NATIONAL DRIVE TO SAVE EYES

Conservation Council Extends Its Activities to Schools in Every State of Union.

New York, May 6.—The success of the plan of co-operative effort between the public schools of New York City and the Eyesight Conservation Council of America on Health Day, when more than 1,000,000 pupils underwent physical examination, has led the council to extend its activities to the schools of the nation. School officials in every state are being enlisted in a nationwide campaign for better eyesight. Commissioner John J. Tigert of the United States Department of Education, a member of the council, is fostering federal activity for improved vision.

"Eye conservation is being carried into schools and industries of New York and other states, as a part of the national movement by the Eyesight Conservation Council of America, to protect the health of America's millions of school children and industrial workers," Guy A. Henry, general director of the council, said yesterday.

"This movement is largely the outcome of recreation of huge waste through defective vision, made by Herbert Hoover's committee on Elimination of Waste in Industry of the American Engineering Council. The findings of this engineering committee, which are having a great influence upon industry both here and abroad, will be utilized by those who are working of the conservation of vision. The United States Department of Education, schools, industries, the professions and the colleges, including Teachers' College, Columbia University's Training School for Teachers, will co-operate.

"The Engineering Waste Committee found that about 25,000,000 American workers have defective vision requiring correction, and that many thousand eye accidents can be prevented each year by the application of proved remedial methods. A chief aim of the campaign is to save as many lives next year as possible, and thus, according to L. W. Wallace, executive secretary of the American Engineering Council, 'increase the quality and the quantity of production in American industry and contribute to a larger sum total of happiness.'

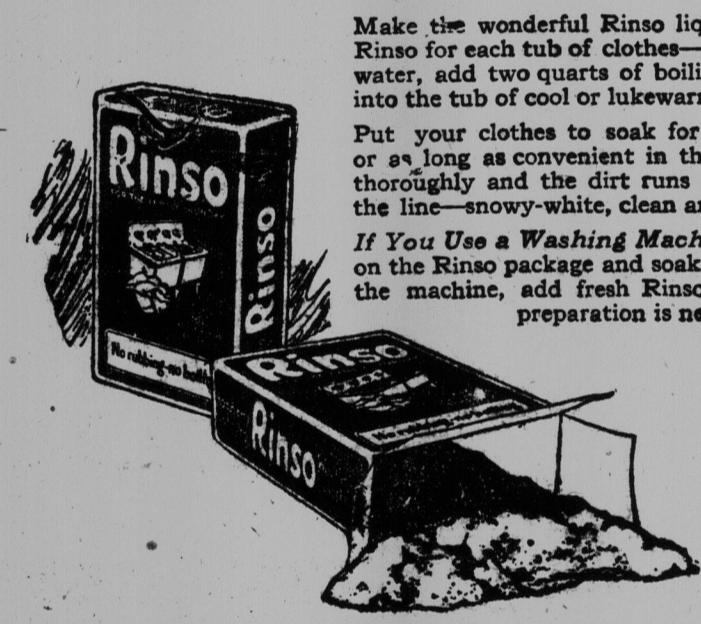

The aid of State Superintendent Frank P. Graves, City Superintendent William L. Ettinger and other school officials is being sought. Annual co-operation on Rinso doesn't redder the hands. It's pure.

Don't Rub—Just Soak Your Clothes Clean

RINSO is fine granules of soap essence, scientifically and completely different from ordinary soap, flakes or washing powder. It should be used differently too—for instance, to get the best results, do not pour the Rinso granules into the tub from the package.

Make the wonderful Rinso liquid first—take half a package of Rinso for each tub of clothes, stir it into a cream in a little cool water, add two quarts of boiling water, stir vigorously and put into the tub of cool or lukewarm water.

Put your clothes to soak for one hour, two hours, overnight, or as long as convenient in this rich Rinso suds, then just rinse thoroughly and the dirt runs away. Your clothes are ready for the line—snowy-white, clean and fresh.

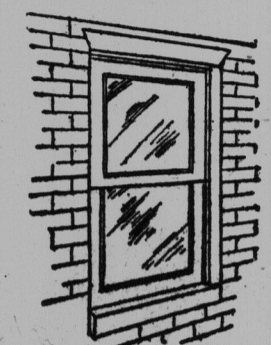

If You Use a Washing Machine—follow the regular directions on the Rinso package and soak the clothes. Then before operating the machine, add fresh Rinso solution and proceed. No other preparation is needed when Rinso is used.

Agar appeared on behalf of the board of hospital commissioners regarding matters pertaining to the epidemic hospital. Counsellor O'Brien, of Lancaster, presented a proposal regarding the municipality financing the cost of construction of concrete pillars and fire walls between each building, the owners to reimburse the county by payments extending over a period of fifteen years. No decision was made.

health day with Dr. I. H. Goldberger, director of the Bureau of Hygiene of the Board of Education of New York City, is part of the council's plan. "Effort is being made to improve the moral and physical condition of our boys and girls that they may become healthy and efficient men and women," said a statement which is being issued to the school officials of New York and other cities. "It is of vital importance that the conservation of eyesight should be a with school children. Out of 24,000,000 school children in the United States not more than a third receive reasonably adequate tests of vision and not more than a third of those who are tested have the defects of vision properly corrected. "It is necessary that teachers be impressed with the importance of eye care and pay particular attention to the way pupils use their eyes. The universal care of children's eyes is an obligation which educators, school officials, superintendents, principals and teachers owe to the school, to the community, to the state, and to the nation."

National conditions will be investigated and statistics showing the extent of eyesight defects in all classes of the state's population will be assembled, so as to provide a basis for a permanent and constructive policy of conservation.

MUNICIPAL FINANCE.

At a meeting of the finance committee of the municipal council held yesterday afternoon with Commissioner Vigore presiding, M. F. Mooney and J. P. Mooney of the firm of B. Mooney & Sons, appeared with their counsel, H. A. Powell, K. C., and again asked that

It cost $85 and was worth it. The bookkeeper used it constantly during the year after the firm bought it.

But at the end of that time its resale value was about $25. Scratched, marred, scarred.

You see the loose-leaf system used by that firm had metal posts in the ledger instead of the modern method of the Kalamazoo Loose Leaf Devices where no metal posts appear to mar your furniture, and you have the expansion advantages of a leather thong instead. KEEP FIT
Never let your system get run down -- keep fit all the time

As long as you keep yourself strong and healthy, it is almost impossible to contract colds and other contagious diseases.
Don't wait until your system becomes weakened, but immediately you notice you are feeling up to the mark, start fortifying your system against disease by taking Carnol. These remarks apply especially to children who do not realize the importance of taking proper care of themselves.

The peculiar feature about Carnol is that, while it is a preparation containing cod liver oil, it has a delicious taste.
Carnol is the ideal preparation for all run down conditions. It is an excellent remedy for anemia, consumption and all diseases of a wasting nature, due to impaired nutrition, poor and insufficient food supply. Carnol provides food for the nerves and food for the body. It increases weight and builds up the whole system.
Carnol is of special value in the treatment of all nervous conditions marked by depression of the vital forces and usually caused by prolonged mental strain, overwork, nervous prostration.

Carnol has proven an excellent remedy in Rheumatism, that common disease of ill-nourished children, and in other ailments of a similar nature. This is commonly known world over as "The Blood Salt." It is the best blood builder and nerve invigorator yet discovered. Carnol also contains the soluble nutritive properties of fresh beef which stimulates and nourishes the system.
In addition, there is cod liver's extract with all the nourishing, life-giving elements removed.
Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 5-122

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whisks on stove covers or pipe and does not melt or cake when burning. It is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

HER CHARM.

You could not call her pretty Nor was she passing fair; She was not even witty, And bright red was her hair.

Yet she was as attractive A girl as e'er you'd meet; Her tongue was not too active And her voice was low and sweet.

To say 'twas love at first sight Would really be absurd; I did not "see" her in that light Until her voice I heard.

And then from years of dreaming I suddenly awoke To hear a girl's voice, seeming Like music when she spoke.

Young lovers now 'a'mating Make beauty first your goal, Search well—'tis worth the waiting, Seek beauty—but of soul.

Look not, but lend a listening ear When you would make your choice; Eye hath not seen, but ear hath heard The soul of beauty's voice.

AUTHORS WOULD STOP CONFUSION OVER "O CANADA"

Association Hopes to Establish Standard English Version During This Year—Rev. H. A. Cody Member of Council.

(Ottawa Journal) Confusion over what words should be sung to "O Canada" may be ended during the year.

The Canadian Authors' Association's committee appointed to consider the possibility of establishing a standard English version of the song made its report of progress at the Saturday session of the convention, and was instructed to continue its effort for a year in the hope that some definite verses might be acceptable as a national anthem for Canada.

The familiar music was approved by the committee, whose members were: Mrs. Florence Livesey, Bliss Carman, Dr. Duncan Campbell Scott, Prof. Peham Edgar and Mrs. John Garvin, Mr. Egerton and Mrs. John Bruce.

It was the opinion of the committee that the existing version fulfilled every condition of a national anthem. Mr. Recorder Weir's poem had a distinct merit and possessed the undoubted advantage of being in wider circulation than any other version.

Donald A. Fraser of Vancouver. It was the committee's opinion, and this view was the wish of the meeting, that the question be left open for the present, and that the "Canadian Bookman" should accept meritorious contributions during the ensuing year.

Literature of translation was not to be excused, but the other officers followed an inspiration, and in the event of a decision being reached, government authority should be invoked in order to make the decision as official as it was capable of being made.

Mr. Lloyd Robert was of the opinion that a truly inspired version had not yet been created. He pointed out that "L.A. Forsythe" had been an inspiration, and because of that it had lived. He did not think a Canadian anthem would live unless it were inspired, nor that its use could be forced.

Another subject provocative of much discussion was the protection of the business of writing by a tariff. A resolution, sponsored by Mr. Bernard K. Murray, of the Ottawa Journal, Mr. Vernon Mackenzie of Maclean's Magazine, asked that a tariff be imposed on the advertising pages of foreign magazines entering Canada, and upon advertising catalogues.

The convention endorsed the resolution and it was placed before the government. It was pointed out that other industries were protected so that they might develop, and that the writing industry was in need of protection.

A possible result might be the establishing of Canadian offices by American magazine publishers. The same principle might be applied to syndicated articles originating outside Canada, it was felt.

Another resolution asked the government to establish a $5,000 annual scholarship for the author of the most significant work published during the year. The suggestion that the best English work of the year should be translated into French and published, and the best French work translated into English and published, was endorsed.

Mr. Murray Gibson was re-elected president by acclamation, and Lady Blyth was named honorary president. The other officers followed: Secretary, Mr. B. K. Sandwell, Montreal; treasurer, Dr. G. H. Lomer, of McGill University; vice-presidents, Archibald MacMechan, Halifax; Miss J. G. Sime, Montreal; Mr. Thomas Chapuis, Quebec; Victor Morin, Montreal; R. J. C. Stead, Ottawa; Sir John Wilmot, Toronto; Dr. W. T. Allison, Winnipeg; Austin Boland, Regina; G. W. Kerley, Calgary; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Edmonton; Mrs. Isabel Ecclestone Mackay, Vancouver; R. Sheldon Williams, Victoria; members of council: Bliss Carman, Warwick Chipman, Mrs. John Garvin, Toronto; W. D. Lightbald, Montreal; Louis Dupuy de Monro, Ottawa; Dr. Lock, Toronto; Sir Andrew Macphail, Ferdinand Rinfret, Montreal; Judge Mignault, Ottawa; Hon. Justice Adolphe Rivard, Quebec; Hon. Justice Fabre Surveyl, Montreal; Sir Robert Falconer, Baill King, Sydney; Peter W. S. Wallace, Toronto; Madge Macbeth, Ralph Connor, Judge Howay, Vancouver; Lloyd Roberts, Pelham Edger, Toronto; Cecil Herriot, Toronto; Mrs. Murdoch McKinnon, Regina; Dr. Duncan Campbell Scott, Rev. H. A. Cody, St. John.

ENGLISH MEASURE SHOULD BE USED. Dispute About Size of Wood-cords Settled by Judgment.

Lachute, Que., May 6.—Hon. Justice Surveyl has rendered judgment here in a case of general interest to people who buy and sell wood by the cord. Louis Bissette, of Lachute, and a contract with Louis Bennette, of Calumet, to cut a certain number of cords of wood at the rate of $3.75 per cord. He claimed that he had cut 228 cords, whereas Bennette claimed that he had cut only 192-2 cords and Rochon sued for the difference.

The main question in dispute was stipulation as to size, the French or English measure should govern. The court decided that in the virtue of Chap. 32, Art. 17, of the Revised Statutes of Canada, the French measure of length did not apply, except in the measurement of land in certain localities in the province of Quebec, and that in all other cases the English measure applied. Moreover, it was only in the absence of a written law that custom and equity should be taken into consideration. Consequently Rochon's action was maintained, and the defence was dismissed.

ELECTRICITY'S PROGRESS. Infant Industry of 39 Years Ago Is $5,000,000,000 Giant Today.

In February, thirty-nine years ago, the electrical industry of the United States was in its infancy. Today it represents an investment of $5,000,000,000. The nation is covered with a network of transmission wires that carry electrical energy to the homes of the farmer and the dweller in the hamlet as well as to those who live in the large cities.

This great development which has made life easier and the home more comfortable and has made possible the world's greatest industrial development has come within the lifetime of millions of us.

February, 1883, was a month marked by much activity in the development of what was then a pioneer industry. Some of the high spots in the growth of the industry thirty-nine years ago are:

The Pearl Street station in New York City, the first electrical central station in the world, which began operation Sept. 4, 1882, was lighting 310 buildings, with 6,255 lamps.

The Board of Aldermen of Boston authorized the illumination of the city by electricity.

The contract was awarded for electric lighting the Brooklyn bridge.

Professor Edgerton of Franklin Institute, after experiments, announced that electric lights would not produce tan or freckles.

On Feb. 23, 1883, the first convention of electric light men in the United States was held in the Grand Pacific Hotel in Chicago and the National Electric Light Association was formed.

The delay is due to the fact that the ministry of war has enough horizon blue and steel gray cloth on hand to equip some branches of the service for ten years, and those stocks must be used up before khaki can be adopted.

HEADS THAT ACHE AND PAIN

It is hard to drag along with a head that aches and pains all the time. In nine cases out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisoned blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels, but no matter which organ is to blame the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be obtained.
BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS which has been on the market for the past forty-five years, removes the cause of the headache by starting the organs of elimination acting freely, and when the impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood circulates in the brain cells, and the aches and pains vanish.
 Miss Clara Murphy, Centre Dunsmuir, Ont., writes—"My system was greatly run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health. I took another bottle and it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to some of my friends who were in a similar condition and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

"Remember the Sabbath Day—" What about changing tires on Sunday? It is "labor" and it is unnecessary. Also consider the dark thoughts and wicked words that a tire-changing motorist has to answer for. It should make one think seriously about tires. Keep the Sabbath by having good tires on your car. Motoring to Church is sanctimonious enough, but you should always go in a car that has "Gutta Percha" Tires, giving you no cause for labor or bad words, or worldly anxiety about "blow-outs," but a mind calm, receptive and serene.

SPRUCE LAKE MAIN

John C. Mitchell, designing engineer of the Lock Joint Pipe Company, was in the city yesterday and made an inspection of the main to Spruce Lake. In conversation with City Engineer G. G. Hare, he said the pipe was as fine a piece of work as any the company ever turned out, and the leaks were caused not by faulty construction, but by damage sustained when the water was first turned on at too high a pressure. He said that sections of the pipe now leaking will be strongly reinforced, and if this does not remedy the trouble, the entire system will be replaced, as the company's reputation is more valuable than the loss they would sustain. Mr. Mitchell returned to New Jersey last evening.

BADMINTON.

To the Editor of The Times:—Sir,—With reference to a paragraph on "Badminton," appearing in last evening's issue, I would like to take this opportunity to correct an erroneous statement. The statement was not authorized by any of the club officers and is not quite in keeping with the facts of the case. Unfortunately the Trinity Badminton Club had one of their nights of play taken away from them last fall to make room for other activities, and this left us with a large membership and only one night a week to play. In order to give our own club a square deal, we decided to hold tournaments among our own members and not undertake any series of tournaments with outside clubs. The only variation from this course was our game with the Garrison Club, and arrangements are now under way to play another club.

We have made absolutely no effort to arrange any other games.

Trusting that this will clear the air somewhat, and put the Trinity Badminton Club in a little better light, I am, Yours very truly,

A. C. W. PARLEE,
President of Trinity Badminton Club,

FATE OF PARIS IN HANDS OF JURY

His Honor went carefully into the evidence of George Murray and Stanley Nicholas regarding the gasoline transactions on August 2, his books showing a purchase of five gallons and 150 gallons on that date, and a slip from the oil company for this date was in evidence. The evidence of Wilson Robinson was to the effect that the slip delivered to Nicholas on August 2 was not changed while the company's copy was changed to August 3.

Burton testified he was in Spencer's garage on August 2 when two young colored men tried to sell gasoline to Roy Spencer, and Roy Spencer corroborated that evidence. Archie Paris and John A. Maxwell told of seeing Paris on the train on the night of August 3 and the morning of August 4.

Ira Boss told of seeing Paris on "the island" on August 2 when he was carrying out a search by warrant, fixing the date by the date of the warrant.

The judge reviewed the evidence of Warren Ogilvie saying he was indebted to the accused and if his evidence and that of Mr. McNaught and Miss Macbratney is true, it must have been John Paris, the accused, who received the money on August 2.

Robert Wyatt of Halifax, said the slip dated August 2 submitted by Stanley Nicholas was changed; "I can't see it," remarked the judge. He said the records of the Imperial Oil Co. were not worth a snap as they had been changed. Mr. Wyatt, he said, swore that he could not tell from reports when the actual transactions took place.

The Honorable judge did not doubt Conductor Capson, but there was a possibility that Paris might have beat his way.

A few things the judge wished to bring out particularly. Officer Boss said Paris' grandmother was able to travel. Paris must have stayed somewhere on August 1 and August 2. The people of the house could have proved conclusively where Paris was.

Paris was afflicted with boils around August 1, according to his own evidence. "It struck as peculiar that boils were not mentioned in the Truro evidence."

If Ellis Calvin told the truth, why was Paris in the park on August 3. Criminologist say that there is something which draws murderers back to the scene of their crimes. Paris has denied this fact, however, and he left the decision to the jury.

He also asked why Paris should try to evade the police both in West St. John and on the Westfield road.

Should he decide.

"We should have a decision this time. You gentlemen should bring in a verdict one way or another. There should be no decision," the judge remarked at this point.

There was a lot said, he said, about witnesses not being here at this trial who were here at the first trial. It might be that Paris could bring them here. "Behind the covers stood 300,000 people, while all John Paris had behind him were a few colored folks. The probability was that he would win which the jury would have to decide."

The attitude of the counsel here had been a little out of the ordinary. Because witnesses did not give evidence to bolster up the side of the case which he was espousing, was no reason why they should be treated as thieves and black-legs.

He did not think the witnesses from either Carleton or Truro would come to court and deliberately lie—or there must be a mistake somewhere—their evidence was as divergent as the poles.

He thought the attorney-general went far in saying that the crown had broken down the Chataqua parade tower. The only evidence on the record was that the parade was on August 2.

Regarding the question of identification, he said the attorney-general took Hattie LeVigne's evidence of definite identification, but the judge said he disagreed with Mr. Byrne on this question.

The judge read his remarks on the law regarding reasonable doubt as published after a previous trial. He said if there was any shadow of doubt the jury should acquit the prisoner.

The judge said the horrible details of the crime and the several trials had attracted wide-spread attention. Sadie McAuley was entitled to life. Her mutilated body was found partially covered on August 3. This was one of the crimes that called to Heaven for vengeance.

All I ask you to do today is to do your duty as jurors, so that when the evening of your life comes you can look back and know that you did your duty well unpleasant though it may have been.

It was 11:33 when the jury was allowed to go to their room to consider verdict, the judge's address having taken exactly two hours.

SISLER AND TRIS CLOSE TOGETHER

Neck and Neck Race for Honors in National League—What the Home Run Men are Doing.

Chicago, May 6.—George Sisler of St. Louis and Tris Speaker, leader of the Cleveland Indians, today are in a neck-and-neck race for the batting leadership of the American League, with Sisler topping the heap with an average of .431. Speaker is runner up with .424. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Sisler also is showing the way to the base stealers, having tucked an even dozen away, and also is the best scorer to date. He has crossed the plate twenty-three times.

Kenneth Williams, who promises to be Babe Ruth's rival in home run hitting this season, struck a snag in batting, dropping into fifth place; but continues to crush out homers, however, having connected for ten. A week ago Williams shared the batting leadership with Speaker.

Other leading batters for ten or more games—Eimer Smith, Boston, .389; Wills, New York, .385; Williams, St. Louis, .388; Jamieson, Cleveland, .382; Pratt, Boston, .362; Blue, Detroit, .351; O'Neil, Cleveland, .350.

George Kelley, Giants' first baseman, continues to set the pace for the National League batters with a mark of .448. Kelly knocked out a brace of homers within the last week, but Hornsby and Alonzo of the St. Louis Nations each poked four base blows, and are making the home run pace hot for the Giant slugger, who now has six.

This pair is on Kelly's heels with five each. Hornsby has been hitting the ball with great regularity and as a result boosted his mark from .368 a week ago to .404. Bob O'Farrell, Chicago catcher, is the runner up to Kelly, with an average of .428.

Marvinville of Pittsburgh continues to set the pace for the base stealers with five thefts, while Bancroft, of the Giants, is the leading run getter with nineteen tallies.

Other leading batters for ten or more games:—Marvinville, Pittsburgh, .413; Smith, New York, .408; Hornsby, St. Louis, .404; Walker, Philadelphia, .401; Rautner, Brooklyn, .400; Powell, Boston, .383; Tierney, Pittsburgh, .378; Harper, Cincinnati, .375.

CURED HIS RHEUMATISM

"I am eighty-three years old and I doctored for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army, over fifty years ago. Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called cures, and I have read about 'Uric Acid' until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change." You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as try to get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints by taking treatment supposed to drive Uric Acid out of your blood and body. It took Mr. Ashelman fifty years to find out the truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders and recover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries" now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this trouble. If any reader of this paper wishes "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a post card or letter to H. P. Clearwater, No. 236 A Street, Hallowell, Maine. Send now, lest you forget! If not a sufferer, cut out this notice and hand it to some friend. NEW LOW FOR OCEAN FREIGHT Rates Have Reached Bottom Level, is Feeling at Volume Increases.

(From New York Herald)
Rates generally in the ocean freight market fell to new low levels last week on the important commodities now moving in bulk to European points. The weakness affected both berth and charter rates—part and full cargoes—but the fall in rates was accompanied by a slightly better movement of freight, which gave color to the hope expressed in some quarters that the bottom had been reached. On Saturday a booking of eight carloads of grain for Mediterranean ports was reported at a rate of 1 cent a hundred dred pounds. This was not only below the pre-war average, but it represented a fall to the panic level of 1903. Almost as complete a collapse in berth quotations to the United Kingdom on grain was recorded, at 2 shillings 6 pence a quarter (820 pounds), and in view of the quantity available space on line steamers there is little incentive for tramp ships to enter the market. Similarly in sugar a ship was chartered here for a trip from Cuba to Marselles at $5.75 a ton, the rock bottom low for this business. The previous fixture was at $8.25, having been made a month ago. It can be clearly shown that at current freight rates and operating expense successful operation is entirely impossible. It is calculated that on a round trip from a Gulf port to the Havre-Antwerp range an $800 deadweight ton ship under the American flag, valued at $30 a ton, will incur expenses incidental to handling the cargo, which would vary widely. At a rate of 17 cents a hundred pounds on a grain cargo the gross income to the ship would be $88,210, or far below the expenses, assuming that no return cargo is available, as is almost invariably the case. A British ship, with its lower wage and subsistence costs, would incur expenses under the same conditions of $68,800, still well above the freight income.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR THE Y. M. C. I.

Reports dealing with the highly successful activities of the Young Men's Catholic Institute for the season just finished were presented to a large and interested number at the annual meeting of the institute in the building last evening, with the president, Humphrey J. Sheehan, in the chair. Special note was made of the holding of the Canadian amateur skating championship meet in January under the auspices of the institute and also of the holding of the championship bowling meet, recently concluded. Both the retiring spiritual director, Rev. William Duke, and the present referred in their reports to the splendid co-operation of the officers and committees.

In his address, Rev. Father Duke complimented the club officers and expressed his pleasure at the comprehensiveness of the reports. He referred to the development of the work among boys and touched on the great value of the Boy Scout movement as exemplified in England and the United States. He indicated ways and means by which the interests of the boys could be advanced.

The report of the president referred to the holding of the championship meets. He said he felt it but just that that reference should be given to the achievements of the physical committee. The annual gymnasium review, under the direction of W. E. Stirling, reflected credit on him, and he said he also wished to compliment the president of the debating league, W. R. Walsh, and the chairman of the membership committee, J. E. Quinn and J. H. Cobhan, general secretary, and William J. Stack, manager of the bowling alleys for their efforts during the year. He expressed appreciation of the cheerful assistance given him by Bishop LeBlanc and Rev. Father Duke and concluded by appealing for continued support during the coming year, saying he hoped that the new year would mark a new era of progress.

The report of the membership committee, of which J. E. Quinn is chairman, showed that the club membership now totalled 634. He also spoke of the membership drive last year.

Charles A. Owens reported for the physical committee, giving a comprehensive survey of the work in this department. He thanked W. H. Golding, manager of the Imperial Theatre, for presenting the 1,000 feet of film of the skating championship to the institute.

The social committee's report was presented by the chairman, Bert P. McIntyre, and the educational committee's report was presented by F. K. Jennings, the secretary. He told of the formation and success of the inter-society debating league and of the public addresses by various speakers. He also referred to the annual treat to the boys at the Silver Falls school.

The religious committee's report was given by Joseph Harrington, and that of the boys' committee by Alfred Bardley, who advocated holding a summer camp.

Those directors whose term expired last night are J. E. Quinn, Richard O'Brien, M. Bohan, P. J. Fitzpatrick, James L. McNulty. Directors elected last evening to fill the vacancies were D. J. Corr, F. I. McCafferty, J. E. Quinn, R. O'Brien, Alfred Bardley. The new board of directors is as follows:—President, Humphrey J. Sheehan; vice-president, Dr. W. F. Broderick; secretary, B. P. The Toll of Death in Russia

TEN MILLION CHILDREN in Russia are doomed to die in the slow agonies of starvation unless the people of Canada awaken in their generosity, and by gifts of food and money, enable the Save the Children Fund to prevent this horror.

The famine in the Volga region is the most appalling in recorded history. Whole populations are exterminated. Children—fatherless and motherless, homeless, with death stalking their steps—wander the highways and byways until they creep into some abandoned hovel to die.

Hundreds of thousands have died from starvation and neglect; but millions can be saved if food is dispatched at once.

Will you give something? Will you save a helpless child from starving to death? What you do give means little to you—yet it means the life of a child!

25c will feed a child for a week.
$1.00 will ensure sufficient food for one child for a month.
$500 will establish a kitchen and feed 100 children until the next harvest.

Cheques and Money Orders may be forwarded through your Bank or local Committee or sent direct to Sir George Burn, Treas., Save the Children Fund, Elgin Bldg., Ottawa

ple who had expected to build during the seasons of 1920 and 1921, but on account of the high cost of building material and of labor thought it wise to abandon the plan for the time being. Now, building expenses are down considerably and most of the people above referred to are completing their plans to build their own homes or to erect a business block or tenement as a speculation.

Moncton did not feel the slump in business or building operations as did towns and cities. There was simply an interruption of a couple of years in what was not exactly a boom but rather a steady growth that has been here during the past several years. But it was evidently only an interruption, and in this year Moncton will in all probability make another strong step forward. Some building lots in the available sections have changed hands recently and other preparations made for building. People who have not already gone into the matter should consult a contractor soon, and they will find that building operations have declined at least ten per cent. on last year's prices. Some say the decline is fifteen per cent. Lumber, builders' hardware and labor are once more within our reach, and the result will show itself in a few days. Unemployed labor is being utilized to a gratifying extent.

WHAT CAUSES SO MUCH SICKNESS?

Constipation Responsible for 90 P.C. of Disease

"Fruit-a-Lives Corrects It"
It is generally recognized among the medical profession that Constipation or Inactivity of the Bowels, produces more disease than any other cause. Constipation is responsible for at least 90 per cent of the disease in the world today—because Constipation is responsible for the Indigestion and Dyspepsia—the nervousness, Irritability and Rheumatism—the Eczema and other skin troubles—the Headaches and Backaches.

Why is this?
As you know, it is the duty of the bowels to carry off the waste matter in the system. If the bowels are inactive, then this waste matter remains in the body and poisons the blood. As a result, every organ in the body is poisoned by this waste.

"Fruit-a-Lives" will always relieve Constipation, even though the trouble has been chronic for ten, fifteen and twenty years. Thousands of grateful users proclaim "Fruit-a-Lives" the greatest remedy for Constipation that the world has ever known.

At a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.

a-Lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Decision For Britton.
Omaha, May 6.—Jack Britton, world's welterweight champion, won a referee's decision over "Cowboy" Padgett, of Dolores, Colo., in ten rounds last night. Carpentier Favorite.

Paris, May 6.—Georges Carpentier, is an overwhelming favorite in the betting in his match with Ted Lewis as the bout approaches, as much as four or five to one being offered on the straight result, with not takers. Lewis' backers are desirous of betting even money that their man stays longer than the Australian Cook, whom Georges knocked out in the fourth round, but Carpentier's followers are unwilling to take this chance.

were getting money for taking them. In games where physical contact of players is necessary, it is a very certain thing that amateurs and professionals would not get along together because of the fact that the professionals did not mind the "bumps" as long as they got the money, but to the amateurs it was a different thing. They could not afford it, same, and the result of intermingling would be exactly the same. The amateurs who mixed with the professionals either would become professionals themselves, or they would want to get out of the "mixed" company and back to the ranks of the "simon pures." The result would be just as sure as it is logical. In the battle between the C. A. A. and the Canadian Athletic Federation, the latter went to the wall for the same reason, and eventually they were all "Frogs."

All that the "war" between the two bodies resulted in was the formation of that is about what it would accomplish in the maritime provinces. That result would not be relished by any of the parties concerned. The amateurs would lose many good men to the "pro" ranks, and the "pros" would last for a time and then have to go under, as the maritimes have proven conclusively in the past that they cannot support professional sport.

AMATEURS AND PROFESSIONALS

When They Mix, Down Goes Sport in These Provinces.

(Halifax Echo.)

About twelve years ago the "Athletic Federation of Canada" was formed in the Province of Quebec and Ontario and one of its strongest principles was the advocacy of that much heard suggestion of today, namely, that professionals and amateurs be allowed to mix together in all branches of sport. The federation was impatient with the controlling amateur body, just as some of the maritime clubs are at present, and they started a conflict that lasted several years. They backed the C. A. A. hard and often, but eventually were forced to give up the ghost and become out and out professionals.

There were very few amateurs left in the Federation after a few months, for the amateurs would not take the same hard knocks as the professionals who

CYCLIST CLAIMS $11,288 DAMAGES

Badly Injured in a Collision with an Automobile Near Charlemagne Village.

(Montreal Gazette)

Mr. Justice Lane will this morning charge the jury in the case of Jules Bourget, 29 years of age, is suing Pierre Lafrence for $11,288 damages in compensation for injuries he received in an accident near the village of Charlemagne, where plaintiff was riding a bicycle when knocked down by defendant's automobile.

Plaintiff's case is that defendant, in attempting to drive past another automobile on the highway knocked him off his bicycle and caused injuries which it was said would cripple plaintiff for life. Defendant, it was alleged, was guilty of careless driving and neglected to give warning of his approach.

On his side, defendant declared that the automobile was driven carefully and slowly, that warning was sounded of his approach, but plaintiff was an experienced cyclist, and in his excitement drove into defendant's automobile.

A warehouse, the property of the Samuel Bishop estate, at Bathurst, was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Two small houses were also burned. The buildings were protected by insurance, but their contents were a total loss. Among the latter were a number of automobiles and trucks.

ADDRESS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney-general completed his address to the jury in the Paris trial yesterday afternoon.

Continuing his address at the afternoon session of the court Mr. Byrne said that the counsel for the defence had seen fit to make reference to the class of witnesses called by the crown. Mr. Vernon, no doubt, had a motive for this, said the attorney-general. He sought to impress the jury that because the crown witnesses were carpenters, wives of fishermen and so forth that they could not attain the high ideals of truth and justice reached by the witnesses from Truro.

The defence had not produced Stewart Fraser to support the alibi of August 1. Mr. Byrne said that at his cross-examination at the last trial Fraser's character had been indicated when he said that in his opinion it did not amount to anything whether a girl had been murdered and outraged. Could any such expression from a crown witness be pointed to, he asked. He asked whether the jury had seen anything in the faces of the crown witnesses to indicate that they were not in the full realization of the responsibility that was upon them when a man was on trial for his life. Did that responsibility rest on the defence witnesses, he asked. It did not lie in the mouth of the counsel for the defence to say such things in view of what Stewart had said at the last trial.

The counsel for the defence, Mr. Byrne said, had sought to impress the jury that a verdict of guilty meant the death penalty. The jury was not called upon to pronounce the death penalty. It was God who said, "Thou shalt not kill." Counsel for the defence admitted that the man who had committed the crime was worthy of death. It did not necessarily follow that if the jury did pronounce the prisoner guilty that the prisoner would be hanged.

The defence set up was that Paris could not have murdered Sadie McAuley because he was in Truro on August 2. In the opinion of the crown no reasonable doubt existed that Paris was in St. John on August 1, 2 and 3. Reason cried out that Paris, instead of being in Truro was in St. John, said Mr. Byrne.

"May God grant you the grace and light to see in the evidence anything that may prove the innocence of John Paris and allow him to walk out of the court a free man," said the attorney-general. But if on the other hand, he continued, the jury failed to find that there, the crown felt that its duty had been done.

Mr. Byrne claimed that the crown, having broken down the alibi of August 2, the defence was now coming to August 3 with a new set of witnesses.

Dr. McCurdy had said that on August 2 he was in Oscar Clyke's house. He had seen a man there whom he did not know at the time to be John Paris. Dr. McCurdy had sworn beyond any possibility of a doubt that the man he saw there was John Paris. The doctor had said the Clyke house was 100 to 150 yards away from Paris' grandmother's house. Paris had sworn the Clyke house was about twenty feet away. There might be a dozen Oscar Clykes there. Was the doctor in the same house at all, asked the attorney-general. If Dr. McCurdy had had faith in his own convictions and in the jury, he would have said that it was possible for him to be mistaken but he believed Paris to be the man he saw there, the attorney-general said.

The Crown felt it was not its duty to say one word against the evidence given by the late Warren Ogilvie, Mr. Byrne said. The Crown did not dispute that 90 cents was paid out at the Eastern Hat and Cap factory on August 2. Look at the journal, said the attorney-general. Was there any entry there of John Paris' name as being paid 90 cents, he asked.

William McNaught had been brought to support the case of the transaction of August 2. Could the jury, after having seen McNaught, put faith in his testimony, asked the attorney-general. The receipt had not been produced, the attorney-general said. Why were not McNaught and Miss McKenzie brought over on the first trial, he asked. When the Chautauqua parade was broken down then they brought on McNaught, he said. Although McNaught had said he had never seen the man in his life before that day, yet he swore that Paris was the man, Mr. Byrne said.

Miss McKenzie also was prepared to swear that the man she never saw in her life before, was beyond any possibility of doubt, Paris.

George Murray had said he could not remember the day or the date the two men came to the garage. The Crown did not dispute that Paris was in Truro up to the night of July 31. The Crown claimed that Paris left Truro on the night of July 31 and arrived in St. John on the morning of August 1.

Stanley Nichols had sworn that it was August 2 when the two men came to the garage to sell the gasoline. Nichols had said that when the case was on in Truro he did not have his books. Nichols swore at the preliminary hearing in Truro that it was August 1 or 2 and at the high court trial that it was August 2 or 3 that he bought the gasoline. Mr. Byrne said. It was not until this trial that he swore it was August 2. When asked at this trial about the gasoline slip bearing the date August 1 Nichols had said he could not explain it. The next morning he had said it represented gasoline bought on July 27 or 29.

The attorney-general said that there could be no doubt that the date in the original slip 866,523 had been changed to a "9" from a "3". Mr. Wyatt had sworn that in the duplicate the "9" was changed to a "2". Did the jury suppose that Wyatt, who knew that Paris was on trial for his life, would perjure the life of a man away, asked Mr. Byrne. Mr. Wyatt had proved to the Crown's satisfaction that the transaction had taken place on August 3, Mr. Byrne said.

Mr. Byrne said that when the crown had broken down the alibi as to Aug. 1 and Aug. 2 that a new case was set up by the defence for Aug. 3, and a new set of witnesses were produced.

Mr. Byrne said that the evidence of Mr. Scarborough and Mr. Moxon amounted to nothing. An attempt had been made to fit it in to build up a new alibi. He referred to George Hill and to the evidence of Isaac Allen. He said that maybe Lester Connolly's sister-in-law did die on Aug. 3. It might be that Connolly had taken the suit to Hill's farm on Aug. 4 and had seen Paris there then. He asked how Burton Richardson could fix a date six or seven months later. It was easy for one to go to a book and find that one had been at a certain place on a certain date. He asked whether Maxwell's evidence could be believed and whether Archie Paris was not a discredited witness.

Crown Evidence Reviewed. The attorney-general then went on to review the evidence of the crown witnesses. The crown claimed that Paris left Truro on the night of July 31 and arrived in St. John on the morning of Aug. 1.

Mrs. Craft had sworn she saw Paris in his own yard on Aug. 1. She knew Paris. Was she not comparable in truth and in intelligence with any of the Truro witnesses? John McDonald said he saw Paris and Humphrey on Aug. 1. Mrs. Calvin had sworn she saw Paris in the Park on Aug. 1 and again on Aug. 6. Her daughter, Alice Brown, had said she had a good view of the man's face. She had picked Paris out of six or seven at the police station. She had the date of the plebiscite in St. John to fix the day on the morning of Aug. 1.

Walter Humphrey had been attacked by the counsel for the defence, the attorney-general said. Alexander Day had been criticized, the attorney-general said, because he had said that it was his belief that a man he saw was Paris. Mr. Byrne would rather take that evidence than the evidence of one who swore beyond any possibility of a doubt. He asked the jury whether they doubted that the man whom John McDonald said he saw on the rocks across the river was the man who had committed the murder. Mrs. Byers, Mrs. Gerow, Mrs. Craft and Alfred Byers had said that they had seen Paris on the night of Aug. 2 when the women were looking at the reflection from the fire in the Cushing mill.

As for Aug. 3, he reviewed evidence to the effect that on the morning of Aug. 3, while Walter Humphrey and Ernest Campbell were talking in Campbell's yard, Paris came along and talked with them. Campbell had tied up Paris' arm. Whether it was a bolt or the bite of a little child fighting for life was not for the crown to say, Mr. Byrne said.

He referred to the conversation in the boat, according to the evidence of Walter Humphrey. Was Humphrey's story manufactured to send a man to the gallows; was there anything to justify the jury throwing away that evidence, was there anything unreasonable about it? asked the attorney-general.

How could the jury say "Walter Humphrey was lying unless they said Stanley Humphrey, Mrs. Craft, John Beat and Ernest Campbell were lying, asked the attorney-general. What object would any of them have to come to court and swear away the life of John Paris, he asked.

The attorney-general contended that Paris left Truro on the night of August 3 to build up an alibi after he had failed to implicate Humphrey in the crime.

Who was the man who committed the crime, asked the attorney-general. It was asked even if Paris were here, whose evidence was there that he committed the murder? Did the jury have any doubt that the man who put his foot on the fence was the man who had outraged and murdered Sadie McAuley, Mr. Byrne asked. He then read from a piece of paper a statement which he said was made by Hattie Lavigne when asked to look at Paris. It was as follows: "He is the same size man but his moustache makes him look different and he hasn't a red face like when he was down picking berries with us."
