Britain Sees Labor Strengthened By Snowden Budget

REVENUE OF $50,000,000

MACDONALD COULD WIN AT POLLS

General Opinion that Labor Could Carry Country if Elections Called Now.

BUDGET CLEVER ONE

Liberals Pleased, Conservatives Surprised, at Chancellor's Moderation.

(Canadian Press.)

London, April 30.—This morning's London newspapers of all shades of political opinion generally concede that the budget int. in the House of Commons yesterday by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Philip Snowden, is a very clever one, which on the whole is bound to be distinctly popular throughout the country.

Naturally there is adverse criticism of some of the features of the plan, but the Labor Chancellor nevertheless has every reason to be gratified at the reception of his first budgetary performance, which it is widely admitted is so favorable to all interests that, if the Government called an election now, it probably would be returned in possession of real power instead of merely holding office through the sufferance of the other parties.

Election Not Planned. There is, however, no suggestion that the Government contemplates such a step, which seems all the less called for as the budget has won the golden opinion of the Liberals, upon whose favor the administration mainly depends for its continuance in office.

The Conservatives do not conceal their surprise at the Chancellor's moderation. They had feared increases in the death duties and the super-tax, and their relief that neither was altered is accompanied by satisfaction at the abolition of the corporation profits tax, but they regard these favors as intended for propaganda purposes, to disarm the suspicions of the anti-Socialist part of the country.

Some Comment. The financial commentators say the fact that the Chancellor's proposals left the sinking fund unimpaired and provided for no increase in taxation will have a favorable effect in the city, and is likely to lead to improvement in the best classes of securities. There are, however, such criticisms as the following from The Times:—

"The chief fault with the budget from a purely financial viewpoint is its excessive optimism. It is upon the assumption that his estimate of £228,100,000 revenue is correct that he made the unexpectedly liberal reductions in certain kinds of taxation, but should the estimate be unrealized it is hard to see how he can avoid a raid upon the sinking fund."

The McKenna Duties. Some of the critics are severe upon the repeal of the McKenna duties and the Government's attitude towards Imperial preference. These will be special subjects of attack in the budget debate by the Conservatives, and some confidence is expressed that a compromise regarding the McKenna tariff may be arranged before the budget is finally passed.

But all these questions of finance and protective tariffs are swamped as regards the masses of the people in the gratification of the craving for food and drink, especially the big reduction in the tea duty. It can hardly be realized in Canada that tea means to the British workers. In the north of England and in Scotland, even more than in the south, tea is consumed in prodigious quantities by the workers at all hours.

What Papers Say. London, April 30.—(British United Press)—It is forecast that Liberal and Labor unity regarding the abolition of the McKenna duties will be easily able to withstand the Conservative attack on it. Liberal exultation at the Labor proposals is reflected in today's Daily Chronicle, Lloyd George's supporter, which comments: "The budget includes all proposals for which the Liberals have fought for generations."

The Westminster Gazette says: "The best budget in half a century." The Times sees in it the end of the Liberal-Labor quarrel. (Continued on page 2, fourth column.)

CHURCH UNIONISTS INVADE OTTAWA

Join the Committee Room, With Clamoring Crowd Outside—Falconer First Speaker.

Ottawa, Ont., April 30.—At eleven o'clock this morning the church militant stormed Ottawa, over one thousand strong. From two special trains three debouched at Union station the throng of black uniformed fighters for the faith, and from the ranks there was a hum of "Onward Christian Soldiers" as they took their way up to the Hill. They filed through the different entrances to the House and thronged the Hall of Fame; and they clamored for admission into the Railway Committee Room, the largest in the House outside of the Commons Chamber. It was all too small to contain them.

Police men stood at the doors, admitting only those who could show credentials, but there were many who had no title to admission except the force of their numbers. Many of the newcomers who threw themselves against the doors, and the police had to push back some of the last of the newcomers who threw themselves against the doors, and the police had to push back some of the last of the newcomers who threw themselves against the doors.

It was proposed that the meeting adjourn to the Commons Chamber and the Speaker was consulted on this proposal. His asset was not forthcoming for the session today, but probably will be tomorrow. The meeting was called to order.

H. B. McGivern, member for Ottawa, chairman of the Private Bills Committee, occupied the chair, and ranged up ten deep at either end of the Chamber, facing each other, were the legal cohorts representing the opposing forces, not as single spies but in battalions.

Many of the leaders of the Canadian bar were there, among them men who have personal as well as a professional interest in the A. A. Clark (Conservative of Burrard). The Senate will sit.

Yesterday Herbert Marler (Liberal, St. Lawrence-St. George) announced in the House his intention to vote against the budget, on the ground that it was in accord with the Laurier-Flelding tariff reductions.

Andrew McMaster (Independent, Boone) said he would support the budget. The Government had taken a step in the right direction, in his opinion.

The Prime Minister announced that Rt. Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, "was wholly and heartily in sympathy with the acting Minister of Finance in the budget has brought down."

J. J. Hughes (Liberal, Kings, P. E. I.) spoke of remarkable improvement in the finances of the country under the present administration. Trade was expanding and the C. N. R. should become an asset within three years.

Robert Milne (Progressive, Neepawa) reviewed the situation of the farmer today and outlined a few of the problems with which she was confronted. After a brief session the Senate adjourned.

ZAYAS HAS REBELLION ON HIS HANDS

Revolution Has Broken Out in Santa Clara Province, Cuba.

TRINIDAD REPORT

Unconfirmed Statement That Uprising There Also Has Taken Place.

(United Press.)

Havana, Cuba, April 30.—The Zayas Government today look drastic steps to put down a rebellion which has broken out in the Province of Santa Clara.

Orders were issued for arrest of all leaders of the Patriots and Veterans Association, the organization considered responsible for the rebellion, and five men were taken in custody in Havana.

The Government announced loyal troops had clashed with the rebels at Juan de la Yeras, ousting them from their position in the City Hall, which they had seized. The rebels sustained numerous casualties.

The outbreak followed estimated the total strength at not more than 100 or 200 men, armed with rifles and machine guns.

The outbreak started in the Province of Santa Clara, the men seizing ammunition and horses and fleeing from the city of Santa Clara, capital of the province, shouting, "Down with Zayas; down with rebellion!"

At Trinidad, the rebels were reported to have seized the safe containing municipal funds. It was here they were overtaken by loyal troops.

Three divisions of regular troops were en route from Camp Columbia to the scene of the outbreak today. At the same time the War Department issued a call for 2,000 "defenders of the Government."

The outbreak follows organization of the Veterans and Patriots' Association several months ago, for the avowed purpose of preventing the reelection of President Zayas.

Find Moonshiner In Crib With Babe

Peabody, April 30.—One inspector and four police officers were temporarily balked here in attempting to make a liquor raid by the slumming of a few-month-old infant, and were finally compelled to lift the infant from the crib before completing the search for liquor. It was only after an extended argument with the owner of the house to the effect that, being married men, they were able to administer to the sleeping child, that they were able to pick the little baby from its crib, which they found with bottles of moonshine. It may now be necessary to conduct the little crib as a contraband carrier.

MONEY NO OBJECT TO MARY PICKFORD

Out to Buy Fifty or Sixty Paris Gowns—She Talks on Styles.

(United Press.)

Paris, April 30.—Mary Pickford this morning did what every woman has dreamed she would like to do—bought all the Paris gowns she wanted without even asking the price.

A correspondent of the United Press picked Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford on a shopping tour in Paris. The film star bought, besides gowns in sixteen minutes, nearly leaving a score of French midwinter's attire of astonishment.

Fairbanks was an active aide in the shopping, choosing and rejecting with expert decision. Mary, however, did the final say and rejected many gowns because they were not simple enough.

The well-dressed woman is simply simply dressed, she informed Malvern in French.

At night, the gowns were being made of simple, straight lines in black, with white trimmings or embroidery and of moderate length.

The stars explained her longer skirts, unless their ankles are exceptionally straight and attractive," she said.

A feature of the skirts selected was fine pleated inserts, while most of the blouses were long-waisted creations.

The star explained her traveling suit, one garment afternoon gown, and several gowns trimmed, "engraved" and cross-threaded with a fine pattern.

This afternoon she will be buying in earnest, and may purchase fifty or sixty gowns. The star explained her French by saying she had been studying at home for the last three years.

Mexico City, April 30.—Maria Del Pilar Moreno, 17 years old, who two years ago shot and killed Deputy Francisco Tajeta Llorca a short time after he killed her father, was acquitted yesterday of a charge of murder.

After a shower of flowers, thrown by women and children, the girl was carried from the court room in the arms of student admirers. The trial lasted two days.

Senorita Moreno sought out Tajeta Llorca when she discovered that, on account of parliamentary immunity given the members of the Chamber of Deputies, he would not be brought to trial for killing her father, J. Moreno, an attorney and director of the newspaper El Heraldico de Mexico.

Public sympathy had been overwhelmingly on the side of the youthful prisoner and in the popular mind there seemed to have been no doubt that she would be acquitted. During the trial a medical expert testified that Llorca died from a wound made by a .38 calibre bullet.

Letters To The Editor

A STATEMENT FROM THE N. B. POWER COMPANY.

To the Editor of The Evening Times-Star: Sir—Last evening's issue of the Globe contained a criticism of a Telegraph-Journal editorial under the heading "The Centre of the Stage" in which appeared the following paragraph: "The Power Company management wants control of Hydro just as it wanted it two years ago. It has not abandoned hope of yet securing that control"—from which it may be inferred that the Globe is not cognizant of the statements published by the present directorate of the New Brunswick Power Company in which the public was informed that there has been a complete change in the control and management of this Company during the past year and that the present Board of Directors are desirous of operating this Company along lines which will advance public welfare.

The Directors feel that looking back to something which happened two years ago in the affairs of this Company under conditions and management which do not exist today is not likely to tend toward public welfare advancement, and that it would be more in the public interest to "let the dead past bury its dead" and will co-operation and a fair-minded survey of present conditions make every effort to better the position of the city in the future.

To any movement along this line the new Board of Directors of this Company will give their support.

Yours very truly,
NEW BRUNSWICK POWER COMPANY,

The Secret of 15 years of Popularity

For years people have speculated as to just why Parfumerie Rigaud has out-lived so many other perfumes in its continued popularity. Now the secret is out.

"The reason is a simple one," said the aged creator of Rigaud's perfumes, "in formulating Parfumerie Rigaud's perfume, we deliberately set for ourselves the task of achieving an odour that would be so seductive, so fascinating, so bewitching that it would be utterly irresistible to men."

"To create this kind of a perfume we distilled nearly 100 new odours and secured dozens of women to give them actual tests in their social contacts with men."

"At last after eighteen months we reduced our researches and conclusions to just one odour which we then perfected. And this became Rigaud's Parfumerie Rigaud—a perfume with so distinct, so individual and so seductive a lure that men simply could not resist it!"

That is the secret of why it has survived so long—that is the reason it will live on for many years to come.

Not Only Moth-proof but Strongly Built, as Well

ONE of the biggest advances ever made in the upholstered furniture art, was, unquestionably, the introduction of Snyder's "Sani-bilt", guaranteed, moth-proof furniture. Other so-called "moth-proof" furniture must take secondary place to "Sani-bilt". Our process is absolutely colorless, odorless and non-poisonous. In addition, the fillings are as thoroughly treated as the cover.

We take the prospective buyer closely into our confidence by laying bare the constructional secrets of "Sani-bilt" Furniture and back this up by a positive and absolute guarantee of replacement, in the event of the Furniture not being found as represented.

The Frames Are Solidly Built

The frame on which upholstered furniture is built must be strong, if the furniture is to give the service it should. The frames on which Snyder's "Sani-bilt" pieces are built are of exceptional strength and solidity.

wood, properly planed and dressed. All frames are made with corner blocks which are glued and screwed.

Solidly Built from Cover to Frames

Regardless of price, large suite or small, sound construction is the keynote of "Sani-bilt" Furniture. The japanned, oil-tempered springs, at the precisely correct tension, are securely interlaced to prevent displacement.

The high-grade, non-stretching webbing (made specially for ourselves) is closely interwoven and firmly anchored at both ends, to provide a permanent base for the whole construction.

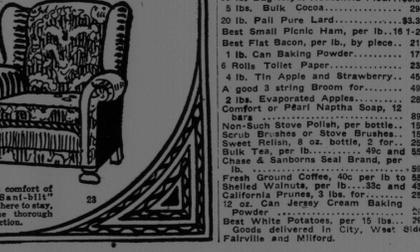

Another point of superiority for Snyder's "Sani-bilt" Furniture is that only new, clean and sanitary materials are used in its manufacture. The fillings, the covers, the cottons, the webbing, the springs, the twine, the frame—all brand new. This is of great importance to the purchaser, because upholstered furniture made of second-hand materials can prove a menace to the health of every member of the family.

How easy it is to make upholstered furniture that is graceful of line and attractively covered, but which, because of its cheap interior, disappoints its owner soon after its purchase! Only by selecting furniture that carries Snyder's "Sani-bilt" guarantee tag and trade-mark label can you be definitely sure that it is positively mothproof, durable in construction and comfort, and made of new, fresh materials. Insist on seeing the "Sani-bilt" guarantee tag and trade-mark.

All Prices—All Styles

A trade-mark, identifying genuine Snyder's "Sani-bilt" Furniture, will be found under the cushion of every chair and chesterfield. Be sure it is there. Also, conspicuous on every piece of genuine "Sani-bilt", you will find the guarantee tag attached by a cord. Keep it. It is your assurance of satisfaction. "Sani-bilt" living-room furniture is made at all prices. It is not necessarily expensive. It can be had at any price you want to pay. All prices, sizes and styles guaranteed.

ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 30, 1924

GRAIN BRINGS THE SHIPS

St. John should be interested in this statement concerning the influence of grain shipments upon seaports:

"The chief factor in bringing shipping to Montreal is the great flood of grain from the farms of the Canadian prairies and the Mid-West of the United States, which provides cargo alike for liners and tramp during the fall rush and upon the opening of navigation. The increase in the grain storage and elevator capacity of the port, recently authorized, will do much to assure ample freight for the liners that make Montreal their western terminus throughout the season."

That is to say, throughout the open season. The words are those of the Toronto Globe commenting upon the transfer of the big Cunard Carmania to the St. Lawrence route. The Cunard directorate, the Globe suggests, are evidently confident that Montreal, already the second most important port in North America, is certain still further to improve its position and perhaps challenge even New York so far as the North Atlantic trade is concerned.

The point for St. John is that grain is the chief factor in bringing shipping to Montreal. It should be a great factor in bringing shipping to St. John—ever much grain goes to Vancouver and through the Panama Canal, Montreal's steady grow is conceded. And the Canadian grain crop under normal conditions will increase immensely. St. John is the natural winter port of Canada. It for winter freight what Montreal is for summer freight. If truly national transportation policy is to be followed, the C. P. R. makes increasing use of it. There is needed similar action by the National Railway system of Canada. This city must not cease to press for a greater volume of freight, import and export, and it must never rest content with the state of the control of traffic is beyond the control of the railways.

St. John believes that the right use of the Transcontinental and perhaps some readjustment of port charges, together with the right sort of co-operation between our harbor authorities and Canadian National traffic headquarters, would produce results. Here is a question demanding examination from every angle, and the development of a vigorous and enterprising policy designed to expand the port's business to a volume worthy of its geographical position and its real national value.

BRITAIN AND THE DOMINIONS

The preferences to the Dominions introduced in 1919 are not to be abolished at once by the Labor Government, according to the budget speech, but the administration reserves the right to cancel them at any time in the future—if it survives the budget debate and other perils—and they will probably disappear in August. These preferences were few and they have been the subject of intense controversy. As an example of their effect it is pointed out by those favoring their continuance that in 1919 the British importation of Canadian cameras was nil while in the three following years they grew to $800,000. Again, in 1919 Britain imported Canadian automobiles to the value of $1,800,000. But the McKenna duties were introduced as a war time measure rather than one to foster Imperial trade, and their abolition has been discounted.

The Chancellor promises that the question of the preferences will be submitted to Parliament for full discussion. There will result from this, and from the cuts in taxes on some forms of food, a noteworthy battle between the free trade and protectionist forces in which the Government will fare ill unless the Liberals come to the rescue as they evidently will.

As it stands Britain receives preferences from the Dominions but gives practically none in return. General Smuts has declared that such a one-sided arrangement cannot last. There have been similar utterances from Australia and New Zealand. But the outstanding fact is that Britain cannot give each of the Dominions the preferential treatment it needs—its needs being different—unless it sets up a considerable tariff against foreign countries and so excludes enough foreign products to let the Dominions in through the advantage thus afforded them.

more keenly than it does the Conservatives. The budget indicates that the overseas Dominions cannot count upon any extensive preferences in the near future. As they make their own tariffs, they must concede the right of the people of the United Kingdom to do the same. The coming debate will sharpen the division between the free trade and protectionist elements in Great Britain, but the fiscal issue just now is less likely to upset the Government than some others.

SAVE THE FORESTS

In a moving appeal to the people of New Brunswick, broadcast from St. John last evening, His Honor Lieutenant Governor Todd brings home the frightful loss resulting from forest fires, and earnestly impresses upon all the grave need for care and caution. Carelessness and indifference, as he shows, have resulted in a shocking destruction of our resources. The Lieutenant Governor reminds us of our duty to ourselves and to those who come after us. "Preservation of the forests of New Brunswick," he says, "means the assurance of employment and comfort for generations yet unborn. It should be the duty of every person in the province to exercise the utmost care in regard to the use of fire and also to see that like care is exercised by others."

In a similar appeal to Canadians Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King tells the people how forest fires affect the taxpayer today, in addition to eating up tomorrow's resources. He says: "Our forest industries next to agriculture, constitute the most important source of our national income. We in Canada today do not appreciate the extent to which our prosperity is dependent on a stable supply of raw materials for these industries. Nor do we appreciate the fact that forest fires, through destruction of raw material today, threaten the very existence of these industries."

"The Government is aiming at reduction of taxation. There is no way in which the people of Canada can more effectively assist in achieving this result than by united effort to stop the present tremendous losses through forest fires. Our own interest, as well as our duty to those who come after us, demands that we avoid carelessness and neglect of reasonable precaution, which has been the cause of over ninety per cent. of our forest fires in the past."

Every New Brunswicker has in this matter a duty too great to ignore. For the neglect and carelessness causing ninety per cent. of our forest losses there is no excuse. Let each resolve to do his own share to stop the destruction which is a reproach to us as a civilized and enlightened people.

St. John men who remember base ball here in the late eighties and the early nineties must have read with interest the other day of the death of a well known Halifax sporting man who once upon a time was a referee. He presided in that capacity over a game between two famous teams, one representing St. John and the other Halifax in those old days. It was played in Halifax. Some of the St. John players have survived the referee, who died at sixty-six. There was so much excitement over the contest—and some of the decisions—it seemed probable he would not live through the game. There was lively betting, and at that time feeling between the sporting elements of the two cities ran high. To-day, fortunately, there is a friendly understanding. Soon after that a St. John team left the diamond in Bangor under a shower of sods and stones. And even at home not a few games were exceedingly warm. Speaking of that Halifax game, thirty odd years after it was played it begins to seem likely that the referee's decisions were neither so atrocious as one side said nor so admirable as the other side asserted. But at the time the moon certainly had a sanguinary hue.

Germany still has plenty of money for propaganda. It encourages rather than rebukes its militarists. A new "Hyman of Hate" has just been published in Hamburg. French automobile makers recently cancelled a German order for 2,500 cars upon learning that they were intended for the German army. The choicest French wine crops have been purchased by Germans, and half the purchase money paid in advance, say Paris despatches, and it is added that Germany can afford to buy for cash, and does so buy, great quantities of luxuries. She pays gold for American copper and hogs of which she makes heavy purchases. These are among the reasons why Germany cannot rightly be regarded as either poor or peaceful. She has tried the patience of the Allies to the limit many times, and will again unless they exert united pressure.

It seems that Canada really does exercise some censorship over certain books and other publications which it deems offensive or worse. Mr. Justice Ford of the New York Supreme Court has been denouncing some of the books and pictures of his own country, and in the course of an address on the subject in Boston he said: "Canada shrinks from contact with the fowl prints of this country. In the Canadian Bookstore and Stationer of recent date is printed a blacklist. Of the twenty-eight books blacklisted, all are in free circulation in New York except one. Ninety-three other publications find places in the blacklist, of which twenty-six are published in New York, six in Chicago, and six in Boston."

The champion fly-caster of the United States is on his way to Cain's River with the veteran sportsman and guide, W. Harry Allen. If a thousand New Brunswickers were as successful as Mr. Allen in advertising the fish and game resources of the province there would be scarcely room enough for our visitors. There is a good chance to extend such useful and fruitful activities by giving support to the Tourist and Resources Association.

The first British Labor budget has been greeted with much popular favor owing to the reduction of taxation it brings. Also, the taxation programme is much less Socialistic than the Conservative element feared.

Press Comment

BACK IT COMES

(Toronto Star.) The meat packers of Chicago ship bones to China which are later shipped back to this country in the form of Mah Jongg sets. The transportation facilities have brought curious anomalies to pass. The shin bone of a calf goes to China to get made into an East Wind, and then comes prancing back.

GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE

(Dearborn Independent.) After a survey of the premises of the housewife, to obtain water for her work was walking 140 miles a year and expending enough energy to do the work of two horses in plowing eleven acres of land. A small hydraulic ram, overhead storage tank, kitchen sink and waste pipe were installed at a cost of about fifty dollars, which put running water into the kitchen.

THE PROGRESSIVES TOUR

(Calgary Herald.) Progressive party members of the Dominion parliament have been touring the Maritime Provinces during the Easter holidays. The idea was good. It is as valuable for westerners to get a first-hand knowledge of eastern conditions as it is for easterners to see for themselves what the west is and what it has to offer. The eastern holiday of the Progressives on this occasion is of interest as it has disclosed the attitude of members of the party in their capacity as representatives of the people of the west.

As was to be expected, speeches were demanded of the westerners. We have record of at least two of them. One made by P. J. Garland, Bow River, and another by Alfred Speakman, of Red Deer. The Bow River man talked to a Montreal audience. He referred to his Bow River constituents as "farm slaves," and greeted working men in his audience as "wage slaves." The position of the west he announced as desperate, with prospect of general bankruptcy as a possibility of the future. Middlemen, according to him, are parasites, without distinction, and the railways are robbers. And thus on the end of his address he pictured the west as a place to keep away from.

Mr. Speakman talked for publication in St. John, N. B. He did not deny the west, neither did he denounce the east. Rather he took a statesmanlike attitude with regard to the economic situation throughout the Dominion and urged unity of effort by east and west to overcome the disabilities from which both are suffering in greater or less degree. A working partnership was better in his judgment than an attitude of antagonism. The west has never been in the position that Mr. Garland pictures. It has had its hard times and its good times and will doubtless continue to have them in more or less regular succession. It is today recovering from a hard time period, just as is the rest of the civilized world. But the spirit of the west is such that no true westerner broadcasts his troubles; he keeps them to himself and turns a smiling, optimistic front to the great outside. And let it be said that the west has never yet disappointed the same optimism of its sons and daughters. Mr. Garland's Montreal speech was a gross exaggeration. In no sense did it truthfully depict the general situation in the three prairie provinces. It was the pronouncement of a pessimist of a type the west knows little of, which is a mighty good thing for the west.

They All Come Under One Name — Brantford
MANY kinds of roofing are made by this Company. They differ in form—in weight—and in price. Not one of them could be selected as the best for all purposes. Yet, each is best for one purpose. For that reason we do not wish to force sales of any one brand of Brantford Roofing. We try rather to induce customers to select the brands of Brantford Roofing that will give them the best roofs for their purpose—the best value for their money.

Save Money by choosing the proper kind of Roofing
The way sales of Brantford Asphalt Slates have grown shows that builders want this 100% roof which affords perfect protection and promises enduring service. Hard-headed, they make assurance doubly sure by having the "best money can buy." When Brantford Asphalt Slates are not required there is a brand of Brantford Roll Roofing of the highest quality in the proper weight for buildings of a permanent character. Yet, for a building of temporary character there is a brand of Brantford Roll Roofing that would be a wise buy.

Brantford Asphalt Slates come in wide range
The nature and purpose of the roof dictates the style that will give greatest satisfaction. Brantford Asphalt Slates are supplied in four colors, red, tile-red, green and blue-black. They come in single shingles, in four-in-one slabs, in tapered slates for the best architectural effects, and in Arro-locks a special design making a low cost roof.

The Best Roof is the one that suits the building
It is our aim to make every Brantford Roof the best roof for the building it covers. On that business policy a reputation has been built up for a wide range of roofings bearing the one master trade-mark "Brantford." If you are building—or re-roofing—any type of building—and you want the best roof for the purpose—you will get it in a Brantford Roof. Ask the Brantford dealer or write to the Brantford Roofing Co., Limited, at Brantford.

Distributed under Brantford Roofing Trade Marks through Brantford Roofing Dealers. Stock carried, information furnished, service rendered by our dealer in your district.

Was able to give free rein to her art and to demonstrate fully her command in turn of the humorous, the dramatic and the illustrative. Her style is happily free from the artificiality associated with the "recitation" and therefore makes a direct appeal.—London Morning Post.

One of the most impressive elevations yet heard in this district is Miss Gertrude Tomalin who lost no time in getting on good terms with everybody. The more she recited, the more her audience seemed to demand. She kept the audience alive with laughter.—Strand News.

The charming personality and keen sense of humor were irresistible—not a word, not a gesture—but was warmly relished by a delighted audience.—Tuesdale Mercury.

DYED LACE. Dyed lace is used extensively on lingerie this season. Nile green and apricot are two very popular shades. The advantage of dyed lace is obvious since in order to keep colored silk garments from looking it is necessary to re-dip them occasionally, and the lace is bound to become colored, so it might as well start out that way.

Can You Write a Good Advertisement?

Some people declare that there is a knack in writing good want ads—possibly there is; but the knack really consists merely of saying what you have to say in simple, concise language.

Do not search for unusual words or hackneyed expressions. Follow the style of this advertiser who published the following many years ago in a British paper:

AT ONE Mr. Packer's, in Crooked Lane, next The Dolphin, are very good lodgings to be let, where there is freedom from noise and a pretty garden.

Doesn't that advertisement just beg you to answer it? Yet there is nothing elaborate or strained about it—just a simple little ad.

Don't get stage fright when you write advertising—just say in a few simple words exactly what you mean.

Then send your advertisement to The Times-Star.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

ALEXANDER WINS 11-INNING GAME

His Hit in the Final Frame Clinches It—The Majors Yesterday.

New York, April 30.—After the season's record of eight consecutive victories which began when they occupied seventh place, the New York Yankees, champions of the baseball universe, were passed into a tie for first place in the American League yesterday by the weather man.

The champion's contest at Philadelphia was one of four postponed by rain. Detroit, after holding the thin lead of one half game against the Yankees drive for several days, succumbed, six to four, to the steady fire of Pitcher Thurston of the White Sox.

Grover Alexander's versatility permitted the Cubs to beat Pittsburgh 2 to 1, and creep a half game closer to the leading Giants, whose game with Philadelphia was postponed by a washout at the Polo Grounds.

Alexander held the Pirates to eight hits and did not issue a pass in eleven innings. His double in the final frame drove home the winning run.

The first Boston American victory in 10 days was achieved over the protesting bodies of 18 Senators, including six pitchers, none of whom were named in a 6 to 3 Cardinal victory. Mike's two doubles, the second coming in the bases jammed, drove in four runs.

Ball Problems By Billy Evans

QUESTIONS. 1. Can a player start as pitcher, be shifted to other positions in the game and then return to the pitching mound? 2. Can a batter, after having struck out, start for the bench, and then, discovering the catcher has muffed the third strike, start for first?

ANSWERS. 1. A player has such a right provided he is continued in the lineup. 2. He has such a right, and is not out for running out of line, as many think. 3. If a substitute enters the game without notifying the umpire of the change, what is his status?

WHEN RUTH PLAYS BALL WITH KIDS

Home Run King Fond of Sneaking Off to Sandlots With Urchins.

By HENRY L. FARRELL. (United Press Sports Editor.) New York, April 29.—(United Press.) "He's beginning to grow up and he's in shape. You just watch him this year," Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, said when asked about the Babe's prospects for the 1924 season.

"Ruth always will be a boy at heart," he said. "He wouldn't be what he is if he had lost the enthusiasm, the temperament or the viewpoint of a youth. He's getting more serious now about his future, and that is what I meant by saying that he is beginning to grow up."

Up until last year the Babe acted like a boy who didn't realize that the land of plenty, in which he was living, was not permanent. He had plenty of money and he spent it all on friends who were eager to help him in the spending.

In the parlance of Broadway, he was a "check-grabber." He couldn't understand why he should not be permitted to pay all the freight and be a good fellow when he was on parties with the gang. He found himself broke, saw himself in the light of a sucker and he quit it.

After he had fought Jack Dempsey in Shelby last summer and failed to get a cent for staying fifteen rounds with the world's champion, a friend remarked to Tom Gibbons that it was hard luck on him.

"It's not my bad luck," Gibbons replied, "it's bad luck for my wife and my three little boys. It would have been their money, not mine. I have enough to take care of myself, but it is my duty to provide for them."

The Babe didn't say anything like that last fall, but he did something that meant just as much. When the season closed he called Harry Helman, Detroit outfielder, who had beaten him out for the American League batting championship.

"Take out the old papers, Harry, I want to buy some insurance." When the policy had been turned over to him, the Babe said, "I don't sigh and said: 'Now, I feel a whole lot better. There's sure to be something for the wife and little Dorothy when I leave.'"

That, perhaps, was one of the demonstrations that Ruth gave his manager as the symptoms of growing up.

The Babe still retains his temperment, but as soon as he loses that he will be close to the end of his career. He is not the fiery, petulant Babe who jumped into the stands two years ago and ran out of the place the loud-mouthed rooster who called him a bum, but he is not the schoolboy who does everything to heart and who broods when things are not going right.

In a discussion of the exhibition games with the Brooklyn Robins, he objected to a decision given by Umpire Clarence Rowland and he found that Rowland wagged one end of his cutting tongue in the league. Rowland hurt the Babe's feelings, and he sulked through the game, but he succeeded in getting it all out of his system.

When the Babe used to get on one of his escapades, managers used to say that Miller Huggins was making a mistake when he did not work on him while at sandlots. Huggins is one of the smallest men associated with the game and Babe is one of the biggest, so the little manager would have had to use a bat if he wanted to carry out any of his lessons' well-known methods of discipline.

Huggins does a lot of thinking if he falls short of action and he knew that the Babe was up and gone before the Babe had been taken down with any other players had eaten breakfast and that later they would break that he had been out to some parochial school talking to the pupils.

They tell the story about the time the Babe was sent to the hotel where he was heartbroken because he had been waiting two months to see the Babe and that he had been taken down with pneumonia the day before his hero arrived. Babe grabbed a car and rode 85 miles to pay a visit to the sickbed of his little admirer.

Genaro Faces Hard Opponent

Frank Genaro, twice conqueror of Pancho Villa and who is scheduled to meet the world's champion again in the near future in New York, will clash with the most formidable contender he ever faced when he tackles Tommy Ryan of McKeesport, Pa., at the Boston Arena, Friday night.

So confident is Genaro about his bout that he has demanded that Ryan make weight for the contest and post a forfeit of $500 with the Commercial poundage.

Ryan is one of the most feared little fellows in the game today. He is a dangerous hitter. He has been running up a string of knockout victories.

The Fredericton papers give a good deal of space to reports of the Rotary district conference, which opened yesterday morning in the Memorial Hall of Christchurch Cathedral.

Gov. Spangler delivered an address on the spirit and objects of Rotary. "Rotary in the final analysis is a method of better understanding of your fellow-man," he summed up, "the sum of Rotarians, a blend to which contribute hundreds of clubs, great interest in education, better business methods, better boys and better clubs."

When the policy had been turned over to him, the Babe said, "I don't sigh and said: 'Now, I feel a whole lot better. There's sure to be something for the wife and little Dorothy when I leave.'"

Babe grabbed a car and rode 85 miles to pay a visit to the sickbed of his little admirer.

The finest thing about Ruth is that he never whispers a word about doing these things. The information has to leak out from other sources, and when the Babe is asked about it, he blushes and stammers that: "The kids and I'm for 'em all the time."

WORKERS NEEDED FOR OLYMPIC TAG

Can Send Their Names to Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson or A. W. Covey.

Organization for the Olympic tag day to be held here on Saturday is proceeding rapidly under the convener-ship of Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson. There is room, however, for any volunteers, ladies or men, who want to take this over big in St. John. There is every likelihood of several St. John boys going to the final Olympic trials in upper Canada in June and so that they can go there in good physical condition and in shape to give their best, the tag day is being held. If they are selected to go over with Canada's Olympic athletes, their expenses will be paid from Montreal and back to the metropolis. It is a high honor these boys are striving to bring to St. John. Already, this city has furnished two athletes for the Olympics, Hilton Belyea and Charlie Gorman and are almost sure of a third one, "Billy" Maynes, with a possibility of others. It only requires the 5 and 10 cent pieces of the "Man in the Street" to give these youngsters a chance. There is a real sporting chance in Saturday's tag day and St. John always was noted for its good sports.

"Billy" Maynes finally does make the Olympic grade, it will be the first time in the history of this city that it has been represented at the Olympic track sports. Maynes' injured foot has completely healed now and he is quietly getting into shape for the tests at Montreal. Dave Johnson, who finished ahead of Maynes at the Dominion 440 event last fall in September by scant inches after Maynes had been set back a few feet, already has been selected for the team. Most of the officials who saw the finish, including P. J. Mulgrew, chairman of the Canadian Olympic committee, were deeply impressed with the St. John boy's finishing powers.

More Than 400 Attend Enjoyable Function in Y. M. C. I. Last Night.

More than 400 people attended the bridge given last evening in the Young Men's Catholic Institute by the Nurses' Guild of the St. John Infirmary, assisted by the pupil nurses of the institution. The affair was an unequalled success and a good sum was realized for the fund being raised for a new wing to the infirmary.

The graduate nurses and the underlings were present in their uniforms and gave a delightful professional touch to the function. Miss Mary Doherty was general convener and she was assisted by the president of the alumnae, Miss Mary Downing, and Miss Marion Rogers; Laura Morrisey, Alice McManus, Katie Ryan, Florence Leonard, Winnifred Dowd, Mary McDonald, Grace Keohan, Laura Maroney, Kathleen McFadden, Nellie McCarthy, Miss Frank Frauley, Mrs. M. Delaney and others. Drs. S. H. McDonald, J. R. Nugent, Edmund Lunney and Dr. P. Broderick also assisted in the arrangements. A fine programme of music was rendered by the Y. M. C. I. orchestra.

The report of Mr. Grant was read by the warden. It stated that the walls were not damaged sufficiently to make them unsafe and they were still plumb and true. He suggested that the building be restored to a steel frame and the floor and roof loads and this would also carry another story if it was decided to add one. He estimated the replacement value of the walls as they stood at $22,664.

Restoration Recommended. After some discussion it was moved by the warden that the building be restored to a steel frame and the floor and roof loads and this would also carry another story if it was decided to add one. He estimated the replacement value of the walls as they stood at $22,664.

Before the meeting adjourned Warden Thorton, chairman of the committee, expressed his regret on leaving the council and thanked the members for support during the term of office. He also extended thanks to the press for reports of the meetings. Councilors Campbell, Simpson and Bowland expressed regret at the retirement of the two members of the council.

The cough is at first short and sharp, but gradually increases in severity and occurs in sudden spasms, vomiting follows, and sometimes there is nose bleed; the child is livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets, and suffocation seems imminent as it is brought on by the "whoop."

TIMELY TIPS TO AMATEURS

SAYS HERMAN PILLETTE Pitcher, Detroit American.

To my way of thinking, the fast ball pitched at the knee is a twirler's greatest asset. The low ball is the thing, particularly with the lively ball now in use in the majors. Opposing teams try to wait out a low ball pitcher, forcing him to come up. Most batters will tell you that the low ball is by far the hardest to judge. Certainly that is conclusive proof of the value of the low ball. Umpires will tell you that the low ball is by far the hardest to judge. Strength, Vigor and Health Restored. Quebec Lady Very Enthusiastic About Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Relieved of dyspepsia, Dame J. I had tried all kinds of remedies, but Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only remedy that has given me strength, vigor and health. If I had found this remedy in your Almanac before, it should have been your client long ago. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are easy to carry and easy to take. They are a natural remedy, digesting the food while the stomach rests and recuperates."

And yet James Leroy has not always looked the part of a potential sensation. He was just a fair first; it is not a matter of record that the citizenry of Houston broke down and sobbed when Branch Rickey decided to move the Oglethys, Ill., youth up to Syracuse.

Now it is written in the ledger of momentous moments that Syracuse threw wide open the town or handed over the keys and chimed. As a matter of truth, Bottomley started none too brilliantly with Syracuse, but when he did start to come there was no stopping him and from mid-season until the stretch he was baseman in the Texas League and fighting it out with Jack Bentley of Baltimore for the batting championship.

You are reminded, in passing, that all this Bentley hit in the National last year was .327. Bottomley himself hit .371 and was second to his teammate, Hornsby, among the regulars.

Rickey and the Cardinal bosses think Bottomley will hit even better this year. The added experience he has had given him a definite line on the enemy pitchers. A smart ball player always finds this helpful, and Bottomley is not wholly bereft of brains.

Bottomley is a crotch to have another spectacular season at bat and it is not all improbable that he and Hornsby will again fight it out for the championship of their league.

THE SAWMILLS. The Atkinson Lumber Company will operate a mill at Harris Bridge on the Oromocto River this season. Shipments will be made via the C. P. R. The mill manufactured lumber being hauled to a spur line which will be constructed. The Atkinson Company's cut the past winter was three million feet and unusually good luck has featured the driving operations.

The Stanley Douglas, Limited, mill at South Devon, the last of the mills in the Fredericton district to start operations after being closed for the winter, is expected to start sawing on Thursday. The drives for the Douglas mill comprise about six million feet.

TRAINING HARD FOR BIG MATCH

Stasiak Getting Into Shape for Championship Match With Lewis.

Stanley Stasiak, the Lion of Poland, is getting into remarkable shape for his championship match with Strangler Lewis at the Boston Arena Thursday evening, May 9.

He is doing his preliminary training at the Y. M. C. U., but plans to work out of doors the last week if the weather is a little warmer. As head of his training staff he has Professor MacKetchum, an expert on physical culture, boxing and judo wrestling. In addition to MacKetchum, Stasiak's camp at present consists of Al Rizzo, the Italian heavyweight; Frank Yusko, the Lithuanian heavyweight; Frank Dutcher and one local boxer.

The big Pole taking a lot of boxing, as Lewis has been knocking out most of his toughest opponents this season.

Billy Sandow, manager of Lewis, wires that the champion has a match at Lexington, Ky., May 1, and will arrive in company with Mrs. Lewis on May 8. After a day of rest he will complete his training.

Will Hold Bout in Victoria May 4. Rain Caused Postponement of Carpenter-Townley Go—Advance Sale Poor.

Vienna, April 30.—The fight between Georges Carpentier and Arthur Townley, the English light heavyweight boxer, which was to have taken place this week, has been postponed until Sunday afternoon, May 4. Uncertain weather conditions, following a heavy rainfall, which drenched the open air arena, were given the cause for the postponement of the bout.

The advance sale of seats had been very poor. The management had hoped to take in six or seven thousand, or the equivalent of 1,600,000 francs. The gate receipts, however, promised nothing better than 500,000 francs. Frank Carpentier and Townley officially weighed in for the bout and the postponement was bitterly opposed by resounders, who have in mind the proposed fight between Carpentier and Gibbons in Michigan City on Decoration Day, desires to get away from Vienna as soon as possible because of Vienna burgomaster, who is the stakeholder, was obdurate and insisted that the bout be put off until next Sunday.

BOTTOMLEY BEST IN THE MAJORS, SAYS MR. RICKEY. St. Louis, April 30.—Like Lord Byron, Doherty and the gentleman who conceived the one-piece bathing suit, James Leroy and fighting it out with Jack Bentley of Baltimore for the batting championship, who is the stakeholder, was obdurate and insisted that the bout be put off until next Sunday.

Now it is written in the ledger of momentous moments that Syracuse threw wide open the town or handed over the keys and chimed. ## MRS. F. M. ROSS IS NOTED ENTERTAINER

As Gertrude Tomalin She Did Much for Soldiers in the War.

Less than a year ago St. John welcomed an English bride, Mrs. F. M. Ross, wife of the manager of the St. John Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Co., Ltd., and in the few short months in which she has made her home in the city Mrs. Ross has formed many friendships. She is possessed of exceptional talents and rare charm of manner. Mrs. Ross has won widespread fame in her platform recitals and in her humorous pieces could hardly be equalled. Many of her most delightful humorous sketches and the love stories which she won the hearts of her soldier audiences during the war were of her own composition. It is to be the privilege of the people of St. John to hear Mrs. Ross in a recital on Friday evening of this week in Pythian Castle in aid of Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E. Precocious Child.

As a little girl Gertrude Tomalin, now Mrs. Ross, could delight and amuse drawing-room audiences. She was trained by the noted English veteran actor, William Farren, and was also for a time a pupil at the Guildhall School of Music in London. In her appearance before notable English audiences she was acclaimed as mistress of her profession. She had the honor of appearing in Albert Hall before Their Majesties, the King and Queen, and won royal applause.

During the war she has performed for the soldiers in camps and hospitals and Canadian soldiers are not likely to forget their enjoyment of her visits at Witley Camp. She spent one month touring in France visiting the large hospitals and concentration camps. Her soldier audiences, Mrs. Ross says, were the audiences which she liked the best, although she had had experience with audiences in all parts of the globe.

It sometimes required very real courage to entertain the sick in hospital. The terrible suffering which she witnessed made it seem impossible to tell funny stories, but Mrs. Ross was able to "carry on" and amongst her greatest triumphs will be the praise she received from a sad shell-shocked soldier in hospital. There had been a varied programme of music and reading that afternoon. Each member of the audience was a bed patient. The most pitiable one of them all was heard to say after the programme: "I liked Java, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, the love stories best," and the love story had been Mrs. Ross's contribution to the programme.

Shortly before her marriage Miss Tomalin made a world tour and visited

THE IMPERIAL HAS A GRAND 3-FEATURE BILL TODAY

NO MALICE INTENDED

HERE IS A NOVEL WHICH PRESENTS a clear-eyed picture of the average village and its people with nothing extenuated and nothing set down in malice. The clumsy, sincere, harshly angular, and yet at bottom kindly minister, the Rev. Adrian Plummers, who has risen from the plowtail to preach conventional religion with fiery zeal, is no mere lay figure. He is incredibly old-fashioned, his occasional shame-faced resort to the sabbath he had played in youth, his belief that he can cure by laying on hands, and his excursions to paint Bible texts on rocks and fences. But we respect him for more than rugged force of character—for complexities and ardors of temperament which, as he confesses, a harsh world has simplified and curbed. —N. Y. Evening Post.

For her programme in St. John Mrs. Ross has some very appealing pieces to select from. Among those which she has thought of giving are two Coster sketches "Flora's Bit" by John Oxenham and "Lonely Camp" by Rupert Hazel, and an irresistible bit of humor "Cupid in New York" adapted from O. Henry's writings. "John and I" which is an adaptation from Stephen Leacock, is another piece that is sure to please. Love stories and child studies are to be included in the programme and the anonymous piece "Buying a Noddy's Ark," "The Jumper Champion" which is an original piece may also be given.

ESTIMATE MILL ST. CROSSING COST ABOUT $750,000

C. N. R. Officials Send Figures to Mayor—Will Go to Council.

The estimated cost of the talked-overhead crossing in Mill street, including the property expropriated for the station and the cost of sewerage system is nearly three-quarters of a million dollars, according to advice received by His Worship, Mayor Fisher, from the C. N. R. authorities.

Of this amount the city would be expected to pay a portion, to be determined by the Board of Railway Commissioners, of the cost of the bridge itself, the diversion of the roadway while construction is going on, the cost of the properties expropriated on the east side of Mill street and the whole cost of diverting the sewerage system and gas mains.

The estimated cost of the bridge itself is given as $490,000; of the diversion of the roadway while construction is going on, $15,000; the diversion of the sewerage system, $12,000 and the cost of the bridge, expropriated as from $121,000 to $135,000.

It was suggested that, as the C. N. R. had expressed themselves as not satisfied with the plans, the city council take this matter up with J. M. Woodman, general manager of the Atlantic Division, and secure his views on what would be necessary to meet their needs.

Accompanying the letter were three sets of plans, showing in detail the proposed construction. This matter will be brought before the council at its next committee meeting.

JUDGMENTS AGAINST PERENE

Admiralty Court Rules in Suits Following Collision Near Here.

Judgment in favor of the plaintiffs was rendered today in the Admiralty Court by Chief Justice Sir Douglas Haasen in the joint suits brought by the owners of the schooner Maid of Scotland and the Dominion Coal Co. owners of her coal cargo against the Peruvian steamer Perene. The case arose over the collision of the two vessels near St. John harbor last fall, when the schooner was sunk and four members of her crew and four of the steamer's crew were drowned. The schooner's owners sued for $50,000 and the owners of the cargo for $10,000.

H. H. McLean, Jr., who appeared for the plaintiffs, asked for judgment to be given that a date be set for the hearing of argument as to damages, but A. N. Carter, acting for the defendants, notified the court that the appeal was likely and asked for a few days delay. This request was acceded to by the chief justice.

Sir Douglas in his judgment held that the lights on the schooner were properly burning; that a proper watch had been kept by both vessels, but the reason that the look-out on the steamer did not see the schooner's lights was that he was attending to other duties; that the defendant and the defendant that the lights on the schooner were not visible when she was bearing was not set out in the original defence, but even so, the evidence showed that this would prevail for only about three-quarters of a minute, that the captain of the schooner should not have left the bridge. The chief justice said that he believed the evidence given by Missick and Tupper, the only members of the schooner crew who were saved, who jumped to the deck of the steamer from the rigging that he believed that the lights on the schooner were burning properly.

SAY WIGMORE LIKELY WARDEN

There is considerable speculation as to who will be chosen as warden of the Municipal Council on Tuesday, May 12. It has been the usual custom to rotate the appointment between the city and parish representatives and on this point a parish councillor would have been elected in January. The council however re-elected Warden Wignall, but now that he will not be in office there is said to be a disposition on the part of some of the councillors to press for a county man. At a January meeting the name of J. T. O'Brien of Lancaster was placed in nomination but he withdrew in favor of Commissioner Thornton. Mr. O'Brien's name has been mentioned as the likely successor to the warden but it is said he does not desire to offer for the position, is backing Commissioner Wignome for position and would thus leave the way clear for a parish representative next term.

MARRIED AT ST. ROSE'S

At St. Rose's church with nuptial mass Miss Alice Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy of Pleasant Point, and Amelia Gallant, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gallant of Union Corner, P. E. I. were united in marriage by Rev. Wilfred Mallette at 7.50 this morning. The bride looked charming in a suit of navy point twill with picture hat of grey and grey shoes and stockings to match and carrying a white prayer book. She was attended by Miss Blanche Hanlon, who wore a navy blue suit with hat to correspond, and wore a corsage of bouquet of Ophelia roses. The groom was supported by Charles Murphy, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Many valuable and useful presents were received, including cut glass and silver.
