PARKS BOARD

Against the Proposed Lake Erie Route—They Pass a Resolution Declining Right of Way Across the River Front.

The inaugural meeting of the Parks board was held in the Mayor's Office in the city hall on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Present were Messrs. Geo. Matthews, F. Cockshutt, F. Grobb, Wm. Glover, E. L. Goold and J. J. Hawkins.

Secretary Hawkins took the chair and having read a communication from the City Clerk notifying the board that the Mayor and Council had appointed Messrs. F. Cockshutt and Wm. Glover for the ensuing term of three years, called upon the meeting to elect a chairman.

Considerable discussion took place on the matter. Mr. Geo. Matthews stated that he would prefer not to be re-elected, and read a statement showing that his term of office of four years had exceeded that of anyone else. Messrs. Cockshutt and F. Grobb, ex-chairmen also declined nomination.

It was moved by Wm. Glover, seconded by F. Cockshutt: That Mr. E. L. Goold be chairman for the current year. This was unanimously carried and Mr. Goold thereupon took the chair.

All of the members spoke very highly of Mr. Matthews administration, and stated that the retiring chairman had always been very courteous and active in the interests of the board, which had made considerable progress under his chairmanship.

Messrs. Hawkins and Bunnell were re-appointed secretary and treasurer for the year.

Standing Committees. Standing committees were elected as follows, the first named to be chairman: Finance—F. Grobb, Mayor Hartman and J. J. Hawkins. Grounds—F. Cockshutt, W. Glover, E. L. Goold.

The Railway Route. The only question of a general nature was the route of the proposed Lake Erie and Northern Railway along Jubilee Terrace and its approaches. The board is unanimous in the position taken at the outset, that as good a route can be substituted. City Engineer Jones had been requested by the board some time ago to examine the different possible routes. He attended the meeting and exhibited preliminary plans and estimates for a route which would cross the river between Lorne Bridge and the G. T. R. Bridge, thence along, paralleling the G. T. R. to a point near the Corbridge factory and thence northerly along the west side of the river to the vicinity of the Christie farm, where it would strike the proposed route of the Lake Erie and Northern. He further stated this route while it is shorter, is of easier grades and curves than the proposed route of the L. E. and N.

Moved by Mr. F. Cockshutt, seconded by Geo. Matthews:

"Whereas, the Brantford, Lake Erie and Northern R. R. Co. asked from this board the right of way along the river front of Jubilee Park on the ground that there was no other practicable route for the railway out of the city. And whereas, the report of City Engineer Jones shows that there is another route equally favorable in respect to grades, length and curvature. Be it, therefore, resolved that this board decline to grant the right of way along the river front. This board expresses the opinion that the river front is an essential feature of any well considered scheme which may be carried out in the future to develop the park system and beautify the city, and, therefore, the board stands unalterably opposed to any proposition which will remove the river front from the control of the city. That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Mayor, and the Brantford, Lake Erie and Northern R. R. Co."

Resident of United States Gets Champion British Bull Dogs

(Courier Leased Wire) NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Six English bull dogs, said to be worth $37,500 which Arnold Lawson, son of Thos. Mr. Lawson hopes to have this re-peat from England, yesterday. He said to make up the finest and most costly pack of bull dogs ever imported into this country. The dogs were housed during the trip across the Atlantic each in a tiny cottage on board the Steamer America. The collection includes champion Centaur, four and a half years old, which has taken twelve championship prizes and beaten every lightweight bull dog in England, according to Mr. Lawson. Champion Beamish Blunderbus and Irish Boy, were noted heavyweights in the collection.

"There are no good bulls left in England," said Mr. Lawson, "I have all of them with me." A 20 per cent. duty was required on the dogs, but Mr. Lawson hopes to have this re-peat on the ground that the dogs have been brought here for improving the native breed.

DROPPED DEAD

(Courier Leased Wire) MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—Becoming excited over a fight in her home at St. Dominique street early Saturday evening between her son-in-law and a boarder, Mrs. Joseph Lavoie, 78 years of age, was seized with an attack of heart failure and fell to the floor dead.

WILL CELEBRATE

(Courier Leased Wire) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The Pilgrims Society of America will celebrate at a dinner to-morrow evening the tenth anniversary of its founding, with the object of fostering social relations between the people of the United States and Great Britain by bringing distinguished citizens of both countries into contact. Among the guests at the dinner will be a delegation from the English sister society of the Pilgrims of Great Britain, headed by its honorary secretary, Henry E. Brittain, who has been appointed by Field Marshal Earl Roberts, president of the society to represent him on the occasion. Jos. H. Choate, former ambassador to the Court of St. James will preside.

THE LONDON SEASON

Will Open at an Unusually Early Date This Year—The First Court Will be Exceptionally Brilliant as a Starter.

(Courier Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A London cable says:

The London season opens unusually early with the arrival of the court in London to-day from Windsor and promises to be as busy and brilliant as any during recent years.

Already the engagement list of the King and Queen is extended well into the summer and Their Majesties have intimated an intention to make a large number of public appearances. What is a particularly strenuous week so far as Their Majesties are concerned starts to-night with a dinner party at Buckingham Palace. To-morrow morning the King will give private audiences to a number of diplomatic and state officials and hold a levee at Buckingham Palace, thus departing from the custom which has so long made St. James' Palace the scene of these ceremonies.

The first court of the season, which will be held at Buckingham Palace on Friday, promises to be exceptionally brilliant. The Prince of Wales will be of the royal group and all the ambassadors and Ministers at the court of St. James will be present.

Mrs. Asquith will present her daughter on this occasion, and it is probable that Mrs. Asquith's niece, Miss Clarissa Tennant, will at the same time make her debut. The Marchioness Anglesy will be among the notable young married women to be presented at this court.

Rather depressing for women of short stature, who hoped by long and spreading trains to give the illusion of added inches as they swept past by the chairs of state, is the news that the command has gone forth that the heretofore regulation of court trains is to be curtailed eighteen inches.

GERMAN EMPEROR

Adds Dramatic Touch to the Tense War Situation—He has Interfered at the Eleventh Hour on Behalf of Peace.

(Courier Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: Though all the world expects guns to be booming at Adrianople to-night the German Emperor has interfered at the eleventh hour in a final effort to keep peace in the Balkans.

He has instructed the German Minister at Sofia to make urgent representations to King Ferdinand as to the advisability of accepting the latest proposal made by Turkey.

This dramatic intervention has its origin in the remarkable diplomatic situation which arose at the morning conference of the ambassadors. It was then agreed that there was no possibility of any further immediate action being taken by the ambassadors of the Triple Alliance, led by Germany, declared that the Turkish reply to the recent note of the powers left the way open for further negotiations, a view which the delegates of the alliances had already refused to accept. The reports of the Triple Alliance expressed themselves willing to agree to any step which might obtain a further postponement of the resumption of hostilities and it was finally decided that each ambassador should telegraph to his government pointing out that the possibility of continued peace lay in pressure being brought to bear on the allies to resume negotiations. It was stated last night that the French Government had instructed its Minister in Sofia to advise the Bulgarian Government to re-open negotiations, both in diplomatic circles, both in London and Paris, little hope is entertained of a favorable result.

The national defence committee, adds the correspondent, contemplates a levy of 50 per cent on the capital possessed by wealthy citizens.

THE WAR MAY BE RESUMED AT ANY MOMENT

(Courier Leased Wire.) LONDON, Feb. 3.—The war between Turkey and Bulgaria, Greece, Montenegro and Serbia will begin again at seven o'clock this evening, according to the schedule, and unless the last faint efforts of the European powers to prevent a resumption of the fighting should succeed or Turkey decide at the eleventh hour to surrender to the allies.

It has even been decided who shall fire the first shot, as Turkey has stated that she will allow her adversaries to do that.

The immediate object of the armies of the allied Balkan nations, is believed to be the capture of the Fortress of Adrianople, which has hitherto presented such a firm front to all the efforts of the besiegers in spite of the overwhelming force brought against it. Upon this fortress the combined Bulgarian and Serbian armies, the latter of which is well supplied with powerful siege artillery, will concentrate their exertions. For the present, at any rate, the Bulgarian generals will simply try to hold the large forces of Turkish troops, concentrated behind the line of fortifications at Tchatalja for the defence of Constantinople.

King Nicholas of Montenegro has already started for the Turkish fortress of Scutar, which also has hitherto held out bravely against every assault. The King will himself take the lead in a renewed attack in the hope of capturing the city and thus establishing an accomplished fact.

Montenegro will obtain a better chance of keeping definite possession of it when peace finally comes.

In the Western Turkish Province of Epirus, which touches the Grecian border, the Greek troops, under the command of Crown Prince Constantine, assert that they have great hopes of breaking down the splendid defence which the Turkish army has thus far offered.

The Serbian armies alone of all the Balkan allies, have completed their campaign, and have placed many of their troops at the disposal of their comrades in the field. Some, however, must be kept in Albania, where, according to advices, a rising against the invaders has been organized already.

It is declared that the Albanians, with 60,000 rifles, under the command of Austrian officers, are taking the field, and it is stated that they have fought a battle at Dibra, where the Serbians lost heavily.

The Albanians are said to be greatly irritated by the wholesale arrests of those among them who are suspected of being interested in the provisional government.

While the possible renewal of the war may put a strain upon the co-operation of the European powers, they have thus far worked in harmony, and the departure of Prince Hohenzollern-Schillingensfuerst from Vienna with an autograph letter from the Emperor Francis Joseph to the Emperor Nicholas of Russia, gives additional hope that they will do so until the end.

The Turkish government, like that of Bulgaria, announces that it will not allow newspaper correspondents to accompany the armies in the field. Mahmoud Shekif Pasha, the grand vizier, stated emphatically in the

SEINE GIVING UNEASINESS

(Courier Leased Wire.) PARIS, Feb. 3.—Fears of a repetition of the disastrous inundations which occurred in Paris during the winter of 1910-11 have been aroused by the rapid rising of the River Seine. The level of the water is mounting to-day about two inches every hour.

In low lying quarters of the city, especially in the southwestern district of Bercy, the water has overflowed into some of the streets. The Rue Watt near the Tolbiac bridge, was the first to be flooded. It is now under water to a depth of several inches and consternation reigns among the occupants of adjacent houses.

Rain ceased this morning in Paris itself, but it continues to fall heavier in the up-country regions.

Two Women Under Arrest for Killing Their Two Children

(Courier Leased Wire.) EAST ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Pearl Bell Stebbins and Mrs. Nellie A. Carpenter, mothers of two boys who were found dead of gas asphyxiation in the same bed Sunday, are under arrest here.

The boys, George Stebbins, 13 years old, and Ralph Carpenter, six, were discovered dead when Mrs. Carpenter returned to her home in the morning in the company of a man, it was testified at the Coroner's inquest. The other woman was away from home all night, but was found by the police shortly before noon.

An open four-inch gas pipe in a bedroom adjoining that occupied by the boys, which at one time connected with a gas range, was the source of the gas, which caused the boys' death.

There was no cap on the pipe and none was found on the floor. There were no other gas fixtures. At the inquest last night, it was testified that late on Saturday night Mrs. Stebbins was seen to enter the house in which the boys were sleeping, and that a man and woman waited her reappearance on the sidewalk in front.

More Precautions With Reference to the British Suffragettes

(Courier Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A cable from London says: In consequence of the smashing of the glass show case in the jeweli house of the Tower of London on Saturday, it has been decided to close the jewel house temporarily. Special precautions against suffragette outrages are being taken at the British Museum, the National Gallery and other public buildings.

The number of police at the Guild Hall has been increased.

The suffragettes had openly threatened to do damage in certain of the Royal palaces, and the official announcement that Kensington, Hampton Court, Kew and Holy Road are to remain closed to the public until further notice, leaves them with a gap in their program that may require a day or two to fill up.

DATES AGREEABLE.

(Courier Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The entry of Edward Ray, the British open champion and Harry Vardon, five times holder of the title is assured by the recently announced postponement of the American open golf championship from June until Sept. 17-18. The United States Golf Association officials have received word from the English players that the dates will be agreeable to them. It is also said that Geo. Duncan, one of the leading British professionals, is likely to compete. The change also enables Jack McDermott, the young Atlantic City golfer, who is the first American to hold the title of open champion here, to appear in defence of the trophy. The June dates would have probably eliminated him as he has agreed upon a trip to England to seek championship honors there.

Got Rid of Bronchitis

The worst feature of bronchitis is the tendency to return year after year until the system is worn out and gives away to consumption, or other ravaging disease. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine owes much of its great popularity to the fact that it positively cures bronchitis, and this is about as severe a test as can be made of a medicine of this kind. Mr. W. H. Walker, Calmar, Alta., writes: "I am pleased to say that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has done much good to myself, wife and children. My eldest girl 7 years, had bronchitis, and the doctor who attended her did not seem to do much good. We got Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for her and she soon became well. We always keep this medicine in the house now ready for use, and find that it soon cures coughs and colds."

FOR SALE The organ ought to know from personal experience. As a matter of fact, the Toronto Globe correspondent at Ottawa, in a summary of Mr. Cocksbutt's speech said that he had let the cat out of the bag, by intimating that the navy contributions were to be annual, or something of that sort. The Toronto Globe editorially remarked: "If Mr. Cocksbutt can carry leader with him, the policy of contributions will be a permanent one, not merely an emergency policy. The Courier retorted that there not one word in Mr. Cocksbutt's speech which could be so rendered and it repeats the statement. The Expositor, of course, is anything except contradictory, and said: "—Mr. Cocksbutt distinctly favors a policy of one fleet."—positor, Jan. 27th. "—Mr. Cocksbutt could not go to any greater length than leader."—Expositor, Jan. 27th. An extract, which our cotem of the Courier from deadly and all kinds of diabolical intent left out, could be twisted into what the organ meant, anyone than an editor in the Expositor one day is at all likely to jibe with other Expositor marks on the same subject at a date.

THE NAVAL MATTER

"The Courier in professedly presenting before its readers Mr. Cocksbutt's remarks on this question suppresses them, and, having done so, accuses the Expositor of misrepresenting Mr. Cocksbutt. This is certainly a most unenviable position for a newspaper to be found in."

The organ ought to know from personal experience. As a matter of fact, the Toronto Globe correspondent at Ottawa, in a summary of Mr. Cocksbutt's speech said that he had let the cat out of the bag, by intimating that the navy contributions were to be annual, or something of that sort.

The Toronto Globe editorially remarked: "If Mr. Cocksbutt can carry leader with him, the policy of contributions will be a permanent one, not merely an emergency policy. The Courier retorted that there not one word in Mr. Cocksbutt's speech which could be so rendered and it repeats the statement. The Expositor, of course, is anything except contradictory, and said: "—Mr. Cocksbutt distinctly favors a policy of one fleet."—positor, Jan. 27th.

"—Mr. Cocksbutt could not go to any greater length than leader."—Expositor, Jan. 27th. An extract, which our cotem of the Courier from deadly and all kinds of diabolical intent left out, could be twisted into what the organ meant, anyone than an editor in the Expositor one day is at all likely to jibe with other Expositor marks on the same subject at a date.

A FLOOD OF TALK. It is intimated from Ottawa a whole lot of Liberal members intend to talk on the Navy Question and that those who have been signed that job recently, have had pleasure of importuning members.

If these gentlemen imagine there is an issue on which they are going to float comfortably back to power, they will speedily discover how hastily and consummately they are mistaken.

"At the first place there cannot be said to be any issue, for what a sensible man would prefer the Liberal suggestion of building Dreadnoughts in Canada when we haven't the facilities, and of manning them with Canadians, when Johnny Canuck is our sailing chap.

In the United States it has recently been disclosed that their navy contains a very big percentage of foreigners and that special allusions do not attract the "natural born" to any remarkable extent.

If it is as bad there with its seventy odd millions, it would wonder here with our much smaller population.

THE NAVAL MATTER

The Courier in professedly sticking before its readers Mr. Cocksbutt's remarks on this question, suppresses them, and, having suppressed them, accuses the Globe and the Expositor of misrepresenting Mr. Cocksbutt. This is certainly a most invidious position for a newspaper to be found in.

The organ ought to know from personal experience. As a matter of fact, the Toronto Globe correspondent at Ottawa, in a summary of Mr. Cocksbutt's speech, said that he had let the cat out of the bag by intimating that the navy contributions were to be annual, or something of that sort.

The Toronto Globe editorially remarked: "Mr. Cocksbutt can carry his leader with him, the policy of contributions will be a permanent and not merely an emergency policy." The Courier retorted that there was not one word in Mr. Cocksbutt's speech which could be so rendered, and it repeats the statement.

The Expositor, of course, is never anything except contradictory, and it said:

An extract, which our cotem says the Courier from dead and all kinds of diabolical intent left out, couldn't be twisted into what the organ says it meant, anymore than an editorial in the Expositor one day is at all likely to jibe with other Expositor remarks on the same subject at a later date.

A FLOOD OF TALK.

It is intimated from Ottawa that a whole lot of Liberal members still intend to talk on the Navy Question, and that those who have been assigned that job recently, have had the pleasure of importuning empty benches.

If these gentlemen imagine that there is an issue on which they are going to float comfortably back in the power, they will speedily discover how vastly and consummately they are mistaken.

The first place there cannot be said to be any issue, for what sensible man would prefer the Laurier objection of building Dreadnoughts in Canada when we haven't the facilities, and of manning them with Canadians, when Johnny Canuck is not a sailing chap.

In the United States it has recently been disclosed that their men of war contain a very big percentage of foreigners and that special allurements do not attract the "native born" to any remarkable extent.

If it is as had there with their twenty odd millions, it would be worse here with our much smaller population. Even if they could, the Laurierites aren't go to the country on this matter and if they did they would be wallowed more completely than on the Reciprocity pact.

They had better cease their garulosity and help to expedite both the Borden proposal and other public business.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Close to fifty million dollars is the volume of policies now on the books of the North American Life Assurance Co. This was one of the outstanding features of the excellent report presented at the annual meeting of the company in Toronto on January 30.

In point of the amount of new business issued, 1912 ranks first in the company's prosperous long history of 32 years. The new policies accepted amounted to $7,630,336, an increase of $1,500,010 over those issued in 1911.

The company kept up its record for prompt payment of death claims by paying to beneficiaries of deceased policyholders $422,000, which brought up the total death claim payments since organization to the large sum of $4,969,820.

The relatively small sum of $6000 paid as dividends to guarantors, demonstrated that, as heretofore, the policyholders' interests predominate. The satisfactory amount of $166,000 was distributed as profits to policyholders.

Convincing evidence of the strong and skilful management of the company under President Edward Gurney was furnished by the balance sheet, in which the assets showed the satisfactory increase of $911,000, with a total of $13,225,000.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

"After having had two days time in which to think over the matter, the Courier tries to get out of the hole in which it has been placed by the deletion of the most significant paragraph in Mr. W. F. Cocksbutt's speech on the naval question."

Two days; don't you flatter yourself, sonny. Didn't notice your attempt to square away your misrepresentation sooner; that's all.

SUCCESSORS TO INJURIES

LONDON, Ont., Feb. 3.—James O'Neil, aged 26, son of Artemas O'Neil, of Lucan, died at Victoria Hospital as a result of injuries sustained in a rear-end collision on the Wabash Railway at Glencoe a couple of weeks ago.

Cookery Points

Apple Tapioca. Butter and eggs are not used in the following recipe for apple tapioca, a most excellent way of preparing this dessert: Have ready a large cupful of tapioca, three pints of apples, peeled, cored and quartered; a cupful of sugar, a scant teaspoonful of salt, a flavoring of grated lemon peel or nutmeg and three pints of boiling water.

Prune Salad. Prune salad is somewhat of a novelty to many. Soak the prunes overnight in cold water. Then the next morning stew them with water and sugar until tender. Let them cool, remove the stones and fill the centers with cream cheese which has been softened with a little cream and mixed with chopped nuts.

Chocolate Pie. Heat one cupful of milk with one square of chocolate, stirring until the chocolate, which should be broken fine, is melted. Beat the yolks of three eggs and add four tablespoonfuls of milk. Put a tablespoonful of salt and one-half cupful of sugar into the milk and chocolate, and when hot again add the diluted egg yolks.

Salmon Cutlets. For a hot dish salmon cutlets are easily prepared. They may be made from the surplus of boiled salmon. Shred cold boiled salmon with a fork; moisten it with a little melted butter or, better still, if you have it, some lobster sauce.

Pork Cheese. Cut but do not chop two pounds of cold roast pork into small pieces, allowing four ounces of fat for every pound of lean. Then pack this into a mold, with pepper and salt, and two fine minced onions, filling up the mold with good, well flavored gravy with which a little gelatin has been dissolved and baked for rather over half an hour.

Piquant Tongue Rounds. Take half a pound of tongue for two dozen rounds, two tablespoonfuls of minced capers, one tablespoonful of English mustard and seasoning of cayenne pepper. Cream two heaping tablespoonfuls of butter, add seasoned tongue and rub the mixture to a smooth paste. Cut buttered bread thin and as many unbuttered squares. Spread the plain slices with the tongue and cream and put the two together and cut round with a large biscuit cutter.

Eggs a la Creole. Cook a pan of tomatoes with a shredded green pepper until the tomatoes are reduced by half. Then pour on to five rounds of buttered toast and place on each of these a poached egg and keep hot. Meanwhile melt an ounce of butter in a pan over the fire and let it color. Then add a tablespoonful of either lemon juice or vinegar. Let it all come just to the boil and pour it over the eggs, seasoning them with pepper and salt.

Breakfast Rolls. Mix together a full teaspoonful of baking powder, a pound of flour and a small teaspoonful of salt; rub two ounces of butter into it, mix in quickly with half a pint of buttermilk or skim milk; make the dough up into little rolls, set them on a well floured baking tin and bake for ten to fifteen minutes. When half baked brush with milk.

New York Broiled Oysters. Drain the oysters and season with salt and pepper. Dip first into softened butter and then roll in breadcrumbs. Arrange in a fine wire broiler, place over a clear fire and broil a light brown. Serve with maitre d'hotel sauce.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTOR OIL

For the Children

Almost every western state has one or more natural statues. Some are carved so perfectly by the action of the elements as to be startling in their expressions. One of the most striking is the "Monk's Head," in Cooney canyon, New Mexico, a freak of nature which brings out in clear relief a man's face, the head appearing to be hooded.

Origin of Words. "Povwow" comes from the North American Indians. The word boss comes from the Low Dutch and means master. Kidnap comes from the napping or stealing of a kid, gypsy for child.

A Diplomatic Fisherman. A king once bought a string of fish from a poor fisherman and in return gave him a bag of gold coins. The fisherman swung the fortune over his shoulder and was about to depart when he noticed a single coin had fallen to the floor.

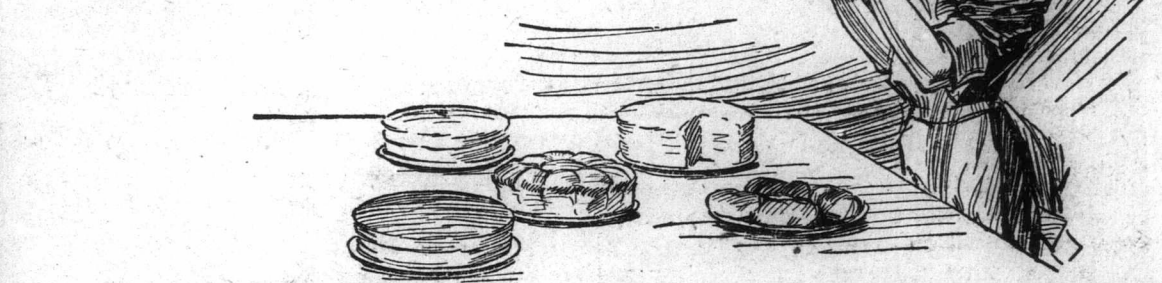

Toasts From Dickens. And now everywhere is the New Year. There are books and toys, kind wishes and good deeds for the New Year.—Chimes.

Cats In Ancient Times. Cats are mentioned in Assyria 2000 B. C. and are found in Egyptian tombs centuries prior to that date. Deified like the ibis and ichneumon from their useful properties, they were held in such veneration that Bubastis, at first lion headed, became a cat headed goddess.

Secrets. When I pass Linda's house and put a pebble in the gate it means: "I have to hurry on. Don't look for me nor wait." And when I fix my ribbon bow in just a certain way it means: "Come over to my house this afternoon, and play."

LATER DESPATCHES

(Continued from Page One) the Grigg House, London, Ont., and later an evangelist, was sentenced in the police court this morning to a year in prison for bigamy. It was alleged he had three wives, one of whom he married in London and the other two since coming West several years ago. He pleaded guilty to marrying a Mrs. Barnes at Portage La Prairie while he had a wife living in London, Ont. He had been living with the second wife at Killdonan, a suburb of Winnipeg.

DIED FROM BURNS.

(Courier Leased Wire). WINDSOR, Ont., Feb. 3.—Stanley, the infant child of Fred Rochelau, of Sandwich, died this morning of terrible agony from burns received Saturday morning when asleep in his cradle above the store. A TORONTO MIRACLE

(Courier Leased Wire). TORONTO, Feb. 3.—To fall fifteen feet in an 180 pound roadster that turns a somersault in the descent and to escape with his life, was the miracle that happened to A. P. Taylor, general manager of John Taylor and Company, soap makers, at the McLaughlin Company's premises this morning.

At St. Michael's Hospital it was found that he had a good chance for recovery. Mr. Taylor is 36 years of age. His injuries included a fractured skull, fortunately at the base of the skull, but over the left temple. His right elbow and a left rib are also broken. His injuries were dressed by Dr. E. E. King and Dr. A. J. MacKenzie.

Mr. Taylor drove his machine into the cleaning department of the McLaughlin Company's premises. He drove up an inclined gangway to the floor of the room and ran the car across to the northeast corner where the elevator is situated. Before reaching the elevator he backed with the intention of leaving his car backed against the west wall in line with a number of others. At the first backing operation he failed to reach the position against the wall he intended and moved the car forwards towards the elevator again to get another start for backing up. In running forward he ran right into the elevator shaft.

"It was a case of thinking that the elevator was there," said his brother, in speaking of the accident.

Unfortunately the elevator was at an upper floor, and the car dropped to the basement, turning over as it fell.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 3.—As an outcome of the shooting of Thomas Conroy, Jersey City Labor leader, by Bowery gangsters in this city, on Friday night, a warrant has been issued for Peter P. Murphy, walking delegate for the Hoisting Engineers' Union, on a charge of conspiracy.

The warrant was sworn out by John W. Burke, another labor leader, who accuses Murphy of having plotted with Ernest Willaber, "Kid

Conroy was shot while going to Burke's assistance, when the latter was attacked. Willaber was only one of the alleged gangsters under arrest.

Picture Machine Exploded in Face of Operator

While taking flashlight pictures in the Simpson House last evening Mr. B. McIntosh of Toronto, formerly of the Benson House, Lindsay, who had his face and head badly burned by the machine exploding, but it did not work. He tried it several times and finding it would not work, walked over to the King's reputation.

Photographed from "Lindsay Warbler" of Jan. 13th last.

Mr. MacIntosh says:—"At the hospital I was kept masked night and day for five days. At the end of that time the burns were still very bad and the doctors would not hear of my returning to work. I knew if I could only get some Zam-Buk for the burns I would be back at work in quick time, because I had previously used the balm and knew what it would do.

At last I left the hospital and went straight to a local store and bought some Zam-Buk. At the hotel I applied a Zam-Buk dressing and this cooled the burning pains and gave me quick relief. I kept on with the Zam-Buk treatment and returned to work. Within just one week after first commencing with the Zam-Buk treatment I might have defied anybody to detect where the burns had been, so splendidly did Zam-Buk heal the injury."

Mr. MacIntosh resides at 48 Humbert St., Toronto.

ON HIS GOOD BEHAVIOR

THE WESTERN BAD MAN DOESN'T GET HALF A CHANCE.

Thanks to the Riders of the Mounted Police Canada's Frontier of Civilization is Remarkable in the Annals of New Countries—Mob Violence is Practically Unknown.

"When I went into British Columbia four years ago," said an honored policeman, "I left a little dubious about coming into such a new country. But I was surprised to find that life and property are so safe. When a man commits a crime the mounted police get after him, and they land him, and when he gets into court he gets stuck. They don't allow much monkey work in these Canadian courts. They do the business. Yes, sir, it is a country of law and order."

There is much truth in this statement—a fact very remarkable when one considers the general conditions in this vast and rapidly developing country. The developing of a new, prosperous territory attracts the adventurous as well as the enterprising Young, unmarried men go west in large numbers. The restraints of former home life and social customs are absent. Under such circumstances it is easy to form habits of drinking and gambling and to fall into other forms of moral looseness. Personal safety and property rights are more or less insecure. Society tends toward lawlessness. Such, however, is not the case in northwest Canada. Quite to the contrary, it is doubtful if there is any country where person and property are better protected. The mounted policeman was right when he said that this is a country of law and order.

From the standpoint of crimes of violence the facts are interesting. In 1908 the total number of such offences committed in the three provinces, including homicide (of which there were 17 cases), manslaughter, stabblings, cuttings and assaults of all kinds was 634. The trial of these cases resulted in the conviction and punishment of 463. The total population of the three provinces being 1,115,000, it will be seen that the total proportion of such crimes to population was exceedingly small, while the percentage of convictions was over 76.

In the matter of burglary, larceny, housebreaking, etc., there were 213 cases, in 1911 of which the accused were convicted and punished—making over 84 per cent of convictions.

There were 2,492 cases of frauds, embezzlement, false pretenses, etc., which resulted in 1,917 convictions—over 77 per cent.

These statistics are not by any means the best evidence of the fact. One must travel through the country to appreciate it properly. One finds himself in an atmosphere of respect for law. The people feel safe. They assume that the law will be enforced.

The amount of crime and disorder that comes under one's personal notice is so small as to be negligible, and one sees comparatively little of it in the newspapers—at least, crime occupies a relatively insignificant part of their space.

The absence of mob violence and lynchings in this country is another feature. "There hasn't been a lynching in northwest Canada during the last 10 years," said the ex-policeman to the writer. This policeman had been stationed in northwest Canada for four years and was thoroughly conversant with the history of the force for many years. "A number of years ago," he said, "a negro killed a white man at Calgary. I was stationed there at the time. A movement was started that looked a little ominous. I went to the leader and talked with him. I said: 'We have this man in charge, and he is going to be brought promptly to trial. If he is guilty he will be punished, but if any attempt is made to mob him I will turn the Winchester upon the crowd that tries it.' No such attempt was made. The negro was shortly afterwards tried, convicted and executed. The fact contained in the criminal law up there is always reasonably swift and certain. The people will punish crime. There is no reason why they should interfere, and they do not attempt to do so."

Enough has been said to show that this is a country of law and order. The question then arises, What makes it so? What is there about the social organization and the underlying forces of this young civilization that gives it this distinctive feature? It is evident that in the thought of the farmer it was largely due to the efficiency of two institutions, the Royal Northwest Mounted Police and the courts. "When a man commits a crime," said he, "these mounted police get after him, and they land him."

Such is certainly the reputation of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. It is an organization that is unique among world-famous constabularies. It is a body of men numbering 661; composed of 61 officers and 600 men, commissioned officers and constables, with 568 horses. They police a territory composed of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and the extensive districts of Mackenzie and Keewatin, excluding, of course, the larger cities which have their own constabulary. The most distant detachment is on the Arctic coast, 2,500 miles from headquarters at Regina—a distance that requires two months to travel. The entire force is under the command of a commissioner, with headquarters at Regina. The whole territory is divided into eight districts, each of which is under the charge of a superintendent, with headquarters respectively at different important points in the two provinces. At each divisional point there are barracks, a jail, and complete equipment. There are many duties performed by the force, in addition to what may be termed regular police duties. They maintain the common jails, escort all prisoners to trial and those who are convicted to the penitentiary, attend up in all criminal courts, serve all criminal processes, escort lunatics to the asylum, etc., etc. They also conduct important patrol expeditions through unsettled and unsurveyed regions, visit the settlers once a month in sparsely settled sections, make investigations and report upon the condition of the natives, the state of immigration, the nature of the soil, crops, etc., all in outlying regions that are beginning to be settled—all this in addition to their regular police duties.

The special patrols for purposes of exploration are full of difficulty and danger. As one instance, a patrol across north Canada conducted by Inspector Pelletier, accompanied by one corporal and two constables, in 1908 left Fort Saskatchewan, in Alberta, on June 1, and traveled on foot, on horseback, in canoes, and by dog train through Lake Winnipeg, in Manitoba, by way of Athabasca Landing, Great Slave Lake and Hudson's Bay, via Fort Churchill, reaching their destination March 18, after traveling a total distance of 3,347 miles.

AN OVATION TO HANNA.

Col. Hugh Clark Is Forever Having His Little Joke.

Hugh Clark is known as a very funny man. As editor of The Kincardine Review, the genial member of the Commons representing South Bruce is never at a loss for a dry and humorous reply to any kind of question.

Hugh is the colonel of the 32nd Bruce, and as such is some entertainer. During a recent camp he was augmented by the Hon. J. W. Hanna, Provincial Secretary for Ontario. There were big times around the colonel's quarters between the guests, and the newspaper men and the time sleeping and telling stories.

One morning about two o'clock several privates on late leave, who had been down city celebrating, got past the guards and wandered about the streets of the white village singing "The Holy City" with a vengeance on the chorus, and before long the crowd was augmented by a couple dozen from the various regiments.

Mr. Hanna heard the noise and turned over on his cot. Next morning he asked Col. Clark what the rumpus was about.

"Oh," said Hugh, and he never cracked a smile, "I'll find out." He went out and gathered a coterie of newspaper men and officers back to his guest's tent for the night. When all were comfortable Hugh started. "Did you know that Hanna was given a tremendous ovation by this camp last night," he said, and all listened for the news.

"Yes," he continued, "it was an immense ovation for him. During the night there were the wrong passing and repassing his tent, crying 'Who's Hanna? Who's Hanna? Who's Hanna to the King.'"—Toronto Star Weekly.

In a Latin Class.

A story is going the rounds which is said to have originated in Kingston. This seems to be very likely, as the anecdote concerns a professor at Queen's University. This man had been engaged as instructor in the department of classics. Not long ago he was teaching a junior class in Latin when a stray dog found its way into the room, the door having been left open.

When the dog entered the classroom the professor was busily engaged writing on the blackboard. The animal ran in among the students, and one bright youth pulled his tail. The dog gave a little squeak of pain, which caused the professor to glance round, but he did not do more than pause in his writing. This gave the youths sufficient pluck to try again. A second canine yell disturbed the quiet of the class, but still the instructor said nothing. The students made a third attempt with equally happy results.

Then the professor turned round, and addressed the dog, not the class, in broad Scotch: "Rin awa, doggie, rin awa." This is no place for you. You'd better rang into the senior Latin class. You'll only find puppies here."

The dog was left severely alone until it chose to depart.—Saturday Night

"Hello Girl!" Now a Countess.

People of Fredericton, N.B., are recalling a well known romance of a few years ago, since the cable was received announcing the death of the Earl of Ashburnham, and the succession of the Hon. Thomas Ashburnham, a nephew, who resides in Fredericton, to the earldom and estate.

Hon. Mr. Ashburnham, as he was then, fell in love with the voice of a telephone operator in Fredericton. By inquiry he discovered that the voice belonged to Miss Marie Anderson, whose personality he found evidently was as attractive as her voice, for he married her shortly afterwards.

The Earl of Ashburnham left the other day for England.

The new plans to return soon after settling up the estates of his late uncle, the fifth Earl of Ashburnham, to close his affairs in New Brunswick, and return to England with Lady Ashburnham, to take up his permanent residence on his estate.

Elevating Music.

Pedestrians on St. Catherine street, Montreal's principal retail thoroughfare, were somewhat surprised recently to see the front of one of the leading piano houses decorated with a flaring poster, which from a distance appeared to be—only the words: BUTT

Closer inspection only increased their surprise at the method employed to attract a distinguished clientele for the intervening lines, printed in smaller type, made the sign read as follows: DON'T miss hearing the world's greatest contralto, Mme. Clara BUTT IN the Princess Theatre, Jan. 27.

Restores Gray Hair to Natural Color

If other "so-called" Restorers have failed, don't give up hope, but give WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY a trial. You run no risk. If it is not exactly as represented, your money will be refunded.

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored
My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.
MISS E. A. ROSS, Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head
For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good, and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps on coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

The bridge party given by the Daughters of the Empire for the benefit of the Ottawa Chapter proved a very successful affair. The party was held in the lovely hall room of the Chateau Laurier, which had been kindly loaned by the management and all the arrangements were beautifully carried out, which always adds so much to the success of the affair of that kind. Cards were played at thirty tables placed in the hall room, where the Union Jack, the flag owned by the chapter, hung in the centre of the room, and upstairs, in the private dining room, tea was served to all guests at six o'clocks.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Ruddy for some time the efficient manager of the Brantford Starch Works, will congratulate him upon his appointment as general manager of the Canadian Starch Co., Limited, in addition to Brantford the Company has large works at Cardinal and Prescott and another plant under construction at Fort William. Silver Wedding.

A most pleasant time was spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, 80 Grand St., on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were married in Louth England. For 20 years they lived in the Old Land, but about five years ago came out to Canada and settled in Brantford. The large number of presents received showed the high esteem in which they are held in this community. Guests to the number of about 50 sat down to a sumptuous repast, at which Mrs. Anker and Mrs. Geo. Alderson poured tea. The evening was spent in speech-making music and games. Out of town guests were present from Toronto, Hamilton, Dundas and Lines.

LAUGHTER LINES

Dr. Woods Hutchinson tells this story: "A hungry typhoid convalescent demanded something to eat. The nurse gave him a spoonful of tapioca. 'Now,' he said, fretfully, 'I want to read a little, bring me a postage stamp.'"—Cosmopolitan Magazine.

A French woman, proud of her limited knowledge of English, and an American woman proud of her limited knowledge of French, were introduced at an evening company. The French woman insisted on expressing herself in bad English, and the American woman would talk nothing but bad French.

When the guests began to depart they were still at it. At last they rose to go. Here is their watery farewell: "Reservoir," said the fair American. "Tanks," responded her new friend.

"Water," called a diner at a local club, "come here at once. Here's a hook-and-eye in this salad." "Yessch, yessch," said the waiter, "bring me a glass of water, please."

Anxious Old Lady: "I say, my man is this boat going up or down?" Deckhand: "Well, she's a leaky old tub, mum, so I shouldn't wonder if she was going down. But then again her bilers ain't none too good, so she might go up."

Loneliest Woman in New York

New York, Feb. 3.—Society chronicles the fact that young Mrs. John Jacob Astor is one of the loneliest women in New York to-day. Shut up in the ancestral mansion, with traditions which must be observed in the bringing up of the young son of one of the heroes of the Titanic, the prospect for the resumption of the gay life to which she has been accustomed seems remote.

FRUIT AND HEALTH

The Apple is Nature's Complexion Brush—Eat Them at Night. If people know more about the value of fruits and the science of foods, the average physician would be obliged to take a smaller office and live in a cheaper house, soon. Fruits, especially, have their medical properties.

An uncooked apple, eaten at night, before retiring, and a glass of water to follow it, is one of the oldest of beauty and health prescriptions. It gives clearness to the skin. It is one of the best aids to sleep. And it directly assists the digestion of other food.

The apple is not only one of the most nutritious fruits, but it especially recommends itself because it can be purchased a good share of the year, and in all climates. Persons uninitiated in the mysteries of this fruit may throw up their hands in horror at the mere mention of eating apples at bedtime. However, the old adage that fruit in the morning is golden; at noon, silver and at night, lead, does not apply to the apple.

Because it contains more phosphoric acid in easily digested shape than any other fruits, this fruit is also a capital brain food. In a word it is an all round health aid.

When powdered sugar gets hard run it through the food chopper. This is an easier way of breaking up the lumps than using a rolling pin. Always remove the cake of fat that settles on the top of the soups. If allowed to remain the soup will turn sour more quickly than it otherwise would.

Australian Hermit's Life.

A strange story of an Australian recluse who lived alone with a pack of dogs and 2300 old love letters has recently come to light through the death of the hermit. He had led a solitary life for many years, the passing of which was marked now and again by a canine funeral. To his dogs he rendered much honor, and the entombment of a dead favorite became a ceremony of some consequence. He had a private burial ground for the dogs. As sexton, he dug the grave; as undertaker he made the coffin; as monumental mason he built a vault. The garden wheelbarrow draped in the trappings of the suits of woe served for bier. Many people had often hazarded a guess at the cause of the old man's strange devotion to dogs, and had said there must be a woman in it. From the letters found in the house after his death there appear to have been six women. In all there were 2300 letters, which gives the ladies an average of over 380 letter-doux each. Many of the earliest letters were written at the beginning of Queen Victoria's reign and the first of all was dated 1839. They were tied up in neat bundles docketed as a lawyer might docket the indiscretions of the defendant in a breach of promise case.

Dr. Abbot's lecture at the Y. M. C. A. was well attended. He is a very fluent speaker and his topic, "The Problem of the Other Man," secured him an attentive audience.

The funeral of Thomas Thomas, aged 83, who was born in the Mumbles Lighthouse and died there from old age, took place on Monday at the village cemetery.

It was stated at a West Bromwich inquest that when a schoolmaster in a neighboring district recently asked the members of his class to bring an article to sketch at school, all but fifteen brought revolvers.

While a grave-digger was digging in a grave at the Guildford cemetery he was seized with a paralytic stroke. His cries attracted the attention of other men, and he was removed.

How a pheasant accompanied a flock of sheep the greater part of the way on their last melancholy mission to Reading Market from Kidmore was noted on Monday. The bird had covered five miles when its presence was noticed at Caversham. Shunning the curiosity of the public, the pheasant flew away. The sheep were driven for another mile to the market, and no sooner had they arrived than down flew the pheasant among his four-footed friends.

While snow was falling a laborer named John Wilson hurled a brick through a leading jeweler's shop window in Clumber street, Nottingham, and then snatched a handful of gold bracelets, valued at $150. He at once ran off, followed by a crowd, and just prior to being captured Wilson threw the bracelets into the snow and slush. There was an exciting scramble for the valuables, but the police recovered all the stolen property. At Nottingham police court Wilson was charged with the theft and also with smashing the plate glass window, valued at $20, and remained in custody.

OBITUARY

Prominent Resident of Paris is Called Home.

The death took place in Paris on Saturday night of Mr. John Brockbank, one of the most prominent and one of the most popular residents, not only of that place, but also of the County at large.

Deceased, who was in his 75th year, was born at Canobie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, and when young came to this country with his parents, who settled near Glenmorris. As a young man he came to Paris to join the tailoring firm of Robertson and Young. It is an incident worthy of note, that at that time he boarded in the same house with Mr. Robertson, in which he fell asleep, and that for old association's sake he purchased it some 28 years ago.

Later, he went to J. Buckley's hardware store, and afterwards was a partner of Patrick Buckley. In 1864 he married Miss Julia Roberts, daughter of the then town clerk.

He was most active in a public way and the interests of Paris were always very dear to his heart. He was on the Council and School Board for many years; waterworks commissioner for ten years, Deputy Reeve for two, and then Reeve. Last year, although ill and absent, he was unanimously elected Warden of the County of Brant, an incident unparalleled for that post. Failing health led him to abandon the honor.

He had been prominent in the affairs of the North Brant Agricultural Society for fifty years, having repeatedly held all the offices up to president.

Deceased was an ardent lover of manly sport, and was one of the most noted curlers in the province. He was a splendid judge of horses, and was frequently selected by the Agricultural Department of the Ontario Government to act in that capacity at Spring and Fall shows. For fifteen straight years he was judge at the request of the Caledonia fair board, at their annual exhibition, and his judgments at all times gave the greatest satisfaction.

In religion he was an ardent member of the Congregational church, and for years was deacon and Sunday school superintendent.

His philanthropies and kindnesses were constant and unostentatious, and it falls to the lot of few men to be so beloved.

He leaves to mourn his great loss one daughter, Miss Brockbank, to whom a host of friends will extend sincere sympathy.

The members of the Paris and County Councils will attend the funeral in a body. Service at the house at 2.30 on Tuesday, and interment in the Paris cemetery.

Reserve Monday evening for hockey match, Guelph vs. Brantford.

Within a few hours of the time fixed for the funeral service of Lady Lancelotti, of Roshampton, her bereaved husband, Lieut-General Sir Frederick Lancelotti, suddenly passed away. The funeral of his wife was accordingly postponed, and it was arranged that both should be buried together at Forest Vale cemetery, Roshampton.

Sir F. Lane, who was 75, as adjutant of the 2nd British Cavalry, took part in the Indian Mutiny, being wounded at one engagement. He also served in the Afghan war, and later was awarded a wound pension for life.

Three Old Maids And a Widow

And the Prize They Set Out to Capture.

By C. B. LEWIS.

There are few towns of 1,500 population that can boast of three old maids and a widow living on the same street, but that was the case with Clifton. Miss Vinton was an old maid because she never had met with a man good enough for her.

There were no male candidates for matrimony concerned old maids and widows can sit down together on the same veranda without quarrelling. After the widow had solemnly assured the old maids that nothing on the face of this earth could induce her to be false to the "three widows" she had so bold and brassy when the tramp, who was now on the run for his life, overtook her.

The widow let no grass grow under her feet in carrying out the old maids' wish to have her name and incidentally mentioning her name and incidentally mentioning her name and incidentally mentioning her name.

The dog alone was responsible for what happened to the other two old maids. Miss Warner had discovered one woman ahead and two behind her, and, suspecting their mendacious intentions, she had almost made up her mind to abandon her object when the dog, who had been calling on his brother out in the country, came along and set up a barking and growling. Tragedy was the result. The old maid never had encountered a big batted dog at night on a hill, and she at once scrambled over the fence into the weeds and ran for her life.

The dog had met with such success that he was encouraged to persevere. He came upon Miss Hopkins out of the shadows like a striking haystack, and as she screamed and spread her wings to fly she tripped and fell down. The fall might have injured her but for the fact that she fell upon soft mud. She couldn't get back to town looking like the mortar mixer for a skinner, and she continued to wait for the merchant's boarding house to get the use of hoed and scrapers. They were furnished, but while she was using them she heard the ten-year-old daughter whispering to her mother that she had a cent that Miss Hopkins had come out there to rig for Mr. Strong.

That was an awful night in Clifton, though only four feminine hearts knew just how awful it was. Morning dawned with a murky sky overcast. It seemed to three old maids and a widow as if something more was still to happen. They were right. When the butcher boy called for his orders he repeated the same words at every house on his route.

"Say, you heard the news? Mr. Strong has gone to Philadelphia to get married today, and he's going to bring the bride home tonight. Hain't it great?"

Turkish Landscapes.
Sir Charles Eliot gives a dreamy impression of the regions on which the world's eyes are now fixed. "Whether one goes through Adirondack to Salomon's gorges, or the railway look desolate and fitful. Hills overgrown with dwarf oak alternate with plains whose bareness is half covered with scrubby grass. There are few signs of cultivation and fewer of human habitations. Oriental railways have a way of only skirting the edge of cities, and stations are sometimes several miles from the places whose names they bear. The deserted appearance of the land is intensified by the Turkish habits of constructing towns in depressions of the undulating plains, where they are invisible at a short distance."—Chicago News.

An Old New York Landmark.
Another New York landmark is passing—the Mott Memorial Surgical and Medical Library property. It will be altered for business purposes. The library was established in 1806 by Dr. Valentine Mott, father of American surgery, as he was later called. At that period he was one of the foremost surgeons in New York then, and to help along students Dr. Mott gave his private library, which was one of the best in the country. Besides his books, medical instruments of the different periods were on exhibition there. The books and the instruments of Dr. Mott have now been taken by the New York Academy of Medicine.

One fatal evening tragedy after tragedy happened, and the light went out of several happy households. Mr. Strong boarded with a family living half a mile from the store. He wanted the walk. He had to cross the bridge over the river and ascend a hill covered with woods, and there wasn't a house between his boarding place and the town.

The three old maids and the widow had had their eyes on the road from the first. They had soon begun walking up the hill, and the merchant might be expected, and they encountered each other they made all manner of excuses.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

MUSIC TOUCHED HIS HEART

But After Five Hours it Passed On to the Other Side.

A thief broke into a Madison mansion early the other morning. Hearing footsteps approaching, he took refuge behind a screen.

From 8 to 9 o'clock the eldest daughter took a piano lesson. From 9 to 10 o'clock the second daughter took a piano lesson. From 10 to 11 o'clock the eldest son had a violin lesson. From 11 to 12 o'clock the other son had a lesson on the flute.

At 12:15 all the brothers and sisters assembled and studied an arrangement for voice, piano, violin and flute. The thief staggered out from behind the screen at 12:45, falling at the feet of the pianist.

No Expert.
A gang of Italians were employed on a railway contract removing earth with wheelbarrows. While proceeding with his work one of the men noticed that the wheel of his barrow was squeaking terribly, and to put a stop to the noise he turned the barrow over and was in the act of greasing it when the boss noticed him and shouted out:

"Hello, Pietro! Hello, what the dickens are you doing?"
"I'm greasing my barrow, sir."
"Who told you to do that?"
"No one, sir. I took it upon myself."
"Well, don't let me catch you at it again. Every man here must stick to his own job. What do you know about machinery?"—TIT-BITS.

He Was Dubious.
A Boston woman interested in matters pertaining to prison reform was a member of an investigating commission that visited a penal institution in Massachusetts. The heart of the Boston woman was bursting with pity for the poor prisoners. She passed them one by one with a sympathetic air and finally paused for awhile in front of one poor chap huddled in rags and shoes.

"Oh, my poor fellow," said she, "but it's most monstrous doing that! What you'd do when your sentence has expired?"
"Well, I'dunno, mum," answered the convict dolefully. "Mine is a life sentence."—Judge.

Almost Universal Prayer.
"Among the late Bishop Foster's anecdotes about prayer," said a Philadelphia Methodist, "the one concerning a very original Norristown preacher.

"This preacher, in the course of a very long prayer one Sunday night, recounted the many misfortunes and evils that had befallen him in the course of his long life. Then, sighing heavily, he prayed:

"Thou hast tried me with affliction, with bereavement and with sorrow of many kinds. If thou art obliged to try me again, Lord, try me with the burden of wealth."—St. Paul's Pulpit.

Something Happened.
A train on one of the transcontinental lines that ran through Canada (and are usually late was reported to be late a few days ago.

The young man who writes the particulars concerning the trains at that station put down his statistics about this train, "No. 616—from the westward time."
Then he wrote underneath, "Cause unknown."—Philadelphia Evening Post.

An Artful Approach.
"Son, why don't you play church? It's great fun. First you make a sawdust ring."
"Where'll I get any sawdust, dad?"
"Here's the saw. Just saw some of that cordwood into stove lengths. You can have all the sawdust you make."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"When I left my home," she said slowly, "I left behind me a letter. The letter told those I left that I had gone to the man I loved, to the man who would make me his wife. I will go back to them when I am his wife."

The exclamation he uttered had an air of more of impatience and astonishment, for he had not expected this. She suddenly caught his arm, clung to him, and all the pent-up passion of love and misery that was in her came breaking vehemently from her at last.

"Lofus, Lofus," she cried passionately, "you are right when you say it is not too late. It is not too late to wipe out the past; it is not too late to atone to me; it is not too late to be true to yourself; it is not too late to win my forgiveness; it is not too late to make me your wife. You don't love this poor child whom you are pledged to. Ah, I could tell it as soon as I saw you look at her, remembering how you once used to look at me. You will be basely cruel to her as well as basely false to yourself and to me if you marry her. I appeal to your pride on one side, I appeal to you as I once vowed I would never appeal to you again. I remember only that I am a woman and that I love you. Be true to yourself and be true to me. Remember the days when we first knew each other, and the happiness that it was to be together. You love me now as you loved me then; nothing can alter that. Make me your wife and take me back to those whose hearts my mistake and my folly must almost have broken."

She withdrew her hands to clasp them over her eyes with a low, shuddering cry. "Ah," she said, moaning, "what must my more than father think of me? What must Gerard think of me?"

He would have been a worse man than he was had he remained untouched by her appeal, and he was touched, but not to yielding point. How could he yield, how pledge himself, with Castle Marling close behind him, and his betrothed wife, his future father-in-law almost within call? In his trouble, irritation, and helplessness he turned weak men do—he temporised. He looked at her irresolutely, thought, as he always thought, how beautiful she was and how passionately fond of him, poor girl, and gently took her hand again.

"Nora, upon my word, I will get out of it if I can. I know well enough, and always have known, that no money will ever make up to me for having played the scamp to you and lost you. I won't lose you, and I—I'll make it all right yet. But I can't do it all at once; you go back to the house now and point blank tell my cousin that I don't intend to marry her. The Earl is an awfully delicate health, and I shall have to take my time in speaking to him, and be careful not to do it. All right, my dear, and I mean, as he meant the light of her raised eyes and felt the trembling thrill of her fingers clinging around his—"all the same, I'll do it. Somehow or the other I will break off this wretched business and do as I ought to have done six months ago. You shall be my wife. Nor do before many more weeks are over our heads, be the consequences what they may."

He kissed her. The kiss did what nothing else throughout the interview had had the power to do—it utterly broke down her composure, and she clung to him sobbing wildly. It was well, the trees so tall, and that they were not a little nearer to the Castle, for otherwise Lady Marjorie, being just at that moment sleepily upstairs to her own sitting room, would have seen her standing by an open window in the hall, her straw hat in her hand, and Jack, the dog, eagerly eyeing her, alertly expectant, wondering whether it was not too hot to venture out at all. In the night she had lain awake for two or three hours, thinking anxiously of her father, and of a feeling of languor and pale cheeks were the result this morning. "Are you going out, Marjorie?" The high, clear voice made the girl turn with a start. Lady Marlingford, sweeping through the hall on her way to pay her daily visit to the housekeeper's room, had paused close beside her.

"I don't know, Fenella," she glanced out at the brilliant sun doubtfully. "It looks lovely but my head aches a little and I am afraid that I shall find it a little too hot perhaps." She reflected that it sometimes pleased her stepmother to make her useful in the morning over the cook's bills or the housekeeper's accounts, and in checking and inspecting which her ladyship was a dragon. "Perhaps you want me," she hazarded. "Do you?" "Want you? Oh, dear no, child!"

The Countess's cold blue eyes scanned the pale, little face disapprovingly. "The Earl was very angry when you look," she said. "Really, I never saw a girl so entirely dependent on colour as you are. So you have a headache? You certainly look like it. You are waiting for Mr. Bligh, perhaps?" "For Lofus?" Marjorie looked at the Countess wondering, not at all understanding why so unnecessary a question should have been put to her. "Of course not, Fenella," she said simply. "He is going back to town by the first through train this morning—must have started long ago!" "He bids me good night last night," I told you so."

"Oh," the Countess smiled and paused. "Since you have not gone out, you had better go to your father. He was asking for you just now."

"The Earl was?" Marjorie dropped her hat flushing quickly. "Oh Fenella, and you told me at breakfast that I was not to go to his room."

The Twinges of Lumbago

There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to rid the uric acid from the blood and so remove the cause of lumbago and rheumatism.

Mr. John N. Frank, former, Mink Lake, Alta., writes: "For two years I suffered from lumbago. Sharp pains would dart through the back and sides or come on suddenly when bending or twisting of the body. I could not do any work for months of each year, was often confined to the bed, unable to sit or stand."

"Since using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I have not lost any time, and I am now very greatly benefited. Though I still have slight attacks, this treatment seems to be driving the disease out of the system."

"I have been entirely cured of annoying, itching piles of three years' standing by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness after Taking "Pape's Diapsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, indigestible food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you get to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis, or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

THIS WEEK'S ADVICE is to order soon. These chilly days are finding work for us. Before long somebody will have to do some waiting. Then there will be a rush in earnest. So those who have promised themselves an overcoat will be ahead by ordering ahead here. Skilful tailoring for careful dressers. Harwood.

IN GOOD SHAPE Are the Canadian League Clubs—The President Tosses a Bouquet to Amby Kane.

TORONTO, Feb. 3.—President Stevely, of the London Baseball Club returned on Saturday from Toronto, where he and President Nelson, of the Brantford Club, met to audit the Canadian League books. Everything was found in good shape. The four tail end clubs will receive a dividend of the surplus over and above a certain amount. Clubs that did not pay their full amounts will receive according to the manner in which they paid in. In speaking about the season's prospects, President Fitzgerald could not find enough enthusiastic words to express his great belief in the league having the best year yet. He said that with the exception of St. Thomas, every club in the league has settled up on a manager for their respective clubs, and many changes are noted. In speaking to the London representative, he stated that to his mind "Rube" Deneau and Amby Kane were the two best leaders that he knew of in the league, and commented that the London club acted wisely in making their selection on Deneau as they did. The Hamilton situation will be brought to a decision among the officials of the Ambitious City club as they have made the required obligations to the league. The trouble now is merely a local one, and will soon be brought to a head by the men at the head of affairs—Hamilton. The league president stated that he was in communication with a large number of first-class umpires, and would be in a position soon to announce the staff for 1913, and will see an almost entirely new umpiring staff, men with vast experience in all sorts of organizations. The schedule meeting will be held sometime later this month. Manager Frank Shaughnessey, of the Ottawa Club, is at the present time compiling a set of dates, with the object of submitting them to the various clubs for adoption at the schedule committee meeting.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. SICK CURE SICK HEAD ACHE. Sick headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing SICK HEADACHE, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in constipation, indigestion, and purifying this annoying complaint, while they also correct the disorder of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cure SICK HEADACHE, they are almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint, but fortunately their good effects are not confined to these ailments in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick headache is the most common of ailments. Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not grip or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. CARTER MEDICINE CO., NEW YORK. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

Music and Drama

Miss Julia Gifford, the well known English prima donna and music hall favorite, will be seen here in the titular role of "The Balkan Princess" now on tour for the first time, after her reign, a long and merry one, at the Herald Square Theatre and the Casino in New York. Miss Gifford, under all circumstances a pleasing prima donna, abundantly endowed with charming personality, but especially favored with an exceptional voice, has undoubtedly recorded the greatest success of her career in "The Balkan Princess." It is described as a sort of musical "Prisoner of Zenith"—a clean cut love story, consistently worked out, and with a counter plot of comedy that offers abundant opportunity for a half dozen comedians to operate upon the public risibility. These parts are in the hands of Joseph W. Standish, an English comedian of note, and who created the part of Henri, the waiter, in this production; Wallace Beery, whom Henry W. Savage starred in the Yankee Tourist; Wm. Meyer, Tom Van, N. E. Dano, Mae Harrington and other Metropolitan favorites. Eulalie Young, in a bifurcated hobbler-trouserette effect, Vera Rossmore as the smart cafe queen, a large male chorus and forty dear, delightful women compose the company. In costuming and scenery, "The Balkan Princess" is reputed to be one of the most gaily compared and colorful offerings New York has had in seasons, and the music the most ambitious and tuneful, that has reached us from British sources. The production comes to the Grand on Wednesday, Feb. 5th. The actual railroad equipment used to transport the company and effects of the Balkan Princess consists of two 60 ft. baggage cars, two standard sleepers, one day coach and one dining car, together with Miss Gifford's, the prima donna, private car, "The Princess."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the Inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. BOYS PICK JAIL LOCK. County Officers Searching Vicinity of Tilbury for Them. WINDSOR, Feb. 3.—County officers are searching the neighborhood in the vicinity of Tilbury for two 14-year-old lads who picked the lock in the town jail where they had been confined for alleged theft, and gained their freedom. One of the youthful offenders released himself a few hours after he was arrested, and repeated the act after he had been captured and again locked up. Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip, is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands so testify. Take Hood's.

NATURE'S LAWS.

Nature's laws are perfect if only we obey them, but disease follows disobedience. Go straight to Nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries there, some of which we can fathom for you. Take the bark of the Wild-cherry tree, with mandrake root, Oregon grape root, stone root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal root, make a scientific, glyceric extract of them, with just the right proportions, and you have DOCTOR PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists and pharmacists, many months of hard work experimenting to perfect this vegetable alterative and tonic extract of the greatest efficiency. Mr. C. W. Pawley, of Millville, Calif., writes: "I wish to tell you that I have used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' in my family for twenty years. We have had a doctor called in but once during that time. I have a family of ten children, all well and hearty, for which, to a great extent, we owe thanks to you and your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pelleto's,' which we use when sick." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

THE From the Throne at the House--A Number of Matters are

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO, Feb. 4.—Mr. Speaker, at gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly: I am glad to welcome you to the performance of your duties at the second session of the thirteenth legislature of the Province. Agriculture The prosperity of the Province depends mainly upon agriculture, and our thanks are due to an over ruling Providence that, although considerable damage resulted from unusual heavy rains, the diversity and stability of Ontario agriculture are such that crop returns for the past session will be up to the average. Under the legislation of last session my government entered into an agreement with the Minister of Agriculture for Canada, covering the expenditure of Ontario's share of the Federal subsidy for agricultural purposes, which amounted to $75,000. This money is being accepted for the benefit of the agricultural interests of the province, and the government has with satisfaction the announcement that the appropriation of Federal aid to agriculture in the Provinces is to be made permanent. During the past year eight additional permanent district representatives were appointed, while four of them were engaged in the growing season in the newer districts of the province, and their work in connection with the high schools, as well as other field work throughout the counties where they were located, has been of great service. Immigrants The immigrants brought into the province during the year numbered more than 10,000. Indications of a desirable activity of our people are to be seen everywhere. By way of illustration, the Elk Lake branch of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway was completed in the month of December last, and surveys have been completed of the line to the Abitibi River while 3,672 passengers and 3,300,000 tons of freight have been carried over the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway during the year without the loss of a single passenger. Minerals The mineral products for the year amount to approximately $25,000,000. Of this amount the output of silver was nearly $10,000,000; of gold about $2,000,000, and of nickel $1,500,000, and of copper $1,500,000. The products of these minerals greatly exceed in value that of any previous year. New Asylum Good progress has been made of the construction of the new Asylum for the Insane at Whitby and
