Plea in mitigation

This Sapper is only 20 years old. He has been in the army for about 18 months but has not been able to become accustomed to its routine. When he was about six his father beat his mother to such an extent that she had to go to hospital where she remained for about three years. He and a younger brother were sent to an orphanage but he soon left there and became a wanderer.

He tried mining, lumberjacking, farming and various other jobs but could not settle to any of them. He has held as many as three jobs in one week.

He was rejected from the army on medical grounds but later lost his papers and as he could not obtain a job without them he went to the Military Authorities for duplicate papers. He was told he would have to have another medical. This time he was accepted and was sent to a training center. After his life of freedom and irresponsibility he found the army life very hard and unpleasant. He then started to go A W L for short periods but finally after being sentenced fairly heavy for 48 hrs awl. He made up his mind that the next time he would stay away much longer. That is the reason that he is here now.

He is very unsettled in his mind, has no interest in the army, has no trade and does not wish to learn one, in short it is felt that it would be to the best interest of the service if this man was given a sentance and then sent to re-allocation center for discharge.

B 93673 Sgt ENGEL, C., 1 CGRU

1 You will note the stoppages to which the Accused has been subjected in the sentence. You will also note, from the evidence of the Accused in mitigation, that he says he has approximately $1200.00 in deferred pay. I respectfully submit that this is a proper case for superior authority to release, from the deferred pay of the Accused, sufficient moneys to pay the respective amounts of the stoppages to the civilians named in the sentence.

2 I compute that if the statement of the Accused regarding the $1200.00 is correct that would amount to some £266. The stoppages in the sentence total £194-9/-. This would leave a balance of deferred pay of approximately £72. According to the evidence of Mrs Lasbrey, contained in the Summary, she has loaned to the Accused in addition £135 which she has not recovered. According to the evidence of A.H. Taylor there is owing to him £4-10/- which he loaned the Accused on the security of the saving certificates. I heard indirectly that Sgt Engel sold the silverware, etc, valued at £73-19/- to some civilian for £3. Engel says the SIS are attempting to recover this property. If they do, it might be returned to Mrs Lasbrey and the extent of the recovery will automatically reduce the stoppage of £73-19/-. Little sympathy need be extended to the civilian who attempted to buy property of this value for £3-0-0 to which, of course, he acquired no title.

3 The £72, the residue of the deferred pay, plus the recovery of this silverware, thus freeing more deferred pay would leave a balance in deferred pay sufficient to re-pay to Mrs Lasbrey the £135 and W.H. Taylor £4-10/-, but to effect this, it would be necessary for superior authority to release that balance and it would also be necessary for Engel to sign an authorization and/or acquittance roll therefor.

4 In view of the possibilities of the recovery of the silverware the actual payment to Mrs Lasbrey of the £73-19/- should not be made until the final report is received from the SIS of the Cdn Provost respecting the recovery of the silverware when appropriate action might be taken, having regard to the nature of that report.

F.G.C.M. IN THE CASE OF

B 93673 Sgt ENGEL, C., No 1 CGRU

16 Oct 44

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED (UNDER OATH) IN MITIGATION E-1

Sir,

I am B 93673 Sgt Carl Engel, I am 39 years of age. In school I got through high school with a senior matriculation. I enlisted in Sep 39 with the 15 Cdn Gen Hosp. Since then I have been doing clerical work, I was NCO in charge out patients department until I was sent abroad for observation and to learn how it was done in the field, I was attached to the First Brit Army. I came back to England in Sep 43 and stayed at 1 CGRU until I went AWL. I am not married. I have pleaded guilty to the charges against me, my original reason for going AWL was because I was quite a bit in debt with Mrs Lasbrey, I hoped that I would be able to make enough money to pay her back, then I expected to return to 1 CGRU, take my punishment and start all over again. However I kept getting in deeper and deeper, I had to have some reasonable explanation for being up there where I was known and that is the reason for the disgaise as an Int Offr. My idea then was to pay back the money that I owed and it still is, my debts were about £55 above what is charged against me here, I have about $1200.00 deferred pay and I would like to be allowed to use it to pay these debts. I realize that I have done a despicable thing, I am sorry for it as I realize it does not do the Canadian Army any good, but if I could get a release for my deferred pay I wish to pay these debts.

In civil life I worked for a firm of mushroom growers in Toronto. I am very anxious to undergo stoppages for the amounts involved in the charge sheet and to get the remainder of my debts cleared up. As far as I know the SIS are trying to recover the silverware, I gave them the address of the party I had sold it to.

PLEA IN MITIGATION WAS READ BY DEF OFFR AND IS ATTACHED

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SENTENCE

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE
SGT CARL ENGEL (RCAMC) 1 CGHU

1 The accused has pleaded GUILTY to the nine charges laid against him. Ever since he was apprehended on 14 Sep 44 he has cooperated in every possible way with the authorities with a view to having the case against him proceed to trial with a minimum loss of time and expense.

2 He has done a foolish thing and he regrets it. His principle concern at the moment is to reimburse Mrs Lasbrey in full as soon as possible. He states that he intends to apply for release of some of his deferred pay for that purpose.

3 Although there are nine charges against the accused, it will be noted that they are [redacted] seven together and all relate to the fact that he lived at GRAYSHOTT under false pretences.

4 Sgt Engel enlisted on active service on 11 Sep 39 and arrived overseas on 8 Feb 40. He served with honor in the armed forces of our country until the time of these offences. Part of that time was spent in TUNISIA . He is 33 years of age and is NOT married.

5 At his request I have tried to contact Capts Dominie and Northwood at CMHQ (AMD brch) and RSM Surrage who until recently was on the str of 1 CGHU . I was NOT able to contact any of them and so was unable to obtain a statement from them as to the character of the accused. He has worked under each of them. I urge the court to take cognizance of the fact that prior to the offences on which this court has accepted the GUILTY plea of the accused, he has had an excellent mil character and reputation, as indicated by his conduct sheet and rank.

6 In view of the evident desire of the accused to make amends to those who have suffered most by his folly, and xfxhix in view of his age and previous good character, it is respectfully submitted that justice will be served by a minimum punishment.

Wm Murray
.....Lieutenant,
No.1 Canadain General Reinforcement Unit.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

H 35705 Company Sergeant Major HE NICHOLAS, Medical Wing, No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Company Serjeant Major HE NICHOLAS, Company Serjeant Major of Medical Wing, No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. At the time of Sergeant Engel's absence, I was Company Sergeant Major of Medical Wing. He reported to me at approximately 1145 hrs on the 8th of June, 1944. At that time, he was properly dressed and sober. I warned him that he would be up for charge for being absent without leave. I had permission from the Commanding Officer to keep the accused whom I recognize under open arrest. At approximately 1700 hrs on the 12th of June 1944, I warned Sergeant Engel to to report to me at the Medical Wing Orderly Room at 0800 hours the 13th June, 1944. Sergeant Engel failed to appear at the appointed time and place. I then made a check of his quarters and in the lines of No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit and failed to find his whereabouts. I then had his name placed on the Absentee Report as absent without leave from 0800 hours, 13th June, 1944. His name has been called on all parades since the day of his absence and from that day I have not seen the accused until he was brought up for orders at approximately 0900 hrs on the 15th September, 1944.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

HE Nicholas
..... Company Sergeant Maj.
No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit.

...../2

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. C 31010 Corporal MORRISON, A. Special Investigation Section, Canadian Military Headquarters, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am No. C 31010 Corporal Morrison, A. a member of the Special Investigation Section, Canadian Military Headquarters.

I was instructed by Major Creasy, APM, HQ CRU to proceed to Grayshott as it was believed a soldier was going around in civilian clothes. On making inquiries in the Grayshott area I interviewed Mrs Hammond, Gorsemount, Grayshott. From her I learned that a Sergeant Engel was boarded at her place. At that time he was down near Tonbridge. Accompanied by Sjt Hancock, Special Investigation Section, I proceeded to Tonbridge, and on inquiries there I found out that Sjt Engel was living at Homewood Farm, 5 Oak Green, near Tonbridge. Sjt Engel whom I recognize as the accused was found at Homewood Farm. I placed him under arrest and took him to the Guard Room at No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. He was arrested at 1600 hours, 14 September, 1944.

After having been cautioned, Sjt Engel voluntarily gave and signed the following statements:-

"Since breaking arrest some time in May, I have been staying with Mrs Hammond at Grayshott with the exception of the weekend at 5 Oak Green, where I was arrested.

My story to the landlady was that I was allowed to be in a billet and she never questioned that fact. My means of support was borrowed monies from Mrs J.A. Lasbrey, who also thought I was a billeted soldier and that I would eventually pay her back. Mrs Lasbrey also lived with Mrs Hammond.

Civilian clothes were purchased with coupons stolen while I was on a rear party at Caythorne near Three Bridges. These coupons were Army coupons and were taken by me from a pile of documents left for packing in the Orderly Room. The number of coupons were two books.

During my absence I have committed no civil offence.

With reference to my last statement given to a member of the SIS. I hereby state that it was a false statement and the true statement is that I have been at Grayshott ever since my original absence on Dec 8th posing as an Intelligence Officer."

"Regarding the statement about the clothing coupons I now wish to say that they were given me by an officer whose name I do not wish to give, and was the reason for making the original statement of having stolen them."

"My reason for borrowing the money from Mrs Lasbrey was to keep myself while A.W.O.L. All stories I have told Mrs Lasbrey were fictitious, this includes the statement I made to her regarding an accident with a Military Vehicle and insuring of a crop. I have no account in any bank.

With reference to Savings Certificates, I left them with Mr Taylor of Grayshott as security for a £4-10-0 loan. These Certificates were the property of Mrs Lasbrey, Grayshott."

I produce the above statements signed by Sjt Engel and marked exhibits "B" and "C" respectively.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs MB Hammond, residing at Gorsemount, Grayshott, will state as follows:-

"The latter part of Dec 1943, I saw Sjt Engel in Grayshott. On Jan 11th 1944 he booked a room in my house and has occupied it almost continually until Fri Sept 8th.

Up until May 2nd he paid weekly for his room and board but from that date until June 18th he made no payment owing L17-7-6. After June 18th he made arrangements for me to keep a room for him and he would have his meals out. This room he occupied until Sept 8th.

During his stay here he led me to believe that he was an Intelligence Officer."

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to expence and loss of time involved, not readily procurable.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs Phyllis Lasbrey, residing at Gorsemount, Grayshott, will state:-

"I Phyllis Lasbrey, have known Carl Engel for approximately four years. When I first met him he was a private in the R.C.A.M.C., of the 15th General Hospital, Bramshott.

Since last December I have seen Carl Engel practically every day in the Grayshott district. In January or February 1944 he made arrangements with Mrs Hammond, of Gorsemount, Grayshott, to rent a room which he occupied until about the 2nd Sept 1944

On or about September 1943, he Carl informed me he had been transferred to the Intelligence Corps with a commission. On three occasions I saw him wearing a uniform bearing three pips denoting the rank of Captain in the Canadian Army.

During the time I have known him he has on some pretext or other borrowed sums of money amounting in all to L250-0-0.

Several months ago I wanted to collect some silver belonging to me from Church House, Petersham, Surrey, and Carl Engel offered to fetch it for me when he was passing in an Army Vehicle. I agreed to this arrangement and a few days afterwards he collected the silver and informed me it had been taken to Cobham, Surrey, as he had to go away on another commission with a Colonel Thompson. It was to be brought from Cobham to my address at the first opportunity.

On May 21st, 1944, Carl Engel told me the Military Police had found him in possession of my silver in an Army Vehicle and had confiscated it pending investigation. As far as I know the Army is still holding it."

"On July 11th 1942, Carl Engel approched me for the loan of L70-0-0 to cover hail insurance on his crops in Canada.

On Jan 19th 1944, he again approched me for the loan of L45-0-0 as he had been involved in an accident. Engel told me he had knocked down by car and killed a woman, and this money was paid to the widower as part compensation, as ordered by a Court. I understand, Engel was driving an Army Vehicle in Leicester Square, London, when this accident occured. I am unable to furnish the names of the parties concerned.

Exclusive to the above, between 1942 and 1944, I have given on loan to Engel, sums amounting approximately to L135-0-0. These range from L1-0-0 to L15-0-0."

The articles of silver stolen and their value is as follows:-

1 Pair Sheffield Plated Candlesticks	8	0	0
4 Doz Silver Teaspoons	6	6	0
Salt Cellars and Spoons (Silver)	3	3	0
Cut Glass specimen Vase with silver base	1	5	0
Silver sugar bowl and cream jug with tongs	15	0	0
Gold Cuff-links with breast (Clenched fist)	10	10	0
Gold dress studs	2	10	0
Gold tie pin	1	5	0

Without authority from me an envelope containing Savings Certificates in the amount of forty nine pounds ten shillings (L49-10-0) were taken by Sjt Engel. On 28th September 1944 I received a letter from Sjt Engel stating what disposition he had made of the Savings Certificates. On the same date, I visited Mr A.H. Taylor at Grayshott and collected from him Savings Certificates, same having been pledged by Sjt Engel as security for a loan of four pounds ten shillings (L4-10-0). Said Certificates will be produced by me at the trial of Sjt Engel.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to expence and loss of time involved, not readily procurable.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mr A.H. Taylor, residing at Grayshott, will state as follows:-

"I A.H. Taylor, residing at Grayshott, state that I know Sjt Engel a member of the Canadian Army. Engel has borrowed money from me on two occasions. The first time he borrowed L6-0-0 that was around the beginning of July, 1944. He returned the L6-0-0 three weeks after. The second time he borrowed L4-0-0, this was on 21 July, 1944, and stated he would purchase Fountain Pens for me with the money. He stated he would be able to buy six

(6) pens for that amount.

Engel gave me a receipt for the L4-10-0, and also deposited an envelope with me and led me to believe that Mrs Lasbrey would reimburse me if he was unable to do so. I do not know what the envelope contained, although Engel stated the contents were valued at around L40-0-0. This envelope I returned to Mrs Lasbrey."

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to expense and loss of time involved, not readily procurable.

Between January, 1944 and October, 1944 Sgt Engel borrowed two pounds and ten shillings (L2-10-0). He pledged his Pay Book and his watch as security for the said amount. I gave Sgt Engel's Pay Book to a member of the Provost Corps who visited me and made certain enquiries.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to expense and loss of time involved, not readily procurable.

G.E. Marin

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

After the above caution the accused makes the following statement:

"I plead guilty to all charges mentioned above and wish to repay all monies owed by me to the above mentioned peoples."

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence at this time.

I certify that the above Summary of Evidence was taken down by me in the hearing and presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c)(d)(e), [illegible] (e) have been complied with.

STATES:- Since breaking arrest some time in May. I have been staying with Mrs. HAMMOND at Grayshott with the exception of the six week end at Liverdale Green where I was arrested. My story to the landlady was that I was allowed to be in a hiding and she never questioned that fact. My means of support were borrowed monies from Mrs. J.A. Lesley who also thought I was a Wanted soldier and that I would eventually pay her back. Mrs. LASSERRY also lived with Mrs. Hammond. Civilian clothes were purchased with coupons ~~pay~~ stolen while I was on a road party at Capthorne near Three Bridges. These Coupons were Army coupons and were taken by me from a file of documents left for packing in the orderly room. The number of coupons were two (2) hundred. During my absence I have committed

Trial of B.216, Pte. A.B. ENGLAND, 4 CIRU

The accused when arraigned plead not guilty. The Prosecutor produced (1) M.F.B. 375, (2) Certificate of Apprehension A.A. 163 (JJ), (3) Expense Voucher. NOTE D-3

The Prosecution is closed.

Note D-5 Evidence for the Defence

The accused being duly sworn, states:-

I am guilty of the A.W.L. as charged, but I wish to say this respecting the expenses of my return. I had a return ticket from Brighton to Aldershot. The Provosts did not buy me a ticket from Brighton to London. They took my ticket. They used my ticket from Brighton to London, and I should not be charged the four shillings which was never expended in my behalf. I produce herewith my return ticket from Brighton to London. You will note where it had been punched by the railway officials in London on my arrival there.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).)

The Defence is closed.

The Prosecutor and Defending Officer each stated they had no addresses to make to the Court.

(Railway ticket marked Exhibit 1 by the Court.)

Plea of Mitigation in the case of B. 216 Pte England. A.B.

In mitigation of the punishment to be awarded to the accused I would like to point out to the court that this man joined the Army of his own volition and is very anxious to see action. He has no service record in this M.F. so that he can be in that action [illegible]. To impose a severe sentence upon him would result in the army being deprived of the services of a man who really wants to fight for his country and who is not a confirmed offender. I respectfully submit that in view of the early period of greater offensive action and of the status of the accused that he be given a lenient sentence and recommended for early draft.

W. Ambleton Lt.
Defending Officer.

B 216 - Pte. England, A.B.

Defending Officer's Plea of Mitigation

Sir:- This is a plea for leniency in the case of the accused, Pte. England.

He is 22 years of age, and has over 3 years service with the Active Army. He enlisted with the 2nd/10th Dragoons, (R.C.) in July 1940, and in April 1941, he joined the Royal Canadian Dragoons (R.C.). He came overseas with this regiment in Nov. 1941., and in July 1943, he asked for a transfer to the Manitoba Dragoons, another armoured regt. Instead, England was sent to #4 C.I.R.U., where he asked repeatedly to be sent on draft to a field regt, or returned to his armoured corps. However, he was a qualified Driver Mechanic in receipt of trades pay, and was not accepted for draft, though he offered to relinquish his trade.

In May 1944, his category was lowered and he is now B 2 S 3. In the same month, he was sent to #3 C.I.R.U., where he saw the D.P.D. in an effort to either get back to the R.C.D. or to have his category raised so he might be put on a draft for C.M.F. or any field regt. here.

Finally, last month, the accused went absent without leave.

In view of England's service, sir, I ask leniency in his case.

Thank you.

J. Haynes, Lt.,
3 C.I.R.U.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans NO (5)

Capt. & M.C.

Plea of mitigation by the Defence in the Case of Pte 75011 Pte England L.R.

Pte England is now on his first court martial. He landed in Sicily with his battalion and fought right through to end of the Sicilian campaign. when he got malaria and was evacuated to hospital the point I want to bring out here is ~~the only crime~~ crime in this theatre was during his stay in the holding unit after having malaria. Pte England is rather high strung but thought he ~~could stay the infantry~~ could stand infantry work. Now he has found he can't. he feels rather discouraged as it is a hard thing to explain without the embarassment of having people think you are afraid. He was posted on staff at convalescent depot in order to give him chance a rest. He would like very much to get into less nerve ~~racking~~ service but has not been able to do so owing to the great demand for infantry. He has three sons and two brothers of school age and father has taken sick lately and is now receiving compensation for injury, which also weighs on his mind. Because of the foregoing circumstances I ~~do~~ trust that the court will deal most leniently with this man. therefore enabling him to become an efficient soldier at the earliest moment possible. The defence rests

~~Defence~~ MITIGATION FOR THE ACCUSED. D 67355 Pte Copland R.A. R.Regt ~~Leave to study evidence of the case.~~
1. Accused - enlisted in 1940. Has been with R CCS from Sept 42 until Nov 42. Often times with R Regt C. Wife and one child in Toronto. Wife Scotch ~~from Ireland~~.
Married in Port Glasgow, Scotland. Went to Canada June 43.
Have heard from her, ~~my~~ my mother, and father. Letters all say she is running around with other men, that she says I tried to cheat her, and that all she married me for was a free trip to Canada. I have been trying for leave in Canada. As a result of letters, I got a complex to be alone. I was upset, and could not carry on my duties as usual. I spoke to Pte Cpl, who referred me to IT PATTERSON, the pl cmd. I also spoke to IT HEWER Y.
I showed them the letters.

My next duties were that I had been detailed check for RSM.
When I was posted to D Coy, and was to be a batman.
I had leave in Nov 43 and went to NOTTINGHAM, and met a girl. I had already had letters. I got drunk and was familiar with girl twice.

I got 7 days pass x mas morning. I went to HORNCASTLE to friends. I met Lodge, the girl. She told me the room to come looking for me - she was pregnant, and wanted something done as she was a good girl and didn't want her mother and father to find out. She wanted me to go to Nottingham to see a doctor with her. I went, leaving Monday 27 Dec. I took her to a doctor in Nottingham.

Can't get tablets from doctor. They cost me 12/6. Doctor said could tell in about a week. After 6 - 8 days she was cured. When that happened, I came straight back to unit.

As a result of my report to pl concerning conditions and [illegible] I have changed my mind about her. People at home were just trying to make trouble.

Everything is rosy now, and I will be a good soldier.

Love to all

Cathy xxx now A.

2. Pt W.L. Patterson R Regt C. — Pte Ingland was in my pl in Nov - Dec last year. He spoke to me about trouble with his wife. He was nervous and upset. I spoke to Lt Young about it. Record showed me some letters. I asked my wife to back up.

3. Prosecutor — Sergeant

4. Defending Officer — statement in mitigation.

Old story. Before joined out that girl is pregnant gets squared off with wife and is happy. Then girl shows up and asks him to go to NOTTINGHAM to get this fixed up. When girl had miscarriage he came back.

Does not have too much regard to consent about but regards case on own merits — Did only what any decent man would do in going to NOTTINGHAM.

CHARACTER WITNESS
~~FIRST WITNESS~~

Lieut RE HARRIS, 6 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

last night I called at HQ CRU to see Colonel Anderson, formerly a CO of the accused, to ask if he would like to appear at this CM to give evidence for the accused. He informed me that he would be only too glad to appear before the Court to give evidence on behalf of the accused but that he was leaving immediately to catch a plane for Canada and recommended that in lieu of that I should ask Colonel Law of the RRC, who was the OC of the regiment while the accused served with it in France, Belgium and Germany, or Major Patterson who at present is stationed at Camberley. Colonel Anderson also said that while the accused was serving with the regiment his conduct was admirable and that it would be shown by his MTR 6 for that period. He also said that his 6 would show the difficulties the accused found himself as a result of his stay in the CRU depots. He also said that the accused when required was a very efficient soldier in carrying out his duties.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RR 63 (B).

Statement of Defending Officer

The accused, B67355 Pte England H.A. is the youngest of three brothers who with their father joined the R. Regt. C. at the outbreak of war. He is now 23 yrs. old having served overseas, including 5 months in Iceland, over four years. He married in England in 1941 and his wife and child have since been evacuated to Canada. From here he has repeatedly received disquieting reports of his wife's conduct and connection regarding himself. These caused him considerable distress and it was in this frame of mind he went absent. Partially adjusted mentally to his state he surrendered himself and now wishes to do nothing but soldier and get back to straighten his affairs. His desire appears to be earnest & as he has an older brother still with the Regt. C who can influence him I should be taken into consideration by the Court in determining sentence. The accused's youth, long service overseas, & separate financial difficulties of his family should their allowance be stopped by a sentence of over six months, plus his desire to soldier from now on plead effectually for mitigation of sentence.

The defending Officer Capt. D.W. Rose made the following statement in Mitigation of Sentence , "looking at the Conduct Sheet of Pte. England which covers a period of about three years we do not find what you would call a serious crime until 25 May 1942. At that time he went absent without leave for a considera ble length of time but he paid the penalty for this crime. Considering the length of service of this ma n one must conclude that there must be a definite reason for the Charge of A.W.L. for which he is now brought before this Court. The Private life of the Accused reveals that in Oct. 1941 he was married in Scotland. Recently his wife became pregnant and within the next few weeks will become a mother of a child by the Accused. This information I have taken the trouble to verify through the Kent County Hospital, Chatha m. The parents of the Accused's wife were sent to Levis, Quebec, Canada the reason being that the Father in Law of the Accused is an expert Shipbuilder. The Accused's wife has no relatives in England near where she is now living in Gi llingham, Kent to whom she can go. The Accused foolishly and thoughtlessly rema ined absent in order to be with his wife during this very difficul t period of her life. It must be noted by the Court that the Accused was arrested by the Mi litary police at Gi llingham. The Court will rea lise that the Accused was torn between two duties — the duty to his King and the duty to his wife. He frankly admits that he was wrong in his choice of duties and is prepared to pay the penalty. To this extent he has this morning given to me a cult to the Commanding Officer of the R. Regt. asking that ite cigarettes which ma y come to him while he is in detention be distributed among the men of the Ba ttalion. I would ask the Court to consider the private life of Pte. England and the effect that detention will have on his domestic life. This is a crucial period in his life and that of his wife and while I know he has been thoughtless about this I do nit think he has done it with malice of forethough but rather as a foolish boy. After all he is only twenty two years old. The Accused gives himself unto the hands of the Court and is prep ared to accept whatever penalty the Court may decide.

The accused No B-67355 Private England, M.L., Royal Regiment of Canada, on strength of the No 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows.

I joined up with the Royal Regiment of Canada and went to Iceland and to England with my regiment. When in England I took battle training which I liked. I was sent to the Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit to be trained as an Operator (Wireless and Line). This training was too much for me and got on my nerves as I couldn't sleep. I told my Company Commander and he took me off this and put me on training as a switchboard operator. Again this was too much for my nerves. I again saw my Company Commander and asked to be sent back to the Royal Regiment of Canada but he said I would have to stay here. My wife was having family trouble with her father and I got three days leave to go home and straighten it out. My wife took sick and I got a 3 days extension of leave. Then I went absent without leave.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

PLEA IN MITIGATION

This soldier has been in the army since June 1940. His record is good since he has had no major crimes. He has served in action on the continent and was wounded twice. While he was in guard room he was taking treatment for nerves (sleeping tablets etc.) While I was talking to him he was shaking very badly from nerves. I do [illegible] my opinion this man's crime was a result of an extreme nervous condition. For this reason and because of his long + good service I request that the court show leniency in awarding the punishment

Arguments for Defence & dismissal charges at close of prosecution's case.

1st charge - Sec. 11 A. A.

The Routine Orders in operation must be interpreted as strictly as would any penal law which purported to create an offence. Clearly it does not apply to a passenger. It is the driver who must obtain the permission and the passenger - non-drivers - is not it an offence to ride without the offence, if any, was committed by the driver not the accused. Any ambiguity in the Order must be interpreted in favour of the accused. M. M. L. notes to Sec. 11 of A. A.

There is insufficient evidence to prove there was no permission in existing which could be granted by any commissioned officers.

2nd charge - Sec. 12 (a) A.A.

To be guilty there must be evidence that the accused participated knowingly in an unlawful journey. No evidence has been led that he had any knowledge that the sergeant had no authority for the journey. He was told by Sgt. Hall that there was a work detail. He does now the back of the gate but the vehicle struck the ground from that fact alone that there was proper authority. There is evidence that two of the front row were members of Battery - the road there is through Terrebonne the accused has not been proved to have been [illegible] that at the time of the journey the sergeant was not on other duties.

Concluding Address

D 4 The prosecution submits that the testimony of the first two witnesses has proved beyond doubt that the accused did ride on EC1040087 as a pillion passenger in contravention of R.U.R.O. 9, dated 29 Jan 43. The third witness for the prosecution has shown that the trip thus made was completely unauthorized. Conduct of this nature is not to be expected in a sergeant, and when found in a Warrant Officer Class I, it deserves a suitable punishment. The facts of this case are known to all members of No. 1 Edn. Adm. Unit Coy; if this behaviour should go unpunished in a senior warrant officer, M.T. discipline, or for that matter, any discipline at all, would be most difficult to enforce on other drivers. It is the duty, as all are aware, of senior N.C.Os. to ensure that orders are obeyed, not that infractions of them are condoned. This type of conduct does more to undermine unit discipline than any other. Petty crimes which provide crimes for greater ones, can have no excuse, and in this case the prosecution asks that no undue leniency be shown to the accused.

The onus of producing a written authorization to ride pillion on a motorcycle rests with the accused.

NOTE

Prosecutor summing up

D.A.G. The fact that the accused thought that Lt. Galloway was making an authorized trip, and that he thought that the sergeant was perhaps making a trip further than Farnham, does not excuse the accused from responsibility for participation in the trip concerned. Surely a warrant officer is of sufficient intelligence to make sure that his journey is authorized. As a senior N.C.O. he is all the more responsible for ensuring that Lt Galloway was proceeding on a duty trip. It seems to the prosecution that no intelligent N.C.O. could knowingly allow himself to be conveyed by a D.R. on a private trip at so late an hour on Saturday afternoon, unless he condoned the unauthorized journey. Lt. Galloway took this senior officer on a private journey, the prosecution submits, with the full knowledge and encouragement of his passenger. No mere words can camouflage the fact that the accused did participate in the unauthorized use of CC-1040067, nor that he himself as an intelligent N.C.O. ought to have ensured by every means that such use was legal.

Cross Examined by Def Counsel

The M.S.gt. never talked to me about going to Farnham by bus. Then I offered to take him on my motor-cycle I am not certain of the exact words I said. I am not certain if I used the words "before I put my bike away". My work ticket was made out for all day. I think the trip was authorized a question to be discussed 2 ways one via Farnham and one via Ash. There is not much difference in the distance. The M.S.gt. asked me if I had a work ticket and I said yes.

Re-examined by Def Counsel Prosecution

I have been a Sgt in this unit since April 1941 Usually I do all my trips on one card day on one authorization on my work ticket. If I were told to go to Guildford I would go via Ash. I took the convoy that very first morning.

Questioned by the Court

There was no further conversation about a work ticket with the M.S.gt except that above given. The M.S.gt did not look at the work ticket he just took my word for it. I did no other duty on the trip when I took the M.S.gt to Farnham. This unit has 2 Vans at Bentley. The road lies thru Farnham

The court returned to no 1 Coy Admin Pet Coy Lines at Farnborough and took this position underfire.

my knowledge no person has been given to anyone to ride Pillion since
I came here on Apl 15/43.

By the terms of the order any Commissioned

It was just after Surgery about a

I am going to Farnham" Sgt Galloway says "I will drive you down" I said
"thanks". I went to my billet and washed when I came out. Sgt Galloway was in the square. I said I'll have to get a crash helmet. He drove ahead of me and I walked up to the workshops opened the gate and let him out. When out he stopped. I went through the gate went into the office and got my crash of the bike. Sgt Galloway took me to Farnham where I got off.

I did not hear the conversation between

I thought Galloway was going going that way or he would not have

I was not aware that Galloway had

Examined by Court

There may have been several duties and each is at Farnham and there are that there should be mustered on a work that the tickets are checked at the gate vehicle is allowed out.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D-91045 (A/M.S.M.) Error, C.E., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: L-102 974, Pte. Mercer, L.C., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At 1745 hrs on 30 Oct 43, I was reinstated on duty at the entrance gate of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt Coy vehicle park. My duty was to stop and check all vehicles at the gate, and ensure that their Work Tickets were in order. At the hour stated Sergeant Galloway of "D" Platoon in this unit came up to the gate on his motorcycle CC 104008 F. He said to me "this bike has been checked out already." I raised the gate and Sgt. Galloway took his machine through and stopped just outside. I then checked my list on which vehicles are marked down as they enter or leave the camp. I found Sgt Galloway's name marked down as D.R. to a convoy which had left the camp area at 0730 hrs and returned at 1200 hrs on 30 Oct 43. A few lines beneath the 0730 hrs entry I noticed a further entry showing that Sgt. Galloway had again left camp at 1555 hrs. I herewith submit the above mentioned vehicle marking "In" and "Out" list as evidence (this is read to the accused, and marked Exhibit "A").

After Sgt. Galloway had taken his motorcycle through the gate, I saw M.S.M. Error of this unit follow him through the gate on foot. When I looked up from checking my list, I noticed Mr. Error standing in the doorway of the Police Orderly Room wearing a crash helmet and a D.R. coat. He locked the door, and the next thing I saw was the motorcycle moving off with Mr. Error riding behind Sgt. Galloway, sitting on the fender. By this time I had finished checking my vehicle list & had not found that Sgt. Galloway had previously checked out as he stated to me. I checked my list again to ensure that I had not missed the required entry, but finding none, I notified the N.C.O. in charge of the regimental guard room of the facts of the case. That is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Pte L. B. Heiser

SECOND WITNESS: L-105088 Pte. Traverse, C. H., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Hqt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

I am a member of the regimental police of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Hqt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C. I went off duty in the regimental guard room shortly after noon on 30 Oct 43. Late in the afternoon, I decided to leave camp and go for a walk. I stopped to talk to Pte. Heiser who was on duty at the main gate. Almost immediately, Sergeant Galloway of this unit drove up on a motorcycle and stopped at the gate. He said to Pte. Heiser, "This has been checked out already" or words to that effect. Pte. Heiser then lifted the bar, and Sgt. Galloway drove through the gate and stopped again just outside.

The next thing I noticed was that W.S.M. Eynon of this unit was coming out of the Police Office which is just outside the gate. I saw him get on the motorcycle behind Sergeant Galloway, and they drove away together. That was the last I saw of them, and that is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C H Traverse

THIRD WITNESS: Captain J. C. Nelson, No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Hqt. Coy, RCASC, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At approximately 900 hrs on 29 Oct 43, while acting as Orderly Officer, Sergeant Galloway of this unit came to me to ask me to authorize a tuff as D.R. in charge of a "wood" detail to be carried out by

"C" Platoon on the following morning, 30 Oct 43. The detail was to leave at 0800 hrs and to proceed to Guildford where it would pick up the load and, I understand, that it was to be completed by approximately 1200 hrs the same day. As commander of "D" Platoon to which Sgt. Galloway belongs, I did not authorize any further journey for him during the day of 30 Oct 43. I herewith submit Work Ticket No P-1-39 for Harley-Davidson motorcycle CC 104008 driven by Sgt. Galloway, the last entry in which is signed by myself to authorize Sgt. Galloway to go on the detail of the morning of 30 Oct 43. (Work Ticket marked Exhibit "B") That is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Lieutenant Corps

FOURTH WITNESS: Lieut D. R. C. Hudson, No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

I am Headquarters subaltern and Records Officer of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C. From documents in my possession, I certify that D. 81640, A/M.S.M. Eaton C.E. was T.O.S. this unit on 23 Mar 41, and that he has remained on strength to the present date.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

D. R. C. Hudson Lieut.

FIFTH WITNESS: B-81626 Sergeant Galloway, W., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the morning of 30 Oct 43, I was N.C.O. in charge of a convoy going to Guildford to haul wood for No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy. I had six lorries on the convoy and my own motorcycle CC 104008. The lorries arrived back at camp at 1200 hrs, and I followed them about half an hour later, having spent some time looking for one lorry which was missing from the convoy when it had arrived back at camp before I did. During the afternoon, I remained in camp and did not use my motorcycle. After supper, which was at approx 1700 hrs, I heard M.S.M. Eaton state that he was going to Farnham by bus, and I offered to take him there on my motorcycle. I assumed that the Work Ticket made out in the morning would include the extra journey, as the convoy to haul wood was supposed to last all morning and afternoon. I told the guard at the gate that I had already checked out, therefore he opened the gate, and I took my machine through. I waited just outside for M.S.M. Eaton who had gone to the M.T. Office to pick up his wash kit. I do not know at what time he rejoined me, but it must have been after 1700 hrs. Mr. Eaton got on the motorcycle behind me, and I drove him direct to Farnham, where I dropped him. At this time it was not yet dark

(i.e. "blackout time") I intended to go back to camp, but I cannot remember what happened after leaving Mr Ennor in Farnham. The next thing I know was my awakening in the Cambridge Military Hospital on 31 Oct 43. That is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

W Galloway.

The accused was cautioned as follows "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, it will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused elects to make a statement.

The accused, No. D-91040, M.S.M. Ennor, C.E., No. 1 Cdn. Abna. Sqt Coy, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states:

On 30 Oct 43 at about 1730 hrs, I was talking to Sergeant Galloway on the parade ground of No. 1 Cdn Abna Sqt Coy, and remarked that I was then leaving for Farnham by bus. He then offered me a ride down to Farnham on his motorcycle. Although I am not in a transport platoon, I knew that he ought to have proper authority before taking his vehicle out of the vehicle park. As I walked over towards the Battalion Orderly Room, I saw him talking to the guard at the camp gate. As I came up to him, the guard opened the gate and let Sgt. Galloway pass through on his vehicle. I assumed from this that he was on an authorized journey. I collected my chard ticket from the W/S Orderly Room, and found Sgt. Galloway waiting for me just outside the camp gate. I got on the motorcycle behind him and we proceeded as far as Farnham where I got off at approx. 1800 hrs. That was the last I saw of Sgt. Galloway, until 3 Nov 43.

M S Ennor

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of four pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 14 (c), (D), (E), (F), and (G) have been complied with.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Major J. W. Patmore No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st. Witness L-102974 Pte. Heiser, L.C., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

He locked the door, and the next thing I saw was the motorcycle moving off with Mr. Ennor riding behind Sgt. Galloway, sitting on the fender. By this time I had finished checking my vehicle list but had not found that Sgt. Galloway had previously checked out as he stated to me. I checked my list again to ensure that I had not missed the required entry, but, finding none, I notified the N.C.O. in charge of the regimental guard room of the facts of the case. That is all I know of the matter.

(Sgnd) Pte. L.C. Heiser.

2nd Witness L-105086 Pte. Traverse, C.H., No. 1 Cdn. Admin. Transport Coy., R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

I am a member of the Regimental Police of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., RCASC. I went off duty in the regimental guard room shortly after noon on 30 Oct 43. Late in the afternoon I decided to leave camp and go for a walk. I stopped to talk to Pte. Heiser who was on duty at the main gate. Almost immediately, Sergeant Galloway of this Unit drove up on a motorcycle and stopped at the gate. He said to Pte. Heiser "this has been checked out already", or words to that effect. Pte Heiser then lifted the bar, and Sergeant Galloway drove through the gate and stopped again just outside.

The next thing I noticed was that M.S.M. Ennor of this Unit was coming out of the Workshop Office which is just outside the gate. I saw him get on the motorcycle behind Sergeant Galloway, and they drove away together. That was the last I saw of them, and that is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

3rd Witness Captain J.C. Wilson, No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C. an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

At approximately 1900 hours on 29 Oct 43, while acting as Orderly Officer, Sergeant Galloway of this Unit came to me to ask me to authorize a trip as D.R. in charge of a "wood" detail to be carried out by "C" Platoon on the following morning 30 Oct 43. The detail was to leave at 0800 hrs and to proceed to Guilford where it would pick up the load and, I understand, that it was to be completed by approximately 1200 hrs the same day. As commander of "D" Platoon to which Sgt. Galloway belongs I did not authorize any further journey for him during the day of 30 Oct 43. I herewith submit Work Ticket No. P-1-39 for Harley-Davidson motorcycle CC-1040087 driven by Sgt. Galloway, the last entry on which is signed by myself to authorize Sgt. Galloway to go on the detail of the morning of 30 Oct 43. (Work Ticket marked Exhibit "B").

I am Headquarters subaltern and Records Officer of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C.. From documents in my possession, I certify thatD-91040 A/M.S.M. Ennor, C.E. was T.O.S. this Unit on 25 Mar 41, and that he has remained on strength to the present date.

5th Witness B-81626 Sergeant Galloway, N., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

On the morning of 30 Oct 43, I was N.C.O. in charge of a convoy going to Guilford to haul wood for No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., I had six lorries on the convoy and my own motorcycle CC-1040087. The lorries arrived back at camp at 1200 hrs., and I followed them about half an hour later, having spent some time looking for one lorry which was missing from the convoy. However it had arrived back at camp before I did. During the afternoon I remained in camp and did not use my motorcycle. After supper which was at approximately1700 hrs, I heard M.S.M. Ennor state that he was going to Farnham by bus, and I offered to take him there on my motorcycle. I assumed that the Work Ticket made out in the morning would include the extra journey, as the convoy to haul wood was supposed to last all morning and afternoon I told the guard at the gate that I had already checked out, whereupon he opened the gate, and I took my machine through. I waited just outside for M.S.M. Ennor who had gone to the W/S Office to pick up his crash helmet. I do not remember at what time this happened, but it must have been after 1700 hrs. Mr. Ennor got on the motorcycle behind me, and I drove him direct to Farnham, where I dropped him. At this time it was not yet dark (i.e. blackout time) I intended to come back to camp but I cannot remember what happened after leaving Mr. Ennor in Farnham. The next thing I knew was my awakening in the Cambridge Military Hospital on 31 October 43. That is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(Sgnd) N.Galloway, Sgt.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

The accused elects to make a stat[redacted]

The accused No. D-91040, M.S.M. Ennor, C.E. No.1 Cdn.Adm.Tpt. Coy R.C.A.S.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas states:

On 30 Oct 43, at about 1730 hrs. I was talking to Sgt. Galloway on the parade ground of No.1 Cdn.Adm.Tpt.Coy and remarked that I was then leaving for Farnham by bus. He then offered me a ride down to Farnham on his motorcycle. Although I am not in a transport platoon, I know that he ought to have proper authority before taking his vehicle out of the vehicle park. As I walked over towards the Workshop Orderly Room, I saw him talking to the guard at the camp gate. As I came up to him, the guard opened the gate and let Sgt. Galloway pass through on his vehicle. I assumed from this that I was on an authorized journey. I collected my crash helmet from the Workshop Orderly Room, and found Sgt. Galloway waiting for me just outside the camp gate. I got on the motorcycle behind him and we proceeded as far as Farnham where I got off at approx. 1800 hours. That was the last I saw of Sgt.Galloway.

(Sgd) C.E. Ennor, M.S.M.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of four pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c),(D),(E) (F), and (G) have been complied with.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

TRIAL OF

D.91040 M/S/M ENNOR C.E. 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC

PROSECUTION

B.89672 Sgt HOOD CG, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On the night of 13 Jun 45 Cpl Jurek approached me about 2145 hrs and told me that his party had missed the Stains train and would I get a veh and take them. I took it that he meant to Stains when he said this. I got the Log Book and Work Ticket for the Wksp Panel CV199139 and took them across to the Sgts Mess and gave them to Sgt Allan. I waited while he took them across to the accused, and I saw him do this. The accused at first refused to sign the Work Ticket. I know this from his actions; he wouldn't take the Work Ticket, and I was about 10 feet away.

Q. Did he do anything about the Work Ticket later?
A. Yes, I moved up closer I think, because I heard him say "well, I'll sign it but just on the condition that I drive myself so that there'll be no trouble". He handed me back the Work Ticket and Log Book and I then noticed it was signed MSM Ennor. I returned the Work Ticket and Log Book to the veh pk and there picked up the Panel which I drove across through the gate to the Sgts Mess. When I got there I had to wait for some time until the fellows gathered their eqpt and then Cpl Jurek, S/Sgt Batten, Sgt Allan and the accused got in the Panel. The accused drove with me alongside him as spare dvr and the other three got back in the back. We were just about to leave when Sgt Hayes came along and he was called to join, so he climed in the back too. We then went directly to the PT Mess on Hammerseley Rd. It then occurred to me that there was no need of my going along because Sgt Hayes was a qualified dvr so I spoke to the accused about it and he said "by all means, if you want to I could return to Camp and Sgt Hayes could take my place". Then I told Sgt Hayes that I was going and I left.

Q. Before you left did you go into the PT Mess at all?
A. No.

Q. Did you see any members of the party go in?
A. I couldn't say I saw them but they had dissappeared somewhere at the time I left.

Q. Was there any evidence of drinking among them?
A. I didn't see any going on.

Q. By their actions could you say they had had anything to drink?
A. They seemed quite happy and carefree.

Q. In your opinion was the veh in good mechanical repair?
A. Very good.

Q. What do you do in the unit?
A. Test finished vehs.

Q. Was there a governor on it?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you work on this veh just before the accused took it out?
A. Not that day, but about 3 days before, and it was in very good shape then, and to the best of my knowledge when the accused took it out that night it was in good working order.

Q. You didn't give him any instrs to be careful about any certain part?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Do you attribute the fact that these people seemed happy and carefree to the influence of alchohol?
A. No.

Q. Do you do much driving on recreational tpt?
A. Once a week, a trip to the Dancing School, which is a duty trip.

Q. Do you take a spare dvr with you when you go there?
A. Never.

Q. Do you know much about the rules surrounding such tpt?
A. Yes.

Q. It is only so far as duty trips are concerned that spare dvrs are used then?
A. Yes.

Q. You assumed that it was quite alright to make that trip?
A. Yes, I assumed that it was a regular duty trip.

Q. How long have you been here?
A. 4 yrs and some months.

Q. Was it raining that night?
A. No, it was a normal clear night.

Q. Up to the 13 Jun you had been continually giving men in your unit a lift to the stn going on leave?
A. Yes.

Q. And you didn't make any special endorsation on the Work Ticket?
A. No.

Q. And had it been the accepted custom in this unit at the time?
A. Yes.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. You say that you consider these weekly trips to the Dancing School as a duty trip?
A. Yes.

Q. It is not a recreational trip?
A. No.

Q. Who signs the tickets for this trip?
A. Sometimes the accused.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Where do you make your test runs to?
A. Past North Camp and Ash Vale Stn, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3)

SECOND WITNESS

H.65745 Cpl JUREK J, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On the night of 13 Jun S/Sgt Batten, Sgt Allan and myself were going on leave. Allan invited me over to the Sgts Mess saying he had got permission to take me in to the Mess and we went there for a couple of drinks of beer and gin with S/Sgt and after that I went back to my quarters and got my pack and then I went back to the Mess and I believe we had another drink. Then we went to the Sgts Quarters while Batten and Allan went to get ready to go on leave. After they were ready they sent me back to my quarters where Allan sleeps to get Allan to get a veh to take us to Ash Vale Stn. Sgt Hood then drove us to Ash Vale Stn. When we got there we found we had missed the last train for Stains and we made our way back to the Sgts Mess and I again went to see Sgt Hood to see if he could get a veh to take us to Stains. This was Sgt Allan's idea. I got Hood and he got the Log Book and Work Ticket for CV199139, and I stood outside while he went into the Mess; then he came back and Hood and myself went to the veh pk and got the veh and drove it up to the Mess. After that Hood, Allan and Batten got into the back of the Panel and Sgt Hayes joined the party. Batten said he wanted to go to the PT Mess at CASCRU to see a friend of his. I'm not quite sure who drove the Panel there but I believe it was Sgt Hood. I was in the back of it at the time and I wouldn't be certain. We went to the PT Mess and Hood left us for a time. We stepped in and had a drink, Batten, Allan, Hayes, the accused, and myself. I had a small beer, but I couldn't say what the other had. We stayed there about 10-15 mins and then we all got into the Panel again and started on our way for Stains with the accused driving as I was now sitting beside the spare dvr then. After that the accident happened.

Q. Did you stop at any time on the rd before the accident?
A. I'm not quite sure.

Q. Tell us about the accident?
A. I was sitting beside Hood when all of a sudden a heard a shout from him and then we hit something. I hit my head and nose against the back of Hood's head; he opened the door and crawled out and I crawled out the same way. Someone then drove the Panel to the side of the rd to get it off and out of the way.

Q. What was the position of the Panel when you got out?
A. More or less sideways I think, from the impact.

Q. Which way was the front of it facing?
A. More or less on an angle.

Q. Did you see the other car?
A. When I got out I noticed it was a big milk tanker.

Q. What happened after you got out?
A. I walked up to the accused and Hayes and they asked me if I was alright and I asked them if they were alright. There was nothing wrong with me except the blow on the head I got. I noticed S/Sgt Batten lying on the side of the rd.

Q. Is this veh a left hand drive?
A. Yes, the Panel you mean don't you?

Q. Yes, go on?
A. I saw Batten lying there and I thought he was knocked out.

Q. After that?
A. The accused said as there was nothing wrong with me I could go on my way. It wasn't far from Stains, and so I thumbed a ride up to the other side of Stains.

Q. Did you at any time see the accused drinking in the Mess?

A. I wasn't paying attention, Sir.

Q. Would you be in a position to judge the speed of the veh from the back?
A. It would be hard to say, 30-35 at the most I'd say.

Q. At the time of the accident was it a violent impact?
A. It happened so quick I wouldn't know.

Q. What sort of a night was it?
A. Dry and fairly dark.

Q. Straight rd?
A. I couldn't say.

Q. After the accident did you go to the back of the car and make any inquiries as to what happened Sgt Allan or S/Sgt Batten?

DEF OFFR: I object to that question.

OBJECTION SUSTAINED

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is it always a custom that you go on leave the night before?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you have any trouble getting to Ash Vale?
A. No.

Q. Was it at night?
A. No, evening.

Q. You used a test veh to go?
A. Yes.

Q. Ordinarily your staff is not testing vehs at that time?
A. No.

Q. In other words it is just a way of getting around a trip to the Stn?
A. Yes.

Q. You were anxious that night later to get to Stains?
A. Yes.

Q. Were you mixed up in any discussion that night as to whether you were allowed in a certain Sgts Mess or not?
A. Not that I remember.

Q. There was no reason for the accused to go to Stains?
A. He was just doing us a favour.

Q. You don't take spare drivers on recreational trips?
A. No.

Q. Yet the accused that night wanted to take a spare dvr did he not?
A. I don't know whether or not the fellow as spare dvr came along for the trip or whether he came as spare dvr.

Q. But to all intents and purposes Hayes was the spare dvr?
A. Yes.

Q. You and the other two were quite happy to get away on leave?
A. Yes.

Q. The accused was much less elated than the other three?
A. He wasn't drinking with us as far as I know.

Q. Did you have complete confidence in the accused handling that veh?
A. Absolutely.

Q. The speed was normal and the night was clear?
A. Yes.

Q. There was no reason for any special precaution to be taken by the dvr?
A. No.

Q. The rd is quite wide?
A. Yes.

Q. No heavy traffic?
A. No.

Q. Did you stand around the scene of the accident for any length of time after it happened?
A. I couldn't say.

Q. Did you notice a tail light on the milk truck?
A. No.

Q. You've seen the accused drive vehs before around here?
A. For 2½ yrs, Sir.

Q. Is he a good and careful dvr?
A. Yes, as far as I know.

Q. He was careful that evening?
A. Yes, as far as I know.

Q. Have you had any experience with meeting these milk trucks on the rd at night?
A. No.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. Have you done much duty driving with this unit?
A. No.

Q. Did you consider this trip strictly legal or is it just something that had been going on and had never been caught?
A. No, you could take it both ways. I've often seen Sgt Hood out testing vehs at night.

Q. Is it normal to take vehs out after supper?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

R.80342 Sgt HAYES JS, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and at a quarter to eleven at night on 13 Jun 45 I arrived at the Sgts Mess of this unit, and he approached me while I was eating in the kitchen to accompany him on a short trip and act as spare dvr on the return journey. I agreed to do this and we left at approx 11 o'clock in a 15 cwt Panel, No. CV199139, and proceeded over to the PT Sgts Mess at CASCRU with the accused driving and I was in the back. We had a drink apiece in the PT Mess and remained there 15 mins to half an hour.

Q. Had you had anything else to drink that evening before?

A. Yes, I had dinner at Farnham and I had two light ales.

Q. What happened after you came out of the Mess?
A. I got in the front seat and Cpl Jurek, S/Sgt Batten and Sgt Allan were all sitting in the rear of the Panel. We proceeded on our way towards Staines, passing through Sunningdale. We proceeded on further and actually the first recollection I have of the accident itself is of shaking my pipe out of the window and then I glanced up and saw this tank trailer about 15-20 ft ahead of us parked against the curb on the left hand side of the rd; on our side of the white line that is. At first glance I noticed it was stopped and I shouted this to the accused. I didn't see a light on the parked veh, and we were driving between 30-35 miles an hour. Just as I shouted to the accused and at the same time he noticed the veh was sitting still and he was pulling out and then we side-swiped the parked veh. The Panel swerved around and we ended up facing the tanker beside the cab on the tanker. I got out of the Panel and went around and helped the injured in the rear of the veh and I noticed that S/Sgt Batten had a crushed skull, his pulse beats were very weak and his heart beats were practically negligible, and then I helped with the accused to carry him out on the grass. Then the accused assisted me in laying out Sgt Allan and we left him in the back of the veh until a Dr showed up. I had a slight piece of my forehead bruised which didn't show up until the next day, and also a slight bruise on my knee.

Q. What sort of a veh did you run into?
A. A milk tanker.

Q. Go on?
A. On the arrival of the civilian police and Dr the Police Inspector asked me to accompany the injured men to the hosp which I did in the rear of the ambulance. On arrival at the hosp Sgt Allan was taken in first and S/Sgt Batten was taken in next.

Q. Did you see them after you went in the hosp?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you consider this trip an authorized journey?
A. It wasn't up to me to know that with seniors to my rank in the Panel. I might say here that the accused complained on the way about the lights needing focusing.

Q. What is your job in this unit?
A. Trouble shooter and veh tester.

Q. Have you had any experience in testing lights on vehs?
A. No, but I've had a bit of experience in working on lights.

Q. Would you say that if the veh's lights were improperly focused that this would reduce the driving range?
A. Yes, the focus on those lights were not as far to the left as usual.

Q. Did any members of the party appear to have been drinking?
A. The members going on leave did.

Q. The accused?
A. He wasn't under the influence of alcohol as far as I'm concerned.

Q. Were you paying any attention to the rd?
A. I was spending quite a bit of time talking to Jurek behind me and wasn't paying any attention in particular to the rd. When I'm driving I watch the rd, and when I'm [illegible] I don't pay much attention.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. As far as the authorization of this trip was concerned you assumed that it was duly and properly authorized?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you notice whether or not you had just come over a rise when you saw the tanker?
A. I verified this after; we were coming down a slight grade.

Q. So that you couldn't possibly have seen it?
A. Only after you had come over the rise.

Q. Do you consider yourself a competent driver?
A. Yes, for 17 yrs.

Q. Would you say that the accused reacted capably?
A. Yes, the same as I would have done.

Q. Were brakes applied?
A. I don't believe so, turning and braking at the same time is a poor thing.

Q. Did you notice a tail light on the back of the tanker?
A. No.

Q. What colour was the tanker?
A. A dull grey type of veh, blending with the colour of the rd, and with no markings on it at all.

Q. At all times did the accused have the veh under control?
A. Yes.

Q. He was driving at normal speed?
A. Yes, and the rd was dry and the night was clear.

Q. And there was no reason at that particular time that the accused should take any special precuations?
A. No, the traffic was very light.

Q. Do you know whether or not the accused was in the habit of signing work tickets prior to the 13th?
A. Yes, once when he was acting as Orderly Offr he signed a stack of them.

Q. And with the knowledge of his immediate superior offr?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you at any time consider this a recreational trip?
A. No.

Q. I would suggest to you that the reason the accused was driving was that he was sufficiently conscientious that there would be no monkey business and that you would go straight there and straight back?
A. There's nothing wrong with that theory, Sir.

Q. You were going to do nothing else that evening except drive these three and come straight back?
A. Nothing else.

FOURTH WITNESS

L.28451 MSS BIGGIN CT, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and I was present in the Mess on the evening of 13 Jun 45. I came in the Mess at approx 7.30 and I noticed the accused, the late S/Sgt Batten, Sgt Allan and Cpl Jurek, seated at a table. The accused immediately called me over and requested that another bottle of spirits be put on sale. At the time I was Mess President. I refused to put another bottle of spirits on sale in view of the fact that we were running the spirits on a quota and the quota for that day had already been on sale. The argument continued for half an hour at which time the party left to catch a train. In order to avoid further argument I agreed to put on a further bottle of spirits in view of the fact that most of the party had gone. Then I left and went into the Billiard Room where I remained until about 9.30, until lunch was served and immediately after lunch I left. Later on as I was leaving the Mess S/Sgt Batten came in as I was going out and he remarked that they had missed their train.

Q. Had this party at the table been drinking?
A. Yes, there was evidence of drinking; there were one or two glasses of beer on the table and so on.

Q. Would you say they were affected?
A. I'd say they were feeling good.

Q. The accused, was he noticeable affected?
A. He was feeling good.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. The only evidence of drinking that you saw was the glasses on the table?
A. Yes.

Q. You didn't notice anything specific that showed that the accused was under the influence of drink?
A. Nothing in particular, Sir.

Q. They were just a happy little group?
A. Yes.

Q. You had put out this other bottle of spirits to avoid further argument after the other people had gone?
A. Yes, then the accused argued with me after that again.

Q. You were pretty made because he had a Cpl in the Mess?
A. No, I wasn't mad, Sir, but I was Mess President and it was my duty to see that no Cpl should be in there.

Q. Then why did you allow one week later someone permission to bring a Cpl in?
A. I didn't, Sir.

Q. Did you acquiesce to have someone in there?
A. I didn't say anything to the Cpl being in.

Q. And yet you saw him there?
A. Yes.

Q. You closed your eyes to that?
A. Yes.

Q. Yet you argued with these other people for 20-30 mins?
A. Yes.

Q. What have you against the accused?
A. Nothing.

Q. A Sgt is a Sgt regardless of sex?
A. Yes.

Q. And you acquiesced a week later?
A. Yes.

Q. Are you going to suggest to the Court that the accused was under the influence of liquor?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Was he quite capable of carrying on a conversation with you?
A. Yes.

Q. You understood everything he said?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you realize that practically throughout the entire night of 13 Jun the accused had practically nothing to drink?
A. No, I don't, I didn't get there until 7.30.

Q. Did you see him around 10 that evening?
A. I had left the Mess then, Sir.

Q. Did you see him around 9.30?
A. Yes.

Q. Was he staggering or stumbling around the place?
A. No.

Q. The only reason they wanted this liquor was because they were going on leave?
A. Yes.

Q. You were quite naturally annoyed with these people pleading with you after you had said no?
A. No.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. You've known the accused quite some time?
A. Yes.

Q. You feel you would be competent to tell when he had something to drink or not by his actions?
A. Yes.

Q. Then would you say that he had something to drink the night in question?
A. I'd say so.

DEF
OFFR: I object to that question and answer

SIXTH WITNESS

Lt WT LITTLER, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

On 13 Jun 45 my duties were A/OC 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC Wksp and in those duties I had the accused, whom I now recognize, as my Tech man.

Q. I show you a Tpt Work Ticket for veh CV199139, where a trip to Stains is authorized; do you recognize the accused's signature on it?
A. Yes, I am familiar with his signature.

TPT WORK TICKET MARKED EXHIBIT 1

Q. To your knowledge has the accused had authority to sign work tickets?
A. Yes, it was granted to him by Maj Cornell the former OC here.

Q. Were you present when he was given this authority by Maj Cornell?
A. No., but there was an occasion last Dec when the accused had signed a Work Ticket to go to BORDON for parts and there was a discussion at the time about it and Maj Cornell said "that's O.K., I've never changed that order".

Q. What was the condition of this veh prior to this trip on the 13th?
A. Roadworthy. It is not a WD type veh, it is strictly a commercial veh.

Q. The headlights, their condition?
A. Only fair on account of the weather over here unless they are "seal beamed" they become tarnished and therefore are not up to the mfg's standard.

Q. How would this affect the driving range?
A. It certainly would, it would govern your speed a great deal.

Q. On a normal dark night?
A. I would say that the direct beam would be 30-40 feet out in front on a white rd, but if on a dark rd it would be very little.

Q. What would be a safe driving speed?
A. 25 m.p.h.

Q. What is the authorized speed of this veh?
A. 30 m.p.h.

Q. Why?
A. Because it is under mil use and their speeds are laid down.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. The accused has been detailed for duty as Orderly Offr here before?
A. That I believe was before my time, 4 Jun 45.

Q. You did nothing to change Maj Cornell's order that the accused could sign Work Tickets?
A. Nothing.

Q. You considered the accused a person of sufficient responsibility to carry out that duty properly?
A. Yes.

Q. He has always performed his duties well?
A. Yes.

Q. There were no mechanical defects that one would have to watch out for or be particularly careful of that night on that veh?
A. No.

Q. When you say the veh was roadworthy, you are taking into consideration the condition of the headlights at that particular time as you knew them?
A. Yes.

Q. Prior to the 13 Jun this year it was quite common to give people lifts to the stns when going on leave?
A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. From what distance on a straight and clear rd should a tail light be visible?
A. There is quite a variety of tail lights.

Q. A normal tail light?
A. Some hundreds of feet, providing it is not a tail light with blackout eqpt in it. On a good straight rd I would say 150 yds and on staff cars a good half mile away.

SEVENTH WITNESS

Capt A.G. HUDSON, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the Adjt of 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC and have been such since 13 Apr 43. I present herewith Dvrs Standing Orders d/12 Jan 44 for 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy with particular ref to para 7. These are posted in the Sgts Mess among another places throughout 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC.

DEF OFFR: I now object to each and every one of the exhibits which this witness is about to present to the Court.

PT I ORDER MARKED EXHIBIT 5

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long have you known the accused?
A. Since Apr 43.

Q. Has he always done his job satisfactorily?
A. All reports on him from the diff wksps have been very satisfactory.

Q. You are aware that in spite of the publications of exhibits 2-3-4-5, a practice has apparently grown up which allowed the accused to sign Work Tickets?

A. No, I'm not aware of any such practice.

Q. You know apart from this particular case that he has signed them?
A. I've checked back and found that he had signed 5 in the preceding three months, all of which were for trips during the daytime.

Q. Duty trips?
A. I presume, yes.

Q. I show you a copy of a document, what is it?
A. It is a RAR.

PROSECUTOR: I don't see the relevancy of this.

Q. Does it purport to be made out in the regular manner?
A. The form itself is out of date but it appears to be a normal RAR.

Q. Does that report appear to refer to a collission between one of your sedans and a milk tanker?
A. Yes.

PROSECUTOR: I object again to this document.

Q. Will you check that document and see if it refers to a tail light on a milk tanker?
A. There is a statement here by some Maj of 23 CGH that says that shortly after passing a veh a tank milk truck parked on the side of the rd without lights came into view.

DEF OFFR TO PRESIDENT: The point of relevancy, Sir, is that there have been quite a number of accidents which have been reported where similar types of vehs have been involved in accidents with mil vehs and it shows that there has been a tendency due to wartime regulations to operate without proper lights. I tender this document under RP 60.

PRESIDENT: I am very doubtful whether the Court will regard this document as having any relevancy, but if the Defence wants it in it will be admitted.

ROAD ACCIDENT REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT 6

Q. Have you republished Dvrs Standing Orders yourself since those you have given to the Court as an exhibit?
A. No, I don't believe, no.

Q. What is this document?
A. Sheet 114 1 inch to the mile WD map.

Q. It shows the distance from FARNBOROUGH to STAINS?
A. Yes.

MAP MARKED EXHIBIT 7

Q. Have you personally checked the mileage between those points?
A. No.

Q. I suggest to you that the distance is 16 miles?
A. To where?

Q. To the Great Western Ry at STAINS and 17 to the Southern Ry at STAINS?
A. Yes, that would be about right; it is under 20 I know that.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. What is the custom here about driving men to the stn when they are going on leave?
A. Sir, the custom that I know of in particular relation to the wksp has been that personnel going on leave at 0900 hrs have frequently been picked up on the rd near the Camp by vehs which were on test. This was a practice that was known to the CO. I have never known of vehs being used at night for this purpose as leave does not start until 0900 hrs in the morning.

Q. Any different rule respecting NCOs?
A. No.

Q. Offrs?
A. They have been permitted to phone and secure a veh to report to their Mess to drive them to the train.

Q. Is there anything hung on the trucks when they are out on test?
A. Yes, a metal sign with the words "on test".

Q. Know anything about dancing classes at FARNHAM?
A. Yes, at one time the Educ Offr had arranged dancing classes at FARNHAM and tpt was authorized under a Routine Order.

Q. [redacted] men testing vehs drive to the stn only for the purpose of taking men to the stn?
A. The previous CO had instructed the wksps to give all vehs a rd test and that personnel proceeding on leave frequently had been picked up and driven to the stn on that rd.

EIGHTH WITNESS

Mr Leonard MOUSLEY, 25, the Crescent, WEYHILL 84, ANDOVER, Hants, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a lorry dvr and I was the dvr of the milk tanker which was struck by an army veh on the night of 13 Jun 45, or rather on the night of 13-14 Jun 45. We dvrs have to stop every hour for a tire inspection; it was 12 o'clock midnight when I came to a standstill about 2 miles from SUNNINGDALE. I put my hand brake on, took a torch from my pocket and it was exactly midnight by the clock in the cab of my truck. Then I glanced in my rear vision mirror to see if there was anything coming, and I saw that my tail light was alight. The tail light on my tanker is on the right side of the veh near the number plate, and it can be seen by looking in the rear vision mirror. Then I put my hand in the door to open it and with that lights from an oncoming veh came into my vision and I thought I would sit there until he had passed, but he didn't pass me; he struck me in the chassis. It seemed to strike in the middle of the chassis, the tanker moved 2-3 feet, and the tanker was loaded at the time with milk, weighing 22 tons. I had the handbrake on at the time and it affects the eight tires of the tanker at the back. The tanker was on a slight slope and I don't think it would take as much to move it as if I had been on a flat rd.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long have you been driving vehs?
A. 18 yrs come Christmas, Sir.

Q. What condition was your tail light in when you started out that evening?
A. In very good condition.

Q. What about your headlights?
A. Perfectly good condition, Sir.

Q. Were they still conforming to blackout conditions?
A. No, they were open headlights.

Q. You parked on an incline?
A. Yes, sort of.

Q. You chose that particular spot to park in?
A. There's no place on that rd where there is clear vision anyway.

Q. How far down the rd from the top of the hill were you?
A. It must have been 40 yds.

Q. If your tail light hadn't been on you would have been in rather a difficult position as far as liability of this accident?
A. Yes.

Q. So it is very much to your interest to make sure that your tail light was on?
A. Oh, yes, Sir.

Q. What condition were your brakes in?
A. Perfect.

Q. When did you decide to examine your tail light through your rear vision mirror?
A. When I looked at the clock.

Q. Is it usual for you to look at the tail light through your mirror?
A. I see it all night, Sir.

Q. When you turn on your headlights does that automatically turn on your tail light?
A. No.

Q. After the accident you had to change lights?
A. I put a new bulb in.

Q. Was the other one smashed?
A. Yes, and the moment I inserted a new bulb it lit immediately.

Q. How did you get the old one out?
A. It had been knocked out, Sir.

Q. Did you find parts of the glass from the old bulb?
A. I found parts of the casing, the red glass was still intact, but I didn't find any remains of the old bulb.

Q. Do you stop anywhere regardless of your position?
A. I stopped by the clock.

Q. Rather than by the rd?
A. Yes.

Q. Whether you are over the top of a hill or not?
A. Our time is so slow that we can practically be on the same spot within a quarter of a mile. The car coming over the hill behind me couldn't see the tanker until it got to the top of the hill.

Q. Have you had any other accidents of this sort?
A. No.

Q. Other people have haven't they?
A. I couldn't say.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. Do you ever follow other vehs of your type at night?
A. Yes.

Q. And is their tail light quite bright? A. Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B)

NINTH WITNESS

Mr J.M. KING, TC 134 Surrey Joint Police Force, SUNNINGDALE, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, at about 10 past 12 on 14 Jun 45 at night I was on duty in SUNNINGDALE, when I was informed that an accident had taken place 2 miles the LONDON side and Capt Maxwell told me that he had sent an ambulance but that he required a Dr. I called for a Dr McDonald and then I went to the scene of the accident and arrived there at 12.20. Soon after I got there the Dr arrived and on the side of the rd there was an injured man lying on the grass, blood pouring from his face and over his head and the Dr said that he must have surgical treatment instantly or as soon as possible. We then discovered that the ambulance sent for was a mil ambulance so I went to a nearby phone to see if I could get a civilian ambulance, as it would be quicker, but another soldier passing had called at the Police Stn and reported the accident again, so the civilian ambulance was on the way and when I got back to the scene it was and the injured men were placed in it and taken to Windsor Hospital. I then examined the scene of the accident and on the near side of the rd facing LONDON was an Atkinson milk tanker and the number of it was GYK 704.

Q. Are you sure it wasn't DYK 704?
A. No, definitely not, it was GYK 704, Sir.

Q. Please continue?
A. The rear of the tanker was 9" from it's near side curb, and the front was 1' 2" from the near side curb. The veh was 29' 10" overall length, 7' 6" wide in front, 7' 4" wide at the back, and I noticed when I approached the scene of the accident in the first place that the driver of the tanker was bending over his rear lamp. It was showing a white light and he was repairing it. Also standing 26 yds nearer LONDON was a Chevrolet CV 199139, but she had been moved after the accident and before I arrived. The width of the rd at this place was 30' 4". In company with Inspector Backshell and Mr Mousley I measured skid marks that were present and there was a skid mark commencing 40' 10" before the point of impact, commencing 1' 5" from the near side of the rd and extending to the point of impact which was plainly marked by dust, dirt and glass and by a heavy blurring mark of 4' 2" where the skid mark turned to the right. There was another skid mark further from the near side which extended 33' and ran up level to the point of impact. These two marks then went on, one for 34' and the other for 47' 11", the second one almost to the offside of the rd. There was a further skid mark which was probably made by the offside wheel which ran for two distances, 29' level to the impact, and then in a blurring way for another 49' to the offside of the rd, and a fourth one ran 47' meeting the nearside mark roughly in the centre. I produce herewith a chart which I prepared myself. It is drawn to proportion.

DEF CVFR: I have no objection to the admission of this chart.

CHART MARKED EXHIBIT 8

Q. How far did the milk tanker appear to have moved?
A. 8'. That was the distance between the point of impact and the rear of the milk tanker when I found it.

Q. What injury had been done to the milk tanker?
A. The damage was a grazed mark 1' on the offside rear of the chassis, damage to the tank of 6' 6" from the ground, the tank itself being split about 1'. The number plate was damaged. The light was alight when I arrived but the red glass was off.

Q. Was the rear light near the number plate?
A. It was att to it. The spare wheel carrier was pushed fwd about 1', the offside rear mudguard 3'6" from the ground was damaged, the rim of the offside wheel and the tire was cut, but the wheel had turned round once or twice.

Q. What was the rd like?
A. In good condition, 30' 4" wide, dry surface at the time, and there were no other obstructions and it was not too dark really, the moon had just set. The rd in this place however drops down hill in two different grades. We carried out a test with the Inspector's car afterwards. I knelt on the rd where the milk wagon had been, taking up the same position as where it's rear light was, and the Inspector drove his car towards where I was, being in the direction of LONDON and I stooped down and with a signal lamp in my hand I stopped him with a signal from the lamp when his lights fell full in my face, and that was a distance of 220 yds. We measured further and we found that by placing his veh in the same position that a full view of the milk tanker would only have been obtainable at 90 yds.

Q. Was the milk tanker marked in any other way?
A. The milk tanker was almost the same colour as the road, and there were no relief lines on it.

Q. Do you think that that was a good place for it to park?
A. In my private opinion, no. Before this war I was a dvr-mech all my life and I should say that if that same veh were parked around the left in view it would be considered dangerous.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What type of car was it you used to carry out this test?
A. A Hillman 10, Sir.

Q. Were the skid marks made from braking?
A. No.

Q. Would you say the brakes were applied at all?
A. No, I wouldn't say that even; the marks on the rd were made by the edges of the tires biting in as the car was being pulled to the right.

Q. Did the accused seem to be shaken by the accident?
A. He was in a ruffled condition that I've seen many dvrs in after an accident, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you have any reason to form an opinion that the accused had been drinking?
A. If there had been any reason for me to think that, Sir, he would have been taken to the Police Stn and put before a Dr.

Q. If there was no rear light on the tanker would you have any idea how far away they would be when they could see the tanker?
A. The maximum would be 90 yds, Sir.

TENTH WITNESS

Mr H.E. GIBBS, PC 60 Surrey Joint Police Force, EGHAM, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I was present at the scene of an accident which occurred on the night of 13-14 Jun and I took a statement from the accused whom I now recognize. He was properly cautioned, I wrote it down and he signed it. It read "I have been cautioned that I need not say anything unless I wish but if I do it will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". He signed this caution in my book, which I cannot part with.

Q. Were any threats or inducements used?
A. No, Sir, I fully explained the caution to him and told him that any statement he made would be absolutely voluntary on his part, and read over to him which he could read and sign.

DEF
OFFR: I object to the admission to the statement, and wish to cross-examine this witness on it.

GRANTED

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. The accused was rather upset when you interviewed him?
A. He was a little.

Q. Have you dealt with many accidents where the dvrs of Cdn mil vehs have been involved?
A. A fair number.

Q. And you realize from your experience that these dvrs are not to give you a statement until they have been put through the proper military channels?
A. I'm not aware of that.

Q. I show you an exhibit, Exhibit 6, would you read the line at the top of the page?
A. Yes, it reads "do not admit liability. Give your name and unit to other party and refer him to Cdn Claims Commission, 2 Cockspur St., Trafalgar Square, LONDON".

Q. Is that the first time you have become acquainted with that?
A. Yes.

Q. Why did you find it necessary to caution him?
A. It is customary to caution any person making a statement of any serious consequences.

Q. Did you explain to him your duties in this case?
A. Fully.

Q. I suggest to you that the accused was sufficiently upset that he gave you a distorted statement?
A. I don't agree with that.

Q. Don't you usually wait and give people time to get over any shock or excitement before you take your statements?
A. No, Sir, if they are cautioned and are willing to make a statement, it is taken.

Q. And on top of that you are anxious to get it?
A. No, it is a voluntary statement.

Q. Your duty is done once you administer the caution?
A. Yes, and explained to them that the statement is voluntary.

PRESIDENT TO DEF OFFR: Do you wish the accused to give any evidence on the matter of the admissibility of this statement?

DEF OFFR: No, Sir.

PRESIDENT TO WITNESS: Are you allowed to take this page out of your book so that they may be kept permanently by this Court.

A. No, Sir.

Q. Will you show us the signature of the accused at the end of this statement?

A. Yes (Witness shows statement of accused and his signature to Court)

Q. Is there anything else you wish to say?

A. Sir, the statement in my book may be marked as an exhibit by this Court but I will have to take my book away with me. However, this book will always be available at the Police HQ at GUILDFORD.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE STATEMENT

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE STATEMENT WOULD BE ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.

STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT 9

PRESIDENT TO WITNESS: Will you read it to the Court?

A. Yes.
(THE WITNESS THEN PRODUCED TO THE COURT A COPY OF THE SAID STATEMENT MADE BY THE ACCUSED WHICH HE CERTIFIED TO BE A TRUE COPY OF THE ORIGINAL STATEMENT. THE PRESIDENT COMPARED THE ORIGINAL WITH THE SAID COPY AND HE CERTIFIED THE COPY TO BE A CORRECT COPY AND THE SAID COPY WAS MARKED EXHIBIT 9) (NOTE ATT)

THE PROSECUTOR SAID THAT LT LITTLER NOW HAD MORE INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO THE COSTS OF THE PARTS AND ASKED LEAVE OF THE COURT TO RECALL HIM.

LEAVE GRANTED

Lt W.T. LITTLER, 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy RCASC, having been recalled by the Prosecutor, on his former oath, states:

Q. Did you make a list of the parts necessary for the repair of veh CV 199139?

A. Yes, I went to BORDON MT Tech Stores to do this. I went in to see the chap IC of the Parts Dept and I was with him when the part number was selected as against the illustrated book and then compared to the catalogue for the price list.

Q. Did you see the prices in the Price Book with respect to each item?

A. Yes, and I wrote it down on a piece of paper and then it was typed and I destroyed my longhand copy. It was typed in my presence and I compared it with my own notes.

Q. Will you read it to us now?
A. Yes, they were as follows:

PART NUMBER	DESIGNATION	PRICE
5802034	Hub Cap	$ .61
4103268	Left front door	18.00
1797911	Left rear fender	7.12
3656701	Left running board	3.17
2042504	Left running board bracket	1.00
469979	Body panel	36.00

making a total of $82.94 or £18/11/2

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You have had an opportunity of comparing the accused's work with other people's?
A. Yes. From a point of view of tech knowledge I have yet to meet a better one than the accused, both as regards to efficiency and his tech ability.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP83(B)

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF CSFR OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

I would like to move at this time that the Prosecution has failed to make out a prima facie case and the accused should not be called upon to present a Defence.
I intend to say only a word or two about the first charge.
It is the Adjt's responsibility of this unit to see that certain instrs are issued from time to time, but irrespective of these instrs I think the Court will agree with me when I say that practices might grow up which would be a direct violation of those instrs but nevertheless if it becomes a practice then it becomes equally good law; it becomes tacid permission to do things. The accused for the past year and a half has been and was until 13 Jun 45, not only authorized to sign work tickets for duty trips but was directed to sign work tickets for duty trips. Everything within the line of practice within his unit showed that the trip was a regular duty trip but he now finds himself involved solely because he was sufficiently conscientious to see that there was no monkey business, and by signing that work ticket and driving the veh it was to all intents and purposes a duty trip, therefore he committed no offence to be charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he improperly authorized and used a Cdn Mil veh CV 199139, and I refer the Court in this regard to Footnote to Sec 40 at the bottom of Page 458 MML, and I submit on that basis that the first charge cannot succeed.

With respect to the second charge there is an amendment to the footnote of Sec 40 dealing with neglect which must be the bible of military courts dealing with this charge. (DEF OFFR READS AMENDMENT D/5 JUN 42). That amendment places the onus on the Prosecution not only to prove neglect but to prove it affirmatively; they have failed in this respect and the accused should be acquitted of the charge.
The evidence to me strongly suggests that there was no light at the back of the milk tanker. You have the evidence of two witnesses, two independent people, that of Sgt Hayes who states that had there been a light he would have noticed it or words to that effect, and also the evidence of Jurek who was in the back seat. Mouseley parked his tanker in a particularly dangerous spot, that is borne out by the Police Constable who also gave evidence here today. You also have his evidence as to the distance at which the tail light might become visible. He gave us maximums - the minimums should also be estimated. In the opinion of Hayes, himself a driver, and on whose evidence the Prosecution is bound, the accused drove that veh with due caution throughout the journey and when the tanker loomed up he did exactly the right thing by swerving to the centre of the rd to avoid an accident. It is quite clear that the neglect was neither wilful nor culpable. It is not blameworthy and therefore not deserving of punishment and I would ask the Court to acquit the accused on the ground that the Prosecution have not established a prima facie case against him.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTOR

In respect to the first charge I would say that the mere fact that certain instances of improper use within the unit does not in itself excuse a senior warrant officer to improperly use a veh; in other words, two wrongs do not make a right.

In respect to the second charge, the evidence of a competent witness, Mr Littler, stated that the faulty lights were such that would limit the driving speed to 25 m.p.h., and he also stated that the maximum speed for this veh is 30 m.p.h., and yet the witnesses Sgt Hayes and Cpl Jurek both say that the speed was up to 35 m.p.h, which is a direct violation of the order and a fact. From P.C. King's evidence the visibility would not be nil and I contend that a driver who had his mind on his driving would have been able to avoid the tanker with ease.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR IS DISSALLOWED.

- D E F E N C E -

FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Would you describe to the Court how you came to authorize this trip, what you had to drink that evening, and what you did till the time of the accident?

A. Yes, Sir. At 5 o'clock I finished work and went over to the Mess where Sgt Allan and S/Sgt Batten were. I had a drink before supper, and after that I went and got washed and then came back to the Mess where Allan asked me permission to bring Cpl Jurek into the Mess, which I did. I was then around the Mess nearly all evening, and later Allan and Batten approached me and asked me if I could get another bottle of liquor. I asked the Mess President about it and he started on me about having a Cpl in the Mess and then the boys left for their train. I had lunch and immediately after they came back again with a Work Ticket and a Log Book, saying that they had missed their train and could make the connection at Stains, and would I sign the Work Ticket for Sgt Hood to take them there. I said no, I'll take you there myself because I wanted to see that the veh returned and no monkey business on the rd. I signed the ticket and as they all got in the veh S/Sgt Batten said he wanted to see someone at the PT Mess or something he wanted to get and I took him there. He asked us in for a drink when we got there and he bought me a small beer. We were there about 10 mins and then we came out and proceeded to Stains. Just before Sunningdale some of the boys wanted to stop and relieve themselves, which I did. We then continued over a ry crossing, possibly a mile from it this veh loomed up in front of me and I immediately turned to the right and at the same time I heard Sgt Hood shout and just then when I thought I had cleared it, we hit broadside sort of. I saw no tail light on the veh.

Q. From 7 o'clock on that evening how many drinks did you have?
A. One before supper, then another after dinner and then one at the PT Mess, Sir.

Q. What speed were you driving?
A. Approx 30 m.p.h.

Q. Did you have the veh under control at all times?
A. Yes.

Q. How long have you been driving?
A. 16-17 yrs.

Q. What authority did you have to sign work tickets?
A. The OC Wksps, and I've been signing them for the past 2 yrs.

Q. Are the trips to the stn for people going on leave considered duty or recreational trips?
A. Duty trips, Sir.

Q. Was it clearly within the 20 mile limit?
A. Yes.

Q. Driving conditions were normal?
A. Yes.

Q. It was a fairly clear night?
A. Yes, fairly, except that the trees threw a shadow here and there on the rd.

Q. Were you aware of any mechanical defects on the truck?
A. Not mechanical, but the headlights were a little off to the right.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Had you ever before this night signed a work ticket for a trip of this nature?
A. Not in the evening that I can remember of, but I have in the daytime.

Q. Didn't you question the trip at all?
A. They were all my NCOs that were working for me and they were going on leave and were going some distance, and it was the custom in this unit when personnel are going some distance to give them that extra time so that they would be on their way by morning.

Q. What is the maximum speed of that veh?
A. 30 m.p.h., it is marked on the windshiled.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

I might add one or two words to what I said on my submission. I don't wish to say anything more about the neglect except to point out and I think the Court realizes that the evidence of liquor is negligible. The Court may be influenced by a question put to the accused by the Prosecutor insofar as this trip was in the evening, and not in the afternoon. If the accused had authority to sign work tickets in the daylight that authority was still vested in him for the whole 24 hours, day or night. I ask on that basis that the accused be acquitted of both charges.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED

PLEA IN MITIGATION

It has been laid down previously by the JAGs Branch that the accused is bound by the statements made by his Def Offr on his behalf.
I wish to make it quite clear that anything I say is under no circumstances whatsoever an admission of liability or guilt with respect to these charges.
The accused has done exceptionally good service, is extremely valuable, and has worked every single day up until today carrying out his duties and doing them well in spite of this hanging over his head for over two months. Any punishment over and above reprimand or severe reprimand, naturally affects gratuities, and the Court cannot err on the side of leniency in this particular case. It is an unfortunate accident and the accused would not have been involved in anything of this nature had he not been trying to do something for his brother NCOs who had been working for him and living with him for a considerable time. There is nor was absolutely no intention on his part whatsoever to commit any military offence throughout the entire transaction, and I say again, no punishment can be too lenient.

Statement - Major B.M.Fahrni

I was sitting in front seat of vehicle proceeding to Watford at approximately 2300 hours travelling at 25 M.P.H. Near Hook we passed vehicle going the opposite direction with lights on. Shortly after passing this vehicle a tank milk truck parked on road without lights came into view. The driver pulled the car to centre of the road and struck rear end of milk truck. In my opinion the driver did everything possible to avoid the accident. Police were called when we were removed to hospital.

Harry Edward Gibbs.

I am a Police Constable, 60, stationed at Egham. I visited the scene of this accident at 12.50 a.m. on the 14th June and I saw the driver, Mechanised Sergeant-Major Ennor, and he made me a voluntary statement which I took down in my pocket book and he signed after being cautioned. After caution, he said:-

I have been cautioned that I need not say anything unless I wish but if I do it will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence" and he signed that.

Statement of M.S.M. ENNORS STATEMENT

"At about 10 p.m. on Wednesday, the 13th June, 1945, a Sergeant brought a Chevrolet Pannel 85 vehicle to the Mess at the Barracks, and asked me to sign the work ticket for him to take a couple of boys who were going on leave, to the station. I said "No." but the boys kept on to me to see them down the station, so I said "All right" I would sign it but I would drive them myself.

I drove, and there were four others in the vehicle. I drove to Ash Vale Station, but by the time we arrived the train had left. Two of the boys were going to Ireland, one to Feltham and the other I believe to Ascot. I said I would take them to the nearest station to Feltham, and they could find their own way from there. I did not know the way to the next station, as I do not know the highways in this country very well, because I have been in the shops most of the time. Staff Batten said "I will show you the way to the next station." So we left Ash Vale at about 10.30 or 10.45 p.m.

APPENDIX "C"

I do not know the roads we travelled on, but after we had been travelling for about half an hour we were then on a wide straight main road. I was driving at about 30 to 35 miles per hour and close to my left hand side of the road. One passenger was sitting beside me in the front and the other three were in the back. I had the head lights on, but these only showed for about 20 yds. in front. I did not notice anything in front of me until I was about 10 to 15 yds. away. I then saw a tank carrier, I mean this to be a petrol carrier, which I thought was stationary on the left hand side of the road. I did not notice any red light on it at the time but later the driver showed me it, and when he put a new bulb in it, it was in working order. On seeing this vehicle, I swerved out to the centre of the road to try and avoid it but I struck some part of it.

"The next thing I knew was that my vehicle was broadside across the road with the front facing the petrol carrier and about 2 yds. away from it. The front of my vehicle was level with the front of his. I at once got out and went to the back of the petrol carrier, where I saw the driver, who was standing beside it. I said to him "What, no light at the back!" and he said "There was until you knocked it off."

"About 10 minutes after he got a bulb, which he put in, and it then operated. In the meantime, I returned to my vehicle and found that two of the chaps were hurt. We took one out and laid him on the grass."

~~He said "I asked the driver of the other lorry what - no light (not lights) at the back" - singular. This is the only person I interviewed.~~

There was a delay of 20 minutes or so, then MSM Ennor, S/Sgt. atten, Sgt. Alle n Cpl. Jurek and Sgt. Hayes, who just happened along at that moment got in the vehicle. MSM Ennor drove and we went over to what is known as the P.T. Mess opposite 1 CASC RU workshops. There seemed no need of both Sgt. Hayes and myself going as spare drivers, so I spoke to theSgt. Major about it and he agreed that I wouldn't be needed further. I told Sgt. Hayes I was going home and I left.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D-91040 MSM Ennor, C.E., No.1 Cdn. Administrative Transport Company RCASC. A soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

RECORD OF WITNESS: H-65745 Cpl. Jurek, J. 1 Cdn.Admin.Tpt.Coy., RCASC having been duly sworn states:

I am H-65745 Cpl. Jurek, J. of 1 Cdn.Admin.Tpt.Coy., RCASC and I recognise the accused as MSM Ennor of this Unit. On the night of the 13th June about 2000 hrs. I met Sgt. Allen outside the Sgt's Mess. He invited me in for a drink. I had a drink with Sgt. Allen and S/Sgt. Batten and then went over to their quarters while they changed as they were getting ready to go on leave and I was going with them. They asked me to go over and see Sgt. Hood and get a vehicle to take us to the station. Sgt. Hood got a chad with an "On Test" sign and drove over to the Sgt's Quarters. We picked up Sgt. Allen and S/Sgt Batten up and went to the station. We found that the last train to Staines had left so we walked back to the Sgt's mess. I again went over and got Sgt. Hood explaining that S/Sgt. Batten, Sgt. Allen and myself wanted a lift to Staines. Sgt. Hood returned to the mess with me bringing along the log-book and work ticket for the panel No.CV199139. I waited outside the mess while he went in. He came out shortly and I walked over to the vehicle lines with him and brought this vehicle back to the Sgt's mess. Sgt. Hood went inside for Sgt. Allen and S/Sgt Batten and I crawled into the back of the panel. Mr. Ennor came out of the mess too, and Sgt. Hayes, joined the party. They all got into the vehicle and we drove over to the P.T. mess, opposite C.A.C.M. Workshops. Sgt. Hood left us here, and the rest of us went in the mess for a drink. We were there for about 10 minutes then we started out for Staines. MSM Ennor was driving and sitting in the front right seat beside him was Sgt. Hayes. I was sitting right behind Sgt. Hayes on a bench and beside me was Sgt. Allen. S/Sgt Batten was sitting opposite us on a box.

As we were driving along I suddenly heard Sgt. Hayes shout, and almost immediately there was the collision. I climbed out by the front right hand door. I was feeling quite dazed as I had suffered a heavy bump across the nose. Some one drove our car to the side of the road to get it out of the way. I noticed S/Sgt Batten lying on the side of the road and I thought that he was just knocked out. Then I walked up to Mr. Ennor to find out how he was. As there was nothing wrong with me, Mr. Ennor gave me permission to go. I made my way to a friend's house where I stayed for the night and returned to my Unit the next morning.

Q. Was it dark when the accident occurred?
A. Yes it was and our vehicle lights were on.

Q. Did you notice the condition of the lights?
A. No, I did not sir.

Q. Did you notice the speed of the vehicle or if not from your experience as a driver estimate the approx speed?
A. We were travelling at an average speed approx 30 m.p.h. is my estimate.

Q. Was there much traffic on the road?
A. I couldn't say as I was paying no attention.

Q. Did you notice the parked milk tanker?
A. No.

Q. Did you have any apprehension over Mr. Ennor's driving?
A. No.

Q. Did you think it unusual for MSM Ennor to drive? If not why?
A. No, because I had seen him drive before.

J. J. C.

Q. Was MSM Ennor drinking with you in the Sgt's Mess?
A. No, not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you recall the general feeling of the members of the party?
A. We were all happy in anticipation of our leave.

Q. Do you know why Mr. Ennor was driving?
A. No, I don't.

Q. Did you know that Sunningdale is the boundary for Aldershot Area as laid down in Part I Order No.16 d)28 March and beyond this point it is necessary for an O.R. to have a pass.
A. Yes I did sir.

Q. Do you realize that the accident occurred outside this area?
A. Yes sir.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D-91640 MEM Ennor, C.E., No.1 Cdn. Administrative Transport Company RCASC. A soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

THIRD WITNESS: B-80342 Sgt. Hayes, J.S. 1 Cdn. Admin.Tpt.Coy., RCASC having been duly sworn states:

I am B-80342 Sgt. Hayes, J.S. of 1 Cdn. Admin.Tpt.Coy., RCASC and I recognize the accused MEM Ennor of this Unit.

On 13 June 45 at about 2245 hrs. on returning from Farnham I was in the kitchen or hallway of the Sgt's Mess when S/Major Ennor asked me to come along on a trip to act as spare driver and drive on the way home. I had something to eat and about 2300 I went outside and got into the vehicle CV199139 and drove over to the P.T. Mess opposite 1 CASCEU Workshops. I stayed in the P.T. Mess for between 15-30 minutes and had 1 pint of beer. We then went out and I got in the right hand front seat and Mr. Ennor was behind the wheel. Sgt. Allen and S/Sgt Batten and Cpl. Jurek got in the back. I am not sure where they were sitting then. We stopped en route for the boys to relieve themselves. On resuming our trip Cpl. Jurek was sitting immediately behind me on the right hand bench. We passed through Sunningdale going at about 30-35 m.p.h. along a straight Class I Rd. I had been knocking my pipe out the window and on looking ahead I saw a stationary truck about 30-35 feet ahead. I shouted the S/Major "Look out-that vehicle is sitting still". As I said that he was turning out to the right to avoid it. The next thing I knew we had side swiped the vehicle and swerved diagonally across the road and ended up at right angles to the front off ise of the stationary tanker our radiator facing it. I got out opened the rear door. Someone handed me a flashlight and I saw S/Sgt Batten and Sgt. Allen huddled on the floor. I felt S/Sgt's Batten pulse and his heart beats which were very faint. I noticed that he had a crushed skull. We carried him out and laid him on the verge of the road. S/Major and I laid out Sgt. Allen in the back of the panel. He was unconscious but breathing and pulse were normal.

Shortly after a policeman, doctor and ambulance arrived. At the request of a police inspector I accompanied the amb. carrying the two injured men to King Edward VII Hospital windsor. One of the resident doctors told me S/Sgt Batten was dead. I identified the body. I gave the usual particulars on both men.

Q. When the S/Maj asked you to accompany them on the trip did you know the purpose of the trip?
A. I knew that S/Sgt Batten, Sgt. Allen and Cpl. Jurek were going on leave but I don't recall anything more about the trip before starting out except that we were going to Staines.

Q. Did you know when their leave passes started?
A. I knew that they started the next morning. I don't know whether they had an overnight pass or not. It is not out of the ordinary for overnight passes to be issued prior to leave.

Q. Did any thought enter your mind as to whether or not this was an authorized regular trip or did you think that the trip was somewhat out of the ordinary?
A. I did not think that the trip was out of the ordinary. There were two senior ranks to me in the vehicle and it was not for me to question them.

Q. When you were outside the mess before stepping into the vehicle did you notice any of the passengers under the influence of liquor?
A. I noticed that all the passengers had been drinking, but none were unduly under the influence.

Q. After you started out were there any remarks passed by any member of the party as to the condition of the vehicle?
A. The S/Maj remarked that the lights were out of focus.

Q. Did you yourself notice any defect in the lights?
A. I noticed that the left beam needed adjustment, as it was turned too far toward the centre of the vehicle.

Q. Did you consider that the lights were safe for night driving?
A. Yes under normal conditions.

Q. Do you consider that S/Maj Ennor drove within the range of his lights?
A. Yes I felt no apprehension at his driving.

Q. What was the average speed during the trip?
A. 30-35 m.p.h.

Q. Is this an estimate?
A. Yes but I base my estimate on 17 years driving experience.

Q. When you first saw the stationary vehicle do you consider that if the brakes had been applied your vehicle could have stopped in time?
A. The brakes might have stopped the vehicle but in the same situation I would have tried to steer the vehicle to the right.

Q. Did you notice any tail light on the stationary vehicle?
A. No I didn't notice it.

Q. How was the visibility along this particular part of the road?
A. It was a clear night but visibility was limited somewhat by the shadow cast by the trees alongside the wall.

Q. What was the condition of the road?
A. It was a dry macadam road.

Q. Do you know the rules governing the application for use of recreational tpt.
A. Yes, application is made through the A.T.O. and Commanding Offr.

Q. Did you consider this a recreational or duty trip?
A. I didn't consider the matter at all as Mr. Ennor is my senior offr.

Q. How do you account for the fact that you were only 30-35 feet away from the stationary tanker when you first saw it?
A. I was shaking my pipe out and I was paying no attention to the road at that moment.

Q. Was there any loud talking, singing or arguments of any kind by the three passengers in the back of the vehicle that would distract the attention of the driver.
A. I don't recall anything out of the ordinary. There was just the normal amount of talking.

Cross examined by Mr. Ennor.

Q. You have stated that all members of the party had been drinking but none were unduly under the influence. Do you include me in this party?
A. I noticed that Mr. Ennor was not visibly under the influence of liquor.

FOURTH WITNESS:

L-22451 M.S.S. Biggin, C.T. No.1 Cdn.Admin Tpt.Coy., RCASC, a soldierof theCdn Army Overseas having been duly sworn states:

I am L-22451 M.S.S. Biggin, C.T. of No.1 Cdn.Adm.Tpt.Coy. RCASC. I was president of the Sgts. Mess from 15 Apr 45 to 15 July 45, and I recognize MSM Ennor, the accused of this Unit.

On the evening of 13 Jun 45 I went into the Mess about 1930 hrs. I noticed that MSM Ennor, S/Sgt.Batten,Sgt. Allen and Cpl.Jurek were seated together at a table. MSM Ennor immediately called me over to the table and asked for another bottle of Whisky to be on sale. I refused and also pointed out to him that the Mess was no place for a Cpl. He replied that Cpl. Jurek had been invited in as a guest by him for a couple of drinks before he went on leave. They all with the exception of the Cpl. kept after me for about a half an hour to put up another bottle. Then S/Sgt. Batten,Sgt. Allen and Cpl. Jurek left the Mess.
In view of the fact they had gone, I thought it would be alright to put out another bottle to save further argument and I instructed the steward to do so.
Sometime later, I had lunch and left the Mess at approx 2145 hrs. As I was leaving, I met S/Sgt. Batten. They had returned as they had missed their train.

Q. Did you notice whether the members of this party were affected by the drinks they had had?
A. They all showed evidence of "feeling their liquor" and I particularly noticed that in Mr. Ennor as he was the only one with whom I spoke. This would be about 2000 hrs.

Q. By MSM Ennor
Are you sure that I was feeling the effects of liquor when I first spoke to you.
A. I would say you were feeling good.

Lieut. W.T. Littler 1 Cdn.Adm.Tpt.Coy RCASC having been duly sworn states:

FIRST WITNESS:

At the time of the accident 13 June 45 I was acting as Officer Comd the Workshops Section. MSM Mnnor was my WO I. All the personnel involved in this accident came directly under me for duty and discipline. I present a Transport Work Ticket for vehicle CV 199139 number 44 dated June 1945, that was signed by MSM Mnnor authorizing a trip to Staines and return. I also recognize MSM Mnnor's signature. Entered as Exhibit "A"

Q. To your knowledge what was the condition of vehicle CV 199139 on 13 June 45
A. The condition of CV 199139 was fair and considered road worthy. The reason for this vehicle being placed in this capacity is that it is a commercial type and not a standard MD. This makes replacements of prts very difficult to procure.
Q. In what condition were the headlights.
A. The headlights were only in fair condition as it is a 1939 model and not being a sealed beam type the reflectors had become tarnished.
Q. What sort of a beam would these lights give and what is your estimate of a safe speed to drive within this beam.
A. I would say that the beam on this vehicle would reach out approx 40 feet and that a safe speed would be 25-30 m.p.h.
Q. What is the max. speed for this type vehicle as laid down by the Army.
A. 30 m.p.h.
Q. What authority has MSM Mnnor had in the signing of work tickets.
A. To my knowledge MSM Mnnor was given permission by the previous O.C. Workshops to sign work tickets for duty trips. I had not changed this order.
Q. In the normal course of events would you have authorized this trip for the parties in question.
A. Owing to the circumstances of this particular trip my answer is NO without first checking with the Adjutant or O.C.
Q. Can you produce an estimate of repairs to CV 199139.
A. Yes, repairs amounted to £23-19-2. I hereby produce a statement of cost of materials needed for repairs and labour.
Exhibit "B"
Q. Can you produce a Road Accident Report covering this accident.
A. I produce hereby a Road Accident Report covering this accident.

On the evening inquestion, I stopped for my hourly tire inspection. It was approximately 12 o'clock p.m. I looked into the rear vision mirror and saw my tail light alight. It was quite plain. At this time I saw the lights of a following vehicle and decided to stay in my lorry until it had passed. It did not, as it hit my vehicle on the back of the chassis. The tanker moved forward half a complete turn, two or three feet. My lorry is very heavy, weighing about 22 tons loaded. My brakes were on the four wheels -- eight tires.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Capt. L.F. Kirpatrick, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Capt. L.F. Kirkpatrick, O.C. "B" Tp, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. The accused, Bdr. Enright, is 2i/c of B.4. Gun. At 2300 hrs, on 20 July 44, I was standing outside "B" Tp Command Post, with T/BSM Kukulski. Bdrs. Enright and McIlreavey approached and asked T/BSM Kukulski if they could speak with him. They walked some distance away, and I heard T/BSM Kukulski tell Bdr. Enright he would be taking over B.4. Gun, since Sgt. Grant had been placed under arrest. An argument ensued and I heard Bdr. Enright say he did not see why he should take charge of B.4, as he thought Sgt. Grant was capable of taking over himself. A few more words were passed, of which I did not hear, and then T/BSM Kukulski placed Bdr. Enright under open arrest, and Bdr. McIlreavey was put in charge of B.4. Gun.

EXAMINED BY PROSECUTION:

Q. Did Bdr. Enright conduct himself unbecoming to an N.C.O.?

A. After he was placed under arrest, he continued to argue with T/BSM Kukulski, and directed personal remarks at T/BSM Kukulski.

Q. Can you give us one or two examples of the actual personal remarks?

A. I did not completely hear any of the remarks that were passed by Bdr. Enright.

Q. Can you give us something definite that Bdr. Enright actually said?

A. No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:-

Q. In what way did Bdr. Enright act that was unbecoming an N.C.O.?

A. By arguing with T/BSM Kukulski.

Q. Do you feel that arguing where there was a lack of a definite order, presumed conduct unbecoming an N.C.O.?

A. Yes, sir.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Lt. W.D. Cook, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Lt. W.D. Cook, Tp Ldr of "B" Tp, 11 Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. The accused Bdr. Enright is an N.C.O. on B.4. Gun. At approximately 2315 hrs on 20 July 44, Capt. Kirkpatrick & T/BSM Kukulski and I, were outside "B" Tp Command Post. Bdr. Enright and another Bdr. came up to us and Bdr. Enright asked T/BSM Kukulski if he might speak to him. The three of them walked away from the Command Post and began to talk. I did not hear what they were saying.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q. By the way they were talking, did you conclude that Bdr. Enright was arguing with T/BSM Kukulski?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see Bdr. Enright conduct himself in any way unbecoming to an N.C.O.?

A. Only in as much as he was arguing with the T/BSM and in my opinion, under some circumstances, this would be proper.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

B.11042 BSM Kukulski, S. having been duly sworn, states:

I am B;11042 T/BSM Kukulski, S., Tp Sgt. Major, of "B" Tp, 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. The accused Bdr. Enright, is 2 i/c of B.4. Gun. On the night of 20 July, after placing the No.1. of B.4. Gun under arrest, I returned back to the Tp Command Post. Shortly afterwards, Bdr. Enright and McIlreavey came over and asked to have a few words with me. We stepped a few paces away from the Command Post and Bdr. Enright asked why Sgt. Grant had been placed under arrest. I told him I though Sgt. Grant should have been put under arrest, & I did so, and asked him if he was going to take over the No.1. of that Gun without any further argument. Bdr. Enright said he thought Sgt. Grant was quite capable of doing that himself. I then placed Bdr. Enright under arrest.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q. Was Sgt. Grant relieved of his duty of i/c B.4, when placed under arrest?

A. He was told to go to his bed, and that gun was not to be in action.

Q. Did you give Bdr. Enright a direct order to take over that gun?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is it necessary for you to give your 2i/c's of Guns a direct order to assume command of a gun, when the Sgt. is relieved of that duty?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did Bdr. Enright cease to argue, when you asked him to take over the gun without further argument?

A. Yes, he ceased to argue, as I walked away.

Q. In your opinion, did Bdr. Enright conduct himself in any way, unbecoming an N.C.O.

Q. Who was the senior Bdr. on B.4?

Mr President, Gentlemen:-

I wish to enter a plea of mitagation for the accused. In regard to the charges laid against him, I wish to draw attention to his condition. His category is MH SS. We cannot doubt the ability of the authority who awarded him this rating

I could give you the details of his background that would have some bearing on his present instability — orphaned at 3, brought up by bickering and impoverished grandparents, joined the army while still 15 and overseas when barely 17 — but his category is all that is necessary to prove that he is not responsible for his actions as you and I are.

It shows that this man is mentally deficient and mentally instable. He is not mentally fit to remain in the Canadian army, yet we are prepared to judge him by army standards. This would seem to be a grave miscarriage of justice.

E* NM

With regard to the first charge, I would like to point out that the accused was in London, 12 hrs after going A.W.L. before he realized the seriousness of his crime and he was afraid to come back.

With regard to the second charge, the accused did not write the pass himself, he obtained it casually from a chance acquaintance. He had no intention of fooling the authorities with it as it was so obviously fraudulent, having as it did ~~the R.C.A.F. stamps on the buttons and~~ R.C.A.F. printed on the top of an army form. His sole reason for accepting this fraudulent pass was to safeguard his innocent hosts from a charge of harboring a deserter in case he were apprehended. The fact that he confessed ~~the~~ his true ~~nature~~ identity to the R.C.A.F. Police bears this out.

The R.C.A.F. uniform, again, was not used with the intention of escaping detection but to impress the girl whom he had met some time previously, and on being invited to be their guest for his next leave he showed up in the RCAF uniform to bear out the story he had previously told the girl, that he was in the RCAF. It was on the first day of his alleged privilege leave that he obtained the fraudulent pass to show her parents.

In concluding my plea, I wish to ask for leniency for the accused. On the first & third charges on the grounds that he was not fully responsible for his actions, and on the ~~third~~ second charge on the grounds that his act was less a crime than an act of gallantry and gratitude to protect his ~~sinister~~ benefactors.

Signed this 14 day of Nov. Aug 44

Sir,

On 1st November, 1944, at 21.15 hours, I investigated a complaint re Sgt. JOHNSON, R.C.A.F., living at 12, Fairwall House, Peckham Road, Camberwell, London.

I checked his pass (attached) which did not appear to be in order, so I took him to R.C.A.F. Police Headquarters and interrogated him. He admitted that he was Pte. EHRENDT, P.R., and was A.W.L. from the Canadian Army.

Pte. EHRENDT was posing as a R.C.A.F. Sergeant and was wearing khaki battledress with R.C.A.F. Sergeants' chevrons and a R.C.A.F. field service cap when apprehended.

Pte. EHRENDT was turned over to the Canadian Provost S.I.B. at 22.45 hours, under close arrest.

Medical Officers Certificate
K. R. (Can) para 567

I certify that I have this morning examined No. A-1194[illegible] Name & Rank of Perth Regt and in my opinion he is ~~unfit~~ fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

Date 13 Jan 43

Medical Officer

Trial of A/1944, Pte. P.P. Enright, 2 C.I.R.V. Perth Regt.

Note A-8

When the accused was arraigned upon the third charge, the Defending Officer made a plea under K.R. 36 that the accused had previously been punished for this offence. His appointment of L/Corporal had been terminated by his C.O., and he was reverted to Private. The Defending Officer produced a charge sheet covering the offence in the third charge and stated that there is written on it in the handwriting of Lieut Col. J Fletcher the following words "reverted to the ranks as ~~unsatisfactory~~ unsatisfactory". The charge to be ~~attached~~ added to Court Martial charges". The prosecutor states that the Charge Sheet shows what happened when the accused was before his C.O. on that charge. The Charge Sheet was marked "Exhibit One" by the Court. The Defending Officer refered to para 1113 K.R.&O. (Can) and stated that regardless of what was said on the Charge Sheet it was clear that the reversion to Private was a punishment for the offence mentioned in the third charge.

The Prosecutor replied ~~by~~ by stating:

The accused was not punished for the offence, but because he was unsatisfactory as a L/Corporal as stated on the Charge Sheet.

The Court adjourned to consider the plea.

The Court reopened

The President announced that it finds the plea proven which finding would be notified

Trial of A11941, Pte. P.R. ~~Enright~~ Enright, 2 C.I.R.C.,

Plea of Defending Officer in mitigation:

He attended Public School in Stratford, Ontario, being there eight years but only got into the second book. His lack in progress in school is due to sickness and probably to him being backward with the result that he is unable to read and write. He gets a room mate to write home for him and to read his letters for him. He left school at the age of 14. He worked several months on a soft drink truck. At the age of 16, he joined the Army not giving his correct age. He enlisted in the Canadian Army on 15 Jan 41 and has served in many centres in Canada. He got into trouble several times caused by the influence of others as in each case he was found with someone else. It is clear that he could be easily led by older men. He arrived in England in November 1942 and joined the Perth Regt. He went A.W.L. for six days and was given ~~six~~ months detention. At 2 C.R.D. he had to repeat Basic Training. He was recommended to be a L/Cpl which showed improvement on his part. He learnt that the Perth Regt was leaving England, and he was anxious to be with them. He claims that he asked for leave but was refused. His last seven days leave was in April 1943. His purpose in going A.W.L. was to see if someone in the Perth Regt would claim him and get him into the Perth Regt again. This will explain the statement he made to the military police. The Perth Regt had been stationed at Hove but finding the Perths had moved he decided that he might as well make a stay of it and remain until apprehended. The accused is of neat appearance and has proved his ability because he was made a L/Corporal. I ask the Court to take all these circumstances into consideration and to be lenient in awarding the sentence.

Sir,

At Brighton on the 3 Dec 43 about 2000 hrs I was on duty in the Castle Inn, P.H. Castle Square where I saw the above named soldier. He was a suspected absentee. He was conducted to the Brighton Police Station for interrogation. This N.C.O. stated that he was not absent from his unit, and was stationed at Hove. The location was endeavoured to obtain, but with no succes, it appears that they had moved sometimex previous. After further questioning the N.C.O. stated that he had been left behind with a rear party. This was found also to be not true. His particulars were obtained, and he was conducted to Preston Barracks and detained.

In the hallway of ground billet we have a notice board, each day the guard is named by a notice put on this board as a rule the notice is posted at 1600 hrs the day previous to the guard mounting. If it is not posted at that time, this is done by 0830 hrs the following morning all personnel in the unit are aware of this method.

This practice has been in force since 1941. It was possible that at sometime it has been posted after 0830 hrs. It is not a practice to give a personal warning as well.

Accused has been on guard duty roughly 26 times in the last three months. Accused's name was posted on board each time.

Cross-examined

We do not publish part I orders ourselves.
All extras are posted as well as duties on the notice board.
It is not usual to have it posted in the morning as well as the day before. On the morning of 12th Dec I saw there was a guard list posted on the board. The accused name was on that list. The guard always mounts at the same time 1600 hrs.
I was present at 1600 hr at guard mounting. The accused was not present.
I made a mark for the accused at that time he was not in the camp area. I did not give him permission or a pass to be absent from duties by Defence.
I did not post this list myself. I inspected the board at 0930 hrs and the list was posted.
I do not know where that list is now. I cannot say it was ~~not~~ posted before 0830 hrs.
I don't know if the accused had been warned that morning or not. The duty N.C.O. would warn him if anyone ~~did~~ had. It is correct that the accused was outside the building some place in the area. The men are allowed out in B.A. area up until 2300 hrs without a pass. Lt Eastwell Capt

Question by defence:

There was a possibility that the Lone Tree of a misunderstanding because there was a rumour that the Carbon Yoke were taking over guard duty from the Lone Tree on Saturday, this is the reason I did not post the list until Saturday morning, until I checked up on it. The reason for this rumour was that we understood we were going on the ranges.

The morning before I posted the list on the Tower I heard someone holler that Jay Parade was going to be a bit early. I posted the list at 7 AM. of the 13th The men that were going on guard that day were not warned during Jay Parade.

The guard list of the 12th to 14th was destroyed I did this on the 14th between 1200 hrs and 1900 hrs.

Sgt Conway stated that the accused absconded his billets and asked it be reported in at 1630 hrs on the 14th

Pte. Burgden said it was announced for a N.C.O. to call out the names for guard duty, which shows that there must have been some reason. He further stated that he did not see the accused name on the guard list.

The accused claimed he looked at the board in the morning and there was no list there and that he was not detailed.

Closing address by prosecution:

Lieut. Comdr. stated that orders were usually posted on the evening before the detail was requested. I submit that those orders are in fact part of orders. The mans duty is to read all orders and the fact that he received no personal warning it is no departure from a procedure which has been in force over a year. I submit that the ignorance is no excuse.

Summary of Evidence in the Case of
G 27410 private Thomas Andrew Enwright

First Witness for the Prosecution: T 34811 C.S.M. Melville Chester Peever. having been duly sworn States I am T 34811 C.S.M. Peever of Lorne Scots 3 Can Inf Bde Defence platoon.

The normal procedure in the warning of men for guard duties is as follows.

On the afternoon of the day preceding the guard in question a list of names of men comprising that guard is posted on the notice board in the defence platoon billets. On some occasions due to the pressure of work it is not possible to post the guard list the night before and in these cases the list is posted by 0830 hrs on the day of the guard. This procedure of posting the names of men warned for guard duties has been in operation since November 1941.

On the morning of the 12 Dec 42 at approx 0930 hrs I read the guard list of men who were to go on guard at 1600 hrs on the 12 Dec 42 and noticed that pte Enwright's name appeared there.

At approx 1500 hrs on the 12 Dec 42 the duty NCO ~~L/Cpl Thompson~~ advised me that he could not locate pte Enwright in the billets. I checked all the rooms in the defence platoon billets at that time and could not locate pte Enwright.

In view of the fact that the guard room is at present being repaired the procedure has been for the guard personnel to stay in their rooms from where they are called by the duty NCO to take over the post detailed to them. At 1600 hrs I went to the guard room along with the duty NCO. Pte Enwright was not in his room. I then checked all the rooms and camp area but could not find pte Swinright. I detailed another man to take over the guard detail

At approx 1700 hrs on the 14 Dec 42 I again checked pte Swinrights room and found him present

Question by the accused: Did you not say about two days prior to the 12 Dec 42 that there would be no guards on Saturday, Sunday, Monday & Tuesday.
Answer: I said that there would be no guards on Sunday Monday & Tuesday but I do not recall saying that there would be none on the Saturday question 2 by the accused: Is it possible that you might have included Saturday in your statement Ans 2 - Yes it is posible.

M. L. Peters D & M.

The accused has no further questions

Next witness for the prosecution: J34730 Sgt Ralph Douglas Connolly, having been duly sworn states I am J34730 sgt R.D. Connolly of the Home Scots I Can Inf Bde Defence Platoon. On Friday evening approximately the 11 Dec I returned from 48 hr pass and found that the guard list for the 12 Dec 42 was not posted. I started to make up the list but as I understood that the Carleton & York Regiment were taking over the guard on Saturday I did not complete the list but waited until approx 0745-0800 hrs on 14 dec when I found out from the CSM that the C&Y were not taking over until Sunday. I completed the list and posted it on the notice board in the Defence platoon billets at ~~noon~~ between 0800 and 0830 hrs on the 14 Dec. On the evening of the 11 Dec I entered the names of the guard personnel in the duty Roster book. Pte Swinrights name was on the list and is entered in the duty roster.

~~at~~ Between 1630 and 1705 hrs on the 1st Dec 42
I had occasion to go to Pte Smiths room to see another pte and found pte Smith in his room. We talked for a while and he asked me to check him in at the orderly Room. I came to the orderly room and reported his presence to the duty NCO.

Q1 by the accused: Is the guard list not always posted on the night before the guard commences.
A1 - As a rule it is but on this occasion I had to wait and find out whether or not the Coy were taking over the guard duties
Q2 By the accused - Did you hear, Sgt Connolly, about three days before the guard of Saturday 1st Dec that the Coy were taking over guard duties and that there would be no guards for the defence plan on Saturday Sunday Monday & Tuesday.
A2 Yes but it was general rumour and I did not hear it officially Q3 - Was my name on the regimental list at the start or was some one elses name crossed out and mine put on.
A3 It was entered on the list ~~to~~ when the list was made up.

F34930
Sgt R. D. Connolly

The accused has no further questions.

Third witness for the prosecution: B51995 pte Gordon Bugden after having been sworn states: I am ~~pte~~ B51995 pte
G. Bugden of the Lorne Scots 3 Can Inf Bde Defence platoon. On the morning of Saturday 1st Dec 42 just shortly after reveille I heard one of the NCO's reading out in the hallway of the billet, the names of the men who were detailed for guard duty on the 1st Dec 42

Later on in the day I looked on the Order board in the billets and saw the guard list for Saturday 1st Dec. My name was down for the first shift.

Q1 by accused - What do you mean by "shortly after reveille"

A1 - Between 0630 hrs and 0700 hrs.

Q2 by accused: What N.C.O. was calling out the list of names

A2 - I do not know but I presume it was the duty N.C.O.

J37885 Pte. J. Coghlan

The accused does not wish to ask any further question.

The accused having been duly warned in accordance with R.P. 4(c) makes the following statement

On the night of the 11th Dec 42 it was generally being discussed in the billets that there would be no guard on Saturday Sunday Monday or Tuesday as I was planning to go out Saturday afternoon I came upstairs and looked to see if any guards or other duties had been posted. I looked again before going to bed and still there were none posted. I looked again in the morning sometime between 0800 and 0830 hrs and there were still no duties posted so I presumed the Corps were taking over the duties on Saturday and so I went out Saturday around 1300 hrs.

At this stage it is ruled by the Court, Defending Officer and Prosecutor agreeing, that the provisions of R.P. 83 (8) need not be complied with in respect of the witnesses

The Prosecutor makes the following opening address:

May it please the court I would like to read an extract from standing orders as an opening address - -

Court - I don't know if that is proper at the moment. That can be proved when the case comes on. As an opening address I think you should give the court an idea of what you intend to prove and what evidence you intend to adduce on behalf of the prosecution towards this charge. I have before me and have had for some days a summary of the evidence. I know what is going on. Presumably the members of the court do not. They have no idea what this whole thing is about. You can say what witnesses you are going to call and how you are going to prove this charge

Prosecutor - Well, on behalf of the prosecution I intend to call five witnesses in order to prove that the accused L/Cpl Erasmus was on duty on No. 5 beat on Coventry Street on the 18th of September and that he did have a soldier committed to his charge and without reasonable excuse let him get away.

1st Witness for the Prosecution, B.73546 Cpl. Hayes, S. G., No. 6 Pvst Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 5 - Cpl. Hayes do you recognize the accused in this room?
A. 5 - Yes, sir
Q. 6 - Will you state his name please?
A. 6 - L/Cpl Erasmus, sir
Q. 7 - Cpl. Hayes, what was your duty on the 18th September 1942 - that is, in what capacity did you act?
A. 7 - I was then Orderly Corporal, sir. I took over the night parades and detailed them for duty, sir
Q. 8 - Did you detail the accused for any particular duty that night?
A. 8 - Yes, sir
Q. 9 - What was that duty?
A. 9 - I detailed L/Cpl Erasmus and L/Cpl Nelson, B. A. to No. 5 Beat, Coventry Street at 1845 hours
Q.10 - Who, in your opinion, was the senior of these two men?
A.10 - L/Cpl Erasmus, sir

Court - Just a minute now. "In your opinion" - I don't think that is proper. Who was the senior man?

Q.11 - Who was the senior of these two men?
A.11 - L/Cpl Erasmus, sir

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.12 - Corporal, from the time that L/Cpl Erasmus and his assistant went out would they have to report to anyone during the course of the evening?
A.12 - No, sir
Q.13 - Was there no check on the patrols at all?
A.13 - Yes, sir, we have visiting N.C.O's that go around and visit each patrol as they come to them on their own beats
Q.14 - Would it be a normal procedure for the patrol to state an approximate time when they might see the N.C.O's on duty again?
A.14 - No, sir, they just visit them when they can because sometimes they are held up and there is no specified time to visit them.
Q.15 - Would it be possible for some arrangement to have been made between the patrol and inspecting patrol?
A.15 - I wouldn't know that, sir

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, P.C. 233 Harold Horner, Metropolitan Police, West End Central Police Station, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.16 - Mr. Horner, do you recognize the accused in this room?
A.16 - Yes
Q.17 - Will you state his name please?
A.17 - Erasmus - L/Cpl Erasmus
Q.18 - Will you tell me in your own words Mr. Horner what happened on the night of Sep 18th at approximately 2200 hours?
A.18 - I had arrested a soldier for robbery at about 1010 P.M. He became violent and struggled and a Grenadier Guards Sergeant came to my assistance. Shortly after, L/Cpl Erasmus appeared with another patrol and offered his assistance. As I had to trace the loser in the case I turned over the prisoner to him and impressed on him the gravity of the charge and then went away to trace the loser. I was unable to trace him and on returning a few minutes later I found Erasmus and his companion and the prisoner was missing and the Grenadier Guard Sergeant said that he was waiting for me over the road. I searched the spot indicated and couldn't find any trace of Erasmus or the prisoner and a few minutes later I went into Lyon's Corner House and saw Erasmus with his companion seated at a table. They got up on my approach and I said to him "Where is the soldier?" and he said "He escaped". He then agreed to accompany me to the West End Central Police Station and away we went

Q.19 - What were these two lance-corporals doing at the table in Lyons Corner House?

A.19 - They were seated at the table as I entered

Q.20 - Were they eating or were they not?

A.20 - There was crockery on the table

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.21 - Constable, your first words when you began to give evidence were that you arrested a soldier. Is that correct?

A.21 - Yes, sir

Q.22 - Now, then after having arrested him what was your next move? What did you then do?

A.22 - After arresting him I passed him into the custody of Erasmus and his companion

Q.23 - Let us go back a bit. To begin I believe you said that this soldier ran away and you chased after him?

A.23 - Yes, sir, that did happen

Q.24 - And then you brought him back to the scene of the occurrence?

A.24 - Yes

Q.25 - Then when he arrived back at the scene of the occurrence what took place then?

A.25 - A man who was there said "He is the man; he stole my wallet". The soldierI was holding then became very violent saying "The dirty bastard - let me get at him" and it seemed to be a pretext to escape from custody

Q.26 - He was not violent, though, until he was confronted with the civilian was he?

A.26 - No, he was not violent. He struggled a little when I caught him. Until I got a grip on him he did struggle

Q.27 - But he didn't really become violent until he was confronted with the civilian?

A.27 - No

Q.28 - Is it possible that the words of the civilian might have had something to do with that condition of violence which began to take place at that particular time?

A.28 - That is the man from whom he took the wallet?

Q.29 - Yes

A.29 - It is possible, sir

Q.30 - Now, after the disturbance took place and you turned, as you say, the prisoner over to Cpl. Erasmus here did the prisoner make any statement concerning the statement of the complainant?

A.30 - I heard him addressing remarks about the conduct of the complainant

Q.31 - About the conduct of the complainant?

A.31 - Yes, sir

Q.32 - What were those remarks?

A.32 - Well, they inferred that the complainant - -

Court - Now, just a minute. Mr. Fidler asked you what the remarks were - not what they inferred

A.32 (con) - "The dirty bastard wanted me to mess about with him and this is what I get"

Q.33 - Now, you say that in the first instance you arrested this soldier?
A.33 - Yes, sir
Q.34 - Did you at any time subsequent to his arrest and up to the time that you turned him over to Cpl. Erasmus, did you tell Cpl. Erasmus that you had arrested him?
A.34 - Yes, sir, not in exact words but I said "I am taking this man to West End Central Police Station; he has committed a robbery" "He has had a man's wallet".
Q.35 - But you didn't actually tell Cpl. Erasmus or the corporal who was with him that you had placed him under arrest?
A.35 - Not in those words, sir
Q.36 - Would it be possible that you just said "Here, look after this chap while I go away for a minute"?
A.36 - No, sir
Q.37 - Now, you say that after you turned - - I believe your words here were that after you asked him to hold the soldier you proceeded away from the scene of the disturbance?
A.37 - No, sir, not from the scene
Q.38 - What was your reason for leaving the soldier in the first place?
A.38 - To trace the loser
Q.39 - Did it ever occur to you, constable, that any man having had his wallet taken on the street would be missing at the time when the alleged robber was brought back?
A.39 - He was not missing sir
Q.40 - Did you locate him?
A.40 - Yes, sir
Q.41 - When did you locate him?
A.41 - On my return with the soldier
Q.42 - But you said that after that you left again after you returned with the soldier?
A.42 - I lost sight of the loser then
Q.43 - And when you lost sight of him you went to look for him again did you?
A.43 - Yes, sir
Q.44 - Did you find him that time?
A.44 - No, sir
Q.45 - Didn't it occur to you, constable, that it was rather peculiar for one man charging another with robbery of a wallet particularly which would likely indicate some money in connection with it for him to be missing?
A.45 - Not under certain circumstances, sir
Q.46 - What circumstances would lead you to leave the scene of the incident?
A.46 - Well, if I had experienced shame at my conduct being revealed
Q.47 (Court) - You are referring now to the civilian chap who lost his wallet?
A.47 - Yes, sir, as an explanation of his not staying there
Q.48 - A person who has ordinarily lost a wallet would not have any sense of shame would he?
A.48 - No, sir
Q.49 (Court) - Now, then why did you say that?
A.49 - Well, it appeared from what was said at the scene that immoral relations had been going on or had been contemplated between the soldier and the civilian
Q.50 - The immoral relations were possible on whose part constable?
A.50 - Well I should say instigated - - Well, I couldn't say, sir
Q.51 - What was the indication given to you by the soldier?
A.51 - Resentment - he showed resentment
Q.52 - And you say that the civilian was missing finally?
A.52 - Finally, yes sir
Q.53 - Now, would it have been possible during the time that the statement was made by the soldier that Cpl. Erasmus would have overheard that statement?

Court - Now, let us get this clear. I don't want to interrupt. Have I got the story so far? The story is that a soldier and a civilian had some sort of a discussion and a squabble on Cranbourne Street near Leicester Square as a result of which this constable arrived on the scene of the scuffle and took in charge the soldier. He thought there was some need for arrest and he says that he was a prisoner. He arrested the soldier for robbery and then he handed him over to these two, Erasmus and this other soldier from the provost as a prisoner. Now, then in this charge the reason for the arrest or what went before it or any argument between a civilian and the soldier whoever he was has nothing whatever to do with this case I don't think. It is irrelavant. It is the fact that this was a soldier who had been arrested and taken in charge by the Constable - Horner and handed over to the Provosts Erasmus and his other man. Why or what preceded that I don't think has any effect on this charge at all. There may have been reason for this man being annoyed and the charge may have been false against him but I don't think that affects this charge. I am quite willing to allow you to continue your line of cross-examination but I thought I would warn you.

Q.54 - Very good, sir. I have one remaining question then constable or a couple of remaining questions. One is, did you tell Cpl. Erasmus that the soldier was under arrest?

A.54 - Yes, sir

Q.55 - Did you see subsequent to that time what happened between the soldier and Cpl. Erasmus?

A.55 - No, sir

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.56 - It may be irrelevant but was the wallet actually produced at any time?

A.56 - No, sir

Q.57 - It was never seen?

A.57 - No, sir

Q.58 - You were on duty in Leicester Square?

A.58 - Yes, sir

Q.59 - Were you alone?

A.59 - Yes, sir

Q.60 - And what directed your attention to this scuffle or whatever it was in Cranbourne Street?

A.60 - Well, I saw a lot of people, sir. They left the Gardens in Leicester Square and the crowd grew larger when they saw the struggle going on

Q.61 - In other words you thought it was a fight?

A.61 - A scuffle - yes, sir

Q.62 - Across the road?

A.62 - Yes, sir

Q.63 - How far from where you would be?

A.63 - The width of the road, sir, about 30' sir

Q.64 - It was dark?

A.64 - Moonlight, sir, but after blackout

Q.65 - One of those clear bright nights?

A.65 - It was not brilliant, sir

Q.66 - But anyway you saw this crowd?

A.66 - Yes, sir

Q.67 - And you found there in the midst of the crowd two struggling people?

A.67 - No, sir, I heard this voice "He has gotmy wallet - stop him"

Q.68 - You heard a shout?

A.68 - Yes, sir, then a soldier broke away from the crowd and ran into Leicester Square. I ran after him and caught him

Q.69 - How far did you have to run?

A.69 - About 100 yards, sir

Q.70 - And how was this chap dressed - in battle dress or kilts?

A.70 - Battle dress, sir

Q.71 - What type of headgear?

A.71 - Without a hat, sir. He had a Toronto Scottish shoulder flash

Q.72 - How did you know that?

A.72 - I put my light on, sir and he turned his shoulder. There was an arrow also. His hat was missing but it was subsequently found and handed to him but I would not say who by

Q.73 - Someone handed him his hat?
A.73 - Yes, sir, it was found in Leicester Square Gardens with the complainant's hat

Q.74 - Whereabouts?
A.74 - On a seat on the north side near this street - Cranbourne St.
Q.75 - Cranbourne Street is where?
A.75 - It runs from Leicester Square to Charing Cross Road
Q.76 - That is the little street on the southeast corner?
A.76 - No, sir, on the northeast corner passing the Hippodrome Theatre

Q.77 - Well, in any event this disturbance happened on Cranbourne Street. You went over and as you went over someone shouted "Stop him, he's got my wallet". What did he say?

A.77 - "Stop him, he has got my wallet"
Q.78 - Anyway a soldier broke away and you caught him in Leicester Square Gardens?
A.78 - Not in the Gardens, sir, - on the street around the gardens
Q.79 - How did you catch him?
A.79 - I jumped on him from the back
Q.80 - And you fell down?
A.80 - No, we didn't actually fall. I got a grip on him. He struggled a little and I got a grip on him and mastered him

Q.81 - Then what was said?
A.81 - I said "Come back with me until I see what is going on". He didn't reply to that; he was winded and I took him back to the scene and - -

Q.82 - Was the crowd still there?
A.82 - Yes, sir, the people were still there
Q.83 - 15 or 20 people?
A.83 - About 15 people, sir and a man there - -
Q.84 - Now, did you know this man?
A.84 - I had never seen him before. I heard his voice
Q.85 - But when you arrived there you had your flashlight I presume?
A.85 - Yes, and it was moonlight. You could discern features almost Q.86 - Did you recognize this civilian at all?
A.86 - No, sir
Q.87 - Now, then, what was said?
A.87 - The civilian said "That is the man who has got my wallet" and the soldier became very violent

Q.88 - And what did he say?
A.88 - He said "Let me get at the bastard. He wanted me to mess about with him"and he became very violent and we struggled on the ground

Q.89 - Oh, you fell down?
A.89 - Yes, me and the Grenadier sergeant
Q.90 - When did he first appear?
A.90 - I had had dealings with him earlier. At the time, of course, I was standing on the pavement with a drunk. He was already assisting me and he was calling the wagon to pick up an America soldier

Q.91 - And you were standing with the Grenadier Guard Soldier?
A.91 - I was standing with this drunk and the Guards Sergeant was away calling a wagon

Q.92 - Then he came back and you were struggling on the ground with this Canadian soldier on Cranbourne Street?

A.92 - That's right, sir
Q.93 - That was immediately after or a short time after the civilian said "That is him. He got my wallet" and the crowd was still around?

A.93 - Yes, sir. The Guards Sergeant took hold of the other side of the soldier and we got to our feet and then Cpl. Krasmus and his companion came on the scene

Q.94 - Now, then, Krasmus and another provost came on the scene?
A.94 - Yes, sir
Q.95 - What was said and what was done right then?

A.95 - Erasmus said "What is this?" and I said "I am taking this man to West End Central Police Station; he has stolen a wallet from a man we found here. Will you hold him whilst I look around for the man?"

Q.96 - Now, wait a minute. At any time during this scuffle did you tell the soldier that he was put under arrest?

A.96 - Tell the soldier?

Q.97 - Yes

A.97 - Yes, sir

Q.98 - When did you do that?

A.98 - When I seized him and took him back I said to him "We will go back and see what this is about" and then when the civilian said "That is the man" I said "We are all going to West End Central Police Station"

Q.99 - Is that all you said?

A.99 - That is right, sir

Q.100 - Is that all that you said to him?

A.100 - Yes, sir

Q.101 - In other words you didn't say to this Canadian Soldier "You are under arrest charged with having stolen a wallet from this civilian" or anything like that?

A.101 - No, I didn't have time to put it formally as he commenced to struggle

Q.102 - Then in other words you hadn't told the soldier himself in so many words that he was under arrest?

A.102 - No, sir, not verbally

Q.103 - Well, you couldn't tell him any other way

A.103 - No, sir, but I could convey it

Q.104 - You either have to do it verbally or by a telegram or letter or something?

A.104 - Yes, sir

Q.105 - Therefore, we must let it go at that that the soldier had not been told he was under arrest although in your mind you chased him and caught him and heard some person shout "That is the man. He has got my wallet" and you had him under arrest?

A.105 - Yes

Q.106 - Well, you call him a prisoner here?

A.106 - Yes, sir, I considered him a prisoner and treated him as a prisoner

Q.107 - Well, now, Erasmus and Nelson came along. Just repeat again what happened then?

A.107 - Erasmus said "What is this?" or "What is going on?" and I said "This man has stolen a man's wallet"

Q.108 - You said to Erasmus "This soldier - -

A.108 - "Has stolen a man's wallet"

Q.109 - You didn't know that but that is what you told him?

A.109 - Yes, sir. "He will have to go to West End Central Police Station. Will you hold him whilst I find the man?"

Q.110 - Now what happened?

A.110 - Erasmus took hold of the prisoner - -

Q.111 - How do you mean "took hold of the prisoner"?

A.111 - Well, took hold of the prisoner's arm

Q.112 - How?

A.112 - Took hold of him by the left wrist and the Guard Sergeant was holding the other arm

Q.113 - Now, there was yourself, the Toronto Scottish chap, Erasmus and Nelson and the Grenadier Guard Sergeant - altogether five of you?

A.113 - Yes, sir

Q.114 - After you had said this to Erasmus, Erasmus took this Toronto Scottish man by the left wrist. How?

A.114 - With his right hand he took hold of the prisoner's left wrist

Q.115 - Was he still struggling violently?

A.115 - Well, he was not struggling at that time

Q.116 - Was he struggling to get away or to get at this civilian chap?

A.116 - Prior to that, sir. Well, sir, I couldn't say as to that,

sir.
Q.117 - Was he trying to escape from you or was he so annoyed that he was trying to get at this civilian chap to lick him?
A.117 - He gave me the impression, sir, that he was trying to escape
Q.118 - Now, then, you say the Grenadier Guard Sergeant took him by the left arm?
A.118 - He was holding the soldier's right arm
Q.119 - Now, then, what took place? If there was anything done or said I want you to tell us that?
A.119 - I said to Erasmus "This man has stolen a man's wallet in the crowd. Will you hold him? I mean to take him to West End Central Police Station" and he took hold of the prisoner and then I left to search for the loser
Q.120 - Now, where did you go?
A.120 - Well, we were just on the fringe of the people gathered there and I went among the people on the scene within a radius of 10 yards looking for this civilian
Q.121 - And it was still bright moonlight?
A.121 - Yes
Q.122 - Were you using your torch?
A.122 - Yes, I was
Q.123 - And you just went out in the crowd?
A.123 - Yes, sir
Q.124 - And how long were you away actually from Erasmus and the prisoner and the Grenadier Guard Sergeant?
A.124 - I would say four minutes, sir
Q.125 - How far would you go in that four minutes and where would you go?
A.125 - Just amongst the people, sir, within a radius of 30 yards, sir
Q.126 - And did you question any people?
A.126 - Yes, sir, I failed to find out where this man had gone by appealing to bystanders
Q.127 - And he had completely disappeared?
A.127 - Yes, sir
Q.128 - Then what did you do?
A.128 - I returned to where I had left the soldier with Erasmus and they were not there. The Grenadier Guard Sergeant was - -
Q.129 - Now, just a minute. When you left the group Erasmus had the Toronto Scottish prisoner by the left wrist and the Guard Sergeant by the right arm when you left him?
A.129 - Yes, sir
Q.130 - When you got back there you found the Guard Sergeant there?
A.130 - Yes, sir
Q.131 - Crowd still there?
A.131 - They had dispersed, sir
Q.132 - Then what happened? You said something to the Guard Sergeant. Now Erasmus was not there?
A.132 - No, sir
Q.133 - Then you can't repeat what the Guard Sergeant said
A.133 - No, sir, that's right.
Q.134 - Anyway as a consequence of what was said between you and the Guard Sergeant what happened?
A.134 - I searched the other side of the road
Q.135 - Was that in Cranbourne Street?
A.135 - Yes sir -- without results
Q.136 - How did you search? What did you do?
A.136 - I looked around the vicinity, the other side of the road and the vicinity and was unable to find Erasmus or the soldier arrested. About ten minutes or so later I went into Lyons Corner House
Q.137 - You went along past Leicester Square to Lyons Corner House in Coventry Street?
A.137 - Yes, sir, and saw Erasmus and Nelson seated at a table
Q.138 - On the ground floor?
A.138 - Yes, sir
Q.139 - Now, you usually go in that Lyons Corner House off Coventry Street?
A.139 - Yes, sir

Q.140 - And it is the first door on the right past the corner?
A.140 - Yes, sir
Q.141 - As you go along towards Piccadilly Circus it would be the first door on your right?
A.141 - Yes, sir
Q.142 - And as I remember there are tables on the right and right on through?
A.142 - Yes, sir
Q.143 - Where were they?
A.143 - Seated at a table on the right. It was an unused part of the restaurant at that time
Q.144 - Do you know of your own knowledge what time that portion of the restaurant closes?
A.144 - No, sir
Q.145 - Does it close at nine o'clock or ten o'clock or what?
A.145 - It closes in the evening, sir
Q.146 - Now, did they have their hats off?
A.146 - No, sir
Q.147 - Both Erasmus and Nelson were sitting at a table. Were other people sitting at tables too?
A.147 - No, sir
Q.148 - Were there chairs on top of some of the tables?
A.148 - No, sir, the tables were empty and it was not in a public part for the time being
Q.149 - Were there waitresses around?
A.149 - No, sir
Q.150 - In other words Erasmus and Nelson were sitting in a vacant part of the restaurant at a vacant table?
A.150 - Yes, sir
Q.151 - Something was said about crockery on the table. Any evidence of their having been drinking tea?
A.151 - No, sir, that was the only table with crockery, sir. There were quite a number of tables there
Q.152- Do you know of your own knowledge whether they had been eating and drinking or not?
A.152 - I couldn't say, sir
Q.153 - Now you and the Guard Sergeant came in and saw these two at the table and no waitresses around or anything?
A.153 - Yes, sir
Q.154 - Now, what was said by you in the presence of Erasmus?
A.154 - Erasmus got up and met me and I said to him "Where is the soldier?" and he said "He got away"
Q.155 - All four of you were there?
A.155 - Yes, sir
Q.156 - That is Nelson, Erasmus and the Guard Sergeant and yourself?
A.156 - Yes, sir. I said "This is a very unsatisfactory position and would require some explanation" and asked him if he would accompany me to the West End Central Police Station and he agreed to do so which we did Q.157 - Where is West End Central Police Station?
A.157 - Saville Row, sir, just off Regent Street and we adjourned to West End Central Police Station
Q.158 - All four of you?
A.158 - Yes, sir
Q.159 - The Guard Sergeant too?
A.159 - Yes, sir, he agreed to go as a witness of the occurrence and there they were seen by the Station Officer
Q.160 - What was his name?
A.160 - Inspector Pitt
Q.161 - Were you there?
A.161 - No, sir
Q.162 - Now you have mentioned "This is a very serious thing" or something or other. What did you say to Erasmus at Lyons Corner House?
A.162 - I said to him "Where is the soldier?". He said "He got away" and I said to him "That is a very unsatisfactory state of affairs; I had him in custody for robbery" and he didn't make any reply to that, sir
Q.163 - Now, then, you went from there to away over on Saville Row?

A.163 - Yes, sir
Q.164 - Did you walk with Erasmus?
A.164 - Yes, sir
Q.165 - Was the Grenadier Guard Sergeant behind with Nelson or where were they?
A.165 - We sort of made our way through the people, sir. It was very crowded
Q.166 - Did you talk to Erasmus on the way or did you hear any conversation by Erasmus on the way?
A.166 - Not relevant to this occurrence, sir
Q.167 - Now, when you got to the Police Station what happened there?
A.167 - No, sir, he didn't make any statement beyond saying that he got away
Q.168 - But you made some statement didn't you?
A.168 - I made a written statement, sir
Q.169 - When you got there?
A.169 - I showed them into the waiting room
Q.170 - You simply said "Will you stay here?" or what?
A.170 - I directed them to the waiting room and said "Will you wait in here?"
Q.171 - Where did you go?
A.171 - I went to the office to report to the Station Officer, Inspector Pitt
Q.172 - Who was in an inner office, I presume?
A.172 - Yes, sir
Q.173 - What took place then?
A.173 - I explained to him - -
Q.174 - You explained to Inspector Pitt the whole question?
A.174 - Yes, sir. Then in consequence of a message an officer from the Provost Corps came. It was the R.S.M.
Q.175 - I thought you said Inspector Pitt talked to Erasmus
A.175 - Yes, he took his personal particulars, sir
Q.176 - Now, wait a minute. You were there when Inspector Pitt was talking to Erasmus weren't you? In the outer room?
A.176 - In the Interview Room, sir
Q.177 - Now, all I know is this, that you left him in the Waiting Room and went in to Inspector Pitt and told him of the event. Now what happened from there on? Were you with him?
A.177 - I was with him
Q.178 - What was said?
A.178 - Inspector Pitt took the particulars of - -
Q.179 - What was said please?
A.179 - Inspector Pitt said to Erasmus "What is your name and number and regimental particulars?" They were taken down by Inspector Pitt
Q.180 - Right there in the waiting room?
A.180 - Yes, sir
Q.181 - On what?
A.181 - In writing, sir
Q.182 - On a pad or book or what?
A.182 - On a pad, sir
Q.183 - Now, then, what else happened - anything else said then?
A.183 - Nothing was said then
Q.184 - By you or the Guard Sergeant or anybody?
A.184 - Not in the presence of Erasmus, sir
Q.185 - Merely Inspector Pitt said "What is your name and number" and did Erasmus say anything or produce his paybook?
A.185 - He produced his paybook, sir
Q.186 - He didn't say anything at all - just produced the paybook?
A.186 - Yes, sir
Q.187 - Now, what was done after that or what was said?
A.187 - Nothing else was said in my presence, sir - nothing relevant to the occurrence
Q.188 - If it was said in the presence of Erasmus or Erasmus said it before someone else we would like to hear it because we might think it was relevant
A.188 - Well, Inspector Pitt took his particulars and left
Q.189 - Then there was just the four of you?
A.189 - Yes, sir, then I also left
Q.190 - Where did you go?

A.190 - I left to make my report, sir. I left the waiting room
Q.191 - Leaving the three of them still there?
A.191 - That's right
Q.192 - Then what happened?
A.192 - Subsequently the sergeant-major arrived
Q.193 - What Sergeant-major?
A.193 - From the Provost Corps
Q.194 - Do you know his name?
A.194 - S/M McCallum I think the name was, sir. He arrived and left with the two Provost men
Q.195 - Were you there?
A.195 - I saw him there, sir
Q.196 - Were you talking to him at all?
A.196 - No, sir
Q.197 - Did you hear any conversation between the sergeant-major and Erasmus or any conversation in Erasmus' presence?
A.197 - Not apart from directions, sir, as to leaving the Station - "This way" and "All right"
Q.198 - Then you made out your written statement?
A.198 - I made it out, sir, and handed it to Inspector Pitt
Q.199 - Now, do you know anything else about it?
A.199 - That is all, sir
Q.200 - Did you ever discover this civilian?
A.200 - No, sir, I never
Q.201 - Now, you mentioned somewhere that you found their hats in Leicester Square Gardens?
A.201 - Their hats were found sir
Q.202 - Did you see them?
A.202 - Yes, sir
Q.203 - Any markings of identity on them?
A.203 - Well, the soldier's hat was of the regulation type and I think it was restored to the soldier
Q.204 - Well, tell us all about that?
A.204 - Well, some person - I don't know who it was - produced the hat while Erasmus was there and said he had found it on a seat in the Gardens
Q.205 - Where?
A.205 - At the time of Erasmus' arrival - about the same time
Q.206 - After the scuffle?
A.206 - Yes, sir, after Erasmus had arrived a Policewoman, sir, came with the soldier's hat and the civilian's hat
Q.207 - She said?
A.207 - She said "I found these on the seat in the Gardens"
Q.208 - And she handed them to?
A.208 - It was handed to - - I think Erasmus took the hat
Q.209 - This Provost took the soldier's hat?
A.209 - Yes, sir
Q.210 - And gave it to the Toronto Scottish chap?
A.210 - Yes, sir
Q.211 - Then was the hat examined as to identity?
A.211 - No, sir, I just saw that it was a black bonnet, Scots type Q.212 - Was it a glengarry like this or a balmoral, Tam-O'Shanter?
A.212 - A balmoral
Q.213 - Did you make any inquiries as to whether the hat had been examined for identification marks?
A.213 - No, sir
Q.214 - You didn't examine it?
A.214 - No, sir
Q.215 - How about the civilian's hat?
A.215 - The civilian's hat was found and it was taken to the Station and there were no means of identifying the owner
Q.216 - It was found at the same time?
A.216 - Yes, sir

3rd Witness for the Prosecution, 2614279, Sgt. E. J. Hackling, Q. M. Stores, Holding Terminal, Grenadier Guards, Wellington Barracks, S. W. 1, London, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

The witness identifies himself

Q.217 - Sergeant, do you recognize the accused in this room?
A.217 - Yes, sir
Q.218 - Where were you, sergeant, at about 2200 hours on the 18th of September 1942?
A.218 - I was walking down Coventry Street from Leicester Square to Piccadilly Circus
Q.219 - Will you tell us what happened?
A.219 - I saw a commotion at the top of Cranbourne Street in which a police constable and a Canadian soldier were involved. The police constable was having considerable difficulty with the Canadian soldier and I went to the police constable's assistance, sir, and together we overpowered the Canadian soldier and after we had got him more or less under control, sir, Cpl. Erasmus and another Canadian Provost came up and asked if they should take the prisoner. The police officer said that he was in custody and that they could take him and they took him and Cpl. Erasmus told me they would hold him and wait on the other side of the road until the police officer had made his inquiries and at that point he could see them. About five minutes later or perhaps a little more than five minutes, sir, the policeofficer and myself crossed the road to where we thought Cpl. Erasmus and the other Provost should be and there was noone there. We then walked around for another five minutes, sir, and we saw no trace of either the Provosts or the prisoner so we walked towards Piccadilly Circus and we saw another two Provosts. So I described what I thought Cpl. Erasmus looked like and one of these Provost recognized it as Cpl. Erasmus and thought he could find him and that he knew where he would be so we went to Lyons Corner House at Piccadilly Circus and saw Cpl. Erasmus together with the other Provost Chap. The police officer asked him where the prisoner was and they informed us that he had got away from them and the police officer asked if he would accompany him to West End Central Police Station and asked me too and we went there. The R.S.M. later attended and I made a statement and that is all.
Q.220 - As you were entering Lyons Corner House did you find L/Cpl Erasmus there?
A.220 - Yes, sir
Q.221 - What was he doing there?
A.221 - I couldn't say, sir. He was apparently on patrol there
Q.222 - Was he sitting at a table?
A.222 - No, sir, he came out of Lyons' Corner House to us, sir

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.223 - Sergeant, in connection with this disturbance which was taking place at the time, when you first got there and noticed this thing going on were the constable and the soldier then struggling?
A.223 - They were, sir
Q.224 - And you went to the assistance of the police constable?
A.224 - Yes, sir
Q.225 - Did anyone else appear on the scene at that particular time other than you?
A.225 - There was another Canadian soldier there but I took him to be an accomplice of the prisoner they were trying to arrest
Q.226 - An accomplice?
A.226 - Well, he appeared to be a friend of the prisoner
Q.227 - Was there anyone else - a civilian?
A.227 - A big crowd, sir
Q.228 - And when the two Provosts came along just what happened?
A.228 - Well, they asked me if I was holding the prisoner and if they should take him away from the crowd
Q.229 - They asked you that question?
A.229 - Yes, sir
Q.230 - Do you know of any conversation between these two Provost Corporals and the police constable?
A.230 - When they asked me that, sir, I told them it was up to the civilian policeman

Q.231 - What action did they take then?
A.231 - Cpl. Erasmus, if I remember rightly, approached the police officer and asked him
Q.232 - Can you remember what the police officer said to Cpl. Erasmus?
A.232 - No, I didn't hear that, sir
Q.233 - Well, what actually happened then?
A.233 - Well, Cpl. Erasmus said to me that he would take the prisoner across to the opposite side of the road away from the crowd and would wait for us there
Q.234 - I would just like to refresh your memory, sergeant. I think you have said earlier on that at the request of the police officer the two corporals took this soldier into custody?
A.234 - Well, they asked me if they should take him and I said it was naturally up to the police officer, sir
Q.235 - Yes, but I believe you said. Here are your words in the Summary "The two Canadian Provost patrols approached and at the request of the police officer took the soldier into custody"?
A.235 - Well, they asked if they should take him and the police officer said "Yes, he is in custody for robbery"
Q.236 - They asked you and then the police officer?
A.236 - Yes
Q.237 - Did you hear what his words were to them?
A.237 - He told them he was in custody for robbery
Q.238 - Did he use any other words besides that he was in custody for robbery?
A.238 - Not to my knowledge, no sir
Q.239 - Was there anything said between this soldier and the Provosts Corporals after they arrived? Did you hear any talk between them?
A.239 - No, apart from the fact that he wanted to fight everybody and they told him to keep quiet
Q.240 - Did they take any action to restrain him?
A.240 - Yes, they were helping to hold the fellow down
Q.241 - They were helping to hold him?
A.241 - Yes, sir
Q.242 - Was he so violent?
A.242 - Yes, sir, up to the time the Provost Corporals arrived
Q.243 - Up to the time they arrived?
A.243 - Yes, sir
Q.244 - At the time of their arrival did he appear to be satisfied? Did they appear to calm him down somewhat?
A.244 - The prisoner did yes
Q.245 - Following that who suggested that they go across the road?
A.245 - Cpl. Erasmus, sir
Q.246 - And at the time that he left how was he holding?
A.246 - Well, the prisoner was walking between Cpl. Erasmus and the other Provost
Q.247 - Were they holding him at all?
A.247 - I couldn't see that, sir. It was dark
Q.248 - Now, you don't know any more about what Cpl. Erasmus had to do with this prisoner and you don't know anything further of Cpl. Erasmus until you saw him later on at some time I believe
A.248 - I don't know anything at all about Cpl. Erasmus until the time we saw him in the foyer of Lyons Corner House
Q.249 - Did you by any chance - - Just give me the details in connection with your visit to Lyons Corner House
A.249 - Well, we met two other Provost fellows. I don't know who they were. They were Canadian Provosts. I described Cpl. Erasmus to them, sir, and they immediately hit on Cpl. Erasmus and said they thought they could find him and they took us to him
Q.250 - You went right inside?
A.250 - Yes, into the foyer, sir, by the lift. I think the grill is down in the basement there - just by those steps Q.251 - Were Cpl. Erasmus and the other corporal sitting at a table or standing up or what?
A.251 - I didn't see them at all. They were fetched from the back of Lyons' place by the corporal
Q.252 - Who fetched them?
A.252 - A corporal who is not present here sir

Q.253 - Then you didn't see - - Excepting for them coming down the back part of Lyons' Corner House you didn't see them at all?
A.253 - No, sir
Q.254 - Was the constable with you all this time?
A.254 - Yes, he was standing at the top of the steps with me
Q.255 - And you, yourself, couldn't see where they had come from? Or whether they were sitting down, standing up or drinking tea or what they were doing?
A.255 - No, sir
Q.256 - And following their arrival on the scene what was said then by anyone present?
A.256 - To the best of my recollection the police officer asked them where the prisoner was and Cpl. Erasmus replied that he had got away
Q.257 - Did he enlarge on that at all?
A.257 - Well, he just said they walked across the street and a crowd gathered around them there and the prisoner made a dive and there was a woman in front of Cpl. Erasmus - -

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.258 - What is all this? Let us start fresh again. What further discussion took place in Lyons' Corner House following the arrival of Cpl. Erasmus and the other corporal on the scene after they had been fetched by the other two corporals? And just where did this conversation take place?
A.258 - Inside Lyons Corner House in the foyer
Q.259 - Just at the head of the stairs going down to the grill?
A.259 - Yes, sir
Q.260 - Just where you go out the door?
A.260 - Yes, sir
Q.261 - Who were there?
A.261 - The police officer, Cpl. Erasmus and the other corporal who was with him, the other patrol, another full corporal (I think that was the fellow who fetched Cpl. Erasmus) a gray-haired fellow
Q.262 - Did the police officer go with the corporal to fetch Cpl. Erasmus?
A.262 - As far as I can remember he waited with me
Q.263 - Now, there was yourself, the constable, the newly arrived corporals, Cpl. Erasmus and the man with him. What statements were made at that time if any?
A.263 - Well, the police officer asked Cpl. Erasmus what had happened to the prisoner. Cpl. Erasmus replied that the prisoner had got away and the police officer then wanted to know the whys and wherefores. Cpl. Erasmus said they had walked across the road with him and the prisoner had made a dive for it and a woman was in front of Cpl. Erasmus which impeded his getting a start and the other provost was in the same position so the prisoner escaped
Q.264 - Now following this up what next happened?
A.264 - Well the police officer said that this robbery had taken place and that he would have to report it and would Cpl. Erasmus and the other Provost corporal and myself accompany him to the police station
Q.265 - Was there any objection by Cpl. Erasmus?
A.265 - He said he would come willingly
Q.266 - And on the way down to the police station did you have any conversation? Did you or the constable or this other corporal Cpl. Nelson or Cpl. Erasmus have any conversation on the way down together?
A.266 - Well, not apart from ordinary things
Q.267 - Nothing that had any bearing on the escape at all?
A.267 - No, sir
Q.268 - And then your arrival at - where was it?
A.268 - Saville Row Police Station
Q.269 - What happened then?
A.269 - Well, the police constable stated his case to the Inspector on night duty, sir
Q.270 - Did he state his case in the presence of Cpl. Erasmus?

A.270 - No, sir
Q.271 - Well, you went in and then what happened?
A.271 - Cpl. Erasmus and Cpl. Nelson (I think it is, sir) and myself, we had to wait in the Waiting Room there, sir and the policeman stated his case I presume to the Inspector, sir and later I was sent for and asked to make a statement which I wrote down
Q.272 - You didn't make any statement, though, in the presence of Cpl Erasmus?
A.272 - Nothing at all. The only thing I made in the police station I wrote down on paper, sir
Q.273 - Did you see Cpl. Erasmus questioned in any way or hear him being questioned in any way when you were there?
A.273 - Only I saw the Provost Sergeant-Major go in to him but I didn't hear any questions
Q.274 - During the time that you and Cpl. Erasmus and Cpl. Nelson were all together in the waiting room did anyone come out?
A.274 - There were two plainclothes detectives came in, sir, and asked a few questions who I was and who they were Q.275 - And what did Cpl. Erasmus have to say?
A.275 - I can't remember, sir
Q.276 - Were they asking him to identify himself?
A.276 - I can't remember about that, sir. I walked out. I remember the police detectives coming in there sir and I walked out into the charge room and don't remember the detectives asking anything
Q.277 - As far as you know, then, there was no request made by anyone for Cpl. Erasmus to identify himself or Cpl. Nelson?
A.277 - No, sir, there was not
Q.278 - Following your statement to the police you were finished?
A.278 - Yes, I returned to barracks
Q.279 - Going back to the time when Erasmus and Nelson took charge of or took over the actual body of this Toronto Scottish chap, did you go with Erasmus and the others across the road?
A.279 - I remained with the police officer, sir
Q.280 - Well, the police officer in his evidence told us he went out among the crowd looking for the loser. Did you go with him?
A.280 - No, sir, I hung on the fringe of the crowd, sir, because some of my fellows came along and thought I was in trouble and I was explaining to them
Q.281 - How long were you there?
A.281 - About four or five minutes
Q.282 - Then what happened? The police officer asked you something or other and then went looking for the two Provosts and the Toronto Scottish chap?
A.282 - Yes, sir
Q.283 - Now, sergeant, you said you were walking down Coventry Street in the first place and then what did you do? Were you alone?
A.283 - On my own, yes sir
Q.284 - About 10 o'clock at night?
A.284 - Yes, sir
Q.285 - You came down to Leicester Square Gardens?
A.285 - Yes, sir, some gardens on the left hand side beside the picture place
Q.286 - Then what happened?
A.286 - I just went to the edge of the crowd
Q.287 - Now, wait a minute. You were all alone?
A.287 - Yes, sir, I had seen an American soldier lying out on the pavement and I had fetched a police officer
Q.288 - To this fellow?
A.288 - Yes, sir
Q.289 - Then what?
A.289 - Well, P.C. Horner stayed with this soldier, sir, while I went to the Eagle Club and rang the American Army Police Headquarters
Q.290 - Anyway you got a wagon for this fellow?
A.290 - Yes, sir
Q.291 - Then you came back?
A.291 - Yes, sir, I went back to where I had left this drunk lying, sir, and the police officer was across the road in this scuffle

Q.292 - Then what did you do?
A.292 - Well, I saw the prisoner was very violent and I went to the assistance of P.C.Horner
Q.293 - What happened after that? You didn't hear the civilian make any accusation?
A.293 - No, sir, all I could hear was the prisoner wanting to fight the civilian Q.294 - What did he say?
A.294 - He was trying to get away altogether, I think, sir
Q.295 - Was he trying to get away or was he trying to get away to fight the civilian?
A.295 - Well, he was trying to get away from the police officer to fight the civilian, sir
Q.296 - His main object was not to get away from the police officer but to get away and fight the civilian who said he had pinched his wallet?
A.296 - Yes, sir
Q.297 - What was he saying?
A.297 - He just said "I will fight the bastard. I will fight the bastard if I get court-martialled"
Q.298 - He didn't get away though?
A.298 - Not from us, no sir
Q.299 - Then Erasmus and Nelson came along and didn't the civilian police officer tell Erasmus and Nelson that this Toronto Scottish chap was under arrest?
A.299 - He said he was in custody for robbery, sir
Q.300 - They took him over?
A.300 - Yes, sir
Q.301 - How did they take him over?
A.301 - Well, they just walked across the road with him between them
Q.302 - Did they lay hands on him?
A.302 - I couldn't say that, sir; it was dark
Q.303 - Had you?
A.303 - I had previously, sir. I had held him down
Q.304 - When he got up he was handed over to the Canadian Provost and did you do anything about it?
A.304 - Well, I just went around with the police officer to see if he could get the names of any witnesses in the crowd
Q.305 - You went with him?
A.305 - No, sir, I just hung around
Q.306 - We have been told here that you had the Toronto Scottish chap by the right arm?
A.306 - No, sir, his left arm
Q.307 - Then did you hand that body over?
A.307 - No, sir, when I could see there was going to be no more trouble I just let go. He quieted down a lot when the two Provosts came along
Q.308 - Did you see any hats?
A.308 - No, sir
Q.309 - Did you see them handed back?
A.309 - No, sir, I didn't see the actual hats at all. The only hat I saw was the civilian hat
Q.310 - Then you hung around until Constable Horner came back and you went looking for the Canadian Provosts and the prisoner and you couldn't find them and went along to Lyons Corner House?
A.310 - Yes, sir
Q.311 - And outside Lyons Corner House you met a full corporal?
A.311 - No, sir, it was on that street near the Mapleton Hotel
Q.312 - One was a full corporal?
A.312 - I think he was, sir
Q.313 - And you described Erasmus and his pal Nelson and they said "Perhaps we can find him" so they went over to Lyons Corner House and you went along with them? Did this corporal go in first?
A.313 - They went in together
Q.314 - And you followed on with the civilian Constable, Horner?
A.314 - Yes, sir
Q.315 - And you waited inside the door?

A.315 - Just at the top of the steps, sir
Q.316 - And the full corporal went away someplace?
A.316 - Yes, sir
Q.317 - Where did he go - do you know?
A.317 - Well he went almost straight in front I think, then to the left, sir
Q.318 - And the police constable was with you all the time?
A.318 - As far as I can remember, sir, the police constable was with me all the time but I would not be sure
Q.319 - In any event where did Erasmus and this corporal come back from?
A.319 - From the opposite way from where wewere facing, sir
Q.320 - You think the civilian police constable was with you all the time?
A.320 - I think to the best of my memory he was with me all the time but I won't swear to that, sir
Q.321 - Did you see Erasmus and Nelson seated at a table at any time with crockery on it as if they were having tea or anything like that?
A.321 - No, sir

Court is adjourned for lunch 1155 hours

Court as enumerated on page 4 is re-opened at 1315 hours

4th Witness for the Prosecution, F.49920 L/Cpl Nelson, B.A., No. 6 Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

The witness is identified to the court

Q.322 - Cpl. Nelson do you recognize the accused?
A.322 - Yes, sir
Q.323 - Who is the accused? State his name
A.323 - L/Cpl Erasmus, sir
Q.324 - Were you on duty on the night of the 18th September?
A.324 - Yes, sir
Q.325 - What was that duty?
A.325 - To patrol Coventry Street, sir
Q.326 - Who were you on duty with?
A.326 - L/Cpl Erasmus, sir
Q.327 - Will you tell us what happened at 2200 hours on the 18th?
A.327 - Well, sir, we left Charing Cross Underground and we went on the right hand side of the road and there was a scuffle over near Leicester Square and we went over and found a civilian policeman holding a Canadian soldier. L/Cpl Erasmus took possession of the soldier and we went across the street, across the roadway and he ran away. We gave chase and went as far as the Corner House and went in there to see if the visiting patrol was there
Q.328 - How did you get this soldier in the first place?
A.328 - He was turned over to L/Cpl Erasmus by the civilian policeman
Q.329 - Was he their prisoner?
A.329 - Well, he said he wanted him. He didn't say he was under arrest
Q.330 - Why did the police officer turn this man over to you?
A.330 - He wanted us to hold him I guess so that he could get after the person who lost the purse
Q.331 - Was this man you had in your custody, was he supposed to have stolen somebody's purse?
A.331 - Yes, sir

Court - Now, I don't think that is just the proper way of putting it. That is what we call a "leading question"

Q.332 - I will put it another way. Why did the civilian policeman have this man in the first place?
A.332 - Well, they picked him up on the square?
Q.333 - On the Square?
A.333 - Leicester Square, sir and we came along and a sergeant of the Grenadier Guards and a police constable were holding the man.

They said they wanted him and we told them we would take him across the street and wait for them over there

Q.334 - Told who?
A.334 - Told the police constable and the sergeant of the Grenadier Guards

Q.335 - What did you do after this man got away?
A.335 - Well, a crowd was there and I kind of dropped back and Cpl. Erasmus started across and we just took about two steps and the man made a break

Q.336 - Did you make any attempt to go after him?
A.336 - Yes, we did
Q.337 - What did you do?
A.337 - We chased him as far as the corner house, sir
Q.338 - Why didn't you go further than that?
A.338 - It was dark and we couldn't see what was ahead of us
Q.339 - What did you do after that?
A.339 - We went in to see if anyone else was around
Q.340 - Do they go in there?
A.340 - Yes, sir
Q.341 - When the police constable and the other sergeant saw you what were you doing?
A.341 - Sitting down, sir
Q.342 - Is it the custom to sit down on duty?
A.342 - Yes, sir

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.343 - When you started out that night and were attracted by this disturbance in Leicester Square what was the first thing that you noticed when you arrived on the scene?
A.343 - I noticed the sergeant of the Grenadier Guards and the police-man holding a Canadian soldier
Q.344 - What was his - - How was he conducting himself at that time?
A.344 - Well, he was questioned by Cpl. Erasmus and he said - -
Q.345 - How was he behaving - violently or struggling?
A.345 - He had been struggling but had quieted down
Q.346 - What do you mean "he had been struggling"? Did you see him as you came up?
A.346 - No, sir
Q.347 - But the sergeant of the Grenadier Guards and the Police con-stable were holding him were they?
A.347 - Right, sir
Q.348 - Then during the time that you were there did you hear him make any statement at all?
A.348 - Only the statement that the man made and the statement that the police constable said he wanted the man but he didn't say he was under arrest
Q.349 - What did the man himself say first?
A.349 - He said while he was standing on Leicester Square this man came along and, in his own words he wanted to get down on him. He refused and the fight started
Q.350 - Did he say anything more than that?
A.350 - He said the police had accused him of stealing a purse
Q.351 - The police had accused him?
A.351 - Yes, sir
Q.352 - Did he indicate to you whether he had been told he was under arrest?
A.352 - No, sir
Q.353 - He didn't?
A.353 - No, sir
Q.354 - During the time that you were there did you hear the police constable mention that he was under arrest?
A.354 - It was never mentioned. He said he wanted the man
Q.355 - And did he ask you to take any action in connection with that?
A.355 - No, sir
Q.356 - Did he ask you to hold the prisoner?
A.356 - We told him we would take him across the road
Q.357 - But before that did he ask you to hold the soldier? Did he ask you or Cpl. Erasmus?

A.357 - He didn't ask me
Q.358 - Did he ask Cpl. Erasmus?
A.358 - I couldn't swear to that, sir
Q.359 - Did Cpl. Erasmus actually hold the man?
A.359 - Yes and started across the street
Q.360 - But before he started across the street did he hold him for any length of time or did he start immediately across the street?
A.360 - He started immediately across the street
Q.361 - Can you give any reason why he would immediately walk across the street?
A.361 - He wanted to get him out of the crowd, sir
Q.362 - Were there any instructions given to him?
A.362 - Only that we go across the street and wait at the other side of the road
Q.363 - Who instructed you to do that?
A.363 - The police constable, sir
Q.364 - The police constable suggested that to you? Now look, corporal, I want you to get this story quite straight and go back to the beginning again. In the first place now I want to get clear in my mind whether it was a suggestion on the part of the police constable or an instruction on the part of the police constable to go across the street or whether you and in this case Cpl. Erasmus decided on your own to go across the street. Which was it?
A.364 - He said we would hold him and would go across the street and wait there Q.365 - Cpl. Erasmus said that?
A.365 - Yes, sir
Q.366 - Then it was not the police constable who suggested it?
A.366 - No, sir, he agreed with it
Q.367 - Are you sure you didn't mention it to the Grenadier Guards Sergeant rather than to the police constable?
A.367 - He was talking to the policeman, sir
Q.368 - Who was?
A.368 - Cpl. Erasmus
Q.369 - Did you hear exactly what he said?
A.369 - No, sir, I didn't
Q.370 - You are only assuming that then?
A.370 - Yes, sir
Q.371 - Then after you started across the road what actually happened?
A.371 - Well, we got into quite a crowd standing there and I kind of dropped back and he made a jump and got away. Erasmus and I made after him
Q.372 - You say you dropped back. Were you holding him going across the street?
A.372 - No, sir, Erasmus had him by the arm
Q.373 - And you were on the other side were you?
A.373 - Yes, sir
Q.374 - What made you drop back behind?
A.374 - The crowd, sir. It was very crowded
Q.375 - You thought he was going quietly at the time did you?
A.375 - Yes, sir
Q.376 - In spite of that, though, Cpl. Erasmus continued to hold him by the arm did he?
A.376 - Yes, sir
Q.377 - As you say it was rather dark at the time?
A.377 - Yes, sir
Q.378 - How far did you chase him?
A.378 - From Leicester Square Park, sir, to Coventry Street Corner House
Q.379 - That would be the Southeast corner of Leicester Square park?
A.379 - The top corner, sir
Q.380 - The Mapleton Hotel corner or the Hippodrome?
A.380 - The Hippodrome corner, sir
Q.381 - And you chased him from there to Lyons Corner House?
A.381 - Yes, sir
Q.382 - When you say you chased him there were you chasing him while actually seeing him?

A.382 - No, we only saw him a short while sir
Q.383 - When did you first actually lose sight of him then?
A.383 - It was within 100 yards we lost sight of him, sir or less than that because you couldn't see; it was dark
Q.384 - Then you would lose sight of him in 100 yards between the time you left the corner closest to the Hippodrome and the other corner which was the closer end to the Mapleton Hotel. Is that right?
A.384 - Yes, sir, we couldn't see him at all on the sidewalk
Q.385 - There was quite a crowd on the sidewalk?
A.385 - Yes, sir
Q.386 - Then did you take any other action other than to just chase him for this 100 yards?
A.386 - We walked down as far as -- We passed the Corner House and came back and Cpl. Erasmus said we would go in and see if any N.C.Os were there
Q.387 - Did he indicate to you any particular reason why he should see if he could see the N.C.Os?
A.387 - They said they would be calling there about 10.30
Q.388 - What time would it be when you gave up your search?
A.388 - I would say about 15 or 20 minutes after 10
Q.389 - When you went in the Corner House where did you go?
A.389 - Just inside and sat at the table there to the right of the door
Q.390 - That is the main entrance where you went in?
A.390 - Yes
Q.391 - How far back did you go?
A.391 - It is a vacant room they don't use there. The first table in the corner
Q.392 - Do they as a general rule serve refreshments there in the neighbourhood of 10.30?
A.392 - Well, sir, we get refreshments there at 12 o'clock
Q.393 - Did you have any in the neighbourhood of 10.15 or 10.20?
A.393 - No, sir, we didn't
Q.394 - How were you dressed at the time? Were you wearing your hats? Did you consider yourself as still being on duty?
A.394 - Oh, yes, sir, still on duty
Q.395 - And you were both wearing your hats?
A.395 - Yes, sir
Q.396 - Now, when the two N.C.Os arrived. No, what next happened while you were waiting in the Corner House?
A.396 - Next Cpl. Heeney came and said the police constable wanted to see us about this man
Q.397 - Did the police constable himself come down?
A.397 - No, sir
Q.398 - Where did you find the police constable when the corporal came to you and asked you to go with him?
A.398 - Just in front of the elevator, sir
Q.399 - Now could you in the position that you were see this gathering of the three N.C.Os and the police constable?
A.399 - No, sir
Q.400 - You were hidden from them or they were hidden from you?
A.400 - Yes, sir, I didn't see them until Cpl. Heeney came in there
Q.401 - What was said at that time by anyone present?
A.401 - Well, the police constable asked us to go up to the police station with him and make a statement
Q.402 - Did he ask you to make a statement at that time?
A.402 - He asked us what happened and we told him he got away from us crossing the street
Q.403 - Was there anything further - how he got away from you?
A.403 - We explained that he got away going across the street
Q.404 - Who explained that?
A.404 - Cpl. Erasmus, sir
Q.405 - And you did proceed to the police station?
A.405 - Yes, sir
Q.406 - Who went?
A.406 - Cpl. Erasmus and I and the Grenadier Guard Sergeant and the police constable, sir

Q.407 - Was there any discussion about this incident on the way down to the police station?
A.407 - Well, we checked two soldiers on the way down and thought perhaps it might have been the same chap and he questioned us again as to how it happened
Q.408 - He questioned you when?
A.408 - On our walk down. He asked us again how it happened and we explained it again
Q.409 - What did Cpl. Erasmus say do you remember?
A.409 - He said that on the way across the street that the man took him by surprise. He thought he was coming quietly and he got away
Q.410 - When you arrived at the police station what happened then?
A.410 - Well, they took us to a room there and took our names and numbers and we waited there until the R.S.M. came down for us
Q.411 - Was there any discussion regarding this case during the time you were at the police station?
A.411 - No. There were two plainclothes men came in and asked us how it happened and that is all. They never questioned us at all
Q.412 - Was the police constable with you at this time in the waiting room?
A.412 - No, sir, he left after we arrived
Q.413 - And did you see anything further of him after that time?
A.413 - I didn't see him again unless it was going out the door
Q.414 - And then S/M McCallum came down and you came back down to Headquarters here?
A.414 - Yes, sir

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.415 - When you are on regular duty and patrol in the evening do you carry handcuffs?
A.415 - No, sir
Q.416 - Corporal, prior to the 18th September how long had you been with this company?
A.416 - Pretty near a month, sir
Q.417 - And where had you been before that?
A.417 - I just came from Depot
Q.418 - Where?
A.418 - Provost Depot, sir
Q.419 - How long have you been in this country?
A.419 - Just over two years, sir
Q.420 - Have you been in the Provost Corps all that time?
A.420 - No, sir, W. N. S. R.
Q.421 - When did you transfer from them?
A.421 - 21.6.42 (after referring to paybook)
Q.422 - You were with them in the field all the time with them?
A.422 - Yes, sir
Q.423 - And then you went down to the Depot and got some training and came up here. About a month ago?
A.423 - Yes, sir
Q.424 - Had you been on patrol previously before this evening?
A.424 - Yes, I had been on about two or three weeks, sir
Q.425 - With Cpl. Erasmus mostly?
A.425 - All the time, sir
Q.426 - You had been teamed off together?
A.426 - Yes, sir
Q.427 - Had you been taught any regulations as to what precautions you were to take at any time in handling people?
A.427 - Well, on escorts we were taught to use the handcuffs and always watch the man but so far as anything else was concerned we were not told
Q.428 - Has anything ever been brought to your knowledge verbally or otherwise in a case like this in getting hold of a man who is drunk or obstreperous or anything like that? Were you taught how to handle a situation like that?
A.428 - We were always to work together as a team
Q.429 - Were you to catch him by the arm or wrist to see that he didn't get away from you? What are your rules?

A.429 - To hand on by the arm, sir
Q.430 - Where were you taught that?
A.430 - Well, as far as I know that was taught me by Cpl. Erasmus
Q.431 - He told you that?
A.431 - Yes, sir
Q.432 - At your Depot or here in your orders are there any regulations advising you what to do in a case like that?
A.432 - I have not seen anything since I came up here
Q.433 - Anything in the Depot?
A.433 - They tell us a lot about conduct down there and how to hold onto a prisoner
Q.434 - Now you were with Cpl. Erasmus this night weren't you?
A.434 - Yes, sir
Q.435 - Now, have you been charged with any offence in connection with this matter?
A.435 - Yes, sir, I got a severe reprimand from the O.C.
Q.436 - Under Section 20?
A.436 - I couldn't say the section, sir
Q.437 - When was this?
A.437 - About three weeks ago now, sir
Q.438 - By Capt. Byers?
A.438 - Yes, sir
Q.439 - Now, getting down to this night in question, it was dark was it not?
A.439 - Yes, sir
Q.440 - How dark would you say?
A.440 - Well, the visibility was very poor. You couldn't see beyond 20 yards, sir
Q.441 - Someone has suggested that it was moonlight
A.441 - I don't think it was, sir
Q.442 - But you did see some 20 yards away - that would be 60'?
A.442 - You could see across the road all right
Q.443 - And when you went over there you found the police constable, Horner, and the Guards Sergeant manhandling or holding a Canadian soldier?
A.443 - Yes, sir
Q.444 - And the police constable -- Was the soldier saying anything at all?
A.444 - Well, Cpl. Erasmus questioned him, sir, and he told him - -
Q.445 - You didn't have anything at all to do with that. Cpl. Erasmus spoke to this soldier and what did he say?
A.445 - Well he said that while he was sitting in Leicester Square Park this civilian came up and wanted to get down on him and he refused and started to fight with the civilian and was accused of stealing his purse
Q.446 - That was in Leicester Square Gardens. How did they get away down on whatever street it was?
A.446 - Well, the soldier was running away when the police constable picked him up
Q.447 - How old was this soldier?
A.447 - From the look of him I think he was only a young fellow, sir
Q.448 - Did you see the civilian?
A.448 - No, sir
Q.449 - Then the constable said he wanted to hold him and take him away?
A.449 - He said he wanted him
Q.450 - Did you or Erasmus volunteer to hold him or what?
A.450 - Well Erasmus said we would take him across to the other side of the road
Q.451 - Meaning the two of you?
A.451 - Yes, sir
Q.452 - Did you take hold of this chap at all?
A.452 - Well I was kind of - - There was a little bit of a crowd and I was pushing my way through and Erasmus got ahead of me
Q.453 - Did Erasmus have a hold on him at all?
A.453 - Yes, sir, through the arm
Q.454 - How do you mean through the arm?

Witness demonstrates by putting his right hand under the left elbow of the court orderly

Q.455 - And you didn't put your hand on him at all?
A.455 - No, sir
Q.456 - And Erasmus merely put his right hand under the left elbow of the soldier and guided him through the crowd?
A.456 - Yes, sir
Q.457 - Now you got out to the edge of the curb and went across the street. Where were you?
A.457 - I was directly behind, sir
Q.458 - And did you get through all the crowd before the man bolted or not?
A.458 - We were just stepping off the curb, sir
Q.459 - Was the crowd dispersed then?
A.459 - There was still a crowd
Q.460 - Then what did this soldier do?
A.460 - He ran down the street, sir
Q.461 - How did he get away fror Erasmus?
A.461 - He apparently jumped sidewars and ran
Q.462 - He pulled his arm away suddenly did he?
A.462 - Yes, sir
Q.463 - Were there people impeding the progress or what?
A.463 - People on the other side of the sidewalk, sir and we started down the road and lost sight of him
Q.464 - He yanked free from Erasmus and you were right behind. How far were you from him?
A.464 - A matter of 6' or 7'
Q.465 - You couldn't reach forward and stop him or tackle him? If you had made a rugby dive at him could you have caught him?
A.465 - No, sir
Q.466 - He pulled away from Erasmus suddenly and away he bolted. Where?
A.466 - Across the road, sir
Q.467 - From the direction you had started to go?
A.467 - Yes, sir
Q.468 - And was there a crowd on the other sidewalk?
A.468 - Yes, sir, quite a crowd
Q.469 - Did he go in the crowd or what happened?
A.469 - Yes, sir
Q.470 - Did you go right after him running or walking or what?
A.470 - Running, sir
Q.471 - You and Erasmus?
A.471 - Yes, sir
Q.472 - Anybody else?
A.472 - No, sir
Q.473 - And you lost him right then?
A.473 - Yes, sir, we never saw him again, sir
Q.474 - You went in the crowd or down the roadway to see if you could find him?
A.474 - Yes, sir
Q.475 - So you went down to the Corner House where you went in?
A.475 - Yes, sir
Q.476 - And 10 or 15 minutes later in came Cpl. Keeney and Sgt. Crowe with the Grenadier Guard and the police constable?
A.476 - Yes, sir
Q.477 - And you say that was your meeting place for your patrols?
A.477 - Yes, sir, we used to meet the visiting patrols
Q.478 - How often did they meet you?
A.478 - Well mostly once a night and sometimes twice a night
Q.479 - Any particular time?
A.479 - They said they would meet us around there at 10.30 because we were breaking off that night at 12o'clock
Q.480 - Was that a regular rule that they would meet you at 10.30?
A.480 - No, sir, it is not regular but they said they would that night
Q.481 - So you went there at 10.30?
A.481 - Well, it was hardly 10.30 sir
Q.482 - Is there anything you or Cpl. Erasmus should have done to prevent his getting away. Now, you are punished and are all finished with this thing. What could Erasmus and you have done to prevent him getting away?

A.482 - Not much we could have done. Erasmus had hold of him and when he got away we chased him
Q.483 - Now, suppose he had been a murderer or a dangerous lunatic, how would you have prevented that?
A.483 - Well, he was going so quiet that Erasmus started off first to get him out of the crowd and if it was a lunatic I guess both of us would have had hold of him
Q.484 - Now, you knew he had been struggling with the police constable and the Grenadier Guards Sergeant. They had been on the ground and their clothes would be dishevelled?
A.484 - I couldn't see much wrong with their clothes
Q.485 - Wasn't the police constable all dirty and didn't he have his helmet off?
A.485 - Yes, sir
Q.486 - But did you expect him to try and break away?
A.486 - No, sir
Q.487 - Is that the reason why you didn't take more precautions?
A.487 - Well it was by reason of the crowd kind of pushing back and I never thought he would break away. He was very quiet and never argued with us or anything
Q.488 - But in the Provost Corps you are the police of the Canadian Army are you not?
A.488 - Yes, sir
Q.489 - And it is your duty and you are trusted as such to take care of military offenders to see that they don't break away. That is your first job. It doesn't matter to you whether the charge is good, bad or indifferent does it?
A.489 - No, sir
Q.490 - If you find a chap committing an offence you arrest him and bring him here to a senior authority and they deal with the matter to see if he is guilty or not guilty, don't you?
A.490 - Yes, sir
Q.491 - So that your first duty is to keep control of or custody of people until you have handed them over to superior authority?
A.491 - Yes, sir
Q.492 - And if you fail in that duty or fail in keeping custody of a chap until you have turned him over then there is something wrong isn't there unless there is reasonable excuse?
A.492 - Yes, sir
Q.493 - Now, then, is there any reasonable excuse why you and Erasmus both of you together, two big husky chaps should have let this chap away from you that night?
A.493 - Well, the darkness and the crowd is the only explanation I can see
Q.494 (Defending Officer) - When you cut across the road to the other side and you were walking directly behind Cpl. Erasmus and the soldier did you see anyone bump into or interfere with Cpl. Erasmus in any way?
A.494 - Yes, some civilian woman bumped Cpl. Erasmus
Q.495 (Defending Officer) - Did you hear her say anything?
A.495 - She said something about us holding someone. I couldn't make out what it was about

Court - I want to get that clear

A.496 (con) - Some civilian woman bumped Cpl. Erasmus
Q.496 - After he started out she bumped Cpl. Erasmus and - go on A.496 - I just couldn't hear what she said exactly but she said something at the time
Q.497 - Something to Erasmus?
A.497 - Yes, sir
Q.498 - And in relation to that bumping with the woman when did the chap break away?
A.498 - Just a second after
Q.499 (Defending Officer) - Could it possibly have been as a result of the bump?
A.499 - It could have been a great help to it anyway.

5th Witness for the Prosecution, C.41965 R.S.M. Hugh McCallum, No. 6 Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.500 - Will you state your name and number please?
A.500 - R.S.M. H. McCallum, C.41965
Q.501 - Sergeant-Major, do you recognize the accused?
A.501 - Yes, sir
Q.502 - On the night of the 18th September, Sergeant-Major, about 2315 hours did you receive any telephone call?
A.502 - Yes, sir
Q.503 - Who was that telephone call from?
A.503 - I received the telephone call from Sgt. Chester of the S.I.S. to go to West End Central Police Station, sir
Q.504 - And what was the need for calling you down there?
A.504 - It was reported, sir, that two lance-corporals from this Company had allowed a prisoner to escape on Coventry Street, sir
Q.505 - And who were those two lance-corporals please?
A.505 - L/Cpl Erasmus and Nelson, B.A., sir
Q.506 - Do you recognize this, sergeant-major?
A.506 - Yes, sir
Q.507 - What is it, sergeant-major?
A.507 - That is a copy of standing orders.

There being no objection from the Defence true copy of Standing Orders No. 3 issued for No. 6 Pvst Coy H.Q. Cdn Pvst Cps dated 3 Sep 42 which are posted on the board and are distributed and are common knowledge to the Provost Coy are signed by the President, marked "B" and attached to the Proceedings. Particular reference is made to para 2 "Escorts" marked by a X "On escort duty" down to the end of the paragraph.

A.507 (con) - A copy of these are handed to each corporal, sir
Q.508 (Court) - To this lance-corporal?
A.508 - No, each corporal in charge of a section and there are six lance-corporals in a section
Q.509 (Court) - Is there any reason why L/Cpl Erasmus or L/Cpl Nelson should have been cognizant of the terms of that order?
A.509 - These have been read over to every lance-corporal here, sir
Q.510 - Why were you called to West End Central Police Station?
A.510 - Well, it was reported from West End Central Police Station that the two lance-corporals had allowed a prisoner to escape from them. I arrived at the West End Police Station and I was met there by a Sgt. Hackling of the Grenadier Guards and P.C. (I forget his name at the moment) - Horner, of the Metropolitan Police. I received from them information to the effect that a prisoner - a Canadian soldier, had been handed over to them - -
Q.511 - Was Erasmus there?
A.511 - Yes, sir
Q.512 (Court) - He heard this statement?
A.512 - Not at that time, sir
Q.513 (Court) - Then you can't say it
A.513 - All I wanted to say was that I heard a statement
Q.514 - You arrived there and Erasmus and Nelson were there?
A.514 - Yes, sir
Q.515 - And Horner and the Grenadier Guard Sergeant?
A.515 - Yes, sir. I placed them under arrest, sir, and brought them back to these Headquarters

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.516 - Sergeant-Major, you have no doubt as a sergeant-major had a good deal of knowledge of the acting of troops under escort?
A.516 - Yes, sir
Q.517 - In the event of a prisoner indicating violence what steps do you take immediately, what action would you take? Suppose he was struggling?
A.517 - Well, you would take every action necessary to hold him, sir
Q.518 - To what extent would you go? Supposing he were unarmed and were striking at you?

A.518 - Well, you would grip him by the arms and hold him, sir
Q.519 - Now, in the event of your coming upon a scene where there had been evidence of some violence but at the time of your arrival the man to be escorted was showing signs of being calm then what action would you take after he were turned over to you to ensure his safety?
A.519 - Well, you would keep a strict eye on him and keep right close up to the prisoner, sir
Q.520 - Would you necessarily hold his arms?
A.520 - If it was necessary I would hold his arms
Q.521 - If the man showed every intention of going quietly with the escort or with you as escort would you necessarily hold tight onto his arm?
A.521 - Well, it would all depend upon whether I would consider the man would make a break
Q.522 - But if he were quiet you would not necessarily hold tightly to him?
A.522 - Not necessarily, sir
Q.523 - It would be a matter of opinion, would it not?
A.523 - Yes, sir
Q.524 - Do you know the regulations laid down in R.O.2246 concerning conduct of persons under escort?
A.524 - I couldn't tell you right offhand, sir

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.525 - Mr. McCallum, you know pretty well the story of this affair don't you?
A.525 - Yes, sir
Q.526 - You have probably read the summary. You have not heard the evidence here but you probably heard the evidence in the case of Nelson when he was tried by Capt. Byers so you pretty well know the circumstances surrounding the whole thing?
A.526 - Yes, sir
Q.527 - This charge is a very serious charge. It is without reasonable excuse allowing a person committed to his charge to escape? You have been in the R.C.M.P. back home?
A.527 - Yes, sir
Q.528 - How long?
A.528 - Ten years, sir
Q.529 - That is prior to the war?
A.529 - Yes, sir, about seven years prior to the War
Q.530 - And three years overseas now?
A.530 - Yes, sir
Q.531 - What rank did you hold in the Northwest Mounted?
A.531 - First Class Corporal, sir
Q.532 - So for 10 years you have been very familiar with what to do in instances of this type. You have had instances of it to do yourself and have heard and seen a lot of other people being arrested haven't you?
A.532 - Yes, sir
Q.533 - How long have you been in London?
A.533 - A little over a year, sir
Q.534 - And I presume you have been out nine-tenths of the nights around the streets knowing what was going on here in your section of the No. 6 Provost Company?
A.534 - Yes, sir
Q.535 - Now, then, as I say you know the story about this thing. What in your opinion - you are an expert - in your opinion what did Erasmus not do that he should have done?
A.535 - Well, sir, if it is a professional opinion, sir, it was possible to lose that prisoner, sir, but there was a certain amount of laxness in not being on the alert
Q.536 - Was there any reasonable excuse for letting him escape under the circumstances as you know them? You heard the evidence and all the rest. We know a woman bumped him. Nelson tells us now that just prior to the time this man made the break to get away Nelson tells us that Erasmus had his hand around the left elbow of the prisoner and they were going through the crowd and as they got to the curb some woman bumped Erasmus and said something to him in the dark and the man made a break

A.536 - Yes, sir
Q.537 - And he got away
A.537 - Yes, sir
Q.538 - They chased him in the crowd and he got away
A.538 - Yes, sir. The professional opinion of that, sir, is that he should not have got away
Q.539 - That is being pretty hard-boiled, though, isn't it. What would happen back home in the Northwest Mounted?
A.539 - I would be placed under charge right away, sir
Q.540 - I suppose once a person has been put into your hands you have to place him under superior authority no matter what happens?
A.540 - No matter what happens, sir, you have to bring him to trial
Q.541 - That same principle is being taught by you here in this Provost Corps, is it?
A.541 - Yes, sir. Unless there is some very good excuse they are placed on charge here when a prisoner escapes

The Prosecution is closed

R.P. 40 is complied with as follows by the President to the accused:-

I am going to tell you what takes place now. All the evidence is in so far as evidence against you produced by the Prosecution is concerned. You may, if you wish, give evidence as a witness but if you do you are liable to be cross-examined on your evidence on matters which may not pertain directly to this case but you may be cross-examined on anything the Prosecutor feels he would like to ask you. You may call witnesses as to character only. Now, in this case you will not be allowed to call further witnesses or to produce any evidence as to facts except of course your own evidence in extenuation of the offence or otherwise. You may call witnesses as to facts of the case in addition to your own evidence and bear in mind that every witness except a witness as to character is a witness as to the facts. You are defended by an officer, Mr. Fidler, who is quite capable and you have to chose between either giving evidence yourself or making a statement. You can't be compelled to make a statement or give evidence and you are not allowed to do both. Therefore, if you do not wish to give evidence as a witness on your own behalf you may, if you wish, make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You may give this statement orally or you may write it out and hand it to me but you will not be sworn and no questions will be put to you. That means this; - that if you submit yourself to giving evidence on oath on which you may be cross-examined you may do so or you may make a statement orally or in writing and you will not be on oath in which case you can't be cross-examined. It is only fair to say to you though that a sworn statement will be given much more weight to than merely an oral or written statement in which you won't allow the officers of the court or the Prosecutor to cross-examine you. Do you think you understand all that?

Accused - Yes, sir, I understand, sir

PRESIDENT TO ACCUSED:

Q.542 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A.542 - Yes, sir
Q.543 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A.543 - Yes, sir
Q.544 - Is he a witness as to character only?
A.544 - Yes, sir,

1st Witness for the Defence, the accused, M.11862 Pte (L/Cpl) Erasmus, C.F., No. 6 Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.545 - Cpl. Erasmus, will you go back to the night of the 18th of September and give your complete story as you know it of the incidents which took place from the time you went on duty that night until the time that you were placed under arrest by the R.S.M.?

A.545 - Sir, at 1845 hours on the 18 Sep 42 I was detailed for duty on Coventry Street in company with L/Cpl Nelson. I went out on duty and being a Friday night - a week-end - there were a number of soldiers and we were kept fairly busy. About, I should say, 2030 hours we were visited by the two visiting N.C.Os who happened to be that night Sgt. Crowe and Cpl. Keeney. As I was not feeling too well I asked Sgt. Crowe then if it was all right to step down to B.C. House or B.C. Canteen for a cup of coffee to clear my throat. He said "Yes but don't be too long getting back on the beat and we will meet you again at 2215 or 2220 hours up in Lyons Corner House" I said "All right". We went down to B.C. house possibly for 10 minutes, walked back up and instead of feeling better I just started to feel worse so I said to L/Cpl Nelson "Let's go down to the Leicester Square Tube Station and have a smoke" being out of sight and at the same time see if anyone is laying around drunk as it is part of our beat anyhow. We went in there and stayed there until 2200 hours and started to walk down Coventry Street. On walking up the street we passed the Hippodrome and coming to the corner directly across the street and on the Northeast corner of Leicester Square Gardens I stopped. I noticed somebody standing in the shadows on my right as I was walking towards Piccadilly Circus. I stepped over there and found it was an American soldier who was drunk and was helpless. I stepped over there as there were two or three other American soldiers there and said "Will you look after this chap?" and as I spoke to these chaps I heard a noise and someone shouted "Let me up you son-of-a-bitch". Well, I figured it was a fight. I went over there quickly and when I got there there was quite a crowd collected and I sees a civilian police constable and a soldier I didn't notice at that time it was a Grenadier Guards Sergeant holding onto a Canadian soldier who appeared to be in a fighting and drinking mood. I walked up and said "What is the matter Canada?" and he said "Are you a provost?" and I said "Yes" and he said "Get me away from these sons-of-bitches". I didn't say anything and walked to the constable and said "What are you going to do with him?" He said "I want him". I didn't say anything to that and he said to someone in the crowd - that is, the civilian constable (I can't be sure if it was a Grenadier Guard sergeant or someone else with him) but he said "Where is the chap that lost his wallet?". Someone said it was over here and the Canadian soldier said "I will tell you the whole story. I was sitting in the park by myself and a civilian came up to me and the dirty so and so said he wanted to go down on me and started to unbutton my clothes and how he has accused me of robbing him of his wallet", I didn't say anything; the constable had him and it was not a case for me to look after and I just said to the constable "What are you going to do?". He said "I want him" and repeated it a couple of times and finally when he decided to go after the complainant he said "Hold this man". I didn't make a move at first to comply with his order and he said "Here, hold him" and shoved his arm out and I took hold of his arm as L/Cpl Nelson said and also took his left arm with my right arm. I guess he didn't notice that but this Grenadier Guard Sergeant was also still holding onto him and I said "We will go across the street" as I intended to check him for his pass and paybook to see if he was on leave or not and all this time the soldier was pleading for me to take him away from the police constable and I didn't make any effort to touch the soldier or anything and just once told him to keep quiet. He was handed to me and I did take him and he quieted right down and went limp and I noticed then it was not drink and that he was just grieved over this man attempting to do an indecent act. I started to go across with him and some civilian woman said "I will look after him". I took one arm from him and brushed her away and said "I will look after him myself" and I didn't expect he would run. But I used my own discretion at the time and I didn't think he would go and it was one of those cases that beat us to the punch. I gave chase but he darted in amongst people on the street and when he got 60' or more ahead of me I couldn't make him out because he was in amongst the people. When I got up to the corner of Lyons Corner House there is a street going up towards Soho District and I couldn't be sure whether he turned there or went directly on into Piccadilly Circus, anyhow, we looked around there and followed up to see if we could see anyone and as I didn't have a good look at him I was not certain if I could recognize his features although he had a Toronto Scottish Glengarry on - -

Court - Balmoral

A.545 (con) - No, sir, a Toronto Scottish Glengarry and then I went - - I was feeling sick and miserable and mad at the time and disgusted with myself and went in to see the patrol sergeants if they were in Lyons Corner House. They were not in there so I went to the east side of the building and just sat down at a table and we were not there any more than a couple of minutes or so and Cpl. Keeny came walking in and said "The police constable wants you" and I said "Yes" and walked over and he said "What happened to the soldiers" and I said "He escaped from me" so the police constable took my particulars and also L/Cpl Nelson's and he asked if I would go with him up to the Police Station as there would have to be a statement made and I said "Certainly I will go". We went up to the police station, arrived at the police station and he took us into a small waiting room possibly the size of this one or not that big and said "Wait here". A minute or two later an Inspector came in. Pardon me. While we were waiting - - No, the Inspector came in and he had a sheet of ordinary paper something like what you have on your desk there with writing on it and took our names and numbers and then walked out and the Grenadier Guard sergeant stayed there for a few minutes too so two civilian detectives walked in and asked me if I knew the chap and I said no I didn't know him. They said "Can you identify him?" and I said "No, I can't". That was all that was said. After a time the Grenadier sergeant was called out of the room and there was just the two of us there and we stayed in there until I don't know how long - at any rate I presume it was midnight and S/M McCallum walked in. He said "Erasmus, what happened?" I said "He got away". He said "You two will be under arrest, go back to barracks". He took us out of there and put us in the van in front of the door and we were under open arrest

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.546 - How long have you been in the Army, Erasmus?
A.546 - I enlisted on the 21st of May, 1940, sir
Q.547 - In what Unit?
A.547 - Calgary Highlanders
Q.548 - Come over with them?
A.548 - With the reinforcements, sir
Q.549 - Where did you go to?
A.549 - 103, Witley

Q.541 - That is 2 C.D.I.R.U.?
A.541 - Yes, sir
Q.542 - Did you go into the field with them?
A.542 - No, sir, I was only approximately eleven days in the Holding Unit and then I put in a transfer for the Provost. Well, the 2nd of March I went in 103, Witley, and the 13 March, the same month, I was in Aldershot - Badajos Barracks, that is the Canadian Provost Training Unit
Q.543 - You transferred over to the Provost then?
A.543 - Yes, sir and came up here on the 3 May 41
Q.544 - Have you been here ever since?
A.544 - No, sir, I have been out on detachment for 11 months
Q.545 - Where was that?
A.545 - Glasgow, sir and came back here on the 18 July Q.546 - How old are you?
A.546 - 26 on my last birthday
Q.547 - Married?
A.547 - Yes, sir
Q.548 - Children?
A.548 - One, sir
Q.549 - Where do they live?
A.549 - Calgary, sir
Q.550 - What did you do in civilian life?
A.550 - I was a labourer, sir
Q.551 - In Calgary?
A.551 - NB, east of Edmonton, sir
Q.552 - Any experience in police work before the War?
A.552 - No, sir, none at all
Q.553 - Since you have been in the Army have you had any trouble at all?
A.553 - Well, I didn't, get in when I should have on a week-end once and lost two day's pay. That is all. This is my first serious offence
Q.554 - Anything else besides this two hours a.w.l. How long was it?
A.554 - I should have been in Saturday midnight and didn't get in until Monday morning reveille
Q.555 - Extended week-end?
A.555 - Yes, sir
Q.556 - This is a very serious charge isn't it?
A.556 - Yes, sir, as far as my work goes it is Q.557 - From what I can gather from Mr. McCallum, the sergeant-major, the motto of the Northwest Mounted or the Mounted Police in Canada has been passed on down to the Cdn Pvst Cps that you get your man and once you get him you don't lose him. Is that the motto of the Provost Corps?
A.557 - It seems to be, sir
Q.558 - You think it is right too, don't you?
A.558 - Oh, yes, I will admit that that is right
Q.559 - Now, we come to the charge here "Without reasonable excuse allowing to escape a prisoner committed to your charge". Now, there is no doubt about it this chap escaped is there?
A.559 - No, sir
Q.560 - And no doubt about it that he was committed to your charge?
A.560 - He was given into my custody
Q.561 - You took him over?
A.561 - Yes, sir, I did take him over
Q.562 - And when he got away, as you said yourself, you went back to the Corner House very disgusted with yourself?
A.562 - Yes, sir
Q.563 - That doesn't answer the question
A.563 - It is something I couldn't understand sir, because - - Q.564 - Were you disgusted with yourself for letting him get away?
A.564 - It was a let-down for me for the simple reason that I have escorted a lot of men from Glasgow down to London and they were from cat burglars to robbery while armed and I never put handcuffs on them and got through with them and any man I thought would give me any trouble I just said "Well, I have a pistol here and if I do 28 days you will do the same in hospital".

This man seemed to be very glad to see me come on the scene and was pleading for me to take him off from the hands of the civilian policeman and when he came along with me I just thought he would not make a break

Q.565 - A mistake in judgment on your part?
A.565 - Too big a mistake, sir
Q.566 - How long have you been awaiting trial?
A.566 - From the 18th, sir
Q.567 - In close custody?
A.567 - I was in close custody and then through the generosity of the sergeant-major I was allowed to work in the kitchen during the day but I did sleep in detention at night
Q.568 - Well, to all intents and purposes you were under close arrest. You were awaiting trial under detention?
A.568 - Yes, sir. I won't be extra sorry because I could more or less blame that on my slackness on patrol, lack of exercise. I really felt sick. I am not using that as an excuse because I should have gone to the M.O.

Court - Well, it is a tough break corporal

1st Character Witness, Capt. M.E.Byers, O.C., No. 6 Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer

Q.569 - Capt. Byers, can you give your name and unit to the court stenographer please?
A.569 - Maurice Edward Byers, O.C., No. 6 Pvst Coy
Q.570 - Capt. Byers would you tell the court what you know of the character of the accused, his conduct and his behaviour as a Provost during the time you have known him?
A.570 - Well, the accused has been under my command for about fifteen months and ever since I have known him he has carried out his duties faithfully, honestly and has been a good soldier
Q.571 - You are quite willing at any time to have him back under your command are you, Capt. Byers?
A.571 - Oh, yes

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.572 - Are there any regulations laid down as to the handling of prisoners under circumstances that you know existed in this particular case?
A.572 - No, sir, there is no definite regulation laid down but there are regulations laid down for the safe-keeping of a man delivered into our custody
Q.573 - That is for escorts
A.573 - Escorts, yes
Q.574 - We have here filed as an exhibit a copy of your standing order issued September 3rd signed by you and apparently as has been pointed out by the Prosecutor the only reference in that order is under the heading "Escorts" which deals entirely with the conduct of escorts particularly on train duty and doesn't deal with the conduct of your Provost personnel in effecting arrests on the street
A.574 - Yes, escort duty to men handed over in custody
Q.575 - Yes, but it refers particularly to train duty
A.575 - Yes, it was made up particularly for train duty but it also says there "Men handed over for custody"
Q.576 - Where?
A.576 - Where it says "Taking over prisoners"
Q.577 - I don't remember seeing it. That is drawn up for train escorts. By inference it may be regarded for other purposes
A.577 - It is
Q.578 - But looking at it in a strict legal sense it only refers to escort duty by train, doesn't it?
A.578 - Yes, sir
Q.579 - And the only way you could drag that into action on one of your personnel on the street in Leicester Square would be by inference only?
A.579 - Yes

Q.580 - So that insofar as actual regulations in connection with the conduct of your Provost personnel there aren't any?
A.580 - No, not regarding taking custody of a man being handed over
Q.581 - Now, you are an expert in this business and it is natural to assume that you are to maintain discipline in your unit but knowing the circumstances of this case is there any reasonable excuse that this should have happened that this chap would get away from Cpl. Erasmus?
A.581 - The fact that a prisoner escaped showed that he was not quite on the job but under the circumstances he is not an experience policeman, it was blackout, there was a big crowd of people on the street and the prisoner could have got away even if he was an experienced man. There is an awful crowd on that street at night. I know that
Q.582 - Now, the other N.C.O., Nelson, who was with Erasmus you tried him?
A.582 - Yes, sir
Q.583 - Under Section 20?
A.583 - No, I had him up; I didn't make a charge against him
Q.584 - I have been going through the Criminal Code and K.R. & O here and Routine Orders and it would appear that you have the power if you so desire to try your own personnel?
A.584 - Only limited power, sir
Q.585 - So that you did exercise that power in fact with Nelson?
A.585 - Yes, sir. The fact that he was a green man and had just come to the Company - I think he had only been here a week when this happened - I think he had only been in this country about two months before that.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

For this particular case I would like to bring to the attention of the court that when I took this case over and agreed to defend Cpl. Erasmus my first instructions to him were that he tell his story truthfully, not leaving out any details which would be of any assistance to the court. I believe today before the court he has demonstrated the fact that he has followed that out to the letter. Listening to the other witnesses we have had a good deal of confusion regarding the circumstances that surrounded this case in the disturbance that took place at Leicester Square. Firstly, we had the evidence of the police constable and then that of the sergeant and that of Cpl. Nelson none of which were totally in agreement. I am not going to labour the point about whether or not the man was under arrest, whether he was handed over in custody or whether he was just given to Cpl. Erasmus to hold but it seems to me that the whole case boils down now to the interpretation of the words "reasonable excuse" - whether or not there was reasonable excuse.

Cpl. Erasmus started on his patrol duties that night, as he has told you, not feeling quite up to the mark but still continuing out on duty. He was no doubt confused as we can all see by the evidence that has been brought out today by the conditions that existed at Leicester Square at the time of this disturbance. The police constable himself is very much confused in his evidence and I see no reason why Cpl. Erasmus should not have been the same. Further he did hear and other witnesses did hear the statement made by the soldier who escaped to the effect that certain conditions had existed in Leicester Square, that he had been approached by some unknown individual - unknown by reason of the fact that he ran away - and was asked to commit some indecent act. Naturally the soldier was put out about the whole thing and in talking it over with Cpl. Erasmus it seems reasonable to assume that Cpl. Erasmus also took a poor view of the whole thing and as he says as soon as - and it has been substantiated to my Cpl. Nelson and by the sergeant of the Grenadier Guards - everyone had reason to believe that the soldier who was committed to

Cpl. Erasmus' charge was quiet and willing to listen to reason and the whole affair was over as far as he was concerned. Cpl. Erasmus took him across the street away from the crowd which was a normal, natural thing to do and in doing so had a grip on him by the arm which he indicated to the court this afternoon. When they reached the other side the evidence is from both Cpl. Erasmus and Cpl. Nelson there was a certain amount of interruption from some woman who bumped into them and some certain words were exchanged between Cpl. Erasmus and the woman in which he told her to leave and in doing so removed one hand from the prisoner in order to motion her to one side. The time that he made that motion, the evidence is, the prisoner made a sudden jerk and ran away. In the blackout, in the dark and in the crowds given a start of a few yards it would be practically impossible for the accused to follow up and find the man if he really was intent on escaping as we see he was.

Cpl. Erasmus is not an experienced policeman. S/M McCallum who gave evidence this afternoon upon being questioned by me said that in his dealings with an accused or a man under escort he would use his own discretion as to the extent to which he would go to restrain him. First I asked him to what extent he would go in the case of violence being used and then to what extent he would go in the event of to all intents and purposes a man going quietly. He even went so far as to state that in his opinion there might be times when it would not even be necessary to hold a man's arm. Now, in this particular case the evidence indicates that Cpl. Erasmus went so far as to do that, that he held his arm and was holding it up to the time of the interference. Cpl. Erasmus, as I say, has not the ten years' experience that the sergeant-major has and although the sergeant-major's opinion is also that there might not be reasonable excuse I think under the circumstances there is some reasonable excuse in this particular case.

Cpl. Erasmus has been up to this time a good chap. His character record is clear. He is spoken well of by his commanding officer and during the time that he has been under arrest he has been working and shall we say to some extent given certain privileges by the sergeant-major himself. He has now been awaiting trial I believe about 21 days. In this particular case I think if Cpl. Erasmus were lost to the Army as a result of a conviction by being placed in detention it might possibly do some harm. I am quite sure it would do some hard as far as Cpl. Erasmus is concerned. He has endeavoured at all times to do his job and he has now had a lesson in that aside from anything else he has been up on court-martial. We all know how serious a charge must be for it to reach a court-martial stage but in this particular instance I do feel that some consideration should be given to Cpl. Erasmus and I would ask under the circumstances that the words "reasonable excuse" -- I would say that there was some reasonable excuse in this case and on that basis the court find the accused Not Guilty.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

In summing up, sir, I have very little to say. The accused was charged with a certain charge, that is, allowing to escape a prisoner without reasonable cause to which he pleaded Not Guilty and during his own evidence under oath he admitted that he did have a prisoner committed to his charge and that this soldier did get away from him or he did, in other words, permit a soldier to escape without reasonable cause

Court is closed to consider the finding

Court is re-opened

Capt. M..E. Byers, Officer Commanding, No. 6 Coy., Cdn Pvst Cps., having been reminded that he is still under oath is examined by the Court.

Q.586 - Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused?
A.586 - I produce A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M.6

A.F.B.296 and M.F.M.6 are read, signed by the President, marked "C", and attached to the proceedings

Q.587 - Is the accused the person named in the statement you have heard read?
A.587 - Yes, sir
Q.588 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A.588 - Yes, sir
Q.589 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A.589 - Yes, sir

Defending officer declines to cross-examine this witness

Court - Do you wish to address the court?
Accused - I presume that you have found me guilty in this. That is my own conclusion and I intend to take whatever you consider I should get for this, shall I say neglect of duty. As I have a wife and child it is not me that would suffer if I refused to soldier after this. I will carry on and soldier as if nothing hadhappened. I have just been a victim of circumstances and after it is all over I will just carry on and do all I can and not make any more mistakes if I possibly can help it.
Court - Corporal, this court is in a tough spot and you are in a tough spot too. It is our duty to carry out the dictates of military law as laid down. Oftentimes we have to do things we don't want to do. We sympathize with you in the spot you find yourself in and will give due consideration to what you have said, to our knowledge of what the consequences will be to you and to your Corps and hope that whatever sentence we have to impose that you will truly do what you have already undertaken when you addressed the court. We want good soldiers and we want good soldiers like you. We are going to need every ounce of effort to win this War in whatever job we are given and I know that you will take whatever punishment is meted out to you as a good soldier and will come back with chin up. The court will now close to consider the sentence.

On 18th September 1942 at 10.5 p.m. I saw a scuffle taking place in Cranbourne Street and heard a man shout "He has got my wallet". A soldier then broke away and ran away towards Leicester Square . I ran after him and caught him in Leicester Square. I then took him back to the scene of the disturbance where a civilian said "That's him.He took my wallet". The soldier then became very violent and a Grenadier Guards sergeant came to my assistance.We were then holding the soldier who wore a Canada,Toronto Scottish shoulder flash,when two patrols of the Canadian Provost Corps arrived and offered their assistance. After impressing on them the importance of holding the soldier I handed him over to them and went to seek the complainant. I was unable to trace him and learned from the Grenadier Guards sergeant that the Provost patrols had taken the soldier away saying they would wait with him across the road. Together we searched the vicinity but were unable to trace either the Provost patrols or the soldier in custody.
At 10.20 p.m. I went to Lyons Corner House,Coventry Street where I saw the two Provost patrols,Lance Corporal No.M11862 Clifford Francis ERASMUS,6 Canadian Provost Corps and Lance Corporal Burtus Allen NELSON No.F49920,same unit,respectively, seated at a table. I asked them what had happened to the soldier in custody and Erasmus replied "He got away from us".

On 16th September 1942,at about 10 p.m. I was near Cranbourne Street when I saw a disturbance in which I saw a Policeman holding a Canadian soldier, the soldier became very violent and I went to the assistance of the Police Officer. The two Canadian Provost Patrols approached and on request of the Police Officer took the soldier into custody. The Police Officer then went away saying he would get the person who had complained of being robbed. The two Provost patrols told me they would escort the Canadian soldier to the opposite side of the road and await for the return of the Constable with the complainant. The Police Officer returned and accompanied by me searched for the Provost Patrols,we were unable to trace either them or the Canadian soldier. A little later we went to "Lyons Corner House" where we saw the two Provost Patrols. When asked where the Canadian soldier was,the older one of the two replied "He got away from us".

Going over we found a Canadian soldier being held by a Police Constable of the Civil Police.The policeman asked us to take the man into custody for questioning as it was suspected that he had stolen a purse from a civilian.He wanted us to hold the Canadian soldier until he had found the civilian and questioned him.We said that we would take the soldier across the street and wait for him on the other side.
As we started across the street the Canadian soldier made a sudden dash and before we could stop him he was gone.We gave chase as far as we could see where he was going but as it was dark he gave us the slip.
We then went into Lyon's Corner House to see if the Visiting N.C.O.s had been around.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS.

Western Central Station. "C" Division.
18th September 19 42.

Name Sergeant Ernest John Hacking.
Address Holding 2a Grenadier Guards.
Wellington Barracks, London S.W.1.

Age 26. Occupation Sergeant Army.

Statement: On 18th September 1942, at about 10 p.m. I was near Cranbourne Street when I saw a disturbance in which I saw a Policeman holding a Canadian Soldier, the soldier became very violent & I went to the assistance of the Police Officer. The two Canadian Provost Patrols approached and on request of the Police Officer took the Soldier into custody. The Police Officer then went away saying he would get the person who had complained of being robbed. The two Provost Patrols told me they would escort the Canadian Soldier to the Opposite side of the road & await for the return of the Constable with the complainant. The Police Officer returned & accompanied by me searched for the Provost Patrols, we were unable to trace either them or the Canadian Soldier A little late we went to "Lyons Corner House" where we saw the two Provost Patrols, when asked where the Canadian Soldier was, the Elder one of the two replied "He got away from us"

PROSECUTION

F49920 L/Cpl Nelson, B.A., No 6 Coy, Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:

At 2200 hrs on 18 Sep 1942 I was on duty on Coventry Street, London with L/Cpl Erasmus of No 6 Provost Coy. We were across the street from Leicester Square Park from where we saw a struggle across the street.

Going over we found a Cdn soldier being held by a police constable of the civil police. The policeman asked us to take the man into custody for questioning as it was suspected that he had stolen a purse from a civilian. He wanted us to hold the Cdn soldier until he had found the civilian and questioned him. We said that we would take the soldier across the street and wait for him on the other side.

As we started across the street the Cdn soldier made a sudden dash & before we could stop him he was gone. We gave chase as far as we could see where he was going but as it was dark he gave us the slip. We then went into Lyons Corner House to see if the missing NCO had been around.

Question - What did the soldier say when we approached him?

Answer - The soldier said he had been sitting in Leicester Square Park and a civilian had approached him and tried to perform an indecent act with him. He had refused to do this + they had quarrelled + fought. The civilian had then accused the soldier of stealing his purse.

Question Where was the civilian?

Answer The civilian must have disappeared as soon as the policeman arrived on the scene.

No further questions.

I proceeded immediately to this Police Stn by Police Car and on arrival there I received statements from P. C. Harmer, and Sgt Hackling Grenadier Guards, to this effect. I found R/Cpls Erasmus and Nelson, BA. at the Police Stn. I placed them under arrest and returned with them to our barracks.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. Gentlemen of the Court, in plea of Mitigation of Sentence for the Accused, M1148 Gnr Erickson H.R., I wish to submit the following evidence.

The Accused landed in France with the 6th Cdn Fd Regt RCA as an FOO "Driver Operator" on 7th Jul 44. He was in almost continuous action through France, Belgium and Holland, until he was severely wounded in Germany on 28 Feb 45 by a sniper's bullet through the stomach. He spent 14 days in a Fd Surgical Hosp where he was operated on. He was then evacuated by air to England, and here spent two months in bed at 24 CGH. He was then permitted to wear hospital "Blues", and it was shortly after this that his offence of being AWL began.

During the entire campaign Gnr Erickson had no leave whatsoever, and his nerves after 8 fairly continuous months in the lines were in a ragged condition. He was wounded just two weeks before he was to proceed on 9 days' privilege leave to the UK. As soon as he was in "Blues" he applied for a pass because his wife and two children lived within travelling distance of the hospital, and it was almost a year since he had been at home with them. However, this was refused, and his MO informed him that he was to be evacuated to Canada in a short time, and consequently no passes could be issued. The next time his wife visited him he asked her how soon she thought that she and the children could follow him to Canada. It was only then that she informed him that she had not made any application to travel, because she did not wish to go to Canada. She was influenced this way by letters received from her sister, who had also married a Canadian, gone to Canada, was hating the life there and was wishing to return to England. This came as a great shock to him, because the whole time that he was on the continent he believed his wife was looking after her own and the childrens' interests in their repatriation to Canada. Naturally this provoked a disagreement between Erickson and his wife during which she requested him to get his discharge in, and settle down, in England. She left him with this on his mind, and told him that she would not come and see him again until he complied with her wishes. She was good in her promise and paid him no further visits.

Gentlemen, I want you to picture Erickson and the problem that confronted him. There he was in hospital, his nerves ragged as I've already mentioned, still weak from his severe wound and with all his plans for the future falling around him. He knew that he would probably be on his way to Canada before he had come to an agreement with his wife, and once there would never get anywhere with her through correspondence. He also knew that it was impossible to get leave to straighten the matter out. As he saw it, there was only one thing to do and that was to see his wife immediately. This is exactly what he did, and in doing so became AWL.

MH

At first, on seeing his wife, she still wouldn't listen to reason, and acted very stubbornly. After a considerable length of time, and with the help of her parents, Erickson finally convinced her that it was her duty to follow him to wherever he was in the best position to work and maintain a family; and so she agreed to go with him. By then the Accused was realizing just how serious the offence was that he had committed, and that he would have to return to the hospital and face the consequences. At first he was afraid to return as the thought of a term in detention was not a pleasant thing to think about, particularly after what he had been through in the past months. Although he knew that he had to go back, he kept putting it off, until he finally decided that the only thing he could do was return to the hospital and take his punishment. I might add that his wife and herpeople had a lot to do with this decision. Upon his return to hospital he was sent to "West Wing" Detention Hospital, Bramshott, where he was held until fit to stand trial.

Gentlemen, the Accused has pleaded guilty, and he is willing to take any punishment that you see fit to award him. I have given you a rough outline of the Accused's actions leading up to, and during the offence. I sincerely believe that most men in his position would have done the same thing to preserve the security and happiness of their families. However, there are a number of pertinent points relevant to this case which I think merit your consideration when deciding upon the sentence.

1. The Accused is 26 years old this month; enlisted Sep 13th, 1939 (today is his 6th anniversary in the Army)

2. He came overseas in Sep 1940, and has 227 points for a Repat score.

3. His last privilege leave was in Jan 44. It is very probable that had he been granted a privilege leave when due, this trouble may have been thrashed out then, thus doing away with the necessity of going AWL.

4. He was AWL for 54 days. He gave himself up 1 Jul 45. This means that he has been held under close arrest for 75 days.

5. He was ill at the time of going AWL, and knew that by so doing he would probably delay his recovery. Is it likely that a man would wilfully do this, knowing the consequences, unless he had a good reason? As it so happened his condition was affected by the offence.

6. His MPM 6 looks quite black; but if you will study it closely you will see that it is not as bad as it looks. The crimes are all for being AWL for very short periods. A year had elapsed between each of the first 4 and 6 months between the 4th and 5th, and 5th and 6th. Only once was he AWL on the continent, and that during a long rest period.

7. His civilian occupation was farming. After his discharge he intends to buy a farm under the Govt scheme and use his Gratuity and Rehab grants im doing so.

In summing up the above few points I feel that Gnr Erickson by serving 75 days under arrest has served much of his punishment for his offence. I think that he should be given a chance to get home as soon as possible to make a start on his farm. He has had trouble with his wife over her going to Canada, and I believe that the longer he has in Canada to prepare their home before she and the children arrive there, the greater chance he has of making a success of his marriage. Due to his long service in the Army, his Repat points are such that he should be leaving for home almost immediately his sentence is served. With this, Gentlemen, I rest my case.

1st Pvt Kit A17281 Gnr. Hillis C. J. 4 Fd Regt RCA duly sworn deposes:-

I identify Rec here to-day. On 8 Nov 44 I was lying down in barracks which was issued to a pub. The Rec entered the room from the pub & passed me about 10 ft. away. He took a slight look around the room & started into a slow walk across the room towards stairs leading to balcony. He went up & then onto the balcony & the mail bag was there. He reached in and pulled out a parcel of 200 cigarettes. Gnr Silverton entered the room as the Rec dropped the cigs back into the bag & stepped back from the bag a few steps. Silverton was about nearly under the balcony by now. Rec whispered something to Silverton who raised up his hands. Rec then reached into bag again & picked out 200 cigs & threw them over the rail to Silverton who caught them. Rec. then started down the balcony to the steps. I let out a yell for them to put them back. Silverton then threw the carton of cigs up but they hit the rail & fell back down. He swore at them & the second time threw them over. Rec had now come down the stairs & told him to put the cigs back in bag which he then did. Silverton left the room. Rec. then came down again. He said he had let some cigs & that that was the way he put them back. He then left the room back into the pub

Cross Ex. When I was lying down I was replacing the man who was usually in the room as I was substituting for him. I was lying down as I wanted to be down. Rec passed within 2 ft of me. Room was well lit. He could see me. I don't think he did but I could say for sure ~~then~~. He started to walk in a slow manner. Started to walk quietly - if he hadn't I would have spoken to him. I thought he was trying to do something so didn't speak to him. I hadn't been in the pub I wouldn't say the walk was that of a man indulging in alcohol

The mail bag - I saw him put his hand in & take cigs out. Didn't see him untie it or anything. The second had been given out. Acc. said he had lost 600 cigs. Said he could get his own back this way as he had lost his from the bag in a similar manner. We couldn't have been that he himself had had cigs stolen & known how bad it was & therefore wouldn't take them. I have never looked into [illegible] mail by myself yet.

No Re Ex

Court - I was on ground floor. I saw it all happen on the balcony. There is a picket railing around the balcony. Can see there it. I live in that room.

Sgt. Prulier is the mail clerk from my troop. No one else is allowed to touch the bag but the mail clerk.

Don't think Acc knew I was there or may be he thought I was asleep but really no. Acc slept underneath balcony

2nd Pte in T. A/1725 Sgt. Prulière, M 76 Bty 4 Fd Regt. duly sworn deposes :-

On 8 NOV 44 the mail bag was delivered to me about 1630. I took it up to balcony, sorted the mail and distributed it all but 2 parcels of 200 cigs & a few papers. Parcels were for Sgt Russell & Gnr. Bafour. No one was allowed up there but myself, Sgt Maj Scott, Sgt. Braxton, Bdr Hawkes. There were no articles in the mail for Acc nor was there anything of his on the balcony. I had told the Tp all the mail for the troop had been distributed. There was no other bag on the balcony that could contain cigs.

Cross Ex. - I opened bag that day. I closed it just by folding the top over. I put it beside the balcony rail. I didn't tie it up as it had been when I got it. I have issued no orders forbidding people to take the mail themselves. Don't know if people do take a look in it themselves. I gave instructions that mail had been sorted. I delivered this down to the troop. I am not sure that the whole troop got them in 30". There was 4 troop. Acc has been getting letters regularly. Don't know about parcels. Acc driver a Canadian Officer now at the O.P. As far as I know people at O.P get mail regularly

I saw Acc re the evening in question. Detailed him to help put on a job. We were moving that night. Bag cannot locked. M was folded over.
No Re Ex. -

Court. - Always has been a mail orderly in Troop. Parcels always handled by B.H.Q. Rec'd them from Bde. Rice. This night we got parcels too as we were moving. Ordinarily we on a Troop don't get mail bag. Rec had no right to put his hand into a mail bag of any kind.

3rd Pers Wit. Capt. S S M Sprowle 4 Fd Regt duly sworn deposes. -

On 12 Nov I took a statement in the case. At the end of the evidence for the Pros. the Acc was cautioned as set out in the S of E. I gave him the caution personally. He answered that he wished to give evidence on oath. He was sworn. He made the statement voluntarily when cautioned. He said as follows: -

"I walked from the gate, into the billets, cross the floor and up the stairs to the balcony. I walked around for the mail bag, took out one carton of cigarettes and seeing that there was another package in the bottom of the bag, dumped the whole contents on the floor and examined the other parcels. Seeing that it did not belong to me, I returned the contents of the mail bag and walked to me, I returned the contents of the mail bag and while I was doing so, Gilbertson entered the room. I told him that one carton of cigarettes in my hand, and [illegible] now carrying the parcels over the rail I got to Gilbertson "now a swipe, all with me" and then the parcels me to over the rail and it fell to the floor. In the meantime Gilbertson had taken the cigarettes from my hand and told me to put the cigarettes back across the floor and back into the mail bag. I did this and I did not attempt to steal the cigarettes. I never had any intention of stealing the cigarettes. I did not receive. I did this because I was afraid to steal the cigarettes for repayment for the ones going to steal the cigarettes for repayment for the ones I had taken myself. This was as far as I was concerned, was certainly that no intention of stealing

1st Def Wit. Capt. A.E. Adams ~~W~~ Regt duly sworn deposes:-

Acc. has been with me 8 months the day in my company. I usually have about 90 cups there. Acc knows this. He could help himself to them any time. The Bty. was resting at the time in question. While in rest his behaviour was rather haphazard. He maintained the company but I did not see as much of him. Cant say if he was drinking but while at rest everybody was.

Cross Ex. - Acc could take my cups at any time. He had no permission to take any of the troop cups

Ask Ct to consider part I record of the Acc & the conditions under which the happened. Acc. has not done any thing with the intent to steal. At the time a lot of canvassing was going on & he did his share. Probably he was a little off balance at the time. Ask Ct to be lenient.

Summary of evidence in the case of No K51174 Gnr Erickson, L.E., 26 Cdn Fd Bty, 4 Cdn Pd Regt RCA, CAC, charged with stealing (AA Sec 18(4)).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness

A17281 Gnr Willis, C.J., 26 Cdn Fd Bty, 4 Cdn pd Regt RCA, sworn, states:-

"In the billets of F tp, 26 Bty, 4 Cdn pd Regt at Rumpst at 2115 hrs 8 Nov 44 where I was lying down, Gnr Erickson whom I recognize came through the door from the adjoining pub, came past me and went at a slow walk to the stair steps going up to the balcony about eight feet above the ground floor where I was. He walked down the balcony about halfway, opennned up the mail bag and pulled out one package of 300 cigarettes and took three of four paces from the mail bag. He then heard Gnr Gilbertson entering the room from the pub through the same door, so returned to the mail bag and replaced the cigarettes in the bag and took two or three steps away. Gnr Gilbertson entered the room and walked three quarters of the way through the room. Gnr Erickson said something to Gilbertson in a low voice which I could not hear, then Gilbertson walked over underneath the balcony and raised both hands in motion to catch. Erickson returned to the mail bag and pulled out 300 cigarettes, threw them to Gilbertson who caught them. Erickson then started down the balcony towards the steps. I then hollered for them to put the cigarettes back. Gilbertson immediately threw the cigarettes towards the balcony, but hit the rail so he recaught them and threw them back over the rail. He then left by the side door into the street. Erickson at the time was coming down the steps. I asked him to put the cigarettes which were lying on the balcony, back into the bag which he did. He then came back down the stairs from the balcony and claimed that he had lost 600 cigarettes in a simular way and that was one way of getting what belonged to him back. He then left the room through the pub. I later reported the whole incident to Sgm Scott."

Cross-examined by Gnr Erickson.

Q When I entered the room, are you sure that I tiptoed across the room?

A You walked in a soft walk fashion.

Q How did you know I took only one package of cigarettes out of the bag and not more?

A I saw you reach in and take one package out.

Q What proof have you got that I was trying to steal cigarettes and not looking to see if there were any for myself?

A You walked in so slow a manner that it drew my attention and caused me not to speak to you but to watch and see what happened. I saw you take the package of cigarettes from the bag, step back, and when you heard a noise, return to the bag and drop them in again.

"At F tp billets in Rumpst, the mail bag for F troop was delivered to me on 8 Nov 44 at about 1630 hrs. In the mail bag was two parcels of 300 cigarettes belonging to Sjt Russell and Gnr Dufour. I put the mail bag up on the balcony close to my bed. That was the only mail bag up there and the only one that could have contained cigarettes. The only other articles in the mail bag were newspapers. There were no articles belonging to either Gnr Erickson or Gnr Gilbertson in the mail bag nor were there any articles belonging to them on the balcony. There was no lock on the mail bag."

Cross-examined by Officer taking summary.

Q Had you made any issues of articles before 2100 hrs?
A Yes, I had issued all the mail out of the bag other than the two parcels belonging to Sjt Russell who was away at workshops and Gnr Dufour who was absent without leave.

Q Was ~~xxxxx~~ the accused present when you made the issue?
A I do not know.

Q Did you give the accused reason to believe there was mail for him?
A No.

Q Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"I walked from the pub, into the billets, across the floor and up the stairs to the balcony. I searched around for the mail bag, took out one carton of cigarettes and seeing that there was another package in the bottom of the bag, dumped the whole contents on the floor and examined the other package. Seeing that it did not belong to me, I returned the contents of the mail bag and while I was doing so, Gnr Gilbertson entered the room. I still had the one carton of cigarettes in my hand and tossing the package over the rail I said to Gilbertson "have a smoke", at which he threw the package back over the rail and it fell to the floor. In the meantime Gnr Willis ran across the floor and told me to put the cigarettes back into the mail bag. I also told him that I did not intend to steal the cigarettes because I had 600 taken myself which I did not receive. I did not tell him that I was going to steal the cigarettes for repayment for the ones I had taken myself. As far as Gilbertson or I was concerned, we certainly had no intention of stealing".

having been duly sworn states
I am pl Sgt 13pl R.Wpg Rif. On the 10th

R. Wpg Rif. I recognize the accused.
On Oct 10th 1944 the accused was posted to my section. At 1300 hrs
I warned him for guard duty for that night. At 1700 hrs I warned the accused for a patrol for that night. At 1800 hrs he asked permission to visit a friend Rfn Aguanee. Rfn Erickson was present at supper at 1730. At 1900 hrs he was not present for his guard. I enquired at 14pl and with Cpl Mackie searched the area but could not locate the accused.
I did not see Rfn Erickson again that night. We went on the patrol without the accused and I was vaccinated late but he had not returned at that time.

← Questioned by the Defence
I called the section together and warned them as a whole. The accused

← Questioned by the Court
I told the section that the whole platoon was going on patrol at approx 2100 hrs

The whole section was warned.
Every man did his turn at guard and Pte Erickson was placed on guard from 1900 hrs to 2000 hrs. He was on

I knew him well because he had

The Prosecuting Officer — Lieut J. Richardson having been duly sworn produced the Certificate of Apprehension marked Exhibit 'A'

Defence Submits — Paragraph 4 Record form a Prima Facie case not made out against the accused. — Because there is no proof of intent Prosecution Submits — Accused had no intention of returning and that he tried to award a particular service.

The Court is closed and considers the submission

The Court is reopened and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge.

Def Witness for the Defence — K 182 Rfn Erickson K.C. R Wpg Rif being duly sworn states:

On 10 Oct 1944 I joined 15 pl just after they had finished the noon meal. We fell back to the Canal until our artillery had put us a barrage and then moved up to a new position. I was warned for guard duty from 1900 hrs. I had one guard duty that afternoon. I was not warned for a patrol. I saw Rfn Adams after supper and not before. The first time I left the limit was at Elbrus for Hygiene. I have been with the unit for some time and my nerves are shot. When I left I was listed as a dysentery case when it should have been battle exhaustion. When I came back I could not stand the shelling so I left.

Questioned by the Association

I have been in the Army since Sept 13 1942. I joined the unit at Carpiquet Airport. I joined 1 Pl there and was with unit until I left at Elbeuf about 2½ months. I was out for about 1 month. I was there only for the one attack. After I left I hated like to France. I did nothing much in France but I had a little money which lasted until I was apprehended.

Questioned by the Court

I have been on sick parade before. I did not ask permission to go to the R.A.P. on the 10 Oct 44 nor did I report to my pl Sgt or pl Comd. I did not report to any military authority during my absence.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Summing up by Prosecution Exhibit E
Evidence - Prosecution Doc

The question is whether or not the accused intended to desert. The Prosecution has made out a Prima Facie case of desertion and that is ready in the evidence of the accused to rebut the assumption of intention to desert

Re an Application on the case of L 182
Pte Ericksen, K.O.

The accused has been in action since September and has seen some severe fighting. He was hospitalized at the Seine Base for dysentery, but says that prior to his trial he was much as before admission.

When questioned by the Adjt at the Depot the shooting and men tality affected him in such a manner that he could suggest no reason why he was incapable of reasoning clearly. He could write an article with his platoon in the afternoon and the shock to his nerves was sufficient to make him act as he did. He first he had to get drunk and the only way he could was to go AWOL.

As is seen by his AB 116 the accused is not a bad soldier and it is hoped by the court to be lenient when considering sentence.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Lieut Rooney J. H., Regina Rif was unable to get out of the lines due to Military expediency and Capt. R.A. Couche, HQ 7 Cdn Inf Bde the [illegible] member was called.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION H-195670 A/Sgt Aitkens, W.A., R Wpg Rif having been duly sworn states:

I am pl sgt 13 Pl R Wpg Rif. On the 10th Oct 1944, I was Sec Comd 8 Sec 15 Pl "C" Coy R Wpg Rif. I recognize the accused. On Oct 10th, 1944 the accused was posted to my section. At 1300 hrs I warned him for guard duty for that night. At 1400 hrs I warned the accused for a patrol that night. At 1600 hrs he asked permission to visit a friend Rfn Squance. Rfn Erickson was present at supper at 1730. At 1900 hrs he was not present for his guard. I enquired at 14 pl and with Cpl Machie searched the area but could not locate the accused. I did not see Rfn Erickson again that night. We went on the patrol without the accused and I was evacuated later but he had not returned at that time.

QUESTION BY THE DEFENCE

I called the section together and warned them as a whole. The accused was there. I saw him.

QUESTION BY THE COURT

I told the section that the whole platoon was going on patrol at approx 2100 hrs. The whole section was warned. Every man did his turn at guard and Rfn Erickson was placed on guard from 1900 hrs to 2000 hrs. He was on meal parade. Although a re-inforcement I knew him well because he had previously been in the pl.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION B-45175 A/Sgt C.J. Brown, R Wpg Rif, having been duly sworn, states:

I am pl Sgt of 15 pl "C" Coy, R Wpg Rif and have been pl Sgt since Oct 10, 1944. Since taking over the pl I have checked the Pl daily and Rfn Erickson has not been present at any time.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Major C.S. Platts, OC "C" Coy, R Wpg Rif having been duly sworn, states:

On Oct 1944 the Bn was engaged in the bitter fighting over the Leopold Canal. On the 10 Oct 44 my Coy had been ordered to patrol the enemey strongpoints of Biezere with recce patrols out.

NO QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

There was no court held to declare this man a deserter. As O.C. "C" Coy I warned a pl for the patrol. The pl Sgt was Sgt. McGeachie 13 pl. The R Wpg Rif were right forward Bn of the Bde and my Coy was left forward Coy of the Bn. We were across the canal.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

THE PROSECUTING OFFICER Lieut G. Richardson having been duly sworn produced the Certificate of Apprehension marked Exhibit "A".

DEFENCE SUBMITS Paragraph D-4 Record form D Prima Facie case not made out against the accused. Because there is no proof of intent.

PROSECUTION SUBMITS Accused had no intention of returning and that he tried to avoid a particular service.

The Court is closed and considers the submission.

The Court is reopened and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE K-162 Rfn Erickson K.D., R Wpg Rif being duly sworn states:

On 10 Oct 1944 I joined 15 pl just after they had finished the noon meal. We fell back to the canal until our artillery had put over a barrage and then moved up to a new position. I was warned for guard duty from 1900 hrs. I had done guard duty that afternoon. I was not warned for a patrol. I saw Rfn Squance after supper and not before. The first time I left the unit was at Elbeouf for dysentry. I had been with the unit for some time and my nerves were shot. When I left I was listed as a dysentry case when it should have been battle exhaustion. When I came back I could not stand the shelling so I left.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT PROSECUTION

I have been in the Army since Sept 13, 1943. I joined the unit at Carpequet Airport. I joined 15 pl there as Rfn and was with unit until I left at Elbecuf about 2½ months. I was out for about 1 month. I was there only for one attack. After I left I hitch hiked to France. I did nothing much in France but I had a little money which lasted until I was apprehended.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

I have been on sick parade before this time. I did not ask permission to go to the R.A.P. on the 10 Oct 44 nor did I report to my pl sgt or cpl, or pl Comd. I did not report to any military authority during my absence.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

DVP

SUMMING UP BY PROSECUTION. Exhibit "E"

ERICKSON - PROSECUTION.

The question is whether or not the accused intended to desert. The prosecution has made out a Prima Facie case of desertion and there is nothing in the evidence of the accused to rebut the assumption of intention to desert.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF K-182 RFN ERIKSON K.O.

The accused has been in action since Carpiquet and has seen some tough fighting. He was hospitalized at the Seine River, for dysentry, but says that wasn't his trouble so much as battle exhaustion.

When he returned to the unit at Leopold the shelling and war noises affected him in such a manner that I would suggest he wasn't capable of reasoning clearly. He went into an attack with his platoon in the afternoon and the shock to his nerves was sufficient to make him act as he did. He felt he had to get out and the only way he could was to go A.W.L.

As is seen by his M.F.M. 6 the accused is not a bade soldier and I would beg the court to the lenient when considering sentence.

Lieut Rooney J. H., Regina Rif was unable to get out of the lines due to Military expedisency and Capt. R.A. Couche, HQ 7 Cdn Inf Bde the writing member was called.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION H-195670 A/Sgt Aitkens, W.A., R Wpg Rif having been duly sworn states:

I am pl sgt 13 Pl R Wpg Rif. On the 10th Oct 1944, I was Sec Comd & Sec 15 Pl "C" Coy R Wpg Rif. I recognize the accused. On Oct 10th, 1944 the accused was posted to my section. At 1300 hrs I warned him for guard duty for that night. At 1400 hrs I warned the accused for a patrol that night. At 1600 hrs he asked permission to visit a friend Rfn Squance. Rfn Erickson was present at supper at 1730. At 1900 hrs he was not present for his guard. I enquired at 14 pl and with Cpl Machie searched the area but could not locate the accused. I did not see Rfn Erickson again that night. We went on the patrol without the accused and I was evacuated later but he had not returned at that time.

QUESTION BY THE DEFENCE

I called the section together and warned them as a whole. The accused was there. I saw him.

QUESTION BY THE COURT

I told the section that the whole platoon was going on patrol at approx 2100 hrs. The whole section was warned. Every man did his turn at guard and Rfn Erickson was placed on guard from 1900 hrs to 2000 hrs. He was on meal parade. Although a re-inforcement I knew him well because he had previously been in the pl.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION B-45175 A/Sgt C.J. Brown, R Wpg Rif, having been duly sworn, states:

I am pl Sgt of 15 pl "C" Coy, R Wpg Rif and have been pl Sgt since Oct 10, 1944. Since taking over the pl I have checked the Pl daily and Rfn Erickson has not been present at any time.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Major C.S. Platts, OC "C" Coy, R Wpg Rif having been duly sworn, states:

On Oct 1944 the Bn was engaged in the bitter fighting over the Leopold Canal. On the 10 Oct 44 my Coy had been ordered to patrol the enemy strongpoints of Biezere with recce patrols out.

NO QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

There was no court held to declare this man a deserter. As O.C. "C" Coy I warned a pl for the patrol. The pl Sgt was Sgt. McGeechie 13 pl. The R Wpg Rif were right forward Bn of the Bde and my Coy was left forward Coy of the Bn. We were across the canal.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

THE PROSECUTING OFFICER Lieut G. Richardson having been duly sworn produced the Certificate of Apprehension marked Exhibit "A".

DEFENSE SUBMITS Paragraph D-4 Record form D Prima Facie case not made out against the accused. Because there is no proof of intent.

PROSECUTION SUBMITS Accused had no intention of returning and that he tried to avoid a particular service.

The Court is closed and considers the submission.

The Court is reopened and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE K-192 Rfn Erickson K.G., R Wpg Rif being duly sworn states:

On 10 Oct 1944 I joined 15 pl just after they had finished the noon meal. We fell back to the canal until our artillery had put over a barrage and then moved up to a new position. I was warned for guard duty from 1900 hrs. I had done guard duty that afternoon. I was not warned for a patrol. I saw Rfn Squance after supper and not before. The first time I left the unit was at Elbeouf for dysentry. I had been with the unit for some time and my nerves were shot. When I left I was listed as a dysentry case when it should have been battle exhaustion. When I came back I could not stand the shelling so I left.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT PROSECUTION

I have been in the Army since Sept 13, 1943. I joined the unit at Carpequet Airport. I joined 15 pl there as Rfn and was with unit until I left at Elbeouf about 2½ months. I was out for about 1 month. I was there only for one attack. After I left I bitch hiked to France. I did nothing much in France but I had a little money which lasted until I was apprehended.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

I have been on sick parade before this time. I did not ask permission to go to the R.A.P. on the 10 Oct 44 nor did I report to my pl sgt or cpl, or pl Comd. I did not report to any military authority during my absence.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

SUMMING UP BY PROSECUTION.

Exhibit "E"

ERICKSON - PROSECUTION.

The question is whether or not the accused intended to desert. The prosecution has made out a Prima Facie case of desertion and there is nothing in the evidence of the accused to rebut the assumption of intention to desert.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF K-182 RFN ERIKSON K.O. Ex D Dlp

The accused has been in action since Carpiquet and has seen some tough fighting. He was hospitalized at the Seine River, for dysentry, but says that wasn't his trouble so much as battle exhaustion.

When he returned to the unit at Leopold the shelling and war noises affected him in such a manner that I would suggest he wasn't capable of reasoning clearly. He went into an attack with his platoon in the afternoon and the shock to his nerves was sufficient to make him act as he did. He felt he had to get out and the only way he could was to go A.W.L.

As is seen by his M.F.M. 6 the accused is not a bade soldier and I would beg the court to the lenient when considering sentence.

Plea in mitigation of punishment in the case of A-37241 Sgt Erisen S. W.

I respectfully suggest to the court that in consideration of sentence, the following pertinent factors be carefully weighed and considered.

Sgt Erisen's military career is all but finished. That it has been spotted by misdemeanors during the long training period before the fighting, and since the fighting has ceased, is admitted, but I draw the courts attention to his brilliant record in action. Fighting in a rifle coy as a junior NCO, during all the major operations winning an immediate award of the MM, certainly stamps Erisen as possessing the highest qualities of a Canadian soldier. I suggest to the court that these proven qualities of leadership, courage, and military ability far outweigh his tendency to irresponsibility when on leave.

I respectfully remind the court of the changed effect of punishment on the last days of a soldiers career. I submit that the trivial circumstances of this offence does not warrant a punishment that will affect reinstatement in civil life. I further submit that Sgt Erisen has more than earned the maximum rehabilitation benefits by his meritorious service in action.

CANADIAN YMCA

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

The court will, I know, consider the effect of this offence on discipline within the accused' Unit. I would remind the court that the Unit is on the verge of disbanding. There only remains the voyage home, and the Unit, as presently constituted, will cease to exist. I submit, therefore, that this offence, or its punishment, will have no effect on discipline within the Unit, nor will leniency reflect on the discipline during the final weeks of the battalion.

I therefore recommend to the court, in the light of these factors, that a most lenient view be taken of this offence.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)[1]. If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans Yes [5]

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his ~~(their)~~ plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on first charge. The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is ~~(are)~~ not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex F, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? (1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will necessarily with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans [5] Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans

(1. AA 54(3) (5), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?[1]

The taller one had a bed roll which he threw behind some wood. I approached them and questioned them. The taller one refused to say anything. The shorter one kept saying "Give him a break" Since they could give me no satisfaction, I ordered them to march towards the gate. They refused at first but finally came with me to where my other prisoner was. Here again, I asked them for their story. The taller one refused to say anything, so I told them I would take them in. The taller man then started to run, I ordered him to halt but he kept on running. I then fired over his head to stop him, he kept on going. I fired again and he ran towards a truck for protection. Two of our M.Ps. caught him and brought him back to me. I asked him "why did you run?" He replied: "you would too!" One of our M.Ps. who brought the accused back was ASN 32715822 Pvt. Lee, Clark M. Closing Address to Court

by Defence

In the case of K19039 Trooper T.H. Erwin.

"Mr President and Members. I submit that the evidence in this case has been of a conflicting nature. The officer involved gave evidence as to the number of Provost present in the office. Then the Sergeant in his evidence said that he was on duty alone.

I also draw your attention to the evidence of the last two witnesses. They prove conclusively that the accused was only a few hundred steps from the door of the Provost Office at 1415 hours. And in plain view. His actions were definitely not those of an escapee.

It has also been proven or stated by two witnesses on oath that in their opinion the accused was drunk. This is probably the solution to the whole affair. That under the influence of liquor the accused did not and was not capable of realizing the position he was placed in.

I also submit that M.M.L. states that a drunken man should be placed in custody or supervision. In this case this was not done."

Closing Address to Court
By Prosecution

In the case of K19035 Trooper T.H. Erwin

"Mr President and Members. The defence offered is drunkeness. This is no excuse and can only be considered in arriving at the punishment.

It is unfortunately beyond the power of the Court to make a finding under Section 19 of the Army Act.

Please note the unique similarity of evidence as presented by Provost and McMahon. Also that the prosecution did not ask Lieut Gray or Sergeant Tippet as to opinion of sobriety of accused. Provost invariably state when a man is drunk.

I agree there is conflicting evidence as to manner of arrest. This frequently occurs. But the evidence of Lieut McGray and Sgt Tippett clearly shows accused was placed in arrest. It was beyond the power of Sgt Tippett to provide escort at that time.

A person can be guilty of escaping from arrest without having been under escort. The footnote to Army Act 22 states escaping does not have to be accompanied by violence."

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment

In the case of K19035 Trooper T.H. Erwin

"Mr President and Members"

"This man's records show that he has been in trouble before and the cause was drink. There is no excusing the fact that he was in the Church during service hours but he was definitely under the influence of liquor and was not aware of the realization of the offence he was committing"

Lt Jean GUAY, R 22e R, att Cdn Lec GH Q 2 Echelon, having been duly sworn, states:

At Avellino on 25 Dec 43 I was attending the 1300 hr service at Ste Maria Church on King Lt Col Dunn

About 1310 hrs when Lt Col Dunn pointed out to me 2 soldiers wearing black berets who were interfering with the divine service in that they were moving around the congregation talking loudly. Col Dunn asked me to see what was the matter. I went down and asked the two soldiers to follow me. We stood outside the side door and I explained to them that this building was a Catholic church and that a service was going on. Immediately the two of them started talking saying words to this effect "Je t'en a ... de bull shit, balls and ... a fly" Ste Erwin, whom I knew recognized me told me he wouldn't give them names I produced my identity card, which I did

2 pvs both agreed that I was correctly identified but still failed to produce their particulars. Not wishing to go any further in this matter I ordered them to leave the surroundings immediately which they did after a few repetitions of the order.

I then walked back into the church and continued to assist the service.

Apart 3 minutes later a member of the station force came up to me and shaved me the same as I was back in the church. I went towards them called them out of church and ordered them to go away. Sgt Irwin was now close to me and started asking whom I was, asking me if I was serious, and he (Sgt Irwin) forced me to back off towards the street. I again told him I was an officer and as such I was ordering him to stay away but he put his right hand on my left shoulder grasping the epaulette saying I was a little freak guy but those girls were not worth a shit. He then grabbed the collar of my battle dress with his left hand and slapped me across the left cheek with open hand. I broke away from his hold and started back around for any members of the armed forces. I here were none. I decided to go to the pro affice to call for help, which I did. On my way I saw that the 2 men were still following me yelling, and asking me to come and fight them. I was in no mood for that and as soon as I arrive at the provost called 2 mp's who were outside the affice and asked them to take the 2 soldiers I pointed to under close arrest.

2 mp's were brought inside the provost affice where their particulars were taken down by Lt Tippett. 2 mp's were both under the influence of alcohol drinks but definitely not drunk.
Their battle dress blouse was open.

CLOSING ADDRESS TO COURT BY DEFENCE

In the case of K19035 Trooper T.H. Erwin, "MRM"

"Mr President and members. I submit that the evidence in this case has been of a conflicting nature. The Officer involved gave evidence as to the number of Provost present in the Office. Then the Sergeant in his evidence said that he was on duty alone.
I also draw your attention to the evidence of the last two witnesses. They prove conclusively that the accused was only a few hundred steps from the door of the ProvostOffice at 1415 hrs.

And in plain view. His actions were definitely not those of an escapee.

It has also been proven or stated by two witnesses on oath that in their opinion the accused was drunk. This is probably the solution to the whole affair. That under the influence of liquor the accused did not and was not capable of realizing theposition he was placed in.

I also submit that M.M.L. states that a drunken man should be placed in custody or supervision. In this case this was not done."

"MEM"

CLOSING ADDRESS TO COURT BY PROSECUTION

In the case of K19035 Trooper T.H. Erwin

"Mr President and Members. The defense offered is drunkenness. This is no excuse and can only be considered in arriving at the punishment. It is unfortunately beyond the power of the Court to make a finding under Section 19 of the Army Act.

Please note the unique similarity of evidence as presented by Briscoe and McMahon. Also that the Prosecution did not ask Lieut Guay or Sergeant Tippet as to opinion of sobriety of accused. Provost invariably state when a man is drunk.

I agree there is conflicting evidence as to manner of arrest. This frequently occurs. But theevidence of Lieut McGuay and Sgt Tippett clearly shows accused was placed in arrest. It was beyond the power of Sgt Tippett to provide escort at that time.

A person can be guilty of escaping from arrest without having been under escort. The footnote to Army Act 22 states escaping does nothave to be accompanied by violence."

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT "MEM"

In the case of K19035 Trooper T.H. Erwin

"Mr President and Members"

"This man's records shows that he has been in troublebefore and the cause was drink.

There is no excusing the fact that he was in the church during service hours but he was definitely under the influence of liquor and had not a full realization of theoffence he was committing.

1st. Witness. for the Prosecution. Lieut. Jean Guay, R 22nd Regt. Att. Cdn Sec. GHQ 2 Echelon, having been duly sworn states:-

At Avellino on the 25 Dec 43 I was attending the 1300 hour Service at St. Mary's Church, King St., with Lieut. Col. Dunn. About 1310 hours when Lt. Col. Dunn pointed out to me two soldiers wearing black berets who were interfering with the Service in that they were moving around the congregation talking loudly. Col. Dunn ordered me to see what was the matter. I went down and asked the soldiers to follow me. We stood outside the side door and I explained to them that this building was a Catholic Church and that a service was going on. Immediately the two of them started to talk saying, It's a lot of bull-shit, balls, and sissy's play or words to that effect. I then asked them for their particulars. Tpr. Erwin, who I now recognize told me he would not give them unless I produced my identity card, which I did.

Page 3.

They both agreed that I was correctly identified but still failed to produce their particulars. Not wishing to go any further in the matter I ordered them to leave the surroundings which they did after a few repititions of the order. I then walked back into the church and continued to assist in the Service. About three minutes later a member of the Italian Forces came up to me and showed me the same two soldiers back in the church. I went toward them, called them out of the church and ordered them to go away. Tpr. Erwin was very close to me and started asking me if I was serious, and he forced me to back up towards the street. I again told him that I was an Officer and as such I was ordering him to stay away, but he put his right hand on my left shoulder grasping the epaulette, saying I was a little fresh guy, [illegible] that those pips were not worth a snit. He then grabbed me by the collar of my battle dress with his left hand and slapped me across the left cheek with his open hand. I broke away from his hold and started looking around for any member of the Armed Forces. There were none. I decided to go to the Provost Office to call for help which I did. On my way I saw that the two men were still following me, yelling, and asking me to come back and fight them. I was in no mood for that and as soon as I arrived at the Provosts called two MPs. who were outside the office and asked them to put the two soldiers I pointed to under close arrest. They were brought inside the Provost Office,

K19034 Tpr. ERWIN, Thomas Hilary, C...C. on strength of 3 Bn. 3 C.D.A.D. having been duly sworn states:-

On 25 Dec 43 I entered St. Mary's Church in Avellino for the purpose of giving a gift to an Italian girl, I saw on the street. The belt had been given to me by another soldier and I had no use for it, as it was a woman's belt. I had just given the belt to the girl in church when I was asked to come outside by Lieut. Quay, We went outside and he pointed out it was an R.C. church. Then he left us and went back in again. After Lieut. Quay left I went back inside to apologize to the girl but I was immediately ordered outside by Lieut. Quay. On being ordered to show my pay book we demanded his. He refused to show his identification card and on attempting forward to his I was dealt a blow across the cheek by him. The blow staggered me and knocked me partly down. On returning to my feet I saw Lieut. Quay leading down the street. He stopped at intervals and gave an attitude of daring us to follow. On entering the Provost Station we were confronted with several military police and Lieut. Quay. My pay book was demanded and I and the Provost Sgt. and Lieut. Quay all argued. Lieut. Quay shortly left the Provost Office whereupon I left the Provost Station also.

On 25 Dec 43 Tpr. Erwin and myself were downtown in Avellino in the bar across from St. Mary's Church. At approximately 1300 hours we left the bar and walked towards the church. Tpr Erwin had a belt and tried to give it to a girl who was walking down the street. The girl took the belt and walked into the church, with both of us following her. Next thing we knew some Officer took us outside and told us if we were not N.C's. to go away. Tpr. Erwin wanted his belt back and we went into the church again. The Officer again took us outside and told us we were making a disturbance and axed us for our pay books. We asked him for his identity card and the next thing I knew Erwin was coming down the steps due to a blow struck by the officer, who I now know is Lieut. Quay. When we looked around Lieut. Quay was at the

CASE OF

ESCOE S 1 CARU

B. 6559 Gnr

CHARACTER WITNESS

Lt H. Roberts, 1 CARU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the SPO of 1 CARU. I interviewed the accused on 28 Mar 44. It was a casual intake interview, and my finding at that time was that the man seemed more fitted for duties of a batman than going on the guns. He seemed to be gun shy and his past record indicated that he had been employed on routine duties because of that reason.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

The accused, B.6559, Gnr ESCOE S, 1 CARU, having been duly sworn, states:

I joined up in Toronto, MD 2 in Aug 40. In Canada I was hut orderly and in the officer's mess. I have had very little training and on guns I have been gun shy. This was reported to the officer on the shoot. An interview was arranged with the psychiatrist and his finding was that I was best suited for other work. I arrived in this country Sep 43. By Sep 4 the troop that had come here that I was in, I was put on as a hut orderly, until the latter part of October. I then went on draft for advanced training. Then about 3 days after being there I was put on a gun crew. I injured my leg while on training and was excused duty until about the middle of December. On Dec 25, '43 there was a shoot put on and I was a member of the gun crew. I just can't describe how one feels at the time but I practically passed out after 4 rounds. Then about 2 Jan I was taken to Admin Wing and there I was placed in the officers mess. I worked there until about 18-19 Mar and was sent back to 1 CARU. I found out that was to take 2 weeks of gun drill. I never paid any attention and at no time did I refuse guns and before our training started I was being interviewed by infantry officers and they asked me what part of the infantry I wanted to join and I told them none at all, Sir. That is the day I went absent. I figured I wasn't getting a fair deal. I am married with no children. My wife and I come from Toronto and in civilian life I was a clother.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

Address for the Defense.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Court.

As defending officer for the accused I would like to transagress somewhat and go back to August 13th., 1940 at a time when the English speaking peoples were shocked almost beyond recovery by the tremendous successes of the German Army. A feeling of overwhelming excitement almost akin to fear engulfed the British race. Throughout the Dominions young men and women answered the call to the help the island which was being besieged by savage forces of colossal proportions. All patriotic Canadians rallied to the call for help by the mother country in her supreme test on the eve of the Battle of Britain. In the city of Toronto a young respectable married man, who was engaged in the clothing business walked into the recruiting office and joined the active forces the Canadian Army. He was keen and very anxious to fulfill his duty as a citizen of our great dominion. His name Samuel Escoe. Escoe proceed to Petawawa camp where he took his advanced training. Army life was different to anything he had previously known and at times as it is to many of us difficult to take. His training was never completed as he was detailed for such duties as hut orderly, waiter in an officers' mess and routing clerical work. He took part in shoots and to his dismay found that he was gun-shy. This is not a human failing gentlemen, it is a mental condition. This condition was brought to the attention of the Camp Psychiatrist. This medical officer recommended that Escoe be employed in duties of an administrative nature as it did not appear to this competent professional practisioner that Gnr. Escoe would be at his best performance as a gun number. In Sept. 43 Gnr. Escoe arrived in Westley, England to take his basic training. He was at this camp for seven weeks when he was transferred to #2 C.A.R.U. for advanced training. Again he was sent as a gun number on the S.P's in spite of the warnings of a competent psychiatrist. And again this mental condition reasserted itself. This is definitely not a question of courage gentlemen, it is purely and simply a question of mental make-up. This particular field of study has shown great developments in this war and has taken tremendous strides in the American Army. It should be treated with great deference by all officers in the Canadian army. In March 44 Escoe was transferred to #1 C.A.R.U. for further training. In March 44 Escoe was transferred to #1 C.A.R.U. for further training. He was interviewed by the S.P10 of #1 C.A.R.U. who saw fit to subscribe to the findings of the psychiatrist and recommended that the accused be employed as a batman or some similar duty as he was categorized as "Gun-Shy". On the second day of April 44 the accused was interviewed by an Infantry Board to ascertain what his reactions would be to transferring to this branch of the service. Escoe was not keen to leave Artillery at this stage of the game and gentlemen it is not illogical to assume that practically four years in a particular branch of the army does lend itself to an attachment and pride in one's unit. It is also my firm opinion that if a man is not considered suitable for artillery then it is safe to advance the theory that he will not be suitable for infantry. Soldiering in both branches have to be equally efficient and equally convinced of the superiority of their respective arms. If a soldier is gun-syy in artillery than it is not improbable that he will be weapon-shy in the Infantry.

It would appear in this particular case and it becomes increasingly clear as one studies the pertinent facts of the case that Escoe during his 48 months in the army has been thrown from pillar to post with no apparent attempt on the part of supervising authorities to find the right place for him. To Escoe the only escape and that we know now was only a temporary escape was to get away for awhile. Should we condemn a man unmercifully and say he is no good because he suffers a temporary mental collapse, because he feels that no one in the army is particularly concerned with his hopes, his aspirations. I feel quite confident that Escoe given an opportunity in a job suitable to his mental and physical qualifications will acquit himself efficaciously and not only want to soldier but love to soldier. I appeal to the justice of this court. THE DEFENSE RESTS.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination, and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, on the 28th day I was AWL I met this friend of mine, a Lcpl Pasque DeMascois. I had met him before when I first came from France in Feb 45. He asked me that day if I would come with him the following day; he said that due to the fact he had an argument with his uncle that he and his wife left his uncle's place, but that there were still some things that belonged to him there, including furniture, that he wanted to get. He said his aunit was quite willing to let him have it but his uncle wasn't, and would I go with him and give him a hand in getting it out before his uncle came back the following night. I said I was returning to Camp in 2 days and if I was going to help him it would have to be right away so he said we would do it at 8 o'clock that night. We drove up to this house, I had no reason to believe it wasn't his house------it was double daylight saving time, and the man that was driving the van remained with the van and he asked me to go to the bend in the road to make sure his uncle was not coming while he was around the place, which I did, and I stayed there 3/4 of an hour. Then, as I heard later, a civilian approached the man in charge of the van and asked him what he was doing there. In the meantime, around the area there were about four police radio cars which suddenly appeared. Something had been taken out of the house and put in the van and we were arrested. I was in remand 7 weeks awaiting trial and was then given a sentence of three months. I served eight weeks and six days and was then released. Demascois was sentenced to 6 mths.

A week ago I saw a Mrs O Brennan of 117A Randolph Ave, a sister of DeMascois's wife, and she said to me that DeMascois had written a letter to his wife in which he stated that he was sorry he had got me into any trouble in connection with this affair, but he was afraid to say anything in Court as he might have got a heavier sentence. I asked Mrs Brennan if she would ask her sister to get DeMascois to fill out a statement for me saying that I had nothing to do with it and she said she would get him to do it. I've been trying since to get this but the Wandsworth Prison authorities say he is not entitled to see any visitor only once a month and that nothing can be done until August. I'm very anxious to get this letter from him to be attached to these proceedings before this trial is completed and I would ask the Court if they will have the proper Army authority get in touch with the Warden of Wandsworth Prison to arrange an interview for me under escort to see DeMascois, at the earliest possible date.

I have never had an offence in civil life or in the Army before this one, except a severe reprimand back in '43.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE, (THE ACCUSED), CONTINUES:-

Sir, since I last gave evidence I went to Wandsworth Prison on 2 Aug 45 and there I saw DeMascois and my Def Offr and the Prosecutor here were present when my Def Offr asked him if he wished to make a statement. DeMascois wrote a statement out and signed it, it was witnessed, and here is the statement which I offer now in evidence.

SECOND WITNESS

The DEF OFFR, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, the accused and I and the Prosecutor went to the Wandsworth Prison and there contacted the authorities to see DeMascois, and I explained to DeMascois that we wanted a statement to clear the accused here and that he wouldn't incriminate himself in any way by making a statement. He then made the statement, Exhibit 3, and from what he said I believe he was telling the truth, and I saw no reason to believe the contrary.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Gentlemen—

C-25712 Cpl Cscott T.J. who is standing trial here today joined the Canadian Army as a volunteer on the 6th Sept 1939. He arrived in the United Kingdom on the 20th Dec 1939. Since his departure from Canada he has served in England and has spent seven months with the Canadian Army on the Continent.

Today he stands trial for "Absenting himself without leave" for a period of twenty eight days, a crime to which he has pleaded guilty, being a soldier who knows the army code he realizes he must pay the penalty.

Gentlemen, I grant you this was a willful act, however I ask you are not all willful acts guided by the circumstances under which they were performed. What I wish to point out to you is the fact that the circumstances under which he "Absented himself without leave" are extenuating.

Cpl Cscott was married in the UK in 1941. The woman he married beguiled him into marriage. She professed that she was going to have a baby and that he was the father

Cpl Escott seeking for advice on the matter consulted his "Salvation Army Superman", who advised him to marry the woman. The child Gentleman was not born till eleven months after the marriage. Realizing that the child was not his own and that he had been tricked into the marriage, he asked his wife for a divorce which she refused as she claimed she wished to go to Canada. He then consulted the "Legal Aid Department" who advised him to get his wife back to Canada as she was now a Canadian citizen and being such could only be dealt with in Canada.

Cpl Escott then arranged for her to go to Canada and she with her mother. After she had been with him, made for a period of four months she suddenly left with the baby and "told no one where she was going. Since that date he has not heard of her. With this additional trouble on his mind he again consulted the "Legal Aid Department" and asked how he could obtain a divorce? They informed him that in order to do so he must not have any connection with her for a period of one year.

In Jan 45 while Cpl Escott was serving in Holland his name was called out for his 30 day leave in Canada. Not wishing to go home, for reasons above circumstances, he had it cancelled. This occurred twice till at last he was told he must return to Canada. He arrived in England in Feb 45 and tried every means to have the order cancelled but to no await. This absenting himself without leave deemed while he was on a 48 hr pass during which time he was doing the afore mentioned. Cpl Escott considered at the time that this was the only way to avoid going home to Canada. Surely Gentlemen after five and a half years away he would want to return but not ~~with~~ certainly with the conditions quoting him.

Gentlemen Cpl Escott's conduct about is without trait of any crime and I ask you to bear in mind what I have told you and to consider his gratuities after a period of five and a half years faithful services.
He has already availed 60 days for his part in detention.

I - PASQUALE ~~BDE~~ MASCIO wish to state here that I am responsible for getting C-25712 - CPL ESCOTT - T.G. into any trouble with the Civilian authorities here.

I asked ESCOTT (knowing him through my family) if he would give me a hand getting some of my things from my uncle's house in Edgware. I told him that we (my uncle & I) had had a row and he (my uncle) was holding some of my things.

I told him all he had to do was to wait for my uncle. This is all ESCOTT did do until the police arrived on the scene. Then he knew something was wrong. I can only say I am sorry I did it and I hope he can get some help from this statement.

This I swear to be true.

Herewith two copies of the evidence given by the accused at his trial held today on the charge of 28 days AWL.

2. The accused has been in the Army since Sep 39. There is no previous offence on his MFM 6 although he said he once received a severe reprimand. He has been a Cpl in the Cdn Pro Corps since 6 Jan 41, is of good appearance and made a good impression upon the Court.

3. He is very anxious before these proceedings are completed to get a letter from DeMascois to the effect that the accused did not know that the furniture being moved was not the property of DeMascois.

4. The writer thought it fair that his request be granted and that the proper Army ~~Authority~~ should approach the Warden of Wandsworth Prison to arrange an interview at that Prison between the accused and DeMascois.

5. If you agree I would be grateful if you would initiate the necessary action.

Defending Officers Statement
Pte. Esslemont JJ.

I do not wish to condone the absence without leave of the accused, but there are a few extenuating circumstances which should be considered by the Court in arriving at a sentence.

It will be noted that the accused period of leave expired on 28 Dec 42. I produce herewith a Birth Certificate showing that his child was born on 1 Jan 43 also a telegram showing that he had applied for an extension of leave. Under the circumstances, when the child was expected at any moment and in view of the fact that he had applied for leave, I consider that he was justified in staying away for that short. The subsequent illness of his wife and child caused him to stay away longer still and I would point out that it was an unselfish act which has some merit in it.

Pte. Esslemont has now the added responsibility of a child and I am convinced that he seriously intends to become a good soldier given a fair opportunity. While he has a conduct sheet that he is by no means proud of, it is pointed out that since those crimes were committed, he has the added responsibility of a wife and child which will have a considerable steadying influence on him.

A sentence of detention will inflict a hardship not only on his Army career in the future, but also on his wife and child and I would plead with the Court to exercise due leniency in arriving at a just sentence. I am convinced in my own mind that Pte Esslemont has the makings of a very good soldier and that he intends making use of these qualities to become a credit to his country.

J.B. Walkin Capt
Defending Officer.

Statement by accused in mitigation of punishment

On Dec. 28th I wired back to the unit for an extension of leave, which was not granted. When I went on leave on the 15th of December, my wife was expecting a baby before Jan. 1st and the baby was not born until Jan. 1st. The baby's eyes became affected through neglect and had to be given treatment at Westminster Eye Hospital. My wife, due to sickness, was unable to make these trips, so I stayed away until she was well enough to carry on.

Prosecutor's opening address

First I intend to prove in the case against K 88158 Pte. Esslemont J.J. that on the evening of the 19th of June of this year in London that he was drunk, and that while being put under arrest he used obsene language and attempted to strike Sgt. O'Neill and that he used improper language to Capt. Cheeseman. I intend to prove this when Esslemont was arrested.

Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness

P 17132 Sgt. Joseph A. O'NEILL, No.6 Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, having been duly sworn states:

Q. (By prosecutor) Do you know Pte. Esslemont of the Seaforth of C?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you see him here?
A. Yes, sir (turning around and pointing to accused)

Q. Will you tell the court what you know about Pte. Esslemont on the 19 Jun 41.

A. On the 19 Jun 41 at about 2320 hours I was coming down Rupert St. When I come to the corner of Coventry St I saw Pte. Esslemont in company with another Seaforth of C. Both these men were acting drunk and disorderly. I stopped them and asked for thier passes. After examining their passes I was about to let them proceed when Pte. Esslemont became very abusive and used very obsene language towards me. He called me a fucking redcap. When I warned this man, he did not stop, and I was forced to place him under close arrest. I sent L/Cpl. Patterson of the Cdn Pro Corps to go to the police box On Piccadilly and phone for a policeman. L/Cpl. Jeffries came by at this time and I had him stay with me. Pte. Esslemont then started to offer violence. He took a poke at L/Cpl. Jeffries. At this time 2 N.C.O.s from the Corps of Military Police and the D.A.P.M., Capt. Cheeseman came to our assistence. Pte Esslemont turned on these 2 N.C.O.s and the D.A.P.M. and used very obsene and foul language to-wards them. Capt. Cheeseman ordered the policeman from C.R.L.D. and we took Pte. Esslemont, put him in the truck and took him down to Cdn Pro Corps HQ.

Q. What obsene language did he use.
A. He called Capt. Cheeseman a two pip limey cocksucker and that the whole fucking bunch of us were the same. When we took this man to Cdn Pro Corps HQ, the N.C.O. on duty there ordered us to take him down to C.L.R.D. (Central London Recruiting Depot) where we placed Pte. Esslemont in the drunken cell.

Q. When you were arresting Pte. Esslemont, will you tell the court just what you mean by saying violent.
A. He offered resistance and made one or two attempts to break away. We had to push him down on the cement so that he wouldn't get away.

Q. Will you tell the court just how drunk Pte. Esslemont was at the time?
A. When I stopped him and told him he was under arrest he said: "I know I've done wrong. My chum is on leave, let him go and I will take all the blame."

The first witness is cross examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. With regard to the drunkeness, would you say he was drunk?
A. He passed out when we took him down to HQ.

Q. I under stood you to say in answer to a question put by the prosecutor, that when you arrested Esslemont his violence consisted of attempting to break away from your custody.
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that you were obliged to place him on the pavement.
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you anything to add to that?
A. No.

Second Witness

A 6088 L/Cpl. William A. JEFFRIES, No.6 Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, having been duly sworn states.

Q. (By prosecutor) Do you know Pte. Esslemont of the Seaforth of C.
A. Yes.

Q. Do you see him in this court.
A. Yes sir. (turning around and pointing to accused)

Q. Will you tell the court what you know?

A. On the 19 Jun 41 at about 2320 hours I was walking along Coventry St when I was approached by L/C another member of the Seaforth of C. We approached these men and asked them for their passes. Pte. Esslemont became very argumentative. Their passes being in order I went further up the street to get Sgt. O'Neill of the Cdn Pro Corps for advice as to what we should do with the men. When Sgt. O'Neill and I returned to the men who were waiting with L/Cpl. Patterson, Pte. Esslemont continued his arguments and became violent.

Q. What did the violence consist of?
A. He was inclined to fight.

Q. What do you mean by inclined to fight?
A. He hit me once or twice and a man from the Military Police Force. This member was dressed in civilian clothes.

Q. Who else did he attempt to hit?
A. He was more or less inclined to hit the whole lot of us if he could. We had phoned for a van, but as it had not arrived the Cdn Pro Corps car was called for and two men were taken to Cdn Pro Corps HQ on Henrietta St. While we were waiting for the van to arrive, the D.A.P.M. of the Corps of Military Police had come upon the scene with 2 Cpls from the Corps, and Pte. Esslemont used abusive language towards the D.A.P.M., amongst other things calling him a two pip limey bastard. When we arrived at the Cdn Pro Corps HQ we were instructed to take Pte. Esslemont down to the cell at C.R.L.D. We took him down there, turned him over to the chief R.C.O. there and returned to our HQ.

Q. How drunk would you say Pte. Esslemont was at the time you arrested him?
A. He was drunk but I am certain that he knew what he was doing because he asked us if we would let the other man go as he was fully responsible for the disturbance.

The witness is cross examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Would you say that you think that the accused was too drunk to know what he was doing.
A. No.

Q. Was the man with the accused drunk?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would you say that the other man was drunker than the accused?
A. Yes

Q. What do you mean by saying that he tried to hit you once or twice?
A. When we were trying to put him in the van he was swinging his arms and continually trying to break away from us.

Third Witness

U 1507 L/Cpl. George W. PATTERSON, No. 6 Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, having been duly sworn states:

Q. (By Prosecutor) Do you know Pte. Esslemont of the Seaforth of C.
A. Not personally sir.

Q. Could you recognize Pte. Esslemont.
A. Yes sir.

Q. Tell the court what you know about Pte. Esslemont on the 19th of June of this year.

A. About 2315 hours I was on duty with Sgt. O'Neill. Sgt. O'Neill checked Pte. Esslemont for his respirator. He was drunk but he know what he was saying and doing. He then became very violent and struck at Sgt. O'Neill. Sgt. O'Neill sent me up to phone for the van at Cdn Pro Corps HQ. While I was going up there I met Capt. Cheeseman, English Military D.A.P.M. He stopped me and asked me if I had seen two air force officers whom he was looking for. I then came back to Sgt. O'Neill and Capt. Cheeseman came round the corner of the street. Then Capt Cheeseman went over to Sgt. O'Neill to see what the trouble was about. Pte. Esslemont then used very obscene language towards Capt. Cheeseman. I think also that he struck a C.I.D. officer in company of Sgt. O'Neill. There were four redcaps in company of Capt. Cheeseman.

Q. What was the nature of the obscene language he used towards Capt. Cheeseman.
A. He called Capt. Cheeseman a two pip limey bastard and we then escorted him to Cdn Pro Corps HQ.

The Witness is cross examined by the Defending Officer

Q. Would you describe again the nature of the violence the accused offered Sgt. O'Neill.
A. He told Sgt. O'Neill to take off his coat and called him so many names I couldn't remember them all and he struck Sgt. O'Neill .

Q. Did you see him strike Sgt. O'Neill.
A. Yes, sir.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of

E32158 Pte Esselmont J.J., THE SEAFORTH HIGHLANDERS OF CANADA

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: Sgt. O'Neill, J.A., P.17152 Canadian Provost Corps, No. 6 Company, London. Having been duly sworn states: I am a sergeant in the Canadian Provost Corps. At London on the 19th of June 1941 at about 2315 hours I was in company with Lance Corporal Jefferies when I saw Pte. Esselmont, he was drunk and acting in a disorderly manner. He was on the corner of Rupert Street and Coventry Street in company with another Seaforth Highlander. Private Esselmont had no respirator so I stopped the two of them. When I told the other Seaforth Highlander to do up his tunic Pte. Esselmont demanded to be shown my authority for doing so and on being so shown he became abusive. Then I asked Pte. Esselmont for his pass and on checking it was about to let him proceed when he again started using abusive and obscene language to me. I warned him that if he didn't stop and I placed him under arrest if he then became violent and attempted to strike me. During the ensuing struggle two more corporals of the Corps of Military Police and the Assistant Provost Marshal, Captain Cheeseman came to my assistance. He used very obscene language towards the Provost Marshal and the two N.C.O.s of the Corps of Military Police. I escorted Pte. Esselmont to the Canadian Provost Corps H.Q. where I turned him over to the R.S.M. in charge to be detained.

Cross examination by the accused:

Question: Did I leave you at all after you put me under arrest?

Answer: You attempted to leave me.

(sgd). P.17152 J.A. O'Neill Sgt.
P17152 Sgt. J.A. O'Neill

The accused declines further to cross-examine this witness.

Second witness for the prosecution: A.6065 Jefferies, W.A. L/Cpl. Canadian Provost Corps, No. 6 Company, London. Having been duly sworn states: I am a Lance Corporal in the Canadian Provost Corps. I was in Coventry St. at about 2315 hours 19 June 1941, when I was approached by Lance Corporal Patterson of the Canadian Provost Corps and asked if I had seen any Air Force officers or the R.A.F. in the vicinity. I told him I hadn't seen any and proceeded with him back up to Rupert Street.

Second Witness for the Prosecution, (cont'd:

As we were going up the street we saw Pte. Esselmont and another private of The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada and I could see that they had been drinking. I stopped them and asked them for their passes and they were in order. Then Pte. Esselmont was inclined to be argumentative so I went and got Sgt. O'Neill who was up the street with a member of the Metropolitan C.I.D. When we returned to the men Sgt. O'Neill checked their passes as well and as Pte. Esselmont was argumentative and abusive still, Sgt. O'Neill placed him under arrest. In the meantime Captain Cheeseman, Deputy Assistant Provost Marshal of the Corps of Military Police had come upon the scene and Pte. Esselmont began to use very abuse language towards him and amongst other things called him a "limey two pipped bastard". We had phoned for our van but it had not arrived and so the C.M.P. van was called and we took the two men to our H.Q. on Henrietta Street. There we were instructed by the R.S.M. in charge to take the two men to Central London Recruiting Depot to be detained for the night. When we were putting Pte. Esselmont in the van he attempted to strike any of us he could reach. He did hit me once or twice.

VIII. Pte. Jenkins had equally as much to drink as Pte. Asselmont, but Pte. Jenkins can remember being arrested while Pte. Asselmont can not remember anything after 9:30(2130)hrs. If he was that drunk for two hours or more it is unlikely that he would be able to walk.

IX. Pte. Asselmont says that he bought drinks for the room at about 9:30(2130) hrs., with a pound note, but Pte. Jenkins who was with him all the time in this bar saw no pound notes, and says he paid for most of the drinks.

Notes on address of the prosecution re. F.C.C.M. of K52158 Pte. Asselmont, J.J.

I. Drunkenness, the defence of the accused is no defence. See A.M.L. Chapt. 7, section 9, page 106, and Chapt. 3, section 48, page 26.

II. Sergeant O'Neill, L/Cpl. Jeffries, L/Cpl. Patterson all state that Pte Asselmont was drunk, but not so drunk that he didn't know what he was doing, viz: He said "Let my friend go free, I am the one responsible for causing the disturbance."

III. Pte. Asselmont was not so drunk that he did not recognise an officer when he saw one, viz: Capt. Cheeseman.

IV. All three Provost N.C.O.s swear that Pte. Asselmont used improper language to Capt. Cheeseman and Sergeant O'Neill.

V. Pte Asselmont attempted to strike Sgt. O'Neill. L/Cpl. Patterson says he struck Sgt. O'Neill, L/Cpl. Jeffries says he attempted to strike Sgt. O'Neill, and Sgt. O'Neill says that he became violent and waved his arms about. All show an attempt.

VI. "Nothing can justify a soldier striking or offering violence to a superior:- M.A.L. Chapt.III, section 47, page 26.

VII. M.A.L. Chapt V, sect. 71, page 98, pointed out to the court for the court's guidance, and in fairness to the accused.

VIII. Pte. Jenkins had equally as much to drink as Pte. Asselment, but Pte. Jenkins can remember being arrested while Pte. Asselment can not remember anything after 9:30(21.30)hrs. If he was that drunk for two hours or more it is unlikely that he would be able to walk.

IX. Pte. Asselment says that he bought drinks for the room at about 9.30(21.30) hrs., with a pound note, but Pte. Jenkins who was with him all the time in this bar saw no pound notes, and says he paid for most of the drinks.

COURT MARSHALL X 8815B Pte. Masolmont J.J., MALCOTH Cpl J

1. Ref. m/n subject these proceedings have been delayed for the following reasons:-

(a) The stenographer detailed to record the proceedings was a Company Orderly Room clerk, who had also to take the proceedings in a another Court Marshall, and Court of Inquiry, immediately after the Court Marshall in this case, this stenographer's Company, and my own Coy. moved from the Oxted area to the areas south of Godstone now occupied

(b) My own Orderly Room clerk in on leave.

(c) The two Officer members of the court also moved to another area.

2. The Court feels that in view of the fact that the prosecution and defense bothe admit that the accused was very drunk and not in full possession of his senses. Consideration may well be given to the fact of drunkenness. The Court feels that while the sentence is not excessive in view of the seriousness of the charge, that at least a portion of the time that this man has already been in custody, may in fairness be allowed to count as part of his sentence.

Witness having been duly sworn deposes as follows:

I am Signorina Palita Bice Boccia of 50 Turin
Via Sofia Torino. At about 10 o'clock in the morning of 10 January 1918 I was at home at 50 Via Sofia. I saw the accused whom I now identify and two other soldiers climb up the balcony of my house. The accused had a revolver in his hand. He entered the house and demanded cognac.
We had no cognac and the accused opened all the drawers in the house looking for it. I was in bed and the accused ordered me to get up.
I then told the accused we had no cognac so one of the others told me to go back to bed which I did.
The accused then made me get up again and go outside. I told him I was cold so then the soldiers and my sister and myself went into my cousins house. The accused told us to stay where we were until he told us to come.

my cousin opened the door and he invited us again demanded cognac. my cousins did not have any cognac so then the soldiers went away and started to my house that approximately 1130. I did not return until they had left. I returned about 1130 and locked the doors and I heard I cannot say which one forced a shot through the door. The next morning I reported to A.M.C. of Ypres.

On the 10th January I attended an identification parade of soldiers and picked out the accused as being one of the soldiers who had visited my house on the evening of 10 January 1940.

Sigisard Amina Politi of 50 Via Sofia Arlona having been duly sworn deposes as follows

On the night of the 10 January 1908 at about 10 o'clock I was sitting in my house and I heard a lot of noise around the balcony. I saw two soldiers come into the house from the balcony. Two or three minutes after a third soldier came in. I recognize the accused as being one of the soldiers who came in. The accused asked for cognac he had a pistol in his hand and kept it there. The accused went to look through the drawers. He never found any cognac. The soldiers locked me in a room so I could not see what they did after that. I had a key to the room and got out and went to my sister's room. The accused then took me to another door, it was locked open so he pushed it open. That was the room of Nicola Romanco. My sister myself and the three soldiers went into the room and the soldiers demanded cognac again. Nicola Romanco did not have any cognac. The accused grabbed Mr Romanco by the coat, he then hit him two or three times and his companion was asking the accused not to hit him. He would not listen. After this my sister and I went both into our room. All I heard after that was one shot fired.

Cross-examined by accused - Where did I hit Mr. Romanco?

Answer - You grabbed hold of him by the coat and stopped his face.

Capt R.F. Williamson, S.H. of C., having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt R.F. Williamson, the orderly officer of S.H. of C., Pte Esselmont, James John, was brought before me on the morning of 6 Sept 39. He was drunk. In mitigation of punishment I would like to point out two things. First the long service of the accused from 6 Sept 39. Secondly the fact that the accused was drunk, to point that in his own words he didn't know much about what went on.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, but you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

(H.C. Pattison) Major
Officer having custody of Mr President, Members of the Court.

The accused H. 45898 Pte Emery H. of 3 Can Inf Div Re Catering Pool (WD) C F has pleaded guilty to the charge of being A.W.O.L. It devolves to me to accept the punishment which will be set by you the President, and members of this Court.

In setting the punishment in this particular case I feel that the following points should be carefully considered.

1° The accused has served in the Can Army for a period of 5 years and 11 mos. Most of this time has been spent overseas.

2° He has always been a model soldier, whilst on duty and has established the reputation of being a hard and cheerful worker.

3° This Soldier has previously suffered from loss of memory. Major Neil of the R Can A M C has examined this man and has stated that Pte Emery should be returned to Canada because of his mental stability.

4° The accused has been stationed in Germany whilst awaiting repatriation. And as he is a cook he has been proper.

5° As he was awaiting a posting in the catering pro and with no particular job to do, he had a great deal of spare time on his hands, in such a position it is only natural for a man to become rather morose.

6° The accused did go AWL but had no intention of staying away. Enjoying the company of friends by putting off his return until he was picked up by the Provost.

7° He has previously been found guilty of a number of small charges but never of one of disobedience. He made no effort to resist arrest and at all times has been a model soldier whilst awaiting trial.

8° Every day spent in detention will lengthen the time before his discharge to civilian life. As the accused is now 25 years of age the readjustment will be very difficult to readjust himself to civilian life.

9° Having the previously mentioned reasons I feel that as light a sentence as possible should be given the accused.

The accused wishes to make a statement without being sworn.

"H" I established friendly relationships with a Mrs.Hailstone while the Unit was in Brighton. On the 7 Sept' Mrs. Hailstone visited me and told me that she was pregnant. I realized that I was the father of the child if this were true. On Friday the 21 Jan 44 I was at Mrs. Hailstone's house, she was sick after having a miscarriage Thursday night. I remained there all day to look after her. She did not want me to call a doctor because she had been trying to bring on an abortion by taking pills. I remained Friday night because she was still sick and when the air raid started she got worse. I hope to marry Mrs. Hailstone as soon as her divorce comes through. If Sgt.Foulds had not come for me I would have been back on Sunday morning 23 Jan 44. This would have been possible because Mrs.Hailstone's sister would have been back from London to look after her. After I left there was a doctor called in.

A. I believe that was the week end before.

Q. Do you know if he did not have a week-end pass that week end 15 Jan 1944?

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

With reference to the first charge I submit that the prosecution has not proved the fact that the accused was absent from 15 Jan 44. The evidence produced by the prosecution was that Pte.Grant who if in the mess before 11.15 P.M. on 15 Jan 44 was not seen by the person in charge of the bar on 15 Jan 44. This contradicts the statement of Leonzio who was in charge of the bar. I submit therefore that the evidence in so far as the first charge is insufficient.
With reference to the second charge no attempt has been made to prove that the accused was not absent. I submit that the accused could not leave Mrs. Hailstone during the time covered by the second charge and still call himself a man. Had he left the girl he hopes to marry he would have displayed great disregard, and brutality far from Normal. Normally A.W.L. involves a stay under happier circumstances. With the accused this is not the case. The time spent must have been anything but happy. In fact a most horrible and trying experience. I submit the accused is not guilty of the second charge and quote notes under Sec. 15 A.A. involving absence owing to sickness or arrest by civil authority. "Involuntary absence, due for example to illness or arrest by civil power , is not ordinarily an offence under this section". I am quite sure that we need no medical advice to confirm how ill Mrs. Hailstone was at that time. Faced again with the same situation the accused in fairness to his manhood must make the same choice.

R.P. 83(b) complied with ~~C&H~~.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTING OFFICER

With reference to the first charge the prosecution has presented evidence to the effect that the accused was not present when the customary Tattoo check was made on 15 Jan 44. The defence has attempted with evidence to show that there is no proff of absence at approximately 10.30 P.M. There may be some argument regarding the exact time in this case. In this connection I wish to refer to Sec.15 A.A. "The particulars should state the date when the absence began and the date when it ended. If the hour of his absence is material for the purpose of proving a days absence. The hours of departure and return must also be stated in the particulars.
I submit that the absence of the accused may have taken place anytime up to 10.59 A.M. the following morning and it would not alter the charge of the crime in the least. The prosecution has proved that the accused absented himself some time during the night 15/16 Jan. 44 and is therefore guilty of the first charge.

With reference to the second charge. The defence has attempted to show involuntary absence, I wish to briefly refer again to notes A.A. Sec. 15. Reference there to involuntary absence in connections with illness to the accused, we have no evidence that the accused went to any great efforts to secure some individual to take his place by the side of his sick friend while he returned to duty with his Unit, nor is there any evidence that the accused made any attempt to contact his Unit and inform them of the circumstances at that particular time. As the prosecution has brought out the Commanding Officer and Adjutant and others were sympathetic towards the circumstances of the accused, and were doing all in their power to assist him. I submit that the accused was quite aware of this sympathy and regardless of this fact he continued to disregard Military Authority. I therefore submit that his absence was voluntary. As the defence has admitted physical absence. I submit the accused is guilty of the second charge.

CERTIFIED R.P. 83(b) HAS BEEN COMPLIED WITH ~~C&H~~.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

H-45521 Sgt. Merice F.C., "C" Company, Lake Sup R (M) having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, I am H-45521 Sgt Merice, F.C., of "C" Company, Lake Sup R (M). On 20 Jan 44 I was company orderly sergeant "C" Company. The accused after being remanded for the Commanding Officer was warned by myself that he would be warned for Bn.Orderly room and would be under open arrest until that time. On checking the lines that night 20 Jan 44 at approximately 2230 hrs, the accused was not in the lines. The accused, being assistant cook in the officer's mess, had been sleeping there, and also had been recently detained and was sleeping in the R.A.P. and did not know therefore exactly where he was sleeping that night, so a thorough check was made the following morning. A check was made at the officer's mess, the R.A.P. and both the men's kitchens and also " C" Company lines. On completion of this check, as I was unsuccessful in locating the accused, I reported the accused as absent. This concludes my evidence, sir".

Question by the accused

Sgt. Merice did you look in huts 25 and 28 when you were making the check on the 21st.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

Answer

I did not check these huts, as the cooks had said they had not seen the accused.

Question by the accused

How did you advise me that I was under open arrest.

Answer

When we came out of the company orderly room I told you that you were under open arrest and would be warned for Bn.orderly room later. I said this while I was coming through the door of the orderly room and my voice may have been too low to be clear to the accused.

The accused declined to further cross examine the witness.
