'Somehow I'm glad Van Buren's going,' he said. 'I've been trying to figure how I could play the game to have him away from me when we come to take the truck. He's hostile in a fight. I guess it's all right. Don't need you here. You can copper any possible harm done there at Starlight, and meantime I'll see if there's any known way of delaying Van Buren's return to the city.'

CHAPTER XXXII
The Handshake of the Trail.
In the night, far out to the northward, a storm descended like a cataclysm. Torrential rains were poured upon the hills from a cloudburst exceptionally severe. The scattered outposts, as it were, of the storm were blown as far as Goldfist. A sprinkle of rain that dried at once was the most these mountains received.

SOCIALISM AND THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Editor Times-Star:
Sir:—The liquor traffic presents one of the very grave problems of today, in the minds of all thinking men and women. Not the gravest, as so many of my temperance friends would have me believe, for it is nothing to the very much graver question of poverty, but still it is important, and creates an amount of misery, that it behooves us all to give it serious attention.

Madrid, June 19.—A semi-official note intimates that if the Vatican insists upon coupling its protest against the royal decree issued on June 11 with the negotiations to revise the concordat, the government will break off all negotiations.

Pain in Heart

'For two years I had pain in my heart, back and left side. Could not draw a deep breath or lie on left side, and any little exertion would cause palpitation. Under advice I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nervine. I took about thirteen bottles, am in better health than I ever was, and have gained 14 pounds.'

MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.
For many years Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been very successful in the treatment of heart troubles because of its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles. Even in severe cases of long standing it has frequently prolonged life for many years after doctors had given up all hope, as proven by thousands of letters we have received from grateful people.

much already? My brother, in Starlight, is ill. He has hurt himself, I do not know how badly. A letter I sent has never been received, and I am worried. The effort I made to see him—well—at least, I'm glad I made the effort. But meantime, what of poor Glen? Some little fear I have may be groundless. I shall therefore keep it to myself—but I have it, perhaps because I am a woman, I must know the truth about my brother—how he is—what has been happening. It is far more important to me than I care to confess. I have written him a letter and sent it to you in the hope you may not find it impossible to carry it to Glen in person. If I am asking too much, please do not hesitate to say so. I am sure you will be friendly enough for that—to say 'no' if need be to another friend—your friend, BETH KENT.

His way he shortened, or thought to shorten, by dropping down from the recreation heights to the new-made town a mile below. He came upon the place abruptly, after dipping once into a canyon, and looked with amazement on the place. In the past twelve hours it had doubled in size and increased twenty-fold in its fever. The face of the desert was literally alive with men and animals. Half of Goldfist and practically all of a dozen lesser camps were there. Confusion, discomfort, and distraction seemed hopelessly enthroned. The "rush" was written in men's faces. They wanted to know what he thought of the reservation, where to go, whether or not there was any ground here that of the "Laughing Water" claim what he had heard from his Indian friends, and what he would do if he were to take the reservation. Men in a time of excitement such as this flock as madly as sheep whenever one may lead. Anything is news—any man is of interest who has in his pocket a piece of rock, or has in his hand a nugget of gold. No man is willing to be left outside. He must know all there is to be known.

MR. ROOSEVELT

William H. Taft is still president of the United States. He is still the strong and able man whose strength and ability command the respect of the Republican party and the majority of the people.

Mr. Roosevelt has become in the public mind the embodiment of certain principles, which he has enunciated with tremendous force; and if a crisis should arise in the United States there is no other man who could appeal so strongly to the popular imagination, or command in so large measure the confidence of the people.

But all that is past. Mr. Roosevelt is home again. It is not forgotten that in the later days of his presidential administration he was subjected to much criticism.

CONSERVATIVES SURPRISED The Toronto correspondent of the Standard is apparently surprised at the conduct of leading Liberals in the towns in Ontario that were visited by Mr. Borden.

HERE'S WHAT AILS US St. John has yet to develop agencies of intellectual and social convergence designed to develop the spirit that reigned in the ancient Greek or medieval city.

Had it been a Liberal meeting and speaker, and had the mayor been a Conservative of the Standard pattern, the latter would never have gone on the platform, nor would the speaker and party be made to feel at home in the town.

EVIDENCES OF PROGRESS

What would have been thought ten years ago of a prediction that in 1910 automobile excursions from Moncton to the natural gas wells in Albert county would be a popular pastime? Or that this year one would be shipped from the iron mines in Gloucester county? Or that the Grand Trunk Pacific would have secured a site for terminals at St. John? Or that St. John would be selected by great steamship and shipbuilding companies as a site for a dry dock and shipbuilding plant? Or that plans would be in preparation for the construction of a sugar refinery at St. John? Or that New Brunswick would have opened a large and valuable market in Cuba for its products? Or that the province would be attracting so much attention in the old country as a field for immigrants? Or that such a new spirit of confidence and enterprise would possess the people of New Brunswick?

Much has been accomplished in ten years. A glance backward gives confidence in the outlook for the next decade. City and province are moving forward along lines of prosperous development. The spirit of optimism that prevails should be encouraged. Home investment should be given more serious attention. Whatever makes for the progress of any community is of general benefit. Let the new "spirit of the east" prevail.

The World's Missionary Conference calls for reforms in the Congo. King Leopold is dead, but his evil deeds live after him.

They have Sunday band concerts in Fredericton. Did someone say the new to be band concerts in St. John this summer? Perhaps we are waiting for summer to arrive. Well—it's here.

Some Conservatives are denouncing Sir Wilfrid Laurier for daring to visit Manitoba when Mr. Roblin wants to hold provincial elections. They are more rational on the Pacific coast. For instance, the Victoria Colonist says:—"Our Liberal friends are preparing for the reception of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It seems to be understood that as yet only the preliminary steps have been taken. Very properly the arrangements are in the hands of the Liberal organization, but we hope that in any plans they may make they will render it possible for Sir Wilfrid to accept the invitation extended by Mr. McBride on behalf of the provincial government to a public reception. The people of Victoria would be very glad to extend a strictly non-partisan greeting to their distinguished fellow Canadian."

But all that is past. Mr. Roosevelt is home again. It is not forgotten that in the later days of his presidential administration he was subjected to much criticism. At long range, amid the splendor of courts, he was to his countrymen an almost colossal figure. At close range he is a plain citizen of the republic, whose views on public questions will be submitted to as meretricious criticism as those of any other man.

The "Nobel" Peace Prize

This year should have been awarded to "Butternut Bread."

Listen to this: St. Louis, Mo.

"A man applied for a divorce here today and his chief contention was that he had contracted severe indigestion from eating the bread his wife baked."

How many cases Butternut Bread has kept from the divorce courts would be hard to determine.

Butternut is a loaf of exquisite symmetry with a flavor fit for the gods.

The annual sham battle of the Fustlers was held on Saturday, but the results of it has not yet been made known.

Two tug boats were used yesterday to raise the tugboat Leader, lying in a sunken condition at Long wharf, and was brought to the surface.

A party of students from Massachusetts College passed through the city on Saturday on their way to Lake Umbagog.

The party is in charge of Paul T. Brine, of New York, and is composed of the following students: Harry Poor, C. L. Peterson, George Sopworth, M. Smith, and Roger A. Lordeo, L. Lordeo and Burdette.

D. H. McDonald, manager of the Yarn Opera House, in company with his wife, returned this morning to Yarmouth after their honeymoon trip.

On Saturday night the staff of the Unique theatre, through Stephen Butler, presented to Mr. McDonald a vacuum cleaner.

As a result of an accident in the Globe laundry on Saturday, Miss Mamie Higgins may lose a hand.

The visiting Masons from Chelsea, Mass., returned home on Saturday, after spending the day at Negonnot Point break-water, where they were treated to a lobster bake.

The annual convention of the chief constables of Canada will be held in August in Vancouver. It has not yet been decided whether or not Chief Clark will go.

The next convention will be held in this city.

Alderman R. W. Wigmore, of this city, was an eye witness to the terrible holocaust in the Montreal Herald Building when the fire department arrived.

He was in Montreal attending a meeting of the High Court of the Canadian Foresters. He happened to have business in the vicinity of the time and was there when the fire department arrived.

The scene he describes as a awful one. Wigmore returned to the city Saturday.

TO BUILDERS A GROWING DOLLY. (Homekeeper.)

"Mamma," said little Dorothy, "I want some water to christen my doll."

"No, dear," replied the mother, "I'm writing to make sport of such things."

"Then I want some water to wash my face. She's old enough to have something done."

JUST THE THING "Don't you know smoking will stunt your growth?" "Oh, dat's all, O. K. You see I'm growin' to be a jockey."

R. E. Y. C. Plan Members' Day. At a meeting of yachtmen, held at the R. E. Y. C. club house, Millville, on Saturday evening, it was decided to hold a members' day on July 1, to be conducted on the same lines as last year.

A yacht race is scheduled for the afternoon at 2:30 and will, no doubt, prove of great interest, while during the day motor boats will ply between the club house and Millville to accommodate those who wish to picnic at this beautiful spot.

In the evening a programme of aquatic sports, such as rowing, swimming, etc., will be carried out, and later all will be entertained at a dinner.

The desire of the committee that each member of the club takes a personal interest in the club has been made known in his power to make it an even greater success than that of last season.

The yacht race to be held on Saturday had to be postponed on account of the lack of wind. They will be held on the afternoon of July 2.

The Ring. Pecky MacFarland won. London, June 19.—Pecky MacFarland, of Chicago, known as Jack Goldsmith, defeated the English welterweight champion, in the third round at the Black Friar's night. They fought for a purse of $2,000.

COL. EDWARDS IS HOPEFUL OF SUCCESS

Bisley Men Off for England—Montreal Did Not Give Them Much of a Send off.

(Montreal Herald.) "We've got a good team and we think we ought to win something over there. We want to bring back the Kalopore Cup that we are taking over even if we don't do any better," said Col. Edwards, of St. John, N. B., who is in command of the Canadian Bisley team for 1910, before leaving for England this morning.

Montreal did not give the Bisley team anything that might be called a "send off" but Ottawa men came down and with them could to make the crack shots on whom the eyes of Canada are soon to rest.

By ones and twos those twenty officers and men strolled aboard. It had been expected that a big crowd would gather to see the men sail at daylight before the sailing of the ship.

Yesterday afternoon the men paraded at Centre street armories and were inspected by Col. Tilton of Ottawa, and Col. Edwards, commander of the team. They were accompanied by Major Pope, Major Dunbar, Major Pelly, Major Fox, Major Col. Labelle, Col. Wilson and Col. Sherwood.

Col. Tilton told the marksmen of the Bisley team of old. And no one is better qualified to tell of the Canadian Bisley team than the general command from Ottawa, who for so many years has been associated with the Dominion Rifle Association, both as a marksman and as a captain.

"You will be the first Canadians to shoot at Bisley with King George's present in Atlantic before you represent Canada abroad," he said before the team sailed.

Among those who have been across the Atlantic before to represent Canada are: Capt. C. B. Crowe, of Guelph, undoubtedly the best marksman in Canada; Capt. W. H. Forrest, who has won the Bisley team on no fewer than seven occasions; Capt. J. R. McKie, who has won four trips to their credit, while Capt. Hart-McCaug has been across twice. The remainder are new men.

H. L. COOMBS NOT GUILTY IN D'ISRAELI ASBESTOS MATTER

In the county court on Saturday afternoon, the jury in the case of H. Leonard Coombs, in the D'Israeli Asbestos Co., Coombs, returned a verdict of not guilty, and Judge Forbes immediately acquitted him.

entirely with the address of counsel, and the judge's charge. Daniel Millin, C. M., was the counsel for the defendant, and spoke for nearly an hour. He was followed by the attorney-general.

John M. Healey, who acted as secretary of the D'Israeli Asbestos Company, and was examined by Mr. Millin, testified that he was in the office on Dec. 23, on that day Coombs and Isaacs had some words with him, but he did not see them.

He said that he had seen Coombs, the witness said, why he "squealed" on him at the meeting of the directors, Coombs replied that he thought he had a right to it. It was on this day also, the witness said, that Isaac gave Coombs a cheque for $300, which he had given to him by Mr. Madden, Boston (Mass.), showing that railway equipment had been purchased in connection with the asbestos business.

The witness said that Coombs charged the entry in his presence, and the evidence was similar to that given by Healey. He denied having entered into a conspiracy with Isaacs and said that he was aware of the opinion that the $3700 was paid out in the interests of the company. Cross-examined by Mr. Millin, the witness testified that he had seen Coombs, the witness said, why he "squealed" on him at the meeting of the directors, Coombs replied that he thought he had a right to it.

NEW PROGRAMME, TINY WILLIAMS IN WESTERN HIT AT UNIQUE

Another delightfully refreshing programme of good wholesome comedies, farces and industrial subjects is promised at the "Unique" again today. First of interest comes a big scenic picture, "The Milk Industry in the Alps," which is beautifully colored in natural tints.

This feature is claimed to give an interesting exposition of the methods used in handling milk in this far away clime. Incidentally a panoramic view of the city of Stalden is shown. Next comes a feature of the most strongly dramatic stories ever released by the Kalem people.

"A Temporary Adventure" is a fast little comedy in which a slightly familiar theme is made brilliantly new by clever treatment and originality of idea. Two others "Katie's Birthday," (sentimental) and "For a Woman" (comedy) hold a conspicuous place upon this excellent bill.

Tiny Williams is to offer her big western success, "Pony Boy" in the cowboy costume.

GRAND COMEDY AT THE LYRIC THIS WEEK

The many hundreds who are expected to patronize the Lyric today are in for reports that have come from the outside sources, concerning Danny Simmons, dancing and impersonations is expected in the city. Among the clever impersonations promised is one of Teddy Roosevelt which is claimed to be lifelike.

During the last few weeks the Lyric has presented to patrons several exceptionally good acts, but lacking a grand finale. Because of this fact the one this week, which is nothing but a big bundle of laughs, is expected to be even more popular than anything yet offered at the new and popular amusement house.

The picture programme will include several sensational features, with the "29 Cent Robbery" as the headliner.

White's Cove News. White's Cove, Queen's Co., N. B., June 19.—The weather for the last few days has been quite fine and the farmers have taken advantage of it to get in their potato crops and backbones, they have not had hardly anything could be done. The grass crop in this section is looking unusually well, but about all other stuff is growing slowly for lack of sun.

A company spent a week in the hall boarding on Saturday when the company agreed to grant an increase of $5 a month per man to go into effect at once. The dispute between the commercial telegraphers and the company is still under negotiation.

William Ridley, a machinist, formerly of Halifax, committed suicide in London, Ont., yesterday, by drinking carbolic acid. He quarrelled with his wife over her manure of living and then took his life.

Walter G. Hanscomb, a hostler, was found dead in bed in Korbham, Me., yesterday, with a bullet wound through his heart, and Mrs. Stewart, a servant, was found unconscious alongside him with a bullet wound in the head. Both had been drinking. The woman will recover.

Thomas Daughney, of Nordin, New Brunswick county, has been sent up for trial for ill-treating his step-children, a boy of 13 and a girl of 9 years.

The report into the Montreal Herald disaster has been adjourned until July 3. C. H. Howe, aged 67, and his son, whose home and barns by fire last week, the loss is about $1,000 over the insurance.

Some animals multiply rapidly and some snakes are adders.

THE BROWN TAIL MOTH

William McIntosh who made a lengthy search this spring for signs of the brown tail moth has made a report to Dr. D. V. Landry, commissioner for agriculture of this city and parts of Charlotte county.

The search was made in the vicinity of boarding on Saturday when the company agreed to grant an increase of $5 a month per man to go into effect at once.

Walsh united in marriage Henry McGuire and Miss Mary O'Connor, daughter of Mrs. Margaret O'Connor, of Spring street. Miss O'Connor had her sister, Miss Katherine O'Connor, as bridesmaid, and Albert Bronnan supported the groom. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William O'Connor, was gowned in a Princess costume of white silk, with a floral picture hat. Her bridesmaids wore a silk dress of green. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire left on the D. A. R. steamer Prince Rupert for a wedding trip in Nova Scotia. They will reside in this city. Some handsome wedding gifts were received.

REMARKABLE TURN GIVEN LIQUOR CASE Mr. McGuire, on Stand, Speaks of Friend of Dykeman Seeking to Make Deal to End the Matter

The case against Martin McGuire, reported for selling liquor to a minor, Frank Dykeman, was continued this morning in the police court, and after several witnesses were examined, was postponed until Wednesday morning. Mrs. Albert Dykeman, mother of the young man, testified that he would be twenty-one years of age in January next. Policeman Lee said that when he arrested Dykeman the latter told him that he was twenty-one years old, at first, and later said that he was twenty.

Mr. McGuire and his clerk, John Doyle, said they had no recollection of having seen Dykeman in the store or selling liquor to him.

The defendant told the court that one of Dykeman's friends had tried to persuade him that if the prisoner's fine was paid by him (witness), Dykeman would swear that he was of age. The defendant asked for time to get witnesses, and the case was postponed. G. A. Henderson prosecuted.

BISHOP CASEY TO TAKE PART IN TWO CELEBRATIONS

Left Today for Kent County and Will Then Go to Ste. Anne de Restigouche, Quebec

His Lordship Bishop Casey left on the noon train today for Kent county, where he will take part in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Philip Belliveau at Grand Digue, tomorrow. Bishop Casey will then visit Rev. A. Ouellette of St. Mary's, who has been ill for some time. Later, Bishop Casey will proceed to Quebec, where, on Friday, he will take part in the celebration of the consecration of the conversion of Chief Memberton and his Indians to the Catholic faith.

The ceremonies will be interesting and will be attended by a noted gathering of prominent church dignitaries. There will also be a large assemblage at the anniversary of Father Belliveau.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. DAVIS WILL BE HERE THIS WEEK

Mrs. Davis, of St. John, wife of Captain Davis of the bark Comet, reached New York last week with her husband on his vessel after a voyage of 141 days from Hong Kong. The New York Herald says: 'Mrs. Davis has accompanied Captain Davis on six long voyages and has travelled 60,000 miles aboard the Comet. The Comet, in passing Cape Hatteras ten days ago, was struck by a northwest gale that carried away eleven sails in as many minutes. The ship brought a cargo of firecrackers and general merchandise.' Captain and Mrs. Davis are expected in St. John towards the end of this week to visit Mrs. Davis' family.

WEDDED TODAY

A lively wedding was solemnized in Holy Trinity Church at 6.30 o'clock, when Rev. J. J. Walsh united in marriage Henry McGuire and Miss Mary O'Connor, daughter of Mrs. Margaret O'Connor, of Spring street. Miss O'Connor had her sister, Miss Katherine O'Connor, as bridesmaid, and Albert Bronnan supported the groom. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William O'Connor, was gowned in a Princess costume of white silk, with a floral picture hat. Her bridesmaids wore a silk dress of green. ANOTHER INTERDICTION GETS DRUNK

Brother, in Stating Case, Brings Up Question of Profanity in Streets By Sober Men

To use the words of Judge Ritchie, a powerful temperance lesson might be learned from the array of men on the prisoner's bench this morning. Almost every one of them was charged with drunkenness, two of these Sunday offenders. There were seven in all, and each pleaded guilty.

John Harris pleaded guilty to having assaulted Jacob Carritte in Leith street on Saturday, when Carritte had gone to his house to collect a bill. A fine of $20 or two months in jail was imposed. Fines of $8 were imposed on Bradford Mason, George McNeil, and Alex Walker for drunkenness, while Theo. McCann, Joseph Elliott, and Thomas Boyle on the same charge were remanded. Boyle was also charged with resisting, while McCann had a charge of profanity entered against him.

Elliott told the court that on Saturday he had been contemplating a trip up river, and had purchased for refreshment purposes two quarts of whiskey. The rain interfered with his plans, he got drunk, and was arrested. He and Boyle were the two men arrested yesterday.

In the case of McCann, his brother was present, and pleaded for him, saying that he had been sober at tea time on Saturday, but a man had called for him, and at 10 o'clock, in spite of the fact that he was an interdict, the prisoner was intoxicated. The defendant's brother contended that the police were negligent in their duties as regards placing men, even sober men, under arrest for swearing on the streets, stating that he had frequently heard men in their sober senses blaspheming horribly on the streets, and had often wondered why they were not arrested. His Honor replied that a citizen could report another for using the Saviour's name in vain, while the police had the liberty of arresting him. He agreed that there was a great deal of profanity allowed to go unchecked in the streets.
