

JOE MUISSE.

Police Have No Word Yet of the Missing Indian Guide.

His Friends Think That He Is Dead, but Police Believe He Has Gone Away.

Below is a photograph of Joe Muisse, the Indian guide, who has been missing for over a week, and the story of whose disappearance appeared exclusively in the Sun on the 9th inst.

JOE MUISSE, THE INDIAN GUIDE.

Chief Clark last evening informed the Sun that he had telegraphed to several places in Nova Scotia, and the replies received shed no light on the absentee's movements. Muisse's father, the chief of Nova Scotia, is at present in Digby, and has not seen his son since he has been reported absent from home.

Speaking to the Sun about the matter, Mr. Clarke recalled one occasion when Muisse was doing some work for him in the city, which could not be finished in time for the guide to go home the same evening. He only consented to stay over night on condition that Mr. Clarke telephone his wife, giving the reasons of his continued absence.

Mr. Clarke is much worried over the guide's disappearance, and thinks the police should make greater efforts than they are to locate him or discover his fate.

Mr. Muisse was in the city for several days last week, interviewing the police and a number of Joe's friends, but returned home to Musquash, discouraged and fearing the worst. She took with her the parcel which her husband left in Mr. Clarke's office, and which contained a number of articles which Joe had purchased for their wigwam at Musquash.

WANTS TO BE A CITY

Fiftieth Anniversary of Woodstock Will be Next Year.

And the Suggestion Is Made That It Begin Its Second Half Century as a City.

LONDON, May 22.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Premier Balfour replying to questions on the subject, said he did not consider himself pledged to inaction in regard to colonial preference except so far as parliamentary action was concerned.

Woodstock is an incorporated town now nearing its fiftieth milestone. The first town council under the act of incorporation was elected on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1856.

Chief Clark last evening informed the Sun that he had telegraphed to several places in Nova Scotia, and the replies received shed no light on the absentee's movements.

SIX MEN KILLED IN BOILER EXPLOSION.

COLUMBUS, O., May 22.—Six men were at work near by which killed this afternoon by the boiler of an engine that was standing near the Hocking Valley railroad round house on West Mound street.

The building was damaged and quantities of debris were scattered for hundreds of feet in all directions. Several of the men killed were thrown high into the air.

TO SPEAK IN CANADA.

BROCKTON, May 18.—The Rev. Alan Hudson has received an invitation to be one of the two American speakers at the International Sunday School convention at Toronto, Can., in June.

Mr. Hudson is a member of the St. John's church, and has been invited to speak at the affair, which is to be one of the greatest of its kind ever held. He will be Secretary of the Navy.

WILD DISORDER IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Members Called for the Police, and Speaker Had to Adjourn the House--It Arose Over Fiscal Policy.

LONDON, May 22.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Premier Balfour replying to questions on the subject, said he did not consider himself pledged to inaction in regard to colonial preference except so far as parliamentary action was concerned.

The opposition interpreted the government's course as an attempt to stifle discussion, although moderate members admit that Mr. Balfour's attitude was perfectly correct.

Mr. Lyttleton also showed the greatest self-possession in his difficult position. Standing at the treasury table, he remained calm and collected throughout the sitting.

The liberal papers this morning interpret Premier Balfour's remarks on the subject in the house of commons yesterday afternoon as showing that some sort of compact has been arrived at between him and Joseph Chamberlain to defer the dissolution of parliament until next year.

FROM QUEBEC TO MONCTON.

Two Routes Surveyed For Grand Trunk Pacific.

One, Across Country, is 90 Miles Shorter Than the I. C. R., but Will Involve Heavy Grades.

OTTAWA, May 22.—The first report of the transcontinental railway commission was presented to parliament this afternoon.

Dealing with the section from Quebec to Moncton, the railway commissioners say that the line would run through a most valuable country.

Mr. Butler, assistant engineer, makes some interesting calculations. He states that a standard locomotive of the I. C. R. can haul 22 cars of thirty tons each, or a total of 660 paying tons.

The report mentions there are two points on the line between Chaudiere and Moncton where it may be found desirable to put in "pusher" grades of one per cent.

STORY OF FRANK OLIVER AND THE PRAYER BOOK.

More Particulars of Sifton's Wire Fence Deal --- Additional Features of Autonomy Bunting.

OTTAWA, May 17.—The story is told on what authority dependent knowledge that some ten years ago so early as when Frank Oliver, now minister of the interior, was a green member of the house, he strolled into St. George's Episcopal church one Sunday morning and modestly took a seat with the service opened one of the addressmen or church wardens, seeing that the visitor was unprovided with a Book of Common Prayer, stepped up and tendered the book to the gentleman, who replied, "Thank you," and then, "but it would be of no use to me, I don't know anything about this church procedure." From the manner in which he daily talks in the house, it is evident that the Hon. Frank does not know any more as to how a minister should conduct himself in a parliamentary debate than he did at that back date about the Anglican liturgy.

The long drawn out debate on the autonomy bills may appear monotonous to the general reader, but the fact remains that every day brings its disclosures with respect to the attitude of the government to dominate and impoverish the two new provinces, so far as federal legislation can accomplish that end. Last night P. Talbot, the Liberal M. P. for Strathcona, N. W. T., made a bad break, which might have possibly escaped the notice of eastern members, but was instantly sounded upon by John Egan, the keen-eyed, practical conservative representative from Alberta, and whose post office address is Findlay Creek. Mr. Talbot's remarks, which were made while the land clauses of the bill were under consideration, are worth giving in full. He said: "I would like to draw attention to a small but important feature of the bill which is not mentioned in the bill, but which has attracted little notice, and that is our school lands. According to estimate, we have at least eleven million or twelve million acres of school lands, which in time will be sold and the money held in trust by the dominion government, and on that money we will be paid three and a half per cent. yearly, every half year. The policy has been to hold these lands until they are worth $7 to $10 an acre. We will have, therefore, ten million acres, which will eventually be sold at $10 an acre, or $100,000,000, on which we will receive an annual income of three per cent., or three million dollars per year. That amount, along with the money raised in this bill would be sufficient for the new provinces."

Mr. Herron, who followed, said Mr. Talbot had given one of the best reasons why the Laurier government is not treating the Northwest properly in the matter of lands. "It is ten millions of acres of school lands, which are to be given the amount of revenue Mr. Talbot mentioned, and that amount immediately, what about the hundreds of millions of acres of land which the government is holding from us, and in return for which it is giving us but a million dollars a year?"

Not a member on the government side had the audacity to rise in his place and attack Mr. Herron's position or answer the very important question which he had propounded. Government supporters, taking their cue from the cabinet ministers, prefer to ignore facts and generally confine themselves to platitudes and foam.

Some days ago this correspondence pointed out that from the pages of Hansard that the delay in carrying on the business of the country with respect to the expedition was caused by the government's inability to keep pace with the progress of events. In support of that statement last night's debate also from Hansard, is to the point. Hon. R. L. Borden was prepared after recess to go on with any session of the autonomy bill that the government might desire, irrespective of whether it was in numerical order or otherwise, but Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick put a lion in the path. When it was proposed to take up section 15, the minister of justice said: "This section is a highly technical one, and is intended to deal with a somewhat embarrassing situation which will arise in the Northwest after this act comes into force. I have consulted the deputy minister of justice, who drew this bill, and he in turn has consulted those who represented the Northwest Territories. The section as it is now proposed to amend it, meets with the approval of the representatives of the Northwest Territories and those who represent the Northwest government. Under these circumstances I would suggest that the clause be allowed to pass with the understanding that at any time it may be reconsidered at the suggestion of any member of the house."

Mr. Borden replied: "That, I think, should be quite satisfactory. My hon. friend the minister of justice (Mr. Fitzpatrick) was good enough to give me at six o'clock a memo prepared by Mr. Newcombe, dealing with some points which had been raised on this side as to the possible construction given to section 15 as proposed to be amended. I expected to have had an opportunity of looking over the memo of the deputy minister between six and eight o'clock, but was prevented by other engagements. Under the circumstances, I shall not ask the committee to wait until I have examined it. If I think any difficulty arises under the words of the amendment, I will ask the department to permit us to return to the committee for the purpose of making any amendment which may be thought necessary on this side. The only important question raised on this side was whether or not section 11 of the Act of 1895 might not be construed as company and the department of interior had been sent to the department of justice for revision. This was returned to the interior department on April 14th in his letter. Mr. Newcombe, deputy minister of justice, said: "There would appear to be a question whether the work should not be carried on under the direction of the minister of public works, and as to whether tenders should not have been invited for its execution by public advertisement as required by the public works act and amendments."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT CAPE TORMENTINE.

Ephraim Allen Struck by Sling of Deals—News of Sackville and Vicinity.

SACKVILLE, N. B., May 19.—The annual roll of the Midgic Baptist church was held Wednesday afternoon in the Midgic church. Officers were elected as follows: Deacons, George Richardson, John M. Hicks, Bedford Richardson, clerk, Isaac Anderson; treasurer, Wm. W. Hicks; auditor, Albin Hicks; finance committee, Wm. W. Hicks; tellers, Chas. Wheaton, Harvey Hicks; solicitors, David M. Hicks, Mrs. Geo. H. Fillmore, Mrs. Herbert Richardson; usher, Bedford Richardson, Geo. Fillmore, Elmore Finney; superintendent of Sunday school, Joseph Hicks; assistant superintendent, Wm. W. Hicks. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served. In the evening the Rev. E. B. McLatchey, B. D., of Moncton, preached a strong sermon before a large congregation. The offering amounted to about $68, the largest ever received at the Midgic church. Excellent music was rendered by a choir consisting of Campbell, of Middle Sackville. The organist, Miss Kate Richardson, was presented with the sum of $20 as appreciation of her faithful services. The pastor, Rev. E. L. Stevens, is doing splendid work in this church and is extremely popular.

J. H. Williams, who has been acting as bookkeeper for Geo. E. Ford the last three years, is selling off his household effects preparatory to leaving Sackville. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have made warm friends during their brief stay in this town, who will regret their departure.

While working on the str. Daneburg, now at Cape Tormentine, Thursday morning, Ephraim Allen, of Sackville, was struck and seriously injured. The work of loading the steamer with deals had just begun. Messrs. John Tucker and Ephraim Allen were engaged near the hatchway when a large sling of deals was suddenly raised from the wharf by the engine. In going upwards the deal struck Allen, striking his head on the corner of a deal, which made an ugly cut. He was also injured internally, and little hope is entertained for his recovery. Mr. Harvey A. Kent of Sydney, C. B., who has come to Sackville to attend the graduating violin recital of her daughter, is the guest of Mrs. C. C. Ayard.

Str. Daneburg, of Denmark, 1381 tons, Capt. N. Kelts, arrived at Cape Tormentine in ballast on May 15, and being loaded with deals by Messrs. J. A. C. Hickman of Fort Elgin. An extremely delightful five o'clock tea was given Thursday by Mrs. Wm. Ogden to the Sackville members of the Alumnae Society, the graduating class of Mt. Allison Ladies' College. Notwithstanding bad weather, the number were well filled. In the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Sifton, the duty was performed by Mrs. B. C. Borden read the constitution and aim of the society, and then gave extracts from a most interesting letter written by Mrs. Harry A. Kent of Sydney, C. B., who has come to Sackville to attend the graduating violin recital of her daughter, is the guest of Mrs. C. C. Ayard.

The tender of the McGregor, Banwell Fence company at $550 per mile for fencing and $10 for each gate was handed to the department on January 19th. It is significant that while the tender itself and the accompanying letter are typewritten, the actual figures are filled in with ink. On the covering letter there is the following memorandum of Mr. Sifton: "I think this tender satisfactory, except as to the posts. My information is that in that climate cedar posts go quickly. The statement that cedar lasts as long as iron is absurd. Get an expert opinion about the posts. C. S."

On the 15th of February the Canadian Steel and Wire company of Hamilton wrote enquiring if it were the intention to build a fence along the boundary line, and stating that in that event they would like to submit prices. On March 13th, Mr. Scott, M. P., wrote to the deputy minister stating that Mr. Isaac Stirling of Battle Creek, N. W. T., would like to have a chance to tender for building a portion. The answer to both these communications was that the matter was under consideration. On March 2nd, W. L. McGregor, secretary treasurer of the McGregor Banwell company, wrote urging the closing of the contract. A postscript to the latter says: "Since writing above I see that Mr. Sifton has resigned. Will this affect the carrying out of this project?" It was about this time that the Page Wire Fence company of Walkerville wrote to the minister of agriculture under date of March 14th stating that they had heard the fence was to be erected and asked to be put in touch with the proper department. In reply Mr. Fletcher referred them to the department of interior. Accordingly on March 20th they wrote to the department of interior, and in answer received a letter from Mr. Sifton: "I beg to state that the government has awarded the contract in this matter." Thereupon the Page Wire Fence company asked for information regarding the calling for tenders as they had not seen any advertisement, but the answer does not appear.

In the meantime the draft contract between the McGregor Banwell Fence

New $20,000 School For Sussex Proposed—Important Educational Meeting on Thursday Evening.

One of the most progressive educational meetings in the history of Kings county was held Thursday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall, Sussex. There was a large attendance, in which the ratepayers as well as the pupils of the grammar school were well represented. Although the speaker dealt largely with the school problems, pressing for immediate solution upon the town of Sussex, the general educational needs of the province were discussed in detail. The ratepayers of that town were doubtless inspired with higher ideals of education and induced to take broader views on the school question. At the close of the meeting, to show their willingness to act on the suggestions given, on motion of the trustees of the school it was decided to have a committee of eight ratepayers, including the three trustees, make a thorough inquiry into the matter of school accommodations generally and bring such recommendations as they could collect before the next annual school meeting, to be held in June.

J. Arthur Freeze presided at the meeting, which was called to order by Dr. Inch, chief superintendent of education; Professor Kidner, director of manual training for New Brunswick; Professor Brittain, instructor in science at the University of New Brunswick; Hon. A. S. White, Inspector Stevens, Rev. Frank Baird, Rev. J. E. Gough, Rev. W. Camp and J. A. Humphreys.

Mr. Freeze opened the meeting with an excellent speech, in which he referred to the want of a new school building in Sussex. He spoke of the debt under which the building district had been laboring for several years, and announced that he was holding in his hand the last paper to show that the bonded debt had been cleaned up. Regarding the inadequacy of the present school building he stated that it was nothing less than criminal to crowd 50 children into a room made for 25.

DR. INCH.

Dr. Inch, chief superintendent of education, was called to order. He spoke of the urgency of the present school building of Sussex to meet the demands of the present generation of young people of that town. The ratepayers of that town are now paying $3 cents on a hundred dollars taxes. If they added 50 per cent. today he would guarantee not a man would feel the poorer of it in a few years. Sussex needed a good school building, and he believed that at least 10 departments. The building would cost at least $20,000. This was not a sum which should frighten the people of a town such as Sussex. He compared the work of a school near Hampton, where the teacher had only four pupils through the winter, and three of these were members of his own family. In a case of this kind the advantages of a consolidated school were not to be disputed. And still he had yet to find a single district that favored consolidation.

PROF. KIDNER.

Prof. Kidner, director of manual training for New Brunswick, was the next speaker. One of the chief criticisms he leveled at our school system, he said, was that the pupils did not get enough practical training. He went on to explain that the manual training was intended to meet this demand for more practical education. So far, we had been treating our children as though they had heads and no bodies. Manual training was intended to develop the body as well as the brain. It was a discipline which was not only training the mind but also the body. This was the domestic science department where the girls were taught to cook, sew, wash, do laundry work, etc. These cooking lessons were particularly desirable. There was a tremendous ignorance among the women of today with regard to the value of certain foods. There were at present fifteen of these domestic science schools in the maritime provinces. One was to be opened next week at Kingston.

PROF. BRITAIN.

Prof. Brittain of the University of New Brunswick, in opening his speech drew forth prolonged applause from his audience by announcing that he was an old Sussex boy and that he had begun his teaching career not far away in a little old country school house with long desks meeting the desks on both sides and no backs on the seats. Since that time he had passed through various vicissitudes, and finally landed in the University of New Brunswick. Prof. Brittain went on to give the history of school gardening and to show its advantages. The boys and girls could not sit quietly at

RIOTS IN CHICAGO.

Negro Teamster Killed by Bartender.

The Latter Shot by Policeman, and a Saloon Into Which He Was Taken Demolished.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Rioting resulted tonight at 29th and Dearborn streets, when James Gray, a negro non-union teamster, was shot dead by Harry Bernstein, a bartender, during an argument over the teamster's strike. Bernstein was mortally wounded by Policeman Tinsley, colored, and 1,000 persons partly demolished a saloon into which Tinsley had taken the unconscious bartender.

The street lighting tonight is the latest of several clashes between negroes and whites since Enoch Carlson, 8 years old, was shot and killed several days ago by two men, alleged to have been negro strike breakers. In a discussion of the strike and the shooting of Carlson, Gray and Bernstein fought in the street. Bernstein drew a revolver and fired four shots. Two of the bullets took effect in Gray's body and he fell dead.

INSPECTOR STEEVES.

Inspector Steeves was the last speaker of the evening. He said if he had time he could tell the people of Sussex some things about their school building which had never learned. He referred briefly to the responsibilities of the building and grounds. Conditions, he said, were actually rank. He would be plain with them. Their school building and grounds were a disgrace to the place. "Now is the time for the people of Sussex to rise to the occasion and put up a school building which they will be proud of, and for which the people will rise up and call them blessed."

One or two of the local ratepayers spoke briefly at the close, expressing their appreciation of what had been said.

ESCAPED FROM FREDERICTON JAIL.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 19.—A large number of drivers arrived this morning on the main Northwest Branch of the St. John, consisting of some eight million feet, is hung up for the year. The encounter exercises of the University will take place on the first day of June. Invitations have already been issued. The address in praise of the founders will be given by Prof. Clawson, M. A. The valedictory address is by John E. Palmer, and the alumni oration by Dr. W. C. Murray of Dalhousie University. There will be 28 members in the graduating class.

Mrs. S. Whelpley returned last evening from Halifax, the police arrested Joseph Inglis. The young man is charged with breaking from the jail of that city. According to his own story he was confined in Dorchester penitentiary and seemed quite proud of his accomplishments. He is 22 years of age. At noon Sergt Phillips started for the main Northwest Branch. On his return he found that the lock had been picked and the bird flown. Inglis has a reputation for bird breaking.

BARBAROUS MODE OF CHASTISEMENT.

Peculiar Case on a French Vessel Reported from North Sydney.

NORTH SYDNEY, May 19.—The Herald reports that one of the most barbarous methods of chastisement imaginable in this enlightened age was practiced on a little cabin boy or "moose," a member of the French fishing vessel lying at Salter's wharf, on Saturday. Several persons on shore noticed the boy standing near the wheel with his arms extended and holding in his hands a broken oar. Alongside the boy was a sailor, who frequently changed the monotony of the procedure by striking the boy, when by cold and sheer exhaustion he would drop the oar. For hours this torture was kept up, when fortunately for the boy, Coun. Robert Musgrave was informed of what was taking place and saw for himself the brutal conduct of the captain of the vessel. He informed Mayor Hackett and both witnessed the disgraceful exhibition. A boat was sent to the vessel for the captain, who came ashore, and was quickly arrested and taken before Stipendiary Archibald. The captain could not make himself intelligently understood owing to his poor command of English, and an interpreter had to be called. The captain complained that his "moose" refused

STEALING FROM RIVERSIDE POST OFFICE.

HOPEWELL HILL, May 18.—The preliminary examination of Josiah Tingley of Riverside, the fifteen year old lad who was arrested yesterday on the charge of robbing the Riverside post office, was begun today before Justice J. Alex. Fullerton of Albert, and was adjourned until Monday, 22nd inst. on the request of the prisoner's counsel, E. E. Peck. Tingley is now in jail. The case has attracted a good deal of attention of account of the boldness of the theft, and also from the fact that petty thieving has been going on in the same locality for some time, and the citizens are about tired of such work. It is said postage stamps were taken from the post office on more than one occasion during the past winter, and it will be remembered that a mail bag disappeared last December, which the authorities failed to locate. In this last case entrance was effected to the office by the removal of the wooden "stop" to the window, which allowed the thief to drop. The registered letter among the stolen ones contained $7.

Inspector Steeves of Riverside was called on to the Italian bark now discharging ballast below the island, on Monday, to attend two seamen, one an Englishman and the other an Italian, who had gone for an evening to the hold of the vessel by the breaking of the ball of the ballast basket, in which they were ascending. One man had his leg broken and the other a rib fractured. Both were taken to the hospital. The wooden "stop" to the window, which allowed the thief to drop. Slaves to Spring Catarrh Restored to Health by Pe-ru-na.

SPRING THE TIME TO CURE CATARRH.

Pe-ru-na Invigorates Mind and Body.

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter, Ex-member North Carolina Legislature, writes from the Census Office Building, Washington, D. C., as follows: "The greatest family medicine ever discovered, in my opinion, which comes from experience as well as observation, is Peruna."

Takes Pe-ru-na Every Spring.

Miss Tully Marx, 421 14th St., Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna, as I found it very efficient in ridding my system of a severe cold and catarrhal trouble, after I had tried many other remedies without getting relief."

Miss Lydia Herziger, Grand Recorder of American Daughters of Independence, writes from Neenah, Wis., as follows: "I have used Peruna now for four years, each Spring and Fall, and it keeps me perfectly well and strong."

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter, Ex-member North Carolina Legislature, writes from the Census Office Building, Washington, D. C., as follows: "The greatest family medicine ever discovered, in my opinion, which comes from experience as well as observation, is Peruna."

Miss Tully Marx, 421 14th St., Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna, as I found it very efficient in ridding my system of a severe cold and catarrhal trouble, after I had tried many other remedies without getting relief."

Mr. James A. Moody, Ex-president Board of Education, Mineral Co., Va., writes from 314 Massachusetts Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C., as follows: "My family have used Peruna for several years past with excellent results and I take pleasure in testifying to its superiority as a remedy for catarrh."

Spring Catarrh.

Almost every one has come to believe that spring is a season that brings derangements of the body dependent on blood impurities.

Nervous Depression.

Depression of the nervous system at the approach of spring is a fertile source of blood impurities.

That Tired Feeling.

That tired feeling, which is the natural result of the depressing effect of warm weather immediately after the invigorating cold of winter, quickly disappears when Peruna is taken.

The Proper Remedy.

Peruna meets every indication and proves itself to be perfectly adapted to all their varied peculiarities. Peruna invigorates the system, rejuvenates the feelings, restores the normal appetite and procures regular sleep.

Do Not Delay.

Get a bottle of Peruna when the first languid feelings make themselves apparent in the spring. Take it according to the directions on the bottle.

A Spring Tonic.

Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Savorana to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain, and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question.

Nature's Assistance.

Spring is the best time to treat catarrh. Nature renews herself every spring. The system is rejuvenated by spring weather. This renders medicines more effective.

A Word of Advice.

To those who have been afflicted with chronic catarrh we wish to say that the spring season affords you a splendid opportunity to get rid of your disease.

Now Is Your Opportunity.

This failure was during the winter months. But now is your opportunity. Nature comes to your assistance at this season.

A Typical Case.

Geo. M. Fillmore, late 1st Lieut. 3rd U. S. Artillery, writes from 909 L St., N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows: "I brought forward from winter into spring a sickening case of catarrh which was making existence miserable for me."

Thousands of Testimonials.

"I brought forward from winter into spring a sickening case of catarrh which was making existence miserable for me, and I was induced to try a bottle of Peruna."

We Can Give Our Readers Only a Slight Glimpse.

"If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, we will refund your money."

James Leonard, a fourth year engineering student of the U. N. B., left for Ottawa on Friday evening to accept a position as tent draughtman with a surveying party on the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Consumptives and Sanatoria.

What would have been thought of a doctor twenty-five years ago who ordered a consumptive patient to take a trip away up north, to the Arctic regions, to breathe the pure air?

A Singular Decision.

Chief Justice Weatherbee has given a rather startling decision in the Halifax election case. It is opposed to all other recorded judgments on the same issues, including those recently given by two Nova Scotia judges.

TELLS OF HIS WORK ON THE LABRADOR COAST.

Dr. W. Grenfell, of the Deep Sea Mission, Spoke to Large Audiences on Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. W. T. Grenfell's lecture Saturday evening in the York Theatre was one of great interest to the large number who had gathered to hear this celebrated Labrador missionary-physician.

Dr. Grenfell is a fine type of the rugged, muscular Christian, and his words were keeping with his character. Simple, honest, commonplace English words formed his discourse; no flights of oratory were attempted.

Dr. Grenfell spoke upon the many sides of his life in the north, the extent of country, the difficulties of travelling, the need of men and money which confronted him and his fellow laborers in the cause of Christ.

Dr. Grenfell then threw upon the screen the photographs of himself and his comrades while in the north country, explaining each view as presented. Some of the views had been painted by his colleagues, and the colors of the surroundings were splendid specimens of the photographer's art.

The first showed a picture of the schooner which was the doctor's workshop in the work. The steamer which he now uses and which was presented to him by a Cambridge friend cost $20,000.

Dr. Grenfell dealt with all phases of his work in the north, but was of course able to touch but briefly on each point. The lecture was a surprise to many, and was listened to with the closest attention.

a very deep interest in the great work which is being done by Dr. Grenfell was strikingly manifested by the large audience which filled St. Stephen's Church to overflowing yesterday morning.

Dr. Grenfell occupied the pulpit, talking as the basis of his remarks the fifth chapter of St. Luke. The dominant note of his address was sincerity. It is impossible to hear him and not be convinced of his great and self-abetting love for his fellow man.

Dr. Grenfell was not ashamed to talk to the fishermen upon their remarkable success in catching fish that day. Jesus told them to let down their nets again, and they became filled. They were greatly impressed when Jesus took place, but when Jesus commanded them to follow Him and follow Him the men demurred because they felt they were not good enough to live with Jesus.

Dr. Grenfell's work is both in teaching and healing. Many accidents occur on the fishing vessels and in the villages, and Dr. Grenfell is the first to be called upon.

Dr. Grenfell then referred to the great temptations of the sea, the men of strong physique and great physical passions. When they reach port after battling with the elements they are roused by the sight of the saloons and haunts of vice which abound in every seaport town.

Dr. Grenfell referred to the little hospitals that had been built along the coast, where the fishermen were able to get medical treatment, and the stores which had been started, where what the people had to sell might be disposed of at the most advantageous prices.

Dr. Grenfell dealt with all phases of his work in the north, but was of course able to touch but briefly on each point. The lecture was a surprise to many, and was listened to with the closest attention.

THE JAPANESE WOMAN.

Graceful Because She Can Sit on Floor and Bend Double—How They Keep Their Complexions.

Twenty Japanese women are on their way to this country to teach the American woman the art of being graceful. This is not their avowed mission. They are sent by a Japanese school to study the ways of the women of this country, but the chances are that they will teach the American girls quite as much as they will learn from her.

The first thing the American girls see about the little Japanese woman is her grace. It is not her size that makes her graceful, but her flexibility.

When the Japanese woman sits down to rest she sits upon the floor. This is the way in which she keeps her muscles in good working order.

For the average American woman to sit upon the floor is a task. She cannot get down easily and she cannot get up quickly.

BANGOR, Me., May 18.—Grace Evelyn Moore Darby, who escaped from Taunton insane asylum May 4th caused one of the biggest sensations of the kind for many years.

She has had the advantage of no less an authority than Attorney General Parker that she is protected by a law against being taken back to a Massachusetts asylum.

Her only idea is to work and support herself. She has already accepted a place in a factory in the city and will begin work as soon as the excitement is over.

YARMOUTH, Mass., May 19.—After being imprisoned in the sand for nearly four months, the big five-masted schooner Harwood Palmer is once more afloat. The Palmer was blown on the flats in the storm of January 25, and repeated attempts to pull her off had failed. In view of the approaching course of high tides a chance was dug about the stranded vessel and during the night she was fast to a tug and a cable attached to an engine on the schooner was also thrown out. When the tide was full the engine was started, and fully the schooner began to move. Inside of an hour the vessel was afloat and anchored in the bay. Apparently she has sustained little damage.

NEW WEAPON RAINS SHRAPNEL OVER AN AREA OF 400 TO 500 FEET.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Joseph J. McIntyre, president of the American Projectile Manufacturing Company, demonstrated today the power and efficiency of a new weapon of his invention, which, he declares, may revolutionize the modern methods of warfare under certain conditions.

The new projectile is practically an aerial torpedo, shaped like and operated in the manner of a huge rocket. The shells are fired at any angle or trajectory, rapidly sailing a distance of from 1,000 yards to a mile. Immediately striking on any object they explode with terrific force, scattering a hail of shrapnel steel bullets over an area of 400 or 500 feet in circumference.

It is claimed that the aerial torpedoes can be easily carried about, 50 rockets being a light load for a pack mule over rough country, and in case of accident all possibility of premature explosion is guarded against.

Mr. McIntyre also constructs his deadly weapons so that they will explode in the air, without impact of any kind, if he so desired.

A THRILLING RESCUE. Sydney Man Saves Another From Watery Grave in Bras d'Or Gut.

NORTH SYDNEY, May 20.—Joseph A. Clark, a laborer in the new Campbellton coal mines, bravely rescued a comrade, James Butler, from drowning yesterday. Butler, who is from Newcastle, had gone out in a dory on the Bras d'Or Gut and ignored the proximity of the rapidity of the tide, allowed his dory to be whirled out towards the open sea. Suddenly realizing his danger, he stood up in the boat with the result that it capsized. Though unable to swim, he could do nothing against the tide. Clark rushed towards the entrance of the gut and dashing into the water, brought the man to land, about 400 yards lower down.

"And I think," added the sweet little bride, "that you may also send me a package of young macaroni."

"Young macaroni?" he said. "Why, yes. Don't you know what I mean? There's a special name for it, but I've forgotten it." The bride's tone was one of annoyance.

"Excuse me a minute, mad'am," said the groom; "there's something I forgot to tell my partner about."

After a whispered consultation with the partner at the other end of the store, the large, red groom returned. "Now let me see, mad'am, was it, 'you want a package of—was it spaghetti?'"

"Of course," replied the bride. "Isn't that macaroni that's not fully grown? And so pretty was the indignation

Strife Between Senate And the Chief Justice.

Things are Growing Hotter on Parliament Hill—Postmaster General Comes in For Some Pretty Severe Criticism.

OTTAWA, May 19.—As hot weather grows, things are becoming perceptibly hotter on parliament hill and its surroundings. Windsor Strikers Say They Can Get Work in St. John.

But Management of Cornwall and York Mills State That the Story is Nonsense.

A despatch from Windsor to the Halifax Chronicle says: "WINDSOR, May 19.—With regard to the strike here the manager of the cotton mill gives a different account from the weavers of the events which occasioned the strike. He states that he notified Mr. Walsh, the foreman, a few days before Monday about the rate of 45 cents for the new cloth. The latter, however, did not notify the men till Monday morning. The manager explains that the word reduction is not a proper word to use in connection with paying the weavers 45 cents for a cut instead of 48 cents. The cloth which was being woven at the time of the strike was a new line, and he alleges that the sum of 45 cents is a cut in proportion to the price paid for other lines, and that the weavers are making more wages for the coarse work they speak of than ever before, that is, within recent years. The rate would now have been 48 cents a cut if it had been the work. As for the weavers, they are still out of all they went to the office of the cotton mill yesterday at ten o'clock and the regular pay day is Friday (today). The hands are paid fortnightly on a Friday. The manager asked them what they intended to do; that the mill was theirs, and the wages they would be in the morning and they could all go back to work. Then men replied that they would go back, but not for 45 cents a cut. No settlement was effected."

REV. J. A. GORDON GOING TO ENGLAND.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Gordon, pastor of the First Baptist church, Montreal, formerly of St. John, and Rev. J. E. Webb will leave on July 1 for England to attend the congress of Baptists in London, which has been arranged for eight days, beginning July 11. The gathering will be the greatest ever held among Baptists. Between 12,000 and 15,000 delegates will be present, representing 6,000,000 communicants. Dr. Gordon has been given a two-months' holiday by his church and will travel for about three weeks as a delegate at the conclusion of the congress. He is president of the Grand Ligne mission of the Baptist church in Quebec and Rev. Mr. Webb is secretary of the mission.

REV. J. A. GORDON GOING TO ENGLAND.

My daughter was afflicted with eczema from which three weeks ago, her entire face and head were raw, and she was in a great distress. When doctors failed to bring her out, I used Dr. Cassell's Eczema Ointment. It was easily cured, and she has never had the least symptom of the trouble since. — Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, Woodland avenue, St. Catharines, Ont.

REV. J. A. GORDON GOING TO ENGLAND.

That Sir William Mulock failed to "make good" in his reply to Mr. Boyce did not count. Nobody expected he had any definite, and it was significant that when he attempted to answer the direct charges made by Mr. Boyce, the conservative member for West Algona, in connection with the dismissal, resignation, intermediate campaign and subsequent reinstatement of J. B. Dobby, postmaster at Thessalon, Ontario. Mr. Boyce is a new member who is winning his spurs, and at the session he was re-elected freely, but he soon caught the atmosphere of the house, and is rapidly developing into a valuable parliamentary speaker. He had his case well articulated. He argued that he was fully thought out and was almost pitiable to see Sir William Mulock shrink and cower under Boyce's plain statement, but it was absolutely pitiable to see the hon. gentleman who is now pressed the case home and compared the minister's present attitude with the attitude he assumed when he entered office and made public proclamation that when he was appointed he had been through the pigeon hole into which it had been dumped by his predecessors.

REV. J. A. GORDON GOING TO ENGLAND.

But, oh, how virtuous my hon. friend gets in a different case. The quiet little village of Kentvale, whose only disfigurement in the eyes of the postmaster general is the fact that it is inhabited chiefly by willful and rebellious men who will vote the conservative ticket, has a postmaster, who, I suppose, had a heart, who had a reputation, against whom the hon. gentleman has been said, and yet, because, in the village of Kentvale, a large majority voted the liberal conservative ticket and against the government side, my hon. gentleman has been so far from being lenient, he degrades, in so far as he can, and dismisses the postmaster of Kentvale. But here is this man, Mr. Dobby, who conveniently, between the sentence and the execution of the sentence and the time that a new conviction comes to the postmaster general, part of the time being paid his salary, goes into the political field with his armor on, speaks publicly, does all out, an active partisan out and out, yet, consistency compels the postmaster general to deprecate and decapitate men who vote on his convictions and is not a violent partisan, and to put back into office a man with a record such as has seldom been brought down to this house, and a man who was a violent political partisan. That Sir William Mulock is acting on principle. Oh, the pettiness, the meanness of conduct of that kind! The hon. postmaster general owes to this house and to the people, so that we can take it in hand as soon as possible and let the people's representatives see where the rights of this case are.
