Notes.

The Finance Committee are doing nobly. Let us help them by increasing our subscriptions and contributing very regularly.

The interest in our meetings is not in any way lessening. Influences are going out which cannot fail to bring others to Christ. There are members of our Church who have never been to a Prayer Service for years. Such need conversion as much as those who never made any profession. Let us pray for them. The work of the Lord must go on in spite of the coldness of some who profess better things. It is the work of the Church to care for the wounded, but to do this alone would mean defeat.

We must push ahead and fight the battles against sin. Souls all around us are perishing. Oh that the working force in all our Churches agreed with the members enrolled on our Church books. The world would soon be conquered for Jesus. Will you be one to hasten that glad day? Begin now.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply "weekly offering envelopes." "Convention Fund" offering the second Sunday of each month.

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor. Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.

COME AGAIN.—Strangers and new comers to our City are heartily invited to all our services. Welcome; come again.
