DAL. DEFEATED ACADIA 13 TO 11

Five Hundred Persons Witnessed Ball Game Between College Teams

(From the Halifax Chronicle)

Dalhousie evened the baseball series with Acadia by defeating the Blue and Red at the Wanderers Grounds on Saturday by a score of 13 runs to 11. The "intown" Collegians, however, were pushed to the limit to win, and it was only their heavy hitting in the first inning, when they captured eight tallies, that gave them the game. About five hundred people turned out to see the first game of baseball to be played in Halifax in 1922, and, while they were treated to several thrills in the last two innings of the game, they witnessed what on the whole was by no means a brilliant exhibition. Errors were predominant, and the errors of the locals proved very costly, for, out of a total of eleven runs for Acadia, only five were earned by the visiting Collegians, the remainder being scored on misplays by the locals.

After the sensational start of Dalhousie, where they made eight runs, both teams settled down, and for a time it looked as if the game was going to be won by the scores made in the first and second innings. Acadia made three tallies in the second and Dalhousie added two. The third and fourth innings went scoreless for both teams, and in the fourth Richardson, hurling for the Yellow and Black, struck out three men in succession. In the fifth Acadia crept up a notch, scoring two runs to one for Dalhousie. In the sixth the visitors added another tally and Dalhousie went out in one, two, three order.

With the score 11 to 6 for Dalhousie, the Acadians went to bat in the "lucky seventh", and before the smoke cleared away they had netted four runs and were right on top of their opponents, needing only one run to tie the game up. Two bad errors and a brace of hits, assisted by a safe play on the part of Moore in right field for the locals, when he failed to go for a line drive from Grimmer, allowed the Wolffvilleites to get their quartette of runs. From this point the game was exciting. Dalhousie were blanked in their half of the seventh, and the visitors came to bat with all the confidence in the world. Anthony got a single, the next two batters went down at first, and then Bartheaux, who had been playing a great game at second for the visitors, came to bat and doubled, scoring Anthony with the tying run, making 11 all. Dalhousie, however, went ahead again in the last of the eighth, Haslam starting the ball with a nice single to right field. Richardson got on, and both came home on Purcell's hit. Acadia tightened at this juncture and no more runs were scored. In the first of the ninth the Acadians started a batting rally that looked bad for the locals. Blanchard, however, made the best play of the game when he stopped a fast one by diving for it, threw to Bates, who sent the pill to Haslam for a double play. Acadia's hopes were dashed, and the last man to bat was thrown out at first.

Mr. Ormond Forsythe has been visiting for a time at the home of his brother, Mr. Chesley Forsythe, Bridgetown. A good many from here have been attending and enjoying the different recitals in Wolffville.

Mr. A. J. Mason has purchased the Opera House at Parrsboro and is making arrangements to have it remodelled and made into an up-to-date theatre. Mr. Mason will of necessity have to spend practically all his time at Parrsboro, but as his lease of the local Opera House does not expire for another year he will carry on business at both places, and Mr. Donald Stuart will be manager of the Wolffville theatre. The people of Wolffville will be very sorry to lose Mr. Mason who has been a decided addition to the musical and sporting life of the town. What is our loss is Parrsboro's gain. We wish him much success in his new venture.

GREENWICH NOTES

Mr. Harlan Forsythe, Wolffville, was busy in this place a few days last week, ploughing and harrowing with his Cletrac tractor, for a number of our farmers. Good work is done by the little tractor and it is the best thing possible for work in an orchard, under trees, being so low built.

Very recently the seventh little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cleveland. Sympathy is felt for Mrs. Cleveland in the death of her mother, Mrs. Collins, of White Rock, last Tuesday. A few from here attended the funeral last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Collins was the widow of the late James Collins. Three daughters and one son are left to mourn the loss of their mother.

Mrs. Ada Forsythe arrived last Tuesday afternoon from Massachusetts where she and children have been spending the winter. She is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Forsythe and is here to look after the storing of her furniture and renting of her house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop entertained a number of the immediate family relatives last Tuesday, for tea and evening. Miss Isabelle Hawley, of St. Stephen, N. B., who recently came to visit her friend Mrs. George Bishop, is now assistant teacher at the kindergarten department of Wolffville school, having received an urgent call to this position, soon after she arrived here. Miss Hawley has had experience in this work.

Miss Joyce Harvey, who is taking the 12th grade work at Kings County Academy, Kentville, this year, is being congratulated by her friends on receiving the position of teacher for the seventh grade, at the Academy. Although only a young girl, she was very highly recommended to the School Board by her principal, Mr. Trask. Her salary will be a "good sized" one.

Miss Esther Pearson visited her sister, Mrs. Brenton Merry, Bear River, a few days last week, returning home on Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Merry, who spent the week-end at her home here.

John Andrew left on Monday morning for Montreal, where he will join the ship "Canadian Mariner", under the command of Captain J. E. Faulkner, of Port Williams, and will leave in a few days for Australia.

Mr. Ormond Forsythe has been visiting for a time at the home of his brother, Mr. Chesley Forsythe, Bridgetown.

A good many from here have been attending and enjoying the different recitals in Wolffville.

The tennis court here has been put in good condition by a few of the young people and a number have been enjoying the use of it during the past week.

CLINIC ITEMS

Tuberculosis Clinic at Room, Weaver Block, Kentville, Friday, May 26, commencing 2 p. m. Specialist from the Nova Scotia Sanatorium in attendance. More than a hundred and fifty thousand citizens of the United States and Canada die each year of the White Plague, Tuberculosis. Most of these people would have lived had they obeyed three simple rules. Practically none of them would have had this dread disease if they had known a few simple precautions. Everybody has tuberculosis. That is in every human body there are germs which cause the disease. Under certain conditions the germs develop. Under other conditions they cannot develop. Over work. Impure Air. Poor Food. These let the germs multiply. Rest, Fresh Air. Good Food. These prevent the germs from developing. Printed by Metropolitan Life.

It is requested that the children whose eyes were examined by the eye specialist at Clinic Room on May 5, call for their glasses on Saturday morning, May 20 or 27.

BOARD OF TRADE

Holds Enthusiastic Meeting—Improvements at "Stile" Suggested

There was a good attendance of members at the meeting of the Board of Trade on Thursday evening of last week and a lively interest was evidenced in the different matters which came up for consideration.

The filling in and improving of the property at "the bridge" was the first matter taken up, and the opinion appeared to be unanimous that some work along this line should be undertaken at once. A number of suggestions were made by gentlemen present and the committee in charge was requested to continue with their investigations and if possible see that progress was made.

Other matters discussed were the proposal to secure rights in the property at "the stile" and fit it up for the better accommodation of tourists and other visitors, and to get permission to use the College grounds during the summer for band concerts, etc.

In regard to the former scheme it was reported that Messrs. Borden and Peck, the owners of the land through which entrance must be made to this popular resort, are willing to donate a strip of land leading to the brow of the hill. It was suggested if possible enough land should be secured to make room for automobiles to pass and turn, and that an effort should be made to secure control of a tract of land overlooking the valley. Messrs. H. A. Peck, Fred Bishop and C. G. C. Coombs were appointed a committee to look into the matter and report.

The Publicity Committee was requested to interview the College authorities relative to securing the use of the grounds as proposed, and report at a subsequent meeting.

Mr. C. G. C. Coombs suggested the placing of an attractive sign at the railway station calling attention to the beauties of the locality—a suggestion that appeared to have a very general approval.

Dr. Coit brought up the matter of the proposed pageant in a very interesting and exhaustive address. It was decided that a meeting of the citizens held at the earliest possible time and that the whole scheme be fully presented.

MEMORIAL UNVEILED AT CANNING

There was a large gathering at Canning Sunday afternoon when the Soldiers' Memorial Tablet for Ward One was unveiled. Many persons from all over the county attended the impressive services.

The unveiling took place on the Armories' green with Lieutenant-Governor Grant officiating.

A memorial service took place later in the Armories, which was conducted by Dr. Clarence McKinnon, Pine Hill College, Halifax, assisted by Dr. G. B. Cutten, Acadia University, Wolffville, and other prominent clergymen.

Music was furnished by the Canning orchestra, assisted by the Kentville quartette and Mr. Silver, Wolffville.

Stipendiary Withrow presided at the Town Court for the first time on Monday. Only one matter was up for consideration, a civil case, which was postponed until Monday next by the request of counsel for the defendant.

OUR WATER SUPPLY

Reservoirs Well Filled—Good Work Done by Pump at Artesian Well

In company with Councillor Whidden acting Chairman of the Water Committee, a representative of THE ACADIAN paid a visit to the Reservoirs on Wednesday and inspected conditions there. The scribe was pleased to find that since his last visit some weeks ago the gate on the west end of the property was securely locked and the fences put in condition to prevent any trespassing. On visiting the east gate, however, he was disappointed to find it standing half open. Both reservoirs were pretty well filled with water and indications point to the likelihood of a good supply of water during the season. The pump at the well was not in operation at the time of our visit but Councillor Whidden informed THE ACADIAN that it had been doing splendid service during the past week. According to his estimate, the pump in that time had supplied the needs of the town and increased the depth of the reservoir over an inch, the supply from the source having been turned into the new reservoir which now shows a good depth of water. The total cost of operation is $1.50 per day. Considerable good work has been done by the Committee during the present Spring, but considerable yet remains to be done. Councillor Whidden is displaying great interest in the affairs of our water service, and brings to its management much technical knowledge which he has acquired in former years when he had charge of similar undertakings.

THE ACADIAN would recommend to the town authorities the cleaning up and grading of the roadbank adjoining the reservoirs. In many of the towns and cities the source of water supply is made a beauty-spot, and the opportunity for work along this line in our town is plainly apparent.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. JOHNSON SPICER

The funeral of the late Capt. Johnson Spicer took place on Sunday, the 14th inst., at three o'clock from his residence, Parrsboro. A very large number paid their last respects to this highly esteemed son of Cumberland. As a ship captain for over thirty years, a valued member of the Spencers Island Company, senior partner of the Newville Lumber Co. and as a citizen and neighbor he had shown his ability and worth. He was born at Spencers Island nearly seventy-two years ago, the second son of Jacob Spicer, and leaves a wife, formerly Miss Adelia A. Loomer, three brothers, Capt. Geo. W. Spicer, Capt. Davis Spicer, Capt. Edward Spicer, and three sisters, Mrs. H. C. Jenks, of Parrsboro, Mrs. Daniel Bigelow and Mrs. John Clark, to mourn their loss. From Kings County, Ernest Newcomb, of Dalhousie, Dr. W. Spicer, of Canning, a nephew, Mrs. D. E. Loomer, of Wolffville, and N. W. Eaton, a former partner and Mrs. Eaton, of Canning, attended the last services. John Clark and Mrs. Clark, of Brooklynd, New York, Guy Loomer, of Waverly, Mass., and Mrs. John Fisher, of Port Maitland, were also present.

We may have a "backward spring" and unseasonable weather in the East, but when we read of the devastating floods in Manitoba and the grasshopper peril in Alberta—we will be thankful for what we have.

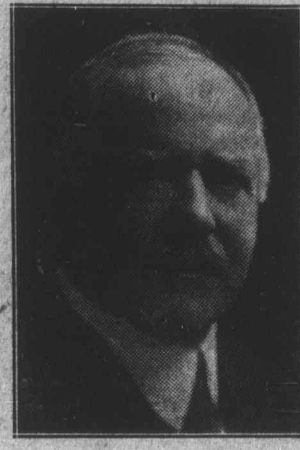

UNCORKED BY THE WAR

The question is how to get him back into the vase.

SPLENDID PERFORMANCE BY VARSITY TROUPE

The Varsity Troupe of Kings University paid their annual visit to Wolffville on Tuesday evening, when they presented the three act comedy, "Ann", at the Opera House. As last year, their performance was of a high order, and greatly enjoyed by those present, but was deserving of a much larger audience. All the parts were exceedingly well taken and it was difficult to pick any ones as being better than the others. The favorites, however, probably were Miss Hazel M. Stevens, as Ann Anning, an American newspaper reporter; Willard F. McCulloch, as Edward Hargraves, an English novelist; and A. Selwyn Coster, as the Very Reverend Samuel Hargraves. Miss Catherine Jones, as Mrs. Hargraves, had a difficult part and acted it well. The other parts, Evangeline Lipscomb, acted by Miss Reina Lavers; and "Billy", acted by M. Gerald Teed; although of minor importance were also well acted.

The specialties between the acts were much enjoyed, especially the act of Wilbert Avery, "New York's Boy Violinist," who is an accomplished musician and whose selections were loudly applauded.

TOWN COUNCIL

A special meeting of the council was held on Tuesday evening at which a few matters of minor importance were dealt with.

Petitions were presented from Mrs. E. W. Fox and Mrs. F. H. Christie, asking in each case that the assessment of property to the estate of their late husbands be transferred to themselves and the widow's exemption allowed. In the case of the latter the request was granted, and a committee was appointed to investigate the former.

A petition from the residents of Prospect Street, asking for much needed improvements on that important thoroughfare, was read and it was on motion requested that a delegation from the petitioners be appointed to confer with the Street Committee regarding same.

The Clerk was instructed to place bonds in the bank to cover bills to be paid out of capital on account of sewers and water.

Messrs. J. D. Chambers and S. C. West were appointed Presiding Officers and Messrs. A. G. Cowie and G. K. Prescott Poll Clerks for the approaching election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Councillor Nowlan.

An application was received from the D. A. R. asking permission to place a spur across the road leading to the Government Wharf to the Oil Tank of the Imperial Oil Co. The Council was in doubt as to its power in this regard and a committee composed of the Mayor and Councillors Cox and Young was appointed to investigate and if possible grant this request.

The application of the Wolffville Fruit Co., to place an awning in front of their store was referred to the Street Committee.

WOLFFVILLE TO HAVE OIL COMPANY TANK

The Imperial Oil Company has secured a building site on the dyke north of Mr. R. E. Harris' property on which to erect a tank for supplying gasoline. The foundation for the large tank and also for the wagon-house is now being prepared and the work will be completed at once. A siding for the railway will be put down for the convenience of the company. The tank is being placed in a safe and convenient location and will undoubtedly be a large distributor of gasoline.

The Electric Commission has replaced the crooked pole in front of Waterbury & Co.'s store which has received so much criticism since it was erected a few weeks ago.

GRADUATING RECITALS

Three Graduates of Acadia Conservatory Give Splendid Performances

There was a good attendance at the Baptist Church last Friday evening, when Miss Ann MacLean, completing the course in Expression at Acadia Conservatory of Music and Fine Arts for a diploma, and Vera Frances Coy, completing the teacher's course in Expression for a diploma, gave their graduating recital. Both young ladies, pupils of Evelyn E. Smallman and Leah B. Whidden, proved themselves to be accomplished readers and their selections were much enjoyed. They were ably assisted by Joyce MacDonald Clark, violiniste, and Anne M. Bonnett, accompaniste. The program was as follows:

- The Barrel Organ Alfred Noyes
- Miss Coy
- (a) Souvenir Miss Coy
- (b) Serenade Miss Clark
- One-Act-Play: "Mrs. Pat and the Law" Mary Aldis
- Scene: A small poor room in a tenement flat.
- Characters: Pat
- Jimmie, their son
- Miss Carrol
- John Bing
- Miss MacLean
- Slavonic Fantasia Dvorak-Kreistler
- Miss Clark
- When Elizabeth Went Home A. Ronald
- Miss Coy

Another graduate in Expression, William John Miller, who is completing the course in expression for a diploma, gave his recital on Monday evening before a large audience, at the Baptist Church. Mr. Miller has several times appeared before a Wolffville audience and he is always a favorite. His performance on Monday evening was as usual greatly enjoyed. However all the applause did not go to Mr. Miller, for Miss Verne Thompson, violiniste, who assisted him, also came in for her share. Miss Thompson showed herself to be a violiniste of ability and her selections were loudly applauded. Miss Mary Lusby proved a splendid accompaniste. The program follows:

Act I "Peaceful Valley", Edward E. Kidder

Scene: The Ayrton House, White Mountains.

- Characters:
- Hosea Howe, a man of the mountains
- Jotham Ford, the hotel keeper
- Ward Andrews, who will bear watching
- Leonard Rand, a merchant prince
- Jack Farquhar
- Virginia Rand
- Mr. Miller
- (a) Melodie Tschaikowski
- (b) Minuet in D Mozart
- Miss Thompson
- Two Canadian Poems
- The Poplars Bernard Trotter
- My Inn Bernard Trotter
- Mr. Miller
- (a) Indian Lament Dvorak-Kreistler
- (b) Son of the Puzsta Keler Bela
- Miss Thompson
- Scene I "Les Miserables" Victor Hugo
- Scene II "Les Miserables" Victor Hugo
- Mr. Miller

NOTES ON BOYS' WORK

The meetings on Tuesday evenings have now been discontinued. Both troops meet at the regular hour on Friday evenings. The first game of the Scout Baseball League was played on Saturday last. The combined Presbyterians and Methodists defeated the Anglicans and Roman Catholics, score 11 to 6. Donald Monro made a good referee.

The Scouts are anxious to earn money to help carry on the work and the publishers of the Sunday Leader have offered them this chance giving them four cents for every paper sold. Quite a prosperous business was carried on for a few weeks but so many people turned the boys down that the Scout master became disgusted and decided that it was not worth the time and trouble. However the boys are ready to try it again and it is hoped that the public will give them a helping hand. The following boys have been appointed sales agents: Baptists, Victor Murphy; Presbyterians, James Northover; Methodists, Jack Williams; Anglicans, Horace Brown. The patrol selling the most "Leaders" by the end of June will be credited with twenty-five points in the competition for the Crestler trip.

The Boys are doing very well in their Scout work and should be encouraged. As an example it is worthy of mention that during the month of April one patrol of 10 boys had an attendance record of 149 out of a possible 150, which means that every boy with one exception had attended church, Sunday School, and the weekly meeting every week during the month.

The Nova Scotia Methodist conference will meet this year at Sydney in June.

DRUG DRINKS

The Journal of the American Medical Association has warned against drug drinks at different times. It says: "There is such a thing as the caffeine habit, and this habit is on the increase, and its seriousness should be explained to the public. Children up to fifteen years should not drink tea or coffee, and caffeine soda fountain drinks should be prohibited. Caffeine is not a desirable stimulant to serve indiscriminately to growing children and young adults. Caffeine has a definite tendency to the formation of a habit. Not a little of the restlessness of children during the summer is to be attributed to the taking of caffeine in considerable quantities in the form of soda fountain drinks." Medical writers say that caffeine produces insomnia.

Caffeine is a drug used in headache remedies. It relieves sensations of fatigue, but at the same time injures the nerves and digestion.

The extract of coca leaves used now in soft drinks is made from the refuse of cocaine factories, that is, it is made after the cocaine is supposed to be all extracted. One man who has studied these drinks says: "Cigarettes and Coca Cola are today the two great dangers of our boys, dangerous in leading to worse things and in bringing nervous and bodily excesses."

Dr. H. H. Rusby, dean of the College of Pharmacy of Columbia University, New York City, says: "Caffeine is a genuine poison, both acute and chronic. Taken in the form of a beverage it tends to the formation of a drug habit quite as characteristic, though not so effective as ordinary narcotics. Permanent disorders of the cardiac (heart) function, and of the cerebral (brain) circulation result from its continued use."

THE SULKERS

The world's too busy now to pause
 To listen to a whiner's cause;
 It has no time to stop and pet
 The sulker in a peevish fret,
 Who wails he'll neither work nor play
 Because things haven't gone his way.

The world keeps plodding right along
 And gives its favors right or wrong
 To all who have the grit to work
 Regardless of the fool or shirk,
 The world says this to every man:
 "Go out and do the best you can."

The world's too busy to implore
 The beaten one to try once more;
 'Twill help him if he wants to rise,
 And boost him if he bravely tries,
 And shows determination grim;
 But if won't stop to baby him.

The world is occupied with men
 Who fall but quickly rise again;
 But those who whine because they're hit
 And step aside to sulk a bit
 Are doomed some day to wake and find
 The world has left them far behind.

LITERARY NOTES

I have on my desk two new novels, the one Canadian, the other American. The former, "In the Morning of Time", by Charles G. D. Roberts, is a story of prehistoric days. The author has given the figures of his very graphic imagination full play, but he has disposed them on a background of scientific truth. The first chapter, "The World Without Man", is a marvel of descriptive energy. In the second chapter man appears, fighting with the dinosaur; in the third we find the tribe, and a human hero and heroine for what proves as delightful a romance as the lover of fiction could desire. The characters are modern; that is, Grom and Aya, clothed, but not one whit saner in heart and mind, can be found among the better classes of our people to-day. I did not say the upper classes. They love each other with fervor, yet with modesty and restraint; the woman obeys the man, yet holds him to a quiet respect of her and her ways; they care for their people but they cherish their own household. The woman is busy, faithful and interested; the man is inventive. Together they discover fire and the use of the bow and arrow; side by side they fight their enemies; sharing the responsibility they lead their tribe to a place of safety. There should be a quick and a wide demand for this charming romance. It was published recently in Toronto by McClelland & Stewart.

The other novel is by Rupert Hughes, and has the challenging title, "Souls for Sale". It will be published May 24th by Harper and Brothers, but this advance copy was sent me by Hodder & Stoughton, who handle Harpers' publications in Canada. The author should need no introduction to the reading public. He has served on the staffs of Godey's Magazine of Current Literature, and of The Criterion in London; he is a man whose intellect was trained by vigorous study in Western Reserve and Yale Universities; he has already written much fiction and several authoritative works on music. There is not a bad person in this new novel of his, but all the characters do wrong. There is a sardonic humour in the way Mr. Hughes refuses either to excuse or to condemn them. The story is always verging on tragedy, but nothing very dreadful happens, save the death of poor Elwood Farnaby not far from the beginning. This Elwood leaves the heroine in a distressing plight. She is the daughter of the narrow minded but sincerely good old village parson; the parson whose "sweet wrong headedness" keeps you loving him when he is declaiming against the moving picture evil and when he is succumbing to a belief that it is not an evil at all. The daughter, Remember Steadon, has sinned irrevocably against the standards of good conduct, and she worms herself out of one false situation into another and yet another in her effort to avoid disgrace for herself and sorrow for her parents. She finally comes out on very good ground, a moving picture actress of unusual ability. Through all her slips, and they are grievous ones, her character rings true. The novel is intellectually conceived; the author shows a critical but sympathetic understanding of the various moral standards among a people moving in a complex web of social contradictions, and he has a man's repudiation of canting goody-goodness. The book should do much to bring before the people in its true light the moving picture art, or industry, for it is both.

THE CHIMES OF NORMANDY

The beautiful opera, "Bells of Cornville", or better known as "The Chimes of Normandy", which Messrs. Mason and Evans contemplate producing on May 31st, is one of those standard operas that appeals strongly to all lovers of music. Not only does it abound in beautiful music, both in solo and chorus work, but there is throughout the opera a thread of comedy that ranks it one of the best comic operas ever written. It is an acknowledged fact that this opera has been witnessed by the same persons more than a dozen times which testifies to its merits as a musical production of its kind second to none.

Special care has been exercised in the rehearsals so that it may be presented in a manner worthy of note not only to the producers but to those taking part. The Legend of the Bells, the outstanding chorus number, is one of those entrancing pieces that will call forth a spontaneous response from the hearts of those who love music. The principal parts are in very capable hands while the chorus is composed of many of our leading singers. Mr. Mason has been most painstaking and is entitled to no little credit for the manner in which he has conducted the musical part of the pieces, while to Mr. Nat Evans falls the duty of the stage directing. Of these two men it may be well to state, in passing, that both have had considerable experience in theatrical work.

Mr. Evans has been successful both in his younger days in a professional capacity and in later years, while in Halifax, in amateur work, having staged many productions. The part of Gaspard which will be played by him is his masterpiece.

Miss Evelyn Duncanson will play the soubrette role of Serpolette, singing and acting a part that calls forth her splendid talent along those lines.

Miss Mona Parsons will make a very attractive Germaine, one of the leading parts among the ladies. Both ladies have soprano parts.

Mr. B. C. Silver, with his magnificent baritone voice and splendid stage presence will do full justice to "Henri the Marquis".

We can all bank on Mr. Fred Rand (bass) with his illimitable powers for fun making to do full justice to the comedy end in his character of the Bailli, assisted by Mr. Ted Stackhouse as the Notary.

Mr. A. J. Mason is so well known as a soloist in this as well as other towns in the Province that much need not be said in connection with his singing, suffice to say that the opera will have a tenor in Mr. Mason that will do full justice to the part of Grenicheux. In fact judging from what we have heard of his work especially in the two beautiful solos "On Billows Rocking" and "That Night I'll Ne'er Forget", he excels some of the tenors that have been heard in the same role. Mr. Mason has played in musical shows before, both amateur and professional, having been with Selwyn's New York production of "Buddies" two seasons ago, playing all the larger cities in the middle western states.

Mr. Don Cameron with his splendid musical ability, will, we are assured, preside most acceptably at the piano, assisted by Mr. Murray's orchestra.

The Misses Stackhouse will also feature in dance numbers. Special attention will be given to stage details. Under such capable management, excellent soloists, strong chorus and beautiful costumes, we feel assured that a rare treat is in store for those who attend the performance of this tuneful opera.

Is Now a Healthy Boy

"From a puny, delicate child, my little Johnny has become a strong sturdy boy."

One mother writes:—"If you had seen my little Johnny four months ago and you were to see him to-day, you would never believe that he is the same boy. Then he weighed only 48 pounds. To-day he weighs 90 pounds, almost double what he weighed four months ago. His trouble first started with a cold, which we never noticed because he was strong and like all boys of his age occasionally caught cold. After a while we began to notice that his cough, instead of getting better, was getting worse, that he was looking pale and losing weight. He seemed to be tired all the time, had no energy to do anything. Before he caught this cold he had no trouble with his lessons and remained at the head of his class without much study. But we began to notice a change. He didn't seem to care whether he knew his lessons or not and nothing seemed to interest him. He coughed so much and so hard at times that his face would become purple and we thought he would surely burst a blood vessel. Medicines and cough mixtures didn't do him any good. Finally, in desperation and as a last resort, we tried Carnol. In a short time his cough had almost disappeared. His appetite was returning and he was beginning to take an interest in his studies. And, thanks to Carnol, he has become as strong and healthy as he has ever been."

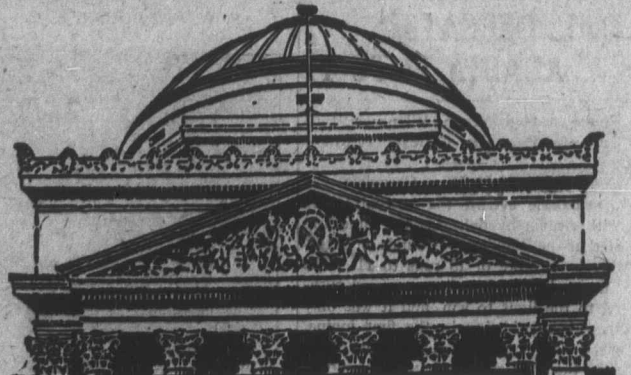

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it has not done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 1-122

A Brief Explanation

as to how you can purchase a musical instrument from us on time.

1st. We have one price to both the cash and time buyer. In other words, every instrument on our floors is marked at the cash price.

2nd. When a customer purchases on time we take a contract from the purchaser, at the cash price (there are not two prices) in which he agrees to pay a certain amount each month until the instrument is paid for.

3rd. It naturally costs us more to carry a time account than it does to put through a cash sale. To cover this extra cash a regular interest charge is made every six months on the unpaid balance. This interest charge is the only extra cost to the time purchaser and even on the largest accounts, amounts only to a few dollars on the entire contract.

4th. We do not take notes or any paper that is negotiable. Every contract is put away in our own vaults, and no one except the purchaser and ourselves is aware of the nature of the transaction.

5th. We welcome the customer who wishes to purchase on time and gladly arrange terms that are suitable.

If you wait until you have the full purchase price that time may never come. But our plan will let you enjoy music and pay for it conveniently.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK

$5.00 will place any piano on our floors in your home. The balance on suitable terms. This surely will remove the last barrier which stands between your home and a piano. But come in today. This offer is good until Tuesday night, May 23rd.

FRANK W. BARTEAUX

SUGGESTING A MOVEMENT FOR GREATER TIDINESS

(From the Maritime Merchant.)

If one takes a walk these days in the suburbs or about the residential streets an hour or so before sundown, he will see the man with the rake busily engaged in tidying about this premises. Tidiness is a virtue which too many people in this country have been slow to cultivate, and it is satisfactory to witness any breaking away from an indifference to the aspect of one's environment which we inherited from the country's pioneers. Our forefathers were perhaps not to blame if they felt it was enough for them to hew down the forest and clear the land, with out bothering to clear up all the debris that surrounded their houses or care much about the beauty of their immediate surroundings, particularly in view of the fact that very rarely did visitors from other parts penetrate to the solitary settlements. But to-day we no longer have the pioneers' excuse, nor their lack of incentive to better things; for as a matter of fact the times call for a distinctly different attitude towards these matters than prevailed in the old days and has been retained in most localities down to the present day. In fact the whole point of view has changed. Once upon a time tidiness was regarded merely from an aesthetic standpoint, but to-day it has very practical bearings, particularly in relation to sanitation and to the more utilitarian question of commercial assets. Accordingly, whatever our pioneer forebears may have had to say for themselves in extenuation of their default in this respect, people who are careless now about keeping their premises tidy, cannot so readily be excused.

Tidiness nowadays is a real business asset, in testimony whereof, we point to the remarks one hears quite frequently, about Wolfville, as a residential town. You will hear them say that when they have money enough to retire they propose to buy a place in Wolfville. And why Wolfville? Well, largely because at Wolfville there is a community effort to keep the place in the best of order continually. Wolfville because of this fact is a pleasant place to live and it is worth a great deal to the storekeepers of Wolfville that this should be so. Real estate too is benefitted as well as general business; the same people who buy property there afterwards become buyers of other things.

In the Maritime Provinces most of people are agreed that we should like to have a large tourist trade, not that we so specially love the tourist as because we are peeding his money. And this being so, it must follow that the more attractive we make the places where our people live the more likely is there to be a response to our invitation to strangers to come and see us.

Hence the reason for greater interest in tidiness, and in view of the benefit he is likely to derive from it, the local merchant should take the lead in such a movement, and for that purpose, there is no time like the present. This is the season of the year when every merchant throughout the country should be trying to create a community spirit in favor of tidiness. Let them go to it.

But alas! we fear that too often merchants are themselves offenders in this respect. One day last year while motoring up country we stopped at the store of one of our subscribers, a prominent and successful merchant, and as we gave it "the once over" what "hit us in the eye" was the condition of the store's back yard. It was absolutely littered with boxes, crockeryware crates, and rubbish of one sort or another; an eyesore to the community. We said to ourselves: "Can it be that this man pays no attention to what he reads in the Merchant? For have we not been preaching to him on this subject of tidiness for many, many years?" Organizations should be started in every community throughout the province for the purpose of carrying on a sustained effort for more tidiness. We hope they will be, for though we may never be very wealthy, we certainly can be tidy. We are far from being as tidy as we ought to be at present.

It is estimated that sixteen million persons attend moving picture theatres in the United States every day.

THE LADIES' AID

The old church bell had long been cracked. Its call was but a groan. It seemed to sound a funeral knell, With every broken tone. "We need a bell," the brethren said. "But taxes must be paid; We have no money we can spare— Just ask the Ladies' Aid."

The shingles on the roof were old; The rain came in down rills; The brethren slowly shook their heads And spoke of monthly bills. The Chairman of the board arose, And said, "I am afraid. That we shall have to lay the case Before the Ladies' Aid."

The carpet had been patched and patched, Till quite beyond repair, And through the aisles and on the steps The boards showed hard and bare. "It is too bad," the brethren said; "An effort must be made To raise an interest on the part Of members of the Aid."

The preacher's stipend was behind; The poor man blushed to meet The grocer and the butcher as They passed him on the street; But nobly spoke the brethren then; "Pastor, you shall be paid! We'll call upon the treasurer Of our good Ladies' Aid."

"Ah!" said the men, "the way to heaven Is long and hard and steep; With slopes of ease on either side, The path 'tis hard to keep. We cannot climb the heights alone. Our hearts are sore dismayed; We ne'er shall get to heaven at all Without the Ladies' Aid."

MOTIVE POWER OF BUSINESS IS PUSH

"Business is like a wheelbarrow," declared Charles Estey, speaking at a convocation of commerce students at the University of Chicago. "You must push it to make it go. It is business suicide to sit back and try to save money by cutting down advertising in the hope of retrenching."

"During the war the most successful companies advertised even while the Government was demanding their entire output and they were unable to supply a single article for public consumption. They advertised because they didn't want the consumer to forget them when they were ready to come back again."

Ask for Minard's and take on other.

FORESTS AND WATER POWER

We are just as callous and indifferent over the destruction of our natural resources. People seem to lose sight of the fact that the wiping out of large forest areas by fire also means the obliteration, to a large extent, of our water power so that the permanency and utilization of this great asset is also jeopardized; threatening not only the development of our industries, but also transportation facilities and the thousand and one other necessities of life which modern ingenuity has provided for our comfort, entertainment, and pleasure.—Deputy Fire Marshall Lewis, Ontario.

GOOD FOR LAWYERS

Sometimes it seems to us that if our law-making bodies met only once in about eight or ten years living would be easier. We are accumulating so many laws, needful and otherwise, that soon it will be necessary to have the advice of a lawyer before undertaking the simplest business.

NO WONDER HE WANTED THEM!

Little Bobby one day went to buy a pair of trousers with his mother. After being shown almost every pair of trousers in the store, he said that he wanted the pair in the window. His mother wondered why. When the salesman took the pair from the window they bore the sign, "These trousers cannot be beat."

Have you a Twenty Pay Life Policy?

A true story of a Canada Life Policy issued over forty years ago.

At age 30 he secured a $5,000 Twenty Pay Life Policy

At age 35 he received his first Dividend, which was added to the Policy

At age 50 he received notice that his Policy, with 20 years' Dividends, was fully paid for.

At age 70 he withdrew the cash value for his personal use. For years he had $5,000 protection, and the cash value with dividends now amounted to $6,140. He had paid only $2,830 in premiums.

If he so desired the company would have given him this $6,140 as a monthly income of $66.50 for life.

A Policy on your life will do much towards carrying out your intentions—whether you live or die.

Nothing can absolutely replace your life—but a policy will in some measure offset the financial loss which will come to those who now look to you for support

It may pay off the mortgage, supply food and clothing for your family, keep the children at school.

It may be all that is left of your life work—to keep you in comfort in your old age.

But—your Policy must be large enough.

The Twenty Payment Life

policy is selected by many for the following reasons.

Premiums cease in twenty years—therefore your policy will be fully paid for before you reach later life—when your earning power will have declined.

Cash values increase year by year, and after the third annual premium the policy cannot lapse as long as sufficient value exists.

Dividends are paid during the twenty years and as long as the policy remains in force thereafter.

After one year the policy is indisputable, and you may reside or travel in any part of the world, or engage in any occupation (except aviation) without affecting your insurance.

A twenty pay life policy will provide an amount in event of death equal to twenty or thirty times the annual premium, and produce an estate of $2,000, $5,000, $10,000, or more as arranged.

An Easy Savings Plan

These active progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be most easily met.

Twenty years is a convenient period and premiums spread over that length of time are moderate and easy to handle.

If You Are Insurable

—do not delay decision on this important matter—delays are dangerous.

BEAUTIFUL WOLFVILLE

In another column we reproduce from the current issue of the Maritime Merchant a very flattering reference to Wolfville, which will be read with pride by our citizens. The reputation which our town has acquired for tidiness and good taste displayed in the care of its public and private property is something that is worth much to us as a community and should be carefully guarded and maintained. During recent years citizens have displayed a very commendable energy in the laying out and improvement of their properties and through the solicitation of the Board of Trade and Civic Club considerable has been accomplished in the improvement of public conditions. Much, however, remains yet to be done and we cannot afford to discontinue our efforts in this direction. Of late an entirely different spirit has been too much in evidence which should be suppressed at all cost. The habit of throwing waste-paper and other refuse upon the streets and public places should receive civic disapproval and every possible means must be employed for its correction if Wolfville's reputation as a town beautiful is to remain. The Council should take the lead in an aggressive campaign for making our town still more attractive and citizens generally gladly render all possible assistance to the undertaking.

"THE BRIDGE"

A number of ornamental trees have recently been planted along the north side of Main Street adjoining the much talked of property at "the bridge". That anything in the nature of an improvement at this point, which has so long been a source of anything but pride to Wolfville, would receive general approval, goes without saying. It is to be hoped that the agitation for changes at this place, which has been going on for some time, may not be allowed to deminish in the slightest degree. This is the time for action and the summer should not be allowed to pass without something being done. THE ACADIAN has discussed the project of filling in the creek with many citizens and in no case has any opposition been in evidence. The result of the proposed work would be the transformation of what has long been a disgrace to our fair town, into a valuable lot that would be of beauty and utility to the community. As citizens we cannot afford to do otherwise than get behind the undertaking and give it every assistance in our power. We have no hesitation in saying that the cost of the contemplated changes would be many times compensated for in the improvement made, without any other consideration.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Archibald entertained the Senior class of Acadia Academy on Friday evening last.

TOWN MANAGER AGAIN

The proposal made some time ago of securing a town manager to look after our civic interests is apparently growing in popularity. Instances are in evidence every day where money might be saved and conditions improved by having a competent man who could devote his whole time to the conduct of town affairs. The matter so far has not been fully laid before our citizens as it should be at a public meeting called for the purpose, but citizens who understand the scheme are not slow in expressing their approval. In fact it is freely stated that if such a form of town government had existed during the past few years our taxes would not be so high as they are today. Be that as it may, we believe that if a qualified man could be procured to fill the position the affairs of our town might be very materially improved. Think it over.

There are displayed in a number of the business places in town notices calling attention to the closing of these on Wednesday afternoons during the summer. Most of these are neatly printed but in some cases they are written or printed by hand. THE ACADIAN in referring to this matter, is not seeking for business as our job printing department is always kept busy, even though we do not devote much time to canvassing for work. People who know good printing patronize THE ACADIAN, get satisfaction and come again. We appreciate their orders and give them our very best service, and they, apparently, appreciate that. Our only reason for referring to these hand-made notices is that we wish to point out that such a course is not good business practice. People are very apt to judge a business concern by such trifles. This is realized by successful business people, who use only the best quality of stationery, etc., and are very particular as to how it is printed.

Finding a Market, QUICK!

Scarce has the fishing boat, driven through the water as fast as gasoline and wind can send her, touched the wharf before the skipper is hot haste tumbles out and makes for a doorway up the pier.

At the doorway is a sign bearing this Company's trade mark.

Your guess is right! The skipper is seeking a market for his gleaming, glittering catch.

He cannot afford to wait, so perishable are his wares.

Little wonder, then, that he goes to the Telephone.

It gives him the quickest and easiest means of Long Distance Communication; its cost is low, and he gets his answer at once.

A social for the young people of St. Andrew's church was held last Friday evening in the Sunday School room. On account of other attractions the attendance was not large, but all who were present had a most enjoyable evening with music and games. Splendid refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

There was a good attendance at St. Andrew's church last Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Miller preached a sermon appropriate to Mother's Day. The music included a duet by Miss Chambers and Mr. Mason, and an anthem by the choir, both numbers being much enjoyed. In the evening the congregation enjoyed a solo by Mrs. J. W. Smith.

We understand that the Streets Committee is being put to considerable inconvenience and expense in smoothing over the dumping ground at Mud Bridge after the citizens have hauled their refuse there. If every one would dump at the outer edge of the creek would be filled up quicker. As it is some persons dump their refuse near the street, in some cases tearing up the sidewalk, and the town has to go to the expense of smoothing it over or carting it further into the creek. A little more care would save the town this expense and the money could be used for other things.

"NOTHING NEW"

Each year, or so it seems to anxious parents, the dangers besetting their children grow greater and more numerous. Temptations spring up on all sides, ready to engulf the youthful spirit in search of adventure. But parents should remember that in their youth they also were beset by the same temptations, perhaps in different guise, but none less vicious. And, in spite of the fact that, by their own parents, they were thought to be headed toward destruction, they safely skirted the whirlpools and launched forth upon the more or less tranquil sea of average parenthood.

'Tis woman rules this old world still. Though faults the critics say she has, She smiles her smile And works her will, 'Tis just a little way she has.

MEMORIAL CHURCH AT GRAND PRE

Active work has now commenced on the erection of the Acadian Memorial Church at Grand Pre. Rev. A. D. Cormier, accompanied by Messrs. R. A. Frachette, architect, and R. D. LeBlanc contractor, both of Moncton, N. B., were at Grand Pre last week looking over the ground. The main building is to be 50 by 32 feet, with an annex 20 feet square. It will have a steeple 90 feet high. The building will be of the Romanesque style of architecture. The main building will be used to store Acadian relics and the wing will be used as a Sacristy. The material used will be rough-faced freestone from New Minas. Father Cormier, the energetic Chairman of the Building Board, has already collected over $20,000 for the purpose.

The erection of this building had something of its genesis in the Acadian pilgrimage to Grand Pre last year, when the Acadians took possession of the land which had been donated for the purpose of their memorial to their forebears, who were the victims of the tragic occurrence associated with the expulsion of 1755.

Mrs. Earl Burgess entertained at afternoon tea Monday, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Reinard, New York, who is her guest. Mrs. Reinard recently arrived from Florida, where she spent the winter.

FOREST FIRES AND THE CITIZEN

Forest fires have made such inroads upon Canada's forests, that no citizen having the country's interests at heart can refrain from adopting every sensible precaution in his personal conduct. Unextinguished camp fires, lighted matches, and tobacco have robbed the nation of millions of dollars in public-owned property. To leave the camp-fire burning while in or near standing timber is a plain invitation to a disaster. The lighted match and the cigarette are in the same category.

MOTORS AND MOTORING: A Page Full of Interest to the Owner or Prospective Owner of an Automobile.

HOW MOTORISTS CAN OBTAIN FULL MILEAGE FROM GASOLINE USED

Gasoline is not as plentiful as water, and never will be. It is a problem, therefore, to get as many miles as possible out of every gallon consumed. A few fundamental principles, if properly observed, will help to increase the efficiency of the motor.

First of all it is important to see that the power plant is tuned up. The compression must be good in each cylinder; the ignition system and its auxiliaries, the spark plugs, should be working properly. The mixtures of most cars are too rich. This means that gasoline is being wasted and the engine subjected to excessive and unnecessary carbonizing.

After making sure that the engine is operating at its best, take the car out on a good smooth road and see how it coasts. If the tires are not properly inflated, if the front wheels are out of alignment, or if the brakes drag, the car will be found to come to a stop much quicker than it would after the power of the motor is cut off.

This indicates all too clearly that gasoline is being wasted, to say nothing of the unnecessary wear on the tires (if they are too soft or the wheel alignment is faulty), or on the brakes (if they are dragging), or both. For wastes go together, and one leads to and causes others, from the motorist's standpoint.

Another common way in which fuel is wasted is to permit the engine to idle when the car is standing still. Most engines, with throttles closed, will run idle at about the same r.p.m. as when driving the car at a speed of ten miles an hour. Hence, when the motor is idling, somewhat less than the same quantity of gasoline is being consumed as when the car is travelling ten miles an hour over average roads. Thus the wastefulness of this practice becomes apparent.

It is ordinarily wise to let the engine idle a moment or two before starting up the car, but to let it idle for any long time when it is not necessary is economically wrong.

MY AUTO, 'TIS OF THEE

My auto, 'tis of thee, short road to poverty, of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you three years ago; now you refuse to go, or won't or can't.

Through town and countryside, you were my joy and pride, a happy day. I loved the gaudy hue, my nice white tires new; but now you're down and out for true, in every way.

To thee, old rattle-box, came many bumps and knocks, for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, frayed are the seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy horn, I do believe.

Thy perfumes swell the breeze, while good folks choke and sneeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price, 'twould buy a mansion twice, now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why?

Thy motor has the grip, thy spark plug has the pip, and woe is thine. I too have suffered chills, ague and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou wert mine.

Gone is my bank roll now, no more 'twould choke the cow, as once before. Yet if I had the dough, so help me, John, I'd go and patronize the auto row, and speed some more.

WORLD RECORD IN ROAD BUILDING

Pennsylvania, during the 1920 construction season, built approximately 410 miles of concrete roadway, 18 feet in width. This is the world's record for one season of this type of highway.

Make it an every morning habit to shine with

HOW BLOWOUTS START

An inexperienced driver whose tire gets a heavy blow from a stone or a curb usually looks over the outside of the tire to see if any damage has been done. But the old driver knows that if harm has been done the place to look for it is in the inside, and that any break in the fabric will be registered on the inside ply first.

Naturally the inside ply is shorter than the rest and each ply is shorter than any of the others outside of it. This is because it is on the inside of the curvature of the tire. Now if the tire is suddenly compressed at some point to a considerable extent, the relative position of the plies is reversed—that is, the outside ply becomes, at this particular point, the inside ply as regards the curvature and the inside ply becomes the outside ply, as regards curvature.

This has the effect of stretching the inside ply more than any of the others and, of course, if the amount of stretch is very great the fabric will be broken.

If it should happen—as it often does—that only one or two inner plies are broken, there will not be any signs of the injury on the outside until a considerable time afterward. This is because the other plies still unbroken will continue to hold against the air pressure, even though they will be under excessive strain. But continued flexing will eventually break them also, and the result may be a blowout which may occur at any time, even on a perfectly smooth pavement.

Another effect of a break in one or two inner plies may be that from continued bending the broken edges of the fabric rub a hole in the inner tube at that point. Sometimes the break is so pronounced, especially in a fabric tire, that the air pressure forces the inner tube into the break, and as this is continually closing and opening, as the tire rolls, the action is like a pair of pincers and cuts the tube.

If the tube is chafed through or cut after a bruise, such as described, the air will pass directly through the carcass and force the rubber side covering, and sometimes the tread, loose from the fabric. When this happens the user generally terms it a blowout, and as a matter of fact it is, but, contrary to the opinion often held, it is seldom the result of a defect in manufacture. It can generally be traced to an injury sustained some time prior to the final breaking down of the tire.

LIKE AIR INSIDE TIRE

Like the air on the inside of an automobile tire is courtesy, observes The Mason Mail. There may be nothing to it, but still it eases many a jolt and saves many a rupture.

FIVE MINUTES

The shades of night were falling fast, When o'er the city streets there passed A car that speeds with might and main, Like hell bent—and 'twas all to gain —Five Minutes.

Thus onward, ever speeding surge, Though suddenly there may emerge, From intersecting streets a car Unseen, unheard, unwarmed afar— —Five minutes.

A boy upon his "wheel"—'tis frail, Uncertain as it strikes the rail, A spill—And though the street was wide Time all too short to turn aside —Five minutes.

A group of youngsters in the street, A ball is struck—a runner fleet Darts out—unmindful of a fall His thought is only on the ball— —Five minutes.

What enterprise of great import Can call for speeding of a sort To jeopardize and recklessly Place these odds against eternity; —Five minutes.

The man who persists in rushing in front of the car ahead, and then drags indefinitely.

HOW TO REMOVE SCALE

One of the simplest and most efficient methods of cleansing the radiator of scale which forms in it is to fill the water system with a strong solution of washing soda and hot water, running the engine for about 15 minutes. The soda solution is then drained out of the system and the scale will come with it. Do not race the engine while carrying out this process.

ARE WE EXTRAVAGANT?

Ontario teachers have been holding their annual meetings and it is not surprising that the question of salaries was considered.

At the meeting referred to the teachers countered on what they claim to be luxuries and extravagances indulged in by many people who are unwilling to advance the stipends of the teachers. They point out for example, that $61,000,000 is expended in Canada every year for cigars, cigarettes and tobacco. It is a goodly sum, and would go towards providing increases for the teachers. It all goes up in smoke. The teachers would not complain of that if the smokers were willing to help pay them more generous salaries.

They say further that the gum chewers in Canada spend $3,680,000 for the pleasure of wagging their jaws. This is quite a substantial sum for such an ephemeral pleasure. And they charge that face powders mean an expenditure every year in this country of $1,600,000, which is quite a large sum to be daily applying and washing off. And soft drinks cost yearly the huge sum of 28 million dollars. The teachers think that if less liquid were put into the stomachs and more learning put into the heads of the people of Canada the country would be better off. They think that a good part of the 28 millions might well be applied to the encouragement of their profession.

We have contracted extravagant habits; and they are growing. They diminish the pocket-book; and too frequently people are more willing to starve the teaching profession than to reduce their supply of tobacco, chewing gum, face powder and soft drinks.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ADVERTISE

H. E. Hart, of Long Prairie, proprietor of what he calls "the biggest small town store in this state," in an address before a business men's association, predicted that 1922 will demand more advertising than any other recent year.

The advertising of a merchant must be constructive "to create a good public opinion of the store," said Mr. Hart. "Good advertising increases the volume of business and permits a decrease of prices."

In speaking of his own store, which he said does a business of $900,000 a year in a town of 1,500 inhabitants, Mr. Hart explained how, "by common business principles and constructive advertising," he had overcome all difficulties.—Northwest Commercial Bulletin.

CANADIAN NAVY TO RECEIVE CUT

OTTAWA, May 12.—The Canadian Navy is to receive a drastic cut. To a closely attentive House, Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Defence, this afternoon announced the naval policy of the present Government. In brief it provides that:

1.—Five ships are to be laid up. These are the cruiser Aurora and the destroyers Patriot and Patrician, presented to Canada by Great Britain after the armistice. The other two ships laid up are submarines.

2.—Canada's naval force will consist of three vessels on each coast, namely, a small ship and two trawlers as tenders at both Halifax and Esquimalt.

3.—The three ships on either coast are to be used for training a volunteer force in protection of shores and harbors, mine sweeping and mine laying.

4.—Protection and care of wharves and docks at Halifax and Esquimalt to be continued with provision for a reserve force and men numbering 233. With the exception of four, officers from the Royal Navy to be returned to the Royal Navy.

In making his statement Mr. Graham emphasized that young men in the volunteer force would not be taken out of industrial employment. They would be trained on land and sea for two or three weeks each year, over a period of three years. There would also be the fisheries protection services containing a number of additional ships. Under the scheme some 1,500 young men could be trained during the year on land and sea.

A HINT FOR US

In Alberta groups of citizens are uniting to line one of the most important highways of the Province with rows of bright-blooming flowers. At comparatively little cost a change will be effected which will make the highway much more attractive for everybody who travels it, and it may be expected that the new prettiness of the road will give it added charm for tourists. Happily, nature has been so much kinder to Nova Scotia than to some other provinces as regards scenic beauty that there is not the same need of human effort in this respect here. But the Alberta case may perhaps help to emphasize to Nova Scotia that it is worth while to pay some attention to the appearance of highways as well as to the question of what material shall go into them and how they shall be maintained.

With bathing suits censored the waves will not be so wild this year.

THE MOVIES POPULARITY CONTEST

The first day of the motion picture popularity contest for the benefit of the Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor in New York, was full of surprises. Douglas Fairbanks got only 20 votes. Mary Pickford got 1025 votes, or 21 more than Charlie Chaplin. The first official count showed that Constance Binney was leading among the women with 7076 and Will Rogers among the men with 2000. "Fatty" Arbuckle got one vote.

Another thing shown was that many young women who have had minor parts in pictures are in the ascendancy so far as fandom is concerned. Marcus Loew, chairman of the committee, confessed that the contest had been a great surprise to him, as did other producers, among them William Fox. One producer said: "Maybe the star system is due for a collapse. Perhaps the motion picture going public is not as loyal to its stars as has been generally supposed. The fact remains that the public is strongly supporting the average stars in the contest. Of course, many of the stars are on the coast and this may have kept back heavy voting for them."

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. W. H. Chase left on Monday for Toronto on a business trip.

Mrs. J. H. Gould, of Dartmouth, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Everett Pineo.

Miss Margerita Cullen is in Truro attending the short term of the Normal School.

Mrs. A. G. Guest and young son returned on Friday from a two weeks trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milner left this week for Halifax where they will spend the summer.

Mr. G. F. Parker, of Yarmouth, was a guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Redden.

Mrs. J. F. Kennedy, of Halifax, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harris.

Mr. E. S. Fraser, of the Fraser Paving Co., of New Glasgow, is spending some days in town, a guest at Acadia Villa.

Miss Muriel Angus is leaving this morning for Waverly, Mass., where she will enter upon a course of training as a nurse.

Mrs. Laura H. Moore left this week for Parrsboro where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. P. H. Hamon.

Mr. Arthur S. Harris, of Fitchburg, Mass., arrived in Wolfville last week on his annual fishing trip. He is a guest at the home of his brother, Mr. R. E. Harris.

Mrs. E. H. Freeman and young daughter, of Salisbury, N. B., arrived on Tuesday to spend a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Eaton.

Mr. A. J. Mason was the soloist at the Windsor Methodist church on Sunday evening, the occasion being the 140th anniversary of the founding of Methodism at Windsor.

Mrs. Raleigh Bishop arrived recently from New Haven, Conn., to spend the summer at Wolfville. She is a guest at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. T. DeWolfe.

Mrs. George Dexter arrived from New York on Monday to spend the summer at her old home here. Her sister, Miss Lillian Taylor, met her at Yarmouth and accompanied her home.

Mrs. J. H. MacDonald returned last week from Huntington, West Virginia, to which city she was called by the death of her sister. Dr. MacDonald spent a few days in Fredericton, N. B. last week.

Mrs. C. P. Wilson who has been spending a few weeks at Amherst and vicinity, returned home on Monday. While away she visited three aunts (sisters) one of whom is ninety years old and the others older.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bars recently returned home from Florida, where they spent the winter. They spent three weeks on the return journey, visiting Philadelphia, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto and Montreal.

Mr. Alfred Barret, of Brockton, Mass., spent Sunday in town. Mr. Barret is a well known painter in oils, and the portrait of the late Dr. Sawyer, now hanging in the College Library, is a product of his brush.

Mrs. A. D. Borden left last week to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, of Charlottetown, on a trip to Montreal. She will attend the commencement at McGill, where her brother is valedictorian of the graduating class in Medicine.

OUT IN FRONT

By the Pioneer Sergeant

WE are ardent believers

IN the motto—

WHEN you have a good thing

STICK to it.

WE desire to commend the STREETS committee.

IN their zeal in this

DIRECTION in

RETAINING so long the

HOLES in the Main Street

PAVEMENT

WHEN summer comes and

THE angry populace cries—

“CLEAN up and repair”

DO not allow yourselves

TO become panicky

AND be carried away by

SUCH demands.

THESE holes have a

PECULIAR value

ALL their own.

WE can all remember

OCCASIONS, when

SPEEDING through town

IN our Liz,

WITH children and

CHICKENS scurrying for the

CURBS,

HAVING been compelled to

THROTTLE down a mile or

TWO in order to NAVIGATE these craters.

NO one can estimate the LIVES thus saved.

AND that is not all—

THEIR convenience when

THE water main

BURSTS is also

STUPENDOUS;

NOT to mention

THE aid we shall derive

FROM them as

RESERVOIRS

DURING the long dry

SUMMER.

TAKE a tip from the

SERGEANT—

STICK to them but

NOT in them.

WE thank you.

CANNING NOTES

Mr. Harold R. Kinsman has the foundation laid for his new flour and feed store. The size is 30x60, and it will make quite an addition to the business houses of Canning.

Thompson Bros. are very busy in their garage this spring.

Mr. Russell Hatfield left a week ago to visit relatives at Port Greville.

The new block being erected by Messrs. G. W. Blenus and C. F. Cox is rapidly assuming proportions. It is located on the south side of Main St. and fills in a part of the long vacant burnt district. The size of the building is 22x65. The basement has been constructed of cement and wood, and this will be used for moving pictures, occupying the full size of the building. There will be a small stage and a pit for an orchestra at the south end, and the room for the moving picture machine is ingeniously placed in solid concrete at the north end under the sidewalk. The floor will be inclined the full length so that all may have unobstructed view. The entrance is on the street level with a wide stairway leading down, and two exits in case of emergency leading out to the wharf level. This part has been leased from the owners for a period of five years, and pictures will be exhibited there when the building is completed.

Miss Emma Schofield, who has been spending the past year at Lawrence, Mass., returned to Wolfville this week.

Mrs. Thomas Craig, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Burgess Rockwell at Brooklyn Corner, is now the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Patriquin, Wolfville.

OBITUARY

Friends of Miss Bessie K. Saxton will regret to hear of the death of her brother, Lieut. George E. Saxton, which took place suddenly at his home in Dorchester, Mass., May 7. Lieut. Saxton, who was born in Halifax, was well known in this province and in Massachusetts, where he held various official positions. He was of fine physique and an ardent sportsman, returning often to Nova Scotia with his rod and gun. His funeral, which was largely attended, took place from St. Anne's Episcopal Church, Dorchester. Besides his wife and two sons, Harry E. and George A., he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. H. W. Blackader, Denver, (formerly of Halifax, Miss Bessie, Wolfville, and Mrs. F. E. Elwell, and four half brothers.

BUDGET MAY 23

OTTAWA, May 12.—The Budget will be brought down on Tuesday, May 23, Hon. W. S. Fielding announced this afternoon.
