

REPORTED THE ENTENTE POWERS DEMAND THAT GREECE JOIN ALLIES OR DEMOBILIZE ARMY

Commercial and Economic Blockade Of Greece Declared by Entente Powers

Kitchener Has Conference With King Constantine and Premier, and Informs Them Allies Will Not Permit Further Delay.

Cabinet Holds all Night Session But no Announcement—Assurance Given that Greece Will Take no Measures Hostile to Allies, Greek Paper the Embros Says.

London, Nov. 21.—The Entente Allies have demanded that Greece either join with them and fulfill her treaty obligations to Serbia, or demobilize, and to impress King Constantine that they mean what they say, the Allies have declared a commercial blockade of the Hellenic Empire, according to despatches from Athens.

There is no confirmation of these statements available here, but it is very certain that Lord Kitchener, the British war secretary, who had an hour's audience with the King of Greece yesterday, and afterwards saw Premier Skouliotis, took a firm stand and told them what the Allies could and would do unless the demands were echoed.

The Greek cabinet met to consider the situation, and a few hours should show what Greece's future attitude will be. The Greek government again has affirmed its friendliness to the Allies but has not yet taken the steps required to prevent Greece from being counted among the friends of the Central Powers.

The Entente Allies will not permit any delay; the position of the Serbian armies makes any prolongation of the present uncertainty impossible.

Kitchener Imposes on Constantine Need of Immediate Decision.

Paris, Nov. 22.—An Athens despatch to the Havas Agency says: "After Premier Skouliotis called on Lord Kitchener, the British secretary of war, at the British legation yesterday, the field marshal had a two hours' conference with Gen. Doumanis, chief of the Greek general staff, and Col. Metaxas, chief assistant of the general staff at which the officers accompanying Lord Kitchener were present.

"Great importance is attached to this conference, in all official circles. The government organ Embros affirms that the king and the Greek government yesterday gave Lord Kitchener formal assurances that Greece, in no case, would take measures hostile to the Quadruple Entente, and that a conciliatory solution of the present differences would be formed.

The Embros adds that those who had the opportunity of seeing Earl Kitchener after his visit to the king and Premier Skouliotis brought away the impression that the questions now in suspense have lost much of their acute character.

"The statement made by the Embros are not confirmed from any official source. Lord Kitchener and his staff left Athens late Saturday night."

London, Nov. 20.—An Athens despatch to Reuters Telegram Company says that Earl Kitchener, British secretary of war, after an audience with King Constantine, lasting more than an hour, conferred with Premier Skouliotis and left Athens at six o'clock this evening.

The anxiety felt over the Allies' intentions to bring pressure to bear on Greece, in order to assure the unimpeded passage of the Allied troops through Greek territory, in case such a course is necessary, adds the correspondent, has been partly allayed by Kitchener's visit.

London, Nov. 21.—The Athens correspondent for the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following: "The Athens newspapers publish a communication, issued by the British legation, stating that the Entente Powers have declared an economic and commercial blockade of Greece. The cabinet afterwards sat from nine o'clock in the evening until 3 in the morning."

A German Report.

Frankfurt, via London, Nov. 20.—An Athens despatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung says the Greek minister of state has informed the chiefs of the foreign legations that Greece, in order to maintain her neutrality, has decided to disarm and imprison in concentration camps all Serbian troops who may retreat into Greek territory. Greece must prevent the war from spreading to her soil, the minister is quoted as declaring.

A More Encouraging Report

London, Nov. 22.—Telegraphing from Athens Saturday the Times' correspondent says he learns that Earl Kitchener's conference with King Constantine and Premier Skouliotis had the good result of warranting more favorable views regarding the prospect of a settlement of the question of the treatment of Entente Allied troops, if they are forced into Greek territory.

The correspondent adds that the municipalities of Athens and Piræus had intended officially to welcome Earl Kitchener, but that his visit was too unexpectedly sudden and brief to permit of any formal reception.

Searching Greek Ships.

London, Nov. 21.—An Athens despatch to the Times says it is confirmed that the Entente Powers have imposed restrictions on Greek trade. The Allied fleet, it is added, have already begun searching all the steamers flying the Greek flag in the Aegean and Mediterranean.

Leaders of Venizelos Party Against Taking Part in Election

London, Nov. 21.—Leaders of the Greek party of Eleutherios Venizelos, who twice resigned the premiership on account of King Constantine's opposition to his policy of entering the war on the side of Serbia, and her allies, held a meeting in Athens today to decide upon their attitude in regard to the forthcoming general elections.

Reuters' correspondent at Athens wires that the leaders decided to urge the party not to participate in the election, inasmuch as the men serving with the colors will not have opportunity to do so. Moreover, it is considered doubtful whether, in the event of another victory at the polls for the Venizelos party, it would be able to put its policy into effect.

FOOD PRICES IN ENGLAND JUMPED 40 PER CENT SINCE WAR BEGAN

Compared with 75 per cent. Increase in Germany—Wages in Great Britain Advanced $3,750,000 Weekly.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—Advices to the Trade and Commerce Department from its representatives show that the average increase in the retail prices of food in Great Britain since the beginning of the war is about 40 per cent, but in Germany the same articles of food have increased in price 75 per cent.

As a result of the increased cost of living in Great Britain about 4,140 million people have had their wages increased by $3,750,000 weekly.

MISSIONARY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 21.—Mr. Geddes Grant, of Trinidad, called to Rev. Dr. Stewart, agent of the Presbyterian church here today that the Rev. Dr. Jamieson, Presbyterian missionary, who had just returned from Canada, was killed instantly in a motor accident on Saturday.

The deceased, who belonged to Simcoe, Ont., had been home all summer. He leaves a widow and family.

GERMANS TREAT WAR PRISONERS AS CRIMINALS

Insufficient Clothing, Insulted and With Police Dogs to Harass them British are Brutally Treated at Wittenborg.

London, Nov. 21.—The British press bureau has published the reports of James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, and members of the embassy staff in Berlin, relative to the condition of British prisoners of war in the camp at Wittenborg, Prussia.

Lithgow Osborne reported that his whole impression of the camp authorities was utterly unlike that which he had received in every other camp he visited. Instead of regarding their charges as honorable prisoners of war, he stated they apparently regarded them as criminals, whom a regime of fear alone sufficed to keep in obedience.

"All evidence of kindly human feeling between the authorities and the prisoners was lacking," said Mr. Osborne, "and in no other camp have I found signs of fear on the part of the prisoners, that what they might say to me would result in suffering afterwards."

The following extracts are taken from Ambassador Gerard's report: "I regret to state that, after a careful examination of the camp and long conversations with the prisoners, my impression is even more unfavorable than I had been led to expect.

"Upon my arrival at the camp I was not received by the general who acts as commandant, but by a major. "There are over four thousand prisoners in the camp, of whom 278 are British. Among these I found only sixteen overcoats. The men, on the whole, are insufficiently clothed."

"The men told me that one of the British medical officers in the camp recently was struck by a German non-commissioned officer, and this fact proved to be true.

Police Dogs in Camp to Prevent Escape.

Many prisoners complain that dogs were brought in by German soldiers at night, and that in certain cases prisoners had had their clothes torn by these dogs. I asked the authorities whether they considered dogs necessary for the preservation of order, saying that at no other camps had I seen dogs used for this purpose and they informed me that they considered it absolutely necessary, and that dogs were needed to protect the German soldiers on duty. I was shown half a dozen of these dogs, which were of the usual police type.

"Two prisoners informed me that the conditions in the camp had unquestionably improved greatly in the last few weeks; that last year, when an epidemic of spotted typhoid existed, the camp conditions had been indescribably bad. They said that they then implored the German authorities to put the British soldiers in barracks by themselves, as this was the only way to prevent an outbreak of the epidemic which had been brought to the camp by Russians. This request was refused, on the ground that the British should learn to know their allies better. Largely because of this fifty British military prisoners and nine civilians died of the disease.

"The attitude towards the British prisoners seems to be based on suspicion. They have no opportunity for playing games, or for exercise except walking. I am sending a cheque for 2,000 marks to Captain Vidal to be spent for immediate relief."

Sir Edward Grey, after commenting severely on the facts mentioned said that he much appreciates Ambassador Gerard's action in visiting the camp personally, and asks Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador to Great Britain to convey to Mr. Gerard his cordial thanks for the reports.

GERMANY BOUND TO LOSE, SAYS VENEZELOS

New Battleground in Balkans Favorable to Allies, Greek Premier Declares.

London, Nov. 22.—All the London morning papers make a feature of an interview given by Eleutherios Venizelos, the former Greek premier, in Athens, Nov. 8, in which he said: "Two things seem quite clear to me—First that Germany is bound to lose, in the long run; second, that the new battle ground in the Balkans offers favorable conditions to the Allies."

GREECE WILL SOON FEEL EFFECTS OF THE BLOCKADE

Shortage of Bread for the Civil Population in Few Days, Newspapers Admit.

London, Nov. 22.—A despatch to the Daily Chronicle from Athens says the newspapers not in accord with the policy of M. Venizelos, the former Greek premier, in discussing the blockade, refer, especially to grain shipments now on their way to Greece and declare that in a few days a total lack of bread for non-combatants will result, if such ships are held up.

RETURNED SOLDIERS FOR GUARD DUTY IN THE DOMINION

Men Now Doing the Work Must Go Overseas or Quit.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—"Men who are doing guard duty in Canada are going forward or going out," said Sir Sam Hughes this evening. He intimated that he expected them to enlist for overseas service and their places as guards will be taken when ever possible by returned soldiers who are incapacitated for active service. There are about ten thousand men doing guard duty through the Dominion.

CANADIANS WIN PRAISE FROM SIR JOHN FRENCH

Daring Work by Scout Parties Causes Enemy Great Inconvenience.

CLEAR WAY FOR AN ARTILLERY ATTACK.

Troops in Fine Health and Spirits Sir Max Aitken Says in Report to Militia Department.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—The Minister of Militia, Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, tonight received the following communication from Sir Max Aitken, the Canadian record officer now serving with the Canadian army corps in France:

Canadian General Headquarters in France, Nov. 20.—During the week, November 12th to 19th, the general situation on the Canadian front remained unchanged. Weather conditions showed an improvement over the preceding week. The temperature was generally lower with occasional frosts at night. Heavy rain storms were less frequent.

Good progress has been made by our working parties in the improvement and drainage of our trenches, and, profiting by recent experience, measures are being taken to guard against any further flooding of sections of our lines owing to abnormal rains. The enemy does not yet appear to have completed repairs to his trenches and sounds of pumping and working continue to be heard. His working parties on several occasions have been dispersed by the fire of our artillery and machine gun batteries.

Owing to the poor state of his communicating trenches the enemy has been forced to show himself in the open more frequently than usual. Full advantage has been taken of this condition by our snipers, with good results. Retaliation by the enemy snipers has been generally ineffective. There has been considerable artillery activity on the part of the enemy during the period, but on each occasion prompt retaliation by our artillery with its superior weight of fire, has reduced the hostile battalions to silence.

A bright moon and the marshy condition of the land between the opposing trenches have added to the difficulties of night patrol work. The enemy has displayed little inclination to leave his trenches and our patrols have been hampered in their work by prevailing conditions.

Good Work by Scouts. In order to gain information a minor operation was undertaken by our second brigade on the night of Nov. 16th against two points on the enemy's front line. Small parties of our fifth Western Canada and seventh British Columbia Battalions were selected for the enterprise, and for several days previously underwent special training and preparation.

On Nov. 6 our artillery cut the German wire opposite the points of attack. The wire was cut in other places also, in order to mislead the enemy. Trees interfered somewhat with the wire cutting operations in front of our seventh battalion, and scouts were sent forward, after dark, to complete the work. These scouts, under command of Lieut. W. Holmes, 7th Battalion, remained out for several hours, and succeeded in cutting three lines through the German wire.

Punctually at 2.30 on the morning of Nov. 17 the two parties moved forward against two points on the enemy's front line. The British authorities in Egypt are endeavoring to ascertain their whereabouts.

The German trenches were then bombarded from positions close to the ditch, causing casualties among the enemy. The party returned safely to our trenches. The Seventh Battalion party, consisting of brigade bombers under Captain C. T. Costigan, riflemen

BRITISH FORCES HAVE ARRIVED AT MONASTIR

Serbiens Making Brave Stand There and Reinforced by British May be Able to Stem the Tide—Bulgarians Claim Capture of Novipazar.

Geneva, Nov. 21, Paris, Nov. 22.—Press despatches from Bucharest say that British forces have arrived at the Serbian city of Monastir, and are being reinforced.

A telegram from Constantinople by way of Bucharest says the first contingent of German troops has reached that city and that Field Marshal Von Mackensen is expected there next week.

A BANTAM BATTALION FROM VICTORIA, B.C.

Authorized by Sir Sam Hughes—For Men Below 5 Feet 4 Inches in Height.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 21.—An application has been received by General Sir Sam Hughes from Victoria, B. C., asking permission to form a "Bantam Battalion" for the front, consisting only of men who are below five feet four inches in height. The Minister of Militia at once acceded to the request.

Commanding officers have been appointed for every battalion now up to the 141st. These will be announced shortly.

It was stated tonight that if the method of recruiting battalions and sending them forward as units instead of splitting them up into drafts had been adhered to from the first there would now be 200 regiments fully recruited and officered by the Dominion.

TRADE UNIONISTS WILL FIGHT THE NEW LIQUOR REGULATIONS

London, Nov. 21.—Five hundred delegates to a conference of London trade unionists today passed a resolution pledging themselves to resist to the utmost "by open revolt if necessary," the regulations shortening the hours during which liquor may be sold, which comes into effect November 29.

under Lieut. Wrightson and Lieut. MacLarty, reached the enemy's parapet unobserved, under cover of a heavy rainstorm, and entered his trenches. A telephone was carried with the party, and touch was maintained throughout with Lieutenant Col. Odium, in our front trenches.

The party bombed its way down German trenches and communicating trenches. Many Germans were bayoneted or killed by bombs in their dug-outs. Twelve prisoners were taken. This objective having been achieved our party was then recalled by pre-arranged signals, and returned to its trenches with its prisoners. Our casualties were one accidentally killed and one wounded.

During the above operation our artillery prevented the enemy in adjoining trenches from rendering assistance at the point of attack. On the return of our party, our artillery shelled heavily the German front line trenches and all roads, tracks and communicating trenches along which reinforcements might be sent.

Retaliation by the enemy's artillery was weak. The prisoners taken afforded useful information as to the composition of the forces opposing us, in anticipation of an attack the enemy had manned his trenches thereby affording our party an exceptional opportunity for taking prisoners and inflicting losses.

Field Marshal Sir John French sent a message congratulating our troops on the success of this enterprise. The health and spirits of our troops remain excellent.

Already the Serbians are making what may be their last stand before Monastir, and also in the plains of Kosovo.

The Bulgarians, it is true, are being held up by unfavorable weather conditions, but they must be almost at the gates of the Macedonian capital by this time; while the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians are slowly but surely pressing back the northern army.

Novipazar Captured?

The Germans announce today the capture of Novipazar, and are therefore on the direct road to Mitrovica, which has been the Serbian capital since Nish fell into the hands of the Bulgarians.

Other armies are pressing in from the north, the northwest, the north east and the east, and even the Montenegrins, who held their positions for so long, are being forced back.

Of the French and British troops in the south no news was received. Apparently they are only holding their positions, and can no longer hope to render assistance to the Serbians, except by keeping a large number of Bulgarians engaged. According to German reports, an effort will be made by the French and British to save the Serbian armies by sending troops through Montenegro and Albania, but, with poor roads, it will take a long time for them to reach the battlefield.

Russians Retake Czartorysk

There is no change on the other battlefronts. The Italians are still fighting for Gorizia, and the Russians are regaining ground which they lost along the Sityr river last week. Czartorysk, a little village unknown before the war, and which became famous for the bitter fighting that has occurred around it, is again in the possession of the Russians, who evidently let the Germans enter simply to shell them out the next day.

The German effort, which met with initial success, was doomed to final failure, as the country is a great marsh. In the opinion of Petrograd, the offensive was taken for political, not military, purposes, with the object of impressing the Roumanians.

In Courland the weather has enforced idleness upon both armies. Berlin, Nov. 21, by wireless to Sayville—The Serbian town of Novibazar, which is only twenty-five miles from the Montenegrin frontier, has been captured by the Germans. This announcement was made today by the war office, which reported also the capture of 4,400 Serbians yesterday.

Serbs Retreating into Montenegro

Bulletin—Paris, Nov. 21.—An official statement received today at the Montenegrin consulate indicates that part of the Serbian army has retreated into Montenegro, joining with Montenegrin troops on the Limer river. The statement says these troops were attacked heavily along the river on Friday.

Berlin, via London, Nov. 20.—A Constantinople despatch to the Berliner Zeitung reports that Albanian troops have been concentrated along the Serbian border to hold back the Serbians in their retreat.

The diplomatic corps in Serbia are reported to be withdrawing to Scutari, as the way to Monastir, is cut off.

HON. MR. CASGRAIN HEAD OF MILITARY POSTAL SERVICE

GORIZIA AUSTRIAN STRONGHOLD DOOMED

Fortifications Almost Demolished by Furious Hammering of Italian Guns—Italians Secure Firm Foothold on Monte San Michele After Brilliant Infantry Charge and Fall of Austrian Fortress is Imminent.

Genova, Nov. 21, via Paris, Nov. 22.—It is reported unofficially in despatches from Lalbach, Austria, that the fortifications of Gorizia have been almost destroyed by the Italian artillery.

Rome, Nov. 20, via Paris, Nov. 21.—Intense bombardment of Austrian positions in the Gorizia zone by Italian artillery continues, according to the official statement issued today at the headquarters of the Italian general staff. A successful attack was begun northwest of Ostava, and Italian infantry obtained a firm footing on part of the summit of Monte San Michele.

The text of the communication follows:

"In the Cordovole Valley, after an intense artillery preparation, the enemy launched large forces in an attack on the summit of Monte Colombari but was repulsed. In a counter-attack he was put to flight, with great loss, leaving on the field arms, munitions and hand bombs.

"Along the Isonzo front the struggle continued vigorously yesterday. In the Zazora section we took by assault a strong barrier in the Fondo Valley, making 37 prisoners.

"In the Gorizia zone the intense bombardment by our artillery continues. We have been successfully attacking on the heights northeast of Oslava. On the Carso plateau, after a brilliant assault, our infantry got a solid footing on a portion of the top of Monte San Michele.

"Aerial raids continue. One aviator was brought down by our anti-aircraft guns in the Millega zone, on the plateau northwest of the Arstero. The pilot and observer were found dead. One of our air squadrons flew yesterday over the enemy's aviation camp at Assevizza, throwing more than 100 bombs and causing important damage. Our aviators returned safely."

The Austrian Report.

Austrian Headquarters, Austro-Italian Front, Nov. 20, via London.—"The bombardment of Gorizia by the Italians continued almost without cessation throughout Thursday and Friday. As a result of this, women and children were killed, countless houses were destroyed and fires were started. On Friday the Austrian line of defence along the Isonzo also was bombarded ineffectually, after infantry attacks had failed."

Landing of Troops at Saloniki Continues.

Paris, Nov. 21.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"The artillery actions have been very spirited in Artos, around Loos and Hulluch, as well as to the north of the Somme and to the north of the Aisne, in the region of Armancourt, Dancourt and Tilloy, and also near Soissons. The enemy works were very badly damaged by our fire."

Novipazar Taken, Berlin Says.

Berlin, Nov. 21, via wireless to Saville.—The Serbian town of Novipazar, which is only 25 miles from the Montenegrin frontier, has been taken by Germans. This announcement was made today by the war office, which reported also the capture of 4,400 Serbians yesterday. Only minor activities are reported on the western front. The official statement follows:

"Balkan theatre: German troops of the army of Gen. Von Koenigs have occupied Novipazar. The army of Gen. Von Gallwitz and the right wing of the Bulgarian army of Gen. Boyadjeff are fighting for entrance into the Lab Valley north of Pristina.

"The number of Serbians captured on Nov. 19 is now being counted. There were 4,400. Yesterday more than 4,400 were captured.

"Western theatre: Near the Ypres-Zonnebeke railroad the Germans succeeded in exploding a large mine which was in the enemy's possession. The explosion destroyed mines southwest of Souchez, and near Cambres without success. Near Souchez the Germans were the first to reach a hole made by a mine explosion and retained it.

"German aviators, bombarded with success Poperinghe and Furnes.

"The British commander-in-chief, in report made on Oct. 15, announcing the German attack southwest of Loos on October 8, states that, according to conservative estimates 8,000 to 3,000 German dead were lying before the French and British positions. This was a pure invention as the number of dead and missing, including those who died later of wounds, was only 7,000.

"Eastern theatre: The situation generally is unchanged."

Austrian Report.

Vienna, Nov. 21, via London, Nov. 22.—The following official communication from general headquarters was issued today:

"Russian theatre: In Volynia and on the Stry there has been cannonading at some points. The Russians are employing gas bombs. Otherwise there has been no events of importance.

"Italian theatre: The Italians again brought forces from the Tyrolean fronts on the Gorizia district. With these reinforcements the enemy renewed his attacks on the Gorizia bridge-head. Before Monte Sabotino, several attacks collapsed by reason of our fire. In the Oslava sector the enemy succeeded in penetrating our line of defence. We recaptured the position, however, in a counter-attack, except one summit, for the possession of which we are still fighting.

"Three enemy attacks against Peota miscarried, the enemy sustaining severe losses. Especially violent attacks were directed against Pedors, but here also the Italians were repulsed.

"Both sides of Monte San Michele were kept under strong gun fire. In the afternoon considerable enemy forces advanced on the northern slope of the mountain. Their attack was followed by our crossfire. Several attacks against the San Martino sector, and north of the Gorizia bridge-head, met the same fate.

"On the summit of the Col Die Lana the defenders repelled two Italian attacks against road barricades near Zazora.

"Southeastern theatre: Despite the resistance of the strongly entrenched Montenegrins, the Austro-Hungarian army forced a passage across the Upper Drina, north of Cajnika.

"German troops have occupied Novipazar. East of Novipazar an Austro-Hungarian column repulsed the enemy in the Doar Valley. The number of prisoners captured yesterday exceeds 2,000."

Turk Report of Recent British Attack on Gallipoli

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 21.—The text of a Turkish official statement regarding operations on the Dardanelles front has been received as follows:

"Our patrols drove off enemy detachments from some trenches.

"A tug which ran ashore at Kouynligman was destroyed by our pioneers. A shell from one of our torpedo boats hit an enemy torpedo boat which had fired against us while off Alche. The enemy vessel steamed away, enveloped in smoke.

"Near Arburun there was heavy artillery and bombardment and near Seddul Bahr infantry and machine gun firing. Our artillery destroyed an enemy blockhouse and destroyed enemy artillery which was in position there.

"Constantinople, Nov. 20, via London.—Comparative quiet now prevails on the Gallipoli peninsula, following the offensive movements undertaken by the British earlier this week. An official statement issued here today chronicles only minor engagements. It follows:

"On the Dardanelles front artillery fire on both sides is in progress, with hostile armored cruisers participating. During a violent downpour on the night of November 18 two landing bridges of the enemy were destroyed. One tug boat and nine large barges were struck.

"Our artillery destroyed a bomb throwing and machine gun position near Kasli Dere. At Seddul Bahr the enemy continually threw bombs at our trenches in the centre."

THE MADE-IN-BERLIN VERSION OF FOOD RIOTS IN GERMANY

Reports of Food Scarcity and Mob Riots Declared Malicious Inventions of Allied Press.

Berlin, Nov. 20, via wireless to Tuckerton.—The semi-official Overseas News Agency gave out the following statement, and controvert what it terms false reports spread by enemies of this country. The statement follows:

"For some time now the English and French press and wireless services have been hard at work attempting to counterbalance the bad impression made on the whole world by the military and diplomatic defeats suffered by these nations in the Balkans. For this purpose wild stories of famine in Germany have been invented. These gloomy reports of course are clumsy inventions. As a matter of fact, no where in Germany is there lack of public order. In the last reports spread by the wild syndicates the number 200 figures prominently. At first it was reported that there were 200 dead or wounded in Berlin. Then it was said that in Berlin 200 soldiers had been put to death because they had mutinied.

"An interesting instance of the manner in which these harmless facts are perverted into anti-German sensations is furnished in the reports concerning riots in Cologne. It was asserted that at the time cards to regulate the consumption of fats were distributed a huge crowd collected and became unruly, and that troops drew the sword and attacked the mob, women fainting.

"In reality, the events at Cologne were common-places. The municipal council decided to issue fat cards after the pattern of the bread cards. They were printed in several offices. In two cases the cards were delivered to a public at later time than had been expected, consequently crowds were waiting for two or three hours. Nothing else happened, except that one woman was admonished for disorderly conduct."

IF BACKACHEY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick man shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; 6 ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

THE MADE-IN-BERLIN VERSION OF FOOD RIOTS IN GERMANY

Reports of Food Scarcity and Mob Riots Declared Malicious Inventions of Allied Press.

Berlin, Nov. 20, via wireless to Tuckerton.—The semi-official Overseas News Agency gave out the following statement, and controvert what it terms false reports spread by enemies of this country. The statement follows:

"For some time now the English and French press and wireless services have been hard at work attempting to counterbalance the bad impression made on the whole world by the military and diplomatic defeats suffered by these nations in the Balkans. For this purpose wild stories of famine in Germany have been invented. These gloomy reports of course are clumsy inventions. As a matter of fact, no where in Germany is there lack of public order. In the last reports spread by the wild syndicates the number 200 figures prominently. At first it was reported that there were 200 dead or wounded in Berlin. Then it was said that in Berlin 200 soldiers had been put to death because they had mutinied.

"An interesting instance of the manner in which these harmless facts are perverted into anti-German sensations is furnished in the reports concerning riots in Cologne. It was asserted that at the time cards to regulate the consumption of fats were distributed a huge crowd collected and became unruly, and that troops drew the sword and attacked the mob, women fainting.

"In reality, the events at Cologne were common-places. The municipal council decided to issue fat cards after the pattern of the bread cards. They were printed in several offices. In two cases the cards were delivered to a public at later time than had been expected, consequently crowds were waiting for two or three hours. Nothing else happened, except that one woman was admonished for disorderly conduct."

ADVANCED TOO LATE TO RENDER HELP TO ANCONA

Str. Verdi went to spot where Italian liner was torpedoed but found no sign of ill-fated steamer.

New York, Nov. 20.—Fresh and dramatic details of what happened in the Mediterranean on the morning of November 7 when the "Ancona" was torpedoed by a submarine flying the Austrian flag were brought to New York today by the new Italian steamer "Giuseppe Verdi," here on her maiden voyage. The "Verdi" heard the Ancona's wireless distress cry, flashed it on to shore stations which the feeble batteries of the sinking steamer could not reach, and then rushed at full speed to the Ancona's aid, her boats swung outwards, her passengers lined on the deck and her officers momentarily expecting a death blow themselves from submarines known to be lurking nearby. The "Verdi" steamed as near as she dared to the spot where the Ancona went down, but her lookouts saw nothing. Then, turning swiftly, with popping safety valves, she fled for Gibraltar and safety.

Luigi Morini, the youth at the key of the "Verdi's" wireless told the story here today.

"The captain went as close to the Ancona's position as he dared to take the "Verdi" and doubled the lookout. We slowed down and tried to find some trace of the Ancona or her boats with glasses but failed to do so. We steamed away as fast as we could. The passengers remained on deck and the lifeboats were still swung out till we had cleared the war zone."

Morini's story was verified by several of the steamer's 535 passengers, among them Capt. G. B. Perry, U. S. consul at Tolinio, Italy.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, their little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

TUMULT OF WAR HAS REACHED EVEN THE GARDEN OF EDEN

British Troops on Way to Bagdad March Through Lands of Adam and Noah—A Daring Feat of Arms Which, if Successful, Will Shatter Germany's Dream of Ultimate Dominion in Eastern Europe and Western Asia.

(From the London Mail). We learned recently the surprising news that a mixed British and Indian force was within a hundred miles of Bagdad. Should our troops reach their goal, they will have performed one of the most dramatic exploits in the history of war. They will have marched over 400 miles from the Persian Gulf, through the lands of Adam and Noah, to seize the place which even the Turks still call "the glorious city." Unless the Allies take Jerusalem, there could be no more striking episode in the conflict beyond Europe.

The operations which have thus developed began modestly enough last November with a joint naval and military advance from the head of the Persian Gulf up the Shatt-al-Arab, the river formed by the confluence of the Tigris and Euphrates. After one important action the expedition reached Bussorah, sixty miles from the sea, and perhaps the oldest seaport in Asia. From the quays of Bussorah daring Arab navigators sailed many centuries ago and sacked Canaan, in the days when Arabia held the secret of the sea. It was the port whence Sinbad the Sailor, whose chronicles are plainly the exaggerated record of many genuine voyages, roved the Eastern sea. Nelson himself has left on record that he visited Bussorah as a lad in the Seashore. Yet though the East India Company had warehouses there, never before has the port flown a European flag.

The British chased the Turks fifty miles farther up the river to Kurna. One column went up the River Karun into Persian territory to save the Admiralty oil-pipe line. Another has recently pushed its way for a hundred miles through the swamps and lagoons formed by the old channel of the Euphrates, and shattered a large Turkish force at Nasrieh. A third column has steadily advanced up the Tigris, and is now at Kut-el-Amara, only 100 miles from Bagdad by land, though 200 by the winding course of the river. Long before it reached Kut the expedition was well past the worst obstacle—the shallows and rapids—on the Tigris. Though the river is at present at its lowest, there should be good water all the way to Bagdad, if we are relying on the water transport, which is not clear.

The region in which our troops are now operating is of extraordinary interest, although the immense alluvial plain between the Tigris and the Euphrates contains not a single hill and hardly a tree. It is an endless flat, yellow expanse of the silt of countless ages, the richest soil in the world, the granary of early civilizations, where wheat grew wild when man first found himself. Somewhere in this area lies the traditional site of the Garden of Eden. The Arabs place it at Kurna, where our troops have been encamped since January; but Sir William Willcocks pins his faith to Hit, a place far above Babylon on the River Euphrates.

There are very few corners of the world where the British Army has not marched and fought before, but this is one of them. For a parallel to the European invasion of Chaldea, we have to go back to the days of Alexander the Great. The British force is traversing land over which, if we are to accept the inviting theories of Sir William Willcocks, the ark of Noah must have floated. It has passed by the sites of cities where dwelt the Sumerians, that wonderful race whose very existence was unsuspected by scholars until recent years. It is to day within a two hours' run "by armored motor-car" of the enormous series of mounds which are all that is left of the mighty city of Babylon. It should soon be tramping through the desolate ruins of Seleucia, where once the Greeks ruled over half a million souls. Its footsteps will ring within the gigantic vaulted hall of Ctesiphon, the last relic of the winter palace of the Parthian kings.

VEGETABLE SEED SITUATION.

The following extract of an article from a newspaper of Gothenburg, Sweden, will be of interest to growers of vegetable seeds. The article refers to the Board of Directors of the Agricultural College of Alnarps, Sweden, asking for a government grant for the encouragement of vegetable seed growing. "The Board points out that the war has most clearly emphasized the importance, for the country, of home production of vegetable seed. Owing to the most important vegetable seed producing countries having prohibited the export of such seed, the prices of a great number of important vegetable seeds have risen enormously. And, still worse, some seeds can hardly be obtained at any price. It is reported, from a well informed source, that vegetable seed growing in the countries engaged in the war has been largely neglected during the past summer and that for this reason further advances in prices can be expected. Reports from Germany state that the supply of seeds of spinach, carrots, most kinds of cabbage, onions,

It was announced, however, that the inquiry had not resulted in determining whether the fire, which broke out in a reserve coal bunker, and was extinguished after a somewhat prolonged fight by the crew, was due to a malevolent act, to imprudence on some one's part or to spontaneous combustion.

ST. JOHN AND THE TROOPS.

Up to last midnight Mayor Frink had received from military officials in Halifax no satisfactory reply to his telegram in reference to the reported statement of General Benson that accommodation here was not sufficient for the men of the 140th Battalion. It was intimated that an officer would be sent here to make an inspection of the facilities available. All the information such an officer could obtain is already in the hands of the Militia Department authorities at Ottawa and it is presumed, the Halifax officers have been advised just how many troops can be looked after here.

Therefore, to send another officer from the sister city to secure information already in the possession of his superiors appears to be rather a work of supererogation. It is eminently right and proper that the Halifax authorities should make very certain that, before troops are quartered at any point in this military district, the accommodation available should be of such a class that the efficiency of the units should not be impaired. St. John recognizes that it is also advisable that, in selecting a point where troops shall be wintered, chief consideration must be given to the interests of the men themselves. St. John also recognizes that also there is not the slightest intention at this time to intimate that in considering facilities at St. John in comparison with those at the Nova Scotia city Halifax officials are influenced by anything save the very best interests of the men for whom the accommodation is desired. At the same time it is well to remember that General Benson, himself a newcomer in this district, must depend for his opinions of St. John upon information supplied to him by members of his staff, and that staff is composed very largely of Halifax men or, at least, of men who view matters from the Halifax standpoint.

If any such consideration has contributed to his opinion that St. John does not possess facilities for the accommodation of the men of the 140th it is necessary that he be supplied at once with information that will set him on the right track. Hon. Mr. Hazen has worked, and is working assiduously and successfully in the interests of St. John. It is not desirable that he should be interfered with by any local organization so matter how well intentioned it may be. But it is equally undesirable that Halifax opinions as to the qualifications of this port should be permitted to undo any work Mr. Hazen has been able to accomplish for us. If accommodations at St. John are not sufficient for the 140th, well and good, but it is only natural that citizens of this city should require better evidence of our insufficiency than afforded by the mere opinion of a Halifax officer no matter what his rank or station.

DECECY VS. KULTUR

The report of the American Ambassador and party who visited the prison camps in Germany and there saw indications that British prisoners were inhumanly treated, merely adds one more item to the mass of damning evidence being accumulated against the Teutonic powers, and on which the jury of the civilized world will decide that Germany has forfeited the last claim to world respect or consideration. The visitors found that the British prisoners were insufficiently clad, poorly fed and subjected to indignities. Those who have visited camps where German prisoners were confined have been satisfied that the captors regarded their captives as men rather than criminals and accorded to them the very best treatment the regulations permitted. The detention camp in Amherst, N. S. may be taken as a sample of the manner in which the British treat their prisoners and it is fair to say that the men detained there have enjoyed better food and better conditions of life than when they were members of the German army. From the start of this war to the present time the Allies have patterned their conduct on the lines of decency. They have been considerate to their enemies, have not withheld later of Finance is giving the men and women of Canada an opportunity to finance their own fight. He is not going to the money markets of the world looking for capital. Instead, he intends to draw upon the resources of Canadian thrift and energy, the great national assets which in times of peace have been rapidly and surely accumulating. It has been said that a nation's prosperity is no greater than the thrift of its people. Canadians in the past have been thrifty and prosperous. Now that the opportunity for capitalizing that thrift and prosperity for the benefit of the nation presents itself it should not be neglected. Russia, not long ago, had occasion to find a war loan in a similar manner. Instead of attempting to secure foreign bankers to underwrite it the proposition was put directly to the Russian people with the result that four-fifths of the loan was subscribed for by the Russian peasantry in a very short time. What can be done in Russia can be done in Canada. The loan offers opportunity for an attractive sound investment on advantageous terms. And, surely, our money can be put to no better employment than that of guaranteeing to those who come after us the preservation of the right to live under the ideals of British liberty.

MOSQUITO COVE—(1855)

By Henry Gaskin
When first across its rugged hills I made my way to Lingley's Mills (1), I, then a boy, and scarce thirteen, beheld with joy an opening scene. When past the wood and free to gaze, I, wondering, stood, filled with amazement, Like Alpine village, there below, The little hamlet seemed to show.

Near by the river caught my sight, Two reeking chimneys' lofty height, Where puffing steam with milling sound Of saws in cut, went echoing round. As nearer down the slope I drew, The narrow bend appeared to view, Where water winds with rapid force And forms a basin for its course.

THE CANADIAN WAR LOAN

There is every reason to believe that the new Canadian war loan of $50,000,000, the prospectus of which reached this city on Saturday, will be rapidly taken up. Not only is the loan an attractive offering, positively secured, but those investing in it will have the satisfactory knowledge that they have assisted to fight the Empire's battles just as surely as if they went on active service. The German can be fought with the cheque book as well as the rifle, from the office as well as the trench, and, as has been said and written, if this war is to be won by "golden bullets," patriotic Canadians will see to it that as many as possible are expended in this country. ABOUT ZEPPELINS.

A Zeppelin really has sixteen sides, formed by the sixteen girders, made of very thin aluminum alloy, running from end to end of the ship, and over which the outer cover is stretched. To keep these longitudinal girders, or "strainers" in position, there are other girders which run like hoops round the ship, and act just like the ribs of a boat. There are generally about eighteen of these hoop girders, spaced an equal distance from each other. These hoop girders divide the skeleton of the airship into a series of compartments, in each of which is fitted a gasbag. The central idea is that if one gasbag springs a leak, or is punctured by a projectile, only that one bag collapses, and the weighting of the ship is so arranged, says Mr. C. G. Grey, editor of the "Aeroplane," in the Daily News, that even if four or five gasbags are entirely deflated, the remainder are enough to float the ship when all ballast, ammunition, and other non-essentials have been thrown overboard. The outside covering of a Zeppelin is treated with "dope" or varnish, which makes it impervious to water, light, oil, or petrol, and practically fireproof. A Zeppelin has four propellers, each driven through a long shaft and bevel gear by a separate engine, so that each can be worked, or can be stopped, independently of the others. This not only adds to ease in manoeuvring, but is a safe-guard in case of one or more engines or propellers being damaged. The most advanced type of Zeppelin built before the war was the L11, which was built at Johannsthal in October of 1913. This ship was 540 feet long and forty-six feet in diameter at her deepest point. Her total lifting power was about thirty tons, and her own weight complete was twenty-five tons, leaving a "useful" lift of five tons, which would have to include her petrol and oil for the engines, her crew, all their supplies and equipment, the wireless plant, machine-guns and their ammunition, bomb-dropping gear, and bombs.

NEW EYE TEST FOR RECRUITS. Militia Dept. preparing modified test less stringent than that now in use. Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The militia department is preparing a modified eye test for recruits which will not be so stringent as that now in use. The test now is the same as that used for the South African war, where much of the rifle fire was 2,000 yards and upwards. There is not the need of such keen eyesight for the fighting in France, and the test has been made much less difficult in England for this war because the range of rifle shooting is comparatively short.

QUARTERING TROOPS ON THE NORTH SHORE. Arrangements being made for placing the 132nd Battalion in quarters. Newcastle, Nov. 20.—Col. Dean of Halifax and two other officers were in town yesterday looking over sites for quartering troops. It appears that only Campbellton, Chatham and Newcastle can accommodate troops. Campbellton can take almost 250 and Newcastle and Chatham will be given 500 each. The Newcastle army will accommodate 250 and the rink and Mechanics' Institute were asked to place the remaining 250. The council last night agreed to install free sewerage into all the military buildings. To the rink will require some distance of new digging. The rink association give up their building. Recruiting is brisk for the 132nd. Capt. L. D. Jones will join the 132nd as junior major; Lieut. Barry and Mackay as captains; Lieut. Graham McKnight of Douglas, yet to accompany them. Sergt. Eric Benn of the wireless will take a lieutenant's course early in the new year.

THE PINCH OF HUNGER BEING FELT BY THE GERMAN PEOPLE. Rev. J. A. Morison, D.D., gives facts and figures that are particularly encouraging—Food and clothing supply in Germany getting low. Rev. J. A. Morison, D. D., preached a fine sermon on the subject "The Pinch of Hunger," or "Does the Kaiser Desire Peace Now?" in the First Presbyterian church, West St. John, last evening. He took his text from that it was when his money was gone and the famine came up, that he felt the pinch. Then he went on to show that the Kaiser, after spending his money lavishly on perfecting his military power, had neglected to see to other things more important, and now when there seems to be signs of scarcity of food in Germany, he sees what a fool he has been, and is said to be now talking of peace.

THE PINCH OF HUNGER BEING FELT BY THE GERMAN PEOPLE. Rev. J. A. Morison, D.D., gives facts and figures that are particularly encouraging—Food and clothing supply in Germany getting low. "The Kaiser is engaged in a hopeless task, and for Germany there is nothing but blue ruin ahead," said "One of the most outstanding newspapers has recently declared that—'THE SHORT SUCCESSFUL WAR, THE SPOILS OF VICTORY, HUGE INDEMNITIES, ANNEXATION OF COLONIES, TRADE WHICH WOULD MAKE EVERY ONE PROSPEROUS AND CONTENTED, AND BRING BACK THE ARMIES IN TRIUMPH AND PLEASURE—THAT WAS THE DREAM PROMISED AND THE DREAM DRAINED.' 'TODAY THE REALITY IS GROWING DAILY FARTHER FROM THAT INTOXICATING VISION; THE SIGHT OF EMOROUS AND INCREASING LOSSES IN THE FIELD, STARVING WOMEN AT HOME FIGHTING FOR FOOD FOR THEIR CHILDREN, THE MISERIES OF ANOTHER WINTER IN SIGHT, WITH INCREASING PRIVATION AND NO ALTERNATIVE BUT RUIN, WHETHER VICTORIOUS OR DEFEATED AT THE END.' 'Taking all these facts then into account, it is no wonder that the German people are desirous of effecting a speedy peace. Day by day and month by month their need for such a peace will become more and more insistent. It is well, therefore, that, throughout our Empire, there ought to be fostered this feeling of confidence in the outcome of these hostilities and realizing that such a victory is well within our power, as will make it impossible for this Prodigal State to ever again threaten the peace of the world, we should all, with one heart and one mind, gird ourselves to battle.'"

Tobacco Heart. CURED BY Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Tobacco does not seem to affect all alike. Many men enjoy their smoke, live to a good old age, and apparently suffer no ill effects from the use of the weed. There are others, though, on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart and irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, and the breath becomes short. To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy that equals Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco. Mr. Nelson Young, Brampton, Ont., writes: "I have had, up to about a month ago, a very weak heart, which I suppose came from smoking cigarettes. When I heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as a cure, I immediately gave up smoking, and started using them. It does you justice to be the founder of such a great remedy. They made me feel like a new man." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all druggers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR PTE. GLASS

St. Luke's Church remembers fallen soldier, who was one of its members.

Last evening's service in St. Luke's church took the form of a memorial service in honor of Private Walter H. Glass, of the 26th Battalion, who was recently killed in action. Pte. Glass had been a member of St. Luke's church all his life and was well known and liked all through the north end. Capt. Ellison, chaplain of the 52nd Battalion, preached a memorial sermon and four buglers of the 52nd sounded the last post.

Before the sermon was begun Rev. R. P. McKim, rector of St. Luke's, made a few remarks about the man in whose memory the service was held. "This is not the last tribute to be paid to our friend, Walter Glass, though a memorial service is usually looked upon as such. But this man will always live in the memory of all the congregation of St. Luke's. He went to Sunday school and church here all his life and was always a good boy. Then came the call to arms. Walter heard it and, like a true Britisher, answered it. When he enlisted he told his mother: 'Mother, I feel that I ought to go, and if I go, I am sure that God will take care of me and if I fall he will know that I died doing my duty as far as I knew how. I saw him sitting in church here every Sunday evening last winter and saw him as the boys left the city for the other side. Then he went into action and after doing his part laid down his life that we, here in St. John, might enjoy the freedom that we have been accustomed to. And Christ said, 'Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.'"

"Walter's father has tried four times to get into the ranks that he might go to his country's defence, and this week he succeeded in being taken on in the 115th and now he is going across to take his son's place on the firing line."

Captain Ellison then preached a fine sermon, telling the story of the resurrection of Lazarus from the dead by Jesus, and impressed the fact that Lazarus was brought back to the trials and sorrows and temptations of the world and that there would again have to be the sorrowful parting caused. "But," he went on, "Christ will raise us up again to a life of gladness and peace, where our young friend now is. Of course there is a great deal of sorrow on account of his death, but most of it is for the people he left behind rather than for the man himself. You would not want to call him back to the trials and temptations of the world from the place of happiness where he now is, would you? Christ said: 'Come unto me, and I will give you rest.' He has given Walter Glass that rest, and there should be a note of thankfulness that He has taken Glass to be with Him, rather than sorrow at his departure from the world. Christ raised up Lazarus from the dead to this life, but He will raise us up to a far better and happier life in a better world."

AUTO THROUGH WINDOW, DRIVER WAS ARRESTED

Is charged with driving his car at furious rate, while intoxicated.

Last night about 11:15 o'clock during the rain storm a man, who gives his name as Oscar Olsen, of West St. John, was, according to Police Officer Kane, driving his Ford car along Charlotte street at a rate of about thirty or forty miles an hour. The officer states that Olsen was intoxicated and when he reached the corner of North Market and Charlotte streets the car took to the sidewalk, and was only brought to a standstill when it crashed through the large plate glass window of W. E. Ward's gent's furnishing store. The car was badly damaged, the front being smashed and an axle broken; fortunately for the driver he was uninjured. A couple of persons had fortunately just passed the place when the car crossed the sidewalk or they would perhaps have been killed. Officer Kane placed Olsen under arrest and took him to police headquarters where he is charged with driving his car at a furious rate, endangering pedestrians while he was in an intoxicated condition.

TRAVELLERS ENTERTAIN BOYS IN KHAKI

Excellent smoker in Elks' Rooms Saturday night—More men wanted.

The reception tendered the men who have enlisted in the Commercial Travellers' Platoon of the 104th Battalion at the Elks' home, Wellington Row, Saturday night, was a huge success. The commercial travellers were the hosts and the programme provided was much appreciated by those present. For three solid hours, the "Knights of the Grip" and their guests enjoyed themselves to the fullest possible extent. The veteran W. A. Stewart presided and made an ideal chairman. He filled the position in a most commendable manner, but raised a slight objection when the operator attempted to play the spotlight on him. The chairman in opening the meeting said that while the evening was to be spent in entertainment there was a business side to be considered. The travellers' platoon was now a certainty and there were exceedingly bright outlooks for making it a company. He said there had been a certain amount of scoffing at the idea of raising a platoon and some had said it could not be done. It had been done in a very short space, as the boys in khaki, who were present evidenced. He hoped the knocking would cease, and that every traveller would be a booster from this out.

He pointed out that there was plenty of good material in the audience and it would be a fine thing if some more names could be added to the platoon at the meeting.

An honor roll composed of the names of men from the ranks of the travellers, who have enlisted for overseas service, was exhibited. It contained the names of ninety-one travellers who have donned the khaki. Seven names were secured for the platoon at the meeting and two others have since signed on. The names are as follows: J. E. DeMill, St. John; G. W. Shaughnessy, St. Stephen; Walter B. Gunn, Country Harbor, N. S.; Lester L. Lloyd, Bangor, Me.; George B. Moore, Sussex; E. J. Cronin, St. John; George F. Cole, Minto; Frank M. Buck, Sussex; George E. Scott, St. John. Sergeant Norman Knight was present and spoke on the recruiting question. He appealed to the men to do their duty. "It is not for me," said Sergeant Knight, "to question any man as to why he is not in khaki. Many, I know, have good reasons for not enlisting. But there are many others, yes, thousands of them, right here in St. John who have no good reason for not serving their country. "I am a confirmed conscriptionist. I would like to see it come. Then those fellows who are holding back letting some other fellow do their fighting would be forced to do their bit. "The slogan 'business as usual' came near to damning this country since the war began. People looked after their personal business when their attention should have been directed toward serving the country. There is only one business in this land today, and that business is war. That is the business every young man who is phy-

RECREATION FOR SOLDIERS YESTERDAY

Soldiers' Club, St. David's and Germain St. Churches, open to men in evening.

More than one hundred soldiers attended the reception given under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Germain street church yesterday evening. The institute rooms being also visited by a number of others, including many ladies, interested in the welfare of the men in khaki. Dr. W. C. Kierstead of Fredericton, who officiated at the church services both in the morning and evening, gave a short address in which he emphasized the justice of the cause of the allies and expressed the view that God's blessing would rest on the efforts being made to crush German tyranny. He wished the men success in the noble part they are taking in the great conflict and a safe return from victory.

At St. David's.

The reception in the schoolroom of St. David's church was the occasion for the presence of a large number of soldiers and friends of the church. The seating accommodation being rather cramped, a feature of the gathering was the singing, the words of the various hymns being shown by means of lantern slides. The audience joined heartily in the various numbers, particularly in the hymn with a whistling chorus.

Refreshments were served and the proceedings throughout were in every way enjoyable. Soldiers' Club. The Soldiers' Club was well patronized yesterday, the reading, recreation and refreshment rooms being crowded by the soldiers, who evidently felt at home in the fine quarters assigned to them at Caverhill Hall. The ladies in charge for the day were Mrs. Koefke, convenor, Miss E. Jack, Mrs. R. MacKenzie, Mrs. T. P. Regan and Mrs. Rowland Frith. A good fire was burning in the open fireplace in the hall and everything was done to make the evening comfortable.
