HOPE FADES FOR MISSING N. S. FISHERMEN

ANOTHER VESSEL LIMPED TO PORT; NINE INJURED

Members of "Mary Ruth" Report Miraculous Escape

DORIES DRIFT IN Attempt Made to Search for Crew of "Sylvia Mosher" by Aeroplane

HALIFAX, Aug. 12.—A further message received late this morning from the superintendent of the Sable Island life-saving station read: "Four more dories drifted ashore."

HALIFAX, Aug. 12.—Radio messages flashing in from the waste of waters around Sable Island this morning failed to bring the hoped-for tidings that the 25 Nova Scotia fishermen, crew of the Lunenburg hand-liner Sylvia Mosher, had been found, but on the contrary, all the information available from those in a position to know something of what happened in that storm-ridden section of the Atlantic last Saturday and Sunday, strengthens the belief that the piling up of the Sylvia Mosher on North Bar last Tuesday night was the culmination of one of the worst tragedies in recent history of the Nova Scotia fishing fleet.

Yesterday the Lunenburg fishing schooner Mary Ruth limped into her home port, with nine of her crew needing medical attention, and all her deck gear, including dories, gone overboard, reporting a miraculous escape from Saturday night's storm at almost the same spot on Sable Island on which the Sylvia Mosher found her last resting place.

PLAYTHING OF STORM. The Mary Ruth was a plaything of the storm all of Saturday night and part of Sunday, as she rode out the gales near North Bar. Finally the little schooner was carried into the breakers and when the crew had watched everything on deck go overboard, and it seemed the Mary Ruth was about to fall apart, a strange eddy of the sea bore her up and away from the shoals into deep water, and the dories sailed managed to steer her out to sea.

Members of the crew saw nothing of the Sylvia Mosher, nor had they heard of her fate until they reached the home port. They could hold out little hope for safety of their fellow-fishermen. Captain Conrad suffered a broken shoulder in the buffeting received by the Mary Ruth, and others of the crew were injured more or less severely.

CLEAR WEATHER TODAY. Captain Sutherland of the Government steamer Lady Laurier, now searching for Sable Island survivors of the Sylvia Mosher or a solution to the mystery of the fate, reported this morning from off White Head that the search so far had been delayed by foggy weather but that it was clear this morning, and the search would proceed.

LIKELY CAPSIZED. Captain Hanson of the steam trawler Lemberg, reported having passed through wreckage off Sable Island yesterday. The wreckage appeared to be part of the fishing equipment of a schooner, and included a stove in dory, which the Sylvia Mosher until reaching Halifax today, and had attached no particularly significant to the wreckage.

FALL SESSION IF MEIGHEN IS PUT IN POWER

TORONTO, Aug. 12.—The Mail and Empire publishes the following despatch from Ottawa: "Civil servants and others in Ottawa have been speculating as to whether or not there is to be a fall session of Parliament. Any doubt on this point may be put aside. It is the intention of the Meighen government, if it is returned in the election, to convene Parliament as soon as possible after the polling. It does not propose to continue longer than is necessary the expenditure of public funds on Governor-General's warrants, but will summon Parliament for an autumn session and have it vote supply."

SEARCH FOR MISS GOY OF GAGETOWN IS UNAVAILING

Despite diligent search there was no trace up to noon today of Miss Eva Goy, 25 years of age, of Upper Gagetown, missing from her home since Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She was last seen walking across a field which slopes from her home up to the main highway, the River Road. The supposition this morning was that she had gone into the woods and been lost. The search is still going on, Sheriff Machum and a party of men from Gagetown have gone to the assistance of searchers from Upper Gagetown and have extended the search. The river has been searched and the nearby woods and shore have been searched but to no avail.

NEWS RECAST. In case that she had been picked up by some passing automobile en route to Fredericton or Saint John, in those cases, it is not thought that she was a victim of a drowning accident, but that she was an expert swimmer and last summer she swam across the Saint John River from the shore at the other side.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 12, 1926.

THE MAYOR AND TAXATION.

His Worship Mayor White, in issuing the second of a series of statements regarding assessment and taxation, through which, presumably, he is preparing the public mind for such action as may be designed to correct an impossible situation, deals with the general angles of the whole question.

Our own city, as His Worship says, is unique in that it is the only city in Canada in which taxation exemption is not general. Toronto exempts $2,000 for a married man, with a further allowance for children. In Calgary the exemption is $1,000 for the married taxpayer, while Vancouver gets along without either a personal or an income tax.

The Mayor, once more, directs attention to the amount of money which our taxpayers devote to school and county purposes. If we add interest and other practically fixed departmental expenses, the revenue at the disposal of the Council is exceedingly limited, and leaves no margin for projects of civic betterment, grating as these are needed. There is nothing for beautification, tree planting (so desirable from many standpoints) no funds to promote many forms of improvement which some excessively material citizens decry, but which, nevertheless, we very greatly need unless man does not live by bread alone.

As to instalment payments, the Mayor is apparently doubtful or, at least, open to conviction but it must be said that the considerations he advances with respect to the matter are at least worthy of careful examination. Perhaps the most hopeful and welcome feature of his second message on taxation is to be found in the obvious certainty of its tone and the impression it conveys that he is not only willing to engage the expert advice necessary for a proper analysis of our taxation and assessment situation, so that we may reorganize and go forward along sound lines, but that he is about to proceed along that safe and sure course of enquiry, and bound not to stop short of the degree of reform that the investigation may indicate.

Taxation reform, of course, is not to be hurriedly or unwisely undertaken without complete information, nevertheless the circumstances as we know them are such that undue delay would be most unwise. There is a feature of the situation upon which His Worship has not yet touched, but with which it may be well supposed he will deal when he next addresses the public. This has to do with the manifold and clearly manifest injustices resulting from the working out of the present system.

Doctor White, if he were to examine with care, as doubtless he has already done, a list of some hundreds of taxpayers taken at random, would detect herein many instances either clearly proving evasion of taxation of the most glaring order, due to the elastic consciousness of those making sworn statements, or, if not that, due to the impossible character of the plan under which we are working or the machinery which we apply to assessment and collection. The present plan, if pursued unchanged, is bound steadily to increase the list of defaulters, and just as steadily to increase the sense of irritation, injustice and futility which now oppresses a very great proportion of the body of taxpayers in Saint John.

NO ARMS OR AIR TORPEDOES. No arm of the service has undergone more changes and has been the subject of more scientific applications than the Artillery. In the days of Creedy men, manufactured tubes of metal, crammed with powder and any old projectile according to fancy and impulse, proceeded at random to death.

POEMS I LOVE. "A Denial," by Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

THE finest poem of renunciation that I know is this gorgeous poem of Mrs. Browning's. It is magnificent in final space permits me to quote only a portion of it.

We have met late—it is too late to meet, O friend, not more than friend! Death's forenoon shroud is tangled round my feet.

And if I step or stir, I touch the end. In this last jeopardy, Can I approach thee,—I, who cannot look in my face and see.

I might have loved thee in some former day. Oh, then, my spirits had leapt as now they sink, at hearing thy love-phrase.

Before these faded cheeks were over-wreathed. Had this been asked of me, To love thee with my whole strong heart and head—

I should have said still—Yes, but smiled and said, "Look in my face and see!"

But now—God sees me, God, who had drowned it in life's surge. In all your wide warm earth I have no part—

A light song overcomes me like a dipse. Could love's great harmony The saints keep step to when their bonds are loosed;

Not weigh me down? and am I a wife to choose? Look in my face and see—

While I behold, as plain as one who dreams, Some woman of full wealth, Whose voice, as cadenced as a silver stream,

Shall press the fountain-soul which sends it forth, One younger, more thought-free, And fair and gay, than I, thou must forget.

With brighter eyes than these . . . Look in my face and see!

So farewell, whom I have known too late To let thee come so near. Be content, my love, when I call thee great.

And one beloved woman feels thee dead—Not—that cannot be, I am lost, I am changed—I must go. The change shall take me worse, and no one dare Look in my face and see.

Only human beings and certain kinds of apes have flat nails on their fingers and toes.

NUMEROUS MOTION PICTURES TAKEN IN THIS PROVINCE

Ottawa and Fredericton Governments Co-operate in Boosting Plan

FURTHER DISPLAY OF SCENIC BEAUTY

Thousands of Feet Used in Saint John and Restigouche Valleys

Through the co-operation of the Federal and Provincial Governments and several Saint John residents, New Brunswick's scenic beauties are to be made known to many thousands of people who have never been within the borders of the province.

F. C. Badgley, film editor of the Canadian Government Motion Picture Bureau at Ottawa and formerly captain in Col. Boyd Anderson's Moncton battery during the Great War, and his camera operator, S. H. Hollingsworth, were in Saint John last night after a three week picture taking tour of the province.

Mr. Badgley said that the great beauty of the Saint John valley was a surprise to him and he also spoke in high terms of the Restigouche country and other sections of the province. On the Restigouche pictures were taken of salmon angling, other fishing scenes and panoramas.

IN SAINT JOHN VALLEY

During the past weeks Messrs. Badgley and Hollingsworth have been making pictures of scenery along the Saint John River from this city to Fredericton, covering the ground by automobiles. All the places of interest were visited. The Ottawa men were accompanied by J. Charlton Burrie, secretary of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, in whom they found a valuable guide and affable companion.

Later Mr. Badgley and Mr. Hollingsworth followed the valley in Fredericton, the Provincial Government providing a car. In all several thousand feet of film were used. The pictures will be excellent, as conditions were generally favorable. Mr. Badgley has sufficient material to produce two subjects dealing wholly with the Saint John valley.

"I have been all over Canada taking pictures," said Mr. Badgley last evening, "and I have never seen a section of greater scenic interest than the Saint John River valley. The splendid high ways which skirt the valley afford a wonderful opportunity for tourists and other visitors in their drives. Unlike other valleys, the Saint John has high ways unobstructed by that which is clear every foot of the way. We found no bad roads and no dangerous places."

ALL OVER WORLD

"The films will be exhibited all over the world. The basic idea is not only to make New Brunswick and its great attractions better known to other sections of Canada, but to the world at large. The views will be shown in theatres of the United States and elsewhere and will be exhibited before sportsmen's clubs, motorists and other organizations in this country, the United States and other lands. They should be of inestimable benefit as mediums of bringing to this province many more thousands of tourists and sportsmen. We already have tangible proof of the tremendous value of films."

Messrs. Badgley and Hollingsworth filmed the hydro development section of Grand Falls on Tuesday, and these will also be used in the interest of further advertising New Brunswick. The two will leave today for Nova Scotia to make pictures of scenes in the Annapolis valley and in the Miramichi district of Cape Breton. Later they hope to return to New Brunswick and take pictures of Grand Manan, Campobello and elsewhere, including the Pictouque region.

Mr. Badgley is no stranger to New Brunswick. Last year he made pictures of the cities of Saint John and Fredericton.

During the war he enlisted in his native city of Ottawa and while overseas was promoted for gallantry to be captain of the battery, of which Col. Anderson, of Moncton, was in command. Mr. Badgley holds a military cross.

MANY VACCINATED AT HEALTH CENTRE

Seventy-Four Attended to on Opening Day of Pre-school Clinic

There were 74 young people who were candidates for attention at the free vaccination clinic for school children on this season's opening day of the clinic yesterday. Still others arrived at the Health Centre to undergo that very necessary operation, but seeing the large number of those attending decided to wait until today. Dr. Mabel Hamilton, medical inspector of the city schools, was assisted by the school nurses and the work of vaccination went forward very expeditiously.

The number of children vaccinated yesterday is about an average for the first day of the clinic. Though some of the young people could number very few years of existence they were all very plucky and quite interested in undergoing the strange experience. No tears were shed. The free vaccination clinic will be open each week-day afternoon except Saturday from 2 to 5 p. m. until the opening of the city schools on Aug. 30. Pupils can not be received in the schools unless they can show a certificate of successful vaccination or have the marks of such vaccination to display.

Visiting Doctors Address Local M. D.'s

About 40 of the local doctors attended the August meeting of the Canadian Medical Society extra-mural course held last night in the nurses' home of the General Public Hospital and discussed with much interest the topics of the evening which were dealt with very ably by the visiting experts. Dr. R. Powell, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Powell, of Saint John, who is from the Montreal General Hospital, spoke on "Hæmaturias." Dr. J. MacKenzie, president of the Toronto Academy of Music, dealt with "Disease of the Anus." The meeting was presided over by Dr. V. D. Davidson, president of the Saint John Medical Society.

SAINT JOHN GROUP IS COMPLIMENTED

Local Artists to Broadcast Program from Moncton Radio Station

The talented concert group from Saint John which gave so delightful a radio program from CNRA in Moncton in March has received the high compliment of a second engagement for this week and will leave the city at noon on Friday to give a radio concert on Friday night on CNRA. The members of the party are Miss Vida Waterbury, Miss Bernice Mooney, Miss Ada Williams, Miss Mabel Scully, Harold Gillis and Dr. O. Comeau. For this week's concert Prof. C. W. Alves of New York is added to the number of the musical artists and will assist in accompanying. Each member of the party has won great acclaim in concert performances in Saint John. Miss Waterbury has a contralto voice of fine quality and is a very pleasing singer. Miss Bernice Mooney, soprano singer has an exceptionally sweet voice and displays much versatility in her singing. Miss Williams is a gifted violinist who never fails to please. Miss Mabel Scully the leader in the party has delighted many audiences with her splendidly vivid recitations. Mr. Gillis has arranged the program and the concert party is under his direction. He has a rich and tuneful baritone voice. Dr. Comeau has been a leading part of accompanist and will also give piano selections.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER SCRIPPS' ESTATE

Daughter-in-Law of Newspaper Magnate Claims Late Husband's Share

HAMILTON, Ohio, Aug. 12 — A legal fight, involving 33 newspapers and the press service of the late E. W. Scripps, has been started by Mrs. Josephine Scripps, of Miramar, Cal., his daughter-in-law. She has prepared a claim for $10,107,884 against the E. W. Scripps estate, claiming that sum is due the estate of her husband, James G. Scripps, son of E. W. Scripps, who died five years before his father. The claim is based on an alleged agreement made by E. W. Scripps in 1912 and retroactive to 1908. Under this alleged agreement, James G. Scripps, who assumed management of newspaper enterprises in 1908, was to receive, with his late brother, John P. Scripps, one-half of all profits and increments of the enterprises. Mrs. Josephine Scripps already controls six newspapers in Washington, Oregon, California and Texas that once were in the Scripps' control. She separated the claim on behalf of herself and her five minor children. They were not included as beneficiaries in the will of Edward W. Scripps, who died last March, leaving his entire estate in trust, with Robert Scripps, another son, as executor.

Officers Resentful of Slurs on Uniforms

BERLIN, Aug. 12 — Insults recently directed at the uniform of the former Imperial army have provoked a vigorous protest from the Army Officers League. Caricatures and affronts, aimed at the military uniform of the ex-kaiser's troops, abounded throughout Germany during the heated political campaign preceding the national referendum on the ex-royalty's property claims. In their protests, the ex-officers demand a strict government investigation and punishment of the offenders. Socialist circles ridicule the protest and defend the mocking of the former Imperial army. Observers insist that the protest itself shows a strengthening of the reactionary forces in Germany.

HEAVY CORN PLANTING

WINNIPEG, Aug. 12 — More than 173,000 acres are planted to corn this year in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, compared with 120,000 acres 10 years ago, according to a bulletin from the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

WALMA The SALAD and COOKING OIL The CANADA STARCH CO. LIMITED - MONTREAL

MUSEUM RECEIVES FOUR MORE GIFTS OF RARE OLD LACE

Indian Relics and Other Curios Also Presented to N. H. S.

A collection of old lace is one of the latest departments to be opened in the Natural History Society's museum in Union street. As yet the collection is not so complete that it has been placed in cases for general inspection, but if gifts of old lace continue to come to hand as they have done recently there is every likelihood that the collection will be displayed shortly. The Society has been most fortunate in receiving so many gifts of rare and very fine examples of old lace. Four pieces have recently been added to the collection. Two of these are given by Mrs. Greppo of Santa Monica, California, who is a noted collector of old lace and were presented to the museum through the interest of Miss E. Katherine Matthew. The other two were presented by Miss A. L. Hunt, of Hampton, and were formerly owned by Mrs. Hunt's mother who wore them on her bridal tour in 1887.

The two pieces given by Mrs. Greppo are very old, but in perfect state of preservation. One is a shaped Honiton lace collar and the other a piece of Alençon lace that has been worn on a collar but has not been specially shaped and is about an inch in width. One of the two pieces given by Miss Hunt is a white veil with Valenciennes edging, a very fine example of this variety, and the other is a wide piece of black lace which is not quite so delicate work.

OTHER DONATIONS

There have been many other very interesting donations received at the museum recently, including two relics of the days of the Indians, which were found in excavations made in Saint John and in Fredericton. Lawrence Garey has given the base of a "bayonet slate" which was dug up in his yard in Mill street, Saint John. Dr. Williams Macintosh, curator of the museum, says that these bayonet slates are Indian relics which have been found in many localities but have proved something of a puzzle to the authorities on Indian lore. Nobody is quite sure exactly what the bayonet points of slate were used for. They were very long and slender and very nicely shaped, but as weapons they would have been more pleasing to the enemy than to their own people and broke very easily. It is thought that they may have been used for ceremonial purposes. Iron tomahawks of Fredericton is the donor of the other Indian relic recently received, which is an iron tomahawk, such as those given to the Indians by the French in the early days of the history of this province. It was found four feet underground when excavations for a cellar were being made in King street, Fredericton. The iron has been much corroded and rusted through the long years that it has lain buried, but the weapon is still entire and it is evident that the Indians have been capable of unpleasant accomplishment in the matter of scalping and similar observations.

MADE IN THIS COUNTRY

The workmanship shows that the tomahawk was made by an Indian French blacksmith in this country and not by skilled craftsmen of France. It would seem strange given to the Indians by the French in the early days of the history of this province. It was found four feet underground when excavations for a cellar were being made in King street, Fredericton. The iron has been much corroded and rusted through the long years that it has lain buried, but the weapon is still entire and it is evident that the Indians have been capable of unpleasant accomplishment in the matter of scalping and similar observations.

Mrs. Josephine Scripps already controls six newspapers in Washington, Oregon, California and Texas that once were in the Scripps' control. She separated the claim on behalf of herself and her five minor children. They were not included as beneficiaries in the will of Edward W. Scripps, who died last March, leaving his entire estate in trust, with Robert Scripps, another son, as executor.

Financier Visits Former Home Here

Ward C. Pitfield, vice-president of the Royal Securities Company of Montreal, was a recent visitor in the city after attending the opening of the Grand Falls power development of the Saint John River Power Company, of which he is a director. Mr. Pitfield is a native of New Brunswick, having been born in Saint John and educated at Rotheray Collegiate School. He is much interested in Maritime Province industrial activity and is a member of the directorate of many of the most important of the industrial enterprises of these provinces. Which Helps Her Husband Most, the Wife Who Saves and Looks Shabby or the One Who Spends and Looks Smart?—The Two Sisters Who Toil for Their Worthless Brother—The Spoiled Wife and Her "Unbelievable" Husband.

DEAR MISS DIX—My sister-in-law is so saving that she really doesn't keep herself looking decent. Never has anything but the cheapest clothes. Won't even have her teeth fixed, although they badly need it.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER: Parsimony and extravagance are equally to be condemned. If you have to lean to one side or the other it is probably better to be too stingy than to be too wasteful, for, at least, the tightwad does not hurt any one but himself, whereas others always have to pay the waster's bills.

Of course, there is a happy medium in spending, as in everything else. Fortunate are those who achieve it, who know when to open their pockets and when to snap them shut; who are liberal without being extravagant; who keep well within their incomes and save up something for the rainy day without becoming penny-pinchers.

But when all is said—when you leave generalities and come down to brass tacks and small incomes—there is no more difficult problem that a woman has to solve than whether it is better to be frugal or extravagant, and how much she is justified in spending on personal adornment.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—We are two sisters, both working women, and we have a never-do-well brother whom our father has supported for years to please mother. A few weeks ago he got in trouble, and begged us for half of the money we had saved up to get him out of jail.

ANSWER: Refuse to give him one single solitary cent. If you don't you will spend the remainder of your lives toiling to support a worthless loafer, for the more you give him the more he will demand.

DEAR MISS DIX—I'm married five years and my husband is very good to me and the children. He makes enough money to keep us comfortable. We own our own home, have a car, a radio, etc.

ANSWER: I don't wonder you can't believe in such a husband. He seems too good to be true. To be married to a man who never argues and who is broad enough to let other people enjoy their own opinions in peace is to be blessed of the gods, and the best slogan I can suggest for you to live by is that expressed in the popular song, "Ain't We Got Fun?"

A Thought

Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: is not the life more than meat, and the body more than raiment?—Matt. 6:25.

LIFE is like a game of what. I don't enjoy the game much, but I like to play cards well and see what will be the end of it.—George Eliot.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

THERE'S a young woman named Clara Bow at the Paramount studios who is attracting considerable attention in the films these warm days. At her debut in "Down to the Sea in Ships," she made a favorable impression.

Then came "Mantrap," which she made with Ernest Torrence and Percy Marmont. Since then her popularity has been increasing.

Milton Sills' new starring vehicle has been retitled "Men of Dawn." It deals with the Franco-Riff disturbance and tells the story of a young French diplomat who gets into disgrace and becomes an officer in the Foreign Legion.

Clara King and Arthur Stone appear in support of Sills. "Everybody's Acting," with Betty Bronson. It's a Marshall Neilan production for Paramount.

"The Legionnaire," with Milton Sills. First National. "The Eagle of the Sea," with Florence Vidor and Ricardo Cortez. Paramount.

"The Blood Saint," with Doris Kenyon and Lewis Stone. First National.

SEE-SAWING BROADWAY

SOME idea of the number of chorines on Broadway and their tireless activity may be gained from the announcement of a shoe manufacturing concern that it turns out nearly 1200 pairs of ballet slippers per month.

TO RETURN to the shoe market, the life of a pair of regularly used ballet slippers is about a week. With solo artists, who are particularly active, it is less than that.

THE minute you break the golden seal of the aristocratic bottle and pour a bit of "Canada Dry" slowly down the side of a thin-edge glass, as a connoisseur would pour a glass of fine old wine, you will know that it is real ginger ale.

Hold it to the light! See how clear it is! How it gleams and sparkles! The abounding life and vitality of it! The pale, champagne-like "dryness" and color!

And then—taste it! Here is a revelation in ginger ale quality—a delicate, alluring flavor that intrigues your taste—a flavor unlike that of any other ginger ale you have ever tasted!

Canadians have a right to feel very proud of the success of this fine old ginger ale. It is now known the wide world over as the premier product of its kind and wherever it is sold it advertises the excellence of "Made-in-Canada" goods.

Largest Turnout Ever Witnessed in Freepoint Attends Ceremonies

NAMES OF HONORED ARE ON MONUMENT

Speakers Spurn War Spirit, But Laud Those Who Made Sacrifice.

FREEPPOINT, Aug. 11.—Undoubtedly the largest number of people ever assembled in Freepoint on one occasion, witnessed on Sunday the unveiling of Freepoint's memorial to her losses in the World War. Ideal weather conditions prevailed, and many visitors were present from Westport, Tiverton and points farther distant. The exercises took place on the church lawn, the choir and speakers being seated on the terrace to the north of the monument. Miss Hazel Lewis Haines was the organist for the occasion. The service opened with the singing of the Doxology, followed by the invocation by Rev. H. H. Phinney, pastor of the Westport Baptist church. After the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers," Mr. W. V. Perry, chairman of the Memorial Committee, formally presented the monument to the people of Freepoint, which was accepted by Rev. E. C. Prime, of the First Baptist church, Bridgewater, Mass., and formerly of Freepoint, who presided throughout the service. Rev. A. H. MacLeod, pastor of the Tiverton Baptist church, offered the prayer of dedication. The choir sang two memorial anthems and the Westport male quartet sang a very appropriate selection.

DEDICATION BY VETERAN. The dedicatory address was delivered by Rev. P. M. Hamilton, pastor of the Freepoint Baptist church, who saw active service overseas. His address was very timely, and while he did not laud the spirit, and while he did honor to those who were willing to give their lives for the cause of freedom. To Captain George A. Thurber, father of the late Lieut. S. Walton Thurber, was given the honor of unveiling the monument. Sgt. Bernard Bushie, second son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bushie, who served overseas in the 21st Battalion, receiving the Military Medal and Bar, read the names of the fallen men, as the relatives and friends placed their beautiful floral tributes about the monument. Rippling "Recessional" and the National Anthem were then sung, and Rev. A. H. MacLeod pronounced the benediction.

THE MEMORIAL. The granite monument stands midway between the church and parsonage, and is the work of Mr. Rice, of Middleton. A splendid new flag pole has also been placed directly behind the monument, and a new flag floated over the monument yesterday. The following names are engraved upon the stone: Lieut. S. W. Thurber, died in France, Oct. 14, 1918; Horace A. Blackford, killed in action, June 2, 1918; Noble E. Lewis, killed in action, Oct. 31, 1917; Hamilton E. Elliott, killed in action, June 22, 1917; Melburne A. Hiss, died April 2, 1916; Stephen E. Shortliffe, killed in action Oct. 26, 1917; Charles E. Hersey, died of wounds April 10, 1917.

The Soul of the salad

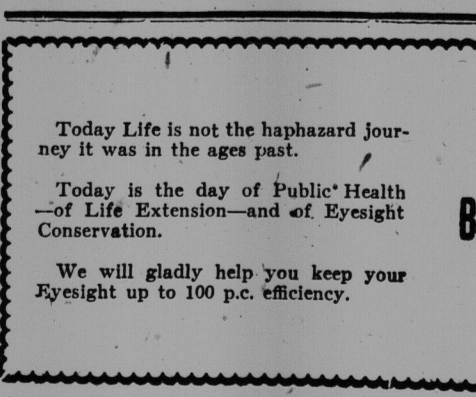

Just as the dressing is the soul of the salad, so the vinegar is the soul of the dressing. Vinegar, at its best, should be more than simply a sour taste—it should be flavor, so that it will not only impart a goodness of its own, but also bring out the fine flavor of every food it touches. Heinz Vinegars are flavor because they are made from the finest ingredients and then aged naturally for over a year in wood. Long aging gives them a mellowness, aroma and body which quickly prepared vinegar cannot have. You cannot hurry good vinegar along.

HEINZ PURE Vinegars. In Bottles 57 Four Kinds: PURE MALT VINEGAR, PURE CIDER VINEGAR, TARRAGON VINEGAR, DISTILLED WHITE VINEGAR. BEST FOR PICKLING. Ask your grocer for new prices.

ALSACE'S HOME RULE DEMANDS ENDANGER PEACE OF EUROPE

FRENCH BLAME GERMANS FOR PRESENT UNREST

Minority Wants Right To Govern Selves Within Republic

MANIFESTO OUT

Paris Government Disciplines Civil Servants Who Signed Petition

By A. C. CUMMINGS. (United Press Special Correspondent)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 11.—Few parts of Europe, except perhaps German Switzerland, appear more idyllic, yet Alsace is not happy. It is not even convinced that it is prosperous. At least, not as prosperous as its neighbors on the other side of the Rhine.

Alsace, when the war ended, threw in its lot enthusiastically with France. It hated the Germans, the world was told. Joyfully it became a French "department," so it was said and believed.

Today, Alsace, so far from being joyful in its new-found freedom, is demanding the right to govern itself, to make its own laws and to collect its own taxes. It wants to be independent—not of France, perhaps, but at least in France. It wants home rule.

The French have a very simple explanation for so complete a reversal of sentiment. It is that German propaganda is busy, that the tools or dupes of Germany are working to distract the mind of official France from other fields where the never-ceasing war of diplomacy is waged. If there was no propaganda there would be no discontent, the French claim.

How firmly they believe it true was shown recently when the Paris Government severely disciplined a number of state servants who dared to sign a manifesto asking for autonomy for Alsace within the frame of the French Republic.

French authorities assert that the Alsace Germans who were expelled after the war or who emigrated and would like to return are sending money in to assist in the agitation for home rule and that there are political parties in Germany who want nothing better than to embarrass France by making Alsace another Ireland.

But, allowing for all this, one cannot escape nothing in Alsace that there is much political and some economic discontent. For one thing, there is the collapse of the franc compared with the

Charlotte Co. Pageant Given By Cottage Craft Workers

Pretty and Interesting Annual Affair Directed by Miss Helen Mowat

ST. ANDREWS, Aug. 11.—The Farmers' Festival and Charlotte County Pageant, which is annually presented by the Cottage Craft workers, under the direction of their leader, Miss G. Helen Mowat, was held at Beach Hill this afternoon under ideal surroundings and was largely attended by a representative gathering of summer residents, townspeople and visitors from various parts of the province. The pavilion, was decorated in a novel arrangement with colored yarns representing a rainbow and formed an artistic setting as the made in gayly colored aprons and caps escorted by their partners in blue overalls and straw hats marched on the platform to music played by fiddlers George McKinney and Henry Acheson of Elmville. Brad Greenlaw acted as prompter.

Features of program. The "Rainbow" song was introduced as a new and pleasing feature and the step-dancing by two little boys, Francis Murray and James O'Neill, of Sorrell Ridge, made a hit. There was also step-dancing by Patrick Parker and Arthur O'Neill and many old time square dances. A surprise visit from the black sheep during the afternoon caused much merriment.

Tea was served on the grounds at the conclusion of the program. Miss Mowat is being congratulated on the story of the work and play of country life so charmingly shown in the pageant of 1926.

YARMOUTH, Aug. 11.—A touring party comprising 80 school teachers from Toronto and other upper Canadian centres arrived in Yarmouth late this afternoon in a special combination train and proceeded by the Boston-Yarmouth liner Northland for Boston en route home.

Pleased with trip. The special train left Halifax yesterday morning and en route here stopped for several hours at Grand Pre and also at Kentville. Last night was spent in Annapolis Royal, where the party remained until 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was the first time that most of the party had been in Nova Scotia and the trip to them has proven a real pleasure.

WOLVES INCREASE Soviet Government Starts War to Exterminate Ravaging Animals

MOSCOW, Aug. 12.—The Soviet Government is preparing to offer all possible co-operation and encouragement to hunters who are trying to exterminate wolves. Wolves have been increasing in numbers because of the neglect of hunting during the stormy years of the Revolution, and today the wolf is still a menace to the Russian and Transcaucasian Republics, is estimated at a hundred thousand.

During winter months wolves sometimes invade peasant villages and small towns and cases have been reported in which they attacked trains and were only beaten off after a desperate battle. Approximately a million cattle are killed by wolves every year; and the losses which they inflict on the peasant population are reckoned in tens of millions of rubles. Cases of attacks on human beings are also not infrequent.

Following Thrale's death, in 1781, the brewery was sold at auction for £188,000, the purchaser being David Barclay, Jr., then head of the already noted bank of Barclay & Co. A nephew Robert Barclay was brought from America to become a member of the

 OVER DISSOLUTION

Most of Legislation Left Unfinished Put Into Effect

VIRDEN, Man., Aug. 11.—That the dissolution asked for by Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King would have killed all the legislation which was subsequently killed by the dissolution he obtained and that he was not therefore responsible for what his opponents described as the defeat or failure of certain legislation was the claim made by Premier Meighen in a speech at Virden this afternoon. The Prime Minister repudiated statements that he was alienated in sympathy from the people of the west and maintained that his interests were in western Canada to as great an extent at least as those of the Progressives who came to Ottawa, feeling that nobody had interests in agriculture but themselves, and talked as if nobody had ever seen a farm house except the Progressives.

TELLS CIRCUMSTANCES.

It had been argued that he had been responsible for the defeat or failure of certain legislation at the close of the last session. His answer was very simple. The prime minister related the circumstances under which parliament was dissolved and contended that the dissolution asked for by the Liberal leader would have killed all the legislation which was subsequently killed by the dissolution which he obtained. The only reason that immediate dissolution did not take place after Mr. King approached the governor-general was because dissolution was refused. Mr. Meighen said he had a copy of the order-in-council that had not been signed by the governor-general, and that showed that had His Excellency granted Mr. King's request, from that second there would have been no parliament to finish any legislation whatever.

MOST OF IT IN EFFECT

The legislation was not wholly gone, however, said the Prime Minister. In fact, most of it was now in effect. Most of it was legislation affecting revenue, regarding postage, which everybody supported, and regarding income tax which was also put into effect. His government did that under its statutory powers and because both Houses had passed the legislation, and although the Governor-General had not signed it, they were justified in giving it effect. "So," asserted the Prime Minister, "I am not responsible for the failure of any legislation."

"all this lamentation is not only insincere, but much of it is wholly unfounded."

CAMPBELL BILL HELD UP

With reference to the Campbell bill regarding grain, Mr. Meighen explained that it had not passed the Upper House and therefore his party had no power to give it effect. They had power, however, to make effective all legislation that had passed both Houses and it was in effect at the present time.

"Everything is now in effect which possibly could have been put into effect had the dissolution which Mr. King had previously asked been granted," declared the Prime Minister.

As for the legislation in regard to re-valuation of soldier settlement lands, immediately his government took over the reins of office they sought to get the legislation accepted by the House. Parliament was ready to accept it. The leader of the Liberal party, however, refused to have the subject even considered.

Three Hundred Cattle are Already Booked for Agricultural Show

AMHERST, Aug. 11.—Additional buildings will be erected at the Nova Scotia Provincial Fair to accommodate an unprecedented entry of live stock, including beef and dairy cattle, hogs and sheep and poultry. Members connected with this work have already predicted that the entry list will rival the Winter Fair held here last fall. The brisk demand for industrial space by leading Canadian manufacturers also forced upon the commission the necessity of constructing new buildings to handle the overflowing departments of the re-inaugurated Nova Scotia fair. Three hundred head of cattle have been listed to date, the entries being made by fifteen breeders. Accommodation at the dog show will also be limited as entries are being received from all sections of the Maritime Provinces, and officials controlling this department see evidence that the kennel event will be one of the biggest held in the east.

NEW RACE CLASSES.

Sixty entries have been presented for the eight classes in the three-day racing program. New classes will probably be added to the program. G. M. Holmes, the proprietor of the local track will construct new stalls to take care of this record racing entry.

SIR H. THORNTON DENIES REPORT

Replies to Query on Political Intervention in C. N. R. Matters

BRANDON, Man., Aug. 11.—Premier Meighen tonight produced telegrams exchanged between himself and Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C. N. R., in regard to the allegations of political interference with the Canadian National management.

Mr. Meighen read the correspondence at his meeting tonight. It opens with the following telegram from Mr. Meighen to Sir Henry dated August 6:

"Statements are being made that the present government including myself, have been and are interfering with the management of the National Railways. I ask you to wire me whether there is the slightest truth in these statements, and if so advise me what steps you propose to take."

SIR HENRY'S REPLY

Sir Henry's reply follows: "I have received your telegram of Aug. 6, reading as follows: (Here Sir Henry quotes the text of Mr. Meighen's message.) Sir Henry then adds: 'In reply, I have to say that the administration of the Canadian National Railways has no complaint whatever with respect to the attitude of the present government or indeed the preceding government in its relation to the National Railway System.'"

Mr. Meighen, following the reading of this correspondence with Sir Henry Thornton, spoke of the Hudson Bay Railway. "I am not prepared to enter into any competition of promises with the Mackenzie King government," Mr. Meighen said, "they can beat me at that all-around the bush, they have all the awards and belts and records in the world on the score of promises."

GRANT HALL TOURS NOVA SCOTIA LINE

C. P. R. Vice-President Inspects Company Holdings in Yarmouth and Digby

YARMOUTH, Aug. 11.—Grant Hall, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, arrived in Yarmouth by special train this morning and remained for a few hours. While here Mr. Hall made a complete inspection of the company's holdings in this town, after which he accompanied H. H. Raymond, president of the Clyde and Malboro Lines, New York, who is spending the summer at his estate at Digby, on an automobile trip to Digby, where Mr. Hall remained for Kentville and other points.

In the automobile party besides Mr. Hall were Mayor Kinney of Yarmouth, local superintendent of the Boston and Yarmouth Steamship Company, and George E. Graham, general manager of the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

DUNNING SPEAKS AT ONTARIO CITY

Deals With Trouble in Customs Department and Praises Work of Late Minister

STRATFORD, Ont., Aug. 12.—There was a large gathering at the town of Mitchell yesterday to hear Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Railways and Canals, in the administration, who spoke in the interests of Fred G. Sanderson, the Liberal candidate in that riding.

Mr. Dunning claimed that the people of the west know the people of the east better than the people of the east know the west, and gave as the reason the fact that so many residents of the west were natives of Ontario.

Mr. Dunning spoke at length on the trouble in the customs department, and praised the work of the late Hon. George H. Boulton.

DEALS WITH BUDGET. He dealt at some length with the Robb budget, and declared that it was the best the country had experienced since confederation, particularly in the benefits which had been given to the man of modest means. He gave a somewhat detailed statement regarding the tariff board plan, and declared that such a board was merely to secure information so that Parliament might have some definite basis on which to judge changes in tariffs.

Speaking on the constitutional issue, he charged that heads of the Conservative party had misinformed the Governor-General. He pointed to the fact that the Meighen government had lasted but 66 hours and argued that this was proof that Right Hon. Mackenzie King was right in saying that dissolution of the House, and an appeal to the electorate, was the only solution of the difficulties.

Hall-Will Murder Investigation to Be Kept From Newspapers

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 12.—The state has decided to attempt to take the Hall-Mills investigation out of newspaper columns. Announcement that "not a word of the investigation after several reporters had been grilled as to the source of information published in New York papers. The arrest of two and possibly three persons had been predicted. Major Mark O. Kimberling, state police officer, who made the announcement, said the reports were unfounded as far as he knew.

The reporters were asked to reveal the source of their information. They said the information they reported was not obtained in Somerville, but probably came from Jersey City. Major Kimberling admitted the fact that giving information to reporters came from the office of State Senator Simpson, functioning as special deputy attorney general. Senator Simpson had recently been criticized in editorials in New Jersey papers for the alleged publicity emanating from his office.

GRIMMER CHOSEN IN CHARLOTTE CO. BY CONSERVATIVES

Nominated at Large Convention Held in St. Stephen Last Night

ST. STEPHEN, Aug. 11.—R. Watson Grimmer, ex-M. P., was tonight chosen to again represent the Conservative party in the coming federal election on Sept. 14. The Conservatives of Charlotte county held their convention here this evening and the Galesy Hall was packed to capacity with supporters of the party from all over the county and many ladies were present in the galleries. A. D. Ganong was chairman and others on the platform were R. E. Hanson, ex-M. P. for York, minister of public health for New Brunswick; S. D. Guphill and A. R. McKenzie, M. L. A.

Mr. Ganong called the meeting to order and stated that as there were two important projects of interest in this county, namely, the St. Croix harbor and the Cooper dam, he felt that the convention should elect the best man possible to represent the county at Ottawa. Three nominations were made, R. W. Grimmer, E. E. B. Smith and George H. I. Cockburn. Mr. Cockburn declined the nomination and ballot was taken on the names of Mr. Grimmer and Mr. Smith. Mr. Grimmer receiving 197 votes and Mr. Smith 99. Mr. Smith then moved that Mr. Grimmer's nomination be made unanimous and pledged his support.

Hon. Dr. Taylor, minister of health, addressed the large audience and was listened to with much interest. R. B. Hanson, ex-M. P. for York, was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Hanson touched on the different topics of the day and although the hour was late the large gathering stayed and heard the speaker to his conclusion.

DOPED CIGARETTES

PARIS, Aug. 12.—Tourists from the American boats arriving at Cherbourg and Havre and taking the train for Paris have reported to the police several times in the last month that a gang of confidence men have been reaping a big harvest by means of doped cigarettes handed to the victim by a benevolent looking man casually met with in the station or on the train.

Whiskey Drinking Is Cut By Heavy Taxes

LONDON, Aug. 12.—Whiskey consumption in England was only 12,074,000 gallons last year, a record low figure, excluding the two years of government control in 1918 and 1919, according to the report of William H. Ross, chairman and managing director of the Distillers' Company, Ltd. Whiskey-drinking has been growing less and less each year, he said. He held the high government taxes responsible, rather than any inclination toward temperance on the part of the consumers. Government taxes, he declared, are "gradually but surely bleeding the whiskey trade to death."

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By FRANCINE

Watch the Kind of Soap You use on your face

Use only a true complexion soap—use this way

MODERN beauty methods start now with keeping the pores clean and the skin free of blemish-inviting matter. That means daily cleansing with soap and water. Youth is thus preserved and natural loveliness invited.

But take care the kind of soap you use. Don't think any so-called "good soap" will do. Some soaps, excellent for many purposes, may prove unsuited for your skin. A good complexion is too priceless for experiment.

That is why most authorities urge Palmolive; a soap made of rare cosmetic oils, a soap made by experts in beauty solely for ONE purpose, to safeguard your complexion. Before its day, women were told "use no soap on your face." Soaps then were judged too harsh.

Just follow this simple rule in skin care for one week. Note the improvement that comes. It is Nature's formula to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion."

Try this one week... Note the changes in your skin

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Get real Palmolive

It costs but 10c the cake—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company of Canada, Limited, Toronto. 3166

STATEMENT ON
LORD KITCHENER
FATE IS ISSUED

British Government Refutes
Charges Made in Rumors

WAS ON SHIP DECK
AFTER EXPLOSION

What Happened to Him on Hampshire After That Unknown

LONDON, Aug. 12.—Goaded by persistent stories about the death on the cruiser Hampshire in 1916 of Lord Kitchener the British Admiralty has issued a complete official report of its knowledge of Lord Kitchener's death, which refutes accusations of neglect or even worse on the part of the British Admiralty at the time of Lord Kitchener's tragic fate—accusations which have even gone so far as to insinuate the British Government knowingly sacrificed Kitchener to his death.

HAMPSHIRE DEFENDED.

After rehearsing preliminaries of Lord Kitchener's journey, he was commissioned to go to Russia and discuss the prosecution of the war by the Russian armies—the narrative continues: "There is no ground whatever for questioning the suitability of the Hampshire for this service. The statement that she was an old vessel, which would have been scrapped before 1916, but for the war, is totally untrue. Stories that her repairs were expedited or unduly hurried for any reason are without foundation—as is also the legend that it was known at the date of her refitting that she would be commissioned to take Lord Kitchener to Russia, the utter absurdity of which is indeed apparent from the dates themselves.

"There is not the slightest ground for attributing to her either bad condition or 'bad record' in the matter of speed, though fables on this latter topic have since her loss been numerous and persistent.

"The fact that the Hampshire, with Lord Kitchener on board, had been attacked by a submarine in the Mediterranean is also untrue. Other fantastic stories are too nebulous to be dealt with in detail, but the fact that they all appear to end with shooting or imprisonment of spies as the climax stamps them as fictions. Provisions of the naval discipline act make it impossible either in peace or war for a sentence of death to be pronounced for a crime of this kind without a court-martial being convened, trial held and sentence formally pronounced.

"The Hampshire at any time in her history was held in connection with H. M. S. Hampshire at any time in her history.

EXPLOSION TOLD OF
"The secret of Lord Kitchener's mission was strictly guarded at the Admiralty, where only five or six persons who were actually concerned with arrangements knew what was in contemplation. The number that knew of the programme in detail was still smaller.

After rehearsing the details of Lord Kitchener's trip previous to the explosion which wrecked the Hampshire, tending to show that all possible precautions were taken to protect the illustrious passenger, the official narrative takes up the fatal explosion, denying with emphasis that it was caused by a spy or spies aboard as has been contended. The narrative declares discipline aboard the Hampshire was finely maintained after the explosion, and that Lord Kitchener was escorted to the quarter deck, the men making way for him without signs of disorder. After this, the statement continues, nothing is known about what happened to Lord Kitchener or members of his mission.

"No survivor saw him in a boat," it is stated, "and stories that he got away from the ship and reached shore are purely imaginary."

After going into considerable detail regarding the Kitchener rumors the official narrative comes to the story often heard here and finally printed with definite details to the effect that Lord Kitchener's body was washed ashore and buried in Norway. The narrative thus disposes of this story.

NORWAY STORY DENIED.
"Finally it is necessary to contradict the rumor that has recently been given currency to the effect that bodies of officers and men belonging to the Hampshire were subsequently washed up on the Scandinavian coast, and that it is probable Lord Kitchener's remains may have been buried there. The bodies recovered and buried on the coast after the sinking of the Hampshire were those of officers and men who lost their lives at the battle of Jutland a few days previously. None of the Hampshire's dead ever have been identified, and buried on those shores, and there are good reasons for regarding it as very improbable that the sea may have carried them there."

Most of the newspapers here express satisfaction that the denial is so sweeping and vigorous. The London Times not only gives the place of honor to a resume of the official narrative but devotes its principal editorial to Lord Kitchener's tragic end, and the crop of sensational rumors which it engendered.

"The official narrative of the loss of the Hampshire," it says, "should silence at once and forever all unwelcome legends which have been invented and propagated about the very tragic but very simple incident of the naval war. Clear and compelling reasons of policy forbade publication of particulars as to the loss of His Majesty's ship at the hands of the enemy, but within a week the Admiralty had issued statements sufficient to satisfy persons of ordinary judgment of the nature of the catastrophe. Large sections of the public, however, have a keen appetite for the marvelous, and particularly for the marvelous hinted by the criminal, even in ordinary times. By the summer of 1916 this appetite had been sharpened by vicissitudes of two years of war and by the inevitable effects which flow from any emergency, however right and necessary. There are always men ready to feed the unhealthily craving. Some themselves share the excesses of their dupes for the mythical; others trade upon it with much knowledge of mass infamy."

"The loss of the Hampshire and the fate of Lord Kitchener were just such a theme as they love. The field has been most industriously ploughed. It is to be hoped that after this recital of the facts, made with obvious desire to lay the whole truth before the nation and before the world, sensation-mongers will seek some other field. Further prying about the Hampshire incident and the death of Lord Kitchener can only degrade them further in the public mind."

Woman Brings 16 Pieces of Baggage and $100 to Institution

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Bellevue Hospital, which ministers to the medical needs of the poor, has opened its wards to one of the most distinguished patients of its history, the Countess Armin Del Garcia.

The Countess brought fourteen pieces of baggage to the hospital, including suit cases bearing continental tags, and two canary cages.

Her possessions also includes $100 in cash, an amazingly large sum compared with the holdings of the majority of Bellevue's city patients.

While attendants appraised the value of the countess' holdings she explained she had intended to enter another institution, her ailment having been diagnosed as arthritis, but that the rates had been too high.

The countess has been assigned to a ward and will receive no special attention. The hospital records show she is the daughter of Count Bonifacio Del Garcia and Baroness Felice Du Bary of France, and has lived in the United States 20 years.

SIR OLIVER LODGE
TELLS ABOUT EARLY
START IN WIRELESS

Gives Reminiscences of Tests
in British Magazine
Article

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Reminiscences of the beginnings of wireless are given by Sir Oliver Lodge in a special British Association number of "Discovery."

Thirty-two years ago, when the association last met in that city, Sir Oliver Lodge gave the first public demonstration of wireless telegraphy. "Certainly the demonstration excited great interest," he writes, "and was made before a crowded audience in the large lecture theatre of the Oxford Museum. I emphasized the fundamental work of Clerk Maxwell and the brilliant experimental discoveries of the recently-deceased Heinrich Hertz, saying that the waves should be called Maxwellian waves."

TUBE USED FOR TEST.

For the wireless experiment, Sir Oliver used a tube of iron filings and a galvanometer as his receiving apparatus. He says: "Truly, it was a very infantile kind of radio-telegraphy; but we found that distance was comparatively immaterial, and at Liverpool, where I was then working, the dots and dashes were received with ease across the quadrangle, or from any reasonable distance. My often-quoted estimate of half-a-mile as a possible distance relates to earlier and still more primitive experiments, when the waves were produced by sparking in a sphere only about six inches in diameter."

URGED TO FOLLOW IT UP.

Sir Oliver recalls that the late Lord Rayleigh urged him to develop the new invention. "I did not follow his advice, being fully occupied in teaching, and I had not the perceptive faculty shown about the same time by Sir William Crookes, who anticipated that such a method of telegraphy would be, or might become, of international importance. How extraordinarily this implicit demonstration has been extended, remedied, and perfected, rather revolutionized, by the skill, energy and enterprise of Senator Marconi and his co-workers, is known to the whole world."

CURRENT EVENTS NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Bank of England rate unchanged at 5 per cent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Bank of England rate unchanged at 5 per cent. The market was quiet, with a few scattered transactions. The American Hay Products Corporation passed a quarterly dividend of 50 cents. Southern Pacific directors met for dividend action 11.20 a. m. Union Pacific directors met for dividend action 11.40 a. m. Canadian National directors met for dividend action 11.40 a. m. General Motors met for dividend 3.20 p. m. Laclede Gas and L. declared regular dividend of 12 cents on common. Federal Reserve Board in review of conditions in the automobile industry, finds stocks of automobiles in June larger than usual.

Morning Stock Letter NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The market's action yesterday was disturbing but we hold to the opinion that trend of the market is still upward. Today and tomorrow should show the definite trend. After the close this afternoon there is the CMO dividend meeting and the weekly meeting of the New York Federal Reserve directors. Yesterday reports were scattered all through the street, that CMO would not declare anything but regular dividend. These reports had, in our opinion, only the action of the stock for their basis. We expect General Motors to declare a 50 per cent. stock dividend and maintain the regular 7 per cent. rate on the new stock and later in the year to declare another large extra cash dividend.

Terms Former Premier "A Coward" For Seeking to Escape Censure Vote

Canadian Press

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Aug. 12.—Speaking at a convention of North Oxford Conservatives here last night Hon. R. B. Bennett, Federal Minister of Finance, charged that by seeking a dissolution "in order to escape the verdict of the House of Commons on the Stevens amendment" former Premier Mackenzie King had proven himself to be "the greatest coward who has ever held the office of Prime Minister of Canada."

"I say these words deliberately," said Mr. Bennett, "it is ridiculous to say that he asked for a dissolution in the public welfare, and because there was a breaking away from proper government. There was a breaking away of his Progressive supporters because the public welfare meant more to them than the fortunes of a political party. A ballot for the Liberal party is a ballot to condemn the conduct of Mackenzie King."

USE AIRPLANE TO SEEK ELEPHANTS. Hunt For Escaped Pachyderm Grows Dangerous—One Attacks Indian

CRANBROOK, B. C., Aug. 12.—An airplane, which is en route here from Wichita, Kansas, will be used in the search for three circus elephants which have been on a rampage in the densely wooded and mountainous country around Cranbrook since Sunday last. Carrying an expert animal trainer, the airplane probably will commence the search tomorrow.

"Scores of men have been on the 'trail' in an effort to capture the animals, and searchers returning here state the animals have separated and are in an ugly mood. Each hour the hunt gets more dangerous, and fear of the beasts attacking the hunters is now a definite possibility. Already reports received here tell of the elephants attacking men through the heavily wooded country. Some miles from here an Indian was chased. Without warning the elephant plunged from the dense underbrush. The Indian was thrown from his horse, but managed to escape the charging animal without injury. The elephant took after the horse, but after a short chase turned and went into the brush.

How To Swim

By LILLIAN CANNON

THE kick to be used for back stroke, when developed for speed, is the crawl, but because of the position there will be only one kick for the both arms.

The kick is the four or six-beat flutter—from hip down with the downward stroke of either arm.

The swimmer himself will decide the kick and will choose the one which comes most naturally to him.

The personal question should always be favored in matters of swimming, unless it forms a real drawback, and each swimmer in using the back overarm will discover that the kick is more natural with one or the other arm.

He should choose the arm that is the more natural and which gives better results.

Motor Buses Know Which Oil

A few days ago we said that ninety per cent. of the Motor Buses in New Brunswick had—after due experiments—chosen LOILOIL for safer and more economical lubrication.

We could have gone farther and stated that to our knowledge every Motor Bus in the province runs smoother and smarter on Loilol.

Motor Bus owners don't buy oil haphazard. The difference between a fair oil and the best means too many dollars to them in travel, upkeep and avoided depreciation. Your car ought to mean as much to you.

Famous Bandmaster and Music Writer to Address Canadian Club

D. Gordon Willett, secretary of the Canadian Club, has received from the secretary of John Philip Sousa in New York, a communication accepting the club's invitation to address the members upon his visit to this city in the latter part of September.

In his letter to Mr. Sousa, Secretary Willett stated that the Yve Men's Club would be invited to join with the Canadian Club upon the luncheon occasion if he found it possible to deliver a short talk and that he felt the large membership of both organizations would be very happy to extend the bandmaster-author a hearty Canadian welcome.

Mr. Sousa's artist group includes Marjorie Moody, soprano; Winnifred Bambrick, harpist; John Dolan, cornet; John W. Bell, xylophone; E. Williams, flautist; Edward Heing, saxophone; Roy Schmidt, clarinet; Noble P. Howard, euphonium; J. P. Schuster, trombone; C. J. Russell, Ebrian. These will probably be included in the guest list but not the whole band, which numbers seventy.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge of the Falls, creating a "Falls" in the river.

At low tide the water in the Bay becomes much lower than that of the river; that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

The best time to view this phenomenon is: TODAY (Daylight Saving Time).
