Leaders Reach Impasse Over
Irish Question

Further Concessions, Reported
Ulster Decision—
London Papers' Views on Conference of Craig and de Valera.

London, May 6.—Hope that yesterday's meeting of Sir James Craig, minister for Ulster, and de Valera, Irish republican leader, may be a sign of the dawn of peace in Ireland, according to newspaper comment here today.

The Chronicle remarked: "Once again the definite relations between the empire—on no other basis in negotiations proceed—and the real issue is seen to lie not between Ireland and England, but between these two Irelands."

On the same ground the Daily Express counseled non-interference by English in any negotiations, and pointed out that the Irish question long enough. Let us see the Irishmen to settle it."

MANY PROMINENT IN CHURCH AND
STATE AT FUNERAL

Tribute Paid to Hon. Francis
J. Sweeney—Eulogy by Bishop LeBlanc.

Moncton, N. B., May 6.—The funeral of Hon. Francis J. Sweeney, K. C., here this morning was a notable event in Moncton. Large numbers of Monctonians and people from various parts of the province assembled to honor the dead.

The body was conveyed at nine o'clock from the Knights of Columbus hall to St. Bernard's church, where solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. A. W. Mahoney, D. D., St. John, assisted by Rev. F. Savage of St. Bernard's church, and Father Tessier, C. S. C., St. Joseph's University, as deacon and sub-deacon.

Government members in attendance were Hon. C. W. Robinson, Hon. Fred. Ives, Attorney-General Byrne, Hon. J. Veniot and Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts. Other members of the legislature in attendance were Hon. J. B. M. Carter, K. C., St. John; Reid McManus, P. P. for Westmorland; Charles B. Jeffrey, M. P. for Newcastle, F. J. Ideaux, ex-M. P. for and Hon. J. Sweeney, ex-M. P. for Cumberland, N. B., attended.

BRITAIN CANNOT
GIVE RECOGNITION
TO MEXICO YET

London, May 6.—Recognition of Mexico on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured reconstruction, was advocated in the House of Commons by Major Christopher Lowther yesterday.

Cecil Harcourt, under-secretary, admitted that recognition would be an advantage both to Mexico and Great Britain, and he explicitly desired that it might become possible, but regretted that the reports reaching the government of the lack of security and stability still existing in Mexico rendered impossible recognition by the British government.

DEADLOCK AT THE
OTTAWA MEETING

Building Industry Employers and Labor

Statement That the Building
Shortage in Canada is 780-
000 Structures—Labor
Troubles in Several Places.

Ottawa, May 6.—(Canadian Press)—A deadlock on the question of declaring that a decrease in wages was needed in the building industry, came at last tonight's meeting of the national conference.

The employers had recommended a reduction of wages of from ten to twenty per cent. Labor refused to make a declaration on a national scale and said that local conditions must govern such councils.

John Bruce of Toronto (labor) said with the unemployment problem. This was enhanced by the shut-down of the building trades during the winter. If this one of the basic industries were to be in such a measure as to be relieved.

Hon. G. D. Robertson, minister of labor, said that the delegates should do their best to impress on Canadians the need of buying Canadian-made goods.

Ottawa, May 6.—The situation in connection with the strike of the building trades is unchanged here.

Hon. G. D. Robertson, minister of labor, said that the delegates should do their best to impress on Canadians the need of buying Canadian-made goods.

Ottawa, May 6.—An attempt to arrange further conference here between steamship owners and marine workers who walked out on last Sunday in protest against a 15 per cent. wage reduction was being made today by the American steamship owners' association.

The U. S. Shipping Board stated that its sailing schedules so far have not been seriously affected and that they had found enough men to take the places of those who walked out.

Boston, Mass., May 6.—Movement of barges and other shipping in this port was hampered when firemen on many harbor tugs joined the marine workers' strike.

London, May 6.—A lockout of 30,000 seagoing stewards and cooks began today, this step being taken by shipping companies because of the men's refusal to accept a wage cut of about 10 per cent.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are to hold an anniversary celebration. More than sixty members of branches of the auxiliary from Brownville, Aroostook, St. Stephen and Moncton arrived in the city today to attend the function, which is to be held in the C. P. B. building in West St. John.

They were met at the train by Mrs. William Tobin, president of the local branch, and a delegation of ladies. The celebration is exclusively for members of the auxiliary, trainmen and a few invited guests.

LOCAL NEWS

FISH BARGAINS.

Large cod fish and fresh herring, the former at three cents a pound and the latter at twenty-five cents a dozen, were being sold at Market slip this morning. Fishermen from down the Bay arrived this morning with large quantities of these fish and found a ready sale among people who happened along.

BIRTHDAY PRESENTATION.

The home of Summer Townsend, in Station street, Fairville, last evening was the scene of a happy gathering when about fifty friends and relatives assembled to extend congratulations on his sixty-second birthday.

BAREHAM-MORONG.

A wedding of much interest took place at the home of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, on April 19, when Rev. T. B. Jenkins united in marriage Miss Edith Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Long of Lancaster avenue, West St. John, and James Howard Bareham, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bareham, also of West St. John.

SAYS TREATY WOULD MEAN BREAK-UP OF
BRITISH EMPIRE

Alliance With Japan in Opposition to United States

London Spectator Declares
People of Dominions and Many at Home Would Be for U. S.—Suggests Division of Control at Sea.

London, May 6.—British overseas dominions would not tolerate an Anglo-Japanese treaty having as its object opposition to the United States, declared the Weekly Spectator today.

The newspaper cited facts to show that an alliance between Great Britain and Japan was never meant, and never could be used, against America.

"Yet we have until now left the most important argument on our side unattended," the newspaper continued. "Even the most wildly imperialistic and aggressive of Britons do not contemplate with pleasure the blowing of the British Empire into smithereens in a single instant."

"We know perfectly well this would be the result if we went to war against the United States, not to suppose some right of our own, but in order to help the Japanese. The moment such a war was declared, the bonds that united us with our dominions would be severed."

"If the people in Australia and New Zealand were asked on which side they were going to be in a war between America and Japan they would not hesitate a second. They would not waste time in reading diplomatic papers or considering legal points. They would say: 'With our own flesh and people, if the poor old other country has gone mad we cannot help it. We are sorry, but if things have come to pass we must reluctantly take the leadership of her elder daughter rather than her younger son. Help the Japanese to take San Francisco by assault—good heavens, what are you talking about?'"

"The same dreadful message of disintegration would run from one end of Canada to the other with similar vehemence. There could be only one place for Canada in a final fight between Japan and America."

"The moment they realize the Japanese are here would be stoning their own government for the criminal unscrupulousness of Japanese against their own flesh and blood."

The Spectator asserted one of the reasons for continuing the alliance with Japan had been the keeping of peace, by being able to keep down the Japanese population should it become excited "on a point of honor." The newspaper concluded by suggesting two British proposals to the United States:

"The first of these," it said, "would be to make our position absolutely clear to the whole American people and also to the people of our empire, declaring we would not renew the Japanese alliance, although, of course, we would remain in perfect unity with Japan, not to America—'You shall take over command of the sea throughout the Pacific and carry on policing of it. Just as you will be answerable for the Pacific, we will have command of the sea in the Atlantic which means not only the northern waters of Europe and the Mediterranean, but also the waters encompassing the western and southern coasts of Africa.'"

The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in England, in session today, appointed delegates to confer with a committee of the Anglican church on the proposals for church union.

Dr. Carmichael, in moving the matter, said he greatly admired the Anglicans and coveted many things they had, but he did not approve of the proposal which he said was "far from being a step toward the state of matrimony."

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN.

MAY BURN MANY SILLY IDEAS HERE

"The Furnace" Has Been Contracted to Be Shown Here Monday—A Super-Society Sensation.

About three months ago in New York one of the leading picture theatres presented that extraordinary society story "The Furnace"—not a very alluring title to be sure, but a marvellous picture—and later on in this city a party of newspaper folks and officials saw the production at a private screening in the Imperial. Every where it has been shown "The Furnace" has been a sensation, building up business at the box office from day to day. Now the story is looked for its public showing here next Monday and Tuesday at the Keith house, King Square. It is a society picture, though containing all the elements of present-day marriage relations in many homes. "The Furnace" returns up many a fallacious idea about man and wife—that is new-fangled ideas—and re-establishes proper relationships.

STELLAR WEEK— END ATTRACTIONS

Opera House Programme Has High Class Musical Offering, Great Sharp-Shooting Novelty, and Good Comedy Skits.

The new programme at the Opera House tonight should prove another stellar week-end attraction for theatre-goers. It is diversified and contains a high-class musical offering, great comedy skits, and a feature sharp-shooting novelty. The acts will be as follows: Isabelle D'Armond and Company, who are offering a comedy singing and dancing novelty, "The Demi-Tasse Revue"; Joe Di Lier, in a high-class piano-accompanied offering, "Melodies a-la-Carte"; Cook and Smith, who will present a laughable comedy skit, "No Checks"; No Washie, George and Nellie Foster, in a snappy comedy novelty, "The Bandits"; in a sensational sharp-shooting novelty, introducing Toots Randall, who won the women's Grand American Handicap shooting contest in 1919 and 1920. There will also be another episode of the serial drama "Bride 13" and a reel of current events.

BIG BILL AT THE IMPERIAL—READ:

Maurice Tourneur, the great French director, maker of such pictures as "Sporting Life," "The White Heather," "The Life Line," "Treasure Island," and other famous films, is presenting to St. John public today for the Imperial's certain that splendid season. The picture "Caleb West, Master Mariner" (between Kingston Smith) under the title "Deep Waters." This is a sally, surging, and deep-sea diving, underwater adventures and lashing gales an exciting incident. In the same bill—strangely enough and by singular coincidence—the great Annette Kellerman, queen of the water, instructs watchers in "The Art of Diving"—an educational single reel. Then there will be the sixth thrilling chapter of the new jungle serial "The Son of Tarzan." Altogether a most inviting pictorial bill of fare.

AT THE STAR. Tonight and all day Saturday, Ruth Roland in "Rab of the Rockies," "Smile" Pollard comedy, Mut and Jeff western drama, Fox News. On Monday, "Half a Chance" also on Tuesday.

"BRIDE 13" A serial full of pep and action. A good two-reel western, full of life on the road. A two-reel comedy and Mut and Jeff complete this big week-end show at the Empress.

A COUNTY HEALTH CLINIC

When the county health clinic was established in Nova Scotia, representative from the municipality of Lunenburg, the three incorporated towns, and Chester, together and devised a scheme for the permanent establishment of this branch of public health. Mahone Bay was chosen as the most central point for the headquarters of the health clinic, a building was rented, furnished and fully equipped, and Miss C. M. Inglis, a nurse of prominent standing, was furnished by the Red Cross Society for the initial year. The equipment, with the exception of a dental department, is complete, and from this centre the nurse comes to all points of the county on a campaign of education, and a visiting of all the schools, examining each pupil and when any defect of health is noted it is reported to the proper authorities. Already the interest taken in the health clinic is most pronounced, and even for the short time of its starting is filling a great want.

See adv. on page 8—Hunt's Clothing Store, 11-19 Charlotte street.
FISH MATTERS.
It is now believed that the order to have the salmon hatchery removed may be rescinded, according to word given out after a meeting of the fishermen held last evening. The meeting was attended by the principal water owners of the city, and Inspector S. J. Walker, of the Fisheries Department, Ottawa, was also in attendance. The fishermen arranged with Mr. Walker to deliver salmon to the government hatchery at $5.25 a fish. The agreement was satisfactory to Mr. Walker, and it was reported that he sent a telegram to Ottawa asking that the salmon pond be allowed to remain here.
The question of the sea-dog menace was also brought up, and it was decided to circulate a petition among all fish owners and fishermen, for the purpose of asking assistance from the government in exterminating the sea-dogs, which are doing a great deal of damage to the weirs as well as destroying the fish.

A NOTABLE CENTENARY.

An event of no little importance in the journalistic history of the Empire is the centenary of the Manchester Guardian, which is celebrated today. An article giving a brief review of the history of the Guardian appears in this issue of the Times-Star.

WORK AND WAGES.

At the so-called Building Industries Parliament convened in Ottawa, Senator Robertson said that on May 1, 1921, there were approximately 100,000 less men employed in Canada than there were on January 1, of last year.

"We are frequently reminded that every man has a right to a minimum wage which will be sufficient to provide him and his dependents with the necessities of life and a little more besides."

cepts $8 per day and gets six days' work each week. To keep wages on a high scale and thereby strangle business is a poor policy."

Two very hopeful and encouraging letters came over the cables last night. One was that there was an apparently good prospect of a termination of the miners' strike, and the other that Sir James Craig, the Ulster leader, and de Valera had met in Dublin to discuss Irish affairs.

In Dartmouth, N. S., school truancy is dealt with by the school board. The Halifax Echo says: "Ten parents were summoned last night before the Dartmouth school board and inquiries made as to why their children had not been attending school."

Supervisor Butler, who takes an active interest in the work of the pupils in every city school, sets test questions from time to time while the teachers have their pupils answer. The last test was one of general information and the answers were examined by Mr. Butler.

Mr. Lloyd George insists that Germany must disarm. He makes this a primary consideration. The Germans have not played fair in this matter, and the menace of an armed Germany on the borders of France and Belgium must be entirely removed.

Those interested in the proposed arena in St. John will be interested to learn that the Toronto Board of Control has just awarded a contract for a civic arena at Exhibition Park to cost $898,000, and to be completed by November.

Motorists on the Rothesay road who disregard the law deserve a severe penalty. The safety of the public must be assured.

Although a hangman has made $12,000 in a year, there is not likely to be a scramble for the office.

WIVES AND THE DEVIL. (By E. Rutherford, Jr., in New York Evening Post.) The jokes the Devil plays on wives are grim jokes to meet;

Where the harbor lifts its mist stands Nan, the sailor's wife. Waiting for McAllister, who comes from the Fifth of June.

It's well the wee one tightens its clutch about her neck. For Bill's fast train, the Limited, has piled up in a wreck.

"HOWLERS" BY SCHOOL PUPILS

Supervisor Butler, who takes an active interest in the work of the pupils in every city school, sets test questions from time to time while the teachers have their pupils answer. The last test was one of general information and the answers were examined by Mr. Butler.

Q.—Who was Napoleon, what did he do and when did he live? A.—Napoleon was a Frenchman. He was a "fight-maker," and had 80,000 men to help him fight. The English got him and put him on an island to die, and he did so.

Q.—Name five famous men who are not in the Bible. A.—Washington, Jacques Cartier, Thomas Moore, Sir W. Scott and Capt. Kidd. (The reason for the latter's fame was the fact that he was a pirate.)

Q.—Give five rules you should obey to be healthy. A.—"You should clean your teeth every two days. 2.—You should clean your face and hands every day, and leave no high-waters mark on your neck. 3.—You should take a bath every Saturday night. 4.—You should go to church every Sunday. 5.—You should get your meals at the right time and shouldn't stay out with you without your meals."

"Father Marquette roamed over Canada with Juliet until they discovered the Mississippi river." "Sir Robert Walpole was prime minister of England while George II was on the throne. He was one of the longest men to stay premier."

CANADA MUST GROW. Both war debt and the railway situation require that Canada must grow, is the opinion for the Journal of the Canadian Bankers' Association, which says that to grow up to these we must "people the vacant spaces."

SOME PAY AS HIGH AS 250 PER CENT. FOR BORROWED MONEY. Madrid, April 19.—(Associated Press.)—Farmers' association of Spain are demanding that the government set up bank lands to loan them money at reasonable rates to purchase modern machinery and fertilizers.

WANT BETTER INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDINGS

This is Object of Amendment to Article 21 of League of Nations Covenant, Suggested by Czechoslovakia.

Geneva, April 19.—(Associated Press by Mail)—Czechoslovakia's proposed amendment to Article 21 of the covenant of the League of Nations, under which the league would be permitted to call regional conferences with a view better to maintain world peace, will come up for consideration when the full amendments committee of the league convenes in May.

Under the universal system in force as a result of the new amendment, the Czechoslovakian government says, the more complex questions that arise between nations are necessarily avoided, and the most acute difficulties—local in character—affecting only a certain number of countries are not in shape to be handled by the league.

TONS OF RUSSIAN GOLD COMING IN THE MAILS. Steamships Decline to Carry it in Ordinary Cargoes.

Christiania, Norway, May 6.—The Scandinavian-American line steamship United States, from Christiania, April 29, the New York May 11, has on board 70 sacks of gold bullion, valued at several million dollars, consigned from the Swedish mail service first class mail. The bullion is Russian Bolshevik gold remitted by the Swedish Royal Mint.

RECENT DEATHS

Friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Captain Daniel Spragg, which occurred on April 29 at his home, Central Springfield, at the age of fifty-four years. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, Eldon J., Otty C. and Miss Emily, all at home; also his mother, Mrs. Mary Spragg, of Boston; one brother, Captain W. D. of Camden (N. J.), and one sister, Mrs. T. Whiting, of Boston.

The death took place on April 26 in Cambridge (Mass.) of Mrs. Maria C. Weldon, widow of Charles L. Weldon and daughter of the late John T. Pennington. She was formerly a resident of this city and was a sister of the late William A. Pennington, formerly a well known builder here. She leaves one son, in California, and one daughter, at home, two sisters, Mrs. Ronie, Halifax, and Mrs. Eliza Pennington, and one brother, James, in Boston.

Robert Anderson, a veteran government railway employe, died at River Glade on Tuesday, aged ninety-five years. He was conductor on a ballast train during the building of the Inter-colonial Railway. He left one son, William H. Anderson of 4 Summer street, this city.

John J. Haslam died at his home in Sussex yesterday afternoon at the age of sixty-seven years. His wife died three weeks ago. He was a prosperous farmer and lumber operator. The funeral will be held tomorrow. He is survived by two sons and five daughters. The sons are: Frank of Smith Creek and James of Redcliffe, Alberta. The daughters are: Mrs. F. L. McAfee, Everett, Mass.; Mrs. H. L. Wamsucker, Moncton; Mrs. Robert Robinson, Roschville; Mrs. Horace Slipp, Sussex, and Miss Abbie 38, at home.

SOME TENDENCIES IN EUROPEAN EDUCATION

(1) To start the children with lesson material found in the concerns of the home and neighborhood.

Clearly this start causes the children to proceed in the direction of schools that train for practical callings.

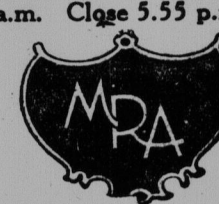

(2) To recognise in adult education a type which demands its own methods and presents its own principles.

(3) To extend special help to talented children.

(4) To accept the Danish folk high school as a means of bridging the chasm between the universities and the people. This applies particularly to Germany. It is an evidence of the new democratic education drift. Educators are realizing how far from the people the universities are. Either the people must be brought to the viewpoint of the universities or the universities must adopt the view of the people. The latter is more likely to be the outcome.

These tendencies are in line with what is going on in this country and the United States. The next decade will undoubtedly see an enormous increase in adult education and great advances in the bringing of the universities into more direct contact with the people. In no other way can the people ever be induced to provide the sums necessary for the future needs of our universities.

CENTENARY OF A GREAT PAPER

Manchester Guardian 100 Years Old Today

Some of the Big Things for Which It Has Stood in Days of National Crisis—Present Editor There Fifty Years.

The Manchester Guardian attains its centenary on May 5. One hundred years ago the revolutionary changes wrought in England by the great mechanical inventions were well on their way, and the expansion which was to make Manchester the industrial metropolis of England had begun.

The Manchester Guardian was a direct product of this national agitation for popular rights. Its first number, May 5, 1821, issued just as Napoleon was passing from the world, was a modest four-page weekly, sold at sevenpence—a high price made necessary by the imports on paper and advertisements, which were denounced by the reformers of that day as the taxes on knowledge.

The founder of the Manchester Guardian was John Edward Taylor, a fine and courageous citizen of Manchester. With him was associated Jeremiah Garnett, as printer, business manager and sole reporter. Garnett wrote a rough stenography of his own invention, or, with equal ease, he composed his own copy at the case.

In 1866 the paper became a bi-weekly; and in 1888, when Gladstone began the repeal of the taxes on knowledge, it entered upon its career as a penny daily. Seven years before this its ownership had passed to the fourth son, John Edward Taylor II, who during a long life enjoyed the good fortune of seeing the Manchester Guardian mount its position of acknowledged leadership in English journalism.

For close upon fifty years the Manchester Guardian has been under the single editorial direction of its present proprietor, Mr. C. P. Scott. Mr. Scott, who was appointed to the chair in 1873 three years after graduating with first-class honors in classics at Oxford University, still vigorous and fully active in his 78th year, C. P. Scott is a native of Bath in the West of England. For twelve years (1895-1906) he sat in parliament as liberal member for a Lancashire constituency. And thirteen years ago, soon after the death of the second John Edward Taylor, Mr. Scott added to his power as editor the authority of governing proprietor.

During its first half-century of steady growth, before the advent of the present editor, the Manchester Guardian was known as a leading organ of that liberalism which, in the epoch of Cobden, Bright and Gladstone, became the controlling force of England. Mr. Scott continued and enriched that tradition. Under his direction the Guardian gave firm, but wholly independent, support to the liberal policies which for so long a term of years before the Gladstonian stamp, it stood for free nationality in the Boer wars against the dissolving Turkish power, and attacked the adventurous imperialism of Disraeli in the East, as twenty years later, it opposed that of Joseph Chamberlain in Africa. In the middle of eighties it came out boldly with Gladstone, for Irish self-government. And it was able, by its unwavering adherence to principle, to ride triumphantly through the two storms which shook British liberalism to the foundations—the Home Rule secession of 1886, and the Boer War of 1899-1902.

In domestic concerns the Guardian has stood for a conception of liberalism wider, and it is believed, deeper than that which satisfied the Victorians, while in imperial affairs it has been identified with those aims which today are recognized by reasonable people everywhere, and especially throughout the English-speaking world, as the only basis for an enduring British common-wealth of nations.

The character of a newspaper is, of course, mainly determined by the degree in which its directing mind is reflected through the staff. More than forty years ago Mr. Scott secured the services of William Thomas Arnold, a grandson of Arnold of Rugby and brother of Mrs. Humphry Ward, one of the ablest of contemporary English journalists. It was largely with Arnold's assistance that the editor was enabled to develop the distinctive characteristics of the Manchester Guardian, notably its all-round survey of political, social, and intellectual affairs, and (a special feature which newspaper men throughout the world have recognized) its endeavor to bring the standards of literary excellence into all departments of the paper including not least those devoted to local news and sport.

As elements contributing to the building up of the Manchester Guardian's position and success five things in particular may be noted: (1) the extreme care devoted to its editorial columns, filled by a succession of editorial writers unsurpassed in England; (2) the range and authority of its special correspondence, alike in war and in peace; (3) its realization of the fact that a newspaper published in a great commercial capital must satisfy the most exacting demands in regard to its market and financial pages; (4) the quality of its official and political news, gathered from the sources by its London staff; (5) its acceptance and constant enforcement of the view that the business of a newspaper is to give a full and trustworthy survey of news, while the task of the publicist is to analyze and interpret that news—from the strong ground of political and social principle and in constant recognition of the truth that, in a world of free citizenship, all things of public concern must be open to discussion; or, to adapt a sound old American phrase, that all men, and opinions have the right to their day in the court of public opinion.

If the editor, looking back upon the record of his paper for a century, could express in a sentence the conception of journalistic faith for which the Manchester Guardian has stood, he might be content to say it was just that; the right of the citizen to know the facts of the world, and to be given such help in understanding them as a free and responsible journal can provide.

494 KILLED IN SIX MONTHS

Barcelona Terrorized — 327 Employers Slain Without Warning.

Paris, May 6.—The Math has received the following dispatch from its correspondent in Barcelona: "In the last six months 327 employes of Barcelona have been killed and always according to unvarying schedule. First, they receive a letter warning them that if in eight days they did not leave the city they could consider themselves condemned to death in the near future. Those who, defying this advice, remained in their homes, were surrounded by soldiers, were surely brought home some day full of bullets."

"For instance, the President of the Employers' Association suddenly found his automobile surrounded by twenty ruffians who began to shoot at him. By a miracle he was not killed on the spot. Physicians who were called to visit him received a warning that under pain of capital punishment they were forbidden to attend him. An escort of grenadiers was given to the physicians and accompanied them on each visit. "Another employer, badly wounded, was taken to a hospital. At the end of six weeks, being convalescent, he telephoned to his wife to come and get him in their automobile. As he passed through the gate of the hospital an unidentified man killed him with revolver shots."

"It is invariably unidentified men who do the killing. The police show themselves utterly unable to stop these murderers. By a singular rule carabinieri arrive always just too late. "That does not mean that no one is arrested. Quite to the contrary, all the known militant labor leaders and Socialists are locked up. Every one who has advanced opinions is arrested. "However, as these arrests en masse did not stop the attacks on employers they set out to defend themselves. They found in 'free unions' aid which may have results. The free unions have for their motto 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' Whenever an employer is assassinated, the same day a thenworker is murdered, maybe two of them. The number of workers thus killed has reached 157. "If this total is less than the number of employers killed it is simply because the slaying of workers began later than the hunting of employers. It may be predicted that the balance will soon be struck. "While it is forbidden to doctors to attend wounded employers, it is also for-bidden to lawyers to defend accused workers before the courts. One lawyer, Signor Ulio, who did not fear to assume this task was shot down in the street. A servant accompanying him was also killed. "In the cafes the people gather at the close of the day and discuss that latest developments, for instance, I have just learned that at midday five men armed with revolvers entered a store in the middle of the city, crowded with clients, and cried 'hands up.' Every one obeyed and the five relieved the clients of their pocketbooks. Later all these pocketbooks will be returned with their contents except money. "In the gaming hall at a casino the other evening the cashier at the end of the play started to exchange the counters for cash. He found that the cash drawer had had the bottom sawed out and 22,000 pesetas had been taken. He knew that there was no use to raise a row and paid the amount out of his own pocket. "In all the province armed soldiers ride on every train to protect travelers against these coups. "The police class all these happenings under the title 'social attacks.' They held both sides responsible and make no distinction as to the relative rights. In Barcelona the revolver is the supreme argument. 'Red terror,' cry the employers. 'White terror,' cry the workers. Truth to tell, it is hard to tell of what color it is."

NEW CHEESE FACTORY Sussex Record—Another cheese factory will soon be in operation in Kent county. Farmers of Roschville, Lower-Cove, Sussex, are purchasing the butter factory at Lower Millstone owned by the H. White estate and moved the same in sections to a near the residence of Cyrus Dobs Lower-Cove, Sussex, where it has been built and remodelled and will be opened as a cheese factory.

DR MEN
DISAGREE IN
MONCTON MEETING

Varley Says Railway Men
Made Great Mistake
—Spokesman Denies It.

(Moncton Times.)
A public labor meeting in the city tonight developed some decided differences of opinion, and at times was lively.
Varley gave it as his opinion that the great mistake Moncton ever made was to vote against the three-day week. Every man who against the three-day week risked up the labor movement. Labor's lay in keeping every man at work and so shorten the hours that the products of labor would be less. What the great steel trust is to do, is to lengthen hours and any men idle. He appealed to the workers to remedy their mistake as soon as possible, and divide with all their comrades. Division was just what the enemies most desired.
Rogers, president of the Divided Trades, took exception to Varley's concluding remarks. The U. S. railwaymen working days a week?
Varley—if there are any U. S. men working four or five days while part of their comrades have k, they, too, had made a mistake. Rogers said that a family could not live on three days' work a week. It was the duty of the government to see that the idle men were provided with employment. A family of five could not live on less than $24 a week. The government must devise means of livelihood for all.

W. N. Goodwin, president of the Building Trades, said that many of the building workers had to live on less than $24 a week all last winter. The Federated Trades had no business to turn part of their own men on to the street to increase the already flooded condition of the labor movement. All men had to live.

RICHEST NEGRESS
IN UNITED STATES
Is Decreed Owner of Big Tract, Enormously Rich in Oil and Gas.

New Orleans, La., May 4.—Lillie Taylor is probably the wealthiest negro woman in the United States as a result of a decision handed down today in the state supreme court in the suit of Lillie G. Taylor vs. Angelina Allen, state of Louisiana and George West, decreeing her to be the rightful owner of a big tract of land in the southwest section of Claiborne Parish, enormously rich in oil and gas deposits, and the value of which now reaches into the millions.

The question of her ownership hinged on whether or not an illegitimate child can inherit from its parents. Article 238 of the Civil Code, declaring that illegitimate children "belong to no family and have no relatives."
The district court in Claiborne Parish recognized Lillie Taylor as the heir of her mother, Lous McGee, however, and as such ordered her sent into ownership of the tract of land which her mother inherited from her father, Isom McGee.
The state of Louisiana tried to get into the matter by intervening in the suit of Lillie Taylor against Angelina Allen, an action brought merely in order to have Lillie formally and legally declared owner and sent into possession, the attorney general contending that the land was the property of the state, because Lillie Taylor, being an illegitimate child, could not inherit. Subsequently, George West also intervened, contending that he was owner of and occupied the land.
While the suit was dragging in the courts the value of the land and its products of oil and gas grew steadily further up into the millions until now, when Lillie Taylor has finally been declared the owner of the lands, of the oil and pipe lines that has been pumped from them, it has attained a fabulous figure.
It is rumored that the attorneys for Lillie Taylor are to receive a fee of upwards of $400,000 for services rendered.

THE DRIVES
Fredericton Glenner—The main lumber drive on the Nashwaak river this year reached the booms last night. The Nashwaak Pulp & Paper Company cut about 18 million feet but about 6 million were left in the streams, making 12 million the amount to come out. The rate of wages paid on the drive has been $8 to $32.50 per day, while last year $8 and upwards was paid daily.

MISS HIPWELL RESIGNS. Miss Mary Hipwell, daughter of David Hipwell of this city, who has been for several years connected with the treasury department of the province, and who was granted leave of absence to visit her mother in British Columbia some six weeks ago, has tendered her resignation as receiver of revenue.

TO BE BRIDE. Miss Carrie Boyer, for the last two or three years stenographer in the office of the premier's secretary here, has been granted leave of absence until June 1, when her resignation will be accepted.

THE MUSQUASH POWER HOUSE. It was announced here this morning that the tender of the New Brunswick Contracting Co. Ltd., for the construction of the power house at the Musquash hydro development site was $18,000 less than the next lowest tender and $88,000 below that of the third in order.

THE WAREHOUSE MUDDLE. Referring to the projected establishment of warehouses in St. John by Montreal liquor dealers, E. S. Carter, secretary to Premier Foster, who returned yesterday from Fredericton, said that the government was of the opinion that St. John should not be made a dumping ground for Montreal wholesalers.

OUTLOOK FOR A GOOD TOURIST YEAR

Mr. Allan Speaks of the Situation and Inquiries Received.

C. B. Allan, secretary of the N. B. Tourist, Game and Resources League, said this morning that he had received more enquiries this year than ever before. He expressed the belief that the province could get tourists in almost unlimited numbers this summer and fall, if accommodations could be provided for them. The trouble was, however, that tourist accommodations were probably worse this year than they had been for some time, occasioned by the loss of the Inveran Hotel, the White House at Bathurst and the purchase of several camps by private interests.

HOPE SOON FOR SETTLEMENT IN POWER MATTER

Progress Made at Conference Today—Engineers to Make Report of Comparative Costs of Current—Saving to Power Users.

Hope of an early settlement of the question of the distribution of the electric current from the hydro development at Musquash was expressed after a conference held this morning between the city commissioners, L. R. Ross, president of the N. B. Power Co., C. O. Foss, chief engineer and member of the N. B. electric power commission; K. H. Smith, electrical engineer of the dominion department of the interior, water powers branch; G. G. Hare, the city engineer, and Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, the city solicitor. Messrs. Foss, Hare and Smith agreed to confer and bring in a report on the comparative costs of electricity generated by steam and water power. This report is expected about the middle of next week, and it is then proposed to bring the matter before a series of public meetings. How the new arrangements will affect the county will likely be brought by Warden Bullock before the meeting of the finance committee of the municipal council this afternoon.

DOWN SHAFT OF ELEVATOR

Two Men Had a Close Call in Dock Street Building. Two men had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday when an elevator in the St. John Storage Company's warehouse, Dock street, collapsed and fell from the second story to the ground floor. Charles Collins and a companion named Harris were coming down the elevator with about a ton of beans when the timbers supporting the weight gave way and the men, elevator and large quantity of beans were precipitated to the ground floor where the elevator brought up.

ANOTHER TRY FOR A SUBURBAN SERVICE

It Should Make at Least One Portion of Valley Railway Pay. There is at least a possibility of a suburban service on the Valley Railway this summer. Correspondence on the subject has been renewed, and it is felt by those who would patronize such a service that the new agreement with the C. P. R. in regard to running right from end to Westfield should make the outlook brighter.

BODY OF WOMAN
IN LILY LAKE

A report reached the city this afternoon at 9 o'clock that a woman had been drowned in Lily Lake. It was said that William Tebo, who resides at the lake, saw the body on the bottom of the lake near the end of the wharf that runs out from the bathing houses. It is not known who the woman is. Efforts are being made to secure the body.

The Game Called "Business."

(London Weekly Times.)
Mr. Gordon Scrimgeour, who has just returned to London from the United States, gave some comparisons between the ways of business in the United States and those of Britain. "I am always impressed when I visit the United States," he said, "with the amount of effort on the part of every one engaged in the distributing business in America. It always seems to me disconcertingly opposed to that old and ridiculous adage, 'What was good enough for my grandfather is good enough for me' which is in every part of the country. A man goes to his business in the morning knowing that he will have a difficult day to play during the day, and knowing that the other fellow will try to beat him at the game called 'business.' Just as he would try to beat him at lawn tennis or chess or golf. Therefore in America one must be up and at it—on one's toes, as they say over here—all the time. For example, the buyer of a distributing house must consider every fresh 'novelty'; he must learn to say 'Yes' rather than 'No.' He must be indifferent to what has been and, instead, consider what should be. In other words, he must take advantage of every opportunity to make the portion of the business he controls better and stronger."

"In this older country, this older civilization, business itself is not looked on so much as a game; it is perhaps rather a means to an end, which may be a fair income and a life in the country. There is much less inclination here to accept novelties in the way of systems or mechanical aids or what not. There is a strong inclination to continue in the tried and less inclination to take risks. "Shopping in America is a pastime and entertainment. It does not necessarily mean buying things. The old idea that one was almost obliged to say as one entered the shop what one wanted and what one was prepared to say and all about it has pretty nearly passed away, and it ought to have died long time ago. It represents the era of the shopwalker, who felt it his duty to relieve the establishment of the presence of the customer unless she or he was likely immediately to make a purchase."

BILL EFFECTING CIVIL SERVICE

Hon. E. R. Spinney, M. P. whose bill it passes in its present form, will take advantage of the present session of the Civil Service Commission regarding promotions and appointments in the public service of Canada.

Some Plain Advice.

(Port Fairfield, Me., Review.)

Instead of President Harding, when he was asked by Germany to mediate on the amount of her indemnity, stating that the United States would keep out of the business altogether, as so many anti-leaguers claim we can do and should do. He suggested that this government would forward new proposals from Germany to the Allies. This is simply another straw showing that the United States can no more keep out of European affairs than she can stop trading with European countries or in fact with all other countries. This great country of ours can no more grow itself up and have nothing else to do with the rest of the world than it can stop existing. All talk to the contrary rises from an almost unbridled narrowness and ignorance. It is the firm belief of millions of our most thoughtful people that, prejudice aside, the United States would have far more influence over the war settlements if it were in the League than it can have outside the league. And our country would also have much more respect from its own people and those of other nations if it were in the League than it has now. It is the firm belief of millions of our most thoughtful people that, prejudice aside, the United States would have far more influence over the war settlements if it were in the League than it can have outside the league. And our country would also have much more respect from its own people and those of other nations if it were in the League than it has now.

IN WALL STREET.

New York, May 6.—Extensions to yesterday's gains were made by popular issues at the opening today. Rails, oils and equipments were again most favored. The most active stocks were those of the western transportation, notably Missouri Pacific, Texas-Pacific, Rock Island, St. Paul, Atlantic Coast Line, Louisville and Nashville were higher by fractions to a whole point.

Noon Report.

The market broadened during the forenoon, trading during the first hour approximately 400,000 shares. On the further advance of rails, oils and industrial stocks, a considerable profit taking ensued. Leaders among the steel, equipment, motor and rail and shapers reacted. Many instances under yesterday's final prices.

Green Old Age.

Two delightful glimpses of vigorous and happy old people are given in Days Before Yesterday by Lord Frederic Hamilton. One glimpse is of Gladstone; the other is Lord Frederic's mother, who lived well into her nineties, and who at the time of her death had no less than 189 living descendants—children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

With all her descendants she kept in constant touch. At the age of eighty-six she was discovered perambulating the garden on stilts for the benefit of a tiny great-grandson who could not manage his own legs and who had come to his great-grandmother for lessons. Surely such a spirited and athletic old lady deserves to rank in the annals of longevity with that famous Irish noblewoman, the Countess of Desmond, who "Lived to the age of a hundred and ten.

And died from a fall from a cherry tree that!

Lord Frederic's recollections of Gladstone do not include any remarkable physical feats on his part; they merely convey a pleasant impression of the aged premier's vitality and undying youthfulness of spirit.

In the house where he was staying a number of young people had gathered round the piano. Mr. Gladstone joined the group and asked if they would allow an old man of eighty to sing bass with them. He had still a resonant voice and read admirably. It was curious to see the prime minister reading from the same copy as the Eton boy of sixteen years who was singing alto. It was Sunday, and they went on singing hymns until nearly midnight; there was no getting Mr. Gladstone away. Mrs. Gladstone declared the next day that Mr. Gladstone had never for many months enjoyed himself so heartily.

WHARF REPAIRS

Extensive repairs to North Market Wharf have been commenced by the department. A few fenders are now being placed and it is planned to double plank the wharf from the harbor front to Nelson street and level the remainder of Market square. On the latter portion will be placed an asphalt surface to the city streets. It is felt that this will be more durable and the cost considerably less. Minor repairs were made this week to the surface of Rodney wharf.

ST. JOHN TO HAVE A DOG CATCHER

St. John is likely to have a dog catcher on duty in a few days, according to the commissioner of public works and the street superintendent at city hall this morning. Following numerous complaints that dogs, many of them unlicensed, had commenced to tear up lawns in the square and old burial ground, recently completed by the city gardeners, would have to be taken. He said that he had seen cases where the owners of dogs sat in the square and watched their pets undo hours of patient work completed only a short time before by the gardeners.

BERRY ON STAND AT HOPEWELL CAPE IN DEFENCE

Moncton, N. B., May 6.—At Hopewell Cape this morning the case of the King versus Eschick Berry, charged with the murder of his wife was continued. The accused was called to the stand. He said: "I found my wife's body in the pool of water beyond my house, about ten rods from house. Her hair and mouth were under water. Her nose was under water. I picked her up and took her in the house. My right foot was in the water. I carried her up to the old engine. I took the body through the fence beneath the bottom strand and stepped over the fence and laid the body down by spring. This would be about three or four rods from the house. "I then called to my boy, Winslow, and told him to bring down the sled which he did and I took the body up to the house. I laid the body on three chairs. There was no sign of life. I first saw the car that was swollen when I laid the body down. The mark under her jaw looked like it had been made by the point of a nail. "He denied that he had been drinking on the day he returned home.

Remember how carefully Mother sealed the air out of her "preserves", and "canned" things?
FOR THE SAME REASON WE NO LONGER USE THE ORDINARY AIR IN MAKING YOUR ICE CREAM!
EVERYONE knows that AIR cannot be permitted to get into canned or bottled fruits or vegetables. You probably remember how Mother used to worry and fuss over sealing her "preserves" and things—so that not even a thimbleful of air could get into them. She had a good reason for keeping the air out.
And, for the very same reason, WE ARE KEEPING THE ORDINARY AIR OUT OF YOUR ICE CREAM! It's just a new thing—a startling, new development in the business of making GOOD ice cream. But, oh, what an advance in making perfectly PURE ice cream for YOU to enjoy.
This new method or process is called "CARBONATING". It means that ALL ordinary AIR is driven out of the ice cream, in the "freezers", and replaced by atmosphere which is ONE HUNDRED TIMES PURER THAN AIR! It means that NOW we are making ice cream REALLY PURE! Now—for the first time—although, for years, we've been paying out enormous sums of money in order to secure only the purest and best of ingredients for your ice cream; have been doing everything humanly possible to make the ice cream PURE. The only place we fell down was in using AIR—and we didn't realize THAT until the discoverer of this new process PROVED it to us. Now we BUY the atmosphere—a sterile, 100% PURE atmosphere—in which YOUR ice cream is made.
Today your ice cream is finally, absolutely pure. It even TASTES better. And it is even MORE beneficial as a FOOD—for the carbonating atmosphere has valuable food properties of its own. More than this, CARBONATED ICE CREAM keeps BETTER than the ordinary kind—keeps LONGER. Our dealers ALONE can supply you with this new, SUPER-PURE ice cream—since WE have exclusive rights to the new, new process in this province.

DEFENCE OPENED IN BERRY CASE

Hopewell Cape, May 5.—In the murder case against Ezekiel Berry, yesterday, Mr. Friel opened the case for the defence. He contended that Mrs. Berry either committed suicide by jumping into the pool of water or else fell into the water accidentally.

Dr. Charles A. King was the first witness called for the defence. He is a practising physician and lived in Petticoat. He was summoned by the coroner to hold a post mortem examination on the body of Mrs. Berry at the request. He testified to seeing a mark under her right jaw. The lobe of the right ear was discolored. He found her clothing damp. He found frothy blood in the lungs and pink froth in the heart and water in the stomach. He concluded that she had been drowned. He found the lungs soggy and heavier than normal.

Cross-examined by Mr. Rand for the crown at great length, he was asked as to his reasons for believing Mrs. Berry had been drowned and not strangled. The members of the coroner's jury were then called to the stand in the following order: George Washington Collins, John Styles, Robert L. Lanco, Frank Bishop, Albert W. Styles. They all testified to seeing a mark on the right jaw, and said that the lobe of the right ear was discolored. They saw no other marks on the body. They all knew the accused for several years and knew him to be a good citizen and a hard worker. They also heard the constable at the inquest say that Mrs. Berry's lungs resembled the lungs of a drowned calf which he had seen. They testified that the accused on Monday after his wife's death felt badly and was crying. They all thought from the evidence given that the woman had been drowned. They noticed boot tracks at edge of culvert as if the woman had run down the road and jumped off the culvert into the pool of water.

Viola Bannister. Viola Bannister was next called. She is a sister of the accused. She noted marks on the jaw and the discolored ear of the dead woman. She had supper with Mrs. Berry the day before the tragedy. Mrs. Berry complained to her that her heart was bothering her. She had a very bad headache. The witness testified that Mrs. Berry was subject to headaches. The witness went into the accused's house one day and saw Mrs. Berry crying with pain caused by headache. She told of Mrs. Berry leaving her husband's home and taking her children and clothes to witness' home. She stayed over night and the accused came the next day and took the children and clothes to witness' home. The children cried so hard that the accused came back to witness' home and induced his wife to return to his home.

Berry will be called to the stand tomorrow morning, after which counsel will address the jury and it is expected the case will go to the jury tomorrow afternoon. Public interest is increasing as the trial progresses, the court room being filled to capacity at each session of the court.

MOTORISTS MUST
DIM HEADLIGHTS

Warning to all motorists to dim their headlights when passing other cars was given last night by Robert Crawford, provincial traffic officer in charge of all roads leading into and out of St. John. Mr. Crawford indicated in no uncertain terms that he and his assistant, Norman Downing, would stay out late at nights to see that this law was enforced. Driving past other cars with headlights undimmed Mr. Crawford considered in some sections as being more dangerous than speeding.

Officer Downing reported five cars on May 1 for speeding in Lancaster road and yesterday the owners were before Magistrate Allingham of Fairville, when four of them were fined $5 each and the other one $2.

Roads leading into the city from both the east and west are now being patrolled by the officers.

JERSEY BANKER SHORT
$30,000, KILLS HIMSELF
Joseph Kaighn of Moorestown Trust Co. Was Unable to Make Good His Deficit.

Moorestown, N. J., May 6.—Joseph Kaighn, president of the Moorestown Trust Company, killed himself, and it was disclosed that state bank examiners had found in the dead man's accounts a shortage of $30,000. His body was found with a wound on his head from a shotgun.

Kaighn was to have met the directors of the trust company to make good the shortage in his personal account with the bank. Examiners Alvin Fowler and George B. Conover found the shortage last Friday and gave Kaighn an opportunity to fulfill his promise. Worry over his inability to do so was believed to have led him to end his life. Directors of the trust company made good the shortage.

Mr. Kaighn was widely known throughout New Jersey. He was about fifty years old and had been president of Moorestown Trust Company since its organization ten years ago. He had held a number of county and local offices.

WAGE REDUCTION IMPORTANT STEP
U. S. Steel's 20 Per Cent. Cut Means Labor Must Accept Share in Readjustment.
New York, May 6.—In the process of industrial readjustment the action of the United States Steel Corporation in reducing wages by 20 per cent., stands as one of the most important developments of recent weeks. Something of a deadlock has been established between price reductions and labor costs, which only action by the largest producer in the country could break. There was of necessity a point beyond which the lowering of prices could not go without creating deficits because of the high cost of labor involved in the production of the manufactured goods. Briefly, there was something of a stabilization established in the labor market while construction was going on in the price schedules. This was uneconomic; it was a situation which could not survive, but it did exist for a time. Real contraction was halted and the basis for a real deflation was impaired.

$47,000 IN GEMS STOLEN

(New York Times.)
The loss of a sapphire and diamond bracelet worth more than $48,000, by Mrs. Dorothy Caldwell Taylor of 860 Park avenue, was disclosed yesterday. The strand of rare gems was once the property of the Russian Grand Duchess Petera Nikolaevitch, sister of the Queen of Italy.

The theft of $12,000 worth of jewels owned by Mrs. De Soria, Spanish prima donna, including jewelry given the singer's father by the Queen of Spain, also was reported yesterday.

Mrs. Taylor is the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Bertrand L. Taylor, whose son, Herbert Levy Taylor, jr., is a partner in Logan & Bryan, stock brokers, with offices throughout the country. On Sunday evening she went to dinner with Whitney Warren, the architect, and another companion.

On the way home they called on the Rev. Herbert Shipman of 489 Madison avenue, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest. After the visit Mrs. Taylor called a passing taxicab to go to her Park avenue home.

Failed to Stop Taxi.
She was certain yesterday that she had not dropped the bracelet before getting into the random taxicab, but when she reached her apartment the jewels were gone. A hall attendant dispatched to stop the taxicab before it got away was unsuccessful.

"I hadn't been in the house a minute when I noticed that the bracelet was gone," she said. "I went right out and searched the curb, got another car and drove back to Madison avenue, but I couldn't find any trace of the bracelet. I suppose that I must have lost it in the taxi; the catch probably became unhooked. I'm sure I would know the car and the chauffeur if I saw them again."

At the time the gems were originally fashioned they were in the form of a necklace. The jewels, sixteen sapphires surrounded by smaller diamonds, were painstakingly matched by Fabergé, then the leading jeweler of Petersburg, and was broken and the gems found their way, either by Bolshevik theft or by Taylor's purchase in Rome.

The bracelet, fifty per cent. covered by insurance, was appraised several months ago by Cartier, the jeweler, at more than $40,000. This estimate covering the stringing of the gems.

Riverside Drive Robbery.
The robbery in the home of Miss De Soria at 890 Riverside Drive, occurred Sunday night and was reported yesterday to the west 100th street station, where Detectives Fitzgerald, Sheehan and Fordy were assigned to the case.

The singer, who had appeared in "Gypsy Love," "Fio Fio," and other productions here, told the detectives she left her apartment about six o'clock Sunday evening, went to a theatre, and returned at ten o'clock. She said she found the door of her apartment wide open and the jewel box open on a dresser.

The detectives found that the thief apparently had entered through a kitchen window after climbing the fire escape on the rear of the big apartment house. He made his escape boldly, going down in the elevator and coolly walking out the front door.

Miss De Soria said that among the articles stolen were a pair of diamond earrings, each with three pendant stones; an engagement ring, four diamond rings, a diamond bar pin, a five-stone diamond ring, two opal and one emerald ring, a ring with a diamond and turquoise, another set of earrings and a brooch of gold and blue enamel, the last the queen's gift to Mrs. De Soria, who once sang at the Spanish court. A sapphire bracelet, a string of small pearls and a brooch of diamonds and pearls also were in the loot.

Jean, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilkinson, of Hampton, was seriously scalded recently.

FILMING SALMON ANGLERS ON THE CAIN'S RIVER

C. N. R. Party Had Successful Outing With Guide Harry Allen.

(Moncton Transcript.)

A series of film pictures that will advertise the attractions of the Cain's River, New Brunswick, will soon be released on the western circuit of motion picture houses which cover the principal centres of western Canada and the United States.

These pictures were taken last week in the Canaan woods.

Salmon fishing, trout fishing, the navigation of the picturesque river by canoe, as well as pictures of deer, partridge and ducks, will figure in the film pictures that will eloquently tell thousands of the splendid attractions New Brunswick offers to tourists and sportsmen. It is a picture more thrilling than words of a real outing in the New Brunswick woods, where a party of real sportsmen experienced the luxury of living in the lap of Nature in order to give others a real story of camp life.

The outing was arranged by the Canadian National Railways, F. W. Robertson, general passenger agent of eastern lines, with John M. Lyons, representative of the Reid Newfoundland Co., Ltd., accompanied the party, which was led by the well-known guide, Harry Allen, of the Cain's River, who had with him three other guides as assistants, and W. H. Robinson, C. N. R. official photographer.

The party of eight started from Fredericton on the morning of Tuesday, April 26th, taking the Canadian National train to McEwen Junction, where the guides with canoes and supplies, etc., were waiting. They transferred here to the train from Edmundton to Moncton, travelling as far as Cain's River Bridge. Here the Cain's River runs close to the track, and it was the matter of only a few moments to place the "duffle" in the canoes and start on the seventy-one mile trip to the mouth of the river, where it empties into the Miramichi near Blackville. The water was high for good trouting—almost in freshet in fact, but only salmon had found their way from the Miramichi and some excellent ones were killed the first day out, Mr. Lyons having the honor of landing the first, a fine fish of ten pounds in fine condition. Mr. Robertson had his first successful try at a salmon and also landed a twelve pounder. The fish were full of fight and the film operator had a busy time recording a very interesting and exciting picture. Harry Allen also hooked a couple of salmon and gave a real demonstration of "gaffing" that went on the film and should prove a "thriller."

The party lived finely while on this trip through this New Brunswick wilderness paradise. Although early in the season the weather most obligingly turned warm. The first night was spent at the Duffy camp, and the succeeding nights they lived in tents and enjoyed all the comforts of camp life—such as these trained guides alone know how to furnish on such an outing.

Besides the fishing scenes, other interesting film pictures were recorded. Deer were plentiful and not at all bashful. Partridges were numerous, just as if they knew they were enjoying a close season. Ducks were also plentiful. As a canoe route the Cain's River is noted even in this province so renowned for its variety of alluring waterways.

ALUMNAE BOOK PARTY.
The "book" party held by the High School Alumnae at the residence of Mrs. J. V. Ellis in Princess street, last night, was an entertaining and pleasant occasion. The guessing of what book the members represented occupied considerable time and many apparently uninitiated newcomers were finally made clear.

Miss M. L. Lingley was awarded the prize as champion guesser, having twenty-two titles correctly named out of the thirty-four. The next item on the programme was a drawing competition, in which the members were asked to illustrate the titles of books. The competition revealed the alumnae to have some real artists enrolled. Mrs. H. Brennan was awarded the first prize for her drawing "Our Mutual Friend" and Miss Agnes Warner won the second prize with a drawing of "Pilgrim's Progress."

Miss Grace Campbell, the president, was in the chair and the evening was given under the direction of Miss Jessie Lawson and Mrs. Harold Lawrence.

Life Insurance

THE PEOPLE of Canada are insured for over two and a half billion dollars. This sum would provide for 350,000 widows and orphans for twenty years; it would purchase 625,000 homes at $4,000 each; or it would furnish an education to over a million children.

These figures are evidence of the value placed upon life insurance by the people of Canada, and of what it is doing for the individual and for the nation.

Life Insurance is the guarantee that your home can be saved for your family and your children be given a chance in life—whether death overtakes you or you live to old age.

At home in the best circles

WITH pardonable pride the hostess says, "Yes, that's '1847 Rogers Bros.'" She expects the admiration which all women cheerfully give to the really fine things that a woman chooses with care.

And there is in "1847 Rogers Bros." something extra-fine—something that you do not pay for, yet something that is priceless. This is the assurance of highest quality, given by an enviable record of service to home-makers. No test tells the truth like the test of time.

To be sure of getting exactly what you want, ask for this fine silverplate by its FULL name, "1847 Rogers Bros."

LIFE MEMBERSHIP PRESENTED BY W. M. S.

Mrs. Ellen J. McAvour was honored at the annual meeting of the W. M. S. of the Queen square W. M. S. last night when a life membership was presented to her on behalf of the members by the president, Mrs. C. W. Dickinson. The presentation was a recognition of Mrs. McAvour's earnest work for the society and an appreciation of her faithful attendance through many years. Mrs. Dickinson presided and led the opening devotional exercises. A year of steady progress was reported and all reports were very gratifying. Miss Beattie Thompson gave the recording secretary's report, telling of the year's activities. Miss C. A. Pratt, in her report as corresponding secretary, told of the annual meeting of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island branch of the Methodist W. M. S., which is to be held in St. John at the end of May and the beginning of June. Mrs. S. E. Logan gave the report on Christian stewardship and Mrs. Joseph Taylor as treasurer submitted a statement of those returns which had been made. When the life membership presentation was made, Mrs. McAvour replied feelingly and said the gift would be a great inspiration to her. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. W. Dickinson; first vice-president, Mrs. F. Blizard; second vice-president, Mrs. T. O. Dale; recording secretary, Miss Beattie Thompson; corresponding secretary, Miss C. A. Pratt; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Taylor; superintendent of Christian stewardship, Mrs. S. E. Logan; strangers' secretary, Mrs. Robert Will; auditor, Walter Hawker.

Chicago Printers Win. Chicago May 5—The strike of Chicago job printers ended today when their demand for a forty-four hours week was granted and they agreed to accept a $4.30 a week reduction, decided upon by Dean Ralph Emerson Hellman, who was chosen arbiter by the employers and employees.

The regular quarterly meeting of St. Andrew's Society was held last evening in the Orange Hall, with the president, Alexander McMillan, in the chair. There was a fair attendance of members and considerable routine business was transacted.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CENTENARY SUNDAY SCHOOL

The annual meeting of the Sunday school of Centenary church was held last night and a year of much success was reported. J. E. Arthur, who has been the most efficient superintendent, was re-elected for the ninth consecutive term of office. Rev. H. A. Goodwin, the pastor, was the chairman of the meeting. Reports were received from all departments and they showed that the school was in vigorous and flourishing condition. Grading had been carried out for the first time throughout the school and had proved most successful. The secretary reported an enrollment of

451. Some few returns were not made and the treasurer's statement, although not complete, was very encouraging. The election of officers resulted as follows: Superintendent, J. E. Arthur; secretary, Arthur G. Lasker; assistant secretary, Harold Burley; treasurer, Harold A. Lyman; librarian, H. V. McKinnon; superintendent of beginners and primary departments, Miss Julia Hennigar; superintendent of juniors, Miss Beattie Holder; superintendent of the choir, Miss Annie Hea; superintendent of cradle roll, Mrs. Parker Jenkins; superintendent of temperance,

SACRED CONCERT WELL ATTENDED

The sacred concert given last evening in the Douglas avenue Christian church was attended by an audience that filled the building to its capacity. The concert was held under the auspices of the choir of the church, under the able direction of Alexander Cruikshank, leader

M. L. Harrison; grading committee, Miss Beattie Holder, Miss Julia Hennigar, Mrs. P. Woods and Miss Edna Austen.

The proceeds from last night's entertainment are to go toward paying for the new organ that was installed this month. While every item on the programme was presented in an excellent manner, special mention might be made of the singing of the McKee-Clark quartette. Rev. J. C. B. Appel, pastor of the church, acted as chairman last evening. Among those who contributed to the evening's programme were: Miss Mildred Barnes; Miss Verla Roberts; Mrs. Murray W. Long; Miss Andrus; Mrs. Ayer; Miss Ross; Miss Frances Murdoch; Messrs. Harry Shaw, William McEachern, John McEachern, Charles

A well attended meeting of the taxpayers of Hothesay was held last evening in the Consolidated School with M. Robinson in the chair. A general discussion of the need of fire protection for the suburb took place and it was consensus that such protection was desirable. A committee of twelve was appointed for the purpose of raising necessary funds. The amount needed was said to be from $2,500 to $8,000.

"GLORY! GLORY DWELLETH
IN IMMANUEL'S LAND."

(Last words of Samuel Rutherford.)
The suns of time are sinking,
The Dawn of Heaven breaks,
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fall, sweet morn awakes,
Dark, dark hath been the midnight,
But day-spring is at hand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

Oh! Well it is forever,
Oh! Well forevermore—
My nest hung in no forest
Of all this death-doomed shore;
Yea! Let the vain world vanish,
As from the ship the strand,
While glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

There the Red Rose of Sharon
Unfolds its heartsome bloom,
And fills the air of Heaven
With ravishing perfume!
Oh! to behold its blossom,
While by its fragrance fann'd,
Where glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

The King there in His beauty,
Without a veil or crown,
It were a well-spent journey
Though seven deaths lay between!
The sunb with His fair army,
Doth on Mount Zion stand,
And glory! glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

Oh! Christ He is the fountain,
The deep sweet well of love,
The streams on earth I've tasted
More deep I'll drink above;
There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

Even Anworth was not Heaven,
E'en preaching was not Christ,
Oh! in my sea-sound prison
My Lord and I held tryst;
And eye my murkiest storm-cloud
Was by a rainbow spanned,
Caught from the Glory dwelling
In Immanuel's Land.

But that He built a Heaven
Of His surpassing love,
A little Jew Jerusalem
Like to the one above.
"Lord! Take me o'er the waters,"
Had been my life's demand,
"Take me to Love's own country,
Unto Immanuel's Land."

But flowers need night's cool darkness,
The moon light and the dew,
So Christ from one who loved it
His shining oft withdrew;
And then for cause of absence,
My troubled soul I scanned,
But glory shadeless shineth
In Immanuel's Land.

The little birds of Anworth,
I used to count them blest,
Now beside happier alters
I go to build my nest;
O'er these there broods no silence,
No graves about them stand,
For glory deathless dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

Fair Anworth by the Solway,
To me thou still art dear,
E'en from the verge of Heaven
I drop for thee a tear!
Oh! if one soul from Anworth
Met me at God's right hand,
My Heaven will be two Heavens
In Immanuel's Land.

I've wrestled on toward Heaven,
'Gainst storm and wind, and tide;
Now, like a weary traveler,
That leaneth on his guide,
Amid the shades of evening
While sink life's lining sand,
I hail the Glory dwelling
In Immanuel's Land.

Deep waters crossed life's pathway,
The hedge of thorns was sharp;
Now, these lie all behind me,
Oh! for a well-tuned harp!
Oh! to John Hallethead
With you triumphant band,
Who sing where Glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

With mercy and with judgment
My web of time He wore,
And eye the dew of sorrow
Were lusted with His Love,
I'll bless the Hand that guided,
I'll bless the Heart that planned
When thronged where Glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

Soon shall the Cup of Glory
Wash down earth's bitterest woes;
Soon shall the desert brim
Break into Eden's rose;
The curse shall change to blessing,
The name on earth that's banned,
Be graven on the white stone
In Immanuel's Land.

Oh! I am my Beloved's
And my Beloved's mine!
He brings a poor, vile sinner
Into His House of Wine!
I stand upon His mercy,
I know no safer stand,
Not e'en where glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's Land.

I shall sleep sound in Jesus,
Filled with His likeness rise,
To love and to adore Him,
To see Him with these eyes;
'Tween me and resurrection
But Paradise doth stand;
Not at the crown He giveth,
