

CONSTANTINE STILL WAITING FOR NEWS

Has Decided Not to Engage Special Train Till He Hears Official Returns.

Lucerne, Dec. 9.—The expected official telegram from Premier Rhallis of Greece, to former King Constantine, informing Constantine that he has been chosen in the plebiscite of last Sunday, to return to the Greek throne, had not been received here this evening, but Prof. Georgios Strit, spokesman for Constantine said there was no anxiety over this situation.

Constantine today decided not to order a special train for his journey until he has learned the official returns from Premier Rhallis. The Swiss government requires five days' notice, so it is considered now that the departure of Constantine will not take place until Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Former Queen Sophie, wife of Constantine, and a sister of former Emperor William of Germany, and other members of the Greek royal household are beginning to feel the strain on account of their strong desire to have Constantine after having lived for three years in hotels after their exile. Constantine, while extremely impatient to get started homeward, manages to carry a look of unconcern, and throughout these inclement days, reading, writing or playing solitaire, but at the same time informing himself as to public affairs so that he will be able again to take up the duties he relinquished when the allies requested him to leave Athens.

Every day sees more Greeks from Athens and other parts of Europe gathering at Lucerne. The Greek colony here has increased threefold since the recent election in Greece.

Constantinople, Dec. 9.—All of unredeemed Hellespont, in united and strong opposition against the restoration of King Constantine to the throne of Greece, according to a petition handed to the Greek Patriarch. The petition contains the names of 500 organized bodies, which demand that the Patriarch should issue anathema against Constantine should he persist in his intention to return to Greece.

As soon as the result of the Greek plebiscite became known, the Greek high commissioner resigned, and the court refused to administer justice in the name of Constantine. Likewise a majority of the members of the senate of the league and consulate resigned.

SOVIET WILL SEIZE CAPITAL INVESTED

Foreign Concessions Valueless in Case of War Against Bourgeoisie, Says Lenin.

Copenhagen, Dec. 9.—A despatch to The Politiken from Riga today quotes Nikolai Lenin, the Russian Soviet premier, as declaring in reply to attacks on the Soviet government because of its concessions to foreign capitalists, that in the event of war against the bourgeoisie all the capital invested in these concessions would be taken by the Soviets. If the concessions interfered with the development of Soviet Russia, Lenin is reported as adding, the extraordinary commission for fighting counter-revolution would take action.

Two investment proposals were under consideration, according to the despatch, the first the Kamchatka concession, to be given to the United States citizens (the reported Washington D. Vanderlip concession evidently is meant), and the second an investment in several million acres of forest lands.

SAYS LAX MILK LAW CRIMINAL TO PUBLIC

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—E. H. Stonehouse, president of the Ontario Milk Producers' Association, and of the National Dairy Council of Canada, in the city. When interviewed regarding the dairy industry, Mr. Stonehouse stated that the greatest handicap to the industry at the present moment was inadequate organization for the purpose of distribution.

This, he said, has got to be changed, for the failure of the government to make pasteurizing of milk compulsory before distribution in the city is nothing less than criminal. When asked if the conditions in Kingston fell within this category, he said that it was unfortunately so, and the people were exposed to epidemics of disease. All milk produced in the district should be handled at a central depot and pasteurized before being offered for consumption.

"Repression more drastic than that now practiced by the sword" he declared, "would be necessary to keep Ireland enslaved, and every resource the Irish people possess would be used in such circumstances to awaken the civilized world to the enormity of E-land's crime."

As the first step to a settlement, reciprocal guarantees could be arranged to insure a cessation of acts of violence and other provocative acts on both sides, and when that was done a conference should be called of representatives of the British government and of those in Ireland who could "deliver the goods." He had the full assurance that if these were arranged that the whole influence of the Catholic Church and the Irish labor movement would be used to prevent acts of lawlessness and violence during the period of armistice and throughout the negotiations.

Hamilton, Dec. 9.—(Special.)—The inter-church survey committee of Hamilton, which has as its object the Canadianization of the Royal Connaught Hotel, George C. Evans, architect, said this morning that he was going up again rather than down, and said this was a reason for the city going on with its plans immediately. Civic officials looked for a decrease, but it is not coming, the architect said.

REDS WANT BRITAIN TO DISARM WRANGEL'S MEN

London, Dec. 9.—Leonid Krassin, the Russian Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, has sent a note to Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, and Count Sforza, the Italian foreign minister, protesting against the protection afforded the troops of General Baron Wrangel, the former anti-Bolshevik commander in South Russia, by the allies, according to The Daily Herald. Krassin declared the troops are being equipped and reformed on Turkish territory, which the allies now occupy.

The note says it is expected that the British will take measures to prevent Wrangel from using Turkish territory and will disarm Wrangel's troops.

ARE READY TO HAND SHANTUNG TO CHINA

But China Refuses to Negotiate, is Complaint of Japanese Ambassador.

Geneva, Dec. 9.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, and head of the Japanese delegation to the league assembly, informed the correspondents this evening that Japan was getting ready to hand back the province of Shantung to China, but was unable to get China to open negotiations. He added that the only condition Japan makes is that Kiaochow shall remain open to foreign trade.

"But how can it be arranged if China will not talk?" he asked. Baron Hayashi thought that China's refusal to negotiate was due to the fact that public opinion had been falsified by the military party. He declared himself as well impressed by the work of the league assembly. He had confidence in the league, but pointed out that the most interesting questions had not yet been taken up and would not come up until the United States and Germany were members of the league.

Disarmament, he believed, will further a lively session of the assembly, if the question is brought up. Disarmament is a general thought, he said, but some powers, including his own, are increasing their naval forces—of course, not with a view to aggression, but rather to promote peace.

GUERRILLA TACTICS OF SINN FEINERS

Cummins added that the training the soldiers had received was not suitable for such work and that regiments would have to be constantly retrained.

Opportunity Now Open. Eghland, Dec. 9.—Arthur Henderson, who has just returned from Ireland, where he was on a trip of inspection with the labor commission, said in an address here tonight that Irish statesmanship was not equal to the opportunity which he now was convinced was open in a hopeless situation, as far as Ireland was concerned, was bound to arise. It was impossible for him, he said, to exaggerate the deplorable conditions prevailing there.

"Coercion is applied with such indiscriminate violence," Mr. Henderson declared, "that the people are terror-stricken. The unhappy inhabitants are reminded day and night that their country is under the heel of a ruthless military occupation."

It is actually true to say that life was safer in Brussels during the German occupation, than it is now in Cork, Dublin and Londonderry. No man is safe; even women and children run terrible risks of being shot while in the streets. The economic life of the country is coming to a standstill."

The labor leader asserted that he had information from persons of the crown who had stopped them. Looting and arson were commonplace. All this, said Mr. Henderson, could not be dissociated from the government's policy, which was reactionary in its conception, brutal in its application and destructive in its consequences. He was not saying that the outrages were on one side, but the reprisals had struck a blow, perhaps more of law and order. He could only hope and pray that nothing would happen among the unemployed the winter to give the members of the cabinet an excuse for applying the same methods at home.

Possibility of Peace. "But," he added, "there is a gleam of light in the darkness. My visit to Ireland has convinced me that there is a possibility of making peace with the Irish people."

He had had many consultations with prominent leaders, and everywhere he went in Ireland he found an earnest desire for peace. There was a willingness, more marked than anything in his experience of the Irish temper, to join in a reciprocal arrangement, secure abandonment of acts of violence and every form of provocation. In that atmosphere, it was believed, the negotiations could be started, which would be successful in bringing about a settlement of the constitutional question. If they failed now, he was certain that utter chaos would follow.

"Repression more drastic than that now practiced by the sword" he declared, "would be necessary to keep Ireland enslaved, and every resource the Irish people possess would be used in such circumstances to awaken the civilized world to the enormity of E-land's crime."

As the first step to a settlement, reciprocal guarantees could be arranged to insure a cessation of acts of violence and other provocative acts on both sides, and when that was done a conference should be called of representatives of the British government and of those in Ireland who could "deliver the goods." He had the full assurance that if these were arranged that the whole influence of the Catholic Church and the Irish labor movement would be used to prevent acts of lawlessness and violence during the period of armistice and throughout the negotiations.

TWENTY MILLIONS ACTUALLY STARVING

People in Some Chinese Districts Are Living on Weeds and Leaves.

New York, Dec. 9.—The Chinese famine, for the relief of which President Wilson today announced the appointment of a nation-wide committee, affects five provinces, according to a cable message from Admiral Tsai Ting-Kan, director-general of the Chinese Red Cross, made public here today. They are: Chihli, Shantung, Honan, Shanai and Shensi, in Northern China.

The total population of the affected districts is estimated at 37,000,000 persons, of whom between 45,000,000 and 50,000,000 are in want. Of these, 20,000,000, the Chinese Red Cross official reported, actually are starving or dying of hunger and cold.

The famine followed after three or four years of gradually falling crops. In the worst areas the crops this year did not run more than one per cent. of normal, failing to return the seed planted. In a few districts they were about one-third normal.

Admiral Tsai Ting-Kan reported that all of the people of the districts are living on weeds and leaves. Entire families have taken their own lives, while parents are selling and crowning their children.

Thousands of sufferers are reported wandering about the country in search of food. In some sections the bands of refugees have become so numerous that armed guards have been stationed along the borders to turn back the wanderers, as the supply of food is barely sufficient for the inhabitants.

Many started for Mongolia, but no refugees now are being admitted to that district, as thousands of deaths there and the lack of housing facilities.

DISCUSS WAYS TO BANISH OLD AGE

Osteopaths' Convention Hears Plans for Wonderful Cures.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 9.—Osteopaths of eastern Ontario held here this afternoon. An address by Dr. H. R. Dettmer, of London, on endocrinology is said to have shed light on the sensational and wonderful cures and even possible abolition of old age, which is claimed by the use of endocrine glands.

Dr. Suttie of Brantford, in "Old Age and Nervous Phenomena," in some respects only another phase of the same course, as both aim at the relief of youth. Another address of great interest, was that of Dr. H. H. H. of Preston, on local infections of mouth, nose, ear and abdomen.

The list of speakers included an address on the public library as a purveyor of health, by Dr. C. H. Saunders, Brantford, and "The Osteopaths' Reading Table," by Dr. C. H. Merrill, Stratford. Dr. H. H. Henderson, president of the Ontario Osteopaths' Association, urged a united effort of that body.

Dr. Suttie, president, Dr. H. W. Sutton, Simcoe, vice-president, Dr. B. H. Henderson, Stratford, Stratford; trustees, Dr. E. S. H. of London, and J. R. Wigham Brantford. The next gathering will be held in London.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL FOR WHISKEY RUNNER

Guelph, Ont., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Six months in the Ontario Reformatory at Burwash was the sentence handed out by Magistrate Watt to Frank Jenkins, a whiskey runner, at the police court this morning, and but for the strong plea advanced by his counsel, Mr. W. B. M. Shorpy, of Toronto, he might have received just twice that time. He was also fined $5 on a second charge. His companion, John Hall, proved to the satisfaction of the court that he was not a part owner of the liquor which was found in the car, and he was discharged.

These two men were captured here nearly two weeks ago, when they were passing thru the city in an auto. In the car was found $19 bottle of whiskey. The car was an American one and had stolen Canadian license markers on it. It was a week over-due at the border and is now in the hands of the customs authorities.

THREE PEOPLE HURT IN QUEBEC BLAZE

Man Injured and Burnt While Entering Flaming Rooms to Rescue Child.

Quebec, Dec. 9.—(By Canadian Press.)—Three persons were injured, several others had narrow escapes, while property damage to the extent of $50,000 was caused here this afternoon in a fire which broke out in the Lofis Deschamps shoe store, 58 St. John street, and communicated with the stores of A. O. Brunneau, book seller, and Miss M. Brownrigg, millinery, badly damaging all three stores.

The most seriously injured was Michael Monaghan, an insurance agent, who was having a business interview with M. Deschamps when the fire broke out. Mr. Monaghan reached the yard in the rear, in safety, but returned to rescue a child that had remained in the building.

He was trapped by the flames, but fought his way out, and, smashing a window, leapt to the yard. When picked up he was found to be suffering from burns to the face, hands and legs, while one shoulder was dislocated and one arm fractured. Later the child was rescued.

ORDERING LIQUOR FOR OTHER PEOPLE

Police Are Told Citizens Wrongly Informed of Barrels in Waiting.

Hamilton, Dec. 9.—Someone who is either engaged in the liquor business or has a thirst which is not easily satisfied, is causing a good deal of trouble to local residents by ordering liquor shipments in their names. The matter has been reported to the police.

Several residents have received notification that they were to receive liquor for other people, and when they inquired and went to inquire the officials they were told to order the supply they were informed that it had been ordered and taken away.

FORMER GERMAN EMPRESS HAS NOW RECOVERED

Berlin, Dec. 9.—The Rev. Dr. von Dryander, the private minister to the former German empress, arrived here today from Dootin and in an interview with The Lokal Anzeiger said Augusta Victoria seemed well recovered, and that she might be expected to be able to share in the Christmas ceremonies in the home in Holland of the former German empress.

Dr. Dryander said the former empress always was conscious during her illness, and usually sat in an arm chair. From which she was able to enjoy the scenery. She bore her mental and physical sufferings with Christian devotion, said the minister. Former Emperor William personally nursed his wife and his affection was so touching, he refusing to leave her side.

The pastor denounced reports of the one-time empress having suffered a nervous collapse. On the contrary, he said, his mental activity was extraordinary. He reads incessantly scientific literature, the newspapers and periodicals.

LOSES IN ACTION AGAINST TAXI FIRM

Hamilton, Dec. 9.—Douglas Chilmann's experience in county court this afternoon before Judge Snider was anything but successful. Not only did he lose his claim of $500 as damages against the Hamilton Taxi and Garage Company, but $100 as damages from Chilmann. The action was the result of an automobile accident last July at the corner of King and Hughson streets. Plaintiff claimed the defendant company was liable, but the company held the plaintiff liable. The jury decided in favor of the company, and Chilmann must pay the bill for damage done to his own and cousin's car. S. F. Wainwright, K.C., appeared for the defendant.

IMPORTED HORSES WINNERS AT GUELPH

Outside Clydesdales First at Winter Fair—Show Closes With Grand Parade.

Guelph, Dec. 9.—(Special.)—With the awarding of the championships and grand championships in the Clydesdale horse classes and the grand parade of the prize winning animals in the arena the Ontario Provincial Winter Fair came to a close at 10 o'clock tonight. It was fitting that on the closing night of this great show that there should be a large attendance, and the galleries were filled to overflowing all during the evening. The attendance this year has exceeded that of any year since 1914.

The closing hour of the fair resulted in a decided triumph for the imported Clydesdale horses. Both of the grand championships were awarded to them, although it took the four judges a considerable time to finally make a decision, and even then the crowd was pretty evenly divided.

Award to "Aberdonian." The grand championship in the stallion class was awarded to "Aberdonian," a 3-year-old, exhibited by John A. Boag & Son of Queensville, while the grand champion mare was "Hillcrest Queen," exhibited by Robert Duff and Son of Hillcrest, Ontario.

Two Wives for Markham. The championship Canadian bred Clydesdale mare was "Hillcrest Queen," exhibited by Robert Duff and Son of Hillcrest, Ontario. This mare also carries off the title of champion Canadian bred heavy draught, 2-year-old, and champion Canadian bred stallion was "Marathon's Best," a 3-year-old horse exhibited by T. H. Harsard of Markham. He also wins the Light Special, a cash prize of $25 to the grand champion Canadian bred heavy draught, 2 years and over, the prize going to stallions this year.

Following the awarding of the championships the big parade of prize winners was held, and a great effort was made to start with the heavy horses, and the others following, the slow moving parade of the prize winners. The playing of "God Save the King" by the orchestra brought the show to a close.

MOORE ASKS SQUARE DEAL FOR WORKERS

Way of Evolved Best, He Says, But Capital and Labor Need Common Ground.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 9.—An appeal for co-operation on the part of all Canadians to meet the problems between capital and labor and to face the future by preparing for evolution rather than by antagonistic methods of eventually bringing on changes of a different character featured the address of Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, to the members of the Rotary Club and their guests, including a number of labor men, here today. Mr. Moore expressed the belief that there could be a common ground to meet and a common method for the solution of all difficulties in the industrial world.

Achievement of Ideals. Given this then, could change by evolution that otherwise would come by other means, for these changes were common to all. Evolution would result in the achievement of these ideals which organized labor espoused. It was better that labor should welcome changes than force their coming by other means. He referred to the Versailles treaty as affecting labor a Labor's Magna Carta, and with reference to unemployment, he said that men out of work and hungry were apt to do things they otherwise would not do, and in conclusion appealed for a square deal for labor.

London, Ont., Dec. 9.—Between 300 and 400 unemployed veterans are walking the streets of London because employers have failed to give them the preference in case of vacancies in the city. Council has adopted the recommendation of the surveyor and the commissioners to abolish the proposed diagonal road laid out from Coxwell street north of the city limit in a north-south direction to connect with the Don Mills road west of Greenwood avenue.

In explanation of this recommendation, T. D. LeMay, city surveyor, says: "This diagonal road was originally laid down on the city's plan before the investigation of the properties through which it passed had been made. It is now found that it would pass largely thru small holdings of about five acres each in such a manner as to render them practically useless for subdivision purposes. While it might be possible with the sanction of the railway board to insist that this road be so laid out, it must be borne in mind that the owners of these various small holdings wished to subdivide, and rather than make the sacrifice, for which no provision as to compensation is made, these owners could have recourse to selling by metes and bounds and so avoid any compliance whatsoever with the city's town-planning schemes. Unless some more drastic town-planning legislation is enacted, the danger confronts the whole diagonal road system; in fact, the bulk of the roads for which provision has been made in the city's general scheme, any of which may be permanently interfered with by the sale by metes and bounds in small parcels of the lands required."

"A possible solution of this difficulty might be the granting of power to the town-planning authority in any district to condemn the lands required for streets ahead of the requirements of the city, with some provision for compensation to be open any section of the road before the owner was ready to subdivide, or in cases where it could be shown that the owner was suffering a hardship by reason of the location of the roads opened."

Mr. LeMay also contends that his department should have power to change any plan now registered where lots have not been sold, and also to retain a certain percentage of subdivided lands for public parks or playgrounds.

LETTER IMPOUNDED IN BOYD MAGEE CASE

Following its meeting yesterday in the harbor commission building, the Toronto harbor commission announced that it would issue today a statement of its position in the litigation by which Col. Boyd Magee is seeking to recover $85,000 allegedly due from the Canadian Stewart Company under a contract of November 18, 1918.

Col. Magee, in his statement of claim filed yesterday at Osgoode Hall, declares that only $5,000 of the money due him has been paid, although the contract with which it is connected has been two-thirds completed. He refers to the assigning by the Canadian Stewart company of its assets to the harbor commission, and states that his suit was precipitated by his securing that the money involved in the contract was not being held by the city for the completion of the contract but had been paid to the Stewart Company.

The letter, which is expected to be argued by Col. Magee as the agreement sustaining his suit, has been ordered impounded at Osgoode Hall by Mr. Justice Latchford.

PLANS TO ESTABLISH AIRPLANE INDUSTRY

Lieut.-Col. Robert Leckie, D.S.O., D.S.C., etc., superintendent of the operations branch of the Canadian Air Board, is registered at the King Hotel. The present plan used for commercial purposes, he says, are converted war-time machines. He is planning a campaign to establish an airplane and seaplane manufacturing industry in Canada which will turn out commercial machines of an entirely new design. With new machines there will be a big boom in commercial aviation in Canada.

W. R. Smyth, K.C., with J. F. Boland, appeared for the Toronto Hockey Club; A. C. McMaster for the bondholders and M. G. Long for the Toronto General Trusts Co. Judgment was reserved.

BIG STRIDES MADE IN DAIRY BUSINESS

Minister of Agriculture Tells Creamery Association It Should Increase Double.

NEED BETTER GRADING

A belief that the Ontario Agricultural College should be made the fountainhead and source of information to dairymen, was voiced by Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, at the banquet held in the Carle-Rite last night by the Canadian Creamery Association of Ontario, who are in convention.

The dairy building at Guelph, said Mr. Doherty, would be made possible, and the dairy department would be well in the lead of any dairy institution in North America. Dairy science was linked up with the methods in use by the producer and creamery man, and more not hope to reach the top notch in dairying, Ontario would become more and more of a dairying province, and most of our national indebtedness would be paid out of a dairy.

Dairy production in Ontario reached a total of almost $100,000,000, and there was no reason, said Mr. Doherty, why it should not increase 50 per cent. Increased production was a more important factor in the making of butter than in the past. Practically all creamery butter would be graded next year, and he gave statistics showing the advantages of grading butter, and of the importance of pasteurization.

English Prices Good. While at the London Dairy Show, in England, Mr. Doherty was surprised to find 17,000 people attended, who did not have to be amused by any showstunts, etc., that characterize our fairs. He felt that, from the viewpoint of the creamery men, butter prices in England were good, and the situation would be even better when exchange became more stabilized, Britain was going ahead, and there was no such thing as a revolution. On returning to Canada, Mr. Doherty believed that Canadians did not know what taxation meant, considering butter would be graded elsewhere, and no country, he continued, was in as good shape. Our problems were minor, was a problem, and would soon have a stable market for our dairy products.

In concluding, Doherty requested the support of the creamery men, that they and his department might co-operate for the good of the producer and the consumer.

Need Fair Price. Professor Dean of the O.A.C., in his address "An Outlook for the Future of Creamery Men," was disappointed in the prices for milk and cream during the last few months, and in the fact that many farmers were considering the sale of many of their cows. Only by making it worth while to produce, and by the pessimism be removed, and they should be paid more. Prices would thus be stimulated, and in the long run it would prove a paying investment. The consumer should be considered if a stable foundation was to be laid. Milk should be paid to quality, and people would not hesitate to pay for better butter. The advertiser dealt in the sale of cold storage butter if the flavor were to be retained, and spoke of the fact that the best flavor was due to a bacteria condition.

Professor A. R. Morgan of Iowa State College spoke briefly, mentioning that a patent was pending in Canada by which carbonic acid gas would be used in destroying what bacteria remained after pasteurization, and would minimize oxidation and off-flavor.

An interesting address on methods which would eliminate undesirable flavors and increase the keeping qualities of butter was given by Prof. G. F. Hunsicker, B.S.A., M.S.A., of the Blue Valley Creamery Co. of Chicago.

Prof. Hummel dealt in detail with pasteurization and the effect of copper salts in solution on the flavor of butter, if by faulty on the part of the manufacturer, they were allowed to mix with the cream.

COMMITTEE TO EXTEND RELIEF

Manufacturers' Association, Trades and Labor Council, soldiers' organizations, as well as members of parliament and members of the city council.

Controller Maguire opened the meeting in the presence of Mayor Church who was attending a meeting of the harbor board, but who arrived in time to conduct the main proceedings. His worship said his idea was that the various bodies of the city should organize a drive for the creation of the jobs for those in need, and he believed the employers of labor were willing to co-operate. The necessity of providing immediate relief, however, was emphasized by representatives of the labor and soldiers' organizations, and the discussion turned to the prospects of getting money grants from the governments and from the city.

Controller Cameron said time would be saved by assuming that a case had been made. There was a great deal of unemployment. The meeting should be confined to suggestions for improvements.

Start New Works.

Mayor Church said there were a great body of the civil population out of work as well as soldiers. He proposed to open up 250 more jobs for them at the city hall to list Toronto men out of work. He also proposed to ask the Dominion government to begin work that they have on foot in Toronto.

The harbor commission, said the mayor, were prepared to hurry along their program and give jobs soon to a couple of hundred men, and the city would find about 250 more jobs for returned men in the first and police department. He suggested that the building at the southwest corner of King and Church streets be taken over as headquarters from which to organize a big drive for jobs.

Offer Services Free.

Capt. McMillen, of the Salvation Army, said letters had been received from employers all over the city saying that it was absolutely impossible for them to take on more men. The labor situation was very bad. He did not believe anything could be gained by enlarging the organization for the handling of the unemployed. The Salvation Army had an organization for such a purpose and would be glad to put it at the service of the city if funds for the relief were made available. If the city could supply the accommodations, the Salvation Army would man it free of charge.

W. F. Maclean, M.P., thought the first move should be to make a list of all possible sources of employment. The Dominion and the provincial governments should find some work; also the new transportation commission, the city council, and the members of parliament would do their best to get the government in action.

Work Charity Than Charity.

Ex-Controller Sam McBride said council could possibly get the arena at the exhibition started, and some work might be possible on the large building program which the school board had in hand. He believed the people wanted work rather than charity.

Harry Flynn, of the G.A.U.V., said the last speaker was quite right. Charity was not wanted, but under present urgent conditions there was need of both work and charity, as many men were already without food. He saw no reason why some definite measure of relief could not be forthcoming from the meeting. A fund should be raised, and he suggested a donation of $300,000 from the federal government, $150,000 from the provincial government and $50,000 from the city for the relief of unemployed soldiers.

Would Reduce Hours.

W. W. Parry, of the G.W.V.A., declared that the onus was on the meeting to see that the hungry were fed. A fund would have to be made up at once. There was no need of an employment bureau at the city hall. It would merely overlap the work of the provincial government bureau. He suggested that the hours of those now employed be reduced to give some work to those who have none.

Mayor Church then suggested that a committee be sent to Ottawa at once to lay the situation before the government. While names were being suggested for the deputation, Sam McBride got the floor and attacked the idea. He thought that fewer deputations and more direct help would be in order. Members of parliament were prepared to bring pressure to bear at Ottawa and the money that might be spent by the city in sending a large deputation would do a lot of good where it was needed. There were many works which the city had on hand, including the erection of $200,000 worth of buildings in the parks. There were other ways in which the city could provide work.

Immediate Relief.

Con. Ramsden felt that no soldiers' families should go hungry or unemployed in the city. He believed the citizens did not desire that they should, and the members of the board of control had not been unkind of the interests of soldiers.

The board, he said, had already agreed to help those in immediate need.

Controller Cameron also said the city would take care of the immediate requirements, but suggestions were required to meet the labor situation.

H. C. Hocken, M.P., said he knew the government was prepared to act in a generous manner. The premier was already impressed with the situation, and Mr. Hocken did not think anything would be gained by sending a deputation to Ottawa.

Mrs. Ald. Hamilton then moved, seconded by Harry Flynn, that a general committee be appointed to take charge, made up of two representatives from each of the following bodies: Salvation Army, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, trades and labor council, board of trade, manufacturers' association, health department and the Ontario employment bureau.

President Merrick, on the board of trade, admitted the situation was serious and his organization endorsed the proposal to afford immediate relief.

Cut Down Hours of Labor.

A. Mance, of the trades and labor council, said that 30 to 40 per cent. of the working staff of the city had returned last night. He felt that hours of labor should be cut down so that some of those out of work could be taken back, and he thought employers should cease laying off men even if it meant a loss. He believed a terrible situation would develop in another three weeks if things were allowed to drift as they had in the last three weeks.

T. W. Hollinrake, chairman of the Toronto branch of the C.M.A., supported the idea that shorter time should be resorted to rather than laying off part of the staff. He suggested that a start be made on some of the buildings which are needed at the Exhibition grounds.

It was said that the C.M.A. had already sent an appeal to the province urging that workers in the factories should not be laid off where at all avoidable. But that when a decrease of production was necessary, it should be effected by closing down for half days or whole days rather than by a reduction of hours on the day's work, thus minimizing factory disorganization.

Sources of Employment.

John Doggett, of the Building Trades Council, offered the following suggestions of possible sources of employment for the unemployed: New customs house, harbor improvements, new rolling stock for the National Railways, completion of the two government ships, Hydro-Electric radials, and new cars for the park, new office building in Queen's Park for the provincial government, provincial hospital, city extensions by the transportation commission, 2,000 houses by the housing commission, new university buildings.

Mr. Maguire said the limit to house and feed those in actual need, and he believed the Dominion government would make a grant and let the municipalities distribute it. There should be a consolidation of the effort of the city to help and provide work.

Not Ex-Soldiers Alone.

Mr. Flynn then asked that the $50,000 to be voted by the city should be turned over to the soldiers' organization to distribute.

Controller Gibbons approved of the grant of $50,000 and hoped the provincial government would allow this sum to be granted to the city.

There were many others in need besides soldiers, and he believed the feeling of the citizens was that both soldiers and civilians in need should be helped. The entire distribution of aid should be under one organization.

William Varley of the Trades and Labor Council said that in normal times 25,000 men were directly employed in the building trades in Toronto, and he believed things would not right themselves until these men got back to work. About 10,000 others had spoken the meeting adjourned. The general committee will meet at 11 o'clock today.

TURKS SIGN PACT WITH ARMENIANS

Sanain, frontier railway station between the republics of Georgia and Armenia.

By the terms of the armistice, the Sanain despatch, dated Dec. 4, said a neutral zone about 85 miles long had been provided for between Sanain and Alaguez, the second highest mountain in Armenia and 34 miles north-west of Erivan, the Armenian capital.

Other boundaries were unknown in Sanain, it was stated. A commission of three Turks and three Armenians to control the neutral area, were to have arrived Dec. 8, it was added.

The territory in the neutral zone includes the important Armenian city of Alexandropol and Karakliss, Hamamioo, Dehjan, Besh-Abara, Akhta, Khoroun, Bandamal, and a score of other towns.

Under the armistice terms, the Sanain message said, 11 troops except officers and six soldiers in Karakliss are to withdraw 11 miles from the zone. Refugees are permitted to return into the area, but it is unknown whether any guarantee of their safety had been provided. The Armenians under the armistice were to deliver to the Turks 2,000 rifles, 60 machine guns, two locomotives and 500 cars.

The report has been confirmed, it was added, that the Turks were massacring the inhabitants of two villages near Hamamioo in alleged reprisal for the killing of two Turkish soldiers by civilians. No other massacring was reported.

Hears Threat to Haul Down British Flag in San Diego

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 9.—Major G. H. Gerard, British vice-consul, announced today that the learned of the consulate had hauled down the British flag over his office in a down-town office building. Major Gerard, on Nov. 22, announced that he had received a threatened letter, signed "Amalgamated Irish Societies of America and J. V. O'Connell," ally fit returned men and other unemployed workmen. The disabled or partly disabled returned soldier must and will continue to receive special attention.

MINISTER OF LABOR DEFINES POSITION

Business Contraction Foreseen. In opening, the statement sets forth that the government has been kept closely informed respecting the problem of unemployment and has done all possible to provide against the foreseen inevitable contraction in business. The employment service of Canada, carried on co-operatively by federal and provincial authorities, has, it is stated, secured employment for more than 600,000 men and women since March, 1919.

Up to September 1920, labor in Canada was well absorbed. Toronto, Victoria and Vancouver were the only points where unemployment was complained of," continues the statement. "At these three places employment outside the city, at good wages, was offered during September and October for 3,400 men, with practically no response. Since that time the situation is changed, in that men engaged in seasonal occupations or who lost their employment through the contraction of industry, have taken the outside employment offered, so that the opportunities of two months ago are no longer available."

Public Works Program.

The statement reviews briefly what the federal government has done to try and improve the situation. The reopening of work on the Welland Canal in 1918 gave, it says, employment to between two and three thousand workmen. The extension back of the shipbuilding program employed some 60,000 men. In the industrial workers has been restricted to a minimum and 3,600 requests for skilled workers, filed by Canadian employers in 1919, during the immigration since January last, have been refused. Wherever possible, home labor is being utilized. Many employers are retaining as many of their men as possible in the manufacturing stocks, the sale of which is uncertain, rather than cut down staff.

The statement draws attention to the fact that the purchase of Canadian-made articles will help reduce unemployment. "If every citizen will do his or her part in giving employment wherever and when possible," it closes, "and will purchase only the product of Canadian labor where obtainable, the unemployment problem will be minimized."

BEGS DELEGATES TO CUT REMARKS

by the growing expenses of the league and the international labor bureau, accepted the Canadian view.

The Canadians argued it was preferable to work with temporary commission where they were only until it is possible to see more clearly just what may be done with specialized organizations.

The prospects of a prolonged stay in Geneva were not bright, however, the delegates and officials of the assembly. The members of the delegations are making every effort in committees to bring about a settlement of their work, but with little success thus far. After two days spent entirely upon the report of the technical commission, the members of the assembly today made a request to appeal to the delegates to cut their remarks short.

President Hyman held over the lead with a grant of 450,000 francs of two sessions daily and advancing the hour of the morning session by half an hour. A number of the delegates have arranged to leave Geneva Friday or Saturday of next week. Meanwhile, there remains to be disposed of the report of the committee on the admission of new states and also disarmament, besides a number of smaller questions.

Admission of States.

The admission of Bulgaria to the League of Nations was voted by the commission on the admission of new states. This action was taken after a report by the marshal declared that Bulgaria had made sincere efforts to live up to the treaty terms.

Even the "little entente" countries, which had been strong in their opposition to Bulgaria, voted for her admission. The commission also decided to permit Armenia, Albania and Georgia to participate in the League of Nations, but Lithuania, Liechtenstein was refused admission, but will be allowed representation in the league by Switzerland.

The Baltic states were not admitted, and the only remaining question is the disposition of Lithuania.

France refrained from voting on the question of Bulgaria, but the commission in order to be consistent in her opposition to German membership.

The budget commission decided that all financial questions shall go to the experts in the report to the next assembly.

Dr. Gaston da Cunha, Brazil, had introduced another scheme for compulsory arbitration by the international court of justice. It provides that compulsory jurisdiction shall apply to all states whose parliaments so decide.

BIG PUBLIC WORKS, DEMAND OF LABOR

radial lines, powerhouses, work shops, and car barns, construction of office building in Queen's Park to house the various government departments, at present crowded from the parliament buildings, construction of a provincial hospital for medical and surgical treatment for provincial poor, the erection of a number of cottages for aged and needy married couples of the province.

Municipal works—Erection of public buildings in the city parks as provided for in the parks commissioner's estimates; erection of school buildings required for accommodation of children, commencement by the transportation commission of the work necessary for the city's giving satisfactory service when it assumes control of the T.S.R.; commencement of the constructive and building programs of the harbor commission, the Hydro commission, Toronto University, the separate school board, the exhibition board, and the board of control.

Del. Doggett's resolution also sought the inauguration of unemployed army sickness insurance and the extension by the provincial government for another year of the Moratorium bill.

Favors Demonstrations.

"It is one thing to pass resolutions and another thing to force the hand of the government," declared Del. Lyons, after the resolution had been carried. He believed that the unemployed should conduct demonstrations to support their agitation.

Delegate, R. Russell moved the petitioning of the government to exclude all immigrants until the present crisis had passed. It referred particularly, he stated, to the Asiatic, who was the greatest menace of the Canadian worker.

"Are you going to let the yellow races come over here and supplant the labor of the white man?" he demanded of the gathering.

"No! No!" shouted several delegates after which the motion was sustained by a vote of 45 to 15.

Delegates Peel and Jack McDonald seized the opportunity offered by the meeting to propound the doctrine that the present crisis is wholly the result of the capitalist class, and they urged the worker to use all means in his power to seize control of the social order. Delegate Peel introduced the following motion, which secured endorsement and read in part:

Call it Artificial Crisis. "Whereas the present unemployment is not due to the failure of crops, epidemics or war, but is wholly an artificial crisis brought about by the prevailing mode of capitalistic production, haphazard and anarchical in character, be it resolved that the federal and provincial governments co-operate to immediately supply the needs of every unemployed man and woman, and be it further resolved that we urge the labor movement and all unorganized workers to prepare in every legitimate and intelligent way for the taking over of the industries of Canada. We declare that we are absolutely so justified in submitting to unemployment and the reduction of wages except thru the absence of their unity amongst us and we are resolved to agitate, protest and arouse the propertyless wage slaves to Dominion-wide action in order that all present states of affairs shall cease."

Delegate Jack McDonald declared in support of the resolution, "I am not worrying about work, I want money to live on. If the capitalist class finds that we must have this money, they will find work for us."

Appoint Committee. Following the delegate's outbreak, the sentiment of the meeting recalled subsequent speakers to the immediate issue and it was decided to leave the prosecution of the resolutions which had been passed in the hands of an executive committee of ten members.

Upon the motion of Delegate Berleigh, of the Postal Clerks' Union, he was further decided to request the postmaster-general that only genuine unemployed be hired for the Christmas mail rush.

The following labor members will attend the unemployment conference this morning at the city hall: Messrs. R. Russell, A. W. Mance, J. McDonald and J. Doggett.

20,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW TAKING ASPROLAX

New Scientific Discovery Is Rapidly Becoming Sensation of the Drug Trade Throughout Canada.

BREAKS UP A COLD BY REMOVING CAUSE

Thousands Using It With Gratifying Results—Great Superiority Over Ordinary Remedies Clearly Demonstrated.

Remarkable as it may seem, over 20,000 people in Toronto and vicinity are now taking Asprolox, the new scientific treatment for colds, which is rapidly becoming the sensation of the drug trade throughout Canada.

The great superiority of Asprolox over the ordinary remedies heretofore prescribed has been clearly demonstrated, and people everywhere have been quick to recognize it as a preparation of remarkable merit.

The Lyman Brothers Drug Co., Ltd., have just placed their third order for one hundred gross, or 14,000 bottles, to supply the drug trade in this immediate territory, and it is with difficulty that the manufacturers have been able to supply the large and rapidly growing demand.

The phenomenal success of the preparation can be readily explained by the fact that it is a real specific and breaks up a cold by removing the cause, while the great majority of the present day remedies relieve the symptoms only. Thousands of people who have used Asprolox state that it is almost magical in its effect, and are recommending it to their friends.

Asprolox is a combination treatment, and acts as an antipyretic, which reduces the fever; an expectorant, which loosens the phlegm, relieves the congestion and stops the cough; a laxative which opens the bowels, and an antiseptic, which retards germ growth and prevents the spread of the infection.

If you are suffering from a cold go to your nearest drug store and get a bottle of Asprolox. Open it on the spot; take one teaspoonful, repeat the dose in one hour and again in two hours. If, by the time you have taken the third dose you are surprised and delighted, take the bottle back and your money will be refunded without question.

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious complications, such as lung trouble and pneumonia. Only one bottle of Asprolox is usually sufficient to break up the most obstinate cold.

BECK SEES MEIGHEN, SAY RADIALS DISCUSSED

Ottawa, Dec. 9.—Sir Adam Beck, accompanied by Col. McInnes, K.C., Hamilton, is in Ottawa this morning, shortly before noon conferred with Premier Meighen. Questioned regarding the object of his visit, Sir Adam said: "One thing I came to see Mr. Carvell, chairman of the railway commission, with regard to the arbitration on the London and Port Stanley Railway. I also want to pay my respects to everybody." Sir Adam declined to state on what subject he was conferring with the premier.

It was noted, however, that shortly after he was ushered into the premier's office, Hon. Dr. Reid appeared. The minister stated that he did not know of Sir Adam's presence in Ottawa.

It is believed that the deputation of two are here for a tentative discussion regarding the future acquisition of radial lines of the Canadian National in Ontario.

If He Died—The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some such statement made about a particular business?

It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died creditors might become anxious, inquisitive, or even troublesome, or any one of many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business,—

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm.

It is possible to so insure "his" life that the storm can be easily weathered and the business successfully carried on without him.

The matter is very clearly dealt with in a book we have published, entitled "Personality in Business." It would be well worth your while to send for a copy and read it. You may have one for the asking.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 10.

North Toronto Secession.

Secession in North Toronto is so little of an issue that there is grave danger of a vote in its favor being allowed to go by default. The real and almost only grievance North Toronto has had is the annoyance of the system or lack of system of transportation now prevailing. The purchase of the Mackenzie electric and radial properties solves this problem, and just as soon as the purchase has been validated by the citizens and the shareholders, a transfer system should be established to the city lines, and the city street railway extended to St. Clair avenue. With a civic transfer, North Toronto passengers could use the Avenue Road line to go downtown until the Yonge street line had been extended to St. Clair. The city council or the city engineer or the new commission should at once announce this as the policy to be followed just as soon as the Metropolitan line comes under civic control. Then the last real grievance will be removed from North Toronto.

Now that the secession vote is to be taken the city should have a care to make it clear to North Toronto voters what an act of folly it would be to withdraw from the city on the eve of the abolition of the double fare, and the establishment of universal transfers. There is not a word to be said in favor of perpetuating the double fare and so isolating North Toronto from the rest of the city. Yet this is what would follow secession. The residents would continue to pay two fares to the end of the chapter, and the whole northern district would remain as a stagnant area while the rest of Toronto went ahead. It will be found that this is exactly what those who are supporting secession desire. They are interested for one reason or another in the development of other parts of the city, and to this end would fence off North Toronto with a double car fare.

Every North Toronto voter who wants to get to the city on a single car fare and who wishes to see this part of the city develop like Parkdale or the Junction or Earlscourt or Danforth, should make it his or her business to turn out and vote against secession on New Year's Day, and in the meantime do all that he can to arouse his neighbors to the necessity of having this menace to the prosperity of North Toronto decisively resisted.

The President and the Philippines.

President Wilson's recommendation to congress to grant the Philippines their independence will awaken only languid interest outside of the Philippine Islands. The congress, now on its deathbed, would scarcely take a step so far-reaching both from a domestic and an international standpoint, and neither the newly-elected congress nor the incoming administration have any mandate from the people to part with the Philippines. It is true that if the entire archipelago disappeared under the waves of the ocean never to rise again, it would be a great relief to the government and people of the United States, but for all that there is a natural reluctance to part with them. One reason, of course, is the almost absolute certainty of their being annexed by Japan.

Every 4th of July the Filipino congress, by a standing vote, adopts a Declaration of Independence, closely modeled upon the historic document of 1776. Mr. Taft, who ought to know, says that a good deal of the independence talk is political bunkum. Yet it must be popular or the politicians would not vie with each other in harping on this particular string.

The Americans have little facility for dealing with semi-civilized people. Their strong prejudice against people of color causes the army of occupation to treat even the most intelligent and highly educated natives with galling contempt. They are also handicapped and will be more than ever handicapped in the future by the ever-spreading dominance of the national constitution. It is idle to say that the Philippines have the same measure of self-government as Canadians when, by constitutional amendment and congressional legislation, they have settled for them by an external power such essentially domestic problems as prohibition, female suffrage, and the observance of Sunday.

True, the United States might deal with the Philippines as they did with Cuba, reserving the right to land troops for the preservation of order and a controlling voice in foreign affairs, but that would take nothing from Uncle Sam's responsibility while it would take something from his prestige and power. Wishing them on the League of Nations seems an easy way out, but the Filipinos are demanding independence. More than one ambitious politician among the little brown brothers looks eagerly forward to becoming a president, more than one dark-eyed signorita has already made up her mind to be "the first lady of the land."

How Many Oats Make a Meal?

Our neighbor, The Star, is good enough to observe:
Many people in Toronto could trade a peck of oats for a meal that would please them.

A glance at the market column shows that Ontario oats are selling in Toronto at from 50 to 55 cents per bushel, and there being four pecks to a bushel, we are faced with the problem of what a man can get by way of a meal in Toronto for 13 cents. We fear not a great deal. A peck of oats would be quite a help to a hungry horse, but it would not go very far toward satisfying a hungry man, if he seeks to trade it for a meal that would please him.

The man with the oats, we take it for granted, wants a meal ready prepared, i.e. he must go to a restaurant. Until a few days ago ten of his thirteen cents would have been absorbed by the purchase of one cup of coffee. The remaining three cents would have been of no use to him. Today he might get a cup of coffee and some bread and butter for his peck of oats, but nothing more.

Prices of food to the consumer have not declined to anything like the extent a good many people imagine, and many elements over and above the cost of the food go into the price of a meal. A railway company, for example, cannot serve meals to passengers as cheaply on a train as it can in a hotel, and we all remember the controversy that arose over the food controller paying four dollars for a dinner on a dining car. Our own impression is that if Mr. Marshall will dispense with a certain amount of service and with a certain number of accessories, that he can get a substantial and satisfying meal in Toronto for a good deal less than seven bushels of oats—let us say for one Canadian dollar.

Nor is much to be gained by figuring out how many pounds of coal, how many pounds of pig iron, or how many pounds of paper you could buy for the money you pay for a meal. The meal at the time is the thing that you want. It might be well and highly desirable for every person to have a copy of the Bible, but that is no reason why a man should be deprived of his breakfast. What Mr. Marshall paid for his meal in Toronto would have paid his subscription for six months of a daily paper, but that again is irrelevant. Indeed, nearly all these comparisons of unlike things as to they were alike tickle the ear rather than enlighten the mind.

Work for Unemployed.

Without doubt the number of unemployed men and women is greater in Toronto today than it has been for some years. All the unemployed of the city were not present in the demonstration of Wednesday, and it is clearly evident that the situation is serious enough to call for immediate action on the part of those who can help rather than for doctrinaire orations calculated to suggest remedies rather than to provide them.

We are not in the midst of a period of industrial depression to which there is no end in sight. Commodity values are being readjusted to conform with a lessening of purchasing power. The movement has been well under way for some time and will, perhaps, continue a little while longer in some lines of trade. But the end is in sight and the providing of work for the unemployed will hurry its arrival.

Toronto is at the outset of a new era of development. The power clean-up of the other day was the first step in that direction. It will have to be followed by other steps which entail sufficient construction to employ many hundreds of men, and there is no good reason why those steps should be delayed. This is the time to get that work going, even if the weather is to some extent against it. We are promised an open winter. If the promise is realized, so much the better. In any case there is now much public work calling for the doing that can well be gone ahead with, and private interests that have work to be done will be performing a patriotic service and assisting the return of better business conditions by starting it now, when the need is urgent.

Remark in Passing.

It appears that Mr. Drury is out to kill forever the popular impression that a

"I wonder was the fuel controller laughing at me or with me when he said to conserve coal."

civil servant's job is work in a Pickwickian sense.

Well, no one can say that Sir George Foster at the League of Nations is not a first-class ad. for this country.

Constantine complains that Lloyd George is "most unfriendly" towards him. Well, did Constantine expect a unanimous vote of gratitude from the allies when he was working heart and soul to defeat them?

United States is objecting to the entry into that country of immigrants that have been refused admission to Canada as undesirable. Now if they could only be disguised as bottles of whiskey they might be different.

The president of the League of Nations desires the delegates to talk less and get on with business. It is to be noted this was after Mr. N. W. Rowell had told them a thing or two.

A newspaper headline admonishes us to "Ho for greater Toronto." Most of us with families are kept fairly busy hoeing for little Toronto and its fairly big tax rate.

Another year of the campaign which Mayor Church has been waging in the last month ought to teach the school trustees the value of money.

The T. S. R. wants to go ahead with the arbitration with the city at once. R. J. seems to have been bitten by the "clean-up" bug himself.

There was once a popular impression that the J. L. Hughes' influence had been satisfactorily weaned from the management of Toronto's school affairs, but seemingly it was not possible.

Rhyming Views On Daily News
By GEORGE H. DIXON.

A new idea is the rage; it is to banish old age; to keep folks young and in their prime; to never show effects of time. The Ontopaths now think, forsooth, they have a scheme to keep our youth with stuff that they call endocrine, which makes you look like sweet sixteen. Thus feeble dames and aged men may now become as kids again, while patriarchs will jump with joy and carry on just like a boy. Our maiden aunts of ancient style will once again have cause to smile, because if what we hear is true, the old ones will be made as new. Just see Aladdin and his lamp—each one will look a baby vamp. This endocrine, to tell the truth, is said to make for leading youth, and Ontopaths in session now have got a scheme by which they vow that age and feebleness will go, along with hair as white as snow. We'll all stay kids forevermore until we reach that "shining shore."

ALBERTA LANDS SALES BRING MONEY TO OTTAWA

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 9.—The total proceeds from the recent school land sales throughout the province are now announced by the department of education as $2,049,153. This represents an aggregate of 115,808 acres of wild land, which sold at from $7 to $70 an acre, with an average of $17.15. The entire proceeds of the sales go to Ottawa and will be administered as part of the school trust fund, interest at five per cent, being credited to the province for educational purposes.

EMBARGO ON WOOL URGED ON CONGRESS

Industry Threatens to Collapse Because of Competition, is Plea.

Washington, Dec. 9.—An embargo on wool sheep importation into the United States was urged before the House ways and means and the Senate agricultural committees today by representatives of the wool growers. Such legislation was necessary, they said, to save a great industry threatened by the collapse of the wool and sheep markets.

"There is now in storage in the United States 958,000,000 pounds of wool," said Dr. S. W. McLure, representing the National Wool Growers' Association, "enough for two years' supply."

Wool imported from the Argentine, he added, is selling in the United States at 9 cents a pound, while it costs the domestic producer 6 cents a pound to market his products. He estimated that 95 per cent of this year's clip in the United States was unsold.

Demand Protection. Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 9.—Resolutions favoring an immediate embargo on wool and wool products, and the levying of an import duty sufficient to equalize the cost of production in the United States with that of countries whence importation is made, were adopted at the closing session today of the convention of the United Stock Growers' Association, which was attended by representatives from 12 western states.

Mrs. MacSwiney Testifies Before Committee of 100

Washington, Dec. 9.—The widow of the late lord mayor of Cork, Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, presented today to the "committee of 100" her story of the hunger strike in Brixton prison, London, of her husband and of his death, and the details as she had witnessed them gain political independence for Ireland.

THE TORONTO WORLD The Toronto World's Weekly Novel

THE WOO-FOO BALL By C. C. HOTCHKISS. Copyright, 1920.

Continued From Yesterday's World. "You are shrewd, sir," he said, with an open smile, "shrewd, with the shrewdness of your kind, but awkward, coarse and without true finesse. You evidently think I am an infant in intellect, but you should know me better by this time, and that conceit of mine amounts almost to an insult. Listen, sir. One small crystal of cyanide of potassium, previously dissolved in this glass, would allow you to triumph over me, were I to drink it. Your plan was fairly good, but you did not count on my knowledge of chemistry. I read your pretended emotion, your nervousness and nervous tension. You did not know that I had a small quantity of cyanide of potassium dissolved in this glass, and you did not know that I had a small quantity of cyanide of potassium dissolved in this glass, and you did not know that I had a small quantity of cyanide of potassium dissolved in this glass."

CHAPTER XVI. Besieged. Time passed. The two exchanged glances, and in a few words as possible Laurens told what had happened and what were his hopes. The girl clung to him, and a woman clings only to the man she loves, and Laurens, realizing that kisses make poor food for a starving man, he kissed her forehead, and when she would have kissed him he kissed her on the lips.

CHAPTER XVII. Success. BEFORE the mandarin was more than a few minutes away from the young man had leaped from his room and was upon him. Chow Tzu opened his eyes, and saw a man with a gleam of sudden intelligence; he evidently saw the trap into which he had fallen, and he was not slow to make an effort to shout, but Laurens clapped his hand over his thick mouth, and forced him to be quiet. He was not slow to comprehend that something was wrong with him, for he uttered a Chinese word, the meaning of which was, "an unmistakable change already on your face. But he did not reach it. His time had come—and so had Laurens."

Continued Tomorrow Morning. "Tell him that his master, Chow Tzu, is dead; that he cannot come down. Tell him I boss the cabin and will shoot the first man who tries to break in. Saboteur!" The boy evidently understood, for he nodded and went away in a daze, leaving Laurens absolutely unattainable to Laurens but having a faint notion of a man who looked as established as a Chinaman can.

"Oh! This Shopping"

"I certainly gets on my nerves. I come home all fagged out, and nearly always have a splitting headache. 'Yes, they say we women always like shopping. But if everybody feels as tired out afterwards as I do, it is no joke. 'I wonder if it is my nerves. I never could stand much sightseeing, anyway. The strain on the eyes seems to exhaust the whole system. 'I suppose I shall not be able to sleep to-night, and that will put me in fine condition for to-morrow. 'Why don't somebody invent a good medicine for the nerves? 'But what was that Mrs. Cray was telling me about? I believe it was Nerve Food—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I have heard so many talking about the way this Nerve Food helped them that I must give it a trial. And this is what Mrs. Cray of 515 Cedar street, Peterboro', Ont., writes about her experience with this well-known treatment for the nerves: 'I was suffering from a rundown condition of the system, nervous debility and sleeplessness. I lost a good many nights' sleep, and sometimes after going to sleep would wake up with a start, and then lie awake for hours. I also had frequent headaches and pains through my back. I got so that I could hardly do any work. I had taken doctor's medicine, but it did not seem to help me. Through reading in the newspapers of the help others had derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I started taking this medicine. The first box helped me, so I continued, taking about five or six boxes. I found that I was a great deal better, able to sleep well and do my work without trouble. My headaches and nervousness are gone. My mother lives with me, and she has also found great benefit from the use of the Nerve Food. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for nervous trouble of any kind. If you could only read the letters which come to this office from day to day telling of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is doing for women, and men, too, in all parts of Canada, you would not be long in doubt as to the most satisfactory treatment for tired bodies and exhausted nerves. All we can do is to pass along the good words by publishing an occasional letter. It remains for you to benefit by using this blood and nerve builder to restore energy and vitality to your exhausted system. You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto, at 50 cents a box. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. The girl was the ghost of her old self. White

JAPAN FEELING BUSINESS SLUMP

Silk Exporter Thinks Prices Are Near Bottom and Sees Better Times.

"Business and industry has slumped all over the world. Conditions are universally bad, but as I see it the situation is now at its worst and any change which takes place should be for the better."

This was the way in which L. Lazarus, big importer and exporter, of Kobe, Japan, summed up the present industrial situation when interviewed by The World at the King Edward Hotel last night.

Japan has been hard hit, probably more than most countries, because its great export commodity, silk, is almost entirely off the export market," he said.

"On other lines, Japan is also suffering a trade depression. The rate of exchange is so high in Japan's favor that other countries are not buying. If you buy goods in this country now you have to pay fifty per cent. of the price of the goods over again in exchange differences."

Mr. Lazarus, however, struck a more cheerful note when he declared that Japanese banking institutions were looking for brighter times in the near future. "I think that is evidenced by the fact that they are carrying millions of dollars in silk. They realize that prices are now at rock bottom and that any change must be upward."

He don't think you can look for much lower prices for silk than at present, but will continue to do so. People are holding off from buying with the idea of waiting for a price advance, but thousands are going to be thrown out of work in consequence. So much of everything was wasted during the war that it will take years for the country to get back to normal.

HOCKEY MORE PRACTICES

ALL WANT CRACK AT JUNIOR TROPHY

Four Challenges Are in Senior Teams at Practice—Gossip.

Only one game has been arranged so far in the Junior S. P. A. series when Aurn Lee's teams, Parkdale and U.S. last year, will take on Varsity on Wednesday evening. The O.H.A. have four challenges, but owing to the lateness of the start it may be necessary to curtail the series. St. Michael's and Moose A. C. are next in line with challenges. They may be accommodated. De La Salle and Parkdale have also challenged for the trophy.

Canadians have traded Matte and Proders to Hamilton for Mummy and McDonald.

Varsity juniors had their first workout of the season at the Arena yesterday. Only Grey and Walters of last year's team are available this year but 40 rookies are expected to make the team. About thirty were out yesterday and twenty-eight new ones will have a whirl on Monday.

Jack Sullivan, the crack center with U.S. last year, was out yesterday but is trying for a place with the seniors. He should make the O.H.A. or intercollegiate teams.

Jack Nettfield and Taylor, two former U.S. players, are trying for a place on the Varsity junior team. Pearson from Stayer's juniors is a good looking boy. Smith from Trinity College is another likely looking boy.

Eddie Powers has been engaged to coach the Port Colborne intermediates.

Mr. Taylor, former Varsity forward, and originally from Ottawa, has been appointed manager of the Arena by the receiver.

Jack Cain practiced with both Aurn Lee and Grantie last night, and nobody knows just where he will land. Aurns are also casting eyes at him.

The senior workouts last night failed to unearth any new outstanding players. Grantie had a red-hot practice with two teams lined up, and the changes made were enough to keep the boys going at top speed. Some of the candidates put so much spirit into the contest that even went so far as to hand out a few body jolts. Romeril and Munro are in great shape and went the full route last night. Aurn is still heavy, but is putting every ounce into the fray and won't be long before he can step the full hour.

McCaffery was out again last night and was Munro's partner on one defence. The right wing job is the one that is both a try-out and a street club. Bev. Garrett and Lee Rennie are two of the candidates for this job. Harry Watson is going fast right.

Aurn Lee practiced with a lively practice. It was confined to the senior candidates and a line-up practice gave them a good useful work. Cain and Westman were accurate in the job. Stewart and Connacher were working smoothly together. Charlie Stewart arrived at the rink too late to take in the practice. Rutherford is up and about, and will practice tonight.

The playing certificates will be issued to the clubs of the eastern City Hockey League at the meeting to be held tonight at St. Francis Club. All teams are requested to have representatives present.

The groups are well filled with the exception of Mercantile and Senior and the officers are trying to secure clubs for these sections. The clubs report they have plenty of high-class material slated for a try-out, and are only waiting for the cold weather and the parks to get the rinks in shape.

Last year the league was fortunate in securing a high-class board of referees. They are endeavoring to secure the same for this season and anyone willing to officiate in the league can make application to the secretary, Bert N. Brydon, 60 Churchill avenue.

The following clubs are members: Commercial, Toronto Carpet Co. Business Systems.

Senior: Diamonds, Wesley-Bellwoods, Victoria, Presbyterian Church, Intermediates: St. Anthony G. O. F., R.C.D., Vermonde, St. Helens, Beavers, Runnymede A. C.

Juvenile: St. Helens, Vermonde, Wychood-Crescents, St. Clare's, St. Anthony, Kensington, Runnymede A. C., St. Mary's-Magdiene, Moose, Allenby, Delawares, St. Olives, Grace, Wychood-Crescents, Patriotas.

Junior: St. Francis, St. Olives, Orlov, Wesley-Bellwoods, Runnymede A. C., Wychood-Crescents.

The Toronto Amateur Hockey Association is ready to receive applications for membership. The Toronto Hockey League holds its second general meeting next Wednesday night at Labor Temple, when all clubs desiring to join must have their applications on file. The teams will be grouped and convenor appointed for the 1921-22 season.

Boston is to have a big new arena ready for the 1921-22 season.

Today May Tell Who's Who in Arena Gardens

It is expected that Mr. Justice Latchford will hand down his decision today declaring who's who in the Arena controversy. The effort of the Toronto Hockey Club to have set aside the order of Justice Middleton, appointing a receiver for the Arena, was argued yesterday before Justice Latchford at Osgoode Hall. W. R. Smyth, K.C., with J. F. Boland, appeared for the Toronto Hockey Club; A. C. McMaster for the bondholders, and E. G. Long for the Toronto General Trusts Co. Judgment was reserved, but upon the argument Justice Latchford declared that he could not see how the position of the Toronto Hockey Club as a creditor could be prejudiced by the appointment of a receiver. It might be prejudiced as a contractor with Perry Quinn for exclusive professional rights. During the argument, Justice Latchford, in reply to a suggestion from Mr. Smyth, intimating that he had no love for the slaughter of the game, and that he had not seen a game for ten or eleven years.

For Snap-Back Rules

The Canadian Rugby Football Union rules commission meets on Saturday in Kingston to discuss the revision of the rules. It is a possibility that the side scrummers will be eliminated and also the flying wing which would, of course, mean the restoration of the snap-back system that was the vogue and now in operation in western Canada. This would not necessarily mean American college football, which does not allow scoring single points and tolerates the freak basketball feature, the forward pass.

TWO ARE APPOINTED TO THE EXECUTIVE

Jim Sutherland and Wylie Wilkinson Added to the O. H. A. List.

Acting upon the authority conferred upon him by the constitution, Albert E. Copeland, Midland, president of the O. H. A., yesterday appointed James T. Sutherland, Kingston, and E. Wylie Wilkinson, Galt, to the executive committee of the Ontario Hockey Association.

Mr. Copeland said that one of the reasons for the appointment of Mr. Sutherland was because he had always felt that Kingston man was entitled to at least another year on the executive on account of the fact that the greater portion of his two years as executive chief of the O. H. A. was spent overseas in the Canadian army. In addition Mr. Sutherland represents the eastern section of the province.

Mr. Wilkinson is one of the leading young sportsmen of Galt and has marked executive ability.

These appointments complete the executive, which will be as follows: Immediate past president, R. M. Glover, Peterboro; president, A. E. Copeland, Midland; first vice-president, W. A. Fry, Durham; second vice-president, Wm. Danson, Stratford; A. U. of G. governor, Francis Nelson, Toronto; treasurer, Wm. Davidson, Toronto; Richard Butler, Lindsay; George B. McKay, Kitchener; James T. Sutherland, Kingston; W. H. Bell, Galt.

The first meeting of the new executive committee will be held on Monday night at the telephone office, when the teams will be grouped for the season. No entries will be received after tomorrow.

SWIMMING AT THE WEST END.

There was some excellent swimming in the Corners' Swimming Club 20 yards speed handicap. There were nine heats, three semi-finals and a final. Results were: 1st. Young, 2nd. Gerny, 3rd. Hallimore. Young won from scratch, giving as much as eight seconds start. He won a great race by inches. His time was 11 3/5 seconds.

Business Boys ran off a 40 yards handicap. There were eight heats, three semi-finals and a final. It also proved to be a great race, especially the final. Lawson winning by a touch. Lawson, 1st. Lawson, 2nd. Milne; 3rd. Bray. Actual time 27 2/5 seconds.

An intermediate 100 yards handicap was swum so as to give the talent for the 100 yards Ontario boys' championships, which are brought off at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday, Dec. 17.

Tommy Walker had the honor of being scratch man, giving start up to 15 seconds. He won the final, beating Cyril Kennett and F. Finlay. His actual time for the 100 yards was 1:15 1/5 seconds.

Nothing is being left returned to make the Ontario championships a great success. There are quite a number of out-of-town entries expected. Cyril Kennett will defend his title in the diving, and Tommy Walker will also defend his title in the 100 yards championship. Neither of these two boys will have such an easy time as they had last year. Forest of the Central beat Kennett in the diving.

The Central last swimming meet, and as Central has young Chatham, the all-round champion boy swimmer of Canada and United States, Tommy Walker will have to extend himself all the way to win the title.

Chatham's time in public time cup, 10:15 seconds, but both of these boys will have to look for young Johnnie Central, as he can do 1 minute 12 seconds and he is becoming faster every time he enters the water. A few out-of-town entries may put in a "dark horse."

Swimming instructors F. Young, Central; J. Nicol, Broadview; J. Walker, West End, are not going to be leaving napping. They are out to keep the championship in Toronto and are bringing nothing returned to have their boys in the pink of condition.

JOYE AND EBER MATCHED.

Montreal, Dec. 9.—Bobby Eber has been matched to box Ed Joyce. Charlie Hallett was in the city last evening and signed Eber up, the fight to take place in Toronto about the middle of January.

Eber is to get $1,000 and the bout will be a ten-round affair at catch weights. Joyce got a little the better of it on the weight question, or he cannot make less than 125 pounds, while Eber is at his best at from 130 to 125 pounds ringside.

The pair boxed once before, Eber making Joyce look like a novice in a bout at Toronto last winter. Joyce is a greatly improved boy since then.

TWO SENIOR O. H. A. TEAMS FOR VARSITY

Varsity, with enough senior players to round out five teams, have asked the O. H. A. if any objection would be raised if they wanted to enter two senior teams in the O.H.A. They were told that it would be quite in order, and while the hockey committee at the university have not definitely decided to go ahead with the double entry, it is more than likely that this will be the procedure.

Varsity will also have senior, intermediate and Junior intercollegiate teams, in addition to two senior and one Junior O.H.A. outfit. In addition to this, several senior players may be given permits to play with outside teams. U. of T. have never had so much senior talent.

Frank Carroll has been granted leave of absence, and will train the St. Michael's pros, this winter. Norman Lang will train the Varsity hockey teams, and Dr. Dafe is honorary coach.

Liz Marriott Wanted
By Montreal Rugby Club

Hamilton, Dec. 9.—During the past week two senior rugby clubs of Eastern Canada have made an effort to sign Walter Liz Marriott as coach for next season. He was approached a few days ago by one of the Hamilton graduates of Queen's University, who claimed to have been authorized to close with him. Marriott declined.

Yesterday he received a letter from Hamilton Postmaster of Montreal's Big Four team, asking him to take over the Wings and Wheelers. He replied that at present he has no intention of doing any coaching next year, but that if he changes his mind he will notify the Montrealers.

Northviews Offer to Play Game Over Again

Sarnia, Ont., Dec. 9.—The Toronto Northviews, who won the junior rugby championship from the Sarnia Collegiate Institute here last Saturday by one point, sent word to the local collegiate institute that they would replay the game, having heard of the faulty measurement of the field. The players met today and decided to pass up the opportunity in view of the lateness of the season and the uncertainty of the weather. Saturday's game was a financial loss. They expressed pleasure at the high class of sportsmanship shown by the Toronto team.

This match, along with the juvenile fixture between Broadview and the fast Belfast team, should also be a tight battle, as both teams need a victory to keep in the lead of the eastern section. The supporters who witnessed Broadview's juveniles in action last week have every confidence in them.

THE OLD ONTARIOS BOOSTING LACROSSE

Old-Timers at Banquet Tell of the Game Long Ago — Those in Attendance.

A great reunion of the boys of the old Ontario Lacrosse Club took place last night at the Mosaic Hotel where, over a splendid repast, to which the members of the old Toronto club were invited, the veterans of the old method, and advanced a strong plea for the furtherance of the national game in Ontario.

Among this great gathering of sportsmen were Dr. Jas. J. Hughes, Toronto's 1880 team; Major Malcolm Lang; F. W. Thompson, Toronto; 1888; Controller, Hamilton, Ontario; 1889; James Pearson, Ontario; 1878; Joe Thompson, M.L.A., Toronto; 1884; F. W. Washburn, 1884; Dr. J. D. Roberts, Brampton; Roy Carmichael, R. Walker, Toronto; Fred Dickson, Toronto; W. H. Adams, T. Watts, F. J. Mulqueen, A. G. Adams, Windsor; F. Jacobs, St. Simons; A. E. Smith, W. Robinson, St. Simons; J. Hughes—Toronto; Louis Howard, past president of the Toronto; G. M. Rose, Ontario; M. Baker, Toronto, 1883; Thomas Jackson, Beaver Lacrosse Club; Darby Hill, Old Ontario; J. H. McKenzie, Mount Forest; 1881; R. J. Kearns, Toronto; Hartley Dewar; M.L.A., Old Toronto; Maxine Church. The chair was taken by Mr. D. A. Rose.

Mr. Hartley Dewar, in replying to the toast of Canada, which was the challenge, really meant was for him to tell those in attendance of his own experience of the game, since Canada could take care of herself in these days, and showed how her position in the League of Nations, and Dewar, in speaking of the old days stated that he was a small boy who had been in the wooden walls of the old lacrosse arena on Jarvis street, but regarding his playing days, mentioned that he never got beyond being a twelfth man on the second team. Speaking of the revival of the game in the province, Mr. Dewar said it was the duty of the government and authorities to put money aside for the betterment of national pastimes, and advocated that the same might be fostered in the high schools and colleges. He remembered the first game he saw was played by the Ontario Lacrosse Club, which took place in a stable on Parliament street, where two or three of his committee used to report on the results of the game.

Mr. Dewar said he had first played in 1878 in the old cabbage row, in the meetings held by his club, the Red Rose team, which took place in a stable on Parliament street, where two or three of his committee used to report on the results of the game.

On a new lease of life in this city of clean sport, Mr. Dewar concluded, playing fee was five cents per player. This club he graduated to the Pembroke, Ontario, which took place in a stable on Parliament street, where two or three of his committee used to report on the results of the game.

Mr. Dewar said he had first played in 1878 in the old cabbage row, in the meetings held by his club, the Red Rose team, which took place in a stable on Parliament street, where two or three of his committee used to report on the results of the game.

BASKETBALL

The basketball fan will find a bill just to his liking at the West End Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night when three O. H. League games are on the card for the evening.

"Duke" White's West End Seniors are going great guns since last Saturday when they won a close game from Varsity, and from now on they are out to clear the tables. Dunlop Athletic Club opposes West End in the senior fixture.

The juniors won a hard game from Christ Church last week and are confident of repeating their success when they meet St. Stephens in the junior game.

The juvenile game is between Howard Park and West End, and promises to be a tight contest, between two teams that are closely matched.

On account of the Barona A.C. entering a team in the intermediate section of the League, a new schedule has been drafted by President Stewart. This schedule will have taken effect this week, but as it was too late to have the teams notified, it has been decided to play the old schedule on Saturday.

This means that Varsity intermediates play Broadview on the latter's floor on Saturday, and as the result of this game will have an important bearing on the standing of the league, a record crowd is expected.

This match, along with the juvenile fixture between Broadview and the fast Belfast team, should also be a tight battle, as both teams need a victory to keep in the lead of the eastern section. The supporters who witnessed Broadview's juveniles in action last week have every confidence in them.

LOCAL SOCCER

The Bridgen Cup final is set for Broadview grounds on Saturday. The contesting teams, Ulster United and Willys-Overland, have appeared in the final of this competition on three consecutive occasions, and so far the winners have been equally divided.

The Ulster team has "hit its stride," and on the form displayed for the past five or six games has demonstrated that they will require some beating, while the Willys-Overland have also improved and are fully bent on maintaining their cup fighting reputation. Both teams are in good shape and full of confidence, and given good weather, all attendance records are sure to be broken on Saturday.

Aston Rovers will hold a special meeting on Monday evening next, Dec. 13. All meet at the corner of Dwyer avenue and Bathurst street at 8.15 p.m., as there will positively be no waiting after this time. Players bring any club property they may have with them. The success of this meeting will have a direct bearing on the future of the club, and every member is asked to make special effort to attend.

The Willys-Overland will make their twenty-seventh appearance in cup games for the season on Saturday, when they meet Ulster United in the Bridgen Cup final. This will be the fifth game between these rivals this season.

The Overland Club have reached the final of semi-finals cup competition played in Toronto this season, and in addition, earned the honor to represent Toronto in the provincial finals for the Ontario Cup.

The auto boys are equally determined to recapture the Bridgen Trophy, as the football enthusiasts will undoubtedly witness the game of the season at Broadview on Saturday. The Willys team will be selected from the following players: Standish, Pitkin, Drummond, Tweedie, Baillie, Hunt, Craig, Wilkes, Cameron, Penrice, Taylor, Hingsworth, Orton and Kemp.

The replay of the Guy Long Cup semi-finals between Wm. Davies and Swifts will be staged at Dunlop's grounds on Saturday kick-off at 2 p.m. These two teams battled to a goalless draw last Saturday. The game tomorrow may be played to a finish. Both teams will be represented by their strongest eleven, and a good game is bound to ensue. The following Davies players are to be on hand not later than 1.45 p.m.: H. Williams, F. Williams, Slater, Brown, Ferguson, Lindsay, Paton, J. Lindsay, Woods, Yeates, McIlroy, Letcher, Woodward and L. Brown.

WOOD SUPPLY MENACED.
That in any year Canada will be shipping little, if any, wood, was a statement made by Frank J. D. Barnum of Annapolis Royal, N.S., in a paper circulated yesterday at a meeting of the woodlands section of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association in the King Edward Hotel. He declared that this will be a matter of self-preservation, as the mills will have no wood to spare.
