

The Church.

find the good works, begun by the late highly-gifted Mr. Polden, prospering, by God's continued blessing, in the hands of his friend, the Rev. Mr. Marshall...

His Royal Highness then went to his own room, and, returning with a Bible in his hand, he said to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales...

Gloomy and unpropitious as are the signs of the times, may not the present be the happiest destined for a people whose future ruler enjoys the benefit of such judicious and scriptural system of training...

In the extensive mission of Placentia, the Bishop, accompanied by the Rev. Mr. White, visited Harbour Buffet, Woody Island, Placentia, Isle of Valen, and Olerio...

On Sunday (Oct. 15th) the weather was happily fine, and the services of the Church well attended...

The services were celebrated the next day at Renew, viz., the Holy Sacrament in the morning, and the confirmation in the afternoon...

Much credit is due to the master, Mr. J. Squary, for his skill and pains in the management of the vessel, and to the whole crew for their willing and faithful service...

DEATH OF BISHOP MANT.

With deep regret we announce the decease of the Lord Bishop of Down and Connor and Dromore, in whom the Irish Church has lost one of its most devoted and judicious rulers...

The lamented Prelate died on the 2nd of November, after a few days illness, his decease being Typhoid Erysipelas...

We are deeply grieved to hear of the death of our much-esteemed friend and fellow-labourer, the Rev. Dr. Rudd, Editor of the Gospel Messenger...

A CAVEAT AGAINST ROMANISM.

The Rev. Dr. Croly in his interpretation of the Apocalypse of St. John has grouped together in a most graphic manner a series of facts, to show the direful consequences which Popery has been the means of entailing upon Great Britain...

liarily rich and varied description. As the Bazaar is to be kept open till ten o'clock, P. M., all classes will have an opportunity of contributing their mite in aid of the good cause.

INFIDEL TENDENCY OF DISSENT.

There are many well disposed and truly pious individuals who are inclined to regard the visible unity of Christ's Church as a question of secondary consideration...

To this it may be sufficient to answer, that the outward oneness of Emanuel's faithful soldiers and servants is specially and unequivocally enjoined by the word of God...

But we may go still further, and assert that the doctrine of ecclesiastical unity is one of infinite practical importance, and has a direct and special bearing upon the advancement of Gospel truth; His Saviour expressly declared that all men should recognise his disciples by the cordial and fraternal manner in which they associated with each other...

COMMUNICATIONS.

[We deem it necessary to follow the example of the London Church periodicals, and to apprise our readers of the reasons for the opinions of our Correspondents.—ED. CHURCH.]

(For The Church.)

INSTANCES OF THE WRONG USE OF THE WORD CATHOLIC, WITH CORRECTIONS.

"That mischief, for which we see, under Providence, no other preventive than a provision on the part of the State for the ministers of the Popish or Romanist portion of the population of Ireland."

to promote, as far as possible, the devotional character of our service.—1st. By taking care to be in church before the service begins...

Let every one feel that this is not a trivial matter, but one which is worthy of the effort, that with one heart and with one mouth, glorify God our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHURCH.

REV. SIR,—You will oblige me by noticing, in your next paper, the following errors of the press, which occur in your last number...

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting called by his Worship the Mayor, on a most respectable requisition of the inhabitants of Toronto, is to be held this day, for the purpose of devising means for the relief of the family of William Thornton...

OUR BISHOPS, ARCHDEACONS, AND THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Mr. EDWARDS.—As an old Missionary, engaged in active service in this Diocese as long as your correspondence, I do not think it would be out of place to contribute a few "hints" on the above subject of his. This, too, I might also do, on the ground that for one whole year, without an exception, I occupied a corner of the Diocesan paper—that commonly called the "Church."

COMMUNICATIONS.

[We deem it necessary to follow the example of the London Church periodicals, and to apprise our readers of the reasons for the opinions of our Correspondents.—ED. CHURCH.]

(For The Church.)

INSTANCES OF THE WRONG USE OF THE WORD CATHOLIC, WITH CORRECTIONS.

"That mischief, for which we see, under Providence, no other preventive than a provision on the part of the State for the ministers of the Popish or Romanist portion of the population of Ireland."

WEEKLY CALENDAR table with columns for Date, Day, and Lesson.

THE CHURCH.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 7, 1848.

CONTENTS OF THE OUTSIDE.

First Page. Our Monthly Review. The Late Rev. W. Archer Butler. Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.—Concluded.

ROYAL DISCIPLINE.

It was a saying of the wiseman, "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

In these circumstances it must ever be interesting to every thoughtful and inquiring mind, to learn the manner in which the heir apparent of a hereditary crown is trained and brought up.

"The child's the parent of the man," and, therefore, the christian patriot will not limit his attention to the reigning Sovereign, but will extend his prayerful interest to the economy of the royal nursery and school room, as furnishing data for an estimate of the future prosperity and well being of the empire, on whose flag the sun never sets.

THE CHURCH.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 7, 1848.

Our Monthly Review. The Late Rev. W. Archer Butler. Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.—Concluded.

ROYAL DISCIPLINE.

It was a saying of the wiseman, "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

In these circumstances it must ever be interesting to every thoughtful and inquiring mind, to learn the manner in which the heir apparent of a hereditary crown is trained and brought up.

"The child's the parent of the man," and, therefore, the christian patriot will not limit his attention to the reigning Sovereign, but will extend his prayerful interest to the economy of the royal nursery and school room, as furnishing data for an estimate of the future prosperity and well being of the empire, on whose flag the sun never sets.

THE CHURCH.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 7, 1848.

Our Monthly Review. The Late Rev. W. Archer Butler. Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.—Concluded.

ROYAL DISCIPLINE.

It was a saying of the wiseman, "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

In these circumstances it must ever be interesting to every thoughtful and inquiring mind, to learn the manner in which the heir apparent of a hereditary crown is trained and brought up.

"The child's the parent of the man," and, therefore, the christian patriot will not limit his attention to the reigning Sovereign, but will extend his prayerful interest to the economy of the royal nursery and school room, as furnishing data for an estimate of the future prosperity and well being of the empire, on whose flag the sun never sets.

THE CHURCH.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 7, 1848.

Our Monthly Review. The Late Rev. W. Archer Butler. Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.—Concluded.

ROYAL DISCIPLINE.

It was a saying of the wiseman, "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

In these circumstances it must ever be interesting to every thoughtful and inquiring mind, to learn the manner in which the heir apparent of a hereditary crown is trained and brought up.

"The child's the parent of the man," and, therefore, the christian patriot will not limit his attention to the reigning Sovereign, but will extend his prayerful interest to the economy of the royal nursery and school room, as furnishing data for an estimate of the future prosperity and well being of the empire, on whose flag the sun never sets.

apply it? To study to gain an end, and subvert authority, or to discharge with humility and thoughtfulness their duty, in that sphere of life in which he has pleased God to place them?

Let every one feel that this is not a trivial matter, but one which is worthy of the effort, that with one heart and with one mouth, glorify God our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHURCH.

REV. SIR,—You will oblige me by noticing, in your next paper, the following errors of the press, which occur in your last number...

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting called by his Worship the Mayor, on a most respectable requisition of the inhabitants of Toronto, is to be held this day, for the purpose of devising means for the relief of the family of William Thornton...

OUR BISHOPS, ARCHDEACONS, AND THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Mr. EDWARDS.—As an old Missionary, engaged in active service in this Diocese as long as your correspondence, I do not think it would be out of place to contribute a few "hints" on the above subject of his. This, too, I might also do, on the ground that for one whole year, without an exception, I occupied a corner of the Diocesan paper—that commonly called the "Church."

COMMUNICATIONS.

[We deem it necessary to follow the example of the London Church periodicals, and to apprise our readers of the reasons for the opinions of our Correspondents.—ED. CHURCH.]

(For The Church.)

INSTANCES OF THE WRONG USE OF THE WORD CATHOLIC, WITH CORRECTIONS.

"That mischief, for which we see, under Providence, no other preventive than a provision on the part of the State for the ministers of the Popish or Romanist portion of the population of Ireland."

apply it? To study to gain an end, and subvert authority, or to discharge with humility and thoughtfulness their duty, in that sphere of life in which he has pleased God to place them?

Let every one feel that this is not a trivial matter, but one which is worthy of the effort, that with one heart and with one mouth, glorify God our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHURCH.

REV. SIR,—You will oblige me by noticing, in your next paper, the following errors of the press, which occur in your last number...

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting called by his Worship the Mayor, on a most respectable requisition of the inhabitants of Toronto, is to be held this day, for the purpose of devising means for the relief of the family of William Thornton...

OUR BISHOPS, ARCHDEACONS, AND THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Mr. EDWARDS.—As an old Missionary, engaged in active service in this Diocese as long as your correspondence, I do not think it would be out of place to contribute a few "hints" on the above subject of his. This, too, I might also do, on the ground that for one whole year, without an exception, I occupied a corner of the Diocesan paper—that commonly called the "Church."

COMMUNICATIONS.

[We deem it necessary to follow the example of the London Church periodicals, and to apprise our readers of the reasons for the opinions of our Correspondents.—ED. CHURCH.]

(For The Church.)

INSTANCES OF THE WRONG USE OF THE WORD CATHOLIC, WITH CORRECTIONS.

"That mischief, for which we see, under Providence, no other preventive than a provision on the part of the State for the ministers of the Popish or Romanist portion of the population of Ireland."

Table with columns for Name, Amount, and Total.

THE CHURCH.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 7, 1848.

CONTENTS OF THE OUTSIDE.

Our Monthly Review. The Late Rev. W. Archer Butler. Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.—Concluded.

ROYAL DISCIPLINE.

It was a saying of the wiseman, "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

In these circumstances it must ever be interesting to every thoughtful and inquiring mind, to learn the manner in which the heir apparent of a hereditary crown is trained and brought up.

"The child's the parent of the man," and, therefore, the christian patriot will not limit his attention to the reigning Sovereign, but will extend his prayerful interest to the economy of the royal nursery and school room, as furnishing data for an estimate of the future prosperity and well being of the empire, on whose flag the sun never sets.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, partially cut off.

