EDMONTON ODDFELLOWS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Edmonton Encampment No. 2, I.O.O.F., entertained the members of the order and their wives at an "At Home" in the Oddfellows' Hall, Norwood Block, last night.

Among the prominent Oddfellows of the city and district present were: W. G. Shera, past district deputy of Fort Saskatchewan; Stewart Campbell, past chief patriarch; Noble Grand, R. L. Haskell, of Friendship Lodge; H. B. Speers, secretary of the local lodge, and other officers of the encampment and subordinate lodges.

Brutal Murder Committed at Rosthern

Galacian Youth Done to Death by Unknown Hand Believed to be Work of Rival Lover

Bulletin Special.

Rosthern, Sask., Jan. 4.—Learning upon the fence with one arm over it in front of the residence of J. J. Friesen, Michael Kaminsky, a Galacian, 21 years of age, was found yesterday afternoon about half past five with his head crushed in several places. It was very evident that he had been cruelly murdered. His face was cut and slashed horribly and huge blood clots had formed over the eyes and become frozen. The point but there is no sign of a body was still warm and was a most ghastly sight. The murder is believed to have been the result of a fight over a girl. She was an eye-witness of the tragedy but refuses to divulge the name of the murderer. The sweating process will likely worm out her story. Both she and the murdered man came from near Aberdeen, Sask.

Many witnesses are being held by the police. It is surmised that the fight started near the elevators, and after the murderous attack the man was put in a sleigh and placed in the position where he was found later. Slight and foot marks are seen at that point but there is no sign of a struggle. Several people had passed the spot a few minutes previous and nothing was seen there.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of murder.

CONDITIONS IN ST. PETERSBURG

Police Search Residences in Hunt for Assassin of Prefect.

Bulletin Special.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 4.—A general search of lodgings of persons under police observation was made here, in hope of discovering the accomplices of the assassin of Prefect of Police Von Der Lanuitz. Many arrests were made, but no important terrorists were captured. The vice-president, M. Sosnovsky, is conducting the investigation, pending the appointment of a successor to Von Der Lanuitz. The persons condemned to death by the terrorists are reported to include the Grand Duke Michael, Premier Stolypin and the Conservative members of the cabinet who lately issued letters of warning. The newspapers all comment on the inability of the prefect of police to protect his own person against the attack of a single resolute terrorist who undertook the task with a firm determination to not survive his victim, and the papers ask how long a time will ensue before other prominent personages are stricken by terrorist's bullets. The press unites in demanding protection against the regime of assassination which is now resorted to by the reactionists as well as terrorists.

Miner Killed in Osborne-Horne Mine

A surface man named Craig was killed early this morning at Osborne Horne's coal mine. The accident occurred at 1 o'clock. The unfortunate man was engaged in taking off the coal cars as they are hoisted by the cage in the shaft to the surface. There are two cages operated in the shaft. When one is up the other is down. In replacing the empty car, Craig pushed it into the open shaft, falling after the car a distance of 230 feet.

Word of the accident was brought to the city this morning. Mining inspector Frank Smith and Dr. Braithwaite went out to the mine this afternoon to inquire into the cause and nature of the accident.

DARING THIEVES OPERATE IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Jan. 4.—Caught with incriminating evidence in their possession, two Danes were arrested last night by Detectives Stark and Smith of the city police force, and charged with housebreaking and theft. The men gave their names as Julius Carlson and Alexander Nielson, and the former admits that he has been carrying on wholesale operations of petty thieving from houses for the past month and says that Nielson was also engaged in the same business. A large quantity of goods has been recovered and identified by the victims of the alleged housebreakers and the police think they have a very complete case against them. The two prisoners are young fellows about 25 years of age and the police have been on their trail for some time. The reports of housebreaking continued to come into the police station and the detectives working on the cases continued to detain the instep. Six stitches were required to close the wound.

A partnership has been formed between ex-Mayor Sheppard and Mr. Albert Garbe, for real estate business. They will open an office in a few days in the part of Mrs. Skinner's building recently occupied by Mr. J. R. Wright as a jewellery store.

One of the coats was valued at about $100 while the total value of the goods stolen would amount to several hundred. The pair under arrest have been out of employment and have been frequenting the houses of infamous women. Their operations have been extensive and daring, several places having been broken into and robbed in broad daylight while the inmates were absent but for a few minutes. In one case a woman left her house to go down town for a short shopping tour. In an hour she returned and found that her place had been entered and goods to the value of about $70 taken by the intruders.

CALGARY TIED UP

Dismissed Commissioners and No One Has Authority to Carry On Business

Bulletin Special.

Calgary, Jan. 3.—On account of the action of some members of the city council of 1906 at the very last meeting of the council, which was held a couple of days before the expiration of the year, the city is in a peculiar position. The condition of affairs cannot be described as chaotic, but there will be a considerable period, the very best in the year, when nothing can be done.

It was at first thought that the first meeting of the council under the statute would be held on Monday next. In years past the first meeting of the council was held on the first Monday in the new year. But it is different now.

In the amendments which were passed at the last session of legislature this part of the charter was amended to read as follows:

"The council shall meet on the second Monday in January in each year and thereafter on every alternate Monday during the year, at such time, etc.

So that means that there will be no meeting until Monday, January 14. It means that there will be no civic government until that date.

Had the commission bill remained in operation, of course the commis-

NO DELAY

(Friday's Daily)
The citizens will have noted that the "distribution of newspapers has been somewhat slack during the past week. Many are still looking for their regular papers. Probably some will come to light in time for "Twelfth Night reading." This is the position the Journal takes either to acquaint its readers with the delinquent habits of its delivery boys or to aim a covert stab at the post office staff. In the latter event it may interest the public to know that during the entire holiday season, with the possible exception of Christmas day and New Year's day all newspapers have been distributed the same day they have reached the office. On the days excepted it was found impossible to completely overtake the work and a portion of the newspapers remained over. Aside from this there has been no delay of mails for which the post office officials are responsible.

CITY COMMISSIONS

(Friday's Daily)
Edmonton's new city council on Wednesday evening discussed the advisability of enlarging the city commission. Calgary's raising council signified its departure by abolishing the city commission, Edmonton's endorsement is evidence that the commission system is considered preferable to any likely to take its place if it were abolished; the treatment of the commission by Calgary's raising council is not evidence that the system was considered inferior to any likely to take its place. If so the council of 1906 would scarcely have worried through the year with an inferior machine, only to throw it on the scrap heap when their term of office was completed and leave their successors with no machinery at all. The trouble may have been with the commission, but with the commissioners, or, what is quite as probable, with the aldermen themselves.

PENNSYLVANIA COAL ON THE PRAIRIES

(Friday's Daily)
A Brandon despatch on New Year's day announced that "A Great Northern" coal train which has been "blacked" down the line near the "boundary" arrived in the city last night. This was the first train over the road in three weeks. Another "train is due tomorrow morning, and it is expected that it will be possible to keep the line open, unless heavy bad storms occur. The train was composed of about fifteen cars of splendid Duluth coal for local dealers. The dealers claim that this coal is the best quality that can be taken from the Pennsylvania mines, vastly superior to that which comes by way of Fort William." It is significant that whenever a report comes along of the fuel shortage having been relieved in a prairie town the relief is found to have been effected by the importation of coal from the mines of Pennsylvania and not from the mines of Alberta. If this coincidence merely means that the people on the prairies desire to import and pay for Pennsylvania coal in preference to Alberta coal, it is their own affair; but if their predilection for the Pennsylvania product is determined by their inability to secure Alberta coal, it becomes also the business of the Alberta mine owner and miner and of the business interests in this province whose success is dependent on the success of our coal mining industry. That this may be the case in degree at least is strongly suggested by the fact that while Brandon people were waiting for an American coal to bring Pennsylvania coal to their relief the Southern Alberta mines were working only a quarter time because the Canadian Pacific railway could not or would not supply them with cars to haul away the coal.

In the investigation asked for by the Frank board of trade the Railway Commission should be presented with evidence demonstrating clearly whether the purchase of Pennsylvania coal by the people of Manitoba and Saskatchewan is due to superior quality or to proportionately lower prices of the imported article, or whether it is for the good and sufficient reason that they cannot obtain the Alberta article. In the coal mining resources of Alberta her people have a source of unmeasured wealth and of wealth not of today nor of tomorrow, but for coming generations. The national market and the only outside market for this coal is in Saskatchewan and Manitoba and the miners of Southern Alberta will be doing a service to themselves and to the province by making it clear to the Railway Commission if and to

CANADIANS FIRST

(Friday's Daily)
The Canadian press is tendering reassuring remarks these days to exhibitors and exhibitors across the line, whose martial spirits were aroused by the Jap-American situation created by the exclusion of Japanese children from the public schools of San Francisco. In a large number of cases some reassurance appears to be in order for while the same press of the United States recognizes the absurdity of supposing that two such powerful and enlightened nations would find themselves unable to settle this question without an appeal to the arbiters of war, the element which constrains the press of the United States to do this is not the element which constrains the press of the United States to do this. The situation presented would have a very unpleasant resemblance to that confronted by the United States today. Such a situation, it is much easier to avoid than to solve. It might be the case if it could be solved only by force; but it can be avoided by the creation of a public opinion clearly understanding the limitations of local authority and loyally recognizing the sovereignty of the Dominion. If we are to make a nation of this Canada of ours we must first Canadianize our provinces and municipalities afterward.

(Friday's Daily)
The jingoist spirit has been paramount in the character of the editorials of the morning which followed the materialization of what will be for want of encouragement of the popular sentiment highly conducive to such result. The relative strength of the American and Japanese fleets was only the primary topic of exploitation and summarizing the general aggressive of the morning which followed it may be fairly said that (in print) the Japanese fleet has been annihilated, her territory occupied, her army crushed, the star spangled banner hoisted above the palace of the Mikado and Taft sent over to administer the affairs of the defunct Flowery Kingdom.

THE WORLD'S MARKETS

STOCKS—London went over slightly higher prices for our stocks this morning and our market after opening slightly above yesterday's close and hanging round those prices for the first hour, gradually grew weaker and the closing prices tonight show advances of from 1/2 to 3 points distributed pretty fairly over the entire list. There is the beginning of the advance which we have been predicting for the first of the year. Amal copper which we told you to buy yesterday was the star performer today scoring an advance of nearly four dollars per share over the closing price of the day and if you failed to get in on it today, buy on the first slight recovery and you will get a good profit. We continue bullish on the low and medium priced list and on all the good high priced issues. Buy what you like, to the New Year's advance.

GRAIN TO LAKE HEAD.

During the period from Sept. 1 to Dec. 12, 1906 there was shipped from the head of the lakes 25,169,266 bushels of wheat, while during the same period last year the shipments were 39,411,196 bushels. Oats show an increased shipment of more than 2,000,000 bushels due to the demand for western oats by the American Fuel Co. at Peterborough and barley and rye show a small increase. It is noteworthy that no coarse grains were carried in United States vessels, and none were carried to United States ports by Canadian vessels. In the decrease in wheat shipments the main falling off has been in Yankee vessels.

During the period from Sept. 1 to Dec. 12 the amount of wheat reaching Montreal via the great lakes was only 4,294,518 bushels while in the same period Port Huron received 7,528,245 bushels of powerful argument for the despatch of the cargo, now much talked about.—The Commercial.

INVESTIGATION

ALLE
The investigation now before Hon. T. M. Daily, peg police court into conspiracy to restrict the most important evidence of the grain exchange. The charge is that reaching effects of such charged against the exchange on the grain its wide bearings.

The plaintiffs in the case are J. C. Gage, J. C. Mitchell, and the Manitoba Grain Association. The charge is that the plaintiffs claim that the Manitoba Grain Association in 1906 did unlawfully conspire to restrain or injure commerce and also did between the day of September, 1906, conspire to combine and agree with each other to unduly lessen competition in the carrier trade, transportation of grain, which was, in fact, in violation of the statute in that behalf enacted.

The counsel for the plaintiffs is Hon. Mr. Regina.

The evidence taken at the hearing of the grain commission showed that the defendants had sent out a letter to their association headquarters in Winnipeg and that strong efforts were being made to bring the trade in all to the price set out in that letter.

Other evidence concerning the intention of equalizing the price of the wheat is that different elevator interests exist, and it was further shown that a large number of elevators in the west had a figure which precluded the charges thus fixed.

An important witness in the case was Mr. Nicholas Bawit, of the Northern Elevator Co. In answer to Mr. Bawit's questioning counsel for the defendant when it was purchased by the Northern Elevator Co. in 1906, it was further stated that the elevator was shipped direct to the elevator it is going there. Sometimes it is put into the elevator to be sold if the wheat is sold or go through to the elevator as the grade at Winnipeg the company sends it east. When it is shipped to Fort William, Arthur direct, the company stop it at Winnipeg to unship the elevator to another elevator here. A large business done in oats, which are here and the grain is sent along the north shore.

AS TO FIXING PRICES
As to the question of fixing on the floor of the grain exchange the price of the market was aroused considerable amusement endeavoring to answer Mr. Bawit's questions. Mr. Bawit would know whether as a rule, the prices were higher or lower, ranging from 7 to 8 cents. Bawit could sell what they would like to buy at the grain exchange. "If I could do that I would get a week's profit out of it. I would be no lawyer, they would be over at the grain exchange. "Will you tell us when the price of wheat is fixed? "I don't know the price of wheat is fixed as part of our business and call it about it. I don't meddle with part of the business. "Q.—What period between 9.30 and 1.15 in the price usually high? HOCKEY LOCALS

All the News of the Home Circle Done up in Capsul Form.

This is practice night for the Revillon team at the Thistle rink at 6.30.

The hockey fever has struck Alberta College and it is more than likely the boys will have a club organized next week—at least that is the way they are talking today. Of course the aggregation are too late to get into the City League, but there will be ample opportunity for getting on exhibition matches. The College has some good puck chasers on the roll, among the number being Grady, the intermediate star goal tender.

The intermediates were out in full force at practice at the Thistle last night, when they stacked up against the seniors for an hour. Manager Duhamel was well pleased with the form the boys displayed, and looks for a win at Strathcona tonight.

At a meeting of the intermediates at the rink after practice last night, E. Clark, the fast left wing of the team, was chosen captain for 1937. No letter choice could have been made. Clark has been with the team for the past three seasons and knows the game from A to Z.

There is room for a few more in the bus the intermediates will travel to Strathcona in tonight. Parties wishing to go across with the boys should leave their names with Manager Duhamel at the 9th store. Bus leaves Thistle rink at 7.

J. Gorman will referee the intermediate contest at Strathcona tonight.

Strathcona seniors will cross sticks with the Lacombe team at the latter place tonight. Norman Elliott will be at left wing in place of McArthur, who was hurt in the last game, and Humeston may replace Sutherland in front of the nets.

The intermediates yesterday received a challenge from Calgary for a match here, which was promptly accepted and the game will be arranged for next week. Manager Duhamel is also trying to arrange an exhibition game with the Revillon team for next week to warm up for Calgary.

Secretary C. Banford, of the intermediates, is corresponding with LeCombe, Stettler and Wetsakiwin for games with those teams. The locals would have the initial games played here and would go on tour for half a week to play the return matches.

The intermediates will have the services of "Bald" Kent for all their games outside the City League fixtures where he is with Revillon. He is not at home either as rover or centre and will add considerable strength to the scoring department.

A rumor has been current for some days that the Revillon team contemplated withdrawing from the City League. When seen this morning Manager Morris said there was no truth in the league to stay, and if not at the top at the close of the season, they would be very close up on the ladder.

The team to represent the intermediates at Strathcona tonight has been selected and will line up like this: Goal, H. Grady; point, Haskell; cover, R. Johnson; centre, Kent; rover, C. Banford; right wing, E. Clark; right; left wing, C. Banford; rover, Allan and Speman. The boys are fit as a fiddle and look for a win.

The Journal didn't "speak by the book" exactly yesterday in stating that the Edmonton team were going to put in an appearance for the game with the Journal carriers on the holiday, and therefore it was necessary to cancel the game. The match was called off by the manager of the Journal aggregation, and he is still counting the number of carriers who turned up for the game. The Bulletin had a trifle of the best of it.

BASEBALL SITUATION VERY SATISFACTORY

Nothing Definite as to Players—Managers in Chicago—League Meets This Month—Old Concert.

A local paper, a considerable amount at the expense of the management of the Edmonton baseball club in a recent issue. What tickled the sporting editor was the report that Edmonton was after the services of one pitcher, Killian, who has been drafted by the Boston American League team. The smiles were a trifle premature as Manager White had no communication with Mr. Killian whatever. The man the Edmonton manager was after was a well known ball armer, Killian was with the Boston team in 1935, and who is still under reserve by that club, which, by the way, landed the championship in their state league last season. When they are putting up the coin game the Edmonton has such a cash for prizes for fast players as Burlington and the landing of their star slab artist, is not quite the impossibility some may imagine.

Although the weather is anything but reasonable to entice the ball crowd, Manager White is doing considerable quiet hustling to get a good nine together for 1937. He has now lined up for a dozen players, three of whom are pitchers, while he is assured of the services of the three local twirlers, Viney and Christ and Pinman of Wetsakiwin, who will be given a thorough work-out along with the new talent before the permanent pitching corps is selected. Mr. White's anxiety now is to get only players he can make good from the start, and thus keep down traveling expenses on prospective candidates for the nine—also to get off to a good start when the season opens.

The first meeting of the league is expected to be held this month at Calgary. The league president, B. Robinson, of that city, is in the east at present, and a definite announcement of the date will not be available until he returns; it will likely be held during bonspiel week in the southern metropolis. Only four clubs will be represented this year, but if there is no let up in the present stream of western prosperity an eight club circuit looks like a certainty for 1938.

Calgary is the only club on the circuit that has not chosen a manager for the season. Al Fidler is looking after the club's interests at present, but it is said he has a rival for the manager's post. Manager Ford, who was on the team last season. John Herwick, of Spokane, has been offered the management of the Lethbridge outfit, and if the coal diggers will come up a bit in the salary Herwick will take hold. He is one of the best in the business in minor leagues and it is altogether likely he will be secured. Lefty Sporer, who has handled the Winnipeg Maroons the past two seasons, and was formerly with Minneapolis, will look after the Medicine Hat aggregation, while "Deacon" White will handle the Edmonton contingent.

The baseball management are arranging a regular old-time minstrel show. It will be put on in the opera house early in March, and will run at least three nights. Manager White is negotiating with a prominent showman in Eastern Canada for the change of the minstrel show, and it will take him a few weeks to select and drill the performers, all of whom will be from the city. The proceeds of the show will be used in buying uniforms and an outfit for the team, all of which takes considerable thought. It is to be hoped the affair will dispel a bumper-house each performance.

ANOTHER 3-CLUB LEAGUE.

Another three-club hockey district came into existence at High River, Alberta, on Monday night, when representatives from Dunbow High School, High River and Okotoks assembled and organized a hockey league to be made up of teams from the above towns. The officials for the season are: President, S. Proctor; vice-president, Rev. Father Nasenz; secretary-treasurer, D. O. Brown, and an executive of four members.

The players of each team must be registered before Jan. 1, 1937, and any team defaulting a game will be expelled from the league.

R. R. Carver offered to donate a cup for annual competition, and Mr. McKee will put up medals, which will also go to the winning seven. The season opens on Jan. 15 with Dunbow at High River, and will close on March 6 with Dunbow at High River.

SNAPS ON SPORT.

If early organization counts for anything, the Edmonton lacrosse team, known as the "Prowlers," will be well up in the race for the championship of the big eastern lacrosse association. The club had its annual meeting last week when "Chris" Carrie, last year's manager, was re-elected for 1936, and instructed to effect by one getting together an aggregation just a little faster than any of the other lacrosse teams in the league.

The Winnipeg Bowling league season came to a close on Saturday, the Saratoga team finishing on top with a record of 37 pins over the Olympics. Ericcks, of the Saratoga, is the champion, individual bowler with an average for 36 games of 183. Hodgson bowled him with an average of 172 for 51 games.

There is great rejoicing in hockey circles at the Capital just now over the appearance of Harvey Palford in uniform at the Ottawa senior team practice last week. Palford was the manager of the Ottawa defence for the past few years, and his absence from the team this season has been sorely felt. Palford's absence from the game this season was due to him leaving for his home in Ottawa, Ontario, where he is playing professional hockey this year. He will return in

A CONGENIAL COLONY.
Upton Sinclair Undertakes Solution of the Knotty Domestic Labor Problem.

Upton Sinclair, author of "The Jungle," whose last book stirred North America in a marvellous way, has turned his mind to the solution of the domestic labor problem.
Edmonton housekeepers, keenly alive to the progress of the problem in their midst, may be interested to learn of the plans of a man who has been credited with both genius and practical effort. He has at least succeeded in bringing together a congenial colony and creating temporary aid at any rate an enviable holiday sort of place, where all work is equitably dignified. A member of the colony writes of it: "Upton Sinclair, of best trust fame, has turned his attention from the horrors of Packingtown and, along with about forty associates, is now conducting at Helicon hall, Englewood, N.F., one of the most interesting experiments of the age, namely, an attempt to apply the laws of co-operation to household industry, and, by so doing, elevate household labor to the rank of a profession, and those who engage in it to the same social level as professional men and women. In order to do this, every possible machine for the saving of drudgery is to be pressed into service, and a system of working hours arranged which will attract people who are anxious to do something else besides work with their hands, but yet do not despise manual labor as a means of gaining a livelihood.

There are thousands of young men and women in New York—students in colleges, art and music students, literary aspirants, etc., who would be only too glad of such an opportunity to leave the Helicon home colony affords Many such are already on the list of workers at Helicon hall. One young student makes beds and sweeps rooms in the morning, and in the afternoon attends lectures at the University; a former settlement worker of Chicago, and writer of magazine articles, is in charge of the culinary department; a wealthy confectioner of Providence, R.I., is one of the "handy men" around the place, and the furnace is run by a young magazine writer.

The colony might be described as a home club or hotel which is owned by its guests, and run by them for their own benefit. It is governed by a board of directors, elected once a year by vote of the entire membership, workers and residents alike. A salaried manager superintends and the expenses are shared equally by all the members.

The house itself is built around a central court, which is covered in by a glass roof, and which is in itself a miniature landscape garden. At the south end of this inner court is the main entrance hall. In the middle of this is a great, four-sided fireplace, an immense iron brazier, swung from chains, and every evening this is pillared high with great logs and roars and crackles and looks jolly and Christmas-like, while groups of "colonists" sit about in easy chairs and on couches, and feel sorry for the benighted ones who live in lodgings in New York. In this central hall, too, is a great, sweet-toned, pipe organ, and happily the colony possesses among its members an organist who plays divinely, so that one does not need to go beyond the door of one's room to enjoy an organ recital.

One of the main objects of the establishment of the colony is to give women a chance to be something besides household drudges. As conditions are at present the women whose husbands earn even good incomes (as incomes go) has little time to spend on anything but household and the care of children. Moreover, her work is all unskilled labour, and performed usually in the most primitive way. She has had no particular training to fit her for the work, and, consequently, she does it more or less ill, and with an enormous waste of energy, when all the time, she is probably pining to do something else.

A woman living in the colony will be left free to go into any line of work that she feels herself fitted for; or, if she likes domestic work, she may work on a professional point of view, and go into it well and thoroughly according to a scientific basis, and thus serve the colony as a paid employee. Most of the women members of the colony are engaged in literary or professional work of some kind, or are taking up some course of study, and the majority of those who are not thus engaged work as paid employees of the colony.

Life in the colony is delightful in its simplicity and naturalness. The members are all of one mind along certain lines, or they would not be there, and a spirit of good-conrad-ship pervades the place, which makes it seem the home of one great, happy family and life a perpetual holiday.
Through the day everybody is busy, either inside the colony or out of it; but in the evening the fire is lighted in the hall and the groups gather around, and the click of the billiard balls is heard from the adjoining room and there is laughter and music and merry making.

One of the things that all the members are agreed in aiming at is the utmost simplicity in all material things that is consistent with comfort; and so table cloths are dispensed with and paper napkins are substituted for linen ones, and there is economy in the use of dishes. Hence one has to be a bit of a Bohemian to enter thoroughly into the spirit of the place, a quality that most of the "colonists" have, as the great majority of them are literary men and women, and have served their turn at living lean years in the garrets of New York.

For the present, winter the colony is necessarily small, as the house accommodates only about fifty people.
But in the spring additional land will be purchased and cottages will spring up all about the central building—cottages that have no kitchen or dining room in them. A separate building will be put up especially for the children; the main building will be added to and a farm will be an-nexed, so that the colony will be in position to raise its own food supply.
Dozens of people are impatiently awaiting the spring, to join the "pioneers," and there promises to be here at Englewood a community that may be the model for thousands of like nature, the success of which will demonstrate even to the most conservative of us the urgent necessity for introducing co-operative, labor saving scientific methods into that firmest stronghold of traditions, the home.

gy have taken a warm interest in the formation of the council and seven of the priests will be among the charter members. A full list of who will be completed. According to the regulations the order not more than eighty members can be taken into the order at the time of institution, and this number was reached some time ago. T. D. Deagan has been in charge of the preparations for the inauguration of the knights in the city.
The charge will be in the hands of arrangements for the trip.

FROM DAY TO DAY

My mother, know my worth!
To fear my power to mold the man
As only she who bears him cap-
To number each departing soul,
And count the mornings one by one,
Impatient for my Christmas morn-
When, soon my work is done, (What harm, if when he breaks the mold,
He leaves my lady still and cold?
I shall not live within his breath;
Can I not live apart from death?
To woman at his side, I love,
Which could almost, like that above,
Make of me a blessing or a curse;
To trouble all my power for good,
And evil—this is motherhood.

A MISHAP REVEALED.
Mrs. Murray Crane, the only bride in the case set at Washington, has been back a score of years in the state of Mrs. Crane's death is following closely in the back, and making in a cold day, wearing a long, absolute in the circular style, but Washington dimes knew no-

Mrs. Crane, formerly a nurse, and the Boardman, proclaimed the fact.
Women who are hastening to have their able and well-fitting, and say it is a sensible style, and they hope it will be popular. Capes everton been the fashion yesterday, when they were modish, everybody complained that they did not deserve to be called winter because they presented the cold air to creep up one's back and for bare arms they gave no shelter. If Mrs. Crane's death is the tight fitting cape, caught at the waist by a wide, light belt, with a puff over the shoulder, the same style play, may avert many attacks of pneumonia in the fashionable world.
