The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

University of British Columbia Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol - (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinto d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commencant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole -- signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ♥ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nonibre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

A DECLARATION made upon Oath at Boston, in New England, before Governor Shirley, and figned by his Excellency. (See p. 577.)

PHilemon Sanders of Salem, mariner, A and late mafter and owner of the schooner Charming Molly; declares and fays, that he was taken on the 9th of August lait, near a place on the coast of Nova Scotia, call'd Withehead, 5 leagues westward of Canso, by a French man of war of 30 guns, named the Magere, and admiral of the French squadron, with 5 fail of ships of war, and as many transports in the said harbour. That 3 days after the declarant's arrival, the duke D' Anville died at Chebueto, on board the C Northumberland, and was buried on a finall island about four miles within the mouth of the harbour. That two days after the death of the duke D' Anville, the French rear-admiral, with about 40 fail of ships, consisting of men of war and transports, arrived at Chebusto, and clarant was infermed by many of the French officers, that the whole fleet when they fail'd from Rochford, confifted of 97 fail, among which there were about 30 fail of men of war, 4 whereof were 70 gun ships, and were parted from the fleet by bad weather, and supposed to be gone to Martinico; that upon the fleet's first coming into harbour they were much shatter'd by bad weather, and the men very fickly; that they landed their fick at Chebucto for their refreshment; and the whole of the land forces from France, which were encamp'd on fhore, he is well fatisfied by F his own observation of the tents, officers and men (having been permitted to go on shore without restraint) amounted to 7 or 8000.

That the declarant was informed by the French officers that there were ind Indians, but is not fure whether they night not reckon the Nova Scotians anong them, there being 30 pilots at bebutto from Menis and Schiegnesto, one (Supplement to Gent. Mag. 1746.)

of which, who spoke good English, he asked how he dared to come there to pilot the enemies ships; upon which he made answer in English, that Annapolis would foon be taken, and then they should be French subjects again; and added, that the oath they had taken to the king of Great Britain obliged them only to be neuters; that this deponent continued at Chebucto a prisoner to the 12th instant, when a flag of truce arrived from Louisbourg with 40 French priioners; that the next day the whole by her carried into Chebusto, where he arrived about four days after he was taken, and found the duke D'Anville, state of the wind at N. N. W. and the duke D'Anville, state of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the cold of the wind at N. N. W. and the wind at bles, off which Cape, on the 16th Inft. they difmis'd the flag of truce with two schooners, which the captain of the slag of truce had purchased of the French at Chequeto, in one of which he put this declarant as malter, with fix other Eng-lifbmen, who forc'd this deponent to come to New England, where he arrived this day at Cape Anne, and he supposes the flag of truce, with the other schooner, is gone to Louisbourg, where the captain had ordered him to go: this declajoined the rest of the fleet; that the de- D rant further says, that lix of the French ships that fail'd out of Chebueto were men of war of 64 guns each, two of 54, one of 44, and about twelve of 30 guns, 1 bomb veilel, and 18 transports; and he further fays, that it was the general discourse in the French fleet, when they fail'd from Chebacto, that the whole E fleet was bound for Annapolis Royal, and that the aforefaid 30 pilots of Nova Scotia were taken on board the fleet for that purpose: that Capt. Dolabaratz, commander of the Briffol frigate, of 30 guns, formerly an English privateer, informed this deponent, that the French admiral wrote to the court of France, by a packet he fent home, that he would keep the feas, in order to get into the harbour of Annapolis, till the 15th of November, N.S. if he did not get in sooner; that this depenent was further informed, by feveral of the officers on board the French 40,000 finall arms, with proportionable ammunition and blankets, brought for the French Indians; and that he faw upwards of 100 chefts of small arms, with a great quantity of lead, landed out of the ship which took this declarant; that besides the land forces brought from france, this declarant was informed that there were about 7000 Canadean French the captain of the said flow had that the captain of the faid flow had that the captain of the faid flow had the captain of the said flow had t the English, to random his vessel at any rate; and this declarant fays, that the thip Magere (by which he was taken) being a prime failor, was fitted and put in order to be ready to fail for France (as the captain of the faid ship, and the aforesaid captain Dolmbaratz often told him) upon their becoming masters of Annapolis Royal, to inform the French court thereof, upon which intelligence they expected 18 French ships of the English privateer) assured him, that the line and 22 Spanish men of war of the line, would be fent early in the spring to join their fleet upon the coast, which this deponent observed was a matter generally believed and depended upon a-mongit them. This deponent further fays, he saw a great number of large B brais cannon taken out of a Dutch flyboat, and fent on board the admiral, which he was told were to the number of fifty, and were to be put ashore at Annapolis Royal: this declarant further faith, that, while he was at Ckebucto, he faw about 20 officers, who, he was in- C formed, were all engineers, being dress'd in grey, with black velvet cuffs, and metal buttons, and long pockets, which, he was told, was the proper habit of French engineers. This deponent further declares, that it was a general difcourse among the officers, that the merchants of St Malses (whose interest in the navigation depended on the fish trade) had suffered so much by the taking of Cape Breton, that they petitioned the French king to permit them to fit out an armament in order to the taking of Annapolis Royal; but the French ministry advised his majesty to undertake it him- E felf, because the revenue arising from the fish trade would be an ample recompence to him for the expence, this declarant further saith, that several of the officers answer'd him that they would ruin and destroy the frontier settlements of the English colonies; and he perceived in general that they had a great F dependance upon getting a strong footing upon the continent of North America.

Boston, Oct. 22. PHIL. SANDERS. WM SHIRLEY.

Further Declaration made before the PHilemon Sanders of Salem, mariner, and late of the schooner Charming Molly, in supplement of his declaration made upon oath before his excellency the governor the 22d instant, relating to the French fleet at Chebucto, further declareth and faith, That three of the faid H fleet, being men of war of 30 guns, with two smaller ones, left the fleet; and four of them went to Canada, the other (a ervizer) return'd and joined the flegs the day they failed from Chebucto. Another ship was dispatch'd to France, and French inhabitants of Menis and Schiegnecto fent a petition to the French king, wherein they undertook, with the help of two 30 gun ships, to reduce his majesty's fort at Annapolis Royal, and that the faid French inhabitants voluntarily supplied the French fleet with 500 black cattle, and about 1500 or 2000 sheep; and further this declarant fays, that he was informed by the French officers, that the faid fleet had brought 25 mortars with them; and he further faith, that he had feen divers of the French engineers at Chelucto with the plan of Annapolis Royal before them, which they feem'd very intent upon, and pointed out the proper places for building forts there; and further he faith, he was told by feveral French officers, that it was delign ed, that the large men of war should winter at Casco Bay, within this province. And this declarant further faith, that divers of the English prisoners on board the French ships inform'd him that when the fleet struck the ground near the ifle of Sables, they confiited of 97 fail. Boston, Oct. 23. PHIL. SANDERS.

 Nathaniel Knight, mariner, and others, made declaration, on oath, to the fame effect.

Success of Dr BARKER's Method of treating the Distemper among Cows.
