TOO GOOD FOR TORONTO C.C.

Trinity beat the Annual Cricket Match by 119 to 97 on the result of the first innings.

The annual Queen's Birthday fixture between the Trinity and Toronto Cricket Clubs resulted in an interesting and exciting match. At one stage it looked as if the Trinity were going to lose. Six wickets had fallen for 25 runs, but the Toronto score, Toronto batted a second time, and came very close to losing by an innings. So close, in fact, that the Trinity men were virtually victors by an innings. Six wickets fell for 15 runs, and seven for 25, but the other three batsmen failed to put in an appearance, although time for drawing had not arrived.

The wicket was sticky, and decidedly favorable to slow bowling. Goldingham, with 41, made in capital form and Boyd, with 22, were chief scorers for Toronto. Cooper took five wickets for 21, and Fleet four for 37. For Trinity, White, with 26, Fleet, 20, and Bedford-Jones, 14, headed the list. Goldingham took four wickets for 22. McMaster two for 19 and Crew three for 26. In Toronto's second innings Cooper's analysis was three for 17 and McLaughlin's four for 15. There was a large number of spectators present. The deciding on both sides was good; in Toronto the close of the game quite brilliant.

Games won by Score. Time. First, Montreal, 12 to 1, 44 mins. Second, Toronto, 7 to 1, 5 mins. Third, Toronto, 7 to 1, 15 mins. Fourth, Toronto, 7 to 1, 8 mins. Fifth, Toronto, 7 to 1, 15 mins. Sixth, Toronto, 7 to 1, 2 mins. Seventh, Toronto, 7 to 1, 4 mins. Eighth, Toronto, 7 to 1, 40 mins. The Toronto Lacrosse and Athletic Association, after a number of years in what almost seemed a vain endeavor, have at last got together an aggregation that seem bound to bring the old-time crowds to the national sport and that are winners as of old. The enthusiastic and well-organized Toronto lacrosse players are evidenced by the fact that attended yesterday's game are satisfied of that.

The Montreal team, although lacking a couple of their fastest, notably McKelroy, played some speedy and well-organized lacrosse, and when the first game fell their way, the hopes of many of Toronto's supporters went down, the day seemed all one-sided. Although the Eastermen kept pegging away the rest of the match the superior play of the home team told, and the shooting ability of Toronto's home players is evidenced by the score.

McNeill, who was with Toronto's active men last season and was a capable player, and whom many of our representative team supporters regret to see handling a stick himself, is well satisfied with the aggregation. Two more players, now in this city, will make it a formidable team. The Toronto Lacrosse and Athletic Association, after a number of years in what almost seemed a vain endeavor, have at last got together an aggregation that seem bound to bring the old-time crowds to the national sport and that are winners as of old. THE JOHNSTON GAS CASE.
 The Council will be called on to decide at a special meeting this afternoon whether or not the Johnston gas case should be assumed by the city and sent on to the Privy Council for final adjudication. The judge who protected the rights of the people on Saturday night by refusing to grant an injunction to stop the cars from running on Sunday has also given the people a very favorable judgment in the case of the consumers against the Gas Company. After a long fight, with many and varying vicissitudes, the people have secured their personal freedom on Sunday. Last Sunday it seemed as if a cloud that had long been hovering over the city was dispelled. The people exercised a sense of freedom for the first time on Sunday in the history of Toronto. It took a long time, and a great deal of hard fighting was necessary to secure for the people a simple and innocent liberty that is enjoyed in almost every other city in the civilized world. The history of municipalities, as well as of countries, proves that the people have to fight for their rights and to fight continuously and aggressively. Judge Ferguson has decided that the people have the right to a big reduction in gas rates, just as emphatically as he decided on Saturday night that the people had a right to a Sunday street car service. As we have passed Sunday cars, so we will get justice from the Gas Company if we only pursue the course we have adopted. The ratification of Judge Ferguson's judgment by the Privy Council will have the effect of making the city a partner in the Gas Company, if it does not put the city in possession of the entire concern, on payment of reasonable compensation to the shareholders. But to secure this we must not on with the Johnston case. If that suit is dropped it may take two or three years to get the question where it is to-day. The Consumers' Gas Company is fighting tooth and nail to get the city to abandon the Johnston case. It pretends to have a new suit entered, as it will thereby secure a delay of two or three years, during which time it expects that something may turn up to get the difficulty out of the courts altogether. As usual, the paper that opposed the people in their fight for Sunday cars is fighting the case for the Gas Company and opposing the interests of the people. When we are now on the eve of securing a final judgment in this case, which has been in the courts for a couple of years, when we have a fair prospect of securing a great victory, the News advises the city to abandon the whole proceedings. This is just what the Gas Company most anxiously desires.

THE COMPANY REORGANIZED.
 Atlantic and Lake Superior Railway to be Pushed Forward Without Delay.—The New Gas and Electricity Company, Montreal, May 24.—(Special.)—The Atlantic and Lake Superior Railway has been completely reorganized, the following being the members of the new directors: Hon. J. L. Talbot, president; Hon. W. L. O'Brien, first vice-president; Hon. N. W. Lorne, M.L.C., second vice-president; Henry Hogan, J. E. Pretontaine, M.P., James Baker, C. G. Gower, George G. Gower, M.L.A., Nicolai, Rudolph Adolphe, president Bank National; Charles Chaput, A. D. Fleming, and L. H. DeFries, London. A meeting of the directors was held in place here yesterday in the company's offices. Arrangements were made to push forward the railway by the time the large gangs of men will start the construction of the new line. It is expected that the railway will be in operation at once at several points in the district between Sorel and St. Lewis. The New Cabinet.
 It appears that the powerful men on both sides of the present Government, Mr. Marchand from being called to form a new cabinet, and Mr. Robitson from being called to form a new cabinet, are both in the interest of the old Government, and decidedly anti-Party in sentiment. The Minister of the Interior, Mr. Robitson, is being made to set Mr. Marchand aside. It is expected that the Liberal Government will be formed here, and that the Minister of the Interior, Mr. Robitson, will be called to form a new cabinet. TAX EXEMPTIONS.
 Trades Council Wins a Victory in the Area of the Convention.
 The secretary of the Municipal Committee of the Trades and Labor Council is hot on the trail of Ald. Carlyle, chairman of the sub-committee on tax exemptions, which has issued invitations to a convention of delegates from municipalities for the purpose of discussing that subject. Organized labor in Toronto seeks to be admitted to full privileges at the convention, but Chairman Carlyle does not see his way clear to grant the request. Secretary Joyce writes him again under date of May 24. After apologizing for reverting to the matter again, he says that the Trades and Labor Council asserts that 250 invitations have been sent out, and only 23 replies received, of which latter number but 10 are in favor of the idea, and will send delegates. This state of affairs is, I submit, a strong argument in favor of widening the area of the convention so as to include organized bodies of the working people. Our reputation as a New Testament student emboldens me to refer you to Luke xiv. 16-24.

themselves? Mayor Fleming certainly exceeded his jurisdiction in this matter, and any citizen could have applied for and obtained an injunction to prevent him making the city responsible for possibly $10,000 in an action undertaken by private parties. These private individuals didn't even represent a majority of the citizens. The vote of Saturday night was presumed to be correct. If Mayor Fleming felt constrained to act at all he should have acted on behalf of the interests of the majority as against those of the minority. But he was not called upon to assume responsibility for the action of either the majority or the minority. He has plainly exceeded his jurisdiction. The people who voted for Sunday cars are justified in demanding from Mayor Fleming an explanation of his conduct in this matter, and that explanation should be forthcoming from his place in the Council Chamber to-day. Mayor Fleming must be reprimanded for the excess of zeal which has led him into committing an egregious blunder. He must be prevented from pledging the city's credit to any further litigation the anti majority have in view. If the city is responsible for any litigation that is now pending let the Council see to it that the obligation is repudiated. Let the Council repudiate the expenses and costs that have been incurred in the conduct of the injunction proceedings up to date. It is high time that Mayor Fleming and all others whose public existence depends on the religious vote became apprized of the fact that the Lord's Day Alliance and the professionally religious people no longer rule this city. They have had things their own way for many a long year. But their reign of intolerance and injustice has come to an end. Sunday cars are not the means of victory achieved for the people. The cause of personal freedom generally has triumphed. The restrictions, whose long reign has proved a blight and curse to the city, have been turned down. Henceforth the city's prosperity will be the watchword of Toronto.

Our Colonial Empire.
 In subscribing the "Our Colonial Empire" the chairman said it was a great sign of the vitality of the patriotic feelings which animated the colonists of this country that such clubs as this existed in England. In these days one heard of the English Colonists going to the savages on the basis of crime, slavery and horror, and that to them: "I hope I don't intrude." It was not the spirit in which we should extend the Empire and strengthen it, or make our colonies the sturdy peoples which they ought to be. It would be wholly unbecoming to our position as Englishmen if we did not fully recognize their marvellous powers of self-government and their long way to meet their wishes. For instance, when Canada wished to give us a preferential tariff, and asked that she should be supplied a few of the articles of which at present we got an excess perhaps from foreign countries, he hoped we should listen to her request as a fair one. If Australia desired to confederate we should do all in our power to assist. In Africa, he believed, the statesmanlike qualities that have always distinguished our colonial fellow-subjects would be exhibited, and there would be no more of those irritating circumstances, that patience which, in the long run, built up a nation more surely than the fiercest contention of war. War, after all, might be indulged in without any great hurt to the sentiments of those who fought against each other, but it took generations before the wound was healed. The sentiments of those who fought against each other, but it took generations before the wound was healed.

Sir Donald Smith's Words.
 Sir Donald Smith, in reply, said the toast was indeed of great proportions, and of noble proportions. It made each colonist present feel proud that his particular colony was part of the Empire, and that in this country he was just as much an Englishman as those born here in England. In Canada they were loyal, and did not forget one whit or iota that land from which they came. In looking back to the commencement of this reign we found an important portion of the Canadian people in arms because their rights to which they were entitled as Englishmen were not given to them. What were they doing there now? Were those very same people—the French-speaking people—any more loyal to the English-speaking people? Not one whit. While there was a large proportion of English-speaking people in Canada they had chosen for the present Premier a French-speaking statesman. He was assured that there could be no more devoted subjects of the Queen than this same people. It had been said that Canadians were looking towards Washington, but in reality there was not an atom of truth in such a suggestion. If the country were polled not one man in ten thousand would be found who did not wish to live and die under the British flag. Referring to the chairman, Sir Donald said that during his administration of Canada a work commenced there which had unquestionably played a great part in bringing Canada, Australia and England together. He alluded to the Canadian Pacific Railway. Every Canadian took as much interest in the coming of the railway as any one in England, and the feeling towards Her Majesty was that of loyalty and deepest affection and reverence.

GATHERED AT KING'S HALL.

Notable Event in the British Metropolis.
 FOUR HUNDRED COLONIALS
 From Every Corner of the Globe Sat at the Festive Board.

The Marquis of Lorne was in the Chair and a Challenge Shield was Presented on Behalf of Col. Turnbull at the Dominion Artillery Association to Major Van Stow of the National Artillery Association in Recognition of Courteous Shows.
 London, Eng., May 13.—Last night there foregathered in the magnificent and truly royal "King's Hall" of the Holborn Restaurant a somewhat notable company. Four hundred colonials, from every corner of the globe, formed a grand object lesson of the extent and greatness of the Empire in this Jubilee year. The occasion was the commemorative banquet of the London Colonial Club, a body whose objects are best summed up in the words of its motto: "Juncti Valeamus." Naturally patriotism was the prevailing sentiment, but its undemonstrative character forcibly brought to mind the British dislike of brag, even in most optimistic moments. The Marquis of Lorne presided, and, after proposing the usual loyal toasts, which were heartily honored, presented to Major Van Stow, representing the National Artillery Association, a challenge shield, which had been given by Lieut.-Col. Turnbull, Lieut. Vice-President of the Dominion Artillery Association, as a slight acknowledgment of the many kindnesses received at the hands of the teams representing Canada at the Shoeburyness competitions.
