REPORT OF THE
MONTREAL WOMEN'S CLUB,

FOR 1893-94.

Our Club is now about to close the second year of its existence, and notwithstanding our youthfulness as a society, I think we shall find, even in such a necessarily limited retrospect as an annual report, that we need not apologize either for the quality or the quantity of the work we have done. Neither need we enter upon any defence of our raison d'être, for when we remember the limited opportunities afforded to women in Montreal it will surely be clear to every intelligent person that it was indeed time for women to study and discuss questions relating not alone to their welfare as a sex, but questions whose solution has a direct bearing on the well-being of humanity. When we remember that women have no seat on the school boards, nor hospital boards; that they are directly excluded from the Faculty of Medicine of our chief University; that our General Hospital and the Royal Victoria have refused to admit women medical students to their bedside clinics, and that even now, as has been lately declared by the Dean of the Medical Faculty of Bishop's College, the only place where women can obtain a medical education in this Province, a scheme is on foot to cause its downfall; that it is now sought to establish as a precedent that no woman, however unquestioned her qualifications, need apply for the post of principal in a mixed school; that the School of Art and Design of this city, an institution supported by the Government, refuses to women students the tuition that it freely gives to men : when we remember these disabilities, and many others that I have not space to mention, and consider that they are the result of ignorance and intolerance, we surely are doing right in casting light into such dark places, so that the on-coming of the clear day of knowledge and sympathy may be hastened, and that we may be found, like the wise virgins, in readiness for the high opportunities that have been won for us. For these objects our Club has been formed, and looking back we find ourselves in a prosperous condition. Our membership has increased, and our enthusiasm has suffered no diminution. So far our existence as a Club may have been more or less experimental, but we now feel ourselves on a firm basis and may look forward to a long and extended career of usefulness, not dreading even a little adversity, for that puts us on our mettle, develops our loyalty, exposes our weaknesses that we may strengthen them, and better equips us for our important work. As to our internal working, I need not refer to the department work, as you have already heard their reports. Apart from those already mentioned we have had two courses of three lectures each. The subjects of the first course were : "Co-operative House-keeping," by Mr. Roswell Fisher ; "Hogarth," by Mr. Karl Boissevain, and "London in the 18th Century," by Mr. W. N. Evans. These lectures were of the most interesting character and were not only entertaining in the best sense but highly instructive. The three lectures of the second course were given by Percy C. Ryan B.C.L. and related to the "Legal Status of Women, in this Province of Quebec." Too much praise could not be given to this course which displayed not only exceptional ability, legal and otherwise, but also a sympathy and a practical generosity that were appreciated by the members. One of the practical questions taken up by the Club, was the lunch arrangement at the Girls' High School. Our efforts in this direction were successful it being now possible for the children to obtain a nutritious lunch in the building. Furthermore the school authorities have shown a most gratifying readiness now that attention has been drawn to the serious nature of the question to thoroughly look into the matter and have submitted it to medical experts who reported strongly against the system in use for so many years and it is probable that another school year will see the evil entirely done away, which reform will be the result of our efforts in drawing attention to its necessity. Another practical matter that engaged our attention was the Quebec law as relating to factories. It has been resolved to petition the powers that be to appoint a Woman Inspector. It is gratifying to see in this connection that the National Council of Women of Canada has taken up this same question and we are glad to find our efforts in this direction so ably supplemented. Other public matters that engaged our attention were a petition to the Royal Victoria Hospital, which was eloquently supported in person by His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada, asking that women medical students be admitted to its clinics, but which the hospital authorities found themselves unable to grant; and a petition to be presented to the School of Art and Design which it is hoped will be favorably received.

This year the Club federated with the M. L. C. of the National C. of Women of Canada and a fact which shows the position held by our Club in public opinion is worthy of note; viz, that of six delegates, selected from the M. L. Council which represents 32 federated societies to attend the Conference held at Ottawa, this last month (April) two delegates were respectively the President and Secretary of the Montreal Women's Club. We have during the year subscribed to the Volunteer Electoral League, an organization for the purifying of our civic politics, and our sympathy was very cordially received by that body.

Our internal management has greatly increased its usefulness by striking three new committees, Rooms, Social and Library. Under the first the club-room has been furnished and the nucleus of a library has been formed.

During the visit of Her Excellency Lady Aberdeen in December, 1893, the Club tendered a reception which took place on the second of that month. This proved most enjoyable and Her Excellency charmed the members by her cordial sympathy and her gracious interest in their work.

A very successful Greek tea was given during the Winter by the Social Committee which not only demonstrated their ability in this direction, but replenished the treasury and proved the most delightful function of the season.

Financially our affairs are in a flourishing condition as the end of the year will find a surplus in the Bank.

The membership has increased steadily; from 34 members on December 16th, 1892, we have increased in 17 months to 76. We have lost one member by death. This, Madam President, closes the record of work that on unsolicited personal testimony has been stimulating in the best sense to many in need of a bracing, uplifting influence, and that must be encouraging to all who wish to see things as they are, that they may hasten the day of a better understanding.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGUERITA MACNAUGHTON,

Recording Secretary.

This being the first printed report of the Club, it is necessary to describe briefly the circumstances preceding and subsequent to its formal organization so as to complete the printed record of the Club's history.

On December 7th, 1892, a number of ladies at Mrs. Robert Reid's invitation met at her residence to hear addresses from Mrs. Celia P. Woolley, of Chicago, and Mrs. Julia Plato Harvey, Vice-President of the Chicago Women's Club. These two ladies had just completed a tour through the United States, delivering a series of addresses to some of the most prominent Women's Clubs. On Mrs. Reid's invitation they came to Montreal to speak on the subject of Women's Clubs. After a most interesting address on the organization and work of such societies, an informal discussion on the desirability of forming one in Montreal took place, and as there seemed to be a general feeling in favour thereof, a committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. R. Reid, Mrs. R. C. Adams, Mrs. Costigan, Mrs. Macnaughton and Miss Hunter, to arrange matters for a public meeting which was held in the Fraser Institute, on Friday, December 16th, 1892. It was then unanimously decided that a Club be formed, the object being to promote agreeable and useful relations among women of artistic, literary, scientific and philanthropic tastes. After discussion the name was decided on as the Montreal Women's Club and the work was arranged to be done in the following departments Home and Education, Art and Literature, and Social Science.

A provisional constitution was presented and discussed and the following executive was provisionally elected. President, Mrs. Robert Reid ; First Vice-President, Mrs. Sinton ; Treasurer, Mrs. R. D. McGibbon ; Secretary, Mrs. W. G. Macnaughton. This with the addition of Mrs John Lovell as Second Vice-President became the permanent executive for the year.

At this organization meeting thirty-four ladies signed the membership roll.

SYNOPSIS OF

Report of Montreal Women's Club

FOR SEASON 1892-93.

The Club having only been organized in December, 1892, there is not a great deal to report for the season. Much time was taken up in evolving a workable constitution and preparing the programme for the remainder of the year.

The Home and Education Department presented the following subjects for discussion, "Do our schools and colleges offer the best possible advantages to women?" by Miss G. Hunter, and "Some aspects of our education in the fine arts," by Mrs. Clarke Murray. The Social Science Department gave a paper by Mrs. R. C. Adams on "Self-Supporting Women" and the Art and Literature department gave essays on the following subjects "Whittier by Mrs. McKim," George William Curtis by Mrs. J. Lovell and "The Philosophy of Tennyson" by the Rev. W. S. Barnes.

A lecture on "Woman's legal position in the Province of Quebec" was given by Mr. W. J. White B. C. L., during the year.

The club was incorporated April 4th, 1893, Mr. W. D. Lighthall having carried through the necessary legal formalities gratuitously; petitions were presented to the Western Hospital asking the appointment of a lady, Dr. Grace Ritchie, on the out-door staff and to the Legislature and the Montreal Council, asking for the appointment of women on the Board of School Commissioners. At the annual meeting the following executive was elected for 1893-94:

Mrs. R. Reid, President; Mrs. J. Lovell and Mrs. W. T. Costigan, Vice-Presidents; Mrs. W. G. Macnaughton, Recording Secretary; Mrs. J. C. Sinton, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. R. D. McGibbon, Treasurer.

Directors of Home and Education—Miss G. Hunter, Miss A. Smith, Miss E. Lovell.

Directors of Social Science—Mrs. R. C. Adams, Mrs. R. G. Brown, Mrs. James Shearer.

Directors of Art and Literature—Mrs. W. T. Cumming, Mrs. McKim, Miss Costigan.

The last meeting of the season, held on May 26th, 1893, was of a social nature.

MARGUERITA MACNAUGHTON,

Recording Secretary.
