No City Offices To Be Built Until People Vote On the Question

Mayor and Aldermen Refuse to Discuss Matter—Does Discreet Silence Confirm Report—Available Cash But $163,000.

No city offices will be built until another vote of the people has been taken, according to information obtained by The Advertiser today. Official confirmation of all rumors to this effect is refused. Mayor Little has nothing to say on the matter, and aldermen this afternoon had not heard of this development. City officials also refused to discuss the matter.

The general silence itself is taken as confirmation of the report. Search of city records is said to have revealed the fact that there is not sufficient funds available to erect a building on the present site. The available money is said to be $200,000 short of what the council imagined it had when it authorized plans for a city hall. In addition to that, it is possible that the use of the greater part of the available money could be stopped by an injunction.

When the project was first broached it was thought that the council had $333,000 available for building purposes. According to figures given to The Advertiser by Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles considerably less than $200,000 is on hand. The sale of the former hall netted $100,000; the city council voted $75,000 more, and in 1913 the citizens voted $250,000 for a Federal Square proposition, a total of $425,000. The Spencer block, now used as city offices, cost $45,000; repairs cost $18,000, and the property across the street cost $202,250; a total expenditure of $262,250. This left only $163,000 on hand, in addition to a comparatively small amount received from the public utilities commission for the site occupied by its building.

An attempt to secure $200,000 more for building purposes was made in 1913, according to Lieut.-Col. Coles. A clause was placed in the London bill to secure the additional amount. The Legislature refused to pass the clause unless a vote of the people was taken on it.

It is therefore highly improbable that any attempt to build on the present site will be made without further authority from the people. That an attempt to secure this authority will be made was the report current today, although this was not so well substantiated as the one stating that present building plans were blocked.

Are Confident.

It is said that the members of the council favoring municipal offices on the present site have sufficient confidence in the project to submit it to the people in the belief that they will authorize an expenditure for that purpose.

On the other hand, considerable opposition to the plan is reported. Col. Coles stated that his stand on the question had been generally indorsed by persons he had met. Ald. Watkinson reported that considerable opposition to the municipal office plan had developed in the eastern part of the city.

Ald. Moorhead declares that the council has no other course open to it than to call for plans and estimates for a building across the street from the present offices.

READINESS-TO-SERVE CHARGE QUESTION OF COMPANY'S LEGAL RIGHT

Declares D. M. McIntyre, Chairman of O. R. and M. B., at Hearing of Injunction to Restrain Gas Company From Levying Charge—Judgment Is Reserved.

The Ontario railway and municipal board reserved judgment at the court house this morning in the case of Murphy vs. the City Gas Company, in which an injunction restraining the company from levying the "readiness-to-serve" charge was asked.

A. H. M. Graydon, counsel for the defendants, stated that the company acted with the utmost of good faith, and that the city did not consent or object to anything. At first, a flat charge of 85 cents was planned, but this might, it was thought, be a hardship on the small consumer, so the other method was adopted. The vast majority of the consumers, it was said, used less than 3,000 feet. The company had not charged more than 90 cents per thousand feet in any case.

Counsel for the defence stated that the board was not required to make an order before investigation to see if any hardship was caused.

Question of Legal Right.

D. M. McIntyre, chairman of the board, said that an act of Parliament fixed the gas rate. The question was whether the company had exceeded its legal right.

J. M. Donohue, counsel for George Murphy, said that the defendants had admitted taking off a charge.

Mr. Graydon said that they had not admitted taking one off, but just admitted changing them.

Mr. Donohue introduced a remark concerning the financial standing of the company.

Chairman McIntyre remarked that it did not matter what the financial standing was, it was a question of whether the company had exceeded the legal rights conferred. The matter would be determined in accordance with the material submitted.

Charged 47 Cents for Nothing.

Mr. Graydon wanted to have it made clear that a super-charge was not made.

Evidence was submitted showing that Mrs. A. Widdop, 42 Albion street, was charged 47 cents for the month ending December 15, although she was away, and did not burn any gas.

The three members of the board are D. M. McIntyre, chairman; J. A. Ellis and A. B. Ingram.

DEMANDS OF WOMEN TEACHERS WOULD ADD TWO MILLS TO TAXES

Matter Will Be Considered by No. 1 Committee Tonight.

WANT $300 EACH

Increases During 1914 to 1920 Were 33 1-2 to 90 Per Cent.

Demand by the women teachers of the city for a general increase in their salaries of $300 each will be the big business of No. 1 committee of the board of education at its first meeting of the year this afternoon. The matter was referred to the committee for a report by last year's board.

The present salaries of the women teachers, of whom there are about 200 employed in the public schools, range from $900 to $1,500 a year. Only a very few have reached the maximum by the natural increase of $100 a year. The increase now asked for would mean an addition to the wage bill of approximately $60,000, or practically two mills on the dollar in school taxes. Trustees are inclined to the opinion that the teachers are acting on the principle that "if they ask a lot they will at least get a little."

It is pointed out that between from 1914 to 1920 the public school teachers of London have received increases ranging from 33 per cent to as high as 90 per cent in a few cases.

Another feature of the situation to which attention is drawn is the fact that in other activities the increase of wages which was common during the war years has stopped and that large industrial firms which were in the habit of giving annual increases to their employees have this year discontinued the practice.

CONDITION GROWING WORSE.

WINNIPEG LIBERAL ASSOCIATION CALLS ON GOVT. TO RESIGN

Declares People Have Lost Confidence in Provincial Administration.

Winnipeg, Jan. 19.—At a meeting of the Winnipeg Liberal Association, the name by which the anti-Norris Liberals are generally known, last night, a resolution was passed calling on the government of Manitoba to resign, "because the province has lost confidence in it, as shown by the election," and "on account of the frame-up of Mr. Norris with Hon. Arthur Meighen." The executive of the provincial association was called upon to arrange for a convention to select a new provincial leader and formulate a new platform. During the discussion, which was at times somewhat animated, strong dissent was expressed to the criticisms of the government.

DIED WHILE UNLOCKING DOOR AT HIS SON'S HOME

Wm. Noble of Boulton, Aged 80, Dies Suddenly of Heart Trouble.

William Noble, aged 80 years, dropped dead yesterday outside the door of his home, 21 Belgrave avenue. Neither his son, with whom he lived, nor any other member of the family, was at home at the time. Mr. Noble had a key to the side door, so that he might get in, and was attempting to open the door when a neighbor saw him collapse on the sidewalk. His death was immediate, and due to acute heart trouble.

Mr. Noble was a native of Boulton, Ont., where he carried on business as a contractor. He was in the city for a short time on a visit to his son. He is survived by his son, Roulson Noble, of this city, and two brothers, Andrew and Robert, of Boulton. The remains will be sent to Boulton and Thursday for interment. Rev. J. T. C. Morris will conduct the services.

ATTEMPT MADE TO ASSASSINATE LENINE FAILS

Bomb Thrown At Soviet Premier's Car Kills Guardsmen.

Copenhagen, Jan. 19.—An attempt was made recently to assassinate Nikolai Lenine, Bolshevik premier of Russia, it is said, according to the newspaper Isvestia of Moscow. Lenine was proceeding to Moscow to attend the eighth soviet congress, when a bomb was thrown at his machine, killing eight guardsmen and three civilians, and wounding twenty others. The man who threw the bomb escaped arrest, it is said.

PREDICTS A BIG RUSH TO THE OIL FIELDS OF NORTH

Toronto, Jan. 19.—"There's a big time coming in the west in the spring," said Osborne Scott, general passenger agent of the C. N. R. at Vancouver, today.

"The rush to the oil fields on MacKenzie River will be one of the landmarks in Canadian mining history. The Hudson Bay Company and the Lanson, Hubbard Company are building more boats, and making every preparation to handle an unprecedented traffic when navigation opens between McMurray, the head of navigation on the Athabasca River, and the portage on the Slave River. The river opens about June 24, and that date will see a great exodus to the north.

"There will be a great time in Edmonton this year. The MacKenzie River will probably do for Edmonton what Dawson and the Yukon did for Seattle.

"The R. C. M. P. are not allowing prospectors to go into the territory before navigation opens, because there is no food."

Novel Scheme to Boost Bank Roll

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Investigations by detectives and banks have revealed that a Rochester broker, unnamed, had been making substantial profits out of the fact that a discount is charged on Canadian currency, but not on Canadian silver. The detectives learned that several times a week for several months, with $500 in United States currency, he puchased $560 of Canadian, which in Canada he changed into dimes, and deposited here at full value.

DIRECTS DELIVERY OF O'CALLAGHAN TO NORFOLK INSPECTOR

The Lord Mayor of Cork Must Appear Before Immigration Official.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Counsel for Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who arrived in the United States recently without a passport, was directed today by Secretary Wilson to deliver the lord mayor "promptly" to the immigration inspector at Norfolk.

FLAX BUILDING AT EXPERIMENTAL FARM DESTROYED BY FIRE

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Nothing remains of the flax building at the Experimental Farm but the foundation and brick chimney, following a fire which started shortly before midnight last night. Despite the efforts of members of the Ottawa fire department, under Deputy Chief Burnett, the entire building, with all its contents, was totally destroyed. It is expected the loss will be between $10,000 and $15,000.

Spontaneous combusion is believed to have caused the blaze.

Marks Of Identification On German Guns Obscured

Armistice celebrations last year may have made it impossible to obtain a complete record of the captured German field guns, now in the city's possession. On that occasion the captured ordnance was decked out with new coats of camouflage. This no doubt added to the effectiveness in the big parade, but it completely obscured the official marks on the pieces which would identify them and make it possible for the militia department to furnish their records.

Lieut.-Col. F. B. Ware, A.A.G. of this military district, has informed the city that particulars with respect to the capture of the guns have been received from Ottawa. If any of the guns in the city's possession bear the following numbers he will furnish records relating to them: 77 m.m., 27,409, captured by 18th Battalion, and 77 m.m., 8357, captured by the same unit; 105 m.m.'s, 12710 and 12736, captured by 4th Battalion; 105 m.m.'s, 5644, 27 and 186, all captured by the 18th Battalion.

An effort is being made to determine whether the city has any of these particular guns in its possession. If so, the information regarding them will be engraved on a tablet to be attached to the piece as was done with the Russian guns in Victoria Park.

ANNUAL PAYMENTS PLAN TO REPLACE FIXED REPARATIONS

Paris, Jan. 19.—Abandonment of the plan of fixing the total amount of reparations to be paid by Germany and the substitution of annual payments has been agreed upon by French, British and German delegates, says a Berlin dispatch to the Journal. The newspaper says that for a period of five years the annual payments would be made in kind, under the terms of the arrangement made.

HOUSE BUILT OF FISH BOXES IN CITY LIMITS

No Regulation Preventing the Construction of One-Roomed Houses in London.

Although a one-roomed dwelling has never been constructed in London within the memory of Building Inspector A. M. Piper, there are no regulations which would prevent the construction of such a house, he said today. Hamilton has experienced trouble with one-roomed houses, as they have brought about unsatisfactory conditions in some parts of the city. They are considering passing a bylaw to forbid the construction of such houses.

"As long as the building did not contravene the health or fire regulations it would be permissible for a person to build a one-roomed house of any material he desired in London," Mr. Piper stated. "I know of one house in the city which is built entirely of fish boxes, but it has two rooms. There are plenty of two-roomed houses constructed of a little more substantial material.

"I don't see what objection there would be to a one-roomed house," he continued. "Many people who are boarding at hotels or houses have only one room, and I do not see why this would be objectionable as a separate dwelling."

ANNUAL ELECTION OF T. AND L. COUNCIL WILL TAKE PLACE TONIGHT

Re-Election of Wm. Tite and Harry Wray Will Be Opposed.

Interest in the annual election of officers of the local trades and labor council, which takes place tonight, will centre in the selection of the secretary and the sergeant-at-arms, all the other officers having been elected by acclamation at the nomination meeting held two weeks ago.

The present secretary of the council is William Tite, who recently resigned a similar position in connection with the Labor Representation Committee after holding it for about fourteen months on account of objection being raised to his holding the two positions at the same time. He will be opposed as secretary of the T. and L. Council tonight by Delegates James Hevey and F. D. Burke.

Sergeant-at-Arms Harry Wray, who has been nominated for re-election, will be opposed by Delegate Steele.

President Frank McKay was renominated for the presidency, but declined to accept the position for another year, and J. M. McGuire was declared elected, there being no other nomination.

TELEPHONE PROBE IS ADJOURNED TO ALLOW SECURITY EVIDENCE

Witnesses for Northern Electric Company Not Ready to Proceed.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Canadian Press.—The Bell Telephone Company increase rates inquiry before the board of railway commissioners was adjourned shortly before 12 o'clock this morning until Thursday morning.

The reason for adjournment was that witnesses representing the Northern Electric Company of Montreal, who will given evidence, as to sales of material and equipment to the Bell Company, were not ready to go on the stand today. Opponents of the application for higher rates have maintained throughout the hearing that prices paid the Northern Electric Company are too high and that this is one reason the Bell Company is in need of higher rates.

The company, on the other hand, asserted that prices paid are fair and reasonable, and that as the Northern Electric Company does not come within the jurisdiction of the railway board, it could not be made a party to the case. The board ruled last week, however, that the figures asked for could be produced by the Bell Telephone Company, and asked for the presentation of particulars in regard to purchases of equipment and materials since April, 1920.

It is not certain that arguments by counsel will be proceeded with tomorrow after the taking of evidence has been completed, as it may suit the convenience of the board to adjourn until next week.

BEAMSVILLE FACTORY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Loss Is Estimated at $40,000, Insurance $11,000.

Hamilton, Jan. 19.—The Beamsville Basket and Veneer Company's plant was burned to the ground early this morning with a loss of $40,000 and only $11,000 insurance. The factory was situated in the heart of the village and the firemen had a desperate fight to keep the flames from spreading. About 75 employees will be thrown out of work as a result of the blaze.

PREMIERS TO DISCUSS INTERNATIONAL CREDITS

Paris, Jan. 19.—Premier Lloyd George intends to discuss with Premier Briand, at their meeting beginning January 25, the question of international credits, says the Echo de Paris. He has reached this decision, the newspaper declares, with the idea of remedying any economic crisis which may exist.

EARL OF MINTO IS MARRIED TO MISS COOK OF MONTREAL

Wedding Ceremony Is Performed at St. Patrick's Church Hall.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Will Leave Tonight for South Carolina to Spend Honeymoon.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—A wedding of rare interest took place this afternoon in St. Patrick's Church Congress Hall, when Miss Marion Cook of Montreal, and Morrisburg, Ont., became the bride of the Earl of Minto. The hall had been transformed for the occasion into a chapel, festooned with southern smilax, with the pew ends surmounted with sheaves of madonna lilies tied with gauze ribbons. The bride was given away by her father, G. W. Cook, and was attended by eight bridesmaids, while four small cousins, dressed in costumes of the period of Charles the Second, also attended her. The bride wore an ivory satin gown, simply draped on one side and with long skirt, sleeves falling over the hands and a rounded neck. The tulle train, falling from the waistline, was embroidered in pearls and crystals, and from her shoulders fell a train of Minto lace of Brussels applique. The train was fastened to the gown on both sides with long tassels of seed pearls and crystal beads, which dropped below the knee. The tulle veil was worn over the face and was held in place by a small bandet of pearls and crystals, with miniature orange blossoms. The bride carried the white satin prayer book her mother carried at her own wedding, and it was showered with the groom's favorite flower, white violets and white heather from the Minto estate in Scotland.

Bride's Attendants.

The bride's attendants all wore royal blue chiffon dresses, simply made in straight lines and long-waisted effect, the girdles of the same shade of blue brocaded in silver ribbon, falling to one side and forming small trains. The same brocaded ribbon was worn in the hair, in the form of a bandeau, finished at each side with small clusters of grapes of the deep tones of maroon, blue and purple. All carried large bunches of grapes of blending tones, and wore satin slippers and stockings of the same shade of blue.

The officiating priests were Mgr. Donnell and Rev. Gerald McShane.

The wedding was followed by a reception at Juniper House, the residence of F. N. and Mrs. Beardmore. This evening the Earl and Countess of Minto will leave for Aikin, South Carolina, where the honeymoon will be spent.

"LOVE MATCHES" NOT POLITICAL SCHEMES, DECLARES PRINCE

Athens, Jan. 19.—Reports that Princess Marie of Roumania was betrothed to King Boris of Bulgaria, previous rumors that she might be engaged to Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia, were denied by her brother, Prince Carol, here today.

Prince Carol objected to newspaper reports describing his own marriage to Princess Helene of Greece, and that of his sister, Elizabeth, to Prince George of Greece, as "political," and he declared them "love matches" pure and simple. He is still uncertain as to the precise date of his wedding, but expressed belief that it would take place in Athens this month, and that his sister's marriage would occur at Bucharest earlier.

Old-Timer Dies Within Sight Of Destination

Dawson, Y. T., Jan. 19.—Battling through snowdrifts and through a heavy wind with the temperature 55 below zero, Frank Wilkins, an old-timer of the Yukon, perished almost within sight of Stewart City, because his feet which had been frozen severely last winter, gave out on him. He was traversing the Yukon River from the mouth of the White River to the mouth of the Stewart River, a distance of only ten miles. A search party found his body only half a mile from the Stewart roadhouse. Marks in the snow showed he had crawled several hundred yards after his feet gave out.

U. F. O. Govt. To Centre Efforts On A Rural Credits Bill

Hon. Manning Doherty, After Careful Investigation in Western Provinces, Is Expected to Advocate Adoption of a Similar Measure to One in Effect There—Claim Made It Would Keep More Men On Ontario Farms.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—The U. F. O. Government, as far as the farmer members are concerned will likely concentrate their efforts on a "rural credits bill" at the forthcoming session.

Last session they made headway with the Ontario good roads scheme and with rural credits added to an ambitious good roads program, it is thought that the farmers will secure real results from their activities in the political arena. It is learned that Hon. Manning Doherty will likely have charge of such a bill, and that he has had special investigations made of the rural credits plan now in force in the western provinces, particularly Manitoba and Alberta.

He has also the report of a special commission on the subject. It is quite possible, too, that Premier Drury's western visit was partly to discuss with the western agriculturists the question of rural credits.

There are several plans embracing rural credits, and it is understood that the Ontario Government is merely hesitating as to which it should adopt. It is argued that rural credits would keep more men on the land in Ontario.

EXECUTIVE MEETS TODAY.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—In U. F. O. legislative circles there is a tendency to minimize the much-talked-of-dispute between Premier Drury and Secretary J. J. Morrison. Today's session of the executive of the U. F. O. called for 2 o'clock by President Burnaby, is declared not to be the result of Premier Drury's speech at Milton, but was arranged for some time ago to prepare for the meeting of the Canadian Council of Agriculture.

Premier Drury said this morning that he had not yet received an invitation to attend the meeting, and was not likely to be there if one did not come.

Hon. F. C. Biggs will attend, and will speak in the interests of good roads.

Secretary J. J. Morrision was not at the U. F. O. offices today, and it was said he had missed his train to Toronto. Whether he was going to demand a "show down," as suggested, nobody seemed to know.

Somewhat important to the situation was the statement of the U. F. O. whip, Andrew Hicks, M. P. P., who was leaving town this morning, following the recent caucus of U. F. O. members.

Mr. Hicks said: "We are not worrying about what Premier Drury says or does. I guess he can take care of himself, and I do not know of any friction between him and Mr. Morrison. We have been holding a conference during the past two days, a caucus if you like, on the business to be brought before the Legislature."

He said the legislative program would be a good one.

SOCIALISTS, IN AN EFFORT TO MAKE ARGUMENTS EFFECTIVE, PRODUCE KNIFE AND REVOLVER

Stormy Meetings at Leghorn, Italy, Due to Conflicting Views of Members of Organization — Communists May Withdraw Its Support If the Congress Disregards Recommendations.

Leghorn, Italy, Jan. 19.—Decision as to the policy of the Italian Socialist party relative to the employment of violence to secure control of the Government was expected to be reached by the organization's congress here today. It was predicted that if the moderates, or those who hold that the Socialists can attain power by parliamentary arrangements should win, the communists would withdraw from the party.

Yesterday's session eclipsed in violence all the stormy meetings held by the congress since it opened last Saturday. The tumult reached its culmination when Vincenzo Vacirra, a Sicilian Socialist deputy, advised the congress to follow the leader of the moderates.

"You wish revolution with the knife," said Vacirra, looking toward Signor Bombacci, head of the extremists, who sat in a box, and drawing a penknife from his vest pocket.

"I wish revolution by the revolver," returned Bombacci, as he pulled a revolver from his pocket and pointed it at Vacirra.

Excitement Prevails.

The incident threw the entire congress into chaos, the demonstration lasting 35 minutes.

Neither man meant to use the weapon he had drawn.

Vacirra was seemingly undisturbed by the incidents transpiring on the floor and sat down at the speakers' pulpit and calmly smoked a cigarette. There were quarrels all over the hall, and many who participated in the role of peacemakers were drawn into quabbles by remarks cast at them. "Red guards" and other epithets were passed up and down the aisles, and in the meantime the officers of the congress were trying to silence the meeting. Then simple requests, however, were lost in the shouting, and Signora Alto Balli, the woman president, who was in the chair, rang the speaker's bell without any effect whatever on the quarrelsome delegates. The disorder continued, a communist mounted the platform, Silentorian tones explained the cause of the misunderstanding, and brought order out of chaos.

TURK NATIONALISTS WILLING TO SETTLE WITH THE ALLIES

Would Be Willing to Accept Offices of Neutral Power to Mediate.

Constantinople, Jan. 19.—The Turkish Nationalists are willing to negotiate for a settlement with the Allies, according to an Angora dispatch today, quoting Haned Mouctar Bey, commissary for foreign affairs in the cabinet of Mustapha Kemal Pasha.

"We are ready to accept the good offices of some neutral power to mediate with the Allies," the commissary is quoted as declaring. "The negotiations can begin as soon as an offer is made."

DRIVE AGAINST GREEKS.

Constantinople, Jan. 19.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, leader of the Turkish Nationalists, has left Angora for Ushak for the purpose of conducting operations against Greek forces in that vicinity. Anatolian newspapers are calling upon the Nationalists to take Brusa, about 55 miles southeast of Constantinople, and drive the Greeks from Turkish soil.

Adherents of Mustapha Kemal declare the region between Panderma and Balikessir is in revolt against the Greeks. A number of Greek villages in Asia Minor are reported to have been burned by the Nationalists during the celebration following the victory they won over the Greeks recently.

TRAIN OF MISFORTUNES FOR COSTELLO FAMILY

Hamilton, Jan. 19.—Misfortune has again visited the family of James Costello, Westover, whose two children were drowned in a creek last week. It will be recalled that a 10-year-old lad, Johnny Costello, lost his life in attempting to save his 8-year-old sister Agnes, who had fallen through the thin ice. The father plunged into the icy water to rescue the bodies of the two kiddies. Now his right arm is completely paralyzed. Only recently the family lost a 2-year-old child, which was suffocated.

ACCEPTS CALL TO HAMILTON CHURCH

Rev. R. G. Peever to Assume New Duties July 1.

SUCCEEDS DR. DOUGALL

At Church Whose Membership Is Over One Thousand.

Rev. R. G. Peever, pastor of the First Methodist Church, accepted a call this morning to the Wesley Church, Hamilton, considered to be one of the finest Methodist churches in the Dominion. The church has a congregation of over a thousand. Mr. Peever will receive a salary of $2,000, with parsonage, and will assume his new pastorate on July 1 subject to the approval of the stationing committee at the general conference. Mr. Peever succeeds Rev. Dr. S. H. Dougall, formerly a pastor of the Askin Street Methodist Church.

Rev. Mr. Peever is a graduate of Wesley College, Toronto, and McGill University. Since coming to London he was given the degree of doctor of divinity in recognition of his splendid academic work. Before coming to the First Methodist Church, he was pastor of St. George's Methodist Church, Peterboro, and prior to this pastor of the McLeod Street Methodist Church, Ottawa. He also was honored by his congregation, being elected to the general conference. He is a member of the board of Alma College, St. Thomas, and vice-president of the Social Service Council and the Bible Society, and has always taken an active part in the district meetings. At the present time he is president of the Methodist Ministerial Alliance.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 19.—Radio operators in Montreal will be among those to be entertained by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce chorus next Saturday afternoon. The chorus will render a program at the chamber auditorium, where a wireless transmitter has been installed. The music will also be heard in several United States cities and on ships at sea as far as the Bermudas.

PRESBYTERY MAY UNITE CHURCHES

Committee To Consider Union of Chelsea Green and Chalmers Charges.

The matter of uniting Chelsea Green and Chalmers Presbyterian Churches was one of the chief points of discussion brought up at the session of the London Presbytery Tuesday afternoon. The home mission committee found that its funds were not large enough to give as many grants as required to the various churches. The granting of a sum of money to the smaller churches dampened sometimes the ambitions of the church. Chelsea Green Church is now without a minister, and it was thought by the presbytery to be the right time to make different arrangements in this charge.

The following resolution was passed by the presbytery in connection with the Chelsea Green Church and churches in the vicinity: "That the request of the New St. James session that the presbytery consider the case of Chelsea Green and vicinity with a view to save mission money be granted, and that a committee of Rev. D. C. MacGregor, James McKay, W. R. McIntosh, Fraser Cree and T. A. Symington with their elders, having power to consider future relations of other aid-receiving congregations, and the securing of options on sites, report later to presbytery." It was thought advisable by the presbytery, if a good site could be found, to unite Chalmers and Chelsea Green Churches.

Grant to Port Stanley.

A grant of $300 was made to the Port Stanley Presbyterian Church, that the minister might be paid the minimum salary. Following the report of the co-operation committee was received and the following resolution passed: "That in view of the recent vote taken and of the request of synodical committee that the co-operation committee continue to confer with the Methodist Church for furthering the plan whereby any group or groups are found willing to co-operate may be considered, keeping in view always the fact that any one congregation left unattached by the formation of a co-operating charge, shall not be left unprovided for.

Notice of motion to raise the presbytery clerk's salary was given. The treasurer's report was given, showing $9.05 to be in the treasury. The clerk reported having to put money in the treasury to meet bills. This was termed a "disgrace" by one of the ministers.

Co-operation Favored.

Commenting on the co-operation scheme, Rev. W. R. McIntosh said the move would soon be a national one. The majority of charges in the presbytery voted solid for the scheme. If this scheme goes through it will release a number of ministers for other districts where the need is great.

WINTER SPORTS—ALGONQUIN PARK.

The splendors of winter and the opportunities for the enjoyment of all winter sports are found in that wonderous territory—Algonquin Park. Two hundred miles north of Toronto, and one hundred and sixty-nine miles west of Ottawa, it is easy of access. WINDSOR MAN FINED FOR FALSE MEASURE

David Schwartz Pays $15 for Using Small Oyster Dipper.

T. A. Codda, government inspector of weights and measures for Windsor, and Finlay Marshall, government inspector at London, secured a conviction at the border against David Schwartz for using a false measure in his place of business. The measure was an oyster dipper, and for the offence the defendant was fined $15. He said that he secured the dipper from a Toronto firm and believed that it would hold a full pint.

Although no one has been brought to court here for such an offence it is believed that the inspectors are watching for violations of the law.

He was presented with an address and was made an honorary member of the brigade for life. Mr. Wood has been an active member of the department for 34 years and recently tendered his resignation so that a younger man might take his place.

HOUSING COMMISSION SELLS SEVEN LOTS

Although Report Previously Denied by Members.

The report that seven lots on the Hamilton road had been sold by the housing commission to Hyatt Bros. for $1,800 was confirmed today when the official minutes of the last meeting were issued. Immediately after first reports of the sale had been made they were denied by members of the commission.

The following clause in the minutes, however, tells its own story: "Hyatt Bros.' purchase. Commissioner Dennis moves, and it is adopted, that Messrs. Hyatt Bros. be allowed to purchase seven lots, viz., 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83 and 84, all facing on the Hamilton road on Pine Lawn, for the sum of $1,800."

This price is an average of about $260 a lot. An interesting statement in regard to the cost of the land is given in the same minutes by H. C. McBride, the architect for the commission. This is "based on a charge of $12 per foot frontage for Hamilton and Crescent lots, $8 per foot frontage for lots north of cross street and $7 per foot frontage for lots south of cross street," he states. The lowest price listed for a lot is $280. The particular lots which have been sold are not included in the itemized list.

Those Who Dance Must Pay the "Jazz Band"

Trade with those who pay high rent and you must pay the landlord "his bit."

We don't claim to hand you goods for nothing. We get our profit and don't deny it. The only difference on our price tag is what we would have to add on if we paid high rent—and that's some difference. The revenue from three flats above our store lets us out. No part of your dollar pays our rent. We sell for less. John A. Nash, My Jeweler, 182 Dundas street, "where you will eventually buy." b

COAL CONSUMPTION GOES UP WHEN THE MERCURY TUMBLES

Mild Weather Saved the Coal Supply Fifteen Per Cent.

Coal consumption in London has gone up as rapidly as the temperature has gone down in the last few days. According to dealers there has been a marked increase in the demand for fuel this week, and many of them are having difficulty in keeping up with their orders. This is largely because of the problem of delivery, and not because the supplies are not on hand.

The mild spell, which preceded the present cold snap, offered an opportunity of laying in reserve supplies, of which many dealers took advantage.

The saving in coal since September, as a result of mild weather, is estimated at 15 per cent by W. A. Martin, of the Martin Coal Company. "We have been able to make an accurate estimate of this, because many of our customers obtain supplies weekly. They use the fuel for the same purposes each week. By comparison with their last year's consumption, it is an easy matter to compute the saving," he said.

Mr. Martin stated that in the average household there is little variation in the amount of fuel used when the temperature ranges from zero to twenty degrees above. When the temperature is below zero it is necessary to stoke up in order to keep the homes warm, and the effect on the coal bin is noticeable. On the other hand when the mercury hovers around 25 degrees above zero, as it did until very recently, the opposite effect is noticeable. Fires are checked to the lowest possible extent and very little coal is consumed.

FARMERS SHOULD NOT PAY FOR CROSSING

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—(By Canadian Press.)—That the farmers of Canada should not always be called upon to pay the cost of additional farm crossings, asked for subsequent to the construction of a railway line across farm property, was an opinion expressed by Chief Commissioner Carvell of the board of railway commissioners during hearings of a farm crossing case at the traffic sittings of the board today.

ARMAMENT RACE ALARMS TILLERS

Alberta United Farmers Call For International Court.

EDMONTON, Jan. 18. — (Canadian Press.)—Reduction of armaments and the settling of disputes between nations by an international court received the unanimous support of the convention of United Farmers of Alberta here today. It was the first resolution to be adopted. The preamble states that the farmers view with increasing alarm the efforts made by the nations in preparing for war. A resolution was adopted, governing proportional representation and authorized the executive to secure an expert on the system at district conventions.

Reports and resolutions were discussed at the session. On three occasions, after lengthy discussion, resolutions were tabled. An attempt to raise the fees of the association was defeated, delegates stating that suffering in the province prevented many of the members paying the present amount.

An amendment proposed to allow of association officials taking part in political campaigns was vigorously opposed. Delegates held that officials should have permission to support farmer candidates. This was one of the amendments referred back to the committee.

TWO DEATHS WHEN FILM FACTORY BURNS

Ten Hurt in Fire in Manufacturing Plant At Bayonne, New York.

BAYONNE, N. J., Jan. 18. — Two persons, one a young woman, were killed and ten injured in a fire here today which swept a building housing several film manufacturing concerns.

The dead are: Miss Ethel Suckow, 24, and a man believed by the police to be Arthur Post, 21.

Miss Suckow perished apparently by jumping from a fire escape at the second floor after she had been carried through flames by a watchman, who returned to rescue other girl employees.

Exploding films hurled burning debris 200 feet, setting fire to several dwellings.

DEMONSTRATION AS D'ANNUNZIO LEAVES

TRIEST, Jan. 18.—D'Annunzio left Fiume this morning by automobile. His departure was pathetic. The poet made a long speech in the council hall, and Dr. Antonio Grossich, the provisional governor, replied. The stores were closed and there was a great public demonstration.

TELLS POLICE SHE KILLED MAN, THEN FORGOT ABOUT IT

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 18.—A woman giving the name of Lillian McJill, 29 years old, today called at police headquarters and told a story of killing a man Sunday night, placing the body under the bed and forgetting about it until today, when she started to sweep her room.

Patrolmen visited the room, in a small hotel, and found the unclothed body of a man about 25 years old.

In a written statement, according to the police, the woman admitted killing the man. She said she only knew him as "Frank," and that he told her he was employed in a saloon. They quarreled, she said, and he struck her, whereupon she procured a revolver from a dresser drawer and shot him three times in the head.

She said she had been in a dazed condition for the past two days, and insisted that she forgot the tragedy entirely until today.

U. S. WILL JOIN, ROWELL'S BELIEF

Expects Republic Will Participate in Some Form of League.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 18.—(By the Canadian Press).—That the United States will eventually join the other nations in some form of league of nations in order to avert the repetition of another world war and make sure of the success of the "great experiment," is the opinion of Hon. N. W. Rowell, one of the Canadian delegates to the recent assembly of the League of Nations, as expressed to a gathering of educationalists at Convocation Hall here this afternoon. Mr. Rowell is expected to address the Canadian Club in New York on Friday next.

In the course of his address today Mr. Rowell said:

"I have been asked many times, 'Will the United States come in?' My answer is 'I do not know.' That question can be answered by the Government and people of the United States and by that Government and people alone, and the less we or any other nation undertake either to advise or to criticise the better for all concerned. May I, however, remind you that we asked exactly the same question during the first two and a half years of the war while the people of the United States discussed and debated that issue among themselves, but finally the judgment and the conscience of the people triumphed over all opposition and the United States came in.

Energy and Enthusiasm.

"She threw herself into the conflict with such energy and enthusiasm particularly during the year 1918 as to remove all doubt as to the final issue. And she made an invaluable contribution to the decisive victory which crowned the efforts of the Allied and associated powers.

"I believe we are passing through the same experience in reference to the peace and the League of Nations, and that when the discussion and debating are finished the judgment and conscience of the American Government and people will triumph over all obstacles and that the United States will join the other nations in some form satisfactory to all concerned in order to avert a repetition of the awful horrors of another world war and to make sure the success of this great experiment of a league of nations for the preservation of the world's peace."

Entered at Beginning.

Mr. Rowell pointed out that Canada entered the war at the very beginning, not because she feared an attack on her shores, but to help to defeat a military autocracy which threatened the liberties of Europe and the peace and security of the world. Canada did not become a member of the League of Nations because of what she might get out of it, but because of the assistance she might render toward the preservation of the peace and liberty her sons had died to win.

"If we continue our co-operation with the same energy," said Mr. Rowell, "the same enthusiasm and the same unselfishness as characterized our war effort, Canada will retain the place of leadership her soldiers have won for her.

"No nation can be truly great unless she is great in soul. One cannot feed the soul of a nation on the husks of national selfishness. The soul must be nourished by the pursuit of great national ideals.

"To this supreme task the teachers of Canada are called, and on the fidelity with which they perform this task will depend in a large measure our national future."

LIKELY TO GET ON INTERNATIONAL COURT

Doherty or Foster Mentioned As Possible Nominees.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—That Canada will secure personal representation upon the permanent international court of justice to be established in connection with the League of Nations is believed here. The court is limited to seventeen representatives, and it is therefore obvious that, although each nation of the league has the privilege through its group on the tribunal of The Hague to nominate four men for the court, many will fail to secure representation at all. The fact, however, that Canada is the only member of the league on this continent will, it is believed, weigh heavily with the assembly and the council in the elections which must follow the nominations.

Two names are here mentioned in connection with the position. They are those of Sir George Foster and Hon. C. J. Doherty, both of whom were delegates to the peace conference at Versailles, and to the assembly meeting at Geneva. It is freely rumored this morning that Sir George will be the most likely nominee, and that if he secures election he will be appointed to one of the existing Ontario vacancies in the Senate. The position on the court carries with it substantial remuneration. It is not necessarily a legal position. Sir George, it is believed, would take the position, and in the event of his doing so and being elected, Lloyd Harris would likely succeed him as minister of trade and commerce.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, is also recognized as being fitted for such a position.

IMPROVED SERVICE FOR OWEN SOUND

OWEN SOUND, Jan. 18.—At the annual banquet of the board of trade tonight attended by over 300 people an announcement of special interest was made by F. M. Rutter, division superintendent of the C. P. R. For some years efforts have been made by Owen Sounders to secure improved service between this city and Toronto in the way of a parlor cafe car. Mr. Rutter informed the gathering that commencing February 1, if not sooner, the long-desired service would be given. He could not promise that it would be permanent—that would depend on the patronage it received.

Messrs. C. G. Bowker, general superintendent, Ontario lines, G. T. R.; D. J. Taylor, M. P. P., W. S. Middlebro, M. P., and Ald. C. H. Thompson also spoke. Mr. E. W. McQuay, president of the board of trade, presided.

Under the inland revenue act for manufacturing liquor 37 convictions were secured, and fines imposed amounting to $6,610. The force seized the following liquor: 22,314 bottles of whiskey, 293 bottles of gin, 52 gallons of whiskey, 1 keg of whiskey, 219 bottles of beer, 4 barrels of beer, 2 kegs of beer, 6 gallons of high wines, 6 bottles of high wines, and 64¾ gallons of alcohol, all of which was turned over to the license department.

LONDON BAILIFFS "HAVE A HEART"

No Evictions Lately Here, Is Report.

OTHER MEANS USED

In Getting Rid of Objectionable Tenants.

So far as can be ascertained, the city of London has not experienced any evictions of unemployed men and their families, particularly returned soldiers, such as is agitating Toronto at the present time. Inability to pay rent is one of the principal reasons for such occurrences, but although there is unfortunately a certain number of men in this city who are out of jobs, the position does not appear to be so bad as in some other towns, particularly in the Queen City.

Inquiry at the offices of the local division courts elicits the fact that none of the bailiffs attached thereto have, so far as the officials are aware, carried out any recent executions; but a bailiff may independently procure a landlord's warrant and put it in force without the authorities being aware of such procedure.

Nevertheless, there does not appear to be in London a bailiff of the type of the Toronto man who took an inventory of the goods and chattels of a returned soldier who was only two weeks in arrears with his rent and was daily expecting his pension from Ottawa. On the contrary, The Advertiser was told of a bailiff here who "has a heart." In the course of his duties, this officer has come across several cases of genuine distress, to which, out of his own resources, he has afforded temporary relief, thus enabling the unfortunate householder to stave off the evil day. When this benevolent individual does encounter a case of a bad and improvident tenant it will doubtless go against his grain to carry out his duty, and he will probably pass it on to some bailiff less afflicted by the milk of human kindness.

As the law stands, a landlord's warrant allows three days for the tenant to clear out with his furniture, but if he fails to vacate the premises at the end of this period he may be forcibly evicted and his goods seized. Sometimes a landlord takes advantage of this to get rid of an objectionable tenant, even when it is not so much a question of non-payment of rent.

LECTURED AT AILSA CRAIG

Dr. W. E. Baker of Toronto Addresses Short Course Students.

Dr. W. E. Baker of the Veterinary College, Toronto, lectured to the agricultural short course students at Ailsa Craig on Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance, and, as outlined by Hon. Manning Doherty at the dairymen's convention, veterinary science is likely to become a prominent subject in local agricultural teaching in the near future.

BRIAND CONGRATULATED BY LEADING STATESMEN

Paris, Jan. 19.—Premier Briand has received a number of telegrams from leading statesmen since being named head of the new French Government. Among them were messages from Prime Minister Lloyd George of England and Premiers Giolitti of Italy and Wiart of Belgium, all of whom expressed their warm sympathy and the hope hat the bonds uniting the Allies might be drawn closer.

RHEUMATIC PAINS

Are relieved in a few days by taking 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup after meals and on retiring. It dissolves the lime and acid accumulation in the muscles and joints so these deposits can be expelled, thus relieving pain and soreness. Seigel's Syrup, also known as "Extract of Roots," contains no dope nor other strong drugs to kill or mask the pain of rheumatism or lumbago, it removes the cause. 50c a bottle at druggists.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes 16 ounces of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.—London reports to Bradstreet's say that business maintains a steady, quiet tone, with little change as yet. Clearing sales of furs, drygoods and other lines are being advertised as is customary in January. There are some who think that the turn has been passed. In the produce markets hay is easier, wheat is firm. Hogs are weak under low bids, apples are slow, fresh eggs are coming in more freely. Industry is showing signs of recovery in some lines. Payments are fairly good. Some of the milk condenseries in the London district are now opening up again.

WANT AUDITORIUM FOR VICTORIA SCHOOL

Mothers' Club Indignant at Board of Education.

PROMISE NOT KEPT

Lloyd Houlding Speaker at St. George's Meeting Last Night.

A lively discussion took place at the regular meeting of the Victoria Mothers' Club Tuesday night, when the question of additions to the Victoria school came before the meeting. Last year's school board, in planning for additions to this school, included an auditorium in their estimates, and the mothers of this district are indignant that this year the plans are being made with no thought of an auditorium.

They object very strongly to this decision, as the Victoria school has exceedingly poor facilities for the holding of meetings, and at the same time it has been considered that a greater community spirit exists in this school district than any other in the city. The mothers in this district are anxious to make the Victoria school a live community centre, and already their average attendances at Mothers' Club meetings is as large as 79, with a membership of 100.

That they are going to be deprived of a proper auditorium, which has already been promised them, has made them most indignant. They also object to an addition being put to the school, leaving an ugly blank wall against which to build the auditorium at some future date. They feel that if the auditorium is not built now, when the other addition is being made, it will not be built for many years to come, and they object to the ugliness of a blank wall being left.

Mrs. W. A. Tanner, of the board of education, was the special speaker at this meeting, her subject being "Correct English." The program further included vocal solos by Miss Eula Kennedy, and readings by Miss Mortimer. Mrs. Cress, the president, was in the chair. Arrangements were made for a grocery shower to be held for the Day Nursery at the next meeting of the club. There will also be a shower held in the near future for needy families in the district.

ST. GEORGE'S M. C.

Lloyd Houlding of the local Y. M. C. A. staff was the speaker at a meeting of the St. George's M. C. held last night at the school, his subject being "Manhood in the Making." The speaker referred to the progress made in boy worship since the beginning of time. First it was physical strength which appealed and the strong man was the best man. Then it was the man of high lineage, then the man of greatest riches, and now it was the man of noblest character, which counted in leadership. He declared that it was only during the last few years that the study of boy life had become a science. Plato had said that of all animals man was the most unmanageable, but that in the light of modern boy science, he might have said that of all animals man was the most unmanageable, except early in life, when he was the most manageable.

He quoted Taylor Statten, the boys' work leader in Canada, who has said that the best boy-life movement in Canada, outside of Edmonton, is to be found in London. He referred to the fact that only 40 per cent of the boys of London ever reach the Collegiate Institute and only 1 per cent the university, and yet 70 per cent of the leaders of men are university trained. Mothers, he said, should encourage their children to get a good education, when it meant so much to them. It was also noteworthy how the churches spent so much every year for adult religious education, and how little was spent towards making the church a more attractive place for children.

A few excellent numbers, including solos by Mrs. Myrtle Fenton, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Davis, and readings by Miss Sibyl Higman, completed the program.

This club is desirous of having the kindergarten accommodation extended in the St. George's School, where it is exceedingly poor. Accordingly the members appointed a delegation, including Principal Wyatt, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Benson, to get in touch with the wards, and then wait on the board of education to this end. The next meeting of the club will take the form of a Valentine party, to be held so that the different club members, of which there are now 100, may become better acquainted.

TALBOT STREET M. C.

Dr. F. G. Banting gave a most interesting address on "The Surgical Care of the Child," before the Talbot Street Mothers' Club last night. He referred to the surgical care of the child from the time of birth, when such defects as harelip, club feet and cleft palates, should be attended to at once. That if surgical attention was given within a few weeks of birth the possibility of leaving a scar was greatly diminished. With regard to club feet, he knew that if taken in time they could be moded into shape without an operation, but that if left an operation was necessary. Bowlegs and such defects, caused from rickets, could be corrected if taken early. A slight operation, if performed in time, would do away with the permanent wearing of splints after cases of infantile paralysis, tuberculosis of the spine, elbow-knees, etc., could be cured if taken in time.

The speaker spoke specially of hemorrhages in newly-born babies, the tiny lives being saved by means of transfusion of blood, even as long as two minutes after breathing had ceased. He cautioned people to walk straight, not with their toes outturned, declaring that by doing this many cases of flat feet would be prevented.

A musical program included piano numbers by Miss Minnie Gardner, and vocal numbers by Miss Nettie Jones, accompanied by Miss Verna Dobbyn. The club is undertaking this week to make a model infant's outfit to be used in demonstrating proper infants' clothing to the mothers of the city by Miss Bertha Smith of the Child Welfare Association and her assistant nurses.

New York, Jan. 19.—Federal Judge Hand today issued a temporary injunction, returnable next Friday, restraining the Western Union Telegraph Company from landing the British Brazil-Barbados cable at Miami, Fla.

OFF THE RAILS

If the recommendations of Superintendent C. F. Forrester are approved by G. T. R. headquarters, 95 miles of new rails will be laid in the local division during this year. This mileage will be distributed as follows: Between Hamilton and Toronto, 44 miles; from Linden to Copetown, 4 miles, and from Paris to London, 47 miles. During the past year 52 miles of track was laid between Paris and Hyde Park. The old steel will be sent to the reclamation yard, which is to open shortly in the east end of this city, and when the worn ends have been removed the rails will be laid in some district where the traffic is not so heavy.

TO PROTECT SHIPMENTS.

To protect shipments from the weather a wide roof is being constructed over the platform of the Canadian Express Company's sheds, facing York street.

Owing to heavy storms between Havelock and Toronto trains from the east are running late today. On the C. P. R. passenger train No. 21, due in this city at 11:15 a.m., was nearly three hours late, and train No. 629 was one hour and fifteen minutes behind her schedule.

WAR ON COAL THIEVES.

War on coal thieves has been declared by the constabulary of the G.T.R. Because of the huge sum of money lost annually by that road through the actions of people who secure a large part of their winter's supply of fuel from along the right-of-way, the members of the special force of constables appointed one month ago are making strenuous efforts to suppress the thieving.

As the result of their vigil a man, a woman and two children will appear in the local police court on Thursday. The woman and the children were caught red-handed recently. The two children were discovered in a car, throwing lumps of coal to the ground, while the woman was picking it up.

MAGNA CHARTA WAS CLASS LEGISLATION, SAYS PROF. DORLAND

Demanded by Barons Solely in Their Own Interests.

Professor Dorland of Western University presented some unusual points of view with regard to England's great Magna Charta in his lecture before the Historical Society in the Public Library building last night. It was a surprise to many in the audience to learn to what an extent myth and tradition had obscured the real Magna Charta, which the speaker described as "formulated in the interests of a small class, and so really gross class legislation."

The speaker pointed out that the charter was not a legal enactment, not a treaty, and not a declaration of rights, but that it was really a feudal bargain between the king and feudal lords. Having suffered by his actions and policy, the barons determined to secure redress for their grievances, and the document to which King John affixed his seal deals with specific grievances that existed in 1215, but that in most cases disappeared. As a whole, it does not deal with the rights of the common people.

"Magna Charta is a plain, matter-of-fact document," he said. "It has no fine rhetorical statements of rights like the American Declaration of Independence, but it deals with the particular rights of particular Englishmen. There is no swank about it at all. It is downright English in its practical character. That is its virtue."

It remained for later years, the lecturer pointed out, to invest the charter with powers that it never possessed. But despite this it became the great tradition of English liberty, regarded as almost verbally inspired, and the rallying point through centuries of all lovers of liberty. It was confirmed by successive kings no less than 37 times in the next two centuries, and it set down once and for all time the principle that the king must obey the law of the land.

A vote of thanks to Professor Dorland was moved by Major Murphy and seconded by Principal Dearness.

A committee, consisting of Mr. H. Macklin, Principal Dearness and Dr. A. O. Jeffery, was appointed to keep in touch with developments in connection with the future of the old grammar school on King street. It was also decided that the eleventh number of the transactions of the society should be printed and issued at an early date.

HOSPITAL EMPLOYEE CLAIMS $10,000 FOR LOSS OF A THUMB

Alleges That Machine in the Laundry Was Not Properly Protected.

John Schuler and Elizabeth Schuler of Strathroy are suing the town of Strathroy for $10,000 damages for personal injury to the latter plaintiff. The case is a non-jury one and is entered for trial at the assize court before Hon. Mr. Justice Logie at the courthouse next week.

Elizabeth Schuler, the plaintiffs claim, was an employee of the Strathroy Hospital on January 27, 1920. As the roller in a machine in the laundry needed cleaning, she and two other employees proceeded to clean it. While she was engaged in this work she felt her hand being pulled into the roller. She called to a male employee to shut off the power. She claims that the clutch would not work, and that the man secured a broom and knocked off the belt. However, by this time her hand was so badly crushed, she says, that it was necessary to amputate a thumb, and that she is unable to pursue her former occupation. Her allegation is that the machine was not in safe and proper working order.

The defendants claim that she was injured either through accident or through her own negligence.

McKillop & Douglas for the plaintiffs, Ross & Bixel for the defendants.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Two fatalities occurred yesterday within five hours of each other on the Grand Trunk Railway tracks in Ottawa. At 11:15 a.m. Albert H. Harvey, a man of about 60 years of age, was almost instantly killed by the incoming Pembroke train near the Rochester street crossing of the G. T. R. tracks. At about 4 o'clock Joseph Petrelli, a G. T. R. fireman, aged 55, was run over and had both legs amputated by an engine in the Ottawa East roundhouse, dying in an hour in St. Luke's Hospital from injuries and exposure to the below zero weather. Petrelli was walking along the tracks on his way to work, and did not notice the approaching engine until too late.

TWO ACTIONS OVER RIGHT-OF-WAY ARE ENTERED FOR ASSIZES

Dispute Between Neighbors Over Land On Elmwood Avenue.

TOWNSHIP CASE

Mosa Farmer Asks That Fences and Gates Be Removed.

Ten cases, six of which are on the non-jury list, will come before Hon. Mr. Justice Logie at the assize court, which opens in the court house on Monday.

Oscar J. Farmer and Sarah Lucinda Farmer are asking for continuance of an injunction restraining John A. Currie from preventing them making use of an alleged right-of-way to certain land on Elmwood avenue. The plaintiffs claims that there is a joint driveway between their premises, and that of the defendant, but that the defendant blocked it by erecting a boulevard on the centre of it, causing them to cut down some shade trees and remove a board fence in order that Mr. Farmer might get his car out. They claim the right to use the right-of-way, damages amounting to $350, and continuance of an injunction granted by Hon. Mr. Justice Orde of August 16, 1920.

The defendant states that the property is not subject to any right-of-way, and that the plaintiffs used it either by stealth or under color of friendship, and not open or notoriously. The plaintiffs deny this. The action is a jury one.

Murphy & Gunn for the plaintiffs; J. W. G. Winnett for the defendant.

Mary Watterworth and Howard Watterworth of Mosa Township, plaintiffs in a non-jury case, are seeking a mandamus compelling the defendant, Henry G. Moore, of Mosa Township, to remove all gates and fences from a certain right-of-way and an injunction from plowing up the right-of-way.

The defendant denies depriving the plaintiff of the use of the right-of-way, and claims that no damage or injury was done the plaintiff through an act committed by him.

Elliott & Moss for the plaintiffs; C. St. Clair Leitch, of St. Thomas, for the defendant.

Woman Lure Blames Booze and Mashers

"Picks Up" Men, Leads Them to Spot Where Thugs Wait, Then It's Easy.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—"Mashers" and bootleg liquor were the reasons assigned today by Mrs. Cleo Hurtzman, under arrest as the alleged "lure" of a robber gang, for her ventures into banditry.

Mrs. Hurtzman said she came here from Marlow, Okla., several months ago, to seek employment and met Kurt Hurtzman. Despite Hurtzman's confession that he was a drunkard, she says, she married him to "keep watch over him."

One day Hurtzman got in a fight and was fined $200 and sent to the Bridewell; Mrs. Hurtzman appealed to "Curly" Turner for protection, she declared, from "mashers." Turner told her to "pick up" the next man who accosted her and telephone him.

"Next day," she said, "I picked up my first man and 'phoned Curly. I took the man to Park and Wisconsin avenues, where Curly and a man named Blackie beat him up and robbed him. I did two more jobs for Curly and got Kurt out of jail."

Hurtzman, according to his wife, promised to go straight, and got a job, but spent his first week's pay for bootleg booze, and she had to go back to "luring" to support them.

B. OF L. E. DANCE WAS DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

Ballroom at Masonic Temple Was Veritable Fairyland.

The grand march at 9 o'clock last night officially opened the engineers' big dance held in the Masonic Temple, at which about 200 members of Division 65, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and their friends were in attendance. Palms, ferns and foliage, attractively arranged, formed the decorations. A great "B. of L. E." crest swung from the ceiling amid a mass of foliage, while in the very centre of the hall hung a huge chandelier of flowers, through which gleamed myriads of soft lights. The orchestra was concealed on the stage behind a screen of palms and ferns, sending forth strains of delightful music throughout the evening. A spotlight arranged to play upon the dancers, added still further to the effectiveness of the scene.

A sumptuous supper, provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary, was served at midnight at prettily-decked tables in the basement of the temple. After supper, a most attractive vaudeville performance was presented and then dancing was resumed until 3 o'clock, many of the old-fashioned dances, such as quadrilles, lancers and Circassian circle being included in the dance program.

The success of the dance was largely due to the energies of J. B. Grieves, the president of the Brotherhood, and his efficient committees. The committee from the Ladies' Auxiliary included Mrs. R. Hornsby, Mrs. Rennie and Mrs. T. D. Moore; refreshment committee, H. G. McHarg, Mrs. J. B. Grieves, Mrs. G. Graham and A. Benehan; reception committee, R. W. Crosier, Mrs. J. W. Richardson, J. Sheehy and J. Scanlon; decoration committee, R. Treleaven and O. Peters.

$2,500,000 FIRE IN WORCESTER BUSINESS AREA

Conflagration Suspected To Be of Incendiary Origin.

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 19.—Fire starting shortly before 3 o'clock in the Knowles building here, destroyed that building and spread to nineteen other places within a radius of a mile. The loss, it is estimated, will be at least $2,500,000.

A SPLIT IN THE U. F. O.?

Mr. J. J. Morrison, secretary of the United Farmers' Organization, has challenged the declaration of Premier Drury that the party cannot be truly liberal and democratic unless it broadens out sufficiently to take in all classes. Mr. Drury claims that in this manner alone can real progress be made. The aggressive secretary of the Farmers declares that if the premier persists in this view he will have a bitter fight on his hands. The statement to which Mr. Morrison takes exception is as follows:

"The farmers cannot and ought not to rule the country. To do so would be a sort of tyranny. We are in a minority, and we must not attempt to do it because we are a democracy. . . . . I believe the famers' organization should not go into politics as an organization. That was part of the original law of the organization. I believe the farmers' organization has altogether too great a work to do in other directions to risk its life or waste its energies by participating directly in politics."

The premier asserts that the stand he has taken is greatly in the interests of the U. F. O. He believes that if it continues in politics as an organization, that will constitute class rule, which will mean certain disaster. If, on the other hand, the Farmers' platform be made wide enough to attract all others, it will become of great power and influence. Mr. Morrison's contention is that as the Farmers constitute the backbone of the country, they have a perfect right to enter politics as a class, and have a voice in the ruling of the country.

It is certain that the people of Ontario will not tolerate for any length of time rule by any single class. The popular feeling is unquestionably hostile to that kind of government. But has not Mr. Drury, by his administration of public affairs, shown that the Farmers of Ontario do not desire to rule selfishly, sacrificing other sections of the community to their own advantage? Mr. Morrison says there is widespread dissatisfaction with the premier's attitude amongst the members of the U. F. O., and proposes to fight the premier to the bitter end, but as, no doubt, Mr. Drury also has a following, it looks as if there might be a contest within the organization which may wreck it, and relegate it to the background, so far as public affairs are concerned. That would be unfortunate for both the Farmers and the province.

MILNER AND CHURCHILL.

The rumored possibility that Mr. Winston Churchill may succeed Lord Milner as colonial secretary is on the whole an unwelcome sort of prospect. Whatever his faults, Lord Milner has generally been level-headed, but Mr. Churchill has lost in war-time and since most of such reputation as he once had. He sank men in Gallipoli, and last year a billion dollars were sunk in Russia largely through his instigations.

Australia, particularly, must remember with sore feelings the Gallipoli fiasco. Of course, the colonial secretary makes no great difference nowadays, directly, to the self-governing dominions. Still, indirectly, in various ways, the dominions are interested to have the best possible man in that position, and Mr. Churchill does not inspire confidence. He is well-intentioned, as his brilliant support of the excellent South African Constitution Bill (1906-1909), in the capacity then of under-secretary for colonies, shows. But he has lately been stamped as erratic and unreliable.

Lord Milner, the retiring secretary, is a man of some 67 years, and long political experience. He has German blood in his veins, was educated partly in Germany, but got thoroughly Anglicized, if that were necessary, by his course at Oxford. He was a brilliant scholar, winning various scholarships, and elected to a New College fellowship. Later he was called to the bar, was four years in journalistic work, and then for several years a civil servant in finance.

He helped (1889-92) to organize the financial administration of Egypt under Cromer. Returning to England, he was chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue, 1892-1897, at that time regarded as a moderate Liberal. Just then the Jameson raid had brought about a delicate situation in South Africa, and Joseph Chamberlain, colonial secretary, chose Milner as governor of Cape Colony, with the approval of both parties.

He showed his thoroughness and zeal by proceeding to learn the Dutch language and Boer dialect, but soon alarmed the Afrikanders by his unconcealed determination to interfere in the internal affairs of the Transvaal Republic on behalf of the Uitlanders, i.e., on behalf of British capitalists, in the last analysis. A financier, his interest was with Big Money.

In the spring of 1899 Milner demanded of the Transvaal Government that a liberal franchise law should be enacted. Kruger refused, and war followed in October of that year. So Milner and Chamberlain brought on the Boer war. For his war work he was raised to the peerage in 1901, but regarded by the Liberals as "a lost mind." Pursuing the reconstruction of South Africa after the war, he allowed the mine-owners to import Chinese coolies on three-year contract, the first batch of them reaching the Rand in June, 1904. His reconstruction work might be generally characterized as conscientious, but illiberal and dominated by capitalistic interest.

After his return in 1905 to England, he was conspicuous as an ultra-imperialist and preferential protectionist. He opposed the liberal and generous constitution of the new South Africa carried through by the Liberal Government in 1909. In 1910, the year of the great Budget election, he was one of Lloyd George's most violent antagonists, and author of the notorious phrase, "damn the consequences." Because of his steady energy, financial skill, and devoted patriotism, he was a useful man for public service in the late war-time, and his ambiguous political history has also helped to make him an ideal coalitionist minister. From a harmlessly obsolete doctrinaire imperialist like him to wild-head Churchill might be a jump from the frying-pan into the fire, so far as the direction of India and Egypt is concerned.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Astronomers report a great star dashing away from the earth at the rate of 1,300 miles per second. Can you blame it?

Why does not the Committee of One Hundred investigate the 61 lynchings that occurred in the United States last year?

Funds are being raised in France for the erection of another statue to Flaubert. Meanwhile the Paris press contains letters from two eminent living authors, who state that they are unable to make both ends meet, and that without help their literary career must be checked. Perhaps Flaubert, were he able to raise his voice today, would suggest bread for the living rather than statues for the dead.

LETTERS

WHY NOT?

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—It would be interesting for the readers of your valuable paper to learn whence this deputation, consisting of A. E. Silverwood, Dr. R. W. Shaw, J. M. Gunn, J. S. Barnard, F. W. Daly, who took such a prominent part in the session of the board of education, Jan. 15, 1921, got their credentials and whom did they represent?

Why this extreme effort to thwart the will of the people?

Why did not trustees who are opposed to using the old site for its original purpose, and who did not require to seek re-election, resign?

Why not take this liberal course, be good sports?

Why all this bolstering up? Why not throw down the gauntlet to the people, give them a chance to decide the question?

Why not an eighteen-room school on the old site? Why is not a room well equipped for forty students as good in a large building as in a small one? Why all this ado about personal contact of student and teacher? Some of us have remembrances of personal contact. Why are the 1920 portion of the board with few exceptions determined to squander time and not give the students their due? A large number will not receive the benefit they should. Delay will increase that number, still the parents pay the fee. Why not get the student vision and give them the best as quickly as possible on the old site with its historic memories? It is paid for, is easy if access from all points of the city, will serve the present need and in no wise hinder expansion in the future. Everything on the old site is ready for immediate action. Why not go to business or get out, and let the people elect those who will get to the work of providing the best possible for our children?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, in advance for your kindness in inserting this. Yours sincerely,

W. T. MOSSOP.

AGE AS A BOGEY.

[Halifax Chronicle.]

—"Old age is just a pose," according to Sir James Cantie, a famous London physician, who has announced that on January 11th he will preside over the inauguration of a class in physical training for business and professional men of more than fifty years of age. "A man usually grows old because he thinks it is dignified," he said. "He sits back and lets the years do what they like with him. I shall be seventy in a fortnight, but I rise every morning at 4:30, and soon after that dance for a quarter of an hour. I prefer dances—the highland fling and strathspeys. There is not enough exercise in the modern dances for me."

PUTTING 'EM ON.

A Buffalo girl burst excitedly into the family group. "Oh, folks," she gushed breathlessly, "our dancing class is going to put on a play!" "Is that so?" commented father. "I'm glad they're going to put something on."

A HORRIBLE WARNING.

[Quebec Chronicle.]

A well-known Montreal physician, whose practice has brought him into contact with hundreds of drug fiends, has been doing good work for humanity by painting a picture of some of the horrors brought upon themselves by these unfortunates. So many temptations to the use of dope are thrown into the way of the unsophisticated by these fiends and by those who surreptitiously furnish the drugs, and so much ignorance prevails as to the danger of experimenting at all with the latter and the frightful results that they lead up to, that too much publicity cannot be given the matter, especially as it is alleged that the evil is of much greater proportions than generally supposed, and that much of it is to be found in circles where it is least suspected by the general public. The use of cocaine, says the doctor in question, the last and final stage of the drug user, is followed by oblivion, and then the grave. The addict is not born to its uses; the habit is an acquired one and no man can exist on 'dope' of any kind.

"Dope" users are held up to cocaine slowly in some cases, and with remarkable celerity in others, it all depends on the constitution. Morphine may be taken in swallows and is usually so taken by beginners. The appetite soon becomes a craving that swallowing fails to relieve. Then follows the use of the needle for injecting the dope under the skin, and strange to say this method of taking drugs lessens the desire to swallow as long as the effect of the drug lasts. Like eating it, injecting in time, fails to satisfy and the user finds himself with a strong desire for something. He will take morphine, if nothing else is to be had, but eventually finds heroin will do some good as it has a different taste. From heroin to opium is the way of a great many addicts, but the majority rush to cocaine for relief. This is the drug that satisfies after all others fail, and it is often used for years, producing the same dreams at the end of that time as in the beginning. Cocaine is the final refuge for the confirmed user of drugs and oblivion follows. It is cocaine or nothing, for the physical end of the user is plain to be seen by everyone except the victim.

What an awful warning is the doctors' statement against experimenting with drugs in any way!

WHAT ESCAPES AT DEATH?

[New York Herald.]

While Thomas A. Edison was working out his theory of the indestructibility of life, another scientist, a German, seems to have been arriving at almost the same interesting ends.

In an article by Gustav Erenyi in the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, which is reprinted in the Living Age, we are told of the conclusions of Professor Karl Ludwig Schleich, a famous Berlin surgeon. He, like Mr. Edison, has constructed a hypothesis of perpetual life based upon the phenomena of the microscopic chromosomes and nuclei.

"He maintains that the smallest organisms in us, the elementary forms of living matter from which our bodies are built, are indestructible and live from generation to generation, and being to being, stamped with all the characteristics of our individuality."

This is strikingly like Mr. Edison's declaration that "life, like matter, is indestructible," that "our bodies are composed of myriads and myriads of infinitesimal entities, each in itself a unit of life, which band together to build a man," and that at death the entities enter the body of another person, "or even start work on some other form of life."

Mr. Erenyi is not perfectly satisfied with Dr. Schleich's theory, because, he says, it does not tell the "future fate of our conscious personality." But when the scientific speculators are going so far into the realm of the almost infinitely little, that objection must be waived. If we admit the possibility of the survival of the nuclear substance—the cells of the cells—we might as well think that the conscious personality goes with them.

For nobody can say that science will not yet put a thought on the scales and draw its tape measure around the shoulders of a memory. The scientists are going Plato one better. He believed that reality belongs to the idea and that individuals are but forms or copies of changeless and eternal ideas. In their pursuit of that which is almost infinitely small physically, the moderns may come upon the idea itself. In a day when we hear of bacilli that pass through stone walls and of a star whose size overthrows the imagination, nothing seems unbelievable.

MY WORD.

[Toronto Star.]

I say, this is really confusing,
Some camouflage, rather, eh what?
They said I would freeze my poor bally knees.
Yet I find your old winter quite hot.
By Jove, it's a joke on R. Kipling,
Oh, rather a spoof, don't you know,
And if he were here I'd ask the old dear
Just what had become of the snow?

They told me I'd ski and toboggan,
And skate down your principal street,
And ride every day in a wonderful sleigh,
Befurred from my head to my feet.
Of course they were all of 'em spoofing,
And the terrible tales I have read
Were simply a rag, so I got my old bag
And started out golfing instead.

A SUCCESSFUL MISSION.

[Montreal Gazette.]

Right Hon. C. J. Doherty, returning from active and effective participation in the proceedings of the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva, remained long enough in London to arrange with the British Government for an amendment of the British North America act. He does not appear to have had any difficulty in convincing the British Ministry that what Canada asks is her due, and so the Imperial Parliament will shortly have before it a bill conferring on the Dominion Parliament certain extra territorial powers necessitated by the development of air and submarine craft. The proposal that the legislation should not be confined to Canada, but extended to all the self-governing Dominions is unexceptionable, and merely indicates that Hon. Mr. Doherty has been instrumental, if unconsciously, in exterminating two ornithological specimens with a single mineral.

The matter in itself may not be of great moment, but it serves to establish two material points; first, the recognition of Canadian nationhood, and, secondly, the ready compliance of the British Government with any desire for constitutional changes Canada may express. Right Hon. Mr. Doherty may be congratulated on the successful issue of the mission.

A PIRATE STORY.

[Exchange.]

Three of us afloat in the meadow by the swing,
Three of us aboard in the basket on the sea.
Winds are in the air, they are blowing in the spring,
And waves are on the meadow like the waves there are at sea.

Where shall we adventure today that we're afloat,
Wary of the weather, and all the winds that are?
Shall it be to Africa, a-steering of the boat,
To Providence, or Babylon, or off to Malabar?

Hi! But here's a squadron a-rowing on the sea—
Cattle on the meadow are charging with a roar!
Quick, and we'll escape them, they're as mad as they can be;
The wicked is the harbor, and the garden is the shore.

OTHERS' VIEWS

TRY IT.

[Montreal Herald.]

In an address Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who has played so important a part in the counsels of the Republican party, suggests that Americans ought to point out in friendly fashion what are the features of the covenant which make it possible for the United States to join the league. At the same time those changes should be suggested and earnestly urged which would make the project acceptable to the United States, while improving it also for other nations. There is reason to believe that if this course were judiciously and persuasively followed the suggestions of the United States would be received with sympathy, and within a very short time the present League of Nations would readily be transformed into such an Association of nations as the United States could and would cheerfully join. There would thus be organized that "great world-league for the peace of righteousness" that was so earnestly urged by Theodore Roosevelt.

WHY RUSSIANS STARVE.

For many months those who champion the soviet government have been trying to make people believe that the attitude of the United States towards Russia is preventing charitable people from relieving the distress of the people in that country.

Acting Secretary Davis takes this question up in his letter to Judge Alton B. Parker, president of the National Civic Federation, and shows that our Government is not standing in the way of any movement for the relief of suffering in Russia by any person or organization. Travelers may go back and forth between the countries without hindrance. Ships may be loaded at any port in the United States and sent to Russia. Movements for the collection of funds like that which Mr. Hoover is carrying on for other parts of Europe may be set afoot and carried through in this country on behalf of Russia.

The reason that little relief work is being done is that the Russian Government will not permit private organizations to carry on charitable work in Russia, it will accept gifts to itself and undertake to distribute them according to its own pleasure, but unless the charitable people of the United States are willing to contribute their money to the greater glory of Lenine and Trotzky the Russian Government insists that the Russian people shall go without the common necessities of life which they might otherwise have.

"Thou shalt have no other gods before us," say the Russian dictators, and that is the real reason why relief ships are not sailing to Russia.

TRAGIC CONTEST.

[London Daily News.]

It is the grimmest piece of irony one knows of that while British ex-soldiers are walking the streets in destitution and French civilians are still living in holes in the ground in the devastated areas, the ex-kaiser is a millionaire, enjoying every luxury and receiving from Germany an unceasing flow of vast wealth already varying in estimates from two to four million pounds.

TRADE WITH UNITED STATES.

[Chicago Canadian-American.]

Canada has emerged as an industrial as well as an agricultural giant, and is in a position to hold her own in the matter of competition. Wise Americans will gradually see the necessity of compromise and modification in dealing with so good a friend and neighbor as Canada, and with so many American interests across the boundary, including millions of American settlers, trade relations will remain amicable and progressive.

QUEBEC MARRIAGE LAWS.

La Presse, under the heading: "Why All This Noise?" discusses at some length the controversy which has been carried on in the newspapers on the subject of the marriage laws of the province. It points out that the Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches have equal rights to edict such disciplinary laws as they think proper in relation to the marriages of their members, in the exercise of these rights it is urged that the Roman Catholic Church, regarding marriage as a sacrament, can never make the rules governing the marriage ceremony too strict, and in declaring that a marriage of two Catholics or a Catholic and a Protestant, shall be celebrated according to the rules and formalities from which the contracting parties cannot be exempt, it is only exercising a right in relation to those who owe obedience to the Church. When Protestant ministers declare that mixed marriages celebrated before a Catholic priest are worthless, La Presse states that it will be neither surprised nor offended. In religious matters such things are only to be expected, "because each faith quite naturally pretends that it is better than the others." La Presse adds: "Our separated brethren may be convinced of one thing. It is that in their appreciation of certain mixed marriages our ecclesiastical courts have not the least intention in the world to trespass upon the privileges of the Protestant sects or to hurt their feelings or to seek to control their members. They speak, and act and pronounce judgments only in the exercise of their rights with regard to the Catholic party. We might have dispensed with these observations if, in the minds of those who would break down our civil laws regarding marriage, we had not remarked a clear design to discredit the Catholic religion:"

PAGANISM.

L'Action Catholique—"There are nearly everywhere, but more especially in the big cities, thousands and thousands of people who have never known that God exists. There are again, thousands and thousands of others who do not believe in the existence of God, and they all live as though God did not exist. They have feelings and inclinations and allow themselves to be dominated by the one and the other. Sometimes they attain a certain eminence, for they are men and have souls; but in times of passion they descend, and descend again, so long as laws and customs and manners do not put any barrier in their way. And how fragile those barriers are which do not control men's thoughts, desires and only in a very small degree their acts!"

FARMER-LABOR ACCORD STRONG

Report of United Farmer-Laborite Caucus Says Harmony Prevailed.

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—Harmony is said to have prevailed at the caucus of the U. F. O. and Labor members of the Ontario Legislature in the Parliament Buildings here this afternoon, so much so indeed that a resolution, moved by Karl Homuth, Labor M. P. P. for South Waterloo, expressing confidence in the leadership of Premier E. C. Drury was passed. The indications are that for the coming session the labor group in the House will line up behind the Government, excepting one member thereof, M M. MacBride, M. P. P., Brantford.

Among the matters discussed at the caucus, it is said, were liquor legislation, eight-hour day, increased workmen's compensations for injuries and old age pensions.

With reference to the eight-hour question the farmers made it clear that they were not ready for the introduction of general eight-hour day legislation, but it is understood that a modified eight-hour bill will be brought in by Sergeant-Major MacNamara of Riverdale, which will serve to open the matter for discussion and pave the way for future action.

The differences which have recently developed between Secretary J. J. Morrison and Premier Drury on the question of widening the present United Farmer movement, did not come up for discussion at the caucus. The U. F. O. executive, which will meet here tomorrow, doubtless will thresh out the matter.

NEW YORK JUDGE BREAKS GRAVEL "TRUST"

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Four sand and gravel corporations and their officers and directors pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Hand here today to an indictment charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in connection with a monopoly in Cow Bay sand.

They agreed to dissolve the sand and gravel board of trade of which they were members, and assessed fines aggregating $40,000.

The indictment against the corporations grew out of testimony given before the joint legislative committee investigating the "building trust." Each company was fined $5,000, each individual defendant $1,000 to $4,000.

NEARLY CRAZY WITH ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those who are afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching and torturing relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no remedy that has done, or can do more for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood—for eczema is a blood disease—and drives it out of the system.

Miss L. M. Boutilier, 89 Victoria Road, Halifax, N. S., writes: "I have suffered for years from eczema. I could not rest day or night. I suffered great agony, and was nearly crazy with the itching and burning. I used all kinds of salves, but nothing seemed to help me. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised, and was advised to try a bottle. I found great relief, and I really cannot recommend it highly enough for what it has done for me."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over forty years, and during that time has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STUDENT EMULATES MACSWINEY STUNT

Guelph Youth Goes Without Food For Five Days.

GUELPH, Jan. 18.—In a successful effort to test his willpower, A. J. Graham of Verner, Ontario, a second-year student at the O. A. C., has just concluded a five-day fast. He entered on his self-imposed "hunger strike" last Wednesday evening, and from that time until last night he and food were strangers. He started the fast, he said, simply to test his willpower.

Mr. Graham says he tasted nothing but water, and this in moderation. He did not suffer even a headache, and his studies continued without interruption. He was present at his class every day, and never missed a lecture, and today he states he never felt better in his life.

"The first two days were the hardest," he said, "but after that I did not mind at all. I believe my mind became clearer as the days went on, and certainly I felt better."

As a result of his fast, the students at the college have nicknamed his "MacSwiney," and during the last five days bulletins have been posted telling of his alleged condition.

LINDSAY METHODIST MINISTER IS DEAD

PETERBORO, Ont., Jan. 18.—Rev. Charles H. Coon of Lindsay, President of the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference, died suddenly here this evening while presiding at a meeting of a co-operative committee of the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches.

Rev. Mr. Coon was about to open the evening session of the committee, and was chatting cheerfully with the other members present when he suddenly collapsed.

Heart-failure is assigned as the cause of death.

Are you rushing on to disaster?

TRAIN, marine, street car—in fact, all disasters are on the decrease, largely due to educational propaganda preventing carelessness. The toll of human life through ill health and disease is also on the decrease. People of the 20th century are realising more and more the necessity of keeping themselves fit and well, for without health they can never attain their ambitions.

There are still some, however, who ignore a vital factor in preserving their health and strength. They ignore medical scientists who tell us the necessity of repairing the ravishes on the heart and nerve centres. These are the people who fail to wake up one morning; the people who drop dead in the street, in the car or train, and just at a critical time when they are specially needed by friends and dependents.

ARE YOU IN THESE RANKS, inviting disaster? Do you ever feel that your work is proving a slight strain upon you? Would you be able to fill a bigger position to-morrow, make the rapid, clever decisions which bring success? Would your employer choose YOU? You can rest assured he won't if you're not in robust health. He can't take chances with ailing people. But you can obtain the health that will MAKE him choose you by restoring the heart and nerve centres, the vital organs of the entire system. Thousands of people have accomplished this by the use of Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills.

One simple step. Go to your nearest druggist. He sells and recommends Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills, and will be pleased to hand you a box; or send 50c. and they will be mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

CX.—About Fred.

Fervently I hoped that Margery had witnessed the little love scene between my husband and myself.

But apparently she had not. For her green and orange headpiece was bobbing on the top of the water at some considerable distance. She was a powerful swimmer, so it seemed.

Neil put a hand under my shoulder and towed me to the raft.

"You mustn't over-do things, dear. This is your first swim of the season in the sea, isn't it?"

I nodded, shaking the water out of my eyes, and climbing up to the raft. (It felt good to touch something solid.)

My husband climbed up beside me.

How nice he looked in bathing garb! What a big, powerful yet withal graceful frame he had! He looked like a young sun-god. I told myself poetically, viewing the auburn tints in his hair, his ruddy coloring, his vivid blue eyes.

Yes, he was a thousand times more of a man than Fred—deceitful cruel Fred! How lucky I was to have escaped that marriage! Only misery could have come of it!

I would surrender all my petty feeling of jealousy and pain, and give myself up to the enjoyment and the cultivation of Neil's society. I would learn to shine, to fascinate my husband.

I would beat Margery at the game of pleasing. I could do it, too.

Julie was here to help and instruct me. Julie was clever. She understood the art of charm.

Well, I would take lessons from the Frenchwoman.

It was borne in on me now that Neil had married me, not out of pity, but because he cared for me! Hard as that might be to believe, I was going to believe it. Several proofs had been given to me of late. I would not ignore them.

I did not stay in the water long. I scrambled back to my bathing-box, and began the chilly process of dressing. Thank goodness! my white knitted frock was truly Parisian in cut, my woolly tam immensely becoming! No longer need I look a sketch.

I was fully arrayed and out in the sunshine again before Margery appeared.

"Had a heavenly time!" she cried, parading for a moment in her costume, so that the spectators on the upper platform might have a good view of her charming figure. Then she seized a towel and wrapped it carelessly about her waist. "You don't swim so badly, Anne!" This very patronizingly.

"Aren't you going to dress?"

"H'm! I don't know. I'm thinking of taking a second swim with Neil."

"Where is he?"

"Down near the raft. Don't you see him?" She pointed to a head bobbing in the water. Then:

"I'm rather chilly, I think I'll order a hot lemonade for myself before my second dip." She turned to me. "Or perhaps you'd get it, Anne, would you?"

So I hurried off to the refreshment room on Margery's request.

(In my own mind I quite decided that my husband and I must have the afternoon to ourselves. This trio business was monotonous.)

Julie would be returning early in the afternoon. Of course she had an engagement with John Courtney. But—even so—she would manipulate matters so that Margery would be routed. . .

I felt ashamed of my own cowardice. Why couldn't I manage things myself?

I obtained the hot lemonade, went down the steps to the lower platform, and handed it to Margery, who appeared to be the cynosure of many admiring eyes fixed on her from above.

"My costume is rather chic, isn't it?" she remarked, airily, with complacence on her pretty face. "Causes quite a sensation wherever I appear."

She sipped the hot beverage.

"Sit down and chat with me, Anne. I've wanted to get a chance alone with you to discuss that fascinating fellow, Fred Delaunay." She gave me a queer, sidelong glance. "Of course, I don't for a moment believe that he proposed to that designing French widow, though she claims he did. But—is it true that he proposed to you?"

I struggled to suppress any signs of embarrassment.

"You ask rather pointed questions," I said, lamely.

Margery shrugged her shoulders with a gesture she had evidently copied from the despised Julie.

"Don't be coy, my dear. Let's get at the truth of the matter."

I prevaricated. "It's not usual to retail a proposal of marriage is it?"

"Be matey, Anne." She smiled in supposedly friendly fashion. "I don't mind confessing that I'm rather keen on young Delaunay—"

I gave a little gasp.

"Why wasn't it only day before yesterday that you said you wanted John Courtney to propose?"

Again she shrugged her shoulders.

"Well, and if I did? There's a vast difference between caring for a man, and wanting him to propose, isn't there?"

I did not think so. And volunteered my thought. She paid no attention to it.

"I'm rather volatile in my young affections, I will admit." She laughed in an affected way. "Freddie's piques my curiosity—or vanity, call it what you will. Now, Anne, if you won't tell me the whole truth about your little affaire-de-coeur—for I'm quite convinced it came under that category—I'll go to him myself and ask about it."

That went home.

"Please don't do anything of the sort. I'll tell you this much, and no more. Fred did propose to me, more than once, and at one time I rather liked him." ("Rather liked him"—heavens! How I had liked him!) I cleared my throat. "But that's all over now. Neil came along, and—"

Out from over the surface of the water came a sudden, terrifying cry of: "Help! Help!" The voice was Neil's! My blood ran cold.

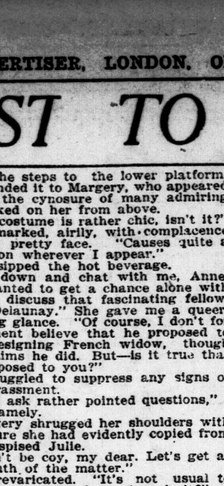

Petrified, I stared. . .

"Heaven! He's got cramp! He's drowning!" Margery shouted, as the small object that was Neil's head disappeared and sank!

Tomorrow—Margery to the Rescue.

RELIEF COMMISSION HONORS MISS THOM FOR HER BRAVERY

London Woman Receives Official Letter From American Headquarters.

Mr. J. L. Thom, of this city, has received an interesting letter from the Near East Relief Commission, New York, expressing the appreciation of that organization of the bravery of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Thom, who remained at her post during the recent crisis in the Caucasus. Inclosed was a copy of the letter sent out by the commission to Miss Thom herself. This letter reads as follows:

"In behalf of the executive committee of the Near East relief and of the American people whose representative you are in the work of relief, I want to express our profound admiration and appreciation of the heroism that you have shown in remaining at your post during the recent crisis in the Caucasus.

"We are not unmindful of the fact that you have remained at your post of duty long beyond the period called for in your contract. We also know that some of you have urgent calls in America, and that there was every justification for your leaving your post and returning home. That you did not avail yourself of your rights in this matter and that the approach of danger only made you the more determined in the performance of your ministry of mercy, is a high tribute to your unselfish devotion to duty and to the ideals of American philanthropy.

"We have no medals or orders of merit to bestow, nor do you ask for any such formal recognition of your services. We do, however, want you to know that the American public is not unmindful of the service which you are rendering and that both in the hearts of the American public and especially in the lives of the people whom you are saving for future usefulness and leadership, there is a record of your service that cannot be transcribed on any medal."

A BEAUTIFUL HOME FOR GIRLS IS OPENED BY SALVATION ARMY

Mayor E. S. Little and Other Citizens Present At Opening Ceremony.

The old Cecil Hotel on the corner of Clarence and York streets, lately a hostel for returned soldiers, was yesterday formally opened by the Salvation Army as a home for girls. Mayor E. S. Little pronounced the words which declared the home open, while other prominent citizens were also present and spoke, including George Reid of the General Welfare Association: T. W. McFarland; Brigadier Crichton, the district Salvation Army officer, and Adjutant Martin. Brigadier Desbrisey of Toronto, head of the social service department of the Salvation Army, was also present and spoke. She it is who is responsible for the selecting of the beautiful and comfortable furnishings of the home.

The home, which has been redecorated and furnished throughout, is a cheery place, which will accommodate 31 girls. Adjutant Sharp and Mrs. Sharp, who are to be in charge, have a pleasant suite of rooms at the front of the second floor. This floor and the floor above are composed of a series of the daintiest little chintz bedrooms. Some have two beds and some have three, and even one very large room boasts four beds, where a regular quartet of friends may find lodging.

Freshly Furnished.

The smell of fresh paint is evident everywhere; pretty chintz wall papers decorate the rooms, and on the white counterpaned beds are lovely comforters to match and thick, soft rugs on the floor just near the beds. There are bureau drawers aplenty, while pretty chintz hangings secrete rows of tiny clothespegs. The wide halls on these floors would almost do for sitting-rooms, and already a few large comfortable chairs have found their way there. A big sofa or two, a few small tables and many sofa cushions would add greatly to the attractiveness of these halls, should any kind friends wish to present them.

In every corridor are white bathrooms, furnished with showers, and on the ground floor is a splendidly equipped laundry, where the girls may do their own washing and ironing. The office, a very comfortably-furnished reception-room and a large, airy girls' sitting-room, equipped with a Victrola, the dining-room and kitchens complete the rooms of the lower floor.

Mayor Little.

Mayor Little, in addressing a goodly throng of visitors gathered at the home yesterday afternoon to witness the opening ceremonies, stated that every one knew the Salvation Army to be a potent force in the history of the Empire, and that he, as mayor of London, could not speak too highly of the work they had done here.

"The best citizens of London have always been ready to get behind the Salvation Army," he declared. "The Salvation Army has been the organization for which money has most easily been collected, and the work they have done has caused the least criticism."

The mayor closed by speaking of the need of such a home for the girls of London.

George Reid.

George Reid referred to the fact that the Salvation Army had always got 100 cents on the dollar in everything they had undertaken, and the beautifully-furnished home in which they were was an evidence of the fact, the General Welfare Fund having allowed them but $3,000 to undertake the work. Adjutant Martin believed that a great deal of the crime among young girls was due to crowded and mixed housing, and that the new home being opened was a help toward solving the girl problem. T. W. McFarland mentioned how difficult it had been to induce young girls to come into the city from the country districts and work in the local factories on account of lack of proper boarding accommodation when they got here. This new home would help that problem.

A Real Home.

Brigadier Desbrisey of Toronto explained that the object of the home was not only to give them a place to sleep and wholesome board, but that it was also to provide a home atmosphere. The intention was to take in girls getting from $10 to $13 a week, as it was felt that these girls needed help most, and that when they were able to earn more they would give place to others getting the lesser wage; that already one girl had been taken into the home, and that others would come quickly. Brigadier Crichton opened the afternoon's program, explaining the object of the new home.

THE CURIOUS PUP.

Part Eight.

When the little people were quite sure that Nibbles meant to do them no harm they flocked from their houses and gathered around him in great wonder. He was the biggest animal any of them had ever seen. Some of them who had fled in the greatest fear, now, when they knew that Nibbles was harmless, were the boldest in their advances on him. They insisted on walking all over him, climbing onto his head to peek into his ears. One little man was so bold he prodded at Nibbles' eye to see if it was made of glass. The poor pup would no doubt have suffered a lot of thoughtless torment if the mayor had not approached in time to see the ungentlemanly actions of some of the citizens and ordered them to their homes.

The little men who had gone in search of food, and there were a great number of them, returned before long weighed down with heavy burdens. They had killed a number of cows. What tiny cows they were, just about the size of baby mice and it took a great number of them indeed to feed the hungry dog. The little cows made nice juicy tender meat, however, and Nibbles certainly enjoyed himself. What a hard time a real life-sized man would have to get a meal in the little people's land, Nibbles thought.

"How did you like your meal?" asked the mayor politely when Nibbles had shown signs of having enough.

"Fine!" Nibbles told him, "But what tiny cows you have here. The mice where I come from are as big as your cows."

"The mice here are even bigger than our cows." "They are our worst enemies. We live in deadly fear of them," the mayor announced

"They bite our policemen, kill our cows, and carry off our children,"

"Why I've killed lots of rats and mice," Nibbles exclaimed. "I'll soon drive the mice from your country."

"The first man or beast who ride our land of mice will be crowned king of the country," the mayor declared.

Just then there was a shouting in the distance.

"The mice are upon us, flee for your lives," cried someone with a tiny voice. What a scattering for the houses there was then. Bells rang, horns blew, and everywhere there was confusion. Nibbles was soon going to have an opportunity to show what he could do.

To Be Continued.

Club News

WOMEN'S MUSIC CLUB.

Mrs. Harris Elliott, convener of the program for Thursday afternoon's meeting of the Music Club, promises a treat. Miss Laura Kirkwood, talented pianist, will play Chopin's "Impromptu in F Sharp Major" and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody" No. 4. Mrs. Elliott herself will render the first movement in Rubenstein's Concerto in D. Minor, with orchestral accompaniment on a second piano by Thomas Martin. Grant Milligan will give two violin numbers, "Caprice Viennois" (Kreisler) and "Serenade Espagnole" (Chaminade-Kreisler), and "Where My Caravan Has Rested" (Lohr), sung by Mrs. T. G. Dochstader, with violin obligato by Grant Milligan. Another artist on the day's program is Ferguson Telfer, who will sing numbers from German, Wheepley and Speaks.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY.

Mrs. Isaac Mariatt, president of the local Y. M. C. A. Women's Auxiliary, read a splendid report of the auxiliary's work at the regular meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. board room on Monday afternoon. This report showed that during the month of November 873 meals had been served, and in December, as many as 458 meals to "Y" boys and members of boys' clubs. Recently a new task has been given the members, that of serving supper to the High School Boys' Club every Friday evening, at which there will be an average attendance of 75 boys. Mrs. Henderson has taken over the convenership of this part of the work. At the close of Monday's meeting, tea was served to the members by the president.

FIRST METHODIST W. M. S. BANQUET.

From 125 to 150 covers were laid for the big banquet held at the First Methodist dining-hall at 6 o'clock last night by the W. M. S. of that church, the invited guests being representatives from all the auxiliaries and circles of the London district. The aim of the banquet was to provide an opportunity for the presentation of the work undertaken by the W. M. S. of Canada, this year holding its fortieth anniversary. Mrs. Gordon Wright, president of the London branch, was the speaker for the occasion. The Dominion W. M. S. objective for the year is 40,000 new members, and an increase of 20 per cent in finances. The local branch is also contemplating doing special work for the Northwest.

After the address an interesting round table talk was held. The arrangements for the banquet were in the hands of Mrs. W. G. Young, the district superintendent. Immediately following supper a lively sing-song was conducted by Mrs. A. D. Jordan.

WOMEN'S GOLF UNION.

The London golf links are to have the honor of staging the big provincial championship games, which will open on June 6. The decision was arrived at during a recent meeting of the executive of Canadian Women's Golf Union, held in Toronto, of which Mrs. E. B. Smith of this city is a member. From sixty to seventy golfers are expected to take part in this contest, which will be the first of its kind ever played on the local links.

GIRLS' CANADIAN CLUB.

Dr. Barnett of the Western University Library is to give his delightful talk on "Books" before the Girls' Canadian Club, to be held tonight at the Wellington street Y. W. C. A. In addition to the talk there will be a period of text-book study, the subject of the occasion being "What It Means to Be a British Subject," the discussion led by Miss Gladys Baldwin.

Y. W. C. A. DRAMATIC CLUB.

One of the most enjoyable programs ever presented at the Y. W. C. A., King street, was that given last night by the dramatic class of the Industrial Extension Department, under the direction of Mrs. John Crawford. The principal feature of the program was a simple play "How the Story Grew," presented by eight girls of the club. The final cast, which produced the play, included but half of the girls, who derived benefit from the study of its parts. In the cast were Miss Amy Page, Miss Agnes Henderson, Miss Queenie Dowsden, Miss Beatrice Doatcher, Miss Bessie Clark, Miss Winnie Clark, Miss Jean Munro and Miss Amelia Mascara. The play itself, which concerns the spread of a simple story at a village tea-meeting, was remarkably well produced by the girls.

The program further included an example of public speaking by one club member, Miss Carrie Haines, who gave a talk on the "Outlook of the New Year." Between acts some very pretty dancing was presented by little Miss Francis Loughrey, who was seen in the Gypsy Dance, Irish Clog and Highland Fling. A Scotch song by Miss Duncan, with violin obligato by Master Duncan, completed the program.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Imaginative creatures who are courageous will never be lopped of the hopeful portion of their days by personal misfortune.—George Meredith.

A Nurse's View.

Dear Miss Grey.—I have just been thinking of the Mail Box and the variety of people that write to it. All seem to be friends. I think there must be almost every profession and trade represented, but I have not seen any of the nursing or medical profession. Where are they? I read one time in one of my lessons, a saying of Florence Nightingale. It is, "Nursing is an art, and if it is to be an art it requires as exclusive a devotion, as hard preparation as any painter's or sculptor's work, for what is having to do with dead canvas or cold marble compared to having to do with the living body—the temple of God's spirit? It is one of the fine arts, I had almost said it was the finest if the arts." I think this is true and that the nurse has one of the finest opportunities to do good, and it certainly is a privilege to nurse suffering humanity and care for those who have been less fortunate than ourselves. Let us hear some time from those who are engaged in nursing or medical practice.

So many of the Boxites are interested in Nature, and I wonder if they know that many of the plants they adore yield to us some of our most important medicines. The outdoors is certainly the healthy place to live and spend our spare time.

Wishing you and the Boxites every success, and continued good health.

THE NURSE.

Around the Grate Fire.

Dear Miss Grey,—Can I come in for a minute? I will not stay long, as I have come for help. Could any of the Boxites supply me with the words of "Casey Jones" and "Wait Till I'm as Old as Father," also the rug pattern? I will return it, and can you send me a few flower seeds? Inclosed you will find 10c for the S. C. H. May I come again?

ONLY ME.

Ans.—If songs are sent in, I shall forward them along with seeds. Thanks for dime.

Dear Miss Grey,—As I have not visited the Mail-Box for so long, I will call with a request to the readers.

There is a family living near us that is very much in need of clothing, both for themselves, and for their married daughters, who each have a large family. Now if anyone has any clothing they could spare I would make it up into good warm clothes for the little ones.

Where is Mrs. Homebird and the Sunshine Baby? How much I would love to see the little one, as I am a lover of children. Sincerely,

SILVER STAR.

Dear Miss Grey,—I enjoy your Page very much, and get so much help from it. Will you please forward this letter on to Blonde Stenog? Also do you know the address of some firm, where one can get remnants of plush, etc., which they cover cutters with? They make such lovely carpet rags for hooked mats. I think there is one in Guelph some place.

Believe I saw in the Mail-Box where someone had some patterns for rugs. Would be delighted to get some patterns.

Wishing the Mail-Box all kinds of success for this year.

HAWTHORNE.

Ans.—Am forwarding letter and referring your request to Boxites.

M'CLARYS AND PERRINS WIN HARD-FOUGHT GAMES IN MFRS. LEAGUE

Last Year's Champs Had Tidy Time With Terrys—Perrins Had To Have Ten Minutes Overtime For Decision.

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE.

McClarys	1	0	3	1
Bell Telephone	0	1	1	2
Taylor-Campbell	0	1	1	2
Civil Service	0	1	5	6
Terrys	0	1	1	3

The McClary sextet of the Manufacturers' Hockey League won from the Terry Machine Shop aggregation over at Westminster Rink last night by the score of 3 to 1. The game was the fastest that has been played at the rink for years, and the large crowd thoroughly enjoyed it from the start to the finish. The first game was played between the Perrin six and the Civil Service team, and the former won by a 6-to-5 score after ten minutes of overtime.

"Buck" Buchanan and Art Gillies were the pick of the McClary team. "Gargo" Arthurs and Irwin were after the puck all the time for the losers. After three minutes of play Buchanan opened with one of his lone rushes and scored. Ten minutes later Delaney and Gillies went down the ice and found the nets after some nice combination work.

McClarys were not satisfied with two goals. In the last period they came back for another one. This time Delaney did the scoring, and Gillies helped him out. In the last five minutes of play in the final period, Irwin and Arthurs went down the ice, and after some exceedingly nice combination work succeeded in scoring their only goal of the game. At this point they showed signs of better teamwork, but McClarys played a good defensive.

The line-up:

Terrys.		McClarys.
Hynd	Goal	Watts
McIntyre	Defence	Delaney
O'Rourke	Defence	Buchanan
Irwin	Wing	D. Campbell
McRae	Wing	Gillies
Arthurs	Centre	R. Campbell

Summary—First period:
McClarys—Buchanan, 3 minutes.
McClarys—Gillies, 13 minutes.
Third Period:
McClarys—Delaney, 6 minutes.
Terrys—Arthurs, 10 minutes.

Ten Minutes of Overtime.

Ten minutes of overtime was necessary to decide whether Perrins or the "Posties" would be the winners. Harry Mays was responsible for the win over the Civil Service outfit by his splendid checking and effective shooting. The first four minutes in the overtime he received the puck from Kenny, and by some nice stick-handling outwitted Chown for the winning goal. Kenny's playing for the winners was also good. He was responsible for two of their goals and checked well. Southcott, Reid and Burgess were the pick of the losers. The first two showed the fans some real nice shooting, but somehow or other, whether by good luck or good playing, Chantler was always in the way.

Line-up:

Perrins		Civil Service.
Chantler	Goal	Chown
Lougheed	Defence	Southcott
Dickson	Defence	Callaghan
Drinkwater	Wing	Burgess
Mays	Wing	Reid
Kenny	Centre	Cooney

Summary—First period:
Perrins—Kenny, 3 minutes.
Civil Service—Cooney, 5 minutes.
Perrins—Drinkwater, 8 minutes.
Perrins—Kenny, 9 minutes.
Second period:
Civil Service—Callaghan, 5 minutes.
Perrins—Mays, 8 minutes.
Civil Service—Southcott, 10 minutes.
Third period:
Civil Service—Reid, 5 minutes.
Civil Service—Reid, 9 minutes.

CANUCK HOCKEY TEAM FOR SWEDISH TRIP UNLIKELY

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—E. V. Viberg, a Columbia ex-hockey player and member of the Swedish Olympic committee, told the Canadian Press today that his plans to have a Canadian hockey team visit Sweden to compete in the world's amateur championship games were not proving very successful. It was his intention to arrange with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association to have a representative team from the Dominion leave New York on February 10 and play in Stockholm on February 25. All expenses, he said, would be paid by the Swedish Football Association, which also sponsors hockey in that country.

Mr. Viberg has received a letter from H. E. James of the C. A. H. A., stating that as the Allen cup contests would not be concluded by that time the Canadian championship team would not be available. Mr. Viberg explained to the Canadian Press that he did not necessarily want to get the champions to go abroad, but would be satisfied with a representative team from the Dominion who could "demonstrate to the Swedes the game as it is played in the Dominion."

LONDON AND DISTRICT SOCCER MEETING ON FOR SATURDAY

Association's Entry Must Be In To O. F. A. by 29th.

A meeting of the London and District Soccer Association has been called by President J. Lewis at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 Friday afternoon.

The annual meeting of the O. F. A. takes place on the 29th of this month, and it is necessary if the London and District wish to enter to have their applications in before that date.

The reason for Saturday's meeting is to get everything shipshape for the coming season and to make sure that the intentions last fall of some of the clubs have not in the meantime changed. Somewhere about twenty teams were lined up in the autumn, and it is not expected that there will be any decrease in this number.

Soccer should by every sign have the biggest year it has ever enjoyed in this part of the province. With the Windsor Association on the west and O. F. A. affiliation to the east, the game in London is bound to get in with the general progress.

STRATFORD BATTLE TO WIN OVER KITCHENER

5--3 Verdict in Intermediate O. H. A. Hard Won.

STRATFORD, Jan. 18.—Before a crowd of 1,600 fans, Stratford intermediates battled out a win over Kitchener tonight 5 to 3. It was a battle all the way through, and both teams had to work every minute of the way for any advantage they gained. The ice was keen and the play throughout went at top speed. Close checking prevented any amount of team play, though the visitors seemed able to combine more often than did the home team. In the first period Stratford ran in two, but the visitors were unable to count. Berger landed first on one of his old-time rushes. Boyd Lavell came through for the second. Gildner flopped Kelterburne and saver a possible goal and was benched.

In the second Gildner broke into the scoring, beating Malone on a long dribbler. The play raced back and forth until Krug nipped a pass from behind the goal and evened the score. Berger was responsible for Stratford's third. The players were beginning to show the effects of the strenuous play.

Lavell increased Stratford's lead shortly after the third period opened. Berger drew a penalty, and during his absence Schell scored. Berger came back strong and closed the scoring on a pass from Carroll. During this period, Malone got a bad crack with the puck above the eye and required medical aid.

Kelterburne, the speedy local boy, was at a great disadvantage, having strange skates, his own having been damaged at the sharpeners.

The teams:

Stratford.		Kitchener.
Malone	Goal	Schmalz
Carroll	R. Defence	Masters
Berger	L. Defence	Gildner
B. Lavell	Centre	Shirk
Moore	R. Wing	Schell
Kelterburne	L. Wing	Erb
R. Lavell	Sub.	Schnarr

SPENDING $150,000 ON DEVONSHIRE TRACK PLANT

WINDSOR, Jan. 18.—Practically an entire new plant will present itself to the crowds who attend the first summer meeting at Devonshire track the coming season. Developments are being made at the popular local track which are undreamed by the race followers, and officials of the track state that it is their intention to expend something in the neighborhood of $150,000 on the track in an endeavor to make it one of the leading tracks on the American continent.

There will be a new grandstand, built in a form which is a distinctly new departure in grandstand construction. For the present season, the stand now in existence will remain, but to it will be joined the new building 160 feet long and 50 feet wide, making a total grandstand length of 410 feet, the present stand being 250 feet long.

CHATHAM BASKETBALLERS DUE AT SARNIA FRIDAY

SARNIA, Jan. 18.—Chatham C. I. basketball team, which has been cleaning up on all the opposition it has stacked up against this winter will make its annual trip to Sarnia Friday night, when they take on the S. C. seniors at the collegiate gym. In the first of a home and home series. Last year the local collegiate defeated Chatham here 24 to 7, after being downed 26 to 21 in Chatham. Howard Sproule and Johnston of the 1920 team are not playing, but the outfit is one to be reckoned with from now on since the hard riding and the attendant lesson learned when they stacked up against the Fort Huron team Saturday night.

PICKED GARRISON TEAM FROM MILITARY LEAGUE IS LONDON'S O. B. A. SENIOR ENTRY

Second Games of League At Armories On For Tonight — Seniors Held Workout Yesterday.

The senior O. B. A. entry from London will be a picked team from the Military Basketball League, according to a decision made yesterday. The "Y," which originally had the entry, gave way in favor of the proposed garrison team

The armories floor was a big factor in the change being made. Most of the players eligible for a "Y" team are now registered in the Military League, so that the best interests of the city are being served, and, at the same time, the seating facilities there makes the financial end of an O. B. A. team more secure.

Tonight the second game in the Military League will be staged. Western O. T. C. and the Machine-Gunners, winners of the first night's bill, will clash in the first game tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Machine - Gunners have strengthened with the addition of Harold Logan, and should be able to put Major Brock's collegians down on the second rung of the standing.

First W. O. R. and First Hussars provide the second game, and as the former have added some new talent, the game should be a hummer.

There are still good prospects of the Signallers, with the R.C.R.s, coming in to form a six-team league, and it is probable that these two will meet next Wednesday night.

Some of the candidates for the picked Garrison team were out at a practice yesterday afternoon. Brock, Reid, Duffield, Gillies (2) and several others put in an hour's hard workout.

WORKOUT FOR ALERTS ON THURSDAY NIGHT

Some Manufacturers' Players To Be Worked Out.

The Intermediates will get in a workout on Thursday night before their trip to Ingersoll.

Their own improvement in form and the overtime victory of the Pan-Drieds over Ingersoll has shown the locals a big chance to cinch group honors with a win at Ingersoll on Friday night. This is admittedly quite a tidy little job for one evening, but if the local crew get down to their knitting—and they have perked up wonderfully—there's no reason why the stunt can't be pulled off.

Several of the Manufacturers' League players will be given further workouts. Southcott, who acts like a star over at Westminster rink, and should really make the Intermediates, admits he doesn't like the bright lights out at the east end. Buchanan is another star of the Manufacturers who should make good, and he'll be given a real try.

Just what psychology will enter into making hockey dubs of brilliant performers in the rink by the river is something rather hard to understand, but it has in many instances in past years. Buchanan and a few more Manufacturers ought, however, to be able to overcome this. They have everything a hockey player needs. Sympathetic coaching ought to bring it out.

OXFORD COUNTY 'SPIEL IS DUE ON FEB. 2

Form Grouping For Western Ontario Interscholastic Hockey.

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 18. — The annual Oxford County bonspiel will be held on February 2, when it is expected rinks from all the towns and villages of the county will compete for the McIntosh trophy, emblematic of the championship. The curling club has also appointed Fred Holmes and Geo. Adams skips to go to Ingersoll next week to compete for the Ontario tankard.

Interscholasitc Hockey.

The schedule for the Western Ontario group of the Interscholastic Hockey Association has been drawn up. This year St. Thomas Collegiate, Ingersoll Collegiate and the Woodstock College and Collegiate compose the group. All the schools will have senior and junior teams, excepting Woodstock Collegiate, and the following schedule is made out for both series, two games being played on the dates mentioned:

Jan. 19—W. C. I. at College.
Jan. 21—Ingersoll at St. Thomas.
Jan. 28—St. Thomas at Woodstock C. I.
Jan. 28—College at Ingersoll.
Feb. 2—W. C. I. at Ingersoll.
Feb. 4—College at St. Thomas.
Feb. 10—Ingersoll at W. C. I.
Feb. 11—St. Thomas at College.
Feb. 16—College at W. C. I.
Feb. 18—St. Thomas at Ingersoll.
Feb. 24—W. C. I. at St. Thomas.
Feb. 25—Ingersoll at College.

King Still Available.

Harry King, the local hockey player, whose services the St. Patricks are said to be angling for, has not heard anything from the management of the Toronto club for two or three weeks. The local speed artist is working out at the local arena, and it would not take long for him to get in shape. Asked tonight if he would consider an offer from the St. Patricks, King did not say definitely that he would, but stated that if the terms were satisfactory he would certainly give the proposition serious consideration.

BRANTFORD CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE OPENS THURSDAY

BRANTFORD, Jan. 17.—Six civic skating rinks were flooded this morning, and it is expected that there will be open air skating within a week's time. The weather is the coldest yet this winter, and the bringing to Brantford of the Paris O. H. A. games will make skating accommodation at the local rink somewhat cramped. The Big Four League has postponed its schedule until February 1, but the City League will open on Thursday night.

GUELPH'S CLOSE WIN OVER NEW HAMBURG 5--4

GUELPH, Jan. 18.—Guelph intermediates registered their first victory of the season in an O. H. A. fixture played here tonight, when they trimmed the fast New Hamburg sextet by 5 to 4. The game was one of the most thrilling that has been witnessed by local hockey enthusiasts this year, and both teams battled hard right up to the finish. For the visitors Lederman played a brilliant game in goal, while Seigner on right wing put up a remarkable exhibition. Craven and Little were best on the local line up.

GLENCOE RAN IN DOZEN GOALS ON WATFORD SIX

WATFORD, Jan. 18.—Glencoe had little trouble taking the locals into camp tonight by a 12—2 score. The visitors got a lead in the first period of 5—0.

Watford—Rogers, goal; Dodds, defence; Grier, centre; Irwin and Bruce, wings; S. Trenouth, Roche, spares.

The only losing rink was that skipped by Mr. Robson.

EXETER PUTS 9--1 WIN OVER GODERICH SAILORS

EXETER, Ont., Jan. 18.—Zurich won from Goderich at Exeter in the first intermediate O. H. A. game by a score of 9 to 1. The score by no means indicates the game, as it was very fast from start to finish. The home team went fast from the very start. Every man on the team was as strong at the finish as at the start. Hoffman brothers were the stars of the game. Lindmarsh played a very strong game. The largest crowd that ever witnessed a hockey match in Exeter were on their toes every minute to cheer the boys to victory. Tom Munro of London refereed and gave the greatest satisfaction, only three penalties being handed out. The home team scored three goals in each period. Goderich scored their tally in the last.

JACK KEARNS DENIES DEMPSEY-CARPENTIER FIGHT IS CANCELLED

Declares Forfeits of $50,000 For Each Pugilist Are Posted.

CREATES EXCITEMENT

Announcement of Cancellation of Match Made by New York Times.

New York, Jan. 19.—Tex Rickard, one of the promoters of the heavyweight championship bout between Jack Dempsey, title holder, and Georges Carpentier of France, denied this morning that the bout has been called off, as announced by the New York Times.

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—Forfeits of both Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier for $50,000 have been posted to insure their meeting for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world, according to Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, denying reports from New York last night that the fight had been concelled because the principals had failed to post their forfeit money. Kearns positively denied the New York reports that the fight had been called off in an interview given Harry Smith, sporting editor of the San Francisco Chronicle and published today.

"It is an absolute falsehood," Kearns is quoted as saying. "I am positive the deposits have been made, and are in the hands of Robert Edgren, who was named as the man with full power to act. My money was posted three days after the Carpentier coin was put in the bank, and I have my receipt in my New York office. I know also that the Frenchman left his coin in this country."

MONEY STILL IN BANK.

Paris, Jan. 19.—Georges Carpentier's forfeit as a guarantee for the contract he signed with Jack Dempsey for a bout to decide the heavyweight championship of the world, is being held by the Morgan-Harjes Bank of this city. It was deposited with this institution on November 22 last and is equivalent to $50,000.

CONFIRMATION LACKING.

New York, Jan. 19.—Official confirmation was lacking here early today of the announcement printed in the New York Times that the heavyweight championship boxing bout between Jack Dempsey, the title-holder, and Georges Carpentier of France had been definitely called off. Efforts to reach Tex Rickard and William A. Brady, two of the promoters, were unavailing. The third promoter, Charles B. Cochran, is in England.

The bout was cancelled, according to the announcement, because of the failure of the principals to deposit forfeit moneys, as was stipulated in the contracts recently signed.

The announcement created a furore in boxing circles in this city. In many well-informed quarters there was a disposition to believe that the reported cancellation was only a temporary expedient and that a new contract would be drawn up.

ANNOUNCES CANCELLATION.

New York, Jan. 19.—Announcement that the heavyweight bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier, for which the enormous sum of $500,000 had been offered, has been definitely declared off, was made last night by the New York Times. Failure of the principals to deposit forfeit moneys, as was provided for in the contract, was given as the reason for the cancellation.

According to the Times, the information comes from a man in close touch with the situation, and there is no question as to its authoritativeness.

$100,000 Deposits.

Under the terms of the contract for the bout, the promoters collectively agreed to deposit the sum of $100,000 as a guarantee of good faith. This sum was to be deposited with the Central Union Trust Company on or before November 20, 1920. The managers of the respective boxers agreed to deposit each $50,000 on the same date. As yet only one deposit has been made, Charles B. Cochran, the British promoter, who was largely instrumental in effecting the match, having given up his share of the money, amounting to $33,333.33, before returning to England. Manager Descamps, on behalf of Carpentier, posted a check on his return to France, but the money has never arrived here, the French Government objecting to the withdrawal of such a large sum of money from the country in view of the financial stringency. No deposit has ever been made by Manager Kearns on behalf of Dempsey. Under terms of the agreement, Dempsey was to receive $300,000 and Carpentier $200,000, "win, lose or draw," in each instance. The contract provided for the match to be held either in March, 1921, or between May 29, 1921, and July 4, 1921, at a place to be designated by the promoters. The contest was to be "not more than 15 rounds and not less than 10 rounds."

Articles for Bout.

The articles for the bout also provided that if the contest was to be held in March, the promoters would notify the boxers and their managers by registered mail not later than January 1. If the bout was to be held between May and July, the boxers were to be notified before March 1. In either event, the boxers were bound to be on the battleground in training forty days prior to the date of the match. While the failure to adhere to the deposit stipulations of the contract are the alleged compelling forces in dictating an abandonment of the bout, other elements, notably the recent action of the National Boxing Association in adopting a maximum price of $15 per seat for a championship contest, are believed to have entered into the situation.

Neither Tex Rickard nor William A. Brady, the two promoters on this side of the Atlantic, who were jointly responsible with Cochran for the $100,000 promoters' deposit, could be reached for a statement last night.

COULD NOT LEAVE HOUSE FOR WEEKS

Toronto Woman Spent Most of Her Time in Bed—Tanlac Restores Her.

"Nobody will ever know how much I suffered till I tried Tanlac, and I do say it is the best medicine I ever knew or heard of," said Miss Helen Parr, who lives at 7 Matilda street, Toronto.

"I was in a distressingly weak and rundown condition as a result of stomach trouble from which I had suffered for two years. I had lost my appetite and ate only enough to keep alive. I worried so much and was so nervous I could not sleep well at night, and in the morning felt so tired I could scarcely drag myself out of bed. I had a cold nearly all the time, as my system didn't have strength to throw it off. I was just wasting away and lost weight so rapidly I had a dread of what the outcome was going to be. There were weeks at a time when I felt so miserable I couldn't leave the house and I spent most of my time in bed.

"I'll never forget the debt of gratitude I owe a friend who told me about Tanlac. This medicine has made such a complete change in me I can hardly realize I am the same person. Before I finished the first bottle I felt a wonderful improvement and as I kept taking it all the old troubles left me. I have a splendid appetite, have gained in weight, sleep like a child, and in the morning feel bright and cheerful. Since Tanlac built me up, I have thrown off that cold that hung on so long, and, in fact, I have nothing left of the old troubles except the memory of them.

"It's a truly wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

HON. HUGH GUTHRIE SPEAKS ON BEHALF LAMBTON MEMBER

Minister of Militia To Deliver Address At Watford Tonight.

Petrolea, Jan. 18.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Canadian minister of militia, in a speech here tonight on behalf of Government interests, declared that a moderate protective tariff was necessary to maintain and build up industries.

The meeting in Victoria Hall is the first of a series of eight arranged by J. E. Armstrong, M.P. for East Lambton, to discuss federal issues with his constituents. Tomorrow evening Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Armstrong and Miss Ethel Clayton of Listowel, who spoke tonight, will deliver addresses in Watford.

Major George Moncrief, who presided, complimented Mr. Armstrong on his plan to give account of his stewardship in this way, rather than in the heat of an election, when the riding would be more or less deluged with speeches and literature.

Will Carry On.

Hon. Mr. Guthrie declared emphatically that the Government proposed to continue to the end of its proper term, and that the only people who desired otherwise were those with selfish interests in view.

The Government minister condemned the policy of Hon. T. A. Crerar as one that would spell ruin to Canadian industries.

J. E. Armstrong, M. P., gave an account of his work in Parliament, and urged support for himself and the Meighen Government.

ALLIED PREMIERS TO CONSIDER AUSTRIAN DEVELOPMENTS SOON

Question To Be Discussed at Coming Paris Conference.

Paris, Jan. 19.—The Austrian question may be taken up by the Allied premiers at their coming meeting here, it was learned today. If Mr. Lloyd George, the British prime minister, does not find himself obliged to return to London after the pressing questions of German reparations, German disarmament and the situation in the near east are considered, the reports made by the members of the Austrian section of the reparations commission, to the effect that it is impossible for the commission to make any headway toward a solution of the critical financial situation, will be considered by the premiers.

ONTARIO LIVE STOCK IN GOOD CONDITION

Straw and Ensilage Make an Excellent Bulky Ration for Cattle.

MILK FLOW

Keeping Up Well, Says the Department Report.

The following is a summary of reports made by the agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture:

Live stock may be said to have entered 1921 in good general condition and are being more freely fed on the whole than in more recent years. Hay is the only fodder not in full supply, there being a generous quantity of grain, roots, silage and straw on hand. Of the latter, the Leeds representative very practically says: "If farmers generally would appreciate the benefit of cutting straw and using a mixture of ensilage and straw as the basis of a bulky ration for cattle there would be fewer of them reporting a feed shortage. Most owners of cattle are not economical feeders, even of supplies they may have on hand."

A large number of farmers are well stocked with cattle, but hogs are less in number than for several years. The former are being marketed at prices ranging from 6½ to 9 cents a pound, and well-finished animals get higher figures. Dufferin reports that seven carloads of cattle were shipped from Orangeville last week. The Lennox and Addington representative states that there are some complaints of cattle being troubled with lice, for which he recommends linseed oil treatment.

The milk flow has been keeping up well for the time of year. A number of farmers in Lennox and Addington are planning to go more extensively into winter dairying next year. The Napanee branch of the Belleville Creamery made 211,000 pounds of butter during 1920, an increase of 55,000 pounds over the output of the preceding year.

Grey says: Holstein station in Egremont Township becoming a heavy shipper of both milk and cream.

Hogs are being sold at a somewhat heavier weight, as grain is cheaper than for several years. Bacon hogs on foot are now selling at from $14.75 to $16 a hundredweight.

At an auction sale held recently in the county of Grey, the 100-acre farm sold for $15,000. Two horses brought $245 each, grade cows $150, Shropshire ewes $28.50, with ewe lambs selling from $15 to $18. Horse buyers are making regular calls at shipping centres in the same county, and are picking up a number of good animals at prices running from $150 to $200. They are chiefly for shipment to the west.

Grey states that inquiries for sweet clover seed are coming from the west. Local buyers are now offering $3.75 a bushel, but farmers are slow to sell at that price.

Fall wheat fields have been bare in many localities a week or two, but the crop so far has shown little or no ill effect from the exposure.

Welland speaks of the unusual sight of some farmers plowing during the past week. Two other representatives report horses and cattle running out at time of writing.

Waterloo reports that a number of men who have been working in town are now looking for jobs on the farm. York says that very few farmers are inclined to hire men at present, holding back for a lowering of wages.

DETECTIVES DIGGING FOR BODY OF SMALL FIND AN EMPTY BOX

Excavations Made in Cellar in Montreal.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—Acting on information that the body of Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatre-owner of Toronto, missing since December 2, 1919, was buried in a cellar in this city, three Montreal detectives were seen this morning armed with the necessary implements to excavate for the body.

Guy street, close to His Majesty's Theatre, was the spot designated by the informer upon whose startling statements the detectives set to work to investigate, and if possible recover the body of the long-lost theatre owner. Detectives Gorman, Savard and O'Donnell, who were detailed, refused to say upon whose orders the search was conducted.

The detectives dug in the cellar of a private home. They found a box under a pile of stones beneath the cement floor. The box, however, on being opened, was found to be empty.

Daily Murder Makes Run On Insurance

Toledo Has Six Killings in Eight Days—Extra Clerks Needed.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 18.—Six murders in the last eight days have resulted in a run on insurance companies here, it was announced today. The applicants desire everything from protection from burglary to highway robbery and safe blowing, it was said.

It was added that the insurance companies are getting fancy prices for such policies, the issuing of which in some cases has required an extra force of clerks.

The killing here Monday of two railroad detectives during a $9,000 hold up was solved today by the confession of Edward Foley, 20 years old, claiming Omaha, Neb., as his home. He told the police he was in the party that killed A. L. Long and Louis Schroeder. He said he had been in Toledo only three weeks, and was captured when detectives swooped on a railroadmen's boardinghouse on Broadway street a few hours after the killing.

MOTION ILLEGAL NO NOTICE GIVEN

Proposal To Open and Close Meetings With Prayer Unconstitutional.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—Prayers that harmony may prevail during the deliberations of the board of education and that the trustees may devote their energies and industry to the good of the community will not, just now, become effective, because of a technical objection found by Trustees Wright and Conley. Ex-Chairman Wright found the procedure to establish an opening and closing invocation unconstitutional, as no previous notice of the movement had been given.

Three coaches and the engine passed the switch, but the remaining seven coaches left the rails, demolishing the freight engine and three freight cars and tearing up 500 feet of track.

Saw Baby Taken By Men in Auto

Police Are Investigating To See If Child Was Kidnapped.

DETROIT, Jan. 18.—With the report that three men in an auto were seen to seize a three-months-old baby from in front of a building at Fort and Brush streets today, the police have started an investigation to ascertain if any child of that age is missing.

Henry Rey of Windsor reported that while going to work he saw a man lay a baby on the sidewalk at Fort and Brush streets. A few minutes later, he said, an auto was driven up, two men leaped out, took the child and returned to the car, which sped away.

Rey said the child was not more than three months old. He said it was well wrapped in blankets, which appeared to be of good material. The child was crying when taken to the auto, he said.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, Jan. 19—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Speculative issues, particularly those which featured yesterday's late rally, were active and strong at the irregular opening of today's stock market. Canadian Pacific, American International, American Smelting, American Woolen, Corn Products and United States Rubber gained large fractions. Offsetting features comprised American Sugar, American Car, Republic Steel, Northern Pacific and Food products at reactions ranging from fractions to a full point. Exchange on London forfeited part of yesterday's extreme advances.

New York, Jan. 19.—Wall Street 1:30 p.m.—Gains were increased during the less active noon hour, General Electric, Mexican Pete, Crucible, Studebaker, Chandler, Utah Copper, Atlantic Gulf and National Enameling showing extreme advance of 2½ to 5½ points. WHEAT AND OATS BOTH ADVANCE

Live Hog Prices Show Slight Increase—Several Loads of Hay.

The local wheat market Wednesday again took on a stronger tone. The price per bushel advanced 5c. The bushel quotation is now $2 and $3.33 per hundredweight. The buying was active and the supplies were very small. These conditions are probably responsible for the jumps that have taken place this week. It is thought that wheat will go higher before the end of the week.

Oats also advanced. From $1.50 to $1.53 per hundredweight, and 51c and 52c per bushel were the prices paid. There is a good demand, and it is understood the supply is not any too large.

Although the country roads are still in a poor traveling condition, several loads of hay were offered for sale today. The demand has not been as active this week as last, so prices were somewhat easier. Clover and timothy hay sold for $26 and $28 per ton.

One load of straw brought $12 per ton.

The supplies of live hogs for shipment to Toronto Wednesday were small and the result was that the price advanced 25c per hundredweight. The ruling quotations now are $14.50 and $14.75 per hundredweight. Fat sows sold for $9.50 and $9.75 per hundredweight. Live hog prices have been subject to advances this week, but dressed lots have remained unchanged. They sell for $20 and $21 per hundredweight. Front quarters of pork sell for 23c and 24c per pound, and hinds at 24c and 25c per pound.

MORE SCHOOLS ARE NEEDED IN SARNIA

SARNIA, Jan. 18.—"The condition here in regard to shortage of accommodation is general throughout the province," said Rev. John R. Hall, chairman of the board of education, in discussing the situation before the council. "It is no consolation to know that we are on the same footing as other cities."

He emphasized the seriousness of the matter and pointed out that it will be impossible to admit any more pupils at the collegiate at Easter, and next summer only in proportion to those passing out. He urged that action be taken immediately to provide more accommodation. It was decided to go into the matter shortly and see what can be done.

IN MEMORIAM.

JACQUES.—In loving memory of our dear mother, who died two years ago, January 19, 1919.

We watched her suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief,
To see her slowly pine away
And could not give relief.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hands once more
In heaven, that happy life.
—Deeply Mourned by Sons and Daughters. b

MILLER—In loving memory of Mary Delia Miller, who passed away two years ago today.

More and more each day we miss her,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within our hearts concealed.

OPTIMISTIC ABOUT EMBARGO REMOVAL

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 18.—Hon. Manning Doherty, Ontario minister of agriculture, is still optimistic as to the removal of the Canadian cattle emargo.

"The latest advices I have from the old country," says the minister, "are that public opinion has now been aroused to such a point that they are demanding the removal of the embargo. The publicity campaign is proceeding very satisfactorily, and my own expectation is that the embargo will be removed before the summer."

Hon. Mr. Doherty's comment was made after he read the cabled statement of the British minister of agriculture that the embargo could not be raised for Canada because it would mean doing the same for other countries.

PROTEST AGAINST SALE OF MARKET

Property Owners Will Ask That Proposed Bill Be Negatived.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—The property owners in the neighborhood of Centre and William streets are circulating a written protest against the sale of any part of St. Andrew's Market site to the owners of the Red Foundry. A bill will be put through the legislative committee of the Provincial House at the session, vesting the ownership of the premises in the city. The protesting residents are demanding that the bill be negatived unless a rider is attached, declaring that the market square will be used only for a park or given over to play ground purposes.

Altar Society Officers.

The Holy Angels' Altar Society has elected Mrs. John Farrell president; Mrs. P. Meehan, financial secretary; Mrs. C. W. Regan, treasurer; Mrs. Murphy, recording secretary.

Mr. W. Harry Heard, St. George street, is suffering from a severe touch of blood poisoning.

Will Donate Roadway.

Dr. C. C. Lumley will give a right-of-way without any compensation from the city from St. George street to the athletic grounds.

Lorne M. Bradley, formerly of the Times-Journal, and later with Gagnier Publications, New York, has been appointed Eastern United States manager, Canadian Home Journal, Saturday Night and Canadian Farmer, at New York.

PLAN TO RENOVATE COUNCIL CHAMBER

Temporary Employment Will Be Given To Men Out of Work.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—Number four committee considered the renovating and cleaning up of the council chamber at a special meeting tonight, and tenders will be asked from local painters and others who are willing to undertake the job.

Col. Gerrard and Manager Peacock will be asked to assist in finding some idle men to assist in the work. A committee was named to look into the offer of the application of Isi Sepo for a license to open an eating house at 755 Talbot street was laid over until the premises are examined as to its sanitary conditions by the health officer.

Dr. C. C. Lumley to open up a roadway from St. George street to the athletic grounds and make a recommendation at the next meeting of the committee.

An account for supplies purchased by the mother allowance board for an indigent was refused payment until the committee investigate and as well interview the secretary of the board.

The buildings in Pinafore Park will be examined and an estimate made of the cost of their repair will be submitted later.

Ald. Stokes suggested that as a number of conventions will be held in the city during the year that the municipal play grounds be placed in a presentable shape and the proposed additional lavatory be erected.

MAY NOT ACCEPT POSITION OF BAILIFF

Salary May Not Be Sufficient For Recent Appointee.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—The trades and labor council deny the story in a London paper that that body indorsed the appointment of Phillip Bassett as local bailiff and that Ald. Hookway had signed the petition for Mr. Bassett's nomination.

May Refuse Job.

Mr. Bassett may not now accept the position unless the remuneration for his services is substantially increased. The amount allowed the bailiff is regulated by fees, and for the last few years the revenue from the business has dropped to starvation figures. It is understood that the late Mr. Smiley in the palmiest days of the office did not make over $700 yearly.

GIVEN MASONIC FUNERAL.

INGERSOLL, Jan. 18.—Many citizens as well as others from a distance this afternoon attended the funeral of Roderick A. Sutherland, for eighteen years chief of the fire department, who died suddenly Saturday night. The funeral was under Masonic auspices. The Rev. Geo. W. Wood, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, officiated. The pallbearers were Geo. Naylor, MacWallace, A. MacAulay, George Sutherland, John E. Boles and H. E. Hutt.

TEMPERANCE ACT TO BE AMENDED

Authority To Search Boats At Border Predicted by Inspector.

WINDSOR, Jan. 18.—Amendment of the Ontario temperance act to permit searching of yachts was predicted tonight by Inspector W. J. Lannin. Such an amendment, according to Mr. Lannin, will probably be made at the next session of the Legislature, unless the judgment given by Judge Middleton against Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin is reversed in a higher court. Spracklin was ordered to pay $500 damages to O. E. Fleming, whose yacht he searched. Mr. Lannin says such legal power is necessary to check rum-running on the border.

91ST BATTALION TO BE REORGANIZED

School of Instruction Will Open in St. Thomas February 7.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—The formation of a skeleton battalion by the colonel and officers of the 91st has been ordered by the officer commanding this district.

The officers will ask the city council for a grant of $500 for the band and the department will be asked for a donation.

Major Edwards and Capt. Ponsford have been named a committee to confer with Lieut.-Col. Green to have the funds held by the treasurer of the finance committee of the 25th Regiment, now the 91st, transferred to the reorganized battalion. Sixteen officers have signified their intention of joining the school of instruction, which will open in the local armories February 7.

EX-MEMBERS MAY DEMAND INQUIRY

Object To Summary Dismissal From Health Board by Council.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 18.—The members of the board of health, ex-Aldermen Hookway and John C. Lang, who automatically retired at the end of the year, object to their summary dismissal by the council without formulating some charge or complaint why they should not be reappointed. Neither of the ex-members had asked to be relieved of his responsibilities, nor were they approached by any member of the council to remain on the job. Nor did the newly-appointed members of the board apply to fill the vacant chairs. The statement is made that because of the hostility of the old board to the extension of storm sewers throughout the city on sanitary grounds the members were not favored for reappointment by some of the aldermen. This assertion is denied by the board of works. The successors to the old regime are Ald. G. E. Hill and Dr. A. Turner. An inquiry will be demanded by the friends of the former members of the board.

KLOOR DOES NOT MENTION FIGHT

Conduct of Balloonists in No Way Questionable, Says Commander.

ROCKAWAY, Jan. 18.—Carefully avoiding any mention of the fist fight between Lieut. Hinton and Lieut. Farrell, which brought to a surprising denouement their recent balloon flight to James Bay and tramp back to civilization, Lieut. Louis A. Floor, jr., who commanded the party, described their experiences in detail today before the court of inquiry investigating the affair under orders from Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

"Newspaper accounts have reflected on the actions of your two companions," the court told Lieut. Kloor. "Now state what you know of the personal conduct of the part from the time of leaving the air station until your return."

Picking his words slowly, Lieut. Kloor paid high tribute to the personal conduct of his companions until they reached Mattice, where the altercation occurred "That's all I have to say," he declared, but the court reminded him his story had not yet brought the airmen back to Rockaway.

Left Private Car.

Then he mentioned that Lieut. Hinton had left the private car in which the two of them were seated shortly after arriving at Mattice to deliver to Lieut. Farrell Secretary Daniel's order against granting interviews.

"Hinton said he would tell Farrell, and in doing so he had to go to the Hudson Bay Company's store, after which he returned to the rooms we were occupying in the private car," Lieut. Kloor said.

It was while Hinton was gone on this mission that the fight occurred, but the witness made no mention of it.

SENSATION OVER LIQUOR CHARGES

Brockville Cab Driver Alleges Inspector Took "Protection" Money.

BROCKVILLE, Jan. 18.—Sensational charges against License Inspector F. B. Taber and License Prosecutor C. R. Deacon were sworn to by James M. Young, a cab driver, at the investigation ordered by Attorney-General Raney which was resumed today.

Young alleges among other charges that he had enjoyed the protection of the license officers for four or five months' last summer; that on two occasions he had procured liquor from Taber's house with the knowledge of that official; that he had acted as a stool pigeon in the projected arrest of two United States residents to whom he had furnished liquor to take across the St. Lawrence River, and that he had "double-crossed" the license officers by allowing the men to escape with the liquor; that Deacon had asked him to "frame up" evidence on a suspected party by placing liquor in the suspect's barn, a scheme to which Taber had been opposed, witness said; that an enormous lot of liquor had gone to his house under assumed names with the knowledge of the license officers, but that no seizure or arrest had been made in connection therewith; that William Warren, another license officer, had secured liquor for him; that he had paid Deacon $100 on two occasions for protection; and that both Deacon and Taber had said to him that there were complaints of him running a distillery and asking him to desist from selling liquor.

Letter Exhibited.

A letter, addressed "Jim" purporting to have been signed by Deacon, was exhibited by Young. It told him to secure more liquor at Taber's house. Young was not represented by counsel.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Deacon and H. A. Stewart, K.C., the latter acting for Mr. Taber, Young failed to substantiate several of the charges.

Offered To Withdraw.

Samuel Bromley, provincial license inspector, Pembroke, testified that Young, in the presence of Taber and Deacon, had offered to withdraw the charges at a preliminary investigation which he had conducted, and said that they were all lies. Bromley stated that he considered Taber and Deacon among the best officers of the license board.

Both Taber and Deacon vigorously denied the charges which followed the conviction of Young's wife for selling liquor.

The investigation is unfinished.

GLOVER CRITICISES MEDICAL ACADEMY

Toronto Doctor Says Clinic Shows Cases Apparently Cured.

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—"As the Academy of Medicine have seen fit to use the press in order to give their report as wide a publicity as possible without first communicating with me, as one medical man would expect from another, I feel it my duty to reply to their report through the same medium," said Dr. T. J. Glover, who returned to his office from New York today and handed out a statement in reply to the report of the special committee of the Academy of Medicine.

"Up to date I have not received any official report from the Academy of Medicine regarding the findings of their committee.

"My clinics show that I have apparently cured cases of cancer which could not be improved by operation, administration of radium or X-ray methods. This can be verified by both doctors and patients.

"On the morning of October 14," he continued, "an American authority on the subject of cancer, after examining many cases, stated to me in the presence of another medical man that the serum appeared to be a cure.

"I understand that he expressed the same view that afternoon at the meeting of the special committee of the Academy of Medicine.

"Every case submitted to the special committee had been previously diagnosed by competent and reliable medical and surgical men, and every known test had been made to arrive at a correct diagnosis."

RESCUED FROM 55-FOOT WELL

Aged Brantford Man Lay Unconscious On Cross-Timber, After Fall.

BRANTFORD, Jan. 18.—Descending by means of a long rope and a ladder into a 55-foot well, Assistant Fire Chief Kingswell this afternoon effected the rescue of aged John Kerr, who had fallen through the planking at the mouth of the well when he went to get water. He struck a cross timber at the water level 40 feet down, and though unconscious, had lain there for some time before the firemen could reach him. The assistant chief was lowered into the old well and secured the old man to a short ladder which was drawn up with the aid of a rope. Kerr will survive the shock, the doctors say as no bones were broken.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmint used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.—Advt.

LONDON CLUBMEN HEAR HOW TO GET SANE GOVERNMENT

"Community Engineering" Is Theme of Clear-Cut Address by Dr. Horace L. Brittain of Citizens' Research Institute of Canada.

One of the most notable gatherings in the history of the city of London was that which assembled in the Tecumseh House last night to listen to an address on sane methods of government given by Dr. Horace L. Brittain, Toronto, director of the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada. The meeting was made up of large representations from the combined clubs of the city, including the Chamber of Commerce, the Canadian Club, the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis Club and the Advertising Club. It was a business meeting for businessmen, and the principal theme of the speaker of the evening may be summed up in the words—"Community engineering."

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown presided and introduced Dr. Brittain, who said that the function of the organizations represented that evening in inoculating all public bodies with the gospel of efficient service would do much to solve the problems of the day. The topic upon which he was to speak was "The Government and the Citizens." There was a limit to the things a government could do, and much depended on the intelligence of the citizens and their interest in what was being done.

Growth of Governmental Functions.

"Early forms of government," said the speaker, "were very simple, the solitary function being the protection of persons and property, and for many centuries governments did not attempt very much more in the line of community service. Any large modern community, however, has dozens of highly specialized services which may be classified under the following heads: Protection of persons and property, health and sanitation, highways, education, recreation, charities and correction, and the various public service enterprises which are becoming so common in British and Canadian cities.

"Some of us here can remember when it was a common thing far garbage collection to be carried on by private enterprise, when roadways were owned by private individuals and maintained by tolls, when education was largely a matter of private enterprise, and when public health work was unknown. Everything points to the steady increase in the number and complexity of government services and in the amount subtracted annually from private incomes to defray public expenditures on services benefitting individuals.

"It is becoming more and more necessary, therefore, that all public expenditures be carefully scrutinized by the individual taxpayers and by organizations of citizens, that the quality and quantity of services rendered through these expeditures be carefully valuated, that public reports be more explicit and readable, and that the efficiency of the people's boards of management be greatly increased.

Failure to Interest Citizens.

"One of the great problems which representative democracy must face and solve is how to hold the active interest of the garden variety of citizens in these times. The good old word 'politician' has fallen on evil days, until in some quarters it is looked upon as a term of reproach, whereas it should stand for all that is best in public service. The word 'politics' has not fared much better. We often hear expressions like this: 'It will go all right if there are no politics in it.' Politics has so long been the stamping ground of the special pleader and the man with an axe to grind that the word has almost lost its original meaning, although the more students of the science and more practitioners of the art of government we have, the better.

The Man Who Won't Vote.

"It is a common practice to belabor mayors and members of boards of control, city councils and boards of education for their shortcomings. We have all met the man who won't vote, because it isn't worth while, or because he won't soil his hands in what he considers a dirty mess. Frequently the man who is loudest in his condemnation of the city fathers is the man who shirks his duties as a citizen. As a matter of fact, the only citizens who have a right to criticise are those who have participated in public affairs, at least to the extent of excercising their statutory powers. One who fails to vote has no license to 'grouch.' The men and women who don't vote are frequently more responsible for undesirable conditions than those who do, and the man who casts a mistaken vote is more to be commended than one who doesn't vote at all. He has at least performed one positive act of citizenship.

"Councils, boards and parliaments are but committees of citizens. A clear appreciation of this fact by all citizens would work a revolution in all departments of government. Those who are horrified by the ravings of the revolutionaries, that all governments should be abolished, because, as they claim, democratic government has broken down, are frequently the same men who supply ammunition to the revolutionaries by ungenerous and destructive criticism and by failure to participate in government by discharging their personal duties. The answer to the revolutionist is not vituperation. The only answer is to disprove his assertions by making government and citizenship efficient.

Community Engineering.

"Most failures in civil engineering are due to faulty data, insufficient data, or wrong analysis and interpretation of data. Community engineering is also handicapped by the number of people who know facts which are not true, by the absence of facts or the misinterpretation of those facts which are available. No one would think of erecting a skyscraper or building a railroad without thorough investigation on the ground, yet new public ventures are entered upon and new governmental organizations are set up every year without adequate research. The armchair is no place in which to do community planning. Surveys are as necessary here as in any other department of human activity.

The Creed of the Institute.

"Perhaps the most succinct statement of the fundamental faith of the institute is to be found in the following quotations from the pamphlet 'Canada Pays':

"Accurate and timely information is the chief weapon of the public-spirited citizen; public-spirited citizens are the only guarantee of efficient government: efficient government is the only assurance of adequate service, economy of operation and high municipal, provincial and national credit."

"Experience has shown that for every dollar lost through dishonesty ten or a hundred are lost through lack of information, misinformation and lack of planning. Education in citizenship is the only permanent cure for inefficiency and waste in public affairs."

Dr. Brittain then gave an interesting account of the origin of the institute in Toronto, and stated that it had three main activities: General research and publicity; special research and publicity; co-operation with public bodies and officials in effecting reorganizations.

"Mutual confidence," concluded the speaker, "is the foundation-stone of organized society. Without it governments can no longer exist and peoples can no longer maintain themselves. Suspicion is negative, destructive; confidence is positive, constructive. Every Canadian should have confidence in his country, its people and its future, and be able to give a reason for the faith that is in him. But no government should take a dollar from us that will be misspent. It is an immoral thing for a government to waste money or to spend money for things that are not needed."

Mayor Little complimented Dr. Brittain on the excellence of his address, and said that it spoke well for the new era in national life that citizens were taking a real interest in governmental affairs.

Alex Mitchell, in behalf of the Kiwanis Club, pledged the support of this organization to the ideals so ably defined by Dr. Brittain.

On the motion of Robert Greene, president of the Canadian Club, seconded by James Gray, president of the Rotary Club, Dr. Brittain was cordially thanked for his splendid address, and A. E. Silverwood, Lieut.-Col. Ibbotson Leonard, A. J. Mitchell and Lieut.-Col. Brown were named as a committee to arrange the preliminaries for the establishment of the branch of the institute in this city.

DECLINES $200 EXTRA INCREASE

Rev. G. A. Leichliter Limits Own Salary To Original Recommendation.

He was a preacher, and perhaps that accounted for it, but to say the least, Rev. G. A. Leichliter of Adelaide Street Baptist Church, this city, established an unusual precedent on Tuesday night, when he refused to accept an increase of salary of $800 per annum, which had been voted unanimously by the members of the church at their annual business meeting. Rev. Mr. Leichliter insisted that the increase should be limited to $600, a sum previously recommended in the report of the finance committee. After a long-drawn discussion he persuaded the meeting to accede to his wishes.

Report Presented.

The chairman of the finance committee presented as part of his report a resolution that Mr. Leichliter's salary should be increased from $2,700 per annum to $3,300. He expressed the belief that the church owed to the pastor some substantial indication of the appreciation in which it held his wonderful service and leadership.

Many people spoke to the motion. None of them seemingly could speak too highly of the man who had served them so well. One sitting on the outskirts of the large gathering rose and briefly said: "I only wish that the finance committee had seen its way clear to recommend that the salary should be $3,500."

This speech was greeted with applause and finally one of the oldest members of the congregation suggested that it should be put to the meeting as an amendment to the finance committee's report. There were no objections. When the amendment was put to the vote of the people there was not a dissenting voice, at least not until the pastor stepped to the platform.

Declared Out of Order.

He requested that the motion should be reconsidered, as he felt that he could not accept more than $3,300 a year. He was promptly declared out of order by the chairman, but he retorted that no one could dictate to a Baptist preacher but his wife. Despite several protests he remained firm in his decision. He told the members that if they insisted that he should accept it he would return the difference on the collection plate.

He finally won out. The question was reconsidered and in deference to his expressed wishes the amendment was withdrawn.

By a unanimous vote, O. Leo Herbert of Brantford received the appointment of organist to the church at a salary of $1,000 per annum. Mr. Herbert is to be granted one month with pay each year as holidays. It was announced that Mr. Herbert was a young man, who was rapidly rising in his profession.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Church clerk, William Gurney; minute clerk, Miss M. McNeal; treasurer, G. Bedggood; financial secretary, Luther L. Bissett; envelope book clerk, T. Morgan; membership clerk, W. Gurney; envelope clerks, J. Manning and F. Tuttler; pianist and assistant, Miss Verna Sloan and Mrs. J. Dey, and reporter to The Baptist, Miss V. Branton.

The following were elected to the finance committee: J. K. McDermid, E. Noel, D. H. Gillies, A. E. Bown, F. C. Pierce, W. Wigmore, F. J. Shortt, T. Morgan, G. Bedggood, W. H. Watson, E. Unsted, O. G. Keene, L. L. Bissett. Mrs. Caldwin was appointed to the mission committee as chairman, with power to add. The members of the board of deacons whose terms had expired were re-elected unanimously.

According to reports made by the different committees and departments, the past year was the most successful in the history of the congregation. Each department reported progress, and in the finance report showed substantial surpluses.

The church showed a surplus of $144.31, while the total amount for all departments was $1,168.45. Sixty-seven new members were added to the church during the year, bringing the total membership to 555 persons.

PROBE ADJOURNED.

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—At the request of Col. T. A. Gibson, counsel for the Spanish River Pulp and Paper Company, the timber probe was adjourned today until next Monday. Col. Gibson claimed that the investigation had been brought on without notice to the company and he had not been given an opportunity to consult with officers of the company upon certain matters which would come up in evidence. Mr. Justice Riddell readily agreed to this.
