, making noises that sounded like a voice, not loud enough to make it out, but loud enough to know he was saying something.

Q.5 What was the exact order?
A.5 No talking on parade.

Q.6 I quote to you a statement which you made to us at the taking of the previous summary in this case. "I told him to stop his grousing, he continued to grouse, I repeated to him to stop his grousing or I would parade him to the court house". Did you say those words?
A.6 Yes sir, I did.

Q.7 Are those words true?
A.7 They are true.

Q.8 Why have you told this court a different story to-day?
A.8 The purpose for this sir, is that on the original summary of evidence, the word grousing was used and I was informed that I should change the word from grousing to talking.

Q.9 After you had told the accused to stop his grousing what was his reaction to that?
A.9 His reaction was that it was a soldier's privelege to grouse.

RE-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.10 On the first summary of evidence where you used the word grousing and your second summary of evidence where you used the word talking, did that cover the one incident?
A.10 Yes sir, it covers the one incident.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Lieut. R.W. Storey, of Convoy Sec, 1 CCOD having been duly sworn states:

On 18 Jul 44 approx 0930 hrs there was a parade on the parade square at JASPER CAMP of the dvrs who were to go with me on convoy at 1000 hrs. On this parade, the accused, whom I now recognize produced a rd of sten gun amn. Sgt Goyette asked him for it. Pte Emberley handed it to Sgt Goyette and asked Sgt Goyette what he intended to do with it. Sgt Goyette told Pte Emberley that it did not matter to him what he did with it. Pte Emberley replied that it did matter to him in an insolent tone. Sgt Goyette then ordered Pte Emberley to stop his talking or he would put him in the guard house. Pte Emberley replied that it was his privilege to grouse. Sgt Goyette then had Pte Emberley marched to the guard house.

EXAMINATION BY PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.11 Did you hear Sgt Goyette order the accused to stop talking.
A.11 I definitely heard Sgt Goyette order the accused to stop talking.

Q.12 In the summary of evidence you stated "Sgt Goyette ordred Pte Emberley to stop his grousing", what you described as grousing in the summary of evidence and have now described as talking is that one and the same incident?
A.12 I think the word Sgt Goyette used was stop your grousing.

Q.13 You have stated that the accused' reply was insolent, how?
A.13 The manner used by him.

Q.14 Sgt Goyette after giving a clear order to the accused to stop grousing had to give the command the second time because the accused continued to grouse.
A.14 Yes sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.15 When the accused replied to Sgt Goyette saying it was his privilege to grouse, how would you judge that to be an insolent manner?
A.15 It was the tone he used to answer, I cannot describe that tone.

Q.16 After that he was asked again by the Sgt to stop grousing, was there any further conversation or reaction after that?
A.16 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE NOTE D-6

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B 74270 Pte Ferguson, J.T., of Convoy Sec, 1 CCOD having been duly sworn states:

On 18 Jul 44 I was on parade with the accused. I was standing immediately on the right of the accused. Sgt Goyette told the accused to stop his grousing. The accused then asked Sgt Goyette "is it not a soldier's privilege to grouse". His tone definitely was not insolent, that is all that the accused said.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.17 In your statement at the summary of evidence, you stated that there had been some conversation between Sgt Goyette and the accused about this rd of sten gun amn?
A.17 No, I never said anything about a statement.

Q.18 I quote to you the following from your statement on the summary of evidence, "Pte Emberley turned the round over to Sgt Goyette and asked him what would be done with it. To this he got no reply from Sgt Goyette. The only thing Sgt Goyette said, "It's none of your business and stop your grousing". In view of that there was no chance of the accused misunderstanding what Sgt Goyette meant when he said, stop your grousing?
A.18 There could have been a misunderstanding.

Q.19 You heard Sgt Goyette tell the accused to stop his grousing?
A.19 Yes, but he said something else before he said that. He said, "it is none of your business and stop your grousing".

Q.20 You also heard the accused keep on talking after Sgt Goyette's order?
A.20 The accused did not keep on talking, he just asked Sgt Goyette a question.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

F 97362 Pte Ouellette, A., Convoy Sec, 1 CCOD having been duly sworn states:-

On 18 Jul 44 I was on a parade with the accused. The accused was in the front rank; I was in the second rank once to the right of the accused. I heard Sgt Goyette tell the accused to stop his grousing and the accused asked him if it were not a soldier's privilege to grouse. The accused said nothing else after that.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.21 Did you hear the accused talking after Sgt Goyette ordered him to stop grousing?
A.21 No sir, all he then said was "is it not a soldier's privilege to grouse".

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Sir,

The prosecution has not proved that any order to stop talking was ever given, only the stop grousing, to which the accused asked, if grousing was not his privilege. The charge reads, did not stop his talking on parade when ordered to do so. As the accused was at no time ordered to be quiet or stop talking on parade, I fail to see where he can be guilty of disobeying an order that was never given. It appears to be more of an argument between Sgt Goyette and the accused on grousing which is certainly not an order from a Sgt to a Pte soldier. I recommend this charge be dismissed on the grounds of no evidence being produced that any order as stated in the charge, was ever given.

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Sir,

I submit that the accused has been shown by the evidence of the two witnesses of the prosecution to have deliberately tried to argue with Sgt Goyette. On the evidence of Sgt Goyette and Lieut Storey, it is shown that Pte Emberley continued to talk after being told to stop. The witnesses for the defence have to all intents and purposes omitted that the accused continued to talk after receiving this order. The accused is charged with disobeying a lawful command given by his supperior officer. I submit that it was a lawful command for Sgt Goyette to tell a man on parade to stop talking. I would, therefore, say that the accused had definitely committed an offence under the sec as charged.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

COURT IS RE-OPENED

PLEA IN MITIGATION NOTE E-3

Sir,

I would like the court to take into consideration that the accused is a volunteer and has been overseas nearly three years. He was placed on a charge which seems very trivial, he was not even ordered to stop his talking and he only asked one question that appears to me to be rather flimsy and I ask the court to take that into consideration. I recommend to the court that the accused elected to be tried by F.G.C.M. and, therefore, that the court not make the punishment any greater than the CO would make.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D-1376 Pte. Emberley, H.B. Convoy Section, 1 Canadian Central Ordnance Depot, Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution. C-94254 Sgt. Goyette, R.W. Convoy Section, 1 Canadian Central Ordnance Depot, Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At Jasper Camp on 18th July 1944, at approximately 0930 hours on parade, I ordered Pte. Emberley (D-1376) to give me the one round of Sten Ammunition which he had in his possession. Pte. Emberley (D-1376) gave me the round of ammunition and asked me what I intended to do with it. I answered that it was no concern of his but that I would see to it that it reached the right authorities. Pte. Emberley (D-1376) at this time told me that it was a concern of his and I told him there would be no talking on parade. He repeated that it was still a concern of his what became of the round of ammunition. I then ordered him to be quiet and told him there would be no talking or else I would march him to the guard-room. He replied with insolence that he didn't care about the guard-room. I then ordered two men to fall out and escort Pte. Emberley (D-1376) to the guard-house.

Evidence in the case of F-45094 Pte Embree, R.G., WNSR.

Time of Court 1400 hrs, 18 Jan 45

1st Witness for Pros. F-49875 A/CSM Blakeney, F.E. having been duly sworn states.

On the evening of 11 Dec 44 the WNSR ~~Lost~~ in an attack. At appox. 2100 hrs that date "C" Coy was at the forming up place. Pte. Embree who is a member of the Pioneer Pl. was attached to C Coy on that date and he was present at the forming up place. At approx. 2130 hrs "C" Coy moved off to attack. Pte Embree who had been traveling with Coy HQ was not present and could not be found in the area which Coy HQ occupied. On the following day CQMS Potter brought up rations and told me that Pte Embree had arrived back at the cookhouse at approx. 2200 hrs the 11th of Dec 44. CQMS Potter ordered the accused to report back to C Coy. He refused to do so and CQMS Potter placed him under open arrest and on the morning of the 12th on instructions of the RSM he sent Pte Embree back to Sgt. Coy. Pte Embree had been warned but WNSR was moving forward against the enemy and he was also told the plan of attack of C Coy by myself as I was A/CSM of C Coy on that date. Pte Embree was to travel with Coy HQ during this attack.

No X-exam. "WCO" R.F. 83(b) complied with "WCO"

2nd Witness for Pros. F-41613 CQMS Potter, V.R. after being duly sworne states. At approx 2200 hrs 11 Dec 44 Pte Embree the accused reported to me at my kitchen, he said he had returned from the Coy's forward position. I told him that he'd better return to the Coy, he stated he didn't know where it was at that time. I then warned him to stay in my billet until the following morning I also warned him that he was under open arrest. At approx 0900 hrs 12 Dec 44 I ordered him to report back to Sgt. Coy from where he was attached on the advice of the RSM.

DEFENCE I am sure that Pte Embree reported back at 2200 hrs because I checked the time at the time. Pte Embree the accused gave no reason for why he returned. I now recognize the accused. I did not order Pte Embree to return to his Coy.

R.F. 83 (b) complied with "WCO"

Evidence in the case of F-45094 Pte Embree,R.G.

The Defending Offider submit that a prima-facie case has not been established against the accused on the first charge because CQMS Potter, V.R. did not order Pte Embree to return to the Coy but simply placed him under open arrest when Pte Embree stated he had returned to the Coy.
The Court disallows this submission and defence asks permission to change plea to Guilty from Not Guilty. The Court grants permission under R.P. 38 and Part I of the schedule is amended accordingly. "WCO"

Char. Witness
E 1 F-42643 Sgt Stilwell, J.F. having been duly sworn states.

I've known Pte Embree since June 44. My experience with him is that he does his work satisfactory, obeyed all orders and is a good worker. As long as he's been with me I've never had any trouble with him. He's been in my platoon from June to October prior to being transfered to "C" Coy.
R.P. 83(b) complied with "WCO"

XXXXXXXXXXXXXX "WCO" XXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXX

PLEA IN MITIGATION E-5

In mitigation of sentence I would like to point out that Pte Embree has been in the army 4½ years. Thathe has been a good soldier is shown by his clean conduct sheet and by the fact that he has been an N.C.O. for a total of 2½ years during his service. He was a sergeant in the artillary in Canada for over a year and again in the infantry in England. He automatically lost this acting rank when he embarked for Italy. He has been in action with this regiment since May 44 and as you have heard from his platoon sergeant he has done well and has caused no trouble.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A).)

Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence? - No Sir. -

Answer. The defending Officer requested one adjournment until 22 Oct 42 in order to obtain the attendance of Lt J.H.B. McDonald a defence witness who is on a course. See p. Ca.

*The prosecutor makes an opening address [~~hands in a written address which is read, marked~~ , ~~signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings~~].

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. D.82255 Pte. Jones C.P.L., 11 Cdn. Army Tank Regt.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

When I was on guard at the tank park on 11 Oct 42, at about 12.00 hrs, Cpl. Emery the accused, whom I recognise came on. We discussed how to draw pistols. Cpl Emery unloaded his pistol and we practised four or five draws. Then I said my pistol was too high up for a fast draw so I lowered it to my ~~waist~~ thigh. We drew again Cpl. Emerys pistol discharged and I felt a blow in the left arm. I said I'd been hit. Cpl. Emery rushed me to the guard house and administered first aid. He left me in charge of the M.O.

Cross examined: We practised 4 or 5 draws before I changed my holster. We were 10 or 15 paces apart at the time. I am not sure if Cpl Emery heard me say I was going to adjust my holster. It took me a couple of minutes to change my holster. I did not see what Cpl. Emery was doing when I was changing my holster. After changing my holster, it was I who challenged for another draw.

No re-examination:

By the Judge Advocate: We were trying to see who could draw the quicker. I was trying to prove that I could not make a fast draw if I had to with my holster in its original position. From the time we started practising until I was hit I did not see the accused load his pistol. The accused, when unloading his pistol, first took it out of his holster released the safety catch, let the cylinder drop out. Six bullets fell into his hand, which he placed in his pocket. Then he replaced the pistol in his holster. We carry pistols and Thompson carbines when on guard duty.

By the Court: I was looking down when adjusting my holster. When that was done I turned quickly towards the accused and yelled at him.

R. P. 83 (2) complied with.

Second Witness for Prosecution } B.68015 Gnr. Lowndale R.H. 11 Can Army Tank Regt. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I was in the guard room in the tank park on 11 Oct 44 between 1530 hrs and 1600 hrs. I glanced out the door and saw Cpl. Emery coming down the road. I heard a conversation went to the door and saw the accused helping Gnr. Jones into the guard room. I helped the accused give Gnr. Jones first aid. After administering first aid a truck came & Gnr. Jones was taken to the M.O.'s hut. I then took over the guard. I did not hear a shot. Just the accused was with the wounded man when he was helped in. Gnr. Jones did not say how he was wounded. There was no conversation when I was helping giving first aid to Gnr. Jones.

Cross examined: I was reading at the time when I first saw the accused and heard no conversation between him and Gnr. Jones.

No re-examination.

By the Court: I could recall hearing any noise in the tank park. The guard room is right on the road and trucks and cars pass by all the Lewis. I was the waiting sentry. Gnr. Jones was on duty. The beat is on the gate and a covering beat. As far as I can make out the accident occurred at the gate, right at the guard house I saw some blood about.

By the Judge Advocate: Gnr. Jones appeared to have a bullet wound in the left arm when he was brought into the guard-room. I did not hear a shot. It might have sounded like a backfire from a lorry and as I was reading I did not notice it particularly.

R.P. 83(6) complied with.

Third Witness for the Prosecution } Capt. A.F. Mackay, R.A.A.M.C. att'd 11 Cdn Army Tank Regt. Lewis duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

I am the M.O. of the 11 Cdn Army Tank Regt. On 11 Oct 42 I was called to the R.A.P. about 4.20 PM to see an injured man, Gnr. Jones. His injury consisted of two wounds in the left arm about six inches above the elbow. They were of such a nature as to be caused by a bullet from a service pistol. Haemorrage had been moderate and shock slight. First aid dressing was renewed and an ambulance summoned to transfer the injured man to the hospital. Cpl. Emery whom I recognize accompanied the injured man to the R.A.P. I talked to Gnr. Jones. He indicated the bullet went from front to back. He said the flash to his immediate front, so he said. The accused was in the same room & nearby during this conversation. I can't remember if Gnr. Jones said how he got shot No names were mentioned, but it was assumed that Gnr. Jones was shot.

Cross examined: The two wounds were caused by one bullet - in and out. Part of Gnr. Jones clothing had been removed. There was no burning at the wound. I would describe the wound as trivial Wounds are either trivial or serious. There should be no lasting disability to Gnr. Jones from the wound. I see no reason why Gnr. Jones shouldn't be an efficient soldier in time.

No re-examination.

By the Court: The wounds were about six inches above the elbow (indicates). In my opinion, judging from the size of the wounds leads me to believe the wounds were caused by a bullet .38 from a .38.

Per the Judge Advocate: Gr. Jones has already been unfit for service 11 days and his total disability should not exceed three weeks.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

The prosecution is closed.

The Court re-opens at 1000 hrs. 22 Oct 42.

Great Witness } B. 60798 A/Cpl. Emery V.E., for the Defence } the accused, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer :-

On 11 Oct 42 as commander of "C" Sqn guard I went to the tank park to check on the guard around 3.30 P.M. or there about. Flgn. Jones was on duty and Flgn. Lansdale was in the guard house. We started a discussion on drawing of pistols - Flgn. Jones and myself. In order to prove our statements, I unloaded my pistol. We started drawing against each other trying to see who had the fastest draw. We drew several times. I understood we were finished so I unloaded my pistol and re placed it in my holster. Several minutes later Flgn. Jones challenged me to another draw. So we both drew and my pistol discharged. Flgn. Jones grasped his left upper arm and exclaimed something to the effect that he was hit & shot. I immediately went to his aid: helping him into the guard room where I was assisted by Flgn. Lansdale in administering first aid. I sent for a truck and when it arrived I drove to the M.O & the R.A.F. with Flgn. Jones. The M.O. was not there & was called by the man on duty at the R.A.F. The M.O. appeared in about five minutes and took over. I left the R.A.F and returned to the Sqn. area where I reported the accident to my Troop leader a Sqn. Commander. I am 21 yrs. old. I proved my pistol before the competition with Flgn. Jones. I found it loaded and unloaded it. The bullet I put in my pouch. Flgn. Jones & I were between 10 and 15 feet apart when practising drawing pistols. We practised about 10 draws before the interval. I assumed the competition was over when I saw Flgn. Jones holster his belt. It was then I reloaded my pistol. It was a minute or two after this that Flgn. Jones again challenged me. We both assumed a stance and drew. I don't think Flgn. Jones had completed his draw when my pistol discharged. I made a

Lieut J. M. B. Macdonald and have seen him give demonstrations of quick pistol drawing. His speed impressed me. When Lt. Macdonald was on the strength of "C" Sqn I was had pistol instruction from him. He has always trained safety precautions. Lt. Macdonald stressed that a quick draw might someday save our life and he encouraged us to practise it. Around 15 Aug 42 pistols were withdrawn from all ranks. Since then the only opportunity I've had to practise quick draws is when on guard duty - about 4 or 5 times - when we are issued with pistols. Cross examined. It was not part of my duty as Guard Commander to practise quick draws with members of the guard. I did not prove my pistol when drawing the second time. I forget to do it. I don't remember. No re-examination.

By the Court: I had 6 rounds of .38 ammunition when I went on guard. No orders were given as to where this ammunition was to be carried. When I was on guard duty. I was made a Cpl. on 27 Sep. 42. I do not think Gfn. Jones had any ammunition. When the pistols were withdrawn the ammunition was not withdrawn from personnel of this unit. Gfn. Jones came to this unit after this. The last time, I drew my pistol as soon as Gfn. Jones said the word "draw". I'm not sure the word "draw" was used but there was a challenge anyway.

R.P. 33(B) complied with.

The Court adjourns at 1200 hrs.

The Court re-opens at 1300 hrs.

Second Witness for Prosecution | Lieut. H.F. Hilton, 11 Can Army Tank Regt, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

I recognize the accused, Cpl. Evans, who has been in my troop just about 2 yrs. During that time he has proven himself to be a very trustworthy and efficient soldier. A few months ago he was made a L/Cpl. and a short time later a full Cpl. During his first 2½ yrs of service he was never under charge. The first charge he had was a few months ago, for being absent from his quarters. An announcement was made on parade the day he was absent saying men could not leave their quarters during parade hours. As he was on leave when the announcement was made he did not know about it. A little later, while on leave, he missed the last train leaving Leeds to camp but came on the first train the next surprise. This was the first time in about three years that he was charged with A.N.D. Since then he has not been on charge at all. I saw the accused shortly after the accident to Mr. Jones. The accused was quite nervous and very upset. I have seen him almost daily since then. He is manifestly distressed over the accident. The day of the accident the accused was very upset: he was shaking so badly at the time that he had difficulty in lighting a cigarette. In the orderly room that day the accused broke down when questioned about the accident.

No cross-examination.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

The court adjourns at 1320 hrs.
The court re-opens at 1325 hrs.

Third Witness for Defence } Lieut. J.H.B. Macdonald, R.C.A.M.C. Army No. [illegible], being duly sworn is examined by Defending Officer.

I have had considerable experience with pistols. Twice I was D.C.R.A. champion pistol shot - in 1932 and 1934. For two years prior to the war I have specialized in developing combat type of shooting and instructing in it. I have engaged in annual competitions of pistol shooting in Canada. I have seen accidents happen to these pistol experts. For example in the summer of 1940 at the Forest Hill Military and Police Matches the R.C.M.P. champion was struck in the neck by a ball from an automatic and turned from the firing line with a cocked pistol in his hand accidently discharging his pistol and shooting four men with one bullet. The R.C.M.P. champion knew all the safety precautions and got stepped out of line on that occasion. I speak of safety precautions stressing them every time I speak on pistol instruction. On at least two occasions I have fired a pistol where speed was desired. Once action gets to the point where it is automatic and on a word of challenge one instinctively draws one's pistol. The better a person is at quick drawing the more likely would it be for an accident to occur: the person using the pistol would most likely draw without due regard to the ordinary safety precautions.

Cross examination: On the two occasions I referred to when I fired four rounds shooting reflexes the target was not a fine target but may not need as well. In any instructions I never placed two men opposite each other and had them practise quick drawing against one another.

No re-examination.

By the Court: The things I taught are outlined in the latest manuals. For an accident to occur the following things must happen, viz. (1) you must take a gun in your hand, (2) it must be loaded, (3) you must point that gun at some one and (4) you must pull the trigger. The safety precaution is that you must never point a pistol at anyone, otherwise eventually some one will get killed. There are 6 safety precaution rules in the manual, which I always read out when instructing. It is mandatory laid down that the pistol shall be drawn from the holster. The pistol pamphlet is very abbreviated. There is little pistol training in the army at the present time.

R.P. 88 (B) complied with.

The defence is closed.

The Defending Offr addresses the Court, stating that the words "careless and negligent" amount to culpable negligence and not mere forgetfulness: draws a comparison to forgetting to wash a letter - a mere lapse of mind. To be careless and negligent you must be aware - have knowledge of the act required to be done and then failed to do it. It is contended that the prosecution has failed to prove the accused knew he should have proved the pistol before he fired it. Submits the accused did exercise safety precautions in pressing his pistol when it was withdrawn from the holster before the competition began. Suggests that at the time of the accident in the accused's mind, the accused was simply continuing the original practice. He did not know of the presence of the live rounds when he pulled the trigger. Refers to Lect. Macdonald's evidence regarding rapid drawing. Suggests accused was checking aim with Lt. Jones in absence of any warners. Stresses the misunderstanding between Lt. Jones and accused when the latter was adjusting his holster and claims accused referred this to Lt.

The Prosecutor addresses the Court, points out that the accused was careless in that when he was "on guard" commander he indulged in dry practice drawing and in using a live body as a target contrary to his instruction received from his Macdonald. The accused is an N.C.O. and ought to have known better. The accused put the rounds in the pistol himself and must have known it.

The Judge Advocate, in summing up, refers the Court to the definition of neglect in the footnote to A.A. 40. MML. p 459 (Amendt. 30 of June 42) : reviews the evidence briefly and points out that the burden of proof is on the prosecution : that the accused is entitled to the benefit of every reasonable doubt in the minds of the Court.

Sentence. 2183

~~The Court sentence the accused~~ Sentence. 2183

The Defending Officer addresses the Court in mitigation of sentence: "The accused is only 21 yrs of age. He enlisted on 20 Sep 39. He was perfecting his military efficiency at the time of the accident in order to discharge the better his obligation to his country. Most of us at his age were at university and not engaged in using lethal weapons in defence of our country. The accused has only been charged twice in 3 years of service. Lieut. Tibbles has explained the nature of these offences. The punishment of 168 hours detention was one imposed automatically in the unit for A.W.L. Accused has been selected for promotion despite his youth. He was a qualified motor operator when selected for promotion. He gave his evidence in a straight forward and manly way. The accused has suffered great mental anguish since the accident. The Court's attention is directed to the stigma of conviction by F.G.C.M. and incarceration. I ask for leniency, so that the accused may be put back in service as soon as possible, and not prevent the securing of a good N.C.O. thereby in the interests of discipline.

We were discussing how to draw our pistols quickly. Cpl Emery unloaded his pistol and we practised drawing. I said my holster was too high up to draw quickly so I changed position of the holster to bring it lower. We then tried again, and Cpl Emery's pistol went off and I felt a blow in the arm. Cpl Emery then took me in the guard house and gave first aid treatment. We then went to the R.A.P. where the M.O. examined the wound and sent me to the Field Ambulance."

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt W FERN, on strength C Pro C, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q 1 During the period 25 Nov 43 to 18 Feb 44 where were you stationed?
A 1 I was Assistant Comd, Cdn Det Bks.

Q 2 Did you have any duties with regard to the Sgts Mess?
A 2 Yes I was PRI of the unit.

Q 3 Do you know Pte Dwane?
A 3 Yes I know him, I see him here as the accused, he was on the staff during that period.

Q 4 What was his position with regard to the sgts mess during the above period?
A 4 He was Secretary Treasurer with the rank of S/Sgt.

Q 5 Did you at any time give any instructions to him with regard to the sgts mess?
A 5 I gave S/Sgt Dwane some instructions immediately after I received them from the C.O. to the effect that there would be no alcohol bought or sold in the sgts mess, that would be about the 25 Nov 43 when I received the order from Col Shankland.

Q 6 What do you mean by alcohol?
A 6 Alcohol or spirits, whiskey, gin, rum etc. The order was that there would be no more spirits bought or sold in the sgts mess. I gave thos orders to the RSM, President of the mess and Staff Dwane and to CSM Raistrich and several members of the mess at various times. However I gave the order to these three immediately I received it from the CO.

Q 7 I show you a document, will you identify it?
A 7 This document is one that was presented to me on the 1 Nov 43 by Staff Dwane which was an application or notification to the Wine and Spirits Department, NAAFI, Esher, Surrey, signed by myself stating the number of members in the Sgts Mess in this unit. This letter is dated 1 Nov 43.

(Document marked Exhibit "1" by the Court. The Prosecutor stated that this exhibit as well as other documents which he will tender in evidence are required for other urgent purposes as they form part of the record of a GCM which has already been held. Prosecutor then tendered a copy of the said Exhibit "1". The President compared the said copy with the original and certified the said copy and marked it exhibit "1". The Prosecutor stated that he would return the original exhibit to the Officer In Charge of the record of the said GCM).

Q 8 In dealing with the NAAFI is it necessary to forward such letters from time to time?
A 8 Yes I believe it is the custom when you are dealing with the NAAFI to keep them informed on the number of members, the supply or allotment you are allowed is based on that number.

Q 9 How often or at what times is such a letter sent to the NAAFI?
A 9 I understood from the accused that it had been customary to forward letters similar to that one at the beginning of each month.

Q 10 Was such a letter forwarded to the NAAFI at the beginning of Dec 43?
A 10 No.

Q11 Was any such letter forwarded to NAAFI subsequently during that period which I have referred to?
A11 No, no letters were ever sent subsequent to that one that was cancelled.

Q12 On or about 25 Nov did you give any instructions to then Staff Sgt Dwane with regard to forwarding such letters to the NAAFI?
A12 Subsequent to receiving the order from the Comd that there would be no spirits bought or sold in the sgts mess I told S/Sgt Dwane that the letter which I had signed on the 1 Nov 43 to the Naafi would be cancelled, and that no spirits would be bought or sold in the sgts mess and he said that he would tend to it.

Q13 I show you another document, will you describe that?
A13 This is a letter to Lloyds Bank. dated 22 Nov 43 signed by myself telling the bank that S/Sgt Dwane and myself are the signing authorities, it has samples of our signatures on it.

(Letter marked Ex "2" by the court. A copy was also dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1").

Q14 I show you a NAAFI invoice dated 1 Dec 43, do you recognize this invoice?
A14 Yes, it was shown to me at the Court of Inquiry at Cdn Det Bks sometime in May 44. I had never seen it before that time, it is dated 1 Dec 43.

(Invoice is marked Ex "3" and a copy dealt with by the Court in the same manner as Ex "1")

Q15 I show you a cheque dated 6 Dec 43, is that your signature?
A15 Yes.

(Cheque marked Ex "4" and a copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q16 I show you NAAFI receipt dated 10 Dec 43, do you recognize it?
A16 I recognize this as one I first saw on the Court of Inquiry at Cdn Det Bks in May 44.

(Receipt marked Ex "5" and dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q17 I show you another NAAFI invoice dated 1 Jan 44, do you identify that?
A17 Yes, it was first shown to me at the Court of Inquiry in May 44, that was the first time that I saw it.

(NAAFI invoice marked Ex "6" and a copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q18 I show you cheque dated 6 Jan 44, is that your signature on it?
A18 Yes.

(Cheque marked Ex "7" and a copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q19 To the best of your knowledge what was the payment for in the case of these two cheques?
A19 To the best of my knowledge they were for supplies from the NAAFI assumed by me to be dry canteen stuff and such items as were purchased from the NAAFI.

Q20 As far as you know at present were the payments for these particular ~~xxxxxxxx~~ xx invoices produced as Exs "3" and "6".
A20 Yes

Q21 Did you at any time buy spirits from the accused, then S/Sgt Dwane?
A21 Yes, I bought spirits from him on three occasions to the best of my knowledge.

Q22 To the best of your knowledge what was the nature of these transactions?
A22 It was a personal transactions between S/Sgt Dwane and myself and I had no reason to believe it was otherwise.

Q23 What made you think it was a private transaction?
A23 I had know the accused for a number of years and often during our conversations he told me that his connections were very good and it was not difficult for him to get spirits. He had people in Durham for instance from whom he had often been able to get supplies of spirits and when I was at the Det Bks we had no officers mess and it was most difficult to get spirits and when I approached the accused he said it would be quite simple to get me whatever requirements I desired.

Q24 I show you cheque dated 12 Jan 44 is that your signature?
A24 Yes, it is for the sum of £19

(Cheque marked Ex "8" and a copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q25 I show you cheque dated 13 Jan 44, is that yoursignature?
A25 Yes, it is for the sum of £1-10/-

(Cheque marked Ex "9" and a copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q26 I show you cheque dated 15 Feb 44, is that your signature?
A26 Yes, made out to cash for the sum of £6-5/.

(Cheque marked "Ex "10" and copy dealt with in the same manner as Ex "1" by the Court)

Q27 I show you Ex "8", do you recognize the signature of the endorser?
A27 Yes, it is that of S/Sgt Dwane, Cdn Det Bks, Sgts Mess.

Q28 I show you Ex "9" do you recognize the signature of the endorser?
A28 Yes, it is"J.R.Dwane, Cdn Det Bks".

Q29 Do you recognize the signature of Ex "10"?
A29 The signature of the endorser is that of J.R Dwane, Cdn Det Bks.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q30 Who was RSM of the Cdn Det Bks and what were his duties on the 25 Nov 43?
A30 RSM Illingsworth, he was the senior member or officer in the mess and I suppose his duties were those of a senior officer. He was the channel of communications between myself and the sgts mess.

Q31 Therefore instructions which you had to issue to the mess you would issue to him and not every one else?
A31 Not in every case, when this particular order regarding sale of spirits and re-opening of the mess on the 25 Nov came out I personally gave orders to sever members of the mess and I also gave orders to RSM Illingsworth, CSM Steele and Staff DWane, I discussed it with them immediately.

Q32 In your evidence you gave at the summary of evidence you made a statement on page 1, which I will read to you "I believe that sometime in Nov I told the accused not to send that letter and to cancel it," you say "I believe" I issued these instructions and now you say "I did issue these instructions" what is it that you mean, is your recollection more clear now at this Court Martial that it was at the summary which was taken over a month ago?

A32 When the summary of evidence was taken I had just arrived back from France, I was called here to give evidence without the slightest warning I had not thought of it and at that time could not be sure, later I got away by myself and reconstructed the thing and thought it out and began to recall the facts and the I got the picture and the events quite clearly in my mind, I remember quite well issuing the instructions.

Q33 You discussed this matter with other people?
A33 No, I have only discussed it with one person, that officer who defended me at my GCM. This matter was again brought up at the GCM.

Q34 In the summary on page one you say "to the best of my recollection sometime in Nove on or about the 25 I gave an order to the accused to the effect that there would be no purchases or sale of spirits for the sgts mess, and now of course you are very certain that you issued these orders?
A34 The same explanation is applicable.

Q35 You say on page two of the summary, "I gave an order to RSM Illingsworth and CSM Steele, President Sgts mess" and again " to the best of my recollection it included the accused" and now again you are positive? At that time you were clear that you gave the order to the RSM and still you were not certain about the accused, why?
A36 The same explanation applies here, it was not until I got away by myself and was going over the case that I recalled what actually happened and I then knew that I included the accused and that I told him to cancel the letter and I also remembered very well telling him that there would be no spirits bought or sold in the sgts mess.

Q37 In your evidence in chief you stated that the accused was Secretary Treasurer for the period in question is it not correct that he was the Treasurer only and that someone else was Secretary?
A37 Yes that is correct, the Secretary was Sgt Steed.

Q38 When dealing with the NAAFI is it not correct that you first find out what the NAAFI can supply you and then you place your order accompanied by a cheque? that is the invoice and cheque are returned to get the goods?
A38 Yes.

Q39 In the case of Ex "3" it is dated 1 Dec, whereas Exhibit "4" is the cheque for payment is dated 6 Dec, in both cases 1943? Is it a fair assumption from those two dates that the invoice was received first and then the cheque was made out?
A39 Yes.

Q40 And the goods were afterwards delivered?
A40 Yes.

Q41 Was it your practice to insist on knowing for what cheques were made out for the sgts mess before signing them?
A41 No as far as the sgts was concerned I did not think that I had time to check them, I was a very busy man and I depended on the mess committee to carry out any regulations.

Q42 Then the answer is "no" you did not check or ask for invoices to be shown to you before signing cheques to pay for them?
A42 No.

Q43 Ex "2" was a letter requiring your signature to be one of the signatures on all cheques on behalf of the sgts mess along with S/Sgt Dwane or CSM Steele? What did you understand was the purpose of having your signature on the cheques?
A43 Well it was according to instructions contained in the regulations it lays down that an officer will be appointed by the CO as signing officer for all cheques in the unit Institutes.

Q44 Then you felt your being appointed as signing officer merely meant you to sign checks you did not have to know what they were for or anything like that?
A44 Yes for the goods of the sgts mess and regimental institutes.

Q45 What regimental institutes are there?
A45 The sgts mess.

Q46 Did you not feel that you should see the cheques and the invoices?
A46 Well ordinarly I would but I was burdened down with duties and I had no time and I depended on the sgts to take care of their own mess.

Q47 Did the accused not voluntarily produce these invoices?
A47 No he never presented any invoices or receipts with the cheques. He siad it was for supplies required for the sgts mess and I of course ~~ex~~ accepted his word for it.

Q48 Did it seem unnatural to you that bills of £52-16/-11d should be given to the sgts mess by the NAAFI, was that not a bit high?
A48 At that time there was a large membership at the sgts mess, I knew they were pruchasing dry canteen supplies from the NAAFI, it never occured to me that the cost was excessive.

Q49 You knew that were not purchasing beer from the NAAFI?
A49 Yes, I knew that they got their beer from the brewery.

Q50 You knew that they were pruchasing dry canteen goods and not beer and £52 was not excessive?
A50 Idid not think so.

Q51 You say that you know now these cheques were for large quantities of spirits?
A51 Yes, the first I knew of it was at the Court of Inquiry.

Q52 Very convenient that you did not know this in view of the fact th t you were relying on Staff Dwane to get you a supply of spirits?
A52 I did not rely on him, I asked him if he could get it, had he not been able to get it I would have endeavoured to get it from other friends.

Q53 He said he could get it and you relied on him to get it?
A53 Yes.

Q54 And at one time he got you £19 worth?
A54 Yes, 12 bottles.

Q55 A lot of spirits to get in this country at one time is it not?
A 5 Yes

Q56 You could not have gotten that amount yourself at one time?
A56 Yes I could have, I know a chap in London that could have gotten it for me, it is not normal but I had been getting it from him for the last three or four years, but instead of going to him I went to the accused was closer at hand.

Q57 Did it never occur to you that he was getting these spirits from the NAAFI?
A57 No.

Q58 I show you the original Ex "3" dated 1 Dec 43, it is related to Ex "4" which is cheque dated 6 Dec 43, as you said you signed it, what do you suppose happened to that invoice after you had signed the cheque and spirits bought?
A58 I don't know, I saw it at the Court of Inquiry.

Q59 The echque was paid out of the sgts mess and the accounts closed on the 31 Dec and an audit was taken I suppose?
A59 Yes.

Q60 You had to sign the proceedings of the audit board?
A60 Yes.

Q61 Did you not see an entry for the cheque or invoice at that time?
A61 I did not I depended on the audit board and I accepted their signatures for their responsibility. I was very busy and had I attempted to carry out all this work myself it would have been a little too much. I do not remember the names of the members of the board but they would be officers of the unit.

Q62 Would they be Lt Cawley and Lucar?
A62 They might have been, I should not be surprised.

Q63 Did neither of them mention to you that the spirits had been sold in the sgts mess?
A63 No.

Q64 Supposing they had, what action would you have taken?
A64 I should have investigated it.

Q65 What would you have done if Staff Dwane had brought you this invoice and cheque and asked you to have signed it?
A65 I should have refused to sign it and taken action immediately.

Q66 And in the case of the second invoice and cheque, Exs "6" and "7"?
A66 I would have taken the same action.

Q67 But then you would not have gotten the 12 bottles of liquor that you got?
A67 It would not have affected me to any length as it is revealed to me no I should not have received any liquor from Staff Dwane but I had not knowledge that it was being sold in the sgts mess.

Q68 In addition to these purchases you made for which you paid for by cheque did you make any other pruchases of spirits through Staff Dwane or the sgts mess?
A68 I never purchased any liquor from the sgts mess, I may have bought a bottle or two from the accused for which I paid cash, but I do remember definitely of never buying any through the mess.

Q69 How did you get or where did you get the three bottles of spirits in Jan?
A69 They were delivered to my billets to my land lady.

Q70 Was that the occasion that Jean-Louis delivered them?
A70 I did not know who brought them, I was simply told that a soldier had left them, I have found out since that Jean-Louis did bring them. The quantity was three bottles of whiskey and two bottles of Cordial. I gave a cheque to the accused for £4-5/ sometime in Feb.

Q71 How did you order this wiskey?
A71 My birthday was coming up and I wanted some liquor and I asked Staff Dwane if he could get me some, it was delivered to my residence, at the time it was delivered I was not at home and thought that the accused had dropped them there himself.

Q72 How about the 12 bottles, when did you order that?
A72 In Dec.

Q73 What do you think was the cause of the delay in delivering them as you received them sometime later?
A73 I assumed it was because he was having difficulty in getting it. However there was actually no long delay, I paid for them early in Jan 44. That was some time after I had received them.

Q73 Had it struck you that he could finance a transaction for £19.
A73 I understood that he had his own bank account.

Q 74 You notice the endorsement on the 1st and 3rd cheque you made to him, " Cdn Det Bks, Sgts Mess", did you get these cheques back at the end of the month?
A74 I never saw them again until the Court of Inquiry in May.

Q75 When you told the accused that his letter of authority which you signed on the 1 Nov 43 was cancelled did you write to the NAAFI and tell them it was cancelled?
A75 I did not, I left the accused to tend to it, I was extremely busy and the Det Bks was in the process of re-organization, and I had to depend on my staff.

Q77 When you told the Prosecutor that no similar letter was written to the 1 Dec 43 you really mean that to your knowledge no similar letter was written?
A77 That is what I mean, I did not mean to be so absolutely sure that no letter was written by anybody.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
H 6234 RSM Illingsworth, D., on strength Cdn Det Bks, having been duly sworn states:

Q78 Where were you stationed during the period 25 Nov 43 and 8 Jan 44?
A78 I was station at the Cdn Det Bks, I was the RSM there, with regard to the sgts mess I was the senior in the mess but we had a mess committee of which I was not actually a member.

Q79 During that period do you recall receiving any instructions regarding the purchase and sale of liquor in the sgts Mess?
A79 I do not remember seeing any written instructions, there were verbal instructions, I believe the OC issued them.

Q80 Were any given or issued by Capt Fern?
A80 No Sir.

Q81 Do you know Pte Dwane?
A81 Yes Sir, he used to be S/Sgt Dwane, he is the accused sitting in the Court.

Q82 What was his position in the sgts mess during the period mentioned?
A82 He was the Treasurer some of that time.

Q82 Did you buy any liquor from him?
A82 No Sir. I did ask the accused to get me a bottle of whiskey I am not sure when it was but I had asked the purchasing secretary before the accused to get me on, I paid him for it.

Q83 What did you understand to be the nature of the transaction?
A83 That Staff Dwane was merely purchasing a bottle of wiskey for me as an agent, it was purely a personal transaction.

Q84 Where did you think he was getting it?
A84 I thought he was getting through his contacts that he established when he was buying for the mess.

Q85 Did you during this period inspect the sgts mess?
A85 Not the bar.

Q86 Did you ever see any alcohol visible in the mess in bottles on the shelf?
A86 No Sir.

Q87 During this period was any liquor sold in the sgts mess?
A87 Not to my knowledge.

Q88 Were you in the sgts mess quite often?
A88 I had my meals in the dinning room, I often went in at noon. I seldom went in at night. We were very busy and I worked a lot of nights.

Q89 Did you ever see any liquor in the mess?
A89 No Sir.

Q90 Why was there no liquor in the sgts mess?
A90 Because an order was given that no spirits would be sold in the mess. I had been told and passed it on to the mess committee

Q91 Did you discuss it with anyone else?
A91 No Sir.

Q92 Did any members of the sgts mess discuss with you or refer in their discussion to this particular order?
A92 No Sir I do not remember any discussion.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q93 You purchased only one bottle of whiskey through Staff Dwane?
A93 Yes Sir. It was around Christmas sometime just before Christmas.

Q94 Where was this delivered to you?
A94 I cannot remember just where it was delivered to me now.

Q95 Did I understand you to say that you received an order from the Col regarding sale of liquor?
A95 Yes Sir.

Q96 Any order from Capt Fern?
A96 No Sir, he was present when the order was given by the Col.

Q97 You relayed it to the president of the mess committee and Staff Dwane?
A97 To the President but not Staff Dwane.

Q98 What are your responsibilities as RSM with relation to the mess?
A98 I am the senior officer of the mess, I am responsible for the discipline and conduct of the members in the mess, I do not take any actual duties as far as the mess is concerned, I do not have time and did not at the time of this matter. I never reviewed the finances of the mess. There was also a bar committee who was responsible for the running of the bar, they did the pruchasing with the approval of the CO, I believe CSM Hurrel was in charge of the bar committee at that time, S/Sgt Dwane was Treasurer he was not a member of the bar committee. I knew nothing about the purchases of the whiskey for the mess, nor of the sale of spirits by the mess.

Q99 Where did you think Dwane got this whiskey he gave to you?
A99 I think it would be possible for him to get a bottle of whiskey when buying beer for the mess. I would have gone and gotten it except I was pretty busy and could not get away.

Q100 Were you present outside the mess when CSM Raistrick got a bottle of whiskey through the back door of the mess?
A100 No Sir.

Q101 Was he present when you got yours?
A101 No Sir.

Q102 Where you in the mess at Christmass time and do you remember the raffle of a bottle of whiskey?
A102 I was in and out of the mess before Christmass at noon time but I do not recall the raffle of a bottle of whiskey.

Q103 Did you see the list on the outside of the bar of the names of people who had bought tickets?
A103 No Sir.

Q104 And you knew nothing about any spirits in the mess or anything like that?
A104 No Sir.

Q105 If you had known that spirits were being bought and sold in the mess what would you have done?

A105 I would have reported it.

Q106 Do you think there was any bought for the mess?
A106 I do not know about that.

Q107 Had you known that spirits were kept in the bar what would you have done?
A107 I should certainly have reported it.

Q108 And if you found that it had been bought by the mess committee and found it was kept there as stock what would you have done?
A108 I would have gone after the mess committee.

Q109 Do you take part in the deliberations of the mess committee?
A10 Some of them I attended, some I was not able to attend.

Q110 What do you know of the Christmas arrangements that were being made in your mess?
A110 Very little.

BY THE COURT

Q111 Did Capt Fern ever tell you that spirits were not to be bought or consumed by the sgts mess?
A111 No Sir.

Q112 The CO told you, did he, in the presence of Major Fern?
A112 Yes Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
M 37281 CSM RAISTRICK W, on strength 2@ Cdn Spec Employment Coy, having been duly sworn states:

Q113 Where were you stationed during the period 25 Nov 43 and 18 Feb 44?
A113 I was at Cdn Det Bks.

Q114 What was your position in regard to the Sgts Mess?
A114 From the 17 Jan onwards I was President of the Sgts Mess.

Q115 Do you know Pte, then STaff Sgt Dwane?
A115 Yes Sir, he is the accused there.

Q116 Did you, during the time referred to above, buy spirits from the accused?
A116 Yes Sir, I bought one bottle of gin which I paid him for. He gave me this bottle on the public road way outside the barracks.

A

Q117 Did you every approach Sgt Bennison, mess steward or caterer in the mess for any liquor.
A117 About the middle of Oct I asked Dwane if he could get me a bottle for Christmas, at one time I asked Bennison if he knew if Dwane had a bottle for me, he said he did not know. Bennison never handed me a bottle.

Q118 Do you remember a raffle of spirits about Christmas time?
A118 There was raffles on two occasions in the mess, I cannot say what they were for, I was approached and asked if I would buy one but I was uninterested in raffles.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q119 Before 25 Nov you had at one time been Treasurer of the sgts mess?
A119 Yes Sir.

Q120 At that time was the mess buying and selling spirits?
A120 Yes Sir.

Q121 You ceased to be treasure when?
A121 About 21 Aug 43 and held no office until 17 Jan 44.

Q122 When you bought these spirits from Dwane I understand you went to him and asked if he could get a bottle for you?
A122 Yes Sir.

Q123 Where was he when you asked him, was he in the accounts office?
A123 I donot remember exactly.

Q124 Do you remember speaking to him about spirits in his accounts office?
A124 No Sir.

Q125 Where did you pay him?
A125 In the public highway.

Q126 When was that?
A127 When he gave me the bottle. It was around Christmas, I believe the day before.

Q128 I understand you you received a bottle of spirits by the hand of Bennison, is that correct?
A128 That is correct.

Q129 Do you rememberan occasion shortly before Christmas speaking to the accused outside the door of the mess and asking him for a bottle of spirits?
A129 I do not remember the occasion, it is quite possible that I asked him if he had it.

Q130 Do you remember what going with RSM Illingswoth when a bottle of spirits was delivered to you ~~xxxxxx~~ or him by Bennison outside the mess?
A130 No Sir, it was not delivered to me personally and the RSM met me a little later just as we were going out. And that was the only bottle I got. I cannot say just what time of the day it was.

Q131 But you are clear as to whatday and where it was handed to you?
A131 Yes.

Q132 You do not remember the time, you do remember the place, the day, you, I suppose remember the price, but you do not remember where you ordered it?
A132 No Sir, I saw him on so many occasions, I asked him on one of them It might have been in his accounts office. I do not know what he kept in his accounts office.

Q133 Do you know whether he kept a list there and do you remember going in and asking him to put your name on it?
A133 No Sir.

Q134 Do you remember going into his office and paying him there?
A134 No Sir.

Q135 Where did you understand he got the liquor?
A135 I understood he got it from a private dealer.

Q136 He did not tell you then?
A136 No, the bottle he got me was a private dealer, it was not NAAFI, it was Saegers, and I do not believe the NAAFI handle Saegers Gin.

Q137 Do you know anything about liquor being sold in the mess, or through the Mess?
A137 No Sir.

Q 138 Why did you ask the accused to get you some liquor?
A138 He had been the buyer for the mess and was still buying beer and I thought he may have made contacts where he could get it.

Q139 Why did you ask Bennison if Dwane had gotten it for you?
A139 Bennison usually accompanied Dwane on his trips and I thought he would know if the accused had got it.

Q140 You did not think Sgt Bennison would have it for you in the bar?
A140 No Sir.

Q141 Did you ever go into the bar during that period?
A141 Yes Sir.

Q142 Did you ever see any spirits there?
A142 No Sir.

Q143 You were asked to buy a ticket on araffle?
A143 Yes Sir, someone came to me and asked me if I wanted to buy a ticket, we usually had raffles for chickens and other things around Christmas, I was not much interested and I bought two tickets more to get rid of the person that was selling them than anything, I do not know what the raffles were for. I did not know that they were for two bottles of whiskey.

Q144 Did you see a list of persons who bought tickets hanging up outside the bar?
A144 No Sir.

Q145 Were you in the mess very often, at meals etc?
A145 Yes Sir, but it was very rare that I drank in the mess.

Q146 While you were president did you know what was going on in the mess?
A146 I thought I did.

Q147 Had you known that spirits were being sold what would you have done
A147 I would have called a special meeting and had it stopped.

Q148 Did you know that officers and sgts were getting spirits from Staff Dwane?
A148 I considered it was quite possible that they were getting it the same way as I had gotten mine, as a private deal. And as long as it was a private deal it had nothing to do with the mess.

BY THE COURT

Q149 What was the price of a bottle of spirits?
A149 35 Shillings.

Q150 How many members were there in the mess?
A150 About 100 to 110.

Q151 Outside of whiskey and beer what would the usual NAAFI bill come to each month?
A151 A very difficult question, there was only about one month after Nov that we bought anything from the NAAFI, a few things such as cigarettes, choclates etc.

Q152 Would it run to £50 a month?
A152 No Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Capt W.A. CLARK, RCAPC, on strength No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q153 Where were you stationed during the period 25 Nov 43 to 18 Feb 44?
A153 I was at Cdn Det Bks.

Q154 Do you know Pte, then S/Sgt Dwane?
A154 Yes he is there (pointing at the accused)

Q155 Would you tell the court your relations or dealings with him during that period?
A155 I bought two bottles of gin during the first week in Dec, which I had the accused get for me, I paid him in cash for it.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q156 What led you to go to the accused?
A156 I had heard that he had contacts and could quite easily get liquor so I asked him if he could get me so, I do not know where he got it, I have no reason for believing that he would be more likely to be able to get me some than I would have been except that I had heard that he had contacts. I went to him and asked him if he could get me some and he said he thought so he delivered it to me in my house. I never received any liquor from him or anyone else in the sgts mess.

Q157 Did you know that these spirits were bought through the Sgts mess?
A157 No.

Q158 You did not know where he was going to get this spirits, you don't know why he would be more likely to get them than yourself, you don't quite think they came from the sgts mess, but you thought that he had some mysterious sourse where he could procure them so you asked him to buy you some?
A158 I do not think it a mysterious source. I do not know whether he got liquor for other people or not, he got me a bottle and I did not interest myself in him further.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

5th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
D 105754 Pte JEAN-LOUIS, on strength Cdn Det Bks having been duly sworn states:

Q159 During the period 25 Nov/and 18 Feb 44 where were you stationed?
A159 At Cdn Det Bks. I was a driver there.

Q160 Do you know Pte Dwane?
A160 Yes Sir, he is sitting there, he was then S/Sgt Dwane. (points to the accused)

Q161 Tell the Court about any driving you did for the accused in the period we have referred to above.
A161 He told me to go to McEwen and Youngers, Aldershot and pick up a parcel, I did this and delivered it to Capt who was then Major Fern, I do not remember the date but it was after Christmas some time. I saw what the parcel contained it was bottles of spirits. I gave it to Major Fern's land lady I was given the bill for it which I gave to S/Sgt Dwane.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q162 Did I understand you to say you got a bill?
A162 Yes Sir.

Q163 What was it for?
A163 I do not know, I did not look at it, I do not know to whom it was addressed or what it was for, but I thought it was for the whiskey and I gave it to S/Sgt Dwane.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

6th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A 34002 CSM HURREL, P, Cdn Prov Corps, on strength 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q164 During the period between 25 Nov 43 and 18 Feb 44 where were you stationed?
A164 I was at Cdn Det Bks.

Q165 What was your position with regard to the sgts mess? And what do you know about the case that we are trying today?
A165 I was chairman of the Bar Committee. Occasionally I inspected the bar, as a matter of fact I did about every day go into it and have a look around. Around Christmas there was some liquor there, two bottles that were raffled off. Pte, then S/Sgt Dwane, the accused, who is there, was running the raffle. I did not buy any liquor from him during that period. While I was chairman it was given out at the mess meeting that the purchases of liquor would be made only with the consent of the CO, it was not to be sold by the glass, there was no prohibition of buying it and selling it by the bottle that I knew of. The only orders we had were that there would be no whiskey sold by the glass. The purchases were for the Christmas season.
Q166 Who gave you those orders?
A166 RSM Illingsworth.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q167 In addition to the two bottles of spirits which you mention as having seen before Christmas did you see any cartons of spirits in the bar?
A167 No Sir.

Q168 I understand you to say that it was given out at a general mess meeting that spirits were to be purchased for Christmas?
A168 Yes Sir.

Q169 When was that mess meeting held?
A169 It was the Nov meeting, that would be the second Tues in Nov.

Q170 What was done about it in Dec? Were the spirits in fact bought?
A170 Yes Sir. I knew about them being bought and I was chairman of the barcommittee.

Q171 Did the mess committee know about it?
A171 No Sir.

Q172 How did that happen?
A172 It was kept somewhere else.

Q173 Who was in the chair at the time of the meeting?
A173 CSM Steele I believe, and the RSM was there.

Q174 Tell us about the raffle?
A174 I think it was arranged between the bar tender and Dwane. There was a sheet put up in the bar room where everybody could see it, it had all the names of the people with tickets on it. The bottles were raffled separately, the first one for 45 shillings, and just as it went CSM Steele came in and said that was too much and took off ten shillings from the price of the next one.

Q175 Did the President or anyone tell you that spirits were not to be sold in the mess?
A175 No Sir. At the meeting of the mess xxxxxxxxx it was decided that the spirits would be bought and the permission of the CO asked for to sell them by the glass otherwise they would be sold by the bottl to the people who had bought the most beer.

Q176 Had the mess been closed up before this?
A176 It had been closed on a couple of occasions, then it was re-opened and we were told that we could not sell spirits by the glass, it was after this that we made the decision to buy the spirits and sell them at Christmas if we could not obtain the OC's permission to sell it by the glass in the mess. I do not know what happened to all the whiskey that was bought but none was sold by the glass.

Q177 How about the other sales of spirits to officers and members, do you know anything about that?
A 177 No Sir.

Q178 Did you consider the sale of these spirits or raffle of them contravention of the orders you received regarding the mess?
A178 No Sir.

Q179 Did you hear of other sales by the bottle?
A179 Yes Sir, but I did not pay any attention to who bought them.

Q180 How many bottles did you plan to buy at the meeting?
A180 The ration which would mean as much as they could get through the NAAFI and wherever else we could get it.

Q181 Was this to be done again at New Years?
A181 No Sir.

Q182 Do you know where the RSM was while the raffle was going on?
A182 No Sir.

Q183 But CSM Steele was there, did he forbid the raffle or handling of spirits in the mess in any way?
A183 No Sir, except to say that we could not sell or raffle the second bottle for as much as the first one.

Q184 Where was the beer stock kept?
A184 I cannot say, I enquired onee and was told that it had not come in.

BY THE COURT

Q185 What happened to all of this spirits which were bought from the NAAFI as a result of your meeting in Nov?
A185 We sold them and closed up.

Q186 Did you hear of any instructions from the CO on the 25 Nov, that would be after your mess meeting?
A186 No Sir. The only instructions I got were from the RSM that spirits would not be sold by the glass in the mess, we had asked the RSM to see the Col for us and he gave me this final word after the meeting.

Q187 Did the members of the mess ever object to not having any spirits for sale?
A187 Yes Sir and the RSM said he would see the OC, the RSM then told us that the OC would not allow the sale of spirits by the glass.

Q188 Where did you understand these two bottles that were raffled to come from?
A188 From the NAAFI.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - CSM Raistrick, recalled by the Court and questioned: (by the Court)

Q189 Will you examine Exs "3" and "4" and tell us how many bottles of whiskey and gin were bought by the mess?
A189 30 bottles of whiskey and 12 bottles of gin in Dec, and 25 bottles of whiskey and 12 bottles of gin in Jan 44.

Q190 Were you the president of the mess from 17 Jan until the mess was closed in Mar 44 and did you ascertain whether the mess received the proceeds of the sale of liquor bought by it?
A190 I was the president, I did not know that this liquor had been bought. I think the first query on the balance sheet was the first one after I had taken over.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

7th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

G 30146 Sgt BENISON, J., on strength Cdn Det Bks, having been duly sworn states:

Q191 During the period 25 Nov 43 and 18 Feb 44 where were you stationed?
A191 At Cdn Det Bks.

Q192 What was your position regarding the sgts mess?
A192 I was bar tender.

Q193 Did you make purchases for the sgts mess?
A193 Yes sir.

Q194 What did you purchase during that period?
A194 Mostly beer.

Q195 Did you purchase any liquor for the sgts mess?
A195 Yes Sir. On the instructions of S/Sgt Dwane.

Q196 Do you personally know Pte, then S/Sgt Dwane?
A196 Yes Sir, I see him here, he is the accused?

Q197 How much liquor did you personally buy for the mess?
A197 I got three bottles from the Bordon NAAFI, and seven from Aldershot, McEwen and Younger.
Q198 With regard to the seven bottles whose authority did you buy them on?
A198 The accused's authority. I got the invoices and handed them to the accused.

Q199 I show you a NAAFI invoice, is that one of them?
A199 Yes Sir, it is dated 3 Jan 44, and for two bottles of whiskey and one gin.

(invoice marked Ex 11 and dealt with in the same manner as Ex 1 by the Court)

Q200 I show you a cheque dated 3 Feb 44, do you recognize this cheque?
A200 Yes Sir, I got it from Staff Dwane, but it was left blank, I was told to see if I could purchase some liquor and to fill in the amount to pay for all I could get. I did not fill it in, S/Sgt McLean was with me and I had forgotten my glasses, so he filled it in for the amount we required.

(Cheque marked Ex 12 and dealt with in the same manner as Ex 1 by the Court)

Q201 And upon payment did you get a receipt and is this it?
A201 Yes Sir, that is the receipt.

(Receipt marked Ex 13 and dealt with in the same manner as Ex 1 by the Court)

Q202 While you were sgts mess caterer did you see any shipments of spirits arrive at the door of the sgts mess?
A202 Yes Sir, five cartons, 12 bottles in each carton. Some of them were put into the bar, some on the floor, three bottles were put and kept in the little cupboard, some put down in the store room, Staff Dwane handled these shipments, I helped, I handled five bottles myself.

Q203 What do you know of a raffle at Christmas time?
A203 The accused said he had paid 32 shillings for taxi fares, I suggested we raffle a couple of bottles off and pay for the taxi with the proceeds. We got £2-6/ for the first bottle but CSM Steele came in and stopped us the next bottle at 35/. We also raffled a third bottle for 35/. I handed the money from the raffle to S/Sgt Dwane.

Q204 Did you keep any stock acounts of this liquor?
A204 No Sir.

Q205 Did you go purchasing liquor in Jan?
A205 I went on Staff Dwane's instructions to McEwen and Younger in Aldershot to enquire for our assignment for the month, I was told that we had already drawn our ration, that it had been picked up Jean-Louis, the account showed that it had been sold to the Sgts Mess, Cdn Det Bks.

Q206 Did CSM Raistrick every approach you regarding liquor?
A206 Yes Sir, he came to the bar and said it would be alright if I gave him a bottle in the mess, I cannot remember the date, but it was about Christmas time, I said to him I was not handling it but if he got a note I would give it to him. He got a note from S/Sgt Dwane, actually it was Dwane's signature on an envelope and I gave him a bottle of whiskey.

Q207 What were the instructions regarding the sale of spirits?
A207 I understood that spirits would not be sold by the glass. I saw no written instructions, but I had verbal orders from the RSM that no liquor would be sold by the glass, he told me they were the Comd's orders. The chairman of the bar committe also told me that we could only sell spirits by the bottle. I bought a bottle myself a few days before Christmas for which I paid 30/. The only time I ever discussed spirits with the accused was when I told him I did not want to bother with it, we planned that he would take care of the spirits and I would look after the beer. I do not know who ordered the spirits for the mess unless it was Staff Dwane, it is possible that it was someone else.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q208 Did the chairman of the bar committee know of this liquor?
A208 Yes Sir.

Q209 Did the mess president?
A209 Yes Sir he knew.

Q210 Did the RSM?

Q211 What instructions did you receive from the RSM, CSM Steele or CSM Hurrel regarding the sale of liquor in the bar?
A211 None whatever Sir.

Q212 You said you did not keep track of the stock, was there a stock book kept and who by?
A212 There was one kept but I never knew it to be filled in, I never put an entry in it, I do not know whether the spirits were entered in it or not.

Q214 Who did you turn the money for the spirits over to?
A214 I turned all the money I received over to S/Sgt Dwane including the beer receipts.

BY THE COURT

M 49760 S/Sgt McArthur, J, on strength Cdn Det Bks, having been duly sworn states:

Q219 During the period 25 Nov 43 and 18 Feb 44 where you stationed?

A221 Yes Sir, just before Christmas I bought some for which I paid him 30/.

Q222 What do you know about the sale of spirits in your mess at that time
A222 I understood at a meeting that there would be no spirits sold to us by the glass but that we might be able to buy a bottle or so, however there did not seem to be anything definitely decided on, it was merely discussion.

Q223 Did you ever see any liquor in the sgts mess?
A223 No Sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q224 When you bought this bottle of spirits just before Christmas from the accused did you understand it was a personal deal?
A224 Yes Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: D-4

Sir

I submit that the charges against Pte Dwane be dismissed I cannot go into a number of points that I would raise at the conclusion of the trial but the substance of my motion is: In the first place it is apparent from the evidence of the CSM Hurrel who was chairman of the bar committee that what was done was done with the knowledge of himself in so far as the purchase of liquor is concerned and the sale of those spirits. It was his understanding that it was being done by the authority of the mess and therefore the responsibility for what was done was that of the RSM and the president of the mess. That is borne out by the evidence of Sgt Bennison who was the caterer or the bar tender. The accused was the treasurer of the mess and any responsibility of transactions would not be on his shoulders but on those of the various committees who sanctioned any purchases. There is no evidence that the spirits have been sold for the sgts mess so if the Court cannot dismiss the first charge then I ask that it at least dismiss the second charge, that of the sale of spirits. The evidence of Capt Fern is that he issued an order that no spirits would be sold in the mess, I ask the Court to treat that with little credibility. I point out that Cap Fern's evidence shows that he signed cheques, the very cheques which are recorded by this Court to substantiate the first charge, that is for the purchasing of spirits for the mess. And also that he bought spirits which the Prosecution alleges were the spirits in question which were bought for the mess and sold for the mess. It is submitted on the evidence before the Court that that could not have been done corners and therefore if these acts which are complained of were in contravention of an order issued by him that contravention was allowed or excused by his conduct.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTOR

Sir,

In answer to the submission I need only say in order to succeed in his attempt to have the case dismissed it is necessary for the Court to feel that no prima facie case has been made out against the accused in regard to the charges against him. I maintain there is more than sufficient evidence before the Court to establish a prima facie case and to cause the accused to give evidence to answer to the charges thus far proved against him. It is proved that he was told not to buy or sell spirits for the mess, in the mess, and it has been said by eight witnesses that he did buy and sell spirits. He obviously sold them in contravention to the order that was issued and therefore is guilty. As for the second charge the order is the same that no spirits would be sold, from Capt Fern who says he told the accused of this order. I have proved that S/Sgt Dwane, the accused did sell bottles of whiskey after that order was issued. I think there is sufficient evidence before the Court to make a case and I ask the Court not to entertain the application made by the Defending Officer.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION HAS BEEN DIS-ALLOWED

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE Note D-6

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

The Accused (D 71212 Pte DWANE, J.R.) C Pro C, on strength No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q225 Where were you stationed between 25 Nov 43 and 18 Feb 44?
A225 I was on strength Cdn Det Bks, I was accounts NCO and chief clerk. I was Treasurer of the Sgts mess from 14 Oct 43 until 17 Feb 44.

Q226 What orders did you receive from Capt, then Major Fern relating to the sale of spirits in the sgts mess?
A226 I was not given any orders by Capt Fern ~~xxx~~ either verbal or written regarding the sale of spirits in the mess.

Q227 Did you receive any other orders from anyone regarding spirits?
A227 No Specific orders or instructions regarding the purchase of sale.

Q228 I show you Ex 1, will you tell the Court how that came to be signed?
A228 This is a letter dated Nov 1st, 1943. Sometime previous to the making up of this order it had been decided that spirits would be purchased for the sgts mess to be sold by the glass with the Comd's permission or by the bottle if permission was not granted. But owing to our entitlements being changed our names were not on the list of the NAAFI at Esther, Surrey, and we wished them to send us our requisition and we were giving them our strength, ie. of our mess. Major Fern signed the letter and I forwarded it to the NAAFI. I received no instructions from Capt Fern after the letter was forwarded. It was mailed the same day that he signed it. I had heard just previous to this that the sale of spirits by the glass in the mess had been forbidden by the Comd, it was as far as I know a verbal order, and we had asked the RSM to try and regain the lost privilege and it was still in the balance. I was never given any definite instructions from Col Shanklin relating to the management of the mess.

Q229 Did the RSM give you any instructions that he had received from the Comd?
A229 No. I only saw the RSM at the committee meeting where we decided to purchase spirits for Christmas that were to be sold by the bottle, and we had asked him to try and get us permission to sell it by the glass.

Q230 How did the mess know it would not be sold by the glass?
A230 The mess at that time was still working on the principle that spirits would not be sold by the glass.

Q231 What was the decision of the mess regarding the purchase and the sale of spirits in Nov or Dec of 43?
A231 There was a full vote taken and it was fully decided that the order management had the authority to purchase spirits for the mess and funds were made available for these purchases.

Q232 Tell us about this entitlement?
A232 Under the ration scheme it is based on so many members of the mess so much whiskey and gin each month, the NAAFI are informed of the number of members of the mess and they make up invoices showing you how much you are entitled to and forward this to you and you attach your checque to it and send it back to NAAFI for shipment.

Q233 I show you Ex 3 and Ex 4, will you tell the Court how you come receive that invoice?
A233 That invoice was addressed to the president of the Mess and was handed to me from the RSM's office. I brought the matter to the attention of the president of the mess, CSM Steele and I believe I handed it to him and he returned it to me to bring up with more accounts to be signed. I made out the cheque and presented it to Major Fern, there was some other accounts, one to McEwen and Younger and someone else. The invoice for the NAAFI for the previous month and also for this entitlement. The cheques were signed without question and sent off, they included this one for the invoice from the NAAFI which was attached and handed to him, the invoice was with the accounts and right before him.

Q234 What was intended to be done with the spirits?
A234 They were intended to be sold by the bottle to the members of the mess.

Q235 What relation had that transaction with the meeting of the mess that has been described?
A235 This was the completion of the will of the mess.

Q236 What was the date of this meeting you have referred to?
A236 Sometime between the 11 Nov and the 25 Nov 43.

Q237 Then I take it the spirits were delivered, where were they put?
A237 The stock was to be in the sgts mess and with the aid of the mess steward a large part of it was put below surface and the gin was left on the surface to be sold. The stock was clearly marked in cartons.

Q238 How was it disposed of?
A238 It was sold to members of the mess and those who wanted it immediately, in order to see that everyone had a fair share of it I took control of it and took anyone's name that wanted a bottle and put his name on a pad that was kept in the accounts office. I kept two lists, one with those who had taken theirs and had paid me and those that wanted some but had not taken it.

I kept the money for it in the safe in the accounts office and finally credited it with the account of the sgts mess. There was a profit on the whole transaction. It was understood that the officers on strength, not having a mess would be allowed to have a supply and some of them took what was available.

Q239 How were these purchases arranged?
A239 The members usually bought by cash and they would be given a bottle over the bar and the entry made in the cash book. When purchased by check that was deposited in the sgts mess account some of the stock was delivered at the bar, some handed to people other places. In the case of CSM Raistrick, he came into the accounts office and asked me to keep him a bottle of gin it was handed to him by the bar steward.

Q240 How about the transaction in Jan?
A240 That was still another purchase.

Q241 I show you exhibits 7 & 6, how was the amount there determined?
A241 To clarify the whole case. We are always 30 days in arrears and at the NAAFI we trade with regularly, however we were able to get this added stock and I put it up to the mess and was authorized to get it, so I made out a check and thus we were able to get the spirits before the holiday season was over. It was a special meeting of the bar committee and mess committe.

Q242 What was Major Fern told about that cheque?
A242 I don't recall him asking but if he did question it he was told that it was for our entitlement of spirits for the holiday season.

Q243 Was there anything done about the other transactions which came out in the evidence regarding the Bordon NAAFI?
A243 No Sir. We have spent several hundred pounds there and if the manager has any supply of liquor left over he lets us know and we pick it up, that is the reason for the cheque being left blank, we were often able to get a few extra bottles.

Q244 What exaplanation did you give Capt Fer when you asked him to asked him to sign a cheque leaving the amount blank?
A244 I explained that we did not know the amount we could purchase at the NAAFI, and told him that whoever went in to purchase it would fill in the amount required. I told him it was for any entitlement that we could get at the NAAFI.

Q245 What else did you buy at the NAAFI except spirits?
A245 Ocasionally a few cigarettes, but not very often we don't like them and have a very little demand for them.

Q246 What would be your bill excluding spirits for a month from the NAAFI?
A246 About £13 for cigarettes, choclates and other odds and ends, such as dry canteen items.

Q247 Can you tell the Court what knowledge the RSM had of these spirits transactions in the sgts mess?
A247 He was present in the mess as chairman or senior member when these items were discussed by the mess as a whole, he was later present when the board of management of the mess met to discuss it and he in turn was to act between the board of management and the Col for the permission to have spirits sold in the glass again instead of by the bottle.

Q248 How about CSM Steele?
A248 He was called away when the stock was being purchased, however he was one of the members that bought some for Christmas and he knew it was bought through the mess.

Q248 Regarding the issue of the order by Capt Fern can you tell the Court whether you were present with RSM Illingsworth, CSM Steele when Capt Fer issued any instructions regarding the sale of spirits in the mess?

A 248 No Sir. I heard no such order.

Q249 Were any orders issued to you at any other time by Capt Fern regarding the purchase or sale of spirits in the mess?
A249 No Sir.

Q250 Was there an audit that month?
A250 Yes Sir, there was two auditms in Nov. All accounts and account books were available and were examined by the unit audit board and signed by them before being passed to the PRI.

Q251 What were they shown along with the statements?
A251 The stock was available in the accounts office and the cash book from the bar and the order book which was endorsed.

Q252 What was done about invoices at the audit?
A252 They were passed as called for and checked off against the statement and passed on as having been examined, all invoices whether paid or not.

Q253 How about Ex 3?
A253 It was available and examined by the unit audit board, and also exhibit 6.

Q254 I show you a document, what is it?
A254 It is the stock book for the sgts mess, Cdn Det Bks. Here are the accounts for the months of Dec 43 and Jan 44 (Witness shows the Court the purchases from the NAAFI for the spirits represented by the invoices Exhibits 3 and 6, stock book of sgts mess Cdn Det Bks marked Exh 14 by the Court)

Q255 Who made the entries in this book?
A255 I did.

Q256 What if any remarks were made to you by the president or members of the audit board regarding these transactions of spirits?
A256 There was no observations made by the audit board to me. They knew that spirts were sold in the mess they had bought whiskey there.

Defending Officer stated that the members of the audit board for the months of Dec and Jan were not now available, as he had been given to understand.

Q257 With reference to you r subsequent history after you ceased to be treasurer of the sgts mess?
A257 I ceased to be treasurer about the 17 Feb 44 and was posted to No 6 Coy in London and then re-posted to Manchester Det and remainded there until 24 Jun 44 when I returned to 1 CGRU as a pte as I was up until that time acting sgt and Staff.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q258 Did you between the 15 Nov 43 and 18 Feb purchase spirits for the sgts mess?
A258 Yes Sir.

Q259 Did you during the same period sell spirits for the sgts mess?
A259 Yes Sir.

Q260 I show you three cheques exhibits 8,9,10, were they payments for liquor belonging to the sgts mess?
A260 Yes Sir.

Q261 Did you deposit them personally?
A261 No Sir. They were signed and handed to the Mess Committee and deposited with the remainder of the funds.

Q262 When you took ex 4 into Capt Fer to be signed you say you brought in at the same time the invoice ex 3?
A262 Yes Sir.

Q263 And were there other cheques and invoices brought in at the same time?
A263 Yes Sir.

Q264 And Cheques in one bundle and invoices and bills in another?
A264 I brought them all together, the cheques separate and the invoices separate, they were not pinned together, I presented them all to Capt Fern for signature.

Q265 Do you know for a fact that he checked the invoices against the cheques as he signed them?
A265 He should have, and had the opportunity, they were all there. I was responsible to get the cheques and bills prepared which I did and placed them on his desk, I know that they were all there as there would be a corresponding cheque for each bill or invoice.

Q266 Was Ex 6 brought in with the cheque ex 7 to Capt Fern together?
A266 Yes Sir.

Q267 Were other invoices and cheques brought in at the same time?
A267 Yes, the cheques were on top of the pile of invoices. I do not know whether the saw the invoices but they were there for his check.

Q268 Was there any resolution during this period in the minutes of the sgts mess or decision that spirits should be sold by the bottle?
A268 Yes there there was a decision come to and voted on by the mess. This was carried out at a meeting subsequant to the 11 Nov and one before the 25 Nov 43. However the minutes of the meetings were not properly kept a fact that had become apparent at the Court of Inquiry.

Q269 In that case why did you not still sell over the bar?
A269 I sold several bottles over the bar. I had the spirits in plain sight of anyone that took the trouble to look.

Q270 Did anybody else order spirits during the period under review?
A270 The NAAFI entitlement was signed for by the President of the mess, I made out the cheques.

Q271 Did you handle the money obtained from the sale of the liquor in the sgts mess?
A271 I handled all the moneys for everything sold by the sgts mess.

Q272 Did you, during this period, lead people to believe that you had personal contacts where you could procure liquor for them?
A272 I told anyone wanting liquor that they were buying from the sgts mess. And some of the members that purchased bottles of liquor knew where it had come from.

BY THE COURT

Q273 Did Capt Fern every tell you to cancel Ex 1?
A273 No Sir, I was never told by Capt Fern to cancel it or by anyone else to cancel it. After it was signed it was put into the mail and nothing more was brought up about it.

Q274 Did he ever say in words to you that there would be no more buying or selling of spirits in the sgts mess?
A274 No Sir.

Q275 How did he ask you for the 12 bottles of whiskey?
A275 He asked me if any stock was availa le, I told him there was and he asked if it could be left at his billet. I did not discuss with him where it was coming from, as the officers had no mess it was customary for them to buy spirits from the sgts mess.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

CASE FOR THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

PROSECUTER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING:

Sir

As I pointed out to the Court previously I am not here to make an investigation. During the long period at 1 Cdn Det Bks. We are faced with certain charges and as far as the Prosecution is concerned it is merely facts that have been produced that I have to rely on. Under Sec 40 he is charged with receiving a certain order regarding the purchase of liquor and the sale of liquor or spirits in the sgts mess, for the sgts mess, and he acted contrary to that order. He purchased and sold spirits and if I have proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he did this then you must find him guilty.

Now the facts xx are these. So far as the order which is one of the keys to the whole question is concerned we have positive statements of Capt Fern that at that time he was a major and PRI of the sgts mess and had received certain orders from Col Shanklin and passed these orders on to the mess committee and to the accused. There is no question here whether it should have been by the glass or by the bottle, under the counter or over the counter. It is a complete prohibition, the comple lack of spirits by anybody in the sgts mess, and the sale or purchase of spirits for the mess. We have first of all Ex 1 the letter signed to the NAAFI mentioning the number of members of the sgts'mess and on the basis of that letter the NAAFI allocate certain amounts of liquor or spirits, this letter is dated 1 Nov 43 signed by Major Fern, subsequently no more letters were written or sent. Major Fern gave orders for the cancellation of that letter and was told by the accused that it would be tended to and depended upon the accused to have it done. I am not here to say that one person is to be blamed more than another, that is for the Court to decide, but taken everything into consideration I feel that the Court should come to the conclusion that Capt Fern had in fact cancelled that letter and that nothing of its kind was ever sent out after 1 Nov 43 as there was a definite prohibition as to the sale of liquor in the sgts mess.

We have certain invoices which involved the purchase of spirits by the sgts mess, we have the cheques which are in payment for the spirits mentioned in the invoices, all these cheques were thrown into the PRI's basket to be signed and he had too much work to spend all day sorting and comparing and checking those invoices and cheques, he had a staff that was responsible for that sort of work. We have a cheque with Major Fern's name on it a personnal cheque, however he signed that in payment for some spirits which he was under the impressio had been bought privately for him.

Then we have the evidence of the RSM, the senior officer inthe sgts mess who tells us that if he had known that thesgts mess was buying or selling liquor he would have reported the matter, he is aware of the order that there should be no liquor in the sgts mess. To me the question of whether it was sold by the bottle or by the glass does not come into the picture, and the RSM is of the same opinion, he would have had it stopped whether it was by the glass or the bottle. RSM says he bought a bottle from the accused and belives it was a personal transaction, he believes he was not buying stock belonging to the sgts mess. Capt Clark also bought spirits and he too believes it was a personal transaction, here are two people that believe Dwane had special personal contacts, perhaps it was because he had been working in the mess and had been buying for them that gave these people that impression. CSM Raistrich also bought spirits and he says it was a personal transaction and received his bottle off the premises. You will notice that all the members of the mess are anxious to point that any transaction was off the presises and was a personal transaction between them and the accused. Everyone make it clear that he did not know it was liquor that belonged to the sgts mess, and some, those in authority have stressed that had they known the matter would immediately have been reported. I must remind the Court that even if other members of the mess were not convicted in this matter there is only one man on trial today, the accused is on trial and the accused alone charged with a contravention of orders issued to him by Major Fern. It is obvious from the evidence of all the witnesses for the Prosecution that there was liquor around and in the mess, and in a couple of cases that at least three bottles were mess property, those that were raffled at Christmasstime, those three bottles alone if there had been no more was a contravention of the orders received by the accused and that would consitute grounds for these charges. The accused sent Jean-Louis to Aldershot and collected some spirits that were delivered to the home of Major Fern, these spirits were bought in the name of the sgts mess, 1 Cdn Det Bks and charged to that account. With this evidence before the Court I leave the decision to you, I feel that the Prosecution has produced sufficient evidence to find him guilty on both charges.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING:

Sir,

The charges against the accused relate to the purchase and sale of spirits after being warned by Capt Fern not to do so. The evidence of Capt Fern tells us that he knows he warned the accused, on crossexamination it was made plain that less than a month ago he was not positive that he warned the accused. I suggest that his conviction arises from evidence stated and discussion with others since he gave his evidence at the summary. I would like to draw attention to two or three slight mistakes in the evidence as outlined by the Prosecutor in his address. With relation to the letter of 1 Nov, the Prosecutor states that Major Fern's evidence was that no more letters were sent but actually Major Fern said that no more letters were signed by him or to his knowledge. Also the Prosecutor suggested that Capt Fern said that the letter was cancelled and not sent out, actually he said he told the accused to cancel it, but he did not write a cancelling letter or take any effective steps to have a letter cancelled that had been mailed 25 days. Now it is significant that Capt Fern never warned anyone of the order, the RSM says he heard this order from the CO who told several members of the mess at the same time, but no one corroborates Capt Fern's statement that it was he that told them of this order or of any order. The Prosecutor next referred to the evidence of the RSM and said that the RSM was unaware of the transactions, and that if he had known he would have reported them. It is true that he had no knowledge of them, it is also true that all witnesses are anxious to deny any knowledge of anything to do with this case, but CSM Hurrel and Bennison said that the RSM did know of these incidents and there is no evidence that he reported anything. On that point the RSM has talked himself out of the Court. Now what are the facts of this case? The case as we see it took place between 25 Nov and 18 Feb, the accused bought and sold spirits for the mess, that in itself is not enought to convict, the Prosecution must convince the Court that he received the order that he must not do so. On the evidence which the Prosecution relies we have the evidence of SM Hurrel, Steele and Sgt Bennison and S/Sgt McArthie to the fact that it was announced in the mess by the RSM that liquor could not be sold by the glass, but it was decided in some way that liquor could be sold by the bottle, that is endorsed by the evidence of the accused who understood the same. What order then was he contravening? Only if the Court believes that Capt Fern personally warned the accused, can they find that he acted contrary to the order because the only other evidence, apart from that of Capt Fern is that of the RSM and CSM Raistrich who bought bottles os spirits from the accused. I submit that the Court cannot believe that these transactions, large transactions involving over 80 bottles of spirits could have occured in the under hand fashion that the Prosecution suggests. And if, as SM Hurrel and Sgt Bennison and McArthie state that sales made were common knowledge and that this liquor was for sale in the mess what are we to believe. Are we to believe that the whole mess were involved in a huge conspiracy. In that case it would appear more logical than what I've heard about certain people who were in and out of the mess every day and yet didn't know that whiskey was being sold. In that case must we prosecute the whole mess? or are we to believe that the sale of liquor in the fashion in which it did take place was not prohibited.

It is true, as the Prosecutor said, a number of times that a number of witnesses were anxious to point out that they did not see liquor in the mess and they add that had they done so they would have stopped it, and that any transactions they had were private transactions between themselves and the accused. All these people have gone free and the accused prosecuted, there has been no evidence that these people know that the transactions were private, no one offered any suggestion as to where he could get the liquor in some of the quantities that he seemed to be able. The accused has come before the Court and told you the whole story, he bought and sold this spirits as a favour not only to the members of the sgts mess but as a convenience to the officers who did not have a mess, there was no personal profit for him, all moneys were placed in the account of the sgts mess. We have the evidence of the chairman of the bar committee and the president of the mess who authorized the purchase of this liquor, the accused made up the cheques, signed them and then placed them together with the invoices before the PRI for his signature. If Capt Fern did not have to check these invoices and do the job properly then he should have asked for assistance, and no mention has been made of his applying to the CO for help in any particular job. There was two bottles of spirits in the mess the two that were raffled, and they were raffled with the mess presidents sanction, and if, as the Prosecutor says even two bottles proves that there was a contravention to the rule, then as the two responsible people of the mess knew of the contravention, who is then responsible. I submit that the responsibility was taken off the accused shoulders and others are responsible for any wrongs or contraventions to the order regarding liquor in this mess, I therefore feel that the accused should be acquitted. It is of course that it is the law that in order to find an accused guilty on either charge in such a case as this that there must be no doubt in the minds of the members of the Court, and in this particular case there is conflicting evidence and I am sure that it has not been proven to this court beyond all reasonable doubt that the facts to support the charges are true and have been proved by the evidence produced, and if the Court is not satisfied beyond all reasonable dout that some of the essential facts has been proved in evidence then it is the duty under the law to acquit the accused, and that applies equally to both charges.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE ACCUSED IS FOUND NOT GUILTY ON BOTH CHARGES.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
In the case of

D. 71212 Private DWANE, James Rodgers, Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian ArmyOverseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

The officer taking the Summary of Evidence warned Captain William Fern, Canadian Provost Corps on strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit that if he is asked questions that would tend to incriminate him at his own trial he need not answer, but in any case this evidence would not be used against him at his own forthcoming trial.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

Captain William Fern, Canadian Provost Corps on strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Captain William Fern, Canadian Provost Corps on strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit.

From the 11 of April, 1944 until 23 August, 1944 I was D.A.P.M. 2 CBRG, Canadian Army Overseas. Now I am presently on the strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. Between the 25 November, 1943 until 18 February, 1944 I was the Assistant Commandant of Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Army Overseas. Between the 25 November, 1943 and 18 February, 1944 Private Dwane, whom I now recognize as the accused was a Staff Sergeant at Canadian Detention Barracks. He was N.C.O. employed in the office of the Accounts Officer and Sergeants' Mess Treasurer. To the best of my recollection sometime in November on or about the 25 I gave an order to the accused to the effect that there would be no purchases or sale of spirits for the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. I recall having signed a letter, Exhibit "A", CDB/9-0-0 dated 1 November, 1943 addressed to Manager, Wine and Spirits Department, N.A.A.F.I., Esher, Surrey, reference Sergeants' Mess, Wine and Spirit entitlement. I believe that sometime in November I told the accused not to send that letter and to cancel it. I remember having bought some spirits from the accused when he was Sergeants' Mess Treasurer. I paid by cheque made out to cash as I figured it was a personal transaction between me and the accused. I do not recall having seen the Invoice, Exhibit "B", No. L.07298 dated 1 December, 1943 addressed to the President of Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks, containing purchase of spirits, wine and cordials and containers in the amount of £52.16.11.. I can see that this invoice represents purchase of spirits by the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks from N.A.A.F.I. Kenningsway, London, SE 11. I don't recall having seen the official receipt, Exhibit "D", No. F 40353 dated 10 December, 1943 for the amount of £52.16.11 covering payment alleged in the invoice L. 07298. I identify as Exhibit "C", cheque No. 347--2 of Lloyd's Bank Limited, Grayshot dated 6 December, 1943 payable to N.A.A.F.I. in the amount of £52.16.11 and signed by myself, W. plies for the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks from N.A.A.F.I. I don't recall having seen, during that period, copyof invoice, Exhibit "E", L.07874 dated 1 January, 1944 addressedto the President, Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks from N.A.A.F.I., Kenningsway, Kennington, SE 11 containing purchase of spirits, wine, cordials and containers for the amount of £46.19.06. I can see that this invoice was to cover the purchase of spirits by Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks from N.A.A.F.I. I recall having seen cheque No. 347586, Exhibit "F", Lloyd's Bank Limited, Grayshot, dated 6 January, 1944, payable t o N.A.A.F.I. for the amount of £46.19.06 and signed by myself, W. Fern, then Acting Major and J.R. Dwane, then Staff Sergeant. As for the first cheque it was in prepayment of supplies bought for the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks from N.A.A.F.I. I can assume that the cheque, Exhibit "D" was to cover the purchase alledged in the invoice, Exhibit "B". I can also assume that the cheque, Exhibit "F" was to cover the amount alledged in the Invoice, Exhibit "E". ~~Regimental Sgt Major Illingsworth and Company Sgt Major Steele, J.T.,~~ I gave an order to Regimental Sgt Major Illingsworth and Company Sgt Major Steele, J.T., at the time President of the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks, that no spirits were to be sold, by bottle or otherwise in the Sergeants' Mess, and to the best of my recollection it included the accused. That order also included that no spirits would be purchased for the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. To the best of my recollection that order was given on or about the 25 November, 1943.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

H. 6234 Regimental Sgt Major Illingsworth, D., Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of Canadian Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am H. 6234 Regimental Sgt Major Illingsworth, D. Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of Canadian Detention Barracks. I was appointed Regimental Sgt Major on 23 November, 1943 at Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Army Overseas. I recognize Private Dwane as the accused. The accused was a Staff Sergeant at the Canadian Detention Barracks between the 25 November, 1943 and 18 February, 1944. During that period he was the Sergeants' Mess Treasurer. I don't recall having told the accused that there would be no purchase or sale of spirits in the Sergeants' Mess. Some time in October I asked the accused to get me a bottle of spirits and I got it sometime in December, 1943 from the accused, to whom I paid the regular price. That transaction did not occur in the Mess. During that period, due to quite intensive outside work I was not very often in the Sergeants' Mess and while I was there I did not notice any raffle of spirits.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

M. 37281 CSM Raistrick, W., Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of No. 22 Canadian Special Employment Company, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am M. 37281 Company Sgt Major Raistrick, W., Canadian Provost Corps on strength of No. 22 Canadian Special Employment Company. I was Company Sgt Major in Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Provost Corps during the period 25 November, 1943 to 18 February, 1944. I know the accused. During that period he was Staff Sergeant in Canadian Provost Corps at Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Army Overseas. The accused was Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess. I bought some spirits during that period from the accused. I asked him about October if he could get me a bottle for Christmas and he said he would try. One day, somewhere around the end of December I asked him if he could get me a bottle and he said "yes" and he let me have one outside the Barracks. I remember a raffle during that period but I don't remember if it was spirits or not. I think it was chicken and I never paid much attention to these raffles anyway. During that period I never saw any bottles of spirits in the bar of the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks.

I am D. 105754 Private Jean-Louis, RCASC, attached Canadian Detention Barracks. I have been a driver for Canadian Detention Barracks since 6 January, 1943. I recall having been ordered by the accused, then a Staff Sergeant, to go to McEwan and Youngers, Aldershot and pick up a parcel to be delivered to Captain, then Acting Major, Fern. I did pick up that parcel as ordered and I found it was two bottles of spirits and I delivered them to Captain, then Acting Major, Fern's private residence. When I was handed over the parcel I was given the bill which I gave back to the accused, then Staff Sergeant. I don't know if these bottles were bought for the Sergeants' Mess.

A. 34002 Company Sgt Major Hurrell, P., Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am A. 34002 Company Sgt Major Hurrell, P., Canadian Provost Corps on strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. I was Acting Staff Sergeant, Canadian Detention Barracks between the 25 November, 1943 and 18 February, 1944. During that period I was Chairman of the Bar Committee, Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. I inspected the bar of the Sergeants' Mess at least once a day. Around the end of November or the beginning of December during the course of my inspection of the bar of the Sergeants' Mess, I noticed two bottles of spirits at the bar on the shelf. They were in plain sight entering the bar from the bar door. Between the 25 November, 1943 and 18 February; 1944 I noticed once a raffle of bottles of spirits in the Sergeants' Mess. To my knowledge two bottles were raffled. The first one was raffled for 45 shillings, the second one was dropped down ten shillings by the President of the Mess, making a total of 35 shillings for the second bottle. There were no minutes kept by the Bar Committee during that period while I was Chairman of the Bar Committee. I remember that Staff Sergeant Adams and Staff Sergeant Fowler were also members of the Bar Committee. I never bought any spirits from the accused during that period. I don't remember if the accused was or was not a member of the Bar Committee during that period.

ADDITIONAL SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of

D71812 Private DWANE, James Rodgers, Canadian Provost Corps on the strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of theCommanding Officer, the additional Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

C. 30146 Sgt Bennison, J., Canadian Provost Corps, on strength of Canadian Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am C30146 Sgt Bennison, J., Canadian Provost Corps, on strength Canadian Detention Barracks, ~~Canadian Provost Corps~~. I was Sergeants' Mess Caterer for the Canadian Detention Barracks between the 25 November, 1943 and 18 February, 1944. Staff Sergeant Dwane informed me just before Christmas last year that it had cost him 32 shillings in taxi fares to bring some spirits to the Mess, so I suggested that he raffle three bottles off in the Mess. The first bottle we raffled off I got two Pounds 6 shillings and while I was raffling the second bottle off, CSM Steele intimated that we were getting too much money and he cut it down to 35 shillings. That was in the Sergeants' Mess. I gave the proceeds of the raffle to the accused, whom I now recognize and who was then a Staff Sergeant and, as far as I can remember, was Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. During that period I saw 5 full cartons of spirits in the Sergeants' Mess, that would be 60 bottles. There was a few bottles down below underneath the trapdoor in the bar of the Sergeants' Mess and some in the porch and a couple of bottles in a little cupboard we had on the shelf, probably two or three bottles. When I was through raffling the three bottles of spirits off I purchased one bottle myself, to the amount of 30 shillings from the accused, out of one of these cartons and one I handed to CSM Raistrick on a note from Dwane. I was just in charge of the beer sale and the accused was looking after the stock of spirits. The shipments of spirits were brought in the Mess by the accused and they were kept in the bar of the Mess as I said in the beginning. I didn't keep any record in the stockbook of the liquor coming into the bar of the Sergeants' Mess. The stockbook wasn't kept in the bar. The stockbook was looked after by somebody from the bar committee or one of the committees but I don't know who he was. Sometime during that period I was requested to get our monthly assignment from McEwan and Youngers, sometime in January. I think in all I got seven bottles and then sometime later on I was asked to make inquiries about our monthly ration of spirits by the accused. Sometime in January I went to McEwan and Youngers, Aldershot, to get the entitlement of spirits for the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. I was told then that the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks had already had their share of spirits for that month. I said that I never saw this entitlement of spirits and McEwan and Youngers showed me an invoice alleging three bottles of spirits as having been delivered to the Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks. The said invoice being signed by Pte Jean-Louis, a driver at Canadian Detention Barracks. At the request of the accused at the beginning of February, 1944 I went to Borden. I bought there for the Sergeants' Mess, from the Manager NAAFI Borden, three bottles of spirits. These bottles were handed over to me with an invoice that I identify as Exhibit "G", #R. 182803 addressed to Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks covering that purchase. Attached to it was an official receipt that I identify as Exhibit "H", #Z. 248659 addressed to Sergeants' Mess, Canadian Detention Barracks covering the amount of purchase mentioned in the Invoice, Exhibit "G". I had with me a cheque which I identify as Exhibit "J" #347591 Lloyd's Bank Limited, Grayshot, dated February, 1944 payable to NAAFI and signed by JR Dwane, Staff Sergeant, the accused and W. Fern, Major. The amount in that cheque was left blank. The accused had instructed me to fill in the amount on that cheque according to the amount of the purchase. I didn't have my glasses with me, but Staff Sergeant McLean, who xxxx was with me, who is now CSMS somewhere in France, in my presence, filled in the amount £3-9-2 to cover the payment of the amount alleged in the Invoice, Exhibit "G". I brought that stock of spirits to the mess and handed it over to the accused with the Invoice, Exhibit "G" and the official receipt, Exhibit "H".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down inwriting and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing additional Summary of Evidence, consisting of 2 pages was takendown by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c)(d)(e) and (f) have been complied with.

Trial of K-52158 Pte ESSELMONT James John S.H. of C. Canadian Army, C.M.F.

Capt F.H. Bonnell, S.H. of C. appears as prosecution.

Lieut L.M. McBride, S.H. of C. defending officer appears as counsel.

R.P. (110)A is complied with.

K42346 L/Cpl DeGrogia J. appears as interpreter.

The accused pleads guilty to the charge which he heard read.

The Summary of Evidence as taken by Capt F.H. Bonnell, S.H. of C., was read to the accused and is herewith attached marked "H".

The accused having being duly sworn states as follows:

On Jan 10 we were having a party. We ran out of wine. Myself and a few of the other boys went out to look for some. We went to two or three places and had few more drinks. After that I don't remember very much about what happened until an N.C.O. and a couple of men came out and fetched me. I was told the next morning what had happened. That is about all I can say, Sir.

Evidence as to Character and Particulars of Service of Accused

Capt H.F. Williamson, S.H. of C., having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt H.F. Williamson, assistant adjutant of S.H. of C., Pte Esselmont J.J. K52158 came to this battalion as a reinforcement soldier and his M.F.M.'S 6 & 14 (original), have been received from Cdn Section, 2nd Echelon. I submit the supplementary sheet, and this statement as re. character and particulars of Accused.

The accused declined to address the court in connection with his conduct sheet or statement as to character and particulars of service.

Address of Defending Officer

In mitigation of punishment I would like to point out two things. First the long service of the accused from 6 Sept 39. Secondly the fact that the accused was drunk, to point that in his own words he didn't know much about what went on.

The Court is closed to consider the sentence.

Finding The Court finds the Accused Guilty of the Charge.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. K52158 Pte James John Esselmont, The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada.

First Witness — Signorina Polita Bice of 50 Via Sofia, Ortona, having been duly sworn depose as follows:
"I am Signorina Polita Bice of 50 Via Sofia, Ortona. At about 10 o'clock in the evening of 10 January 1944 I was at home at 50 Via Sofia. I saw the accused whom I now identify and two other soldiers climb up the balcony of my house. The accused had a revolver in his hand. He entered the house and demanded cognac. We had no cognac and the accused opened all the drawers in the house looking for it. I was in bed and the accused ordered me to get up. I then told the accused we had no cognac so one of the fellows told me to go back to bed which I did. Theaccused then made me get up again and go outside. I told him I was cold so then thesoldiers and my sister and myself went into my cousins house. Theaccused told us to stay where we were until he told us to move. My cousin opened the door and the accused again demanded cognac. My cousins did not have any cognac so then thesoldiers went away and stayed in my house until approximately 1130. I did not return until they had left. I returned about 1130 and locked the doors. One of the accused I cannot say which one fired a shot through the door. The next morning I complained to AMGOT officer.
On the 12th January I attended an identification parade of soldiers and picked out the accused as being one of the soldiers who had entered my house on the evening of 10 January 1944.

Two or three minutes after a third soldier came in. I recognize the accused as being one of the soldiers who came in. The accused asked for cognac he had a pistol in his hand and kept it there. The accused went to took through all the drawers. He never foundany cognac. The soldiers locked me in a room so I could not see what they did after that. I had a key to the room and got out and went to my sisters room. The accused then took me to another room, it wouldn't open so he kicked it open. This was the room of Nicola Domarco. My sister myself and the three soldiers went into this room and the soldiers demanded cognac again. Nicola Domarco did not have any cognac. The accused grabbed Nicola Domarco by the coat, he then hit him two or three times and his companion was asking the accused not to hit him. He would not listen. After this my sister and I went back into our room. All I heard after this was one shot fired.

Cross examined by the accused:
Q. Where did I hit Nicola Domarco?
A. Slapped his face.
Q. Where was my gun at this time?

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Mr President. Members of the court.

The accused H. 45898 Pte Emery W. of 3 Can Inf Div Re Catering Pool (R of F) has pleaded guilty to the charge of being A.W.O.L. It becomes necessary the punishment which will be set by you the President, and members of this court.

In setting the punishment in this particular case I feel that the following points should be carefully considered.

1e The accused has served in the Can Army for a period of 5 years and 4 mos. Most of this time has been spent overseas.

2e He has always been a model soldier, obedient on duty and has established the reputation of being a hard and cheerful worker.

3e This soldier has previously suffered from loss of memory. Major the Neil of the R C A M C has examined this man and has stated that Pte Emery should be returned to Canada because of his mental stability.

4º The accused has been stationed in Germany whilst awaiting repatriation. And as he is a cook he has been frozen.

5º As he was awaiting a posting in the catering prof and with no particular job to do, he had a great deal of spare time on his hands, in such a position it is only natural for a man to become rather morose.

6º The accused did go AWL but had no intention of staying away. Enjoying the company of friends he putting off his return until he was picked up by the Provost.

7º He has previously been found guilty of a number of small charges but never of one of disobedience. He made no effort to resist arrest and at all times has been a model soldier whilst awaiting trial.

8º Every day spent in detention will lengthen the time before his discharge to civilian life. As the accused is now 25 years of age the readjusting it will be very difficult to readjust himself to civilian life.

9º Due to the previously mentioned reasons I feel that as light a sentence as possible should be given the accused.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No Sir.[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 4. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. .....[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....

(1. AA 54(3) (4), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No Sir.[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) to Not Guilty to the charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. Under B1 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.[1]

D4. The Prosecution is closed.[1] The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).[2] The Court is closed, and considers the submission.[3] The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).[4]
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans .....
Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans .....

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

Sirs:

I ask the Court to consider certain mitigating factors in this case.

Pte Emery is 23, he joined the army September 3rd 1939 and came overseas with the West Nova Scotia Regiment as a despatch rider.

In 1940 he was transferred to Ordnance Workshops as a driver mechanic and despatch rider.

After D Day he paraded three times before his Commanding Officer, asking to be sent overseas, this was refused without any reason being given.

He was then transferred to the Canadian Infantry Corps where there was no employment for him along the line of work he had been doing for the past five years. He felt very dissatisfied over this, and while still feeling very disgruntled he was granted privilege leave at a time when there were no credits in his pay book and he had only one pound. He was paraded for an advance of pay but this was refused.

These are the factors which caused Pte Emery to overstay his leave and be absent until surrendering himself to the civilian police.

I ask the court for leniency in this case, because a heavy sentence would deprive this man of certain rehabilitation credits.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No.[5]

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not charged the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by vir of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. D5. President to accused: You will new proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Statement of G19450 Pte Erman L.T.

Since joining the army in July 41 I have tried to obtain dependants allowance for my mother who is separated from my father. Her only means of support being $20 a month from my brother a soldier in the 2nd LAA. and $20 a month from myself.

During the battle of the "Hitler line" in May I was wounded and while in hospital I received a letter from my mother to say that her home was burnt down with considerable loss of furniture etc. she only had $400 insurance.

My mother also moved to my sister's home and this has also been destroyed by fire.

My girl friend who I have been writing to ever since I was wounded in May 42 and had hoped to marry and set up a home with such that everything between us was finished and that she was marrying someone else.

Plea for Mitigation of Punishment

G 19450 Pte. ENMAN, L. T.

I hereby wish to put forward a plea on behalf of Pte Enman L.T. for mitigation of punishment.

Firstly Pte. Inman as a member of the C.M.F. Regt has seen considerable action as he was with his unit from August 1943 until May 1944 when he was wounded in the Hitler Line Italy. This in itself is indeed creditable and speaks for itself & show that when Pte Inman is with his unit, he is primarily a good soldier. Again I must point out & the court that unfortunately it is virtually impossible & have an officer come down from the C.M.F. Regt & speak on behalf of Enman as a character witness. I hope the court will bear this in mind!

At the present time Pte Inman is undergoing a period of detention for an AWL charge and I feel sure that to add a great deal to his present time would indeed only be keeping a good soldier from his unit where he would be doing more good & would behave himself.

With regard to the case in hand, Pte Inman went AWL from a guardroom at the same time as four other members of the guardroom. I feel that the situation which presented itself at the time offered is great a temptation for most people to overlook. Pte Inman regrets his behaviour very much indeed and I am convinced that he is sincere when he tells me he only wishs to pay for his misbehaviour and return to his Regt. as soon as possible.

I ask the court to keep in mind when deciding on the sentence to be awarded Pte Inman — firstly, that he is a good soldier & is more use to his regt than in detention and secondly, that his recent A.W.L. was more unfortunate than deliberate.

John D. Moron Lt.
defending Officer.

At 1800 hours daily the soldiers in custody in the Guardroom are turned over to the special Convalescent Guard. I make a regular check every evening of the Guardroom and I visited the Guardroom at approximately 2300 hours to make a check up. At approximately 2315 hours, 2 Dec 44, I checked up on the soldiers in custody in the cells and I found that the accused, Pte Enman, whom I recognize had escaped. I then gave certain instructions which were carried out.

At approximately 2300 hours Sgt Bell visited the Guardroom and at approximately 2315 hours he went in to the cells to check on the soldiers in custody and as a result of certain information which he gave me I personally checked the soldiers and found Pte Enman missing.

The accused declines to question this witness.

At 8.30 we crossed, I was leading "A" platoon, we went out the West gate, turned right on Highway 87. We were marching on Highway 87 in column of threes on the right side of the road, blackout discipline was maintained throughout the march, we showed no lights and there was no talking or noise making in the column. We marched about 20 minutes or so when I saw the lights of a truck approaching, we were marching East, the truck was travelling West. This truck was keeping to the right side of the road, he had his headlights on, I judge this truck to have been travelling about 25 m.p.h. I could see nothing behind him. Just as the truck was almost in front of us. about 12 yards, I could make out a second truck running without lights attempting to pass the one with the headlights. I immediately wanted to get the troops off the road and I sort of jumped forward, and evidently the truck driver saw us at the same time, because as I jumped forward and turned around I could see he pulled over to the right and attempted to avoid us, and as I turned around the trucks were almost opposite me and I could hear the crash as he side swiped the other truck, then he came right by me evidently lost control of his truck and drove into the column of troops

Exhibit 7

Q-11 What happened then?
A-11 He drove into the column of troops and ended up in the ditch where he stopped, the first truck stopped after he side-swiped it, and we sent to the R.A.P.Station for ambulances. I went around to the wounded and tried to give them sulfanalamide tablets and also warned the men not to move them

Q-12 What casualties were there
A-12 That night seven were killed and twenty four wounded and the next morning another one died

Q-13 Was ASN 42024162 Pvt Ralph L.Lyke a member of that platoon
A-13 Well sir, Lyke was, I might check up the roster of the platoon and see if he was one of the soldiers killed as a result of this accident. Yes, Pte Lyke was one of the men killed by that vehicle.

Q-14 Where was your position on the march
A-14 I was on the left hand side of the column

A-15 In the very first rank
A-15 Yes

Q-16 Was there anyone in front of you
A-16 There was nobody in front of me at all

Q-17 How many ranks were behind you
A-17 Sixteen in ranks of threes

Q-18 Did you take anyparticulars about the truck which drove into the column
A-18 I took the number of the truck, and the number I learned later was the convoy number "69" on the right front fender

Q-19 What kind of a truck was it
A-19 I learned later it was a Chevrolet

Q-20 Did you ascertain the serial number of the truck
A-20 I took the serial number but I do not have it now, it was a CL number

Q-21 (Referring to witness' statement in the summary of evidence) Was it CL-4239467
A-21 I copied it down when I made the statement from the slip of paper I had noted it down on

Q-22 Did you examine the truck when it was in the ditch
A-22 No I did not

Q-23 Did you notice anything about the lights on the truck
A-23 No, I did not see any lights on the truck

Q-24 I show you here Exhibit "H", a plan of part of Highway 87, this plan shows two diagrams of the road, one on a scale of 1/5000 and the other on a scale of 5 yds to 1", could you mark on the plan the exact scene of the accident, on the large scale one first
A-24 (Marking diagram) It was just west of a little culvert bridge over the highway, about as marked on the plan

At 10.40 a.m. the Court adjourns and proceeds with the witness, the prosecutor, defending officer and the accused to view the scene of the accident

Witness explains the scene of the accident to the Court and marks on photographs exhibits "J" and "L" a cross to indicate the point at which the accident occurred, the road plan Exhibit "H" is also marked with a cross by the witness locating the scene of the accident

Exam. 9

At 11.15 a.m. the Court reassembles, the accused is again brought before the Court, the examination of the third witness for the prosecution continues.

Q-24 Cross-examined by defending officer

Q-25 How long had you been at this camp prior to the time you set out on the march that night
A-25 I arrived on 21 MAR 44, about six weeks

Q-26 Had you been on night marches before
A-26 Yes sir

Q-27 You were familiar with that road?
A-27 Yes

Q-28 What was the condition of the road that night
A-28 It was dry

Q-29 What was the density of traffic
Q-29 Not heavier than ordinary, there were vehicles passing back and forth

Q-30 The condition of the light at this time, it was about nine O8clock, was it a dark night
A-30 There was a moon but it was overcast, quite cloudy, once in a while a little bright moonlight and then overcast

Q-31 Could you give an estimate how far ahead a person that night could see without lights
A-31 It is just a guess sir, I would say, 25, 30 or 40 yards

Q-32 Could you see the culvert from where you were at that time
A-32 I did not see it,at the time the truck with the headlights was coming towards us and I was particularly watching the truck

Q-33 Did I understand you to say you were observing blackout discipline on the march
A-33 Yes, we had no light at the head of the column or at the tail

Q-34 Was that the normal way
A-34 It was the normal way

Q-35 Has it been changed
A-35 It has since been changed

Q-36 I understood you to say you were blinded by the light of the first truck, was this for any length of time or momentarily
A-36 As long as I looked at that truck I could not see anything else

Q-37 What sort of lights had this other truck
A-37 They were not blacked out, both lights were on

Q-38 Did these headlights light up the road in front of the first truck adequately
A-38 Well, adequately for that truck, I would say he could see 25 or 30 yds ahead of him with those lights

Q-39 How fast would you say that truck was going
A-39 Roughly 26 m.p.h.

Court: This is the American truck you refer to Witness: Yes sir, the American truck

Q-40 What was the first sign you saw of the second truck
A-40 Just an outline of the cab and the top of the canopy, I saw that

Q-41 Could you hear it coming

A-41 No sir I could not hear it

Q-42 Did you make an estimate of the speed of the Canadian truck at the time it was passing
A-42 There again it would be a guess

Q-43 The American truck was going you say about 25 m.p.h., was the Cdn truck overhauling it rapidly
A-43 Not very rapidly, he was going to pass it, I would say about 35 m.p.h. for the Cdn truck

Q-44 Did you hear the Cdn truck being shifted down in gear
A-44 No sir I did not hear that, there was too much noise from the other truck I could not distinguish any shifting of gears

Questioned by the J.A.

Q-45 How many men were marching altogether in the column
A-45 Actually I do not know but I would judge there were six or seven hundred

Q-46 And the platoon the Cdn vehicle ran into was the first platoon
A-46 The first platoon

Q-47 Were the ranks of three quite close together
A-47 They usually march within about 30", there was no straggling

Q048 Do you know whether or not the Cdn truck had lights on
A-48 It did not have bright lights on, I cannot say he did not have lights on, blackout lights, all I can say is I did not see them

Q-49 Did you see the accused, do you recognize the accused here
A-49 No sir, I did not see him that night

Q-50 Did you examine the Cdn vehicle after the accident
A-50 After taking the number of it I looked into the cab, the other Canadian was in the cab but I did not see the driver at that time

Q-51 You are not in a position to say anything as to the damages the truck sustained
A-51 No sir

Q-52 And in what manner did ot go into the ditch head on?
A-52 It just angled through the column right into the ditch, the front wheels were twisted around, the right rear wheel was still on the road and the left rear wheel suspended over the ditch

Q-53 This road on which the accident happened to the troops is it used very generally
A-53 I would say military traffic sir, trucks

Q-54 For what formations, what force makes chief use of the road
A-54 I would say more Cdn and British trucks use the road than American trucks

Questioned by the Court

Q-55 How far over on the right hand side of the road was the American vehicle when it was side-swiped
A-55 I cannot say I know I know it was perhaps a foot or two feet from the wall when it stopped

Q-56 But it might conceivably have pulled over after
A-56 Yes it might

Q-57 Could you say whether the Cdn vehicle sounded its horn

A-57 I cannot say, if he did I did not hear it

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. Captain R.L. Davis, 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

Q-58 Please identify yourself to the Court
A-58 I am Capt R.L.Davis, 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC

Q-59 Would you please tell the Court the result of an examination which you made of a Cdn vehicle, describing the damage and identifying the vehicle
A-59 An accident report came in and I went to make an estimate of the damage to the vehicle, I went down and looked at the vehicle and made an estimate of the damage and gave it to one of the lieutenants of the Ord Fd Pk. A day or two later I inspected the braking system. On the front left spring hanger of the vehicle three rivets had been sheared off and the drive shaft had been pulled out of the transfer case. As far as braking system was concerned the only item was that there was only about 2" of brake pedal clearance on it

Q-60 Do you remember off hand the number of the vehicle
A-60 No, it was a Ford 3 ton cab over engine job (after refreshing memory from accident report states: The vehicle was CL-4239467 a Chevrolet 3 ton)

Q-61 Was there other damage
A-61 The right front door hinge was broken, the front bumper bent and the front fender bent, the bumper and fender being the left side, the front spring main leaf was broken and the shock arm broken

Q-62 What was the condition of the headlights
A-62 They were serviceable

Q-63 What kind of headlights were there on this vehicle
A-63 This one had blackout lights and one clearance light on the left hand side

Q-64 What kind of blackout covering did it have
A-64 The standard blackout covering

Q-65 (Producing blackout shield, which is recorded by the Court as Exhibit "M") Will you tell the Court whether the one on the truck was similar to this
A-65 Yes it was similar to this, but I did not inspect it to see if the modifications had been carried out

Q-66 You have specified the damage to the vehicle, what kind of damage was there getting away from a technical explanation
A-66 The only description I can give you is that it was not seriously damaged but was not serviceable until a few minor repairs had been done

Cross-examined by defending officer

Q-67 You belong to 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC
A-67 Correct

Q-68 And you have considerable experience in examining damaged vehicles
A-68 I have examined a few, not very many

Q-69 Would you say whether or not this Chev 3 ton truck you examined had been travelling at an excessive rate of speed in order to

Q-69 (cont) sustain the damage you just told us about, when it dropped into a ditch, which according to this plan (Exhibit "H") would be between 3' and 3.8" deep

A-69 That I could not answer, the vehicle could have been going fairly slow to drop into the ditch

Q-70 You say the vehicle could have been travelling very slowly and still sustain that damage

A-70 Yes

Q-71 Would you go so far as to say that had it been travelling at a high rate of speed the damage would have been more, worse

A-71 No

Q-72 What would be the cost of repairs to the vehicle

A-72 Cost of the material £1-8-0, and 12 hrs labor at 3/- per hr

Questioned by the J.A.:

Q-73 What would you say as to the condition of the brakes

A-73 As far as the brakes are concerned I would say they were in quite good order

Q-74 You did not test it

A-74 The only way it could be tested was after it had been repaired

Q-75 It has not been repaired yet

A-75 No sir

Q-76 This Exhibit "M", this type of lamp was the only effective lamp he had

A-76 Well he would have clearance lights, but to show the highway just that one sir

Q-77 What would be the limit of visibility with this headlamp

A-77 That would depend on the modification, I believe it is about 30 yds

Q-78 That is with this small slit

A-78 That is with the 3/4" slit

Q-79 With this small slit which is now in effect, how far

A-79 You will find with that type of headlight in the neighbourhood of 20 to 30 yds but your beam is not as wide

Q-80 You are not just sure of the width of the light on the damaged vehicle

A-80 No sir

Q-81 Could you just make it clear all the damage there was on the right hand side of this vehicle

A-81 On the right hand side if I remember a pick handle was broken and the right lower hinge broken on the door

Q-82 That was about all the damage on the right hand side

A-82 Yes

Q-83 The vehicle is a right handdrive

A-83 Right hand

Questioned by the Court

Q-84 Was the right hand side of the box on this truck damaged at all

A-84 It was just touched, one of the beams was dented a little

Q-85 Assuming you were in a 3 ton lorry and the brakes were as you say and you were travelling 35 m.p.h. how long would it take to brake her down

A-85 It would depend on the road surface, on the booster brake, on the brake drums, I could not say definitely

Q-86 A vehicle in the same condition as the one you examined on a tarmac surface, a good road

A-86 At 35 m.p.h. in the neighbourhood of 40 yds

Q-87 That is bringing it right to a standstill

A-87 Yes sir

Q-88 Had this vehicle been travelling or been shifted into 3rd gear it would stop in a shorter space of time

A-88 Yes it would

Q-89 Have you much driving experience

A-89 Some

Q-90 Would you say it would be a reasonable precaution to take when passing another vehicle to shift down into 3rd gear

A-90 I would myself, yes

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws

At 11.40 a.m. the Court adjourns for lunch

At 1.00 p.m. the Court re-assembles, the accused is again brought before the Court, the trial proceeds

A-108 At the time I got up to the truck there were no lights burning, the only lights were on the truck which had pulled up on the left, the other truck had no lights at all

Q-109 Were you marching in the midst of the column or on the outside
A-109 I was marching on the outside alongside the ranks

A-180 About 15 yds

Q-181 Are you sure it could not have been further away than that

I got in and proceeded to Route 87 approximately one mile East of the gate. There on the road were a large number of American troops, and on the left hand side, the South side going West on Route 87 was an English vehicle in the ditch on the l.h. side. I got out of the ambulance and looked around, saw bodies lying around on the road and on the banks, and some of our troops there. I stayed at the scene until after everyone left, there were four MPs left on the scene. After everyone had left Sgt Chardenier and myself walked approximately 15' West of the truck, there was a soldier standing there, I did not recognize him, I did not recognize him as either a British or Canadian soldier, he had on a uniform similar to an English uniform. I walked to within a few feet of him and he said "What do you want me to do" I said "Who are you" and he said "I am the driver of the vehicle". At this time I told Sgt Chardinet that probably the Provost Marshal would like to see him and for him to take him to the office. It was at that time about ten minutes to eleven

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

PROSECUTOR'S CLOSING ADDRESS:

The Judge Advocate when he sums up will explain the law in this case, I merely want to state briefly that in the case of manslaughter, manslaughter may be divided into two classes, one of which is death caused by the negligence of the accused.

In reviewing the evidence of this case I think the facts disclose that there has certainly been a serious negligence on the part of the accused. I will be very brief because I think the facts are quite clear.

True this accused had been on guard duty the night before did not have much sleep and may have been asked to do a duty which should not have been asked of him but which he undertook to do.

In the course of doing that duty he drove a considerable length of time and quite a distance, still he undertook to do it.

Coming back on Highway 87 there is no doubt that from Amarosi and a certain distance past Amarosi it was getting darker and darker and the accused at a certain time put his headlight on, which was a regulation blackout headlamp. By the accused's own admission it did not throw much light on the road.

Now the J.A. will tell you there is no such thing as contributory negligence in a criminal charge, the acts of the accused have to be weighed on their own.

It the Army has decreed that our vehicles will be equipped with this blackout it is up to the drivers to use the amount of caution required by the visibility given by these lights.

This visibility the accused states is ten feet, he may be exaggerating against himself, but taking this distance of ten feet I submit a driver must have his car under control at all times

Having a car under control means you must be in a position to stop it in the required length, thus, if you see the road in front of you a speed of sixty m.p.h. might not be illegal or improper, but if you do not see ahead of you I can figure where a speed of 10 m.p.h. might be negligence.

Take under the circumstances driving in a thick fog, or as on these roads a thick cloud of dust, certainly a driver who can only see ten or fifteen feet ahead of him in this is taking upon himself the liability of what may happen if he cannot stop within fifteen feet. In other words there is an area which he cannot see in which something may happen, and ignoring this is considered a case of manslaughter.

You have the evidence that at the time of the accident the accused was going 30 m.p.h., he was in 3rd gear, the speed below the high level in which gear there is more pick up and there is more braking action by the compression of the engine, but still a truck certainly cannot be stopped within five or six feet the distance at which the accused first saw the troops, I stand to be corrected if I am not right on this distance but I think it is the distance claimed by the accused, and I submit it is the duty of any driver of a car to just think ahead and to think of the possibility of something being ahead of him.

The accused tells us it was completely dark, naturally he pulls to the left hand side of the road, he has a right hand drive and has to pull over to the left of the road, and if he sees blackness and does not see what was ahead I submit he should not go ahead and if he undertakes to do so he is committing that degree of negligence that may cause manslaughter, by driving his vehicle into something unknown, into something where lives might be risked and damage might be done, I submit the accused was negligent, and that the negligence was tantamount to manslaughter in this case.

You have evidence that Pte Ralph L. Lyke was killed as a result of this accident and I submit that it was so caused by the speed at which the accused was travelling when he overtook the American vehicle.

The prosecution has not tried to establish anything other than negligence, they do not contend that he was under the influence of liquor and are satisfied that the accused was completely sober, but I submit the speed at which he was going is sufficient to warrant the Court in coming to a finding of guilty.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S CLOSING ADDRESS:

The J.A. will doubtless instruct the Court on the principles of law involved, but before going any further I would like to point out one thing which the members of the Court should bear in mind, I would refer you to MML p.58, Ch.V. para 57 "Burden of proof" quotes: Now gentlemen I think you are all familiar with that, I would just like to bring out that it is the prosecution's duty to prove the guilt of the accused he does not have to prove he is not guilty.

Now the prosecution has based their case on the assumption that the accused has been guilty of neglect and through that neglect on the part of the accused a death has resulted, a death of a human being. Again I refer to MML, page 117 a portion of para 46: "where death results from negligence it must be shown, in order to justify a conviction for manslaughter, that the negligence was so gross and culpable and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and to conduct deserving punishment". It is not sufficient for the prosecution to show negligence, they must show negligence of such a gross and culpable nature as to amount to a crime against the State. Mere simple negligence such as would suffice to collect damages in a civil suit are not sufficient, this is as far as I am going to deal with the matter.

Just one more reference to MML. As you know manslaughter may be homicide, but homicide may be either manslaughter or murder. "Homicide is excusable (1) where a man doing a lawful act, without any intention of hurt, by accident kills another" (MML, p.116, Ch. VII, para 43). In other words mere misadventure as from an accident which causes death is not punishable under the Criminal Code.

I propose to examine the evidence to see whet the accused has been guilty "of such gross and culpable negligence and shown such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and to conduct deserving punishment."

I submit when I review the evidence you will see he has not been guilty of negligence to that extent.

The first question is that of light on the vehicle. The evidence shows this; the accused first of all claims he had his lights on he claims he turned the switch and could see the glow of the lights on his vehicle, the technical storeman who was travelling with the accused claims he saw the accused turn the switch. Lieut

Gmm. 89

Warren who was leading the column of American troops says he could not say if the Canadian vehicle had lights or not, and he further claims he was momentarily blinded by the lights on the American truck, and it may be on this account he could not distinguish the much dimmer lights of the Canadian truck. Spr Johnson said he had no lights, Spr Raisen says he did not know whether the lughts were on, Sgt Black says the lights were working on the truck. Of these witnesses two say the lights were on, three say they could not say whether the lights were on or not, and the other, Sgt Black, says they were in working order. It is reasonable to say that if the lights were in working order they were on. I submit the Court should accept the word of the accused and Overkott that the lights were on if it was dark enough to justify the using of lights. Further more the prosecution has not borne the onus of proof, they have produced three witnesses who are not prepared to say the lights were on or not on the vehicle.

I think the Court can take official cognizance of the fact that the standard Canadian vehicle only has one headlight on the left.

The next thing is the condition of light at that time of day. Lieut Warren says he could only see about ten or twenty yards, but says the moon was out and the sky overcast. Lieut Gilreath who was apparently in charge of the whole column says there was no moon and it was rather dark. Pte Simpkins the driver of the American vehicle says there was still some daylight, it was not yet dark. Spr Johnson saysthere was very little light but he could see the Canadian truck behind plainly at 20 yds. Spr Raisen who was also riding on the truck, the American truck, says the moon was shining but a row of trees cast shadows on the road. The next two witnesses Cpl Geist and Major Long both state when they arrived at the scene it was dark and they needed lights but that was some time after the accident occurred, and if they arrived fifteen minutes later their evidence on that point would not be of much use. What it does boil down to is this, that there is some dispute amongst the prosecution witnesses as to whether it was dark or light; in other words it was a matter of judgment whether or not headlights were necessary, and if the Court does not accept the accused's statement that his lights were on then that is merely an error of judgment on his part and a man cannot be convicted of manslaughter on an error of judgment.

Regarding the horn. The accused says he sounded the horn. Lieut Warren says he did not hear the horn but possibly the noise of the truck drowned it out. Pte Simpkins says he heard no horn, that there was some noise from both vehicles, and that he heard the Canadian vehicle before he saw it; so I submit there again the Court can infer Pte Simpkins did not hear the horn because of the noise of the vehicles. Spr Johnson says he did not hear the horn. Spr Raisen makes the statement with reservation that he heard no horn. There are four prosecution witnesses two of whom admit they might not have heard the horn because of the noise of the vehicles, one makes a statement he heard no horn, he admits there was noise in the vehicle. The fifth witness is the accused who claims he sounded it. Again I claim the prosecution evidence is not strong enough to discharge the onus which lies upon it.

The next question is speed, the speed of the Canadian vehicle. On this the prosecution based the weight of his argument. First of all I would like to rebut one or two things Captain Desbarats said. First of all he said the accused was on guard duty the previous night but nevertheless undertook a duty the next day. I submit it is not a question of the accused undertaking a trip "he was bloody well told to go, and went" it is not a question of the accused undertaking a duty, he was detailed for duty and had to do it.

The prosecutor says the accused could not see very far ahead because of the lights being blacked out, and he says if that is so the accused was negligent in driving at such a rate of speed as to be unable to stop within the range of his vision. I submit the amount of care required of an Army driver must vary with the exigencies of the service and more risks may be taken in a theatre of operations in war time. If the Army vehicles were required to move at a speed under which they could stop within the range of vision then the war would have been much slower than it has been, take tanks and trucks on dusty roads and at night. I submit it is not fair to apply the standards of a civilian driver in peace time against an Army driver in a theatre of operations, and the standard should not be so rigid.

The speed of the Cdn vehicle. Capt Davis, RCOC officer, says that damages sustained by the Cdn vehicle are consistent with that vehicle having been driven at a high rate of speed, and on cross-examination he says the vehicle could have sustained the same damage had it been travelling quite slowly. Pte Simpkins, driver of the American truck, says the Cdn vehicle was travelling about 35 m.p.h. Spr Johnson, guessing, says 45 m.p.h. Spr Raisen says 40 m.p.h. and also admits he is not a driver. In connection with these two witnesses I would suggest that the noise of a vehicle in 3rd gear would create the impression of speed to an inexperienced person. Now Sgt Black the transport sergeant, and the accused, both claim the vehicle will not do 45 m.p.h. in 3rd gear and will only do 30 m.p.h. and I submit that is the outside speed the Court can find. The accused says he was travelling 25 to 30 m.p.h. and he says that is a guess but he estimates the speed as he was in 3rd gear.

What experience has the accused had in driving, six years in civilian life and about six months in the Army, two months driving in Italy. He has had the drivers' course in Canada, Sgt Black says the accused is a good driver, a careful driver.

The next thing I want to deal with is the precautions the accused took before trying to pass. The accused says he shifted down into 3rd gear, Spr Johnson says he thought the truck was in a middle gear. Capt Davis says it is a reasonable and sensible precaution to shift down to 3rd when passing.

The condition of the road from the plan, and the view of the scene which the Court had this morning, we know the effective road surface was about 25' wide at the point of the accident. Pte Simpkins says his truck was about 7½' wide and he was 2' from the r.h. side of the road. This would have left the accused 14½' of road space which I submit is adequate to take a 60 cwt through. The plan of the road and the view shows a straight road for 100 to 150 yds.

That review of the evidence shows the accused was not guilty of such a degree of negligence as to justify a conviction of manslaughter, his negligence was very slight, it is not that gross and culpable negligence as required for a conviction of manslaughter and I submit the Court should acquit the accused on the charge of manslaughter.

The Court consider it expedient in view of the exigencies of the service and the distance of travel involved to sit after 6.00 p.m. and complete the proceedings on this date.

At 6.05 p.m. the Court adjourn for supper

At 6.35 p.m. the Court reassemble. The accused is again brought before the Court.

The President asks the defending and prosecuting officers if they would care to comment on the question as to whether or not the Cdn vehicle having lights is a material factor in the case, having in mind that the American truck apparently had good lights.

Defending officer: I might bring forth a theory. The Americans were marching in platoons and there was considerable distance between them. Mr Warren's platoon was practically level with the American truck and it is quite possible all his troops were on the near side of the lights, that the headlights were shining behind his platoon and not far enough ahead to light up the following platoon. The accused when asked why he did not see the troops by the light of the American truck said he just did not see them.

Prosecutor: There is also a theory which I would like to put forward, first of all in answer to your question on the glare of the American truck. The accused answered that driving a r.h. drive truck he had to pull out completely before he could see in front, he was very near the American truck at that time, not more than 15 or 20'. Also another explanation on visibility; the uniform of the American troops is certainly a greenish uniform and right along the edge of the road at that point is a greenish background, it is very hard to say that the accused did see them, and as prosecutor I do not intend to submit that the accused did see them and took a chance to pass; I say he did not see;and you make a manoeuvre with your truck which you should not have made it is negligence, if he had seen it would almost amount to a greater offence.

SUMMING UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE:

It is my duty as Judge Advocate on this case to sum up for you, particularly so far as the law is concerned.

So far as the facts of the case are concerned, although I have the right to comment on them, and even to give my opinion on them, yet you are not bound by that in any way. You will make your own inferences from the facts and put your own interpretation on them. I prefer to leave the facts to you and deal briefly with the law involved in this case, and should I express any opinion on the facts you may disregard this entirely, as you, gentlemen, are more qualified than I am to interpret the facts because you represent different branches of the Service, all have had considerable experience, and in a case of this kind I prefer to leave questions of fact to you.

The homicide case is always a difficult one for a Court and that is particularly true in what are known as "motor manslaughter cases" as there are no hard and fast rules to guide the Court, and determining whether the degree of negligence is sufficient to warrant a conviction or not is a very difficult one for a Court.

The charge is manslaughter, I will read the charge again to refresh your memory on it. (reads charge).

The charge is manslaughter, or unlawful killing another man, this is what is known as a civil offence and laid under Section 41 of the Army Act which permits military courts to try soldiers for offences under English law.

Possibly the most succint definition of manslaughter is that contained in MML. P.116, Ch.VII, para 46, as amended by Amdt No 14: "It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter." That is the general definition of manslaughter.

Now one type of manslaughter is the type of manslaughter alleged here which alleges negligence on the part of the accused. Now then, the question is, and it is the question which will concern the Court most, the degree of negligence necessary to constitute the offence of manslaughter, and I will read to you from "Archbold p.882 with regard to the degree of negligence necessary to constitute the offence. (reads from Archbold on "negligence"). In other words it must be a much greater degree of negligence than would entitle one party to succeed in a claim for damages against another for the death of a person or injury to a property, it must have been such negligence, such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State. That is, such negligence that the State is warranted in intervening in order to give the required punishment.

Now there is some mention in this case, and I think I should deal with this point, that troops were marching without any light showing anything to indicate their approach, marching along the road in column of threes. As I think the prosecutor pointed out, if there was any indication of negligence on the part of the deceased or on the part of those under whose orders he was acting, this is not available as a defence for the accused in this case. Criminal action is different from civil action; in civil action two vehicles collide and one driver sues the other for damage, if the person sued can show that the man suing was negligent and contributed to the accident and cause of damage there is liability on the part of the person suing on account of the contributory negligence, but that is not so in criminal cases.

There have been some cases where a man lying on a road drunk has been run over by a vehicle and killed and in such cases there have been convictions for manslaughter. There is no question but that the man lying on the road contributed to his own death, but that is not a defence.

In considering whether the accused was grossly negligent in this case the Court must have regard to all the surrounding circumstances, the speed of the vehicle, the lighting, the sounding of the horn and all such factors. With regard to the lights for example, you will have to consider not only whether or not the lights on the accused's car were burning, but also, even if not lit, that fact had any bearing on this event. The President has mentioned that point and it was discussed.

There are no hard and fast rules regarding the degree of negligence required to constitute manslaughter, each case stands on its own feet. First of all was there any negligence on the part of the accused at all? If so, was it as serious as to warrant a conviction of manslaughter? An act of negligence warranting conviction under one set of circumstances might not under another. Certainly if two vehicles are racing each other along a highway and a pedestrian is killed as a result that would obviously be manslaughter, but every killing on a highway by a motor vehicle is not necessarily manslaughter. Take the case of a person driving a vehicle in a proper manner through a village and a child without warning jumps from the sidewalk into the path of the vehicle and is killed, that, under the circumstances, would be a pure accident; nothing could have been done to prevent it. If there was no negligence it was what the defending officer termed misadventure. On the other hand if a man is driving a vehicle through a village and the sidewalks are crowded with people who are here and there crossing the road, say there is a fete day in the town, in that case there is a special duty to take care, the chances of causing death should have been foreseen and even if the accused were driving within the speed limit yet if the Court determined he was driving too fast under the circumstances existing at the time and ran into a person stepping off the sidewalk and killed him, a conviction of manslaughter would probably be warranted.

Another element is the extent of use of a highway, whether a driver could reasonably expect other traffic or pedestrians on the road, the test on a back woods country road is not the same as on a road through a town.

Now I might mention another example where a conviction of manslaughter would not be warranted, say where a driver is suddenly confronted by a situation that he could not be expected to have foreseen. He has to respond immediately and turns right instead of left, and because he did so runs on to the sidewalk and kills someone, whereas had he turned the other way there would have been no accident. The death was caused by an error of judgment on his part; his speed was proper, something unforeseen occurred and through an error of judgment he turned the wrong way.

Now I think gentlemen it is further my duty to tell you that on a charge of manslaughter under English law, and it is English law rather than Canadian that governs our military courts, under English law a person charged with manslaughter may be found guilty of reckless or dangerous driving under the Road Traffic Act of England, Sec 11, and I will read that to you (Archbold p.951) "If any person drives a motor vehicle on a road recklessly, or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition and use of the road, and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time, or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, he shall be liable -". That is for reckless or dangerous driving. Now therefore I say should the Court consider that there was negligence, but not such gross or culpable negligence as to warrant a conviction for manslaughter, yet they may enter a conviction under that Section for reckless or dangerous driving, not both. There is no definition of these terms, one action might be considered reckless, another dangerous. I do not think there is much difference between the two terms, there is no definite distinction drawn between them in the Section.

Perhaps I might give you an example of what would be reckless driving rather than manslaughter; a case where one vehicle is passing another vehicle which is being passed after receiving due w warning and this other vehicle suddenly turns out in front of the overtaking vehicle to prevent his passing, causing the overtaking vehicle in order to avoid him to go on to the sidewalk. Let us assume the overtaking vehicle was going at an excessive rate of speed; he could have got safely by had not the vehicle being over-taken done the act it did. In this case I think the Court could acquit of manslaughter and convict of reckless driving, although it is true the excessive speed was not the immediate cause of the accident.

I hardly need to mention to the Court that although it is unfortunate that the persons killed belong to a Force other than our own, although it would still have been serious if it had happened to our own forces, yet the Court will not convict the man on that account unless they consider him guilty of a crime; and I am sure our American friends would be the last to suggest a Court should convict a man merely because he killed some of their people if the Court were not satisfied he committed a crime. Their criminal law is essentially the same as our own; the question of policy as distinct from law should not be allowed to interfere with your judgment.

The accused of course is innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; you must take a calm and cool view of the whole evidence, and if, after taking that view, as reasonable men you have doubts as to the accused's guilt you should acquit him. A reasonable doubt is not one conjured up by mental gymnastics, it means a sound sensible doubt as you would have in your ordinary business affairs or in your military affairs.

I am not going to review the evidence and I will now leave the matter in your hands.

The Court adjourn to consider the finding

The Prosecutor produces Statement as to Character and Particulars of Service and Certified True Copy of Conduct Sheet purporting to refer to the accused which he submits to the Defending Officer for examination and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused because they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g)(h) and (ii) they purport to refer to a soldier having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Exhibits "U" and "V" respectively.

Q-616 Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement and Conduct Sheet and in mitigation of punishment.
A-616 (By Defending Officer) I wish to call one character witness before making a plea in mitigation of punishment.

Sworn

At about 2100 hours, 5 May, I was heading towards route 6, in Serie [illegible]. I had just driven from Morvan. I passed through Chateau Gonthier down the hill and passed by an intersection at the bottom of the hill. I had not seen any troops on the road up until this time. I only had blackout lights on, and couldn't see very good, but I saw the taillight on a truck in front of my vehicle. I cut over to the left of the highway to pass this vehicle. I was driving at about 30 M.P.H. at this time. When I pulled out around this truck I first saw some soldiers. It was a formation of soldiers marching 3 abreast. I stepped on the brake, and in doing so swerved into the side of the truck I was attempting to pass. My vehicle ricochet off the other truck into the first platoon of troops. My truck came to a stop facing west on the left side of the road. I got out of the truck and started to help give some of the injured soldiers aid. After all the injured men were taken away I had my interpreter [illegible] I was brought to the American camp and held in the M.P. guard until morning to wait the arrival of Lt. Greenwall the liaison officer at Chateau Gonthier. I did not see any troops around my truck in front of the soldiers. I had one bottle of wine at around 5:00 p.m. a friend of mine at camp. I did not have any wine to drink at any time. Overseas who was riding with me had several bottles of wine at around. The night before I had been on guard from 1900 hours until 0700 hours in the M.P. 2 hours on, and 4 hours off. We left our camp at about 0900 hours and outside of a shop for a short rest to [illegible] I had been driving all day. At the time of the accident I was not sleepy.

PROSECUTOR'S OPENING ADDRESS:

The prosecution intends to prove in this case that on the 5 MAY 44 at approximately 2030 hrs the accused was driving a Canadian 3 ton Chevrolet truck No CL-4239467 along Highway 87 coming from Telesi and going towards Highway No 6, proceeding West.

He was on duty, and at a certain place along the road between Piano di Caiazzo and the 2nd Replacement Depot, U.S. Army, he overtook an American truck. In doing so he had to go on the left hand side of the road, we will prove that he was going at a speed which was a minimum at least of 30 m.p.h. He had on his vehicle what is know as "blackout lights", and when overtaking this vehicle he suddenly came within a few yards of a body of American troops who were marching Easterly on their right hand side of the road three abreast.

The accused tried to avoid them by pulling to the right and in so doing side-swiped the American truck and careening off it into the troops killed some of the troops and injured others, and killed amongst others an American soldier ASN 42022162 Pvt Ralph L. Lyke, of the 439th Company, 33rd Replacement Bn, U.S.Army, thereby committing manslaughter, and I now intend to call witnesses to prove this fact.

Exhibit "W"

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

An examination of the conduct of the accused which my friend submitted does not show he is what one would call a hardened criminal; it is true there are several entries on his conduct sheet but the most are merely minor offences.

There is a charge of AWL of 1 hr and 10 mins, the next is an AWL charge and missing a duty, the next is the most serious one "leaving his post without being properly relieved", and then a charge under Sec 40 of being out after curfew without a pass, another AWL charge of 1 hr, and the last one under Sec 40 appearing on parade unshaven.

None of these are to my mind vicious crimes which would lead the Court to impose a severe sentence for this offence, and I would ask that the Court in awarding sentence exercise the utmost leniency.

The accused is unmarried.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-119503 Private V.V EMMONS, 1 Cdn Corps And Army Tps Sub Pk RCOC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

2nd Lt Robert D. Warren, 33rd Repl Bn, Second Repl Depot, APO 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn stated:-

On the 5 May 44 at 2030 hours, the 33rd Repl Bn started a night march with Training Platoon "A" leading. I was marching in front of "A" Platoon. We went out the West Gate of Camp, turned right and went east on Highway 87 on the right side of the road. We were marching in column of threes. At about 2100 hours, I saw the lights of an approaching truck, travelling West, in opposite direction to our column. I judged it to be travelling at about 20 to 25 m.p.h. It was keeping well over to its side of the road. I did not see nor hear anything behind that truck owing to its noise and being blinded by its headlights, until this truck was just a few yards, that is approx 10 to 12 yards in front of us, then I could make out the faint outline of another truck, running without lights, attempting to pass the first truck. The driver evidently saw us at the same time because he pulled over to the right to try and avoid hitting us, side-swiping the first truck. He then apparently lost control of his vehicle and drove in to the column, and then into the ditch. Just was I saw the second truck, attempting to pass the first one, I jumped forward and faced the troops and tried to order them off the road but as soon as I turned arou nd the second truck was side swiping the first one and then drove into the column, near the head of it, angling off towards the rear and ending in the ditch. I sent the first truck to notify the M.P.'s and then a attended to the injured. About 10 minutes later ambulances arrived on the scene.
I was on the very first rank of the whole column, with the platoon sergeant on my right. There were no scouts in front of the column. Blackout discipline was maintained on the march and there was no lights showing and no talking.
There were 49 men in "A" Platoon making 16 ranks of three behind the Sgt and myself. Platoon "B" would have the same effective.
After looking after the injured, I took particulars of the truck which hit the column and found it was a Canadian 3-ton Chevrolet truck #CL 4239467. On the rig right front fender was serial number 69.
According to the nominal roll of my platoon, the men mentioned in Exhibits "A", "B", "C", "D", "E", "F", "G" and "H" died following that accident. Also the men mentioned in Exhibit "I" belong to my platoon and suffered injuries that night.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q-1 Are you positive I had no lights on my truck?
A-1 I did not see any.

Q-2 Is it not possi ble I had dim lights and you would not have seen them?
A-2 It may be possible but I did not see any lights.

Q-3 Did you hear the sound of a horn being blown?
A-3 No.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution. 2nd Lt Dale E. GILREATH, 439 Repl Coy, 33 Repl Bn, 2nd Repl Depot, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:

On the evening of 5 May 44, at 2030 hours, the 439th Company started on a night march. I stood at the Initial Point, checking my platoons as they marched by. Upon reaching the West gate of the Camp, the column turned east on Highway 87, marching on the right hand side of the road in column of threes. We marched for about 20 minutes, covering approx ½ mile. After my company had passed the initial point, I started marching towards the head of the column. When I was about 100 to 150 yards from the head of the column, I heard a crashing noise and ran up the rest of the way to the head of the column and there I saw that a truck had hit the column, running into "A" platoon injuring most of the men of the platoon. I immediately sent for ambulances.

The truck was either British or Canadian, being a right hand drive. I later ascertained it was a Canadian 3-ton lorry. When the accident happened it was approx 2100 hours. It was dark and I don't believe the moon was out. I did not see the lorry coming, I only saw it when it was stopped in the ditch. I did not see any lights on it.

"A" Platoon was led by 2nd Lt Robert D. Warren. It was leading the whole column. There were no lights in front of the column as we are not allowed to have any on tactical route marches.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Dale E. Gilreath) 2nd Lt Inf.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution.

Pvt Jerold SIMPKINS, 36149870, HQ Coy, 2nd Repl. Depot, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:-

"On 5 May 44, at approx 2045 hours, I was driving a 2½-ton 6 x 6 truck #W-451938, West on Route 87 at about 15 m.p.h. About 1 mile east of the west gate Road, a Canadian truck tried to pass me. At that moment I was meeting a column of troops marching four abreast in the opposite direction from me, on my left-hand side of the road. While passing me, this truck hit the left front wheel and fender of my own truck then it seemed to lose control and bounced into the troops, ending up into the ditch on the south side of Highway #87. I immediately stopped my vehicle. When I looked at the other vehicle I saw it was a 3-ton Canadian truck. I would say this truck was going at approx 30 m.p.h. while passing me. I had two clear headlights on my truck. At no time did I hear a horn blown. I did not hear any noise but that of the crashing on the side of my truck.

This Canadian truck hit the 2nd platoon from the head of the column. I remained on the scene for a short time, going to notify the M.P.'s about 5 to 10 minutes later. I did not have anything to do with attending to the injured. While the Cdn truck was passing my own I did not see any glare from its headlights.

I did not see any advance scouts ahead of the column. Before meeting the troops when they were approx 150 yards ahead of me, I saw a light blinking either from a flash-light or from a reflection of my own headlights.

I had a red light showing at the back of my truck. I had just rounded a curve when I first saw the troops at approx 150 yards in front. It is immediately after that the truck passed me.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1 Were the troops not marching three abreast?
A-1 From what I saw, the head column was marching four abreast.

Q-2 Are you positive I hit the second platoon?
A-2 You hit the tailend of the first platoon and head of the second platoon.

Q-3 Do you say I had no lights on?
A-3 You may have had lights on, but I did not see any reflection as my own lights were burning and I did not turn around to see.

Q-4 Would you say I did not sound my horn?
A-4 You may have sounded your horn, but I did not hear it, as I was inside the cab of my truck.

Q-5 How far were you from the curve when I overtook you?
A-5 I had just passed the first culvert west of the curve.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

1891557 Sapper H. Johnson, 256 Field Coy, RE, having been duly sworn, states:

On 5 May 44 at about 2045 hrs I was travelling on an American truck. It was an open truck and I was sitting in the back facing in the direction in which we were going. We were proceeding at about 15 m.p.h. About half way from PIANO di CAIAZZO and the 2nd Repl Depot I heard the noise of a truck about 20 yards behind us on the left side of the road ready to overtake us. I did not notice the sound of any horn. I turned around and saw a 3-ton truck with a tarpaulin over it. I did not pay much attention to its lights. I cannot say whether its lights were on or not.

I reckoned its speed to be about 45 m.p.h.

I turned around again and suddenly noticed troops marching on the road, three abreast, in the opposite direction to ours and on the opposite side of the road. They showed no lights. At that moment the 3-ton truck was overtaking us and side swiped our own on the left hand front wheel, bouncing off to the left and knocking the troops over. It finished up in the ditch on the side of the road where the troops were marching. The American truck was well into the right-hand side of the road. I heard the sound of brakes being applied on the 3-ton truck just as he was trying to overtake us.

Cross examined by the accused

Q-1 Are you positive this truck was going 45 m.p.h.
A-1 I am just reckoning. It may have been slower but was going pretty fast.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution

153578 Sapper T. Raisen, 256 Fd Coy RE, having been duly sworn, states:

On 5 May 44, at about 2045, I was travelling on the back of an American open truck proceeding on Highway 87 towards CAPUA at about 10 to 15 miles per hour. I was sitting and facing more to the back of the truck. At a certain time I noticed a truck coming behind us. I did not notice any lights on it. He started to overtake us then secured to come right onto our side, touched the side of our truck then bounced off into the ditch, hitting some troops which were marching on the other side of the road in the opposite direction. I did not notice any lights with the troops.

X-X Cross-examined by the accused

Q-1 Are you positive there were no lights on?
Q-2 All I can say, I did not notice any lights on.

SIXTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Corporal Lawrence GEIST, 33568199, M.P. detachment 2nd Repl Depot, A.P.O. 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the 5 May 44, at about 2050 hours, acting on information received I proceeded in the first of some ambulances to the scene of an accident which happened on Highway 87, approx 1 mile east of the west gate of our Camp. On arriving, I saw troops standing around on the road. There were several soldiers lying on the ground and a truck in the ditch on the South side of the road.

I remained on the scene till all the troops and casualties had been removed. Four of us M.P.'s stayed at the scene and another M.P. sent to get a wrecker.

Sgt Chardinet and myself walked approx 15 feet West of the truck where we saw a soldier standing.

On approaching him, this soldier asked me, "What will I do?", I said, "Who are you?". He replied, "I am the driver of the vehicle." Sgt Chardenet then took the soldier to the Provost Marshall's Office. When I first saw this soldier it was 2248 hours.

At that time I could not recognize this soldier.

When I arrived at the scene of the accident it was not very light.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SEVENTH WITNESS
for the

B-131235 Pte W.P. OVERKOTT, 1 Cdn Corps and Army Tps Sub Pk RCOC, having been duly sworn, states:-

On 5 May 44 I was a passenger in a Canadian 3-ton Chevrolet lorry driven by the accused. I was sitting in the front seat, on the left as the vehicle is right hand drive. We were coming back from 67 LAD which was located about 15 miles east of TELESE. We left there in the middle of the afternoon and arrived at AMOROSI around 1700 to 1800 hours. We stayed at AMOROSI about one hour and then started on our way back to our unit. During that hour in AMOROSI we took a rest in the cab of the lorry. I only got out once to try and get some onions. I was gone about 10 minutes. In one of the towns I purchased a glass of wine from a boy and drank it on the spot. That was very early in the afternoon before we went to the 67 LAD. That is all I had to drink that day. The accused to my knowledge did not have any drinks of any kind that day. After we left AMOROSI, I went to sleep. When I woke up I was on a table in an American hospital.

At some time after we left AMOROSI the accused switched on the headlights. It was not very dark then and I could not notice much of the glare.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

EIGHT WITNESS for the prosecution

Captain R.L. Davis, 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wkshop RCOC, having been duly sworn states:

I examined Vehicle #CL4239467 on the 12th May 44 and the brakes on that vehicle were in satisfactory condition. The present condition of the vehicle makes a road test impossible, but this statement is based on the fact that there is approximately 2 inches of pedal clearance, and further, the full effect of the braking system is not utilized without the engine running, due to the booster brake system. The damage to the vehicle was very slight.

Major Norman G. LONG, M.C. #0290255 - 2nd Repl. Depot, A.P.O. 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn, states:

At or about 2115 hours on 5 May 1944, I was advised there had been an accident near the camp and that several ambulances had been despatched there. I proceeded to the scene of the accident, which was on highway 87, approx one mile east of the West Gate of the camp. I brought additional medical aid with me. By the time I arrived, first aid had been given but there were approx 12 men unattended, lying on the side of the road, and three others on the other side of the culvert, partially attended. I saw 4 or 5 bodies in the ditch under the body of a truck which was straddling the ditch on the South side of the road. I pronounced these men dead. I then supervised and co-ordinated the first aid squads which by that time were placing the injured on litters and applying splints where indicated and giving first aid as required. Later on that evening, while assisting at 74 Station Hospital I ascertained that seven men were brought in dead on arrival and an eight man died early the following morning.

Due to the number of injured, I am unable to specify individual cases or identities.

On 5 May 44 at approx 2100 hours, acting on information received I proceeded to the scene of an accident which happened on highway 87, approx one third mile east of the West gate of our Camp.

Upon arriving at the scene of the accident I found a Canadian Army 3-ton truck, serial #CL-4239467 headed in a westerly direction and with both front wheels in the ditch on the south side of the highway, and that a large number of American soldiers were scattered over the road way and in the ditch on the south side of the road. The head of one soldier was wedged in between the left front tire of the 3-ton truck and the south bank of the ditch on the south side of the highway. Ambulances from the 2nd Repl Depot and the 74th Station Hospital arrived soon afterwards and the wou wounded and the dead American soldiers and one Canadian soldier were removed to the 74th Station Hospital.

I detailed my M.P.'s to halt and direct traffic and render whatever assistance possible for them so to do.

I secured a wrecking truck from the 17th Light Recovery Section R.E.M.E. to remove the Canadian truck.

At about 2315 hours, that same even, Sgt Chardenet brought a Canadian Soldier to my office where he was identified by his driver's license as: C-119503 Pte V. Emmens, whom I recognize as the accused.

I got back to my office at about 2400 hours and there I saw the accused. I did not smell his breath nor did I have him medically examined as he appeared sober.

After the scene of the accident had been cleared and prior to the removal of the truck I made a thorough search and examination of the surrounding area.

There were no skid marks whatsoever on the road way.

Subject:- Petition - in the matter of the Trial of C 119503 Pte EMMONS, V Cdn. Corps & Army Troops Sub Park, R.C.O.C. by Court Martial, and in the matter of Para. 574 of the King's Regulations & Orders for the Canadian Militia, 1939.

To:- The Superior Military Authority,
Cdn Sec. 1st Ech A.A.I.
(through Commendant, 56 Military Prison and Detention Barracks)

The petition of C 119503 Private Victor EMMONS, 1 Cdn Corps and Army Troops Sub Park, R.C.O.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army on Active Service, sheweth:-

(1) On the 17th day of May 1944 your petitioner was tried by General Court Martial on the following charge:-

> When on active service, when in a place not within his Majesty's Dominions, committing a civil offence, that is to say manslaughter, > in that he in the field in Italy on the 5th day of May 1944, unlawfully killed ASN 42024162 Pvt. Ralph L. LYKE, 439 Company, 33rd Replacement Battalion, United States Army,

(2) At the trial upon the conclusion of the prosecution and defence, the Court closed to consider its finding, and upon re-opening the President informed your petitioner that the finding of the Court was subject to confirmation by the Confirming Authority, and that upon confirmation the finding would be promulgated. The Court then proceeded to hear evidence as to the character of your petitioner.

(3) The circumstances leading to the trial of your petitioner, as disclosed in the evidence of the prosecution witnesses and in the sworn testimony of your petitioner, are as follows:-

On the 5th day of May 1944 at about 2045 hrs your petitioner was driving a Chevrolet 60 cwt. lorry West along Route 87 about five miles west of CIAZZO. At this time a company of soldiers of the United States Army was on a night tactical march, proceeding in column of threes in an Easterly direction along route 87 and marching on their right-hand side of the road. At a point about one mile East of No 2 Replacement Depot, U.S. Army, your petitioner commenced to overtake and pass a U.S. Army lorry. As the Canadian lorry came abreast of the American lorry, your petitioner noticed a few feet in front of his vehicle, the leading men of the company of marching soldiers. An attempt to avert an accident was made by applying brakes and turning to the right, but the Canadian vehicle made contact with the American vehicle and then bounced into the marching troops, killing eight soldiers including the deceased named in the charge.

(4) The prosecution sought to prove that your petitioner was negligent in the following respects, and so guilty of manslaughter:-

(a) In driving at night without having the headlight on, or

(b) If his headlight was on, in driving at such a speed as to be unable to stop within the limited range of that headlight.

and

(c) In attempting to overtake and pass another vehicle without first sounding his horn.

5. An examination of the evidence adduced at the trial, disclosed the following:-

Your petitioner, giving evidence under oath, stated he had switched on his headlight and maintained this under cross-examination by the prosecutor. He further more stated he saw the glow from his headlight on the road.

The prosecution witness OVERCOTT, who was riding in the cab of the Canadian vehicle as a passenger, stated he saw the accused switch on the headlight. The prosecution witness 2nd Lieut. WARREN stated he saw no headlight on the Canadian vehicle, but admitted he was temporarily blinded by the two headlights, of the American truck, which were not fitted with blackout single headlight masks, which might account for his failure to see the Canadian vehicle black-out single headlight. This witnessasaid in cross examination he "could not see beyond the first trunk" i.e., the American lorry. Lieut. WARREN was leading the marching soldiers.

The prosecution witness, Spr JOHNSON, riding as a passenger on the back of the American truck, stated he did not notice if the headlight on the Canadian vehicle was on or not.

The prosecution witness, Spr HAIGEN, also riding as a passenger on the back of the American truck stated he noticed no lights on the Canadian vehicle for damage after the accident, stated it was equipped with the Standard Ordnance black-out mask.

The prosecution witness, Sjt, BLACK, transport Sjt. of your petitioners unit, stated the vehicle was fitted with the standard blackout mask having the latest modification authorized, i.e. increased size of slot, and that the lights were in working order when it left on this trip.

An analysis of the above shows that the prosecution did not produce a single witness who could state positively and without equivocation that the headlight of your petitioner's vehicle was not alight. On the contrary the weight of evidence tends to show that the headlight was alight - the driver swears he switched it on and expert evidence by the transport Sjt. shows the light was in working order. It is only reasonable to suppose that, if a driver has a headlight in working order and he is travelling in the dark, will use that light.

(b). Range of Headlight and Speed.

The prosecution witness Capt DAVIS, a qualified expert stated, the range of visibility for headlight equipped with modified standard Ordnance blackout mask was thirty yards.

The petitioner himself stated he "guessed he could see about ten feet". Your petitioner estimated his own speed to be from twenty five to thirty miles per hour, basing his estimate on the fact that he had shifted gears down to third gear before commencing to overtake the American truck.

The prosecution witness, Pte SIMPKINS, driver of the American truck said the Canadian vehicle was going at thirty miles per hour. This witness said that just as he saw the front part of the Canadian vehicle, it hit the front end of his truck. Surely not a sufficient length of time to make even a fair estimate, of the speed. The witness Spr JOHNSON, said the Canadian was travelling at forty five miles per hour, admits this is a pure guess, and stated he does not drive. This witness also stated that the Canadian truck sounded as if it were in middle gear, from the noise of the engine.

The witness Spr RAISEN, said the Canadian vehicle was going at about forty miles per hour, and also admitted he was no driver. It is suggested that JOHNSON and RAISEN, being inexperienced as drivers, based their estimation of the speed on the noise of the racing engine while the Canadian vehicle was travelling in third gear.

The witness Sjt BLACK, a qualified expert testified that a Chevrolet 60 cwt lorry will not travel at a speed of forty-five miles per hour while in 3rd Gear, stating the maximum speed possible would be "about thirty miles per hour".

From the above it will be seen that the evidence shows your petitioner visibility to have been anything from ten feet to thirty yards. In so far as the speed of the Canadian vehicle is concerned, the prosecution produced two inexperienced persons who guess the speed at forty and forty five miles per hour, and the American driver who estimates thirty miles per hour after a momentary glimpse of the front part of the truck. The petitioner himself based his speed on the fact that he was travelling in third gear and gave the highest possible peeed he could have been travelling. This estimate of twenty five to thirty is substantiated by the expert evidence of Sjt BLACK.

The following shows that the prosecution failed to discharge the onus upon it of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that your petitioner was travelling at such a speed as to be unable to stop within the limited range of his headlight.

The prosecution produced no evidence to show that a Chevrolet 60 cwt lorry travelling in 3rd gear at a speed of twenty-five to thirty miles per hour cannot be stopped within a distance of anywhere from ten feet to thirty yards. On the contrary, the prosecution's witness, Sjt BLACK stated such a vehicle could be stopped within ten feet if travelling on a good tarmac road surface, such as this was.

(c) Horn

The petitioner stated under oath he sounded his horn before commencing to overtake the American vehicle. Lieut. WARREN says he heard nothing behind the American vehicle owing to its noise and could not say whether the Canadian vehicle sounded its horn.

Pte SIMPKINS, says he did not hear a horn blown, but admits there was a noise from both vehicles and that he heard the Canadian vehicle before he saw it. Spr JOHNSON says he heard the Canadian vehicle approaching before he saw it and admits he might not have heard the horn because of the noise of the vehicle engines.

Spr RAISEN says he heard no horn.

Again it is submitted, an analysis of the above evidence will show that the prosecution produced no witness who can say positively that the petitioner did not sound his horn.

There is only the negative statements that the witnesses did not hear a horn, and two admit the noise of the vehicle may have overcome the sound of a horn. Opposed to this is the sworn statement of the petitioner, maintained under cross-examination, that he did sound his horn. It is submitted that the weight of evidence is in favour of the petitioner.

6. An examination of the evidence shows that your petitioner exercised reasonable care and caution in attempting to pass the American vehicle.

(a) It is established that he shifted gears down the third gear which both Capt DAVIS and Pte SIMPKINS, experienced drivers, admitted is a reasonable and sensible precaution to take when overtaking and passing another vehicle.

(b) A plan of the road at the scene of the accident, submitted in evidence by the prosecution, shows this effective width of the road at this place to be twenty-four feet and one half feet wide, and that he was within two feet of his side of the road. This, then, left the Canadian truck a width of fourteen and one half feet of road space in which to pass.

It is submitted that the petitioner exercised such a degree of care as was reasonable, taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case. It is further submitted that the driver of an army vehicle engaged on military duties in a theatre of operations during war-time should not have applied to him the same standard of care as is required of a driver of a vehicle during peacetime. If this standard were required and enforced the progress of the war would be slowed to an infinitesimal pace. Consideration should also be given to the fact that the petitioner had down two, two hour tour of guard duty the night of 4/5 May, had set out on an ordnance delivery route at 0900 hrs. 5 May and had driven at least 160 miles over a period of 12 hours. He had no relief driver with him and when he thought he was tired he stopped and rested by "dosing" in the cab. When he considered himself sufficiently rested he continued on his way. If he was still suffering from fatigue and this fatigue was the cause of him not seeing the marching troops, then this was merely an error in judgment on his part and not negligence and he must not be convicted of manslaughter for a mere error of judgment.

7. To justify a conviction for manslaughter on the grounds of negligence, the onus is on the prosecution to prove the accused to be guilty of such gross and culpable negligence as to amount to a crime against the State and to conduct deserving punishment.

It is submitted that, at the most, the prosecution proved that merely simple negligence not amounting to the gross and culpable negligence required to be proven to justify a conviction for manslaughter and it is further submitted that the finding of the Court is against the evidence and the weight of evidence it ought to have acquitted your petitioner.

8. I wish to emphasize the fact that I was absolutely sober, and had not been drinking at all.

9. During the period of which I have been driving namely two years I have never been picked up for reckless driving.

10. Under the circumstances the accident was unadvoidable, it would have happened to anybody.

Dated in the field this 4th day of September, 1944.

Your obedient Servant,

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. 2nd Lieut Robert D. Warren, 33rd Repl Bn, 2nd Repl Depot, U.S. Army, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor

Q-9 Please identify yourself to the Court
A-9 I am 2 Lieut Robert D. Warren, assigned to training 33 Bn, 2 Repl Depot

Q-10 Could you tell the Court in your own words all you know about an automobile accident which happened on the 5 MAY 44
A-10 The battalion assembled that night about eight o'clock and moved out at 8.25 so as to cross the I.P. (identified as Initial Point) at 8.30. At 8.30 we crossed, I was leading "A" platoon, we went out the west gate, turned right on Highway 87. We were marching on Highway 87 in column of threes on the right side of the road, blackout discipline was maintained throughout the march, we showed no lights and there was no talking or noise making in the column. We marched about 20 minutes or so when I saw the lights of a truck approaching, we were marching East, the truck was travelling West. This truck was keeping to the right side of the road, he had his headlights on, I judge this truck to have been travelling about 25 m.p.h. I could see nothing behind him. Just as the truck was almost in front of us, about 12 yards, I could make out a second truck running without lights attempting to pass the one with the headlights. I immediately wanted to get the troops off the road and I sort of jumped forward, and evidently the truck driver saw us at the same time, because as I jumped forward and turned around I could see he pulled over to the right and attempted to avoid us, and as I turned around the trucks were almost opposite me and I could hear the crash as he side swiped the other truck, then he came right by me evidently lost control of his truck and drove into the column of troops

Q-11 What happened then?
A-11 He drove into the column of troops and ended up in the ditch where he stopped, the first truck stopped after he side-swiped it, and we sent to the R.A.P.Station for ambulances. I went around to the wounded and tried to give them sulfanalamide tablets and also warned the men not to move them

Q-12 What casualties were there
A-12 That night seven were killed and twenty four wounded and the next morning another one died

Q-13 Was A8N 42024162 Pvt Ralph L.Lyke a member of that platoon
A-13 Well sir, Lyke was, I might check up the roster of the platoon and see if he was one of the soldiers killed as a result of this accident' Yes, Pte Lyke was one of the men killed by that vehicle.

Q-14 Where was your position on the march
A-14 I was on the left hand side of the column

A-15 In the very first rank
A-15 Yes

Q-16 Was there anyone in front of you
A-16 There was nobody in front of me at all

Q-17 How many ranks were behind you
A-17 Sixteen in ranks of threes

Q-18 Did you take anyparticulars about the truck which drove into the column
A-18 I took the number of the truck, and the number I learned later was the convoy number "69" on the right front fender

Q-19 What kind of a truck was it
A-19 I learned later it was a Chevrolet

Q-20 Did you ascertain the serial number of the truck
A-20 I took the serial number but I do not have it now, it was a CL number

Q-21 (Referring to witness' statement in the summary of evidence) Was it CL-4239467
A-21 I copied it down when I made the statement from the slip of paper I had noted it down on

Q-22 Did you examine the truck when it was in the ditch
A-22 No I did not

Q-23 Did you notice anything about the lights on the truck
A-23 No, I did not see any lights on the truck

Q-24 I show you here Exhibit "H", a plan of part of Highway 87, this plan shows two diagrams of the road, one on a scale of 1/5000 and the other on a scale of 5 chs to 1", would you mark on the plan the exact scene of the accident, on the large scale one first
A-24 (Marking diagram) It was just west of a little culvert bridge over the highway, about as marked on the plan

At 10.40 a.m. the Court adjourns and proceeds with the witness, the prosecutor, defending officer and the accused to view the scene of the accident

Witness explains the scene of the accident to the Court and marks on photographs exhibits "J" and "L" a cross to indicate the point at which the accident occurred, the road plan Exhibit "H" is also marked with a cross by the witness locating the scene of the accident

At 11.15 a.m. the Court reassembles, the accused is again brought before the Court, the examination of the third witness for the prosecution continues.

Cross-examined by defending officer

Q-25 How long had you been at this camp prior to the time you set out on the march that night
A-25 I arrived on 21 MAR 44, about six weeks

Q-26 Had you been on night marches before
A-26 Yes sir

Q-27 You were familiar with that road?
A-27 Yes

Q-28 What was the condition of the road that night
A-28 It was dry

Q-29 What was the density of traffic
A-29 Not heavier than ordinary, there were vehicles passing back and forth

Q-30 The condition of the light at this time, it was about nine O'clock, was it a dark night
A-30 There was a moon but it was overcast, quite cloudy, once in a while a little bright moonlight and then overcast

Q-31 Could you give an estimate how far ahead a person that night could see without lights
A-31 It is just a guess sir, I would say, 25, 30 or 40 yards

Q-32 Could you see the culvert from where you were at that time
A-32 I did not see it, at the time the truck with the headlights was coming towards us and I was particularly watching the truck

Q-33 Did I understand you to say you were observing blackout discipline on the march
A-33 Yes, we had no light at the head of the column or at the tail

Q-34 Was that the normal way
A-34 It was the normal way

Q-35 Has it been changed
A-35 It has since been changed

Q-36 I understood you to say you were blinded by the light of the first truck, was this for any length of time or momentarily
A-36 As long as I looked at that truck I could not see anything else

Q-37 What sort of lights had this other truck
A-37 They were not blacked out, both lights were on

Q-38 Did these headlights light up the road in front of the first truck adequately
A-38 Well, adequately for that truck, I would say he could see 25 or 30 yds ahead of him with those lights

Q-39 How fast would you say that truck was going
A-39 Roughly 25 m.p.h.

Court: This is the American truck you refer to Witness: Yes sir, the American truck

Q-40 What was the first sign you saw of the second truck
A-40 Just an outline of the cab and the top of the canopy, I saw that

Q-41 Could you hear it coming

A-41 No sir I could not hear it

Q-42 Did you make an estimate of the speed of the Canadian truck at the time it was passing
A-42 There again it would be a guess

Q-43 The American truck was going you say about 25 m.p.h., was the Cdn truck overhauling it rapidly
A-43 Not very rapidly, he was going to pass it, I would say about 35 m.p.h. for the Cdn truck

Q-44 Did you hear the Cdn truck being shifted down in gear
A-44 No sir I did not hear that, there was too much noise from the other truck I could not distinguish any shifting of gears

Questioned by the J.A.

Q-45 How many men were marching altogether in the column
A-45 Actually I do not know but I would judge there were six or seven hundred

Q-46 And the platoon the Cdn vehicle ran into was the first platoon
A-46 The first platoon

Q-47 Were the ranks of three quite close together
A-47 They usually march within about 30", there was no straggling

Q-48 Do you know whether or not the Cdn truck had lights on
A-48 It did not have bright lights on, I cannot say he did not have lights on, blackout lights, all I can say is I did not see them

Q-49 Did you see the accused, do you recognize the accused here
A-49 No sir, I did not see him that night

Q-50 Did you examine the Cdn vehicle after the accident
A-50 After taking the number of it I looked into the cab, the other Canadian was in the cab but I did not see the driver at that time

Q-51 You are not in a position to say anything as to the damages the truck sustained
A-51 No sir

Q-52 And in what manner did ot go into the ditch head on
A-52 It just angled through the column right into the ditch, the front wheels were twisted around, the right rear wheel was still on the road and the left rear wheel suspended over the ditch

Q-53 This road on which the accident happened to the troops is it used very generally
A-53 I would say military traffic sir, trucks

Q-54 For what formations, what force makes chief use of the road
A-54 I would say more Cdn and British trucks use the road than American trucks

Questioned by the Court

Q-55 How far over on the right hand side of the road was the American vehicle when it was side-swiped
A-55 I cannot say I know I know it was perhaps a foot or two feet from the wall when it stopped

Q-56 But it might conceivably have pulled over after
A-56 Yes it might

Q-57 Could you say whether the Cdn vehicle sounded its horn

A-57 I cannot say, if he did I did not hear it

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not necessary to comply with R.P.85(B)

The witness withdraws

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. Captain R.L. Davis, 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

Q-58 Please identify yourself to the Court
A-58 I am Capt R.L.Davis, 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC

Q-59 Would you please tell the Court the result of an examination which you made of a Cdn vehicle, describing the damage and identifying the vehicle
A-59 An accident report came in and I went to make an estimate of the damage to the vehicle, I went down and looked at the vehicle and made an estimate of the damage and gave it to one of the lieutenants of the Ord Fd Pk. A day or two later I inspected the braking system. On the front left spring hanger of the vehicle three rivets had been sheared off and the drive shaft had been pulled out of the transfer case. As far as braking system was concerned the only item was that there was only about 2" of brake pedal clearance on it

A-60 No, it was a Ford 3 ton cab over engine job (after refreshing memory from accident report states: The vehicle was CL-4239467 a Chevrolet 3 ton)

Q-61 Was there other damage
A-61 The right front door hinge was broken, the front bumper bent and the front fender bent, the bumper and fender being the left side, the front spring main leaf was broken and the shock arm broken

Q-62 What was the condition of the headlights
A-62 They were serviceable

Q-63 What kind of headlights were there on this vehicle
A-63 This one had blackout lights and one clearance light on the left hand side

Q-64 What kind of blackout covering did it have
A-64 The standard blackout covering

Q-65 (Producing blackout shield, which is recorded by the Court as Exhibit "M") Will you tell the Court whether the one on the truck was similar to this
A-65 Yes it was similar to this, but I did not inspect it to see if the modifications had been carried out

Q-66 You have specified the damage to the vehicle, what kind of damage was there getting away from a technical explanation
A-66 The only description I can give you is that it was not seriously damaged but was not serviceable until a few minor repairs had been done

Cross-examined by defending officer

Q-67 You belong to 1 Cdn Corps Tps Wksp, RCOC
A-67 Correct

Q-68 And you have considerable experience in examining damaged vehicles
A-68 I have examined a few, not very many

Q-69 Would you say whether or not this Chev 3 ton truck you examined had been travelling at an excessive rate of speed in order to

Q-69 (cont) sustain the damage you just told us about, when it dropped into a ditch, which according to this plan (Exhibit "H") would be between 3' and 3.8' deep

A-69 That I could not answer, the vehicle could have been going fairly slow to drop into the ditch

Q-70 You say the vehicle could have been travelling very slowly and still sustain that damage

A-70 Yes

Q-71 Would you go so far as to say that had it been travelling at a high rate of speed the damage would have been more, worse

A-71 No

Q-72 What would be the cost of repairs to the vehicle

A-72 Cost of the material £1-8-0, and 12 hrs labor at 3/- per hr

Questioned by the J.A.

Q-73 What would you say as to the condition of the brakes

A-73 As far as the brakes are concerned I would say they were in quite good order

Q-74 You did not test it

A-74 The only way it could be tested was after it had been repaired

Q-75 It has not been repaired yet

A-75 No sir

Q-76 This Exhibit "H", this type of lamp was the only effective lamp he had

A-76 Well he would have clearance lights, but to show the highway just that one sir

Q-77 What would be the limit of visibility with this headlamp

A-77 That would depend on the modification, I believe it is about 30 yds

Q-78 That is with this small slit

A-78 That is with the 3/4" slit

Q-79 With this small slit which is now in effect, how far

A-79 You will find with that type of headlight in the neighbourhood of 20 to 30 yds but your beam is not as wide

Q-80 You are not just sure of the width of the light on the damaged vehicle

A-80 No sir

Q-81 Could you just make it clear all the damage there was on the right hand side of this vehicle

A-81 On the right hand side if I remember a pick handle was broken and the right lower hinge broken on the door

Q-82 That was about all the damage on the right hand side

A-82 Yes

Q-83 The vehicle is a right handdrive

A-83 Right hand

Questioned by the Court

Q-84 Was the right hand side of the box on this truck damaged at all

A-84 It was just touched, one of the beams was dented a little

Q-85 Assuming you were in a 3 ton lorry and the brakes were as you say and you were travelling 35 m.p.h. how long would it take to brake her down

A-85 It would depend on the road surface, on the booster brake, on the brake drums, I could not say definitely

Q-86 A vehicle in the same condition as the one you examined on a tarmac surface, a good road

A-86 At 35 m.p.h. in the neighbourhood of 40 yds

Q-87 That is bringing it right to a standstill

A-87 Yes sir

Q-88 Had this vehicle been travelling or been shifted into 3rd gear it would stop in a shorter space of time

A-88 Yes it would

Q-89 Have you much driving experience

A-89 Some

Q-90 Would you say it would be a reasonable precaution to take when passing another vehicle to shift down into 3rd gear

A-90 I would myself, yes

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

Then looking around I saw some 10 or 12 men to whom I gave first aid or directed first aid be given, and then across the road I saw four or five more men also. Some men had been given first aid assistance and some had been taken to 74th Station Hospital before I arrived. That is more or less the story that I have of the accident

A-283 On the evening of 5 MAY 44 at approximately 2050 hrs I was in the Provost Marshal's office when a call came from our East gate, as a result of the information I went out in front of the Provost Marshal's office and waited for the ambulance to come along. I got in and proceeded to Route 87 approximately one mile East of the gate. There on the road were a large number of American troops, and on the left hand side, the South side going West on Route 87 was an English vehicle in the ditch on the l.h. side. I got out of the ambulance and looked around, saw bodies lying around on the road and on the banks, and some of our troops there. I stayed at the scene until after everyone left, there were four MPs left on the scene. After everyone had left Sgt Chardenier and myself walked approximately 15' West of the truck, there was a soldier standing there, I did not recognize him, I did not recognize him as either a British or Canadian soldier, he had on a uniform similar to an English uniform. I walked to within a few feet of him and he said "What do you want me to do" I said "who are you" and he said "I am the driver of the vehicle". At this time I told Sgt Chardinet that probably the Provost Marshal would like to see him and for him to take him to the office. It was at that time about ten minutes to eleven

Q-289 You can recognize the soldier to whom you spoke
A-289 No sir

Cross-examined by defending officer

Q-290 This soldier dressed in battle dress to whom you spoke what was his condition, would you say he had been drinking
A-290 To the best of my knowledge he had not been drinking I did not smell an odour of alcohol or anything on him

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Q-291 Is that the same man who was taken to the Provost Marshal's office
A-291 Yes sir

Q-292 Did you have any conversation with him other than you have already given

A-569 Just a light on the fender

Q-570 How far from the American truck were you when you pulled out to see what was ahead
A-570 I was in the middle of the road about 15 or 20 yards behind and came up to within about 15 or 20 feet from him when I pulled out and looked ahead there was nothing as far as I could see

A-576 No sir, they were busy and I did not want to bother them, I reported as soon as everything was clear

Q-577 What happened to the man with you
A-577 As far as I know he bumped his head on the windshield, the Americans lifted him out of the cab, he was unconscious, I had no conversation with him

Q-578 Did you have any conversation with him on the ride from Amarosi
A-578 No sir, he dozed off to sleep most of the time

Q-579 How do you know when you got to Amarosi
A-579 I do not know, I judge it was about six or six thirty

Q-580 And you judge you were there about an hour
A-580 About an hour or an hour and a half

Q-581 Do you know how it happened the boy came up with a bottle of wine

Q-593 How far behind were you
A-593 About forty yards

Q-594 And you followed 40 yards behind for about 15 or 20 minutes
A-594 About that time, all I could see of the truck was the tail light

Q-595 It was quite dark was it
A-595 Yes sir

Q-596 And you are quite sure you realize what you are saying you could only see ten feet of your vehicle which carried the regulation lights
A-596 That is the way they put them on the truck sir

Q-597 Your speed at the time you ran into the other vehicle was what
A-597 I slowed down a little, I was doing around 25 or 30

Q-598 Do I understand you changed into 3rd gear in order to get more speed
A-598 No, in order to get more power, more pick up

Q-599 So you were depending upon any traffic walking in the opposite direction to you depending on them having lights
A-599 They should have sir

A-606 I did not see them, I have a right hand drive

Q-607 You were something like 15 to 20 yards behind at the time you were about over in the middle of the road, at that time would you not be able to see past the American vehicle and past the truck to the left hand side of the road

Q-608 You started out in the morning and I suppose you took lunch with you
A-608 Yes sir

Q-609 And you had nothing to eat since lunch

A-614 I do not know that sir

Q-615 In your statement, exhibit "C" you state "Overkott had several drinks of wine in Amarosi"
A-615 I only saw him have one but I figured he had more

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

PROSECUTOR'S CLOSING ADDRESS:

The Judge Advocate when he sums up will explain the law in this case, I merely want to state briefly that in the case of manslaughter, manslaughter may be divided into two classes, one of which is death caused by the negligence of the accused.

In reviewing the evidence of this case I think the facts disclose that there has certainly been a serious negligence on the part of the accused. I will be very brief because I think the facts are quite clear.

True this accused had been on guard duty the night before did not have much sleep and may have been asked to do a duty which should not have been asked of him but which he undertook to do.

In the course of doing that duty he drove a considerable length of time and quite a distance, still he undertook to do it.

Coming back on Highway 87 there is no doubt that from Amarosi and a certain distance past Amarosi it was getting darker and darker and the accused at a certain time put his headlight on, which was a regulation blackout headlamp. By the accused's own admission it did not throw much light on the road.

Now the J.A. will tell you there is no such thing as contributory negligence in a criminal charge, the acts of the accused have to be weighed on their own.

It the Army has decreed that our vehicles will be equipped with this blackout it is up to the drivers to use the amount of caution required by the visibility given by these lights.

This visibility the accused states is ten feet, he may be exaggerating against himself, but taking this distance of ten feet I submit a driver must have his car under control at all times

Having a car under control means you must be in a position to stop it in the required length, thus, if you see the road in front of you a speed of sixty m.p.h. might not be illegal or improper, but if you do not see ahead of you I can figure where a speed of 10 m.p.h might be negligence.

Take under the circumstances driving in a thick fog, or as on these roads a thick cloud of dust, certainly a driver who can only see ten or fifteen feet ahead of him in this is taking upon himself the liability of what may happen if he cannot stop within fifteen feet. In other words there is an area which he cannot see in which something may happen, and ignoring this is considered a case of manslaughter.

You have the evidence that at the time of the accident the accused was going 30 m.p.h., he was in 3rd gear, the speed below the high level in which gear there is more pick up and there is more braking action by the compression of the engine, but still a truck certainly cannot be stopped within five or six feet the distance at which the accused first saw the troops. I stand to be corrected if I am not right on this distance but I think it is the distance claimed by the accused, and I submit it is the duty of any driver of a car to just think ahead and to think of the possibility of something being ahead of him.

The accused tells us it was completely dark, naturally he pulls to the left hand side of the road, he has a right hand drive and has to pull over to the left of the road, and if he sees blackness and does not see what was ahead I submit he should not go ahead and if he undertakes to do so he is committing that degree of negligence that may cause manslaughter, by driving his vehicle into something unknown, into something where lives might be risked and damage might be done, I submit the accused was negligent, and that the negligence was tantamount to manslaughter in this case.

You have evidence that Pte Ralph L. Lyke was killed as a result of this accident and I submit that it was so caused by the speed at which the accused was travelling when he overtook the American vehicle.

The prosecution has not tried to establish anything other than negligence, they do not contend that he was under the influence of liquor and are satisfied that the accused was completely sober, but I submit the spped at which he was going is sufficient to warrant the Court in coming to a finding of guilty.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S CLOSING ADDRESS:

The J.A. will doubtless instruct the Court on the principles of law involved, but before going any further I would like to point out one thing which the members of the Court should bear in mind, I would refer you to MML p.58, Ch.V. para 57 "Burden of proof" quotes: Now gentlemen I think you are all familiar with that, I would just like to bring out that it is the prosecution's duty to prove the guilt of the accused he does not have to prove he is not guilty.

Now the prosecution has based their case on the assumption that the accused has been guilty of neglect and through that neglect on the part of the accused a death has resulted, a death of a human being. Again I refer to MML, page 117 a portion of para 44: "Where death results from negligence it must be shown, in order to justify a conviction for manslaughter, that the negligence was so gross and culpable and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and to conduct deserving punishment". It is not sufficient for the prosecution to show negligence, they must show negligence of such a gross and culpable nature as to amount to a crime against the State. Mere simple negligence such as would suffice to collect damages in a civil suit are not sufficient, this is as far as I am going to deal with the matter.

Just one more reference to MML. As you know manslaughter may be homicide, but homicide may be either manslaughter or murder. "Homicide is excusable (i) where a man doing a lawful act, without any intention of hurt, by accident kills another" (MML, p.116, Ch. VII, para 43). In other words mere misadventure as from an accident which causes death is not punishable under the Criminal Code.

I propose to examine the evidence to see whet the accused has been guilty "of such gross and culpable negligence and shown such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and to conduct deserving punishment."

I submit when I review the evidence you will see he has not been guilty of negligence to that extent.

The first question is that of light on the vehicle. The evidence shows this; the accused first of all claims he had his lights on he claims he turned the switch and could see the glow of the lights on his vehicle, the technical storeman who was travelling with the accused claims he saw the accused turn the switch. Lieut

Warren who was leading the column of American troops says he could not say if the Canadian vehicle had lights or not, and he further claims he was momentarily blinded by the lights on the American truck, and it may be on this account he could not distinguish the much dimmer lights of the Canadian truck. Spr Johnson said he had no lights, Spr Raisen says he did not know whether the lights were on, Sgt Black says the lights were working on the truck. Of these witnesses two say the lights were on, three say they could not say whether the lights were on or not, and the other, Sgt Black, says they were in working order. It is reasonable to say that if the lights were in working order they were on. I submit the Court should accept the word of the accused and Overkott that the lights were on if it was dark enough to justify the using of lights. Furthe more the prosecution has not borne the onus of proof, they have produced three witnesses who are not prepared to say the lights were on or not on the vehicle.

I think the Court can take official cognizance of the fact that the standard Canadian vehicle only has one headlight on the left.

The next thing is the condition of light at that time of day. Lieut Warren says he could only see about ten or twenty yards, but says the moon was out and the sky overcast. Lieut Gilreath who was apparently in charge of the whole column says there was no moon and it was rather dark. Pte Simpkins the driver of the American vehicle says there was still some daylight, it was not yet dark. Spr Johnson says there was very little light but he could see the Canadian truck behind plainly at 20 yds. Spr Raisen who was also riding on the truck, the American truck, says the moon was shining but a row of trees cast shadows on the road. The next two witnesses Cpl Geist and Major Long both state when they arrived at the scene it was dark and they needed lights but that was some time after the accident occurred, and if they arrived fifteen minutes later their evidence on that point would not be of much use. What it does boil down to is this, that there is some dispute amongst the prosecution witnesses as to whether it was dark or light; in other words it was a matter of judgment whether or not headlights were necessary, and if the Court does not accept the accused's statement that his lights were on then that is merely an error of judgment on his part and a man cannot be convicted of manslaughter on an error of judgment.

Regarding the horn. The accused says he sounded the horn. Lieut Warren says he did not hear the horn but possibly the noise of the truck drowned it out. Pte Simpkins says he heard no horn, that there was some noise from both vehicles, and that he heard the Canadian vehicle before he saw it; so I submit there again the Court can infer Pte Simpkins did not hear the horn because of the noise of the vehicles. Spr Johnson says he did not hear the horn. Spr Raisen makes the statement with reservation that he heard no horn. There are four prosecution witnesses two of whom admit they might not have heard the horn because of the noise of the vehicles, one makes a statement he heard no horn, he admits there was noise in the vehicle. The fifth witness is the accused who claims he sounded it. Again I claim the prosecution evidence is not strong enough to discharge the onus which lies upon it.

The next question is speed, the speed of the Canadian vehicle. On this the prosecution based the weight of his argument. First of all I would like to rebut one or two things Captain Desbarres said. First of all he said the accused was on guard duty the previous night but nevertheless undertook a duty the next day. I submit it is not a question of the accused undertaking a trip "he was bloody well told to go, and went" it is not a question of the accused undertaking a duty, he was detailed for duty and had to do it.

The prosecutor says the accused could not see very far ahead because of the lights being blacked out, and he says if that is so the accused was negligent in driving at such a rate of speed as to be unable to stop within the range of his vision. I submit the amount of care required of an Army driver must vary with the exigencies of the service and more risks must be taken in a theatre of operations in war time. If the Army vehicles were required to move at a speed under which they could stop within the range of vision then the war would have been much slower than it has been, take tanks and trucks on dusty roads and at night. I submit it is not fair to apply the standards of a civilian driver in peace time against an Army driver in a theatre of operations, and the standard should not be so rigid.

The speed of the Cdn vehicle. Capt Davis, RCOC officer, says that damages sustained by the Cdn vehicle are consistent with that vehicle having been driven at a high rate of speed, and on cross-examination he says the vehicle could have sustained the same damage had it been travelling quite slowly. Pte Simpkins, driver of the American truck, says the Cdn vehicle was travelling about 35 m.p.h. Spr Johnson, guessing, says 45 m.p.h. Spr Ruisen says 40 m.p.h. and also admits he is not a driver. In connection with these two witnesses I would suggest that the noise of a vehicle in 3rd gear would create the impression of speed to an inexperienced person. How Sgt Black the transport sergeant, and the accused, both claim the vehicle will not do 45 m.p.h. in 3rd gear and will only do 30 m.p.h. and I submit that is the outside speed the Court can find. The accused says he was travelling 25 to 30 m.p.h. and he says that is a guess but he estimates the speed as he was in 3rd gear.

What experience has the accused had in driving. six years in civilian life and about six months in the Army, two months driving in Italy. He has had the drivers' course in Canada, Sgt Black says the accused is a good driver, a careful driver.

The next thing I want to deal with is the precautions the accused took before trying to pass. The accused says he shifted down into 3rd gear, Spr Johnson says he thought the truck was in a middle gear. Capt Davis says it is a reasonable and sensible precaution to shift down to 3rd when passing.

The condition of the road from the plan, and the view of the scene which the Court had this morning, we know the effective road surface was about 25' wide at the point of the accident. Pte Simpkins says his truck was about 7½' wide and he was 2' from the r.h. side of the road. This would have left the accused 14½' of road space which I submit is adequate to take a 60 cwt through. The plan of the road and the view shows a straight road for 100 to 150 yds.

That review of the evidence shows the accused was not guilty of such a degree of negligence as to justify a conviction of manslaughter, his negligence was very slight, it is not that gross and culpable negligence as required for a conviction of manslaughter and I submit the Court should acquit the accused on the charge of manslaughter.

The Court consider it expedient in view of the exigencies of the service and the distance of travel involved to sit after 6.00 p.m. and complete the proceedings on this date.

At 6.05 p.m. the Court adjourn for supper

At 6.35 p.m. the Court reassemble. The accused is again brought before the Court.

The President asks the defending and prosecuting officers if they would care to comment on the question as to whether or not the Cdn vehicle having lights is a material factor in the case, having in mind that the American truck apparently had good lights.

Defending officer: I might bring forth a theory. The Americans were marching in platoons and there was considerable distance between them. Mr Warren's platoon was practically level with the American truck and it is quite possible all his troops were on the near side of the lights, that the headlights were shining behind his platoon and not far enough ahead to light up the following platoon. The accused when asked why he did not see the troops by the light of the American truck said he just did not see them.

Prosecutor: There is also a theory which I would like to put forward, first of all in answer to your question on the glare of the American truck. The accused answered that driving a r.h. drive truck he had to pull out completely before he could see in front, he was very near the American truck at that time, not more than 15 or 20'. Also another explanation on visibility; the uniform of the American troops is certainly a greenish uniform and right along the edge of the road at that point is a greenish background, it is very hard to say that the accused did see them, and as prosecuter I do not intend to submit that the accused did see them and took a chance to pass; I say he did not see;and you make a manoeuvre with your truck which you should not have made it is negligence, if he had seen it would almost amount to a greater offence.

SUMMING UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE:

It is my duty as Judge Advocate on this case to sum up for you, particularly so far as the law is concerned.

So far as the facts of the case are concerned, although I have the right to comment on them, and even to give my opinion on them, yet you are not bound by that in any way. You will make your own inferences from the facts and put your own interpretation on them. I prefer to leave the facts to you and deal briefly with the law involved in this case, and should I express any opinion on the facts you may disregard this entirely, as you, gentlemen, are more qualified than I am to interpret the facts because you represent different branches of the Service, all have had considerable experience, and in a case of this kind I prefer to leave questions of fact to you.

The homicide case is always a difficult one for a Court and that is particularly true in what are known as "motor manslaughter cases" as there are no hard and fast rules to guide the Court, and determining whether the degree of negligence is sufficient to warrant a conviction or not is a very difficult one for a Court.

The charge is manslaughter, I will read the charge again to refresh your memory on it. (reads charge).

The charge is manslaughter, or unlawful killing another man, this is what is known as a civil offence and laid under Section 41 of the Army Act which permits military courts to try soldiers for offences under English law.

Possibly the most succint definition of manslaughter is that contained in MML, P.116, Ch.VII, para 46, as amended by Amdt No 14: "It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter." That is the general definition of manslaughter.

Now one type of manslaughter is the type of manslaughter alleged here which alleges negligence on the part of the accused. Now then, the question is, and it is the question which will concern the Court most, the degree of negligence necessary to constitute the offence of manslaughter, and I will read to you from "Archbold P.882 with regard to the degree of negligence necessary to constitute the offence. (reads from Archbold on "negligence"). In other words it must be a much greater degree of negligence than would entitle one party to succeed in a claim for damages against another for the death of a person or injury to a property, it must have been such negligence, such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State. That is, such negligence that the State is warranted in intervening in order to give the required punishment.

Now there is some mention in this case, and I think I should deal with this point, that troops were marching without any light showing anything to indicate their approach, marching along the road in column of threes. As I think the prosecutor pointed out, if there was any indication of negligence on the part of the deceased or on the part of those under whose orders he was acting, this is not available as a defence for the accused in this case. Criminal action is different from civil action; in civil action two vehicles collide and one driver sues the other for damage, if the person sued can show that the man suing was negligent and contributed to the accident and cause of damage there is liability on the part of the person suing on account of the contributory negligence, but that is not so in criminal cases.

There have been somecases where a man lying on a road drunk has been run over by a vehicle and killed and in such cases there have been convictions for manslaughter. There is no question but that the man lying on the road contributed to his own death, but that is not a defence.

In considering whether the accused was grossly negligent in this case the Court must have regard to all the surrounding circumstances, the speed of the vehicle, the lighting, the sounding of the horn and all such factors. With regard to the lights for example, you will have to consider not only whether or not the lights on the accused's car were burning, but also, even if not lit, that fact had any bearing on this event. The President has mentioned that point and it was discussed.

There are no hard and fast rules regarding the degree of negligence required to constitute manslaughter, each case stands on its own feet. First of all was there any negligence on the part of the accused at all? If so, was it as serious as to warrant a conviction of manslaughter? An act of negligence warranting conviction under one set of circumstances might not under another. Certainly if two vehicles are racing each other along a highway and a pedestrian is killed as a result that would obviously be manslaughter, but every killing on a highway by a motor vehicle is not necessarily manslaughter. Take the case of a person driving a vehicle in a proper manner through a village and a child without warning jumps from the sidewalk into the path of the vehicle and is killed, that, under the circumstances, would be a pure accident; nothing could have been done to prevent it. If there was no negligence it was what the defending officer termed misadventure. On the other hand if a man is driving a vehicle through a village and the sidewalks are crowded with people who are here and there crossing the road, say there is a fete day in the down, in that case there is a special duty to take care, the chances of causing death should have been foreseen and even if the accused were driving within the speed limit yet if the Court determined he was driving too fast under the circumstances existing at the time and ran into a person stepping off the sidewalk and killed him, a conviction of manslaughter would probably be warranted.

Another element is the extent of use of a highway, whether a driver could reasonably expect other traffic or pedestrians on the road; the test on a back woods country road is not the same as on a road through a town.

Now I might mention another example where a conviction of manslaughter would not be warranted, say where a driver is suddenly confronted by a situation that he could not be expected to have foreseen. He has to respond immediately and turns right instead of left, and because he did so runs on to the sidewalk and kills someone, whereas had he turned the other way there would have been no accident. The death was caused by an error of judgment on his part; his speed was proper, something unforeseen occurred and through an error of judgment he turned the wrong way.

Now I think gentlemen it is further my duty to tell you that on a charge of manslaughter under English law, and it is English law rather than Canadian that governs our military courts, under English law a person charged with manslaughter may be found guilty of reckless or dangerous driving under the Road Traffic Act of England, Sec 11, and I will read that to you (Archbold p.221) "If any person drives a motor vehicle on a road recklessly, or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition and use of the road, and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time, or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, he shall be liable -". That is for reckless or dangerous driving. Now therefore I say should the Court consider that there was negligence, but not such gross or culpable negligence as to warrant a conviction for manslaughter, yet they may enter a conviction under that Section for reckless or dangerous driving, not both. There is no definition of these terms, one action might be considered reckless, another dangerous. I do not think there is much difference between the two terms, there is no definite distinction drawn between them in the Section.

Perhaps I might give you an example of what would be reckless driving rather than manslaughter; a case where one vehicle is passing another vehicle which is being passed after receiving due warning and this other vehicle suddenly turns out in front of the overtaking vehicle to prevent his passing, causing the overtaking vehicle in order to avoid him to go on to the sidewalk. Let us assume the overtaking vehicle was going at an excessive rate of speed, he could have got safely by had not the vehicle being overtaken done the act it did. In this case I think the Court could acquit of manslaughter and convict of reckless driving, although it is true the excessive speed was not the immediate cause of the accident.

I hardly need to mention to the Court that although it is unfortunate that the persons killed belong to a Force other than our own; although it would still have been serious if it had happened to our own forces, yet the Court will not convict the man on that account unless they consider him guilty of a crime; and I am sure our American friends would be the last to suggest a Court should convict a man merely because he killed some of their people if the Court were not satisfied he committed a crime. Their criminal law is essentially the same as our own, the question of policy as distinct from law should not be allowed to interfere with your judgment.

The accused of course is innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; you must take a calm and cool view of the whole evidence, and if, after taking that view, as reasonable men you have doubts as to the accused's guilt you should acquit him. A reasonable doubt is not one conjured up by mental gymnastics, it means a sound sensible doubt as you would have in your ordinary business affairs or in your military affairs.

I am not going to review the evidence and I will now leave the matter in your hands.

The Court adjourn to consider the finding

The Prosecutor produces Statement as to Character and Particulars of Service and Certified True Copy of Conduct Sheet purporting to refer to the accused which he submits to the Defending Officer for examination and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused because they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g)(h) and (ii) they purport to refer to a soldier having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Exhibits "U" and "V" respectively.

Q-616 Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement and Conduct Sheet and in mitigation of punishment.
A-616 (By Defending Officer) I wish to call one character witness before making a plea in mitigation of punishment.

PROSECUTOR'S OPENING ADDRESS:

The prosecution intends to prove in this case that on the 5 MAY 44 at approximately 2030 hrs the accused was driving a Canadian 3 ton Chevrolet truck No C1-4239467 along Highway 87 coming from Telesi and going towards Highway No 6, proceeding West.

He was on duty, and at a certain place along the road between Piano di Caiazzo and the 2nd Replacement Depot, U.S. Army, he overtook an American truck. In doing so he had to go on the left hand side of the road, we will prove that he was going at a speed which was a minimum at least of 30 m.p.h. He had on his vehicle what is know as "blackout lights", and when overtaking this vehicle he suddenly came within a few yards of a body of American troops who were marching Easterly on their right hand side of the road three abreast.

The accused tried to avoid them by pulling to the right and in so doing side-swiped the American truck and careening off it into the troops killed some of the troops and injured others, and killed amongst others an American soldier ASN 42022162 Pvt Ralph L. Lyke, of the 439th Company, 33rd Replacement Bn, U.S.Army, thereby committing manslaughter, and I now intend to call witnesses to prove this fact.

Exhibit "W"

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

An examination of the conduct of the accused which my friend submitted does not show he is what one would call a hardened criminal, it is true there are several entries on his conduct sheet but the most are merely minor offences.

There is a charge of AWL of 1 hr and 10 mins, the next is an AWL charge and missing a duty, the next is the most serious one "leaving his post without being properly relieved", and then a charge under Sec 40 of being out after curfew without a pass, another AWL charge of 1 hr, and the last one under Sec 40 appearing on parade unshaven.

None of these are to my mind vicious crimes which would lead the Court to impose a severe sentence for this offence, and I would ask that the Court in awarding sentence exercise the utmost leniency.

The accused is unmarried.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-119503 Private V.V EMMENS, 1 Cdn Corps And Army Tps Sub Pk RCOC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

2nd Lt Robert D. Warren, 33rd Repl Bn, Second Repl Depot, APO 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:-

On the 5 May 44 at 2030 hours, the 33rd Repl Bn started a night march with Training Platoon "A" leading. I was marching in front of "A" Platoon. We went out the West Gate of Camp, turned right and went east on Highway 87 on the right side of the road. We were marching in column of threes. At about 2100 hours, I saw the lights of an approaching truck, travelling West, in opposite direction to our column. I judged it to be travelling at about 20 to 25 m.p.h. It was keeping well over to its side of the road. I did not see nor hear anything behind that truck owing to its noise and being blinded by its headlights, until this truck was just a few yards, that is approx 10 to 12 yards in front of us, then I could make out the faint outline of another truck, running without lights, attempting to pass the first truck. The driver evidently saw us at the same time because he pulled over to the right to try and avoid hitting us, side-swiping the first truck. He then apparently lost control of his vehicle and drove in to the column, and then into the ditch. Just as I saw the second truck, attempting to pass the first one, I jumped forward and faced the troops and tried to order them off the road but as soon as I turned around and the second truck was side swiping the first one and then drove into the column, near the head of it, angling off towards the rear and ending in the ditch. I sent the first truck to notify the M.P.'s and then attended to the injured. About 10 minutes later ambulances arrived on the scene.

I was on the very first rank of the whole column, with the platoon sergeant on my right. There were no scouts in front of the column. Blackout discipline was maintained on the march and there was no lights showing and no talking.

There were 49 men in "A" Platoon making 16 ranks of three behind the Sgt and myself. Platoon "B" would have the same effective.

After looking after the injured, I took particulars of the truck which hit the column and found it was a Canadian 3-ton Chevrolet truck #CL 42338467. On the right front fender was serial number 69.

According to the nominal roll of my platoon, the men mentioned in Exhibits "A", "B", "C", "D", "E", "F", "G" and "H" died following that accident. Also the men mentioned in Exhibit "I" belong to my platoon and suffered injuries that night.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q-1 Are you positive I had no lights on my truck?
A-1 I did not see any.

Q-2 Is it not possible I had dim lights and you would not have seen them?
A-2 It may be possible but I did not see any lights.

Q-3 Did you hear the sound of a horn being blown?
A-3 No.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution.

2nd Lt Dale E. GILREATH, 439 Repl Coy, 33 Repl Bn, 2nd Repl Depot, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:

On the evening of 5 May 44, at 2030 hours, the 439th Company started on a night march. I stood at the Initial Point, checking my platoons as they marched by. Upon reaching the West gate of the Camp, the column turned east on Highway 87, marching on the right hand side of the road in column of threes. We marched for about 20 minutes, covering approx ½ mile. After my company had passed the initial point, I started marching towards the head of the column. When I was about 100 to 150 yards from the head of the column, I heard a crashing noise and ran up the rest of the way to the head of the column, and there I saw that a truck had hit the column, running into "A" platoon injuring most of the men of the platoon. I immediately sent for ambulances.

The truck was either British or Canadian, being a right hand drive. I later ascertained it was a Canadian 3-ton lorry. When the accident happened it was approx 2100 hours. It was dark and I don't believe the moon was out. I did not see the lorry coming, I only saw it when it was stopped in the ditch. I did not see any lights on it.

"A" Platoon was led by 2nd Lt Robert D. Warren. It was leading the whole column. There were no lights in front of the column as we are not allowed to have any on tactical route marches.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Dale E. Gilreath) 2nd Lt Inf.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution. Pvt Jerold SIMPKINS, 36149870, HQ Coy, 2nd Repl. Depot, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:-

On 5 May 44, at approx 2045 hours, I was driving a 2½-ton 6 x 6 truck #W-451938, West on Route 87 at about 15 m.p.h. About 1 mile east of the west gate Road, a Canadian truck tried to pass me. At that moment I was meeting a column of troops marching four abreast in the opposite direction from me, on my left-hand side of the road. While passing me, this truck hit the left front wheel and fender of my own truck then it seemed to lose control and bounced into the troops, ending up into the ditch on the south side of Highway #87. I immediately stopped my vehicle. When I looked at the other vehicle I saw it was a ¾-ton Canadian truck. I would say this truck was going at approx 30 m.p.h. while passing me. I had two clear headlights on my truck. At no time did I hear a horn blown. I did not hear any noise but that of th crashing on the side of my truck.

This Canadian truck hit the 2nd platoon from the h head of the column. I remained on the scene for a short time, going to notify the M.P.'s about 5 to 10 minutes later. I did not have anything to do with attending to the injured. While the Can truck was passing my own I did not see any glare from its headlights.

I did not see any advance scouts ahead of the column. Before meeting the troops when they were approx 150 yards ahead of me, I saw a light blinking either from a flash-light or from a reflection of my own headlights.

I had a red light showing at the back of my truck. I had just rounded a curve when I first saw the troops at approx 150 yards in front. It is immediately after that the truck passed me.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1 Were the troops not marching three abreast?
A-1 From what I saw, the head column was marching four abreast.

Q-2 Are you positive I hit the second platoon?
A-2 You hit the tailend of the first platoon and head of the second platoon.

Q-3 Do you say I had no lights on?
A-3 You may have had lights on, but I did not see any reflection as my own lights were burning and I did not turn around to see.

Q-4 Would you say I did not sound my horn?
A-4 You may have sounded your horn, but I did not hear it, as I was inside the cab of my truck.

Q-5 How far were you from the curve when I overtook you?
A-5 I had just passed the first culvert west of the curve.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

1891557 Sapper H. Johnson, 256 Field Coy, RE, having been duly sworn, states:

On 5 May 44 at about 2045 hrs I was travelling on an American truck. It was an open truck and I was sitting in the back facing in the direction in which we were going. We were proceeding at about 15 m.p.h. About half way from MIANO di CAIAZ CAIAZZO and the 2nd Repl Depot I heard the noise of a truck about 20 yards behind us on the left side of the road ready to overtake us. I did not notice the sound of any horn. I turned around and saw a 3-ton truck with a tarpaulin over it. I did not pay much attention to its lights. I cannot say whether its lights were on or not.

I reckoned its speed to be about 45 m.p.h.

I turned around again and suddenly noticed troops marching on the road, three abreast, in the opposite direction to ours and on the opposite side of the road. They showed no lights. At that moment the 3-ton truck was overtaking us and side swiped our own on the left hand forward wheel, bouncing off to the left and knocking the troops over. It finished up in the ditch on the side of the road where the troops were marching. The American truck was well into the right hand side of the road. I heard the sound of brakes being applied on the 3-ton truck just as he was trying to overtake us.

Cross examined by the accused

Q-1 Are you positive this truck was going 45 m.p.h.
A-1 I am just reckoning. It may have slower but was going pretty fast.

On 5 May 44, at about 2045, I was travelling on the back of an American open truck proceeding on Highway 87 towards CAPUA at about 10 to 15 miles per hour. I was sitting and facing more to the back of the truck. At a certain time I notice a truck coming behind us. I did not notice any lights on it. He started to overtake us then seemed to come right onto our side, touched the side of our truck then bounced off into the ditch, hitting some troops which were marching on the other side of the road in the opposite direction. I did notice any lights with the troops.

Cross-examined by the accused

Q-1 Are you positive there were no lights on?

SIXTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Corporal Lawrence GEIST, 33568199, M.P. detachment 2nd Repl Depot, A.P.O. 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the 5 May 44, at about 2050 hours, acting on information received I proceeded in the first of some ambulances to the scene of an accident which happened on Highway 87, approx 1 mile east of the west gate of our Camp. On arrving, I saw troops standing around on the road. There were several soldiers lying on the ground and a truck in the ditch on the South side of the road.

I remained on the scene till all the troops and casualties had been removed. Four of us M.P.'s stayed at the scene and another M.P. sent to get a wrecker.

Sgt Chardinet and myself walked approx 15 feet West of the truck where we saw a soldier standing.

On approaching him, this soldier asked me, "What will I do?". I said, "Who are you?". He replied, "I am the driver of the vehicle." Sgt Chardenet then took the soldier to the Provost Marshall's Office. When I first saw this soldier it was 2248 hours.

At that time I could not recognize this soldier.

When I arrived at the scene of the accident it was not very light.

SEVENTH WITNESS for the prosecution

R-131235 Pte W.P. OVERKOTT, 1 Cdn Corps and Army Tps Sub Pk RCOC, having been duly sworn, states:-

On 5 May 44 I was a passenger in a Canadian 3-ton Chevrolet lorry driven by the accused. I was sitting in the front seat, on the left as the vehicle is right hand drive. We were coming back from 67 LAD which was located about 15 miles east of TELESE. We left there in the middle of the afternoon and arrived at AMOROSI around 1700 to 1800 hours. We stayed at AMOROSI about one hour and then started on our way back to our unit. During that hour in AMOROSI we took a rest in the cab of the lorry. I only got out once to try and get some onions. I was gone about 10 minutes. In one of the towns I purchased a glass of wine from a boy and drank it on the spot. That was very early in the afternoon before we went to the 67 LAD. That is all I had to drink that day. The accused to my knowledge did not have any drinks of any kind that day. After we left AMOROSI, I went to sleep. When I woke up I was on a table in an American hospital.

At some time after we left AMOROSI the accused switched on the headlights. It was not very dark then and I could not notice much of the glare.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

NINTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Major Franklyn D. FRY, Provost Marshall, 2nd Repl. Depot, A.P.O. 776, U.S. Army, having been duly sworn states:-

On 5 May 44 at approx 2100 hours, acting on information received I proceeded to the scene of an accident which happened on highway 87, approx one third mile east of the West gate of our Camp.

Upon arriving at the scene of the accident I found a Canadian Army 3-ton truck, serial #CL-4239467 headed in a westerly direction and with both front wheels in the ditch on the south side of the highway, and that a large number of American soldiers were scattered over the road way and in the ditch on the south side of the road. The head of one soldier was wedged in between the left front tire of the 3-ton truck and the south bank of the ditch on the south side of the highway. Ambulances from the 2nd Repl Depot and the 74th Station Hospital arrived soon afterwards and the wounded and the dead American soldiers and one Canadian soldier were removed to the 74th Station Hospital.

I detailed my M.P.'s to halt and direct traffic and render whatever assistance possible for them so to do.

I secured a wrecking truck from the 17th Light Recovery Section R.E.M.E. to remove the Canadian truck.

At about 2315 hours, that same evening, Sgt Chardenet brought a Canadian Soldier to my office where he was identified by his driver's license as: C-119503 Pte V. Emmens, whom I recognize as the accused.

I got back to my office at about 2400 hours and there I saw the accused. I did not smell his breath nor did I have him medically examined as he appeared sober.

After the scene of the accident had been cleared and prior to the removal of the truck I made a thorough search and examination of the surrounding area.

There were no skid marks whatsoever on the road way.

At or about 2115 hours on 5 May 1944, I was advised there had been an accident near the camp and that several ambulances had been despatched there. I proceeded to the scene of the accident, which was on highway 87, approx one mile east of the West Gate of the camp. I brought additional medical aid with me. By the time I arrived, first aid had been given but there were approx 12 men unattended, lying on the side of the road, and three others on the other side of the culvert, partially attended. I saw 4 or 5 bodies in the ditch under the body of a truck which was straddling the ditch on the South side of the road. I pronounced these men dead. I then supervised and co-ordinated the first aid squads which by that time were placing the injured on litters and applying splints where indicated and giving first aid as required. Later on that evening, while assisting at 74 Station Hospital I ascertained that seven men were brought in dead on arrival and an eight man died early the following morning.

Due to the number of injured, I am unable to specify individual cases or identities.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

MITIGATION PLEA

The accused enlisted in Dec 1941 when he was only 17 years old - and came to England in Aug 1942. He came to France with his unit on D Day, and remained with his unit on the field until he was taken prisoner with the rest of his company on 17 October - a period of nearly 4½ months. After 12 days captivity he was rescued - and sent back into the front line. Hence he probably felt he had some reason for going AWL, after having been through so much.

I would ask the court to consider the above facts in mitigation of punishment.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 1. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn a. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if charged to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D6 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D6 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D6 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.*)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans No (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans Witness Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

(1. AA 54(2) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

1st witness for Prosecution Lt Erwin sworn. 3 Cdn Pay Sta. Adj and admn

At about 1330 hrs on the 9th March 44 Pte Edmond G was paraded before me on due form by the Regtl NCO in order to make a complaint he stated at that time that he had been ordered to do a fatigue task of pots and pans and that he did not feel it was his duty nor was it the duty for which he had been primarily ordered by the Ketchen Attendant ordered him to return to the kitchen and because of what I considered was a misunderstanding, I ordered him to carry out his duties as he understood them to be. I then interviewed the NCO in Ketchen Cpl Boyne and learned from him that the pots and pans were a necessary detail to be accomplished by Pte Edmond and he stated that he had already ordered Pte Edmond to do the pots and pans. I then sent for Pte Edmond and because I thought there was still a chance of misunderstanding on his part of any officer what was required and explained to him that the was a necessary detail and he was to carry out the orders of the NCO in charge it was necessary to do the pots and pans. Pte Edmond replied that he understood that it was an order from myself, that he was not disobeying an order but that he would not do the pots and pans. I spoke to Pte Edmond this time and he was attending a detail which was part of his duty and which concluded at 1530 hrs. I then spoke to Pte Edmond at approx 1520 hrs and gave him time to indicate his intention and then, again, ordered by the Regt RCO, Staff Sgt Lowry, I found him in the mens mess which is located some 75 ft from the kitchen & the presence of the RCO and Pte MacIntyre I questioned Pte Edmond as to whether he had understood that I had given him an order he replied that he understood. When queried him as to his understanding of my order specifying his duty to clean the pots and pans he again replied in the affirmative I then stated that I was charging him with disobedience of orders and placing him under close arrest, to which he replied I am not disobeying an order but I will not do the pots and pans.

Summing up by Prosecutor.

in Case against D 118832 Pte Georges Emond

In sums up it has been proved by evidence of all three witnesses in this case that in two cases specific orders were disobeyed. The accused himself admits that he understood the meaning of the order when he said he owned obey the order and in the next breath that he owned not do pots and pans which was the specific order.

At 1340 hrs on 4 Mar the Adjutant whose testimony you have heard, gave this order to the accused. "You will go to the kitchen and do the pots and pans as ordered by the Cpl. Cook in charge of the kitchen."

Previously at 1230 hrs on the same day the Cpl in charge of the kitchen, the second witness, gave the accused "this order" "You will do pots and pans," to which the accused replied "Not I, let me get my ~~this~~ Mess Tins before I break something up".

The third witness stated he heard the adjutants orders and the reply of the accused.

I submit that a prima facie, case has been brought against the accused because ~~there~~ was a lawful command given by the adjutant and the Cpl Cook, the accused's immediate superiors and because the accused understood the orders as he has admitted in that he did not question the evidence against him and because finally there was no prompt and immediate compliance with the orders to wash pots and pans at any time during the 4 Mar as has been borne out by testimony which again was not questioned by the accused.

May I draw the attention of the Court to MML Chapter III paras 11, 12, & 13 which deal with essential ingredients of offence of disobedience, the meaning of lawful command and the duty of obedience.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

No. D.118632, Pte Georges EMOND, No. 3 Canadian Infantry Troops Workshop, Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on active service.

CHARGES

1. Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First witness Lieut. B.L. Erwin, 3 Canadian Infantry Troops Workshop R.C.O.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am the Adjutant of the 3 Cdn Inf Tps Wksp, R.C.O., On or about 1330 hrs, on 9 Mar 44, Pte Emond was paraded before me in due form by the Regimental N.C.O. He wished to express his complaint over duties that had been assigned to him in the form of cleaning pots and pans in the kitchen. At that time I did not wish to issue an order to him until I could investigate the circumstances under which he was working in the kitchen, so I instructed him to go back to the kitchen and carry on what he considered were his duties.

About 1340 hrs I spoke with Pte Emond again and explained the situation as I saw it, in that these duties, were unnecessarily required of him and that I was ordering him back to the kitchen to do his duties as assigned by the Corporal-in-charge-Kitchen on the pots and pans. At this time Pte Emond stated he would go back to the kitchen and do his duties but he would not do the pots and pans. I repeated my order and asked him if he understood that I was ordering him to do the pots and pans, to which he replied, that he understood but he would not do the pots and pans.

About 1445 hrs I asked the Regimental N.C.O. to accompany me to see if my orders were being carried out. We found Pte Emond in the Sergeants' Mess attending a class of instruction which he was detailed to attend until 1500 hrs. I considered this proper so I waited until approximately 1520 hrs, and I again sought out Pte Emond accompanied by the Regimental N.C.O. We found him in the Mens' Mess. In the presence of the Regimental N.C.O. and Pte MacIntyre I asked Pte Emond if he had understood my orders to return to the kitchen and do the pots and pans. He replied he understood my order. I then asked if he realized that he was disobeying an order to which he replied, "I am not disobeying an order, but I will not do the pots and pans." I, therefore, turned Pte Emond over to the Regimental N.C.O. and directed that he be placed under close arrest, awaiting charge for disobeyance of an order.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Lieut

2nd witness M.60053 S/Sgt Lowrey J.M., 3 Cdn Inf Tps Wksp, R.C.O.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am the Regimental N.C.O. of 3 Cdn. Inf Tps Wksp RCOC. On the 9 Mar 44, about 1520 hrs, I accompanied Lieut Erwin out to the kitchen. From the kitchen we went to the Mens' Mess where we saw Pte Emond. Lieut Erwin asked Pte Emond what the trouble was and why he was not in the kitchen on duty. Pte Emond said, "He would go in the kitchen but would not wash pots and pans." Lieut Erwin ordered him to report back to the kitchen to wash pots and pans. Pte Emond said, "He would not do it." Lieut Erwin then placed Pte Emond under close arrest.

Cross-examined by Pte Emond:

Question: Did I not say I did not disobey the order, but that I will not wash pots and pans?

Answer: That is correct.

S/Sgt Lowrey J.M.

3rd witness C.138134 Cpl Boyne G.R., 3 Cdn Inf Tps Wksp, R.C.O.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am the N.C.O. in charge Cook House and the Cook House fatigue.

When I returned from the Meal Parade at 1230 hrs, 9 Mar 44, I told Pte Emond that he would have to wash the pots and pans. He replied "I will go to the Orderly Room first." I said, "Very well." About an hour later the same afternoon Pte Emond came into the Cook House again, he commenced to peel potatoes, I then asked, "If he had been into the Orderly Room." Where upon he replied, "I have seen the Adjutant, and that he will send for you". I then came over to see the Adjutant myself. The Adjutant ordered me to parade Pte Emond before him at once. Pte Emond then paraded himself to the Adjutant, and on returning to the Cook House after the interval, said to me, "What do you want me to do?", and I replied "Pots and Pans". He replied "Not I. Let me get my Mess Tins before I break something up."

Cross-examined by Pte Emond:

Question: Are you really in charge of the Cook House fatigue?

Answer: Yes, I am in charge of the Cook House Fatigue.

Question: I was detailed by Cpl Murray to peel potatoes in the Cook House in place of a man who was off-duty.

Answer: When Cpl Murray detailed you to peel potatoes you came under me for duty.

Cpl Boyne G.R.

4. WITNESS F.88617 Pte Mac Intyre D.J., 3 Cdn Inf Tps Wksp, R.C.O.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I was in the Mess Hall, Thursday, 9 Mar 44, about 1500 hrs, Lieut Erwin came in. Pte Emond was also present. I heard Lieut Erwin say, "Are you going to work?", or words to that effect. Pte Emond said that he would go to work in the kitchen but would not work on pots and pans.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Plea for Mitigation of Sentence in the case of C 11845 Gnr. Jean Albert Emond

In considering the case of the accused I would ask the Court to consider several circumstances surrounding the A.W.L. charge.

In the first place it appears obvious that there was absolutely no indication of intent on the part of Gnr. Emond to be A.W.L. He went to Nijmegen to visit a friend for the evening, figuring that it would be quite easy to hitch hike a ride back to Weigel, in lots of time for the morning parade. This visit was in order, as there was no rule in effect at that time in the Eqn. which would prevent him visiting outside Weigel. It was not necessary for him to be present at any Tattoo roll call, as a Tattoo roll call was not in practice in his Squadron. He had made similar visits on other occasions and had been able to return in plenty of time for parade.

Unfortunately for Emond, there was light traffic on the night of the 30th and he was unable to get a ride until quite late the next morning.

The fact that Emond walked over 20 kilometres and kept going all night long in order to get back in time proves believe his good intentions. If he had not cared about being A.W.L. it would have been much simpler for him to have stayed and slept in or around Nijmegan rather than to have carried on during the night in his attempt to return to his Unit. It should be realized here that many stops were made during the night waiting to flag down a ride which will help to explain why it took so long to walk the distance he did.

And then also, in spite of the fact that he was late, Gnr. Emond reported in to his Unit himself, he was not apprehended.

In considering Gnr. Emond's past record would the Court please look at the last entry there. You will note that Emond has had a clear crime sheet ever since 31/3/44. Since he has been in the field in Europe in a theatre of operation, he has not a single crime to his discredit in spite of the fact that previous to 31/3/44 his record was not good. This would appear to be very good proof that Gnr. Emond was sincerely trying to carry on in a soldierly manner and not commit crime against Army discipline.

It would appear that while Gnr. Emond was actually A.W.L. and is quite honest in admitting it, that he is more guilty of using poor judgment perhaps, than lack of anything else.

I would ask the Court to consider these factors, and for leniency in mitigation of sentence in the case of Gnr. Jean Albert Emond.

E. C. Jones Capt
Defending Officer.

Statement by the accused.

R & D.

When I went to Nijmegen the night of Nov 30th I left between 2130 and 2200 hrs. intending to get back to my Unit in time for the morning parade or before which I found I couldn't do. I was trying to get out of town on the main road, — to get a lift back. But unfortunately I had to walk because I couldn't get a lift. I walked approx. 20 km. before I got a lift. I returned to camp then and I reported to the N.C.O. i/c at the guard and was put under open arrest. I was brought up for office and was remanded for Court Martial. I did not actually intend to be absent because for approx. 8 mos. I haven't had a charge and intended to keep going straight, because I wanted to do the same as the rest of the boys and get my pay book straightened out. so that I could assign some money home to my mother.

The above statement has been read back to the accused.

Exhibit A

Summary of evidence in the case of D 118495 Gnr Jean Albert, EMOND, RCA Increment "B" attached to E Sqn 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt CAC, Cdn Army Overseas, charged with being absent without leave from 30 NOV 44 to 1 DEC 44.

The Officer Commanding directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

F 20339, Sgt CLARKE, C.C., RCA Increment "B" att "E" Sqn 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt CAC, Cdn Army Overseas, sworn, states:

"I was on the 30 NOV 44, and still am Sgt IC RCA Increment "B", E Sqn, 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt . I know D 118495 Gnr EMOND, J.A. and I recognize him as the accused. He has been in my Increment roughly six months. At the first parade at 0820 hrs 1 DEC 44 I called the roll and Gnr EMOND did not answer to his name. I searched the billet and did not find him. I reported the absence of Gnr EMOND to the Sqn SM at 0845 hrs 1 Dec 44. I went on with my duties and did not see Gnr EMOND until 1100 hrs when he reported to me and said that he had arrived back at that time. He said that he had gone to NIJMEGEN the night before and had not been able to get a ride back. I placed him under open arrest, and reported to the Sqn SM that Gnr EMOND had returned."

The accused declines to cross- examine the witness.

C. C. Clarke

(F 20339 Sgt Clarke, C.C.)

SECOND WITNESS:

L 36 Bdr SPRINGER, J.C. of RCA Increment "B", "E" Sqn, 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt CAC, Cdn Army Overseas, sworn, states:

"I was on the 30 NOV 44 and still am Senior NCO in the billet room housing RCA Increment "B". I have been acquainted with D 118495 Gnr EMOND, J.A., whom I recognize as the accused, for a period of approx four months. On the morning of 1 DEC 44 I arose at reveille and also roused some of the other soldiers. I went to breakfast at 0730 hrs and at that time or a little later, say 0740 hrs, I noticed that Gnr EMOND was not present. I made no special check because there is no special place for us to eat and I thought that Gnr EMOND might be eating elsewhere. On first parade at 0820 hrs I noticed that Gnr EMOND did not answer his name".

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J. C. Springer

(L 36 Bdr Springer, J.C.)

Ex "A" J.A.E.

"The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath ? you are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused: "I have no statement to give at this time."

The accused declined to call witnesses in his own behalf.

I certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

Taken by me, in the field, in the presence and hearing of the accused this 3rd day of DEC 1944.

Statement of Lt. Rideout, Defending Officer

The accused told me that the first night he entered the Regt he was placed on guard. and also he had made arrangements to see friend in Southampton. He asked permission to be relieved which was not granted. During night after finishing his guard, he left Regt and went to Southampton. He spent this leave in Southampton of 9 days + went on to other towns until apprehended by Provost.

Statement of Lt Rideout, Defending Officer

In regards to character of accused he states and his MFM 6 shows that he has never been accused of drunkeness and now he was picked up by the Provost quite sober even though he was in company of a drunken soldier. Of his life prior to enlistment he was a student and also a law abiding citizen. It is only since joining the Army that he has run into difficulties and has broken the laws and regulations. This is due mainly to the fact that there has been some misunderstanding between he and his superior officers.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ____, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Prosecution

1st Witness B146206 A/L/Sgt Mann STW 1st Cdn Asslt Tp CAC having been duly sworn states :-

I recognize the accused. I did not place him in charge of the party on 18 Aug 44. He is the regular driver of the 15 cwt which I gave Tpr Ranger and the others permission to use. Tpr Emond being the driver naturally would accompany his truck. I did not give the accused any instructions. I found the accused on the road Sudda – Foglese with the others in the party beside or close to a house. They had been drinking. I did not leave my truck but ordered them from the cab to get into the vehicle and return home. I was on one side of the road and they on the other.

The above evidence read to the witness RP 53 (B)

No cross-examination

Plea by Defence in mitigation of Punishment

While the accuseds conduct sheet is not clear his conduct has greatly improved once he was in the field. He was placed in a peculiar position as duties of the truck as to his liability to transport his passengers home. Evidence has been very vague as to times of return and instructions given. Accused has been under arrest for this offence for 23 days with no time in hospital. The type of men in the asslt Tp is known to the Court and the accused while to blame was more thoughtless than deliberately wilful in this instance.

Exhibit "A" CWR

Summary of Evidence in the case of
No. 50140 Trooper Joseph Sigola Emond,
1 Canadian Assault Troop (CAC)

The Commanding Officer directs that the Evidence be taken on oath

First Witness for Prosecution

B.146206 A/Sgt Mann S.T.W.,
1 Canadian Assault Troop (CAC)
having been duly sworn states:—

"On the 18th August, 44 Tpr Emond along with Tpr Ranger, Tpr McDonald Tpr Shatlow and Tpr Nicholson had permission to leave the camp area in the 15 cwt armoured vehicle at approximately 1800 hrs. and they were to return just before dark which would be 2100 hrs. That night Tpr Emond did not return. He was the driver of the 15 cwt armoured vehicle which was still out with him. I marked him AWL then."

"On the 19th August 1944 I started looking for them at 1400 hrs. I found them between Bindola and Figline approximately 25 kilometres from their camp. They were stopped on the road in front of a house. The vehicle was there with them. I ordered them to get into their vehicle and return to camp. They made no move to obey the order Tpr Emond approached me and said that he had had tire trouble. I asked him why he had gone so far with the tire in that condition. We had had trouble with that tire before. He could not give me an answer. I then again ordered them to get into the vehicle and return to camp. But they still did not make any move to obey. I could not place them under close arrest because I had no escort with me and they were in no condition to handle them as they had been drinking.

I then returned to my camp and arrived there at 1750 hours. I thought that they would follow me but they did not.

On the 21st August 1944 Pte Emond returned with the 15 cwt armoured vehicle at 0730 hours and reported to me. I placed him under close arrest."

On his evidence being read to him the witness decides to make the following further statement:-

"The permission I gave was for them to go to a village 4½ miles from camp. I presumed they were going swimming because on other days they went at that time."

I kept a record of the dates and times of their absence ~~which I produced in the case of Pte Emond~~

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

(SIGNED) Major R/L Light

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused does not elect to make any statement or give any evidence.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing summary of Evidence consisting of three pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 47 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Notice under RP 76.

Take notice that B 146906 A/L/Sgt Mann,S.T.W. will give further evidence as follows:-

"During the conversation at 1800 hours 18th August,1944, referred to in my evidence in the Summary of Evidence, the accused was not present.

The accused was present and within hearing when the order to get into the vehicle and return to camp was given by me at about 1400 hours 19th August,1944. He was one of the soldiers to whom the order was addressed and he did not obey the order. It was given in a manner requiring immediate obedience.

The 15-cwt Armoured car referred to in my evidence in the Summary of Evidence is a Canadian Government vehicle.

It was customary around 18th August,1944 to allow men of 1st Canadian Assault Tp (CAC)when not on duty to be absent from camp without a pass, up to 2200 hours. After that time men must have permission or a pass to be absentfrom camp. The accused had no permission or pass to be absent after 2200 hours 18th August,1944.

The accused is the regular driver of the 15-cwt Armoured car in question."

Angaturé, 13 Dec, 1942

Bonjour Maman,

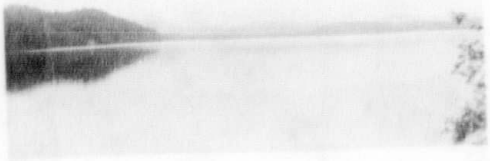
Comment ça va, toujours bien je suppose; il y a quelques temps je n'ai pas pu vous écrire bien souvent, mais ne croie ce n'est pas par mauvaise volonté, et que je vous oublie.

Nous, mais bien sur ici il y a bien du remuement, ça fait trois jours que nous sommes rendus à notre nouveau camp.

Nous sommes très bien logé, dans de belles maisons fini avancées, nous sommes en plein dans le centre d'une très jolie ville sur le bord de la mer.

je vais vous envoyer quelques cartes postales de cette place ça vous ira.

Aujourd'hui dimanche tout le monde travail comme si c'était une journée de la semaine.



Hier samedi à 4½ heure, nous avons eu l'ordre qu'il fallait un inventaire complet de tout le stock qu'il y avait au quartier-maître, et il fallait qu'elle soit finit pour lundi matin à 8 heures.

Au moment justement d'arriver ici les caisses n'étaient pas encore déballés, je vous dit que ce n'était pas encore le temps d'un inventaire, ça faisant seulement une fois qu'on nous étions arrivés.
Aut s'est mis à l'ouvrage de suite, et ont à fini à vingt heures ce soir.
Je vous dit que le dimanche ont l'a pas vu.
Je vous dit franchement que ça vaut pas bien long pour aller à l'action, de la manière que ça marche là.
Ce n'est pas seulement notre Régiment qui a fait de rapides aménagements, mais toute la division.
Nous avons été faire de l'entraînement sur des pages il y a trois semaines, nous allons y aller dans une semaine encore, tout aime bien cette manière, ça change les idées sur l'eau.
Ne fait pas de deux semaines que je n'ai pas reçu de lettre de vous, je crois que vous disiez que vous m'envoyez avec des cartes de vaudeville, n'est pas encore arrivé, c'est la première que je ne reçois pas, je lis sur les journaux anglais que des centaines de sacs de malles avaient été détruits par le feu à dans le port de Halifax.

Ils se faisaient certainement, qu'il était dans ces sacs.
J'ai envoyé beaucoup de cartes de remboursement à tous les parents et amis.
J'espère que Rita a reçu le dix shillings ($2.25) que je lui ai envoyé il y a plus d'un mois.
Je ne vous ai pas dit cela, je crois, les trois jours que nous avons passés sur l'eau, à part les exercices d'évacuations sur des bateaux, avant de partir pour chaque exercice, ils nous donnaient une grosse ration de Rhum, je vous dit que c'est pas des forces fainéants là, c'est bien fait et sucré, et ont est obligés de le boire, ils y a des officiers qui voyant à ce qu'ont le choisi pas. Je crois que c'est pas de l'huile de castor. Je crois qu'il y a une sorte faite des grenouilles, mais ils y en a pas qui se dérobent les divers, et c'est bon lorsque on le donne à nos amis.
Ils nous donnent cela pour ne pas perdre de malades, quand ont sautent à l'eau.
Un soir ont a sauter dans quatre pieds d'eau.

Avec un coup de vent comme celà, ça fait juste pour nous rafraîchir quand l'on rentre à l'eau.
Ça m'a mis pas mal chaud, avec un vent j'aurais pas été capable marché je crois, une chance qu'il en a pas à tous les jours.
Et c'était un gros coup à moitié d'une grosse tasse, j'ai reçu il y a trois semaines une lettre de Blaise de Vallerysted, et de Marguerite, leurs lettres m'intéressent bien, mais c'est de saison que je n'ai pas eu le temps de leur répondre encore.
Je vais faire mon possible pour leur écrire dimanche. Lundi le 21 le Général vient inspecter le quartier monter et les hivers, c'est pour cela l'inventaire, et il faut que tout soit à l'ordre.
Et tout le stock qui est à de trop il faut le retourner. Il faut que la structe nécessaire.
Sont occupé bien quelques choses s'arrangent.
Même les soldats ils ne faut pas qu'ils aient chez eux.
Pour moi c'est cette fois mois de février ou mars que nous allons faire le gros mouvement, je attendre!
Un bonjour à tous Marie

Angleterre 15 Déc. 1942.

Bonjour Rita.

Tu recevras certainement cette lettre dans les nouvelle année, et en pleine hiver au Canada. Ici le 15 Déc. et il fait bien beau de ce temps ci, un beau soleil haut comme en été.

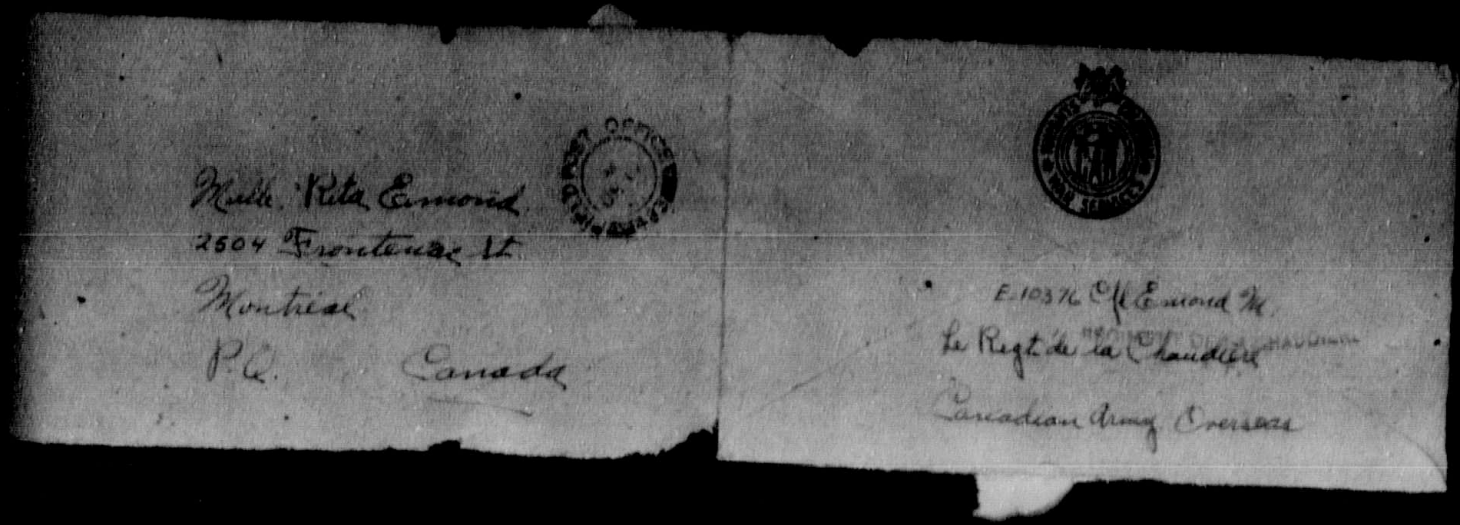
Comme tu sait ici l'hiver n'est pas bien fort.

Je commence à connaître les température de ce pays.

Voici le dernier Noël que je passe ici, mais on n'est pas encore sûr de rien, je me demande si je serais à Noël 1943, je serais certainement pas ici en Angleterre.

En France fait-il froid ?...

Mais je souhaiterais bien et à la maison; il me semble que c'est assez dure Noël à l'étranger.



Dans le moment nous sommes dans une petite ville sur la côte sud de la mer, ici depuis cinq semaines. Comme tu peut avoir remarqué hier nous avons fait quelques tirs; et bien tout les commencements sont durs de l'entraînement, car tu sait que sur le champ de bataille, on s'habitue à toute les jours.

Et ces jours de Noël s'en vont à grands pas.
Pour moi ont guitteras ce pays sont les premiers mois de l'année 1943.
Et tout ont bien hâte, car tout nubont ce finir avec cette guerre, et retourné chez eux, la première division Canadienne est ici depuis 1939, tu peut comprendre que ces Canadiens sont bien fatigués de toute ces parades, comme notre Régiment est ici depuis une an et cinq mois, et toute ce que les hommes font c'est de l'entrainement, surtout depuis trois mois ces des exercices d'offenives et d'invasion sur les barges.
Tu doit avoir vu barges d'invasion sur les journaux, et c'est de l'entrainement bien différent aux autres, les hommes aiment bien cela ça change les idées, ils y en a que sautes à l'eau et en avait audessus de la ceinture.
Moi j'ai bien aimé cela; ont faisaient trois exercices par jours, une dans l'avant midi, une dans l'après midi, et une autre (les fois) dans la nuit vers à une heure ou deux heures.
Nous avons fait ces pendants trois jours.

Américains, Russes, et même les Canadiens.
Ils composent des chansons Françaises contre eux-ci.
C'est de rallier ceux qui étaient avec nous il y a quelques temps; mais ça changeait certainement quand ils se-ront dispersés des Allemands.
Maman doit être partie de la maison depuis quelques temps
Petit moi n'ai pas fait Noël à la maison; ça va me faire un des plus à la maison pour ce Noël que l'on serait, j'espère que ça serait mon tour l'an prochain.
Ça va être moins amusant que l'an dernier ici, cette fois ci on est dans une ville, et non dans un bois comme l'an dernier.
Nous allons avoir du football pour ce jour, l'un devant aller aux ex de la dinde; et des tournées au lard je voulais aller voir Daniel Cardinal avant Noël, mais je vois que ça serait impossible avec tout ce remueménage, et inoculation, et inspection des Général Lundi.
Ça fait plus de un mois et demi que je n'ai pas pu avoir un week-end, ni même mon congé neuf jours je vais te quitter en te souhaitant de bonnes et heureuses années. Ton fils qui pense bien à toi

Marius

Nous sommes revenus fatigués et humides, mais bien contents de notre nouvelle aventure.
Nous allons faire ici, trois jours par mois jusqu'au vieux moment venus, et j'espère bien que ce moment arrivera très bientôt.
Je te dis que il n'y a pas beaucoup de bombardements ici depuis plus de un mois.
Ils ont reçu que la mission en a fait une visite à Lille.
Comme tu vois je reprends bien, j'espère que tu en continues.
Ici à notre nouvelle demeure, on est très bien logé. Je suis ma chambre dans une belle maison neuve. Nous sommes trois dans ma chambre, il y a un bon poêle et deux grands châssis, c'est une chambre bien claire, nous avons toujours notre radio, on fait de la très bonne musique et chantons françaises de Paris, mais ils font des mêlées dans discours et nouvelles de la guerre sont contre nous.
Tout reporte que c'est les Allemands qui commencent toutes les guerres, ils étaient contre les Anglais

B 133077 Pte Emond, H.

1. B 133077 Pte Emond, H. enlisted voluntarily on the 18 Sep 42. in Toronto. Proceeded overseas 16 Jul 43. Arrived in Italy Nov 43 and was sent immediately to the front line.

2. B 133077 Pte Emond H. served for about two and a half months as infantryman at the front line with the Royal 22e R[illegible]. During his service at the front line they have nothing to reproach to the accused.

3. If Pte Emond went A.W.L. it was on account of the fact that he was sick. He was suffering from scabies and the M.O. of the Unit told him that he didn't have time to take care of him, so Pte Emond went A.W.L. and got cured by an American M.O.

4. I wish to point out to the Court, that Pte Emond had a few minor charges, and that he had a good conduct sheet.

5. Furthermore I feel sure, if a chance is given to Pte Emond to go back in the front line, that he will do justice he has done in the past, a good soldier. Because I am certain, if Pte Emond enlisted voluntarily it was because he wished to serve his Country to the best of his ability, so, that is why I am asking the clemency of the Court in favour of the accused.

Address by Prosecuting Officer in the case of -

B 92014 Gnr Alfred Emsley, RCA

on the strength of "F" Bty., "Q" Wing., No 2 Cdn Arty Reinf Unit., a soldier in the Cdn Army (Overseas).

Sir:- It is my intention to prove the charges laid against Gnr Emsley, viz-

1. Absence without Leave
2. Disobeying a lawful command given by a Superior Officer.
3. Stealing or being in improper possession.
4. Offering violence to a superior officer.
5. Using threatening language to a superior officer.
6. When in confinement, escaping.

I propose to do this by adducing evidence of witnesses I shall call and the production of documentary evidence. These charges will be proven in the following manner. In the case of the first charge, Absence without Leave, documentary evidence showing the accused to have been absent for 37 days 4 hours and 4 minutes. In the case of the second charge, Disobeying a lawful command given by a superior officer, by the verbal evidence of the person present when the order was issued. The third charge, Stealing or being in improper possession, will be proven by the evidence of witnesses, who are the soldiers from whom the property was stolen, found in the possession of the accused by witnesses who can unmistakably identify the accused. I shall show that property found in the accused's possession was subsequently identified by, and returned to, the aforementioned soldiers from whom it was stolen.
The last three charges, Offering violence to a superior officer, Using threatening language to a superior officer and, When in confinement, escaping, will be proven by the production of evidence from witnesses who were present at the time the events occurred from which the charges were laid.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:-
I have no evidence to offer in respect to the first charge of A.W.L. The second charge is as serious a charge as the first one, and should be proven on the very clearest evidence. The accused is entitled to any doubt in the court's mind. This L/Cpl. who gave evidence, did not speak to the accused, but stood by and listened to the conversation. The Provost said they got his particulars from his pay book, and we have a witness who says that his pay book was left with the rest of his kit. So their memory of the evidence has faded. The prosecution must show that he was able to comply with the order given. It has not been proven that it was an order, and the accused said he did not have the money to return to camp. I submit there is no evidence to warrant the accused being found guilty of disobeying a lawful command.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:-
With respect to the order by the Provost corps, they carry out patrols and check up on deserters and absentees. It is granted that the witness in this case checked the accused in the air-raid shelter. He was told to return to his unit, and the accused was A.W.L. at the time. Any man in the army for two years would understand that as an order. Gnr. Emsley gave his name and number to the provost. I do not think it matters where they got that information from, whether from his pay book or from him. Guildford is well-known to the accused, and bus times are well known to the accused. The suggestion that he go by train means nothing, in view of the fact that he knew the bus service, and knew his way back to camp. Gnr. Emsley aggravated his absense by remaining away from his unit, as he was already A.W.L.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING.

It being 1800 hours, the court adjourned, and due to the exigencies of the service, and the general inconvenience that would be caused by a protracted adjournment, the president ruled that the court would re-convene at 1900 hours that same evening.

At 1900 hours the court re-opens, and the trial proceeds with respect to the third charge sheet.

2ND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- H 3650 SJT. WATT, R.J., 2 C.A.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q34:- Tell the court what you saw on the 6th of January at approximately 1600 hours.
A34:- I was in the vicinity of Waggoners' Wells in company with Miss Moriarity, and I saw Gnr. Emsley.
Q35:- Do you recognise him here ?
A35:- Yes, (pointing) He was with a Gnr. Spencer, walking up a path towards me. Gnr. Emsley had a kit bag on his shoulder. Knowing before that these men were illegally absent from the unit, I hollered at Gnr. Emsley, and he looked at me, and when he recognised me, he dropped the kit bag and started to run. Gnr. Spencer picked the kit bag up again, and carried it for some little distance, when he also dropped it. I considered it useless to give further chase, as I could not catch up tothem, so I picked up the kit bag, and returned to camp. I reported the incident to S/Sjt. Nicol, my superior officer. We then set out in a jeep to see if we could find Gnr. Spencer and Gnr. Emsley, but they were no where in the vicinity.
Q36:- Did you have a full view of them, how far away were they when you saw them ?
A36:- About 25 yards.
Q37:- Could it possibly have been anyone else ?
A 7:- No, sir. I know Gnr. Emsley quite well, he has been on defaulters' parade in this unit for a long time, and I have taken most of those parades.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q38:- How do you fix the time ?
A38:- About 15 mins. earlier I had asked the girl friend the time, and also while we were walking up the path, there were several fellows walking to catch the 20 to 5 train.
Q39:- It was between four and four-thirty ?
A38:- Yes, is.
Q40:- Waggoners' Wells is at the base of a hill near here, is it not ?
A40:- Yes, sir, but it was a clear day, just before sunset, it was not dark.

3RD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Miss MORIARITY, N.A.A.F.I., Superior Camp, Ludshott, having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q41:- Tell the court what took place on January 6th at approximately 1600 hours ?
A41:- I was down at Waggoners' Wells with Sjt. Watt. We were standing there and Gnr. Emsley and Gnr. Spencer came up, carrying a kit bag. They stopped when they saw us, and ran.
Q42:- Who was carrying the kit bag ?
A42:- I am not sure.
Q43:- How far were they when you saw them ?
A43:- Just a few feet.
Q44:- Have you seen Gnr. Emsley before ?
A44:- Yes.
Q45:- Where is he now ?
A45:- Over there (pointing).
Q46:- You know the accused by sight ?
A46:- Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q47:- Previous to the time you saw him at Waggoners' Wells, did you know his name ?
A47:- No.
Q48:- You have seen him around camp ?
A48:- Yes.
Q49:- And Gnr. Spencer ?
A49:- I don't remember seeing him before.
Q50:- At what time was this ?
A50:- About 4 o'clock, on January 6th.

4TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- B 3605 S/SJT. NICOL, E.L., 2 C.A.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q51:- Tell the court what events took place on the 6th of January.
A51:- At approximately 1630 hours and 1700 hours, I met L/Sjt. Watt on the main road of the camp of 2 C.A.R.U. He was carrying a kit bag over his shoulder. I took the kit bag from him, because he had carried it quite a distance, and I took it down tothe Quartermasters', at R.H.Q. From there I went to the adjutant, and procured a requisition for two motorcycles, to go in search of Gnr. Emsley and Gnr. Spencer.

Except for the fact that we had no success in this search, I have nothing to add. The kit bag was delivered by me to the Q.M. Stores, and put, I think, in the custody of Lieut. Johnson.
Q52:- The time, you say, was approximately 1630 hours ?
A52:- Yes, about that time.
Q53:- Could you identify the kit bag if you saw it again ?
A53:- I am quite sure. Yes, this is the kit bag.
KIT BAG MARKED EXHIBIT 3.
THE DEFENSE DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT
Q54:- Was the bag empty ?
A54:- It appeared to be almost full, I did not know what was in it.

5TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- C9576 Bdr. AUSTIN, L.G., 2 C.A.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q55:- You were in the regimental Q.M. Stores of 2 C.A.R.U.
A55:- Yes, sir. I was on the 8th of January in the Regimental Quartermaster's Stores, and L/Sjt. Watt and S/Sjt. Nicol brought a kit bag in with four pair of boots in it, and gave it to the R.S.M. The R.S.M. dumped them on the floor, and then put them back into the bag again.
Q56:- Do you recognise this bag ?
A56:- Yes, sir, that is the kit bag.

6TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- D 10748 Bdr. HEATHERINGTON, G.S., 2 CARU, having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q57:- What is your job with this unit ?
A57:- I am quartermaster clerk. On the 8th of January I was working on the ledgers. On the morning of the 11th that was. S/Sjt. Nicol brought in a kit bag, containing articles tobe identified by persons who lost boots, and delivered the bag to R.Q. Hosker, in my presence. R.Q. Hosker delivered one pair of boots for identification totne first person whose signature is on the packing note.
Q58:- Is this the packing note to to which you refer ?
A58:- Yes, sir, it is my handwriting.

The three men were surprised to see each other in the door-way. The two Bdrs. each thought the blow was struck at the other. The accused, no doubt, did make a break. He made his break, and for the sudden run raised his arms. Each thought the other was threatened, but did not feel that he himself was threatened. As to the threatening language, the accused say he remembers little of what happened.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:-
It would be difficult for them to tell whom the blows were swung at. I think the blow would probably be struck at Amantea, from their position in the door way. However, I think the evidence bears out the fact that the accused offered to both Bombardiers.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING.

R.P. 80(B) complied with.

Pursuant to R.P. 37(C) , the Defending officer stated that he would make a plea in Mitigation of Punishment:-

" I would point out that the main charge in the first sheet is the AWL, and the other is ancilliary to that, and is a very minor thing in connection with his absence. On the second charge sheet, the main offence is the escape from the guard room. Out of the incident the following morning, arose the incident forming the other charge. He hardly offered violence to the Bdrs. It was annoyance at his frustration in his attempt to escape. The other charges are ancilliary to the main charge, and are minor offenses. The third charge sheet, I would point out that his record shows only a record of AWL, and no other offenses. This is a charge of stealing boots, and I would ask the court to consider that it is a first offense of that nature. The rest are military offenses. We must admit that he is in the habit of going AWL, but none of them for a very long period. This is the longest spell.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

"At approximately 1600 hours on the 8th of January 43, I was in the vicinity of Waggoners Wells, near the ford, in company with Miss M. Morriarity. At that time I saw Gunner Emsley, whom I now see and recognize, and Gunner Spencer. Gunner Emsley was carrying a kit bag. I recognized them as absentees from this Unit and when I yelled to Emsley, they ran. Gunner Emsley dropped the kit bag. Gunner Spencer hesitated long enough to pick it up again and carried it with him some distance and then he also dropped it.
It appeared to be useless to give chase so I picked up the kit bag and returned to Camp. It contained four pairs of boots. The incident was reported to S/Sgt Nichol, the Regimental Police N.C.O., and to the Administrative Officer. I delivered the kit bag and its contents to R.S.M. Gunter ."

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit*† in the case of soldiers and in the case of airmen the O.C. the station at which the airman last served, notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depot in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depot, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

DEFENCE FOR GNR. EMSLEY, A. 1 APRIL 43.

Gnr. Emsley B.92014 joined the army in Canada in June 1941 at the age of nineteen. He came overseas in March 1942.
There are two charges against this man -

1 Charge
(1) Absent without leave. He has pleaded guilty to this charge so there is no more to be said about the charge except the reason which I will go into later.
(2) Breaking custody, again there is not much to say.
(3) Having in his possession papers which did not rightly belong to him or words to that effect.

Gnr. Emsley has pleaded guilty to having these papers in his possession but I would like to point out that these papers were found in his possession. He did not produce them of his own accord and he did not attempt to take advantage of the use of them. Lots of peole have on their person papers which do not belong to them and are not arrested nor brought up for a Court martial.
While I cannot prove that he did not intend to use them at a future date, neither can the Prosecution prove that he did intend to use them. I think that that charge should be dismissed or ignored.

To get back to the first charge of absence without leave - Up until a few months ago Gnr. Emsley did not have a bad crime sheet. True there were entries on it but nothing serious. All at once he seemed to go wrong. I think the reason for this was due to a a very unfortunate incident. Early last Summer, About May I believe, Gnr. Emsley asked the C.O. for permission to marry a girl in Witley. This permission was refused by the M.O. who said he thought he had Congenitēd Syphillis. The M.O. gave him many blood tests, he lost track of the number after the thirteenth, and to the best of Gnr. Emsley's knowledge, corroborated by Capt. Russell, the Padre, the results were all negative. But in the meantime time dragged on. Eventually in December, eight or nine months after he had applied for it, he got his necessary permission to marry. In the meantime some of Gnr. Emsley's so-called friends had very obligingly told the young lady in question that Gnr. Emsley had syphillis, so that when he approached her with his hard won permission she rejected him absolutely and would have nothing more to do with him. Emsley tore up his permit and proceeded to get drunk and went loose. Since that time he has brooded on his troubles a great deal and has blamed everything on the army with the result that he has refused to soldier and has broken loose or gone AWL at every opportunity.
I imagine that he will continue to do so in spite of any sentence he might be given.
I would like to suggest that he be given a dishonourable discharge from the Canadian Army so that he might get into some other service or line of work where he would be of more use to himself and to the country as a whole.

Plea of Mitigation

Accused:- F50460 Pte Ernshe J.C.

Charge:- A.W.L.

E-3

pm

In regards to the charge against Pte Emslie, a plea of mitigation is advanced due to the circumstances which led the accused to go A.W.L.

In November 1944 he was wounded in Holland, and evacuated to a hospital in England. After his discharge in January 1945, he commenced keeping company with a married woman in Brighton.

After several months she became pregnant, and arrangements were made to have the baby adopted through a nursing home in London. The woman did not expect her husband home for over a year.

However on August 14th she received a letter from her husband, informing her that he would be coming in England in a few months.

Pte Emslie visited her on his VJ leave and was informed of this fact. She threatened to notify Legal Aid in Canada and Pte Emslie's parents, unless the accused agreed to support her; as she intended leaving her husband.

On August 16th the accused returned to his unit, #4 C.I.T.R. There he applied to his Sergeant Major for leave to return to Brighton and straighten out his difficulties. This he was refused on the grounds that he had to await cross posting to a holding unit for men who enlisted at M.D.6. He had been awaiting said cross posting since Jan. 15th

In January 1942 Pte Emslie in Canada heard that his wife had been carrying on an affair with another man, and as a result was pregnant since then he has been negotiating for a divorce, which he expects to obtain in the near future

Being very alarmed lest he loose his divorce, should Legal Aid in Canada be informed of his affair in England, the accused went A.W.L. in an attempt to straighten matters out with the woman in Brighton.

This he was able to do she agreed to stay with her husband if he would have her. In the event that he would not, a settlement was made by which Pte Enslie agreed to support the woman for three months prior to her giving birth.

After these arrangements were completed, he returned to I.C.G.R.U and surrendered himself at the guard-room.

As to the accused's military record — he joined the C.I.C. on 17 Feb 1941, and in June of the same year came overseas with the Nova Scotia Highlanders. After serving in several different in England, regiments, he went over to France in September 1944. There he

~~and~~ served in with the Algonquin Regiment action & fell wounded in Holland in November. He was then evacuated to England.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Pte Emslie

I am urging the utmost leniency for the acc I would first of all draw the Court's attention to Pte Emslie's He was on active service in the Alg Regt in W. Europe when [illegible] Normandy. Before being wounded and returned to this he was a good soldier. The acc has had no leave country. The acc has had a very good conduct sheet during his service with the Regt. He was awarded the France and Germany Star, the Defence Medal and the 1939-45 War Medal. He was also awarded a good conduct badge. He was wounded in action in Normandy on 8 July 44 and was evacuated to hospital in England where he remained until SINCE returning here at the end of [illegible]. He has a permanent disability as a result of his wounds, namely the loss of the first joint of the middle finger of his left hand. He was faced with the prospect of a further period of 5-6 months convalescence before he could return to duty with his unit overseas. He is desirous of returning overseas as soon as possible to rejoin his unit and to complete his service with the Regt. He has a wife and two children in England whom he has not seen for over two years. He has been married for 5 years. He has been in the Army for 5 years. He has been overseas for 3 years. He has been in action for 2 years. He has been wounded once. He has been awarded a good conduct badge. He has been awarded the France and Germany Star, the Defence Medal and the 1939-45 War Medal. (2)

It is not unreasonable for a man who has not been away from military surroundings for 15 months, interspersed with a period in action, to be anxious to get away for a short time. It will be noted that the accused returned of his own volition.

I respectfully ask the court to take these factors into consideration in determining punishment.

The accused has a statement he wishes to make but the statement is of such an intimate nature he requests the court orderly and the escort leave the room during this statement.

Statement by the accused in Mitigation of Punishment

Sir, I have reasons for going away, there is serious trouble at home and I have been trying at CMHQ to get it straightened out. I have been up to CMHQ several times about it and it has cost me quite a bit of money. I did not have sufficient money to cover my case but I was waiting to get some over here enough to cover my case and made several trips to London which have cost me around $250.00. I have two letters from CMHQ which will certify my statement which I am making now. (The letters are submitted to the court) They are doing all they possibly could and I will have to make several trips yet and I have to have the money before the trial comes off.

Statement by the Defending Officer

First of all with regard to the summary of evidence the accused has made no effort to deny the facts as set out in the summary, he admits being absent without leave and gave himself up was not apprehended. I also wish to direct the attention of the court to the fact that the accused was unable to find his unit at that time. With regard to the statement just made by the accused his army record is shown in the exhibits before the court was clear until the end of 1941 at which time the accused became aware of an unfortunate condition existing in his home. The accused heard at first indirectly and later from authentic sources that his wife was carrying on with other men in his absence overseas. As is shown in the letters before the court the accused has been trying to obtain a divorce to which he is certainly entitled. The legal aid dept of the Cdn army has been looking into the matter and the accused has been under the necessity of obtaining $200.00 to pay for his divorce and while he was definitely absent without leave I would ask that the court consider the pressure and the personall troubles under which this soldier has been serving and crave your lenience when you come to deliberate the sentence.

Legal Aid Section J.A.G. Branch

E.C. Hicks, Esq.,
Barrister.
Amherst, N.S.
Canada.

29th July 1943.

Dear Sir,

re: F-50460 Fusilier Emslie, James Clarke.
Princess Louise Fusiliers - Cdn Army Overseas.

The above-named Nova Scotia soldier has consulted the Legal Aid Section of this Branch and he is desirous of securing a divorce from his wife Mrs Dorothy May (nee Fowler) Emslie. We are forwarding his case to you to institute divorce proceedings for him.

We are enclosing herewith Questionnaire made out by the soldier setting forth material facts concerning his marriage, also copy of a letter written to the soldier by his wife, which speaks for itself.

From our interview with this man it appears that he married his wife on 17th May 1941 at Amherst, N.S. As a result of the marriage one child (Dionna Sharon) was born on 7th July 1941 and although this child was conceived before marriage, the above soldier claims he is the father. Everything went more or less smoothly until the soldier came overseas when his wife wrote to him regularly until around 10th December 1941 when all letters stopped. He heard rumours and word from home that his wife was carrying on with another man, and on writing her numerous letters asking why she was not writing, etc., she finally replied in the latter part of March 1942 simply stating that she was having a good time and did not care if she never saw her husband again or not. On writing to his father concerning the matter, the father caused a Dependents' Allowance Board investigation to be made into the conduct of this soldier's wife and as a result of the investigation her allowances were stopped as from 1st July 1942 and the child Dionna Sharon was taken into the custody of the Children's Aid Society at Amherst. The soldier states that the Reverend J.W. Bent of Amherst has all facts pertaining to this investigation and reasons for the allowances being stopped.

Later, the above soldier was notified that his wife had given birth to an illegitimate child around June 1943 and he discovered that the child belonged to a Mr Hinks who took it away. The soldier also received letters from Mr Hinks's wife asking him if he could do anything to stop her husband going with his wife. The soldier states that he answered these letters telling Mrs Hinks that there was little he could do due to being overseas. The soldier is now desirous of obtaining a divorce and from evidence contained herein and from interviews with the soldier's parents and the Reverend J.W. Bent and Mrs Bernice Blacket of 53 Spring Street, Amherst, N.S. there should be sufficient evidence obtainable to secure the said divorce.

In regard to financing, as you no doubt are aware, solicitors in Nova Scotia are taking these soldier divorce cases at reduced fees, which normally run around $200.00 including disbursements. In this case, on hearing from you that you are proceeding with the matter and your costs, the above soldier will arrange to have the money sent to you direct as he has sufficient deferred pay to pay for the case. It must be clearly understood, however, that neither the Crown nor this Branch can be held in any way responsible for payment of costs.

Any documents to be signed by the soldier may be sent direct to this office for necessary attention.

Yours faithfully,

for: (W.A.I. Anglin) Colonel - D.J.A.G.

The Prosecutor handed in a written address which was signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.
1st witness for the Prosecution:-
Lieut. J. J. Dinnick, 2nd (Yorkton) Bty., 2nd Regt. R.C.A. duly sworn.
I was Regt. orderly officer 5th Aug. 1941.
At about 2300 hrs. on information received
I saw the accused in his sleeping quarters.
I questioned him and he denied knowing anything about an accident which had occurred at Layer de la Haye Cross roads earlier that evening involving a W.D. vehicle and a civilian vehicle.
The next morning Capt. Dann and I went to Bdr. Emolie's quarters and his first remarks were: I wish to make a statement about the accident last night. I was the driver of the vehicle which was in the accident last night. I did not have a proper work ticket, nor did I have authority to take the vehicle out." The witness then identified the accused.

Cross-examined

Identifies a Work Ticket dated 5.8.41. time from 2158 hrs. - and signed by Bdr. Tomalin.

Questioned by the Court:

It was approx. 2330 hrs. when the witness found the accused asleep in his quarters.

Witness did not feel that the accused had authority to take the truck.

Witness was shown a slip of paper purportedly signed by Major S. J. Campbell. but could not identify the signature.

Questioned by the Court:

The distance from Robroan barracks to Layer de la Haye is 4 mi.

2nd witness for the Prosecution:-

Capt. D.A.M. Mackaren, 89th Bty., 1st Lt. A.A. Regt. duly sworn.

On 5th Aug. 1941. at about 2330 hrs. I found the vehicle a W.D. vehicle, in a damaged condition - it had been pulled over to the S.E. side of the intersection. the front of the vehicle facing west.

W.D. vehicle was a 8 cwt. - right front was damaged. fender damaged. radiator set back. also the right front light was damaged.

There was a civilian vehicle the front of which was headed into a brick wall - at the same time its left side had been badly dented in - that is its left side behind the front door. The civilian vehicle was on the S.W. corner. From the marks on the road it appeared to have been moved.

When witness arrived on the scene of the accident the accused were not present. After ~~to~~ Having returned to Robroan Brks. I saw the accused accompanied by Mrs. Dinnick. The accused denied having been out of barracks that night.

The next morning I with Mr. Dinnick saw the accused when he made a statement to the effect that he had been driving the W.D. vehicle the previous night.

J.R.A.B.
J.A.

I asked him if he had the authority to direct the vehicle the prisoners might journey and if he had a proper work ticket. The accused answered that he had no permission to take the vehicle out and no signed work ticket. J.H.A.B. J.A.

The witness was shown a work ticket already in evidence. denied that same was the one he had been shown the prisoners might by the civilian police. The one he were shown them. The other work ticket I saw the next morning in Bdr. Emelie's room. Both were made out for the same vehicle. The accused when he made a statement to me admitted that he was the driver of the 8 cwt. at the time of the accident.

Witness identifies a list "Summary of Repairs to W.D. vehicle no C.2 as 20/7/39." also identifies signature of Capt. Hunter on the exhibit.

The exhibit was tendered signed by the President and annexed the proceedings.

Witness continued: no vehicle could leave the barracks of the accused without a work ticket signed by an officer. The regimental Headquarters of the accused had not left. It were only the battery which had left.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer Gnr. Had never been accused before night of accident.

I saw one soldier at the scene of the accident. That soldier was not the driver of the W.D. vehicle

Mr. Dimmick saw the accused. I am told. before I did in the evening.

It is not authorized. but it does happen that there are more than one work ticket at the same time for a W.D. vehicle.

The witness identified having seen before the work-ticket already in evidence.

I do not know anything about the state of the W.D. vehicle before the accident.

I think the accused's mind was clear the morning after the accident when he made a statement.

It had been raining. a light rain. the night of the accident. roads were more slippery than usual.

My understanding of the orders was that the no W.D. vehicle could leave barracks without a proper work-ticket.

Sometimes an O.C. delegates his power to sign work-tickets to say a B.S.M. when there

Questioned by the Court:-
By the light of the accident, on my way back the W.D. vehicle. A civilian car and vehicle time called a Mr. Aldridge.

The civilian car appeared to driven through the brick wall.
I saw skid marks at the scene the accident. The W.D. vehicles were in a westerly direction.
3rd witness for the Prosecution:-
Mr. Stanley Scott Alldridge, civil engi-Abberton, Colchester, duly sworn.
On 5 Aug. I was involved in an accident with a W.D. vehicle at Layer de la Haye
X roads. This was about 10 o'clock p.m.
I was returning from Colchester to occurred when I was passing through

I was travelling from North to South in a Ford 8. when my car was struck by a W.D. vehicle travelling East to West. My car was in the X road when struck. The next thing I knew was that my car had careered a brick wall.
It was a small army lorry which struck my car.
There was only one person for some moments and that was the driver. Identified the accused Smalls as the driver.
My car was an entire wreck the

The accused was in charge of the M.T. of his battery.
I identified the signature of Major Campbell on exhibit already rendered.
Questioned by the Court:-
I left right of the accident, on my second visit to the scene of the accident - this time with the constable. I looked more thoroughly at the W.D. vehicle. A civilian car arrived some time later, a Mr. Aldridge.
The civilian car appeared to have been driven through the brick wall.

3rd witness for the Pros. (cont'd)
Cross-examined by the Defending Officer. The X of my car was an English Ford 8. The X roads are level.
I don't know if the W.D. vehicle had its lights on or not. I am not sure if it should have or not.
It is a fairly blind corner that is where the accident happened. The road had only been rained the day before. The state of the road added to the momentum
4th witness for the Prosecution:
Frederick James George ~~Goff~~ Gough, R.C. Stationed at Layer de la Haye duly sworn.
About 2235 hrs. on Tues. 16th Sept. 1941 in consequence of information received I proceeded to the junction of High Road and Malting Green Road, Layer de la Haye where I saw that an accident had occurred between an Army vehicle No CZ 4205934 and a private motor car reg. No HTW 428. At the scene of the accident I made inquiries to ascertain who the driver of the Army vehicle was standing with no one in attendance in the centre of the junction was. He could not be found anywhere although I personally made a search in the vicinity of the accident. To the best of my knowledge this accident was not reported to the Police.
About twelve midday 6th August in consequence of further information I visited Lobroan B.R.C. Colchester where I saw Bdr. Emslie W.J. No 13615. I said to him "were you driving an army truck No CZ 4205934 which was concerned in an accident at the junction of High Road and Malting Green Road Layer de la Haye at about 1005 p.m. last night?" He replied yes. That is my evidence. Identities agreed.
Cross-examined by the Defence. First heard of the accident when spoken to by witnesses wife. Believe it was a soldier who spoke of accident.
Cannot recall if W.D. vehicles had its lights on.

J.F.G.B. 14

There is a delay of 24 hrs. to report an accident when a person is injured in an accident. Otherwise an accident does not have to be reported. Cannot say when a person is considered to be injured.
I saw the accused at a public house. only five or six yards from the accident. A lydney lady who had been in the accident was at this public house & the lady was lying on a couch. She was conscious. This accident had to be reported because the drivers did not exchange names and addresses. In such a case they should report to the police within 24 hrs.
At 1210 hrs. the Court adjourned until 1300 hrs.
At 1300 hrs. the Court reopened. The accused was brought in.
The Prosecution was closed.
The Accused was told by the President that he could evidence on oath or make a statement. He was not obliged to say either. R.P. 40(A) and Pte. 2 were complied with.
Accused elected to give evidence.
1st witness for the Defence:- no D13615 Gunner (A/Bdr) Wilcox John Ernest. 89 H Bty. 1st LL.A.D. Regt. duly sworn.
On 5th Aug. 41 at approximately 1730 hrs. one of my drivers brought in a 3 cwt. and stated to me that the motor was not running and also stated that there was certain things belonging to the Quarter stores that had to be unloaded later. After I finished my supper I took the truck. unloaded the field kitchen containers. then I took the truck to the garage that the 89th had allotted for our use and then I worked on the motor finding the carburetor was dirty, cleaning and replacing, adjusting the timing, then after all this I was 1930 and 2000 hrs. Gunner Harlee came in the yard along with Gunner Munroe E. I. stayed a few minutes and then left. Then I finished my work on the truck. then taking the truck out for testing somewhere about 2115 hrs on the way I stopped. road tested spark.
J.R.W.jr.

spark, also adjusted carburetor at the second stop. Then continued on until I came to the X roads at Lacey de Calaye. On approaching the X roads I suddenly see a car flashing in front of me. I put on the brakes immediately but could not avoid collision. I was travelling at about 25 m.p.h. at top speed. After the accident I rushed to the car - the civilian car that had gone in to the brick wall, grabbing the door on the passenger side of the car. I was told by the driver not to open that door for fear of glass flying. Then I rushed to the other side and helped the driver of the car out. Then later telling a lad or soldier to run for a M.O. also notify the police. Then I went back to the car helped the driver get the lady out. and by that time others had come. and then shook up my mind was not clear of how to notify Headquarters of the accident. Coming back to the Barracks I tried to find Captain Palmer and not being able to find him at the moment I decided I would wait until I found him before giving any information as to the accident before seeing him. In the morning I went over to the Officers mess found Captain Palmer, told him what had happened and then on my way to the Colonel I met Captain Mackaren and Lieut. Berwick. told them my story and then continued on to the Colonel. and stated what had happened to me. figuring that I was N.C.O. i/c of the rear party which was authorized by Major Campbell of the 89 before leaving for Fleurbaix Camp. as to myself would be in charge of the rear party and considered as the authorization that I already had and had been doing could sign my own work ticket for the occasion.

J.A.S.B.
J.A.

I worked on the vehicle after supper. because we had been moving to new quarters all day and because the truck was required by the Quartermaster. I stopped twice to make adjustments to the car. It had been raining that night, even while I was making my last adjustment. I chose that road because I had used it before. Because there was a hill. I could slow down so as to tell if my spark was right adjusted. When I drew it on making a circle! meant going one way. I can't explain exactly. By the 89th Bty. with there were no officers the rear party. I might state that Lieut. Boyer came on day but left the other.

I think I had approximately thirty-five men all told. The Quartermaster Sergeant was the senior. The Q.M. Sgt. had nothing to do with detailing the guards etc. There was a sign "major road ahead" when approaching the Xroads. The civilian vehicle had no lights on. as far I can remember. I had mine on. You could see the road perfectly with mine lights. The reason I had mine on was to draw attention.

Cross-examined. There was a Sgt Ronan in the rear party He was in the hospital when the battery left. I am not quite sure when he left the hospital. I was authorized by major Campbell to take charge.

I did not personally report the accident to the police.

I don't know why I left the vehicle. I was shaken up. I didn't know how to go about it. When I said I did not have a proper work ticket I meant I did not have one signed by an officer. In the months of July I did sometimes sign a work ticket when there were no officers. It was clearly understood I could sign work tickets for trips to London. Etc. etc. that I could for testing and things like that.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor Capt.
I know who a Sgt Ronan in the rear party.
To my knowledge he was in charge of the rear party.
When I took my truck I got my work ticket signed at R.H.Q. Bdr. Emalie never signed any work-ticket for me.
Re-examined
When the battery went to Fergy Camp
Sgt Ronan was in charge of the rearparty.
Q. How do you explain why you said at the summary of Evidence that the accused was in charge of the rear party. When you now say that Lt Ronan was?
A. I meant the accused was i/c of m.t.
Sgt. Ronan was on duty in the barracks the day of the accident.
The Defence closed.
Re-Examined by the Defending Officer.
When the Adjutant could not be found,
I did sign work tickets for other drivers.
but not to go outside the town.
The Defence closed.
The Defending Officer:
I feel that the Prosecution failed to prove that the accused took the vehicle without proper authority and for his private purposes.
We already have a signed document or affidavit which states that the accused was permitted to sign work tickets for himself and his drivers. The Prosecution did not prove that this said document had been cancelled at a later date.
The Prosecutor failed to prove that the said Bombardier responsible for the said vehicle. I would like to call Lt. Col. Baldwin's testimony. My own experience if the accused was travelling at the speed the witness the car would have rolled over and not travelled over 50 feet further.

J.R.A.B
2/Lt

The Prosecution did not prove that the accused failed to report the accident. I refer the Court again to the Aldridges and the policemans testimony not that he failed to render first aid.

The Prosecutor made a final address.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D.13615 A/Bdr. EMSLIE, W.J., 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A.

185559 Driver GROOM, L.A.G., 45 Petrol Coy., R.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am 185559 Driver GROOM, L.A.G., of the 45 Petrol Coy., R.A.S.C., attached to 191 Fd. Amb., R.A.M.C. On 5 Aug 41 I was walking along the road from Layer Cress to Malting Green with Pte. Lawson, A.V., 191 Fd. Amb., R.A.M.C., between 2130 and 2200 hours, when I saw a small W.D. truck approaching us at a fair speed. I judged that the W.D. vehicle was travelling between 30 m.p.h. and 40 m.p.h. when it passed us, about 400 to 500 yards from Layer Cross. I did not see the collision, but I heard the crash. Pte. Lawson and I went back to the scene of the accident, arriving 4 or 5 minutes later. I saw the bombardier and spoke to him."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Leslie A Groom
(L.A.G. Groom) Driver.

Mr. Stanley Scott ALLDERIDGE, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Stanley Scott ALLDERIDGE, resident engineer, South Essex Waterworks, Abberton, Essex. Just after 2200 hours on 5 Aug 41 I was returning from Colchester to Layer de la Haye. I was approaching Layer crossroads. I slowed up before the crossroads and was just accelarating over the crossing, when I saw the lorry coming out from the Malting Green road and I was unable to get out of his way. The two vehicles collided. I didn't see the driver at the time, and after a few moments, when I inquired for him he wasn't present. I could find no-one with the lorry, after I attended to the passenger in my car."

Q.1 Do you remember me coming to the door of your car and opening it?

A.1 I do not definitely remember you as coming to the car, I was under the impression that the R.A.M.C. corporal was the first man to come.

Q.2 Do you remember asking anybody for a drop of whisky or brandy for the passenger?

A.2 No, I don't remember, but it is highly probable, as I was under the impression that my passenger had fainted, instead of being unconcious which proved to be the case.

Q.3 Do you remember me trying to open the passenger side door?

A.3 I do remember someone trying to open that door.

Q.4 Do you remember me asking a soldier on a push-bike coming along the road whom I asked "where an M.O. could be found"?

A.4 No, I don't remember.

The accused declines to further cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS

Frederick James George GOUGH, Police Constable, Essex County Constabulary, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Frederick James George Gough, P.C., Essex County Constabulary stationed at Layer de la Haye. At about 1035 p.m. on Tuesday 5 Aug 41, in consequence of information received, I proceeded to the junction of High Road and Malting Green Road, Layer de la Haye, where I saw that an accident had occurred between an army vehicle, No. CZ.4205934 and a civilian motor car, HTW.428. At the scene of the accident I made inquiries to ascertain who the driver of the army vehicle, which was standing with no one in attendance in the centre of the junction, was. He could not be found anywhere, although I personally made a search in the vicinity of the accident. To the best of my knowledge the driver of the army vehicle did not report this accident to the police. In consequence of further information, at 12 midday Wednesday 6 Aug 41, I went to Sobraon Barracks, Colchester, where I saw Bdr. EMSLIE, W.J., D.13615. I said to him, "Were you driving an army truck, CZ.4205934, which was concerned in an accident at the junction of High Road and Malting Green Road, Layer de la Haye, at about 1005 p.m. Tuesday night?" He replied "Yes".

The accused decline to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS

Lieut. J.S. DINNICK, 2 (Yorkton) Bty., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Lieut. J.S. DINNICK, 2 (Yorkton) Bty., R.C.A. On the night of 5/6 Aug. 41., I was Regimental Orderly Officer, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A. At approximately 2300 hours 5 Aug 41 a Major BEVIR of "B" Coy., 191 Field Ambulance, R.A.M.C., called me as Orderly Officer. Next morning at about 0900 hours I learned from Bdr. Emslie that he had been the driver of the 8-cwt which was involved in the accident. He stated "I did not have a proper work ticket when I was in possession of the vehicle last night."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J.S. Dinnick

(J.S. Dinnick) Lieutenant

FIFTH WITNESS

Capt. D.A.M. MacLAREN, 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Capt. D.A.M. MacLAREN, of 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., R.C.A. On the 5 Aug 41 at approximately 2300 hours I was informed by the Regimental Orderly Officer that an accident had occurred at the crossroads in Layer de la Haye. I proceeded to the scene of the accident and found W.D. vehicle No. Cz.4205934 in a damaged condition. On questioning Bdr. Emslie next morning I said, "Did you take the 8-cwt out last night, and were you the driver at the time of the accident?" He replied, as nearly as I can remember, with the following words, "Yes, sir, I took the 8-cwt out and I was driving it when the accident happened." Later I asked, "Did you have a signed work ticket to go out?" Bdr. Emslie replied, "No, sir, I did not." After the vehicle was repaired by the 3 Lt. A.A. Workshop Section, R.C.O.C., I received this statement which I produce, showing the summary of repairs and costs for same, amounting to £1.14.0., signed by Capt. G.M. Hunter, R.C.O.C."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

D.A.M. MacLaren

(D.A.M. MacLaren) Captain.

The accused was warned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement, or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.

THE ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:-

"On the 5 Aug 41, at about 1900 hours, I decided to check up on the report of Gnr. Larlee that the engine of the 8-cwt. truck was not running properly. I examined the motor and worked on the carburretor and timing. I finished at about 2100 hours and then I decided to try out the truck by running it for a few miles to check any adjustments. I considered that as I was the N.C.O. in charge of the rear party of the 89 Lt. A.A. Bty. I could sign a work ticket for myself for this run. When I was approaching the cross-road at Layer de la Haye, I was not travelling more than 30 miles per hour. I slowed down when I saw the cross-roads to about 20 miles per hour. When I saw the civilian car approaching at a speed of at least 35 miles per hour, proceeding South, I immediately applied my brakes but as I was too close to the intersection I could not slow down the truck to stop before it collided with the civilian car. I deny leaving the scene of the accident without taking any steps to assist the driver and passenger in Mr. Allderidge's car. I tried to assist them by helping them out of the car, and I sent a soldier on a bicycle to try to get medical assistance, and I asked him to report the accident to the police. In about 2 or 3 minutes about 10 people arrived at the scene of the accident, and some of them assisted in carrying the passenger to the inn. Due to the fact that I was mentally shaken by the fact of the accident and could not think properly, I suddenly had an impulse to get back to barracks before the police arrived. I fully intended to report the accident to my Battery Commander first thing the following morning. At about 0900 hours on 6 Aug 41 I verbally reported the accident to Capt. MacLaren and Lieut. Dinnick."

WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

C.4038 Gnr. LARLEE, R.H., 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am C.4038 Gnr. Larlee, R.H., 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A. On the 5 Aug 41 I was the driver of the 8-cwt truck during the day. At about 1700 hours I reported to Bdr. Emslie, who was the Battery Motor Mechanic, and also the N.C.O. in charge of the rear party of the 89 Lt. A.A. Bty., that the engine of this vehicle was not running properly. Later, betwee 1930 and 2000 hours, Gnr. Munro, E.T., and I came to the garage to speak to Bdr. Emslie. At that time I saw that he was working on the carburretor of the engine in the 8-cwt. truck."

The accused declines to examine this witness.
