

World-Traveling Telegraph

VOL. XXXIX

TOOK HIS LIFE, FOR LOVE WAS UNREQUITED.

A North Shore Tragedy With a Boston Man the Victim.

PUT BULLET IN HIS HEAD.

Wanted to Marry Miss McIntosh of North Esk, Miramichi--They Met in Boston, Where Both Were Employed--She Came Home for Her Holidays, and He Followed.

Newcastle, N. B., July 25--Coroner P. Desmond held an inquest this afternoon to the death of Thomas Hurst, of Roxbury, Mass., who shot himself yesterday in the woods at South Esk, six miles from the town. The jury brought in the following verdict:

"We, the jury summoned to inquire into the death of Thomas Hurst, of Roxbury, Mass., being satisfied of the identity of the person who committed the crime by shooting himself through the head with a revolver, on the 24th day of July inst., in the parish of Northumberland county, N. B.; and also finding that no person was to blame for his act... Evidence given showed the case to have been a romantic one. Hurst arrived here yesterday and drove to the house of Donald McIntosh to see Miss Victoria McIntosh, young lady who has recently arrived from Roxbury to visit friends. He turned to the Waverly hotel here and wrote two letters, addressed "Dear friend," and indicating his intention to suit himself. The letters were found in traps in the waste basket. The key to the letters was supplied by Miss Victoria McIntosh on the witness stand. She told us she had been in Boston some years and met deceased about seven months ago. They were topmost partners in Boston, he clerk and she cashier. He endeavored to pay attention to her, but she was not given any encouragement, and he asked her to marry him, and when refused threatened to commit suicide. Hurst had been employed in a theatre in Boston. Mr. Hurst drove up to interview the young lady again yesterday, but without any success as far as his suit was concerned. He again threatened to commit suicide and produced a bottle of cyanide acid, which Miss McIntosh managed to take from him. He returned to Newcastle, took a revolver and returned to the Waverly hotel for the night. The next day he again drove up to the McIntosh home, but was told Miss McIntosh was not at home, and he went into the woods and shot himself.

BODY ON RAILWAY TRACK CUT IN TWO.

Remains of 30-year-old Man Found Near Woodstock--An Inquest.

Woodstock, N. B., July 25--(Special)--A freight train coming north at 11 o'clock today, brought to Yanward's undertaking room the dead body of a man found on the track near Oak Mountain, about 15 miles from here. The undertaker had the body prepared for burial. A large number have viewed the body, but the man is unidentified as yet. The body was cold when discovered, and it was supposed the unfortunate was run over by last night's train. The body was severed just below the ribs. It is that of a man about 30 years of age and will weigh himself yesterday. There is a mustache and the initials "F. V." are tattooed on the left arm. The deceased was clothed in the garb of a laborer.

MANY HOMES GONE IN A BIG FIRE.

Saw Mill District Affire, Flames Spread to Residences.

Davenport, Iowa, July 25--Fire in the sawmill district is sweeping through several blocks and getting worse. The fire is in a square mile in flames. The firemen aided by companies from Rock Island and Moline seem powerless to check the spread of the conflagration. Sparks from a locomotive are said to have started the fire. The fire laid waste to an area of sawmill and residential property equal to 20 ordinary city blocks. The flames pushed their way into the adjoining residence district, closely settled with middle class homes from which the occupants escaped only with their lives and the clothing on their backs. Over fifty homes were burned, resulting in a hundred families being rendered homeless; loss $700,000.

A DAY OF DISASTER AMONG THE YACHTS.

Constitution Hit Twice on a Ledge, and Columbia Beat Her--Two Other Accidents.

Newport, R. I., July 25--The Columbia today, in a rattling thrash to windward, from New London to Newport, gave the Constitution a great and unexpected beating, the Constitution finishing a good third of a mile astern of her antagonist and being defeated two minutes and five seconds. The race was sailed in weather that, as a rule, has just suited the Constitution, the breeze never exceeding a 12-knot gale, and the sea being smooth.

A diver was not until Newport was reached. An intelligent explanation of the drubbing could be given. The Constitution, following right in the wake of the Columbia, struck twice on the ledge near the Race Point lighthouse. There was a substantial bump and after this accident her speed was diminished and she sagged off to leeward.

The Columbia had the best of the start, but had it not been for another streak of ill fortune, the Constitution would have crossed the line first. As the Constitution went for the line, suddenly a cat boat laden down to the gunwale with New London girls, got directly in the way. It was hard up the helm to clear her, otherwise there would have been a cat boat run down and perhaps the loss of many lives. Next a tug boat got in the ocean pathway and, cutting the Constitution to ribbons, gave her the worst of the start.

Columbia went on ahead without hitting anything. After passing Race Point, the Constitution showed an inability to point or sail fast, which was very astonishing to those who have watched her for years. She was launched on the 24th, the Columbia, beautifully handled in the dead "nose end" from Race Point to Brenton's Reef lightship, got the Constitution under her lee about 50 yards, and she was in the lead. About 50 tacks were made between Race Point and Brenton's Reef and many miles of blue water were wasted in keeping the Constitution blanketed.

The wind from northeast and blowing at a 10-knot gale at the start. When the yachts passed Race Point, the Constitution was in the teeth of the fleet from that point to the finish line. Race Point was passed in a gusty puff and the foremast of the schooner Muriel snapped off in two places and made a complete wreck of the fast and beautiful yacht. The main topmast parted in two about eight feet from the masthead. A third accident happened to the Rainbow, Vanderbilt's yacht, which broke her peak halyards.

The time of the big sloops was: Start--Finish. Elapsed. Constitution... 11 25 47 6 24 16 6 31 8 Columbia... 11 25 29 6 24 16 6 30 28

114 FAMILIES LOST THEIR HOMES BY FIRE.

Destruction Was Great in Temiscaming District of Ontario--The Government Will Help.

Toronto, July 25--(Special)--Thomas Southworth, director of colonization in Ontario, just returned from the scene of the Temiscaming district forest fires, reports that 114 families of settlers lost their homes and most of them all they possess. It is estimated the damage is $30,000, which does not include fences and timber destroyed. The Ontario government will extend help at once by making repairs roads, on which the burned-out settlers can work at good wages till they gather enough to make a fresh start.

WILL NOT GIVE UP PARK FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

People Make Objections to Proposals for the St. Louis Show.

St. Louis, July 25--In the circuit court this afternoon suit was brought to restrain the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Commission from using Forest Park as a site for the world's fair to be held here in 1903. It is claimed that the ordinance is a gross violation of the charter and the rights of citizens.

AMERICAN SOCIETY DINES THE OARSMEN.

All the Prominent Rowing Men in Great Britain at a Banquet.

London, July 25--The supper given last night by the American Society in London to the crews of the University of Pennsylvania and the Leander Rowing Club was a great success. It was attended by almost all the prominent rowing men in Great Britain and others, including Mr. Choate, Henry White, the Archdeacon of London, Dr. Stclair, Rudolph Lehmann, Charles T. Yerkes and W. H. Crane.

Bolivian General Assassinated.

Orizaba, Bolivia, July 25--General Rodriguez, governor of the Yururari district, has been assassinated for political reasons by General Zapata.

NEW AND INTERESTING TURN IN CELEBRATED FOSBURGH CASE.

Women Make Affidavit in New York Supporting the Theory That Burglars Shot May Fosburgh--Thursday's Evidence at the Trial.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 25--In the Fosburgh manslaughter case today Mrs. R. L. Fosburgh, the gray-haired widow, went upon the stand and told in simple words how her daughter May passed from her life; told how masked men entered her room, appearing before her with hideous coverings upon their heads; told of her husband's fierce and terrible encounter in the bedroom; told of how the latest her little daughter Beatrice cry out, "Oh, Mamma, look at May," and described the torturing scene when she found her daughter lying upon the floor in agonies of death and then saw her eldest son fall down unconscious. Her voice failed her and she sobbed tears. The other members of the family sat listening to her work of words.

"Did you notice the relations of the family to each other while you were there?" "I did. They were very devoted and affectionate."

"And would you say that of all the members?" "Yes."

These were among the questions which were just answered by Miss Beatrice Sheldon, of Providence. By her testimony the defense wished to show that there were burglars in the house and that the body of May upon the floor and at that instant Beatrice replied, "Burglars have entered the house and shot May."

Mrs. S. Plumb, a neighbor, told of hearing the screams and pistol shots, the cries for help and also saw the footprints on the ground. This witness was corroborated by her wife, Mrs. E. E. Ballard, now of Madison, Wis., who declared that on the fatal night she heard two men talking about midnight lying in front of her house and that later they had been gone about an hour she heard pistol shots far off.

Mrs. Nellie Beverley, of East Chelsea, who at the time of the shooting, was in Beaver street, testified that her husband was very sick on the night of Aug. 20 and she claimed that he was disturbed by the loud breathing which she had stopped running when opposite her house.

SOME CRITICISM OF DR. KOCH'S THEORY.

Not All Accept It--Proceedings at the Congress.

London, July 25--At this afternoon's session of the Congress, on tuberculosis, Dr. Koch's theory to the effect that human beings were immune from contagion from tuberculous cattle, but that they were not, if they were, but he hoped more that the dissemination of such views would tend to cause laxity on the part of the dairymen and milkmen, or less vigilance by the authorities charged with protecting the consumers of milk.

SURMISE AS TO POPE'S SUCCESSOR.

Will Be a Large Number of Candidates at Next Conclave.

Rome, July 25--One of the chief characteristics of the next conclave, according to a high prelate, will be the large number of candidates for the chair of St. Peter. Whereas, after the death of Pius IX, there were only two or three cardinals whose chances for the papacy were serious, today the number of serious candidates is expected to show six or seven cardinals are favored for the pontificate.

Free Trade Proclaimed.

Washington, July 25--The president today issued his proclamation establishing free trade between Porto Rico and the United States, and declaring the organization of a civil government for the island.

THE MAMMOTH B. Y. P. A. GATHERING.

Claimed To Be the Biggest Convention They Ever Held.

Chicago, July 25--What is claimed to be the biggest convention ever held by the Boy Scouts of America was held here today. The convention was held at the Coliseum here today. It was estimated that 10,000 delegates and visitors were present, and it was predicted that by tomorrow nearly half as many more would be present. Addresses of welcome were made by the president, Francis W. Parker, in behalf of the citizens of Chicago; Louis Ottendine, in behalf of the young people; and Rev. John L. Jackson, in behalf of the church. Rev. H. F. Hays, of St. Paul, Minn., responded for the visitors. Addresses were delivered by Rev. John A. Bennett, of Philadelphia, on Christ's Conception of His Own Kingdom; and by Rev. Robert Whitaker, of Palo Alto, Cal., on Christ's Conception of Citizenship in His Kingdom.

In the afternoon the convention split up into departmental conferences. To-night, after the presentation of banners, the president, John H. Chapman, delivered his address.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW CONVENTION.

Some 1600 Members Gathered in Detroit--The Opening Session.

Detroit, Mich., July 25--The opening session of the joint convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the United States and Canada, was held here this afternoon, with an attendance of about 1,600 delegates. H. D. W. English, of Pittsburg, president of the United States Brotherhood, was made chairman.

Papers were read on "Brotherhood Needs," by President English; "The Spirit of St. Andrew in Personal Influence," by N. Ferrar Davidson, and "Self Sacrifice and Consecration," by Edmund Billings, of Boston.

This evening, Right Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, D. D., Bishop of Vermont, conducted a service in preparation for the corporate celebration of the Holy Communion at St. John's church.

SPAIN'S BIG PROGRAMME.

Will Rearrange Army, Construct Great Arsenal and Establish Naval Base.

Madrid, July 25--Premier Sagasta has announced the government's programme, which will include the reorganization of the army, the establishment of bases for naval operations and the construction of an arsenal on a vast scale.

WHAT THEY'RE DOING IN THE SCHLEY CASE.

The Board of Inquiry Chosen, But There's a Hunt for a Judge Advocate.

Washington, July 25--Secretary Long announced this morning that he had selected Admiral Dewey and Rear Admiral Kimberly and Benjamin as members of the Schley court of inquiry. The precept to the court has not yet been published. Secretary Long was engaged in seeking a suitable judge advocate. Commander John E. Pillsbury, it was announced early in the day at the department, had been selected but later his name was abandoned.

It was recalled that as commander of the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius he had served in Santiago and moreover as government officer of the Boston navy yard, he was now again a subordinate chief of the same admiral. Late this afternoon he is believed to have found such an officer in the person of Captain S. C. Lemley, the judge advocate general of the navy. While it cannot be said that the matter has been absolutely settled, Secretary Long went so far as to ask Captain Lemley if he felt free to accept the assignment and it is believed that he will answer yes. The precept to the court will be issued tomorrow. It promises to be a rather extended statement of the scope of the enquiry compared with such documents in the less important cases. Whether it will direct the court to return an opinion or simply to ascertain the facts, Secretary Long thus far declines to state.

Rear Admiral Schley was not notified by the department of the officers who will decide his case, but the present will be sent to him and it will constitute his official notification. Secretary Long was disappointed to learn that Rear Admiral Kimberly would be relieved from the detail on account of ill health. Should he decline, the secretary will select one of the other retired rear admirals to take his place. Rear Admiral Ramsey, Joutet, Cherrill and Walker are some of the names advanced. The difficulty in a selection from the list of retired rear admirals is that most of them are far advanced in years and not in a state of health to warrant them in assuming the extremely onerous duties of a court of enquiry, such as this is likely to be.

The Gray woman, among other things, said that Gray's full name was William Lewis Gray, and that the name under which he was sentenced to jail in Springfield was Wm. Jones. She added that her mother "worked out" in Springfield and Westfield.

The affidavits were made today. Pittsfield, Mass., July 25--Chief Nicholson was seen here tonight in reference to the reported affidavit of Chief Titus said to have sent him, and he said that he knows nothing whatever about the matter. He said that he had received the affidavit. He said the story was probably like similar ones that have come up at different times in the last six months.

BUGLER HERO DUNN HURT AT CAPE TOWN.

The Boy Who Won Fame at Colenso--Mules for the Army.

Cape Town, July 25--While presiding at the Greenpoint camp yesterday for the reception of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, Bugler Dunn had an accident. His horse bolted and fell. Dunn had his leg broken. Dunn is the fifteen-year-old bugler of the first Royal Buffs regiment, who was wounded three times at the battle of Colenso while sounding his notes. He was one of the first to cross the Tugela after sounding the order to advance. When he returned to England to recuperate Queen Victoria presented him with a silver-mounted bugle. He was afterwards sent back to South Africa at his own request.

New Orleans, La., July 24--Curator of the Sylvestra, formerly in service between Boston and Liverpool, but now under charter to the British government, cleared from this port yesterday for Cape Town with 150 mules, to be used in the military operations in South Africa.

Amsterdam, July 25--With reference to the rumors published in the London Daily News that negotiations for peace in South Africa are proceeding, it is denied here. Instead, he says, the British and Boer are talking great hopes on the fact that Dr. Kruger, who Queen Victoria has named monarch of a new cabinet, is a strong Boer sympathizer. He said Baron Van Lynden, secretary of the Hague arbitration court, have had frequent consultations, and the Boers hope that they will devise some form of peaceful intervention.

IMPORTANT PERMIT TO NEW COMPANY.

Means Establishing of Submarine Signalling at Boston.

Boston, July 25--The Boston Submarine Signal Company, Henry M. Whitney, president, has obtained an important permit from the United States government to erect a cable house on Egg Rock. The company proposes to establish a system of submarine signalling, by which vessels bound into Boston harbor may determine their position within ten or a dozen miles from shore.

DANISH WEST INDIES AGAIN.

Copenhagen, July 25--The new Liberal cabinet favors the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States.

MONEY TALKS, AND IT TELLS ABOUT CANADA.

The Bank Statement for June Shows Healthy Conditions.

Ottawa, July 25--(Special)--The bank statement for June, which has been issued by the department of finance, gives evidence of healthy business conditions in all its chief returns. The note circulation is given as $40,110,470, an increase of $5,500,000 over the same month of last year and of $3,000,000 over the return for the past previous month of May.

The amount of current loans and discounts for June was $282,872,134. This is a gain of $24,000,000 over the same time last year, but a falling off of about $1,000,000 as compared with May, 1901. There are again all loans on bonds and stocks are shown as $74,772,839 greater than the return for the previous month of May or for the month of June, 1900.

Deposits by the public of Canada, payable after notice or on a fixed day, now amount to $222,877,616, a gain of $39,500,000 over June of 1900, and of $99,200 over May.

E. L. Bond, of Montreal, a prominent underwriter, is in communication with the department of marine and fisheries concerning the necessary improvements on the St. Lawrence route. The Liverpool underwriters want the Liverpool underwriters to take two of his companies have withdrawn from the transaction of insurance of imports under open policy.

J. A. Ruddock, assistant commissioner of dairying, returned today from the Paris exhibition of dairy products. He states awards were made to Canadian exhibitors, scoring as follows: 94. The Canadian cheese scored from 96 to 98. The cheese for the exhibit was selected at Toronto some weeks ago by Mr. Ruddock and a committee of dairymen from cheese sent in by factories.

In the butter tests at the model dairy there are 10 barrels of cattle, 50 of heifer, 150 of the herds are Canadian. The Canadian cattle, especially Ayrshires, are creating a great impression among American stockmen.

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST CANADA.

Toronto Board of Trade Passes Further Resolution on German Attitude.

Toronto, July 25--(Special)--The council of the board of trade today passed a resolution regarding "continued discrimination against Germany against Canada and begging resolution to demand Sir Wilfrid Laurier of the resolution of the board of trade to him personally, on December 1st last, in responding to which he expressed his approval of said resolution and gave assurance that the government would do its best to secure removal of conditions in so far as they relate to Canada which were obtained in the treaty previously existing between Great Britain and Germany.

The premier will be asked to say what prospects there are for removal of the embargo on Canadian produce going into Germany.

GOVERNOR GENERAL NOW AT HALIFAX.

Visited the Warships and Attended Functions--Swore in Privy Counsellors.

Halifax, July 25--(Special)--Steamer Minto, with the governor general and party, arrived here at 11 this morning from Liverpool and docked at the wharf. Soon after arriving Lieut. Governor Jones, Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick Bedford and the commander of the French cruiser Islay paid their respects. The governor general shortly after noon visited the Crescent and Islay and returned to the Minto at 3 o'clock the evening party headed, being received by a guard of honor from the Royal Canadian Regiment. They drove in the principal building, where Lord Minto performed the duty of swearing in Lieut. Governor Jones and Chief Justice McDonald, as members of the privy council of Canada. Afterwards, the vice-regal party attended a garden party given in their honor. This evening they dined with Lieut. Governor Jones. Mrs. Jones and later attended a concert in the public gardens.

KING EDMUND'S BODY RETURNED TO ENGLAND.

The Last King of the East Angles, Buried in France 700 Years Ago.

London, July 26--The remains of King Edmund, the martyr, the last king of the East Angles, who reigned from 855 to 870, have been returned to England after a sojourn in France for more than seven hundred years. They reached Arrval last night in charge of Mr. Del Val, Arch Bishop of Niessa, Asia Minor, and were placed in the private chapel of the Duke of Norfolk, pending final interment.

THE BANK STATEMENT FOR JUNE SHOWS HEALTHY CONDITIONS.

ST. LAWRENCE ROUTE.

Liverpool Underwriters After Information--Canada's Dairy Products in High Favor at Buffalo--A Chat With Sir Louis Davies on His Recent Trip.

Ottawa, July 25--(Special)--The bank statement for June, which has been issued by the department of finance, gives evidence of healthy business conditions in all its chief returns. The note circulation is given as $40,110,470, an increase of $5,500,000 over the same month of last year and of $3,000,000 over the return for the past previous month of May.

The amount of current loans and discounts for June was $282,872,134. This is a gain of $24,000,000 over the same time last year, but a falling off of about $1,000,000 as compared with May, 1901. There are again all loans on bonds and stocks are shown as $74,772,839 greater than the return for the previous month of May or for the month of June, 1900.

Deposits by the public of Canada, payable after notice or on a fixed day, now amount to $222,877,616, a gain of $39,500,000 over June of 1900, and of $99,200 over May.

E. L. Bond, of Montreal, a prominent underwriter, is in communication with the department of marine and fisheries concerning the necessary improvements on the St. Lawrence route. The Liverpool underwriters want the Liverpool underwriters to take two of his companies have withdrawn from the transaction of insurance of imports under open policy.

J. A. Ruddock, assistant commissioner of dairying, returned today from the Paris exhibition of dairy products. He states awards were made to Canadian exhibitors, scoring as follows: 94. The Canadian cheese scored from 96 to 98. The cheese for the exhibit was selected at Toronto some weeks ago by Mr. Ruddock and a committee of dairymen from cheese sent in by factories.

In the butter tests at the model dairy there are 10 barrels of cattle, 50 of heifer, 150 of the herds are Canadian. The Canadian cattle, especially Ayrshires, are creating a great impression among American stockmen.

The cable announces that Prof. Robertson, dominion commissioner of dairying, sailed from England today on the Patria. Sir Louis Davies, who has been in the case of the St. Lawrence since his return from England, arrived here today. He told your correspondent that he had a pleasant time in the motherland. The cable announces that the Yacona murders were before the cabinet this afternoon and an order in council passed allowing the law to take its course. O'Brien, who shot and killed three persons on the trail coming out from Dawson, for the gold which they had on them, will be hanged August 23.

FIVE BARGES SUNK WITH 10,000 TONS OF COAL.

Gale Struck a Tow--Men, Women and Children Rescued With Difficulty.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 25--Five coal barges in a tow of coals behind the tug Resolute, of the Empire Transportation Company, were sunk in the Sound a mile west of Bridgeport light today, and for a time seemed as if the entire tow would sink. Seventeen men and eight women and children were aboard the barges, which were struck by a gale which sprung up without a minute's warning. They were rescued with the greatest difficulty. Captain Snow found that he could not get the remaining six barges into port without assistance and he made distress signals which were answered by the tug Isis of this city. After a hard battle with the storm they got into the harbor. The sunken barges had about 10,000 tons of coal and were valued at $20,000.

HAS BROUGHT FULLY A THOUSAND YOUNG ENGLISHMEN TO CANADA.

W. Weeks Warns Against Canadian Advertisers of Chances to Learn Farming--Mystery of Miss Morrison's Death--Sussex Military Dates.

Ottawa, July 23--(Special)--There is an Englishman in Ottawa today who is a good friend to Canada. He is W. Weeks, of Cleverton, Chippingham, England, and for the past eight years has been sending young men to the Canadian northwest, where they work on farms. Eight years ago, Mr. Weeks, who is a gentleman farmer, was selected to come to Canada as a representative of Wiltshire and Hampshire farmers to visit the northwest and report upon its possibilities. He came to Canada, visited many places in the west and then returned to England. His report gave a glowing account of the Canadian land of promise; he wrote letters to the newspapers, and soon he began to get answers from people in all parts of England. Mr. Weeks says he has sent 1,000 young men to Canada since 1894. He sent seven that year and every year they have been increasing in numbers, and on his present trip, he brought out 28 with him, but many others came alone.

All the young men Mr. Weeks sends out pay their own way and go to some farmer with whom Mr. Weeks has made arrangements. The young men are paid from the first. They do not have to pay to learn farming. What Mr. Weeks has a special objection to is the class of people who advertise in English newspapers that young men will be taught farming in Canada by paying a certain amount. These people, Mr. Weeks says, are taking advantage of the young men who could come to Canada and go to work on farms with men who would be glad to pay them good wages as soon as they are useful.

For years Mr. Weeks has endeavored to warn young Englishmen against these advertisements, and he has warned a large number. When asked what he gets out of the business, Mr. Weeks said, "nothing."

The dominion government will allow a rebate of one per cent. on the royalty charges for all gold brought to the Vancouver assay office.

The 12th infantry brigade (Sussex) will undergo annual training from the 3rd to the 14th September instead of from the 10th to the 21st September.

Mr. Alexander Lumsden, M. P., says that half a million of dollars will not pay the loss suffered in the Kippawa district. If rain does not soon come, the loss will be no estimate of the final probable loss. The great loss will fall directly upon the Ottawa men and those looking to them for employment. The fires originated, in Mr. Lumsden's opinion, by the settlers burning the bush in order to clear up their land. The forests are largely white red pine and they were being cut, felled by the wind, spread over miles of territory.

Detective Greer, who is here looking into the cause of the death of the girl Morrison, whose body was found in the Ottawa river, does not agree with the doctors who made the post-mortem examination of the body. They stated at the inquest that they were positive that she was dead before she entered the water, one of the reasons assigned being that there was no water in her lungs. This, the detective asserts, is not a certain test for he claims that there are cases of drowning on record where the victims' lungs did not contain a drop of water. The detective said that many famous physicians vouched for this fact, according to the woman may not have died when she entered the water.

Detective Greer examined the clothing of Miss Morrison at the morgue. There were no blood stains on the articles of dress and he thinks that it is highly improbable that the body was conveyed any distance before it entered the water. He considers that it was possible that, in falling, Miss Morrison may have struck on a projecting ledge or rock. In that case it would have hardly been likely that blood would have spurted on the clothing. The whole sad affair is still shrouded in mystery.

St. Patrick's Literary and Scientific Association has passed a resolution commending Mayor Morris for hosting the Union Jack over the city hall on July 22. The association regards this act as an insult to Roman Catholics of the city.

J. A. J. McKenna, of the department of interior, a native of P. E. Island, is to be appointed assistant Indian commissioner, with headquarters at Winnipeg.

Ottawa, July 24--(Special)--The military programme for the reception to the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall will likely be ready tomorrow. There will be three large reviews--one at Halifax, one at Quebec, and the third at Toronto. From 5,000 to 7,000 troops will be in attendance. At other points, in addition to these reviews, there will be military tournaments, games of honor and the like.

Probably the most novel feature of the Duke of Cornwall's reception here will be the running of the slides on a crib of square timber. It is understood that the party will embark up at Britannia at the head of the Deschênes rapids down to the Chaudière and then down the timber slide to the level stretch of the river below. A special crib will be put together and railed around to obviate the possibility of a spill. It would then be suitably decorated. The ride would be accompanied on its progress down Lake Deschênes by a detachment of hardy river men in their picturesque barges. There will be music, too, for the occasion, the chansons of the shantymen. At the foot of the slide, the royal party will be received by a flotilla of boats and canoes.

Mrs. J. McKenna, wife of a railroad worker who worked on the C. P. R. here, tells how she and her husband quarreled over the Bella Morrison and have now become separated, although she has heard from her husband several times since he left for the United States last October. Detectives are trying to find the whereabouts of McKenna. As yet how the girl met her death is shrouded in mystery.

Provincial Detective Greer left tonight for Toronto, having concluded his work here, and, being pretty well satisfied that Anna Bella Morrison had suicided and that it was not a case of murder.

Officials of the department of agriculture are engaged fighting an outbreak of anthrax among cattle in the Ottawa district. The disease is one of the most dangerous character.

Good progress is being made with the payment of the census enumerators. The enumerators of 187 of the 210 counties in the dominion have been paid and the accounts of the remainder will soon be adjusted. In Quebec, payment has been made in 56 counties.

TRAGIC STORY FROM THE GOLD COUNTRY.

Six Bodies Discovered--Men Evidently Victims of the Elements.

Nome, July 10, via Seattle, July 23--A tragic story comes from St. Michael. A party of men en route to Nome recently found the bodies of six men at a point near Cape Romanoff. It is presumed they all froze to death during some one of the terrible blizzards that prevailed last winter. The bodies were scattered at intervals--five of them about a quarter of a mile apart. They were outstretched upon the tundra and each was wrapped in blankets. Each had some common equipment near him, but no food. One of the dead men had been evidently injured or sick, as he lay on a litter constructed of a pair of ours and canvas sheet. It would seem that the storm must have overcome them carrying him. Evidently becoming exhausted they had abandoned him and wandered off each by himself, to perish, where found. General Randall was notified and had ordered a party of soldiers to bring in the bodies, and every effort will be made to identify them. General Randall thinks they were a party of prospectors, who in an effort to reach St. Michael had run out of provisions and perished from exhaustion and exposure.

DON'T BECOME AN OBJECT OF AVESION AND PITY. Cure your Catarrh, purify your breath, and stop the offensive discharges. Rev. Dr. Schorr, of Buffalo, says: "My wife and I were both troubled with distressing Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from this aggravating malady since the day we first used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. Its action was instantaneous, giving relief within ten minutes."--11.

Charlotte County Election Case. The trial of the election petition against E. W. Ganong's election came up at St. Andrews at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Before Judges Landry and Barker. Sheriff Steward was on the stand and gave evidence regarding the election on the 7th of November last. Adjournment was made until October 29th.

Bentley's Liniment relieves neuralgia.

PRISONERS TRY SUICIDE AND ONE SUCCEEDS.

Men in St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary Drank Methylated Spirits.

Montreal, July 23--(Special)--Two prisoners in St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary tried to commit suicide yesterday by drinking methylated spirits. One succeeded, while the second is still alive. (Gideon) was the man who succeeded in putting an end to his life by drinking the terrible blizzards that prevailed last winter. They had been supplied with the spirits for cleaning purposes.

WANT GERMANY TO TAKE OFF GRAIN DUTY.

Toronto Board of Trade Men Will Memorialize the British Government.

Toronto, July 23--(Special)--At a meeting of the grain section of the board of trade today it was decided that the British government be requested, through the governor general, to urge Germany to remove the discrimination against Canadian grain and produce. When Canada gave Great Britain the preferential tariff, Germany put a tariff of 10 cents per bushel on Canadian grain, which practically shut Canada out of the German market. Now that there is a movement on foot in Germany to raise this tariff on Canadian grain, the local grain men feel something should be done to help them.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY WILL ASK TO HAVE INVESTIGATION.

Preparing for This and Will Follow It With a Civil Action.

A CELEBRATED CASE.

The Court of Inquiry Will Probably Be One of Most Interesting in the Naval or Military History of the Country--Court will be Named by Long.

Washington, July 23--Last night the Post telegraphed Admiral Schley that in an editorial it insisted he owed it to himself and the country to have a court of inquiry into the matter of the sinking of the Maine.

"Today the Post received the following telegram: 'Great Neck, L. I., July 23, 1901. 'Editor Washington Post--I believe that first a court should be an investigation of all matters by a court, then a civil action afterwards. I am preparing to take this course.' (Signed) 'W. S. SCHLEY.'"

The Post in the morning will say: 'The Schley court of inquiry was undoubtedly one of the most celebrated cases in the naval or military history of the country. The high rank of the officers named in the controversy and the intense public feeling which has been aroused will combine to give to the investigation a dramatic interest. The court of inquiry is expected to be made by Secretary Long, though it would be in the power of the president to make the selection if he chose. This is hardly likely to occur, however.'

Admiral Schley's letter, asking for the appointment of a court, will be addressed to Sec. Long, who is his immediate chief. To address the communication to the president, ignoring Secretary Long, would not only be a breach of etiquette, but would be totally at variance with Schley's careful observance of public propriety. The court of inquiry will be named by Secretary Long, unless he shall prefer to raise the matter to the president.

Admiral Schley has already stated that if Admiral Schley requested a court of inquiry he would grant the request. There is every reason to believe that the president will grant the request. The court will be named by Secretary Long, unless he shall prefer to raise the matter to the president.

Washington, July 21--Secretary Long, in accordance with a request from Admiral Schley, today advised that officer that he would order a court of inquiry to examine into the entire of Admiral Schley's course in the Santiago naval campaign. Later the secretary announced that owing to the extremely hot weather the court would not meet until September.

"It is too hot now and I do not believe it is a very comfortable for officers to sit in their heavy full dress uniforms during August. I issued an order some time ago dispensing with the wearing of full dress uniforms during a court but this case will be so important every form of official dignity will be observed even to the minutiae of the dress. I propose to give the court the use of a large reception room adjoining my office, which is a convenient and commodious place."

"Will the session of the court be open?" "Unquestionably," was the emphatic reply. "I propose to make that fact very plain. Personally, I should be very glad to have a court composed of a large number of officers but the naval regulations restrict me to the selection of three. I hope to name the personnel of the court tomorrow."

"Will Admiral Schley be allowed to name witnesses?" "Admiral Schley," was the reply, "will be afforded every opportunity for the appearance of all the witnesses he may desire. He is also entitled, under the naval regulations, to be represented by counsel."

While Secretary Long was not asked to name the court, it is considered probable this will be pursued. Unless the order conveying the court expressly requires this opinion to be expressed, its report must be confined to stating the facts found.

CARRIE NATION GOES TO JAIL FOR 30 DAYS.

Sentenced Wednesday on Old Charge and Will Not Make Appeal.

Topoka, Kan., July 23--Mrs. Carrie Nation has been fined $100 and given a 30 days' jail sentence by Judge Hazen in the district court for disturbing the peace last March. There is no appeal and Mrs. Nation will serve her term in prison.

HER WILL COMPRISED BUT ONE SENTENCE.

Bishop Potter's Wife Thus Bequeathed All She Possessed to Her Husband.

THE BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

In Northwestern States Report Shows Last Year Was Poor.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 23--Minnesota is the leading northwestern state in the beet sugar industry, according to the annual report of Charles F. Sawyer, special agent of the United States department of agriculture, just published. Last year was an "off" year for beets in this section, and the showing made is rather unfavorable, but prospects for this year are brighter. In this state three thousand acres were planted with beets, of which only 1,000 acres were harvested. These produced an average of 10 tons per acre; 18,500 tons were worked at an average cost of $4.55 per ton. The average coefficient of purity was 80. Of sugar, 1,228 tons were produced, and 130 tons were left in process at the close of the campaign. All of the beets grown in this section, including the Dakota and Iowa and Western Wisconsin were marketed at the factory of the Minnesota Sugar Company, St. Louis Park, a suburb of Minneapolis. This factory has a daily capacity of 400 tons.

Negotiations are pending for the erection of several factories in the northwestern states. Some of these are under contract by the Minnesota Sugar Company, D. Fargo, N. D., and Menominee Falls, Wis. Minnesota may have two more factories in 1902.

Increasing Flour Output.

Duluth, Minn., July 23--The Duluth Superior Milling Company, the Lake Superior branch of the reorganized flour milling trust, is fitting up its mills here to handle the winter wheat crop. The company is now operating its two smallest mills since the reorganization somewhat assured, but will now increase its active capacity by 5,000 barrels daily and will run night and day, producing 8,000 barrels every 24 hours from the commencement of the new crop till navigation closes in the fall. The company operates 2,000 or more barrels capacity during the winter and is now planning to run 10,000 barrels in the active season of 1902.

The total capacity of the mills at the head of the lakes under the late trust management, was about 15,000 barrels daily, but all cannot be used until one of the mills is quite completely rebuilt. This work will be undertaken and the entire capacity will ultimately be operated. The company is very heavily backed now and has ample capital for anything it wishes to do.

Minnesota had a great elevator but it kept by the first but never operated, never indeed put in condition for possible operation, will be opened at once, developing capacity of 100,000 bushels. The consolidation of 2,000,000 bushels capacity at the head of Lake Superior.

Animals That Faint.

It is not the fashion to call the sudden indisposition of a cat or dog faint, but it is a very common occurrence, and common parlance, when an animal drops over insensible the illness is described as a sudden rush of blood to the brain; but the symptoms are precisely the same as in the fainting of a human being, and the remedies used to restore consciousness in the latter case can be used to advantage in reviving a fainted cat or dog.

Animals, of course, do not faint, neither do all human beings; but there are degrees of sensitiveness in the lower orders of creation just as in the human race, and there is no doubt that there are many animals of delicate organism who are just as apt to faint as a man or woman.

That is particularly true of cats and dogs and birds that are kept closely within doors; yet fainting is by no means confined to the domestic pets. Animals whose surroundings have prevented their becoming used to the conditions of civilization are given to fainting. Monkeys, for instance, have their little dizzy spells, and tigers and lions, on rare occasions, are really nothing more than fainting spells. Horses have been known to fall in the street in a faint so near that not even the most accomplished woman of fashion could help it. These equine attacks must not be confused with staggers and sunstroke; they are fainting fits, pure and simple.

Drowned While Swimming a Race.

Rockland, Me., July 23--Thomas Ward lost his life by drowning at Dark Harbor, Islesboro, today. He was engaged in a swimming contest with a companion and became exhausted. Ward, who was a young man, was employed as butler at the Islesboro Inn. He belonged in Boston. The body arrived in this city this evening and is now on its way to Boston on the steamer.

Insurance Company Absorbed.

Montréal, July 23--(Special)--The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York, has absorbed the Canadiane Insurance Co. of Montréal. The latter had capital of $300,000 and policies outstanding of $1,100,000.

KOCH'S ADDRESS ON CONSUMPTION BEFORE CONGRESS.

Contagion Through Expectoration He Deems Most to Be Guarded Against.

AS TO DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Does Not Consider Probability of Transmission to Human Beings Sufficient to Warrant Much Precaution--A Very Important Paper.

London, July 23--A feature of today's session of the British congress on tuberculosis was Dr. Robert Koch's paper, which was listened to by a big gathering in St. James' Hall.

During his address to the congress, Dr. Koch said his experiments had satisfied him that human tuberculosis and bovine tuberculosis were radically different diseases and that he had amply demonstrated that cattle could not be infected with human tuberculosis. The converse proposition, that human beings were not liable to infection from bovine tuberculosis was harder to prove, the doctor said, owing to the difficulty of experimenting upon human subjects but that personally he was satisfied such was the case and he recited at length post-mortem evidence supporting this belief. Dr. Koch said if this point were conceded it remained to determine the chief source of contagion.

Human immunity to bovine infection through infection in semiarid areas. This, in his opinion, was a very important factor in the transmission of tuberculosis through the country, had long been believed. Dr. Koch said that the chief source of contagion lay in the sputum of consumptive patients and that a remedy was to be found in a law preventing the consumption from straining contagion about him.

Several methods to this end were available said the doctor, the purpose of which was to prevent the sputum from being dispersed in the air. This, unfortunately, was impracticable, but he strongly urged the establishment of special hospitals and the obligatory notification of the authorities of the existence of the disease, the disinfection of their quarters whenever consumptives changed their residence and the dissemination of information to the people as to the means of avoiding and combating it.

Dr. Koch expressed his belief that the ultimate stamping out of tuberculosis was possible.

London, July 23--At the tuberculosis congress today, in an important paper on the subject of tuberculosis, Dr. G. A. Huxton, of London, paid a warm tribute to the researches of Prof. Koch. He said that the prejudice against tuberculous sputum from the ignorant of those who had attempted to use it while disregarding the explicit injunctions of the discoverer, particularly in efforts to apply it in unsuitable cases, had been one of the most frequent mistakes made to administer an overdose and to fail to reduce or suspend the application when the temperature rose above normal.

The only chance to cure consumption, Dr. Huxton asserted, was to begin in the early stages. The surest method of diagnosis was by the application of tuberculin. He expressed himself as entirely confident that this could be done with absolute safety. "Had tuberculin served no other purpose than diagnosis," said he, "it would be worthy of the highest praise and appreciation."

Prof. Koch, who was present, was warmly cheered. He spoke briefly, endorsing Dr. Huxton's observations as to the early stages. The surest method of diagnosis was by the application of tuberculin. He expressed himself as entirely confident that this could be done with absolute safety. "Had tuberculin served no other purpose than diagnosis," said he, "it would be worthy of the highest praise and appreciation."

The Daily Mail publishes an interview with Lord Lister, in the course of which he is reported to have said that he was absolutely unable to believe the statement of Prof. Koch, that human beings could not get consumption through drinking the milk of diseased cows, the evidence to the contrary being far too overwhelming. Sir Wm. Broadbent declined to say how far Prof. Koch's statement might be correct, in view of the fact that tuberculosis, while generally decreasing, was on the increase among children.

The principal paper before the congress today was read by Prof. Brouardet, of Paris, who urged international legislation in regard to the notification of the authorities of the existence of tuberculosis and the disinfection and isolation of hotels, railway cars and steamboats. Prof. Brouardet said any measures tending to limit the ravages of alcoholism would diminish the mortality from consumption.

Professor Brouardet complimented the United States on its success in reducing the dangers of expectoration and its legislation in the matter.

At a banquet tonight to Prof. Koch, Sir James Crickton Brown announced that the British authorities had appointed a commission to inquire into the relation between human and bovine tuberculosis.

TICKET SCALPING UPHELD.

New York Courts Declare Law Against It Void.

Hay Pitching Outfits!

McFarlane & Ney's Celebrated Hay Forks, Blocks and Grapples.

We make a specialty of Hay Pitching Outfits and solicit your enquiries.

W. H. THORNE & CO. LTD.

Harness and Collars.

The Horse wear we sell all over this country stands for us and we stand by it. When you buy Harness or other Horse goods where you know we are behind it. We recommend it. We supply the best of Harness from the best of leather, well made and sturdy wear. A call will convince you our prices are right as well as quality.

H. HORTON & SON, Market square, St. John, N. B.

IMPORTANT ORANGE MEETING IN TORONTO; A LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Grand Lodge of British America, and Royal Black Knights--Both Bodies Hear About Coronation Oath--James Kelly Gets Office.

Toronto, July 23--(Special)--The Orange Grand Lodge of British America opened this afternoon with a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the dominion. Representatives from Newfoundland were also present. Grand Secretary Lockhart's report showed a notable increase during the year, largely in Manitoba and the west. In all 31 lodges were authorized and there are now over 60,000 members under the grand lodge.

The coronation oath was referred to and the action of the 19 members of the dominion parliament who opposed the passage of the resolution favoring modification was strongly approved.

Grand Master Wallace, in his annual address, referred to the proposed Orange demonstration during the visit of the Duke of York to this city, as follows: "From Orangemen of the dominion, his royal highness may be assured of loyal greeting and, if occasion can be made, I would suggest our fealty and devotion be conveyed to his royal highness in some formal manner."

As to the coronation oath, Mr. Wallace said: "Any change, trivial in verbiage, of the declaration is a distinct and important triumph for Roman Catholicism, and will be the entering of the thin end of the wedge, and, that once accomplished, there will follow a ceaseless round of blows until the wedge is driven home. It is the entailment of the succession to the throne of Great Britain in a Protestant that constitutes the grand crime in the eyes of the Roman Catholic church."

In closing, Mr. Wallace announced his intention of retiring from the office of grand sovereign, held by him for 14 years.

Royal Black Knights.

Toronto, July 23--(Special)--The convention of the Grand Black Chapter of British America, Royal Knights of Ireland, opened here today with nearly 100 delegates in attendance. Among them were many grand lodge officers, including Deputy Grand Master J. C. Goss, of Shubenacadie, N. S.

Grand Master Col. T. H. Scott, of Kingston, in his annual address, recommended that a dutiful address to His Majesty King Edward be prepared and forwarded by the chapter. The grand master alluded to the coronation oath and opposed any modification of the pledge required of the king.

Will Have the Order Incorporated--Looking to Separate Grand Lodge.

Montreal, July 24--(Special)--Ogden Feders, supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, has completed arrangements for the incorporation of the order in the province of Quebec to comply with the law and he hopes ultimately to have a separate grand lodge in this province.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

Reopening of Case Against Powers for Complicity in Goebel Shooting.

IVORY MINE REPORTED FOUND AT NOME.

Returned Miner Says He Has Discovered a Fabulous Amount.

Denver, Col., July 23--Thomas McQuilley, a former Colorado miner, stopped in Denver yesterday on his way to the Smithsonian Institution, and told of a remarkable find in Alaska, the value of which he puts at a fabulous figure. It is a deposit of pre-historic ivory, which he says he found while out prospecting with a party of Indians. "While working in a gulch," he says, "we found signs of the presence of the remains of an Arctic mastodon. On further investigation we determined that we were on the scene of a titanic conflict between a number of the monsters. It was hard to determine the exact extent of the deposit, but I believe that nothing like it exists elsewhere in the world. I loaded up 1,000 pounds and succeeded in bringing it to this country."

Against American Aggression.

Vienna, July 25--Viennese shoemakers today made a most determined protest against the projected establishment of American shoe factories in Vienna. The meeting resolved to send a deputation to the minister of commerce.

Group has no terrors for the mother who keeps Bentley's Liniment in the house. 10 and 25c.

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, July 23—Councillor Orin Hayes left yesterday on a western holiday trip, expecting to be absent about two months. He will visit the larger towns of Manitoba and the northwest.

Mr. Vavoum, of the Fredericton post office, was in Sussex today.

The Bank of Nova Scotia is having an asphalt sidewalk laid round its new building.

Mrs. George Cougle, who has been living for several years in Worcester, Mass., has returned, and, with her daughters, Misses Mary and Maud, has taken a house for the summer.

There is very little improvement in the condition of Charles Morrison, who had an operation performed a week ago for appendicitis.

Sussex, July 24—The death of R. D. Robinson, of the R. D. Robinson Publishing Company, occurred on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. Robinson was 67 years of age and a native of Albert county. This journal has made one of the leading weeklies of the maritime provinces by his ability, honesty and integrity. Mr. Robinson was a man of high position and respected by all who knew him. He was a Liberal in politics. The funeral will take place on Friday at 10.30, the interment being in Kirk Hill cemetery.

A. Lancaster, M. P. for Lincoln and Niagara, arrived in town today and is the guest of George W. Fowler, M. P. N. D. Black has purchased part of the Sheriff Free lot from Patrick Doherty, of Charlottetown, and has commenced to lay out the foundation for a storey building which he will jointly use as store and dwelling.

Charles Morrison still continues very low.

Sussex, July 25—J. D. O'Connell, who recently returned from a trip to the United States, gave his annual picnic to the school children of Sussex today on his beautiful grounds. Fifty or 60 children gathered on the hillside and enjoyed all kinds of games and sports and were afterwards splendidly entertained by their host, Mr. O'Connell.

Stipendiary Magistrate Morrison is holding an inquest today in the Brampton-Armstrong shooting case. The shooting is alleged to have taken place at Waterford on Tuesday last.

J. U. Leafe, of Brewer, Me., specialist in optics, is in the village.

CAMPBELLTON.

Campbellton, July 22—Dr. James Haney has been here for a long time collecting information for his government book on the resources of the several counties. On Saturday evening, he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Davy, at an entertainment in his honor.

A large sporting party of 14's and 15's left this morning for the morning of the Kegwick. Among the members will be Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Carver, of St. John.

A small portion of the sewer system has been laid on water street.

Miss Buckleford and Miss Jesse Harris left this morning for E. J. Leafe's house to attend the funeral of his brother Herbert last morning for the Unpublished for an eight-days' trip salmon fishing.

BAYSWATER.

Among the guests at Mrs. McCre's this week are: Miss Josephine, Miss Bartlett, Captain Matthew Adams, Arthur Adams, Sr., and Arthur Adams, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Miss Selma Sheppard, Robert Stewart, W. McLeod, Miss May Thomson, Walter Logan and George McLaughlin.

Sunday last was a very busy day at the hotel, over 30 guests shared the hospitality of the genial hostess.

Walter Crank, of the steamer State of Maine, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. Warden.

Yesterday Miss Duffell was the guest of Mrs. Sandall at Oak Grove, and Miss Fairweather was the guest of Miss Sandall.

Miss McDonald was tendered a genuine surprise at Oak Grove Monday, in the form of a birthday party. The affair was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of young people present.

There was a large register list at Oak Grove Sunday.

Henry Hugh and William Morris left Monday for their homes in Glenside. They arranged to attend the funeral of their father, the late Michael Morris who was buried on Sunday last.

Raspberries are making their appearance, but shipments are few. The good prospects for a fairly good crop. Blueberries are scarce today on the coast of the county as yet, none have come over so far. It is the impression that the frost in early June damaged the blueberry crop considerably.

These are the holders shipped yesterday a load of Puritan potatoes. They were the best that had crossed the bay for some time.

Miss Mary Crocker was the guest of Mrs. Thomas Crocker, Kenbecas Island yesterday.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, July 23—(Special)—At a meeting of the governor general's reception committee this afternoon the programme arranged for last night's meeting and outlined in this morning's Telegraph, was approved. A committee was appointed to arrange details for the reception as follows: Mayor Crockett, Ald. Everett, Rossborough, Farrell, Clarke, Merrifield and Messrs. Fred H. Edgewood, George Y. Edgewood, P. S. Hildesheim and J. H. Barry. The luncheon to be given by Governor McCre will be entirely of an official nature.

Fredericton, July 24—Supt. James Osborne, of the C. P. R., tomorrow morning in company with Alex. Gibson and Capt. Holen, will make a trip over the Canada Eastern railway by special train. J. N. Sutherland, general freight agent of the C. P. R., will also be a member of the party.

John Patterson's house at Blisville, Sunbury county, was destroyed by fire Sunday. Chas. Patterson was severely burned while saving furniture.

Rev. G. H. B. Macdonald, ordained by Bishop Kingston at Bathurst Sunday, has been appointed rector of Southampton, and will take up his residence at Temple Terrace Vale, Sept. 1.

The Robinson mill, at Robinson's Point, was sold this afternoon at auction to Geo.

W. Allen for $325.

Fredericton, July 25—(Special)—Patrick Howell, of Brunswick street, fell down a flight of stairs at his home Tuesday evening and fractured several ribs. He is under the care of Dr. Steery and is doing as well as can be expected.

The Free Baptist Sunday school of Woodstock will run an excursion to this city on Tuesday next, to give Woodstock people an opportunity to see Lord and Lady Minto.

Dr. J. R. Inch, superintendent of education, will leave tomorrow for Rimouski, where he will take the Allan liner Tunisian for Liverpool, Eng. Dr. Inch will be away for two months. He will represent the Fredericton Methodist church at the Ecumenical Council, to be held at London, and will represent the University of New Brunswick at the one thousandth anniversary of the death of King Alfred, which anniversary will be celebrated at Winchester. Dr. Inch will also visit Paris and other continental cities.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating J. W. Binney, R. A. Borden and Lucy Binney, of Moncton, and Geo. E. Stodford and Lucy Stodford, of Edmundston, N. S., as the Shearwater Coal Company, Limited, with a capital stock of $30,000. The exhibition building is going up at a rapid rate. The frame work is about completed and the roof and sides are being closed in.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, N. B., July 23—(Special)—The Pan-American circus exhibited before large crowds here yesterday, and a couple of the men succeeded in getting into trouble. During the afternoon some one entered a house near the circus ground by a shed, removed the screens from a window, and stole $20 and a gold watch belonging to Miss Lizzy Tracy. Mr. Ford, one of the managers, suspected a couple of his men and passed them over to the town officers. They were before the police magistrate today and requested a trial under the speedy trial act, when one confessed to the theft and the case against the other was dismissed. The watch and $13 were recovered. The guilty one will be sentenced tomorrow.

Harry McLean, one of the South African soldiers, had his watch stolen while on the circus grounds. This watch he valued very highly, as it was a gift from the citizens after his return from the war. Today Marshall Harvey received a dispatch from Mr. Ford, dated Anderson, saying the watch had been recovered from one of the men and would be sent by express. The managers of the show are glad that they have a tough crowd of tent men.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, N. B., July 24—(Special)—The success of the proposed new pulp mill, to be erected at Morrison's Brook, Chatham, is now assured as far as the preliminary steps go. The promoters of the enterprise are now seeking incorporation under the name of the Chatham Pulp & Lumber Manufacturing Company, Limited, with a capital of $1,000,000. Among the names of those associated with the enterprise are John Maravey, Robert A. Murdoch, Jas. Robinson, M. P., and Wm. Richards. It is likely that work on the erection of the plant will be commenced this summer. The new enterprise will be a great boon for this town, especially the west end.

The Chatham World furnishes the following information additional to what the Telegraph's dispatch gave Monday morning: In re: to the Chatham pulp mill, the West says: "Mr. E. L. Winslow, as agent for the mortgagees, the Royal Trust Co. of Montreal, took possession of the mill site on Saturday. The mortgage was for $500,000, and was given to secure the payment of bonds issued by the company. Mr. Winslow said the mortgage is for $500,000, taking from the men assignments of their claims, and kept the machinists at work on repairs that had been begun. It is likely that operations will soon be resumed under new management. There are a good many large local claims for lumber. Mr. D. Sullivan's is about $60,000, being $10,000 over $4,000, and Mr. Foley's of Barnaby River, $1,400. And there are many others. Writs of replevin have been issued for the purpose of trying to recover some lots of logs that have been delivered."

MILLIDGEVILLE.

A large party of young people started on a pleasure trip on the Grand M., yesterday. The yacht, with the exception of the Grace M., are all lying at anchor, and nearly all are receiving a general cleaning after the cruise.

Mrs. S. K. Tobin, of Millidgeville, spent two days with Mrs. George McLaughlin in this week.

The shingling of the club house is about completed, and the tower is now being finished, and altogether the building rapidly approaching completion. It is expected it will be ready for guests about the last of August.

Repairs have begun on the Millidgeville road and that portion of it along the Caribou plains, is being macadamized.

E. J. Hilday, who has been visiting Miss Tobin, returned last night to his home at Port Blaigne.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, July 24—In St. John's Episcopal church here, on Monday evening, His Lordship Bishop Kingston, administered the rite of confirmation to six persons. An address was given by the bishop and Mrs. M. Dixon sang a solo during the offertory. There was a large attendance. The church and altar were very tastefully decorated with flowers.

Prof. Ganong and S. W. Kain have made visits to the "Cape Rocks," Shepards mountains, and other local points of interest of the section. They have also been making investigations concerning the old French settlement.

Leander C. Wallace, of Lower Cape, and Mrs. J. H. Barry, who returned yesterday from Nova Scotia, were warmly welcomed by the young people who treated the happy couple to a good old-fashioned chivvatie.

Miss A. Grace McCre, of this place, is visiting relatives at Moncton.

Miss Lavina Decker, who recently underwent an operation for abscess, is now much improved.

Upland hay is now well under way and some of the farmers have started in on the machines. 25000 upland and marsh grass will be a good crop.

GAGETOWN.

Gagetown, July 25—The exhibition of moving pictures last evening under the auspices of the Methodist church, was the best ever shown in the town.

The farmers are busy haying. If the River weather continues they will finish in another week.

A great many visitors are in town. Among them are Mrs. R. A. McLaughlin and daughter of Halifax, N. S., R. H. McAdo and daughter, of St. John; Miss Ida Simpson, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. McKein, of St. John; Mrs. J. R. Alexander, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Alexander of Winnipeg.

A heavy shipment of cheese was sent from the factory here last week. Raspberries and blueberries are not so plentiful as in former years.

The water lilies have never been so abundant as they are this year. Mount Creek is white with them.

MONCTON.

Moncton, July 25—(Special)—The I. C. R. employees have decided to hold their picnic this year at Derby Junction, provided cars can be produced.

A stranger, giving the name of John Arnold, aged 30, hailing from Chipman Brook, Queens county, N. S., is being held by the police here for identification. Arnold is about five feet six inches high and has a rough appearance.

DIGBY.

Digby, July 23—The new stern schooner Alexandria, recently launched at Weymouth, arrived here last night in tow of tug Marina. She will load lumber at Bear River for the West Indies, shipped by Clarke Bros.

Digby, N. S., July 24—Barquentine Frederica arrived here last night from St. John in tow of tug Flushing, and left for Annapolis this morning to load lumber for Cuba.

Big Harry Stewart, after being thoroughly repaired at Bear River, was towed to Annapolis today to load lumber for Centagoes, shipped by Clarke Bros.

The new schooner Clarence Shaffner arrived here today from Annapolis for the West Indies.

Schooner Oriole is at Turnbull's wharf discharging hard coal for New York for W. E. Van Blarcom.

Schooner Dorothy, which struck Gull Rock last winter and was beached at Westport, has been hoisted and towed to White's Cove, where she will be placed on the marine slip for repairs.

Schooner Lizzie, Capt. Wyman, which was detained off Digby for want of a number of seamen, sailed yesterday for the West Indies.

Schooner Lizzie Wharton, Capt. Holmes, arrived here yesterday from Boston and sailed to Annapolis.

Barnes W. W. McLaughlin is due here from the name of the Miramichi at Annapolis for Buenos Ayres.

AMHERST.

Amherst, July 25—In the probate court yesterday, the final accounts in the estate of the late Nelson Forrest, of Amherst, was passed. The statement of the executor by Sasiderra from the Church of St. John, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

Blanche, of Dunlop & Co., executors, Hon. W. T. Pipes, proctor, C. W. Robinson, M. P., of Westmorland, was present in behalf of some of the New Brunswick heirs.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

The will of the late J. E. Roach, of Macan, was probated on Monday, the estate was valued at $4,000 personal and $49,983.21. The amount of bequests to charities and personal, was $22,800. After expenses of settling, a balance of about $22,000 left to be equally divided among the nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces of deceased and decedent's wife.

MICHAEL KELLY DEALT OUT DEATH WITH REVOLVER

Insane Man Ran Amuck in Premises of a Lumber Company.

HE SHOT SIX PEOPLE.

One Fell to the Office Floor, and Four More Shots Were Fired Into Prostrate Body--Wounded Five Other Men Before Police Put a Bullet in His Neck.

Leavenworth, Kas., July 24—Michael Kelly, an insane man, today at the office of the Robert Garrett Lumber Company, in the business district, shot six people, killing one, probably fatally wounding another and more or less seriously wounding four others. He was himself finally killed by the police.

The victims: John R. Garrett, aged 40, president of the firm of Robert Garrett Lumber Company, died at hospital.

Michael Kelly, aged 30, died after being taken to police station.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

Joseph Faltinger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

The Healer, laborer at Leavenworth, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly has lived in Leavenworth for many years and at various times has been engaged in minor business enterprises. He was eccentric and during the presidential campaign in 1896 took his mind entirely.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

Joseph Faltinger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

The Healer, laborer at Leavenworth, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly has lived in Leavenworth for many years and at various times has been engaged in minor business enterprises. He was eccentric and during the presidential campaign in 1896 took his mind entirely.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

Joseph Faltinger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

The Healer, laborer at Leavenworth, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly has lived in Leavenworth for many years and at various times has been engaged in minor business enterprises. He was eccentric and during the presidential campaign in 1896 took his mind entirely.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

Joseph Faltinger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

The Healer, laborer at Leavenworth, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly has lived in Leavenworth for many years and at various times has been engaged in minor business enterprises. He was eccentric and during the presidential campaign in 1896 took his mind entirely.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

Joseph Faltinger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

The Healer, laborer at Leavenworth, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly has lived in Leavenworth for many years and at various times has been engaged in minor business enterprises. He was eccentric and during the presidential campaign in 1896 took his mind entirely.

Dr. Chas. McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded.

Sergeant Wm. Dodge, shot in hand, wound slight.

FOR THE TILLERS OF THE SOIL.

BROODER CHICKS.

How to Care For Them to Make Them Large and Strong.

One of the most necessary appliances connected with the poultry industry is an A. No. 1 brooder, even though a hatcher is not in use. It is an easy matter to find a number of sitting hens and by placing in the brooder the chicks hatched by them you will avoid feeding the chicks feed to the hens, and they will soon begin laying. The chicks can be cared for and raised safely, no matter what weather prevails outside the brooder. They are free from vermin and if the brooder is kept clean they will not be troubled with lice. There is no need of losing a chick if properly cared for. They will be much more tame and easier handled than those raised by hens.

For from 50 to 75 chicks a run of 20 feet is sufficient for one to two weeks, after which the chicks should be placed in a larger inclosure or allowed to run at large. It is better to have a large range, as chicks confined in small inclosures very seldom develop well, but often do develop out colored feathers in plumage, which nature provides against if they have large range. The run may be made of boards 12 inches high, a portion of which may be covered with cheesecloth. This will afford protection from wind and storms, also from the sun. It is better to have a large range, as chicks confined in small inclosures very seldom develop well, but often do develop out colored feathers in plumage, which nature provides against if they have large range. The run may be made of boards 12 inches high, a portion of which may be covered with cheesecloth. This will afford protection from wind and storms, also from the sun. It is better to have a large range, as chicks confined in small inclosures very seldom develop well, but often do develop out colored feathers in plumage, which nature provides against if they have large range. The run may be made of boards 12 inches high, a portion of which may be covered with cheesecloth. This will afford protection from wind and storms, also from the sun.

A good brooder, an abundance of the right kind of food coupled with a fair amount of common sense, will bring good results.—W. F. Brace in Reliable Poultry Journal.

Dora Stephenson, in Wisconsin Farmer, says one reason why geese are not used more in this country is because so many do not know how to dress and clean them. She has often found the remark that geese is not fit to eat, but a young goose properly cleaned is a dish fit for a king. To clean, take common wash boiler, putting two bricks in each end, and pour in a gallon of water. Make a frame of lath to fit on top of the bricks, then when the water is boiling lay your geese on the frame and put on the lid to the boiler. Steam it for about three minutes, or till the feathers come out, turning the geese when it has been in the boiler about two minutes. The feathers must pull easy, as they do when a chicken is scalded. Now get a thin sack of any kind and pick your geese into it and hang them up to dry, when they will be fit to use the same as dry picked ones. To roast, one of the patent roasting pans is best. When your geese have been hanging about two and a half or three hours, take the pan out and skim off all the fat that is melted. If the geese is young, it should be tender in four hours. The geese should be steamed over 100 last winter and sent them to the Chicago market, saving all the feathers.

Fancy and Utility.

The following extract is taken from The Inter-State Poultryman, and we use it for the good common sense it contains: The poultry publishing business has advanced the progress of the poultry industry of the country. There are nearly 100 poultry journals printed in the United States, and there are many more in the making. For very able papers devoted to this particular industry. There seems to be a class between the practical and the fancy poultry press, a condition which should not exist. The practical poultry press does not believe in scrub stock, but advocates the breeding of the best poultry and the improvement of stock more for utility in meat and egg production than the particular marking for feathers, combs, ear lobes, etc. As the breeding of thoroughbred poultry advances this theory will prevail. It is our opinion that the time is not far distant when poultry must take its place on the pedigree list the same as horses, cattle, hogs and sheep. Certain general markings will be required, but the main points to be reached will be quantity and quality of meat and eggs. We suggest that the leading breeders of the country turn their attention in this direction and let America be the first to place the poultry industry in the catalogue where it belongs.

Too Much Fat.

Texas Farm and Ranch says: It is our experience that chickens cooped to fatten, if liberally fed, soon begin to lose appetite and will eat less and less the longer they are confined, just as a man would or any other animal. The hens will remain in the condition they are in when the appetite fails, but will hardly take on more fat. By the way, fatty birds are hard to digest, and a hog can eat a beef can. This is all right if grease is what is wanted, but all wrong if flesh is wanted. Hereafter we shall not coop fowls to fatten, but place them where they can have ample exercise to insure good digestion, good health and good appetite. When an animal is too fat, it is diseased. Without exercise the effete matter cannot be eliminated and passed off, the pancreas are overstimulated, the liver overworked and congested, and we don't want that sort of animal food.

PRUNING SHRUBS.

To Prolong the Flowering Season. The Right Time to Prune.

That a good deal can be accomplished in the way of prolonging the flowering season of shrubs by judicious pruning I have often observed. Some years ago a neighboring florist had a row of Hydrangea paniculata grandiflora badly mutilated by a heavy hail storm about midsummer, when the young growth was about a foot in length. Practically the plants lost nearly all their tops. As the growing season was still on a new growth started, and a late crop of flowers was the result, perfecting their heads nearly a month later than usual. The late summer blooming sprays, such as tomentos, billardii, nobiliana, paniculata and callosa, will often flower freely in July if cut well back in spring. Let alone, they flower in June and July, but under the pruning plan flowers come in September.

Nurserymen sometimes make late plantings of shrubs, among them weigelas, planting them after growth has well started. Their plan then is to cut down the shrubs nearly to the ground. Strong shoots are the result, and with weigelas it is not uncommon for these late in the season. Those who wish to try this plan should have more than one shrub of a sort, as it is not worth while destroying the sprouts, which have been the first to call attention to this, says Joseph Meehan in Country Gentleman, and I was certainly not the last, and it has been kept before the public for many years. It is a pleasure to find the practice now general, where, as some years ago shrubs were pruned in winter or early spring, and with it went most of the shoots which would have given flowers. Now a good cutting back is given as soon as flowering is over. Strong young shoots are then developed, which are those we look for our next season's display.

The Fumeuses Apples.

Of all the types among our cultivated American apples the Fumeuse is one of the most prominent, persistent and important. Fumeuse is a native of the United States, and is a favorite dessert apple almost everywhere and is one of the most profitable commercial varieties in several important apple growing districts. It has been called the Chalmers apple in Vermont and is part of the Jonathon apple on lakes Erie and Ontario. The Jonathon type of apple seems also to be somewhat related to the Fumeuse, and facts are gathered from the fact that such varieties of Fumeuse and Jonathon are gathered from the same tree to extend the range of the Fumeuse type into sections where Fumeuse itself has not taken the lead.

The apples in general are finely colored,

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH. An eight-page paper and is published every Wednesday and Saturday at $1.00 a year, in advance, by the Telegraph Publishing Company, of St. John, a company incorporated by act of the legislature of New Brunswick.

ADVERTISING RATES. Ordinary commercial advertisements taking the run of the paper: Each insertion $1.00 per inch. Advertisements of Wants, For Sales, etc., 50 cents for insertion of six lines or less.

NOTICES OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS 25 cents for each insertion.

IMPORTANT NOTICE. Owing to the considerable number of complaints as to the misarrangement of letters alleged to contain money remitted to this office we have requested our subscribers and agents who send money for the Telegraph to do so by post office order or registered letter, in which case the remittance will be at our risk.

FACTS FOR SUBSCRIBERS. Without exception, names of new subscribers will not be entered until the money is received. Subscribers will be required to pay for papers sent them, whether they take them from the office or not, until all arrears are paid.

THE VALUE OF EDUCATION. So much is being written now on the question of the value of higher education from the purely monetary standpoint, that it is pleasant to run across a sounder exposition of educational theories such as Dr. Thwing's, a prominent American educationalist, has set forth in a recent address, delivered at the National Educationists' Convention, which met at Detroit.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

of a Russo-Indian empire—that is provided the conquest was permanent and real. He does not think, however, that such is possible. He holds that the breaking of the British power is not enough, as it would only result in intertribal revolts and conflicts, and, consequently, Russia would gain nothing by its conquest.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

of a Russo-Indian empire—that is provided the conquest was permanent and real. He does not think, however, that such is possible. He holds that the breaking of the British power is not enough, as it would only result in intertribal revolts and conflicts, and, consequently, Russia would gain nothing by its conquest.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

of a Russo-Indian empire—that is provided the conquest was permanent and real. He does not think, however, that such is possible. He holds that the breaking of the British power is not enough, as it would only result in intertribal revolts and conflicts, and, consequently, Russia would gain nothing by its conquest.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

A RUSSIAN VIEW ON INDIA. A pamphlet on India, by the well-known Russian writer, M. Sobolev, has attracted considerable attention. It differs very materially from the general tone of Russian articles on this subject.

THE WASTE OF IT. One cannot read of the losses which are daily occurring in connection with the strikes now going on without feeling how deplorable is the waste thus brought about. The employers and employees lose what cannot be made up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Canada is threatened" with a bisection, if the shrewd Cuneo can be induced to put his dough into a combine.

A MEANINGLESS TAUNT. It will be admitted that the functions of an opposition are not to hinder the government, but rather to criticize measures which they are brought forward, or as they are administered.

IS AN AMERICAN-BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF POSSIBLE? United States politicians are more or less worried at the hostile attitude of some European powers in increasing their tariff on certain products.

A SECRET WORTH TELLING. A section of the Liberal party in Great Britain in common with Boer sympathizers in other countries has been attempting to point the finger of blame against the empire for the prolongation of the war in South Africa with its attendant horrors and sacrifices.

SUMMARY OF WINNINGS OF THE CANADIANS.

What Each of Our Men at Bislei Won for Himself and the Team. Toronto, July 23.—(Special)—The Telegram's special cable from Bislei camp says: Following are the sums won by each member of the Canadian team for himself and team:

Table with columns: Name, Individual, Team. Lists names like Armstrong, Pte., Toronto, 4.0 and 4.10, and others.

TEN THOUSAND BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

Great Gathering in Convention at Chicago--To Establish a Paper. Chicago, July 24.—Five thousand delegates to the eleventh annual international convention of the British Young People's Union arrived during the day, and twice that many more are expected tomorrow.

DIED FROM WOUNDS. Gloucester, Mass., July 23.—The bullet wounds inflicted upon himself with suicidal intent by Albert Thayer last Wednesday morning, proved fatal today.

BRITISH COMMONS. Lord Cranborne Makes Statements Relative to Warships at Shanghai. London, July 23.—In the house of commons today Lord Cranborne, parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, assumed the role of the Chinese ambassador and in no wise prejudicial to supremacy on the Yangtze region or involved any alienation of territory.

PHILIPPINE OUTLAW'S SENTENCE. Washington, July 25.—Reports of the trial and conviction by military court martial in the Philippines of natives charged with all manner of crimes continue to be received at the war department.

DIFFICULT DIGESTION. That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers can't get their food down, but simply because they must.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

THIS COURT RECOGNIZES SHIRT WAISTS. The shirt waist was recognized as a legal article of masculine attire in the circuit court of St. Louis recently by Judge Tully.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

TOOTH AND COMPANION DROWNED. Matane, Que., July 24.—(Special)—Dr. Rioux, unmarried, dentist, aged about 29 years, belonging to Sherbrooke, and Miss Dechard, about 24 years, of Compton, capsized from a small boat here today and both were drowned.

$10 Suits to Order $10

We are showing a large range of cloths, from which we will make you a suit-to-order for ten dollars. This is a very special offer, as the goods cannot be bought ready-made for less than $12.00 to $14.00.

J. N. HARVEY, 199 UNION STREET St. John, N. B.

Keep the Flies Out Fly Screens and Screen Doors. Also—Don't buy a Mower or Rake till you have seen The McCormack.

A. M. ROWAN, - 331 Main St., N.E.

U. N. B. MATRICULATIONS.

In the matriculation examination held recently throughout the province, 74 candidates presented themselves, of whom three passed in the first division, 28 in the second division, 19 in the third division, 12 passed conditionally, and 11 failed.

Division I. The successful matriculants are as follows: Anna J. Purdy, Fredericton Grammar School.

Division II. Clara G. Turner, Fredericton Grammar School. J. D. McCarthy, Fredericton Grammar School.

Division III (conditional). Louise R. Copp, Moncton Grammar School. Harry H. Ayr, Moncton Grammar School.

Eleventh Grade Syllabus. Mary R. Kelly, Fredericton Grammar School, Division I.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

Division III. John E. Palmer, Fredericton Grammar School. Wm. W. L. Saker, Chatham Grammar School.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Workmen began excavating yesterday, the start of the new annex to the jail.

The wholesale and retail grocery stores will close on Saturdays at 1 p. m. on September 1.

Rev. J. A. Richardson and R. E. Coupe are delegates to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's convention at Detroit.

St. Peter's church picnic will be held during the week of August 12, at Torriburn.

A new survey of the Simonds and Turnbull estates is being made in the North End.

The attention of Game Warden Beckett has been called to the illegal killing of ducks near Grand Lake.

The river is now at its lowest this season and seamen exercise caution in passing over shoal parts.

Morris O'Neill, of Irishtown, was badly injured Wednesday by falling from a house on which he was working.

It was unusually quiet in police court circles yesterday, as there was no business before the court.

The sale of the Shore Line Railway will take place on August 10th, on which date Russell Sage will be here to attend the sale.

There will be a reunion of the Howland family at St. Andrews, the day of the month. Mayor Howland, of Toronto, expects to be present at it.

Salmon fishing in the bay is about over for the season, but the harbor fishermen are still getting some. One boat captured 100 good sized fish yesterday.

Constable Beckett, deputy game warden, returned Wednesday evening from Spoo Island, where he had gone to investigate a charge of illegal duck shooting. His visit was without results for no positive proof was attainable against any one of the parties accused.

The weather was so cool on Wednesday night that the brakemen on the I. C. R. might think found it necessary to turn on the steam in the passenger cars as the passengers were beginning to feel cold. The mercury fell below 60 without any cooling.

The first three St. John students in the university matriculation examinations with good percentages are: Geraldine H. Lawson, 65.7; Marc A. Perkins, 64.1; Willard B. Smith, 62.6. Miss Perkins made the highest marks in the mathematical subjects—83 out of a possible 100. Miss Lawson came next with 188.

An alarm of fire was rung in yesterday morning from box 122, the first alarm from that box since the big fire of two years ago. The blaze of yesterday morning originated in a rag yard in the vicinity of Norwood's lot, over F. New & Son's establishment, by some one dumping a pan of live ashes in the barrel.

The Tourist Association has received from W. B. Skilling, of St. Martins, a number of pictures of that place. There are shown the breakwater, the beach, the mill and the lake. There are also pictures of the headland taken in winter, Quaco harbor and others. The work is well done. The pictures are on exhibition at the tourist information bureau, Prince William street.

The claim of Capt. Chas. MacGregor Roberts against the steamer Pawnee will be soon before the admiralty court. This is a claim for damages because of the collision in the bay, a short distance from the entrance to the harbor. Under the same suit come some other claims regarding cargo, personal property and injuries, which will probably be tried next week.

The New Brunswick Eastern Baptist Association convened with the Halifax Baptist church yesterday at the residence of Rev. Mr. Edson; Moderator, Rev. Mr. Edson; clerk, W. W. Emmons; assistant clerk, W. H. Smith; treasurer, A. A. Perry. Rev. Mr. Hunt, Rev. Mr. McArthur and Rev. B. H. Thomas, new ministers, were welcomed.

George Carvell, of the I. C. R., who has returned from Buffalo, announces that the I. C. R. and Grand Trunk have united in opening a joint agency in the Buffalo station near the entrance to the train shed. It is conveniently located. Passengers travelling by these roads deposit their tickets on arrival, and have them returned before returning home.

Yesterday night a thief entered Mr. Tarleton Ketchum's house on Water street, West End, through a window, lighted a lamp and began rummaging through the house. Mr. Ketchum was awakened and on his calling out, the light was blown out and the thief made his escape. A small sum of money was taken.

Bishop Kingston visited the North Shore this week and in many of the places administered the rite of confirmation. On Sunday he held a special ordination service at Bathurst, when Rev. G. B. McDonald and C. R. Quinn were elevated to the priesthood. A new church was also consecrated at Tatagouche and his lordship took part in several other important ceremonies.

Rev. H. Cormier, pastor at Silver Falls, will hold a monster garden party at Moosehead Park on the afternoon and evening of Aug. 21. Arrangements are being made for special conveniences to take people to the grounds. Bicycle races, the most of the most athletic events which will be held.

On Sunday next, the 43rd anniversary of the dedication of Zion church will be observed. The Rev. William H. Harvey, Congregational minister at Sheffield, will preach at 11 and 7. Mr. Harvey has the reputation of being an excellent preacher, and the services of the day are looked forward to with much interest. Special music will be rendered.

The Telegraph learns that E. G. Evans, C. E., is succeeding as rapidly as possible with the survey for the railway from New Brunswick to the coast.

The coal fields of Queens and Sunbury are being surveyed by the Geological Survey of Canada. The plans are now completed, and tenders for the construction of this section will be asked

The Shore Line train is again running on schedule time. The repair work accomplished by the men was done very fast. On Saturday last the West Mountain bridge was burned, on Sunday morning a special train was derailed, and despite these inconveniences on Wednesday afternoon the special engine was in working order the bridge was built and the train was running on regular time.

At the request of F. S. Harding, of the department of marine, the tug Neptune, Captain Thomas Clark, steamed to a point about a mile to the westward of the Black Point wharfing buoy yesterday and found, at low tide, part of the wrecked schooner Roland's mast projecting about five feet out of the water. A line was fastened to the mast and the spar was pulled clear to the water. In the haul, the main boom and gaff, with some of the mainmast and gear, also drifted clear and was towed into port by the tug. The vessel is said to be in about 12 fathoms of water.

Word was received from down the coast yesterday that an elderly woman named Mrs. French had left her home near New River, on Thursday of last week, saying she was going to fish, and was not seen until Monday, though parties in the neighborhood were searching for her. She came to the home of Mr. Giles at Three Brooks, Monday, worn out, her clothing torn from her, her face scratched and bruised. Mrs. Giles cared for her.

Many local ex-members of B. Troop, fourth squadron, second Canadian contingent, will be interested in knowing that John Lobban has been once more returned to the Cape. From Boston, last winter, he applied for membership in the Canadian force to join the South African expedition, but was refused admittance owing to the fact that he was married. However, he managed to secure a position as steward on the troop which conveyed the men to Africa and, landing at Cape Town, succeeded in securing another good civilian position without any difficulty.

The government steamer Lansdowne, Captain Bisect, arrived in port about noon Thursday, from Halifax and was ordered to proceed to the Black Point wharfing buoy and make an attempt to pull the mast out of the schooner Roland, recently sunk by the steamer Pawnee. Captain Bisect found the device and made fast to the stump of the mast a couple of times, but the ropes parted and the steamer was obliged to come to port. The pieces of the mast are dangerous to navigation and it is thought that the Lansdowne will make another attempt today to remove them.

A few, a very few, have weakened under the combined influences of threats, promises, bribery and lies; the rest are standing firm as the rock of Gibraltar, so that from St. John to Vancouver there are not today a dozen foremen at work who were at work the day of the strike was called.

Even north and west of Toronto, where the company assesses the strike is over, a large proportion of the men are still unaltering in their support of the committee, and on the Owen Sound branch nine gangs who had, as they assert, been induced by false representations to go to work, sent in their resignations again on Monday morning, July 15, and joined their brothers and sisters in the support of the committee to the end. Members of other orders have informed us that they consider their personal safety is imperilled and that they are prepared to follow under existing circumstances, as the track is fast getting to the state when the running of trains is impossible. Something should be done to stop this rapidly becoming dangerous and life is in danger.

In undertaking to put ourselves on an equality with the class of railway employees, we are doing right; our men are not receiving a just share of the wealth created on any of the roads; and we are not getting the same pay as the men of other orders who have informed us that they consider their personal safety is imperilled and that they are prepared to follow under existing circumstances, as the track is fast getting to the state when the running of trains is impossible.

Miss Jean Neil, of Fredericton, is visiting Mrs. W. W. Alden, at Riverview.

Miss Golding, of Fredericton, is visiting Miss Grace Estey, Garden street.

Miss Annie E. Gallivan, of Fairville, is the guest of Mrs. John Saunders, Florenceville.

Miss Lynch, of this city, is visiting the Misses McLaughlin, Florenceville.

Miss Annie L. Gallivan, of Fairville, is visiting F. Gallivan, Chatham.

James Barnes, M. P., is in the city.

C. R. Palmer, of P. C. R., Moncton, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Langley, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. McMullin, Woodstock.

Rev. Owen Walsh, C. S. S. of Roxbury, Mass., formerly of St. Peter's church, is in the city.

Mrs. W. E. Scully, Carleton, and two children, will leave for St. Pauls, Minn., today to visit her sister and brother.

James and Frank Henry, of Picton, N. S., are at the Dufferin.

Mrs. Mabel Jordan, of this city, is the guest of Dr. E. S. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Woodstock.

Miss Fairweather, of this city, is the guest of Misses Peter, Gagetown.

Rev. R. P. McKim is the guest of Rev. R. McNamara, Gagetown.

Mrs. Sydney Welton, of this city, is visiting her brother, W. H. Curry, Windsor.

L. Stewart Milligan is here from New York, visiting his brother, C. J. Milligan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, of this city, are visiting relatives in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keenan, formerly of this city, are in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wade are visiting relatives in St. Andrews.

Miss Healy Holt, of this city, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hugh Ladgate, St. George.

The Halifax papers are sore and they are taking it out of the Alerts. The Herald professes its report of Thursday's ball game with the Alerts, "Scene Disgrace Ball Field, St. John Alerts Give an Exhibition Yesterday that Disgusted the Spectators, Bred Snakes Unleashed and Welter Thrown at Assault O'Neill." The Chronicle's modest effort is "Eighters, Not Ball Players," "Bred, Welter, and Struggle to Buy Jimmy Whelby came in for the worst of it. But it's hard to lose on your own ground, anyway."

The Dominion Educational Association will hold its triennial session at Ottawa on August 10th, 11th and 12th. Among the eminent educationalists who are to participate in the programme are Prof. Britton, of the Federation Normal School, who will speak upon Educational Problems in New Brunswick, Solvay and Unsworth; Principal Mallin, of the Normal School, who speaks upon the Normal School—Some of its Functions, and Dr. H. S. Bridges, of St. John, who will discuss the subject. Attention—How It Can be Secured in the School Room.

Perwick Camp Meeting. There will be open on August 9, at Berwick, N. S., the annual gathering of the Methodist Camp Meeting, to be held on Nova Scotia, closing again on Friday, August 11. Services, camping family exercises, prayer meetings, proce. g. meetings for juniors, Bible readings and all services will be held one day, except Sunday, when the grounds will be closed to the public and no admittance will be provided for except to residents of the management, there being no public services on that day. Excelsior accommodations can be had, but these visiting friends are subject to the regulations. The president of the association is Frank Woodbury, Halifax, and the secretary, Rev. J. M. Fisher, Rose Bay, N. S.

Thousand's Want Homes. El Reno, O. T., July 25—Yesterday's registration at El Reno was 10,886. Up to date 102,229 have registered here. Last year yesterday registered 2,406, making the total for that place 27,246. Grand total 131,975.

C. P. R. STRIKE.

Letter from a Fairville Trackman on the Situation.

To the Editor of The Telegraph: Sir,—Five weeks have passed since we suspended work. Our position is stronger today than it ever has been, notwithstanding the fact that the majority of the news papers have been publishing to the world daily "the strike has fizzled out;" it is not so. The boys are standing firm and are advising our committee that they will remain out six months if it were necessary, and will not return to work unless the officials make a fair settlement and concede to us the same recognition they have accorded to all other classes of employees.

The company has made and are making desperate efforts by their detective methods to influence our men to degrade and defeat ourselves by returning to work without having the wrongs we struck against redressed. They have been unsuccessful except in very few cases in causing any of the members of the order to prostitute their manhood. The only way they have been able to secure any one to take our places on at least four-fifths of the system, although they have been offering from $2 a day to $1 per hour for men to do the work we have been doing. The few they have employed are either inexperienced men, or men who have been blacklisted on account of unemployment, drunkenness or other offences, and the work done by them will not enable the company to run trains very long. They are running hand cars, promises, bribery and lies; the rest are standing firm as the rock of Gibraltar, so that from St. John to Vancouver there are not today a dozen foremen at work who were at work the day of the strike was called.

Even north and west of Toronto, where the company assesses the strike is over, a large proportion of the men are still unaltering in their support of the committee, and on the Owen Sound branch nine gangs who had, as they assert, been induced by false representations to go to work, sent in their resignations again on Monday morning, July 15, and joined their brothers and sisters in the support of the committee to the end. Members of other orders have informed us that they consider their personal safety is imperilled and that they are prepared to follow under existing circumstances, as the track is fast getting to the state when the running of trains is impossible.

Something should be done to stop this rapidly becoming dangerous and life is in danger.

In undertaking to put ourselves on an equality with the class of railway employees, we are doing right; our men are not receiving a just share of the wealth created on any of the roads; and we are not getting the same pay as the men of other orders who have informed us that they consider their personal safety is imperilled and that they are prepared to follow under existing circumstances, as the track is fast getting to the state when the running of trains is impossible.

Miss Jean Neil, of Fredericton, is visiting Mrs. W. W. Alden, at Riverview.

Miss Golding, of Fredericton, is visiting Miss Grace Estey, Garden street.

Miss Annie E. Gallivan, of Fairville, is the guest of Mrs. John Saunders, Florenceville.

Miss Lynch, of this city, is visiting the Misses McLaughlin, Florenceville.

Miss Annie L. Gallivan, of Fairville, is visiting F. Gallivan, Chatham.

James Barnes, M. P., is in the city.

C. R. Palmer, of P. C. R., Moncton, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Langley, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. McMullin, Woodstock.

Rev. Owen Walsh, C. S. S. of Roxbury, Mass., formerly of St. Peter's church, is in the city.

Mrs. W. E. Scully, Carleton, and two children, will leave for St. Pauls, Minn., today to visit her sister and brother.

James and Frank Henry, of Picton, N. S., are at the Dufferin.

Mrs. Mabel Jordan, of this city, is the guest of Dr. E. S. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Woodstock.

Miss Fairweather, of this city, is the guest of Misses Peter, Gagetown.

Rev. R. P. McKim is the guest of Rev. R. McNamara, Gagetown.

Mrs. Sydney Welton, of this city, is visiting her brother, W. H. Curry, Windsor.

L. Stewart Milligan is here from New York, visiting his brother, C. J. Milligan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, of this city, are visiting relatives in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keenan, formerly of this city, are in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wade are visiting relatives in St. Andrews.

Miss Healy Holt, of this city, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hugh Ladgate, St. George.

The Halifax papers are sore and they are taking it out of the Alerts. The Herald professes its report of Thursday's ball game with the Alerts, "Scene Disgrace Ball Field, St. John Alerts Give an Exhibition Yesterday that Disgusted the Spectators, Bred Snakes Unleashed and Welter Thrown at Assault O'Neill." The Chronicle's modest effort is "Eighters, Not Ball Players," "Bred, Welter, and Struggle to Buy Jimmy Whelby came in for the worst of it. But it's hard to lose on your own ground, anyway."

The Dominion Educational Association will hold its triennial session at Ottawa on August 10th, 11th and 12th. Among the eminent educationalists who are to participate in the programme are Prof. Britton, of the Federation Normal School, who will speak upon Educational Problems in New Brunswick, Solvay and Unsworth; Principal Mallin, of the Normal School, who speaks upon the Normal School—Some of its Functions, and Dr. H. S. Bridges, of St. John, who will discuss the subject. Attention—How It Can be Secured in the School Room.

Perwick Camp Meeting. There will be open on August 9, at Berwick, N. S., the annual gathering of the Methodist Camp Meeting, to be held on Nova Scotia, closing again on Friday, August 11. Services, camping family exercises, prayer meetings, proce. g. meetings for juniors, Bible readings and all services will be held one day, except Sunday, when the grounds will be closed to the public and no admittance will be provided for except to residents of the management, there being no public services on that day. Excelsior accommodations can be had, but these visiting friends are subject to the regulations. The president of the association is Frank Woodbury, Halifax, and the secretary, Rev. J. M. Fisher, Rose Bay, N. S.

Thousand's Want Homes. El Reno, O. T., July 25—Yesterday's registration at El Reno was 10,886. Up to date 102,229 have registered here. Last year yesterday registered 2,406, making the total for that place 27,246. Grand total 131,975.

ST. JOHN LUMBER CASE.

British Court Decision an Interesting One to Traders in Timber.

Mediterranean S. S. Co. vs. Mackay.

On Saturday last, in the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, the case of the Mediterranean and New York Steamship Company—was heard as a Liverpool in February last before Mr. Justice Backwell and a special jury—came again before his lordship for further consideration.

This was an action brought by the plaintiffs, a Liverpool shipping firm, to recover from the defendants, A. F. & D. Mackay, 10 Canada Dock, Liverpool, the sum of £175 15s. 3d., balance of freight on a cargo of timber shipped per the "Polonia," from St. John, New Brunswick, to Liverpool. The net freight amounted to £1,525 15s. 3d., towards which the defendant firm had paid £1,750, and they claimed to be entitled to recover the balance against alleged short delivery of goods. It appeared that the charter party provided for the payment of freight on direct measurement on the quantity of timber delivered, as ascertained at the port of delivery. The special jury at Liverpool found that the quantity shipped, as shown by the bills of lading and that delivered, and the case was adjourned to London in reference to the price at which the question of shortage should be decided.

His lordship, in giving judgment, said he must find for the defendants, and he was two questions for his consideration. The first one was a question of freight, and the second was that of the counter-claim, and his opinion on the counter-claim was that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements. And he found that the defendants were entitled to judgment upon both. It seemed to him that the real answer to the claim was that the shipowner had done his duty. And he found that the accuracy of which he might, if he had liked, have ascertained. But the shipowner had not verified the bill of lading, which was done by a tally clerk. And he found that the bill of lading should be corrected to show the quantity delivered.

The freight was payable on the invoice measurements of the quantity delivered, and not on the tally measurements

ARRIAGES

W. M. Bacon, James Maxwell... W. M. Bacon, James Maxwell...

DEATHS

At Drury Cove, on July 27... At Drury Cove, on July 27...

SHIP NEWS

PORT OF ST. JOHN

Arrived. Tuesday, July 23... Arrived. Tuesday, July 23...

FOREIGN PORTS

Port Spain, (previous to July 13)... Port Spain, (previous to July 13)...

CANADIAN PORTS

Halifax, July 23—Arr British cruiser... Halifax, July 23—Arr British cruiser...

SPORTS

St. Stephen, N. B., July 23. (Special)... St. Stephen, N. B., July 23. (Special)...

LIST OF VESSELS BOUND TO ST. JOHN

Steamers. Piqua, from Gibraltar via New York... Steamers. Piqua, from Gibraltar via New York...

Shipping Notes

The schooner Fred. H. Gibson has been... The schooner Fred. H. Gibson has been...

Chicago Man's Queer Flying Machine

Horseless carriages will not fit for... Horseless carriages will not fit for...

WHY CROUP IS FATAL

When croup attacks your child you... When croup attacks your child you...

Roosevelt for President

Kansas City, Mo., July 25—Fifty... Kansas City, Mo., July 25—Fifty...

SPORTS

off and resulted in a very close... off and resulted in a very close...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

Mrs. Frances H. Warrington

Digby, July 24.—The death of Mrs... Digby, July 24.—The death of Mrs...

A DEED OF SEPARATION

They were neither of them bad. On the... They were neither of them bad. On the...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

A DEED OF SEPARATION

They were neither of them bad. On the... They were neither of them bad. On the...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

A DEED OF SEPARATION

They were neither of them bad. On the... They were neither of them bad. On the...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

A DEED OF SEPARATION

They were neither of them bad. On the... They were neither of them bad. On the...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

A DEED OF SEPARATION

They were neither of them bad. On the... They were neither of them bad. On the...

OBITUARY

Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon... Charles Wesley Cassidy. The death occurred Tuesday afternoon...

James Byrne, Charlottetown

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)... Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 23. (Special)...

Thomas Allen

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston... Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston...

Edward Tweedie

Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward... Moncton, July 23. (Special)—Edward...

Lawrence Grossett

Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett... Lawrence Grossett, son of Phillip Grossett...

Joseph Hampton

Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side... Mr. Joseph Hampton, the west side...

Lorenzo McLeod

Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose... Mr. Lorenzo McLeod, a farmer, whose...

Miss Sarah E. Kimball

The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y... The death occurred in Brooklyn, N. Y...

Senator G. W. Allan

Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan... Ottawa, July 24.—Senator G. W. Allan...

Advertisement for Parson's Pills, featuring a circular logo and text describing the medicine's benefits.

Advertisement for Parson's Pills, featuring a circular logo and text describing the medicine's benefits.

Cure Soap
For Sanative Uses.
Its remarkable germicide, cleanser, and disinfectant properties, make it the most perfect soap for all purposes. It is especially adapted for use in hospitals, hotels, and public buildings. It is also the best soap for the skin, and is recommended by all the leading medical authorities.

WANTED.

Agents--Our Memorial Edition--
"Life and Times of Queen Victoria," is now ready and will be found a complete biography, covering the whole story of Her Majesty's life from the cradle to the grave. It also includes a record of the King's life and sketches of the Royal Family. It is profusely illustrated with superb half-tone engravings, printed in steel-plate, black ink on fine coated paper, among which are the Death Bed Scene, the lying in state, Funeral Procession and Burial of the Queen. We want agents everywhere to handle this Memorial Volume. Write at once for full particulars. Address: L. A. H. MORROW, 59 Garden Street, St. John, N. B.

WANTED--Teacher with a superior license to take charge of Superior School District, No. 1, Derby, Northumberland County, N. B. Apply, stating salary, to Board of School Trustees, Millerton, N. B. 7-23-01-w

WANTED--A Second-Class Female Teacher for School District No. 2, Parish of Grand Malan, N. B., coming term. Apply, stating salary to Secretary to Trustees, School District No. 2, Grand Malan, N. B. 7-23-01-w

WANTED--A Second or Third-Class Female Teacher for District No. 3, Parish of Clarendon, Charlotte County, N. B. Apply stating salary to Charles T. Bosson, Secretary to Trustees, Clarendon, Charlotte County, N. B. 7-23-01-w

WANTED--A Second-Class Female Teacher for School District No. 2, Upper Lake, Upper Loch Lomond, St. John Co. Apply to Alex. P. Johnston, Secretary, Upper Loch Lomond.

WANTED--A second or third-class teacher for District No. 1, Hantsburg, Albert Co. Apply, stating salary, to Jernigan School Secretary.

WANTED--Parties to do knitting work at home. We furnish yarn and machines. Good easy work. We pay 10c per pair for bicycle hosiery, and other work according to size. We also want a man in each town to look after our work. Write for particulars. Standard Hosiery Company, 75 Adelaide St., E. Toronto.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE--Two lots of intervals with 2000 sq. ft. opposite Upper Garden St. One lot 25 rods in width, the other 10 rods in width. Best money ever. Address: H. P. McKinnon, St. John.

FOR SALE--Fifty copies sacred Cantata "David the Shepherd Boy, in first class condition" will be sold at less than half price. This cantata was composed by one of the city's great composers, and is highly recommended for singing classes or choral societies. Apply to R. J. McEwan, care this office. 6-12-01.

FOR SALE--Marine Engine, 15 H. P. second hand, 1 do, 5 H. P. new, 2 1/2 H. P. Stationary, 1 1/2 H. P. Steam Boiler (top right), 1 Engine Lathes 15 ft., 1 set Platform Scales, 3 tons capacity, second hand. We carry in stock: Jones' Grinders, Portable Pumps, etc. Joseph Thompson Machine Works, 45-65 Smythe St., St. John, N. B. Telephone 94.

STERN, WATSON & WOOD
FREE

To introduce Dr. Weston's Improved Pink Iron Tonic Pills for making blood, for pale people, female weakness, liver and kidney troubles, nervousness, etc., we give away 1000 gold-plated watches. Ladies or Gents, slightly engraved, reliable time keeper, warranted 6 years. The Pills are 50c per box, $1.00 for 3 boxes. Send the amount and you receive 3 boxes and the watch, or write for particulars. This is a genuine offer.

DR. WESTON PINK PILLS CO.,
24 Young St., Toronto.

FERRY'S SEEDS
You know what you plant when you plant Ferry's Seeds. If you buy cheap seeds you can't be sure. Take no chances--get Ferry's. Dealers everywhere sell them. Write for 1901 Seed Annual, mailed free.

J. B. FERRY & CO.,
Winneton, Ont.

BULL-STRONG!
An Illinois Farmer said that he had lost a cow on the ground for some time. He had tried everything, but he could not find her. He also said that he had seen a man who had been carrying a large sack of money. He had seen the man carrying a large sack of money. He had seen the man carrying a large sack of money. He had seen the man carrying a large sack of money.

School, Office and Church Furniture Manufacturer.
STERLING B. LORDLY,
(Late manager of the Trinity Furniture Manufacturing Company, Ltd.)
Factory and Office,
52 Brittain Street,
ST. JOHN, N. B.

THE LOW ANIMAL MAN
Typified in the Fate That Befel Nebuchadnezzar.

HOW GOD PULLED HIM DOWN.

Brilliant Crimes Spring from Same Source as Ignoble Ones, and Strict Justice Demands They Be Punished by Same Measure.

Washington, July 21.--In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows that there is a tendency to execute brilliant faults because they are brilliant, when the same law of right and wrong ought to be applied to high places and because the sin in high places or because the sin in high places is more important than the sin in low places. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar, and he was driven from men and did eat grass as oxen.

Here is the mightiest of the Babylonian kings. Look at him. He did more for the grandeur of the capital than did all his predecessors or successors. Hanging gardens, reservoirs, aqueducts, palaces, all of his own planning. The bricks that are brought up to-day from the ruins of Babylon have his name on them, "Nebuchadnezzar, son of Nabopolassar, king of Babylon." He was a great conqueror. He stretched forth his spear toward a nation, and it surrendered. But he plundered the temple of the true God. He lifted an idol, Bel Merodach, and compelled the people to bow down before it, and if they refused they must go through the red-hot furnace crunched by lion or lioness. So God pulled him down.

He was smitten with what physicians call lycanthropy and became a wild beast, and he went out and pastured amid the cattle. God did not excuse him because he had committed the sin in high places or because the transgression was wide-reaching. He measured Nebuchadnezzar in high places just as he would measure the humblest captive.

But in our time, you know as well as I, that there is a disposition to put a halo around iniquity if it is committed in a conspicuous place and if it is wide-reaching and of large proportions. Ever and anon there has been an epidemic of crime in high places, and there is not a state or city or hardly a village which has not been called to look upon astounding forgery or an astounding bank cashier or president or the wasting of trust fund or swindling mortgages. I propose in carrying out the suggestion of my text, as far as I can, to scatter the fascinations around iniquity and show you that sin in high places is wrong whether in high place or low place, and that it will be dealt with by God who dealt with impaled Nebuchadnezzar.

All who preach feel that two kinds of sermons are necessary, the one on the faith of the gospel, the other on the morality of the gospel, and the one is just as important as the other, for you know that in this land to-day there are hundreds of men hiding behind the communion table who have no business to be there as professors of religion. They expect to be all right with God, although they are all wrong with man. And while I want you to understand that by the deeds of the law no flesh living can be justified, and I want you to know that we cannot enter into heaven, I want you as plainly to understand that unless the life is right the heart is not right. Grant in the heart the grace in the life; so we must preach sometimes the faith of the gospel and sometimes the morality of the gospel.

It seems to me there has not been a time in the last 50 years when this latter truth needed more thoroughly to be presented in the American churches. It needs to be presented to-day.

Now, look abroad and see the fascinations that are thrown around different styles of crime. The question that every man and woman has made is asked, Should crime be excused because it is on a large scale? Is iniquity guilty and to be punished of the law in proportion as it is on a small scale? Shall we have the penitentiary for the man who steals an overcoat from a hat-rack and all Canada for a man to range in he have robbed the public of millions?

Look upon all the fascinations thrown around fraud in this country. You know for years men have been made heroes of and pictured and in various ways presented to the public as though sometimes they were worthy of admiration if they have scattered the funds of banks or swallowed great estates that did not belong to them. Our young men have been dazed by the quick accumulation. They have said, "That's the way to do it. What's the use of my plodding on with small wages insignificant salary when we may go into business life and with some stratagem achieve such a fortune as that man has achieved?" A different measure has been applied to the crime of Wall Street from that which has been applied to the spoils which the man carries up Rut alley. There has been an irresistible impression going abroad among young men that the poorest way to get money is to earn it. The young man that haunting cravat says to the young man of humble apparel: "What, you only get $1,800 a year? Why, that wouldn't keep me in pin money. Why, I spend $5,000 a year." "Where do you get it?" asks the plain young man. "Oh, stocks, enterprises, all that sort of thing you know." The plain young man has hardly enough money to pay his board and has to wear clothes that are out of fashion and deny himself luxuries. After awhile he gets tired of his plodding, and he goes to the man who has achieved suddenly large estates, and he says, "Just show me how it is done." And he is shown. He soon learns how, and although he is almost all the time idle now and has resigned his position in the bank or the factory or the store, he has more money than he ever had, grades of his old silver watch for a gold one with a flashing chain, sets his hat a little further over on the side of his head than he ever did, smokes better cigars and more of them. He has his hand in. Now, if he can escape the penitentiary for three or four years he will get into political circles, and he will get political jobs and will have something to do with harbors and pavements and the romance of crime. Those are caught who are only in the prosaic stage of it. If the sheriffs and constables would only leave them alone a little while they would steal as well as anybody. They might not be able to steal a whole railroad, but they could master a load of pig-iron.

Now, I always thank God when I find an estate like that go to smash. It is plague struck, and it blazes the way for God when it goes into such a wreck it can never be gathered up again. I want it to be so loathsome and such an example to the honest young men will take warning. If God should put into money or its representative the capacity to go to its owner, there would not be a bank or a safety deposit in the United States whose walls would not be blown out and mortgages would be riven and parchment would rend and gold would shoot and beggars would get on horseback and stock gamblers would go to the almshouse.

How many dishonesties in the making out of invoices and in the plastering of false labels and in the fleecing of customers of rival houses and in the making and breaking of contracts! Young men are indoctrinated in the idea that the sooner they get money the better, and the more they get the better. There is a glitter thrown around about all these things. They look upon sin in a very different light.

And remember that the man who gets his gain by iniquity will soon lose it all. One moment after his departure from life he will not own an opera house, he will not own a certificate of stock, he will not own one dollar of government securities, and the poorest boy that stands on the street with a penny in his pocket, looking at the funeral procession of the dead cheat as it goes by, will have more money than that man who once boasted that he controlled the money market.

Oh, there is such a fearful fascination in this day about the use of credit. It has got to be so popular that the funds of others and speculate with them. There are many who are practicing this thing that iniquity. Almost every man in the course of his life has the property of others put in his hands. It has got to be so popular that money passes from debtor to creditor through his hands; or he is in a commercial establishment, and he is in the most intense responsibility; and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for the suffering goes through his hands; or he is an officer in a city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and salaries are in his hands. Murder is a serious thing, that is a sacred trust as God can give a man. It is the concentration of confidence. Now, when that man betrays that confidence, and goes to speculate with it for his own purposes, he is guilty of theft, falsehood and perjury. And in the most intense responsibility, and he is treasurer of a philanthropic institution, and money for