We shall await the intelligence of her arrival at Liverpool with interest, as an anticipated improvement in the construction and speed of vessels which confallen below the expectations of those who were prepared for a deficiency. Some months ago well-informed journals spoke of 2,700,000 bales lesser quantities were stated; but, now that the shipping returns are nearly com-plets, it turns out that the total crop will not exceed 2,000,000 bales. The rise in the price may compensate the planters to some extent, and ele-vate the money value of the export to the standard of former years; but the shipping employed in the carrying trade suffer severely from the export freight in the Southern ports speak very clearly on this point, vessels having accepted as low as one-sighth of a penny per lb. The new trade which has sprung up with California and the West coast of North America may draw off many ships which under other circumstances, would now be seeking freights, nevertheless a fall in the hern shipping ports must ever otely have some influence upon the freights ida, unices our export trade be turned off towards New York through Lake Champlain, a result anticipated by some of our traders.

There is at last a gleam of light breaking through the mists which thus far shrouded from view the prospect of a settlement of the Reciprocity question; but the solution of the difficulty new journal of Science, some work of Art, and only adds another proof of our absolute impotence, as Colonists, to conduct any negotiations with a Poreign Fawer: The Americans are a mighty nuritime nation, growing in washing affil strength, tonnage approaching in magnitude to the external tonnage of the Republic. THE MESSAGE BIRD." A Literary and Musical Journal, published by M. T. Brockelbank & Co , No. 2, Astor House, Broadway, Nev York.

On a former occasion, we noticed the introdu ion of the first number of this journal to the citizens of Montreal, and gave our opinion as to the merits, character, and general plan of its publica-tion. The present is certainly the Age of Printing: and the facilities which have been given to this Art, have, in some degree, overstocked that demand for literary productions which were desired by the natural and progressive movements of a former period. The Press has covered the land with its daily ssues, its illustrated sheets, and its attractive Pictorials. There comes to us by every Mail, s some new development based upon Chemical or Philosophical agency hitherto unknown. The rapid introduction of these journals and essays would seem to require in every city a public tri-bunal of letters, a Censor to preside, and a Mocceins, an internal navigation, which employs a vidual capacity, (if we may so speak,) is unable accurately and carefully to review the various productions submitted to its directors. It would be an endless, distasteful, and unpro fitable labor, to wade through mere pages of print ed matter for the discovery of one or two fine turned saide by a pelicy as enlightened as that as butterfly attractions, perish with the day that which suggested to the British Minister to prenada and sorious, and it is gratifying to acknowledge that morracy. The waters of the St. Lawrence have cover of adornment. On the occasion of the appearance of the first number of the Message Bird, nome months since, we did not hesitate to place it in the first rank of any aimilar publication i North America. Its subsequent productions, the character it has sustained as an able and faithful exponent of the Divine Art, and the well known abilities of those who conduct it, have fully jusfified the opinions then expressed. We said then of the Americans, the features are essentially differsal—they do not covet our carrying trade, they received as a welcome guest in every enlightened propose to conduct a trade purely American, making use, for that purpose, of our canals and who cultivate Music in its higher and more refined susceptibilities, both in its social and moral

Mr. W. ouncluded by giving a delineation of "an hotel scene." This was really good, especially the waiter from the Emerald lale, who was by no means a male so one, as far as his master was concerned. "In send Outs" were no doubt delineated as they are in reality. The character of the "Yankee," which occurred in the covers of the evening, showed that Mr. W. The High-lander is being sefitted, and will soon be ready for the RESTING PLACE FOR THE DEAD, -By an adve RESTING PLACE FOR THE DEAD.—By an advertisement in this day's paper, it will be seen that Mr. Sisson offers his beautifully situated property for sale. Observing the many complaints made lately, through the Press, of the burying of the bouse of the dead, which were removed rom the graves in the Burying Grounds to give place for new interments, also the chauce of a visit of the plagu from the cramming of five or six coffins over each othe leaving barely sufficient earth to cover the uppermost, we consider it high time for our Corporation to take the measures necessary to put a stop to further interments within the after limits.

Ruiss,-There is a general exclai with the ruins of the Parliament House 11. The fact is, the place is exceedingly dangerous at present. We are the more called upon to make this expostulation with those who have care of the lives of our fellow-citizens in some measure, when we recoilect that, within the lisst fortnight, about a dozen unfortunate victims have perished benefit for the property of the control of th ruins. But if the ruins fall to pieces in the meantime, who are the parties in fault † Surely not those who have who are the parties in fault? Surely not those who have called upon us to make these remarks. Again, in an opposite direction of the town, Donegana's Botel nods over the head of the passenger, while the falling tin and sheet iron is loosened by every gale. We call upon the Corporation not to lose sight of these things, because they are things of importance, things that vitally concern the lives of others, as well as their own. Let us hope that the recent catastrophe in New York will serve as a warning to the Public Authorities of Montreal.

Councillor Atwater observed that the house of Mr. Walson was his own, and therefore being his own, he sould not courselve what right the Corporation had to interfere with a building intended for the purposes of his business, which was a lawful avocation and trade. He wished that the nuisance be removed, but agreed in opinion with Mr. Whillaw, that the Corporation had assumed too much in this instance.

Dr. Hall said he was resolved he would not trouble the City Council with any further arguments on this subject; he had sireadly appressed his opinion at a previous meeting. He would now repeat, that the City Council with may further arguments on this without delaying the question any longer. It had been too long delayed.

CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE greet and decided success which has attended this institution has induced the Directors to REDUCE the RATES originally required in Settist North America to the ordinary Rurogean Rates. The result of such laduction is to enable parties to avail themselves of the important benefits of Life Assurance at much lower Rates of Premium than those of any other Assurance Company transacting business in Canada. The Birectors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been as highly approved and are agenerally adopted by Policy Holders in the United Ringdom. The most theret conditions are likewise offered to "be Assured in the limits to which have been so the end to the parties of North America without affecting their Interest in their Lespective Policies.

CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY is established upon the surely medual gaten, with a Taniff of Premiums saleys as in justifiable with the permanence and security of an Institution of this character. Every person taking out a Policy is I a memben, and entated to vote at the Annual Meetings The Dividende are declared annually on the 3tst Jamuny. All persons insuring previous to that day, participate in the profits of that year, which are passed to his credit upon the books of the Company; to be paid during the life of the insured, in the order of rotation, from the excess of a capital of profits having, been obtained, the Directon will be authorized to pay the first year's Dividends at the close of the present fiscal year; afterwards, each year's Dividends, in regular order, will be redeemed, as the funds of the Institution exceed the above two hundred thousand dollars. It is supposed that each person will be required to pay three annual Premiums before his Dividends will be redeemed. This feature in the conditions of this Company, over those who do not redeem or pay the Dividends will the death of the insured, is peculiarly favorable to the member, as the redemption of Dividends will assist in the payment of the Annual Premiums.

The assured, or surreader of his Policy, at any time after three years, will receive its equitable value. All Premiums amounting to fifty dollars, or more, on Policies running five years or longer, may be paid one half by Note; to remain a debt on the Policy, until cancelled by Dividends; or the Policy becomes a claim.

This Company was organized in December, 1846, and its prosperity has hitherto been unparalleled. It is now in the third fiscal year of its existence; and numbers (October, 1949) nearly some armound of the produced with the numbers which might have an expected, according to the Tables of Mortality upon which Life Insurance is predicated. By unparalleled success in business, and a strict economy in the administration of its affairs, larger Dividends have been General Agent for the B. R. A. Coomer.

THE Advantages offered to the Public by this Institution are MANY and IMPORTANT, and the fixies of Premium quite us LOW as security to the Assured, and asfety to the Office, will selmit of.

The following are some of the advantages offered by this Society:

The peculiar Benefits secured to the Assured by the principle of the LOAN Department.

One half of the Premium for the first five years may be paid by the Assured was Notes. These Notes need not be paid, but may semain on Interest, to be deducted from the Policy on the death of the Assured.

Insurers can at all times demand, as a right, a Loan to the extent of two-thirds the amount of Insurers can at all times demand, as a right, a Loan to the extent of two-thirds the amount of Premium they have paid—upon deposit of their Policy, and guaranteeing it will be kept in force. This important advantage removes the fear so many entertain of being obliged, through pocuniary embarraments, to let their Policies lapse, and at a tithe such a provision is absolutely needed for their families.

No Charge for Stamp Duty, nor for Medical Examination.
