The Love of Christ. BY MRS. SIGOURNEY

"Unto Him who loved us, and gave himself for us, and saled us from our sins in his own blood."-Revelation. How hath he loved us? Ask the star That on its wondrous mission sped Hung trembling o'er that manger scene. Where the Messiah bow'd his head : He who of earth doth seal the doom, Found in her lowliest inn-no room.

Judea's mountains, lift your voice, With legends of the Saviour fraught Speak, favour'd Olivet, so oft At midnight's prayerful vigil sought : And Cedron's brook, whose rippling wave Frequent his weary feet did lave.

How hath He loved us? Ask the band That fled his woes with breathless haste Ask the weak friend's denial tone, Scarce by his bitterest tears effaced ; Ask of the traitor's kiss ; and see What Jesus hath endured for thee

Ask of Gethsemane, whose dews Shrunk from that moisture, strangely red : Which in that unwatch'd hour of pain, Ilis agonizing temples shed ! The scourge, the thorn, whose anguish sore, Like the unanswering lamb, he bore !

How hath He loved us ? Ask the cross, The Roman spear, the shrouded sky ! Ask of the sheeted dead, who burst Their cerements at his fearful cry O ask no more; but bow thy pride, And yield thy heart to Him who died !

FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.] Memoirs of Joseph Gaynor, Esq., of Fredericton, N. B.

BY THE REV. CHARLES CHURCHILL. The removal by death from the Church, of Christ of one so well known and so universally esteemed as Brother JOSEPH GAY-NOR of Fredericton, demands some record in the columns of the Provincial Wesleyan as, a permanent record of departed worth. first name was seldom used, and by it he was little known) was born in the city of St. John, January 31st, 1795. His father was originally from Ireland, and as well as service of God. his mother --- whose maiden name was Seely -came to this country, being both staunch Lovalists, at the time of the American Revolution in 1783-the former from Newport, Rhode Island, the latter from Connecticut. The former settled in St. John, the latter, with her parents, on Long Island, in the river St. John.

Of two brothers and two sisters, one of each of which still survive, Joseph appears to have been the second; but of his early life no records are found amongst the papers he has left behind hun, until in the year 1817 he is found occupying a position as clerk in a store in the city of Fredericton, from which peried h was a resident in the same city until the time of his death.

He appears at this time to have become the subject of serious impressions, which eventuated in his conversion to God in the early part of the following year, at which time he became a member of the Wesleyan Church. Many who have heard the narralive from his own lins, as well as the writer, will remember the humiliating record of his position anterior to this time, the extremity which served only to fix his feet the firmer in the position which he immediately ested in his salvation. In the year 1838 he commenced a diary of his Christian experience, which he continued with some interruptions until Dec. 25, 1855, when the last record was penned. In the spring of 1855 he commenced a narrative of his early life, from which some of the above facts are taken; but it is to be regretted that he only carried out the design to the extent of a single folio page.
