W. H. SHAW. President. W. T. ROGERS,

There are few little villages in Ontario as charminuly situated as yndhurst. In the heart of the village here is a water fall that supplies an abundance of power to the mills located on either bank of the stream. Above the falls, placid water in a winding channel leads to the Lower Beverley Lake; below, the channel leads to the far famed fishing grounds of the Red Horse. Ozone-breathing pines crown the adjacent hills, and between and beyond these are fine agricultural lands tilled, in many cases, by descendants of U. E. Loyalists and by those whose parents thought of the British Isles en they spoke of "home."

Lyndhurst contains a number of fine esidences and many neat, well kept homes, all of which attest to the love and loyalty the people have for their

Is t was amidst these pleasant sur-roundings that the loyal Orangemen of Lyndhurst and vicinity celebrated the Battle of the Boyne on Thursday last, and with Mr. R. G. Harvey as Direc tor of Ceremonies, assisted by very energetic committees, the event was a marked success.

The visiting lodges on arrival were escorted to the agricultural grounds by the Lyndhurst Brass Band, which discoursed fine music during the day.

Dinner was arranged in Agricultural Hall, and the feast of good things was served in a very efficient and pleasing way by a competent staff of waiters. Indeed, so well managed and orderly was this service that it brought forth tavorable comment from many of the visitors.

Immediately after dinner, a process ion was formed with the following odges in line :-

After the parade the lodges returned to the grounds and broke ranks in front of a platform that had been erected in the shade of a group of giant elms. On this platform there speedily assembled Rev. J. A. McDonald of Morton, Rev. E. W. Crane of Elgin, Rev. Thomas Meredith of Seeley's Bay, Rev. R. B. Patterson of Athens, Rev. W. Fitz-gerald of Lyndhurst, Mr. Andrew Grey of Morton, Mr. A. W. Mr. Taylor had been kept busy since arriving on the ground in meeting and greeting old friends, and it was evident that a warm per-sonal friendship as well as a loyal political attachment existed between the member for South Leeds and very many in that large assemblage. the unity and enterprise of the citizens of Lyndhurst exceed that of many larger centres, and lately the people have been considering the feasibility of building granolithic walks. The municipality of Rear Leeds and Lansdowne very generously encouraged their am bition in this respect by offering special grant. It was in pursuance of this object that a highly successful dramatic performance was given last winter, and this end was also had in view when the decision was made to hold a 12th of July celebration. Mr. Geo. Taylor, M. P., testified his

For the devotees of rod and gun the Georgian bay district holds out unlimit ed attractions. Fish are plentiful in the bays and inlets throughout this wast ex-panse of water and the rivers and streams which empty into the water way teem with several varieties of the me my of the finny tribe, among them ing black bass, pickerel, muskellunge, whitefish, speckled trout, lake trout and salmon trout. Many of the smaller stretches of water, including the iakes inland a few miles from several points on the steamer's route, are well stocked and, to the angler who wishes to rough it canital sport is assured. For the hunit capital sport is assured. For the hun-ter during the open seasons deer, bear, muskrat, duck, partridge, geese and pig-eon are found in abundance, and the region throughout may be called the rich-est game land on the continent. From Slide Bay, near Sans Souci, the hunter or angler can reach the Muskoka lakes or angler can reach the Muskoka lakes with ease by covering sixteen lakes with several portages, the longest of which is one mile, the others ranging from ten to 100 yards.

The word "Temagami' is derived from the Indian word "temagagmingue," and means "deep water," and is applied to a magnificent territory in New Ontario that embraces all the attractions that are sought after by the canoeist townist. are sought after by the canoeist, tourist angler and hunter. It is, comparatively speaking a region known only to a few who have been fortunate end traverse the district under adverse cir-cumstances, owing to the difficulty ex-perienced in reaching its confines. This, however, has been overcome by the building of a new railway through the heart of this grand territory, opening up the way for the summer visitors who are looking for new fields to explore and to the lover of nature and outdoor re-

Without a personal visit to "Tema. gami" no one has any idea of the am-ount of pleasure that is expressed in this one word and versatile language is not subtle enough to impart an adequate description of its natural beauties and the story of its fourteen hundred odd islands in Lake Temagami, the principal lake of the district, and its thousand and one smaller lakes within a comparatively small area, holding forth unlimited attractions to the canoeist and lover of rod and gun. The Temagami region is a forest reserve under control of the On-tario Government and covers an area of 1,400,000 acres. It is a land of lakes and rivers, incomparable in natural beauty, and scenery, with its heavily wooded forests, its cathedral pines, whispering health and strange sweet music.

This region is a part of Canada that a few years ago was visited only by the Indians and the Hudson Bay Company's war canoes, and which to-day is visited by dozens of college students and others who have heard of its attractions, though it is still the same untouched each it is still the same untouched and unin-habited wilderness, with the addition that all the necessary accessories are at hand in the locality to make a trip of any length with comfort. This form of vacation is typically Canadian. No other civilized country has a great north-woods, combined with lakes and rivers, where the lover of nature can study her unadorned loveliness in all its grandeur The shores of the mainland around the lakes are high and rocky and thickly wooded, while the islands in the larger wooded, while the islands in the large lakes are covered with dense foliage to the water's edge. Of the two principle bodies of water Lake Tamagami is the largest and covers an area of about 100 square miles, with a shore line of nearly aquare miles, with a shore line of nearly 3,000 miles. It is dotted with islands of all proportions from the tiny one bearing a single cedar to those of hundreds of acres in extent. The lake is of a peculiar shape and by a glance at the map one will observe it in the form of an octopus with arms branching out in all directions. The coast line runs into innumerable bays and inlets, all biding in their seclusion views of charming wonder and delight. The water of these is cold and pure and so translucent that objects can be seen plainly at a depth of from thirty to forty feet. Though 300 miles due north of Toronto, the weather during the day is warm and balmy, with little rain, and the nights pleasantly cool for sleeping. When the day's work of fishing and paddling is over and the pipes lighted around a cozy camp fire it just begins to dawn on one that, after all, the chase for filthy lurge is not the only motive in life and lucre is not the only motive in life and that there are two sides to every ques-

The fishing grounds in close contiguity to the Muskoka lakes proper and within a distance of from five to ten miles are of the best in this northern country and excellent sport may be had if the an-gler cares to look for it. Near Beaugler cares to look for it. Near Beaumaris, on Lake Muskoka, there is a very good fishing in Brandy Lake, three miles black bass running from one to four pounds and pickerel from six to twenty ounds. Leonard lake, two miles, goo fishing—same species as found in Brandy lake. Near Banesdale, on Lake Joseph, there is excellent fishing on Kah-Pee-Gog and Six-Mile lakes, as well as half dozen small lakes in the same vicinity the fish caught here are chiefly bass and pickerel. A party left Barnesdale last summer for Six-Mile lake; their catch was a pike weighing twenty-two pounds and a heavy string of black bass running from four to six and a half pounds. At Six-Mile lake there is a small house where tourists can be accommodated at reasonable rates and where guides can be secured. In close proximity to Gor-don bay, on Yake Joseph, there are a number of lakes affording very good number of lakes affording very good fishing within a radius of from three to ten miles. Near this place there is a cluster of small lakes which, in addition to the celebrated Blackstone and Cranlakes, are noted for their abundance of fish, known as Portage lake, Clear lake Silver lake, Long lake and several oth ers. These lakes are easily accessible by wagon road or can be reached by series of short portages. Bass, pickerel and salmon trout are very numerous and excellent sport is assured to the persevering angler. Near Rosseau, on Lake Rosseau, there are three lakes which can be crached by portage from Roseau, a distance of about three miles, with port-ages of 200 yards. These are lakes in which bass and salmon trout are abundant. Sucker lake and Watson lake fine bass fishing. THE CLEARNESS OF WATER

Characteristics Which May Be Modified by a Number of Things.

A scientist in the Department of Agriculture gives some interesting facts with reference to the color of water.

The fact is generally known that pure wate rappears blue when light is transmitted through a sufficient thickness of it, and that when opaque particles are suspended in it the hue of the water is greenish. But, while pure water looks blue when light passes freely through it, yet when it is contained in a deep, opaque receptacle, like the basin of a lake or the ocean, it ought to absorb all light and look black. Experience shows, however, that the deepest parts of the Mediterranean, for instance, appear not black, but intensely blue. This has been supposed to be caused by minute particles held in suspension, but the re-cent experience of the scientist quoted suggests a different explanation.

He has found that warmer currents passing through pure water interrupt its transparency, even when the difference of temperature is very slight. Such of temperature is very slight. Such currents may cause deep water to appear blue by reflecting light back from its depths through the transparent layers above. This, it is suggested, explains the fact that fresh water lakes are more transparent in winter than in summer, because in winter currents of heated water are not transparent. heated water are not traversnig them. Even the shadow of a mountain falling on a lake may increase the transparency of the water by cooling the surface.

What Is a Gentleman?

Among the Persians at the time of Cyrus the boys were taught to ride, to speak the truth and to draw the bow. That meant manliness, truthfulness and courage, all essential to the character of a gentleman. The knights of chivalry, who were the gentlemen of their time, added the duty of rescuing the oppressed and distressed and this completed the eal by teaching unselfishness and vice. If a boy is taught to be always self-respecting, courageous and truthful and invariably considerate, not outwardy but as the expression of true kindli ness of spirit, of the rights and feeling of others he will grow up, whether h be rich or poor, a professional man or a laborer, to have the right to claim not by any artificial distinction but in his own right, with all that it implies, "the grand old name of gentleman."— Washington Post.

The Negro in the North

Forty years ago there were 350,000 negroes in the Northern States; to-day there are 1,000,000. Then 7.8 per cent. of the total number of negroes in the country lived in the north; now more than 10.3 per cent. live here. This fact is the more significant when it is reis the more significant when it is remembered that the negro does not flourish in the north. The bith rate here barely equals the death rate. Our increasing black population wasborn south of the line; it has migrated hither. Last winter Virginia found itself forced to invite laborers from abroad. Two-thirds of the counties of thas State have decreased in colored population since 1880. The soil of Virginia is going out of cultivation because of the lack of labor.— Philadelphia Ledger.

Two million children are born in on year, and yet as many as 400,000 die before one year old, making the rate for the German Empire 200. In pretty Mun-ich, where it would seem that conditions are favorable for public hygiene, the death rate has been as high as 419, an average of 324 in 1.000.

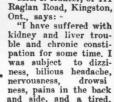

Our own country makes little better cord, for in the district of Columbia Our the record in 1900 was over 275, other States being a little lower, but still too high. In Massachusetts eight cities averaged 186 to 304, and New York was about 159, almost all the New England States being higher.

From various British reports it is learned that improper feeding is the prime cause of the great mortality among infants under one year of age, and in a German record of investigation the statement is made that of the 4,075 deaths of infants which occurred in Munich in the year 1903, 3,395 were bottle-fed, which would show conclusively that artificial feeding has its very erious side largely because of the clean" milk given.

The Market Short of Long Gloves. The situation in the kid glove market is conceded on all sides to be the worst experienced since modern fashions denanded the universal use of kid gloves The scarcity of long gloves is the cause, and buyers are expecting another year of big business in these lengths. Skins have advanced in price and are not likely to again be as low as formerly. In many cases it is said that the increase ints to 70 and even as high as 90 per cent. over last year's prices. The torm centre at present, however, is over fabric gloves. No orders can be taken by manufacturers, importers or jobbers for long silk gloves during the next ninety days. The buyers of both kid and fabric gloves are at their wits' endy and in many cases unable to cope with the situation. Already some of the do mestic manufacturers are accepting or ders on fabric gloves for spring delivery of 1907 at advanced prices. Meanwhile it is evident that many pretty, well-manicured feminine hands and shapely arms will have to go gloveless .- Dry Goods Guide.

The Lights of London in A. D. 1906. The decision to use gas instead of the the new station at victoria marks another stage in the duel between the two illuminants. Few of us, perhaps, realize how long that duel has been in progress. It is nearly fifty years since the are light was used in the building of Westminster Bridge; it is nearly thirty years since it first illuminated Waterloo Bridge and the melody and a happy light danced in their weary eyes, and the pothe new station at Victoria marks ana portion of the Embankment and the entrance of the Gaiety Theatre. Since those early days it has passed through man ystages of improvement, but at each of them it has been met by a corresponding improvement in gas lighting, and it has had a hard struggle to keep a place in London streets. Apparently even the rosy glow of the "flaming" 'arc fails to illuminate the atmosphere of darkest London as successfully as pressure gas; and it is more even ive and it is more expensive.

But if electricity cannot hold its own in the lighting of large open spaces in London, there is a steadily widening field for it indoors. BIGGEST PILE OF SAW ST. Refuse of Michigan Mill for Thirty Years Covers Twelve Acres.

Probably the largest sawdust pile the world is the one at Cheboygan, Mich. This is the product of one mill. The mill being run by water power had no way of disposing of its sawdust. The company was not permitted to dump it into the river, and for a few years an attempt was made to burn it. There was so much smoke that the vil lage passed an ordinance prohibiting that form of destruction. As a consequence it was simply hauled out into a years of its growth has acquired mon-strous proportoins. It is a hill, 1,080 feet long, 875 feet wide and ranges from twenty to thirty feet in height.

The hill covers some tweeve acres. It is almost entirely white and Norway pine sawdust, because this mill did not cut hemlock, except for the last two or three years before it was closed down. The pile is undoubtedly rotting a little at the bottom, but it is well preserved and bright when it is dug into. The top and sides having crusted over form a protection for the sawdust underneath. In its present state it contains rather too much moisture to admit of being used for fuel without treatment by some process of drying.

A number of chemists have examined it with a view to extracting the chemicals which it contanis, but as yet nothing has been done in this direction.

There is no question that it has a coneiderable chemical value, and probably the time will come when someone will find a way of working it up profitably.

MUSIC IN THE PARKS.

The scene was Tompkins Square Park during one of the weekly band concerts. danced in their weary eyes, and the po-licemen folded their arms and listened with satisfaction. There was nothing else for them to do. In that big crowd of listeners almost every nationality was represented. There were Germans, Italians, Hebrews, Russians, Hungarians, and even a Chinaman or two, but al were under the spell of the music, for melody's language is universal and requires no interpreter.

The power of music was shown here as never before. It aroused sunken and as never before. It aroused sunken and depressed spirits; it gave new life to the disheartened and discouraged; it held the attention of the unruly and rough element and soothed the weary. And when the concert was over the crowd went homeward with lighter hearts than they had had for many a day.

Said a policeman and a philosopher:
"The good these concerts do cannot be reckoned in money. They are better than talks and addresses and schools in that talks and addresses and schools in that they reach every one, young and old, and influence for good so quickly. Do you know on the nights that the concerts take place we have really nothing to do to speak of. The music seems to have such a refined and elevating influence on everybody that the police can really take a night off in the precinct. Of course, on the fringe of the crowd there are some mischievous boys always, lut when the band strikes up a popular melody even the youngston forget about their mischievousness and become spell-bound. It is stated that the estimate of the money needed by the Russian Government for aid to the famine-stricken provinces would amount to nearly $40,000,on this year. The peasants are starying partly in consequence of lack of land to cultivate, partly because of specially bad crops this year. Meanwhile the rent of land is steadily rising. According to the latest report of the Peasants' Bank the average rent per desiatin rose in twelve years from 39 rubles to 108 rubles. No wonder that the cry of the peasants is for "land and liberty." For obvious reasons it was natural that the Spanish should be anxious to secure the bomb which did not explode when thrown at the royal cople.

There was a reason behind the desire to nip in the bud chance of further damage. There is an unwritten law in the reigning houses of Europe, says the London Standard, that all relicts of attempts upon royal livos, as well as the instruments used for treating the wounds caused in such attempts, shall be destroyed. There was a solemn assembly in Geneva of Austro-Hungarian officials to witness which caused the death of Empress Elizabeth and of the surgical implements used in making the post-mortem examination. The custom is based to a certain upon superstition, but more solidly upon the determination to prevent the relics from falling into the hands of exhibitors of such tragic trifles.

The custom in this matter once was to grind to pieces the weapon which had been employed. When, however, the dagger was secured with which Martin Merino attempted to murder Queen Isabelia of Spain, rather more than half a century ago, the blade was found to be of such finely tempered steel that it resisted every effort of file and stone. Something like a panic was caused when the news got abroad. The Spanish peasan's imagined that there must ben magte in the blade. So a Cabinet was specially summoned to deal with the crisis, and it was determined to submit the steel to the influence of acids. This proving successed, all im-

The Land of the Rising Sun might more appropriately be described as the Land of Surprises, for certainly this century has witnessed more shocks given to the complacency of Western nations by Japan than were dreamed of by her most sanguine admirers. The latest surprise from the Island Empire is a notice to the Methodist Churches that present divisions will not be tolerated, and that differences of polity of creed must yield to the matter has United States churches carrying on points that must seem futile to people viewing the question dispassionately revented serious progress from being nade. The American Methodist Episopalians wish to retain their while the Canadians do not favor bishops. Other difficulties of no greater value also exist. The Methodists of Japan now insist that these shall be othed over without delay, and this that if their wishes are not complied with they will assert their own independence and carry out a Japanese scheme of union. No threat has been made, and none is intended, but there can be no other meaning to the representations made by Japanese Methodists to the churches in America. The visit of Dr. Carman and meeting of the Committee on Methodist Union in Japan was solely to disgentlemen are thoroughly seized of the present state of feeling in Japan, and its abhorrence of anything like foreign tutelage, and that it is reasonable to suppose that means of meeting the wishes of their fellow-Methodists in Japan would be promptly devised and

LIGHT WHEAT CROP

"The world's wheat crop this year will be at least from 200,000,000 to 250,000,000 hushels less than last year." was the estimate made yesterday by Mr. R. R. Dobell, manager of the Carling department of the Original Flower foreign department of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Limited, who has just re-turned from a two month's trip abroad in the interests of his company.

Referring to European crop conditions, Mr. Dobell stated that they showed very mixed prospects. While several important counties would have better yields than last year, India was estimated as only likely to ship 40,000,000 bushels of wheat or about half her last year's export figures. As India's wheat export forms a large proportion of Great Britain's mill supply, the shortage will be felt severely, consequently a liberal quantity will have to be garnered elsewhere in order to make up the deficiency.

"With respect to Russia," added Mr. Dobell, 'the reports, as is natural with so vast a country, are varied. While in Britain I saw reports from the Volga districts, saying the seed had failed to germinate, which foreshadows that suffering and famine in this section will be rampant. In Southwestern Russia harvesting is reported to be progressing under favorable conditions.

and the prospects point to good crops," While ridiculed by many, he stated that the belief, however, was enter-tained by conservative people that the possibility existed of the Russian Government prohibiting the export of wheat, especially if the sufferings from famine reached an acute stage. In any case, the crops in the southeast, east and centre of Russia would be a year regions falling of the contract of the suffering falling fallin show a very serious falling off from those of recent years. In Roumania the crop is estimated at fully 40 per cent under that of last year.

It was therefore quite evident that America would be more the dictator of prices than had been the case in most recent years. Germany, Mr. Dobell proceeded to say, would likely garner an excellent crop, and considerably in excess of last year, the production having received an impetus by increased duties levied to protect the agricultural classes. From Spain, which country suffered so severely last year from bad crops, came reports to the effect that the outlook was excellent, and both France and Italy were expected to harvest crops at least equal to those of last

He likewise observed that stocks generally of wheat and flour in the foreign markets were light, and the general opinion was that higher prices were likely to rule in the near future. "What about the British Islea?" he vas asked. "The crops in Great Britain are good average," said he. "Public sen-timent towards Canada is exceedingly favorable, and the disposition, is general to turn all possible business in this direction."

Food Value of Cheese

Good cheese, properly ripened is, says J. A. Ruddick, Dairy Commissioner, a very natritious and easily digested tood. One pound of it is said to con tain as much nutriment as 21 pound of beef. Floshmaking Food.

Cream gruel, according to an eminent English authority, is the ideal nourishment for thin folk. A teacupful taken at night immediately before refring is said to give marvelous results. To be at its best it must be perfectly made, then thinned with sweet cream. Taken in that condition and warm, it is agreeable as well as fattening and produces just that sense of satisfied bunger essential to ideal rest. It is claimed that perseverance in the treatment yields such apparent results that the cheeks can be seen to expand from day to day.

The pepper vine grows best in a wooded valley where there is plenty of moisture and abundant foliage to proect it from the heat of the sun. It is eiven a rude sort of cultivation. The growers plant it, keeping the grass from its roots, and when the tree near which it is planted has no lower branches strings or poles are placed in proper position to enable the vine to climb the tree. On another eccasion I went to see a young buffale which had been killed by a tiger and found the same thing had happened. There were similar marks der, which clearly indicated that this animal had been killed in the same way. Malays who have actually seen a tiger idling a buffalo told me they saw the same thing happen; also that in dragging off a heavy careass, such as busialo or bull, he gets most of the weight across his shoulder. This must be fairly correct, as I have often followed a kill, and the marks left indicate that only a portion of the animal was trailing along the ground. I have known a full grown ground. I have known a rest grown bull, which ten men could not move, dragged for two miles by a tiger in a beavy jungle, where roots of trees and swamp had to be gone through. In no case have I seen the pug marks facing the wrong way except when stopping to feed, which proves he must corry a game by a blow from his paw is non-sense; besides, in India a tiger never faces his prey, but attacks him on the flank unless charged. Another eurious fact that may seem very like a fakry tale is that a tiger does not seem to mind a small lamp being tied over a hill about ten foot high, but will come and food. I have known three cone sions when this has been tried, each time a tiger has come to upon the careass.—London Field.

II. A parable on humility (vs. 7-11) 11. A parable on number (vs. 1-11).
7. A parable—The selfish struggle for precedence as they were taking their places at the table gave Jesus an opportunity to teach a lesson in humility. When he marked—Nothing escapes the eyes of the Lord. How they chose out— To take the highest place when it is not our due is public vanity; to obstinately refuse it when offered is another in-stance of the same vizz, though private and concealed. Humility takes as much care to avoid the ostentation of an affected refusal as the open seeking of a superior place.—Clarks. The chief rooms—the chief seat—R. V. The guests re-

10. In the lowest room, —The high place was ocupied very briefly; the lowest place was permanent." No shame attaches to the one who takes a low place. Go up higher—The way to rise s to begin low. What Christ command Himself did. He humbled Himself in His birth, in His life and in His death. Then shalt thou have worship glory."—R. V. Have reverence, respect and honor in the presence of the com-pany. 11. Whosoever exalteth, etc. —Now follows the great principle illustrated by this parable. "Humility is the passport to promotion in the kingdom of God." The one who is proud and seeks to be

The one who is proud and seeks to be honored above others, shall be abased, or humbled, both by God and man.

III. A lesson on our duty to the poor (vs. 12-14). 12. Call not thy friends—
The second parable is to the host. "It is a sharp rebuke on account of a fault which is almost always committed in the choice of grests"—Large. Our the choice of guests."—Lange. Our Lord certainly does not mean that alman shall not entertain his friends, but what He inculcates here is charity to what He inculcates here is charity to the poor, and what He condemns is those entertainments which are given to the rich, either to flatter them or to procure a similar return. —Clarke, Nor thy rich neighbors—He that giveth to the rich shall surely come to want (Prov. xxii. 16.) Give to thy friends, but let it be to thy poor friends, not to those who need thee not.

13. Call the poor—Feasts to the poor are not forbidden. He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord. "What the Saviour here commends to others He has Himself fulfilled in the most illustrious." manner. To the feast in the kingdom o of God he has invited the poor, the blind, etc., in the spiritual sense of the words." 14. Shall be blessed—The poor who have been fed will bless thee, and so will the Lord. You will be conscious of having acted unselfishly. Resurrection of the just—There is to be a future state, we are all hastening on toward the resurrection. At the time God will reward those who have done good, for His sake, without the hope of any earth-

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS.

The heart of this lesson is the crowning grace, humility. We see Jesus sitting in the Parisee's house and teaching this important truth.

this important truth.

I. Humility commended — "Sit not down in the highest room, sit down in the lowest room" (vs. 8, 10), "Humble yourself therefore under the mighty hand of God" (1 Pet. v. 6), The command is clear: humble yourself. Take every opportunity of humbling yourself before God and man.

II. Humility commended. "Friend, go up higher" (v. 0). "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted" (v. 11). It is said that when Senator Bruce, the colsippi, was about to proceed to little corned beef.

Washington to take his place in the Sen-ate, the captain of a Mississippi steam-boat said that if Mr. Bruce travelled by boat said that if Mr. Bruce travelled by his boat, and put on any airs, there would be trouble. Senator Bruce did travel by that boat, and the first opportunity went to the captain, and said. "Captain, I am going a part of my journey on your steamboat, and I want my trip to be as agreeable to you as it can be; therefore, if you will assign me that place on the boat where my people usually are located, and give me a place usually are located, and give me a place at the table where the colored people get their meals, I shall be much obliged to you." "When he said that," said the

aptain, "and as modestly and politely as ever a man spoke to me in my life, I looked at him for a moment, and then riocked at him for a moment, and then seized him by the arm, and said: 'Come with he; there is nothing on my boat too good for you, sir, and I insist that you shall sit with me at my own table at meal hours.'"

III. Humility complete. "When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends...nor thy rich neighbors... call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind" (vs. 12, 13). He who fulfils this injunction is learning the lesson of com-plete humility. What a revolution would come to society if Christ's rules of eti-quette were followed, and the commands of Him who spake as never man spake were obeyed by His own. "Whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple" (v. 33). Count the cost, then, not of your next party to which you propose to invite the rich, great, popular and influential in the church and world, but count the cost of becoming a real disciple of Christ; count the cost of being with Christ against a frowning world; count the cost of becoming a fool with Christ and for His sake;; count the cost of breaking with those who can recompense you in this world.

IV. Humility crowned. "Shalt be blessed, shalt be recompensed," (v. 14). The ed...shalt be recompensed" (v. 14). The first beatitude promises the kingdom of heaven to the poor in spirit, and the third beatitude declares that the meek third beatitude declares that the meek shall inherit the earth (Matt. v. 3, 5). When Jesus comes, God's best in heaven and on earth shall be given to those who have followed the Lamb, the meek and

THREE MEN MEET DEATH.

Were Blown to Pieces by Dynamite Explosion.

Three Others Fatally Huri and Others Badly Hurt.

Chicago, July 16.-Three men were olown to pieces, three others fatally injured, and several others badly hurt, by an explosion early to-day, which wreck ed a shanty in the McLaughlin stone quarries, at Bellwood, a short distance north-west of Chicago.

There is evidence that the explosion was the result of a plot on the part of persons at present unknown to the po-lice. The dynamite shed of the quarry which is at a considerable distance from the shanty, which was blown up, was broken open and dynamite carried to the building in which a number of laborers were sleeping, and exploded beneath the structure. The survivors all declare that there was no dynamite around their shanty when they retired for the night, The explosion aroused the residents for several miles around, and shattered many panes of glass a mile away from the quarry.

All the men killed and injured were Greek and Italian laborers.

That his estate is so small is due to the fact that not long before his death he sold $400,000 of his life insurance that is, took the cash surrender value— and sold his fine estate at Long Branch at a great sacrifice. This he did to fulfill his pledge to the trustees of the New York Life Insurance Co., that he would personally make good any money of the company which he had paid to Andrew Hamilton and which the latter was unable to account for. Following this promise, he paid over to the company $235,000. About $60,000 of this re presented the money received for his

The appraisement shows that Mr. McCall left no real estate. The entire personal property amounts to $74,000, from which debts, administration expenses and other disbursements, amounting to $33,165, are deducted, leaving $40,835.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for chronic kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case."

When a security is "closely held" it follows necessarily that its market is restricted; when many securities are "closely held" the entire market becomes narrow," and brokers complain because there is little business td do. The effect upon the stock market would be the result of an inability safely or expeditionsly to transfer the valuable certificates, or to realize on valuable certificates, or to realize on them the share of earnings to which they are entitled at stated periods. Hence, what may be termed the me-chanical element in the exchange of stocks and bonds and in the liquida-tion of corporate indebtedness is quite as important as the sentimental, even if there is no expressman driving up

To the individual investor, even if his fortune runs up into some of the fig-ures that big fortunes reach nowadays, coupon clipping does not mean, of course, any more arduous labor than he may be deemed willing to perform in view of the return. But in some of the great investing institutions, like the life insurance companies, for example, the process is a more serious one. For instance, a force of six employees is detailed in the office of the Mutual Life, where coupons worth a matter of $1,200,000 will be cashed on the first day of July. The Mutual has approximately $50,000,000, face value, of its $190,000,000 of bonds, on which the interest falls due on the first of January and the first of July—which means that 50,000 coupons have to be clipped off and counted and sorted out into the

The safe deposit companies, with their great vaults defended by steel bars innumerable, to which access is possible only after an elaborate line of formalities has been gone through, are, of course, among the show places of the street. So are some of the vaults which the banks and insurance companies maintain, and to the intimate visitor at a banking house which ner door of the vault, no matter who he may be.

Once the vault is open the bonds are taken by boxes, checked and counted, and then distributed to the coupon cutters at the table. The actual work of clipping is done not with a pair of scissors, but with a little metal square so constructed that it will fit down over a given coupon and allow it to be torn constructed that it will fit down over a given coupon and allow it to be torn off without disturbing its next neighbor, which becomes itself a thing of value at the end of six months. When one has become expert at the job he can tear off the coupon by a single motion of the hand. The coupons, separated, are counted and then go into bundles for collection. Meantime the bonds themselves are counted again, packed away in the great vault, to be taken out for the next ime, perhaps, when an annual ex-amination of the company is in pro-

Whether there is as much red tape Whether there is as much red taps about this as about the coupon clipping process depends upon who is making the examination. Expert accountants make a point of counting every bond and then of sealing up the boxes in which they are kept until the examination is over. Witnesses told the grand jury which has been investigating insurance matters. witnesses told the grand jury which has been investigating insurance matters lately that when a western insurance commissioner came here to make an ex-amination on a certain occasion, he ask-ed an officer of the company how many bonds the Mutual had, counted the num-ber in one of the boxes, computed the number of boxes to a square yard of space in the vault, measured the vault with a foot rule, and finally, after a ciphering, announced that he guessed the company had the bonds all right.

Missouri Prison Made Goods. It is said that Missouri manufactures

It is said that Missouri manufactures more prison made goods of two or three classes than any other State in the union. These are shoes, saddletrees and cheap clothing. Nearly 1,500 convicts are employed in these shops.

The manufacture of saddletrees by convict labor has been going on for the last thirty years. It is stated that few of these saddletrees have ever been sold in Missouri.
