English Marriage of American Interest Recalls Late King's Appearance in Court—How One Man Got Into British Cabinet

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company.)

An English marriage of American interest, is that of Miss Elma Gordon-Cumming, daughter of Sir William Gordon-Cumming, and of his wife, Florence, daughter of the late Commodore Garner, of the New York Yacht Club, to Maurice Anthony Gibbs, son of the late Henry Gibbs, and, through him, grandson of the late Lord Aldenham.

For Sir William had at the time been forced to resign his commission in the army, as lieutenant-colonel of the Scots Guards, and to surrender his membership of all his London clubs, owing to his being defeated in the past for slandering which he had been compelled to bring against Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, of Tranby Croft, for having accused him of cheating at a game of billiards.

Alastair Gordon-Cumming, his brother, is a popular member of the Metropolitan Club at Washington, is connected with the Bureau of American Republics, and is married to a daughter of Charles James, formerly United States minister at Venezuela.

The Gibbess are English merchant princes, the inventor of a system, enabling the British House of Lords has been so largely recruited. The house of Anthony Gibbs & Co., in London, has been in existence since the American War of Independence, and for the last hundred years has been particularly interested in South American trade, especially in the trade with Chili.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Isn't she funny! And yet isn't she pathetic? Whom am I after this time? A rather common type, I think—the girl who is forever fancying that she is the most beautiful creature that ever existed.

She tells her friends, with what pretends to be indignation, but she is really smirking delight, how Mr. B. tried to flirt with her at the bridge party. She takes Mr. L.'s cordial "Good morning" and occasional chat with her on the train as the first symptoms of a tender interest in her.

She goes to visit a young married friend and comes home and tells how Mr. S. positively neglected his wife to sit on the veranda and go walking with her. Poor Mr. S., he was only doing what his wife asked him to do and finding it a hard job at that.

In the office some unsuspecting benedict finds that she particularly enjoys a certain author and brings her one or two of his latest books and even walks down to the train with her once or twice discussing them, and straightway she is sure he is the unhappy victim of her charms.

It is not that she is really so beautiful, or that she has so much difficulty in finding her hidden reason—she is jealous. Tom or Dick or Harry or whoever it may be, was too attentive to her at the dance or has been coming up on her veranda too often.

She is a little or maybe a life-wrecking love from a man who has no right to give to you. It may sound romantic, but romance in real life has a terrible, dreary, everyday suffering side.

Turn your eyes toward that goal, little girl, and long for it and work for it and find that these foolish ideas of yours and I'm sure your own will come to you much the sooner.

NO GREAT RUSH

The custom officials have not yet received any instructions in regard to the new reciprocity arrangements. Manager Clark, of the Partitioning, Poly and Paper Company, when spoken to this morning said that he did not think that the change in the tariff schedules would make much difference for the present at least. The province of New Brunswick will not impose export duties on wool until after October 1, and the pulp here does not expect any great rush before that time.

THE PERMANENT PAVING

The work of laying permanent pavement in Nelson street is rapidly progressing, and is now nearing completion. The job looks very creditable, and it has been found that the concrete is better than the case in Mill street, where the workmen were greatly hampered by the continued congestion of traffic. One side of Mill street has been finished from Paradise Row to the depot, and the other side is now being torn up to permit the continuance of the work. The work in Nelson street will be finished much more quickly than that in Mill street, owing to better conditions for operating, and to the smaller area requiring to be covered.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER TABLES HIS REPORT ON IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

(Special to Times.) Ottawa, July 27.—When the house met this morning Sir Wilfrid Laurier tabled the full report of the proceedings of the Imperial Conference. In doing so he explained that the report reached his Excellency Earl Grey on the very day that F. D. Monk made his motion calling upon the government to bring down a detailed account of the proceedings. The report, as presented, is now accompanied by the report of the proceedings at the conference between the British and representative of Canada and Australia on the subject of the status of the dominion navies. This is the first important question which the leaders on both sides, as well as Mr. Monk, the head of the Nationalist wing of the opposition, say they will discuss in the House.

Two New Cases Reported to Board of Health Yesterday—Not Sure it Comes From Points Under Suspicion

(Special to Times.) Two new cases of diphtheria were reported to the board of health yesterday and the board is making efforts to check the spread of the disease as much as possible. It is not an easy problem by any means, because the disease is so contagious and difficult to the members of the board, because of the baffling nature of the disease, with which several people have been attacked, with two deaths resulting, and apparently each emanating from farms in the vicinity of the city.

Fredericton, July 27.—The inquest into the cause of the death of John E. Bowers, drowned at Oromocto a short time ago, was concluded last night. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning and that the cause of the death was the failure of the crew to drill in order that they may be able to cope with an unforeseen emergency.

COUNTY COURT MEETS AT NEWCASTLE

Two Criminal Cases Not of Serious Nature—Judge Criticizes Absent Jurymen

Newcastle, July 27.—(Special)—The county court resumed from the 26th, with Judge McLachlan presiding, and A. A. Davidson, clerk. The indictment against Joseph Master was dropped. The criminal case King vs. James D. McKenzie, of Blenheim, on complaint of Annie Holmes, Charles Thomson, for defendant, case of swapping horses, and King vs. Wm. Ashford, Jr., on complaint of D. P. Doyle, R. A. Lawry, for defendant, for keeping goods by finding to one Farrala delivered by mistake to defendant. The judge thought both these cases might well have been made mere civil suits. The judge spoke strongly about several jurymen absent by those who loved him best.

WHY NOT MAKE SCHOOL HOUSES OF REAL USE

(Toronto Mail and Empire). We have in Toronto some eighty public and high school buildings, worth $4,000,000. The plant is idle for four months of the year, counting holidays and Saturdays, and in the other eight months it is in use for only six hours a day. Is it possible to do anything to stop the economic waste suggested by these figures? Attempts are being made in other cities to handle this problem, notably in Washington, where a very interesting experiment will be attempted this fall. The idea is to restore to the modern school some of the character of the old "red schoolhouses" that was both the educational and the social centre of the community.

In the schools rather than in the home, where the surroundings are not so well adapted for this purpose. It is hoped that this plan will bring teachers and parents closer together, thus helping in their dealings with the children both at school and at home. The children will be instructed, by the cheerful character of the entertainments, to spend their evenings in the school rather than on the streets and in places of doubtful character. The school-houses of forty years ago certainly accomplished this end, and, despite changed conditions, the experiment with the modern educational plant should be well worth a trial. It is said that Philadelphia and Rochester have tested the plan with very promising results. Now Washington is to fall in line. The idea is worth the consideration of our board of education.

MR. CROCKET MADE BUT POOR SHOWING

Hon. Mr. Emmerson and Dr. Pugsley Give Clear Explanation of Gasperaux Dredging Contract

Ottawa, July 26—An attack on the Hon. William Pugsley for the improvement of a New Brunswick port by dredging an entrance was made the excuse for the obstruction in the commons today. O. S. Crockett, Conservative member for York (N.), condemned the dredging done at the entrance of the Gasperaux River by the Maritime Dredging Company to afford an entrance to Port Elgin. He concluded by moving that the payment of $33,968 to the Maritime Dredging Company at Gasperaux disclosed a wasteful and illegal expenditure of public money which deserves the censure of this house.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson declared that he was responsible for the Gasperaux dredging having been undertaken. It had been done in the constituency of Westmorland. Port Elgin had important milling and fish-curing industries which were being put at the disadvantage of having no adequate water transportation, owing to the river having blocked and shoaled the work by forming a bar 1,500 feet across. The people had pressed for the cutting of the bar and dredging of the harbor in 1907. He had promised to use his influence to have it done for them.

He had sought an appropriation for the dredging from Hon. Mr. Tarte and from Hon. Mr. Hyman but there was no dredge available capable of doing the work. He had succeeded in getting an appropriation in 1908 and tenders had been called. Before they were in was found that a dredge of the Maritime Dredging Company was being moved and could be sent to Gasperaux.

The dredge had been sent there and set to work on the understanding that all dredging done would be paid for at the rate of the lowest tender received, and that if a tender lower than the Maritime Company's was received the Maritime Company should do the remainder of the work.

The situation was an exposed one and the work difficult. The Maritime Company was the only one which had tendered and their tender had been for ninety cents. The work was commenced in the lowest spring to continue the work at any price. A year later the government dredge MacKenzie had carried the work further and arrangements were now being made for completion of the work.

"The work is needed," declared Hon. Mr. Emmerson, "and if it is not carried to completion the government need not expect the continuance of my support or that of the people of that district."

Mr. Crockett had intimated that the work had not been undertaken because it was needed but because Hon. Mr. Pugsley wished to favor the Maritime Dredging Company. Such a view could only come from a diseased brain and imagination. Such views indicated that Mr. Crockett was likely to die from the starvation of his small nature.

Crocket—Mr. Speaker, I protest. Emmerson—If the members of York will modify the remark by saying that his views must have originated in a brain storm. The engineer's estimate of twenty cents a yard for work that had cost ninety cents applied only to dredging in the shallow portions of the harbor and river. Unless the harbor were opened the people would be unable to take advantage of reciprocity, as they now had to rail their lumber and dried fish to Tormentine for shipment.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley followed with a statement similar to that made by Hon. Mr. Emmerson. Learning that a dredge of the Maritime Dredging Company was to be shifted and would pass Gasperaux river, where tenders for dredging had been called, Dr. Pugsley said he had gone to Mr. Moore and asked that the dredge be stopped there and start dredging, the work to be paid for at the rate of the lowest tender, and then be moved on if another firm offered to do the work at a lower figure than offered by the Maritime Dredging Company.

This practice had been followed when the Gasperaux work was in power. There was nothing unusual or improper in the transaction and nothing to warrant the intimation made in regard to it. Every dredge owner in Canada had been invited to tender for the work. There was open competition. If there had been a great wrong in connection with this transaction it was strange that Mr. Crockett had not brought it up earlier in the session and not delayed, so as to obstruct reciprocity with it.

The transaction had been investigated in committee in 1910. The fact was the transaction had been made the basis of an unfair attack. He had observed throughout my life there are certain number of persons to be met who delight to listen to and spread untruthful reports of the characters of men who have been more successful than themselves. The words of such men are evidence only of their mean and contemptible spirit, of their low and sordid mind. It is not necessary to pay attention to every cur that snaps at a heel from the gutter. Therefore, I shall pay no attention to this."

Hon. Dr. Pugsley went into reports by engineers and showed that the contract was fairly made and the price paid for the work was fair and reasonable. The opposition would be well advised not to bring up such cases as this to obstruct reciprocity but to allow reciprocity to pass unopposed. He might deal with other important matters, such as the bill for the acquisition of branch lines in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

WOOD PULP FROM N. B. FREE UNTIL OCTOBER 1

Washington, July 26—Speaker Clark and Vice-President Sherman today signed the Canadian reciprocity bill. It was at once forwarded to the president, who immediately signed it.

RUSSELL SEEKS TO STRENGTHEN BOSTON 'HEPS'

Boston, July 27.—Now that President Russell has purchased the Pages' interest in the Boston Nationals' he is busy trying to strengthen the team at once. Mr. Russell said this morning that he had his eyes on a new third baseman and centre fielder and was now trying to get them, but refuses to divulge who the men are until the matter takes more definite form. It is Mr. Russell's idea to put Ingerton in left field again, the new man in centre and keep Miller in right. The other new man will go to third base, Spratt being kept as a utility man, playing short until Drivell is in shape to play. After the money had been paid over for Pages' stock Monday, a meeting of the directors was held and the resignation of the Pages accepted. Peter F. Kelley was elected a director to succeed Mr. Page. Following the completion of the trade it was announced that Mr. Russell had entered into an agreement with J. J. Gleason of San Francisco and New York, whereby the latter will buy a substantial minority interest in the club and take an active part in its management, becoming vice-president. It is also announced that Treasurer F. J. Murphy will increase his holdings in the club. Mr. Russell is much pleased over the fact that Mr. Gleason is to take hold of the club. Mr. Russell will continue to hold about two-thirds of the stock. He believes that Mr. Gleason is a practical baseball man, and that he now has a man whom he can depend upon to handle the team satisfactorily while he is in New York attending to his law business. Both Mr. Russell and Mr. Gleason have announced that they will put their best effort into building up the club and giving the city a high grade of baseball. They have also announced that they will not consider any trade for their stock in the near future.

AUSTRALIAN WINS BRITISH TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

London, July 27.—The most striking feature of this year's British lawn tennis championship meeting at Wimbledon was its length. Owing to the large entry it lasted two days longer than had been anticipated, although there was but one wet afternoon. The meeting was excellently supported throughout, and each of the days saw a good attendance watching the chief matches, of which there was no scarcity. The following is a list of the winners of the chief events: Men's singles—A. F. Wilding. Men's doubles—M. Deane and A. H. Gobert. Ladies' singles—Mrs. L. Chambers. Mixed doubles—T. M. Magrovodaro and Mrs. Marton. All-England plate—A. H. Lowe. A. F. Wilding, of Australia, met H. Roger Barrett in the challenge round of the singles, and after a fine game in which the score reached two games all, Barrett retired and Wilding became champion for the second year in succession. The competition for the singles was productive of some very fine and interesting play. The veteran A. W. Gore showed splendid form, but fell to the Frenchman, Max Decugis, a young player with a great variety of strokes. Others who did well were Dixon, Heath, Deans and Rabe. Roger Barrett, who reached the challenge round, played very skilful tennis throughout, but for the second time in his career just failed to reach the blue riband of English lawn tennis. A very popular victory was that of the two Frenchmen, Decugis and Gobert, in the doubles. They met A. F. Wilding and N. J. G. Ritchie in the challenge round and defeated them by three sets to one. Gobert added distinction to his name once more, and for the second time within the short period of two months. In his French play he has a very brilliant representative. Magrovodaro and Mrs. Marton occasioned some surprise by defeating the Australian S. N. Doust and Mrs. Lambert Chambers in the mixed doubles, and A. H. Lowe defeated C. Parke, the Irish champion in the all-England plate. The large attendance which thronged the meeting makes it evident that lawn tennis is as popular as ever.

Today's Games

At Fredericton—Fredericton vs. Marathons (exhibition game).

There were more than 2,000 spectators on the Marathons grounds yesterday afternoon to see the Marathons defeat the Calais team by a score of 7 to 1. By this win the Marathons take the lead in the league race from Calais.

The St. John team played a very excellent form and struck out no less than eleven Calais players, while only six hits were made off his delivery. O'Neil pitched the first five innings for Calais. He was found for seven hits and gave three bases on balls; these, with five errors, gave the Marathons their seven runs.

The only score made by Calais was in the fourth inning, when they made two singles and a two-bagger, being three of the six hits made off Tarbell's pitching.

Marathons Have Signed Harrington. The following changes have been announced in the New Brunswick and Maine League schedule. The game to have been played here today between the St. John's and St. Stephen has been postponed to Friday, and Saturday the St. John's play Calais here. The game scheduled between the Marathons and Fredericton at the capital today will be an exhibition game only. The regular game being postponed to Saturday, the Greeks playing Woodstock on Friday, and returning to Fredericton. The reason for the change in the Fredericton game is for the reason that the rules call for a nine-inning game and the Fredericton management are desirous of playing an evening game that the horses may attend.

The Marathons have signed another pitcher. He is Joseph Harrington, a brother of Frank Harrington, who pitched for St. Peter's last year and whom the Greeks tried to get in the early season. Joseph Harrington has been with Detroit. He will join the team at Fredericton. Jimmy Rootes has been given a steady job on the Marathons coaching staff and has accordingly thrown up his regular job and will devote his entire time to ball. Captain George Winter has expressed the opinion that Rootes is all the time to head. With Harrington and Rootes added to the team the Greeks will have six pitchers—Barrett, Wilding, Tarbell, Upton, Harrington and Nesbit—and three catchers—Connelly, Nelson and Rootes.

It has been decided to increase the admission fees at the management claim that choice, but did not make an extra good showing. The best time of the race was made in the second heat, 2:14. In the 2:12 pace, the good showing of Miss Letha was popular, the gray mare having a large following in and about Fredericton. Frank Patch, the favorite, won the race. Thoughtful upset calculations by winning the second heat, with Miss Letha a close second. The final heat had a great finish, Miss Letha preting the winner hand.

Premier won the 2:30 pace in straight heats, as was expected. Freda Posey, after being second place in the second heat, went bad, finishing last.

The attendance was small but should be better tomorrow, when the 2:30 trot and 2:14 trot and 2:17 pace will be run off. The track today was in excellent condition. The stags was poor, however, the horses scoring again and again in almost every heat. The last heat was not over until almost 7 o'clock.

Aquatic

Montreal Men to Halifax. The Montreal Swimming Club are sending the following men to Halifax to compete in the Canadian championships on August 5. R. M. Zimmerman, 50 yards, 100 yards on back, and fancy dive. J. P. Lyons, fancy and high dive. Sim Silver, 220 yards, breast stroke. Chris. Golden will accompany the team. The M. S. C. team for the Ottawa meet has not yet been chosen.

Athletic

Why Is This? Toronto, July 27.—A good deal of feeling has been stirred up over the civic reception to the Toronto members of the track team which represented Canada and won the championship of the British Empire in England. It has been finally decided to hold the reception at the Island Stadium, on Wednesday night, August 2nd.

The City of Toronto will make presentations to Jack Tait, Mel. Brook, Frank Halibus, and Arnold Knox, but no mention has been made of Julius Thompson, the boxer, or of Dr. J. W. Barton, the honorary coach. On all sides is heard the laconic question, "Why?" but no reasonable explanation has been advanced as yet. Frank Lickman, of Ottawa, who was also a member of the Coronation team, George Bonzag, of New York, and other well-known athletes, will be competitors at the meet at which the city's presentations will be made.

ARBITRATION TREATIES

READY FOR SIGNATURE IN VERY FEW DAYS NOW

Washington, July 27.—It is believed here that both the Anglo-American and Franco-American general arbitration treaties can be made ready for signature by Saturday or Monday next.

A few technical adjustments remain to be made in the text of the Franco-American treaty, which is now being wrought out at the state department, which is in constant communication with Paris.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

LYRIC. Billy Sheets, the whistling mimic, will make his bow to the Lyric patrons this afternoon. It is claimed by all who have seen this act to be one of the most novel and clever comedies offered for some time. There will also be an entire change of pictures today. Those which have been acted are as follows: "A Mexican Rose Garden," one of the very prettiest love stories with a natural stage setting. "The Hungry Man Was Fed," a comedy subject from the pen of Richard Harding Davis, "In and Around Havana," a very interesting travel sketch showing a wonderfully clear panorama of the city of Havana, and "An Englishman's Honor," drama by the Solig plays.

OWN A VOLCANO THAT REFINES OWN SULPHUR

Washington, July 26.—Bongo, a volcano in Japan, is defrauding the United States out of duties on raw sulphur every day in the year. Customs officials, after a long wrestle with Bongo, have decided they cannot do anything about it. Raw sulphur, as most everyone knows, comes from the crater of a volcano. It is free of duty. Bongo's craters is so hot that it refines the sulphur as it makes it.

These shrewd gentlemen who own Bongo readily refuse to pay duty on the sulphur and the Treasury department knows of no way to make them do so.

BLUEBERRY CROP LARGE.
The blueberry crop this season is expected to be a good one. All the river farms are bringing down large quantities daily, and although the price is just a little higher at present, it is believed that they will be much cheaper in a few days. New potatoes are also coming into the market in large quantities, and in fact all other kinds of produce are very plentiful. The majestic Elaine and May Queen are expected down river this afternoon with large cargoes.

CHARGES NOT PRESSED.
St. Andrew's Beacon—Detective Crawford, who gave one of the St. John papers a thrilling description of the way he tracked and arrested some alleged desperado criminals at Campbell's, will have to revise his account a little. It has turned out that the alleged criminals were not criminals at all, and that if there were any such about Campbell's the St. John sixth failed to connect with them. Last week, when the examination of the charges of burglary against Johnson and Clark (upon complaint of Owen Watson) came before Magistrate Stoop, there was no one to father the charges. Both young men were present with a cloud of witnesses and they were prepared to prove alibi, but there was no necessity for it. No one appeared to press the charge and it was dismissed.

TWO MEMBERS LEAVE MONCTON POLICE FORCE ON VERY SHORT NOTICE

No Reason Given for Sudden Move—Presentation to J. H. Corcoran—Mayor and Aldermen Attend Dr. Belliveau's Funeral

Moncton, July 27.—(Special)—Two members of the Moncton police force tendered their resignation to Chief Rideout yesterday, and quit the job, without further ceremony. The officers resigning were Mendenhall and Arenas.

The cause of the sudden resignation indicates that all is not running smoothly among the officers, but the men leaving the force decline to discuss the matter. Last night as a result of the officers leaving, there was a short force patrolling the streets.

On eve of his entering upon his duties as travelling passenger agent for the Grand Trunk in the maritime provinces, J. H. Corcoran last night was waited on the Hotel Miramichi by a number of friends and presented with a merschaum pipe accompanied by an address. The address was read and the presentation made by J. H. DeRoche, after which an hour or two was spent in a social way. Mr. Corcoran returns from here to the mayor and aldermen.

A special train carrying a large number of friends left here this morning at 9:30 o'clock for Shediac to attend the funeral of Dr. L. J. Belliveau, which took place this morning at 10 o'clock. Among those attending from here were the mayor and aldermen.
