1st Witness 1=8967 Pte DeRoche C.W.P

~~Yes I~~ I accompanied Pte Estabrooke, Cpl Raymond Cpls Cantin to the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise France. It was my first visit Could not find toilet but ended up in the cellar looking for it. We did nothing there or took nothing there. I could not say whether Pte Estabrooke had a bottle with him when he arrived. I did not see him drop a bottle in the Cafe Bolognaise. We proceeded to another Cafe with Pte Estabrooke. He there produced a bottle of Cognac which Pte Estabrooke claimed to have purchased for about 400 frc from a man on the street. We there drank the bottle of cognac.

XXX

left Cafe Bolognaise to go to latrine but could not find it. It was possible to leave the courtyard ~~in a~~ by climbing a small fence without passing through the Cafe.

I met Pte Estabrooke & Cpl Raymond on their way from barracks to the Cafe Bolognaise. Pte Estabrooke could have had a bottle in his tunic but I did not notice it. ~~I did not~~ I did not notice a bottle at the foot of my chair before it was kicked over. Pte Estabrooke and I went to another Cafe where we bought a round of beer. I did not see Estabrooke purchase the bottle he had with him in the second Cafe. I could not recognise the man the bottle was purchased from. I gave Estabrooke the money to purchase the bottle of Cognac.

2nd Witness.

Mlle Lucienne Martin.

~~I am~~ My mother owns the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise France.

On the evening of 13 Dec 44 while working at the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise France at about 7.30 I saw two soldiers come out from the yard. as the cellar door was open they entered the cellar. When they came up from the cellar I went out. ~~They~~ Pte Estabrooke was on the cellar stairs and he called his comerad friend and they entered the Cafe. I went down to the cellar to see how many bottles of cognac there were there. I saw there were four missing. I asked Pte Estabrooke and his companion if they had taken them. He answered no, meanwhile a bottle slipped out of his tunic and fell on the floor. My mother entered the Cafe at this time and she asked him to return the cognac and he refused. Madame Martin picked up the bottle that had fallen on the floor and Pte Estabrooke took it from my mothers hand. He placed the bottle on the table and my mother took it after that they left the Cafe. ~~On~~ When Pte Estabrooke left the Cafe ~~I~~ he saw the form of a bottle still showing in his tunic.

X X M

My mother owns the stock in Cafe Bolognaise

The stock was last counted before the incident ~~was~~ at noon that day

There ~~was~~ were about 1/4 bottle of Cognac sold before the incident

I did not SEE a bottle on his person when he left the Cafe.

Pte Estabrooke offered to purchase the bottle that fell on the floor but Mde Martin would not sell.

Cpl Jones. R G47170 14 Cdn Fd Amb. RCAMC.

On the evening of 15 Sep 44 I was in the Cafe Bolagnaise in Marquise France accompanied by Cpl Raymond Pte Estabrooke and Pte DeRoche. After having a few drinks Pte Estabrooke & Pte DeRoche left the Cafe by the back entrance saying they were going to the toilet. About five minutes later I went out the same door. At the entrance to the door were the steps leading to the cellar. At the foot of the cellar steps I saw Ptes Estabrookes & DeRoche. About halfway down the steps was one of the ladies of the Cafe. She was talking to them in French which I could not understand. They all came up the cellar steps and entered the Cafe at the same time as I did. The lady upon entering locked the door. I asked Pte Richard to find out what was wrong as he could talk French. He said that the lady claimed that there was cognac missing from the Cafe. He said that the lady claimed that Pte Estabrookes & Pte LaRoche had it. On asking them if this was true they denied it. A bottle of Cognac slipped out of Estabrookes trouser on to the floor. The lady told Pte Richard that it was hers. Pte Estabrookes offered to buy the bottle. Mlle Martin stated that she was not allowed to sell it. Pte Estabrookes allowed her to have it back. She then having found the second bottle of Cognac by Pte DesRoches feet. One of the girls returned the two bottles to the cellar. When she returned she told Pte Richard that there were still two bottles missing. Pte Estabrookes denied having any of it with him. He then left the Cafe accompanied by Pte DesRoches. The lady in the Cafe stated that she wanted to repo that two bottles of Cognac had been stolen. Myself & Cpl Raymond told her that we would see these two fellows and see if they had it. We called at another pub where Pte Estabrooke & Desleeles were. Cpl Raymond called Pte Estabrooke outside and asked him if he had her Cognac. He did not say that it was here but pulled a bottle ~~of~~ out stating that this is one bottle she will not get. We told him that we would have to report the matter as the lady in the Cafe insisted on it being reported unless it was returned.

XXM.

Pros: I did not notice any ~~one~~ bulged on his person before entering the cafe, or Boulogne on leaving. I saw Pte Estabrooke pull ~~it~~ a bottle out ~~of~~ his tunic at the second Cafe.

Defence

Pte Estabrooke re-entered the Cafe without force. There was no struggle when the bottle was given up. No attempt was made to get Estabrooke to return the bottle he showed at the second Cafe to Cafe Boulogne.

4th Witness for Prosecution.

G. 47149 Cpl Raymond D.A. 1st Cdn Fd Amb

Pte Estabrooke left billets in Marquise with me on the evening of the 13 Sep. There was no sign of any bottles on his person. We proceeded to the Cafe ~~Boulogne~~ Bolognaise. He expressed the wish to go to the toilet. He did so I did not hear him receive instructions as to the location of the toilet. When he I did ~~not~~ notice ~~any~~ a bulge in his tunic on his return from the yard and on questioning he stated he had nothing there. Pte Estabrooke then sat down and a bent over and a bottle fell out of his tunic on to the floor. After a little argument he gave up the bottle. He claimed that he had bought the bottle but he had not [illegible] certain knowledge at the Cafe Bolognaise or on the way there. I did not notice anything in his tunic when he left the Cafe. A.G.P.

I followed him to the other Cafe because Madame Martin stated that if the other two bottles were returned to her she would forget the incident.

They were in the other Cafe. We called Pte Estabrooke out. He spoke. On questioning he pulled a bottle out of his tunic stating in effect that here was one bottle that Madame Martin would not get.

X×M.

Pte Estabrookes reentered the Cafe Bolognaise of his own free will.

The bottle that fell to the floor could not be recognised by label or other sign.

I could not identify the bottle.

Pte Estabrooke resisted Madame Martins attempt to retrieve the bottle that had fallen from his tunic to the floor

Pte Estabrooke offered to buy a bottle of Cognac from Madame Martin

No real complaint was made by Pte Estabrooke when Madame Martin took back the bottle.

~~Defence~~ Defence.

No witnesses for the defence were called.

No evidence or statement of character given by the accused.

Pte Estabrooke has a clean character and clean conduct sheet. The case is complicated by misunderstanding & language difficulties. His record has been good.

Judge Advocate addresses the Court

The accused is charged with stealing. A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right ~~made~~ in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof.

The prosecution alleges, and must prove, that the accused did those things alleged in the charge and moreover that those things constitute the offence charged. Witnesses have appeared before the court to give their testimony and you have had the opportunity of hearing and observing these witnesses and it is part of your judicial discretion to decide whether you believe them. The accused is by law, presumed to be innocent until he has been proved otherwise. The burden of establishing guilt lies upon the prosecution and unless the prosecution satisfies you beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty, then you must find him innocent.

Reasonable doubt does not mean the vague, ephemeral doubt that a cowardly man could conjure up in his mind in order to evade an unpleasant responsibility. It is, on the other hand, that indecision, which when encountered in ordinary life, prevents you from taking positive action.

Then an older lady came in, which I think was her mother, and saw Esterbrooks with a bottle in his hand and pleaded to get it back. In the meantime four other soldiers came into the above cafe, one of them Pte. J. Richard, G63158, whom we had interpret for us. When Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche came back into the cafe, the lady came in and locked the door and I knew there was something wrong and Pte. Richard told us she said 4 bottles of cognac was missing. I then asked Pte. Deroche and Pte. Estabrooks about it and they said they didn't have it. Then Pte. Estabrooks bent over in his chair and a bottle of cognac fell out of his tunic. He then picked it up and did not want to give it up at first, after arguing, Mme. Martin got the bottle of cognac. Pte. I, G47170 L/Cpl. Jones, R.G., on the evening of 13th September, 1944, left my billets accompanied by Cpl. Raymond and Pte. Estabrooks and proceeded to Cafe Bolognais. On our way we picked up Pte. Deroche. The four of us entered the cafe and had a few drinks of cognac and beer. Shortly after entering Pte. Esterbrooks enquired where the toilet was. He and Deroche went out the back door towards the toilet. Not later than five minutes, I went out to the toilet and they were not there. I heard a lady talking in the cellar and having to pass the cellar door on my way back into the cafe, I looked down the cellar and at the bottom of the steps was Pte. Esterbrooks and Pte. Deroche. The lady was part way down the steps, and was talking in French, which I could not understand. I entered the cafe followed by the lady, Pte. Esterbrooks and Pte. Deroche. The lady went to the front door and locked it. In my absence Pte. Richard and a couple of other boys had entered the cafe. I knew something was wrong when she locked the door as she was all excited. I told Pte. Richard to ask the trouble and she said these two men, which were Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche, had taken some of her cognac from the cellar. The proprietress of the cafe wanted to search the boys and while they were talking a bottle of cognac fell out of Pte. Estabrooks' tunic onto the floor.

He picked it up and wanted to buy it. The lady said that it was against her orders to sell it. Pte. Estabrooks did not want to give it back to her. After we had talked to him for a few minutes, he gave her back the bottle. Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche got up to leave the cafe, when the lady found the second bottle that was by Pte. Deroche's feet. One of the ladies took the two bottles of cognac back to the cellar. She returned and stated that there were still two bottles of cognac missing. There was a lot of talking in French which I did not understand. After Deroche and Estabrooks had left the cafe, Pte. Richard said that unless the two bottles were returned, she would report it. Cpl. Raymond and myself told her that we would see the fellows of whom she was convinced had taken her cognac. We went to another cafe and Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche were there. Cpl. Raymond called Pte. Estabrooks out and asked him to returnthe two bottles, if he had them. Cpl. Then an older lady came in, which I think was her mother, and saw Esterbrooks with a bottle in his hand and pleaded to get it back. I am Cpl. D.A. Raymond, G47149 of No. 2 Section, "A" company 1h Canadian Field Ambulance. At about 1915 hours 17 September 19hh, L/Cpl. Jones, G47170, Pte. Estabrooks G47238, Pte Deroche R68967 and myself entered Cafe Bolognias. After buying a drink, Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche went to the toilet. In the meantime four other soldiers came into the above cafe, one of them Pte. J. Richard, G67158, who we had interpret for us. When Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche came back into the cafe, the lady came in and locked the door and I knew there was something wrong and Pte. Richard told us she said h bottles of cognac was missing. I then asked Pte. Deroche and Pte. Estabrooks about it and they said they didn't have it. Then Pte. Estabrooks bent over in his chair and a bottle of cognac fell out of his tunic. He then picked it up and did not want to give it up at first, after arguing, Mme. Martin got the bottle of cognac. Pte. Deroche sat on the bench behind the table, and when he went to get up, he kicked a bottle of cognac on the floor which Mlle. Martin picked up. She then went to the cellar and came back and said there was still 2 bottles of cognac missing. We asked Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche about it but they said they didn't have it. They then left the cafe. After talking to Mme. Martin, she said, if the two other bottles were returned there would be no trouble. L/Cpl. Jones and myself then went to another cafe and called Pte. Estabrooks outside. We asked Estabrooks about the bottle and he pulled it out of his tunic saying, "there it is and she's not getting it back", or words to that effect. I told him then there would be trouble and that I was going to report him. We then went back to the Cafe Bolognais and talked to Mme. Martin and brought her to report the incident to Major Norton, O.C. of "A" Company, 1h Canadian Field Ambulance.

Sixth Witness - G47170 L/Cpl. Jones, H.G., No. 2 Section, "A" Company, 1h Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I, G47170 L/Cpl. Jones, H.G., on the evening of 17th September, 19hh, left my billets accompanied by Cpl. Raymond and Pte. Estabrooks and proceeded to Cafe Bolognais. On our way we picked up Pte. Deroche. The four of us entered the cafe and had a few drinks of cognac and beer. Shortly after entering Pte. Estabrooks enquired where the toilet was. He and Deroche went out the back door towards the toilet. Not later than five minutes, I went out to the toilet and they were not there. I heard a lady talking in the cellar and having to pass the cellar door on my way back into the cafe, I looked down the cellar and at the bottom of the steps was Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche. The lady was part way down the steps, and was talking in French, which I could not understand. I entered the cafe followed by the lady, Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche. The lady went to the front door and locked it. In my absence Pte. Richard and a couple of other boys had entered the cafe. I knew something was wrong when she locked the door as she was all excited. I told Pte. Richard to ask the trouble and she said these two men, which were Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche, had taken some of her cognac from the cellar. The proprietress of the cafe wanted to search the boys and while they were talking a bottle of cognac fell out of Pte. Estabrooks' tunic onto the floor.

He picked it up and wanted to buy it. The lady said that it was against her orders to sell it. Pte. Estabrooks did not want to give it back to her. After we had talked to him for a few minutes, he gave her back the bottle. Pte. Estabrooks and Pte. Deroche got up to leave the cafe, when the lady found the second bottle that was by Pte. Deroche's feet. One of the ladies took the two bottles of cognac back to the cellar. She returned and stated that there were still two bottles of cognac missing. There was a lot of talking in French which I did not understand. After Deroche and Estabrooks had left the cafe, Pte. Richard said that unless the two bottles were returned, she would report it. Cpl. Raymond and myself told her that we would see the fellows of whom she was convinced had taken her cognac. We went to another cafe and Pte. Estabrooks and Pte, Deroche were there. Cpl. Raymond called Pte. Estabrooks out and asked him to returnthe two bottles, if he had them. Cpl. Raymond stated the lady would report it to our officer if the bottles were not returned and it would cause a lot of trouble. Pte. Estabrooks pulled a bottle out of his tunic and said, "Here is one bottle she will not get", or words to that effect. He also said that he was out to get drunk and he did not want us to bother him. Cpl. Raymond and I tried to reason with him but he would not listen to us, so we went back to the cafe and the proprietress wanted to have the incident reported. So Cpl. Raymond and I, also Pte. Richard, went up with her to see Major Norton. She reported to him about the whole affair.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. C-472386 William Ervin ESTABROOKS, 14 Cdn Fd Amb - charged with stealing 2 bottles of Cognac.

PLEA

1st Witness F-88967 Pte De Roche, C.W.P.

I accompanied Pte Estabrooks, Cpl Raymond, Cpl Cook to the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France. It was my first visit. Could not find toilet but ended up in the cellar looking for it. We did nothing there or took nothing there. I couldn't say whether Pte Estabrooke had a bottle with him when he arrived. I did not see him drop a bottle in the Cafe Bolognaise. We proceeded to another Cafe with Pte Estabrooke. He then produced a bottle of Cognac which Pte Estabrooke claimed to have purchased for about 400 francs from a man on the street. We there drank the bottle of cognac,

XXX

Left Cafe Bolognaise to go to Latrine but could not find it. It was possible to leave the courtyard by climbing a small fence without passing through the cafe.

I met Pte Estabrooke and Cpl Raymond on my way from barracks to the Cafe Bolognaise. Pte Estabrooke could have had a bottle in his tunic but I did not notice it. I did not notice a bottle at the foot of my chair before it was kicked over. Pte Estabrookes and I went to another Cafe where we bought a round of beer. I did not see Estabrooke purchase the bottle he had with him in the second Cafe. I could not recognise the man the bottle was purchased from. I gave Estabrooke the money to purchase the bottle of Cognac.

2nd Witness Mlle Lucienne Martin.

My mother owns the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France.

On the evening of 13 Dec 44 while working at the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France at about 1430 I saw two soldiers come out from the yard, as the cellar door was open they entered the cellar. When they came up from the cellar I went out. Pte Estabrooke was on the cellar stairs and he called his friend and they entered the Cafe. I went down to the cellar to see how many bottles of cognac there were there. I saw there were four missing. I asked Pte Estabrooke and his companion if they had taken them. He answered no, meanwhile a bottle slipped out of his tunic and fell on the floor. My mother entered the Cafe at this time and she asked him to return the cognac and he refused. Madame Martin picked up the bottle that had fallen on the floor and Pte Estabrooke took it from my mothers hand. He placed the bottle on the table and my mother took it. After that they left the Cafe. When Pte Estabrooke left the Cafe I saw the form of a bottle still showing in his tunic.

XXX

My mother owns the stock in Cafe Bolognaise. The stock was last counted before the incident at noon that day. There was about 4 bottle of Cognac sold before the incident.
I did not see a bottle in his person when he left the Cafe.
Pte Estabrooke offered to purchase the bottle that fell on the floor but Mle Martin would not sell.

"HCP"

3rd Witness for the Prosecution Cpl Jones, R. G-47170, 14 Cdn Fd Amb, RCAMC.

On the evening of 15 Sep 44, I was in Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France, accompanied by Cpl Raymond, Pte Estabrooke and Pte DeRoche. After having a few drinks Pte Estabrooke and Pte DeRoche left the Cafe by the back entrance saying they were going to the toilet. About five minutes later I went out the same door. At the entrance to the door were the steps leading to the cellar. At the foot of the cellar steps I saw Ptes Estabrookes and De Roche. About halfway down the steps was one of the ladies of the Cafe. She was talking to them in French which I could not understand. They all came up the cellar steps and entered the Cafe at the same time as I did . The lady upon entering locked the door. I asked Pte Richard to find out what was wrong as he could talk French. He said that the lady claimed that there was cognac missing from the cafe. He said that the lady claimed that Pte Estabrookes and Pte La Roche had it. On asking them if this was true they denied it. A bottle of Cognac slipped out of Estabrookes tunic on to the floor. The lady told Pte Richard that it was hers. Pte Estabrookes offered to buy the bottle. Mde Martin stated that she was not allowed to sell it. Pte Estabrookes allowed her to have it back. She then having found the second bottle of Cognac by Pte Des Roches feet. One of the girls returned the two bottles to the cellar. When she returned she told Pte Richard that there were still two bottles missing. Pte Estabrookes denied having any of it with him. He then left the Cafe accompanied by Pte Des Roches. The lady in the Cafe stated that she wanted to report that two bottles of Cognac had been stolen. Myself and Cpl Raymond told her that we would see these two fellows and see if they had it. We called at another pub where Pte Estabrooke and Des Roches were. Cpl Raymond called Pte Estabrookes outside and asked him if he had her Cognac. He did not say that it was hers but pulled a bottle out stating that this is one bottle she will not get. We told him that we would have to report the matter as the lady in the Cafe insiste on it being reported unless it was returned.

XXM

Pros I did not notice any bulges on his person before entering the cafe Boulognaise or on leaving. I saw Pte Estabrooke pull a bottle out of his tunic at the second cafe.

Defence Pte Estabrooke re-entered the Cafe without force. There was not struggle when the bottle was given up. No attempt was made to get Estabrooke to return the bottle he showed at the second Cafe to Cafe Boulognaise.

4th Witness for Prosecution G-47149 Cpl Raymond, D.A. 14 Cdn Fd Amb

Pte Estabrooke left billets in Marquise with me on the evening of the 13 Sep. There was no sign of any bottles on his person. We proceeded to the Cafe Bolognaise. He expressed the wish to go to the toilet. I did not hear him receive instructions as to the location of the toilet. I did notice a bulge in his tunic on he return from the yard and on questioning he stated he had nothing there. Pte Estabrooke then sat down and bent over and a bottle fell out of his tunic on to the floor. After a little argument he gave up the bottle. He claimed that he had bought the bottle but he had not done so to my certain knowledge at the Cafe Bolognaise or on the way there. I did not notice anything in his tunic when he left the Cafe.

I followed him to the Cafe because Madame Martin stated that if the other two bottles were returned to her she would forget the incident.

11HCP

They were in the other Cafe. We called Pte Estabrooke out. On questioning he pulled a bottle out of his tunic stating in effect that here was one bottle that they would not get.

XXM

Pte Estabrookes re-entered the Cafe Bolognaise of his own free will.
The bottle that fell ~~am~~ to the floor could not be recognised by label or other sign.
I could not identify the bottle.
Pte Estabrooke resisted Madame Martins attempt to retrieve the bottle that had fallen from his tunic to the floor.
Pte Estabrooke offered to buy a bottle of Cognac from Madame Martin.
No real complaint was made by Pte Estabrooke when Madame Martin took back the bottle.

Defence

No witnesses for the defence were called.

No evidence or statement of character given by the accused.

Pte Estabrooke has a clean character and clean conduct sheet. The case is complicated by misunderstanding and language difficulties. His record has been good.

"ACH"

Judge Advocate addresses the Court

The accused is charged with stealing. A person steal who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof.

The prosecution alleges, and must prove, that the accused did t ose things alleged in the charge and moreover that those things constitute the offence charged. Witnesses have appeared before the court to give their testimony and you have had the opportunity of hearing and observing these witnesses and it is part of your judicial discretion to decide whether you believe them. The accused, is by law, presumed to be innocent until he has been proved otherwise. The burden of establishing guilt lies upon the prosecution and unless the prosecution satisfies you beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty, then you must find him innocent.

Reasonable doubt does not mean the vague, ephemeral doubt that a cowardly man could conjure up in his mind in order to evade an unpleasant responsibility. It is, on the other hand, that indecision, which when encountered in ordinary life, prevents you from taking positive action.

Fourth Witness — G-65158 Pte Richard, J. No.2 Section "A" Company, 14 Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I am Pte Richard, J. of the 14 Canadian Field Ambulance. On the 13th September, 1944, at about 1930 hours, I was in the Cafe Bolognias where I saw Pte Estarbrooks and Pte Deroche. A girl came in, I can't remember her name. She said some cognac was missing and accused them of stealing her liquor. Then an older lady came in, which I think was her mother, and saw Estarbrooks with a bottle in his hand and pleaded to get it back. One of the Ladies went to Deroche and accused him, and I saw a bottle under his seat. I saw the bottles but cannot say what the contents were or whether they were full or empty.

"J. Richard".

Fifth Witness G-47149 Cpl Raymond, D.A., No.2 Section "A" Company 14 Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I am Cpl D.A. Raymond, G-47149 of No.2 Section, "A" Company 14 Canadian Field Ambulance. At about 1915 hours 13 September 1944, L/Cpl Jones, G-47170, Pte Estabrooks G-47238, Pte Deroche F-86967 and myself entered Cafe Bolognias. After buying a drink, Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche went to the toilet. In the meantime four other soldiers came into the above cafe, one of them Pte J. Richard, G-63188, who we had interpret for us. When Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche came back into the cafe, the lady came in and locked the door and I knew there was something wrong and Pte Richard told us she said 4 bottles of cognac was missing. I then asked Pte Deroche and Pte Estabrooks about it and they said they didn't have it. Then Pte Estabrooks bent over in his chair and a bottle of cognac fell out of his tunic. He then picked it up and did not want to give it up at first, after arguing Mme Martin got the bottle of cognac. Pte Deroche sat on the bench behind the table and when he went to get up, he kicked a bottle of cognac on the floor which Mlle. Martin picked up. She then went to the cellar and came back and said there was still 2 bottles of cognac missing. We asked Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche about it but they said they didn't have it. They then left the cafe. After talking to Mme Martin, she said if the other two bottles were returned there would be no trouble. L/Cpl Jones and myself then went to another cafe and called Pte Estabrooks outside. We asked Estabrooks about the bottle and he pulled it out of his tunic saying "there it is and she's not getting it back" or words to that effect. I told him then there would be trouble and that I was going to report him. We then went back to the Cafe Bolognais and talked to Mme. Martin and brought her to report the incident to Major Norton, O.C. of "A" Company, 14 Canadian Field Ambulance.

"Cpl D.A. Raymond"

Sixth Witness G-47170 L/Cpl Jones, R.G., No.2 Section "A" Company, 14 Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I, G-47170 L/Cpl Jones, R.G., on the evening of 13th September, 1944, left my billets accompanied by Cpl Raymond and Pte Estabrooks and proceeded to Cafe Bolognais. On our way we picked up Pte Deroche. The four of us entered the cafe and had a few drinks of cognac and beer. Shortly after entering Pte Esterbrooks enquired where the toilet was. He and Deroche went out the back door towards the toilet. Not later than five minutes I went out to the toilet and they were not there. I heard a lady talking in the cellar and having to pass the cellar door on my way back into the cafe I looked down the cellar and at the bottom of the steps was Pte Esterbrooks and Pte Deroche. The lady was part way down the steps and was talking in French which I could not understand. I entered the cafe followed by the lady, Pte Esterbrooks and Pte Deroche. The lady went to the front door and locked it. In my absence Pte Richard and a couple of other boys had entered the cafe. I knew something was wrong when she locked the door as she was all excited. I told Pte Richard to ask the trouble and she said these two men, which were Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche, had taken some of her cognac from the cellar. The proprietress of the cafe wanted to search the boys and while they were talking a bottle of cognac fell out of Pte Estabrooks' tunic onto the floor. He picked it up and wanted to buy it. The lady said that it was against her orders to sell it. Pte Estabrooks did not want to give it back to her. After we had talked to him for a few minutes he gave her back the bottle. Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche got up to leave the cafe, when the lady found the second bottle that was by Pte Deroche's feet. One of the ladies took the two bottles of cognac back to the cellar. She returned and stated that there were still two bottles of cognac missing. There was a lot of talking in French which I did not understand. After Deroche and Estabrooks had left the cafe, Pte Richard said that unless the two bottles were returned she would report it. Cpl Raymond and myself told her that we would see the fellows of whom she was convinced had taken her cognac. We went to another cafe and Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche were there. Cpl Raymond called Pte Estabrooks out and asked him to return the two bottles if he had them. Cpl Raymond stated the lady would report it to our officer if the bottles were not returned and it would cause a lot of trouble. Pte Estabrooks pulled a bottle out of his tunic and said "Here is one bottle she will not get" or words to that effect. He also said he was out to get drunk and he did not want us to bother him. Cpl Raymond and I tried to reason with him but he would not listen to us so we went back to the cafe and the proprietress wanted to have the incident reported. So Cpl Raymond and I, also Pte Richard, went up with her to see Major Norton. She reported to him about the whole affair.

"L/Cpl R.O. Jones"

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

PLEA

1st Witness F-88967 Pte De Roche, C.W.P.

I accompanied Pte Estabrooks, Cpl Raymond, Cpl Cook to the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France. It was my first visit. Could not find toilet but ended up in the cellar looking for it. We did nothing there or took nothing there. I couldn't say whether Pte Estabrooke had a bottle with him when he arrived. I did not see him drop a bottle in the Cafe Bolognaise. We proceeded to another Cafe with Pte Estabrooke. He then produced a bottle of Cognac which Pte Estabrooke claimed to have purchased for about 400 francs from a man on the street. We there drank the bottle of cognac,

XXM

Left Cafe Bolognaise to go to Latrine but could not find it. It was possible to leave the courtyard by climbing a small fence without passing through the cafe.

I met Pte Estabrooke and Cpl Raymond on my way from barracks to the Cafe Bolognaise. Pte Estabrooke could have had a bottle in his tunic but I did not notice it. I did not notice a bottle at the foot of my chair before it was kicked over. Pte Estabrookes and I went to another Cafe where we bought a round of beer. I did not see Estabrooke purchase the bottle he had with him in the second Cafe. I could not recognise the man the bottle was purchased from. I gave Estabrooke the money to purchase the bottle of Cognac.

2nd Witness Mlle Lucienne Martin.

My mother owns the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France.

On the evening of 13 Dec 44 while working at the Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France at about 7.30 I saw two soldiers come out from the yard, as the cellar door was open they entered the cellar. When they came up from the cellar I went out. Pte Estabrooke was on the cellar stairs and he called his friend and they entered the Cafe. I went down to the cellar to see how many bottles of cognac there were there. I saw there were four missing. I asked Pte Estabrooke and his companion if they had taken them. He answered no, meanwhile a bottle slipped out of his tunic and fell on the floor. My mother entered the Cafe at this time and she asked him to return the cognac and he refused. Madame Martin picked up the bottle that had fallen on the floor and Pte Estabrooke took it from my mothers hand. He placed the bottle on the table and my mother took it. After that they left the Cafe. When Pte Estabrooke left the Cafe I saw the form of a bottle still showing in his tunic.

XXM

My mother owns the stock in Cafe Bolognaise. The stock was last counted before the incident at noon that day. There was about 4 bottle of Cognac sold before the incident.
I did not see a bottle on his person when he left the Cafe.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution Cpl Jones, R. G-47170, 1st Cdn Fd Amb, RCAMC.

On the evening of 15 Sep 44, I was in Cafe Bolognaise in Marquise, France, accompanied by Cpl Raymond, Pte Estabrooke and Pte DeRoche. After having a few drinks Pte Estabrooke and Pte DeRoche left the Cafe by the back entrance saying they were going to the toilet. About fime minutes later I went out the same door. At the entrance to the door were the steps leading to the cellar. At the foot of the cellar steps I saw Ptes Estabrookes and De Roche. About halfway down the steps was one of the ladies of the Cafe. She was talking to them in French which I could not understand. They all came up the cellar steps and entered the Cafe at the same time as I did . The lady upon entering locked the door. I asked Pte Richard to find out what was wrong as he could talk French. He said that the lady claimed that there was cognac missing from the cafe. He said that the lady claimed that Pte Estabrookes and Pte La Roche had it. On asking them if this was true they denied it. A bottle of Cognac slipped out of Estabrookes tunic on to the floor. The lady told Pte Richard that it was hers. Pte Estabrookes offered to buy the bottle. Mde Martin stated that she was not allowed to sell it. Pte Estabrookes allowed her to have it back. She then having found the second bottle of Cognac by Pte Des Roches feet. One of the girls returned the two bottles to the cellar. When she returned she told Pte Richard that there were still two bottles missing. Pte Estabrookes denied having any of it with him. He then left the Cafe accompanied by Pte Des Roches. The lady in the Cafe stated that she wanted to report that two bottles of Cognac had been stolen. Myself and Cpl Raymond told her that we would see these two fellows and see if they had it. We called at another pub where Pte Estabrooke and Des Roches were. Cpl Raymond called Pte Estabrookes outside and asked him if he had her Cognac. He did not say that it was hers but pulled a bottle out stating that this is one bottle she will not get. We told him that we would have to report the matter as the lady in the Cafe insist on it being reported unless it was returned.

XXX

Pros I did not notice any bulges on his person before entering the cafe Boulognaise or on leaving. I saw Pte Estabrooke pull a bottle out of his tunic at the second cafe.

Defence Pte Estabrooke re-entered the Cafe without force. There was not struggle when the bottle was given up. No attempt was made to get Estabrooke to return the bottle he showed at the second Cafe to Cafe Boulognaise.

4th Witness for Prosecution G-47149 Cpl Raymond, D.A. 1st Cdn Fd Am

Pte Estabrooke left billets in Marquise with me on the evening of the 13 Sep. There was no sign of any bottles on his person. We proceeded to the Cafe Bolognaise. He expressed the wish to go to the toilet. I did not hear him receive instructions as to the location of the toilet. I did notice a bulge in his tunic on he return from the yard and on questioning he stated he had nothing there. Pte Estabrooke then sat down and bent over and a bottle fell out of his tunic on to the floor. After a little argument he gave up the bottle. He claimed that he had bought the bottle but he had not done so to my certain knowledge at the Cafe Bolognaise or on the way there. I did not notice anything in his tunic when he left the Cafe.
I followed him to the Cafe because Madame Martin stated that if the other two bottles were returned to her she would forget the incident.

"HCP"

They were in the other Cafe. We called Pte Estabrooke out. On questioning he pulled a bottle out of his tunic stating in effect that here was one bottle that they would not get.

XXM

Pte Estabrookes re-entered the Cafe Bolognaise of his own free will.
The bottle that fell on to the floor could not be recognised by label or other sign.
I could not identify the bottle.
Pte Estabrooke resisted Madame Martins attempt to retrieve the bottle that had fallen from his tunic to the floor.
Pte Estabrooke offered to buy a bottle of Cognac from Madame Martin.
No real complaint was made by Pte Estabrooke when Madame Martin took back the bottle.

Defence

No witnesses for the defence were called.

No evidence or statement of character given by the accused.

Pte Estabrooke has a clean character and clean conduct sheet. The case is complicated by misunderstanding and language difficulties. His record has been good.

Judge Advocate addresses the Court "ACH"

The accused is charged with stealing. A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof.

The prosecution alleges, and must prove, that the accused did those things alleged in the charge and moreover that those things constitute the offence charged. Witnesses have appeared before the court to give their testimony and you have had the opportunity of hearing and observing these witnesses and it is part of your judicial discretion to decide whether you believe them. The accused, is by law, presumed to be innocent until he has been proved otherwise. The burden of establishing guilt lies upon the prosecution and unless the prosecution satisfies you beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty, then you must find him innocent.

Reasonable doubt does not mean the vague, ephemeral doubt that a cowardly man could conjure up in his mind in order to evade an unpleasant responsibility. It is, on the other hand, that indecision, which when encountered in ordinary life, prevents you from taking positive action.

I am Pte Richard, J. of the 14 Canadian Field Ambulance. On the 15th September, 1944, at about 1930 hours, I was in the Cafe Bolognias where I saw Pte Esterbrooks and Pte Deroche. A girl came in, I can't remember her name. She said some cognac was missing and accused them of stealing her liquor. Then an older lady came in, which I think was her mother, and saw Esterbrooks with a bottle in his hand and pleaded to get it back. One of the ladies went to Deroche and accused him, and I saw a bottle under his seat. I saw the bottles but cannot say what the contents were or whether they were full or empty.

"J. Richard".

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fifth Witness

G-47149 Cpl Raymond, D.A., No.2 Section "A" Company 14 Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I am Cpl D.A. Raymond, G-47149 of No.2 Section, "A" Company 14 Canadian Field Ambulance. At about 1915 hours 15 September 1944, L/Cpl Jones, G-47170, Pte Estabrooks B-47238, Pte Deroche F-38967 and myself entered Cafe Bolognias. After buying a drink, Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche went to the toilet. In the meantime four other soldiers came into the above cafe, one of them Pte J. Richard, G-63158, who we had interpret for us. When Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche came back into the cafe, the lady came in and locked the door and I knew there was something wrong and Pte Richard told us she said 4 bottles of cognac was missing. I then asked Pte Deroche and Pte Estabrooks about it and they said they didn't have it. Then Pte Estabrooks bent over in his chair and a bottle of cognac fell out of his tunic. He then picked it up and did not want to give it up at first, after arguing Mme Martin got the bottle of cognac. Pte Deroche sat on the bench behind the table and when he went to get up, he kicked a bottle of cognac on the floor which Mlle. Martin picked up. She then went to the cellar and came back and said there was still 2 bottles of cognac missing. We asked Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche about it but they said they didn't have it. They then left the cafe. After talking to Mme Martin, she said if the other two bottles were returned there would be no trouble. L/Cpl Jones and myself then went to another cafe and called Pte Estabrooks outside. We asked Estabrooks about the bottle and he pulled it out of his tunic saying "there it is and she's not getting it back" or words to that effect. I told him then there would be trouble and that I was going to report him. We then went back to the Cafe Bolognais and talked to Mme. Martin and brought her to report the incident to Major Norton, O.C. of "A" Company, 14 Canadian Field Ambulance.

"Cpl D.A. Raymond"

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth Witness

G-47170 L/Cpl Jones, R.G., No.2 Section "A" Company, 14 Canadian Field Ambulance, sworn states:

I, G-47170 L/Cpl Jones, R.G., on the evening of 15th September, 1944, left my billets accompanied by Cpl Raymond and Pte Estabrroks and proceeded to Cafe Bolognais. On our way we picked up Pte Deroche. The four of us entered the cafe and had a few drinks of cognac and beer. Shortly after entering Pte Esterbrooks enquired where the toilet was. He and Deroche went out the back door towards the toilet. Not later than five minutes I went out to the toilet and they were not there. I heard a lady talking in the cellar and having to pass the cellar door on my way back into the cafe I looked down the cellar and at the bottom of the steps was Pte Esterbrooks and Pte Deroche. The lady was part way down the steps and was talking in French which I could not understand. I entered the cafe followed by the lady, Pte Esterbrooks and Pte Deroche. The lady went to the front door and locked it. In my absence Pte Richard and a couple of other boys had entered the ca I knew something was wrong when she locked the door she was all excited. I told Pte Richard to ask th trouble and she said these two men, which were Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche, had taken some of her cognac from the cellar. The proprietress of the cafe wanted to search the boys and while they were talking a bottle of cognac fell out of Pte Estabrooks' tunic onto the floor. He picked it up and wanted to buy it. The lady said that it was against her orders to sell it. Pte Estabrooks did not want to give it back to her. After we had talked to him for a few minutes he gave her back the bottle. Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche got up to leave the cafe, when the lady found the second bottle that was by Pte Deroche's feet. One of the ladies took the two bottles of cognac back to the cellar. She returned and stated that there were still two bottles of cognac missing. There was a lot of talking in French which I did not understand. After Deroche and Estabrooks had left the cafe, Pte Richard said that unless the two bottles were returned she would report it. Cpl Raymond and myself told her that we would see the fellows of whom she was convinced had taken her cognac. We went to another cafe and Pte Estabrooks and Pte Deroche were there. Cpl Raymond called Pte Estabrooks out and asked him to return the two bottles if he had them. Cpl Raymond stated the lady would report it to our officer if the bottles were not returned and it would cause a lot of trouble. Pte Estabrooks pulled a bottle out of his tunic and said "Here is one bottle she will not get" or words to that effect. He also said he was out to get drunk and he did not want us to bother him. Cpl Raymond and I tried to reason with him but he would not listen to us so we went back to the cafe and the proprietress wanted to have the incident reported. So Cpl Raymond and I, also Pte Richard, went up with her to see Major Norton. She reported to him about the whole affair.

The defence wishes to enter a very strong plea of mitigation on three grounds:

1. The previous good record and operational service of the accused.
2. His mental instability as a result of said service.
3. Extenuating circumstances at the time of the crime.

Tpr Estey enlisted on 23 June 41 at the age of 19. His education consisted of 7 yrs public schooling and at the date of enlistment, he was working at the job to which he will return. He came overseas with the RCD's in Oct 42 and qualified as a wireless operator and obtained trades pay. He went to Sicily in Oct 43 with his unit and fought there and in Italy for a year. His unit being an armoured car regiment, he constantly worked well forward in close contact with the enemy and under most nerve-wracking conditions. His nerves began to get ragged in the Gothic line but he refused offers of evacuation in an effort to stay with the officers and men of his troop which he liked. Sudden shocks would cause a lapse of memory and finally after a particularly fierce action he had to be evacuated. He was re-boarded L3 for varicose veins which had bothered him considerably but about which he had not complained and S3 as his nervous system was adversely affected. He was assigned to various jobs back of the line and in Apr 45 was returned to the UK. He has only two former charges of AWL, the combined absence of which was two days; neither of these occurred when his unit was in the line. He is a good soldier.

One evening when off duty, Tpr Estey met an old friend whom he had not seen since before going into action and as a result of the ensuing celebration, he found himself in London. When in London, he called on his fiancée. He had become engaged in the spring of 1943, had given the girl a ring and had sent her money to buy articles for their future home. His mother and his fiancée corresponded. I wish to point out that this was a genuine attachment and that consequently it came as a very severe shock when the girl then and there and without no previous intimation, severed the engagement. This misfortune, coupled with his already nervous condition was too much for Pfc Estey + he lost his sense of values and his judgement. He terminated his absence voluntarily.

I feel that Pfc. Estey's present dilemma would not have occurred but for the facts that I have outlined. He has spent four years in the army with only two days AWL; the war in Europe was over; he must have had been unbalanced to do this crazy act. While he has done wrong, he has also been wronged and at a time when he was least able to cope with it. I appeal for the utmost leniency the court may allow.

Witness for Prosecution:- (called by Court pursuant to RP 34(D))

2611789 L/Cpl. WOODHOUSE P.G. Corps Military police Guilford.

Having been sworn states:—

On the 21st of Sep. 1942 at about 1700 hours, acting upon instructions, I proceeded to 105 Ryder Hill Road Stoughton near Guilford where I saw a Mrs Estey wife of the accused. I asked her if Gnr. Estey was in the house. She replied "Why, are you from the Canadian Government" I stated that I was a member of the Corps M.P. and that I had received instruction to apprehend a Gnr. Estey. After a few moments

Capt. Major
Mrs Estey shouted up stairs, and then Gnr. came down. I ordered to produce his pass. This he could not do. I asked him if he had had one.
and he replied "no." I then ordered him to get properly dressed and at that moment Mrs Estey stated "You can't take him. I have sent a telegram to his Colonel to come and fetch him. He is a Canadian and you can't touch him."
I pointed out to her that we had disciplinary action over Canadians as well as Imperial troops. I then conducted Gnr. Estey to Stoughton barracks where
I handed him over to the N.C.O. i/c Regt. Police, Queens
Regiment, to be detained.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

IN THE CASE OF

R.21869 Gnr Esty H. 2 CDN REPAT DEPOT

Mr. President, members of the court, the accused Gnr Esty enlisted in April 1940, his present point score is 187. He is married with two children. He married in the United Kingdom. He is hoping to be discharged in the U.K. as he has a promise of a job as soon as he is available. He came overseas in Oct 41. He has been over here more than four years and was on the continent nine months returning to England in Aug 45. He was given a week-end pass and went home to visit his wife and family, he found that his wife and one of the children were sick with the flu, he had only a short week-end and as his main concern was over his family he failed to fulfill the obligations of a soldier and didn't ask for an extension of leave. I am making a plea of leniency for him, bearing in mind particularly his period of service which is five years and some months, the facts of his AWL inasmuch as his wife and one of his family were ill and also due to the fact that he seeks employment in the UK, for these reasons I ask that his punishment be minimized and any punishment be in the form of a pay stoppage, detention would hinder his re-establishment in civil life and I think we should help him in his return to civilian life.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

IN THE CASE OF

R.81069 Gnr Esty H., 2 CDN REPAT DEPOT

Mr. President, members of the court, the accused Gnr Esty enlisted in April 1940, his present point score is 187. He is married with two children. He married in the United Kingdom. He is hoping to be discharged in the U.K. as he has a promise of a job as soon as he is available. He came overseas in Oct 41. He has been over here more than four years and was on the continent nine months returning to England in Aug 45. He was given a week-end pass and went home to visit his wife and family, he found that his wife and one of the children were sick with the flu, he had only a short week-end and as his main concern was over his family he failed to fulfill the obligations of a soldier and didn't ask for an extension of leave. I am making a plea of leniency for him, bearing in mind particularly his period of service which is five years and some months, the facts of his AWL inasmuch as his wife and one of his family were ill and also due to the fact that he seeks employment in the UK, for those reasons I ask that his punishment be minimized and any punishment be in the form of a pay stoppage, detention would hinder his re-establishment in civil life and I think we should help him in his return to civilian life.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

in the case of

E 81869 Cnr Esty, H., 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft. Unit

"As Defending Officer for Pte. Esty, H. I wish to make a plea to the Court on this soldiers behalf. He realizes the fact that he has committed a crime against the Army Act. A crime committed in the Army is inexcusable but an explanation concerning the motive of this soldier's offence must be brought before this Court.

Over a year ago this soldier claims to have obtained permission to get married but through some neglect the papers were lost. The woman gave birth to a child approximately 9 months ago. Trying his best to marry the girl Pte. Esty after sheer desperation went A.W.L. a crime which he has already paid for dearly. After his release from detention, he put in another application to get married. Here again the marriage papers went astray and it was not until the 15 Jan 44 that they found their way to the C & R Wing of No. 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft. Unit. The accused fully understands that one cannot rectify a grievance by wrongful actions.

During my interview with the accused it was very apparent that this unnecessary prolonging of a settlement of his personal affairs was uppermost in his mind and on these grounds I plea that his state of mind as a result of this affair minimized in his opinion the seriousness of the crime that he has committed.

Plea for Mitigation of Sentence in the case against B 86326 Pte.
David Phillip Etheridge, RCASC, 1 Cdn
ASC Rft. Unit.

Sir: The accused is a soldier rather badly bitten by disillusionment. When war was declared, he joined up, as did so many others, eager to get into the fight and get back into civilian life. He has passed a series of misdemeanours were credited against him. Discipline without an immediate compensation became more and more irksome. To-day he looks upon his future military career with nothing but disappointment and loathing. True, he has caused his own hardships. The majority of us, more fortunate in background, environment and character, can restrain ourselves in patience until the hour for action arrives. But to such a man as the accused, this is impossible, witness his past. The defence submits that an expeditionary posting to a unit already in, or going into action be obtained. And though I realize that this may not help his case, nevertheless I feel bound to say that a future of imprisonment can only aggravate this man's already unhealthy attitude towards the army. Conversation with the accused has revealed to me that the only solution to this case is to satisfy the ~~man's~~ desire to get into action. Lengthy imprisonment, sir, will not help this man or the Canadian Army.

PLEA of mitigation in the Case of B.86326 Pte Etheridge, D.P.

President and members of the Court.

Pte Etheridge has pleaded guilty to both charges of AWL and I submit this plea of mitigation in hopes that the court will take a few things into consideration before pronouncing sentence on the accused.

First of all I would ask the court to not be influenced too much by the past record of the accused. Pte Etheridge got off to a bad start in the Army in that although he enlisted in September 1939 he found that he and the Army just didn't click. There were a couple of minor charges which led to the Accused running quite short of pay and then things got from bad to worse. These things continued pretty well until the accused came overseas, that is to the Italian theatre in November 1943. Then there were no other crimes until the date of this charge. He served for one year in the 32 Transport Company RCASC, his Commanding Officer found him reliable, placed him in charge of the motorcycles and promoted him to L/Cpl. His conduct all this time was good as you can see by reviewing the Crime Sheet of the accused.

In January of this year he was given 7 days leave and he went back at the end and then left, with the intention of getting married and then returning. However after a few days of married life he decided to put it off.

Now as the accused obviously turned over a new sheet when he came to this theatre and went into action I would ask the court to consider this as his first crime and on that, base as lenient a punishment as possible. The accused has married without Army Permission and I think that although he has done wrong in this he should be given the chance of getting out and supporting her as quickly as possible.

Plea by the Defending Officer in the case of
B-86326 Pte David Phillip Etheridge RCASC - 1 Cdn ASCRU

Members of this court you have before you the Sworn statement and evidence against the accused. He does not wish to say anything in his defense because he has already signed the aforementioned statement. On his behalf I wish to offer these few words.

At the start of the war the accused enlisted of his own accord in Canada, and was a good soldier with a good record prior to his Landing in England. Like many other youths, he thought he was going into action, and on finding out, that in England it was the same as being in Canada, he became restless and thus started his crime sheet. This youth full of life and energy found himself tied down to the dull days of training and routine found in army CAMPS. Unable to make friends and not interested in sports, he became unsatisfied with army routine and went A.W.L. While in detention the thought of freedom took precedent and, later, thinking that he would not make a good soldier and must get back to civilian life overstayed his official Leave and was apprehended by the Civil authorities who turned him over to the Provost.

It is true that he altered his pass and pay book but this WAS done not to defraud but merely to make things look genuine if he was accosted by the Service Police. The three Rund (23) with AWL entry in the pay book shows that he was actually saving the government money, not trying to defraud or do anything with criminal intent.

Yes, he spent time at the Borstal Institution, but there and at the other places where he was in detention he proved by his good behavior that he could be a good soldier if he tried, but every time he is released his pent up energy comes forth and he seeks freedom from the army and what it does to him.

I beg that this court in deciding sentence to take into account that the accused is very young, and got to make a good soldier where he put to work in a branch of the service that would keep him occupied, and where his surplus energy can be expended to good cause. I also recomend that he be given an interview and be examined by Capt. Huculak

1 C.A.S.C.R.U.

ABSENTEE. ALTERATIONS IN N.B.M. 1 PARTS 1 & 2.

42/SIS/T-2-272

1. The s/m soldier was absent without leave from his Unit since the expiration of a nine days leave pass which terminated at 2359 hrs. 15 May 43, until apprehended by the Civil Police on 17 May 43 in LONDON.

2. When arrested ETHERIDGE had in his possession his original leave pass which he had altered to read 1000 hrs. 16 May 43 to 2359 hrs. 25 May 43. This was accomplished by placing the figure one before the six, and the figure two before the five. He had also made an alteration in his N.B.M.1 Part 1. And in his N.B.M. Part 2, pages six and seven, line nine, ETHERIDGE has admitted, as will be seen by the statement below, he has made an entry dated 14 May 43 to read that he was paid £3-0-0 and has forged the pay-masters signature to same. This was done he says to mislead anyone who might ask to see his pass and pay-book.

3. On 17 May 43, the writer saw ETHERIDGE who was detained by No 6 Provost Coy., and the following statement was obtained from him under caution:

BEGINS: I have been cautioned by Sgt. TAYLOR, S.I.S. that I need not say anything unless I wish to do so, anything First I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence.

To show I understand this caution I sign my name hereto.

(Sgd) D.P. ETHERIDGE.

I was released from Borstal Institution at NOTTINGHAM on 24 March 43 after serving one year sentence. I left NOTTINGHAM about 0730 hrs. by train and came to LONDON. I had to wait for a train about one hour, then I caught a train from WATERLOO Station for ALDERSHOT and arrived at ALDERSHOT about 1500 hrs. same day.

I reported to records Office on same date and was sent to No 6 Reception Hut C.A.S.C.R.U. On the following day I paraded before Col. BONNICK and Lieut. SMITH (Adjt.) and the M.O.

I was attached to C.A.S.C.R.U. until I went on leave on 6 May 43. I came to LONDON on leave stayed at Russell Square for three days or four, then I came down to 406 Portobello Road, Kensington, and was there until the Civil Police picked me up on 17 May 43.

On 16 May 43, I altered my pass from 6 May 43 Nil to 15 May 43, to read 16 May 43 to 25 May 43, this was done by putting a 1 before the 6, and changing the 1 to 2 before the five. The alteration in N.B.M. 1 Part 1 of my pay-book I also made at this time. I also made another entry in my N.B.M. 1 Part 2, to read that I had been paid the sum of £3-0-0 on 14 May 43. The reason I altered both parts 1 and 2 of my pay-book was so [illegible] they would not be suspicious.

Statement of H-7231 Pte David Claudy Etherington

I knew they were going to get rid of me because my company commander had told me so. I had three strikes on me in the unit so I decided to take a day off and forget the whole thing. I knew that because of the way he felt about me it wouldnt make any difference in their punishment if I were away one day or ten. I was on my way back to the unit when picked up in Brugelette.

Prosecutors closing Address.

Mr President.

The accused has based his actions on fact that because a watch had been left by the owner for a few moments that it was "abandoned" I would refer the court to Chapter VII. MML para 37 the definition of stealing by finding. The accused by his own admission in court has said that he made no reasonable effort to find the owner of the watch

It is therefore the opinion of the prosecution that as Ethiel made no effort to find the owner and by selling the watch within a day or so of finding it that he is therefore guilty of Stealing by finding.

Final address of Defence.

Sir,

The charge against Lyn Ethier is one of stealing a watch. In order to convict the accused it must be proven that he deliberately and with intent to gain ownership to his own use some thing which he had reason to believe belonged to someone else. The defence will point out that Ethier saw the watch lying, to all intents and purposes abandoned on the shelf in the washroom. There was nobody present in custody of the watch in washroom when the accused removed it. The prosecution state that it was left in washroom 8. Perhaps it is another watch that was left in washroom 8. The prosecution don't even see when the watch was left.

In his own mind Ethier was quite sure that he had obtained prope[illegible] title to it. He was reasonably certain that it had been abandoned and according to M.M. Lo page 119 para 6 sec 51 "No one can steal an abandoned article" If the person finding it or afterwards it, he is not guilty of stealing it the former owner had really abandoned and it or if he thought he had lawfully believed that he had abandoned it.

2 The jury's actions when and after taking it were not those of a man who was trying to steal a watch.
He wore it quite conspicuously, did not make any attempt to hide or conceal it openly and later offered it for sale openly. Does this appear to be the action of a dishonest man? Submit that it is not.

2 The court finding identifying marks on the watch. The owner's name or number went engraved on the outside and the accused opened the watch to see if there was any number on the inside. When even the thief of had believed to be abandoned.

point worth considering carefully and asking yourself closely whether the evidence or the subsequent actions point to "intent to steal" This fact must be clearly established.

He merely found ~~them~~ the watch in an abandoned condition without any name or mark on ~~them~~ it by which the owner could be found. Such being the case in his own mind the accused was honestly convinced he had property title to the watch by virtue of the method by which he obtained it and his subsequent disposal of the watch or what he did with it or to whom he sold it are immaterial and irrelevant to the case. He thought it was his and as such, I submit, being the guiding factor in the unauthorized disposition, he had every right to sell it.

I may point out at this point that the notice that such a watch had been lost did not appear in last Daily Orders until the day after Ethier had sold the watch to the Byrons. I attach a copy of School Post Daily Orders as Exhibit "A" to this defence. The date of "Exhibit A" is left out.

In his summary of evidence Ethier stated that some unknown soldier owed him on the night of the twenty-second if the watch he was wearing was the one he found in the washroom Ethan answered quite openly that it was. And he further asked his question "Why". His question as to whose name he does not, or did not know, did not answer. So Ethan didn't know the watch had been wanted for months after he found it and he left it till next day thinking by might hear something about it & not hearing anything he sold it quite openly.

After Ethan had established in his own mind that the watch was his, it was immaterial and irrelevant what he did with it, whether he sold it, left it, or gave it away. Therefore regret that charge two (in the alternative) be withdrawn and as it seems to me that the Prosecution ~~has~~ will be able to prove intent to steal that Ethan be acquitted on the first charge. There doesn't seem evidence to support the charge that Gunner Ethan stole or intended to steal the watch as no one can steal an abandoned article.

According to ~~A.M.O.~~ A.O.R.O. 1424 the accused [illegible] a French Canadian should be cautioned in French before the investigation of the charge by the commanding officer and before the accused makes any voluntary statement and when the summary of evidence is taken. I submit, the proof of the warning should show that this has been done.

You will observe that the record does not show this has been done. The interpreter did not understand the question put to the witness, what it was for or if he knew that anything he said was being given in evidence. I submit he did not understand what the witness were talking about and as no French interpreter was present at any of the investigation or summary of evidence [illegible] he did not know what was happening or was being said. The whole case is shaky as it appears to me. You can't charge a man in a language he doesn't understand and admit his evidence to be admissible especially when he has not been cautioned in a language he understands.

I have checked to me regarding when the watch was abandoned and found it was in Ablution room 3 that Thurdin found it. On examining the watch there was identifying marks on it to indicate ownership and also opened the back of it to me I there was engraving marks to show to whom it belonged. Finding none more he assumed it had been abandoned and so aquired possession and what he had on his own mind thought was proper title to it.

In order to prove that he knew that he was not holding still had title proper to the article. While the subsequent actions do not indicate that he tried to hide the watch or conceal it, but he wore it for a whole day and then quite openly held it to Mr Ingram showing that he thought and by conversation in his own mind that he was the owner of the watch.

The matter about the watch having missing did not appear in D. C. Court until the 29 Sept. the day after the had [illegible] and the watch to Ingram.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of,
C-48632 Gnr. Joseph Francis ETHIER, R.C.A.,posted to Canadian Training School, Havannah Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

The Commanding Officer, Lt.-Col., F.Barber, M.C., D.C.M., Canadian Training School, directs that the evidence be taken on oath:

1st Witness for the Prosecution. C-21103 Sgt. Morel, G.C., Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa, posted to Canadian Training School, having been duly sworn, states:

I am C-21103 Sgt. Morel, G.C., posted to No.1 Wing, C.T.S.

On Monday 27 Sep 43., at approximately 1830 hrs. I went into No.8 ablution room to wash and I removed my wrist watch and placed it on the shelf. Then I went back to my room and about 10 minutes later I missed my watch and went back to the ablution room to get it. I could not find my watch and asked a man there if he had seen it or anyone taking it. He said "no"

I then reported the loss to R.S.M. Finnie, and the next day I had a notice published in Part I Orders to the effect that my watch was lost.

On Wednesday 29 Sep 43., R.S.M. Finnie showed me a watch which I identified as my missing watch.

In the afternoon of 29 of Sep 43., I was called to Admin Wing Orderly Room where R.S.M. Finnie,C.S.M. Summers asked me to again identify the watch, which I did. I was then ordered to appear at 0830 hrs. next day for Orders.

Question by Officer taking Summary:

Q."Do you recognize this article?"
A."Yes, that is positively my watch".
Q."Are there any definite marks?".
A."Yes, the wrist strap was put on by S/Sgt.Barnard when he repaired the watch, and I put in an extra hole to make it fit. Also, the name, Gladstone".
(Watch marked Exhibit "A")

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

C.M.of C.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution. U-1837 A/R.S.M. R.M. Finnie, R.C.E., posted to Canadian Training School, having been duly sworn, states:

I, U-1837 A/R.S.M. R.M. Finnie, am R.S.M. OF No.1 Wing, C.T.S.

On the 27 sep 43., Sgt. Morel reported that his watch had been stolen from No.8 ablution room. On Wednesday,29 sep 43., at 0915 hrs.,Cpl. Hall of Admin Wing reported that Pte. Byram had bought a watch from a man whose name he did not know, and that the description was the same as the watch notified in Orders as being lost.

I then went with Cpl. Hall to Pte. Byram in the cook house. Byram showed me the watch and it was the same as the one Sgt. Morel reported lost. I took it to have it identified.

At approximately 1300 hrs. I had Pte. Byram Bdr. Roach, Sgt. Morel, Gnr. Ethier in the office of C.S.M. Summers. This was the first time I had seen the accused whom I now recognize.

I then said to Ethier,"Where did you get the watch?"

He replied, "I found it".
I then asked him, "Where?"
To which he said, "I am not sure, I think I found it in a wash house".

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of C-48632 Gnr. ETHIER,F.F.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, continued.

I asked him which wash house. He said, "The one near your office". This is ablution room No.8.

I then asked him when he found it and he said, "When I was washing out your office." This office is No.1 Wing Orderly Room.

I then asked him why he kept the watch and why he sold it.

He replied, "I kept it a couple of days and no one asked for it, so I thought I'd sell it."

I then said,"Don't you think it would have been wiser to take it to someone responsible and try to have the owner found?"

He said,"No, because no one did that when I lost my watch".

I then asked Pte. Byram if he recognized the watch in my hand as the one he bought. He did. I asked him how much he paid for the watch.

Byram said,"Two Pounds, one pound ten down and the other ten shillings on pay-day".

Byram then said,"I asked Ethier where the watch had come from when I bought it and Ethier said he had brought it from Canada".

Then Byram told me he had again checked with Ethier in the morning of 29 Sep 43., and had again been told that it had come from Canada.

I then asked Sgt. Morel if he had ever seen this watch before, and he replied,"Yes, it is mine".

I then asked him how he could tell it was his. He said "It is a Gladstone, secondly, the strap had an extra hole which I made myself, thirdly, the strap is a new one which had just been put on when the watch was repaired.

I then ordered C.S.M. Summers to [illegible] a charge against the man and place him in cl[illegible]r-est.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

"I am G-51227 Pte. Byram, A., of the Carlt & York R., posted to the C.T.S.,Admin Wing.

On the 28 Sep 43., at approximately 1500 hrs. I went into the main kitchen where I am employed. I saw the accused, Gnr. Ethier, J.F. whom I now recognize, show a watch to the cooks and fatigue men present. I then asked Gnr. Ethier, J.F. how much he wanted for the watch. He replied £2-0-0(Two Pounds). As all I had was £1-10-0(One Pound Ten Shillings), I offered it to him, and told him I would give him the other ten shillings on pay day. He agreed to this and I took the watch and gave him the money later in the presence of Pte. Fraser, W.L. The following day (29 Sep 43). Cpl. Povey told me a watch similiar to the one I bought was reported on Part I Orders as being lost from ablution room No.8, in CCTU Wing. I then went to Bdr. Roach and asked him to take me to the Orderly Room to enquire about the watch. Cpl. Hall, H.W. in the Adm.Wing Mail Room went and got A/R.S.M. Finnie, as there was no one in Adm.Wing Orderly Room at the time. A/R.S.M. Finnie took the watch and had it identified by the owner.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of C-48632 Gnr.ETHIER,J.F.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution, continued.

On the afternoon of the 29 Sep 43., I saw Gnr. Ethier and asked him,"What about that watch you sold me, was it yours or a watch you found?".
He answered, "The watch was mine, I brought it from Canada".
As I did not know Ethier's name, I got Sgt. Bigley to come to the kitchen and point out the man who had sold me the watch, he is the man now present".

I then took Byram to the Orderly Room to report the watch,we reported to Cpl. Hall. Later A/-R.S.M. Finnie came to the kitchen to talk to Pte. Byram.

I am M-15770 C.S.M. Summers,B.E. of Loy.Edmon. Regt. and am C.S.M. of Admin Wing, C.T.S.

On 29 Sep 43., at approximately 1300 hrs A/R.S.M. Finnie came in and told me one of my cooks, Pte. Byram had purchased a watch from some person unknown at the time and there was every reason to believe that the watch was one which had been left in an ablution room by a Sgt. in No.1 Wing. With him was Pte. Byram who said the man was working in the NAAFI. I went Sgt. Bigley with Byram to bring the man to my office. They returned with Ethier whom I now recognize as the accused.

On being questioned by A/R.S.M. Finnie, Ethier stated he had found the watch in an ablution room while working as a defaulter in No.1 OCTU Wing. Ethier said he had found it about 3 days previous and as no one made any enquiries, he had sold it to Byram.

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oa th? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence?"

"I wish to make a statement under oath".

~~6th Witness for the Prosecution~~

C-48632 Gnr. Ethier, J.F., R.C.A., posted to Canadian Training School, having been duly warned and sworn, states:

On the 27 Sep 43., I was working on Field punishment which I started at 1600 hrs. At approximately 1630 hrs. I went to No.8 ablution room and got some hot water to wash R.S.M. Finnie's office. At that time I saw the watch on the shelf under the mirror and then I looked around and there was no one there so I took the watch and went back to R.S.M. Finnie's office and continued my work.

At approximately 2100 hrs. I was leaving for the Guard room to report. On my way to the Guard room I put the watch I found on my wrist. Beside me was another Defaulter who I know well but I don't know his name. He asked me, "did you find that watch in the wash room?"

I said "Yes, how do you know?", but he did not answer me.

If he had answered my question I would have taken it back the same night after defaulters parade. So, I didn't know and kept the watch until I will hear something about the missing watch or someone comes for it.

On 28 sep 43., in the afternoon at approximately 1400 hrs. I went to the main mess and asked if anyone wanted to buy a watch.

One of the cooks told me to see Bdr. Roach. Bdr. Roach asked me to open the watch to see the inside. Then Pte. Fraser, W.L. came to me and told me that if the Bdr., Roach, was not going to buy the watch he would, and offered me £2-0-0.(Two pound) plus his ring.

Then Pte. Byram came in the mess and took a look at the watch and asked me how much I wanted for it. I replied,

"2-0-0(Two pound)".

He said,

"The only thing I can do is to give you a £1-10-0.(One pound ten shillings)now and £0-10-0(ten shillings) the fifteenth". He told me to take it or leave it.

So I turned to Pte. Fraser and told him I would sell it to Pte. Byram as he had cash. Then we went up to B.R. No.21 and Byram gave me three ten shilling notes. Afterwards he offered to me a pair of brown boots and me to give him ten shillings, and we would call it square. I said no, just the cash.

Then I went back to my duties.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of C-48632 Gnr. ETHIER, J.F.

~~6th Witness for the Prosecution.~~

The next day Sgt. Bigley took me from the kitchen to the Orderly Room and R.S.M. Pinnie called me over and showed me a watch and asked me if it belonged to me. I said to him, "in a way, yes, and in a way, no" He asked me what I meant and I told him, "Sir, I found that watch the night I was working in your office".

Then he asked me why I sold it.

I told him I waited and on one claimed it. C.S.M. Summers asked me why I didn't read Orders that day, that they said a watch was missing and to be turned in to the Adjutant's offices.

I then told him, "Sir, last night I was on Field punishment and did not have time to read the Orders".

Then the C.S.M. told the C.S.M. to put me under close arrest.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Pte Ettinger joined the army in Aug 43. He came overseas in Feb 44 to England and to Italy in Apr 44. He served with his regiment during the Hitler and Gothic Lines. The accused had asked for a short leave very often but never got one. The accused was last in his unit in Sep 44. After the Gothic Line he went to the Holding Unit and from there to 4 Bn where he went A.W.L.

This man has never refused a draft or a transfer and he is always willing at any time to go back with his regt because he is a fighting man. If given a chance he will prove to his superiors that he is still the same good soldier as he was before. I would ask the clemency of the Court in giving this man the minimum of sentence.

CLOSING address by the defence.

There are only two points in my closing address -- first that the evidence produced by the prosecution does not show that the accused was reported absent by the person who called the platoon roll call. The other point is that the defence has proved by a reliable witness that the accused was in camp on the morning of 5 June 44.

CLOSING address by the prosecution:

I would like to state that although the man who called the roll is not here today to give evidence, his report as orderly Sgt. went into the platoon Sgt. showing that the accused Evans was not on parade, in addition to that the orderly Sgt. had not assigned him to any special duty or fatigue and also that the accused has been shown absent on the platoon tattoo report from the 5th June until he was returned to the unit on the 20th June 44.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

B58041 Pte EVANS, C.E

The abn Pte enlisted as a volunteer for active service in Jan. 1942 and arrived overseas with his own Unit, 3rd Div. Tpt Pk A.C.C. early in May 1942

After serving faithfully with his Unit for two years and as the time of action was approaching he had the misfortune to suffer a motor cycle accident this accident kept him in hospital for a month and he was of course S.O.S his unit

On discharge from hospital he was sent to a reinforcement unit in May and after repeated attempts to rejoin his former unit, with which he had always expected to go overseas, he was refused this and sent to 2 CBRD. At this time he became very discouraged and decided that a personal contact with his Unit might bring the desired result

It is respectfully requested that full consideration be given this soldiers overseas record and that his misplaced zeal in taking time off to take matters into his own hands be not too severely dealt with

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Pte Evans joined up in Jan 42 and came overseas in March 42. He came to this theatre in Nov 44 and joined the 1 C.C.C.D.

Pte Evans is only 21 yrs old although his record shows him as 22. It is evident that he has developed a persecution complex and has decided that he is of no more use to the army or the army to him. He offers no plea in mitigation, but throws himself on the mercy of the Court.

B-82640, Pte. Evans, D.R., No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Bordon, Hants., on the 26th day of May, 1941. 20

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. W.D.S. Carelees
Defending Officer - Lieut. L. Ruddell

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q4 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A4 - No, sir.
Q5 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A5 - Yes, sir.

B-82640, Pte. Evans, D.R., No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q6 - I want you to give your regimental number, name, initials and unit.
A6 - B-82640, Pte. Evans, D.R., 1 Cdn. Troop Carrying Company, R.C.A.S.C.
Q7 - Your present unit?
A7 - No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit.
Q8 - When did you join the army?
A8 - September 6, 1939.
Q9 - Where?
A9 - Toronto.
Q10 - Will you tell the Court what happened after you joined up?
A10 - I had previous trouble with my ears -- perforated ear drums -- and I had to go before a medical board and they wouldn't accept me and I was getting medical treatments in Toronto. The day before my unit pulled out the medical officer wouldn't sign my papers to come overseas.
Q11 - You say you joined the army?
A11 - Yes, sir.
Q12 - You had had a medical inspection and passed to get into the army?
A12 - Yes, sir, but I didn't have much of an examination of the ears, sir.
Q13 - You say you went to the M.O. about your ears because of the trouble you had during your civilian occupation and one of your M.O's was.....?
A13 - Major McGart.
Q14 - What was his duty?
A14 - M.O. in the Medical Arts Building, Toronto.
Q15 - He pronounced you as unfit to proceed overseas?
A15 - Yes, sir.

Q16 - And you stated that the morning the draft were warned to move you w told by him that you were unfit to go overseas?
A16 - The day before, sir.
Q17 - Did you have a medical examination before coming over?
A17 - I had an examination in the York Armouries and he wouldn't pass me.
Q18 - Did you have any further examination?
A18 - Before we left I didn't have any examination.
Q19 - So that you didn't expect to come overseas?
A19 - I was told that.
Q20 - But in spite of that you were sent overseas?
A20 - Yes, sir.
Q21 - Had you any objection to coming overseas?
A21 - No, sir, not at that time.
Q22 - You proceeded overseas, and then what happened?
A22 - I had to go on sick parade with my ears and from that time in February when we landed I have been on sick parade and in hospitals.
Q23 - Is it a permanent affliction?
A23 - Since nine years old. I have been to Taplow, 15th General and Cambridge Hospitals.
Q24 - What did they tell you?
A24 - They treated it the best way they could and told me to treat it myself with alcohol and peroxide.
Q25 - In between hospitals you were with the 1st Troop Carrying Company and had to treat your ears as best you could?
A25 - Yes, sir, and I went to the M.O. each morning.
Q26 - Your whole army career has been spent in hospitals or treating your ears yourself?
A26 - Yes, sir.
Q27 - Tell us where you were immediately prior to the 3rd February, the day you went a.w.l?
A27 - The 5th General Hospital, Taplow.
Q28 - What were your instructions at that time?
A28 - To go back to my unit and treat my ears the same as I had been doing.
Q29 - What in fact did you do?
A29 - Instead of going back I got it into my head I couldn't go back to try and do something I couldn't do.
Q30 - What did you do?
A30 - I went a.w.l. to Wales.
Q31 - Why?
A31 - I was tired of going back to M.O's and carrying on a treatment which wasn't doing me any good.

The prosecutor declines to cross-examine this witness.

Lieut. W.D.S. Careless, No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q32 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A32 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.
Defending Officer - I object to the admissibility of the M.F.M. 6 as it contains entries which are not regimental entries.
President - The Court has considered the objection of the defending officer and the objection is over-ruled.
Q33 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A33 - Yes, sir.
Q34 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A34 - Yes, sir.
Q35 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A35 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q36 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A36 - Yes, sir. (Defending Officer) My statement in mitigation of sentence of the accused is concerned with his story. He joined the army with this ear disease intending to come overseas but was apparently pre-nounced unfit for this purpose and it was understood he would not be sent on draft. He had no objection because that was why he joined the army. His whole history in the army has been one long period of attending to this disease and it has not been conducive to good soldiering. In fact, he has not been able to be a good soldier as he has spent periods in hospital and when discharged has been told he would have to come back again. That happened repeatedly. He did his best to attend to his ears, reporting daily on sick parade and trying to carry on his duties at the same time, and on the last occasion when he had orders to rejoin his unit he was fed-up with the whole business feeling it was another round of attending to himself and having improper treatment and having to come back to hospital anyway. I suggest that frame of mind should be borne in mind when considering sentence. I would ask the Court to recommend that this man be reboarded because it seems definitely unfair that this man should have to attend to himself and returning him to hospital is not the intention of the military authorities, and if it is within the province of the Court to recommend that he be reboarded, this plea will have had some effect.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

M 31581 C.Q.M.S. Evans D.R.

Sir:

This case is one of the many that are coming up quite often these days as it stands to reason a person who is used to hard work and heavy responsibility all his life is suddenly doing nothing, despondency sets in and the feeling of being useless takes hold of a person. The expression "Browned Off" is often used to describe this state of affairs. Such is the case of the accused.

He was stationed on the West Coast of Canada, being attached to the Air Force at detached stations, having the power and authority of a R.Q.M.S. working long hours with the satisfaction that he was accomplishing something in this War. He then came to England took eight weeks Infantry Training while on this course he had no Mess Privileges etc. and was treated as a private soldier by the other N C O'S, later on while hoping to see action he was put in charge of a platoon of "browned Off" NCO's which in itself is a marked tragedy. All this time he was required to do a CQSM's job but allowed no privileges of an NCO such as the use of the Mess etc. The attitude taken by this training Regt. was that these recently arrived NCO's were "Zombies" simply because they were in Canada so regardless of how long they have been in the service.

The accused obtained four days leave and while on this leave ran into friends on R.L.A. leave from the continent and while renewing old friendships in the pubs in the days that followed. Worry and Despondency really settled down in the accused's mind and day after day seemed to slip by, with the accused never realizing that his leave was up, was beside himself with worry of his family at home as things aren't as well as they should be. Prior to coming overseas the accused's embarkation leave was of 34 hours duration and thus many things were left undone.

Would the court bear in mind when deciding on this case that that the accused has an excellent record as to his service and fulfilling his job in the Army.

Upon talking to R.Q.M.S. L. Wibberly, he stated that "I have known C.Q.M.S. Evans since 1940 and found him a hard-working and capable soldier, very earnest and conscientious in his work. CQMS Evans had trouble at home as he has had compassionate leave several times, this trouble seemed to worry him a great deal". Would the Court consider the accused's age and his worry over his post-war plans starting out afresh with a family at his age is enough to create plenty of worry, especially when a person doesn't know when shipment home is due. The fact that the accused has been in custody for 17 days could be considered when awarding sentence.

A-50360 Pte Evans E.E.

This is to certify that I have examined this man to-day and find him fit to stand court martial.

"GG Kerster"
Geo. G. Kerster Capt
MO, H.L.I of Can.

First Witness for Prosecution: No A37513 CSM Wilson WJ, HLI of C, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

I am as above. I recognize the accused as A50360 Pte Ernest Edward Evans. On 3 Mar 45, "B" Coy was sitting in Udem, Germany. I was CSM of "B" Coy. The accused was the OC's batman. The Coy moved forward to the Hochwald Forest which was our FUP at approx 1300 hrs on 3 Mar 45. When we got there the 8 Bde had pushed a little further than we thought and it was changed into an assembly area. The Coy stayed there until approx 2000 hrs and word came through we had to move up to a new FUP. At this time I was approx 200 x from Coy. This was due to condition of ground. When word came through at 2000 hrs to move, I went to see Coy Comdr and he was moving the Coy at that time to the new FUP. I went back to my carrier and moved it up into the convoy. I went back to where Coy had been and asked Pte Robb why his truck was not in the convoy. The accused was present at this conversation. He explained his veh was stuck and he couldn't get it out up the hill into road. So I said to him when he did get up to bring the accused with him. The accused was standing about 3 ft away and could hear this conversation. When Pte Robb reported to FUP at approx 2300 hrs the accused was missing. On the following morning at approx 0500 hrs the Coy moved fwd into battle to take a high feature, and the accused was not present. I know this of my own knowledge as I checked the area for him, as far as I could. I did not see accused from the time in assembly area until he reported back to unit on 11 June 45, I think. The Coy was still in sight when I went back first to assembly after being warned we were going fwd to a new FUP. The second time I went back, that is the time I spoke to Pte Robb in presence of accused, the Coy was not still in sight. The accused was 3 or 4 ft from Pte Robb when I gave the instructions to bring him up.

XX

When I warned Pte Robb to bring acc. up with him the Coy was on the way to 2nd FUP. Robb is a truck dvr in "B" Coy. I warned Robb to bring up acc as Coy was not in sight at that time. This was 2nd time I went back. It was dark. It was a little darker than dusk, it wasn't really black. It was 2000 hrs when we moved to 2nd FUP. It was 2300 hrs when Robb reported to FUP. There was no other engagement with enemy at this time. I am not sure of date. I am not sure whether it was 3 or 4th Mar 45. I said acc was not present at 0500 hrs next morning because I was with Coy at that time. I did not move fwd at this time. I went back and checked Coy Area. I was told to by Coy Comdr. It was just breaking morning. It was lighter than when we moved night before. It was about half light at 0500 hrs on 4 or 5 Mar 45, whichever it was.

Court:

I don t know why accused was not with Coy Comdr at time. I spoke to Robb. It may be Coy Comdr told him to stay with veh. that sometimes happened. It was usual for Coy Comdr to take batman into battle with him. I don't know whether accused is a batman or batman-runner. I think Coy Comdr used acc. as runner. They used artificial moonlight at that time.

JA

I am positive artificial moonlight was used when we moved fwd to FUP. At the time I was talking to Robb in presence of accused their was some shelling of our locality. The acc. couldn't see what direction the Coy was proceeding when I spoke to Robb in his presence. The Coy was briefed about 1930 hrs that night, i.e. the pl comdrs and myself. - the men weren't there. I don't know whether acc knew where Coy was going or not. I would say assembly area was approx. 3 miles from enemy, altho there were some enemy snipers in the area. The direction the coy was going could have been seen from the place where I spoke to Robb about 15 or 20 minutes before. They Coy went towards front. In assembly area, the men dug in and the "B" truck came in & ration were unloaded. I am not sure of the date, but whatever date the acc. absented himself was the night before the attack. The attack was the only one by the coy during or around that time.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

2ND WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: A37404 CQMS HOWITT J E HLI OF C having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

I am as above, CQMS of "B" Coy. On or about 4 Mar 45 I was "B" Coy clerk. I recognize the accused. On the morning of 5 Mar 45 I went to "B" Coy where they were at their position. On arrival I rec'd a report on acc. I checked all personal at Coy area, and found acc. was not present. I reported to the Bn Orderly room. This document is a MFB 375, certified true copy of a record of Ct of Inq. dealing with accused. I present it to court.

MFB 375, is presented to court, read by President, marked exhibit "A" and annexed to proceedings.

Cross Exam:

I don't know whether he had the articles listed or not. They were not in his kit he left behind. I had no record actually of what had been issued. Normally men are not charged with deficiences in action.

Court:

When I arrived at Coy Area they were holding a position after consolidating, after an attack. I knew acc. was HQ personell. I checked Coy HQ myself, but I didn't check platoons personally.

JA

I reached Coy at approx 1000 hrs on morning of 5 Mar 45. The last time I saw Coy proper was about 1700 hrs night before in an area. The coy went into an attack between then and when I saw them again the next morning.

Cross Exam: (with permission)

I don't think Pte Hobb returned to cooker with veh. I didn't see him. He could have been at cooker without me seeing him, but he didn't come up with convoy of vehs.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

3RD WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: A37225 CSM McLEOD J P HLI OF C Being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

I am above, and am CSM of "B" Coy. I recognize the accused. On the morning of 11 June 45 at approx 0700 hrs, the accused reported to me in my quarters in "B" Coy lines, HLI of C, at Basin Holland. I put him under close arrest, took him to guard room and turned him over to guardsergeant.

Cross exam:

The acc. was properly dressed, but did not have gaiters.

JA

All he said was he was back.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

4TH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: (Notice given to acc under RP 76) B118730 Pte R L MIDSDELL HLI of C, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

I am as above. I am a member of "B" coy, 11 pl #4 sec. On 3 Mar 45 we came into Hochwald Forest at approx 1630 or 1700 hrs. There was heavy shelling. We dug in and stayed till following night until around 2200 or 2300 hrs and we were given orders to move up to a FUP for another attack. When it was dark, and in the bush it was very hard to see. It was difficult during move up to keep in contact. While on the move, we had a little shelling causing us to dig in frequently.

Cross exam:

I couldn't say for sure that I was warned for an attack. I wasn't briefed on an attack. Moves were under complete darkness. In bush it was very dark. On road, it was dark but you could make out where you were going. There were searchlights on part of the time. "B" Coy was on right of road more or less in bush when we dug in. We moved up road to best of my knowledge.

Court:
It was difficult to keep contact in bush because of darkness - when we started out. It wasn't too bad on road. We dug in approx 4 or 5 times from leaving assembly area to the attack. I understood we were in assembly area.
JA
When we were in assembly area on evening of 4 Mar 45, I understood we were going forward. I can't remember if I was told. I don't know accused. We were told we were "moving up" and I took it for granted it was an FUP.
RP 83 (b) complied with.

1ST WITNESS FOR DEFENCE: H1612 PTE PEDDERSEN H, HLI of C, being duly sworn, is examined by the Def Offr:

I am as above and member of "B" Coy of HLI. I saw Pte Robb on the night of 4 Mar 45. Pte Robb and I were coming up from cooker when jeep was stuck. Pte Robb went ahead to bring veh down to push me out, but I was able to get out myself and I went up there. I saw Robb trying to get his veh out of woods to get on road with convoy. I left Robb after he got out on road and I followed "B" Coy to the next FUP. Robb was alone in truck. He said nothing of accused. At this time we leaving a FUP where we had already spent one night until 8 o'clock next night. I rejoined the Coy myself, but Robb never rejoined until next day, and then it was our other "B" truck that had moved up to another area that he rejoined.
Cross exam:
When I came to "B" Coy after my veh was stuck, they were still in woods and just forming up to leave. Robb's truck was not still stuck at this time, it was on road waiting for truck to move off. The anm coy carrier rejoined troop about same time as I did. It came a little ahead of me. As far as I know Robbs truck rejoined convey. I didn't see Robb's truck until next day.
Court:
Robb was driving 15 cwt. I didn't see anything of Evans. I went back to cooker truck next day at approx 1700 hrs, and saw Robb there then. That is why I say he did not rejoin coy before. I drive Coy jeep. I helped Robb get on to road. When he got on road Coy had proceeded ahead approx 1 mile and I caught up with convoy. When I was getting Robb out of woods, the Coy left.
JA
I didn't see CSM Wilson until I rejoined convoy on road. I had a good idea where we were going. There is only one road and we were going north on it towards the enemy. There had been some shelling while I was helping to get Robb's truck out of woods. I know accused. I didn't see him there at all.
RP 83 (b) complied with.

2ND WITNESS FOR DEFENCE (CHARACTER) A37225 CSM McLEOD, J B HLI of C, being duly sworn is examined by the Def Offr:

I know the acc. I first knew him in fall of 1943. I was then a cpl and evans was a private in my section. He served with me from then until the invasion on all kinds of soldiering and training and at no time did I have any trouble with acc. He came in with Coy on "D" day, and up to time of present charge he has done a good job in the coy. That is all
Cross exam:
Acc went to coy HQ as batman or batman runner before "D" day. I became CSM of "B" Coy on 18 Apr 45.
Court:
We were closely associated with Coy HQ. I was a pl sgt.

RP 83 B complied with.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEF OFFR

Mr President and members of the court:

We have had the evidence presented by the prosecution and the defence and in no instance has the evidence even hinted that the accused showed intent to desert His Majesty's Service.

At the particular time of the accused's absence he did have no possible way of knowing the company was going into battle. He was not briefed by anyone nor was he told that the company was going to contact the enemy. He was not even warned of a move. Therefore it cannot be proven that he intended to miss a special service or action required of him.

Circumstances surrounding the instance show that it was nothing other than another move which according to the evidence were quite frequent at this time, as they had moved and dug in again on several occasions immediately prior to this.

In summing up I would like to say once again that this man showed no intent of desertion and should be found guilty of nothing other than absence without leave.

"D A Pearce" Capt.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF PROSECUTOR

Mr President, Maj Bull and members of the court:

There has been evidence presented by several witness before you on both sides of the case. Much of it is straightforward but I would like to point out that the last person recorded before this as having seen Pte Evans was CSM Wilson at approx 2000 hrs 4 Mar 45 in the Hochwald Forest Germany. Since then he was not seen until he gave himself up at Boain 0700 hrs 11 June 45. Also remember that Pte Robb now absent was not seen by Pte Peddersen from the time he aided him in getting his truck into the convoy until the next day at approx 1700 hrs.

Finally there has not been any account in any way shape or form for the time between 2200 hrs 4 March 1945 to 0700 hrs 11 June 1945.

"W D Tipper" Capt.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr president and members of the court,

I would like to draw to your attention at this time the fact that Pte Evans landed with his unit on D Day and remained with it throughout the entire campaign without a previous offence against him. And according to the evidence has shewn himself to be a good soldier.

I was a platoon commander in 13 Coy during a good portion of this time and knew the accused very well. To the best of my knowledge he always proved himself to be a good and willing soldier. And I feel that any private soldier sticking it out faithfully during this period certainly has a lot in his favor.

I ask of you to weigh the evidence carefully and be as lenient as possible in all fairness to him.

"D A Pearce" Capt.

Q.6. Mr, Akenhead, do you wish to enter a plea in bar?

A.6. No sir.

Q.7. Do you wish to claim a separate trial on each of the two charges?

A.7. Yes sir.

The Prosecutor makes the following opening address:

The accused is confronted with two charges: first, while on Active Service, Deserting his Majesty's Service, in that he was absent without leave from 1400 hours, 13th October 1942, until apprehended by the Corps of Military Police in Southampton at 1000 hours, on 14th December 1942, thereby causing expense to the public of £3:2:1, for his apprehension and return to his unit. And secondly: while on Active Service, losing by neglect his clothing, equipment, and regimental necessaries to the value of $17.78.

The Prosecution submit that the accused is guilty of both charges against him.

Briefly with regard to the facts, evidence will be introduced to prove that the accused failed to return from leave of absence on the 13th October and was, in fact, absent from his unit, in a place where no orders could reach him, until he was apprehended by the Corps of Military Police in the Port of Southampton, England on 14th December 1942.

The accused must satisfy the Court that he was not in fact absent, and that he did not wilfully intend to fail in his duty, which was, to be present with his unit.

As regards the second charge, it will be shown that the accused had been issued with a full set of clothing and equipment, and that due to his own neglect, he did not have certain of these articles when it was his duty to have them. The accused must satisfy the Court that he did not lose his equipment as charged and that the loss was not occasioned by any fault on his part.

It will be the intention of the prosecution to show that the accused is guilty as charged. However, the prosecution would say to the Court and to the accused, in fairness to him that if there is any question of fact that can be brought out in the examination by the Prosecution to assist the cause of the accused, such facts will be drawn to the attention of the court.

First witness for Prosecution: Lieut. A.M.Miller having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

A.37. At 1000 hours, 14 Dec 42 I was on patrol in the town of Southampton, I noticed the accused, and owing to the condition of his shoes which were rather badly worn, I went over with the intention to check him. I noticed that the accused threw a glance towards us which told there was something wrong. I approached him and asked him if he was on pass. He replied he was. When asked tp produce the pass, he said he had left it at a village called Maybush, about 2½ miles outside the city. When asked to produce railway ticket he also said he had left it at that address. I examined his pay book and found he had had a leave about two months previously. I ordered the accused to accompany me to that address so that he could produce his pass and railway ticket. Under way to the address he told me that he was late, and when asked how late, he replied two months. I accompanied him to the address where he stayed about five minutes. I then conducted him to by Section billets to give the particulars of the arrest to my Section Sergeant. From there he was conducted to the Civil Police Station of Southampton and then he was escorted to the Guard Room of 11th Battalion, Royal Fusiliers where he was handed over to the N.C.O. i/c of the Guard to be detained.

A.44. No sir.

Q.45. Was there any evidence to suggest to you that the accused had planned that absence?

A.45. No sir, except when we took him to the village, he did not have any fare, but beyond that he gave no evidence of any intention to stay.

Q.54. Would you tell the Court what were your duties on 14th December 1942?

A.54. At Southampton, on 14th December 1942, on the Esplanade I was on duty when I saw the accused passing between two lorries. He looked at me and I saw he was slovenly dressed. That gave me cause to check him. We turned around on our motorcycles and L/Cpl. Hobb was the first to get there to check him whereby he asked him for his pass and the accused stated he had left it at an address, at No.14 Alder Road, Maybush. He was then asked for his pay book. We then conducted him to the address that he stated previously so that he could tell the young lady, Eileen Brown of the same address that he was apprehended. From there he was conducted to our billets where we handed him over to the Sergeant i/c and the necessary particulars were taken down, and from there he was taken to the Civilian Police Station of Southampton for particulars of Eileen Brown at 14 Alder Road, Maybush.

Q.55. Can you say that at 1000 hours, 14th December 1942, you apprehended the accused?

A.55. Yes sir.

Q.56. Do you recognise the accused?

A.56. Yes sir.

Q.57. How was he dressed?

A.57. He was dressed in uniform, civilian shoes, and a blue and yellow cap

Q.58. When you say the cap was blue, do you mean it could have been green?

A.58. It appeared to me it was blue.

Q.59. Did you ever see a C.P.C. walking-out cap?

A.59. No sir.

Defence refuses to cross-examine this witness.

R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.

By the President to the accused: (in accordance with R.P. 40).

Q.60. The Prosecution have closed their case, and you may now give evidence on oath as a witness, as the other witnesses have done. If you do that , you may be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and asked questions by the Court. Or you may make a statement not on oath, from where you stand. If you do that, no one can ask you any questions. Most courts pay more attention to evidence given on oath which can be tested by cross-examination, than a signed statement which cannot be questioned. Lastly you may say nothing at all?

A.60. The Defending Officer answers: No statement.

The Defending Officer addresses the Court:

I wish to refer the Court to M.M.L. Chapter 3, Section 17, page 19 which reads: "The criterion between desertion and absence without leave is intention. The offence of desertion or attempting to desert His Majesty's service implies an intention on the part of the offender either not to return to His Majesty's service at all, or to escape some particular important service as mentioned in para.20; and a soldier must not be charged with desertion or attempted desertion unless it appears that some such intention existed. Further even assuming that he is charged with desertion, the court that tries him should not find him guilty of desertion unless fully satisfied on the evidence that he has been guilty of desertion as above defined." The accused is quite willing to say that he was absent without leave from 1400 hours, 13 Oct 42 until 1000 hours 14 Dec 42.
Mr. Miller stated that there was no possibility of transfer coming up when the accused went on leave, therefore there was no question of evading extra duties, such as trying to escape an important service. The man was simply absent without leave; there was no possibility of transfer, and the C.F.C. carries on, the same duties are performed and he knew it . By not coming back, he knew that he was attempting to escape an important duty as there was no such particular duty.
Both Corporals of the Corps of Military Police declare that he was wearing army clothing, therefore proving he had no intention that he was trying to evade. Also he made no attempt to run away from the M.Ps. as they were trying to intercept him. He accompanied them of good will to where he was staying. His pass read Southampton, and he was in the Southampton area. The M.Ps. themselves gave no evidence that he made any attempt to evade them at all. Therefore I claim that the first charge has never been proved by the Prosecution and therefor he must be declared Not Guilty.

By President to the Defending Officer:

Q.61. Have you any witnesses in defence of the accused on the first charge?

A.61. I have no witnesses, sir.

The Prosecutor addresses the Court:

With regard to this charge of desertion, the evidence of Lieut. Miller clearly establishes the facts that the accused was absent without leave from 1400 hours on the 13th October 1942 and that he did not return to his unit until he was apprehended by the Corps of Military Police at 1000 hours, 14 December 1942. The expense involved in bringing the accused back under escort to his unit, has also been established by this witness. The evidence of Sgt. Duncan, the accused's Platoon Sergeant corroborates that of Lieut.Miller. Sgt. Duncan told the Court that the accused was not present at his platoon roll call at any time between the 13th October and the 14th December 1942. The termination of the absence is established by Lieut. Miller and by the two witnesses from the Corps of Military Police who have told the Court the facts of the accused's apprehension in Southampton.

There is one more point in regard to the charge of desertion that I would leave with the Court. I feel that it is the duty of the prosecution to say, in fairness to the accused, that it is readily conceded by the prosecution that the intention of a soldier charged with desertion is not readily capable of positive proof, neither in this case nor in similar cases. Therefore I would respectfully remind the Court that soldiers charged with desertion may be found guilty of absence without leave. At the same time, however, I draw the court's attention to page 109, of M.M.L., para.23 which states that "if a man bound by law to perform any duties, does an act which necessarily causes a failure in the performance of that duty he will be held in law to have intended to fail, and therefore to have wilfully failed to perform that duty."

The court is now closed for consideration of the finding.

The court re-ppens.

By the President to the Prosecutor:

A.62. Call Lieut. Miller.

By the President to Lieut. A.M.Miller:
Lieut. Miller, you are under the same oath, having already been sworn in this case.

Q.63. Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused?

A.63. I have sir. I produce A.F.B. 296(war) and a certified true copy of M.F.M. 6.

These documents are handed to the President, marked Exhibit "G", and annexed to the Proceedings.

Q.64. Is the accused the person mentioned in these documents?

A.64. Yes sir.

Q.65. Have you completed these documents yourself?

A.65. I have sir, and I certify that they are true extracts of his particulars of service, and also true extracts of entries on the original M.F.M. 6, and that I have compared the Certified True Copy with the original and found it correct.

Not cross-examined by the Defence.

By President to Defending Officer:

Q.66. Does the accused wish to address the Court?

A.66. No sir.

COURT CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

Court re-opens at 1200 hours.

The President reads the second charge to the accused, and questions:

Q.67. Do you wish to plead guilty, or not guilty, of that charge?

A.67. Not guilty, sir.

Fifth witness for Prosecution: K-98540, CQMS. Olsume, E. having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.68. What are your name, rank and unit?

A.68. K-98540, C.Q.M.S. Ollsume, E., No.6 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps.

Q.69. Do you recognise the accused?

A.69. I do sir.

Q.70. What were your duties in the whole of the year 1942, and up to this date?

A.70. Company Quartermaster Sergeant of No.6 Company, C.F.C.

Q.71. Did you check the clothing, equipment and arms of the accused who had been declared Absent Without Leave?

A.71. I did sir.

Q.72. And did you check his clothing and equipment and arms, on his return to unit, after apprehension?

A.72. I did sir. I show you a list of equipment of which he was deficient on his return.

Q.73. What does that represent?

A.73. These are the shortages of equipment after his return.

This document is annexed to the proceedings and marked Exhibit "H".

Q.74. Can you state that the accused was in possession of a full set of equipment prior to his going absent without leave?

A.74. Yes sir.

Q.75. I show you an Army Form can you state what it is?

A.75. It is an M.F.C. 800, certified true copy of the original.

Q.76. What is the significance of this form?

A.76. It is a record of all arms, equipment, etc. issued.

Q.77. What does it mean when a soldier receive equipment and signs for it on that form. How is that related to his responsibility?

A.77. He is supposed to have them because he signed for them.

Q.78. Is the accused the person mentioned in this form?

A.78. Yes sir.

Q.79. Did you check the kit in possession of the accused after his apprehension and compare it with his M.F.C. 800?

A.79. Yes sir.

Q.80. Was it brought to your attention that the accused was absent without leave, and what did you do?

A.80. I placed the kit in safe custody.

This document annexed to the proceedings, and marked Exhibit "I".

By the Defending Officer to the witness:

Q.81. In exhibit "I", the article "Sweaters, pullover". May we check if that has been signed for by the accused?

A.81. The President, after perusal of the exhibit "I": "It has not been signed for, as there is no such entry on M.F.C.800."

Q.82. Why was that entry made in the list of shortages of equipment?

A.82. Now "sweaters, pullover" are issued as replacements for "sweaters, cardigan".

Q.83. What is the difference in price?

A.83. Sweaters, pullover are worth £0:7:9, and sweaters, cardigan are worth £0:8:6.

Q.84. The accused has never received a "sweater, pullover" why is he charged with being deficient of it?

A.84. Because under normal circumstances, when he would report the loss of his sweater, he would be issued with a sweater, pullover and charged with the price of same.

Q.85. Has the accused reported any loss of clothing before?

A.85. Yes sir, not very often.

Q.86. What arrangements are made for clothing to be kept in safe custody while on leave?

A.86. The clothing stays in the huts.

Questions by the President:

Q.87. Are there any arrangements for the safe custody of a soldier's equipment when he goes on leave; say on a 14 day leave?

A.87. There are no provisions for that.

Q.88. C.Q.M.S., you must have been in other units before you came to No.6 Coy, C.F.C?

A.88. I have, sir.

Q.89. Was it, or was it not the custom in other units to put away kits of soldiers going on leave?

A.89. Of the units I was with, only one had such arrangements, for soldiers going on 7 days' leave or furlough, or longer.

Q.90. Don't you think it is preferable when a man goes on leave to check his equipment in at the Q.M. Stores rather than leave it in his hut?

A.90. It cannot be done at my Company. I would have no place to put their equipment; sometimes there are 15 or 16 men away on leave at the same time.

Q.91. In list of equipment which is handed to the Court, marked Exhibit "H", the value of equipment deficient in accused's kit does not agree with value found at Court of Inquiry. One is $18.67 and the other is $17.12, can you explain that?

A.91. (By the Prosecutor): That was discussed with the Convening Officer yesterday, who did not want to alter it as it was in the advantage of the accused.

Witness examined by Court:

Q.92. Before the accused went on leave, did he ask you to take care of his property charged on his M.F.C. 800?

A.92. He did not sir.

Q.93. Could he have turned it in if he had wanted to?

A.93. I presume so; but it has never been the custom at our Company.

(R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.)

By the President to the Accused:

Q.94. Do you wish to give evidence under oath as a witness, as the other witnesses have done. If you do that, you may be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and asked questions by the Court. Or you may make a statement, not on oath, from where you stand. If you do that, no one can ask you any questions. Most courts pay more attention to evidence given on oath which can be tested by cross-examination, than to a single statement which cannot be questioned. Lastly you may say nothing at all.

A.94. I will give evidence under oath.

Q.95. Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A.95. Yes sir.

Q.96. Do you intend to call any other witnesses on your behalf?

A.96. No sir.

First witness for Defence. K-98654, Pte. Evans, E.J. having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.97. What are your rank, name and unit?

A.97. K-98654, Pte. Evans, E.J., No.6 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps.

Q.98. You went on leave on, or about, 1st October 1942. What did you take with you?

A.98. I took only what was necessary. As far as I can remember I took: a shirt, my respirator, a towel, two brushes, a change of underwear, all that was necessary for two weeks.

Q.99. What did you do with the rest of your clothing?

A.99. All the rest, to my knowledge, was left in the hut. I left everything in the corner of the hut where my bed is.

Q.100.-Did you bring all your clothing back from Southampton?

A.100. I did not, sir.

Q.101. Why not?

A.101. I was not able to, because I was apprehended.

Q.102..Did you make any attempt or ask the two M.Ps. to take you over there?

A.102. They were to arrange to take me over there the following day, but it was never done.

Q.103. Since that time did you take any other action to recover your clothing?

A.103. I wrote to that address asking them to send it up to me. I have been told there are two parcels at the Orderly Room for me, but I do not know what they contain.

Q.104. Can you remember the articles which you brought back with you, or got since your apprehension?

A.104. Two brushes, a shirt, a pair of socks, tooth brush, and odds and ends.

Q.105. Are there any of these articles you are reported to be deficient of, that you can satisfactory account for?

A.105. Drawers, woollen: one suit with me now, the other suit is in Southampton.
Caps, Field Service: I have one.
Kit Bag: in Southampton.
Safety razor: I have it here.
Blacking brush: I have it here.
Socks woollen: I have one pair.
Undershirt, cotton: in Southampton.
Underpants, cotton: in Southampton.
Undershirt, woollen: I have one with me.
Knife, Fork and Spoon: I have them, they were hidden around the cook-house and I got them when I came back.
Comb: I have one.

Q.106. Did you make any attempt to get these articles back?

A.106. I tried to get them back through the M.Ps, but I could not. And since I tried by writing: I have two parcels in the Orderly Room but I don't know what they contain.

By the Prosecutor:
Q.107. Did you ask the Quartermaster to leave your kit in the Q.M. Stores, before going on leave?

A.107. No sir.

Q.108. You have signed on form 800. Do you know as a soldier you are responsible for the equipment you signed for?

A.108. Yes sir, to a certain extent.

Q.109. What do you mean: to a certain extent?

A.109. To lose them, or anything else when I am not there cannot be helped.

Q.110. Do you realize that when you lose equipment by neglect, that you are responsible for them?

A.110. Yes sir.

Q.111. You say you did not ask the Q.M. to place your kit in safe custody, what did you do with it?

A.111. I left it in my hut, in a corner by my bed.

Q.112. Why did you not ask the Q.M. to keep your kit for you?

A.112. Because it was not customary.

Q.113. You say you have some of this equipment back. Could you produce it?

A.113. I can produce it. I have had some parcels of it, and now I have two parcels in the Orderly Room.

Q.114. The articles you say you do not possess were not contained in these parcels?

A.114. No sir.

Q.115. For instance your knife, fork and spoon, how did you get them back?

A.115. They were hidden near the cook-house and I got them back from there when I went back.

Q.116. You have had previous leaves. Where did you leave your kit then?

A.116. In the same place, in my hut. It has never been tempered with before.

(R.P. 8s(b) has been complied with.)

Court to Prosecutor:

Q.117. Do you wish to make a final address?

A.117. Yes sir, in regard to the second charge. I submit that the accused is guilty of losing equipment by neglect, and in so saying I am quite willing to concede to the accused, if he can produce the articles he says he had returned to him, they should not be charged to him. I wish to point out to the Court, H.Q. C.F.C's. Circular Letter No.17 dated 5th July 1941, which state that it is not a defence for a soldier, who has absented himself to claim that the kit was stolen because he had not placed same in safe custody, and cannot be an excuse for losing his equipment by neglect. This circular letter refers to K.R.(Can) 495. It may be said that when a man has signed for some equipment on M.F.C. 800, and due to the fact that some superior did not put it away in safe custody for him, does not alter his responsibility. I quote H.Q. C.F.C. Circular Letter No.17 that, if by any chance this has not been done, it is not a defence for losing equipment by neglect. We have the evidence of the Quartermaster that the accused had all his equipment before going on leave , and we have the M.F.C. 800 to substantiate. We have also evidence in a list of equipment that the accused was found to be deficient when returning from leave. I therefore submit to the court that the accused should be found guilty of losing by neglect his equipment.

Court to Defending Officer:

Q.118. Do you wish to call any further witnesses for the Defence?

A.118. No sir.

The Court recalls Lieut. Miller.

President to the witness:

You are still under the same oath, having already been sworn in this case.

Q.119. It has been stated by the accused in his evidence that two parcels of clothing are at the present time in your Orderly Room, and belong to the accused?

A.119. That is true.

Q.120. What do they contain?

A.120. I have not taken any inventory, but I have seen them on one or two occasions, and they seem to only contain personal clothing.

Q.121. Do you think they might contain some of his equipment?

A.121. To my knowledge there is nothing in them that is charged th the accused.

Q.122. Did the accused ever speak to you about some of his equipment he had left in Southampton?

A.122. I don't recollect any definite statement, but I think it is true he did.

Q.123. Did you take any steps to recover this equipment?

A.123. No steps have been taken. That equipment is in possession of a civilian.

Q.124. Don't you think it was your duty, or that you should have considered it your duty to get in touch with the C.M.P., or otherwise find this equipment?

A.124. It should have been done.

Q.125. And you cannot say what equipment is being held there at Southampton?

A.125. No sir.

The Court recalls: No.4856616, L/Cpl. Hobb, G., No.104 Provost Company, Detachment at Southampton, England.

By the President to the witness:
You are still under the same oath, having already been sworn in this case.

Q.126. The accused stated that after his arrest by you, he told you he had some equipment at a certain address and which he would like to collect?

A.126. He gave me the information that he had some equipment: shaving kit, respirator, etc. at another address, other than the one at Maybush. When the escort came for the accused, I was under the impression that the accused would pick up his kit before being put into the Guard Room.

Q.127. You reported that to your Sergeant?

A.127. Yes sir.

Q.128. Was the accused given the opportunity to pick up everything he had at Maybush?

A.128. He had the opportunity to do so.

Q.129. But he was not given the opportunity to call personally at the other address?

A.129. No sir, I don't think so.

Q.130. Have you got that other address?

A.130. He said he left a respirator, etc., at 3 Stanton Road, Regent Park.

The Court recalls: No.7692016, L/Cpl. Parker, T., No.104 Provost Company, C.M.P.

President to the witness:
You are still under the same oath, having already been sworn in this case.

Q.131. The accused stated that he asked you to make arrangements to pick up some kit after his arrest in Southampton?

A.131. Not to me, sir.

Q.132. Did he ask :/Cpl. Hobb?

A.132. Not in my presence.

Q.133. Did he mention anything about kit to you?

A.133. No sir.

Q.134. So you are not in a position to say anything regarding his Kit?

A.134. No sir.

By the Defending Officer:

In regard to this second charge against the accused, and stating of loss by neglect of certain equipment. He admits losing some of his equipment not by culpable neglect but due to the fact that he left them at the usual place as other soldiers who go on leave, in his hut. The accused stated in his evidence that certain articles are still in Southampton, such as respirator, undershirt and underpants, woollen, etc. He has made every attempt, while under arrest, to get them back, or requesting that they be asked for but nothing has been done about it. Also as the Quartermaster stated there have been no arrangements made for storing equipment of soldiers who go on leave. Again the accused admits losing certain articles of equipment, but not by neglect. Some of the articles he is still deficient of, will be forthcoming if we give him time. Other articles such as knife, fork spoon, comb he has now in his possession and therefor they should not be charged against him.

By the President to the Defending Officer:

Q.135. Can you produce a list of articles now in his possession , and which were reported as deficient when kit checked? A list should be available to be entered in the court proceedings as an exhibit.

A.135. No sir, I have no such list.

Q.136. This statement is unsupported by any list then?

A.136. The only list I have is the one submitted with the Summary of Evidence when Convening the Court.

By the President:

If the witness wishes to give any further evidence he can do so now.

No further evidence given.

Re: A11292 Pte Evans, G.L. R.C.R. Age 29. Married/37. Cat "A"

Enlisted 18 Sept 39. Eng Dec 41. Italy Sept/43.
With R.C.R. since Dec/43.

History: Father delivers bread for bakery in Woodstock, Ont. Mother was a mental patient in Ontario Hospital, London, for 16 years. Patient was only four years of age when mother was comitted to Hosp. He was sent to England and brought up by paternal grandparents until he was 18. Patient completed 6th standard at school when he was 14. After leaving school worked in a canny factory for 1½years, then as a delivery boy for a baker shop eight months, with a fruit market for one year. Went to Canada at 18 years and worked with his father at a dairy for two years, then at a fruit packing plant for about three years. Was married at 22 and claims domestic relations were fairly good until he came Overseas. Wife wrote to him only occasionally. In January 1943 wife wrote stating that she had an illegitimate child and the government cut off her allowance in Feb / 43. He has not heard from wife since. He hears from his mother quite regularly.

Denies civilian crimes. Was A.W.L. five days in England for which he served 14 days detention. He came out to N/Africa in Sept/43 as a reinforcement for R.C.R. About 15 Sept 43 contracted jaundice and was evacuated to 15th General where he was a patient until 28 Nov 43. Claims he was seriously ill with the jaundice. Was in convalescent camp one week then was discharged to C.B.R.D. Arrived at unit on Dec 24th. Was transferred from regular infantry duty to cooking on 3 Jan 44. Went A.W.L. 67 days before he was picked up by R.Ps. and was returned to unit guard house one week ago.

Suffered from enuresis to age of 17 or 18 and occasionally since. Has only wet the bed a couple of times in the army. Was very fearful of the dark as a child but grew out of that. Has always been easily startled, excited, and unduly irritable. Avoided quarrels and fights as much as he could. States that shelling made him jittery as soon as he went up to unit but that he improved after being transferred to cook-house. States he liked his job but was so shaky he could not stay with the unit, leaving with intention of trying to get a job at C.B.R.D. as cook.

Examination:

Finger nails bitten, nurse rate 108-sitting. Reflexes normal. Is of low average intelligence and exercises grossly defective judgement. He does not appear to have full appreciation of the seriousness of present charges against him. No delusions or hallucinations can be elicited at present but he gives a history of had-so having had some visual hypnagogic hallucinations about seven years ago.

Diagnosis:- Psychopathic Personality. (Inadequate Type)

Opinion: Patient has shown some past schizoid trends, his family history is bad, and as mentioned above his judgment is definitely abnormal. At present, however, he is mentally fit to stand court-martial and serve sentence. If mental symptoms are observed while undergoing sentence he should be referred again for psychiatric examination. At termination of sentence should be re-assessed regarding recategorization.

Disposal:- Return to Unit.

Re: Alf292 Pte Evans, G.L. R.C.R. Age 29. Married/37. Cat "A"

Enlisted 18 Sept 39. Eng Dec 41. Italy Sept/43.
With R.C.R. since Dec/43.

History: Father delivers bread for bakery in Woodstock, Ont. Mother was a mental patient in Ontario Hospital, London, for 16 years. Patient was only four years of age when mother was committed to Hosp. He was sent to England and brought up by paternal grandparents until he was 18. Patient completd 6th standard at school when he was 14. After leaving school worked in a candy factory for 1½ years, then as a delivery boy for a baker shop eight months, with a fruit market for one year. Went to Canada at 18 years and worked with his father at a dairy for two years, then at a fruit packing plant for about three years. Was married at 22 and claims domestic relations were fairly good until he came Overseas. Wife wrote to him only occasionally. In January 1943 wife wrote stating that she had an illegitimate child and the government cut off her allowance in Feb/43. He has not heard from wife since. He hears from his mother quite regularly.

Denies civilian crimes. Was A.W.L. five days in England for which he served 14 days detention. He came out to N/Africa in Sept/43 as a reinforcement for R.C.R. About 15 Sept 43 contracted jaundice and was evacuated to 15th General where he was a patient until 26 Nov 43. Claims he was seriously ill with the jaundice. Was in convalescent camp one week then was discharged to C.B.R.D. Arrived at unit on Dec 24th. Was transferred from regular infantry duty to cooking on 3 Jan 44. Went A.W.L. 67 days before he was picked up by M.Ps. and was returned to unit guard house one week ago.

Suffered from eneuresis to age of 17 or 18 and occasionally since. Has only wet the bed a couple of times in the army. Was very fearful of the dark as a child but grew out of that. Has always been easily startled, excited, and unduly irritable. Avoided quarrels and fights as much as he could. States that shelling made him jittery as soon as he went up to unit but that he improved after being transferred to cook-house. States he liked his job but was so shaky he could not stay with the unit, leaving with intention of trying to get a job at C.B.R.D. as cook.

Examination:

Finger nails bitten, pulse rate 108-sitting. Reflexes normal. Is of low average intelligence and exercises grossly defective judgement. He does not appear to have full appreciation of the seriousness of present charges against him. No delusions or hallucinations can be elicited at present but he gives a history of having had some visual hypnagogic hallucinations about seven years ago.

Diagnosis: - Psychopathic Personality. (Inadequate Type)

Opinion: Patient has shown some mild schizoid trends, his family history is bad, and as mentioned above his judgment is definitely abnormal. At present, however, he is mentally fit to stand court-martial and serve sentence. If mental symptoms are observed while undergoing sentence he should be referred again for psychiatric examination. At termination of sentence should be re-assessed regarding recategorization.
Disposal:- Return to Unit.

This man sir has a good record of service he joined in Dec 1941 Came overseas in April 1942 Went to Italy Oct 1943 served through this campaign until he came to France & Germany in May 1945 and has served in this theatre ever since

The reason sir that this soldier went on the loose is as follows He was working as a cook and in this form of employment he was allowed only every second day off and no other leave He was engaged to a girl in Den Bosch but he could not get to see her He applied for permission to get married but after a great deal of delay he was advised by the Padre to forget the whole thing. This gentleman as a kind thing to tell a man when he is in love He realized that he could get no where through the army so he decided to go on the loose & marry the girl he loved Is it a crime gentlemen for a man to want to marry the girl of his choice Technicaly he is guilty of a crime but when you consider the circumstances I am sure gentlemen you will be moved to give as light a sentence as possible

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No .(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "B", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

I certify that I have this morning examined B25410, Cpl. Evans, G.M. of 2 Cdn Road Construction Company, R.C.E. and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

D3 Witness for the Prosecution

The witness duly sworn in states: Sir, I am Capt Kyle, G.L. of 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy, RCE.

(Q)1 Capt Kyle do you identify Cpl Evans as being in Fulham Palace Road approximately 2150 hours.
(A)1 I do.

(Q)2 Was there a disturbance in Fulham Palace Road at approximately 2150 hours 20 May.
(A)2 Yes.

(Q)3 Do you know definitely whether Cpl Evans had any active part in the fighting that took place in Fulham Road on the 20 May.
(A)3 No I cannot say, he was either mixing it with civilians or keeping civilians from interfering with other N.C.O.s from getting into or getting out of the truck.

(A)4 He was either keeping the civilians from interfering, or assisting the N.C.O.s into the truck.

(Q)5 Then you cannot say definitely that he was fighting.
(A)5 No I cannot.

The prosecution rest.

No questions by the defence.
No questions by the court.

In the opinion of the court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

E1 Witness as to Character

The witness duly sworn in states: Sir I am Capt Blatchford, J.W. 2 Cdn Engr Eqpt Wkshps (B), RCE.

I have known Cpl Evans for some three years. He is rather inclined to get into minor difficulties because he likes to be with the boys. However as an N.C.O. and man he makes a very good soldier.

E3 Plea of Mitigation of Punishment

This is another case of a Cpl who has allowed all enthusiasm to run away with his better judgment. After 15 months of a clear crime sheet he slips up and takes a day off. He has been in detention now for 8 days awaiting trial. I think that he fully realizes the extent of the defence and also the trouble he is causing to the people and I feel sure that the court should take an easy outlook on this defence. Cpl Evans still leans backwards to declare the right to prove that a court is right.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

Evidence

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-25410 Cpl. Evans, George McIntosh, on strength of No 2. Cdn. Road Construction Coy R.C.E. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Corporal He did not appear on the job during these hours

2nd witness
for the prosecution

Capt G. L Kyle of NB 2 Cdn Road Const Coy having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt. G L Kyle of No. 2 Cdn Road Const.
Coy. On 28th May 1944 I received certain information and instructions from the O.C 2 Cdn Road Const. Coy. in consequence of which at about 1930 hours I proceeded to Kingston and Hammersmith. At aproximately
2130 hours I noticed some of the unit
N.C.Os on Dalkeith Palace road in front of a public house; in discussion with the civil police, I recognized Sgt. Hayes, Sgt Morissette
Cpl Ransom, Cpl. Evans, Cpl Bakemeyer, L/Cpl
Noland and L/Cpl. Pratt. Cpl Evans was obviously under the influence of drink. I ordered them to get into the truck. While doing so a fight broke out amongst all these N.C.Os who involved Cpl. Evans. It attracted a large crowd, civilians and other military personnel became involved, A police van came up and they assisted in getting all the N.C.Os including Cpl ~~[redacted]~~ Evans into my vehicle, except Sgt Hayes whom they took in custody in their own. I drove around until I went to the Hammersmith police station to pick up Sgt. Hayes at approx. 2400 hours. He O.A.P.M. London released him in my care. I returned with the N.C.Os to Coy HQ at about 0200 hours.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. STATMENT B THE ACCUSED (ON OATH) NOTE E-1

Sir.

My first employment was in Detriot Mich. for a Credit house Co, as a Clerk, and I was receiving $150.00 per month here. I had taken a commercial course at Roginson Business College in Ontario. I worked there until I got married and my wife came to live with me in Detroit, but she did not like it here so she went back to her place. I finally went home and got my home to-gether in Brantford. I was given a job in the Paint Shop in Brantford ontario., but with very low wages. I was offered a job to play ball and Hockey with the American Can Club at Simcoe. My wife came to live in Simcoe for a short time, but decided not to stay, but to go back to her home at Brantford. I tried several other jobs in several other places, but my wife would not live any place but Brantford, Ontario. I went to work in Montreal for a short period and finally went back to the American Can club at Simcoe and worked there up to the time of my enlistment in April 19th, 1940. My mother is very much interested church affairs and belongs to the Rebecca Lodge. She does a lot of work in the different organizations, like the Red Shield, etc. My one uncle is a Moderator of the United church and my other uncle was a Minister at Hamilton. I used to sing in the choir of the church at home. I belong to the Simcoe Mens Club in Ontario. I was one of the organizers of this club. Its purpose was, sports activities, reading rooms etc. I belong to the Tucus Club in England . I play mostly all sports, but specialize in Hocky and Baseball. I have played Junior Hardball with the Ontario Hard ball teams. I played Basket Ball at Highschool. I have played softball with the American Can Co which is sponsored by the American Softball assosiation. I played ball with CMHQ Records and also Hockey., but I had a lot of trouble with my feet so had to quit. I landed in England on the 4 Sept.40 I went to London, Records Office on approximately April 42. I left there on 25 August this year. I have had approximately 2½ years there. Last year I went home in the month of June because of domestic troubles. They had investigated from Ottawa, but could not get any definite proof as to my wifes activities. I tried for a divorce but did not have any evidence. I am Category "C2". I paraded to the O.C. M.D.2 Toronto to try and proceed back overseas but he said he could not help me there. I was told I could go by to higher authorities. A discharge was offered to me while I was home and I turned it down to come back overseas. I was told by the army to look for a job and was finally offered one by the Cockshutt Plough Co, but I preferred to come back here and di so on the 3 or 4 of Sep.43. Major Appleford at Records, CMHQ put in a claim for me. I had a girl in London and I have known her for a little more than a year . We both decided that if my divorce came through, we would be married. This girl comes from a very good family and her father is a Minister at St.Lukes, C of E Church. I got this girl in trouble. I started borrowing money and giving it to her to try and held her to get rid of the child and eventually she did. I sent her to Butte Cornwall as her nerves were quite bad. She came to London to see me. It was my long week-end off, but the S.M. asked me if I would work instead. I worked on ~~the~~ Saturday and on Sunday the girlfriend came to the office so I quit work on sunday at 4 instead of 5 oclock. On the following morning when I came into work the S.M. gave me a bawling out. I got sore and tore off my L/Cpls strips and put them on his desk and told him to keep them. He naturally put me on charge for insubordination. I was stripped and sent to No.1 C.G.R.U.

Letter from Cockshutt Plough Co. marked Ex.1 by the Court.

I arranged to have an interview with the SPO there and tried to explain to him my troubles. He called the Clerks Training and stressed that I should have a 9 day leave to straighten things out, if possible. He also asked that I be put in his employment when I returned from leave. I got a week-end and went to Butte Cornwall to see the girlfriend and came back. Then I tried to get this 9 day leave. This was turned down by my Coy. I then wrote to Major Lawrence as he is the O.C. of my Coy. I told him the state of mind I was in and that I simply had to get away, and then I went AWL. Wrote home for money as the girlfriend was still in need of some. This was before I went AWL. This money I did not receive until after I was apprehended and it was all turned over the the girlfriend to help buy her, food, clothing and other things she needed. Then I went to London and stole the typewriters after trying to borrow money in several places. This money was also given to the girl-friend. I worked in Butte Cornwall and drew 3-10-0 per day on a farm. This was used also the keep the girl-friend and myself. Then I was arrested and brought back and I have been 62 days awaiting trial. I have no idea why I should have had to wait so long before trial.

Q. Is that the letter you wrote to Major Lawrence?

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER.

FIRST WITNESS:
C-28502 A/Sgt. HOGAN, F.M. Cdn Records, C.M.H.Q. having been duly sworn states:

I am working in the Stationery Section and Office Records at RECORDS, C.M.H.Q. I have been there since 1942 and I have known the accused for atleast 2 years. I can't say a word against him. I had quite a little bit to do with when he was there and I found him a hard worker, honest and conscentious. I dont know whta he was like out of the office as I was never out with him, but he was well liked in the office.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

SECOND WITNESS
K-73315 Sgt. LANNING, R.P. Special Investigation Section, Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:

The accused has been a very great help and assistance and did everything possible to make the case easy. He pointed out some people he said who took the typewriters but of course they denied it.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS
D-82205 A/L/Cpl. MacDONNELL, J.H. Cdn Records Office, CMHQ, having been duly sworn states:

I am employed at Records, Acton and have known the accused since I went there. He was always a very good worker and a very decent chap as far as I know. He was always honest and conscentious.

FOURTH WITNESS:
A-37781 L/Cpl. SCHNEUCKER, W.H. on strength No.1 C.G.R.U. having been duly sworn states:

I first knew the accused in 1933. I was playing Hockey at the time in Paris, Ontario. The following year I played for the Simcoe team, and the accused was playing for the American Can Co. He belonged to the Simcoe Young mans club. He was very well liked and I never heard anything bad about him.

It was difficult to become a member of the Simcoe Young Mans Club, as you had to have letters of references etc. The next time I saw the accused was when he was brought to No.1 C.G.R.U. 2 months ago. I am one of the R.P. at No.1 C.G.R.U. and his conduct has been very good during the 2 months that he has been in the Guard Room.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

PLEA IN MITIGATION NOTE E-3

Sir:

We have here sir, and man who previous to this offence had a good record but because of a great deal of worry and trouble he did things for which he is now sorry. He came over here in the early months of the war to serve his country with his marriage back in Canada on the verge of breaking up. With these worries on his mind, he went out to try and forget them, and unfortunately met a girl and got her in trouble. Now we ask ourselves which is the worse., a man who gets a girl in trouble and leaves, or a man who tries to get her out of trouble, but by doing so, involves himself. I think the latter is to be commended. He got into trouble with the S.M. at Acton and lost his job there, and he was badly in need of money to help his girl-friend, so with all these worries, when he arrived at No.1 CGRU, he wanted to get leave to try and straighten out these matters. He applied for leave and was ~~off~~ refused, so he went AWL. He left a letter which shows the state of mind he was in. This letter(Ex.2) was addressed to his O.C. He got a week-end pass to go to Butte Cornwall but ~~whi-~~ with such a distance to travel he couldn't make it back in timeso he sent a wire to his O.C. which I will read.

WIRE READ BY DEF. OFFR AND MARKED EX.3 BY THE COURT.

He went to London when going AWL and started drinking with some of his friends, and after trying to borrow money from various places happened to mention to two typewriters in his old office. Two civilians happened to overhear the conversation and were willing to buy the machines, and take advantage of the accuseds state of mind. I would like at this time to present to the court a few certificates of character for the accused. The first is a letter from an Officer for whom the accused has worked.

LETTER READ BY DEF OFFR AND MARKED EX.4 BY THE COURT.

After the accused was in trouble and his friends heard about ~~by-~~ back in Canada, he obtained some telegrams from them. The first is from the American Can Coy.

READ TO THE COURT AND MARKED EX. 5

The second comes the town clerk, at Waterford, Ontario.

READ AND MARKED EX.6

And the third one is from his Mother who can't understand how her boy could become involved in any trouble.

ALSO READ AND MARKED EX.7.

I would like to point out that the only offence listed on the MFM 6 of the accused is a short AWL of 3 days on the 5 Aug.44 and I would like also to state that this AWL on the 5 Aug. was connected with the same matter and would not have occurred after three years without a crime, but ~~th~~ for this state of affairs.
Just in conclussion I would like to mention that the four character witness are not witness that I have had to look for and everyone spoke highly of the character of the accused and without limitation. May I therefore ask for leniency of the court for this man.

Re: Pte H. M. Evans, #B-86631

Dear Sir:

The above man advises us that provided he can obtain suitable employment, he will be able to procure his discharge from the Canadian army. After discussing the matter with Pte Evans, we feel that we can use him in our Aircraft division, on assembling and fitting work for the Lancaster undercarriage. Pte Evans will be starting at fifty-five cents an hour, plus the current cost of living bonus of four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per week. He will be paid at time and a half for all work over forty-eight hours per week. At the present time, in this department they are working approximately fifty-five hours a week. It is also to be understood that the rate of fifty-five cents per hour is only a starting rate, until Pte Evans proves his ability. At that time it will be increased.

Dear Major Lawrence, Ex 2/ My

I can't stand it any longer. I've tried to do things the right way but people don't seem to want to let me. I wanted to do the decent thing by my family I was engaged & now the Army won't let me play ball with this girl in England so I'm just doing the next best thing before my mind cracks.

I know the Army will finally catch up with me but they will never put me in detention as I will kill myself first, so tell them to leave me alone as I'm no good to them anyway.

I don't hold the Canadian Gov. responsible for any aid of anything kind so why can't they leave me alone to try & make a fresh start in life. The war is nearly over anyway & they certainly don't need me.

I will close with begging you once more to please leave me alone.

Yours Truly

Memorandum 30 Oct 44

To President of F.G.C.M. E&E

Re. case of Pte. Evans, H.M. MY

In view of the fact that I am about to start on a War Office Intelligence Course and may not be available for the sitting of the Court, I am taking the liberty of writing a statement as to character and general information.

The accused or his defending officer has permission to read or file this statement in court.

Statement

Up to August 1943 I was employed at Casualty Wing, Records Office, Canadian Military Headquarters, Acton, London, W.3.

During a large part of that period accused was also employed there.

At that time he was a Private and I was his senior N.C.O.

I always found the accused to be a man of exemplary character. He was willing, honest and had a very likeable personality.

No matter what duties I ever asked the accused to perform he always obeyed in a soldierly manner.

A LIST OF ADDITIONAL WITNESSES TO GIVE EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF CHARGES AGAINST B.86631 PTE EVANS H.M.

B.86631 Pte Harry Maurice Evans, the accused, was advised under Rules of Procedure 76 that additional witnesses were being called to give evidence for the prosecution of the trial, by Major E.L. MacKay, investigating officer, on Monday, 13 Nov 44, at 0930 hrs.

FIRST WITNESS

D-82205 A/L/CPL MacDONNELL, J.H., Cdn Records Office, C.M.H.Q. A/L/Cpl MacDonnell having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

"On arriving in the office on morning of 6 Sep 44, I went to carry out work I had left on my machine and discovered my typewriter was missing, and work I had left in the machine had been removed. I then turned to the table behind me to use the spare machine, a Woodstock, and discovered it was also missing. I immediately reported the absence of these two typewriters to CSM. Colbran. He advised that I check the various wings to see if someone had borrowed them. This I did and found no trace of them. From that point the loss was followed up by CSM. Colbran. "

.....J.H. MacDonell.....
(D-82205 A/L/Cpl MacDonnell J.H.)

Capt. L.A.C.O. Hunt, Cdn Records, C.M.H.Q., having been duly sworn, gives evidence as follows:

"On the night of 5/6 Sep 44, I was duty officer at Records, CMHQ. During my tour of duty I patrolled through the building but at no time were my suspicions aroused regarding unauthorized persons on the premises. The Casualty Wing, Room 217B, and Enquiries Wing, Room 211, Verification Room, R.2, and Orderly Room, No.212, were occupied by night staffs and lights were burning. Lights were out in all other wings and halls were in complete darkness.
"On the morning of 6 Sep 44 at 0900 hrs, CSM Colbran of the CAOIB, reported to me that two typewriters were missing from his wing, Room No.213. As it was assumed that the typewriters were taken by some person during the night I instructed the Qr.Mr. to have all typewriters in the building checked and numbers checked off against those on ledger charge. This duty was carried out by Sgt. Hogen, the Stores Sergeant, who discovered that all typewriters, with the exception of the two missing ones, were accounted for. The matter was then reported to the Camp Commandant so that all other branches of CMHQ in this building could be advised of the loss. An extensive search was then carried out under the direction of RSM Gaiger of all air raid shelters in the grounds of this building, but without avail.
"By permission of the O.i/c Records, I proceeded with RSM Gaiger and Cpl Grossley to the Shepherds Bush Police Station and laid the whole matter before Det.Sgt.Little, of the C.I.D. We then interviewed Mr. Carroll at the fish and chip establishment and it was stated by Mr. Carroll that Pte Evans had tried to sell him two typewriters. As it was considered possible that Evans may have been in that neighborhood we made several visits to various establishments in order to contact him. We met with no success. I later instructed Cpl Grossley to proceed with Det.Sgt.Little in civilian clothes, to Shepherds Bush that evening and visit the various public houses for the purpose of obtaining more information

Statement of D-86631. Pte Evans H. m.
No 1 C.G. R.A.

I have been warned by K70315 Sgt R.P. Canning. S.I.S. Gds Prov Corps. London, that I need not say anything unless I wish to but anything I say will be taken down in writing and used in evidence, wish to make the following statement.

To show that I understand this warning I sign my name.

On the 5th of Sept 1944 I went A.W.L. from my unit No 1 C.G. R.A., the reason for my doing so was because I could not get leave from my C.O. and it had been recommended by the C.M.O. also because I was rather despondent and in need of money. I went direct to London & tried to borrow money, without any success, afterwards I went to the Eagles Public House in Hammersmith and after having a few drinks I thought of the typewriters at the building (Records) where I was previously employed and voiced same to companion at table, in doing so I was overheard by two other men sitting near, these men approached me & claimed they could dispose of the typewriters, so I told them I would meet them at closing time and get them for them. At about 2200 hrs that night (5th Sept 1944 Tuesday) on coming out of the pub, with the men, we went down Ashen Rd & got in their car, which must have been parked within three blocks of the pub on Ashen Rd. They had left me on the corner while they went for the car, which they said was in a garage at home, they were only gone about five minutes. We then proceeded to the Ministry of Pensions block at Acton, I left them outside while I went in to the building, I went to the second floor, I do not know what room it is, and picked up the two typewriters & walked out of the building or I should say I climbed out of the ground floor window. I then gave the typewriter to the two men and they gave me about £12-0-0, I am not sure of the exact amount as I was slightly under the influence of liquor and did not know exactly what I was doing.

They left me then in the car and I went to Waterloo Station and caught the midnight train to Bude Cornwall where I was arrested.

These two men I had never seen spoken to before, but had seen them around, Shepherds Bush and can describe them as follows:- 1. Slim & dark with small moustache, 35 yrs, 140 lbs, 5'9". wearing dark suit with top coat & hat No 2. a little taller, 5'10½", fair complexion no hat, 155 lbs. 24 yrs. I dont remember what he was wearing. they both frequent all the pubs in the Shepherds Bush & Hammersmith area and seem to be well known around there, especially in the Swanley & Eagle Public Houses

The reason I am admitting all this is because it is the first time I have ever stolen anything and it has been preying on my mind ever since, I am perfectly willing to assist the police in any way possible to recover the typewriters.

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty

The accused, B-76036 Pte. EVANS, L.A., is found guilty of the first and second charges.

The summary of evidence is read, marked "C-1", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

The Prosecutor, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut. R.R. Macgillivray of No. 1 Canadian Machine Gun Holding Unit, Canadian Army (Overseas). I here produce A.F.B. 296, Statement of Character and Particulars of Service, in respect to the accused, B-76036 Pte. Evans, L.A., on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Machine Gun Holding Unit.

This document shows him to be charged once since enlistment under Army Act Sec. 19, once since enlistment under Army Act Sec. 40, and two times both under Sec. 15(1) both within the last 12 months.

The accused has spent 14 days in custody awaiting trial and has no previous civil or court-martial convictions.

This document is signed by Lieut. R.E. Fullerton, Officer in charge of Records, whose signature I now recognize. I have compared it with the original documents and find it true.

I also produce two copies of the M.F.M. 6 which I have compared with the documents in our Records Office. These are certified by Lieut. R.E. Fullerton, Officer in charge of Records. The original M.F.M. 6 was not located, but the new one was made out and the entries taken from the M.F.M. 4.

Question to the accused — Have you any character evidence you wish to produce?

Answer (Defending Officer) — Yes, I have, sir. The accused would like to make a statement; then I would like to call some witnesses as to character.

The accused states:

I was in the Permanent Force. I joined the Permanent Force in 1936 or 1937 and was in the R.C.Ds., "A" Squadron, St. Jeans, Quebec. I was discharged from the Permanent Force in May 1939 and was discharged medically unfit for military service.

In September I enlisted in the Toronto Scottish and came over here, and while in the P.F. I had only one crime against me.

When I came down here, I went to hospital and came back out. The girl I was going with was in the family way and I promised her whatever happened I would marry her. I asked for permission to marry her at the regiment and was refused. I asked for a weekend pass to go and tell her why I couldn't marry her and it was turned down; so I went up and told her I had to get money to marry and my deferred pay I have assigned to my brother. I have no recollection of coming back here at all. I have been in the army long enought to know that coming back here was crazy. It was damn silliness on my part. I don't remember coming back at all. I just came down from hospital. I have been hysterical. I don't even know how long I was absent. I got married and I didn't even stay with my wife. I just turned around stayed away.

B-75949 Cpl. Brown, R.W., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer as follows:

Q-1 What position are you in?
A. I am acting orderly sergeant, "A" Company, in the No. 1 Machine Gun Holding Unit.

Q-2 As such you had something to do with the accused?
A. The accused was stationed in my quarters and I had occasion to check the roll on the 18th April. I found the accused absent at 0630 hours. On the 30th April when I was waiting for the C.O.S. orders, the accused reported to me to give himself up. I told him he was under open arrest. The following morning he was absent from 0630 hours. The next I heard of him he was under arrest.

Q-3 What do you know of the state of mind of the accused?
A. The accused appeared to be very depressed from time to time. That's the reason I put him on fatigues instead of on the parade square. I have handled men since I was twenty and know men and that's the reason.

Q-4 Do you remember when he came back when he was A.W.L.?
A. He approached me when I was standing in line on the C.O.S. parade and seemed quite agitated over something. I had to place him under open arrest.

B-76091 Sgt. Buchanan, D.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer as follows:

Q-1 Sgt. Buchanan, how long have you known the accused?
A. Since 1936.

Q-2 When and under what circumstances did you know him then.
A. I was employed by the International Nickel Company as police and he worked in the carrier. He and I both enlisted at the same time and were both in the same company and regiment. That was in September 1939.

Q-3 And you came overseas together?
A. Yes, sir.

Q-4 What is your opinion of the accused's conduct?
A. During that earlier period, it was very good, and his conduct while I knew him in civilian life was very good. He left the Nickel Company, I think, around the latter part of 1936 to join the Permanent Force and came back in 1939, I believe. Well he must have been dependable at his work; otherwise they would not have hired him again. I think that's as good a recommend as anybody can get. His conduct in the army, he was in my company and always seemed very good to me.

Q-5 Did you have anything to do with the accused around April of this year when he went A.W.L.?
A. No, I left the regiment in December and he was still at the regiment.

Q-6 Were you at the holding unit?
A. I was at Corps.

The Defending Officer then made the following statement:

In view of the fact that I think that the accused this time when he went A.W.L. was suffering from a great deal of mental agitation - he had trouble with a girl and had wanted to go and marry her, which he did, and he got into a mess of misunderstanding about the whole thing - and in view of the fact that his mental attitude I think at the time he went A.W.L. and the second time was pretty confused and worried, which we have heard him say and Cpl. Brown can give evidence as to and in view of the fact that he has a fairly good conduct sheet - there is an offence of drunkenness and one under Sec. 40 and twice A.W.L., not for long times in either case - and the evidence of Sgt. Buchanan that to the best of his knowledge he was a good soldier at "C" Company in the regiment, I would like to ask the Court to take this into consideration in awarding sentence on the accused. I do not think he is the sort of man who habitually goes A.W.L. and gets into trouble. He was in trouble in the spring, but on the whole there is nothing to show that he would not become a good soldier again.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

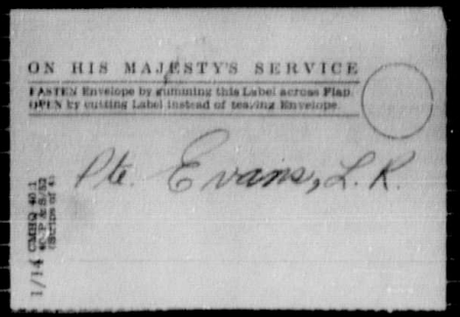
STATEMENT BY B-76036 PTE. EVANS, L.A.

elaborating on statement made by him at F.G.C.M. 10 JUN 41.

At my trial by F.G.C.M., June 10th, 1941, I made a statement in the course of which I said that I had asked permission to marry, and it had not been granted. I was paraded for interview before Lieut-Col. J.H. Christie, Commanding the T.S.R. (M.G.) at Chipstead shortly after Christmas, 1940. I merely stated that I wnated to get married and I mentioned the girl's name. Lieut-Col. Christie said that he thought it would be the best thing for me. As far as I know he did not write down the particulars of the case. I did not make a written application for permission to marry, as I did not know this was necessary. I made no further attempt to have my request granted, and when nothing happened, I assumed that permission had been refused and on May 30th, 1941, I was married without permission.



At my trial I stated that I had applied for leave once and that no leave was granted. I asked for week-end leave at Easter, but I was told that no leave was being granted for the Easter week-end. This was the only occasion on which I applied for leave since February 6th, 1941, when I had seven days privilege leave. I also had seven days leave on 26th November, 1940.

MITIGATION

The accused sworn, states:-

Q. On the night in question at what time did you first go to the pub?
A. About 1900 hrs.

Q. What did you drink that night?
A. I was drinking bitters, I drank in one pub for about an hour and had five glasses and then I went to another pub and I stayed there for three quarters of an hour or an hour and then to another pub. After that I remember leaving the pub but my mind was blurred for a while and the next thing I remember was the provost picking me up.

Q. Tell the court about your going down to 1 CCRU to see some friends of yours back from the continent?
A. I don't remember much about going there. I had been there a week or so before to see a friend of mine while on a 48 hour leave. I am not sure whether on the night in question I went to see him or not. I am not married, my civil occupation is farmer, my category is A.1. I served on the continent from 18 Jul 44, after "D" day with the N.F.U.H. I stayed there with them until the war ended. I got to grade 10 in school.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(2).

PLEA OF MITIGATION

2 Jan 46.

The accused F.57560, Pte. Evans, L.E. on the night of 18 Dec.45 when he was apprehended, had been drinking to excess. He had been drinking for three hours at a rapid rate. After leaving the Pub, he had been into several of them, in a hazy and confused manner he decided to go to C.G.R.U. Barracks to see if one of his former associates from the continent was there. He cannot remember what happened and claims that due to his drunken condition he was unaware of what he was doing. He has twenty seven months service with only one crime of being A.W.O.L. listed against him. From his record it would appear that this man undoubtedly would not have committed this crime had he been in his normal senses. Consideration is therefore asked on his behalf in that he was not responsible for his actions that night, while in a state of intoxication. In account it is requested that forfeiture of pay would be adequate in the case.

Summary of Evidence in the case of F-57560, Pte. Evans, R. L. H. Q. Coy., 1 Cdn. Sub-Workshop, R.C.E.M.E., C.A.O., charged with stealing property belonging to a person subject to military law (A.A. Sec. 18 (4)).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence was taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS : B-130616, Cpl. Phillips, J. A., 14 Provost Coy., Cdn. Provost Corps., C.A.O., sworn, states:-

"I was returning from duty with L/Cpl. Doutre about 0015 Hrs., 18 December 45 when I saw a soldier looking through a kit bag at the corner of Farnham and Pennefather Road on the outskirts of Aldershot. I went over to the soldier and asked him what he was doing. At first he said that he was checking to see what he had in his kit bag. I checked his documents and noticed that the kit bag had another name on it. I was suspicious of this and took him to the Police Station, Aldershot Civilian Police Station. At the police station the accused said words to the effect that he had stolen the kit bag and if he was treated decently he'd show me where he had got the bag. I took him to a barrack room, of 1 CGRU and he showed me the bed where he had taken the bag from. H-94461, Pte. Matson, O. was asleep in the bed. I wakened Pte. Matson and asked him if he had lost anything, to which he replied, 'Not that he knew of.' L/Cpl. Doutre, who was with me, asked Pte. Matson if he recognized the bag and he replied, 'Yes'. I asked Pte. Matson to tell me what was in the bag and he named several items and I concluded that it was his bag. I gave Pte. Matson a receipt for the bag and contents, and took the accused to the Guard Room of 1 Cdn. Sub-Workshop, RCEME and turned him over to Tpr. Dick, H. P. and I took the kit bag to 14 Provost Coy. Orderly Room."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Question 1 - Was Pte. Evans with you while you were talking to Pte. Matson?

Answer 1 - Yes Sir.

Question 2 - Do you recognize Pte. Evans as the man who had the kit bag?

Answer 2 - Yes Sir. (The witness points out the accused)

(Sgd) Cpl. Phillips, J. A.

SECOND WITNESS: D-146089, L/Cpl. Doutre, A. of 14 Provost Coy., Cdn. Provost Corps, C. A. O., sworn, states:-

"I was returning from duty with Cpl. Phillips about 0015 Hrs. 18 Dec. 45 when I noticed a soldier, whom I now recognize as Pte. Evans, with a kit bag, the contents of which were strewn over the ground. Upon being questioned, Pte. Evans could not supply us with a satisfactory answer as to what he was doing. We put the contents back in the bag and escorted Pte. Evans to the Aldershot Civilian Police station. Upon further questioning, Pte. Evans admitted the theft of the bag, and signed a list of the articles that were found in the bag. He then led us to a barrack room in 1 CGRU, where Pte. Matson identified the bag as his property. We gave Pte. Matson a receipt for the bag, and escorted Pte. Evans to the Guard Room of 1 Cdn. Sub-Workshop, RCEME. Cpl. Phillips received a body receipt from Tpr. Dick, H. P. and warned the accused that a charge would be forwarded to his O.C."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

(Sgd) A. Doutre

THIRD WITNESS: H-94461, Pte. Matson, O., R and D Coy. 1 CGRU, CAD, sworn, states:

"On the night of 17 Dec. 45, I went to bed about 2300 Hrs. I was awakened about 0100 Hrs. 18 Dec. 45 by a cpl of the Provost Corps. He had a kit bag which I recognized to be mine. He asked me to name some of the things which were in it. This I did. The Provost Cpl. gave me a receipt and took the bag, away. I recognize the kit bag, tagged Exhibit "A" to be mine. I recognize Pte. Evans as the soldier who was with the Provost."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

(Sgd) Oliver Matson

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Question 1 - Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

Answer 1 - I do not wish to make a statement.

(Sgd) R. L. Evans

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of two pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that R.P. 4(c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

Plea in mitigation of punishment by the Defending Officer attached hereto.

[signature]

Pte. Evans. STATEMENT OF DEFENDING OFFICER.

It is respectfully submitted that this charge of 7 days AWL, where the accused returned himself to the unit, should or at least could have been disposed of without Court Martial. I think it probably would but for the reorganization of companies and wings, and new officers, and in any event the Court will not impose any higher punishment than the C.O. would have.

The record of the accused will show that occasionally this man has gone AWL for short periods after pay day, but has always returned himself. When here he is a good worker and soldier. He is not one the "bad" men whom is usually found before Courts Martial. He unfortunately has on occasions come under the influence of liquor, although he never gets objectionable or in trouble, other than staying away. He has managed to go long periods without a lapse, and he asks me to say that he realizes the folly of liquor, and when he serves his sentence, he will endeavour that there will be no further lapses. If I may suggest, the ends of justice will be well met by a short sentence, taking into consideration the automatic forfeitures which he will suffer, and that he has been in the guard room under close arrest for ten days.

D3 First witness for the prosecution, Mr. Johannes Pezie, merchant of Almelo Holland, sworn states:

Q1 On Thursday, April 26th at about 2040 hours, what happened in your shop?
A1 At that time I heard noises downstairs in my shop at 83A Groote St, Almelo Holland.

Q2 Is that also, 1 Market Place?
A2 That is the number of the house in which I live.

Q3 Are they connected?
A3 Yes.

Q4 Tell us the whole story of what happened after the noises?
A4 When I heard the noises I went downstairs and saw nothing. I went through the shop, looked everywhere, and the only thing I saw was the cash register forced and the money had been taken away. After that I left the shop at the back to see if there was anyone there and saw nobody. As a result of information received I understood that there had been two military men in my shop. After a quarter of an hour I went again to the back of my house to speak to the neighbor. When I was talking to the neighbor after about a quarter of an hour two military men came to my house. These military men passed me, went into the corridor and into my shop. I followed them and closed the door by a key in my pocket and went upstairs to telephone and warn the town police in Almelo. The police arrived at the front where I was waiting for them. After having left my house through the private entrance the police went with me into the shop through the front door and the only thing I could do that moment was to follow the military men who had left the shop. The military men had left the shop through the office door. The police followed them when they were escaping via the Market Square in the direction of the Hagengracht. They went to the right into a blind alley and could not get away from there. At the report of the gun of the detective the Military Police arrived. When they had caught the military men they brought them to the back of the shop. After that a list was made of what I was missing. To see how much money was missing I had to make up the cash.

Q5 Will you explain the back door entrance to your shop?
A5 There is a private entrance via the storehouse into the shop at the backside and ~~there~~ is also a possibility to come directly inside and into the office, by another door.

Q6 What doors are there to the house?
A6 My own family uses the first entrance through the storehouse and upstairs.

Q7 Is that the same entrance mentioned before?
A7 Yes, sir.

Q8 Did you see anyone in the shop the first time you went down?
A8 No, sir.

Q9 Did you see anybody when you went into the shop with the police?
A9 I saw two persons going ~~away~~ through the office. After that I was not able to see them, because they had turned to the left. They had white coats on.

Q10 When did you next see these people?
A10 When they left the garden via the gate.

Q11 Did you follow them after they left the garden.
A11 Yes, to the Market Square.

Q12 Did you follow them up the blind alley?
A12 No, sir.

Q13 Can you recognize these men, if you saw them again?
A13 Yes, I think so.

Q14 Were these men brought back to the shop?
A14 Yes they were, by the Military Police.

Q15 How do you know they were the same men?
A15 They were the same men who passed me and entered my shop when I was talking to my neighbor.

Q16 Can you recognize anyone in this room, who passed you going into the shop?
A16 No, he is not present.

Q17 When you got back to your shop, after these men were caught was there anything missing.
A17 Not yet, because I had not yet looked into the matter. There was many clothes on the ~~ground~~ floor of the shop. STOCK.

Q18 Later on was there anything found to be missing?
A18 Yes, but I could not state exactly, because during the German occupation we made no lists of our ~~clothes~~ STOCK.

Q19 Was there anything brought back to the store after the men were caught?
A19 The Military Police brought back the articles I brought here today.

Q20 Did you see the soldiers with them?
A20 The only thing I can say was that they had rain-coats on.

Q21 Do you recognize this tail-coat?
A21 Yes I do. I recognize it because of the name of the firm is on it and it is my private property. (#1)

Q22 Do you recognize these striped trousers?
A22 Yes, they are my own trousers, part of the same suit. (#2)

Q23 What is the price of this suit?
A23 75 guilders.

Q24 Do you recognize this rain-coat?
A24 Yes, by the writing on the price label. (#3)

Q25 Do you recognize this white ladies rain-coat?
A25 Yes. This is a sample coat, and the collar is dirty from so many people tring it on. (#4)

Q26 Is that the only one you have?
A26 There is another one of a larger size.

Q27 Do you recognize this mans rain-coat?
A27 Yes. This also is a sample coat and I recognize it by the lining. (#5)

Q28 Is there anything special in the lining that you recognize?
A28 Yes, it is the only half-back coat in my shop. I have worked with these coats for 3 years.

Q29 Is there anyone else in town handling similar styled coats?
A29 I am not quite sure.

Q30 How do you know these coats were the ones brought in by the Civilian detective?

Q31 Where have they been since then?
A31 In a far corner in my shop, I brought them myself this morning.

A37 I talked it over with my wife and I just wanted to hear what my next door neighbor said. The door is only closed at night.

R.P. 83(c) complied with.

Summing up by the defence.

The first witness, the shop-keeper could not identify the accused as being one of the men in his shop. He also claims the shop door was left open which I think leaves the possibility that anyone could have entered the shop. Also no positive identification can be made of the number of items of clothing missing. The accused was is possession of two civilian garments - wind-breakers. There has been no mention of these in the list of articles stolen. The shop-keeper has not identified these articles as his and he could not make a positive identification of the other items found. His hazy ideas of the time make it impossible to take any of his evidence seriously. Even the policeman could not identify the accused and there is also a difference in time between in the police and Pezie's evidence. It is not possible to suppose these two men entered the shop and took the money and then left and returned later for the garments. If they had gone in there in the first place, it is not likely they would have gone back for the second time. One witness claims the accused was drunk. He was celebrating his early return to Canada. It is quite possible he was. I think it is very evident that the evidence given by these witnesses leaves reasonable doubt as to there accuracy.

Summing up by the prosecution.

I would like to submit that there is a possibility of doubt insofar as identification of the accused by the civilian witnesses, both detective and the store-keeper, but whether or not he was in the store, which is up to the court to decide, he was actually found outside with the garments, therefore leaves himself open as an accomplice to the fact. As he was found with the goods with another soldier at the same time and place, whether or not he was waiting outside for a third person to turn up is hardly a question. He was shown in evidence as having consumed some liquor. He was identified by the Canadian Military Police and there rests no doubt as to the fact that he was a man present at that time. Therefore the decision rests with the court as to what connection he had with the crime.

E1 The defence counsel submits to the court a statment of character of the accused from the Adjutant of his Unit. The Adjutant being unable to attend the court.

The statement is accepted by the President of the court as character evidence.

The accused M 60910 Cpl EVANS, T.E. RCASC, attached to 204 Cdn Armd Ord Sub Park RCOC, sworn states:

Sir, the reason for my going out and celebrating the evening of the 26th was, having received word of my return home to Canada. Since New Years I have received many letters from my wife wanting to know why I had not received my leave. Others had been returned on rotation leave who had less service than I have. I have a child four years old whom I have never seen and I would like to go home very much. I have an assignment of pay to my wife and have no brothers in the service. I enlisted on 10 Sep 40 with the RCA at MD 13 Calgary. I came overseas with the 17th Battery, 3rd field Regiment. I came to France on July 6th. I am a confirmed Corporal, being confirmed in April 1944.

E3 Plea in mitigation.

As the Corporal has told you he was due to go home in May and he was celebrating his good fortune. He also told you he has been in the army since September 1940 and came overseas with the 2nd Div. He has been away a long time, has never seen his child so you can realize his feelings. I have known the accused since he came to our unit in August or September, as I was the Quartermaster at the time. As the Corporal was directly under me, I know he has carried out his duties always in a satisfactory manner. He is trustworthy and well liked by all men in the unit. I hope that these points will be taken into consideration and the Corporal will be given the best possible show.

The m/n soldier has been known to me for the past three months during which time he has performed the duties of Cpl cook for this unit. At all times I have found him to be most willing and conscientious in carrying out his duties.

This NCO has been anticipating returning to Canada on rotation leave for the last two months and was allotted a vacancy on the last draft. Prior to being allotted a vacancy Cpl Evans approached me on several occasions regarding same. It is my opinion that the uncertainty of his return affected him considerably.

Statement under Oath

On Thursday April 26th 1945 at about 9.15 in the evening, J. PEZIE, living Market Square No. 1 in Almelo informed us by telephone, that he had thieves in his shop.

I, Jan Nicolaas Stunnenberg, head-sergeant-detective of the police went to the above-mentioned address with Teunig van der Veer, head-sergeant of the police.

When we entered the front-door of the shop we heard persons going to the backside. We also went to the backside and left the house at the backside, arrived by means of corridor in the garden of the premise No. 15 on the Market Square, where we saw running away two persons in white mackintoshes and bareheaded. These persons went up the Market Square in the direction of the Hagengraeht. When I, Stunnenberg, arrived at the Market Square, I fired my gun two times, then the 2 persons entered a corridor besides the building of the S.S. Company of Weenink and thus they arrived at theback of Van Weerd - Bakery. On that spot they could not get away and when we reached them they were just taking off the white raincoats and they proved to be two Canadian soldiers. Thrown away in the garden they had: one white raincoat, one pair of trousers, one tailcoat and one dagger. At the report of the gun the Military Police arrived, so that we had assistance at once. They arrested both persons. The clothes were seized by us, and given back to Pezy.

Later on it appeared that they had also forced the cash-standing in the shop and had stolen the money present.

On Thursday, April 26th 1945 at about 8.4" I heard noises in the shop below. I went down to look but saw nobody. I did notice, that the cash-register on the shop-counter had been forced and that the money had disappeared out of it. I left my house at the backside, passed a corridor and the garden of the No. 15 premise, lying on the Market-Square and went to the square and while I was talking there, I saw that about 9.15 in the evening 2 persons went the same way. I had just come. They were dressed in Canadian Uniforms. I followed them and looked the doors of my premise. They were in the shop then. After that I. asked for assistance of the police by telephone. They took with them out of the shop: 3 white raincoats, 1 pair of trousers and 1 tailcoat. Out of the cash-register they took away F.47.90 chiefly consisting of Banknotes of F. 2.50 and F. 1.00.

I allowed nobody to take away the money and these goods from my shop.

SUMMARY: Evans has low average ability (M:I) admits alcohol gets the best of him and when he has an urge to do a thing just goes ahead. He is indifferent about his conduct and adapts a carefree irresponsible manner. He gives his wife credit for keeping him in line in civilian life. In view of his conduct in the past and the hold liquor has on him it is likely that his conduct will continue to be as poor as it has been and for this reason it is felt he will be of little further use in the Army.

RECOMMENDATION: Psychiatric Check.

PSYCHIATRIC ASSESSMENT: This man was seen by Major B.H.McNeel, Psych. in April 44 when serving his last period of detention. This is his fourth term in this Detention Barracks, but has had detention on numerous other occasions. He was put on a cook's course which he completed on his last sentence but was not used in this work.

He is a chronic alcoholic who has been drinking heavily since he was 19. He drinks so that he can be sociable. Ordinarily he is very shy and has difficulty in making friends, but he claims that alcohol helps to put down the social barrier. All of his delinquencies in the army are as a result of his alcoholism.

Diagnosis - Psychopathic Personality - Chronic alcoholism.

Recommendation - Fit to continue in detention.

SUGGESTION FOR DISPOSAL ON RELEASE: To be released 3 Aug 44. to H.Q., 1 C.C.C.D. Man has complete understanding of his weakness but does not think it possible for him to control his craving for drink. Although he wants to be posted to action it is doubtful if he could proceed without further offence. Army usefulness at an end due to alcoholism. Refer to M.O. at unit for reboard as per categorization by Psych (S-5).

Documentary Evidence which I wish to present
In mitigation of sentence I crave leave to present to the court a few facts surrounding the accused's case. When he joined the Army his wife threatened to leave him however he thought she was jesting and never thought anything more of it. Then he left for overseas and the next thing he heard of his wife was that she had called out his home and had gone to live with a strange man.
She wrote her several times but she never answered except once when he had asked her to send him some cigarettes - She replied asking him if he thought she was crazy by asking for cigarettes. Then the accused met and fell in love with an English girl.
As he wished to marry her he decided to get a divorce. Now the accused is of Russian extraction and not a understands nor speaks English well - At no time did he discuss his troubles with any of his officers but went to see a padre who investigated the case.
He informed the accused that by mutual consent - he could obtain his divorce.
His wife agreed to this and the accused has been waiting for his decree.
There is no doubt but what if he had been properly advised he could have obtained his divorce. All this has occured over a period of 3 years and in the meantime his environment

He wanted the assignment stopped but as he did not know how to go about it he was considering the advice of a friend to get A.W.L. and it would be automatically terminated and he would be no longer ~~contributing to the support of a man living with his wife~~ aid his wife to live in adultery. In fact, already by allowing her ~~support~~ contributing to support ~~and~~ during such an absence he was maintaining this parasite.

The day before the accusement A W L he received word of his brothers death and as he says he became so fed up and disgusted he just wanted to go away and forget everything, so did he did. Now there is no doubt but what the accused acted most rashly but bearing in mind his ignorance of the proper channels of having his matters rectified I ask the court to deal leniently with him, so that shortly he may be able to have by military aid have his family troubles straightened out and so that he can settle down and soldier with a clear conscience knowing that by doing so he is not contributing to the support of this parasite at home, but serving his country as he should.
