The Chinese minister will leave Tokyo today. The Japanese flag was hoisted down from the consulate yesterday. The light has been removed from the mouth of the Sagami Bay.

Eighteen hundred Japanese are reported to be about to sail from Vladivostok.

London, Aug. 6.—The Times' despatch from Shanghai says that reports have been received from foreign officials at Shanghai that the Japanese minister to the capital of Corea, that the Chinese, under General Yeh, on Sunday last defeated the Japanese fleet near Asan.

It is added that the Japanese withdrew to Seoul. Twenty thousand Manchurian soldiers have been ordered to be sent to the frontier and are marching upon Seoul.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says: "The inquiry into the Kow Shing affair was conducted by the commissioners of customs in Tien Tsin in the presence of the foreign consuls at the concluded yesterday. Forty-five survivors stated that on the morning of the 25th the Japanese ordered the Kow Shing to anchor off the island of Shupouan. The transport remained there until noon, being twice boarded. Without having given any protestation she was struck by torpedoes and sunk. The Japanese fired with gatlings at the survivors long after the Kow Shing had foundered.

The Daily Chronicle's Tokyo correspondent says that the Japanese fleet in consequence of a heavy fog had to anchor off the Yellow River, and 8,000 have left Mouyden for Seoul.

London, Aug. 6.—The action of the Emperor in diverting the army to Korea in the Yellow River is a serious matter. It is feared the incident will lead to his complete overthrow. He is regarded here as the chief of the Japanese empire.

The Emperor has been influenced in his action by members of his cabinet.

FORMAL DECLARATION OF WAR

Japan Apologizes to Great Britain for the Loss of the Kow Shing—Eight Russian Warships Sail for the East—Ambassadors Called Home.

London, Aug. 6.—The Exchange Telegraph Company declares that between China and Japan has been formally declared war.

The secretary has ordered Vice-Admiral Fremantle, who commands the British squadron off the east coast, to approach Chinese and Japanese ports, and while observing strict neutrality, to watch the progress of operations.

Private despatches say that Japan has closed her legation and recalled her minister and all her consuls from China.

Tokyo, Aug. 6.—The Japanese government has instructed its minister in London to apologize to Great Britain for firing upon and sinking the Japanese vessel, the Kow Shing, which was flying the British flag, and to inform Great Britain that the commander of the Japanese fleet did not know the Kow Shing was a British vessel until after the fight.

Captain Galloway, of the Kow Shing, and many other persons who were on board the transport, were rescued by the boats of the Japanese navy.

Shanghai, Aug. 6.—At 11 o'clock in the morning of July 27, the day after the attack on the Chinese transport which resulted in the sinking of the Kow Shing, the Japanese warships Takachiho and Hiyel made an attack upon the Chinese vessel.

The Japanese vessels were beaten off, but after a long and desperate fight the Hiyel, being disabled and sinking, was captured by the Chinese.

The Chinese Yuen, though badly damaged, succeeded in reaching port in safety in company with two gunboats, which also took part in the engagement, and immediately went into dry dock for repairs after her two days' fighting.

At Yashan, the Chinese are strongly entrenched there and that repeated attempts have been made by the Japanese to capture the Chinese.

DEVASTATION BY FIRE

Nearly One-Half of the Entire Village of Harrow Reduced to Ashes.

NINETEEN BUILDINGS BURNED

The Fire Breaks Out in a Boiler Mill and Spreads to the Adjacent Buildings—The Loss by the Conflagration Will Be Heavy—Partly Insured.

COLCHESTER, Ont., Aug. 6.—Nearly one-half of Harrow is in ashes. On Saturday while the men in A. E. Linsack's roller mill were at their work, a fire originated in the engine room, and in a short time the whole mill was in flames. It then communicated with Henry Harrison's building, used as a storehouse next to the mill, and also to John Blocker's grocery store on the opposite side of the street, containing James A. Ford's butcher and baker shop, as well as Charles Bell's insurance office, William Bertram's building, unoccupied, and from thence to Hardman's blacksmith and carriage shop, also Rumball's hardware store.

A dwelling belonging to James Drummond, Smith's shoe shop and dwelling combined. A brick house belonging to Joseph S. Wright, on the south side of the street, broke the progress of the fire, otherwise the whole village would have gone before the flames.

Sparks from the mill communicated with John Halley's mill, and stable, fully one-eighth of a mile distant, and they were consumed together with three horses and several hogs and chickens. On the north side of the street was Gilbert Morin's shoe shop and dwelling, and a dwelling house belonging to Charles Best. In fifteen minutes buildings were consumed, including outbuildings. The loss cannot at present be obtained, but is heavy, mostly by a strike of cattle and hog butchers.

The mill had $4,500, distributed between the Phoenix, Wellington and Mutual.

DASTARDLY INCENDIARISM:
A Colored Girl and an Infant Cremated in a Burning Building.

CHATHAM, Ont., Aug. 6.—Yesterday the house of John Curtis, colored, corner of Taylor avenue and the second concession road, Chatham township, was burnt down on fire and before help could be secured the house was reduced to ashes. A girl named Lizette Galt, aged 13, and the infant child of Mrs. Thompson, who was residing with the Curtis family, were burnt to death.

About 6 o'clock members of the family got up to find some straw coals on the garden and a lighted match in the room.

At 10 o'clock Mrs. Galt, colored, daughter of Mr. Curtis, was awakened by the smoke and discovered a large bundle of straw in the room alight as though it had been pushed through the open window. She raised the alarm and attempted to smother the flames, but the latter fell back into the flames and perished. The other members of the household escaped, some of them more or less scorched.

The two bodies were afterwards found buried under a pile of brick.

There is no doubt that the fire was an incendiary one and suspicion falls on a colored man who was seen by a neighbor loitering near the house before the flames burst out. It is thought he may have robbed the house and then fired it. No other cause can be offered.

The girl Lizette Galt's mother perished in a burning house some years ago. The coroner will hold an inquest to-day. No insurance on the property.

Disastrous Conflagration in Harrow.

ALTON, Ont., Aug. 5.—A disastrous fire, which at one time threatened to wipe out the business portion of Harrow, was extinguished yesterday. The fire originated in the blacksmith shop of Hogg & Rowlett, carriage works, and spread to the residence of the citizens turned on an engine, but with a strong wind west blowing, it was impossible to check the flames. The whole structure was soon wrapped in flames and spread rapidly to the adjacent buildings. The carriage works of Barber & Bro. was the next to fall, and the train from the two large buildings was so extensive that the residence of Mr. Sauer, Barber close by was left to its fate. Next in line was the stable buildings of Dr. Algie which followed. The next was the building of the brick block known as the Algie block which was next in line. Nothing stood between a white portable engine and the burning structure. The whole was a scene of destruction. BY THE GUILLOTINE

Santo Caserio Sentenced to Death for the Murder of President Carnot.

LYONS, Aug. 4.—There were few people around the Palace of Justice yesterday when the trial of Santo Caserio, the assassin of President Carnot, was resumed. The prisoner seemed even more defiant and took his seat with a mocking smile upon his face.

Lozano, the soldier who was a fellow prisoner with Caserio at Metz and testified that Caserio told him that he intended to kill President Carnot, probably at Lyons when the chief magistrate arrested him.

In spite of his defiant attitude, however, his habitual smile had disappeared from his face. His counsel gave notice of appeal.

M. Dubouclé counsel for the defence, followed and it appeared for the prosecution. At about noon the jury retired, and after an absence of about a quarter of an hour, during which there was considerable excitement in court, the jury returned and announced a verdict of guilty, and Santo was sentenced to death by guillotine.

When the death sentence was uttered Santo exclaimed: "Vive la revolution sociale!"

The prisoner was immediately seized by the gendarmes and carried towards his cell beneath the court house. As he left the court room he cried: "Courage, comrades! Vive la anarchie!"

In spite of his defiant attitude, however, his habitual smile had disappeared from his face. His counsel gave notice of appeal.

"When a child," the prisoner says in his statement, "I believed in God. When I became older I saw that it was not God that created man but that it was man who created God. Though I have been but a short time here I have seen much injustice. The strikers in the north after three months' imprisonment were forced to resume work at the same old starvation wages.

"After this act the authorities, not satisfied with punishing these poor wretches, persecuted them and confiscated their wages. When no longer starving workmen are driven to suicide and when no longer the best in generation are put to death, what happens is extirpated, then will cease the era of exploitation of the workingmen and happiness will reign in our country."

The last words of the Chicago martyrs were: "Long live anarchy. Death to society." These words crossed the ocean and the mountains will resound with them everywhere and the idea prevails. When no longer starving workmen are driven to suicide and when no longer the best in generation are put to death, what happens is extirpated, then will cease the era of exploitation of the workingmen and happiness will reign in our country."

WELLMAN'S EXPEDITION

The Owner of the Said Compliments the Explorer on His American Trip.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Mr. Fielden, owner of the yacht "Said," which recently carried to Tromsø news of Walter Wellman's first expedition has in the Standard a letter concerning the report brought south by Captain Balloufal. He writes in a friendly tone of Mr. Wellman's expedition and to have behaved, he says, exactly as one would expect of a plucky American. He seemed to have been completely abandoned his original scheme and to be turning his efforts to reach Greenland. If he should succeed it would be a very interesting achievement and would pay Wellman for all his trials and anxiety.

The Standard is recommending upon Mr. Fielden's letter, says: "If Mr. Wellman succeeds in his Greenland undertaking he will get the world more in his debt than he has had before in his hopes original programme. But the chances of success are doubtful. All credit is due to Wellman's typical American grit, but he failed to profit from his own experience. He set out with a very small crew. It is no longer a sea to send a vessel to his rescue, inasmuch as if the aluminum boats fall he will run a serious risk."

A TRAIN'S ADVENTURES

Held Up by Robbers and Nearly Destroyed

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4.—Train No. 3 on the St. Louis and Northern Railway was boarded at Eureka Springs, Mo., by three men. They made an attempt to rob the passengers of the train. The messenger succeeded in closing the door, but got a pistol bullet through the fleshy part of the left hand. The robbers escaped in the darkness. The train carried a large amount of treasure.

The train, after proceeding a short distance from the scene of the shooting, met with another mishap. Near Eureka Station an explosion took place in front of the engine, supposed to have been caused by dynamite. The engine was damaged but nobody was hurt.

An examination afterwards showed that the explosion was caused by the failure of the dynamite. The engine was repaired and the train resumed its journey.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 4.—The National convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union yesterday chose New York as the place of meeting in August, 1895. The resolutions praise the recent action of Monsignor Satali and Bishop Waterhouse on the saloon question. They continue: "The saloon of a preponderating number of Catholics in the saloon business is a disgrace. Whatever the cause of the fact, a new day is at hand. The conventions of saloons that Catholics are now aroused to the great evil, and the great disgrace of intemperance and dens of iniquity among Catholics. Let saloon keepers be excluded from membership. A cable message was received from the Pope and a telegram from Mr. Satali endorsing the objects of the society.

Sanbagged and Robbed in Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 4.—Nicholas Kock, of Glencoe, Ont., came to Detroit and during the evening struck up an acquaintance with a young man. When near the corner of Brush and Franklin streets the stranger suddenly lit Black over the head with a ball, knocking him senseless. He then robbed him of $107 in money. The police are working on the case.

A Chinaman Murdered.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Yesterday a Chinaman, a stranger in this city, went into the laundry of Chu King on South Pearl street, and shot him in the back. The assassin was captured. King died before morning. The police are working on the case.

Twenty-Eight Protesters Now.

TOMONTO, Aug. 6.—There was one additional protest entered yesterday at Quebec. Heretofore the victims have been W. A. Chisholm, Liberal member-elect for South Norfolk. The petition in this case is signed by 28 persons. This is the twenty-eighth protest.

SOME SAILING SKIFFS.

PRETTY LITTLE CRAFT THAT RACE IN TORONTO'S WATERS.

The Sailing Skiff Club is an Organization of Two Hundred Members—The Officers and Something of the Pleasures of the Sport.

Toronto is a city of bay-side clubs, but if enthusiasm among its members be a criterion of success, then the Sailing Skiff Club is the most successful of them.

The club's history is a long one, and its members are a select and distinguished group.

The club's officers are a group of men who are not only successful in the sport, but also in their other avocations.

Mrs. E. Frost, a very aged lady, has poor health.

Miss Emma Scott is learning the dressmaking trade in Athens.

LYN. MONDAY, AUG. 6.—The Union S.S. excursion on Friday was a success.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, except a few cases of sea-sickness owing to the rough weather.

On Sunday one of our local clergymen touched on the gross inconsistency of giving a sentence of three years for stealing a few hundred dollars from the hundreds of thousands on government contracts.

Quite a number took in the excursion to Newboro and others the sports at Union Park, so that we may say we had a civic holiday here to-day.

The printers have begun work on the Presbyterian church.

SEELEY'S HAY. FRIDAY, AUG. 3.—George Eaton, a son of Alonzo Eaton, has disappeared and no trace of him can be found.

The young man is subject to fits of insanity and has been in that state for some months. A careful watch had to be kept on him by his friends but he has in some way eluded them.

His height is about 5 ft. 11 inches, hair black and very long, reaching nearly to his shoulders, had on a black coat and duck pants. Any information of his whereabouts will be gratefully received by his distressed friends.

TOLEDO. MONDAY, AUG. 6.—Mr. J. Whiteing had two horses killed by lightning in a recent thunder storm.

The Methodist church, which has been undergoing a series of repairs for the last three weeks is finished. The painting, which was done by C. C. Slack of Athens, is finished up in first-class style and adds much to the appearance of the church.

We have a street parade nearly every night now. It consists of a number of cows running up and down the street with old tin pans tied on their tails. This is to punish the owners for allowing their cows to run the streets at night.

Mr. Harry Reeve and Talmae Stratton are out canning this week at Marlinton Lake.

Mr. Bert Wood, of Lanesboro, is on a visit.

Thomas Singleton has been gifted another child. It is a boy.

Quite an interest in the strike took place here on the road last Thursday between Messrs. Foster and Foster's partner.

Mr. C. C. Gilbert has gone to Peterboro to visit his brother.

An old and widely known resident of Leeds passed away last Sunday in the person of Mr. Jacob Dornier, his age being 86 years. His funeral took place at Olivet church Tuesday and was attended by a large number of his friends.

TOLEDO. MONDAY, AUG. 6.—Mr. J. Whiteing had two horses killed by lightning in a recent thunder storm.

The Methodist church, which has been undergoing a series of repairs for the last three weeks is finished. The painting, which was done by C. C. Slack of Athens, is finished up in first-class style and adds much to the appearance of the church.

We have a street parade nearly every night now. It consists of a number of cows running up and down the street with old tin pans tied on their tails. This is to punish the owners for allowing their cows to run the streets at night.

Mr. Harry Reeve and Talmae Stratton are out canning this week at Marlinton Lake.

Mr. Bert Wood, of Lanesboro, is on a visit.

Thomas Singleton has been gifted another child. It is a boy.

Quite an interest in the strike took place here on the road last Thursday between Messrs. Foster and Foster's partner.

Where shall I go to get the best fit and value in general clothing?

WRIGHT'S CORNERS. SATURDAY, AUG. 4.—The men were very busily engaged harvesting their grain, which as a general thing is a fair crop.

Mr. Kinch Redmond and family of St. Paul, are at present visiting his parents.

We see by last week's issue that the correspondent from Iron Island is still alive. We are always pleased to hear what is going on at the island.

Miss L. Halladay is visiting friends in Newboro.

Mrs. Abel Wing, of Westport, was the guest of the Misses Wright last week.

Mrs. E. Frost, a very aged lady, has poor health.

Miss Emma Scott is learning the dressmaking trade in Athens.

LYN. MONDAY, AUG. 6.—The Union S.S. excursion on Friday was a success.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, except a few cases of sea-sickness owing to the rough weather.

On Sunday one of our local clergymen touched on the gross inconsistency of giving a sentence of three years for stealing a few hundred dollars from the hundreds of thousands on government contracts.

Quite a number took in the excursion to Newboro and others the sports at Union Park, so that we may say we had a civic holiday here to-day.

The printers have begun work on the Presbyterian church.

SEELEY'S HAY. FRIDAY, AUG. 3.—George Eaton, a son of Alonzo Eaton, has disappeared and no trace of him can be found.

The young man is subject to fits of insanity and has been in that state for some months. A careful watch had to be kept on him by his friends but he has in some way eluded them.

His height is about 5 ft. 11 inches, hair black and very long, reaching nearly to his shoulders, had on a black coat and duck pants. Any information of his whereabouts will be gratefully received by his distressed friends.

The dredge Ridvan arrived Monday from Ottawa and commenced operations on Thursday.

Mrs. C. Brady is very ill with quinsy. Mrs. H. Moore has taken a decided change for the better.

Mrs. Wm. Haszlip left Wednesday last for an extended visit to her parents and friends at St. Marys.
